Taking the hard road

Well, folks, this is a hard column to write today.

It's 11 a.m. Wednesday and I already have written a column but have decided to lead off with this piece. I'm probably pretty stupid to do this but most folks expect that from a damn Yankee. But there's a situation in Texico that upsets me.

Y'know, I've lived in all kinds of environments: big city, small city, abroad, suburbia, exurbia and, now, rural.

I've discovered that living in a rural environment has many, many advantages, especially for raising a family. There is a disadvantage: more personality clashes, especially dealing with gossip. A rural environment is akin to living with a really large family.

A few years back I wrote a column really unhappy about some malicious gossip involving local government leaders. I was thinking about it last night when mulling over how to attack the current problems.

You see, if I were still working for a large paper, this would be no problem. I would name names, and identify the situation clearly. That's not how it's done in a small area. To be specific can cause more problems for the folks concerned than it's worth.

So I have to take the hard road here. I have to be ambiguous on purpose; that's rough.

The other option is to ignore the situation. That's the smart thing to do. But, as I said, I'm not very smart. I believe that any local newspaper worth its salt should not ignore local problems, especially when it appears they may escalate into serious ones.

It's difficult for a small community to attract good folks to lead their government. There's no pay. There are complaints. About all you get out of the job is the self-satisfaction from knowing you've done your part to help your community become a better place to live.

Folks should remember that when dealing with government leaders. And they should also remember that if they are really unhappy with their decision makers, they can either run for the office themselves or vote against the folks involved.

But late night phone calls at home? Spreading gossip? Listening to one side of a problem without taking the time to hear the other side? Putting everything into "black and white" terms instead of understanding that complex problems simply cannot be solved with "either or" decisions?

Wrong, wrong, wrong. What this usually results in, whatever community is involved, is that the government leaders say "the heck with it" and quit. I wouldn't blame them. Think of how few races for City Council, for example, we've seen in the Twin Cities the past several years. There have not been a whole mess of candidates.

My viewpoint is simple: when we have good, decent, honest, hardworking folks in government positions, we need to keep them there. And it hurts me when I hear they may quit in disgust.

That's my biggest complaint about what's happening throughout the United States. Folks are voting for or against candidates based on single issues, such as abortion. So candidates are reacting in ways just to get elected. The days of Henry Clay saying "I'd rather be right than President" may be over for good.

If a person has a problem, they should go to the government meeting and express their viewpoint. If their view is accepted, fine. If not,

Willie Danheim, who assisted with the Merchant's Giveaway program this year, reminds all Texico - Farwell and area residents to stop by and register at the participating merchants. Registration boxes are at each business.

BTD Merchants' Giveaway starts

Forty-two Twin City businesses will be participating in the 9th annual Border Town Days Merchants giveaway program held in conjunction with the annual BTD celebration park's activities on July 28.

This year's giveaway will take place throughout the afternoon of the Saturday festivities at Farwell city park. To enter, you must be at least 12 years old.

Debra Looper, chairman of this year's event, said, "Any merchant that was not contacted but who wants to participate in the giveaway should call me at 481-9027 immediately. There's still time to enter."

Each participating business has a box in which customers may register for the prize to be given away by the merchant. A person may sign up once each time he is in a store until July 27 when the boxes will be picked up and taken to the park for the drawing.

Drawings will be held from each individual merchant's box, and the person whose name is drawn will be allowed 10 minutes to claim the prize. If the winner doesn't show up to claim the prize within the allotted time, another name will be drawn so that all prizes are awarded that afternoon. It is essential that a winner be at the park to hear when his name is called.

No purchase is necessary at any of the participating merchants in order to register for the many prizes.

In addition to the individual drawings, at the end of the giveaway, a special giveaway will be held. All the entries will be thrown together and one picked at random to win 2 faucets from B & J Plumbing.

Boxes were placed at the participating merchants July 12. Here is a list of the participants and the prizes they are giving away (some prizes will be announced later):

Mills Windshield Repair Service, up to $5 toward a windshield; Target Fuel Stop, $15 gas certificate; Nutri Tech, fertilizer; Pierce Beauty Salon, a free perm; Smith Office Supply; Farwell Hardware, a mini flashlight; K & J Video, 4 gift certificates; Pierce Real Estate, telephone - clock - radio combination; Farwell Feed Supply, feed.

New councilman sought

The Texico City Council held a special meeting last Friday to discuss filling the council post left vacant by the resignation of Bryan Kube, who has moved to Lubbock.

The council will meet at 6:30 p.m. July 13 to appoint a new councilman. The council also will name a new mayor pro tem (who takes over as mayor when the mayor is gone), since Kube had held that post.

Among the names suggested to fill Kube's post were: Hilda Montano, James Harding, Howard Duncan, Jim Burrows, Carolyn Burrows, Lewis Foster, Kathy Dionne and Ricky Hendricks.

Persons interested in serving on the council should talk with any of the current councilmen (Butch Tharp, Oran Jay Autrey or Ronnie Warmuth) or Mayor Doyal LaRue before the special meeting.

In other business, the council finalized its annual budget, which will now be sent on to the state for approval.

City taxes will stay the same, although the county tax went up a quarter percent.

Also, the council announced a special meeting for noon July 24 at the Spur Restaurant to discuss possible future projects and their funding.

State legislators Gary Robbins and Walter Bradley are expected to attend.

The council would like to have a new swimming pool built.

Also, a new City Hall may be needed since it now looks like long-range New Mexico highway plans call for widening the highway through Texico to the point where it would necessitate removing the City Hall building.

Trash pickup change noted

Tuesday's regularly scheduled Texico City Council meeting was cancelled due to lack of a quorum.

But the council will meet tonight (Friday).

Attending Tuesday were Mayor Doyal LaRue and councilmen Butch Tharp.

It was noted that Waste Management will pick up the trash on July 19 due to employee vacations.

Also, the swimming pool electrical outlets are being repaired, with official confirmation to occur at tonight's meeting.

City Attorney Duane Hamar had the city's responses done concerning the recent fatality in Texico.

A pedestrian was struck and killed by a vehicle. A lawsuit was filed, and it involves the city, basically saying the lighting along the highway was inadequate and naming the city as a defendant.

Since then, more lighting has been added.

Owen receives expanded post

The Farwell School Board held a special meeting on July 5 to make personnel decisions.

Jerry Dee Owen was appointed principal for all grades from pre-kindergarten through eighth grade.

Elementary School Principal James Craig retired last month. Owen has been junior high principal for several years.

Gwen Corn will assist Owen part-time in the elementary school; she will also serve as an administrative assistant in the main office part-time. She will receive an 11 month contract.

The board also voted to reimburse her for 21 days of service that she has given this year without pay.

Board president Doyle Johnson noted that although the board had gone through a reduction in force procedure in the past, it feels that these changes may be made as it looks toward the future projected income and needs of the school system.

The board accepted resignations from teachers Nelle Craig, Jo Lynda Lusk and Barbara Wyatt, and from bus drivers Sheryl Taylor and Julia Grady.

They discussed, but could take no action upon, several verbal resignations which have been discussed. The board cannot take action until it has received formal written notice from the people resigning.

After meeting in executive session, the board voted to offer contracts to: Monette Welsh, beginning teacher in early childhood and special education; Dierdre Guthals, beginning teacher in elementary school, Maribell Estrada, junior high school aide in Chapter I, and Loveda Boothby, elementary school aide in Chapter I. Alta Jesko was hired as a secretary in the administration office. This leaves some of the positions unfilled.

The board was informed that the criteria for placement on the career ladder had been changed by TSTA since it last met. Now the prior year's scores as well as the current year's scores will be used in computing the career ladder placement for Level II. There will be some readjustments made due to this change, but in most cases the career ladder placement will remain the same. Those with the highest scores will have the highest placement.

In other business, the board voted to reimburse Craig for travel expenses incurred between August 1989 and December 5, 1989. The board was split on this motion because all personnel had been advised that vouchers for expenses must be presented "in a timely manner." Payment of the August expenses will require a budget amendment.

Board member Tom Nichols summed up the majority feeling when he said, "After more than 30 years tenure, I'd hate to have him leave with a bad feeling over a few dollars." Voting for the motion were: Katherine White, Charles Christian, Tom Nichols and David Norton. Against were Steven Kaltwasser and Ronald Byrd.

The board noted that their policy about timely presentation of bills will be stressed to personnel again.

Supt. Richard Boothby said he would not require department heads to present reports personally at board meetings in the future. Department heads will report to him, and he will relay important items to the board.

He also told them that a group had requested the use of school facilities for a class reunion at Border Town Days. They indicated that he had the authority to grant such permission on his own.

Truck giveaway

This new pickup truck will be given away at Border Town Days July 28. Only 1,150 tickets have been printed. They may be purchased for $20 each from Texico firemen and from local businesses.

Registration begins Monday for decorated bike contest

All area youngsters are reminded that registration starts Monday for the Border Town Days Decorated Bike Contest at Texico City Hall.

This year offers a special incentive: Ted Lopez of Tedson Trailers is donating a brand new bike to the winner of "Best of Show" - the bike judged as best decorated regardless of age category.

This year's BTD theme is "Under the Circus Big Top." "Everything is ready at Texico City Hall for registration," says Ann Cooper, who is in charge of the bike contest.

The registration deadline is 3 p.m. Friday, July 27.

She said that the youths planning to enter the decorated bike contest in the parade need to register, giving their name and age, if they are to be eligible for cash prizes to be awarded.

In addition to the new bike, prizes totaling $50 will be awarded. The cash prizes were provided by an anonymous donor.

No motorized bikes will be allowed in the bicycle contest.

All riders must bring their decorated bikes to Anderson Street (between Texico City Hall and Little Mexico flea market - across the highway from Citizens Bank) at 9:45 a.m. Texas time, and line up for judging there. The street will be blocked off so that there will be no vehicular traffic.

"You must be on time or you will not be judged," added Mrs. Cooper.

Other rules are:
* All participants must continue to Farwell City Park, and then park their bikes. No riding will be allowed in the park area. A bicycle rack will be provided in back of the First Baptist Church.

* You must be present at the park to receive your cash prize.

* There will be two divisions in the judging:

Division A: Best decorated bike, ages 7-12.

Division B: Best decorated bike, ages 6 and under.

Judging will be based 50 percent on originality and theme; 30 percent on neatness, and 20 percent on the use of color.

Judges will be Kenneth Jones, Carl Thompson, and Lee Malloy, members of the Clovis Rotary Club.

Rodeo coming!

The 23rd annual Border Town Days Rodeo will be July 20 and 21.

It's sponsored by the Farwell Arena Association, Joe Mark and Vicki Milloy.

There will be an open junior rodeo at the Farwell Arena with contestants from five surrounding counties. The barbecue will be July 20 at 5:30 p.m. with the rodeo starting at 7:30 p.m.

Also Friday night, a calf scramble for children 6 and under and 7-10 years old will follow the Breakaway roping. The winner in each age group will receive a trophy.

On July 21 at 11 p.m. there will be a C.G.R.A. jackpot, including open barrel racing, novice horses, and all youth classes followed by the rodeo at 7:30 p.m. Awards will be given on Saturday night following the rodeo.

For information or entries, call Cindy Bowery at 389-1082, Kathy Grantham at 481-9199, or Vicki Milloy at 481-9591 or 481-3355.

Lazbuddle man dies

David Schacher, 22, a Lazbuddle farmer, was killed in a 2-vehicle accident at 11:24 p.m. Saturday in Portales.

He was a passenger in a pickup truck which was struck in the rear by a station wagon driven by a Littlefield, Texas, woman, police said.

fine. That's how democracy should work.
 A couple of weeks ago, a Texico resident called me and wanted to run a letter in the paper criticizing another resident. I explained that our "letters to the editor" policy called for that person to sign her name and that as long as it wasn't libelous it would probably run. That was the last I heard from her.
 What I want to achieve with this column is for every reader to take a step back and think about what good government is, and how it is to be achieved. We all need to realize that when you deal with most problems, they are complex. They are not "black and white" situations. Instead, they fall into large gray areas where no decision is 100 percent correct.

One of the wonderful things I've learned from living in the Twin Cities is to better understand other folks, to see where they're coming from, and to listen to their viewpoints. Most importantly, I've found that when you hear both sides of a story, you have a much better understanding of the situation, and the complexities involved.
 It's easy to gripe. It's easy to complain.
 It's hard to be supportive. It's hard to be an advocate.
 But sometimes the hard road is the better road.

 Dr. Bill Green, who has been practicing general medicine at the Farwell Clinic for nearly six years, has advised the Farwell Hospital District Board that he will be leaving this post at the end of September.
 The hospital district board has established a committee to seek a new physician to man the clinic. It is looking into the possibility of an arrangement with a Lubbock hospital.

 The drought, which has continued in this area for more than a month, was broken when showers arrived on Wednesday afternoon.

 Bill Roberts called with the following bit of information. Former Farwell resident Mike Lingnau was a member of the Rocky Mountain Stars, the team that came in first at the BCI basketball tournament in Lubbock Sunday.
 They had to beat a team from New York to take the first place spot.
 Mike, who is Delbert Lingnau's nephew, is a student at Clovis High School.

 We got a note from Johnny Atkinson that the Farwell Youth Commission Fireworks

Stand was very successful this year.
 That stand is very important because it raises important funds. The new tennis court was purchased by the commission. And the current project is putting ventilation fans in the high school gym. And recently, the commission made a contribution to help the Little League Baseball Team travel to Bovina to play.
 All told, the net this year was $1,400 from the fireworks sales.
 And the following families helped: the Johnny Atkinsons, the Ricky Stewarts, the Mike Pompers, the James Chadwicks, the Micky Lunsfords, the Terry Trivises, the Lesley Curtises, the Tom Nicholoses, the Darren Suderths and the Jimmy Macces.
 ***
 There was a special article on Border Town Days in the July issue of "New Mexico" magazine.
 It featured a picture taken at the state border with a bunch of local youths and mayors Chris Gikas and Doyal LaRue.
 The article was written by D'Lyn Ford, a former Clovis newspaper reporter who was taking classes at ENMU.
 All told, the story and photo took up two-thirds of a full page.
 ***
 The Farwell High School Class of 1970 is looking for two of its members.
 If anyone knows where class members Travis Everett or Johnny Wheeler live today, please contact Ruth Anne Bennett at 825-3822 so that they can be invited to their reunion.
 The Class of 1970 will have a float in the Border Town Days parade. They will also meet in the park on Saturday afternoon, and have their evening meal at Dabo's in Clovis.

THE WATSON DIFFERENCE

Most people don't like to be called "different", but at Watson Motor Co., we're proud to be different!

So, what's the difference?

It's not that we wear outlandish clothing, pink sunglasses or do crazy things to get your attention, it's in the way that we do business and the type of automobiles that we represent. We've set goals for our dealership that center around our customers and our quality, which makes a difference in our attitudes about selling three of the highest quality brands of cars: Toyota, Lincoln and Mercury.

Do You Feel Like A Number?

Some dealerships make you feel like if you don't buy a car from them, they won't make their division quota or that the salesman will get the "Dead Fish Award" for not "reeling the customers in." At Watson Motor Co., our customers aren't numbers on a tally sheet, because we take the time to get to know each one and take their needs into consideration with every purchase.

So, What's The Moral?

If you're shopping for a new or used car or truck, why not come to the dealership who's making a difference in the way you buy a car?

Brown to pastor at Texico Baptist Church

"I never thought I'd as a pastor in my native state of New Mexico," observed Rev. Bob Brown, the new pastor of First Baptist Church of Texico.

The Lovington native has spent the past 14 years as the pastor of churches in Texas and Louisiana, and he was surprised, but happy, to be called back to New Mexico.

Rev. Brown's parents live in Lubbock and his grandmother is in Lovington, and they are all thrilled to be so close. Rev. Brown's last church was in Doyline, La., which was more than 1,000 miles away from his family.

The move not only took them from one state to another, it also took the family from one climate zone to another.

"We'd had 53 inches of rain so far this year. People in Louisiana pray it won't rain. People here ask why I didn't bring some of that rain with

Farwell band schedules practices

The Farwell High School band will begin practicing before school starts this year. They will hold a practice each day from 11 a.m. - 12:30 p.m. starting Aug. 13.

According to band director Craig Zinck, 95% of all the bands that made a "1" this year had marched in at least one parade during the summer months. Also, all bands that made Sweepstakes started practices before school started. The band practice will begin about one half hour after the football players complete their practice each morning.

me when I came," he jokes. Brown is happy to be here. "Texico has the reputation of being the kind of church any conservative, Bible-loving pastor would love," he said. He has heard about Texico for years.

"My first impression is that this church is different than most Southern Baptist Churches I've seen. It seems unique, more spiritual. People here take their relationship with the Lord very seriously."

He was impressed by the numerous ways that the members of the church participate in their church and its activities.

When asked what he thought he might bring the church, Brown replied that he hoped to bring effective leadership.

"I think that an effective pastor must study the Word actively, and know his sheep through personal visitation," he said.

"They have had some of the best speakers here in the past few years. I have a feeling that they have been 'fed' that way, and are now ready to become doers of the word not just listeners," he replied.

The Brown family has been busy doing the tasks involved with moving into a new home and a new community.

Brown's wife, LaDelle, and daughter, Jennie, have been busy unpacking boxes and finding out where the school, the stores, and various facilities are located. They are checking with everyone they meet about what is available in this area, and where it is located.

Jennie is interested in gymnastics, tumbling, and cheerleading. She is looking forward to 9th grade at Texico High School.

Mrs. Brown is a certified English Riding instructor. As a teenager she had loved horses and riding, and she had read everything she could about quarter horses. When her parents moved to England, she decided to use the time to learn English riding.

She earned her certification at Cravett Park Equestrian, LTD, Three Bridges, England. Then she returned to the United States for college at West Texas State; it was there that she met her husband. They have been married 16 years.

Mrs. LaDelle Brown, daughter Jennie, and Rev. Bob Brown have moved to Texico where Rev. Brown is the new pastor.

BTD queen contestants meet TV actor Horsley

Eleven Border Town Days Queen contestants rode in convertibles in the Muleshoe 4th of July parade and met actor Lee Horsley that afternoon.

"It was really neat," said one of the contestants of the experience.

Each girl was photographed by Connie Burton with the actor, and each received an autographed sketch of him.

"I thought he was nice looking, but his brother Van was cuter," said the contestant.

"Now, I thought Lee Horsley was really distinguished looking," said one of the committee members.

The girls not only met the actor, but they also met his wife, 2 children, grandparents and brother. One of the reasons that Horsley made the trip to his hometown was to enable him to spend time with family and old friends.

"He was extremely nice, and he took time out of his busy schedule to spend with us," said Susan Franse, chairman of this year's Queen's contest.

The parade was only one of several events that the Queen's contestants have participated in so far this summer.

The contest kicked off with a Coke party at the Spur Restaurant on June 21. The girls had a chance to meet one another and the committee members. Since the girls attend different schools, the party gave them an opportunity to meet.

On June 26, they had a pizza party at the ENMR Telephone building in Farwell. They made their sashes and posters at this time. They also wrote thank you notes to their sponsors.

On July 9 the girls attended a modeling workshop given by Brenda Jones at Vogue Beauty College. Each girl was scheduled for a beauty makeover at the Vogue Beauty College, too.

On July 21 they will participate in a style show from 4-6 p.m. at the North Plains Mall in Clovis.

On July 26 the group will have their talent judging at 7 p.m. C.D.T. at the Holiday Inn in Clovis. It will be open to the public.

After the talent portion of the pageant, parents and friends will go home, and the girls, committee members and judges will eat dinner together. Following the meal, the judges will then interview the girls to see how they react to impromptu questions.

Five finalists will be chosen on Thursday night, but they will not be revealed at this time.

On July 28 the finalists will be announced and the final judging will be done at the park. The Queen will be crowned following the judging.

This year's Queen Contest committee includes: Annette Black, Michelle Chadwick, Brenda Jones, Tammy Jones, Peggy Jones, Shandra McIntosh, Karen Schilling and Susan Franse.

BTD committee meets

The Border Town Days Committee held its final meeting Monday before the big July 28 extravaganza and all appears in excellent shape for another super festival.

The gazebo schedule will include the queen's competition (there are 11 contestants - 7 from Farwell and 4 from Texico); a "Billy the Kid" shootout; guest pianist Clay Corn; the "Country Strings" country singing group, including Joe Hughes; and performances by the Farwell Drill Team, and Vizion.

During the day will be numerous Merchants Giveaway prizes announced, capped by the pickup truck giveaway at 5 p.m. In addition to the truck giveaway, the Texico Volunteer Fire Department will also give away a TV and a VCR.

Other meeting highlights:

- Merchants with signs along the highway will be asked to highlight BTD on their signs July 28.

- It's possible that an "Air Walk" will be brought to BTD.

- Lynne Mahaney reported that 23 booths have signed up for the arts and crafts fair so far.

- Shandra McIntosh reported on the events participated in by the queen's contest entrants so far. "We're all having a real fun time," she said. She also displayed a beautiful array of gifts that contestants will receive.

- Jack Ann Kirkland reported on the parade, which is shaping up nicely. Leigh Ann Woods has been making calls. To sign up, call the Tribune at 481-3681.

- The meeting after BTD, to pay final bills and discuss how it went, will be held at 8 p.m. cdt at the Spur Restaurant Aug. 6.

Harrison featured in Santa Fe newspaper

Brent Harrison of Farwell, and several other members of the T Minus 10 track team from Texico - Farwell, qualified in Santa Fe, N.M., for the Regional Junior Olympic Track and Field Championships in Denver this weekend.

The Clovis team is coached by Brent's father, Randy Harrison.

Brent was featured in a news story in a Santa Fe newspaper because he narrowly missed beating the New Mexico state champion, Damien Passalacqua, in the Youth Pentathlon. The two athletes finished the hurdles in a dead heat; then Harrison took the shot put, high jump and long jump. Passalacqua overcame Harrison's 163 point lead, won the five-part event by making a phenomenal run in the 1,500. He won the event 5:11.17 to Harrison's 6:06.94.

Harrison outjumped Passalacqua in the high jump, 5'2" to 4' 10" and in the long jump, 17'10" to 16'11". He also put the shot 31' to Passalacqua's 29' 4".

The two athletes will face each other again in the Regionals.

Jeremy Ortiz of Farwell will compete in the Regionals in shot put.

Joni Pate finished 3rd in the 400 with a time of 70.35.

Brenda Ortiz brought the story about Harrison to the Tribune and a list of the other T Minus 10 Track Team members who competed in Santa Fe. The youth in the group come from Clovis, Farwell, Texico, and Bovina. They are: Seth Ketterling, Chase Hardage, Kevin Mitchell, Shiloh Roberts, Shane Roberts, Natasha Shaw, Amber Willard, Jeremy Willard, Tony Beauchamp, Joni Pate, Brent Harrison, Jeremy Ortiz, and Joey Robletto. Several of these youths will also compete in Denver.

She also reported that Vacation Bible School will need: newspapers, lids for margarine tubs, and cookies as well as helpers on July 16, 17, and 18.

Attending the luncheon were: Rev. and Mrs. Larry Heacock, Ophell McDonald, Maureen Caywood, Monica Mendoza, Yolanda Mendoza, Aileen Teel, Dardanella Helton, Judy Pomper, Carrie Christian, Steven and Dorothy Quicquel, and Katherine White.

New program established

Lazbuddie's National Honor Society members and their sponsor, Thelma Coffey, established a new activity in their school during the last semester, which proved to be a very positive experience for them and for Lazbuddie's elementary students and teachers.

The activity is called the NHS Teacher Assistance Program. Members of the National Honor Society, which involves top academic students in grades ten through twelve, began the new project at the beginning of the second semester of this school year.

NHS students made themselves available to help teachers in the elementary school for assistance in grading papers, preparing materials for lessons, and tutoring groups of students. With teacher supervision, some of the NHS students actually taught classes.

High School Principal Roy Willingham said that the program had a positive effect on all concerned, and plans are to use the program in the years to come.

Mrs. Coffey praised her students for their dedication and sincere efforts to be of help to the elementary teachers and students. She stated that several of the NHS members, after working in the elementary grades, expressed an interest in becoming teachers.

Mrs. Coffey said that the most interesting aspect of the program was the response from the elementary students. For these children, it was a special treat to be guided by the high school students. The young students adored the older ones and they gave the new teachers undivided attention.

Mrs. Coffey admonished the NHS members to be good role models.

She stated that the project had a very positive effect on the National Honor Society, helped the teachers, and was a special experience for the young students as well as for the older ones.

Members of the NHS who participated were: Casey Bradshaw, Diana Cozbye, Lance Ivy, Mia Jennings, Stacie Hodges, Gerardo Mata, Elsa Mendoza, Jana Vise, and Eddie Zamora.

Farwell Convalescent Center Chit Chat

By Lynne Gann Activity Director

My thanks to everyone who took over my duties while I was on vacation. The many residents who commented on how well the job was done was appreciated by all.

The 4th of July fireworks were lovely and no one could complain because of being rained out. One resident said she could slightly remember what rain looked, smelled and felt like but she wasn't sure if it was her memory fading or the lack of rain she could relate to!

If by chance we have rain in the future and you pass our center and see several people standing outside in it, we are but refreshing our mind of memories of things in the past!

Our birthday people for July are Viola James, 04, 1909; Maggie London, 15, 1902; Joe Love, 22, 1926; Alice Edwards, 24, 1907; and Geraldine Jones, 29, 1912. We wish each of you a very Happy Birthday!

Pleasant Hill couple buys Clovis business

Ricky and Karen Morris who farm in Pleasant Hill have purchased Clovis Ceramics and Southwest Gifts and moved it to its present location on east First Street in Clovis.

The business used to be located on Wallace Street, but Mrs. Morris moved it into a building her grandmother owned on the highway. Interestingly, it is right next door to the Ceramic Factory.

"It just worked out that way. We enhance each other's business," said Mrs. Morris. "If we don't have what someone needs, they go next door for it and vice versa," she said.

Both firms offer greenware and paints and brushes and space for classes and a kiln to fire the ceramic pieces. Clovis Ceramics will offer classes, and they will also have space for people who just want to do their own projects.

They also retail finished ceramic products. Many of the items have the Southwest designs that are so popular right now. Some of the items are quite unique.

"We have sand paintings from Farmington, and we will have limited edition photographic prints and ceramic pieces in the near future," said Mrs. Morris.

Clovis Ceramics offers pottery with a ruffled or fluted edge. "There is no mold for it; it is all hand done. I do the ruffles myself," said Mrs. Morris. People have already come to the shop from hundreds of miles away for the ruffled ceramic pieces.

"I love the creativity," said

Mrs. Morris of her ceramic work.

Her mother, Ann Jackson of Clovis, had been interested in ceramics for years. Mrs. Morris began doing ceramics as a teenager, and now her married daughter Jackie also does ceramics. All of them help out in the business.

Clovis Ceramics will hold a Grand Opening July 19, 20, and 21. It will be open Mondays, Fridays, and Saturdays from 9:30 a. m. - 5 p.m. MDT and Tuesdays and Thursdays from 9:30 a.m. - 8 p.m. MDT.

Directors to be elected

Farmer's Cooperative Elevator in Muleshoe will hold its annual meeting and election of directors at 7 p.m. on July 20 at the Muleshoe High School Cafeteria. All members of the cooperative are welcome.

The evening will include dinner, an election of directors, and door prizes. Dinner will be catered by Danny's Hens and Fins.

Two seats are on the board will be up for election. Wayne Jesko is retiring, and Kirby Burch is up for re-election.

Grid workouts slated

Pre-season workouts for Farwell Steers football team members will begin on Aug. 13. Equipment will be issued on Aug. 8.

All prospective players will be receiving an information packet about July 20. If you do not receive one, and are interested in playing, contact Coach Cumpton at 481-3371, 481-3373 or 481-9582.

Also there is a football skills camp scheduled for Aug. 6, 7, and 8 at 9:30 each morning for boys who will be entering grades 5-9. If you are interested, contact Coach Cumpton at the numbers listed above.

Coach Cumpton will conduct a clinic about Farwell High School football if enough interest is shown by local people. This would give participants an opportunity to learn a bit about what the school program does, and it would be especially helpful to parents of boys playing.

Notice an odor?

Something stinks in Farwell. Southern Union Gas Company has installed an odorizer to make the natural gas used in Farwell smell.

Natural gas is odorless, and the gas companies in the U.S. add a distinctive odor to alert people of the danger of leaking gas. El Paso Natural Gas, which supplies Southern Union Gas with its product here, has always added some odor to the gas, but not enough.

The Texas State Railroad Commission requires that the odor be a readily detectable one. So the local office has begun using an odorizer to make the gas smell terrible.

Since they installed the odorizer, Larry Cochran said the local office has gotten about 26 calls from customers who suspect leaks in their gas lines. Normally, they only get about one call to check for gas leaks in a month.

"The leaks we are finding have been there all the time, but now they are noticeable," said Cochran. "All gas leaks need to be checked out to make sure you do or don't have a leak."

Because there is a potential danger of fire or explosion even with a small leak, the gas company offers a free service to check these leaks. "You never know how severe a leak is until we check them," said Cochran.

When Cochran comes into a home or business that suspects a gas leak, he sniffs first. The gas has been treated with a very easily identifiable odor. Then he gets out his trusty soapy water spray bottle and sprays the gas lines with sudsy water to see whether he can see any bubbles of gas escaping from the gas line. Often such small "seep leaks" can be repaired with a twist of a wrench or the change of an inexpensive coupling.

If more extensive work is required, Cochran can advise the customer about how to handle the situation.

County wants RR signals at different crossing

The Parmer County Commissioners discussed railroad crossing signals at Monday's meeting.

They received a letter from the Santa Fe Railroad requesting county cooperation in placing signals at two crossings just east of Friona. One crosses the county road at the airport; the other leads to Wells Feed Yard.

If the county cooperates, then the county has to pay $5,000 for each crossing. The formula is: 90 percent state funding, 5 percent railroad funding and 5 percent county funding. A crossing signal costs about $100,000.

The commissioners voted to send a letter to the Santa Fe saying they want to be involved in the decision making before the decision is made. The commissioners feel another crossing signal is more urgently needed at the crossing just west of Friona over the county road leading to West Friona Grain and Parmer County Implements.

If the county commissioners vote not to cooperate, the railroad can either not do the project, or pay 10 percent of the overall cost (its portion plus the county's share). This is what occurred on a crossing near Black, where a signal will be installed this month. The county is not paying for any of it.

In other business, the commissioners:

- Voted to keep its $10 surcharge on license fees.
