'Talk less, work harder'

We carried the wrong time for the planned wedding of Suzahn Inman and Rocky Horton in last week's Tribune. It will be at 7 p.m. mdt June 6 at the First Baptist Church in Clovis.

If you saw the birth announcement in last week's Tribune about Skyler Catanzaro of Clovis and wondered about his local connection - he's the grandson of Jon Amundson, who runs the Wheeler 66 service station in Texico.

Donita Massey, New Mexico state FFA president, told a cute joke at Texico's annual FFA awards ceremony last week.

She told about the 8 most asked questions she has heard while traversing the state, visiting 65 FFA chapters during the past year.

No. 8 - Why do convenience stores, which are open year-round, 24 hours a day, have locks on them?

No. 7 - Why is it that when you drop a slice of bread it lands butter side down?

No. 6 - Why do cats land on their feet when they fall?

No. 5 - If you put a cat into a bread sandwich, will it fall on its side?

No. 4 - If pro is the opposite of con, is progress the opposite of Congress?

No. 3 - Why does peanut butter stick to the top of your mouth?

No. 2 - If you stand on your head, will peanut butter stick to your tongue?

No. 1 - How can I become successful.

Donita then launched into her speech, dealing with success.

Roy Snodgrass stopped by the paper with a letter to the editor he saw in the Lubbock newspaper. Its headline was "talk less, work harder toward goal."

Isn't that something every one of us ought to observe better? If you took some of these demonstrators who seemingly are very adept at talking a lot, and had them use the same amount of energy toward their work, than a whole lot more would be accomplished in this world.

Too many folks, it seems, take the easy way by grabbing a placard and standing on a street corner shouting their protests.

The better way to achieve your ends in a democracy is by getting to work in the social and political processes. But that takes work.

Periodically, over the next couple of months, we will be running some articles and photos sent to us from Will Anderson, a former Farwell resident who is now stationed with the U.S. Embassy in Islamabad, Pakistan.

Will has helped the Tribune be a truly "international" paper in the past, with articles and pix from the Persian Gulf and Pacific Ocean, for just two examples. Will's the son of Bob and Carrie Anderson, of Farwell.

I like using his stuff. It's a nice diversion from the usual info we carry in the Tribune and it's fun to do. Will's a closet journalist and this gives him a chance to use his talent.

Will also sent us a couple of letters telling everyone he said hello. In fact, Will wants folks who live in the Twin Cities to know how lucky they are; he's very unhappy with what life is like in Pakistan.

Folks there, it seems, are very unhappy. They have the usual Third World tendency to

TCAO plans fund-raisers

The Texico Community Activities Organization had a busy meeting Tuesday, planning various fund-raisers for its 4th of July Jamboree.

Here's a wrap-up of what's planned:

- The 4th of July Jamboree, if enough funds are raised, will feature a fireworks display. Paul Skaggs has given his approval for the TCAO to use his property, just outside the city limits, for the fireworks, said Fry Urioste. A permit is still needed from the state.

The TCAO bandied about various ideas and suggestions for the 4th of July. Events will be held at KKR Park. The group talked about starting everything about noon. Activities and contests might include a pick-up softball game, egg tosses and sack races for kids (with ribbons given 1st place winners), etc.

The group would like more community input on the 4th plans. Any groups willing to sponsor activities are asked to call Texico City Hall and leave a message for Urioste or TCAO chairman Kirk Roberts. There will be more information on the 4th plans in next week's Tribune.

- To get the Bingo games started, state licensing is still needed. Pending that approval, the TCAO set two tentative dates for the first Bingo games - May 21 and June 4. The Knights of Columbus are helping with this.

If approved, the games would be held at 7 p.m. mst at the Texico Community Center. More details will be announced in next week's Tribune.

- The TCAO has decided to postpone its plans for a 3-on-3 basketball tourney until the summertime.

- On May 16, a dance will be held from 8 p.m. mst to midnight at the Texico Community Center. Admission is $1.50.

- On May 23, the TCAO will have a car wash from 11:30 a.m. mst to 5 p.m. at the Texico firehouse.

Persons who want their vehicles picked up and brought to the car wash, then returned, should call 482-9416 weekdays after 5 p.m., or any time weekends. Or persons can leave a message at City Hall with their name, phone number and address.

Urioste stressed that any vehicles picked up and returned will be driven by adults only.

- On June 5, the TCAO will sponsor a bean and cornbread lunch from 11:30 a.m. mst to 1:30 p.m. at the Texico Community Center. Prices will be announced next week.

- On June 13 and 14, a big garage sale is planned at the Texico Community Center. Donations, such as clothes, dishes and furniture, are needed. Folks with items to be donated can have them picked up by calling 482-9416 after 5 p.m. weekdays, or any time weekends, or 482-9174.

"We still urgently would appreciate participation in the 4th of July Jamboree from Farwell adults and youths," said Urioste. "Just come to our next meeting at 7 p.m. mst May 19 at Texico City Hall and help plan the activities and fund-raisers."

Texico citizens' group to gather grievances

The group of Texico residents angered over the Texico School Board's split decision not to renew the contract of longtime high school principal Ken Shaw met Monday at the Texico Community Center to further map its plans.

Group chairman Greg Martin, a former Texico school board member, told more than 30 residents that the next step is to list individuals' grievances with the board in order to seek a recall of those board members voting against renewing Shaw's contract - Herman Gerles, Paul Barnes and Bruce Mayfield.

These grievances, which must be of first-hand knowledge, will be listed on petitions, which city residents will be asked to sign. It likely will take two to three weeks for these petitions to be collected.

The group has an attorney, but his name was not given out. Originally, the group had contracted attorney Bob Brack. But Brack backed out, said group member George Herrington, Texico municipal judge.

The group has raised nearly $4,000 in its war chest so far. Persons wishing to contribute may bring their donations to Security State Bank, Farwell. A fund-raiser

Texas lottery starts May 29

Texas' lottery starts May 29.

Instant prizes for the 'Lone Star Millions' game will range from $2 to $10,000 but thousands of tickets will offer Lottery players a chance to enter million-dollar grand prize drawings.

The Texas lottery staff has 186 employees, compared to California's 1,000 and Florida's 775.

Based on current projections, the Texas Lottery should earn enough in less than a week of ticket sales to cover - with 10 percent interest - the $12 million the Legislature appropriated for start-up.

More than 2 million winning tickets, providing as much as $7.1 million in prizes, should be sold on opening day. More than 28,000 of the first-day tickets offer a chance to enter the $1 million grand prize drawings.

The packages of $1 tickets will be distributed to the Lottery's network of about 14,700 retailers several days before the May 29 kick-off.

"Texans will find this first game easy to play," Lottery Director Nora Linares said. "All they have to do is scratch the latex covering off of all six Lone Stars on the front of the ticket. Each scratch reveals a prize amount. Any ticket with three matching prize amounts is a winner."

The overall odds of winning an instant prize are one in 7.9. Ticket sales will begin at 6 a.m. May 29, with the Texas Lottery activates the computer system that validates winning tickets.

Any Lottery retailer may redeem prizes of $100 or less. Winners of $1,000 or $10,000 prizes must bring or mail their tickets to one of 24 Lottery claim centers that have been established across the state.

Details of how the weekly grand prize drawing will be conducted will be released later.

Farwell will have five lottery outlets: Farwell United Drug, Helton Oil, Allsup's, Hughes True Value and Capitol Food.

Letter To The Editor

Council ruling criticized

Dear Editor:
 This letter is in reference to a mobile home variance for 800 Ave. D that was brought before the city council on April 28. Your paper of April 30 did not have the whole story.
 First of all, there has never been anything on these lots but a mobile home, and it had only been 6 days since one had been moved out.
 Yes, there were 4 citizens that objected but there were 12 that did not.
 These people claim that mobile homes lower the value of their property because mobile home owners "do not keep their yards or property up to standards." In other words, people who live in mobile homes are lower class people and should stay on 9th Street as it is zoned for mobile homes. It didn't seem to matter that a resident just 3 houses from this property has a mobile home in his backyard. I wonder how it got there.
 There were 16 letters sent out, 5 were to mobile home owners which were not even taken into consideration. Also, I was given a cost of $35.00 by city hall for this variance and received a bill for $48.68. When I questioned this, I was told that the $35.00 was an "approximate" cost, and there must have been a misunderstanding."

This is not the first time my son and his wife have run into this problem. After finding some lots on one street for sale, they were told by one of our former city officials that if they bought a new double wide, he might consider not opposing the sale since he owns property close by and would be polled.
 Smells like discrimination to me! Or is it prejudice?
 Why is it this city is always talking about wanting people to move here, then making it next to impossible for that to happen, unless you meet their standards and qualifications. This basically means you must have been born and raised here and your grandpa must have been born and raised here. If this is not the case, then the majority of the people would just as soon you went elsewhere.
 There are a lot of good people in Farwell, but a few bad apples will spoil the whole barrel and that is what is happening here in Farwell.

The Chair That Had Hair

by Blake Poarch

There was a chair
 That had so much hair
 It caused everyone to stare.
 And there was another chair
 That had no hair
 That looked rather bare.
 So the chair with hair
 Gave some hair to the bare chair
 And now they both get many stares.

Crooks, Cortes marry

Lisa Kay Crooks of Albuquerque, formerly of Texico, and Timothy Martin Cortes of Albuquerque, were joined in marriage Feb. 15 at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ariye Crooks, in Texico. Elder Paul Crooks of Lubbock, uncle of the bride, performed the double ring ceremony. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Fernando Crooks, of Albuquerque.

Gia Hardage, of Farwell, sister of the bride, served as matron of honor. Fernando Cortes, father of the groom, served as best man.

Chase Hardage, nephew of the bride, was candlelighter. Taylor Crooks, nephew of the bride, was ring bearer.

The bride's gown, designed by French Lace of California, was candlelight ivory, victorian length, of patterned lace over peau-de-soie with sheer lace long sleeves. Venetian lace accented the hemline and sleeve edges. The V-shaped neckline of the bodice was accented with a chiffon drape flowing from the dropped fitted waist line over the shoulder and free falling over a short train which the bride carried over her arm. Beginning at mid-waist the gown featured a single row of miniature candlelight satin roses and single strands of pearl drops.

The bride's colors were black and white and red roses. The bridal bouquet was arranged with red roses, white gardenias and miniature spider mums.

For the traditional "something old and something borrowed," the bride wore a gold heirloom bracelet belonging to the bride's grandmother, Ruth Reid. "Something new" was the bride's wedding emsemble, and her garter was "something blue." The bride carried pennies minted in the year of each of their births for good luck. The bride wore a single strand of cultured pearls, a gift from the groom. Ruth Reid, grandmother of the bride, provided a musical medley on the organ.

A reception followed immediately after the ceremony and Tonye Crooks, sister in law of the bride, and Cara Castillo, cousin of the bride, attended the reception table. Thank-you scrolls were handed out by Amanda Castillo, daughter of Cara.

Lisa graduated from Texico High and Eastern New Mexico University in Portales, graduating with honors with a bachelor of business administration degree. She has been employed at Cort Furniture Co. in Albuquerque for 5 1/2 years and is senior accounts executive there.

Tim graduated from St. Pius in Albuquerque and New Mexico State University in Las Cruces, where he received his bachelor degree in electrical engineering. He is employed with Honeywell in Albuquerque.

The couple are making their home in Albuquerque, following a short trip to Santa Fe.

Romans 12:10

Since 1949, nursing homes throughout our country have observed National Nursing Home Week as a means of honoring those who live and work in nursing homes — the residents as well as the staff members, volunteers, advisory board members, and families who assist in providing care.

This year an estimated 19,000 nursing homes with over 1.5 million residents will join the celebration. The theme of this year's observance, "Celebration of Quality," underscores the importance of revering these special persons.

Your local Good Samaritan center invites you to join this special celebration — by offering your prayers and words of encouragement, by taking time to visit our facility and talk with residents and staff members, and by sharing in the special activities that will take place throughout the week.

By sharing an hour or an afternoon, a smile, a prayer or a warm word, you'll help brighten the day for our residents and help us make real our motto "In Christ's Love, Everyone Is Someone."

Of course, visitors are welcome and encouraged year around at our facility, but during Nursing Home Week, May 10-16, your visit will be of special importance. We invite you to join with us as we show love and respect for members of our nursing home "family."

Career Day

Texico Schools held their Career Day April 20. Shown are some of the speakers.

Texico Deputy Marshal Kirk Roberts

David Johnson and his mother, Judy Johnson, have opened the Factory Carpet Outlet just west of Texico in a building where the Johnson family also owns a trucking business.

Factory Carpet Outlet to open

The Factory Carpet Outlet, 1200 Wheeler, Texico will soon be open for business to offer discontinued and irregular carpet on a cash and carry basis.

"We are going to try to fill this place up with carpet, pad, tack strips and all the things that folks will need," said Judy Johnson, one of the owners.

According to Mrs. Johnson the "brands will vary. It depends on what we can bargain for." Much of the time they will carry carpeting from Shaw Industries.

They will also have carpet samples available so that clients may order first line carpets.

The Johnsons do not plan to lay any carpeting. They will have a list of carpet layers available from which clients may choose the craftsman of their choice.

The new business will also sell vinyl and formica tile at regular prices.

The Factory Carpet Outlet will be open from 8 a.m. - 5 p.m. mdt.

The Johnsons: George, Judy, David, and Dale, have been involved in a trucking business at the same address for the past few years. They decided to add the carpeting business so that they could use the space that they have to better advantage, and still offer a service that is unique in this area.

The Johnsons live in Clovis, but their two boys, David and Dale, graduated from Texico High School.

Editor's note: Here's a nice touch for Mother's Day: Words by Floyd Embry, and calligraphy by Sherry Embry:

Mama Mother Ma

Some say Mother, some say Ma,
Some say Mama, means the same to all.

Some say, they can boast,
She's the one who loves us most.

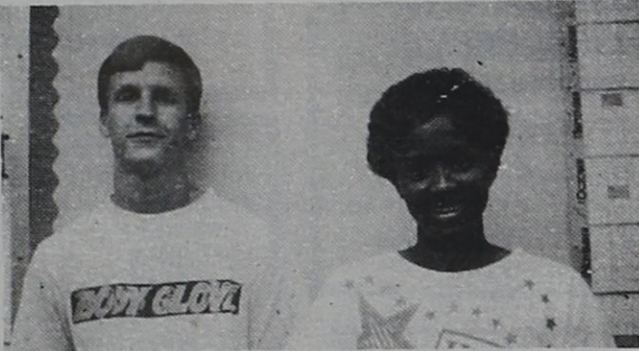

Some say, she's kind and good;
No need to doubt, if we could.

Some say, We're really blest,
By having one who's the best.

Some say, She's there to care,
When burdens get hard to bear.

All can say, She gave life to live,
None can say, They have more to give.

So it matters none at all,
Whether it's Mama, Mother, or Ma.

Matt Foster and Katrina Stewart

A first for Farwell's Katrina Stewart?

Katrina Stewart and Matt Foster will represent Farwell High School at the State Track Meet in Austin May 15 - 16.

Stewart may have been the first Farwell girl athlete to qualify for the State Track Meet, and one of few Farwell athletes to ever qualify for more than one event at the state meet. She qualified for three events.

She qualified by placing first in the 100 m. with a time of 12.9; second in the 200 m. with a time of 26.78; and second in the 400 m. with a time of 60.26 at the Regional Track Meet in Levelland last week.

Foster took first place at the Regional Track Meet in high jump with a jump of 6'4".

Molly Miller placed 7th at the Regional Meet in shot put with a throw of 31'10"
