Tracksters In Gear

Track is getting underway at Muleshoe High School this week.

Coach Tom Duncan is serving his first year as head coach of the track department.

This year's track program is expected to one of the top rank teams in the area. The Mules will be young but are expected to win a lot of meets.

The focus will be on the milers. There are two sophomores who can both run under 5:00 minutes. Scott Ellard comes back on varsity for the second year. Joining him will be a Lazbuddie transfer, Martin Mendoza. Other key points will be the hurdles and relays. The Mule slogan this year is, "Tracking in '81 Mules' Style."

Budget Cuts Likely To Be Well Received

U.S. Rep. Kent Hance of Lubbock openly presented his impressions of President Reagan's administration and its effects on the Muleshoe community to an enthusiastic crowd at the Bailey County Civic Center, Thursday.

"Reagan made a good speech the other night," said Hance and Reagan will get most of his budget cuts. Even if he gets every penny he wants, the budget will still be 35-50 billion above this year's budget."

Reagan is "serious" about these cuts

"Reagan is 'serious' about these cuts," Hance said, "and he wants to slow the momentum down on spending. Everything will get at least a 10 percent cut except defense. Reagan hopes to increase defense spending $36 billion this year and next."

As a member of the House Ways and Means Committee, Hance said, "He and his fellow members will probably approve and get House backing for income tax reductions at least close to the 30 percent cut Reagan is asking over a three-year period. The House is likely to approve something akin to an eight percent reduction each year for three years or perhaps a ten percent cut for 1982 only," he said.

The cuts will come through tax breaks and the first tax break will be given to the average citizen. Individuals will receive a ten percent tax cut for three years and businesses will receive an acceleration of depreciation.

As for a break in the windfall profits tax, the representative said there is little or no chance on the repeal for this year. "Later it might be possible to exclude certain groups like royalty owners," Hance said.

Hance also told his audience he thinks Congress will develop a new farm bill where target pricing for farm products would be eliminated. He said Reagan probably would go along with loan programs where farm products would be taken as collateral, rather than a program which would give money to farmers in target pricing.

He said farmers' home loans probably will be cut back by 20 to 25 percent in the budget cuts.

Revenue producing outlays are expected to be cut less than non-producing outlays such as the food stamp program.

"Reagan will change his campaign ideas on relations with China because last year we sold China three million bales of cotton and it is to our advantage to have good relations," said Hance.

In other areas of foreign relations, Hance feels that the government in Iran will see a change and stabilize in the future and we will be able to work with them.

"Some of our foreign relations will pay off and some will not," he said, adding, "Egypt will be an important relation."

Hance also expressed high interest in Central America. "No matter what Reagan does with this area he will have problems. But I'll back him. Mexico is right for revolution and the worst thing would be to do nothing and let El Salvador fall to Communists."

Hance stated the MX Missile System has less than a five percent chance of being placed in West Texas and is receiving opposition because it may be outdated before it is completed. He pointed out the MX project is still in the

Doom Hears Report On Dope Effects

The effects of marijuana and the teenage addict were the topics of Thursday night's Drugs Out Of Muleshoe meeting.

Dr. Jerry Gregory, the guest speaker, stated he was "pessimistic about drawing drugs and drug users out of the community." He felt one big reason for his attitude is the millions spent each year promoting drugs and drug use in the media.

But Dr. Gregory encouraged the DOOM group to begin supporting such important people as school teachers and law enforcement officers, and to work hard in the home to show young people as much love and concern as possible.

One of the major problems in explaining drug use, said Gregory, is that many people only express the extremes.

"Young people have been told two things. Marijuana is a harmful drug and it is just a weed. They don't know which way to go. They just want someone to be honest with them."

"Much of the evidence on marijuana effects is still out," he said, "but there is enough to show that it is not just a harmless weed." Some evidence of this includes: women who are heavy users are much more likely to have still-born or abortion and young people are more susceptible than adults.

Dr. Gregory stated that the long term effects are not known. "But we do know that there are more users every year, they are younger and they use more of it.

Some of the physical characteristics of users include chronic cough and chest pains and being short of breath after physical tasks. "This is a result of the way it is smoked; the deep inhalation, and holding of the smoke.

The cardiovascular system is also affected. The heart beats faster and the blood pressure rises and one is more prone to heart attack.

Animal studies have also been done which show a likelihood of permanent brain changes with heavy use.

Marijuana also affects on psychologically. "He feels just a little drunk, good, and relaxed," he said.

Dr. Gregory also explained characteristics typical of a user. They become withdrawn, suspicious, and they move away of typical relationships.

He also added that prescription drugs left of the medicine cabinet are a big problem. Parents should know what they have in their cabinets and how many.

Sgt. Wayne Holmes presented a film of actual users and their parents which provided information on typical actions. Holmes also displayed items which had been confiscated in Muleshoe.

"If you do find items similar to these, don't pick them up and look at them, and then call us. You destroy important evidence," he said. "Call us first."

You have no idea how pleasing it is to have people you have known a long time, find it hard to realize this is a "NEW YOU". To have my husband so very pleased and able to carry me with no fear of back injury. I am now able to enjoy my hobbies without being self-conscious of my appearance. My Hobbies are: Western Dancing, Horseback Riding, and Working Outdoors with Flowers. The way I now feel I'm sure I will add others to these. All the rice in China may be going to buy U. S. wheat. When the final figures are in, U. S. D. A. experts who predict that China may "nudge" its way into the top ten U. S. markets for farm goods may have predictably red faces. It seems that China may well end up the third or fourth leading market for U. S. goods, with the October signing of the first grain trade agreement between the U. S. and China adding a tremendous leap to the upward climbing graph. Six to nine million tons of U. S. wheat are part of that bargain with China, which experienced a considerable crop shortfall in 1980 due to dry planting weather and below normal temperatures. That estimate places China's wheat production down 5.5 million tons from its 1979 mark of 60.5 million tons. A government plan for gradual expansion of livestock and poultry production to increase domestic consumption of meats has added additional pressure to China's grain needs. Any move in this direction could mean larger Chinese grain imports in the future.

The right consistency is important for a salad dressing. Here's a good way with Blue cheese. Combine one cup of cottage cheese and 1/2 cup crumbled Blue cheese, beating until smooth. Blend in 1/2 cup milk and one tablespoon of fresh lemon juice. Cover and chill this mixture of 1 2/3 cups and use on lettuce or fresh vegetable salads.

EVEN WITH FOOD COSTS RISING, grocery bills still take a smaller bite out of the average American's paycheck than anywhere else, according to Agriculture Commissioner Reagan V. Brown.

"The latest figures show that U. S. residents spend about 13.6 percent of their average monthly incomes for food, the lowest percentage in the world," said Brown. "In India, it may take almost 60 percent of a family's income just to eat, while in Venezuela the figure is 38 percent, in the Soviet Union it is 34 percent, and in Spain it is over 30 percent."

"This country is blessed with the most abundant, wholesome, high quality food supplies in the world," he added. "We must remember that in many countries, consumers do not have to worry about high food costs - because often there isn't any food available at any price."

WAC Seed Becomes Seed Tec International

WAC Seed, Inc., a forerunner in the commercial production and marketing of hybrid sorghum seed, will begin doing business as SeedTec International, Inc. The name change was announced by Armon Lauderback, vice president and general manager of SeedTec operations, at Hereford.

Incorporated in the fall of 1957, WAC Seed, Inc. took its name from the company's three founders—Chester Wiggains, Wilburn Axe and Troys Carmichael. That same year Mr. Hugh Clearman joined the firm as a partner. Mr. Lauderback joined the firm shortly afterward and eventually became a partner.

During the two decades from the 1957 through 1977 WAS concentrated its effort on production and marketing hybrid grain sorghum and forage sorghum seed.

In 1976, WAC was purchased by Pacific Oilseeds, Inc. of Woodland, California. POI has been a leader in the research, development, and distribution of commercial sunflower hybrids and safflower varieties. During the same year, WAC expanded its operations into the marketing of hybrid seed corn and sunflower seed.

POI changed its name to SeedTec International, Inc. reflecting the firm's expanding role in international production. From its office in Hereford, SeedTec serves growers in Texas, Oklahoma, Kansas, Colorado, and Nebraska.

In addition to its domestic operations, SeedTec has two foreign subsidiaries. Semillas Pacifico S.A. is a major distributor of safflower, sunflower, wheat, and bean seed in Spain. And Saffola Seeds Ltd. has become one of the leading suppliers of safflower, sunflower, corn and sorghum seed in the Republic of South Africa.

HERO Announces Top Employer-Employee

Congratulations to Joyce Shafer and Shelli Hawkins for being selected "Employer/Employee of the Month by Muleshoe HERO Chapter. Joyce Shafer is a certified public accountant. Joyce started bookkeeping and tax service in her home, originally, but as her business prospered, she moved her business to a small building where she could deal with the public away from her home. Withing the past two years, Joyce moved her office to another location for more space.

For the past two years Shelli has worked closely with Mrs. Shafer. While interviewing Mrs. Shafer about the responsibilities of a training station, she made it very clear that school activities and classroom instruction were just as important to her as the student's productivity on the job. Vocational educators appreciate this attitude because it makes it easier to train students if the sponsor and coordinator can work together like this.

Joyce is married to Jim Shafer and they have two sons, Larry and Terry. Mr. Shafer presently serves as a representative on the Muleshoe Independent School District Board of Trustees.

Thanks again, Joyce Shafer, for your support and everything you have contributed to our club and school.

In a few days you may be approached by youngsters asking you to sponsor them in the American Heart Association Jump-a-thon. Perhaps you would like to know how your donations will be used. Funds are allocated as follows: 29 percent for research, 10 percent for professional education, 23 percent for public education, 20 percent for community service, and 18 percent for administration and fund raising.

Last year, Bailey County donations to the American Heart Association represented only 68 cents per person. We hope to exceed that amount during 1981. All fund raising during the year will be done through events such as the Rock-a-

Letters To The Editor

Dear Newspaper Editor:

I am writing to ask you to help me and my school get the armadillo to be the official state mammal of Texas. We think the armadillo would be good because most people like them, they are interesting, they build good homes, and they eat fire ants. They have a tough-hide like a cowboy's boot. Resolution HCR 53 is in Austin now and we need help to get it passed. Would you please ask your readers to write to their Representative and Senator and ask them to vote for it.

If any school kids or teachers want more information, they can write to: Armadillo in '81. Oak Creek Elementary, 3975 Gladeridge, Houston, Texas, 77068, and we will send some things.

thon, Jump-a-thon, and radio sales day. There will be no door-to-door fund raising.

As a member of the Bailey County Heart Association Board of Directors, I am only one of many Heart Association supporters who have had personal experiences with heart disease. Current statistical data indicate that it is likely that each of you or someone you love will someday be affected by heart disease.

Let me share my own experience with you. I had high blood pressure and was overweight from an early age. I received treatment for high blood pressure and was told to lose weight. Half-hearted attempts were unsuccessful. In May, 1979, I suffered a heart attack which resulted from a left ventricular aneurism—an experience which is almost always fatal. After an entire summer of day-to-day fighting for life, I underwent a left ventricular aneurismectomy which was miraculously successful. I am now able to enjoy life and hope to be able to help others.

If you visit a hospital cardiac care unit, you will discover that much of the agony experienced by heart patients and their families could have been prevented. One of the main goals of the American Heart Association is heart disease prevention. This year much emphasis is being placed on youth education programs. Youngsters are being encouraged to begin participation in Heart Association activities early through such activities as the Jump-a-thon contest.

When you read a listing in the obituary column that someone has died following a "brief illness", and that the family requests memorials be made to the American Heart Association, you can be sure that they understand the value of the work done by the Heart Association. There are many of your fellow Bailey County citizens—including myself—who are alive today because of the research and training programs of the American Heart Association.

Don't wait until heart disease strikes you or your family to begin supporting your Heart Association. Your donations now may someday save the life of someone you love.

Sincerely,
Lloyd F. Haire

With energy costs zooming just any center pivot won't do.

The whole equation changes. The few hundred you can save buying a cheaper pivot can be eaten up in the first year by rising energy costs alone. That's why the right match-up of power, pipe sizes and pressure can make all the difference in the world.

At Valleys, we have the latest technology. We'd like to talk to you and show you before you buy any center pivot. Because just any center pivot won't do, especially if rising energy costs are a concern.

Valley dominates the field.

Randy Meisner Founding Member Of Poco

Randy Meisner, a pioneer of the Southern California rock sound as a founding member of Poco, Rick Nelson's Stone Canyon Band, and the Eagles, will appear as the featured soloist with the Beach Boys at Eastern New Mexico University on February 23. Meisner will start off Eastern's 8 p.m. concert in Greyhound Arena. He left the Eagles in 1977 to pursue a solo career and recorded his first solo album in 1978.

The Nebraska-born singer, songwriter, guitarist, bassist points to the lessons he learned from his early career as crucial to the making of "One More Song," his debut Epic LP.

"The first record was a revelation," Meisner said. "I had to do a lot of things I'd never encountered before, like come up with a full album's worth of songs, sing all the leads, and put together my own band. I've come to see how important a learning experience it was. In some ways, you could say 'One

More Song' wouldn't have happened without that first album."

Following the first album and a brief club tour, Meisner spent 18 months of uncertainty and soul-searching and returned to Los Angeles from his Nebraska home as a stronger, more confident, and involved artist.

Meisner then teamed with Val Garay and Eric Kaz. Garay, a highly reputed engineer with a string of platinum albums by Linda Rondstadt and James Taylor to his credit, was signed to produce "One More Song".

Kaz and Meisner became a writing team and produced "Deep Inside My Heart," featuring guest vocals by Kim Carnes, and "Hearts on Fire," with Wendy Waldman.

Waldman also teamed up with Meisner and Kaz to co-author four songs: "Gotta Get Away," "Come On Back To Me," "Trouble Ahead," and "I Need You Bad."

Jackson Browne assisted Meisner in a few lyrics changes that transformed "One More Song" into a mythical tale of Meisner's last night as a member of the Eagles. Don Henley and Glenn Grev of the Eagles sang harmonies on the track. Meisner, Henley and Frey, along with Bernie Leadon, formed the Eagles in 1972, following a stunt as a backup band for Linda Rondstadt. The group consistently released number one singles and multi-platinum albums as one of America's great bands.

Meisner, best known for co-writing and singing lead on "Take It To The Limit" and for distinctive high harmonies, left the Eagles after the "Hotel California" LP.

Tickets for Randy Meisner and the Beach Boys are available for $10.50 in advance and $11.50 on the day of the show.

GOD'S WILL

The greatest commandment is that we should love our God. This is a free choice that man has, but it is God's desire that all would seek Him. He is our heavenly Father, and desires only the best for us.

ATTEND CHURCH

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.
