Belinda Partain wins 5th contest

It was a tough week for participants in the Area Merchants Football Contest, as upsets abounded.

The top score was only 9 -- of the 12 games. By virtue of being closest to the tie breaker (Capitan 24, Texico 20), the winner of the first place cash prize of $10 was Belinda Partain. She was 8 off the tie breaker.

Winning the second place cash prize of $5 was Sheryl Taylor, who was 12 off the tie breaker. She also had 9 right.

Others with 9 right were (with their totals off the tie breaker): Tammi Schilling, 26; Leigh Ann Woods, 27; Clay Roberts, 30; Gerald Hardage, 17, and Crestino Lopez, 25.

With 8 right were:

Since one game ended in a tie -- Nazareth and Petersburg -- 11 was about as well as anyone could do. But few picked Baylor to shock Texas Tech or Wisconsin to upend Penn State.

Other results were: O'Donnell over Bovina, Friona over Dalhart, Colorado over Oklahoma, Alabama over Georgia, Ohio State over Notre Dame, Atlanta over New England, Indianapolis over St. Louis, Tampa Bay over Carolina, and Philadelphia over New Orleans.

The contest is now 5 weeks over -- with the winner of the 12-week total getting the Dallas Cowboys' package. Here's a look at the leader board:

44 points -- Courtney Carthel.

43 -- William Dannheim, Hal Helton, Bill Roberts, Billy Roberts.

42 -- Jim Belvin, Wade Cargile, Larry Cochran, Leigh Ann Woods.

41 -- Johnny Actkinson, Vicki Bowery, Lance Castleberry, Jeanette Ford, Sammy Herrera, Dick Pylant.

40 -- Doug Dillon, Don Geries, Larry Gregory, Jack Allen Kirkland, Adrian Smith.

Longhorns whip Dell City

The Lazbuddie Longhorns poured it on last Saturday when they downed Dell City, 8-30, at Wellman.

The Longhorns, now 2-2 on the season, host El Paso Jesus Chapel tonight (Friday) at 7:30 p.m. Next week, Lazbuddie will have its Homecoming.

The game ended in the 4th quarter due to the 45-point rule. The game was never in doubt as Lazbuddie opened a 24-6 lead at the end of the first quarter. The tallies came on a 50-yard run by Juan Reyes, a 10-yard run by Brice Foster and a 38-yard run by Reyes. Jason Thomas kicked all three points after.

The second quarter actually saw Dell City outscore Lazbuddie, 24-16. The Longhorn scores came on another 10-yard run by Foster and a 50-yard pass from Justin St. Clair to Reyes. So Lazbuddie led at the half, 40-30.

The second half belonged to Lazbuddie as they outscored Dell City 40-0. Here's how the scores came:

A 58-yard punt return by Foster; a 30-yard pass from St. Clair to Guy Nickels; a 15-yard run by St. Clair; an 8-yard pass from St. Clair to Brice Redwine; and a 47-yard run by Foster.

The Lazbuddie defense held Dell City to a minus 16 rushing yards, and 358 through the air. Meanwhile, Lazbuddie gained 514 yards overall. Lazbuddie hit 10 of 12 passes; Dell City was 30 of 60.

Coach Mark Scisson noted that Dell City is a young team with potential and gave Lazbuddie a tough time in the second quarter. This week, the Longhorns will have their work cut out for them as they face an undefeated El Paso Jesus Chapel squad. And next week is Homecoming.

Students rally 'round the flagpole

by Teresa Mesman

Students from Farwell and Texico schools rallied around the flagpole at 7:30 on Sept. 18 at their schools.

Government protest? A rebellion against authority? A party?

These students had one reason at the center of their gathering; it was Christ.

Approximately 30 Farwell students and 37 Texico students gathered around their flagpoles to pray for their fellow students, teachers, government leaders and their families. The event, aptly named "See You At The Pole" has become an annual event nationwide and in several foreign countries.

"See You At The Pole" began as a simple prayer meeting in a small Texas town in the spring of 1990. Church youth leaders across the state caught word of the event and began to challenge other Texas school students to meet and pray at their school flagpoles across the state the following September.

The following September, more than 45,000 young people met the challenge by meeting at 7 a.m. and praying before the start of school. The event has since been promoted nationwide to high schools, colleges and various Christian organizations. In 1994, more than 2 million high school and college students in the U.S. and approximately 20 other nations joined together for the annual "See You At The Pole."

This same figure was what organizers were estimating for this year's event.

Al Noblett, youth minister at First Baptist Church in Farwell called the response to the "See You At The Pole" activities "tremendous."

He was quoted as saying that "Jesus Christ is the reason for the event and that's the only thing that can make a difference in the quality of our kids' lives."

The activities didn't just stop with the prayers around the flagpole either. An evening celebration called "Saw You At The Pole" was held the night of Sept. 18 at the Lyceum Theater in Clovis. Students representing Farwell and Texico also attended this event which was highlighted by students singing songs and giving their personal testimonies.

The success of these two events gave momentum to the upcoming Student Impact Week which will be held Oct. 15 -

Pals win honors

The Pleasant Hill Pals 4-H Club met for their monthly meeting Sept. 25 at the Texico Ed. Complex. Dustin and Denise Whitener and Kristen and Jennifer Roberts served as hosts and hostesses for the meeting and served cookies and cokes.

The meeting was called to order by Sam Singletery, president; roll call by Dustin Ward, Secretary; the American Flag pledge was led by Kyle Cain and the 4-H Flag pledge was led by Brittany Bradley.

Reports were made as follows: Final outcome for the concession stand at Border Town Days did very well. The fair booth that the club put in at the Curry County Fair won 1st place for $40 and was taken on to the State Fair in Albuquerque, where it placed 4th for $80. Also, the club had received appreciation letters along with $200 from the Curry County Ag Youth Supporters for the Beef Barn Herdsman Award and the Dairy Barn Herdsman Award at the Curry County Fair.

On Sept. 23, Dustin Whitener, Denise Whitener, Kyle Cain, Kelsi Cain, Sam Singletery and 3 leaders - Cheryl Whitener, Elaine Cain and Kay Singletery helped with the County 4-H mile of highway cleanup for the Adopt-A-Highway. Members were reminded that Record Books will be due Nov. 6.

Watson Langford gave a demonstration on "How To Make A Halter." The club wrote thank you letters to all donors to the Texico Buyers Club.

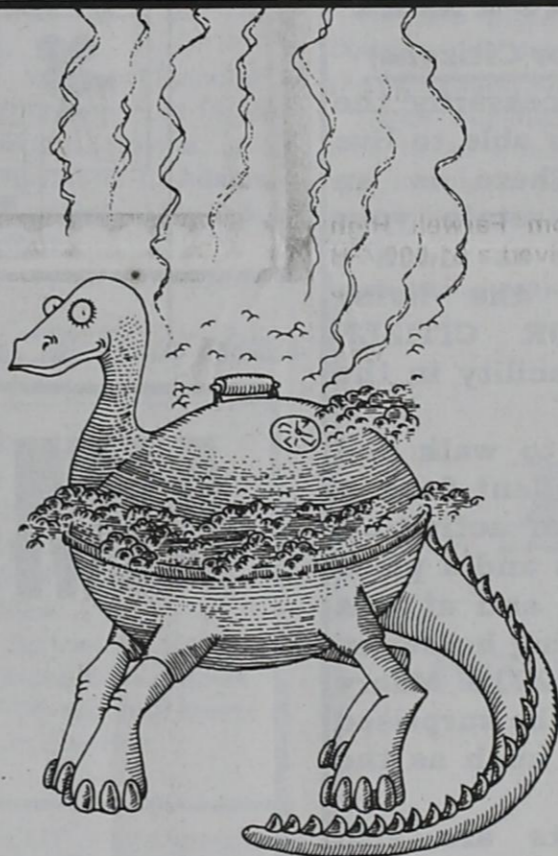

Members present at the meeting were Becki, Brittany, Chase and Chance Bradley; Elaine, Kyle and Kelsi Cain; Carrie, LaMicah and Zane Drager; Suzy and Watson Langford; Deanne, Wade and Lori Richardson; Vickie, Kristen, Jennifer and Jason Roberts; Kay and Sam Singletery; Beth, Shilo and Toby Thornton; Dustin Ward; Cheryl and Denise Whitener and one guest, Tara Lockmiller.

Say Goodbye To The Last Of The Dinosaurs

Don't contribute to the evolution of pollution! Using charcoal and lighter fluid is positively prehistoric. But a propane gas grill is a clean alternative. Fast, too. You can fire up and grill burgers in about a third the time on a propane gas grill compared to charcoal. And nothing tops propane for mammoth savings on fuel costs. So come out of the cave, man. Find out more about propane gas grilling. It's the best invention since the wheel.

Did you know...

• Above and beyond the 8 million homes using propane for normal inside uses, millions of people are familiar with propane's recreational uses, such as gas grills, swimming pool/sauna/whirlpool heaters, generators, and mobile home/RV appliances.

18. This week will feature national youth evangelist Dave Busby and music by Dave Sammons. This event will also be held in the Lyceum Theater each evening from 7 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. mst.

The strong faith that the students in this area possess is very uplifting to our communities. The churches are drawing closer to one another and the boundary lines of "denomination" seem to be dissolving. Both Texico and Farwell High School now have active Bible Clubs that feature Scripture studies organized and led by students.

he made some players cry. In Virginia, another basketball coach is starting over. Shortly after she coached her girls team to the state title, she was relieved of her duties because players -- and their parents -- complained she was "verbally abusive."

According to the unhappy players, "A sport ... should be fun and coaches shouldn't interfere and make life miserable."

With increased frequency, the plays -- and their parents -- want to run the locker room.

An article in USA Today cited 11 recent cases in which high school or college coaches faced open rebellion from their players. Along with "verbal abuse" and "making them cry" the coaches were accused of "favoritism" and "poor communication with players and parents."

In my career as a sports parent, four of my kids were on the high school athletic teams. I'm not sure how many of their coaches played favorites. I can't say whether or not they had poor relationships with their players. My communication with their coaches was pretty much limited to trying to find out what time they thought practice might end, if ever.

Which doesn't mean I wasn't interested in my kids' athletics.

I went to every one of their games and plenty of their practices. I sat in rainstorms and watched them roll around on muddy football fields. I stood at the edge of lumpy soccer fields and watched them kick each other in the shins. I drove through hail to find basketball courts that had no heat or zip codes.

Just about the only place I never went was into the coach's office to fight my kids' battles for them.

Not because I didn't care about my kids. But because I did.

My feeling was that there comes a time when parents have to let their kids learn about life. And high school sports is a great time to start. High school sports does a lot more than teach kids how to pass, punt and dribble. It has a lot of other valuable lessons.

It teaches them that not all coaches are fair. Which might ease the shock when they find out that not all bosses are fair.

It teaches them that coaches don't always have the time, or inclination, to worry about whether something they say might bruise a player's feelings. Which might prepare them for a world that does not always have the time, or inclination, to worry about bruising their feelings.

It teaches them that, no matter how wonderful mommy and daddy have told them they are, there are plenty of other kids just as wonderful. Which might make it easier for their egos to handle the blow on the inevitable day they discover that mommy and daddy were wrong and they are not the center of the universe, after all.

Some parents feel high school sports is too early for their kids to learn lessons like those.

I think it's almost too late.

The Tribune got that worrisome type of letter this week -- a certified letter from the IRS.

After signing three times for the letter, I opened it with trepidation.

What did this certified letter contain?

It was a form letter asking newspapers if they wanted ads from the IRS for the next tax season!

Many of you may have heard by now that O.J. Simpson was found not guilty in the Trial of the Century.

As I had predicted, O.J. beat the rap. He said he will now make it a priority to find the real killers of his ex-wife and Mr. Goldman.

Here are two suggestions for other suspects:

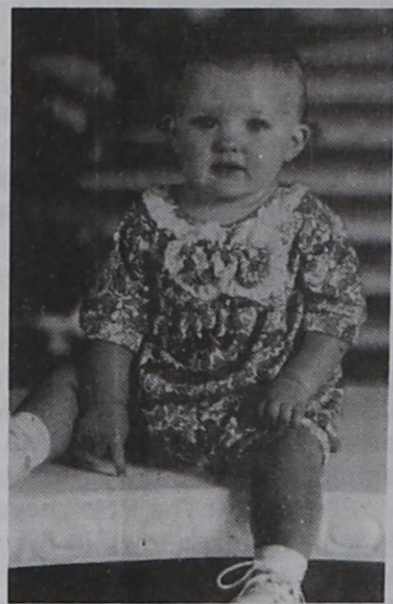

- Aliens from outer space.
- Elvis.

It was an interesting jury decision. What I saw here was that the jurors looked at the "big picture" and not the "little picture."

The little picture was the case itself -- the two folks being murdered. In that light, I believe O.J. would have been convicted.

The big picture involved racism, the police (especially that idiot ex-detective Furman) and its relationship to the black community and finding "reasonable doubt." Looking at it that way, as I believe the jury did, it's impossible to find O.J. guilty.

Farwell wins second in a row

The Farwell Steers rolled to their second straight victory last Friday, a 22-7 defeat of Whiteface in an away game.

The Steers, now 2-2 on the season, host Plains tonight (Friday) at 7:30. District games begin next week.

Farwell's Jason Miller opened the game by kicking off into the end zone, and Brock Anderson tackled the returner. On defense, good tackles were made by David Everett (QB sack), Anderson and Nic Ketcherside. Whiteface punted. Farwell couldn't move the ball and Russell Williams punted to the Whiteface 1.

Again on defense, Adrian Gonzales and Jason Miller had strong tackles. Brock Anderson blocked the punt. Then, on 2nd and 7, Anderson threw a TD pass to Dannheim for Farwell's first score. The Jason Miller kick made it 7-0.

Chase Hardage and Ketcherside made good tackles on defense. Everett recorded a QB sack. Other good defensive plays were recorded by Landon Lunsford (breaking up a pass), Preston Ketcherside, Jason Miller and Hardage.

The quarter ended as the KGNC-TV helicopter hovered over the field.

Penalties hurt Farwell's first drive and Williams punted to the Whiteface 18. Nic Ketcherside, Jason Miller, Gonzales and Hardage had tackles, as did Nic Ketcherside. Steve Miller had a QB sack for a 7-yard loss when Whiteface went for it on 4th and 2. Farwell was held. Whiteface scored on an 82-yard run, tying the game at 7-all.

But Preston Ketcherside responded with a 48-yard kickoff return. Jason Miller ran up the gut for 10 yards. With 1:29 left in the second quarter, Hardage caught a 25-yard pass between two defenders and got to the Antelopes 6. Anderson then scored from there. The Miller kick made it 14-7 at the half.

Anderson and Michael Treadway had good tackles for Farwell as the half ended.

There was no scoring in the third period. Good tackles were made by Treadway, Gonzales, Steve Miller, Anderson, and Nic Ketcherside. Hardage had a TD-saving tackle. Steve Miller blocked a field goal attempt.

On offense, Hardage had a 47-yard kickoff return. Anderson had a 26-yard run. Anderson connected with Hardage for an 18-yard pass. But a Farwell field goal try was blocked.

The Steers ran the option well, as Lunsford gained 80 yards on six carries. Meanwhile, Anderson hit 5 passes for 51 yards. Overall, Farwell gained 221 yards; Whiteface, 287.

The Steers scored twice in the final period to break open the game. Lunsford took an option pitch from Anderson and galloped 50 yards for a TD. Later, Anderson tackled an Antelope runner in the end zone following a fake punt for a 2-point safety.

It was a real team effort on defense, as tackles were made by Lunsford, Anderson, Jason Miller, Luke Diaz, Steve Miller, and Hardage. Steve Miller had a big QB sack for a 7-yard loss. Everett, Nic Ketcherside and Gonzales combined for another QB sack. And Anderson deflected a long pass on a 4th down play.

Applications for loans accepted

Applications for emergency farm loans for losses caused by hail, high winds and drought are being accepted at the Rural Economic Development office located in Farwell.

Parmer County is one of four in Texas recently named by Secretary of Agriculture Dan Glickman eligible for loans to cover part of actual production losses resulting from the hail, high winds and drought.

Taylor said farmers may be eligible for loans of up to 80 percent of their actual losses or the operating loan needed to continue in business or $500,000 whichever is less. For farmers unable to obtain credit from private commercial lenders, the interest is 3.75 percent.

"As a general rule, a farmer must have suffered at least a 30 percent loss of production to be eligible for an RECD emergency loan," said Thomas S. Taylor, RECD County Supervisor. Farmers participating in the PIK or Federal Crop Insurance Program will have to figure in proceeds from these programs in determining their loss.

"Applications for loans under this emergency designation will be accepted until 4-24-96, but farmers should apply as soon as possible. Delays in applying could create backlogs in processing and possibly over into the new farming season," said Taylor.

Letter To The Editor

Dear Mike,
 I feel I must respond to the allegations about schools in Parmer County who are supposedly participating in a national Gay and Lesbian History Month in October. As president of the Parmer County Texas State Teachers Association, I would like to dispel this rumor. There will be NO month long celebration, NO classroom and hallway displays, NO films or guest speakers, NO observance of gay and lesbian history!
 Neither TSTA nor the National Education Association have ever planned such an observance.
 NEA did pass a resolution advocating tolerance for the lifestyle choices of others and counseling for gay and lesbian teenagers whose suicide rate is substantially above that of their peers. The resolution called for no action on the part of NEA or its affiliates. The Texas delegation opposed this resolution. Proponents of vouchers and privatization misunderstood the resolution and have attacked our public school system. The resolution was needless because our rights are already clearly stated under the Constitution. Our public schools already observe a tolerance for all people regardless of color, gender, handicap, national origin or marital status.
 I encourage parents and community members to get involved in their public school system. We have a great need for volunteers on committees and in the classrooms. Then they may judge the curriculum and the faculty and staff for themselves.
 Thank you for the opportunity to set the record straight.
 Tina Sides
