Team concept is gone

Well, the baseball season has opened - there's joy in Mudville, I guess.

It just isn't the same any more. Free agency won't kill pro baseball, just like it won't kill pro football. But it will cause quite a hemorrhage.

I predict that the number of fans going to big league games this year will show quite a drop (excluding the normal enthusiasm for the two expansion teams).

As you know, I'm a longtime Chicago Cubs fan.

I used to enjoy rooting for players, watching them grow and mature over the years. I like familiar names. An Ernie Banks. A Ron Santo. A Billy Williams. A Fergy Jenkins. Names to grow up with.

But do you know who the starting pitchers for the Cubs were in their first 3-game match with the Atlanta Braves? Morgan, Guzman and Hibbard.

Guzman and Hibbard are new Cubs and Morgan is in his second year.

What are they doing on the Chicago Cubs' roster? And they're not the only new additions. The club's cleanup hitter is named Maldonado. Where did he come from? And the leadoff hitter is Wilson. Who's he?

Sure, some names are familiar: Sandberg and Grace. But this list seems quite short when compared to the come-and-go players.

The Cubs are no longer "the Cubs." They are now a combination of various free agents from both leagues who happened to sign with one club. They're a bunch of strangers - and I would have very little desire, if I lived in the Chicago area, to go see them play.

If any of them have a good year, forget it - they'll hop to another team next year. It almost makes you root for your favorite players to have a bad season.

And what I have to say about the Cubs probably rings true for other teams, too. Forget loyalty and all the other fine aspects that helped make baseball the national pastime - now it's a matter of which club dangles the most dollars in front of you.

I'm afraid that baseball owners aren't much smarter than politicians. They can't see that this free agency will break them in the long run. Baseball already has fallen into 2nd place behind football. It may always be ahead of soccer, but not by much.

The money given players - $1 million a year for .230 punch - and - judy hitters, for example - is ridiculous. I'm not about to pay as much as $14 a seat (in Toronto) to see a bunch of strangers pretend they're "my" team. Especially when I know the money I would pay goes toward those exorbitant salaries.

Just by going to a baseball game is like saying "we need to pay these bozos more millions."

If I knew that the players who joined the Cubs would stay as Cubs, I could get somewhat excited. But the fact is they joined the club for a limited engagement and will leave asap. Now, how can you "root" for them?

With free agency as it now stands, baseball has become a revolving door for players. The team no longer means anything. Each player understands that the only thing that counts is his own statistics - helping him get more dollars from another ball club the following season.

The team concept is dead. Too bad.

Texico employs Vargas, Sain

The Texico School Board voted to re-hire almost all of its current staff members Tuesday.

Contracts will not be offered to staff working in federal programs until after the parent advisory meetings which will be held later this spring.

The Board accepted the resignations of Kate Griffin, Chapter I aide, and Jo Ann Edwards, special education teacher and Elementary School diagnostician. Mrs. Edwards will retain her position as school diagnostician, but she will resign her teaching position.

The board hired new staff members Pat Vargas and Margaret Sain as Chapter I instructors.

The administration projected that it will need one high school teacher, one junior high school teacher, a 5th grade teacher and one special education teacher next year. They may also need a half time kindergarten aide because so many students enrolled at the Texico Kindergarten registration and Health Fair.

"The kids really turned out for that Health Fair," said Supt. R.L. Richards.

The board also:
- Awarded electrical supplies bids to Beacon Electric.
- Awarded the school bus contract to Bill Queener.

Two classes?

It was reported at Texico's School Board meeting that the New Mexico Activities Association has recommended that Texico remain in Class A for football but move to Class AA for all other activities.

- Awarded the bid for constructing parking lots to Eastwood Construction. They will be built between the junior high and the cafeteria, and south of the gym.

- Discussed the need to keep an operational cash balance of at least 10 percent of the budget in reserve each year.

- Reviewed federal programs and their costs. Currently the school system has Chapter I, Chapter II, Drug Free Schools and Community and IDEA programs in the Texico Schools.

- Voted to allocate $500 from the school board, $100 from the junior high, and $100 from the high school budgets to help the Odyssey of the Mind team which will compete in the national Odyssey of the Mind Competition. The team will need about $5,000 total to go to the competition.

Anyone else interested in donating to this group should contact Joel Pate at Texico Elementary School.

- Voted to spend $75 to help Dara Jenkins attend a pre-med workshop in Boston. She is one of only 350 students in the nation to be honored with an invitation.

- Heard Brandon Schauf present the itinerary for the Senior Class trip to Amarillo on May 4.

- Tabled a request from Coach Michael Littlejohn for financial assistance to attend a conference in Florida. Littlejohn has been named Regional Volleyball Coach of the Year for an 8-state area.

- Reviewed the state Quality of Education Survey. The Texico school board will add some questions of their own and ask parents to respond to them.

County discusses Friona request

The Parmer County Commissioners held an informal discussion during its Monday meeting of the recent suggestion by Friona city officials that Friona may charge extra for runs its fire department makes into the county.

At the previous meeting, Friona officials had presented statistics showing that the overwhelming amount (82 percent during the past four years) of fire department runs it made was outside the city limits. It was mentioned that $400 be charged per run outside city limits.

The county commissioners countered with statistics showing the amount of funds that the county's volunteer fire departments received. Last year, Friona got $43,000 (including a large sum for a new fire truck) from the county.

Although the commissioners didn't arrive at a consensus, it was felt that if Friona wanted a special subsidy from the county it needed to show more specifically where the money was needed - "just cause."

(The topic of charging fees was discussed at Tuesday's Friona City Council meeting but no action was taken.)

In other business, the commissioners:

- Agreed to seek bids for new windows for the first floor of the courthouse. Later, renovations will be done for the first floor, room by room.

- Bought a road grader for Pct. 1 from West Texas Equipment, Amarillo.

- Bought a road grader for Pct. 4 from Yellowhouse, Lubbock.

- Agreed to forego certain back taxes on two properties: one, the west block of 100, lot 11, Friona, that Marcello Vidana is seeking to purchase; the other, Block 11, lots 1-3, Farwell, that Jack Landrum is seeking to purchase.

Groundwater levels decrease

Parmer County's groundwater levels decreased an average of 1.47 feet in 1992, according to measurements taken at 97 wells by the High Plains Underground Water Conservation District No. 1.

This decline represents a decrease of 127,437 acre-feet of water from storage in the Ogallala Aquifer last year in Parmer County.

Groundwater levels within the Water District's Parmer County service area declined 1.26 feet during the 10-year period from 1983-1993. A decline of 1.71 feet was recorded during the 5-year period from 1988 to 1993.

Groundwater levels in the Ogallala Aquifer within the 6.4 million acre Water District service area had an average rise of 0.14 of a foot from January 1992 to January 1993. This is a net increase of about 135,103 acre-feet of ground water in storage in the Ogallala Aquifer within the Water District service area.

A zero - average annual change in the ground water levels was recorded for the first time in the Water District's history in 1985. Depth - to - water measurements revealed an average ground water level rise of 0.50 of a foot in 1986; an average rise of 0.90 of a foot in 1987; an average decline of 0.51 of a foot in 1988; an average decline of one foot in 1989; an average decline of 1.06 feet in 1990 and an average decline of 0.73 of a foot in 1991.

Construction manager hired

The Farwell School Board held a special meeting Tuesday and hired John Cole, of Lubbock, to be the construction manager on the building project.

Last year, Farwell School District patrons approved a $1.5 million bond issue. With other available funds, Farwell officials felt they could afford up a $1.9 million building project - new classrooms at all three campuses plus a new gym.

But when bids were opened from general contractors, the lowest bid was at $2,193,000. If that bid were accepted, cutbacks would have to be made in what was planned.

School Supt. Richard Boothby said that it's believed that Cole can line up the subcontractors to get the project built without any cutbacks and with the money the school system has to spend.

"The package Cole put together is within the ballpark," said Boothby.

Because Cole needs to check on a couple of subcontractor bids, and for legal purposes, the school system is again running its "notice to bid" legal ads the next two weeks in the Tribune.

Under construction management, Cole is hired by the school system to arrange for subcontractors to do the work. No general contractor is involved.

Boothby also reported that he's fairly certain that state funds will be available to build two new tennis courts. Application will be made in July.

The old courts were demolished last month to make way for the new gym.

Because the school board held the special meeting Tuesday, it changed the date for its regular monthly meeting to April 15 at 7 p.m. at the administration office.

Humorist to speak at Texico Chamber banquet

Humorist Elvis E. Fleming of Roswell will be the guest speaker at the Texico Chamber of Commerce Banquet at 7 p.m. mdt April 27 at Texico School.

Tops in state

17 apply for deputy's position

The Texico City Council announced Tuesday it had received 17 applications for the post of deputy marshal.

The post has been vacant since the resignation in February of Kirk Roberts.

Applicants are Terry Curry, Ron Bishop, Wayne Atchley, Ramon Martinez, Ted Blair, Harold Taylor, Chacho Arce Jr., Robert Biby, Gilbert Holguin, Larry Garrison, Antonio Bosque, T.J. Borman, Shawn Pruitt, Jerry Bradley, Robert Streeter, David Kilgore and Ernest Woods.

A special council meeting will be held at 6:30 p.m. mst April 20 at Texico City Hall to begin evaluating the applications. Councilman Ronnie Warmuth is in charge of the process.

In other business, the council:

- Noted that city employee Matt Meeks will be at the city landfill all day Saturday for the cleanup. No metal will be taken. The council suggested that persons with metal to be gotten rid of should take it to Lunsford's.

Saturday will be a "clean up your own property" day. The city will not send out trucks.

- Approved seeking bids for fencing at the cemetery. Seeding also was approved there. And bids will be put out for someone to perform regular maintenance at the site.

- Received a request from Manford Turnbough, who wants to clean up the lots across the street from City Hall that are adjacent to his property because he considers it a fire hazard. But he wants Texico to help fund the cleanup. City Attorney Duane Hamar will check further into this suggestion.

- Discussed placing major capitol outlay items in the 1993-94 budget. Warmuth suggested improving KKR Park, such as placing a baseball backstop there.

- Approved buying a load of caliche.

- Moved its regular meeting date from April 27 to April 26 so as not to conflict with the Texico Chamber of Commerce banquet.

- Heard Councilman Butch Tharp report that trenching work will be done at Lions Park in preparation for the May 8 workday there to put the lines in. The Lions Club voted Monday $250 toward the trenching cost.

- Heard Meeks ask if the water department could sell some excessive equipment, and buy some other materials it needs. The council asked for a list of what he proposed selling.

- Heard Tharp report that he has been to two highway meetings. He said improving the highway intersection by the Crossroads Motel "is still in the works" but nothing definitive is planned. State officials are talking about 4-laning the stretch to the state line but realignment is out. Also, a traffic light is being discussed there.

- Heard Councilman Oran Jay Autrey bring up the topic again of using Clovis' building inspection department to handle Texico building permits. No action was taken.

Notice of Rate Change Request And Statement of Intent

Notice is hereby given that Deaf Smith Electric Cooperative, Inc. (the "Utility") intends to decrease rates for electric utility service effective July 6, 1993, or as soon thereafter as may be permitted by law. Based upon a test year ending December 31, 1992, the decrease requested is $740,000 or 4.465% of actual test year revenues. The changes are applicable to all areas, all customer classes, and all customers served by the Utility.

The Utility proposes to change all rates for Farm and Home, Residential Space Heating, Irrigation, Commercial, Large Power, Industrial, Cotton Gin, and Lighting, including demand, energy, minimum and other charges. The proposed changes are expected to affect the classes as follows: for the 4,416 customers in the farm and home class, the proposed decrease will be $109,357 or a negative 4.53% change in revenues; for the 147 customers in the residential space heating class, the proposed decrease will be $7,793 or a negative 3.39% change in revenues; for the 4,060 customers in the irrigation class, the proposed decrease will be $376,215 or a negative 4.15% change in revenues; for the 774 customers in the commercial class, the proposed decrease will be $54,019 or a negative 6.17% change in revenues; for the 111 customers in the large power class the proposed decrease will be $81,413 or a negative 8.11% change in revenues; for the 26 customers in the industrial class, the proposed decrease will be $95,907 or a negative 3.74% change in revenues; for the 6 customers in the cotton gin class, there will be no change in revenues; and for the 2,888 customers in the lighting class, the proposed decrease will be $15,296 or a negative 6.11% change in revenues.

The Utility also intends to change its service rules and regulations, including rules relating to obtaining service, line extension and line extension charges, the provision of electric service, service fees, and discontinuance of service.

Information concerning the proposed rate changes, including the proposed revisions of tariff and schedules is available at the General Office of the Utility, located at Highway 60 at Whittier Street, Hereford, Texas 79045-0753. Inquiries should be directed to Mike Veazey.

The Utility is required to give notice of the percentage change in base revenues which is negative 12.087%. The percentage decrease in base revenues is not an indication of how much your bill will change. Rather, it is a measure of the decrease in revenues that will be experienced by the Utility for its own operations, excluding payment of the cost of power purchased by the Utility from its wholesale power suppliers.

On or about May 7, 1993, the Utility will file with the Public Utility Commission of Texas, a Statement of Intent to Change Rates, specifying in detail each proposed change. Requests to intervene must be filed no later than 45 days after the application filing date; Thus, the Utility anticipates the deadline for intervening and objecting to the rate changes will be June 21, 1993. Persons who wish to intervene or otherwise participate in these proceedings should notify the Commission as soon as possible. A request to intervene, participate, or for further information should be mailed to the Public Utility Commission of Texas, 7800 Shoal Creek Boulevard, Suite 400N, Austin, Texas 78757. Further information may also be obtained by calling the Public Utility Commission Consumer Affairs Division at (512) 458-0223 or (512) 458-0227, or (512) 458-0221 teletypewriter for the deaf.

Twelve alternatives to lashing out at your kid.

The next time everyday pressures build up to the point where you feel like lashing out—STOP! And try any of these simple alternatives.

You'll feel better . . . and so will your child.

1. Take a deep breath. And another. Then remember you are the adult . . .
2. Close your eyes and imagine you're hearing what your child is about to hear.
3. Press your lips together and count to 10. Or better yet, to 20.
4. Put your child in a time-out chair. (Remember the rule: one time-out minute for each year of age.)
5. Put yourself in a time-out chair. Think about why you are angry: Is it your child, or is your child simply a convenient target for your anger?
6. Phone a friend.
7. If someone can watch the children, go outside and take a walk.
8. Take a hot bath or splash cold water on your face.
9. Hug a pillow.
10. Turn on some music. Maybe even sing along.
11. Pick up a pencil and write down as many helpful words as you can think of. Save the list.
12. Write for prevention information: National Committee for Prevention of Child Abuse, Box 2866L, Chicago, IL 60690.

Katherine White presented the devotional, "Unlimit Yourself," when the ladies of Hamlin Memorial United Methodist Church met for their monthly salad luncheon on April 5. Mrs. White drew upon the tract, "Tough Times," by Norman Vincent Peal for her presentation. Plans were begun at this meeting for a dinner for graduating seniors in the church. Attending the luncheon were: Cindy Wells, Maureen Caywood, Becky Beekman, Aileen Teel, Judy Pomper, Katherine White, Joyce Ketcherside, Rev. Larry Heacock, Jeannie Heacock, Kayci Harmon, Peggy Goetsch, and Dardanella Helton.
