I'm finally with the majority!

Folks, I get tired on being in the minority when I voice my views in this column.

Today, I'm going to take a different tactic. I'm going to adopt a view that the vast majority of my fellow Americans have -- to support and back President Clinton!

Yes, we all have seen the polls. About 70 percent of all Americans support the president despite the character assassination being done to him by the news mediums, the Republicans, Hillary Clinton's "right-wing conspiracy," hippies, some Democrats, and other weirdos.

I want to be part of that 70 percent -- so here goes:

It's OKAY to break the law and not be prosecuted. And we need to teach our children this, also.

I've already explained that to my young son.

"Son," I said. "Some day, you can be president, too. Think of all the women you can get!!"

As I wrote in a previous column, it's okay to break the law and not be prosecuted, as long as you put food on the table.

To heck with morals! Let's talk economics here. I completely agree with the vast majority of Americans who feel exactly that way!

If you're a woman, for example, and your husband has affair after affair after affair, you believe it's okay and support his fun -- as long as he brings home his paycheck each week.

Gosh, it's great to be part of the majority.

I saw an Associated Press article on folks' views of the White House brouhaha in last week's Lubbock newspaper.

One man was quoted as saying, "They're wasting people's money," when asked about possible impeachment proceedings.

Yep, this man is part of the majority and I'm with him. I strongly believe that all financial aspects need to be looked at before any criminal is brought to justice.

For example, if a trial will cost a lot of money for a serial killer -- then I say, let the man go free!

Right? If you are part of the American majority, you will undoubtedly agree.

Another person quoted by the AP in that article responded, "We have a lot of other things to worry about."

I couldn't agree more. Why, I noticed a pothole in the street the other day! That ought to take precedence.

Another woman said in the article, "A lot of this stuff is his own personal business that was unnecessarily brought to our attention."

Absolutely right. The public has no business of being told about obstruction of justice, etc.

Like George Orwell clearly pointed out, we are all equal but some of us are more equal than others.

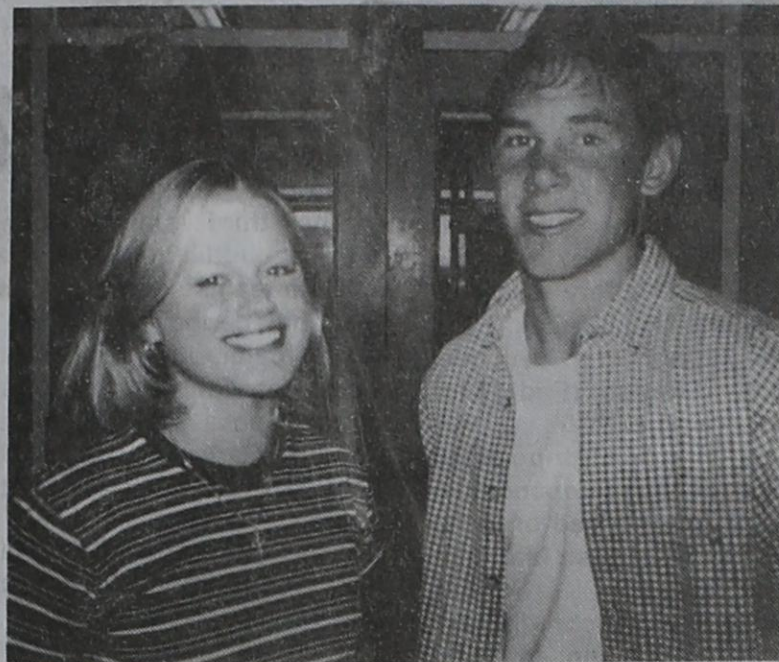

If a man is president, he should be above the law.

And what Mr. Clinton is accused of isn't murder, for gosh sakes. Rather, it's sort of like sexual harassment to the highest degree.

County commissioners grant Excel tax relief

The Parmer County Commissioners on Monday granted a tax abatement for Excel Corporation, of Friona.

The tax abatement schedule approved last year by the commissioners calls for:

First year, 100%; second year, 100%; third year, 100%; 4th year, 50%, and fifth year, 25%.

Excel is planning a $407,000 improvement project. Basically, Excel is buying land for water well purposes.

To be considered for an abatement by Parmer County, a project must have a capital investment of no less than $300,000 and/or create no less than five new permanent, full-time jobs.

In other business, the commissioners:

-- Unanimously approved the new tax rate. No one from the community appeared.

-- Approved a bid for a centralized optical scan ballot tabulation system for the Parmer County clerk's office. This will help speed up election results.

-- Bought two new vehicles for the county sheriff's office from John Chandler Ford, of Amarillo.

Doyle Weir wins 2nd football tilt

It was a tougher week for Area Merchants Football Contest entrants as no participant last week could get more than 10 games picked correctly.

That feat was accomplished by 11 participants.

By virtue of being closest to the tie breaker (Texico 22, Loving 20), the winner of the $15 cash prize was Doyle Weir, of Lazbuddie.

He was 6 off the tie breaker.

Winning the second place cash prize of $7.50 was Walt Via, also of Lazbuddie. He was 7 off the tie breaker.

Others with 10 right and their totals off the tie breaker were:

Texico Junior High 5th period driver's ed class, 21; Texico Junior High 2nd period history class, 14; Tori Meeks, 26; Glynnna Martin, 28; T.J. Kirtrell, 9; Tim Kasel, 16; Robin Gregory, 22; Steve Franse, 21, and Scott Brown, 27.

With 9 right were:

Steve Aikens, Sally Anderson, Greg Atkinson, Vicki Bowery, Scottie Brown, Jeromie Chandler, Lesley Curtis, Steve Foster, Larry Gregory, Darren Haseloff, Dardanella Helton, Hal Helton.

Also, Aimee Herrera, Weldon Killough, Roy King, Clyde McDonald, Marci Spearman, Greg Taylor, Sheryl Taylor, Brent Terry, Lois Thornton, Leigh Ann Woods and Gret van Santen.

Results of last week's games were:

Whiteface over Bovina; Plainview over Clovis; Sundown over Springlake-Earth; Oklahoma over TCU; Missouri over Kansas; UCLA over Texas; Syracuse over Michigan; Denver over Dallas; San Diego over Tennessee; Atlanta over Philadelphia; Jacksonville over Kansas City, and Miami over Buffalo.

Starting in next week's issue of the Tribune, we will be publishing the "Leader Board" to show who the front runners are in the chase for the Dallas Cowboys ticket package.

Rules for the contest are the same as in the past. A person must be at least 12 years of age to enter.

And folks who didn't enter the first week of the contest still can enter any time they wish -- weekly prizes are given.

Each entrant must remember to pick a tie breaker score since many weekly winners -- and some overall grand prize winners -- have been determined by that method.

Each week's scoring is tabulated and kept on public view at the Tribune office. Standings are posted each Monday and may be seen during regular business hours.

Ballots are kept throughout the length of the contest so that any participant with a Cowboys -- Philadelphia Eagles game at Texas Stadium on Dec. 20, plus $50 in cash, overnight lodging at the Raddisson Hotel and other goodies.

The overall winner of the 12-week contest wins a pair of free tickets to the Dallas

Armstrong, Galvan plead guilty in Prather shooting

Two men have pled guilty in the shooting death last December of Texico businessman Red Prather.

Curry County D.A. Randy Harris announced on Sept. 11 that Billy J. Galvan, 18, of Farwell, and Ronald Armstrong, 19, of Farwell, have pled guilty to second-degree felony charges -- accessory to armed robbery.

Armstrong also pled guilty to conspiracy to armed robbery, a third degree felony, said Harris.

Also charged in the shooting is Michael Treadway, 18, of Farwell. He will be tried in a month-long trial March 29, 1999, to April 30, 1999. He was inducted on charges of first degree murder, armed robbery and conspiracy.

Galvan appeared before Judge David Bonem in Clovis on Monday.

Bonem sent Galvan to the state correctional institution at Grants, N.M., for up to 60 days of diagnostic evaluation.

County officials view Clinton brouhaha

In light of the Starr report on the activities of President Clinton, the Tribune interviewed Parmer County officials to get their views. Here's what they had to say:

Parmer County Judge Bonnie Clayton, a Democrat, and Parmer County Commissioner Johnny Tannahill, a Republican (Friona area) -- "He should resign."

Parmer County Commissioner Raymond McGehee, a Democrat (Lazbuddie area) and Parmer County Commissioner Jerry Davis, a Republican (Farwell area) -- "He should resign; if not, be impeached."

Parmer County Commissioner Tom Ware, a Democrat (Bovina area); Parmer County Clerk Bonnie Warren, a Democrat; and 287th District Clerk Sandra Warren, a Republican -- "He ought to stay in office. What we will get (Vice President Al Gore) is worse than what we got now."

Parmer County Tax Assessor-Collector Doris Herington, a Democrat -- "I have no opinion. I don't keep up with it that much."

Parmer County Treasurer Anne Norton, a Democrat -- "I don't know all the circumstances of the case and have no opinion. Our representatives will study it and come up with a correct answer for the situation."

Parmer County Sheriff Walt Yerger, a Republican -- "After reading the Starr Report, I think Mr. Clinton ought to be brought to trial like anyone else. Ours is a country of laws, not men."

Banter

And if you are not the victim, it's okay. The key here is not to be the victim. If you are the victim, your life can be destroyed.

Minor problem.
For all the reasons the vast majority of Americans support Mr. Clinton, is why I totally supported Mr. Nixon during Watergate.

Heck, it was just a cover-

Pleas

After that report is completed, Bonem will announce the sentencing.

Galvan was a juvenile (17), according to state law, when the shooting occurred. Bonem has the choice of sentencing Galvan as a juvenile or as an adult.

Harris said the state will urge Bonem to sentence Galvan as an adult.

Armstrong's disposition hearing will be held before Judge Stephen Quinn on Oct. 19. He was released on $100,000 bail last December.

Treadway is being held without bond in the Curry County Adult Detention Center. The state is seeking the death penalty against him.

up. All he did was lie to the American people, and have his aides lie, too.

Hhhmm ... that sounds familiar.

It's time for the Silent Majority to band together again, and let our voice be heard loudly through the Halls of Congress.

We need to write our congressmen and tell them to forget about the legal process that must be followed when allegations of misconduct are raised.

Misconduct is okay....

From Teresa Mesman:

I had the opportunity this week to be part of a conference call with Congressman Larry Combest. I was on the line with at least nine other Panhandle area newspaper reporters and editors. As you can imagine, the call focused on the events happening in Washington with President Clinton and the recent release of the "Starr Report."

After talking to these newspaper representatives and what the "town talk" was in their respective areas about the course of action Congress should take concerning Clinton's future, I'm curious as to what the consensus is among Tribune readers.

We're not asking for names or long explanations for your opinion, just a simple answer to the following question:

"Resignation, Impeachment or Forgive & Forget: which do you favor as an American citizen?"

Call the Tribune office at 481-3681 from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. to cast your vote. We'll let you know what the results are next week.

You don't have to give your name, and if the answering machine is on, just leave your vote.

Also, look for my article on the conference call in this issue. I'll think you'll find it interesting if for nothing else at how history is in the making and is being affected by each and every detail of the situation.

No weevils here

Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., reports that cotton across the Texas High Plains is, for the most part, weevil safe as bolls harden off and the crop moves toward maturity.

However, boll weevils continue to appear in much higher numbers in traps and in fields as their fall migration continues.

The only counties in which a weevil presence remains negligible are Deaf Smith, Parmer and Castro.

In-season numbers across the rest of the Plains have been suppressed because of the hot, dry conditions but as fall approaches, weevil catches are running even higher than last year in many cases.

Longhorns trample Meadow by 33 points

It's only two games into the season and the Lazbuddie Longhorns are already threatening to post huge offensive totals for the year.

Last Friday, the 'Horns wiped out the Meadow Bronco, 63-30.

The previous week, Lazbuddie drowned New Home, 70-22.

That gives the Longhorns a total of 133 points after just two games!

While Adam St. Clair scored 5 TDs a week ago, this time it was Jeffery Seaton's turn -- he tallied 6.

The Longhorns welcome Southland tonight (Friday) for Homecoming at 7:30.

The high-powered Lazbuddie offense opened the game with a 6-0 lead on a 16-yard pass from Josh Morris to Jeffery Seaton.

Seaton then scored again on a 2-yard TD run, followed by a Seth Black kick, to boost the score to 13-0.

After Meadow tallied, Lazbuddie answered with three straight touchdowns -- on a 7-yard run by Seaton, a 44-yard run by Seaton, and an 8-yard run by Adam St. Clair.

Extra points were added on a Black kick, and a pass from Jason Jesko to Bobby Martha.

Meadow scored on a 50-yard run before halftime, and the teams went into the locker rooms with Lazbuddie comfortably ahead, 35-12.

The third quarter opened with more of the same. Seaton scored on a 31-yard run, followed by an extra point pass from Black to Seaton.

After Meadow scored, Lazbuddie responded on a 1-yard TD plunge by Seaton, followed by a Black kick.

The third stanza ended with Lazbuddie up, 50-18.

Both teams scored twice in the final period. Lazbuddie's scores came on a 58-yard run by Seaton, followed by a conversion pass from Black to Landon Parham, and a 25-yard TD pass from Morris to Seaton.

Coach Scisson again was happy with his team's overall play.

He said Meadow was the biggest team Lazbuddie had ever played and was very physical.

Again, while the offense was in full blast, the Longhorn defense is still young

Longhorn of the Week

Coach Scisson named Jeffery Seaton as his Longhorn of the Week for his play against Meadow. He scored six touchdowns.

and learning. Meadow gained 279 yards although Lazbuddie recovered 3 fumbles and had 3 interceptions.

Seaton had one intercept while Brandon Foster had two.

Meadow keyed on running back Adam St. Clair so Scisson adjusted -- and had Seaton carry the ball a bunch of times.

Seaton, a fullback, runs a lot of quick trap plays and dive plays.

One downer for the Longhorns was an injury to Cade Morris, who broke his nose and suffered a slight concussion. He will be out of action for a couple of weeks.

Letter To The Editor

Dear Mike,
I'd like folks to know about the great work that has been done for Parmer County Precinct 4 for keeping our cemetery in Lazbuddie looking so nice all the time.

The men mow and edge everything and make sure that everything looks nice when we have a funeral.

The men I would like to thank are Jerry Weaver, Earl Mata, Juan Salazar and Joe Bullock. Our county commissioner is Raymond McGehee.

On behalf of the Lazbuddie community, we'd like to say "thank you!"

Shirley Steinbock

Dear Mr. Pomper,

This letter is written with mixed emotions. I will hasten to explain:

Many years ago, during the 1960s, before Dr. Russell retired as a veterinarian in Clovis, I was designated the sole unofficial Humane Society for this area.

There were many small animals that needed shots. Some needed to be put to sleep because of being hit by a car or an advanced illness.

The expense for this I paid personally, along with the cost for their food and care. In order to find homes for some of these abandoned, stray animals, I paid to have them spayed or neutered.

All of this I did with love and best wishes for both pet and owner.

This humane work I did soon became common knowledge in our community. Local citizens started dropping their animals off at my home when they were ill, thereby infecting the healthy animals I cared for.

I cared for and did as my heart told me was the humane thing to do, even in the face of derisive snickers. My own family and friends, including my dear husband, thought that I was crazy to care for these poor forgotten creatures.

All these years, I thought I was doing the community a service. Many of the cats I healed found homes with local farmers to help with their vermin problems or as pets with numerous families. Most of my neighbors were grateful that we did not have a problem with rats or other vermin because the cats I have cared for kept their numbers in check.

"The Cat Lady of Texico" this week has taken down her sign. I have been served a citation for being in violation of Ordinance No. 268, Texico's pet ownership ordinance.

I was not aware this ordinance had been passed into law in 1995. With the new hiring of an animal control officer, Texico is now implementing that ordinance.

As the adage goes, You cannot fight City Hall, but you can write a Letter to the Editor.

Because of my age (72), financial restraints and the town's ordinance, caring for these animals is something I will no longer be able to do.

Please stop leaving your unwanted animals at my home on Turner Street.

Texico now has a very able animal control officer that will assist you should you find that you are not able to care for your pets. Please call City Hall and let them help you.

Good luck to everyone and their pets. God bless.

St. John's steeple to be dedicated

St. John Lutheran Church will host an outdoor steeple dedication service Sunday at 9:30 a.m.

The service will feature music and hymn singing and a worship service of dedication for the new steeple.

The steeple was given to the church in memory of Lauren Paige Ratke, infant daughter of Mike and Donna Ratke of Farwell. A memorial fund was set up in her name upon her death in October 1994. The steeple was purchased with the contributions to the memorial fund and was brought up recently from the manufacturing plant in Jacksonville, Texas.

The service of dedication will emphasize the aspects of the empty cross and the importance of Christ's victory over death.

The steeple was manufactured by Superior Fiberglass in Jacksonville, Texas, a leading designer, manufacturer and outfitter of church steeples and accoutrements across the nation. The process of making a steeple ranges from a very simple procedure to months of intricate, detail work.

"Sometimes the most simple of designs makes the most impression," said a company representative. "It gives us great satisfaction to see the final pictures of one of our steeples adorning the top of it's new home church!"

Rev. Dick Greenthaner, pastor of St. John Lutheran Church of Lariat, is thrilled to be taking part in the outdoor service and dedication. "This time of year, with the corn harvest and approaching fall season bring much fulfillment to the people of this area. I can think of no better way to give praise to God for His gifts to us than to stand before a shining new steeple and sing "Lift High The Cross!" and other old fashioned hymns of praise and thanksgiving," said Pastor Greenthaner.

Chairs will be set up for the service on the east grounds of the church. A time of fellowship and refreshments will immediately follow the service. Everyone in the area is invited to attend this special service and to stay for Sunday School following the time of fellowship.

For more information, please contact the church at 825-2409.

STEED-TODD

FUNERAL HOME

"When Understanding Is Needed Most"

Prince & Manana - Clovis

Ph. 763-5541

happy (feliz) to have me in their home and I am gracious that they have taken me into their home.

Many things are different than at home. They don't have hot water heaters in their homes so the bath and shower water is very cold (frio)! The shower has a small machine that heats the water as it comes out of the shower head. The bath has jets that shoot out water. The water can be heated by flipping a switch. The jets then begin to take in the cold water, heats it and shoots it back out. Just the other day I waited two hours for a steaming hot bath.

We also don't have air conditioning. It is already hot here and heat it is just the beginning of spring. They told me that during the summer it is even hotter, but it rains a lot. Anyway, during the day, our air conditioning is God and the small breezes He blesses us with, by blowing it through the open windows and doors.

This small city is still living in the past. They refuse to believe in the new technology that has taken over the world. Computers are hard to find and horses still pull carriages around. This primitive village makes me miss what I have at home and also makes me realize what Farwell is missing. Because the town has cut itself off from the world around it, there are no major problems such as violence, rape, robbing, gangs and stealing.

Food is also very different. They eat pizza with french fries like we do with hamburgers. They also eat french fries with a toothpick or fork, never using their hands. They have a kind of salad called "mayonase"; it is kind of like our potato salad with eggs and potatoes, but it also has carrots. I ate some pizza with shredded chicken and corn on it. Surprisingly, it was very good. I told them I was going to make them American pizza and they were very excited.

They also have a drink here that I like very much. It tastes much like ginger ale but it has more of a fruity taste. It is called "Guanara."

Well, I better run! I love you and miss you very much. Tell everyone I said hello or ola!

Steers crush Crosbyton to go 2-0

The Farwell Steers went 2-0 on the season with a 48-6 romp over the Crosbyton Chiefs at home last Friday.

Farwell hosts Nazareth tonight (Friday) at 7:30 in another non-district game.

Crosbyton was reported to have entered the game riding a losing streak close to 30 games. They gave it a try much of the first half, before self-destructing. The last 3 1/2 minutes of the first half gave the game to Farwell.

The game saw many fumbles, and dropping the ball probably was the one negative factor to Farwell's game.

Farwell got to give good playing time to their backup players. Two starters didn't suit up due to injuries - Brett Curtis and Derek Goettsch.

The game opened with a short kick by the Chiefs with Grant Oppliger returning it to the Steers' 37. Farwell was held and its punt blocked, giving the Chiefs the ball on the Steers' 28. On 4th and 1, Crosbyton ran around end for a 19-yard TD at 7:22. The pass for extra points failed and Crosbyton led, 6-0.

On their first play from scrimmage following the ensuing kickoff, Tyler Chadwick, on a keeper, raced 63 yards to tie the score. The Farwell kick failed and it was 6-6.

Michael Ancira made a great tackle of the kick receiver for no gain at the Chiefs' 23. When the Chiefs punted on 4th down, a roughing the kicker penalty against Farwell was called.

On defense, Kyle Kimbrough had a good tackle. When Ryan Roberts and Clint Corn put pressure on the QB, Chadwick intercepted at the Farwell 20.

Tobe Diaz took a swing pass for 22 yards, then ran for 8 more as the first quarter ended. Farwell lost a fumble and the Chiefs returned it to the Crosbyton 43. Jason Crawford and Roberts combined for a QB sack and a 7-yard loss. Diaz had a good tackle and the Chiefs punted to the Farwell 4.

After a first down was gained by runs from Diaz and Ancir, Spencer Ketcherside broke loose around end for 52 yards. A pass from Chadwick to Roberts gained 26 yards and put the ball on the Chiefs' 4. But Farwell lost another fumble.

Immediately after, though, Oppliger recovered a Chiefs' fumble at the 11. Ketcherside then ran around end for an 11-yard TD at 3:31. A pass from Chadwick to Roberts for the extra points put Farwell ahead, 14-6.

Corn kicked into the end zone. On the next play, Corn recovered a fumble at the Chiefs' 15. With 2:12 left in the half, Chadwick scored on a 15-yard run. The kick was blocked and Farwell led, 20-6.

On defense, Farwell showed excellent team tackling throughout the game. Ruben Marquez had a strong tackle. The Chiefs' punter was gang tackled at his own 4.

With 32 seconds left, Diaz bulled over from the 4 behind the blocking of Marcos Cantu and Marquez. The Corn kick made it 27-6.

Paul Franse tackled the kick returner. Then Corn recovered a fumble at the Chiefs' 22. Diaz ran for 21, then scored from the 1 with 8 seconds left. The Corn kick made it 34-6 as Farwell blew open the game in the last few minutes of the half.

The third quarter opened on an interesting note. Farwell kicked off and Oppliger was able to pick up the kick after a couple of high bounces, then raced into the end zone. But UIL rules say a fumble cannot be advanced on a punt or kickoff, so the ball was put on the Chiefs' 16.

Ancira rumbled for 12, then for the 4-yard TD. The Corn kick made it 41-7 at 11:30.

On defense, J.R. Rodriguez and Ketcherside had good tackles as Crosbyton punted. Farwell was held and punted, with Clint Patterson tackling the returner. Demesio Mendoza broke up a pass, and Chadwick and Brandon Lunsford had good tackles.

In the 4th period, Corn knocked down a 4th down pass at the Farwell 26. The Steers moved the ball on the ground behind the running of Rodriguez and Ancira. Farwell lost a fumble at the Chiefs' 29. Ketcherside then recovered a Chiefs' fumble near midfield.

Ancira ran for gains of 7, 10 and 5 yards, before Diaz hit pay dirt on a 38-yard scamper. The Corn kick made it 48-6 with 3:36 left in the game.

On defense, Franse had a QB pressure, Rodriguez had a strong tackle and Roberts had a QB sack on 4th down.

Team stats were: first downs - Farwell 23, Crosbyton, 12; rushing -- Farwell, 31 for 319 yards, Crosbyton, 25 for 84; passing -- Farwell 62 yards, Crosbyton 73; penalties - Farwell 8 for 65 yards, Crosbyton 4 for 20; punting - Farwell 2 for 27 yard average, Crosbyton, 3 for 19 yard average. Farwell lost 3 of 5 fumbles; Crosbyton, 4 of 8.

Individual stats were: rushing -- Diaz, 22 for 152 yards; Ketcherside, 9 for 63; Chadwick, 10 for 90, and Ancira, 22 for 119; passing -- Chadwick, 9 for 18 and 126 yards; receiving -- Ketcherside, 1 for 5; Diaz, 2 for 34; Roberts, 3 for 55; Corn, 2 for 16, and Ancira, 1 for 15; scoring - Diaz, 4 TDs; Ketcherside, 1 TD; Chadwick, 2 TDs; Ancira, 1 TD; Roberts, 2-point conversion; and Corn, 5 kicks for extra points.

Corn plays in Switzerland

Farwell High School graduate Clay Corn is now in Gstaad, Switzerland, playing in an European Country Music Fest.

He is backing up Capitol recording artist Brady Seals.

A segment about the Brady Seals tour will appear on TNN Thursday night. A film crew from The Nashville Network - TNN shot some footage during the tour and Clay just might show up in a clip or two.

Clay's sister Charla Corn is now a student at South Plains College in Levelland. She is very excited to now be a part of the singing group "Thursday Night Live."

The group puts on a performance the first Thursday of each month at Tom T. Hall in the Commercial Music Building at the college.

Acteens attend convention

Several members of the First Baptist Church of Farwell attended the National Acteens Convention in July in Louisville, Ky.

They were Jessica Chandler, Lisa Herington, Michele Littlejohn, Jessica Lusk, Cassandra Smallwood, Nicole Stout, Cassie Street and Brandi Taylor.

The convention is held every four or five years for Acteen members. Nearly 11,000 attended.

Acteens is the missions organization for young ladies in grades 7-12. In Farwell, Acteens meet each Wednesday at 6 p.m. at the church.

Any girls interested in joining are welcome. For more information, call the church of Cassandra Smallwood, Director of Acteens, at 825-2631.

Combest says President Clinton is not above the law

by Teresa Mesman

The situation that President Bill Clinton finds himself in these days is not one that he can take lightly. Nor is it one that will just go away after a week's worth of highly publicized public apologies.

The fact is, the entire set of events that were set in motion upon the delivery of the now famous Starr report, is history in the making and will be the new chapters in history books.

Congressman Larry Combest perhaps summed it up perfectly when he stated, "No matter what happens to Clinton from this point on, legal and political precedents will be set and history is now affected."

Combest coordinated a lengthy conference call with a whole group of newspaper editors and reporters from his constituency in the Texas Panhandle on Monday. He wanted the newspapers to know his viewpoint on the entire matter and, he wants to assure Texas Panhandle residents that he is among the majority of Congressmen that are ready to get to work on the issues that immediately affect our areas - farm issues and the other topics on the agenda.

But this issue with the President is not one that Combest is willing to put off. He is totally in favor of advancing to the hearing process.

"Obviously, this is not a situation that a Congressman looks forward to," Combest said. "The issues and answers to the many aspects of resolving these issues with the President concern those of us in Congress and the House of Representatives a great deal. I am very impressed with the manners and degrees of professionalism that my colleagues and associates have been handling these events and issues. It could have turned into a cat fight very quickly, but the truth is now out and we're all dealing with it in a very professional manner. We will also do our very best to serve the American people in the resolution of the situation."

Combest said the process established is this: the judiciary committee has the entire report published with Kenneth Starr's findings and all of the supplemental evidence. The committee will read the entire report and will then have two choices to make.

The first choice is to ask themselves how much more of the report can be released without hurting innocent people? The second choice is to determine whether or not there are legitimate reasons to advance to the hearing process.

"I personally see no way that a hearing can be avoided in this situation," Combest stated. "There are too many unanswered questions brought forward by the report thus far and the only way to fairly bring forth each charge against the President is in a hearing."

Combest also feels that moving forward as expeditiously as possible is in the best interest of the nation.

"This matter is taking far too much emphasis away from the other important issues facing the nation," he stated.

Combest is among the congressmen wanting to see the hearing process begin in about two weeks time.

The core of this entire matter has now become a question of resignation vs. impeachment, and it is now a total "political" proceeding. The "illegalities" of the President's actions have been established in the final findings and the case now moves into the political arena on how to officially handle the situation.

"The Starr report proves with strong grounds that the President committed perjury," Combest stated. "The perjury offense also includes all the peripheral people around the President because they are all involved as well."

When questioned about the President's ability to maintain office, Combest adamantly stated his feelings:

"I feel that the President's ability to govern, with any credibility is greatly impaired," he replied. "He's put our entire legal and political system in jeopardy by his actions and lack thereof. What happens to the legal precedents that have been established in cases of rape, sexual harassment and other similar cases if he happens to "get away with this"? We'll be sending a message to every woman involved in these circumstances that she no longer has a legal avenue to pursue."

In order to impeach the President, Combest admits that President Clinton must have his day in court. He also feels (as did many of the reporters on the call) that there are way too many lawyers looking into this report. The fear of many on Capitol Hill and throughout the nation is that somehow "Slick Willie," as some put it, will once again manage to slip through the noose.

"Clinton is our chief law enforcement officer in this country. He is not above the law! The ironic thing about this whole mess is that he did it to himself; he did it on his own and he is accountable for every one of his actions, misdeeds, lies and the cover-up he orchestrated," Combest said.

One of the most worrisome issues that has been brought forth by all the attention placed on the "Clinton Crisis" is that of the problems arising in the overseas and foreign affairs that the U.S. have been addressing.

Combest feels that it is a distinct possibility that some, who are so inclined, may take advantage of a "wounded commander-in-chief." He also finds it a little too coincidental that the United Nations chief ground inspector, Scott Ritter, resigned his post, while in the midst of the most aggressive biological and chemical warfare search in history.

"Ritter was so glad that the U.N. and the U.S. were moving forward aggressively in their search and they were so close to squelching problems in Iraq," Combest said. "Then one day, Butler, the head of the U.N. inspection team, receives word to not go into sites that are known terrorist or hot spots for biological and chemical weapons. This was right around the finalizing of the Starr Report. I don't blame Ritter for throwing his hands up and feeling like the U.S. is now turning their heads. And why? Because he needs all the help he can get right here at home to figure out a strategy to beat the odds?"

This is just one example of the focus being taken away from the important business of running the nation.

Combest was asked about what would happen if Clinton resigns or is impeached? What about Al Gore stepping into the presidency?

"Al Gore is even more liberal than Clinton, so we know what the agenda would most likely become with him at the helm," Combest stated. "The terms of Gore as President are also constitutionally outlined as follows: If Gore takes office prior to Jan. 20, 1999, he cannot run for a second term. He can run for "election" for only one term as President. If he were to win, he cannot run for "re-election."

The other aspect of concern for the standing Congress is what happens if nothing has been resolved by the Congressional recess in October.

"The Judiciary Committee will still be convened and by Constitutional order, they will have to finish their investigation," Combest reported. "It is very possible, however, that a new Congress could take on the impeachment decision in the new year. Over 40% of the Congressional seats are up for election or re-election."

Because of this fact, "censure" is being discussed as a last resort to work through the situation.

"The President cannot apologize for committing perjury," Combest stated. "He did it on his own volition; he knew what he was doing. His apologies are mere words at this point. However, I cannot stand in judgment of him...only God can. I am part of the majority party that feels that the situation is being handled properly and both factions, Democrats and Republicans, have uniformly agreed upon the course of actions. If there was ever a time to set down our "Party" affiliations and do what was best as Americans and for Americans, it is now."

Combest also wants to warn his constituents to not believe everything the television news media reports about this issue. Many things have been misconstrued, misquoted and blown out of proportion. In fact, there have been several topics brought forth on the world news broadcast that have absolutely nothing to do with the circumstances of the Presidential issue.

"All I can say to you out there is to stay strong, keep informed and most of all, pray for those that will be involved in this historical decision. Pray for guidance and for the right things to be done in the meantime," Combest said.

Meeting the famous cheerleaders

Some Farwell elementary students had the chance to visit with some Dallas Cowboys cheerleaders at a grand opening of a pipe company in Clovis on Sept. 11. Pictured with the cheerleaders are, from left, Alexa Grissom, Tiffani Jones, Lianna Grissom and Dellani Jones.

Recipe of Week

NO BAKE BARBECUE BEANS

Prep time: 10 minutes
Cooking time: 25 minutes
3 slices OSCAR MAYER Center Cut Bacon, chopped
1 medium onion, chopped
2 cans (16 oz. each) baked beans, drained
3/4 cup KRAFT Original

Barbecue Sauce or KRAFT THICK 'N SPICY Original Barbecue Sauce
2 Tbsp. brown sugar
COOK bacon in large saucepan until crisp; drain. Add onion; cook and stir until tender.
STIR in beans, barbecue sauce and brown sugar. Cook on low heat for 15 minutes. Makes 4 cups or 8 servings.
For a filet with flair, try adding garlic and onions to your steak for a taste that really sizzles.

The Latest

If you've had trouble calling the number to the new flower shop in Farwell, it is due to some major mix-ups at the area phone companies.

The number to Pansies, Posies, Potpourri is 481-7776 and it is a listed number.

Several area residents have had trouble getting the listing from directory assistance. The number and address are listed in the new ENMR - Names and Numbers Phonebook in the orange section.

The business is not listed in the current U.S. West phonebook due to the opening date of the business.

If you call U.S. West directory assistance and simply ask for the "flower shop," you will get a recording for a disconnected number. This is due to how the other florist - Mary Gustin, had the business listed in the white pages of the U.S. West phonebook under "flower shop." This business is no longer open and the number is disconnected.

Only 1 trucker attends hearing

The Farwell City Council on Tuesday held a special hearing to discuss truck traffic in the city. Only one trucker attended -- Gene Christian.

It was reported that Fred Chandler, manager of the Sherley-Anderson-Pitman grain elevator, and Bill Prince, who runs the Farwell Grain Exchange, proposed that trucks come down Second Street to the exchange to improve the situation.

There was a detailed discussion on whether to ban trucks, to allow some to have permits to drive in town, and other legal questions. For example, what about truckers needing to go to the county courthouse? Mayor Jimmie Mace will look into an ordinance to improve this problem.

Christian noted that he parks his truck in front of his house sometimes.

It was noted that Friona has a ban on trucks in town. In other business, the council:

- Approved the annual audit.
- Accepted a bid from Morton Construction for $195,780 to build the new 200,000-gallon water tank.
- Discussed "putting more teeth" into the city building

Curtis scores against Marshall

Farwell Junior High went up against two much bigger Clovis Marshall teams last week.

The 7th grade Steers lost, 14-0. The Steers played good defense against a formidable offense.

Playing really well for the Steers were Trevor Thurman, who played very good defense, and Grant Gregory and Trevor Thurman, who made some good downfield tackles.

The 8th grade Steers fell to Marshall, 33-6. The team played with a lot of price against a much bigger for, said the coach.

In the 4th quarter, Lonnie McFarland threw a 17-yard TD pass to Josh Curtis.

Those who played exceptionally well were Gaby Garcia, Juan Sanchez and Zac Schilling. Garcia made some big hits and had a good kick-off return. Schilling did a good job punting. Sanchez kicked well, too. All three played on both sides of the ball.

Work, play party set permit ordinance. In other words, penalties would be stiffened for folks moving structures into the city without a permit.

-- Heard TCA Cable TV Manager Gordon Smith explain that court decisions allow a city to add a small tax (it would have amounted to about $10 a month for the city, he said) atop the city's cable TV franchise tax. He recommended the city not do it, and the council agreed.

-- Scheduled a special meeting next week to formally approve the proposed tax rate.

-- Heard Mace give the go-ahead to Farwell Police Chief Roy McGaa to issue citations to Texas residents who have New Mexico license plates on their vehicles, but who live outside the city limits. One of the councilmen complained that some folks just outside of town have New Mexico plates on their vehicles.

-- Heard councilman Jerry Stover express his concern about the future of water in our area. Mace put him in charge of a committee to check into it.

-- Heard Aloha Fulcher, head of the city volunteer EMS ambulance group, report on their efforts to get organized. They are checking into billing services and working on a rate schedule to charge folks. She said it would be announced in the Tribune before going into effect.

Wolverines nip Loving

by Greg Qualls

The Texico Wolverines defeated Loving, 22-20, last Friday to even their season record at 1-1. Texico will play Sept. 17 against the Clovis JV at 7:30 p.m. at home.

The game started off with Loving receiving the kickoff. A few plays later, a pass from the Falcon's quarterback gave Loving a first down. Their happiness was quickly taken away, when Phil Peabody recovered a fumble. That gave Texico their first possession on the 50 yard line.

A few plays later, a hand-off to Shay Norvell gave Texico a first down on the 30 when he ran for 10 yards. Then, a 19 yard pass from Norvell to Josh Boazman put Texico on the scoreboard at 8:33. Boazman's extra point kick made it 7-0.

After a penalty and some stopped plays by the Wolverine defense, Loving punted to midfield. Two plays later, Texico fumbled and the Falcons recovered it on Texico's 45 yard line.

The next play, Loving's quarterback circled out for the pass, but he was stopped dead in his tracks by two of Texico's defensive players. As he went down, he fumbled and David Scioli picked up the ball, and ran for an additional 23 yards. This put Texico on Loving's 30 yard line.

Four downs later, Loving received the turnover. A few plays later, a potential TD run by the Falcon's quarterback was stopped by Albert Esparaza on Texico's 30 yard line.

Three plays later, a hand-off from Loving's quarterback to Keith Lujan was good for a 23-yard score. The two point conversion attempt failed and the score was 7-6.

The second quarter started with Texico on its own 30. Failure to get the first down resulted in Loving getting the ball.

The next play, Loving's QB tried to sneak around the side of the defensive line, but Boazman stopped him before he even had a chance for a two-yard loss.

As the 2nd period began, Texico drove upfield 62 yards to the Loving 14. Then Trey Sprinkle ran the rest of the way in for another Wolverine TD. The extra point kick by Boazman was good and the score was 14-6.

That's how the scoring ended in the first half.

At the beginning of the third quarter, a hand-off to Eric Stanley gave Texico a first down when he ran for 11 yards. This play started the Wolverines TD drive with the final 10 yard run by Eric Stanley for score. Ryan Autrey sneaked by the Falcons' defense for a 2-point conversion, making the score 22-6 with 5:37 on the clock.

A 20 yard pass to put Loving in scoring range at the Texico 4. The Wolverine's defensive line stopped the first play but A. Loving scored on the next. A two-point conversion run closed the gap to 22-14.

Later on in the third, a pass to Alex Gutierrez gave Loving their third and final TD. Loving went for the tie -- but the two point conversion pass attempt failed.

The fourth quarter had some good highlights like: Some nifty runs by Trey Sprinkle, Eric Stanley, and Shay Norvell; some plays stopped by the Wolverine defense; and a beautiful sack by Norvell and Stanley, that had Loving lose 25 yards.

Team stats were: first downs -- Texico 13, Loving 8; rushing, Texico 50 for 216 yards; Loving, 38 for 70; passing, Texico, 3 for 11 and 38 yards; Loving, 5 for 12 and 135 yards; punting, Texico 4 for 39.8 average (Eric Stanley is the punter); Loving, 5 for 22.8 yard average; penalties, Texico, 7 for 65 yards; Loving, 5 for 41.

Farwell School Board changes dress code

The Farwell School Board on Tuesday made a change in its dress code:

- Body piercing will not be allowed.
- Earrings and ear studs for boys will not be allowed.

In other business, the board approved the tax rate at $1.24 1/2.

Sudduth Fields & Co., CPA, was okayed as the school auditor.

Big Lick Award

Coach Lynn gave his Big Lick awards to Eric Stanley, above, for defense; and Shay Norvell, top right, and David Scioli, right, for offense.

Rushing leaders for Texico were: Stanley, 11 for 47; Smith, 9 for 38; Norvell, 4 for 20; Autrey, 10 for 31; and Sprinkle, 16 for 80. Boazman caught 2 passes and Stanley nabbed one.

NATIONAL FARM SAFETY WEEK September 20 -- 26

Three easy steps help prevent 80% of all farm injuries

First -- equip your tractor with a rollover protective structure (ROPS) and seatbelt. You'll reduce the chance of injuries or death in an overturn or rollover.

Second -- install a by-pass start kit on your John Deere tractor to prevent runovers. It's available free from your dealer.

Third -- keep all PTO guards and shields in place to avoid the risk of entanglements.

Come see us for a safety evaluation of your equipment. It will help make this week -- and every week -- a safer time on your farm.
