

BLALOCK BOOSTS PEDDY

Stevenson Sees Win Without A Runoff

By The Associated Press
'Sometime next Saturday night I expect to have the Democratic nomination for the U. S. Senate,' Duke R. Stevenson said in an interview at Bryan, Texas, today.

Stevenson, still relying mainly on a handshaking campaign, stated: 'I don't want to get entered in a bragging contest but at all these places I've been to lately, folks have told me I'm leading by about two-thirds. So based on what people tell me, I'm confident that I'm bound to win in the first primary.'

The campaign of Opponent George Peddy meanwhile was bolstered by an endorsement from Myron G. Blalock, until recently Texas national Democratic committeeman. Blalock, in a statement at his Marshall home said Peddy is 'an able lawyer, an outstanding and patriotic citizen and soldier and will make a senator of whom all Texans can be proud.'

Lyndon Johnson, another leading candidate, forecast that Saturday's primary results would give him 52 per cent of the votes; Stevenson 38 per cent and all others, 10 per cent. Stevenson moved through Hearne, Palestine, Athens and Kaufman toward Dallas today; Peddy flew from an Antonio to Dallas via Austin, and Johnson left Waco for San Antonio. Johnson, landing his helicopter in a floodlighted rodeo arena at Waco, made his 352d campaign talk last night. 'We're moving B-29's over the waters tonight, boys,' he said. He talked of the gravity of the world situation. 'Most politicians tell you they'll cut your taxes. I don't think that way. I believe in spending money now to prevent war later.' Peddy declared at San Antonio that Stevenson's claims of economy while governor are 'a complete misrepresentation of the facts.'

HIGH COMMAND IN AMERICA

U.S. Indicts 12 Communist Leaders

NEW YORK, July 21. (AP)—Twelve Communist leaders, representing the party's high command in America, were under indictment today on charges of advocating the violent overthrow of the United States government.

Seven of the 12 — including William Z. Foster, national chairman of the party, and Eugene V. Dennis, general secretary — were arrested last night shortly after their indictment by a Federal Grand Jury investigating subversive activities. The other five are being sought.

The arrests, one of the sharpest blows yet struck against organized Communism in this country, brought an immediate, strongly worded protest from national headquarters of the party.

It described the indictments as a 'monstrous frame-up' and said the arrests were part of a plan by President Truman to embarrass the New Party of Henry A. Wallace.

The seven under arrest were arraigned last night on the charges and all pleaded innocent. In addition to Foster and Dennis those under arrest are:

New York City Councilman Benjamin Davis, John B. Williamson, trade union secretary for the party; Henry Winston, party organizational secretary; Jacob Stachel, educational secretary for the party, and Carl Winters, chairman of the Michigan state council of the party.

Winters was seized in Detroit; the others in New York City. All those indicted by the grand jury, which had been investigating for about a year, were identified by federal officials as members of the Communist Party's National Board, Davis and Winston are Negroes.

The five being sought were identified as: Irving Potash, manager of the CIO Furriers Joint Council of New York City; John Gates, editor since July, 1947 of the Daily Worker, official organ of the U. S. Communist Party; Gilbert Green, of Chicago, Ill., district chairman for the Communist party at Chicago and Gus Hall, of Cleveland, Ohio, chairman of the Ohio Communist Party.

Second Ford Wage Session Slated

DETROIT, July 21. (AP)—The threat of a walkout still hovered over the Ford Motor Co. today as negotiators prepared for the second of their new post-strike wage talks.

Ford and the CIO-United Auto Workers agreed to another bargaining session today after a five-hour meeting Tuesday failed to provide any apparent sign of agreement.

The fact that another session was being held led to reports that new offers might have been made Tuesday. Another clue was seen in the fact that the union went into caucus immediately after Tuesday's talks but both sides were mum.

TO AVOID DRAFT

Forces Offer 18 Year Olds Special Plan

WASHINGTON, July 21. (AP)—The armed forces opened their ranks today for 161,000 American 18-year-olds to volunteer for a special one-year hitch and for two avoid a two-year draft later.

The volunteers may, up to a point, pick the branch of service they wish to join. But the new draft law limits the annual total of the special enlistments to 110,000 for the Army; 36,000 for the Navy, including 6,000 for the Marines, and 15,000 for the Air Force.

Enlistments will be conducted by regular recruiting officers and qualified youths will be accepted in the order in which they apply. After their one year's service is completed, the enlistees will be confined to the continental limits of the United States—the 18-year-olds must spend from four to six years in an organized reserve unit.

The peacetime draft law requires that all male civilians, 18 through 25, must register, but none can be drafted until reaching the age of 19. Registrations will start Aug. 30, beginning with men of 25 and working down to the 18-year-olds who will begin registering on Sept. 7.

Marie Asked To Head New French Regime

Was Minister Of Justice Under Schuman

PARIS, July 21. (AP)—Andre Marie, a Radical Socialist, announced today he has been asked to form a new French government.

Marie, 51, was minister of justice in Premier Robert Schuman's cabinet which resigned Monday in defeat, opposing a $40 million cut in the defense bill.

Marie is a moderate conservative and his emergence marked a swing to the right. He still is suffering effects of starvation in the German Buchenwald concentration camp.

Immediately after talking with President Vincent Auriol, he went to the Ministry of Justice to consult political leaders.

He must secure a parliamentary majority to attain the office. It was Socialist defection from the coalition of Popular Republican Movement, Radical Socialists (conservatives) and Socialists which toppled the Schumangovernment.

Marie is a member of the Radical Socialist (Conservative) Party who almost died in Buchenwald. His choice would represent a swing to the right.

Marie would attempt to form France's 10th government since the nation's liberation from the Germans.

One popular Republican group was beating the drum for Foreign Minister Georges Bidault, but the majority opinion among observers was that he did not have a chance. Premier Robert Schuman's cabinet fell Monday because of a dispute over the army budget.

The system of 'Parliamentary Logic' as practiced before the war would appear to indicate that the new cabinet would be composed of Communists, Socialists and Radicals.

However, neither the Socialists nor the Radicals trust the Communists and most of them are resolved to oppose letting the Communists share power again.

Schuman's government did not include Communists.

Togliatti Plot Blamed On Italy Regime By Reds

ROME, July 21. (AP)—Italian Communists charged Premier Alcide de Gasperi's centrist government today with 'political and moral responsibility' for the attack last week on their chief, Palmiro Togliatti.

Togliatti was wounded last Wednesday by a would-be assassin. His condition is reported improved.

Communist and Socialist senators pressed a motion for a no confidence vote against the government. It is almost certain to be defeated by the government's ample Senate majority.

Opening debate on the motion last night, Communist Sen. Mauro Scoccimarro warned that the government's 'obstinate line' of action was 'inevitably carrying the country toward civil war.'

Scoccimarro, one of three leftist senators who introduced the motion, accused De Gasperi of 'tolerating neo-Fascist organizations, while at the same time mobilizing the state force against Communists.'

He said the government created an 'apology for the king and Il Duce (Benito Mussolini) and now an apology for the Pallante' (Antonio Pallante, the Sicilian student accused of attempting to assassinate Togliatti).

Fledgling Socialist support for the no confidence motion — Sen. Emilio Lussu declared that 'the police today are instruments at the service' of De Gasperi's Christian Democratic Party. The motion called in effect for a new government to reestablish unity in Italy.

Liberal Sen. Sanna Randaccio, defending the government, said that the Communist-led general strike and riots which followed the shooting of Togliatti were part of a 'pre-ordained plan.'

Legion To Hold Installation

All members of Big Spring American Legion Post No. 355 have been requested to attend installation ceremonies for new post officers at the post club house Thursday night, D. L. Burnette, retiring post commander, reminded today.

The Thursday night session has been set for 8 p. m. Neel G. Barnaby will be installed as commander to succeed Burnette. Other new names on the officers' slate include H. W. Whitney, first vice-commander; Roger Miller, second vice-commander; Rev. James Parks, chaplain; Doyle Thomas, sergeant-at-arms; Mrs. Katherine Bugg, historian.

The new officers were elected two weeks ago. Holdovers from last year's slate are Culin Grigsby, service officer, and Vernon McColin, adjutant.

President Will Hear Clay's Berlin Views

Truman Keeps Close Watch On Blockade

Other Top Leaders Due With General

WASHINGTON, July 21. (AP)—President Truman, keeping a close watch on the Berlin crisis, planned today to get a first-hand report on the Soviet blockade of the German capital from Gen. Lucius Clay.

Clay, the United States occupation commander in Germany, was due in Washington along with other top officials in the American zone. The White House said no definite time has been set for Clay's talk with Mr. Truman.

'Of course, Gen. Clay will come in,' Presidential Secretary Charles G. Ross told reporters who asked if the general would be called to the White House.

This was the first announcement that the President plans to hear Clay's report personally. The Army Department said yesterday that Clay was returning here at the request of Secretary Royall, and will go back to Berlin this week end.

Ross said he could not say now to what extent Mr. Truman will review the international situation in his message to Congress Tuesday.

American officials, meanwhile, are readying new diplomatic moves in a determined effort to settle the Berlin crisis short of war.

These moves, including a new note to Moscow, grow out of a new, three-point policy for dealing with the extremely dangerous situation in the Russian-blockaded German capital.

Authorities familiar with the latest developments say the policy covers an absolute determination 'not to be kicked out of Berlin.'

But, they add, it also embraces equally strong decisions (a) to seek a peaceful solution to the crisis and (b) to use caution and restraint in both action and words so that the Soviets will be given no possible excuse for making the situation worse.

At the moment, ranking officials here are still hopeful that the Berlin crisis can be settled before it reaches the point of open fighting.

They do not, however, disguise their concern that it might lead to war.

Their determination is that if there is to be shooting the blame must rest upon Russia and not upon the Western powers.

As one informant put it: 'If the Russians want a war at this time they can get it, but they will have to bring it about themselves.'

Crops Developed By Good Weather

AUSTIN, July 21. (AP)—Hot, open weather brought development to all growing crops last week, the United States Department of Agriculture reported today.

High temperatures, however, were said rapidly depleting soil moisture, drying out many areas in the East, Southeast and South.

USDA said most remaining areas of the state had sufficient moisture for a short time. Small grain harvest, cotton, feed crops and commercial vegetable harvest were all reported favored by the week's weather.

Congress Fight May Aid Stalin, Brewster Says

WASHINGTON, July 21. (AP)—Sen. Brewster (R-Me) said today the political squabbles certain to flare when Congress reconvenes Monday may lead Russia to get tougher in Berlin and elsewhere.

'Washington has been rife with rumors that war is imminent,' the New England senator told a reporter. 'If there is any basis for these reports then calling Congress is unfortunate, as the matter is far beyond the zone of congressional action.'

'Using the session for emphasizing diversity of views on domestic issues is simply an encouragement of Stalin to strike.'

Brewster's comment came after Chairman Eaton (R-NJ) of the House Foreign Affairs Committee called upon President Truman to let Congress and the country next week just how near the United States is to 'a shooting war' with Russia.

Eaton called the Soviet blockade of Berlin the 'supreme issue confronting not only the nation but also the world.'

'It is a world conflict between Christ and the devil, between freedom and slavery,' the one-time Baptist minister said.

Webb Set Down For Ten Days

ODESSA, Tex., July 21. (AP)—Has old Webb, manager and owner of the Midland Indians of the Longhorn baseball league, has been suspended from baseball for ten days.

Howard Green, league president, announced the suspension today. Green said the league action came as a result of trouble involving Webb and a fan at a game Monday night, July 12, at Midland.

This past Saturday Webb drew a $100 fine and was placed on probation for the rest of the season.

One version of the incident, on which the suspension was based, was to the effect that Webb became irred over the riding of a fan and poked him in the eye after the game, then retreated.

Webb contended that the fan had made personally insulting remarks and that after he had cornered him following the game, he became alarmed when members of his club rushed up. They had taken offense to unbecoming terms, he said. He turned and left the scene for fear a major incident might be precipitated.

PEACE WITH REDS PUSHED

Unions Ignoring Third Party Meet

PHILADELPHIA, July 21. (AP)—With the CIO and AFL coldly staying home, Henry Wallace's third party began hearing suggestions for a 'peace with Russia' platform today and worked itself up for a revival-singing convention.

'Everyone wants Wallace, Friendly Henry Wallace, Friendly Henry Wallace In The White House.' A group of Wallace supporters was singing that on the sidewalks. The 'New Party' founding convention will sing it — and other songs — Friday, Saturday, and Sunday. A convention song-book was issued today.

As for the platform, two days of public hearings started today but the first tentative draft of the document was written ahead of time, yesterday.

And it says—according to Dr. Rexford Guy Tugwell, the platform chairman—that 'capitalist America and Communist Russia can and must live together in the same world.'

It says the party 'pledges through negotiations and discussion with the Soviet Union, in good faith, to find areas of agreement to win the peace.'

It condemns the Marshall Plan and other aspects of U. S. foreign policy. It accuses the Republicans and Democrats of rejecting the United Nations and of obeying 'the dictates of big business.'

About 60 organizations are scheduled to give their platform views, after which, Tugwell said, the document will be refined and completed before it goes before the convention for adoption Sunday.

JayCees Lay Plans To Boost Rodeo

Preliminary plans for one booster trip into neighboring towns to advertise the annual Big Spring Rodeo, scheduled for Aug. 4-7, were made Tuesday at the junior chamber of commerce luncheon meeting.

The Jaycees plan to sponsor a trip to cities and towns south and east of Big Spring. They probably will make their excursion on Monday.

Plans for another trip to be sponsored by the American Business Club probably will be made at that organization's regular meeting Friday. The ABC group expects to visit cities and towns north and west of Big Spring.

Water Conclave Set For Corpus Christi

AUSTIN, July 21. (AP)—The South Texas Water Conference called by Gov. Beauford H. Jester has been set for Aug. 13 at Corpus Christi.

Gov. Jester said yesterday that E. B. Neiswanger of Corpus Christi will act as general coordinator for the conference which is to be patterned after three previous water conferences at Big Spring, Tyler and Waco.

Housing Group Seeks Charter

Application for charter of the Big Spring Housing Corporation, an organization formed by local business men to construct housing units for T&P railroad personnel, was mailed to Austin last night, spokesmen reported this morning.

Preliminary plans for the $60,000 corporation were made last week to be returned to Big Spring and immediate assurance that proper housing facilities would be available was requested.

Incorporators listed on the charter application are Elmo Wasson, Dr. R. B. G. Cowper and V. A. Merrick. Stockholders, in addition to the incorporators, are R. T. Piner, Ted O. Groebel, A. L. Cooper, Dr. E. O. Ellington, G. H. Hayward, C. D. Willey, Dr. M. H. Bennett, R. L. Tollett, R. B. Reeder, Marvin Saunders, Dr. P. W. Malone.

Recommended to serve as directors for the first year were Piner, Wasson, Merrick, Willey and Dr. Cowper.

Indications were today that first contracts for construction, involving possibly 10 houses, would be let within the next few days. Ultimately the corporation hopes to provide a minimum of 30 houses.

J. H. Greene and Elmo Wasson were authorized to contact dealers and builders and extend them invitations to submit plans, specifications and bids. Greene is serving temporarily as secretary for the corporation. Officers will be elected as soon as the charter is received.

DEWEY FAVORS BRIEF CONGRESS SESSION

Chief Executive To Deliver Anti-Inflation Talk To Solons

WASHINGTON, July 21. (AP)—The White House said today that President Truman will deliver personally to Congress next Tuesday his appeal for anti-inflation legislation and other measures.

Mr. Truman will address a joint session of the two houses at 10 a. m. (CST). The time for his appearance Tuesday was decided upon after telephone consultation with both Republican congressional leaders and leaders of the Democratic minority. Congress will convene Monday in answer to Mr. Truman's call. Gov. Thomas E. Dewey, the Republican presidential nominee, is reported favoring a brief GOP law-making program and a quick end to the session. His friends say he feels that GOP leaders, after hearing Mr. Truman's message, should be able to agree on a brief outline of measures that can be passed without long delay.

Presidential Secretary Charles G. Ross said the President is now drafting an anti-inflation bill dealing with rising prices. Ross declined to give any details.

At the same time, Ross would not disclose the extent to which bi-partisan foreign policy will figure in Mr. Truman's talk to the legislators. He said Mr. Truman will ask Congress to remove what the chief executive has described as discriminations in the recently enacted displaced persons bill.

CAN CHANGE COLOR OF EYES, FIX UP EYEBROWS

Plastic Surgeon Develops Technique Of Tattooing For Permanent 'Lipstick'

HOLLYWOOD, July 21. (AP)—The waterfront tattoo parlor has a branch office uptown these days. The technique's a little different, but the idea's just about the same. And who do you think are the best customers? Women. The same women who would look most askance at an arrow-pierced heart on a swain's bicep, or a ship crossing a manly chest under full sail.

Dr. Robert A. Franklyn, Hollywood plastic surgeon, says women are turning increasingly to tattooing for eyebrows, lips and even eyes. Removing birthmarks and creating beauty marks are popular sidelines. Says he:

"The techniques of the waterfront artist have now become dignified and acceptable in the hands of cosmetic surgeons. Eyebrow tattooing is a great thing for girls who can't draw straight lines. And women with tattooed lips never leave lipstick on cocktail glasses or shirtfronts."

On the brows, the surgeon makes a permanent line, shaped to the individual face.

On the lips, the red tattoo—or purple, if desired—can reduce the oversized variety or give the voluptuous look to the thin-lipped. Most popular, he finds, is the "full, sensual, pouting underlip." But the needle can also provide petulance, sophistication or an air of innocence.

For the eyes, Dr. Franklyn—who was with the Royal Canadian Air Force—and other wartime plastic surgeons developed treatments to repair damaged pupils. They have been adapted to plastic surgery, at a price, to actually change the color of the iris.

Blue is the most popular color. Favorite operations are making hazel eyes blue, or making both eyes the same color. It's surprising, the doctor says, how many people have eyes of different shades.

So now, girls, if you want, you can be green-eyed redheads, with really kissproof lips. For $500 up on the eyes, $200 up on the lips.

United States Steel Reveals Price Hike

NEW YORK, July 21. (AP)—United States Steel Corporation today raised its prices and average of $9.34 a ton.

The advance wiped out a cut of $1.25 a ton put into effect in April by U. S. Steel subsidiaries.

Benjamin F. Fairless, president of the firm, said in a statement yesterday the April price reduction was "part of an unsuccessful effort by these subsidiaries to aid in retarding further increases in the cost of living."

The April reduction was linked with a refusal to raise wages and salaries. But last Friday U. S. Steel raised the wages of 170,000 production workers in the CIO's United Steel Workers Union by 9 per cent and forecast a compensating price boost.

"Steel prices have failed to keep pace with the very substantial increases in employment costs, in transportation charges, and in the cost of coal, scrap and other purchased goods and services, creating a financial situation where these subsidiaries have no alternative other than to advance their steel prices," Fairless said.

"The new prices," he added, "embrace a restoration of the average price reduction of about $1.25 a ton made by (U. S. Steel) subsidiaries last April, and in addition include an average increase of approximately $8.09 a ton, or about 9.6 per cent, in the base prices for major steel products then quoted by these subsidiaries. The amount of the price increase varies for different products."

Actress Reports Theft Of Jewels

HOLLYWOOD, July 21. (AP)—Actress Lauren Bacall reports to police the theft of a boxful of jewelry taken from her home while she was cruising with Actor-Husband Humphrey Bogart aboard their yacht.

She told police she was unable to estimate the value of the jewelry but said the trinkets were of great sentimental value. She said she was glad a golden "wolf whistle" attached to a slave bracelet given her by Bogart had been taken with her on the yacht.

"I'd hate to lose that," she said.

Says Cities To Feel Soil Depletion First

DALLAS, July 21. (AP)—Cities will feel the effects of soil depletion before rural communities, A. G. Mayes told the North Texas chapter of Friends of the Land here last night.

The publisher of the Paris News said that cities are the first to be affected by lack of prosperity on the farms.

"I don't own any farm land, but my newspaper is planted in the soil," he told the group.

Thomas Paine's pamphlet, "Common Sense," was credited in 1776 with crystallizing sentiment in favor of independence for Britain's colonies in North America.

Jernigan, Patsy and Mary, Marcel Evans, Mrs. R. I. Findley and James, Odell Vinson, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Morris, and son, and Willie Watson.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Gaskin, Mr. and Mrs. Denver Yates, Mr. and Mrs. V. C. Barber, Don and Lolita.

Sweetwater District Has Youth Rally Here

The Sweetwater district of the Methodist churches held a youth rally at the first Methodist church Monday night.

Rev. Alsie Carlton gave the address and the district officers were installed by Jim Pickens of Midland.

Games were entertainment.

Refreshments were served to those attending from Colorado City, Midland, Ackerly, Andrews, Lamesa, Camp Springs, Stanton, Sweetwater and Big Spring.

ELECT B. E. (Bernie) FREEMAN Tax Assessor-Collector

This business of making a living has made it impossible to see personally all the voters of Howard county.

I want to assure everyone of you that it has not been my intention to slight anyone. I earnestly solicit your vote Saturday.

Consider, if you will, that I served five years as chief deputy in the office I now seek. In addition I have had 15 years of tax accounting experience - important because the duties of the assessor-collector are a lot more varied than merely collecting taxes.

My experience will enable me to serve you effectively from the very first day of the term you give me. I sincerely ask your consideration on the basis of my qualifications. I'll express appreciation in good service.

Circle Meetings Are At Church

"Outposts of America" was topic for discussion by members of the Wesley Methodist Women's Society of Christian Service circles Tuesday afternoon in separate sessions at the church.

The meeting of circle one opened with the singing of a song, "Kingdom is Coming". Mrs. W. L. Baird led in prayer.

Mrs. W. A. Hale led the program and was assisted by Mrs. Fred Franklin, Mrs. N. L. Childress and Mrs. Wayne Nallen.

Others present were Mrs. T. L. Lovelace, Mrs. J. E. Duggan, Mrs. W. W. Coleman, Emma Drake, Mrs. Cecil Nabors and Mrs. C. R. Thompson, a visitor.

The meeting was closed with sentence prayers.

Mrs. W. B. Ayers opened the meeting of circle two with prayer. The program was led by Mrs. W. B. Bryant who was assisted by Mrs. C. C. Williamson, Mrs. Nile Bailey and Mrs. J. W. Bryant.

Others present were Mrs. Ayers and Mrs. Roy Rodman.

A covered dish luncheon will be held next Tuesday at the church for both circles.

Mr. and Mrs. Billy Chrane and baby and B. T. Chrane visited in Odessa Tuesday.

Mrs. Henry Holmes Is Shower Honoree

Mrs. Henry Holmes, nee Virginia Wood, was honored with a tea shower Tuesday evening in the home of Mrs. Lloyd Thompson.

Co-hostesses were Mrs. Hack Hudgins, Beth Phillips, Mrs. Grady Harlan and Mrs. Beulah Morrison.

The refreshment table was decorated with colors of pink and green, the white lace cloth being over pink satin. Crystal punch service and candelabra appointed the table which was decorated with small nosegays of pink roses, baby's breath and fern placed at vantage points around the punch bowl and along the center of the table. The candelabra were filled with pink tapers.

All members of the houseparty wore corsages of pink and white gladioli. Baskets of gladioli were used to decorate the party rooms.

The honoree, her mother, Mrs. D. Woods, and Mrs. Thompson were in the receiving line.

Mrs. Russ Moughn and Beth Phillips served refreshments. Mrs. Morrison and Mrs. Hudgins displayed the gifts. Mrs. Justin Holmes registered guests.

Approximately 50 guests attended.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Sayer of Long Beach, Calif., is visiting with her sister, Mrs. Joseph P. Hayden.

WHAT GIVES 'ROUND TOWN

By Leatrice Ross

A preview of odds and ends picked up about the town on a typical weekend:

Saturday evening at the Legion Clubhouse: A host of boys with Alpha Sigma Pi fraternity at Texas Tech took up one of the larger tables. With them were wives and friends including Dot Day and Mary Ann Goodson. The lads were here for an annual frat reunion—and so fine did Big Spring settle with them that they will be back again in 1949.

Twosomes at the Saturday night dance: Jean Duncan, Lynn Jeffcoat; Peggy Uthoff, Don Richardson; Coddie Selkirk, Junior Gav; Jean McCall, Bill Stewart; Juanita Sewell, Clark Sunday (Lubbock); Edna Shannon, Gray Birkhead; Doris McElrath, Harry Echols; Helen Montgomery, Harold Berry; Dot Cauble, Gerald Burrows; Janice Corning, Bill Beauchamp; Rosalind Beale, Beans Miller.

Strange things must go on in the minds of spectators at the grapple matches on Monday evenings. To wit: Woody Baker sat stolidly through one match and two falls of the second match with little more than a switching back and fourth of the eyes to follow moves of the wrestlers. And suddenly he astounds us by suggesting vehemently that "He ought to be kicked in the stomach!" and thereafter lost all composure. Ah, well.

Others out to see the bone crushing: Gay Hilburn, Bobby Hollis; Nancy Lovelace, Ensor Puckett; Dot Day, Lynn Jeffcoat; Bill Van Crunk, Bill Merrick, Joe Madison, James Fannin, Junior Gay and his sister, Virginia. Virginia has been visiting here from DeKalb, probably will leave next week.

Disa and data: Dancing at the Roski club in Odessa Saturday night: Ruby Dell Bell, Ratford Gillihan, Claire Yates, Robert Coffee ... Ethel Lomax and Minnie Earl Johnson are announced as, pre-season rushees into Epsilon Sigma Alpha sorority... LaVon Hoard is in town this week. She is employed by a modeling agency in New York City and Philadelphia.

Comings and goings: Bobby Bell got off on the Tuesday afternoon bus for Randolph Field after over two weeks' around town... Pete Cook came in Tuesday from Dallas where he attended a fraternal get together of the Silver Key organization at Tech. Headquartered in the Jefferson Hotel, dates were July 17-18-19.

Jean Ellen Chowns is in Pampa visiting Mable Smith. Mable, you remember, spent the weekend here...

Mary Nell Cook was initiated into the Lambda chapter of Zeta Tau Alpha sorority at Southwestern university this weekend. While in Georgetown she attended the marriage of J. L. Dibrell, III, to Mary Davis of Georgetown.

Assorted comment: On national affairs—of all things: Bobby Hollis wags his head back and forth predicting a quick draft... Kenneth Cannon thinks war is imminent. On the weather: Lynn Jeffcoat deplors Texas' heat, nostalgically recalling California... Rep. Peppy Blount, passing up in campaign, believes it's much too hot to move about as fast as he finds he must.

And five more locals were snapped up this weekend in engagements: Joyce Jones - R. H. Weaver, Dot Wasson-James Duncan, Bonnie Byers, Edgar Shumaker (he is from Coolidge, Ariz.)

Consider, if you will, that I served five years as chief deputy in the office I now seek. In addition I have had 15 years of tax accounting experience - important because the duties of the assessor-collector are a lot more varied than merely collecting taxes.

My experience will enable me to serve you effectively from the very first day of the term you give me. I sincerely ask your consideration on the basis of my qualifications. I'll express appreciation in good service.

Default And Intrusion

Many individuals have begun to reiterate the thesis that migration of federal authority into the domain of the states is the result of invitation by default.

Thus it is that the states, rather than meeting issues squarely and coming to grips with vexing financial problems, have looked to Washington for the solution. It has been discovered that the source of the money was the same. This has had the effect of leading some to a state of alarm over the scope of federal service and power.

Though modest at the moment, there is a growing school which advocates assumption of responsibilities by the states so that so many calls will not have to be made on the federal government.

In this pattern it seems to us that there is a lesson that should reach into the so-called civil rights issue. A good portion of the south-ern states are of the opinion that the issue is one to be handled by the states. It will be interesting to note that much of the rise of demand for federal intrusion has followed a disposition to delay facing the question. Perhaps one of the best weapons that the South could employ is to come to grips with the problem and by so doing say that it is not merely blocking and defeating but is seeking to handle the situation.

Support Most Qualified Ones

It is not too early—and not too late—to remind you once again that Saturday is an important day. The democratic primary is tantamount to election for local candidates.

The field is fertile in numbers this year. It ought to be possible to select well qualified officials out of the lists available.

This can't be done blindly. It ought not to be done on prejudice or simply because you don't like what a certain individual said to you, or how he parts his hair, or who his mother-in-law might be.

The basis for good government, we repeat, is for voters to vote honestly for those whom they believe to be best qualified for a position. This may not always be a happy or easy choice, but it is a satisfying experience.

There is yet time to inform yourself. If you are in doubt about certain individuals, ask your friends or people who know them. Ask about their ability, their habits, their reputation. Ask here and there so that you will get a general opinion, not merely one or two.

Then ask yourself the question: "Who will best serve this county or precinct?" Then let your pencil give expression to the answer at the polls Saturday.

PERSHING WAS BOTH TARTAR AND SOFTIE

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK, July 21. (U.P.)—It isn't every sergeant in the army who is promoted for splashing mud all over a full-ranking general.

J. Norman ("the Old Sarge") Lodge believes he is the only sergeant in the American Army who got a higher rank by giving Gen. John J. Pershing an impromptu mud bath.

Lodge, an Associated Press correspondent overseas during the second world war, served as an enlisted man with Pershing in Mexico and in France.

Serving as a sniper with the infantry, Lodge was gassed in one early engagement in the first world war and hit in both legs by German machine gun bullets in another battle. When he recovered, he was assigned to duty as a motorcycle dispatch rider.

"In spite of the shell-torn roads we had to keep a schedule," he recalled. "From Souilly to Chaumont, Pershing's headquarters. It was two hours—an almost impossible feat."

"One day I was late and rode into the chateau yard at Chaumont just as Pershing was emerging, neatly dressed as always."

"It had been raining and as I skidded up to the steps the motorcycle splattered Gen. Pershing with mud."

"His quick temper flared. His short riding crop, which was as much a part of his uniform as his highly polished boots, came up and down—across my knuckles."

Lodge, his knuckles stinging, saluted. Pershing took a look at the sergeant's stripes on his sleeves and said sternly:

"What is your name, Private?"

"Lodge, sir, 69855, headquarters, 101st Infantry, 26th Division."

Lodge thereupon handed the general's aide the dispatches. The next morning he cut the sergeant stripes off his sleeves before reporting for orders.

"The adjutant noticed it and smiled," Lodge said. "When I returned to my unit I had been given a rating as battalion sergeant major—two pay grades above my former rating—by the general's own orders."

"But that's the way Pershing was a tartar, yet a softie."

Lodge recalled another time when his unit waited four hours in the rain for Pershing to inspect it. Finally the bugle blew attention, and four Cadillacs sped down the line splattering the troops with mud. The rigid men said "Damn!"

But Pershing dismounted from his car and walked back on foot through the rain in ankle deep mud to review the whole line. Then he said simply:

"Colonel, my congratulations. Your lines are straight, your men are soldiers."

Recalling Pershing's strict discipline during the Mexican campaign, Lodge said:

"We made forced hikes of 30 to 40 miles a day, then had to groom four to eight mounts at night, bivouac before tending to our own aching limbs and saddle sores."

"Many of us couldn't understand why we camped for the night and then had to ride extra miles for fresh water—for the horses. The men could drink alkali water; the horses had to have fresh water. But without mounts a cavalryman couldn't have lasted in that hell-hole for two days."

West Bloc Showdown

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
We hear from informed quarters in Washington that the Western Allies—America, Britain and France—are expected to reach agreement this week on a program aimed at countering, with forceful measures, the Russian food blockade of Western Berlin.

That's grand! It means a major showdown, because this savage attempt to starve the civilian population of the German capital has become a symbol of the Russian challenge to democracy.

But let's get it straight just what "forceful measures" means. It doesn't necessarily mean strong arm action. It presumably does mean economic or political sanctions (or both) which would be calculated to put a fierce squeeze on the Muscovites.

I emphasize this point because rather a lot of talk about "measures of force" is being bandied about. In its essence that is war talk. Such talk doesn't win wars, but it can breed 'em. We've already seen one sharp reaction in the heavy slump on the stock market.

There are various ways in which powerful sanctions could be applied. One of these, as this column has pointed out before, would be through action by the United Nations which could apply sanctions after conviction.

But supposing the U N should find it impossible to handle this crisis—what then? Well, the Democratic bloc could get together and apply the sanctions outside the U N. They are the ones who would have to make the sanctions effective anyway, even if the peace organization ordered them.

The Russians and their slave-states certainly wouldn't cut their own throats.

Such sanctions might mean not only a severance of diplomatic relations with Russia and her satellites but the stoppage of all trade with the Communist bloc. That would be terrific punishment.

"IS IT HOT ENOUGH FOR YOU?"

Washington Merry-Go-Round—

B-29 Maneuvers Over Germany Could Drop Pamphlets, Goods That Would Reach Soviet

By DREW PEARSON
ED. NOTE—Drew Pearson's column today takes the form of a letter to the U. S. Secretary of Air, suggesting a peaceful use for our B-29s in their maneuvers over Germany.

July 21, 1948
STUART SYMINGTON
Secretary for Air
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Secretary:

You have now sent 60 giant B-29s to England to maneuver over Germany. This is an important manifestation of American strength and a majority of the American people—including the undersigned—will support you on this. But I should like to make a suggestion as to how you can also use these bombers for a dual purpose.

In other words, while making a demonstration of our latent force, they can also make a demonstration of our latent friendship.

In brief, they can help to tell the Russian people the real truth about the peace-desiring people of the United States.

It may be that I am a terrible bore on the subject, but I am convinced that we must go over the Kremlin's head to the Russian people in order to convince them that the United States—contrary to Moscow propaganda—is composed of people who do not want war, even though they will fight if pushed far enough.

As long as the Russian government has no senate, no congress, and, most important of all, no public opinion to hold the check-rein on the Kremlin, our only common-sense policy is to get to the Russian people ourselves with the truth.

When the Moscow radio tells the Russian people that all the great buildings and bridges in the U.S.A. were designed by Russians we can laugh it off. But when the Moscow radio describes us as warmongers threatening to invade Russia, then it's an obvious build-up for a war which the Russian people don't want, but which the 14 men in the Kremlin have to justify.

MORE
During the war we spent millions of dollars dropping leaflets, cakes of soap, packages of tea over other nations in order to convince them that we were friendly to them as people (though not to their dictators). This expense was fully justified on the ground that it shortened the war and saved lives.

How much more important, and how many more lives could be saved by preventing war in the first place by going over the heads of the Kremlin and getting to the Russian people.

The State Department, of course, is trying to do this in a routine sort of way through its Voice of America. However, radio sets are few in Russia and probably only a fraction of the people ever hear our propaganda.

So here is my suggestion. The 60 giant B-29s you have sent to Europe will have their effect on the Kremlin. Let's also make them felt by the Russian people—in an entirely different way—by having them drop messages of friendship.

Actually the planes will not fly over Russia, so the messages couldn't be dropped direct. But they will fly a few miles from the border over Germany, and the wind currents are such that small balloons released from the B-29s would float over Russia.

The War Assets Administration informs me that it has half a million small balloons left over from the war, previously used for weather soundings. The government has been selling these for 37 cents' apiece. In my opinion they could be worth about $3,700 apiece in good will and in war prevention if they floated down over Russia with hundreds of Russians in the villages scrambling for them and talking about them.

Can you imagine the difficulty the Kremlin would have in explaining away these balloons!

During the war, the Japanese took advantage of the weather currents to float balloons all the way across the Pacific ocean carrying explosives. They were balloons of death. We can reverse the process with balloons of friendship.

Furthermore, we can reverse the process with no expense to the government. F. W. Danner of Akron, Ohio, has patriotically offered to print 1,000,000 copies of a message to the Russian people without charge. In addition, Percy Smith of 42 Products Ltd., Los Angeles, has written me that his company would be glad to supply bars of soap imprinted with a message. Soap is almost as precious as gold in Russia.

In addition, the Schutter Candy Company of Chicago has volunteered a million candy bars, while the U. S. Time Corporation (Ingersoll) has said it would contribute a number of Mickey Mouse wrist-watches over which the Russians go crazy.

These are just a few of the people who would be glad to come forward and help their country prevent war. It's not new for people to help their country to win a war, but I find that a lot of people also are only too anxious to help their country prevent war.

In other words, these friendship messages could be dropped over Russia at no expense to them whatsoever, other than the cost of the gasoline to fly the planes—and you will have to use the same amount of gasoline on maneuvers anyway.

One of the surest ways to head off war is to show the Russian people that we, the American people, aren't what the 14 men in the Kremlin say we are.

As long as the Kremlin knows that 180,000,000 Russians will unflinchingly obey the order to march—without congressional debate, without criticism, and without knowing anything about the issues—then war can be just around the corner.

I repeat that all sorts of people, including the undersigned, will be glad to help you with this project so that it won't cost the government a cent. It can't hurt and it may do some good. I hope this suggestion is not presumptuous and that you will let me know what you think of it.

Very sincerely yours,
Drew Pearson

BARKLEY'S CHOICE

President Truman did not take any part in naming Senator Barkley as his running mate.

However, he told close advisers that the juxtaposition of their two neighboring states—Missouri and Kentucky—added nothing geographically to the ticket, whereas the Republican candidates—coming from New York and California—had a wide geographical appeal.

Also Truman thought Barkley's age—70—would make it difficult for him to stage a vigorous campaign.

Finally, the President's personal candidate, next to Justice William O. Douglas, was trust-buster Senator Joe O'Mahoney of Wyoming. O'Mahoney's opponents, chiefly Irish-Catholic Democratic leaders, urged that O'Mahoney not be on the ticket because of the religious angle.

Colbert Advises Newcomers To Try Short-Bob Hairdo

By BOB THOMAS
HOLLYWOOD (U.P.)—With most of Hollywood's glamor girls—followed by a large portion of the nation's female population—snipping their hair short, bob-veteran Claudette Colbert can afford to sit back and smile.

Claudette, who has sported an abbreviated hair-do these many years (don't count them!), has words of wisdom to the new convert.

"They say, 'Cut your hair for the summer because it's so easy to dress; just wash it and run a comb through it and there you are,'" she related on the "Family Honeymoon" set.

"But," she added in a menacing tone, "short hair is more trouble than long."

"Unless your hair is naturally curly, the two or three inches of hair must be constantly trimmed—and off comes your permanent. I have my hair dressed every day and a new permanent every three or four weeks. See—I just had mine thinned between the shots of the last scene." She shook her head as evidence.

The present Colbert hair style was originated when cameramen told her that she looked too severe with her locks pulled straight back from her face.

MICROPHONE HAS CHANGED CAMPAIGNING

By WILLIAM C. BARNARD
Today, while restrained campaigns for the U. S. Senate and governorship are drawing to a dignified close, some Texas oldtimers will be contrasting the political fireworks of a bygone day.

The entertainment, showmanship and circus aspects that plumed politics in the Lone Star state for three decades generally are missing from the current state and U. S. Senate contests.

Radio talks have succeeded the fiery variety of stump oratory. Microphone technique is more important than lung-power. The microphone is credited with the final defeat of the late Jim Ferguson, a man who rose out of impeachment from the governor's office to become a dominant figure in Texas politics for 20 years.

Public address systems trimmed the wings of his soaring oratory.

Lyndon Johnson's helicopter is a campaign gadget of an air age, and it draws crowds over the state. To make the crowds bigger, Johnson this week added a vaudeville show to his routine. George Peedy has been the best phrasemaker of the U. S. Senate race but his phrases have been mild and few. Coke Stevenson provides a quiet sort of campaign color. . . . He preached, the other day, that he can shake seven hands in 60 seconds flat.

What changes time hath wrought. Two decades of Ferguson spellbinding plus another 10 years of Sen. W. Lee O'Daniel's famed hillbilly band.

An oldtimer told us last night: "I never voted for Jim Ferguson but I never missed an opportunity to hear him and I hung on every word he said. Many times I watched him make whole crowds cry. He could have an audience laughing one minute, crying the next and roaring mad the next."

"A big man with a black string tie, Ferguson stood on a wagon bed platform and used a gourd dipper to swig water from an oak-oak bucket. While he drank, his piercing dark eyes, over the top of the dipper, would take in the crowd."

"And when he lambasted his opponents as only he could do it, the crowds would always yell. 'Pour it on 'em Jim, pour it on 'em,' and Jim would really pour it on. There never could be another one like him." Farmer Jim died in 1944.

Ferguson, who won the governor's chair for himself once and his wife twice, lost his last political battle in 1940. That year, Mrs. Ferguson made her third try for the governorship, opposing O'Daniel.

Still pecking plenty of punch, the aging Ferguson stumped the state, calling O'Daniel "a misplaced musician, a wandering minstrel, a slick-haired guitar picker."

O'Daniel, a microphone, his sword and his hillybilly band, his shield, replied with taunts of "professional politician."

To which Farmer Jim quipped: "I'd rather be a professional politician than a professional ignoramus."

Yep, times have changed.

Solons Can Do Service

By JAMES MARLOW
WASHINGTON, July 20. (U.P.)—While the politicians beat one another over the head with sticks, the public can sit back, grin and say:

"Well, maybe we'll get some good out of this special session of Congress, no matter what happens to the fortunes of the Democrats or Republicans."

That's the main point. Right now the politicians are arguing about President Truman's calling the special session. The argument goes something like this:

He pulled a cheap political trick in calling the Republican-controlled Congress back into session because he only wants to embarrass the Republicans and build up campaign ammunition for his own reelection.

Or—
He pulled a smart stunt in calling the special session because in this way he can try to force the Republicans to show whether they really mean the promises they made in their 1948 campaign platform.

Mr. Truman last November recommended to the Republican Congress that it do a number of things he considered important.

The Republican-controlled Congress ignored most of his recommendations and quit for the rest of 1948—or thought it did—when it adjourned in June.

So a great many of the Truman recommendations were shoved aside.

Then the Democrats and Republicans had their conventions in Philadelphia and drew up their party platforms.

Those platforms, as such platforms always go, are a collection of promises each party said it would work on if it won the election next November.

Both platforms contained some of the recommendations made last fall by Mr. Truman but ignored by Congress.

But the party winning control of the government in the November elections won't take office till next January.

Primary System Needs A Change

Come Saturday voters of Howard county join the statewide parade to the polls. It is democratic primary day, and for all practical purposes it is election day.

Texas is predominantly democratic (at least in name). This means that except in isolated districts or under the most unusual of circumstances, a republican wouldn't get to first base in the voting.

This situation has posed a problem which is becoming more pronounced as new generations appear on the scene and more people migrate from the North and East. It simply is this: How can republicans or non-democrats have a voice in choosing local and state candidates?

I guess I was born a democrat, anyway I like it. Although I figure to do right on as such, I don't happen to be one of those who believe that no republican can go to heaven. It's a matter of politics and personalities. There are good people and bad people in all parties and no party has the monopoly on virtue.

Probably there are thousands who agree with me that Texas would be better off with some semblance of balance on a two party system, but the same thousands are as fixed in their minds as I am that they won't be the ones to switch and bring about the balance. Until it does happen, however, the republican is literally deprived of an effective voice in choosing local candidates and most state candidates.

Some of them take a handy course. I refer to the practice of republican voters participating in democratic primaries.

It may be argued that there are not enough to make any difference and that it is an easy solution to the problem. But it can make a difference, particularly on a state basis. Assume that there was a closely contested race, so close that only a few thousand votes separated the two leading men. It is conceivable that solid republican support of one could swing the primary. Thus it might be the republican and not the democratic voter who decided the result. So as a matter of policy, principle and pur conscience, I think republicans ought to stay out of democratic primaries. Election judges might stop a few transgressions, but by and large, it is going to be an issue to be decided by the individual.

In justice to the republican voters, what can be done toward giving them a more equitable voice in selection of their officials in a nominally democratic state? I don't have the answer to that. It might be that we could revise our system of primaries and elections. For example, let the democrats—and the republicans—hold state and (presidential) preferential primaries somewhat earlier than now. Then, sometime prior to the date of the general election, have an open primary for all local candidates. Or, why not have registration replace poll taxes—registration as democrats, republicans, independents, socialists, communists, etc.?

I am realist enough to anticipate that the idea is full of holes and of so many that academic interest, and that probably by the time we get around to doing something about it the republicans will be strong enough to have their own primary. I only hope intrusion into the democratic primary will not have become such a habit that they cannot give it up at that time.—JOE PICKLE

Irish Crooners Are A 'Feudin'

By JACK O'BRIAN
NEW YORK—Two of our leading Irish crooners are at the feuding stage. Two of our leading producers threaten to knock the other's block off. Backstage at one of the town's leading hits, the leading lady and her leading man ain't talking. Half a dozen of our fancy saloonkeepers either won't enter their rivals' clubs or are barred. . . . Which is a lot of venom for these hot days.

First reports from the summer theaters indicate a bonanza season. There's a move on to put the life of Comic Bobby Clark into a musical comedy for the Fall, based on a recent New Yorker mag profile. But Bobby can't play in it, having been previously committed to Mike Todd for a tune show with a cute twist to its story. Watch for one of the biggest musicals to fold before Fall, losing a barrel of dough.

Of 20 productions on the boards as of this scribbling, unlucky 13 may be the number to shutter, leaving Broadway with fewer legit items than any Summer in a decade. . . . Rube Bernstein, a Broadway sage, made a bet a year ago that "Annie Get Your Gun" would outlast both "Brigadoon" and "Finian's Rainbow" on Broadway. . . . "Annie" might even last another year. . . . It made more money in its second season on Broadway than any new musical running in competition!

"Howdy, Mr. Lee" at the Center Theater, won better reviews than any of its gliding predecessors and is the newest Broadway hit. . . . Freddie Trenker is wearing a garland of fancy notices for his comic antics. . . . And Eileen Seigh, a sprite who learned her stuff on her native Brooklyn fords, was pronounced a possible contender for La Ronis's skating glamor eminence.

Lou Walters isn't making his safe rivals any happier during these dog days of offering Abbott and Costello $15,000 a week to play his Latin Quarter. . . . John Alexander now of "Born Yesterday," will turn producer in the Fall if he can find a script. . . . I know a hundred others who will do the same. . . . Good scripts are scarcer than the traditional lady-chickens-teeth. . . . Eddie Cantor stopping traffic in the Waldorf lobby while swankers entirely ignore another famous gent, our only living ex-president, Herbert Hoover

Rio Grande Farmer Finds Mexico Ban On Labor Recruiting No Idle Threat

REYNOSA, Mexico, July 20.—A tall Rio Grande farmer, set in a Mexican jail here today awaiting a hearing on a charge that he tried to hire citizens of Mexico to harvest his cotton crop. This is the third day in the prison for H. Edwin Harris, 31-year-old graduate of Texas A. & M. College, former State Department employe and overseas officer in World War II.

"I know now," said he, "that Mexico really doesn't want Mexicans to work in Texas."

Harris, who owns a 115-acre farm near Lyford, Tex., crossed the Rio Grande to this border town Monday afternoon and was arrested a short time later.

His case comes up before Reynosa Federal Judge Marin Espinosa today, and he may be admitted to bail.

Last night prison authorities allowed him out of his cell long enough to be interviewed by telephone. He told the Associated Press:

"Hiring cotton pickers from Mexico to harvest crops in the Valley has been going on as long as I can remember. I knew it was supposed to be against the law but I didn't figure anyone took it seriously on either side of the river."

"I can see now how wrong I was. I am in a vermin-infested cell with about 150 people. At first, all I could think of was getting out."

Cobra Bite Kills Famous Woman Snake Trainer

LONG BEACH, Calif., July 21. (AP)—Mrs. Grace Olive Wiley, 64, one of the world's most skillful handlers of deadly snakes, had said she would prefer death from a snake bite to any other way.

Yesterday she was bitten on the finger by one of her venomous cobras. An hour and a half later she died.

She had been trying to make the cobra lift its head and spread its hood to be photographed. After the snake struck, Mrs. Wiley calmly removed the fangs from her finger and replaced the reptile in its cage. After emergency treatment she was rushed to a hospital.

Mrs. Wiley was credited with being one of the few people able to train deadly cobras. Many of her snakes had appeared in motion pictures.

Truman May Make Trip To Key West

KEY WEST, Fla., July 21. (AP)—President Truman says he will return to the "Little White House" here, "if things go right."

The President replied to a Chamber of Commerce telegram congratulating him on winning the Democratic nomination and expressing the hope he would visit the island after the November election.

"I certainly appreciate your good telegram of the 15th," Mr. Truman wrote in reply, "and if things go right you rest assured I'll be back in Key West one of these days."

Resigns Demo Post

COLUMBIA, S. C., July 21. (AP)—J. Strom Thurmond, presidential candidate of rebellious Southern Democrats, has resigned from the National Democratic committee he said last night.

Some prospectors have sunk prospecting oil wells more than 20 miles off land in the Gulf of Mexico.

inch tall, told of his arrest: "I borrowed my father-in-law's car and crossed the river to Reynosa."

"On the Mexican side of the river I saw some Mexicans on the river bank. I stopped to talk with them and just then up came the law."

"They got out of their car with their guns waving. They brought me to this federal jail. When I got out of the Army, after four years, my wife and I decided to farm because we wanted peace. And look at me now!"

The American government does not allow the contracting of Mexican laborers to work in Texas because of alleged discrimination. Mexican authorities said the penalty on conviction in the case could be imprisonment of from two to five years in the federal penitentiary and a fine up to $2,000.

Truce Succeeds In Holy Land

CAIRO, July 21. (AP)—The latest United Nations truce appeared today to have brought quiet to the Holy Land except in the northern sector where Israeli and Syrian forces clashed.

Even there the tempo of the fighting appeared to be slackening. A Syrian communique said an enemy plane raided the area of Banlyas, just across the border in Syria. Both Jews and Arabs accused each other of violating the truce.

Late yesterday 68 American and Belgian military officers and men arrived in Rhodes en route to Palestine to act as truce observers for Count Folke Bernadotte, the UN mediator.

Brundage Plans To Quit Post

ABOARD THE S. S. AMERICA, July 21. A. S. Avery Brundage, a storm center of amateur sports for years, says this is the last time he will lead United States forces into the Olympic Games.

The man who has guided U. S. Olympic affairs for nearly 20 years and ridden out numerous controversies made the announcement Monday as the bulk of America's 1948 team neared English port.

"It is generally understood," he said casually, "that I will not accept the presidency of the United States Olympic Association again. I think it's a good thing for the presidency to be passed around."

Library Friends Mapping Plans For Book Review
Friends of the Howard County Free Library are mapping plans for an early autumn book review, which might be combined with an art exhibit.
This event is contemplated as a free public service to members and their guests. Mrs. B. L. LeFever is to be responsible for the review and inquiries are to be made about the possibility of getting exhibits from the Texas Fine Arts association for the occasion.

Mr. G. K. Chadd told of good attendance for the regular Tuesday morning study hours for youngsters up to 10 and 12 years of age at the YMCA. Last week Mrs. L. G. Bradley's Indian lore and display attracted more than 30 children. Next Tuesday, she said, Mrs. Charles Watson is to tell stories to the youngsters. An appropriation of $15 for films for these affairs was voted.

Mr. T. C. Thomas, president, told how the group had cooperated in the Southern Town Hall ticket sales. She also reported that active membership in the association stood at 202. The Child's Study club was announced as a sustaining member among organizations and Cosden Petroleum Corp. a patron-member ($200). Mrs. Benny Collins, librarian, announced a memorial book, "Big Spring" given by Shine Phillips in memory of Mrs. F. F. Gary.

Elliott Slates Talk With Local Project Group
Aubrey Elliott, Austin, is to be here Monday and Tuesday to confer with the steering committee of the community project council.
Dr. Robert L. Sutherland, director of the Hog Foundation, which is cooperating with the Women's Foundation in assisting in a community-wide demonstration project scheduled Elliott after the steering committee here had informed him Monday that it had decided on education as its chief concern.

The committee's decision came after studies of a dozen special areas of need as suggested by Harold Matthews, sent here by the Women's Foundation some two months ago for a precursory study. It was agreed among the members that at the present time, the school situation is the community's most pressing need.

Elliott, an educational authority who is a member of the University of Texas faculty, has had considerable experience in assisting citizens groups interested in educational problems and most recently advised with such a group in Austin. Dr. Sutherland suggested that the committee take steps toward organizing a permanent community project council. This council, in turn, might assist in providing an advisory committee which would offer its services to the school board in studying and attacking problems relating to financing and other elements of school administration.

Youth Caravaners Address Lions
John Craig, Dallas, member of one of the Presbyterian caravaners, told Lions club members Wednesday that "young people are looking for you for help."
Youth, he said, expected to find in adults "our shining examples" for complete, well-rounded lives.

Country Club Owners Approve Expansion Plan
Stockholders of the Big Spring Country Club Tuesday night authorized the club's board of directors to proceed with plans for completing physical improvements at the organization's club house.

Improvement funds amounting to approximately $23,000 already have been subscribed and expended on a major project that is nearing completion. To obtain additional funds to continue the work, the board was authorized to borrow up to $15,000 from stockholders. Stockholders may purchase five-year, interest bearing notes in denominations ranging from $25 to $500. The notes are to be retired from regular club revenues.

Old Fiddlers' Tilt Set For July 30
The Old Fiddlers' contest, a feature of the annual Old Settlers' reunion here, will be held immediately following the Friday, July 30, barbecue at the city park, Don Bohannon, chairman of the planning committee, stated today.

SURVEY SHOWS Best Educated Women Still Have The Fewest Children
WASHINGTON, July 21. (AP)—The best-educated women have the fewest children, but the difference isn't as great as before the war. The Census Bureau said today it found that out in checking up on who's been having all the children that sent the country's population soaring since 1940.

Another thing the bureau said it learned: farmers and poor people still have the most children, but city folks and the richer people have been catching up with them. On the matter of education the bureau found that in both 1940 and 1947, the number of children decreased as the amount of schooling went up. College graduates, for example, had fewer children than women who went to college only a short while. And women who went to grammar school seven or eight years had fewer babies than those who went five or six years.

The 1,646,000 college graduates averaged 271 children among each 1,000 of them; 2,891,000 who had some college work averaged 306; 11,298,000 high school graduates averaged 323; 9,536,000 non-graduates 398. Among the 12,368,000 women with grammar school education only. The average was 422 children per 1,000 having six or seven years schooling, while those with five or six years averaged 477. The general average was 367 children per 1,000.

Area Cotton Appears To Be In Good Shape
M. Weaver, AAA county supervisor who made a tour of area farming sections recently, said the early cotton appears to be in excellent shape and generally free from boll worms and flea hoppers. There is some evidence of boll worms and hoppers in some sections but there is no indication the threat is a major and spreading one. Much of the cotton has a good stand, Weaver stated.

Vote Tabulation Board Going Up
A sure sign that election day is almost upon us is the appearance of the tabulation board, which is being erected on the south side of the court house under the supervision of W. L. McCollister. The board will be used to keep a running account on all races as far as they are counted after the polls close at 7 p. m. The huge slate is the same one used in every election here since 1932.

May Top 500 Mark
A total of 482 absentee ballots for the First Democratic Primary election has been accepted by the county clerk's office this morning and several dozen others were expected to arrive by mail today and Thursday, pushing the aggregation over the 500 mark. Absentee voting ended Tuesday at 5 p. m. but those votes mailed before midnight last night will be accepted and counted.

NEW YORK, July 21. (AP)—The stock market rallied today after three sessions of severe weakness. Steel, railway and oil shares led the way with gains running to nearly 2 points. Fractional improvement was the rule elsewhere.

Rookie Cop May Meet Dad's Fate

DETROIT, July 21. (AP)—A stubborn will to escape the fate of his father kept a young policeman alive today in spite of several serious bullet wounds inflicted by two unknown gunmen.

And from the receiving hospital bed where he now is given a 50-50 chance to live, 23-year-old rookie Casimer Kallszewski even was able to give police a little help in tracking down the two youths who fired on him as he walked his beat alone early yesterday morning.

Kallszewski, whose father was shot to death by bandits 23 years ago when he too was a rookie cop, is sure he recognized his assailants. But he couldn't name them and was too weak to attempt a description.

"Do you know who shot you?" asked a detective.

The slight nod meant "Yes."

"How many were there?"

Two fingers were lifted from the white sheets in a feeble gesture.

"Can you name them?"

"No," said an almost imperceptible shake of the head.

"Would you be able to identify them?"

Again came the nod.

Police began a roundup of suspects, looking for two young bandits who might have accosted Kallszewski as he entered an alley. They fled in a black car.

But at the bedside where her son lay so close to death, Mrs. Helen Kallszewski remembered with anguish a similar experience when Casimer Senior died in her arms not long after he joined the police force.

Through the nightmare of waiting she recalled how young Casimer, born six months later, told her of his decision to become a policeman like his father.

"The same thing can't happen to me that happened to Daddy," he reassured her then. "Lightning can't strike twice in the same place."

Mrs. Dolores Kallszewski, the wounded patrolman's 21-year-old bride of eight months, collapsed at the hospital. But her mother-in-law kept up the vigil.

She had been through it before.

PRICE FIXING CHARGE

Major Paint Firms Under Indictment

PITTSBURGH, Pa., July 21. (AP)—Firms which make nearly half the nation's paints, varnishes and lacquers, and the men who run them were under indictment today—charged with a conspiracy to fix the prices of their products.

A federal grand jury, acting on complaints of the U. S. government, handed down the indictments in U. S. district court yesterday, naming 14 major paint companies and 20 officials.

These companies, the indictments said, handled more than 45 dollar yearly paint business.

Attorney General Tom Clark said the cases were a part of the government's anti-trust program aimed at "illegal conspiracies" in the housing fields.

He said Commerce Department records "indicate that prices in the paint industry rose more rapidly after the removal of OPA ceilings than in any other industry."

The indictments specifically accused the firms of engaging in "a combination and conspiracy to fix, stabilize, maintain and control the prices, discounts, allowances and terms of sale" of their products.

The firms, the indictments said, agreed to exchange with each other information about prices charged, and other factors affecting prices.

In Cleveland, spokesmen for two of the companies under indictment protested there was no basis for the charges.

Adrian D. Joyce, chairman of the board of Glidden Co., said: "There's nothing to it. We never met with any other paint concern to discuss prices and costs. Our prices are very much the same as other firms' due to competition."

Luther H. Schroeder, treasurer of Sherwin-Williams Co., declared: "We don't see any basis for it (the charges) whatsoever."

'CHILDREN'S HOUR' ENDED

NEWARK, N.J., July 21. (AP)—The "children's hour" has made its last stand at a Hoboken tavern.

The special periods of television programs for children, with the bar closed and adults excluded, no longer may be held at Patrick Radigan's Bar, Alcoholic Beverage Control Commissioner Erwin B. Hock ruled yesterday.

"Longfellow would turn over in his grave if he could see the locale of your children's hour," Hock commented.

Oklahoma Miner Is Still Missing

McCURTAIN, Okla., July 21. (AP)—Rescue workers continued their search today for a miner missing after an explosion in the Lone Star coal mine.

The missing worker is Lars Vinge, 54. Another miner, Millard Hatley, 27, was injured fatally in the blast yesterday.

Campbell Cameron, general mine superintendent, reported late last night that a fire which followed the explosion was becoming less intense. He said the explosion was caused by dereliction of a loaded string of coal cars in the mine's main shaft.

Nineteen workers walked to safety.

The mine, operated by the Lone Star Steel Co. was just starting production after having been closed for almost three years.

U.S. Is Shipping Army Supplies To British Base

SALINA, Kas., July 21. (AP)—A heavy supply of Army equipment reportedly was being readied today for shipment from Camp Phillips to England.

The information came from a source considered reliable. The source, who declined use of his name, said gun carriages, command cars, ambulances and other vehicles were loaded on 240 flat cars.

In addition box cars reportedly were being loaded with such supplies as uniforms and blankets.

Army officials in Washington said the reported shipment appeared too large to be a normal consignment of replacement equipment for occupation forces in Europe.

The source here said he understood the movement was being directed by authorities at the Smoky Hill Air Force Base, a B-29 bomber field. An Air Force spokesman in Washington, however, said the material was not Air Force shipment.

Campaign Upsets Warren Vacation

SANTA BARBARA, Calif., July 21. (AP)—Earl Warren is having vacation troubles now that he has two jobs—governor of California and Republican vice-presidential nominee.

Warren arrived here yesterday, ostensibly for a 10-day rest. Right away he addressed the Santa Barbara Club. Saturday he will inspect the National Guard encampment at San Luis Obispo.

Sunday he flies to Wyoming for a Wild West celebration. Then he heads for Colorado to address a Republican state committee.

The governor hopes to return for a day or two with his wife and youngsters before going to Chicago and New York on campaign business.

Baruch Will Not Talk About Trip

NEW YORK, July 21. (AP)—Presidential Adviser Bernard M. Baruch returned by plane early today from a European visit of almost three weeks and declined to comment on the purpose of his trip.

"I am a private citizen," he told newsmen. "I was on no commission. I had nothing to do over there."

Baruch visited London, Paris and Amsterdam.

Asked if he had any hope for ultimate adoption of his plan for control of atomic energy, he said "I cherish that hope. I think it must come."

Baruch said he expects to return to Europe shortly.

Jap Volcano Is Expected To Erupt

YOKOHAMA, July 21. (AP)—The U. S. Eighth Army warned today that a volcano near the resort town of Karuzawa may erupt within three months.

Military personnel, civilians and their dependants were warned to remain at least three miles from Mount Asama, which is 7½ miles from Karuzawa. The Eighth Army has two resort hotels in the village.

Shanghai Market In Downward Trend

SHANGHAI, July 21. (AP)—For the first time in months all Shanghai markets—legal and black—showed a downward trend today.

The yuan fell from its high of 8,550,000 (M) for $1 to less than 7 million as the government dumped huge quantities of commodities on the market. Many commodities showed declines.

The government seemed determined to stabilize the market until the first U. S. aid shipments arrive next month.

Banks have been prohibited from issuing new loans to stop speculation.
