Getting what they ask for

My better half, Judy, a former junior high school teacher, was in a feisty mood this week. Here are her comments:

There is nothing wrong with the American public schools. Parents are getting exactly what they have requested.

It seems that every day there is an indictment of the American public education system on radio or television or in print. Taking pot shots at the schools is a national pastime. But, the fact is that we are getting just what we have asked for.

Critics hold aloft the speed with which Japanese students calculate math problems, and the fluency with which German children conjugate verbs in a half dozen languages. They point at our children as lazy failures.

But would we want the suicide rate Japan faces with its college bound students? Do we want to raise a nation of parrots who can repeat memorized answers in rapid succession? Or do we want something else?

The only question is, "Do we really want what we've asked for, or do we want something else?"

The first thing American parents seem to have requested is national day care. Children are now sent to school at earlier and earlier ages, and they are expected to stay in the institutionalized setting longer and longer. Generations ago students went to school only long enough to learn the basics of decoding basic reading and math; after that, they were on their own to learn from books. Today we feel that students can only learn from teachers.

Since it takes at least two salaries to provide the homes, cars, color television sets, and other necessities of modern American life, we must turn our children over to institutions. Some children are greatly improved by this system; some aren't.

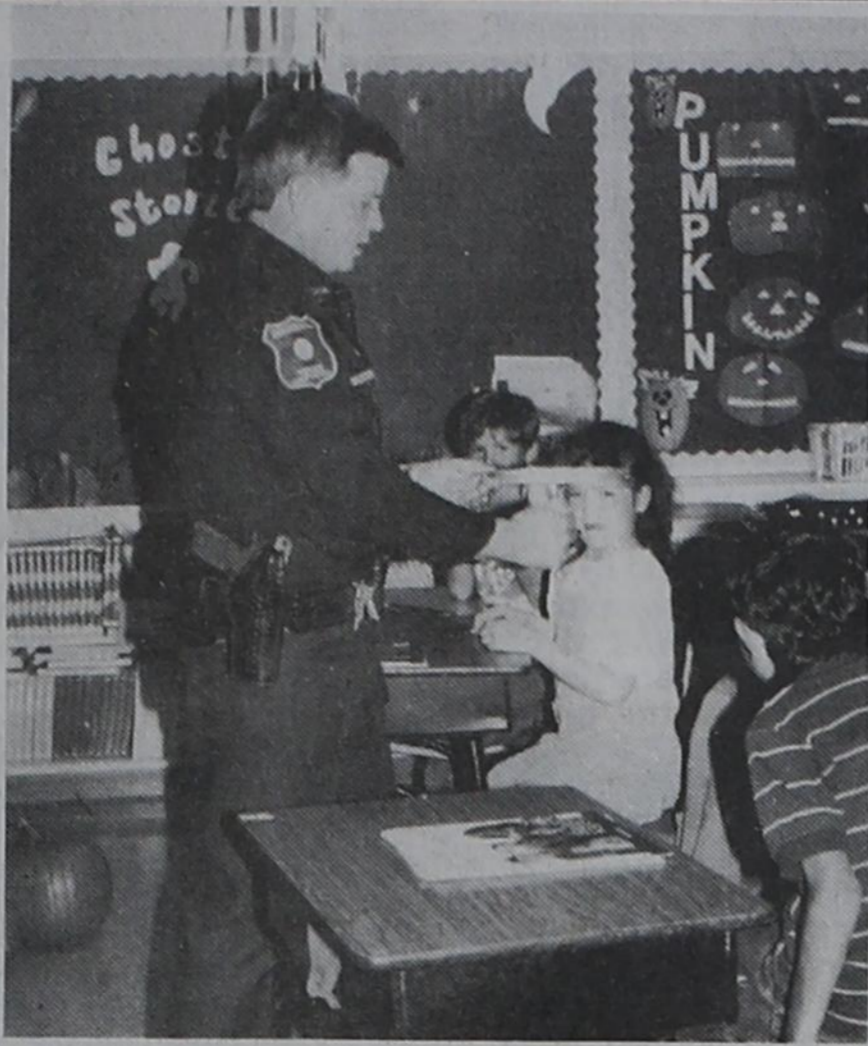

The second thing that American parents seem to want from the schools is entertainment. Each school is expected to put on a weekly athletic contest for public viewing. There are periodic band concerts and plays to excite the public, too.

A third thing requested by parents is proof of mastered facts. Today, the schools are under pressure from the general public to prove that each student has mastered each point that the teachers have attempted to teach. Unfortunately, kids are like the rest of us. They forget what they don't practice daily. And they especially forget what they don't think they will use.

The scariest thing we ask of the schools is that they keep our children from making the same mistakes we have made. We want our children perfect when we ourselves are not. The children are instructed in health, safety, driver's education, sex education, drug and alcohol problems to name only a few. The message is strong in our schools: "Don't do what we do kids, do what we say."

National statistics show that after years of such education, some categories of health and safety statistics are improved by such instruction. But, if the instruction at school is not backed up by the behavior the children see at home, the time spent on such instruction is wasted.

All in all, we'd better beware of what we ask of the schools. It might be just what we get.

Texico Marshal Brent Byrum spoke to Mrs. Richmond's class about drug abuse and drug paraphernalia. Looking on are J. R. McIntosh and Monica Ramos.

Matt Brigham received some drug awareness materials from Texico Junior High president Dara Jenkins.

'Just Say No'

"Just Say No" was the topic of Student Council representatives Dara Jenkins and Sky Byrum and Texico City Marshal Brent Byrum when they visited Mrs. Richmond's 3rd grade class Oct. 17.

The presentation focused on marijuana and its effects on the human body. Byrum had various pipes used by addicts. One was molded as a belt buckle in order to hide its identity. Students were warned to watch out for similar items.

Students experienced how marijuana smelled and were told to report it if they smelled marijuana in public restrooms or at school. The students were given coloring books for themselves and information booklets for their parents.

Dana and Sky set up charts on the effects of drugs for the students to view.

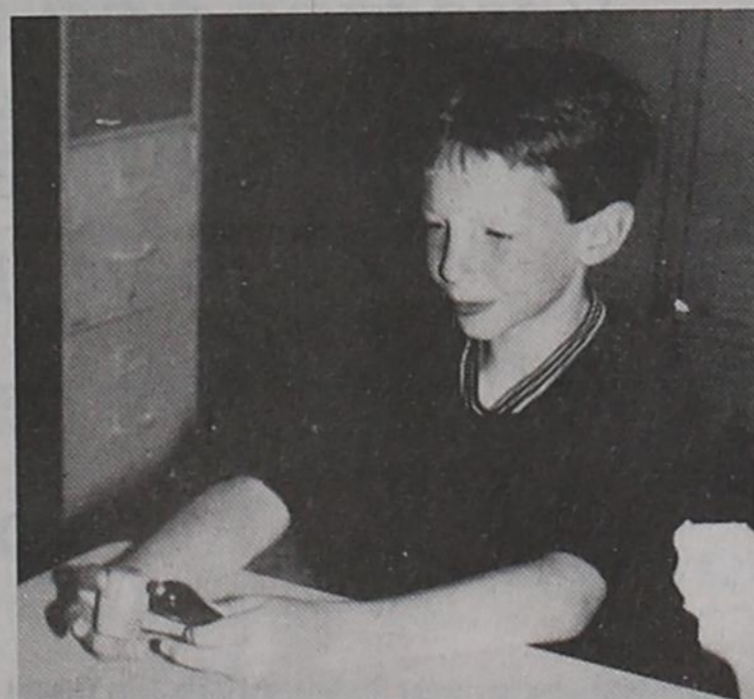

Jaime Maldonado and Jeremy Pierce looked at the display of drug abuse information.

Cargile's '12' wins 10th grid contest

For the second week in a row, a lone entrant in the Area Merchants Football Contest managed the difficult feat of getting all 12 games picked correctly.

Last week it was Dutch Quicquel. This week's winner, with a perfect report card, is Wade Cargile of Lariat. So Cargile won the first place prize of $10.

Ten contestants had 11 games picked correctly. The entrant closest to the tie breaker (Texico 13, Ft. Sumner 0) was Rex Cumpton. He was one off the tie breaker and received the second place prize of $5.

Also with 11 right (with the number off the tie breaker in parentheses) were:

Gracie Dane (14), Scott Brown (11), Jim Berry (15), Pat Marshall (15), Shawn Stewart (14), Wanda Walker (5), Jody Ketcherside (17), Adrian Smith (8) and Carol Sullivan (21).

With 10 right were: Stephen Ketcherside, E.A. Walker, Carl Ledbetter, David Willebrand, Janene Berry, Bill Brigham, Terry Brigham, Tommie Fulcher, John Getz, Donnie McDonald, Sheree Montgomery, Glen Neie, Dutch Quicquel.

Also, Richard Haseloff, Sammy Herrera, Beth Libby, Kirk Lingnau, Becky Monk, Cody Monk, Leslie Monk, Amy Jo Murray, Gary Patterson and Marion Ty Rutter.

It was another big week for Cumpton as his 11 right (he picked Dallas) put him in the driver's seat at the three-quarter mark of the contest.

Normally, an entrant averaging 8.5 or 8.6 usually is in the lead. Cumpton is averaging over 9 right per week so far. This is his second week to lead the contest, after Teresa King led it for 5 weeks.

The leader board shows: 83 points - Rex Cumpton. 80 - Teresa King, Dutch Quicquel.

79 - Jim Berry, Carl Parker, Billy Roberts.

78 - Harold Carpenter, Sammy Herrera, Amy Jo Murray. Last week's results were:

Farwell over Lockney, Happy over Nazareth, Tatum over Hagerman, Bovina over Cotton Center, Arkansas over Houston, Alabama over Penn State, Baylor over TCU, Colorado over Oklahoma, Phoenix over Dallas, Chicago over LA Rams, Cleveland over Houston, and Buffalo over Miami.

Election set Tuesday

Polls will be open at the Farwell Community Center from 7 a.m. - 7 p.m. on Nov. 7 for election day.

This year voters will be asked to fill one unexpired position for the Farwell Board of School Trustees, and they will be asked to approve or reject 21 proposed state amendments.

The special election will fill the seat vacated by Vick Christian. Running for the post are Bobby Atwell, Stan Austin and Tom Nichols.

Farwell School has been granted special permission from the state attorney general to hold the school board election at the same place as the general election. The school board felt that people often found it difficult to go to two different polling places on the same day. It will mean more work for the election officials, but it will make things easier for voters.

Other polling places which will be used in Parmer County for the election are: 1. Black Elevator; 2. Friona Fire Station; 2-1. Calvary Baptist Church, Friona; 2-2. Friona Community Center; 3. Bovina Legion Hall; 4. Farwell Community Center; 5. Lazbuddie School; 6. Oklahoma Lane Community Center; 7. Rhea Community Center; 8. Dee Willard residence in Lakeview.

Parmer County 4-H Food Show to be held in Farwell

The Parmer County 4-H Food Show will be held on Nov. 11 at the Farwell Community Center.

There will be food entries for pee wee, junior I, junior II, and senior age groupings.

One winner in each age group will progress to the district show in Lubbock. Winners in the Lubbock show will progress to state competition.

Longhorns blast Three Way, 62-14

It was yet another game shortened by the 45-point rule for Lazbuddie's Longhorns last Friday as they swept past Three Way, 62-14. Eddie Zamora scored five TDs.

The victory improved the Longhorns' record to 6-1-1 and set up the showdown battle with Bovina at 7:30 tonight (Friday) at Lazbuddie. Both Bovina and Lazbuddie sit atop District 1-A with 20-0 records. The winner of this game likely will finish first in district. Bovina is 7-1 overall, having beaten Cotton Center, 20-6, last Friday.

Here's how the Lazbuddie juggernaut kept scoring:

First half:
Eddie Zamora scored on two 1-yard runs, followed by extra point kicks by Michael Williams to boost Lazbuddie to an early 16-0 lead.

Then Williams hurled a 25-yard TD pass to Kevin McGehee. And Kirk Jesko scored from the 1. Add a Williams kick and the score was 30-0.

Three Way got on the scoreboard on a 40-yard pass, with the kick no good. But Williams countered with a 15-yard TD run; the extra point failed. The score was 36-6 at the half.

It wasn't any different in the second half:

Zamora again scored the first two TDs, on runs of 4 and 5 yards. A Williams extra point kick boosted the score to 50-6.

Three Way scored on a 6-yard scamper and the kick was good: 50-14.

Zamora clambered into the end zone with his 5th TD, on a 25-yard run; the kick failed. And Doug Barnes ended the scoring with a 1-yard pass

Highest ADA ever

Lazbuddie School Supt. Joe B. Hall reported the highest average daily attendance figures for October in his 30 years as an educator.

Lazbuddie, with an average membership of 263.55 students, kindergarten through 12th grade, had an ADA in October of 260.50 - 98.84 percent.

This is important because state funds are based on ADA.

Also, the pre-kindergarten class had an ADA of 97.66 percent.

'Discovery' being organized

Farwell High School is in the process of setting up a program for its gifted and talented students. The proposal will soon be brought to the school board for acceptance.

The proposed program will be called the DISCOVERY program. It will attempt to offer more opportunity to the most highly gifted students than they are currently getting in the regular classroom. There will be three types of activities used in the program. First, new experiences will be offered to large groups. Second, there will be in-depth investigation of topics that students have experienced. Third, there will be individual investigations in an area beyond what the group has accomplished.

The new DISCOVERY program will aim at meeting state guidelines for gifted and talented programs. The state law requires that identified students spend 150 minutes per week (an average of 30 minutes per day) on study that is not part of the regular classroom activity. This study may be accomplished as part of a regular class, in classrooms devoted to the DISCOVERY program during 5A/5B, or on locally or regionally sponsored field trips or seminars.

In the regular classroom, the documented activity may be an alternate activity, an enrichment activity, or an individual investigation that has been coordinated by the DISCOVERY staff.

In the DISCOVERY classrooms, activities will be varied. Some process skills will be explored. Research techniques, critical thinking, and creative thinking are examples of process skills that might be done.

Some exploratory activities will be presented to the majority of the students. Groups may form voluntarily to pursue a topic of mutual interest. Then individual projects may grow from ideas generated from the group discussions.

When and if no group activity is scheduled, and sufficient time has been documented on DISCOVERY then students may work on their regular homework.

Four times this year, some students in the DISCOVERY program will participate in seminars sponsored by the Region XVI G/T Coop.

In summary, students will be guided in pursuit of their own interests. Regular classes will be individualized for DISCOVERY students. Students in the program will have to make a commitment of time and energy to this opportunity for their development.

Supper to benefit Fire Dep't

There will be a chili supper to benefit the Lazbuddie Fire Department E.M.S. at Lazbuddie School on Nov. 3.

Dinner will be served from 5:30 - 7 p.m. and again after the high school ball game. Money raised from the dinner will help pay for a new ambulance.

There will also be an auction of pies and cakes after the ball game.

Supper will consist of chili, beans, crackers, cobbler, tea, and coffee. Tickets will cost $5 for adults and $2.50 for children 10 and under.

Lazbuddie starts 'Student of Month'

Lazbuddie Junior - Senior High School has initiated an Outstanding Student of the Month program.

Each month teachers will have the opportunity to nominate a high school boy or girl and a junior high boy and girl. These nominations will be based on attitude, scholarship, citizenship and service. From the list of nominees, a five member committee will select the Lazbuddie students who best meet those qualifications.

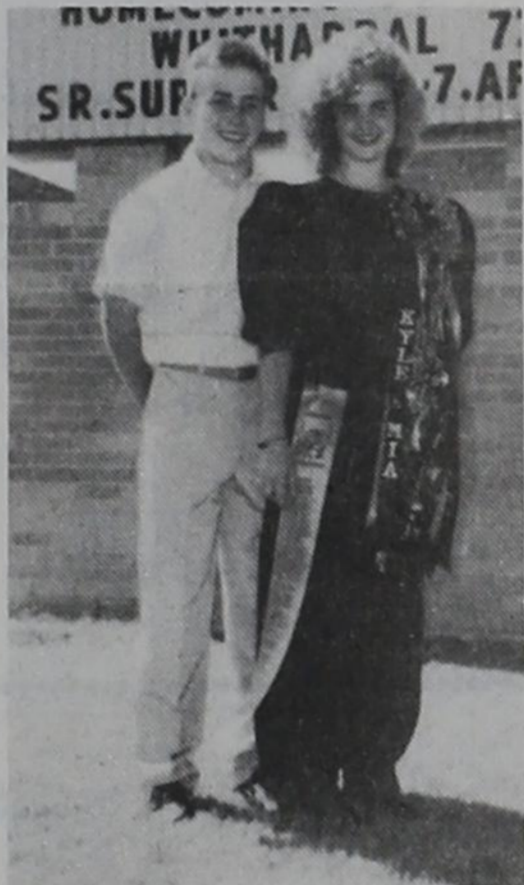

For September, Mia Jennings and Michael Williams were chosen as the Outstanding Students in high school and Jody Copp and Jarah Redwine were chosen for the junior high.

Mia is the daughter of Hoppy and Marsella Jennings and is a senior at Lazbuddie High School. Mia is a class officer and the senior class favorite. She is an active member of the National Honor Society and is a top student in most of her classes.

Mia is also involved in music. She was named to the 1989 TMEA All-Region Choir. She won a silver medal for vocal solo at the 1989 U.I.L. State Competition. She won a gold medal for piano in 1988.

Athletics are also an important part of her life. Mia finished sixth in the state individually and helped the Lazbuddie Golf Team to a second place finish. She finished fourth in the mile at the Six-Man State Track Meet. Mia was an All-District Basketball player last year and was Lazbuddie's Outstanding Girl Athlete.

Mia was a member of the Lazbuddie Computer team. It won the Region XVI Programming Contest last year. Mia has a special interest in her church, First Baptist of Muleshoe. She participates in many of their programs and

Lady Spikers win district runner-up honors; face Grady

Due to gaining district runner-up honors last weekend, the Texico Lady Spikers move on to the regional volleyball tournament at Floyd Saturday.

Texico faces Grady at 2 p.m. They likely would face Floyd that night if they win. And a victory for Texico would put them into the state tournament.

In the first round at district, Texico defeated Tatum handily, as reported in last week's Tribune.

In the second round, the Lady Spikers beat Dora, 15-11, 15-3, 11-15 and 16-14.

Individual statistics were:

Jennifer Williams, 4 aces, 10 kills, 4 saves and 5 blocks; Penny Pierce, 2 aces, 25 kills, 2 saves and 3 blocks; Valerie Cavallero, 1 ace, 25 assists, 4 saves and 1 block; Krystala Cross, 6 kills, 1 save and 3 blocks; Jennifer Gentry, 4 aces, 12 kills, 1 save and 6 blocks; Denise Gonzales, 4 aces, 23 assists, and 7 saves; Amy Chadwick, 3 aces, 3 saves and 1 block.

In the semi-final round, Texico turned back Elida, 15-12, 12-15, 7-15, 15-4 and 15-7.

Individual statistics were:

Williams, 4 aces, 3 kills, 3 saves and 2 blocks; 1 assist; Pierce, 6 aces, 15 kills, 6 saves and 2 blocks; Cavallero, 5 aces, 2 kills, 17 assists, 8 saves and 2 blocks; Cross, 6 kills, 5 saves and 4 blocks; Gentry, 3 aces, 18 kills, 6 saves and 5 blocks; Gonzales, 1 ace, 21 assists, 8 saves; Chadwick, 3 aces and 3 saves.

But in the finals, it was Floyd again taking the honors - 15, 15-12, 5-15 and 6-15.

Individual statistics were:

Williams, 4 kills, 3 saves and 7 blocks; Pierce, 12 kills, 6 saves and 2 blocks; Cavallero, 2 aces, 17 assists, 7 saves and 1 block; Cross, 10 kills, 4 saves and 3 blocks; Gentry, 8 kills, 2 saves and 8 blocks; Gonzales, 2 aces, 7 saves, 18 assists; Jessica Gutierrez, 3 kills and 3 blocks.

Coach Michael Littlejohn's comments:

About Dora: "This was a good match. They are a vastly improved team. They had two big girls who came out and smacked the ball as hard as anyone did that night. But we served and passed and hit very well."

About Elida: "We were down 7-12 in game one when things clicked. We came back and won it 15-12. "We got beat 12-15 in game 2 and 7-15 in game 3. We were on the doorstep of elimination when we clicked in."

"This was a hard night for us. Elida's gym was packed with fans; there were balloons, signs, and glitter. They came out ready to play and jumped all over us. We had to maintain our concentration. I knew they had to come down off that high. They dropped hard and fast and we came back to win."

About Floyd: "We never really showed up."

Floyd won the first game 1-15. Texico came back in the second round to win 15-12, but "we didn't play well; they just played worse than we did."

Texico's Lady Spikers have a 15-6 season record. Floyd has given Texico 3 of its losses. New Mexico's No. 2 ranked team, Capitan gave them another. Clovis and Elida gave Texico its other losses.

"We have to win one more game to go to state. The girls have their goal ahead of them," said Littlejohn.

Pumpkin crop termed 'good'

For the second straight year, the bulk of the demand for pumpkins, gourds and ornamental squash is being met by farmers on the Texas High Plains, according to the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

This year as last, the High Plains is one of the few production areas in the nation with a good pumpkin crop, says Dr. Roland E. Roberts, vegetable specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Producers in Parmer, Bailey, Floyd, Hale and Lubbock counties have some 1,500 acres of pumpkins of pumpkins and ornamental squash this year. For days, trucks loaded with these products have been scurrying to markets as far away as Connecticut, Vermont, and the Carolinas, and to all parts of Texas and the Southwest.

"There was too much rain in the nation's northeast, too little rain in the southwest, and too much heat in central and south Texas," for a good crop this year, Roberts said.

"On the Texas High Plains, we have some good quality, but not as high a yield as usual. A week of wet weather, the second week in September, was detrimental to finishing our pumpkin crop," he said. The rains also prolonged the harvest of the mature pumpkins and some some fields had to be abandoned.

Even with the short supply nationally, most producers here are seeing only a slight increase in their price, Roberts said.

When supplies are plentiful, growers may get four to four - an - a half cents a pound," he said.

Last Monday, the ladies of the First Baptist Church of Bovina came with the most delicious pumpkin pies. Each year, they bake pumpkin pies for our residents and bring whipped cream topping, too. Oh, how those ladies can cook! We send our thanks to each of you for thinking of us.

Halloween trick or treaters highlighted Tuesday night. We had ghosts, goblins, mummies, pumpkins, tigers, draculas and many more.

The surprise of the evening was when 4 of our residents came out to trick or treat in costume. Walter Franse was dressed as a pumpkin; Noel Teague as a lady with a wig, lipstick, hose, etc. - but also with socks and boots; Ruby Byrnes as our house witch with cape and hat and mask; and Jo Sheehan with sideburns, mustache and goatee as part of her attire as a man. Her sports coat, hat and tie created a realistic costume.

All 4 residents shared the prize for best costumes. Such as hard decision to choose the best couldn't be made.

Jackie Perales won the prize for best dressed staff. Her Dracula costume was so realistic.

Our thanks to the Ladies Auxiliary for the cookies they so generously baked to give our scary guests. We appreciate those who came and helped serve and the bakers. Thank you, ladies.

We remind Auxiliary members of the meeting Nov. 6 at 4 p.m.; please plan to attend. Christmas is near and events to schedule; we look forward to seeing you.

Buchenau-Beauchamp vows told

Gayle Camille Buchenau became the bride of Ray Gordon Beauchamp in a candlelight ceremony July 1 in St. Lukes Methodist Church of Lubbock. Dr. R. L. Kirk read the double ring vows.

Parents of the couple are Sylvia Buchenau of Happy (formerly of Farwell), Rande Buchenau of Alvord, Texas, and Cecil and Janet Beauchamp of Anson.

Blaine Buchenau, brother of the bride, sang "This is the Day" and "Time for Joy", accompanied by Noreen Carson of Sweetwater on the piano.

The altar was decorated with candelabrum accented with greenery and white bows. White satin bows decorated the pews.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown covered in imported Alencon lace. The Queen Victoria neckline and long sleeves are adorned with bead work of crystals, pearls and sequins. The basque waistline cascaded into the many tiered skirt of Alencon lace which flowed into a Cathedral train.

To complete her attire, the bride wore a bridal head band with braided beads and pearls accented with silk stephanotis which held a one tier veil that fell from a puff gathered at the back.

The bride carried an arrangement of silk pink and turquoise roses, baby's breath, stephanotis, and white camellias. Her maternal grandmother's wedding band was tied into one of the silk white ribbons.

For something old, the bride wore a pearl Cameo pin belonging to her paternal great-grandmother. Something new was her veil, something borrowed was diamond ear studs, from her namesake aunt Gayle Nicholas and something blue was the traditional blue garter. She had pennies minted in the year of their birth in each shoe. She had a sixpence in the right heel of her shoe for good luck, and a penny of the year they married in the left heel of her shoe.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Beauchamp

Suzanne Hardage of Hereford served as maid of honor. She was dressed in bright a lilac, turquoise, pink, and black floral tea length shirtwaist dress with black patent accents. She carried a large silk fan accented with baby pearls and pink, lilac, and turquoise iridescent ribbons.

Neil Harvey of Houston served as best man. The groom was dressed in short black tux with white shirt, white cummerbund. The best man wore a short black tux with lilac cummerbund. Each had a turquoise boutonniere.

Blake Buchenau of Clovis, brother of the bride, was candlelighter.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the fellowship hall of the church. Tammy Jones and Lisa Beauchamp, sisters of the groom, served the guests.

The reception table was with a white lace table cloth embroidered with hearts. White punch, nuts and mints were served from silver appointments. A silver candelabra holding six tapers along with the bride's bouquet and that of the maid of honor decorated the table. A three tiered heart shaped cake was decorated with light lilac and pink cake flowers. The top was adorned with three small bells lightly accented in lilac and pink.

The gift table covered in white lace, was highlighted with pictures of the bride and groom in earlier years. A silver tray held the birdseed bags.

The bride is a 1987 graduate of Muleshoe High School and a 1988 graduate of South Plains School of Cosmetology at Levelland. The groom was an honor graduate of Anson High School and enrolled in Texas Tech.

Low interest loans provided in Texas

Texas voters will have the opportunity to vote Nov. 7 to continue the agricultural water conservation equipment loan program, by approval of Proposition 18, which provides low interest loans to irrigators to upgrade irrigation equipment to reduce water losses during irrigation delivery and application.

Under the program, groundwater conservation districts and soil and water conservation districts throughout the state can borrow money from the Texas Water Development Board and then lend the funds at the same interest rate to qualified borrowers within their service areas.

The 15-county High Plains Underground Water Conservation District No. 1 has been a major participant of the program. During the past three years, approximately 150 irrigators have benefited from the pilot agricultural loan program. They have used the funds to purchase equipment which upgraded their irrigation application efficiencies. This improved efficiency has resulted in groundwater savings of more than 25,000 acre-feet - enough water to support a city of 150,000 for about one year.

Deep percolation, evaporation and tailwater runoff have historically resulted in high water losses for irrigators. A typical borrower under the pilot loan program has used proceeds from the loan to upgrade from furrow irrigation to a more efficient LEPA center pivot irrigation system, saving annual water losses of more than 150 acre-feet - enough water to serve the needs of a town of 800 people for a year.

Center pivot sprinkler systems, surge valves, low pressure drip irrigation equipment, soil moisture monitoring equipment, furrow dikers, laser land leveling equipment and underground pipelines are among the water conservation equipment eligible for purchase under the loan program.

The loans are secured by a first lien on the equipment purchased, plus a lien on the property where the equipment is installed. After three and a half years with more than $4 million loaned, there have been no late payments or defaults.

In addition to the groundwater savings, District officials credit the pilot agricultural loan program with three major benefits. First, interest in more efficient irrigation has been stimulated by the availability of low-interest funds. Second, low-interest rates have encouraged qualified irrigators to purchase more efficient irrigation equipment; and third, those irrigators that have upgraded their irrigation systems have demonstrated to their neighbors that increased water use efficiency is possible, along with a reduction in energy and labor costs which occurs as a part of the improved water use efficiency.

A Constitutional Amendment approved by Texas voters in November 1985 provided for the sale of up to $200 million in bonds to fund the agricultural water conservation equipment loan program. Voter approval of Proposition 18 on this year's Nov. 7 ballot will remove the expiration date on the program by repealing subsection (e) of Article III, Section 50-d of the Texas Constitution.

Texas legislators originally set a two-year evaluation period (1985-1987) for the pilot agricultural water conservation equipment loan program. However, the evaluation period was extended until August 31, 1989. During the 71st Texas Legislative Session, satisfied with the results of the pilot program, Senate Joint Resolution 44 was passed to remove the time limitations on the agricultural water conservation loan program upon voter approval of the proposed Texas Constitutional Amendment.

According to the American Cancer Society, one out of ten women will develop breast cancer sometime in her lifetime. It is currently estimated that over 37,000 women die each year as a result of breast cancer.

Ninety percent of breast cancers are diagnosed by women or their physicians finding a lump in the breast. Women who are diagnosed with a lump large enough to feel have a 50 percent five year survival rate. A woman who is diagnosed as having breast cancer by mammography, before a lump can be felt, has a 97% five year survival rate and a 90% 10 year survival rate. (The cost is only $60.00).

A mammogram can detect a cancer this small • even before it can be felt.

Have a nose for safety.

If you have a nose and a normal sense of smell, you have all the equipment you need to detect odorized natural gas leaks.

Here are some simple, common sense steps to take if you ever smell gas:

- Don't use the phone, flip any electrical switches or strike a match.

- If you smell the odor of gas indoors, quickly check to see if a pilot light has gone out or if a burner valve is partially turned on. If you cannot readily locate the source of gas, leave the house immediately. Don't light a match or switch anything on or off. Call us from a neighbor's telephone at once.

- If you happen to smell gas outdoors, keep your distance from the area, don't smoke, and don't start up your car.

It's simple: Just use your nose first. Then use your head. A safety message from the people at Southern Union Gas.

SUB-RIPPER V-PLOWS

LANDOLL V-PLOWS

- Easily Breaks-Up HARD PAN — PLOW SOLE
- Control RUN-OFF — Retain MOISTURE
- Saves Your VALUABLE SOIL

Today's modern, large scale farming practices make it a MUST to retain moisture, control run-off, make most efficient use of irrigation water and hold your valuable topsoil in place. Landoll Sub-Ripper V-Plows are the answer. Your ground, worked with a Landoll Sub-Ripper V-Plow, absorbs and retains many times the moisture compared to farm land tilled by conventional methods. With hard pan, plow sole broken up, crop roots reach down deeper (during dry periods) to use available stored water — moisture that would have been lost because of hard pan.

Landoll's optional hydraulic control Pull Hitch including oscillating walking tandem axles make heavy loads and maximum pull a lot easier. Axle cylinders are included, as are the 4 wheels.

Landoll Sub-Ripper V-Plows go down deep — 16" to 18" to rip up and shatter hard pan. Landoll V-Plows are built to cover more acres, faster and more economically. You can work the toughest soils — non stop (7/8" shear bolt protection) without damage to your plow from buried obstructions. Here is the heavy-duty tool for most all of your crops. Anywhere soil and moisture saving is needed — depend on Landoll.

Environmentalists busy

Here's the latest from Plains Cotton Growers:

Agricultural interests, to a degree, were caught napping in 1985 when environmental activists inserted "sodbuster" and "swampbuster" provisions into that year's Food Security Act.

Other than care requirements on set-aside acreage, that was the first time in the history of farm programs that soil conservation measures were mandated in farm law as a condition of eligibility for program benefits.

As development of the 1990 farm bill gains momentum, the environmentalists are out in force. Their major objective, it appears, may be to tighten the sodbuster and swampbuster sections of the 1985 law while adding a "chemical buster" section to the 1990 act. If left to write the law on their own, many believe the use of agricultural chemicals in production agriculture will be on the way out.

Frank Jones, of Lamesa, a long-time PCG director serves as chairman of the National Cotton Council's Environmental Task Force. Jones said the NCC group is closely monitoring various environmental legislative initiatives and, the political climate being what it is, has agreed that simply being against the proposals will not be enough.

Instead, Jones said agriculture "has got to be FOR something." As an example of proposals threatening agriculture, he used a food safety bill introduced by Henry Waxman (D-Calif.) and another offered by George Brown (D-Calif.). Both are efforts to impose on producers substantially more restrictive procedures for regulating chemical use without due regard for the adverse effect on maintaining the production of an abundant, healthy, reasonably priced food supply. Yet both have the support of the U.S. Department of Agriculture and the Environmental Protection Agency.

As an alternative, Jones said, his task force and the NCC will support legislation introduced by House Agriculture Committee Chairman Kika de la Garza (D-Texas) and Ranking Minority Member Ed Madigan (R-Ill.). The bill, by amending two current laws, would establish a new and less cumbersome process for pesticide rule-making. It would also add a consistent and uniform method of evaluating pesticides and removing from the market those proven hazardous.

Thirty-nine members of the Agriculture Committee are original co-sponsors of de la Garza's bill which, in his own words, is aimed at the Committee's top priority "restoring public confidence in the safety of our food supply."

To that, Jones would add, "...without denying producers the use of perfectly safe chemicals we need to stay in business."

Steers defeat Lockney; keep record spotless at 8-0

Earlier this year, the Farwell Steers' basketball team turned in its finest performance in history - becoming a state semi-finalist before losing to the eventual Class 2 champion in overtime.

Now, the Farwell Steers' football team evidently is out to its greatest start in its history - moving to 8-0 after defeating Lockney 28-21 last Friday.

The victory kept Farwell on top of its district with a 3-0 record, just ahead of Abernathy, 2-1. The Steers play at Olton tonight (Friday) and then finish the regular season at home against Hale Center next week.

Both teams started slowly and the defenses predominated. Trent Schilling recovered a fumble.

Toward the end of the first quarter, Farwell began moving. Shawn Stewart ran for 14 and a pass from Greg Actkinson to Monty Delgado picked up 34 yards.

Clint Kelley bulled over from the 1 and Darren Haseloff kicked the extra point for a 7-0 lead at 11:30 of the second quarter.

Farwell continued driving. After holding Lockney deep in its territory, Stewart returned a punt to the Longhorn 32. Runs by Kelley and Joe Smith brought it to the 11. Actkinson then ran the option, keeping the ball and scoring. The Haseloff kick was good and Farwell led 14-0 at 7:15.

Schilling had an important tackle on the Lockney punt returner at the Steer 48. Michael Arce also had a good tackle as the Steers held again. Farwell got the ball at its 32 and struck quickly behind runs by Stewart and Kelley.

Then Actkinson threw a 13-yard TD pass to Haseloff, who also kicked the point after for a 21-0 lead at 1:21 of the second quarter.

Lockney got on the scoreboard at 6:30 of the third quarter on a 5-yard run; the kick was good.

There was no more scoring in the third quarter although Stewart had a 26-yard scamper and Haseloff caught a 15-yard pass.

In the final quarter, Farwell blocked a punt and started at its 47. Again, Kelley and Stewart shared the running duties. At 9:44, Actkinson flipped a pass to Stewart for a 1-yard TD. The kick was good.

Lockney didn't quit. Michael Monroe, their star halfback, raced in for a 50-yard TD at 7:26; the kick was good.

Farwell then fumbled away the ball twice, the second one at its own 10 yard line. A 7-yard TD pass, plus kick, brought Lockney back to 28-21 at 2:14 of the final period.

Team statistics included: Rushing - Farwell 37 for 235, Lockney, 45 for 224; passing - Farwell 4 of 8 for 67, Lockney 2 of 5 for 7; first downs - Farwell 17, Lockney 13; penalties - Farwell 8 for 55, Lockney 3 for 25; punts - Farwell 5 for 34 yard ave., Lockney 5 for 20 yard ave.

Individual statistics included: Rushing - Stewart, 18 for 131; Kellev, 10 for 53; Smith

4 for 19; Actkinson 4 for 18, and Chad Byrd, 1 for 14.

Receiving - Delgado, 1 for 34; Haseloff, 2 for 30; Stewart, 1 for 1.

Coach Rex Cumpston said: "We continue to play well on offense. We had a real strong rushing game Friday night. We didn't throw a lot but we were successful when we did."

"We had a couple of break-downs defensively and a couple of turnovers in the second half, but were able to overcome them. This put us in a good position in the District race but we have not assured ourselves of anything yet. A victory over Olton will clear up the picture considerably."
