Shift of opinion

It's funny how opinions change over the years.

If you had asked me, say 20 years ago, what I thought about a national medical program, I would have laughed. It was a real failure in some European nations at the time; health care had declined because of it, I would have suggested.

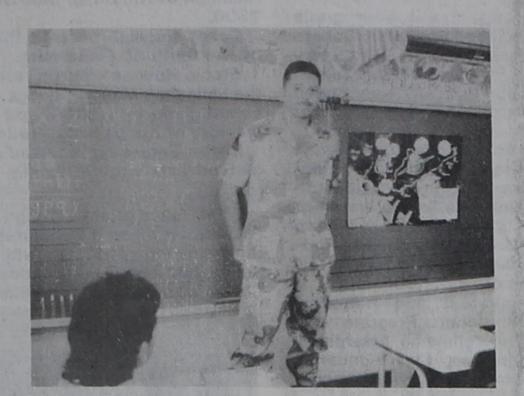

Times change.

There's no question in my mind that a nationalized health program is urgently needed in the United States. Will our medical coverage decline? Yes, but there's no other choice.

Usually, this would be the ideal spot to place the blame on someone or some organization. Not in this case.

The culprit is the goal for Americans to live longer, more healthful lives. I see nothing wrong with that.

What brought this column to mind was a recent article I saw in the Lubbock newspaper. Texas has passed legislation providing all school employees access to health insurance, effective Sept. 1, 1992. Currently, many school districts provide no health insurance plans for their employees. What we're seeing in this country is the ability for government employees to have access to effective health insurance programs. Such is not the case for many nongovernment employees. And if you don't have health insurance, you sure can end up the creek without a paddle fast. Especially if you have young'uns. I believe that within this decade a national health program will be a fact. Folks simply cannot afford the spiralling medical and hospital costs without one.

Sgt. Rudy Sanchez talks to Farwell 2nd graders about Operation Desert Storm.

Sanchez returns from the Gulf

Second grade students at Farwell Elementary School May 29 heard the father of one of their classmates talk about his experiences in Saudi Arabia.

Sgt. Rudy Sanchez answered questions from his daughter Andrea's classmates about a multitude of topics.

Sgt. Sanchez is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Sanchez Sr. of Farwell. His son Benjamin is in 3rd grade here, and his daughter Andrea is in 2nd.

The Sanchez family also has two other children. Alexandria, 2, and Gregory, 5 months - who was born while his father was out of the country. He saw his son for the first time on May 25.

Sanchez is assigned with the HHC 4th of the 70th Army. 1st Armored Division. He was stationed in Germany when the conflict in the Middle East began to heat up. He was sent to Saudi Arabia on Dec. 31 and left there on May 2.

He will be reporting back to Germany after a 30 day leave with his family.

Here are a few of the questions asked by the second graders and his replies:

Diana Lumbrera, formerly of Bovina, received a life sentence in prison May 30 from Parmer County District Court Judge Jack Young.

FARWELL, TEXAS

She pled guilty to the Aug. 17, 1982, murder of her 3 year old daughter, Melinda Ann Garza.

Mrs. Lumbrera, 32, made the plea during a plea bargain session. She had been scheduled for the murder trial this week.

Three other murder charges old, on Oct. 8, 1980. The girl pending against her in Parmer and Bailey counties were adjudicated:

- Joanna Lumbrera, three months old, on Nov. 30, 1976, was pronounced dead at Parmer County Community Hospital in Friona.

was a cousin's child.

Mrs. Lumbrera was convicted in Kansas Oct. 3, 1990, for smothering her 4 year old son, Jose Antonio Lumbrera. She also received a life sentence on that charge.

She also has been indicted - Melissa Lumbrera, 3, on in Lubbock County in connection with the 1978 death of She currently is jailed in

TEXICO, NEW MEXICO

This will be one of the major issues of the 1990s. It will be interesting to see which sides the politicians take on it: higher taxes vs. better health.

I know, most will straddle the fence. I guess that's why I would make a lousy politician. ***

Rumor of the Week: They're going to start drilling for oil in Lazbuddie. ***

Officials of Panhandle Community Services came by the Tribune to let us know that the article we did about the services available through the office brought several local folks in to get assistance with their utility bills and with other problems.

More good news from the medical front.

Dr. Frank Kretsinger, Texico - Farwell's new family doctor and general practitioner, is now open at the Farwell Clinic four days a week.

His office is open Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday.

An open house is planned to welcome our new doctor for next weekend. More details in next week's Tribune... ***

I like to think the coalition won.

What's a coalition?

The U.S., Egypt, and all of the countries that worked together.

Is the war still going on?

For all practical purposes it is over. The Iraqi's are still at war with each other.

What did you eat?

We had MRE's. There were little cans of spaghettios and little cans of ravioli, and we had some foods we had to add water to. You get tired of them real quick.

What's a sergeant?

I have some people who work for me, and I have some bosses over me.

Were you afraid?

The wait was the hardest. Once we got into Iraq it was better.

Did the American people get the full story?

They got what the military wanted them to get.

(In an interview following his talk to the class Sgt. Sanchez expanded his answer to explain this more. "There are some things you don't want people to know. All the gory details and the exact description of how the enemy is. We don't want to release anything that will aid the enemy or sway public opinion. It made us feel good that General Schwartzkopf was not letting us or his decision making be manipulated by outside influence.")

Do you think Iraqi people dislike us?

Their military really does dislike us. The civilians didn't like us much, but they like their military less.

How did you get to be in the Army? I walked into a recruiter's office and signed up.

Did you have to pay to join?

Do you have to be smart to be in the Army? You have to pass a test.

Did you see Saddam Hussein?

No.

No.

Did you see any cobras over there?

Yep, there's cobras out there. I saw a couple.

Did you see any dessert rats?

I saw a couple.

Did you see any spiders?

I saw one about this big across (about 6") and about this high (about 4").

What kind of gun did you use?

The biggest gun I used myself was my M16. The biggest guns we had in my unit were about as big as a refrigerator.

Who had the biggest army?

We were outnumbered almost 2 to 1.

Did you get our care package?

Every day we had evidence that we had support from back home. It was great.

After his talk to the second graders, Sanchez expanded upon some of his answers in an interview. During the active 100 hours of battles, he saw guite a few vehicles blown up.

Joni Autrey to sing at BTD

All appears on schedule as the countdown for Border Town Days continues, it was reported at Monday's monthly BTD Committee meeting.

Here are some of the developments reported:

- Joni Autrey, the popular youthful singer who is the grand-daughter of Lola Richardson of Pleasant Hill, will appear again at the Day in the Park.

- Fourteen exhibitors have signed up so far for the arts and crafts show on the courthouse lawn, said committee chairman Lynne Mahaney. This is about half the number that entered last year's show so it looks like it's right on schedule.

- Debra Looper, merchants giveaway chairman, again will have Willie Dannheim helping her sign up merchants at the end of June and beginning of July. Benny Haney, of Capitol Food, will prepare the boxes.

- Committee chairman Mike Pomper reported that the Texico - Farwell Rotary Club is planning to offer hayrides around town, with Hugh Moseley giving some historical background of the community, at BTD. This is still in the planning stages.

- The committee voted to change the format involving the fund-raising BTD commemorative buttons this year.

Previously, donations of $2 or more were asked for the buttons. This year, each button will be numbered on the back and a giveaway of $50 will be made at BTD to the winner. You must be present to win.

The buttons are the key fund-raiser to help keep BTD "in the black." They have raised about $250 for the past two years each. It's hoped that about $500 will be raised through the giveaway, and some of these funds can be used to build up the queen's contest winner's fund. Shandra McIntosh, a member of the queen's committee, reported that her committee, headed by Susan Franse, has a super schedule lined up for the girls this year, including seeing "Texas" at Canyon, a style show, etc.

Clint Patterson is ready with a water balloon.

Balloonists

On the final day of school Farwell Elementary School students enjoyed water balloons and water fun.

Scioli and Loveda Boothby.

- Mrs. McIntosh also reported that the petting zoo from Clovis will return, and the Bell Train will again give rides to the kids.

- Here are the groups that have signed up for booths at the Day in the Park, reported chairman Cynthia Thigpen:

tee has given out 1st and 2nd place trophies to the Shriners for their big cycle and small cycle motorized units. This year, the committee plans to give both groups special plaques thanking them for their annual participation in Sunbelt Savings' Rubie Craft is busy trying to contact all of the local folks who are serving in the military to find out if they were involved in Operation Desert Shield, and to find out it they will be back for Border Town Days.

She is in charge of the float for Operation Desert Shield veterans.

Here is a list of people she has been unable to contact. If you know where they are. (Continued on Page 2)

How did our equipment hold up?

The equipment performed really well. It was the fist time some of it was tested in actual combat situation.

How did you feel going into battle?

Really scared. There is a sense of alertness, and an attentiveness to what's going on around you. You try to keep control, and as a matter of pride, not let others see you're scared. Then you just do what you've got to do.

Did you get to eat out in Kuwait to taste their foods?

There was nothing open in Kuwait. It was all under new management.

After his stay in the U.S., Sanchez will return to West Germany where he hopes to find base housing for his family. "Housing on the economy is almost non-existent. I'll have to go for base housing."

He will rejoin his unit at Farris Barracks near Erlangen, West Germany. Until their armored equipment returns, they will engage in "hip pocket training," at the rifle range.

The first Coke party for the contestants will be June 20. Entry forms and full details for this year's program will be reported in next week's Tribune.

To block or not to block... that is the question

ENMR Telephone Cooperative subscribers in Texas received an extra note with their bill this week.

They were given the option of blocking calls to 900 and 976 numbers if they choose to do so.

Several customers had complained to ENMR about 900 and 976 telephone exchanges being used for pornographic calls, and possibly to defraud customers. Some of

Lindi Geries

Lindi Michelle Geries was born at 1:30 p.m. on May 25 at Palo Duro Hospital in Canyon.

She is the daughter of Steve and Michelle Geries of Farwell. Lindi weighed 7 lbs. 20 oz., and she was 20" long.

Grandparents are Don and Linda Geries of Farwell: Billy those who had called the 900 and 976 numbers had been charged very high fees for the use of these numbers. Charges for these calls ranged from 95 cents per minute to $10 per minute with some higher.

"These charges come from a separate company, and we get the bills 60 to 90 days later," said ENMR Assistant General Manager Frank Dottle. "People would get billed $15 for a call, and they wouldn't remember what it was for. If I had my way, I'd block them all."

ENMR is able to give its members a choice. If a member marks the line that says: "I do not want access to 900-976 (blocked)," then telephone numbers that start with 900 and 976 will not be able to be made from that telephone.

ENMR is capable of blocking these calls if the customer requests it. This service is free. But if the customer wants the option of calling these numbers at a later date, there will be a service charge to re-connect 900 and 976 service.

Fighting drug abuse

Dear Editor:

Drug abuse threatens to impair the minds and destroy the future lives of many Americans, especially our children.

Unless we begin to educate our young at an early age about the risks and dangers of drug abuse, we may lose an entire generation. Education to reduce the demand for drugs coupled with vigorous law enforcement to reduce the supply are the key forces that must be allied against the drug abuse problem in America.

Parmer County law enforcement officials with the help and cooperation of all cities and schools in Parmer County have entered the drug abuse prevention and education effort because it has become obvious that drug demand reduction must involve everyone in the community.

The Parmer County law enforcement departments and communities must make a firm commitment to drug abuse education and prevention. As such, Parmer County must continue to involve all levels of law enforcement and citizens in the drug abuse awareness and prevention process.

Education and prevention are the vital keys to curbing the demand for drugs. Education can assist those already caught in the throes of drug abuse, and education can prevent others from starting to use drugs. Our

In May, the Parmer County D.A.R.E. program graduated about 210 students from Parmer County schools.

The D.A.R.E. program is taught by Deputy Karen Britten of the Parmer County Sheriff's Department and sponsored by Parmer County.

The cities of Friona, Bovina and Farwell, and the schools of Friona, Bovina, Farwell and Lazbuddie, and the citizens of Parmer County have done a marvelous job in helping these kids remain drug free.

Let's keep up the good work. I would like to thank each and everyone of you for helping with this program.

Sincerely, Rex Williams Sheriff Parmer County

Deficit worsens

Dear Editor:

By now I am sure you are aware that despite Congress' promises to use the new tax revenue to reduce the federal deficit they did the exact opposite.

That's right, Congress enacted the second largest tax increase ever and rather than reduce the deficit they increased spending $111 billion (and that doesn't included the Gulf War costs) and pushed the FY1991 deficit to an all time record $320 billion.

Congressional leaders promise that the new budget would mean a $500 billion spending reduction in the years ahead. How can they say that?"

Let me explain. Only in Congress can you promise a $500 billion savings at the same time you increase actual spending by $111 billion. Here's how it works:

When Congress talks about spending cuts, they are not they are not talking about cutting actual spending, but reducing projected increases. If Congress just reduces the amount of increased spending, they call that a spending cut- even though actual spending is still increasing.

a simplified example. Let's cut, actual spending will still suppose Congress today is spending $1 on a program and they have budgeted to spend $2 on the same program next year. However, if they spend $1.75 next year they will call that a spending cut of .25- even though they actually increased spending by .75.

to save $500 billion in the years ahead, this was not an actual cut of $500 billion, it was a reduction in their

"pie -in- the-sky" budget for the future. Even with Confused? Let me give you their supposed $500 billion skyrocket.

> The promise of deficit reduction was nothing more than a myth. Congress just wanted more taxes for more spending. And they would promise anything just to get more of our income.

Congress is bankrupting America. Because of Congress' When Congress promised non- stop deficit spending, the interest payments on the national debt exceed a whopping $256 billion annually. These interest payments on the ballooning national debt are already more than all the individual income taxes paid by everyone who lives west of the Mississippi River. We are rapidly approaching the day when we won't be able to make the interest payment on our debt. I'm sure you understand what happens if you can't make the interest payments on your debts.

I urge you to tell the American people the real story - That deficit spending is increasing, not decreasing as Congress promised. And tell them that the deficit represents a very grave threat to our future. Sincerely,

Debra Pollard

Parmer County's new County Extension Agent -Home Economist, Debra Pollard, never dreamed of being a home economist when she was younger.

Extension

Agent

Yes, she enjoyed her 4-H show calves and other 4-H projects when she was a girl in Lake Arthur, N.M., but she never thought that she would make her living as an economist.

While in high school, Ms. Pollard become active in FHA, and that led to a home economics scholarship at New Mexico State. Afterward, she taught school for 2 years in Sierra Blanca. While there she helped the extension agent with the county fair, and as a 4-H leader. When a home economist job came up, she decided to try it.

She was a home economist 8 years in Winkler County and 4 years in Borden County before accepting the job here.

She especially looks forward to working on the fashion show, the consumer project, and the foods and nutrition projects. But, first she will get to know the leaders and the 4-H'ers.

Ms. Pollard enjoys counted cross stitch, crocheting, fabric painting, sewing and cooking. She knows that these hobbies can easily translate into projects that the 4-H'ers might enjoy. She is also learning to recover shoes with fabric.

Ms. Pollard grew up on a farm in Lake Arthur where her father and grandfather grew alfalfa, cotton, and some produce. She is glad to be closer to her parents and also to her brothers who both live in Hagerman, N.M.

She has always liked the 4-H program because families got involved and help their children. This brings the whole family together.

"To have a successful program you need that parental and sibling support," she knows that she will find that in Farwell.

Marshal's Report

Here is the weekly report from Texico Deputy Marshal Fry Urioste:

On May 25, two Friona 21 year old men, John Michael Stephens and Kent M. Chesher, were charged with furnishing liquor to minors. Three Friona juveniles were involved. On May 29, Urioste got a search warrant for a Texico home. It resulted in recovery of stolen property from semi's in Farwell. He will get warrants on two Texico juveniles. On May 30, Joe M. Sanchez, 25, Texico, was charged with DWI.

Urioste warned residents to wear their seat belts. Tickets are being written.
