Texas A&M marches off to war

Bob Anderson was a 17 year old student at Texas A&M when the Japanese attacked Pearl Harbor on Dec. 7, 1941. He, like most of his classmates, volunteered for service.

"There were about 6,000 of us in my class; only about 600 were left in January 1942 - all of the rest of us volunteered to fight," said Anderson.

The Army sent Anderson back to A&M to complete some of his courses, then he reported to Camp McCall, N.C.

"They told us that we had volunteered for Airborne," said Anderson. At Fort McCall, Anderson was trained as a glider pilot. Anderson remembers his training at Fort McCall as an enjoyable experience.

"Actually, it was great fun for an 18 year old to play with real guns and to fly in an airplane," he joked.

Anderson fondly remembers the friends he made there. "At Christmas, they let the fellows who lived close to the camp go home to visit with their families. Because I was from Texas, I had to stay there. One Jewish fellow named Goldsmith offered to take my duty and give me his pass so that I could go home to spend Christmas with my family. I figured he needed to spend some time with his family, too, so I said 'no thanks,' but it shows the kind of great guys I was with," said Anderson.

One of the soldiers in Anderson's unit was "Mr. Fiddling Slim" Messer, who was a star on the Grand Ole Opry.

"When we shipped out, all of us were carrying more gear than we could handle. There was Messer on the dock with all of his Army gear and a bull fiddle, too. The reporters had a field day," said Anderson. Messer and his friends often entertained with songs and jokes.

The reality of actually being part of a war sunk in as Anderson was crossing the Atlantic on the way to France. He and his unit were part of a convoy crossing the Atlantic. General Quarters sounded one night, and all hands had to report topside. They stood in the freezing January night and listened to ships near them being struck by torpedoes from a German submarine. Knowing there was grave danger, the men could do nothing about it.

In France, the glider pilots waited to be called into action. They spent most of their time training, guarding prisoners of war, and doing other support tasks.

The gliders were designed to be used very near enemy lines. They were towed behind a C-47 until they were in flight. Then, the engineless craft would soar over enemy lines to do reconnaissance or to drop the pilot behind enemy lines for some important task.

"We were supposed to be in the Rhine crossing. We were all loaded up and we were waiting to go when we found out that Patton and his Third Army troops were already 10 miles ahead of where we were supposed to land," said Anderson.

Anderson vividly remembers watching the preparations for the last big bombing raid on Germany in World War II.

"The sky was covered; as far as we could see there were planes. As they flew over, some of them started peeling off in different directions to go to their various targets. I've never seen so many planes in all of my life," said Anderson.

It was frustrating for the glider pilots to spend months training and planning for perilous duty, and then to sit back and wait. They amused themselves by enjoying the sights of Europe.

"The French were glad to see us back then. We really enjoyed our stay in France. I took my family back to visit a few years ago, and it is different now," he added whistfully. Americans are no longer the liberating heroes they were in 1945.

Honorary parade marshals chosen

The Border Town Days Committee Monday announced its choice for the Honorary Parade Marshals for this year's celebration.

Named were Ed and Juanita Hardage, Truman Welch and Fred Chandler.

They were picked because of their contributions to Border Town Days over the years where they have supplied music at the gazebo. And Chandler has doubled as the annual master of ceremonies.

The four will ride in the July 30 BTD parade and also receive certificates of appreciation at the Day in the Park activities following the parade.

Also to be honored will be Pioneers of the Year. This award was begun three years ago. Honored so far have been Mitz Walling, Vashti Fowler, and Bill and Gertrude Foster.

Persons wishing to nominate Pioneers of the Year for the Texico - Farwell area are asked to fill out the blank next to this article and send it to: State Line Tribune, Box 255, Farwell, Texas 79325. The deadline for nominations is July 1.

The committee approved a new contest this year: an Ugly Car Contest.

Three years ago, Farwell Farm Supply began sponsoring an Ugly Pickup Contest. At last month's BTD committee meeting, Teresa Rose suggested a contest for yucky looking cars, too.

Miss Rose said Bill Roberts of Farwell Body Shop has agreed to sponsor an Ugly Car Contest and give a $25 cash award for the winning entry.

Chris Roach, chairman of the float committee, gave a very impressive report which will mean that this year's parade will be bigger and better than ever. Although it is still only early June, Mrs. Roach reported that nearly 50 units already have signed up.

Mrs. Roach said there is a good chance that Cannon Air Force Base may place a Chapparel missile firing system in the parade.

A complete update on all the parade entries will be carried in the Tribune later this month. Groups or persons wishing to be in the parade may sign up by calling the Tribune at 481-3681. The deadline is July 25.

It was again emphasized the importance of music in the parade. The Texico High Band will participate, principal Ken Shaw reported. Also, Gladys Hardage's caliope will be in it. Knights of Columbus members will try to get a band in the parade, too.

BTD Chairman Mike Pomper met Tuesday with Norris Samuelson, Farwell High band director, about the possibility of Farwell band members being in the parade, too. A decision will be made later this month.

As part of BTD this year, a fashion show will be held that night, July 30. It was reported that two surprise celebrities have agreed to appear at the show. More details will be announced later. Peggy Haseloff is in charge of the show.

Here's a rundown on BTD events:

- Groups wishing to reserve space for concession stands and booths for the Day in the Park activities are asked to call Cynthia Thigpen at 481-3620 days or 481-9355 nights. Booths for baked goods and homemade items are especially popular.

One area where there is an extra-special need is for ice cream. They usually sell out.

The booth fee is $10. So far, eight local groups have signed up.

- The Arts and Crafts Show will be set up on the front lawn of the courthouse. Spaces are available for $10 a booth. Spaces may be reserved by calling Janie Bowery at 481-9251 nights.

- Texico Mayor John R. Hadley will contact Waste Control of New Mexico to have large trash containers placed at the park during BTD and also to rent portable toilets.

In addition, Hadley is trying to get Miss New Mexico, a Clovis resident, to be in the BTD parade.

- The deadline for contestants signing up for the queen's contest is June 15. Scholarship funds of $200 will be given this year's winner. All girls in grades 9-12 next fall from Texico or Farwell are eligible.

To sign up, please contact one of the following committee members: Leigh Ann Woods, 481-9135; Michele Kirkland, 481-9180; Wynona Coates, 481-9092; Debbie Phillips, 825-2952; Maxine Shaw, 482-9970; Sharla Blanton, 481-9285; Dana Cooke, 482-3606 or Traci Autrey, 482-9225.

Application forms also are available at Berry & Kirkland, CPA, on Third Street in Farwell (across from the county courthouse).

- Farwell Farm Supply will sponsor the 3rd annual Ugly Pickup Contest with a $25 prize given the winner. Pickup owners must register with Floyd Coates at Farwell Farm Supply, across from Sherley-Anderson - Pitman grain elevator.

The registration deadline is July 28. Pickups will be driven in the parade.

- Farwell Body Shop will sponsor the 1st annual Ugly Car Contest with a $25 prize given the winner. Car owners must register with Bill Roberts at Farwell Body Shop, next to Dairy Queen.

The registration deadline is July 28. Cars will be driven in the parade.

- The Merchants Giveaway committee, chaired by Cara Mirabella, has met and is busy signing up merchants for the annual activity. One change this year: persons can fill out one entry per visit for the prizes to be given away.

- The Texico-Farwell Senior Citizens have agreed to man the registration table at the park.

- The next committee meeting will be at 8 p.m. July 11 at Luce's Restaurant. Normally, the committee meets the first Monday of each month but the first Monday is the Fourth of July.

Bicycle rodeo planned

A bicycle safety rodeo with lots of free goodies for the kids is scheduled from 10 a.m. to noon June 11 at the Farwell City Park.

The rodeo, sponsored by the Texico-Farwell Rotary Club with help from Beta Sigma Phi, is designed to have bicycles inspected and city registration stickers handed out.

Having a sticker will qualify youngsters for two free bicycles, donated by Farwell Hardware and Hughes Tru-Value. The winners of the bicycles' giveaway will be announced at Border Town Days.

Free hot dogs and Pepsi will be available at the rodeo. Youngsters will go through an obstacle course and participate in games.

Bicycles will also be ID'd to help prevent theft.

Pioneer Man and Woman of the Year

The Border Town Days Committee is sponsoring a contest to honor the Texico-Farwell area's Pioneer Man of the Year and Pioneer Woman of the Year. Persons will be honored during Border Town Days. (It's okay to nominate yourself.) The Criteria are:

1. When did he/she arrive in the Texico-Farwell area.
2. What were his/her contributions to the community.

Russia

If Afghanistan ends up with a neutral government, I don't think that's a problem for Russia. The Soviets can march back in any time they feel it's warranted. And whoever ends up running Afghanistan will know that the Russian Bear is watching; that leads to temperate decision-making (just ask the Finns).

Meanwhile, Gorbachev's reforms will go ahead. It will mean increased production within Russia: more goods for consumers; a spot more democracy. As for the long run, it's way too early to tell. Who knows, there may be a counter-revolution by the rightists.

As for us, we must never forget what Communism is and what its goal is. We must stay vigilant. We must always have the capability of destroying Russia if necessary - that is the only way to make sure we are not destroyed first.

Last week's article about

Neil Stewart said that he saw hardened criminals from Alcatraz being drilled by military personnel.

Neil corrected our error: he could see Alcatraz from where he was at, but the criminals were probably not from there. They were probably Marine and Navy personnel who had been arrested for infractions of the law.

Bagworms can be controlled

Bagworms are best controlled by insecticides in early June, says Parmer County extension agent for entomology Mike Blanton.

Insecticides include sevin, dursban, diazin, malathion, dylox and orthene. To obtain effective control, thorough coverage of the foliage is important, Blanton said. Adding a small amount of liquid soap or surfactant to the spray solution will help because it helps adhere the insecticide to the treated trees and shrubs.

The new regulations will carry out portions of the Agricultural Credit Act passed by Congress last December. "There will be a 30 day comment period and additional time for any appropriate changes before the regulations become effective," Futch said. One change would allow FmHA to reduce the delinquent debt of certain borrowers to help them stay in business. There are approximately 5,000 delinquent borrowers in Texas, many of whom should be assisted with this program once implemented.

Haseloff graduates

Major Robert Haseloff was one of 870 officers who graduated from Command and General Staff Officer Course at the U.S. Army Command and General Staff College at Ft. Leavenworth, Kan., on June 3. He is the son of Henry and Patti Haseloff of Farwell. The 10-month course prepares officers for duty as field grade commanders and principal staff officers at wing and higher echelons. Graduates will be able to command squadrons, wings and equivalent units in peacetime or wartime. The graduates will also be able to train units to accomplish their missions, employ and sustain weapon and equivalent systems in combined arms operations, serve as principal staff officers from A.R. division through Air Staff and as staff officers of major joint, unified or combined headquarters. Additionally, Major Haseloff was one of 47 officers who completed the Master of Military Art and Science degree programs, the only accredited degree of its kind in the United States. He will now go to Langley Air Force Base in Hampton, Va., as a contingency plans officer.

Price, Meeks recognized

Farwell graduate Tonya Price received a Governor's Recognition Award which was not announced at graduation. It arrived after graduation. Paul Meeks, 1988 graduate of Farwell High School, has been notified that he is the recipient of $4,000 in University Assistance at Liberty University in Lynchburg, Va.

Farmers to vote in FmHA election

Farmers in Parmer County will have an opportunity to choose one person from two candidates running for the Farmers Home Administration county committee in the June 30 election, FmHA County Supervisor Weldon Rainey said.

Any person who has an interest in a farm in the county as owner, tenant or sharecropper is considered a farmer and is eligible to vote, Rainey said. Spouses of eligible farmers also are considered farmers for voting eligibility.

Ballots for the election were published in the State Line Tribune, Friona Star, & Bovina Blade and also are available at the FmHA county office at 207 Ave. D., Farwell, Texas. If they cannot be returned to the county office in person, ballots may be mailed in, Rainey said.

Among other duties, county committees help determine whether an applicant is eligible for a FmHA farm loan. Two of the three members are elected by county farmers, and the third is appointed by FmHA.

REMEMBER THESE SAFETY TIPS

- Watch for power lines when climbing in trees.
- Do not climb electrical poles, towers or structures.
- Do not trim trees near power lines.
- Do not set ladders or scaffolds near power lines.
- Do not shoot at insulators on poles, towers or structures.
- Never climb on or go inside a substation fence. Call SPS to help you retrieve anything thrown into the substation or caught in its fence.
- Avoid using electrical tools like lawn mowers or hedge clippers when grass and leaves are wet.

- Be careful when digging. Call SPS to find out if there are any buried electrical lines in the area.
- Electrical cords should not be spliced or taped. Repair by shortening them or replace them entirely.
- Beware of exposed wires.
- Don't touch portable appliances (coffee makers, radios, hair dryers, etc.) with wet hands or while standing or sitting in water.
- Don't post signs on utility poles. A lineman hitting a nail with his cleat could slip and fall. Also, nails can snag protective gloves and destroy their insulation value.

Lazbuddie releases TEAMS results

In May, the Lazbuddie School Board heard the results of the state-mandated Texas Educational Assessment of Minimum Skills (TEAMS) which is given state-wide to students in grades 3, 5, 7, and 9 in February. Grade 11 students were tested in October and May.

School officials and the Board of Education were pleased with the results reported by Anne R. Farris, Elementary Principal and High School Counselor.

The report showed that 100% of the students in four grades (3, 7, 9 and 11) mastered mathematics. Strengths were also shown in the area of writing in grades 3, 5, and 11 with 94%, 93% and 100% of the students, respectively, demonstrating mastery.

On the narrative written composition, the highest rating of 3 or 4 was received by 67% of the third graders, while 93% of the fifth graders received the highest rating of 3 or 4 on their descriptive written composition.

A three-year comparison shows significant improvement in the district's overall scores. The state originally encouraged districts to strive for 85% mastery. Lazbuddie students have exceeded the state's original expectations with an average of 90% or above at every grade level in math, reading, and writing.

"Reaching 100% mastery is the goal every school district strives for," said Mrs. Farris. "It's very exciting to see that 100% of the students in four grades demonstrated mastery in math and that the writing and reading scores are rising significantly."

Supt. Joe Hall cited a strong academic instructional program as part of the reason for the district's success. "Teachers and students at each grade level are aware of the objectives measured by the TEAMS, and the teachers are dedicated to providing intense instruction in reading, mathematics and writing."

Following is a grade level report on the 1987-88 TEAMS results for Lazbuddie:

AAU tourney winners include Gregory & King teams

The Girls' AAU Basketball Tournament held in Farwell last weekend drew teams from Hobbs, Lubbock, Clovis, and Canyon as well as our local teams.

In the 18 year old bracket, the Sandies, coached by Larry Gregory, won the tournament. They beat teams from Melrose 65-33, Hobbs 70-45, and Lubbock, 50-42 to win the championship.

The Sandies next play in the Texas State Tournament in Amarillo this weekend.

In the 15 year old bracket, Texico won by defeating Canyon by 2 points in overtime in the first game, 50-48; the Hoopsters 42-38, and finally the Stars by 2 points, 51-49, to win their bracket.

The Texico team coached by coach Roy King, included: Tracy Askew, Leslie Stewart, Andria Chadwick, Jennifer Gentry, Jennifer Williams, Valerie Cavallero, Denise Gonzales, Amy Chadwick, Penny Pierce, and Krystala Cross.

"The team played well," said King. "I saw some good things; Gentry played real well at post. I also saw some good things from Stewart, Askew, and Williams, as well as several others."

Texico's Girls' AAU Basketball team will be playing in a tournament in Clovis June 9. They will play Santa Fe in their first game.

Another local team playing in the 15 year old age bracket was the Dusters coached by Janene Berry. Farwell students Angie White, Kara Camp, and Leslie Monk played on the Dusters.

The Dusters lost their first game to Lubbock 61-57. They beat Clovis (Washington) 47-40, and then lost to Clovis (Casaus) 55-48.

The 13 year old bracket was won by Clovis (Hankins). They beat the Lubbock team.

In the 13 year old age bracket, the Muleshoe team cancelled out. A local team was put together to play in their place. High school students Shawn Stewart and Sammy Herrera coached the team which included Joey Martin of Sudan, J. Johnson of Nazareth, and several Farwell girls: Alicia Smith, Lena Ortiz, Kristi Stanton, Laura Murray, Shelley Bethel, Christine Cline, Sharla Lingnau, Katrina Stewart, Amber Grigsby, Jill Actkinson, Heather Burton, Misty Stewart, and Amanda Curtis. The Farwell team lost to Clovis (Hankins) and to Clovis (Dudley).

"I'd like to thank all of the people who made this possible," said Gregory who organized the tournament. Among those he mentioned were: the officials, coaches, high school athletes, Farwell School officials, Duke and Rhonda Kirkland, and Woody Woodson.

Profits from the tournament will help to support the summer basketball leagues for Farwell.

Beef checkoff program okayed

"We can now plan for the future and establish long-range goals for a more profitable beef industry," Anne Anderson, executive director of the Texas Beef Industry Council, announced May 27.

She made her remarks after the U.S. Department of Agriculture released the results of the producer vote on the beef checkoff program that was held May 10 around the nation.

The overwhelming passage of the checkoff referendum by the nation's cattlemen sent a strong message that they wanted to continue funding national and local projects of education, research and promotion of beef. Nationally, 78.9% of voters said the $1 contribution each a bovine is sold is important in securing a future for beef.

In Texas, 88 percent of the 36,581 cattlemen casting a ballot approved continuation of the checkoff.

"The industry has given us a challenge to live up to," Anderson said, "and I have nothing but admiration for an industry that says 'yes' to a program such as this. I sure am proud to be part of it."

The structure of the permanent checkoff program in Texas will remain the same as before the referendum, Anderson said. Out of each Texas dollar invested, 50 cents will be forwarded to the national beef board to fund national programs of advertising and promotion. 42 cents will go to the National Live Stock and Meat Board for additional state-national coordinated programs of research, promotion and education.

The remaining 6 cents help provide in-state programs to meet the particular needs of Texas consumers. Administrative costs under law must stay below 5%. Currently, TBIC administrative expenses have averaged about 2%.

Investment of state funds is determined by a state beef board composed of representatives of 13 agricultural organizations involved in beef production in Texas.

Farwell Convalescent Center Chat Chat

By Lynne Gann
Activity Director

We are starting our country rides again and we have to share some of the beautiful country we've seen.

We had several residents who had heard of Oklahoma Lane, yet didn't know where or what everyone was talking about. After acquiring directions, places to see and residents in the van, off we went.

Farwell, by itself, looked lovely with the multi-colored flowers in the front yards. The most common statement was "It's nice to see green everywhere and the flowers, oh!"

After going under the underpass, the fields spread out before us with the new growth on them inviting us to keep going (this must have been what the pioneers felt). Oh's and ah's were heard all the way to Bovina.

Of course, we had to continue on to Friona. A whiff of the feed lots brought a few stories we wish we could share but - maybe some other time.

An ice cream cone always accompanies a country ride so we stopped at Dairy Queen in Friona. Our thanks to the girls for helping us carry all the cones to the van.

Howard Mayfield was recognized by friends and they had a chat, then homeward bound.

Gosh, that sounds so good I think this afternoon we'll just try it again.
