

DEFENSE IS MOTIVE

U. S. Moves To Set World Military Pace

WASHINGTON, March 11.—Military developments in the United States reflect the "very, very serious" world situation noted by Secretary of State Marshall.

a "preventive" war to beat any would-be attacker to the draw. Secretary of Defense Forrestal told a news conference yesterday that it is not the nature of democracies, "particularly this democracy," to plan a war deliberately.

Twelve Die In A Flaming DC-4 Crash

Delta Plane Falls Soon After Takeoff

CHICAGO, March 11 (AP)—A Delta Airlines DC-4 plane crashed and burned explosively late last night a few seconds after it took off from Chicago's municipal airport.

The only survivor was a 33 year old mother whose seven year old son perished in the fiery wreckage. She screamed hysterically for her child as she was pulled from the flames.

Senate May Vote On ERP This Week

WASHINGTON, March 11.—A leading senate critic said today the Senate will vote on the Marshall plan this week.

The European recovery program bearing his name is one of the main remedies Secretary of State Marshall is urging for a "very, very serious" world situation.

WASHINGTON, March 11.—President Truman today asked Congress for an additional $55,000,000 to help tide western Europe over until the European recovery program is enacted.

STAND IS OFFICIAL Marshall Vetoes China Military Aid

WASHINGTON, March 11.—Secretary of State Marshall stood firm today in the face of insistent demands from some of his wartime subordinates that the United States throw big scale military aid into the fight against communism in China.

Gen. Douglas MacArthur, Lt. Gen. Albert C. Wedemeyer and Maj. Gen. Claire L. Chennault all have declared in the past week that this country must go beyond economic help for Chiang Kai-Shek's hard-pressed nationalist government.

But Marshall—Army chief of staff during the war—made clear yesterday that the three-year-old American policy toward China still stands.

His news conference response to questions put it officially on the record that the United States is following two different courses in meeting the communist challenge in Europe and in the Far East.

Schools Halt For Teachers' Meet

School children get a holiday Friday—but not the teachers, for they will be in Lubbock attending the annual West Texas Teachers association meeting.

W. C. Blankenship, superintendent, said Thursday that with the exception of some out for illness or other valid reasons, all the teaching staff would participate in the area confab. More than 75 per cent plan to avail themselves of the opportunity to visit in Lubbock schools during the day.

Several Big Spring figures will have parts on the program or in the conduct of the convention. Blankenship heads up the credentials committee and Miss Jo Heats is on the resolutions committee.

Principal speakers will be Dr. A. J. Stoddard, superintendent of schools at Philadelphia, Pa., who is to speak on "Education as a Joint Enterprise," and Willard E. Goslin, superintendent at Minneapolis, Minn., whose subject is "Responsibilities of American Education."

City Clean-Up Set For April

Big Spring's annual city-wide cleanup campaign will be conducted during the week beginning April 19, officials of the city and the chamber of commerce announced this morning.

The cleanup campaign is arranged each year under joint sponsorship of the chamber of commerce civic and beautification department and the city.

City trucks will be used to pick up and transport rubbish and trash from the streets and alleys after collections are made by residents.

In this connection, City Manager H. W. Whitney said a resident would be urged to make collections and place the trash along the designated routes by opening day of the campaign. In previous drives some persons have waited until trucks passed their property before collecting trash, which prolonged the campaign and created extra work for the trucks, he explained.

WOMAN, Mrs. Tripolino Meo, of suburban Oak Lawn, Ill., suffered severe burns. Both of her legs and both of her arms were broken.

Dobie Joins Group Supporting Wallace

AUSTIN, March 11.—J. Frank Dobie, folklorist and former University of Texas professor, has accepted appointment to the national committee of the Wallace-for-president organization, the Daily Texan, University of Texas student newspaper, said today.

Brother Identified

MARYSVILLE, Calif., March 11.—A man known here as Billy Smith has been identified by retired General Patrick J. Hurley as his brother, William, believed killed in a Mexican bandit raid 37 years ago.

Vehicle Tag Sales Mount Steadily

Sale of 1948 registration tags for passenger and commercial vehicles is mounting steadily but the employees of the county tax collector-assessor's office are girding themselves for a booming business between now and April 1, at which time the plates have to be displayed.

As of this morning, a total of 3165 passenger and 214 commercial vehicle licenses had been distributed. Nearly 6,000 tags are expected to be sold before the deadline.

GOTTWALD TO SPEAK AT FUNERAL

Shocked Czechs Mourn Loss Of Masaryk

PRAGUE, Czechoslovakia, March 11.—Jan Masaryk will be given a state funeral Saturday by the Czechoslovakia's communist-controlled government. He will be laid to rest beside his father, founder and first president of the Republic.

The 61-year-old non-party foreign minister was found dead yesterday, two weeks after the new cabinet came to power, in a stone courtyard more than 50 feet below his bathroom window at the foreign office. The government said he jumped.

Funeral services will be held in the Pantheon of the Prague museum in the capital's central square. Communist Premier Klement Gottwald will speak. Burial will be in the family plot at Lany, beside the grave of Thomas G. Masaryk, who was president from 1918 to 1935 and died in 1937.

Czechoslovakia mourned the minister today in shocked melancholy. Half-staffed tricolors and black banners did not begin to tell the story of the loss felt by the nation's "little people."

JAN MASARYK ... his death a mystery

ashamed of sentimentality. The love they lavished on their world-famous son in his lifetime was matched at his death by their sorrowing. The tone of melancholy was set by radio broadcasts, with continuous reference to his death and with the somber melodies of Czech funeral music.

To thousands the loss was personal, because Masaryk numbered his personal friends in the thousands. And to millions the country's loss was real, because they shared with him the tradition of the Masaryk family name and the big part it played in the birth and building of the republic of the Czechs and Slovaks during and after the First World War.

They knew the young Jan who stood up in the councils of the world and talked with the mighty. And they knew he came back to enjoy picnics in the country, to swim at public beaches in the Vitava river here, to chat and joke with shopkeepers, waiters and workmen in a familiar way his father, the old professor, never had.

Fruit Damage Possible Here

Probability of sharp fruit damage lay in the wake today of a late and severe stab of winter.

Thursday morning's minimum reading at the U. S. Experiment Farm and the U. S. Weather bureau showed nine degrees—the coldest on record for any March 11.

Clearing skies and milk breeze offered some hopes of relief, although a forecast of a minimum of seven degrees for Friday did not look too favorable.

BY ARAB DECREE

North Palestine Under Martial Law

IN NORTHERN PALESTINE, March 11.—Martial law has been decreed in all northern Palestine, effective at dawn today, by Fawzi Bey Al Kaukji, Arab commander.

Every order from this headquarters will now become the law of the land (northern Palestine) for civil and military alike, Fawzi Bey declared in his order last night.

His headquarters said prisons now are being established in the mountain top village where Fawzi Bey has set up his command. Several persons already have been arrested and are awaiting trial before military courts, which officers said will begin sitting soon in all major towns and cities of the northern Holy Land.

The courts are to be operated by Arab lawyers not attached to the Arab army, which entered Palestine last week in readiness to fight partition of the Holy Land, voted by the United Nations last Nov. 29. Fawzi Bey said punishments will be "strict and severe."

Army informants said among those now being held for trial is a Jewish woman "who tried to pose as an English newspaperwoman." They said the woman, whose identity was not disclosed, was arrested in a Samaritan mountain village Tuesday while trying to arrange an interview with Fawzi Bey.

The Arab commander and his staff now are busy studying maps and intelligence reports in preparation to take the offensive against the Jews.

They intend to remain in the tiny mountain villages for at least another week.

Mrs. Muldrow May Testify

MIDLAND, March 11.—Mrs. Mahotah Muldrow, 40, on trial here in the death of her estranged husband, may testify today in her own defense.

She is charged with murder in the death of Robert Muldrow, III, who was fatally shot here last Sept. 7 on the front lawn of his home. He headed an aerial photograph firm.

Mrs. Muldrow pleaded innocent on grounds of self defense. Witnesses yesterday testified that they saw Muldrow beat her during fits of anger.

Al Nance of Houston said that on two occasions since 1943 he had seen Muldrow beat Mrs. Muldrow. Nance used to live here.

An Episcopal rector and a baby sitter were among character witnesses in Mrs. Muldrow's behalf. The rector was the Rev. R. J. Snell. The baby sitter is Eddie Juana Darnell, daughter of Sheriff Ed Darnell.

Police officer Hoyt Burris testified he arrested Muldrow Feb. 15, 1947 on a complaint charging assault, brought by Mrs. Muldrow. Richard M. Crawley and G. E. Sweeney gave eyewitness accounts of the shooting. Crawley said he watched the shooting from his apartment window, above the Muldrow apartment. Sweeney, an oil company field superintendent, rushed on the scene from his porch across the street after hearing shots.

James N. Allison, newspaper publisher, testified he was in the police station when Mrs. Muldrow entered the building and surrendered soon after the shooting. "I just shot Robert," he quoted her as saying.

Nine Perish In Explosion

JERUSALEM, March 11.—An explosion severely damaged the Jewish agency building today soon after a car flying the American flag was parked in its heavily guarded courtyard.

The Jewish agency, the official organization for Palestine Jewry, said nine persons were killed and 89 injured. Up to 500 persons were in the building and 50 or 60 were in the right wing, which was the worst shattered.

Haganah, the Jewish militia, took charge. Its preliminary inquiry indicated the explosive had been under the car's floor. The government said the Jews were barring all police from the scene.

A Haganah informant said wreck age of the automobile indicated it was that of U. S. Consul General Robert B. MacEtee, which was stolen yesterday.

Leib Gaffe, chairman of Keren Hayessod, the Jewish national colonization fund, was reported to have been one of those killed. He was a widely known leader of Russian birth.

Three minor officials of the agency were reported injured slightly.

Investigation Made In Ballinger Death

BALLINGER, March 11.—An inquest verdict and results of an autopsy were still withheld today pending completion of a probe in the mysterious death of H. M. Crittenden, 42.

Crittenden, a bookkeeper for a construction company, was pronounced dead on arrival at a hospital here Tuesday.

Oil Association Opens Conference
 CORPUS CHRISTI, March 11. (AP)—The second annual convention of the Texas Independent Producers and Royalty Owners association opens here today.
 Committee meetings were on today's program. Business sessions are scheduled for tomorrow. The convention ends Saturday.
 The oilmen are expected to take action on the question of a standard measurement for a cubic foot of oil, which E. I. Thompson, executive vice-president of the association, said had plagued the independent producers and royalty owners for years.

Robbs Is Big Man In One 'Man's Town'

ROBBS, Ill., March 11 (AP)—This is the town that Robbs built. Albert L. Robbs, now 74, started from scratch and raised a community in this southern Illinois Ozarkian hill country.
 He is Robbs' postmaster. He owns and operates a lumber yard, saw mill, feed mill, general store, restaurant and an automobile agency. He is also a director in the First National Bank at the Pope county seat of Golconda, owning a controlling interest, and is chairman of the Pope county housing authority.
 Virtually every resident in this village of about 145 population depends upon Robbs as a wage earner, or indirectly. Children attend a two year Robbs high school which he built.
 Robbs started the village by building a structure to house the motor agency and a dwelling for himself. As others came he erected more homes until now he owns all but two or three of Robbs' 45 homes.
 He owns more than 2,200 acres of land (and a section in Idaho he has never seen).
 When the Illinois Central System decided to tap the area, Robbs says he "swung enough weight" to bring the tracks nearer to Robbs. The original contractor failed, he relates, so he put up a $10,000 deposit and finished the job himself at a $180,000 profit. Later he asked the road to build a switch to Robbs but the officials said no. Robbs built the track and the road later paid him for the job.
 At 17 Robbs joined a threshing crew and saved $100 to buy a span of mules as a down payment on a 120 acre farm, hired a man to care for the farm and toured the countryside selling household gadgets. With cash from this, he bought another farm. He expanded his household gadget sales by selling agent franchises and made more money. Meanwhile he bought and swapped stock.
 He bought one flour and feedmill, kept it four years and sold it at a profit. He bought it back for $2,000 and sold it again, this time for $4,000. Thereafter he bought and sold the same mill three more times, profiting each time. He finally held onto it and moved it from Eddyville to Robbs.
 Robbs buys, sells or trades virtually anything. He's gained a reputation as a "square shooter."

AFTERMATH OF STORM

Oklahoma, Kansas, Missouri Plagued By Snow And Cold

KANSAS CITY, March 11 (AP)—Drifting snow and sub-freezing temperatures—the aftermath of a severe March snowstorm—plagued Kansas, Oklahoma and Missouri today.
 Highways were blocked, schools were closed and an acute gas shortage was reported in some areas. Buses and trains were running late.
 The snowfall had ended in Kansas, Oklahoma and western Missouri but bitter cold prevailed in many parts. Goodland in western Kansas had a low of 19 degrees below zero early today.
 Below zero temperatures also were forecast for the three states tonight.
 Snowdrifts as high as 10 feet were reported in the Oklahoma Panhandle. Oklahoma City had eight inches of snow yesterday and the Tulsa, Okla., airport closed its doors for the first time in 20 years.
 Many persons were stranded by the snow in Kansas. Near Salina, Kas., 39 persons were rescued yesterday after they took refuge in a small building when a bus and trucks in which they were riding stalled in drifts. Several Kansas towns were stowbound.
 Gas company officials appealed to users to conserve heat because of the heavy drain on the supply.
 The severe cold wave engulfed 16 states. The sub-zero line extended into the Texas Panhandle.
 The Federal weather bureau said the bitter cold extended from New Mexico to northern Texas, north to the Canadian border and northeast to lower Michigan.
 Parts of the South felt the sting of the frigid blasts, too, and temperatures skidded to below freezing in parts of Tennessee, Arkansas and northern Missouri. The mass of cold air moved eastward but forecasters said no readings comparable to the 30 below reported in the Midwest today were expected. They said the cold weather will continue through tonight over most of the ice belt.
 In other sections of the country temperatures were normal or above seasonal levels. The 81 at Miami was the high on yesterday's weather map.

Sweatt Asks New Hearing

AUSTIN, March 11 (AP)—Heman Marion Sweatt, Houston Negro mail carrier, today asked the court of civil appeals for a new hearing on his effort to enter the University of Texas law school.
 The intermediate court recently affirmed a trial court judgment denying Sweatt's application for a writ of mandamus to compel university officials to admit him.
 Today was the deadline for Sweatt's motion for rehearing.
 If the court of civil appeals denies the motion for a new hearing, Sweatt's next move in his long battle would be to appeal to the State Supreme Court.
 He said he could carry the fight to the United States supreme court if necessary.
 Sweatt applied for admission to the university law school more than two years ago. His fight has been in the courts since the spring of 1946.
 Since that time, the legislature has established the Texas State university for Negroes at Houston with a law branch at Austin utilizing University of Texas faculty members. It has two students. Sweatt did not seek admission.

Taxpayers May Get Cut As Of Jan. 1

WASHINGTON, March 11. (AP)—The income tax cutting bill passed by the House provides that the cuts become effective as of Jan. 1 of this year.

If the bill becomes a law it means that many wage earners will get substantial refunds next year on their 1948 tax withholdings. Many of these refunds would be larger than usual because tax withholdings since the first of this year have been based on the higher tax rates under the present law.

The Internal Revenue Bureau made refunds totaling $1,400,000,000 in 1947 on 1946 tax payments of some 31,000,000 persons. That's an average of about $45 per person. Refunds are now being paid for overpayments of taxes on 1947 income.

Refunds on overpaid 1948 taxes would not be made until next year for two reasons:

1. Until this year is ended, the total amount of refunds due various taxpayers can not be determined.
2. Payments of two refunds on the year's taxes, say one next July and the other in 1949, would be costly and troublesome for taxpayers and revenue collectors.

For taxpayers, it would mean the presenting of two claims instead of one. For revenue collectors, it would double the work as well as increasing the cost of handling refund claims and refund payments check.

The tax reduction bill awaits action by the Senate. If President Truman vetoes it, it will have to be passed by a two-thirds majority.

There have been suggestions in Congress that the tax cuts be made effective July 1 instead of Jan. 1. If July 1 is the effective date, then tax rates on 1948 income would be fixed at percentages half way between the present rates and the lower rates under a new law.

SPEAKS TO LIONS

Expert Explains Miracles Of Waves

Communication miracles through waves no longer than a cigarette, but which fluctuate billions of times per second, were demonstrated Wednesday before the Lions club and Thursday before the Kiwanis club by George Hutson, Dallas, information specialist for Southwestern Bell Telephone.

Fidelity and development in the field of electronics and communication have come along with shortening of the wave length (the first telegraph wave length was 800 miles) and the increasing of the cycles, or fluctuations per minute.

This, explained Hutson, has been done largely through a series of vacuum tubes which have the power to build up impulses and which can set up fluctuations in electrical waves that get into many megacycles (million cycles per second).

Through this means, it is possible to amplify the sound of a pin dropped on velvet until it would break the ear drums, Hutson explained. Thus impulses hurled into space may be picked up ever so faintly in distant parts of the globe and built back to any desired volume.

Radar, he explained, depends upon hurling a large volume of waves into space and picking up the minutely faint reflections, which are transformed visually by means of a tube. Proximity fuses (which caused shells to explode when coming near the object of aim) and controlled automatic firing mechanisms involve somewhat of the same principles.

By utilizing these short waves, automobile telephone service is being installed, and it will be available in the Big Spring area in May or June, Hutson said. The phone in the car is connected by means of short-wave transmitter to receiving stations in the area, which sends its message to a transmitting station which throws impulses back at the car via short-wave. Except for flipping one button, it's no different than a desk set phone.

Someday—probably not so far off—it will be possible for a person to dial any phone in the United States and get an answer within 10 seconds, said Hutson. An intriguing device takes down the call, computes the rate, time, and makes the charge automatically. Scientists are working on the proximity fuse theory in hopes of trimming the time of contact to a mere second. Hutson explained the coaxial cable,

Fire Prevention Campaign Is Set

AUSTIN, March 11. (AP)—Launching of an 11-state forest fire prevention campaign is set for March 1.

W. E. White, director of the Texas A. and M. College Forest Service, Texas co-sponsor with the U. S. Forest Service, called attention to last year's Texas forest fire losses which totalled $1,392,346.

able, which has eight copper tubes, each capable of carrying a television program or 800 telephone conversations. He demonstrated how quartz crystals, which controlled frequencies, enabled cramming of scores of conversations on a single wire. Hutson was introduced by Don Gaither, local manager for Southwestern Bell.

UT Students Form Eisenhower Club

AUSTIN, March 11. (AP)—A "G.I.'s for Ike" movement has been started by 12 veterans attending the University of Texas law school. They hope to see Dwight D. Eisenhower drafted as the presidential nominee of the democratic party. Reporting the group's first mee-ing yesterday, Robert Doss of Whitewright, Grayson county, a mid-law student, said, "This is not a part of the civil rights revolt."

If Max Bentley, high-scoring center of the Toronto Maple Leafs, wins the National Hockey League scoring title this season he will be the first player ever to win the point-getting championship for three consecutive seasons.

TREASURY OVERFLOWING

Reports Indicate Texans To Get Tax Cut This Year

By Paul Bolton
Herald Austin Bureau

AUSTIN, March 11.—There's every indication that Texans will get a tax cut this year. The state treasury is so overflowing with money that the automatic tax board likely will find no alternative to reducing the general fund levy and perhaps may have to cut it out altogether.

The automatic tax board goes through a set routine and by mathematical formula raises or lowers the revenues as dictated by the condition of the treasury. When the rate is lowered, the administration usually claims credit for lower taxes. When it has to be raised—as it was last year—the raise is attributed to the inexorable workings of a mathematical formula. This year the administration probably will claim credit for reducing taxes.

As of now, the cash balance in the treasury exceeds $47,000,000— which simply means that more money has come in for the first six months of the fiscal year than anybody dreamed possible.

In the constitutionally required estimate of income made by the comptroller a year ago, he estimated the ad valorem tax would yield just under 25 million dollars; so far, it has yielded $23,358,000. While the bulk of this comes in during January and February, there's no doubt that the $25,000,000 estimate will be exceeded.

This tax has yielded $39,294,000—or an annual rate of nearly $80,000,000. In a half-year, the natural gas tax has yielded three-fourths of the amount estimated for the year—collections are $3,232,000 against the revised estimate of $4,576,000. It looks like the revised estimate on sulphur income will be about right—the estimate was $4,508,000 a year and in a half-year $2,458,000 has been collected.

The automobile sales tax was estimated to yield just under $6,000,000 a year. Collections so far amount to just under $5,000,000. That leaves a million to go, and six months to do it in. This income, incidentally, reflects the sale of almost a half-billion dollars worth of automobiles in Texas in six months. The tax is 1 per cent.

The cigarette tax was revised last May, for an estimated income of $19,940,000 a year. So far, it's brought in just under $11,000,000, indicating a slight surplus.

In the revised estimates of income last year, the comptroller noted a slump in consumption of alcoholic beverages, and reduced his estimate of the probable income from this source to a total of approximately $13,000,000—that's at the rate of $6,500,000 in a half year; actual collections have been $8,976,000.

Many Never Suspect Cause Of Backaches

The Old Treatment Often Brings Happy Relief

When disorder of kidney function permits poisons to remain in your blood, it causes backaches, rheumatism, leg pain, loss of pep and energy, getting up night, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Frequent or constant passage with smearing and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, a stimulant diuretic, used successfully for millions for over 80 years. Doan's give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

The inheritance tax is the least predictable; it was guessed at $3,000,000 a year. Already in six months, it has brought in $2,408,000. Last May, the comptroller revised some of his estimates. One was to cut down the utilities gross receipts tax slightly. But today the utilities tax has grossed $817,000; at the rate in a year it will exceed the original, higher estimate of $1,500,000.

Another revision in May was the oil tax; the revised estimate was for an income of slightly over $50,000,000 a year. In a half-year,

Other sources of revenue are not on a basis which lend themselves to a comparison at this period; they're collected on an annual basis and the time for payment hasn't arrived. The current total income to the state is running about $86,000,000 ahead of last year; but that is not a true comparative figure on tax revenues since it isn't limited to tax revenues.

72 Year Old Dallas Lady Gets Stomach Relief With Mertox

Mrs. G. D. Robbins, 928 South Peak, Finds This Herbal Compound Just What She Needed

"I am 72 years of age and I want to state that Mertox has done me a world of good," says Mrs. Robbins. "I was troubled with sour stomach and constipation. Since taking this splendid medicine I can now eat things that were impossible to eat, without a great deal of distress."

Rural Teachers Virtually Assured Of Getting Salaries

AUSTIN, March 11 (AP)—Rural school teachers today were virtually assured of their full salaries for the current school year without a special session of the legislature.

Assurance came yesterday through a plan announced by Gov. Beauford H. Jester after conferences with representatives of key educational and banking agencies connected with the $3,000,000 rural aid fund shortage crisis and its solution.

The plan, Jester said, has the approval of all concerned. Calls for local bank loans to the communities needing them, to be repaid through a promised appropriation of the next regular legislature.

"There has been ample precedent," he declared.

Jester said W. A. Kirkland of Houston, president of the state bankers association, will notify all Texas bankers that banks are agreeable to loaning money to local communities in all parts of Texas necessary to keeping rural aid schools open for their full regular terms.

Photostatic copies of two other letters are to accompany Kirkland's letters. One is from the governor assuring recommendation for repayment legislation as the number one emergency for the next regular legislature's consideration. The other is from the legislative audit committee promising its efforts in preparing and passing the legislation.

Among those listed by the governor as approving the plan were

State Banking Commissioner J. M. Falkner, State Superintendent L. A. Woods and the state board of education.

Among others endorsing the plan at a conference with the governor yesterday, when final details were worked out, were Miss Emma Mae Brotze of Marshall, president of the teachers association; Dana Williams of Teneha, president of the association of equalization aid schools; W. E. Lowry, director of state vocational education; Sen. James E. Taylor of Kerens, Sen. A. M. Aikin of Paris, and Rep. Ottis Lock of Lufkin.

"Under this loan plan, the money will get to the teachers when it is due," Jester commented. He described it as an excellent example of "self help" and "coordinated effort" in solving a crisis without a special session of the legislature.

JUDGE SEES A LESSON IN JAIL TANK TREATMENT FOR ALCOHOLICS

LOS ANGELES, March 11 (AP)—Municipal Judge Charles D. Wallace spoke his mind when 41-year-old Charles Culver appeared before him for the 81st time on intoxication charges.

"To those citizens who believe alcoholism, which is a disease, can be treated by throwing victims into jail tanks for punishment, this case should be a lesson," he said.

"The cost of arresting, transporting and supporting Culver the 1,883 days he has been confined in jail, has been more than the cost of building a farm for these unfortunates."

Then he sentenced Culver to an additional 120 days in jail.

MENTAL CASES

Nine Are Killed In Hospital Fire

ASHEVILLE, N. C., March 11 (AP)—Nine women patients perished here early today in the blazing inferno of a mental hospital fire.

Seven of the victims were trapped on upper floors of the four-story central building of the Highland hospital for nervous diseases, Dr. B. T. Bennett, medical director, reported.

Two others were evacuated by firemen who dashed into the fiery structure but they died soon afterward.

The fire, discovered about midnight, started in the kitchen of the hospital's central building. It quickly spread to an elevator shaft and was licking the building's roof when firemen arrived.

Screams of trapped women rang out above the roaring conflagration as doctors, nurses, firemen and police ran through the blazing structure, risking their lives in an effort to save the 20 patients in the building.

They quickly huddled the rescued patients into another building where some sat silently and others yelled hysterically.

The death toll was announced by Dr. Bennett after he and hospital authorities checked the list of patients in the building.

Dr. Bennett said some of the hospital's most violent patients were in the destroyed building but they were among the first to be released.

The hospital, housed in several buildings, about three miles from the heart of Asheville, is a unit of Duke university hospital in Durham.

The Chicago White Sox have managed to win as many games as they have lost to Hal Newhouser, Detroit lefthander, a record no other American League club can match. In nine seasons against Newhouser the Chisox have won 15 and lost 15.

"Old at 40, 50, 60?" — Man, You're Crazy

PHARR, March 11 (AP)—Something which will kill a Texas horned toad has been found.

CHICAGO WINTER IS TOO MUCH FOR TOUGH TEXAS HORNED TOAD

It's the rigors of Chicago winters.

And neither sun lamps nor cod liver oil nor experts of Chicago's Brookfield zoo could revive him.

Reports here to Mrs. T. Strait say the toad ended up in a glass zoo in Chicago's natural history museum.

It is insultingly labeled "Horned Lizard from Texas."

Danny Orser, 11, was given the toad by Mrs. Strait last April. Came the snow and ice and the toad, called "Mac," visibly wilted.

Sunlamp baths failed to revive Mac. Danny's mother asked Brookfield zoo keepers for advice and they were surprised it had survived so long away from the sun.

Cod liver oil and liver pepped him up but not for long.

Minister Will Open Teachers' Meeting

BEAUMONT, March 11 (AP)—The Rev. William H. Alexander, pastor of the First Christian church in Oklahoma City, is scheduled to speak here tonight at the opening of the 34-county southeast division convention of the Texas State Teachers association.

Business sessions are on tomorrow's program. Dr. L. A. Woods, Austin, state superintendent of public instruction, and Dr. Kenneth McFarland, superintendent of Topeka, Kans., schools, are on tomorrow's program.

Transforming Appearance, Psychology

The city commission has ventured upon another bold step in authorizing preparation of estimated assessments on 67 additional blocks of paving, but in this respect, most residents will agree that boldness is to be desired.

Included in this proposed program, which would fall in behind a current 50-block effort, would be some 25 blocks along Fourth street. Object of this listing would be to open another through artery from east to west, one by which traffic over US 80 could be diffused. Whether hearings will support the effort remains to be seen, but there is much to be said for trying. A paved Fourth street would strengthen appeals to the state highway department to widen the approaches into Big Spring from the airport and from Cosden refinery.

Progress of petitions now in circulation and already on city officials' desks indicated that there is little doubt that 25 to 30 blocks are assured under the plus program. Certainly this will make a big difference.

The prospect of 100 blocks more paving than we had a year ago is an exciting one. It not only will have a transforming effect on appearance, but on psychology of residents in general. Paving, like any other improvement, is contagious.

Religious Education In The Schools

In one of the most sweeping decisions involving a religious issue, the supreme court has held that religious sects may not use the public schools of the nation to teach their beliefs. Justice Reed alone dissented, while four justices held moderate views along with Justice Jackson, who agreed in principle but felt there might be some other means of accomplishing instruction which might be compatible to interpretations of the courts.

The danger of the decision is in its possible extremities, for unless there is a sharp distinction made, there can develop a mistaken feeling that the decision regarding sects involves every mention or reference to religion or Deity. We cannot believe that this is the import of the decision, or that it would affect the teaching of Bible as it is handled in Texas schools today.

This danger, however, is considerably less than the alternate to which the court referred. After all, sectarian instruction, even on a co-operative basis between the broad religious groupings, is a convenience in public schools. It is not, under our interpretation of the constitution, incumbent upon the schools to furnish time or space for a duty which is primarily inescapably that of the church. This is particularly true when it comes to matters of doctrine.

In the long run, the churches and the synagogues may be stimulated to more militant action in the knowledge that there is no convenient set-up for shepherding their children outside the church.

Washington Merry-Go-Round—Drew Pearson

Truman Has Demo Leaders On Spot

WASHINGTON.—It has now been nearly four years since democratic party moguls met at a secret White House dinner and persuaded Franklin Roosevelt to accept Senator Truman of Missouri as vice president. They knew then, of course, that the chances of FDR's living through the next four years were slim.

Present at that dinner were Ed Flynn of the Bronx, Mayor Ed Kelly of Chicago, Mayor Hague of Jersey City, and Bob Hannegan. Today, almost the same democratic moguls convene at the White House. And despite this week's announcement that Truman is a candidate, they still hope they can deftly dislodge from office the man they put in.

They know in advance that this will not be easy—for two reasons: 1, the embarrassment of breaking the news to Truman; 2, finding another candidate who can win.

Two years ago all this would have been easy. At that time, Truman himself was saying he did not want to be president. But no man likes to retreat under fire, and Truman's ideas on this are well illustrated by the staunch support given such friends as Ed Pauley and Brig. Gen. Wallace Graham when they were under fire for speculating.

However, the party moguls have promised each other privately that they will be hard-boiled and tell the president the truth—namely that the chance of victory with him at the head of the ticket is nil.

If they do this, then finding a candidate to take Truman's place will not be easy. Chief Justice Fred Vinson of Kentucky would be acceptable to the South, but wouldn't arouse too much enthusiasm in the North. Supreme Court Justice William O. Douglas is a great administrator and would have the advantage of probably persuading Henry Wallace to withdraw. Henry Kaiser would be popular in the west, with labor and with small business men. However, it takes time to build up any candidate. And while it's not too late, the sooner the democrats get busy, the better their chances.

That's the problem facing democratic moguls as they walk into the White House today.

JIM CROW VOTE

The voting record was ordered burned and every congressman was sworn to secrecy when the House Appropriations committee voted on the dynamite-laden subject of barring Federal money to universities and hospitals which refuse to admit Negroes.

Secret, also, was the word passed down by republican leaders against this anti-Jim Crow amendment. However, Congressman Frank Keefe of Wisconsin, republican, was adamant that his party go on record one way or the other for a practical application of civil rights.

"You can talk about anti-lynching bills and abolition of Jim Crow laws," Keefe said, "but here is a practical way to show where the Federal government stands—by withholding money from institutions which discriminate against the Negro."

Most vigorous opposition to Keefe's amendment, during the secret committee debate, came from Florida's democratic Joe Hendricks. "We intend to maintain segregation of the South!" He appealed to the republicans to help the southern bloc vote down Keefe's amendment, reminding them that Florida once voted for Herbert Hoover.

"Florida voted for Hoover because Al Smith was a Catholic," snapped Keefe. "That's just another example of intolerance."

SECRET POLITICAL

Hendricks was followed by George Andrews of Alabama, Albert Gore of Tennessee, Jamie Whitten of Mississippi, John Kerr of North Carolina, George Mahon of Texas and Albert Thomas of Texas, who pled that the South be given time to work out its tough Negro problem.

"We could get along with the Negroes all right if the north-erners would leave us alone," charged Andrews of Alabama.

Backed against the wall, Keefe got little help from his republican colleagues.

"There is no discrimination by the tax collector," he argued. "He collects taxes from whites and Negroes alike. Yet Negroes can't be admitted to universities and hospitals which they help pay for."

"Disease knows no racial barriers," Keefe continued. "With Negro life expectancy ten years less than whites, it presents a serious problem."

In the final secret vote, Keefe was deserted by all his republican colleagues except three: Gordon Canfield of New Jersey, Ralph Church of Illinois and Karl Anderson of Minnesota. Two northern democrats, Thomas O'Brien of Illinois and John Fogarty of Rhode Island, also voted with him.

The 25 congressmen who secretly voted against the amendment were: republicans—Taber, N. Y.; Wiggleworth, Mass.; Plumley, Vt.; Engel, Mich.; Johnson, Ind.; Jensen, Ia.; Ploeser, Mo.; Tibbott, Pa.; Fenton, Pa.; Griffiths, Ohio; Stockman, Ore.; Scrivner, Kansas; Cleveland, Ohio.

Democrats—Cannon, Mo.; Kerr, N. C.; Mahon, Texas; Shepard, Calif.; Thomas, Tex.; Hendricks, Fla.; Norrell, Ark.; Gore, Tenn.; Whitten, Miss.; Andrews, Ala.; Gary, Va.; Bates, Ky.

MERRY-GO-ROUND

At the time Franklin Roosevelt died he was writing a book—not on politics, not on the war—but on the father of the American Navy—John Paul Jones. Elliott Roosevelt has discovered this unfinished manuscript on John Paul Jones and is editing it for publication. The Army and Navy next year will ask Congress for about four billion dollars to develop jet-propelled planes. Henry Grady of San Francisco will be the new U. S. ambassador to China. The Jewish war veterans of America have decided to run three Friendship Trains to Cyprus and Palestine.

Stars Slick At Selling

HOLLYWOOD.—A clever bit of salesmanship has resulted in another co-starring picture for June Allyson and Peter Lawford.

Frank Sinatra was slated to star in a musicalized remake of "The Shop Around the Corner," originally made in 1939 with Margaret Sullivan and James Stewart. When Lawford heard that Sinatra couldn't do the film, he rounded up June Allyson and Director Chuck Walters. The "Good News" trio wired Producer Joe Pasternak in Sun Valley to hold the picture for them.

When Pasternak returned to MGM, the three cornered him and persuaded him to give them the movie. It is scheduled after Lawford's "Vespers in Vienna" and June's "The Three Musketeers."

Jeanette MacDonald is going back to MGM in "A Family for Jock" with Lennie and Claude Jarman, Jr. The studio was happy about her return in "Three Daring Daughters."

Bob Hope still has a yen to play "Private Lives" on the New York stage this summer. He'll either do that, or harp on the country again with a variety show. Maybe he'll run into Red Skelton, who has similar plans.

Peggy Lee looks set for singing specialties in "Words and Music" and perhaps an MGM contract. It's about time—the gal is a looker and is fast becoming the nation's most popular girl singer.

Andy Russell is back in town to start his new air show. He's including one to portray Russ Columbo in the late singer's biography.

Danny Thomas collected $70,000 for eight weeks' work at Slapsy Maxie's, and put the night spot on its feet. With daily benefits and an air show, Danny had better start collecting some rest, too.

Ralph Edwards had hoped his "walking man" contest would run another week, since many people thought the mystery pedestrian was Babe Ruth instead of Jack Benny. The quizmaster says he has no immediate plans for another contest but you can bet that he'll have another one before long. NBC has ruled that none of its other shows can stage similar stunts.

Europe Sees Need For Self-Help

Let's continue to bask while we can in that little burst of sunshine which we conjured up yesterday out of western Europe's efforts at rehabilitation.

Take the Brussels conference among Britain, France, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg, which already has laid down the political and legal basis of a western European economic and military union. There are of course many implications in this development but to me the most important is the tacit recognition that self-help must be the essential feature of peace and plenty.

This recognition perhaps has been a bit slow in coming to some countries which had been hard hit and hoped that the U. S. A. would put them on their feet. While America may be expected to play its part, yet in the long run western Europe can survive only through its own efforts. Uncle Sam has no intention of playing Sinbad the Sailor to an economic old-man-of-the-sea.

Several things have helped bring about the realization that self-help is the real answer to the problem. One of the main factors probably has been the stern scrutiny which the United States Congress has been giving foreign aid proposals. Then recently a fresh element of hope has been injected into the situation by an improvement in crop prospects, after last year's disastrous harvests.

One of the hardest hit of all the countries is England, and she has taken the realistic attitude that while she must have outside help yet recovery must depend mainly upon herself. Sir Stafford Cripps, chancellor of the Exchequer, has kept hammering it home that the country must pull itself up by its boot-strap, the measures inaugurated by the socialist government have been truly Spartan.

Yesterday we saw further evidence of this determination. Cripps summed up Britain's outlook for the coming year in a white paper which made it clear that the already hard pinched public would have less to eat and wear. However, while "the year is bound to be one of great anxiety, x x x we can help make it the first year of a great upward turn in the European economic recovery." The chancellor continued:

"This year will beyond doubt be dominated by the decisions of the U. S. Congress on the grant of aid to Europe for reconstruction. Without further substantial external aid, we can have no hope of recovering equilibrium at a reasonable standard of life within the next few years."

How Government Checks Tax Reports

WASHINGTON.—Maybe you are wondering, with the income tax return deadline coming up March 15 on 1947 incomes:

1. Does the government really check every return?

2. How does the government find out when someone is cheating?

The answer is:

1. Every return is checked, at least to see that the arithmetic is all right and there's nothing obviously wrong or suspicious.

2. But only three out of every 100 returns are thoroughly checked.

And the bigger your return, the closer the look it gets from the internal revenue bureau.

But how does the bureau pick those three-out-of-100 returns for a thorough check? In these ways:

1. In some cases there's something so wrong on the face of the return that it rings like a fire-bell.

2. The bureau gets a "tip" on a certain return to watch for it.

3. And those higher incomes get a closer going over.

The internal revenue bureau has only about 49,000 employees who deal with income taxes. And that number includes: Typists and other clerical help, plus investigators, agents and collectors, such as help you figure your tax when you go into a revenue bureau office.

With that number of employees it's impossible for the bureau to check every return thoroughly.

Here are the figures given for the returns filed last year. They will hold pretty true for the returns filed by March 15.

Last year 52,820,000 people filed a tax return on their tax income.

Of that number, 51,000 had income under $7,000. The bureau checked thoroughly 830,000.

Editor Uphold Crow's Brain Power

This, we hope, is the last word on crows.

It is from Sterling Hart, editor and co-publisher of the Commerce Daily Journal at Commerce, Tex.

It is the result of two stories we wrote about crows. In the first, we quoted some experts as saying they didn't know how crows crack pecans. The second quoted another group of experts who said they had seen crows crack pecans and gave their version of how it was done.

As a result, Hart writes:

"We admire these young investigators and old provokers for their zeal and interest in the important things of life, but are sometimes amused at their findings—what we old hillbillies always know."

"Of course crows eat pecans. They also eat corn, eggs, young birds and young chickens. They dig potatoes. They help people by working their gardens and picking their fruit. The crow, like man, is primarily and first for himself, but his work is sometimes helpful and not harmful to the farmer."

"Flocks of these black birds will follow furrow after furrow, eating the turned-up bugs and worms. They are the smartest birds that fly and approach man in degree of suspicion and caution. If the plowman attends to his business and pays no attention to the crows, they will gather around almost in arm's reach, but let them see a gun and they are soon far away."

"As a Missouri plowman, we grew up with crows. We have shooed at a million, killed a few and broken a wing on several."

"Crack a pecan? If you ever let one get hold of your finger with his beak, as we have, you will not doubt it. Crows do not need a rock or anything else to handle a little thing like a pecan."

"Roy Cornish, Commerce ornithologist, says crows are cooperative and are the original 'co-ops.'"

"They have pecan co-ops for cracking and distributing the nuts they steal. A crow co-op is located, Roy says, where a good sized limb crosses another in some large tree, the upper limb being only an inch or two above the lower one."

"Two or three crows leave pecans, hickory nuts, walnuts, etc.—between the limbs where they cross. Then the flock hops onto the far end of the upper limb, thus cracking the nut. Sometimes a careless crow gets a toe caught and pinched off."

"Crows are like humans in another respect. They are natural born thieves. Even if they could not crack pecans, they would take them to the squirrel haunts and then steal the kernels after the rodents crack them."

In conclusion, Hart said: "We recently straightened out the groundhog question and later on may do the same thing about the gopher."

After that, what, Mr. Hart?

A Boost For Joe College

This past week, four of Texas' state teachers colleges had $734,000 in bond issues approved for a program of building expansion.

North Texas State at Denton had the largest sale - $300,000 for three buildings: a student union, journalism and press building, and a gymnasium. Bonds totalling $175,000 will be used to construct a student union building and 30 cottages on the campus of Sul Ross Teachers college at Alpine. Stephen F. Austin college located at Nacogdoches will build a boys' dormitory and a student union financed by $225,000 in bonds. Southwest Texas State Teachers college will expand its stadium with $34,000 in bonds.

Therein lies a significant trend, for the bulk of the above issues will be spent to build student union buildings.

The University of Texas has had a student union for some time. Baylor has just completed a beautiful new structure of that type. SMU has one under construction. TCU is planning such a plant and Texas A&M has the equivalent of such a building in its YMCA hall.

It seems that Texas educators are realizing that there is tendency enough among young North Americans to drive themselves through a race horse pace and die of a heart attack at the age of 48. Evidently they see that too many citizens reach the age of retirement finding that all they have learned to do is work, work, work. Often a person in the latter situation loses his zest for life and dies simply because he doesn't know how to relax. His life perspective has been warped out of shape by an overindulgence in labor.

Certainly the best way to correct such a bad situation is to tackle it before it really gets started — in the formative years.

The average student union provides a fine means of developing a balance between work and recreation. Such a building usually consists of a bowling center; theatre for films, plays, concerts, lectures; billiard and pool tables; dance floor; banquet hall; meeting rooms for campus organizations; faculty club; snack shop; cafeteria; and reading room.

Usually added to these facilities are such conveniences as a post office, tailor and pressing shop, book store, beauty parlor, drug store and barber shop.

The student bugaboos of high prices plus time and money for transportation are alleviated by the fact that the student union is located on the campus and is operated by the university on a non-profit basis.

If our institutions of higher education can keep their scholastic standards rigid so that Joe College won't dive overboard on the pleasure side of the boat (he's been known to have tendencies in that direction, too), they may go a long way toward helping our people in their search for a more abundant life.

Incidentally, such a system could be adopted in our high school system, couldn't it? — might be a big help in stopping delinquency. But it would cost so much. — ADRIAN VAUGHN

Hal Boyle's Notebook

Mellowed De Valera

NEW YORK. (U.P.)—Lloyd George once said of Eamon De Valera: "Negotiating with that Irishman is like trying to scoop up quicksilver with a fork."

His own people used to say of him:

"He is marching on Dublin at the head of 16,000 words."

But the American-born "Dey" also was a flamboyant revolutionary who helped win the Irish free state by terrorism and civil war.

Only his American citizenship saved this son of a Spanish father and Irish mother from being put to death after the abortive Easter day rebellion of 1916. All other leaders were executed. It was in a British jail that De Valera, a former mathematics teacher, first found leisure to learn the Einstein theory.

But those days are long past. Old friends will meet him during his present month-long visit to the land of his birth will find him a man who has graduated from violence. He has laid down his shillelagh.

The deep intensity that marked him during earlier trips to raise funds for Irish independence is gone. At 64 De Valera has achieved a twinkling-eyed serenity.

Today he no longer feels that force will be needed to achieve the one remaining goal of his life—the end of partition in Ireland.

He spoke of this goal as he sat in the palm room of the Waldorf-Astoria, knitting his big rawed hands placidly and smiling through his spectacles. He looked like a fatherly professor from a small college.

Because he is no longer Irish premier—he was voted out recently after 16 years in office—he declined to talk of Irish domestic issues. But he said that, as spokesman of the opposition, "we'll be there."

"I doubt that partition will work in Palestine any more than it has in Ireland," he said. "Because partition doesn't solve a problem. It just creates two more."

He was asked whether he saw any means of achieving a united Ireland through any other avenue than force.

"Yes," he said, "through wise statesmanship. We got our ports back without force. I am a great believer in the eventual triumph of right and common sense."

"A divided Ireland makes no sense. It will be for the good of all of us if we work to remove the disturbing causes between us. And once Ireland is united then relations between her and Britain will be as good as those between any two countries in the world."

De Valera denied that he had come over to enlist American support behind the Irish in their long campaign to annex the six northern counties still under British control. But he said American backing had been helpful in the past and he wouldn't mind it a bit if it helped unite all Ireland.

"If a man takes your watch and chain and then gives your watch back," he smiled, "you still want the chain, too."

Dual Hildegarde Act

NEW YORK.—It is getting more and more popular for imitators and impressionists to present their versions of the incomparable Hildegarde. I suppose it was inevitable that sooner or later, there had to be two Hildegardes on a night club floor at the same time.

Well, it happened. It was in the plush corner of the Hotel Plaza known as the Persian Room, and Hildegarde was being continental and charming and corny all over the premises. She was entertaining, too, as she always is. Finally, she introduced a visiting English lady at the ringside, a handsome gal in daring décolletage.

"Ladees and gentlemen," said Hildy in her best Parisian-over-Milwaukee accent, "I would like you to meet Miss Florence Desmond."

The audience applauded politely, not knowing what was to come. Neither, I'm sure, did Hildegarde. On an impulse, the star dragged La Desmond into the spotlight, where Hildegarde insisted she perform her devastating impression of herself — Hildegarde, that is.

Florence didn't have pins to put her hair atop her noggin, Hildegarde style. So the irrepressible Hildy went table to table soliciting hair pins. Miss Desmond started to pile the hair.

"This takes time, darling," said Florence, in an exact imitation of Hildegarde's speech, with edgy overtones which started the audience applauding. Hildegarde turned to the pianist, "Salvatore play some hair music please," she ordered. Salvatore started noodling through "I'm Just Wild About Harry." Miss Desmond turned and faced the crowd. There was a spontaneous shriek of approval and applause. For Florence had closed her eyes, puckered her smile into a replica of Hildy's, one arm thrown into the air, a gesture on which Hildegarde has patents pending, practically.

"Ahhh, thaaaank you, thaaaank you, thaaaank you, thaaaank you, thaaaank you, thaaaank you for the lovely hair pins, madame. Do you like my gloves, sir? Hildegarde gave them to me herself, but—" and her face twisted into a pouty paraphrase of disappointment—"they are too long. She is longer in the arm, you know."

Hildegarde slapped her slim and fashionable sides, screaming at the likeness.

"I luvv you everybody becuz I luvv you." Hildy stamped her handsomely encased foot. "Florence Desmond, I don't talk that way." Florence quipped, "Oh, yes, becuz you do." Hildegarde fled to a ringside table. Florence followed.

"No, this is my side, you work the other side," Hildegarde cautioned. Miss D. did an exaggerated float to the other side. She looked toward a ringsider. "Oh, you have two children. How clever of you, m'sieur," she smiled.

The girls played a duet of "Limehouse Blues," mugged, finished to a riot of applause. Then Hildegarde announced the reason she countenanced such a rowdy parody of her talents.

Once in England, she had stepped in to pinch hit for a musical star. The star being, of course, Florence Desmond. And since Hildegarde is almost as indestructible as Gibraltar, Florence never had the chance to return the favor. This way, they had a little fun together. Corny, sure, but wonderful, too.

WHAT GIVES 'ROUND TOWN

By Leatrice Ross

This must be Big Spring's open season for bands and bandleaders. Saturday night Harry James (sans his orchestra) was housed by the Crawford Hotel. Only last week, you remember, Joe Higgins and his boys were through here, followed several days later by Louis Jordan.

Latest engagement is evidenced by a two and one-half carat diamond given Gloria Strom by Hershel Ezell. Charles Lovelace, Tech student, was home over the weekend. Duke Noel and Gerald Anderson are back in town. The two had been working in Fort Stockton.

Mozelle Isaacs is a newcomer to Big Spring from Lamesa.

Hear it said that George and James Crittenden are working now in Santa Monica, Calif., in a cannery, waiting for a steamer to Alaska. Few indeed are activities missed entirely by the localites.

People we saw at the Coburn-Gene Autry rodeo in San Angelo Sunday afternoon: Smokey Middleton, Jess Slaughter, Wesley Yater, LaRue Brown, Hoss Rankin.

Twosomes about the town Saturday evening: Louise Ann Bennett (TU) Creed Coffee, Joyce Bugg, Bill Beauchamp, Barbara McEwen, J. L. Banks, Robbie Pinner, Dopey Anderson, Betty Rawlins, Dwayne Williams, Peggy Utloff, Hayes Stripling, Betty Ray Nall, Dick Clifton, Evelyn Huddle-

Mrs. Pearl Cauble was elected as delegate to the district convention in Odessa in April at the regular meeting of the Overton Demonstration club in the home of Mrs. G. F. Painter Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Painter reported that eight of the 11 cutting plants, which she had set out several months previous had rooted.

Attending were Mrs. J. D. Leonard, Mrs. B. J. Petty, Mrs. Pearl Cauble, and visitors, Mrs. J. M. Green, Mrs. G. G. Green and Mrs. Frank Thieme.

L. W. Moore and son, Phil, visited in Sweetwater Tuesday. Mrs. Moore and daughter, Cheryl, returned home with them after visiting with her sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Buddy Cox and Linda Jean.

Mrs. Leroy Prescott and daughter of Hobbs, N. M. were visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Prescott recently.

Mr. and Mrs. John Cardwell visited in Odessa Sunday with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Travis Breithaupt and Beverly Jo.

Mrs. Pearl Scudday recently visited relatives in Brownfield.

Mrs. Frank Jacobs and uncle, Perry Hurt of Phoenix, Ariz., were business visitors in San Angelo Monday.

L. B. Griffith was a business visitor in San Angelo recently.

Mrs. Ann Colwell has returned to her home in Fort Worth after visiting here with her aunt, Mrs. O. N. Green.

Erda Lewis was a Lamesa visitor Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Heuvel and Linda Kay visited Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Keith in Odessa Sunday.

Priscilla Green of Levelland is visiting with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. O. N. Green.

Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Boyd and children were recent guests of relatives in Bangs.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Mayes of Lamesa are visiting her family, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Fullen.

Mr. and Mrs. I. O. Shaw and Ricky of Wink visited friends here over the week end. Shaw was formerly employed with Humble Oil Co. here.

Engagement Is Revealed

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Daniels are announcing the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Georgia Lee Daniels, to Dale Moore, son of Mr. and Mrs. Denny Moore of Coahoma.

The ceremony will be read at the First Christian church in Big Spring on Sunday, March 14, immediately following regular Sunday morning worship services at the church. The Rev. Lloyd H. Thompson, pastor, will officiate.

Miss Daniel is a graduate of the Big Spring high school, while Moore is a graduate of Coahoma high school.

Stanton Community Residents Are Visiting, Having Guests This Week

STANTON, March 11, (Sp1)—Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Clark of Odessa are the parents of a daughter born March 5. Mrs. Clark is the former Ruth Kelly.

W. A. Wood of Lenorah is in the Stanton Memorial hospital.

Morgan Hall has been hospitalized for the past few days.

The Junior class presented the play "Superstitious Sadie" in the school auditorium Friday evening. The Rebekah lodge sponsored a "woman-less" wedding and style show at the local auditorium March 5.

Mrs. B. F. Smith has sold her farm near town to Mr. Hale of the Stokes community. Mrs. Smith is building a home in town.

Coach H. H. Hamrick and the Stanton girls' basketball team will leave Tuesday for the state Cage meet at Hillsboro. Those going are Edith Davie, Betty Burchett, Betty Blissard, Lois Standefer, Dixie O'Brian, Lila Winters, Anita Shamkle, Lola Faye Rohus, Katie Allen, Yvonne Avery, Jack Jones, Belle Jones, Mrs. R. A. Bennett and Betty Carroll Bennett.

Morris and Marvin Standefer and Pete Morrison attended the Fat Stock show and rodeo at San Angelo Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Gregg visited in Colorado City Sunday.

Sunday visitors in Odessa were Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Kelly and Mrs. J. H. Kelly.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Hittson and son, Dicky, of Mineral Wells were business visitors here recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Price moved to

Mrs. Elmer Rainey Is Hostess To Class

Mrs. Elmer Rainey was hostess to a combined social and business meeting at her home Tuesday evening for the Gleaner's class of East Fourth Baptist church.

Mrs. Edna Perkins led the opening prayer and Mrs. Ira Rainey brought the devotional.

Mrs. Walter Grice presided at the business session.

The first Wednesday following the first Sunday of each month has been set as Visit day.

Plans were completed to conduct a departmental social instead of a class social.

Attending were Mrs. Walter Grice, Mrs. Ira Rainey, Mrs. Ross Hill, Mrs. Edna Perkins and the hostess, Mrs. Rainey.

Jerry Kirkham Weds

Word has been received here of the marriage of Jerry Kirkham, formerly of Big Spring, to Sgt. Maurice Blackwell, in San Francisco, Calif., Feb. 18.

Fireman Auxiliary

The Fireman's Auxiliary of the Big Spring fire department will meet Friday afternoon at 3:30 p. m. with Mrs. Herbert Moore at 1911 Johnson.

CHANGE OF LIFE?

Are you going through the transitional "middle age" period peculiar to women (38 to 52 yrs.)? Does this make you suffer from hot flashes, feel so nervous, high-strung, tired? Then, do try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to relieve such symptoms. Pinkham's Compound also has what Doctors call a stomachic tonic effect!

Gas Situation Grows 'Tight'

Continental has joined the circle of companies allocating the distribution of fuel supplies...

While most distributors agreed that the gasoline situation was "tight", not all anticipated that they would be given quotas.

On the other hand, several companies have been operating under quotas from three to six months. These apply differently among the companies...

An unprecedented demand for petroleum products is responsible for the imposition and extension of allocation. Contributing factors are a tremendous increase in the number of motor vehicles...

RESIDENT HAS A TIDY CHECK FOR PROVIDING CARTOON GAG

Mrs. T. C. Thomas has a little more than pride to show for a Dick Strome cartoon appearing in the current issue of Saturday Evening Post on page 146.

She has a right tidy check to show for the gag line and idea for the cartoon.

The sketch is one of the flustered milk man, during early morning hours, standing on a porch, dismay written on his face.

When Mrs. Thomas, who has done considerable free-lancing in prose and poetry, learned that cartoonists were sometimes in the market for gags and ideas, she submitted her idea. In short order, she received a neat check.

Demos Seek Advice On Truman's Race

WASHINGTON, March 11. (AP)—Democratic strategists sought advice from the "grass roots" today on how to advance President Truman's out-in-the-open candidacy.

National Chairman J. Howard McGrath called in key party leaders from a cross section of the country for a two-day parley.

Simultaneously, Chairman Leon Henderson of Americans for Democratic Action, challenged the executive committee in a meeting to make a "determined fight" for the President's civil rights program.

The Dixie rebellion touched off by the anti-lynch, anti-poll tax, anti-job discrimination and other racial equality proposals in that program appeared certain to figure prominently in the committee's discussions.

The announced purpose of the session is to lay plans for the party's national convention at Philadelphia in July.

There the Truman forces are faced with a threat of some southern delegations to walk out rather than see the President nominated.

Gael Sullivan, the national committee's executive director, told reporters in advance of today's session that the party leaders will be asked for advice with "accent on a positive program of action."

Some Democrats in Washington already are at work on a proposed civil rights platform plank which they hope will satisfy both the President and his party opponents.

Meanwhile, southern Democrats won a point when the Senate rules committee voted to hold four days of public hearings later this month on an anti-poll tax bill.

This assured both a delay in the inevitable senate showdown and a sounding board for Dixie arguments.

Also on Capitol Hill, Mr. Truman faced a half-million dollar slash in his emergency funds from a combination of southern democrats and senate republicans.

A Senate Appropriations subcommittee voted behind closed doors yesterday to cut the special presidential fund from the $700,000 voted by the House to $200,000.

Senator Russell (D-Ga.) who reported the action said it stemmed from the President's "flagrant abuse of powers" in using the money to finance civil rights and higher education studies "and many other things outside the law."

Mr. Truman, meanwhile, made arrangements to entertain the democratic executive committee members at a White House luncheon tomorrow.

Groebel Seeks School Office

TED O. GROEBEL

Ted O. Groebel, operator of an area oil distribution concern here, announced Thursday that he would be a candidate for the office of trustee on the Big Spring Independent School district board.

His only objective in offering for the position, he said, was in hopes he might be able to help build better schools for Big Spring. He added that he had held off announcing pending a decision not to run by Ira Thurman, veteran member and president of the board, whom Groebel praised for "long and faithful service."

"I don't think there can be but one platform in offering for trustee," he said, "and that is to work toward strengthening of the school program and facilities. I would count it an honor to serve."

"With this in mind, it is my intention, if the people choose me as trustee, to make a thorough inquiry and study of school problems as a basis for decisions in working with other members of the board.

In building, it is necessary to excavate and mould the foundation before progressing upward. It is necessary to have teamwork with all members of the board for what I believe to be best for our children and community."

Groebel long has been an active civic worker, having headed many organizations, including the chamber of commerce. He also was drive chairman for all bond campaigns during the war. He is owner and operator of the Westex Oil company and a home owner. The Groebels have two children.

Social Security Check-Up Advised By Administrator

Checking on old-age and survivors insurance account is advised by George D. Clark, manager of the San Angelo office of the social security administration.

It's like checking on a bank balance, he said. Moreover, the service is "free upon request."

Unless called to the attention of social security within four years, errors in accounts cannot be corrected. Advantage in getting a report is ascertaining if the account holder has been credited for all wages earned.

In most instances, said Clark, employers make complete reports, but there are instances where reporting is faulty or incomplete. Since the amount in the individual's account determines the size of payments to him or his family, it is important to know that all credits have been made, said Clark.

By writing the San Angelo office and asking for Form OAR-7004, a request may be made for a report on an individual's social security account.

Blames Weather For His Plight

Clifton F. Miller, who gave Youcum as his address, blamed the cold weather for his plight this morning after entering pleas of guilty to three charges in corporation court.

He was arrested Wednesday night by Hugh McLaughlin, T&P special agent, and charged with drunkenness and disturbance in the T&P passenger station, where he was apparently taking refuge from the elements. City police had a third charge to add this morning after they discovered heavily damaged plumbing fixtures in the city jail.

In court this morning, City Judge W. E. Greenlee assessed fines as follows: $25 for drunkenness, $25 for disturbance, $200 for malicious destruction of city property.

Man Is Fined $75 On Charge Of DWI

Wayman Myles, Jr., a Negro picked up here for driving while intoxicated last Feb. 11, had his penalty set at $75 and costs by a county court jury this morning after he had changed his plea from "not guilty" to "guilty" at the last moment.

Myles, a local cafe employee, was picked up by members of the city police force after a vehicle he was driving was involved in a crash on North Gregg street.

Church Group To Present Play

'By request, the young people of the Main Street Church of God, corner of 10th and Main, will present a play, "The Prodigal Son," today at 7:30 p. m.

The cast includes N. C. Dalton, who plays the part of the father; Roy Uitt, the elder son; Eddie Hickson, the prodigal; Richard Reagan, servant; and Ike Ridell, the stranger. Mrs. John E. Kolar, wife of the pastor, is director.

In addition to the showing this evening, the play is to be presented in Odessa Saturday evening and at Ira on March 19. There is no admission charge, but there will be a free-will offering.

Markets

WALL STREET NEW YORK, March 11. (AP)—Recovery tendencies persisted in today's stock market.

Airline and amusements were lively on the upside. The former were still spurred by expectations of large government orders. Reports that a compromise of the British film tax had been reached aided the latter. Bidding generally was based on the idea the list had been overvalued.

Numerous skeptics remained in neutral territory because of apprehension over international affairs, the business outlook, labor and taxes.

SHOVEL and HOE

A Garden Column by Virginia Scott. Presented by the Big Spring Garden Club.

In property development, the appearance of the front lawn plays an important role. Early March is a good time to start new lawns and to patch up old ones.

Sometimes it seems almost impossible to have grass in the shade. This is because trees rob the grass of moisture and plant food. There are special grass mixtures for the shady lawn, but sowing such seed is not enough. The trees must be fed and watered, as well as the grass.

To fertilize, the top-soil must be removed under the spread of the tree and the sub-soil thoroughly cultivated. Mix in large quantities of fertilizer, but be careful of the tree roots.

Feeding-roots will be found, usually, at the tips of the larger roots, therefore, fertilization should extend from the end of the branches to within one and one-half or two feet from the trunk.

Liberal quantities of manure mixed with fertilizer in 10-6-4 proportion are recommended. A free application of fertilizer to top-soil is always necessary for shady lawns.

The removal of a few branches will let in more light and air and be better for the lawn, but trees should not be trimmed too much, as they lose their beauty through severe topping.

Crab grass in lawns has become one of the most serious weed problems. Control measures should be taken as soon as it is discovered in the lawn.

Control of this weed is best accomplished by early feeding of lawn areas. An application of some good plant food at this time will develop the permanent grasses and form a dense turf before crab grass begins growth.

Many plants like primula, Abutilon and Cobaea scandens, or even Morning Glory may be grown from seed under ordinary living room conditions. Use clean pots filled within three inches of top with cinders, cover drain with arching piece of crock. On cinders place two inches of finely sifted soil, half loam, half sand. Sow seed thinly, press gently down with a block. Water through cloth which remains until seedlings are up.

Cutting of leaf, stem and root can be made now. Stem cuttings are clean-cut just below a node. Three or four inch cuttings are best. Remove leaves and place stems half their length into sandy soil.

Aquariums make good rooting bowls. Should have gravel in bottom covered by one and one half inches of sandy soil. Keep cuttings moist but not wet. Use fine spray. Cover top with glass to retain moisture.

As soon as possible, planting of nursery stock should get under way. Any calm day will do when the ground is not frozen.

Most of the evergreens bought from the nursery are dug with a ball of earth about the roots. Usually, this ball is wrapped in burlap to prevent the soil from falling away from the roots in handling. Do not attempt to remove this burlap in planting. Simply dig a hole considerably larger than this ball of earth. Throw some top-soil into the bottom of this hole and set the plant on it at the proper level. Now fill the hole two thirds full with loose soil, cut the strings from about the plant stem, spread back the burlap ends, place on a little more soil then soak the hole with water. When well settled, finish filling hole with loose soil and tamp firmly.

Do not over-fertilize evergreens in planting. Good top-soil to fill around the ball is quite sufficient. A slight ring formed around edge of planting hole will catch the rain and water the plant over dry spells.

Stanton Bisons Win At Hillsboro, 38-18

Oppose Gruver Troupe Tonite

HILLSBORO, March 11 (Sp)—Stanton's Buffaloes advanced into second round play of the State High School Girls basketball tournament by defeating Academy high of Little River, 38-18, here Wednesday afternoon.

The victory qualified the Bisons to play Gruver tonight. Gruver moved up by trouncing West Columbia, 24-19.

In other games, Yantis trimmed Peacock, 40-20; Mesquite sidled Cotton Center, 41-26; Forrester won over Huckabay, 38-21; East Chambers rapped Fredericksburg, 42-34; Maydelle defeated Granville Gap, 42-22; and Friona won over Aledo, 20-18.

East Chambers is the defending champion, having defeated Stanton in the finals last year.

Semi-final games are scheduled for Friday night and finals, including a consolation game, are set for Saturday night.

Walcott Wins Nod In Four-Rounder

CHICAGO, March 11 (Sp)—Jersey Joe Walcott, who lost an unpopular decision to Joe Louis and who is to meet the Heavyweight champion again June 23, won a timid four round boxing exhibition with Austin Johnson of Atlantic City, last night in the Coliseum.

There was very little action throughout the match and the customers booted steadily through all four rounds. Johnson, 186 pounder, showed little inclination to mix it and retreated most of the distance. Walcott weighed 202½ pounds and alarmed Johnson occasionally with a flurry of punches.

ALAMO JEWELRY CHAMP SAN ANTONIO, March 11 (Sp)—Alamo Jewelry today was all set for a trip to the National AAU basketball tournament at Denver. The quint won the South Texas finals here last night by defeating Howard Payne college 54-45.

BIG SPRING DAILY HERALD

THURSDAY, MARCH 11, 1948

PLAY HERE MONDAY

Redheads Boast Great Record

The All-America Redheads, who play the American Business club in a basketball exhibition at the high school gymnasium Monday night, have played a record total of 116 games already this season and are booked solid until May 3. The talented fens of Cassville, Mo., who are managed by C. M. "Ole" Olson, have won 72 of that total.

Most of the girls' games have been against men's teams.

Olson, in a letter addressed to Ted Phillips from Needles, Calif., recently, said he believed he had a better team than he had two years ago, at which time the lasses trounced the ABC clan by ten points.

The Big Spring appearance will be one of two the Redheads make in Texas. They are booked to play in Ballinger, Tuesday, March 18. On their trip across country several weeks ago, they stopped off in Dallas for a game.

Cassville's prides have played to packed houses throughout their tour and the Steer fieldhouse is expected to be jammed to the rafters when they put in here for the ABC game.

Gene Love, 6-foot-4 inch deadeye, is the scoring ace of the fens. All of the girls, with the exception of Miss Love and the six-foot Alice Hatcher, are 5-10 or less. They go all the way down to Stub Winter, who is but 5-2.

The Missourians have played to more than 2,000,000 spectators in eight seasons of activity. They defeated 90 men's teams out of 197 played last season.

In all, the lasses expect to play 201 games before the current campaign draws to a close.

The local quintet takes its final for the exhibition at the Steer gymnasium starting at 7:30 o'clock tonight. Tickets, pegged at $1 each, could still be had for the exhibition but a sellout is almost certain.

STUB WINTER... not so tall fella

Hilltoppers And St. Louis Liked In NI Tourney

NEW YORK, March 11 (Sp)—Four of the country's classier college basketball teams, together owning 93 victories against 12 defeats, square off tonight in the opening round of the choosy National Invitation tournament.

This is the stellar lineup awaiting a sellout crowd of 18,000 at Madison Square Garden.

Western Kentucky (26-1) vs. LaSalle of Philadelphia (19-3).

St. Louis (21-3) vs. Bowling Green, O. (27-5).

The sharpshooters gets underway at 7 p. m. (CST).

The Hilltoppers of Western Kentucky, top-seeded on the strength of the nation's best college competitive record, and St. Louis, No. 4 in the rankings, are favored to win semifinal berths.

The second set of first round games in the fast eight-team elimination is scheduled for Saturday, like this: Texas (20-4) vs. New York U. (20-2), North Carolina State (29-2) vs. DePaul (21-6).

Western Kentucky will field an experienced outfit of four seniors and one junior with plenty of height, Don Ray and Odie Spears are six feet-five while Oren McKinney is six-four.

By contrast, LaSalle, a 20-1 longshot, is short on seasoning. The team will start three sophomores, one junior and one senior.

However, one of the sophomores—six-foot-nine Larry Foust, rates among the country's better basket-hitters. He has totaled 386 points this season for an average of 16.7 a game.

Casualties Mar Aggie Planning

COLLEGE STATION, March 11 (Sp)—A shattered knee cap and a chipped ankle bone have dumped a couple of big question marks into the lap of Colonel Frank Anderson, track coach of the Texas Aggies, defending champions of the Southwest conference.

Yesterday afternoon these two question marks still were moving about briskly under their own power, but whether they will regain and hold last year's top form is one of the better $64 questions.

In Jimmy Hill and Webb Jay, Coach Anderson last season had the champion and runner-up broad-jumpers of the Southwest conference. In Jay, he also had a dashman who clobbered the 100 in 9.5 and twice beat Perry Samuels of Texas in early meets. Samuels was Conference champion.

Now Anderson has a couple of doubtful performers who may have to hang up their spikes almost any day if their props go back on them.

Hill shattered a knee cap in a softball game last summer and one bad landing may put him back on crutches. His take-off leg was the one hurt.

Jay rebroke an ankle bone in his take-off leg about the same time while playing touch football, so he has been forced to leave the pits entirely in favor of the dashes. Although bothered by the ankle the latter half of last season, he did not know he had a fracture until the new x-rays were taken.

Both are optimistic and are training faithfully, but those weak props and recent unfavorable weather have forced them to take it easy. But they expect to compete in the Border Olympics at Laredo Saturday.

NIB Play Nears Quarterfinals

KANSAS CITY, March 11 (Sp)—Rugged Beloit college and the surprising San Jose State Spartans became favorites, by the slightest margins, today as the National Intercollegiate Basketball tournament moved into the quarterfinal play.

San Jose (Calif) State upset the defending champion Marshall college, 74-72, in an overtime period last night. The Spartans are certain to have trouble tonight in quarterfinal play with Indiana State. The Terre Haute, Ind., team walloped Brigham Young university, 82-68, yesterday.

Beloit, a hard driving outfit from Wisconsin, bowled over Lawrence Tech of Detroit, 78-62. Beloit meets the University of Louisville tonight.

Eight top notch teams, from the starting field of 32, remain in the six-day meet.

San Jose shares the upper bracket with Indiana State, Hamline university of St. Paul and Manhattan college of the Bronx, N. Y.

Beloit is bracketed with Louisville, Xavier university of Cincinnati, and Mankato (Minn) State.

The sun is about 864,300 miles in diameter.

TRAINING CAMP BRIEFS

Connie Ryan To Give Ed Stanky Fight For Job

By The Associated Press

CIUDAD TRUJILLO, D. R. March 11 (Sp)—Dan Bankhead, Brooklyn pitcher from the Memphis Negro league, is getting a chance to show how he can play outfield.

Bankhead's single helped the Dodgers score four runs in the second inning of an exhibition game yesterday with the Montreal Royals of the International league. Brooklyn won, 8-2.

Bradenton, Fla., March 11 (Sp)—A real battle looms for the Boston Braves second base job between Ed-Dodger Eddie Stanky and Connie Ryan, Tribe veteran.

Ryan punched a single, double and triple in five trips yesterday as Boston trounced the Cincinnati Reds, 14-3. Stanky is expected in camp Saturday.

West Palm Beach, Fla., March 11 (Sp)—Zeb Eaton, 23-year-old former Detroit Tigers pitcher, is hitting the comeback trail with the Philadelphia Athletics as an outfielder.

"This is the best break I've ever had—getting another chance in the majors, and as an outfielder," he said.

Clearwater, Fla., March 11 (Sp)—The Phillies' pitching is beginning to worry Manager Ben Chapman. In two straight games with Cincinnati and Detroit, they have been trounced for 28 runs. In contrast, the Phils have been able to score only eight times. Detroit blasted Philadelphia yesterday, 14-5.

Fullerton, Calif., March 11 (Sp)—Bob Lemon, Al Gettel and Bob Muncief drew pitching assignments for the Cleveland Indians in today's exhibition game with the Los Angeles Angels.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With TOMMY HART

Our Town's Bobby Maxwell and Gervis McGraw of Abilene loom as the two best golfers in District 3AA competition this year, with yards to spare.

Maxwell's presence on Johnny Malaise's Steer team means that the locals will be an automatic favorite in the forthcoming conference tournament, which takes place in Odessa. Bobby holds the unique distinction of being city champion in two places, Abilene and Big Spring. He won the Abilene crown before moving over here in 1947.

At the present time, Clarence Shaefer, Sam Thurman, Bobby Hertz and Paul Shaffer are the leading contenders for the other three ranking spots on the Big Spring team.

MALAISE AND FANNING WORKING WITH LOCAL TEAM

Malaise will probably take a team to Lubbock to compete in a high school tournament sometime next month.

Malaise and Foy Fanning are devoting a lot of time toward tutoring the first golf team in the history of the local school.

Maxwell, by the way, scorched the Muncy course in a practice round the other day. He was four under regulation figures through 27 holes. Fanning says he does even better when the chips are down.

GOLF TO BE MORE POPULAR THAN EVER BEFORE HERE

Fanning is looking for golf interest to hit an all-time high here this year. The Muncy layout has been patronized surprisingly well all winter and he expects the mashie wielders to storm the course as they did before when the weather takes a definite turn for the better.

Foy will probably open his driving range around April 15. He's planning on staging the City golf tournament in late spring or early summer this year. The show did not begin until the leaves began to fall in 1947.

Fanning has been reclassified by the Professional Golfers' association within recent weeks. Formerly a Junior A pro, the Muncy links teacher has now been placed in the Class A category, tops for the teachers. In order to qualify for that select circle, a pro has to be in the business for five years and serve as head pro of a course for two.

BENNETT MAY NOT START PROGRAM 'TIL MAY

Dr. M. H. Bennett's polo program is not expected to get underway here until mid-day. Back from San Antonio, where he competed on Cecil Smith's team in an exhibition last weekend, Doc says Roy Barry, who was to come here to serve as an instructor for local novices, plans to go to California to compete in a number of matches before pitching camp here.

Incidentally, Bennett, Smith et al took a 12-7 licking in the San Antonio match. Gus White, Jr., of Lamesa and Bill Barry were riding with the other foursome.

T & P MAY FIELD SOFTBALL TEAM HERE THIS YEAR

The Texas and Pacific railway company is planning to field a softball team here this summer, according to reports.

The T & P boasted some of the finest independent baseball teams to be found anywhere in other years. That was back in the heyday of Sammy Sain, Punk Thornton and Lefty Lee Baber.

BASKETBALL SEASON RUNS LONGER IN MIDWEST

The football season in Texas runs much longer than it goes in the Midwest but the basketball campaign seems to go on and on up north.

Prep teams in several states are just now warming up for their championship tournaments.

Stewed Chicken Makes Thrifty Tasty Meals

Meal planning which lessens use of scarce foods is good battle strategy in the fight against high prices. Seafoods, poultry and meat-extending dishes should be part of this strategy then, for they reduce the demand for red meats which are in comparatively short supply. Housewives themselves can remove some of the pressure which forces meat prices up by demanding less beef and other red meats at the butcher's.

Thus the careful planning of meals and wise buying at the grocer's are potent weapons in the hands of homemakers. For it is in their own interest that meat prices be kept within reasonable reach. And in the long run, it will be beneficial to the hungry overseas who need American grain, an important raw material in the production of meat on the farm.

Government home economists say that poultry fits into this meal planning picture right now because poultry consumes grain. Farmers are marketing stewing hens this season in an effort to conserve grain and so poultry is one of the more plentiful meats. It's not worthwhile for poultrymen to keep hens which don't lay enough eggs for each bird eats 6 to 8 pounds of feed a month.

Plan to buy a stewing hen, says the home economists for they are less expensive than the younger chickens. And then schedule chickens as the main dish for two meals for full use of this purchase. This Peace Plate features chicken with noodles, making delicious use of stewing hens. You can choose between these two dishes: Stewed Chicken and Noodles, using the meaty pieces of chicken, and Casserole of Chicken and Noodles, making good use of the less popular, bony pieces. These are the dishes for home-made, old-fashioned noodles, like mother used to make. Or you may use prepared noodles if you don't have much time for cooking.

Stewed Chicken and Noodles
Cut chicken into pieces and simmer in lightly-salted water to cover for 3 hours or longer, until meat is tender. Cool and remove fat from broth. Reheat the broth and pieces to be served—the drum sticks, thighs, and pieces of breast, reserving the rest of the chicken for another meal. Add noodles and cook about 10 minutes.

Chicken Noodle Casserole
2 tablespoons chicken fat
2 tablespoons flour
1/2 cup chicken stock
1/2 cup milk
1 cup chicken, removed from bones
1 1/2 cups fine noodles cooked in chicken broth

Buttered crumbs
Heat chicken fat and blend with flour. Gradually stir in milk and chicken stock. Cook, stirring constantly, until smooth. Arrange chicken and noodles in layers in greased casserole. Cover with sauce and top with crumbs. Bake in a moderately hot oven (375 F.) about 25 minutes, or until browned. Makes 4 servings.

MENU SUGGESTION: With the chicken noodles serve baked squash and buttered broccoli, those green and yellow vegetables which rank so high as protective foods. Grapefruit salad with French dressing will give tartness you'll like. And for dessert, how about lemon cream pie?

Old Fashioned Cream Dressing

1 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon sugar
1/2 teaspoon dry mustard
1/2 teaspoon celery salt
1-4 teaspoon paprika
1 tablespoon prepared horseradish
1 tablespoon tarragon vinegar
2 tablespoons cider vinegar
1/2 cup evaporated milk or cream, whipped

Put the salt, sugar, mustard, celery salt, paprika, horseradish, tarragon and cider vinegar in a small bowl. Mix well. Beat in the whipped evaporated milk or cream, one or two tablespoons at a time, until well combined. Serve over finely shredded cabbage and drained, crushed pineapple. 4 to 6 servings.

Creamed Tuna Fish Special

1 7-ounce can tuna fish
3 tablespoons butter or fortified margarine
1/2 cup thin diagonal slices green celery
1-4 pound mushrooms, sliced (about 1 cup)
4 tablespoons all-purpose flour
1/2 teaspoon salt
2 cups milk
1-4 cup thin strips pimiento
Drain oil from tuna fish and put in top of double boiler with butter or margarine. Heat gently over direct heat; add celery and mushrooms and cook over low heat until celery is partly tender, about 10 minutes. Add flour and salt and mix thoroughly so that vegetables are well-coated. Remove from heat and add milk gradually, stirring after each addition until sauce is smooth.

Anchovy Tomato Sauce

4 tablespoons butter, fortified margarine, salad or olive oil
3 medium-size (about 1 pound) onions
1 clove garlic, peeled (if desired)
1 No. 2 can (2 1/4 to 2 1/2 cups) tomatoes
1 6-ounce can tomato paste
1 2-ounce can anchovy fillets
1/2 teaspoon (about) crumbled dry thyme or oregano
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon freshly-ground pepper

Return to medium heat and cook, stirring constantly, until mixture thickens and boils. Place over hot water. Break tuna fish into large pieces and add with pimiento to sauce. Heat for 10 or 15 minutes or longer, stirring carefully a few times if desired, but being careful not to flake tuna. Serve on toast points. 4 servings.
Note: A small can of mushrooms (either whole or sliced caps and stems) may be used instead of the fresh mushrooms called for, and the mushroom liquid may be substituted for part of the milk. If the mushroom liquid is used, however, the sauce should be tasted before the salt is added, since in this case less salt may be required.

Heat fat in large skillet or saucepan. Add onions which have been peeled, cut in half lengthwise and slice in very thin half-rings; add garlic clove which has been crushed and finely minced (if desired). Cook over medium heat, stirring frequently, for about 10 minutes, until onions are tender and yellow. Add tomatoes, tomato paste, diced anchovy fillets and oil from can, thyme or oregano, salt and pepper. Bring to a boil and simmer for at least 20 minutes to develop flavors. Serve over hot cooked spaghetti. 4 to 6 servings.

Pork Birds Stuffed With Potatoes Make Thrifty Attractive Main Dish

Thriftness and imagination are combined in this Peace Plate which uses economy cuts of pork in a new way. These Pork Birds stuffed with Sweet Potatoes call for a slice of pork shoulder or fresh ham butt and the result is good eating. Originality features this recipe in a way that will delight the youngsters in your family. The meat and mashed potatoes are made up into little rolls or "birds"—an individual serving for each.

Pepper
Pork Birds Stuffed With Sweet Potatoes
1 pound thinly sliced lean pork steak, shoulder or butt
Salt
Pepper
2 cups cooked mashed sweet potatoes
1 egg
1/4 cup milk (or more, depending on dryness of potato)
Flour
2 tablespoons cooking fat

Remove bone from meat and cut in strips 4 inches long and 2 inches wide. Sprinkle with salt and pepper. To mash sweet potatoes, add egg, milk, salt and pepper. Spread meat with a part of the sweet potato mixture; roll and fasten with toothpick or skewer. Roll each bird in flour, brown in cooking fat; add a small amount of water and cover tightly. Cook slowly on top of stove or bake in slow oven (300 F.) for 45 minutes or until meat is tender. Serves four. Bake remainder of sweet potatoes in a greased baking dish.

MENU SUGGESTIONS: Serve with the Pork Birds and Sweet Potatoes some braised celery and a tart apple and raisin salad. The apple, of course, is popular with pork and this Waldorf salad combination can be prepared in a jiffy. For dessert, try a dish especially well-liked in many homes for holiday meals—winter ambrosia. It's made with orange, grapefruit, pineapple wedges and a little grated coconut. Or, if you prefer, use the citrus fruit with bananas.

FOOD TIPS: In preparing braised celery, use the outer branches of the bunch of celery, leaving the hearts for a relish plate at another meal. Celery is best braised with stock, if you have it. Otherwise, braise it with bouillon made with a bouillon cube. Incidentally, you can braise celery in the oven as well as on the top of the stove. And the oven is best if you are also using it for the Pork Birds.

In shopping for sweet potatoes, you may find the so-called yams which have a sweet, moist flesh—often reddish or orange in color but occasionally greenish yellow. Or you may find another type of sweet potato—the Jerseys and similar varieties—with flesh which is dry and somewhat mealy when cooked. These are not as sweet as the yams and they will be light yellow in color. Either type—yams or Jerseys—may be used successfully in this Peace Plate.

Inspect sweet potatoes when you buy them for signs of decay or growth cracks. Those now in the market have been stored since fall. Select the potatoes which are smooth, firm, well-shaped and free from discolored places which you are likely to find on the ends.

Deadline Nears For Tax Reports

March 15 is the deadline for filing returns to the government on 1947 income.

The local office of the Bureau of Internal Revenue, located in the basement of the post office building, has assigned two employees to assist and advise persons who have not yet completed their reports.

The deputies will respect an 8:30 a. m. to 5:00 p. m. schedule tomorrow and Friday and will remain open until 12 midnight on Monday.

The office will not be open Saturday or Sunday, however, Deputy Collector Ben Hawkins has announced.

SOIL CONSERVATION Robinson Plants Madrid Clover

W. J. Robinson, cooperater with the Martin-Howard Soil Conservation District, planted 10 acres of Madrid clover last week on his farm in the Midway Soil Conservation group four miles east of Big Spring. Robinson inoculated the clover seed and planted the crop in regular rows for soil building and grazing. He had the help of the Soil Conservation Service in planting the clover as a part of a coordinated conservation program on his farm.

Another conservation measure, Robinson left about 50 acres of combined maize stubble on a sandy field north of Highway 80 and 30 acres south of the highway. Robinson says these fields lost little soil from blowing during the severe wind storms the past two months.

Madrid clover was also seeded last week on about ten acres on the C. V. Hewitt farm two miles west of Elbow.

Homer Thorp, district cooperater in the Elbow soil conservation group, is putting up his land on the contour following guide lines run last week by the SCS. Thorp will plant and cultivate his fields with contour rows to hold water on his land and help control washing.

Terrace construction started this week on the farm of J. C. Clanton in the East Vealmoor group. Clanton is building the new terraces to complete the terracing needed on his fields to save water and soil.

Terrace systems were also laid out on the farms of L. A. Rawlings, Ralph Proctor, C. B. Lawrence and C. A. Self.

Terrace systems on farms in the Soash SCS have stopped damage from heavy rains, according to Richard Thomas, who farms three miles north of Knott. Thomas says he can remember when heavy rains washed out the roads.

"Water got all over the country in those days," Thomas said. "Now terraces hold up heavy rains and keep the water in the fields."

Doc Wallace completed plans for soil and water conservation last week on his farm six miles north of Big Spring on the Gail Road. The plan will become part of a cooperative agreement with the Martin-Howard Soil Conservation District on approval of the supervisors.

Among farm plans approved last week by the district supervisors in their regular monthly meeting at Stanton, Texas were those of W. E. Puckett, J. S. Jackson, Roy Lewis, J. J. Roberts, Carl Peterson, G. W. McGregor, J. T. Curry and W. D. Miller.

Also approved were applications for assistance in planning and applying a coordinated soil conservation program on the places of W. L. Miller, Wayne O. Pearce, Clyde Clanton, L. A. Rawlings, Dr. Otto Wolfe and Sam Fisherman, and O. R. Bolinger.

Pioneer Seeking Extension Again

Pioneer Air Lines has asked the Civil Aeronautics board to reconsider granting an extension of service from Midland-Odessa to El Paso via Pecos, Robert J. Smith, president, has announced.

Pioneer requested this extension in its original petition in the Arizona-New Mexico case in addition to the routes from Amarillo to El Paso via Clovis, Roswell, Alamo-gordo and Las Cruces and from Lubbock to Albuquerque via Clovis, Tucumcari, Las Vegas and Santa Fe, New Mexico, which were granted.

When the ruling on the new application will be made is not definite, Smith said, but Pioneer is most anxious to be given the right to serve Pecos and the rest of Texas and New Mexico with this route.

School Fund Shows Excess

An excess of $82,000 for revenues over disbursements is shown in the monthly financial statement from the Big Spring schools.

Revenues have totaled $371,491 since Sept. 1, 1947, beginning of the fiscal year, $109,464 from the state apportionment and $247,000 from taxes. In order to reach estimated revenues for the year, the district will have to collect $95,000 more, but this was assured with $96,000 being outstanding on state apportionment.

Of the total of $288,979 disbursements, the major portion—$210,422—went for instructional service. Under this item, $176,002 was for the regular classroom teachers, $24,500 for special teachers, supervisors, principals, and high school clerical employees.

Administrative outlay for the six-month period was $9,319, plant operation $16,462, plant maintenance $836, mixed charges for insurance, etc. $2,522, capital outlay $13,557, short time loan retirement $6,500, debt service $22,201 ($9,600 bonds, $12,576 interest).

Commissioners Hear Dog Catcher Report

City commissioners heard their first report on dog catchers' activities Tuesday.

Through the end of February, 44 dogs had been apprehended and confined to the city pound. Only nine of the 44 animals had been bailed out by owners at the end of the month.

Peanut Butter Cakes Add Variety To Menu

1-3 cup fat
1/2 cup peanut butter
1 teaspoon vanilla
1-3 cup brown sugar
2 egg yolks plus 1 whole egg
2 cups sifted flour
1/2 teaspoon salt
2 teaspoons baking powder
1 cup milk
Meringue, made from 2 eggs whites and 1/2 cup brown sugar
1/2 cup chopped peanuts

Blend fat, peanut butter and vanilla. Gradually add 1 cup of sugar, creaming until light and fluffy. Add eggs beaten with remaining 1-3 cup sugar. Sift dry ingredients together and add alternately with milk to the peanut butter mixture. Put batter in lightly greased muffin pans, cover with meringue and sprinkle with chopped peanuts. Bake in a moderate oven (350 F.) for about 25 minutes. Makes 18 to 24 cakes.

Note: Muffin pans are better suited to this mixture than a loaf pan.

Food Tips: Note that the peanut butter makes it possible to reduce the fat in the cake recipe. And cooking fats are still prominent on our list of scarce foods to be used sparingly, while, fortunately, peanut butter is plentiful.

Proteins and Vitamin B come richly in peanut butter, too, and so nutritionists highly recommended it. As a spread for bread, it helps build up the nutrients which wheat lacks. This is well to know in view of the wide popularity of the peanut butter sandwich, especially with youngsters.

Peanut butter is quite a concentrated food, so good cooks like to combine it with other foods, changing its texture and making it more easily digested. Don't overlook some of the interesting ways to use peanut butter: blended with cooked egg yolks in deviled eggs; combined with chopped celery and pickles into balls for a salad garnish; added to baking powder biscuit, two tablespoons of peanut butter and one tablespoon of fat to one cup of flour.

PICTURE OF PROGRESS

Industrial Census Vital To B'Spring

Uncle Sam once again is mailing out questionnaires and he does not expect the recipients to object to filling them out and returning them to the source of origination. They are census questionnaires, which the local chamber of commerce has declared to be of vital importance to the growth of industry in Big Spring. Unless every manufacturer and processor receives and fills out his questionnaire Big Spring's record will not be complete in the 1948 industrial census, the first complete official census since 1939, according to T. U. Purcell, district manager for the U. S. Department of Commerce in El Paso. The El Paso Commerce office will disseminate the findings of the industrial census when it is completed, probably late this year.

"No such census has been taken for nine years on account of the war," Purcell said. "Not a day passes that this office does not have to draw upon the official data compiled by the Federal government nine years ago, and business vitally needs current information to meet current conditions," he asserted.

J. H. Greene, local chamber of commerce manager, said chambers of commerce throughout the nation have urged that the census be taken to give a postwar picture of industry. The census is taken by mail, he explained, because it would be five times as costly to obtain the information by personal interview.

An up-to-date industrial census of Big Spring will enable the industrial department of the chamber of commerce to present convincing evidence of the city's new look, Greene declared.

The questions in the census of manufacturers include type of industry, whether it is an independent factory or a branch, type of ownership, employment and wage statistics, equipment used, materials consumed, and sales.

City Proposes Two Land Deals With Schools

City commissioners Tuesday agreed to submit proposals to the Big Spring Independent School District and the Howard County Junior college for the sale or trade of approximately 88 acres of land at the former Army Airfield.

The city manager was instructed to notify the Junior college board that 78.3 acres being sought for a permanent site for the college would be made available at a price of $150 an acre.

At the same time commissioners adopted a proposal to be presented to the Big Spring Independent School District board, which, if approved, would transfer 10 acres at the post to the school system in exchange for acreage sufficient for opening East 10th street from Goliad to State. The school had previously indicated that the 10-acre tract at the post was desired for establishing a new ward school.

The commission also authorized the city manager to issue a permit for a permanent skating rink in the 1100 block of West Third street, turned down a request for an extension of the liquified gas ordinance and granted the public school system permission to hold a trustee election in the city fire station on April 3.

The mayor was authorized to sign lease agreements with Ted Groehl and Simon Terrazas for building sites at the former Army airfield.

MAN IS HELD

The county is holding a 63-year-old man picked up by the state highway patrol Tuesday on a highway near here.

Church Group Hears Reaction To Race Stand

DALLAS, March 11. (AP)—The Texas Council of Church Women yesterday felt two repercussions of its approval of six points of President Truman's civil rights program.

The women's auxiliary of St. Matthew's Episcopal cathedral here resigned from the council yesterday, saying the council had entered politics by its civil rights stand.

At Marshall Monday night, the women passed a resolution condemning the council's action. It said the council's approval "definitely places the church in politics."

It called on Texas women "to band together unitedly against the pernicious idea of using the church in politics."

The Texas Council of Church Women approved six points of the civil rights program at a meeting here last week.

Mrs. George Starr Hart, Marshall clubwoman and member of the state democratic executive committee, called the protest meeting at Marshall. The object, she said, was to keep the Church out of politics.

Mrs. O. J. Van Valin of Dallas, President of the Episcopal Cathedral auxiliary, said shortly after the state council meeting in Dallas members of the auxiliary began asking for a called meeting to protest the state council's civil rights action.

NO NEED FOR ALARM

Critics say bakers' bread lacks something and asks why we don't make bread to eat instead of something that just feels fresh. Well—they have something.

Now, in HOLSUM BREAD, we offer a bread made from the same fine ingredients you use in your own home and bake it thoroughly to bring out every bit of its natural flavor.

Don't buy bread by feel. HOLSUM BREAD is free from all "modern" chemicals that soften bread artificially. We never use them. You get only natural freshness and natural goodness in HOLSUM BREAD. Ask your grocer.

North Side Zoning May Stand As Is

After finding themselves between a cross-fire of divided opinion among property owners, city commissioners learned Tuesday that action on their part probably would be insufficient to change building requirements for an area on the north side of the city which previously had been recommended by the zoning adjustment board as an industrial area.

Several property owners who were present to protest the change, told the commission that building restrictions were enumerated in deeds to their properties. Although actual records were not presented at the session, the property owners who registered protests said they had purchased sites in Bauer and Government Heights additions with the understanding that the area would develop exclusively for residential purposes.

City Attorney Charles Sullivan said the city would have no power to remove any restrictions other than those imposed by the city itself.

"It would be ridiculous," Sullivan said, "to assume that the city, simply by passing an ordinance, could invalidate a stipulation in a regular deed of conveyance."

Faced with two petitions, one opposing and another urging adoption of the measure, commissioners instructed the city attorney to investigate the deed restrictions, and report his findings at the next regular meeting. They indicated any further action on the matter would be governed by the amount of property embraced by such restrictions.

The proposed zoning change already has been approved after a public hearing, and enactment of the ordinance was the last remaining step for establishing the industrial area. Commissioners, however, were reluctant to take hasty action on the ordinance in view of the protests, and the measure was tabled promptly for further study when the deed restrictions were called to their attention.

Italian Spaghetti With Liver Is Protein Supplement Today

The Italians who originated the traditional spaghetti dishes were better nutritionists than they knew. For in this popular foreign plate the meat sauce provides an excellent protein supplement for the wheat used in making the spaghetti.

In true Italian spaghetti, the savory sauce includes ground meat—often liver, which is better than most meats as a source of iron and vitamins. Peace Plate, the old favorite Italian dish, is right in style today for its economy and extended meat flavor.

The highly flavored tomato sauce is a happy choice for spaghetti since it is so bland. Cheese is another protein food which enriches Italian Spaghetti with Liver, the cheese is finely grated and sprinkled over each serving at the table.

ITALIAN SPAGHETTI WITH LIVER

1/2 pound liver (beef, pork or lamb)
1 1/2 tablespoons flour
1/2 onion
1/2 green pepper
1/2 clove garlic (optional)
1/2 cup mushrooms (optional)
2 tablespoons cooking oil or fat
2 cups tomatoes
1 teaspoon salt
Pepper
2 cups cooked spaghetti
Dip liver in boiling water for 2 minutes, dry; cut in cubes and dredge with flour.

Chop onion, green pepper, and garlic. Add sliced mushrooms and liver and fry in oil or fat until liver is lightly browned, about ten minutes. Add tomato and seasonings; cover and cook slowly for 20 minutes. Serve over boiled spaghetti with a sprinkling of grated Italian style cheese over the top. Serves 4.

Menu Suggestions: Well-seasoned green beans provide a good green vegetable for this meal. Try them Frenchstyle, sliced lengthwise, for a change. A tossed salad of freshly cut mixed greens add the crispness which goes so well with spaghetti. A royal conclusion to the meal will be pompadour pudding, a blanc mange with chocolate fluff topping. It's made with just a square of melted chocolate added to fluffy beaten egg whites which are sweetened and flavored.

Food Tips: In buying and using spaghetti, here are some points to remember:

1. A pound of spaghetti broken into short pieces measures 4 1/2 cups. A cup of dry spaghetti weighs 3 1/3 ounces or about 1-5 pound.
2. A cup of dry spaghetti expands to about 2 cups when cooked.
3. To serve 4 persons, use 1 cup of dry spaghetti—about one-fifth of a pound. This allows 1/2 cup of cooked spaghetti per person, not counting sauce which increases size of serving.
4. The best spaghetti is made from durum wheat, the hard wheat with a relatively high protein content, which helps the spaghetti keep its shape when cooked.

If frozen meat is not thawed before cooking, allow extra cooking time.

Pennies go further when you buy HYLO. The family size contains extra ounces, and because it's concentrated, every ounce gives you extra suds, extra water-softening power to do every washing job better, faster. Get more for your money with suds-free HYLO.

PREPARING FOR ARABS—Sandbags for defense works are filled by Jewish girls in Jerusalem's Montefiore quarter. The girls belong to a few families remaining with members of the Haganah in the section which has been under attack by Arab snipers.

Braised Veal Chops In Mushroom Gravy

4 rib or loin veal chops
2 tablespoons fat
1/2 cup water
3 tablespoons (1 small) finely grated onion
1 10 1/2-ounce can condensed cream of mushroom soup
1/2 to 3/4 teaspoon soy sauce, depending on taste
Wipe veal chops with a damp cloth. Heat fat in large skillet, add chops and cook over low heat, browning each side lightly. Add water and finely grated onion. Bring liquid to a boil, cover skillet tightly, turn heat low and simmer gently for 25 to 30 minutes or until chops are tender. Remove chops from skillet; add condensed cream of mushroom soup slowly to liquid in skillet, blending it in smoothly with a whisk-type beater as you do so. Add soy sauce and blend. Put chops back into sauce over low heat; do not cover skillet. Cook for about 15 minutes longer or until thoroughly hot. Serve over wide cooked noodles—there will be a generous amount of gravy. 4 servings.

Tinsley Takes Bengal Post

BATON ROUGE, La., March 11. (AP)—Gaynell Tinsley had his "lifelong wish" today—he was head football coach at Louisiana State university, where he was an All-America end a dozen years ago.

The 33-year-old Tinsley was promoted from end coach to head coach last night. He succeeds Bernie Moore, who resigned after 13 years to become commissioner of the Southeastern conference.

From a club that won five, lost three and tied one last year, Moore leaves Tinsley a roster minus the best passer, two most sparkling runners, four starting tackles, and a few other graduating stalwarts.

As to prospects for next season, he evaded with the remark that "LSU has a bunch of boys eager to play and enthusiastic as any team in the Southeastern conference."

Tinsley is the youngest man, and the first alumnus, among the 21 head coaches LSU has had in its 55 years of football. He was also the school's first All-America, making it in 1935 and 1936, under Moore's coaching.

He played with the Chicago Cardinals in 1937-38, then came to LSU as end coach. He joined the Navy in 1942. After a medical discharge, he became coach at Haynesville, La., high school. He returned to LSU as end coach in 1942.

Given Sentence For Draft Dodging

DALLAS, March 11. (AP)—John Beach Brockett of Abilene yesterday faced a sentence of a year and a day on conviction of failure to register for the draft.

Federal Judge T. Whitfield Davidson yesterday refused to probate the sentence on pleas of Brockett's brother and mother.

He did, however, remove the fine. Brockett, who pleaded guilty, said he feared he would be killed if he was taken into the Army.

Wayland Tabs Tourney Win At Amarillo

AMARILLO, March 11. (AP)—Top-seeded teams go into action here today as the second phase of the Southwest Regional Junior basketball tournament is unrolled.

The Murray Aggies of Tishomingo, Okla., pre-tournament favorites engage Lon Morris of Jacksonville in the first of two games. In the afterpiece, second-seeded Tyler Junior college tangles with the Eastern Oklahoma Aggies of Wilberton.

Sayre Junior college and Oklahoma Military academy of Claremore battle for the loser's consolation title in the night program's opening game. Blinn of Brenham faces Wayland of Plainview and Cameron Aggies of Lawton, Okla., meets Amarillo in other night contests.

Last night the Wayland Pioneers uncocked their customary massive scoring machine to crush Sayre 80-49. The Plainview team had first half trouble with six-foot, six-inch Sayre Center Kenneth Barker who canned 12 points in the initial half.

Wayland pulled into a 37-26 lead at intermission and was never pushed. Wayland's D. W. Hardins led the Corners with 19 points. Duane Lundy of Sayre, Barker and George Goodson of Wayland each picked up 17 counters.

Prep Golfers May Play This Weekend

The match between Big Spring and Lubbock high school golf teams scheduled to be played Friday afternoon in Lubbock, is still on the books but may be cancelled out at any moment.

Johnny Malaise, local coach, said this morning the two teams would meet as arranged, unless the elements start acting up again.

No One Hurt When Naval Plane Crashes

NEW ORLEANS, March 11. (AP)—The naval air station here reported this morning that a Navy transport plane bearing 19 persons crashed landed near Donaldsonville, La., with no casualties.

The plane was reported to have burned. Only fragmentary reports were received here. The plane was described as an R-5-D transport with a crew of 5 and 14 passengers. It was believed to be enroute from Pensacola, Fla., to Corpus Christi, Texas.

Shortly after passing over New Orleans the plane reported engine dead. A half hour later the report was received that the plane went down near Donaldsonville.

The pilot of the crashed plane, in a telephone conversation from Donaldsonville, said the plane crashed between 3 a. m. and 3:30 a. m. (CST). He refused to divulge his name, but verified that 19 persons were aboard the fallen craft.

He said no one "was badly hurt — only a few bruises and scratches."

He said the group would wait in Donaldsonville pending arrival of Navy authorities.

MODEST MAN

Dimaggio Easy To Know, Says Sports Scribe

By HUGH FULLERTON, Jr.

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., March 11. (AP)—When the announcer giving the Yankee lineup at Al Lang field yesterday said: "Center field, Cliff Mapes," a venerable fan stood up and shouted, "Where's Joe?" Then stomped out and got his money back. This writer can sympathize with the fan, for one thing he has picked up during a couple of weeks in Florida is a great admiration for Joe Dimaggio, not merely as a ball player but as a grand guy, personally. He's always ready to sign an autograph or pose for a picture or give a quick answer to a fan's question, and he does it with a ready smile when a less obliging person probably would tell the fan to go jump in the Gulf. Maybe Joe feels that way, but he doesn't say it. Incidentally, the reason he didn't play yesterday, except as a pinch hitter, is that his arm, operated on last fall, still stiffens up a little and he's taking it easy on throwing.

Strictly Business

Before yesterday's game some New York writers were ribbing Dimaggio about the catch Al Gionfriddo made off him during the 1947 World Series. "Did it make you mad to see that Gionfriddo got beamed?" one asked. "That's a heck of a way to get even," Joe countered. "You know," interjected another, "in that situation he should have been playing deep for a long hit. He really was out of position." "He was right. He made it right," Joe insisted. "You know, DiMag went on, "Gionfriddo caused me to make the best speech of my career last winter. We were at a dinner together and first Al gave them his version of the catch. When it came my turn, I just said I was very happy that Al made that catch, because that extended the series, gave the Yankees an extra big crowd and more money and then they could pay me a little more."

Sports Before Your Eyes

The Braves are considering a trade sending Connie Ryan, surplus second baseman since the acquisition of Ed Stanky, to the Cubs for Pitcher John Schmitz but they won't let Connie go at bargain-counter rates. Al Lang field probably is the only ball park where kids in bathing trunks wait to dive for foul balls that bounce into the bay.

Business Hits New Post-War High In Texas

AUSTIN, March 11.—Texas business volume hit another post-war high in January, the University Bureau of Business Research reported.

The bureau's composite index of business activity was 211 per cent of the 1935-39 base period and only 11 per cent below the war-time peak of 238 of January 1945, Dr. John R. Stockton, bureau statistician said.

A one per cent December-January increase was attributed largely to an 11 per cent rise in seasonally-adjusted department and apparel store sales.

Electric power consumption gained five per cent, while pay rolls decreased three per cent, miscellaneous freight car loadings dropped two per cent, employment dropped two per cent and crude oil runs to stills dropped one per cent.

"The failure of four of the components to make gains over December may indicate that further increases in the composite index may be small," Dr. Stockton explained. "The question still is being debated as to whether the break in commodity and security prices in February is the beginning of a major downturn in the business cycle, and at the present time the answer is not clear. However, the fact that the various elements entering into the composite index showed such diverse trends in January suggests that the index of business activity might be approaching a peak."

Weather Nixes Plans For Golf Show At Club

The weather and Pro Shirley Robbins of the Big Spring country club haven't been hitting it off lately. The links teacher has a good reason for holding a grudge against the elements.

Three times the local club has been dealt the West Texas pro-amateur golf tournament and as many times Robbins has had to cancel out—all because of inclement weather.

The last time was today, when masnie welders from eight or ten West Texas cities were due to converge upon the local course for an afternoon of play.

Robbins sent notice Wednesday to all the member clubs of the West Texas Golf association that the event had been set back.

The tournament will be held here later but the exact date hasn't been set.
