Will awaits volcanic eruption

Farwell's very own Will Anderson, a Naval commander, is also the State Line Tribune's South American correspondent.

Currently, he is stationed in Quito, Ecuador, with the U.S. Embassy.

The following column arrived on Monday:

Did you hear the joke about the Texas Aggie who took four snow shovels with him when he moved to the equator?

He wanted to be ready in case the volcano exploded and filled his front walk with volcanic ash!

That joke would be funnier if I hadn't given my neighbors the four snow shovels I bought in Washington D.C., last winter, instead of bringing them here, because I wish I had them now!

So far in her eruptions, Guagua Pichincha has blown her stack on the western side and the rockfall and lava are going west, away from the city. However, if she really blows her stack, and unless the winds are just perfect in the upper atmosphere, Quito is going to be covered with a few feet of volcanic ash.

They tell me that this stuff weighs about 10 pounds per cubic foot, so if it happens, I'll be on the roof shoveling it off as quickly as I can. (Note to the Editor: Please tell mom and dad to Fed-Ex a snowblower to me as soon as possible!)

The vulcanologists say that if the ash comes, it will fall for about 8 to 10 hours, and then things will really get nasty. Guagua has been venting a lot of fumes and steam out, and all the heat and moisture seed the clouds, so it is raining here almost all the time (anything from a drizzle to lightning storms with sheets of rain).

The rains that follow a major eruption will turn the ash into seas of hot mud running down the volcano's slopes walls and through the streets of this city, and this beautiful city will look like something from one of the moons of Jupiter, I'm told.

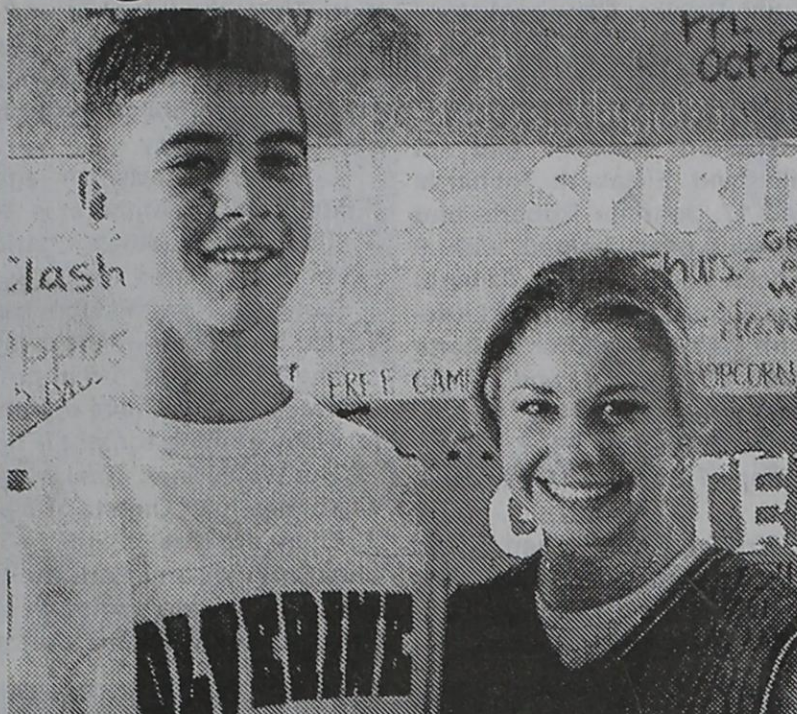

If that sequence of events starts, our attaché office will be part of the Embassy team that remains, but our families will be evacuated to the coast.

The newspapers here run maps of the predicted mudslide areas, and it looks like it's going to be a close-run affair, if it happens. Our house is on the border between "Extreme Danger" and "Low Danger", with the boundary defined by the street in front of our house.

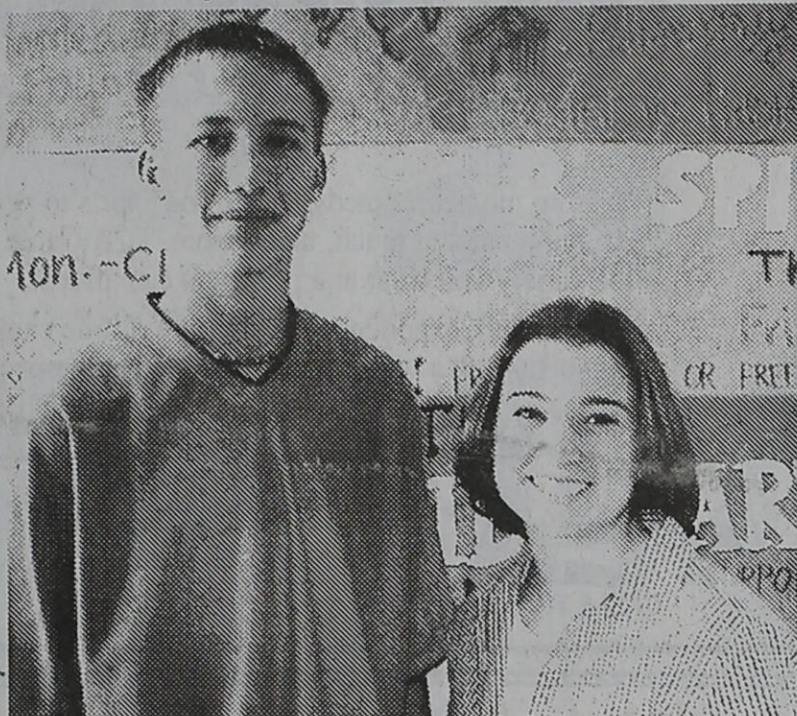

I have posted a sign on our gate in Spanish advising any possible mudflow that she has to stay in the street, just in case she doesn't read the newspapers that I do.

The mayor of Quito has called a Yellow Alert because the vulcanologists cannot predict exactly when the blast might come. It could be tonight, it could be next month, it could be years from now, but it has to happen eventually. (Have you ever gone out for a night on the town with Brett Hargrove,

Cade Christian takes 5th contest

Last week's Area Merchants Football Contest proved to be a doozy for its hundreds of entrants.

A lot of upsets in the college and pro ranks kept the scores ultra-low.

But one entrant stood above all the rest. The only participant to get 10 games picked correctly was Farwell High student Cade Christian. For that feat, he received the first place cash prize of $15.

Fifteen entrants had 9 right. By virtue of being closest to the tie breaker (Farwell 36, Happy 10), the winner of the second place cash prize of $7.50 was Shirley Steinbock, of Lazbuddie. She was 5 off the tie breaker.

Others with 9 right and their totals off the tie breaker were:

Chris "S", 18; Bobbi Williams, 12; Whitney Saul, 9; Dave Parmer, 25; Raquel "C", 11; Josh Boazman, 129; Raymond McGehee, 18; Coy Martin, 18; Mark Littlejohn, 18; Devin Goettsch, 30; Janis Gast, 29; Sharli Crawford, 11; Clint Corn, 11; and Cindy Castleberry, 11.

Results of last week's games were:

El Paso Jesus Chapel over Lazbuddie; New Deal over Hale Center; Clovis over Santa Fe; Texas Tech over Texas A&M; Michigan over Purdue; Wisconsin over Ohio State; Kansas State over Texas; Dallas over Arizona; Jacksonville over Pittsburgh; Baltimore over Atlanta; NY Giants over Philadelphia, and Chicago over New Orleans.

With the contest now 5 weeks over, with the overall champion getting the Dallas Cowboys package, the leader remains Lezlie Smith.

But she only had 7 right last week so her 2-point margin has dissipated to one.

The leader board shows:
 45 points - Lezlie Smith.
 44 -- Kirk Saul.
 43 -- Phyllis Arnold, Manuel Garcia Jr.

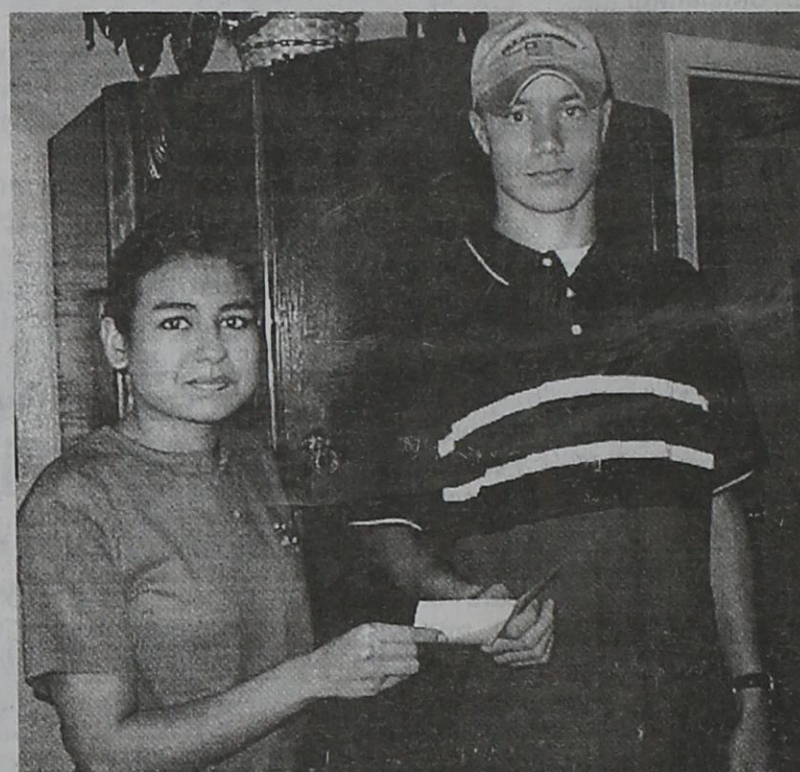

42 -- Colby Carthel, Sheryl Taylor, Sherilyn Owen.

41 -- Cindy Carthel, Rowdy Chandler, Lucas DeLeon.

40 - Lance Castleberry, Linnie Mae Crook, Steve Foster, Steve Gartin, Brian Haseloff, Sammy Herrera, Roy King, Tim Kasel, Rusty McFarland, Tate Nichols.

39 -- Johnny Actkinson, Gerri Bowers, Courtney Carthel, Gracie Dane, Weldon Edwards, Mike Goettsch, Larry Gregory, Dick Pylant, Thomas Reed.

Also, Weldon Killough, T.J. Kittrell, Mark Littlejohn, Vicky Lynn, Raymond McGehee, Lonnie C. McFarland, Lane McFarland, William Orozco, Kevin Owen, Mark Owen, Greg Taylor and the Texico Junior High 5th period history class.

waiting for him to buy the next round? It's a lot like that....)

Anyway, that's the status as of today, and I'll be in touch if anything interesting happens.

A Bovina High School student stopped by the Tribune last week, and it jarred a pleasant memory for me.

At Border Town Days, we had trouble with our Border Town Days Express and I, and others, worked on it for about 1 1/2 hours trying to get it going.

There was one teen-ager who was particularly helpful. I couldn't remember his name so I was unable to publicly thank him for his assistance.

So when he showed up on another matter at our office last week, I wrote his name down -- Walter Kessler, who lives near the Rhea community.

A better late than never thank you to Walter for his help at LTD. It was appreciated.

Ketcherside to head sorority

"A New Century, A New Beginning" is the theme for Farwell's Alpha Rho Lambda chapter of Beta Sigma Phi.

To lead the group into the new millennium are:

Joyce Ketcherside, president; Cynthia Thigpen, vice president; Peggy Goettsch, secretary; Anne Norton, treasurer; Lynne Mahaney, extension officer; Nedda Travis, city council representative, and Colleen Stover, alternate city council representative.

Alpha Rho started the year off with a beginning day breakfast with other Clovis area chapters.

At the first meeting of the year, they hosted a baby shower for Brenda Logan.

A putt-putt golf social event provided another diversion for members.

Football season moves into high gear

Now is the time for Texas high school football fans to get excited -- district play is about to begin.

Farwell's Steers open district play at Hale Center tonight (Friday) at 7:30.

The Steers went 4-1 in pre-district, losing only to Nazareth, ranked No. 5 in the state among the Class A teams. This week's area poll by the Lubbock newspaper placed Farwell at No. 6 among the 2A teams.

Farwell's district looks to be tough. Bovina, Olton and Morton are much improved over last year and also sport 4-1 pre-district records. Also in the district are Hale Center and Sundown, both with 3-2 marks.

Thus every team in Farwell's district has a winning record going into district play.

Lazbuddie's Longhorns have lost a couple of one-sided games to two very strong teams in the past two weeks, one of which (El Paso Jesus Chapel) is the defending state champion. Thus, the Longhorns' 2-3 pre-district record may be a bit deceiving.

Longhorns' Coach Mark Scisson said he hopes that by playing tough competition, it will help his young squad as it opens district play.

Lazbuddie starts off against Amherst at home tonight (Friday) at 7:30. Amherst is 2-3.

Also in Lazbuddie's district are Cotton Center and Witharal, both 4-1; Three Way, 2-3, and Silverton, 1-4.

Because New Mexico has fewer teams, district play for Texico is still two weeks away.

The Wolverines, 1-5 in pre-district so far, have been hurt by injuries and also have a youthful squad. They host Hagerman for Homecoming tonight (Friday) at 7:30 p.m. mt.

The Wolverines' final warm-up before district is next Friday when they host Questa at 7 p.m. mt.

There are three teams in Texico's district -- the Wolverines, plus Springer and Fort. Sumner. Thus, they only have to twin one of those two games to make the state playoffs. Currently, Fort Sumner is 3-2 and Springer is 2-4.

Obituaries

Judy Pomper

Funeral services for Judith Ann Pomper, 54, of Farwell, will be held at 11 a.m. Saturday at Hamlin Memorial United Methodist Church with the Rev. Kevin Phillips, pastor, officiating.

She died Monday at home. Burial will be in Sunset Terrace Memorial Cemetery in Farwell. Steed-Todd Funeral Home is handling the arrangements.

She was born Nov. 30, 1944, in Cook County, Ill. She graduated from Western Illinois University with a teaching degree. She later received a master's degree in education from Indiana University.

She married Mike Pomper on Aug. 28, 1965, in Downers Grove, Ill.

She taught junior high school for several years in Michigan City, Ind., and Woodbridge, Va.

In 1984, she and her husband purchased the State Line Tribune and moved to Farwell.

While in Farwell, she received the area Scouts' Den Leader of the Year award and special Texico Chamber of Commerce award for service to the community.

Surviving are her husband; two children, Patricia Brown, of Arlington, Va., and Rob, of Houston; two brothers, John Allen and Joe Allen, both of the Chicago area; and two sisters, Jackie Blaimonte, of Fort Worth, and Joyce Ren-slow, of Mansfield, Texas.

Pallbearers will be Johnny Atkinson, Hal Helton, Randy Kelley, J.R. Ivins, Curtis Smith and Doyal LaRue.

Honorary pallbearers will be Beta Sigma Phi sorority.

The family suggests memorials to the Texico and Farwell Chamber of Commerces' scholarship funds.

Steers make Happy unhappy

by Cindy Patterson

The Farwell Steers got ready for district play last Friday in a big way, knocking off Happy, 36-10, in an away game. The Steers, 4-1, open district at Hale Center at 7:30 tonight (Friday).

The game started with some strong Steer defense, with Matt Schwertner knocking a ball loose and recovered by Shane Roberts. Gage Gregory had a good tackle, and Paul Franse tipped a punt. Clint Patterson also had a good tackle. Clint Corn had a QB sack.

Meanwhile on offense, Corn had a 16-yard run, but the drive ended in an end zone interception.

But Happy scored, and it was 7-0 moving into the second quarter.

The Steers came roaring back. Corn had some strong carries and Thomas Ortiz scored at 8:52. Derek Goettsch kicked the extra point to tie the game at 7-all. Minutes later, Farwell scored again, this time on a Roberts TD. The Goettsch extra point made it 14-7.

On defense, Taylor Nichols had a good tackle for a 3-yard loss, then deflected a pass in the end zone. Patterson and Schwertner combined on a QB sack, and Patterson had a solo QB sack. Happy kicked a field goal to close the margin to 14-10 as the first half ended.

It was all Farwell in the 3rd quarter. Ortiz made a first down behind a lead block by Joel Barrett. The drive culminated in a sneak by Tyler Chadwick for the TD, followed by the Goettsch kick: 21-10. Manuel Garcia and Kolby Kimbrough then had good runs on offense, in another drive which ended on a TD run by Corn at 1:45. Chadwick scored the 2-point conversion and it was 29-10.

Meanwhile on defense in the 3rd quarter, Gage Gregory and Michael Hernandez had a tackle of the kick returner. Roberts had a QB sack, as did Franse. Taylor Nichols had a good tackle. And Casey Meeks busted the wedge on a Happy kickoff return.

In the final period, the Steers tallied their last TD, by Corn.

followed by the Goettsch kick. Good rushes were turned in by Cade Christian, Kimbrough and Garcia. And on defense, Eulogio Ruiz had a good tackle, and Meeks has a QB sack.

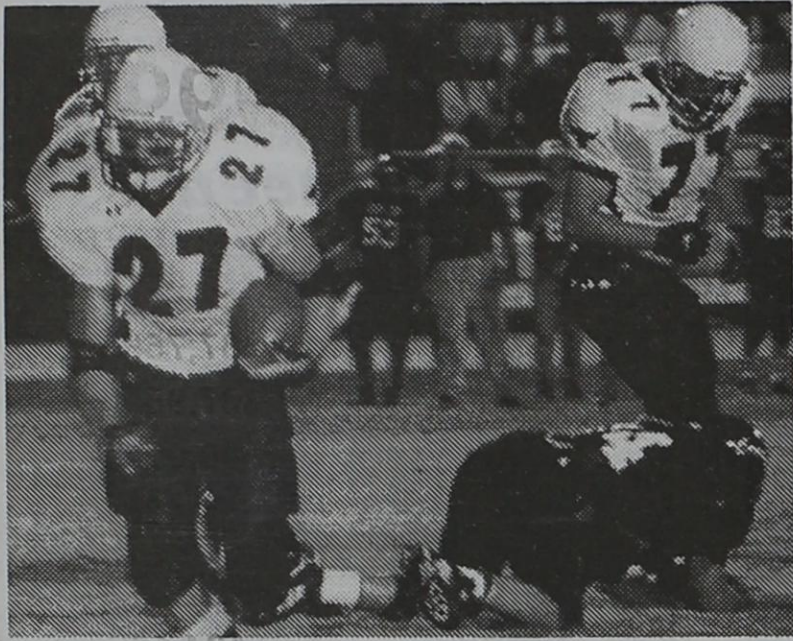

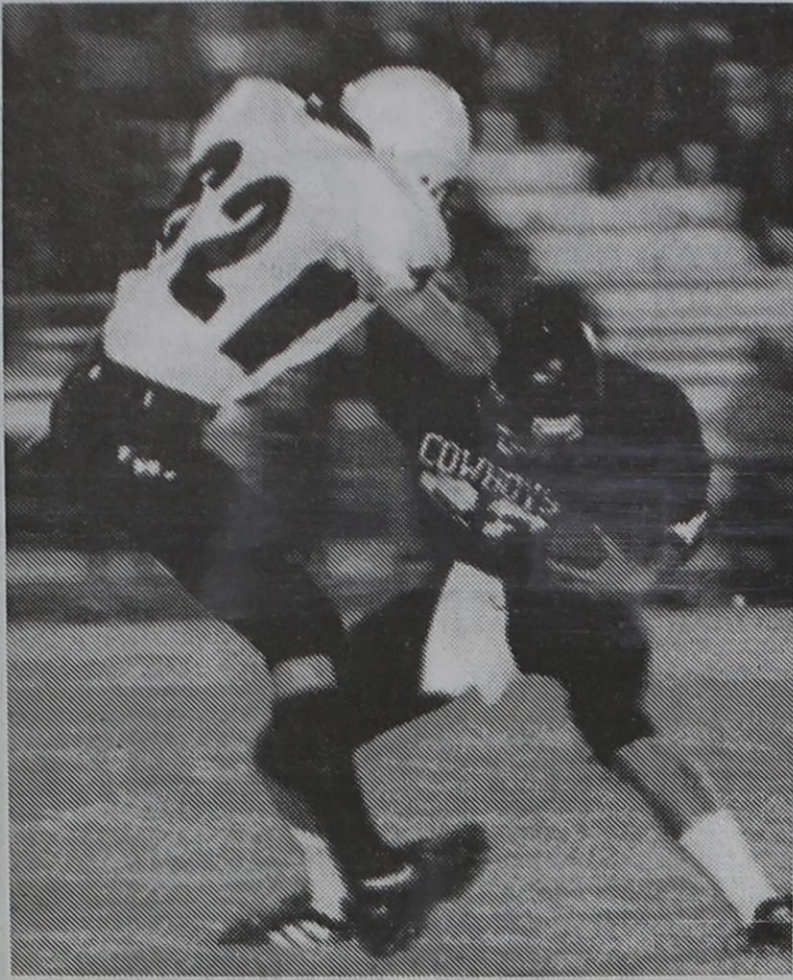

Steers of the Week

Farwell Coach Brent Terry tapped Joel Barrett, left, and Clint Corn as the Steers of the Week for their performance last week against Happy.

Rising Interest Rates
To understand the effect that rate increases have on investing, you'll need a little background on why the Federal Reserve raises rates at all. Basically, the Fed uses interest rates as a tool to regulate the economy. When the Fed thinks the economy is growing too slowly, it will cut interest rates to encourage businesses to borrow more to expand their operations. Conversely, if the economy is too "hot," then the Fed will raise rates to slow things down and head off inflation.
That's what happened this summer. So what's next? Traditional thinking holds higher that higher interest rates are bad news for stocks; if it costs more for companies to borrow, they won't grow as fast and won't earn as much. However, studies are proving that the stock market, on average, has historically moved higher after one or two rate hikes. A greater threat to the market actually occurs after the Fed's wait too long to curb inflation and is forced to boost rates several times.
While rate increases are possibly unsettling in the short term, they could actually help investors over the long haul.
Of course, even if the market is not hurt by one or two rate increases, it doesn't necessarily mean the individual stocks you invest in will be unaffected. If you're investing in an industry, such as financial services, you might notice an impact right away. If you own bonds, you will see their prices drop in a rising-rate environment, because investors can buy new issues at higher interest rates - meaning your lower-rate bonds are worth less.
But don't let interest rate movements overly influence your investment decisions. It is a long term business, so you don't want to be side-tracked by short term news. Don't change goals or abandon basic strategies. If you like to own stocks, look for those with solid fundamentals and good prospects. If you own bonds, consider purchasing several with different maturities, so you'll always have money coming available to take advantage of rising interest rates.

Treadway trial jury selection begins

The murder trial for Michael Treadway, 19, of Farwell will begin this month before District Judge David Bonem.

The trial was moved to Portales last year by Curry County District Attorney Randall Harris.

Treadway is charged with first degree murder, armed robbery with a deadly weapon

Texico JH gridders grab four victories

The Texico Junior High football squads, coached by Richard Luscombe, have started off the season in outstanding shape -- with four victories.

The Texico White team beat Portales, 44-16.

Luis Hernandez scored 5 TDs and 2 points after. Baltazar Hernandez added a TD and Joe Zaikowski a point after. Johnny Rivera had a safety.

The Texico Green squad nipped Portales, 18-16.

Toby Thornton had one TD and Adrian Loera scored a pair of touchdowns.

Then, the Texico White team bombed Bovina, 46-20.

Baltazar Hernandez scored four touchdowns. Braden Vaughn, Tony Clements and Johnny Serrano tallied one TD each, while Serrano added two points after.

And the Texico Green team shut out Tatum, 22-0.

Luis Hernandez, Ricky Fuentes and Corey Bell scored a touchdown apiece. Hernandez and Bryce Bailey scored on points after.

It's a Boy

Taylor Lee McCoy was born Sept. 27 to Billy and Becky McCoy.

He weighed 8 lbs., 1/2 oz. and was 20" long. He has a brother, Tyler, 3.

Grandparents are Tim and Debbie Lasiter, of Texico; Bill McCoy, of Donie, Texas, and Barbra McCoy, of Friona.

Great-grandparents are Lorine White, of Friona; Cliffie McCoy, of Lamar, Okla., and Johnnie Proctor, of Roswell.

Marshal's Report

Here is the weekly report from Texico Marshal Kelley Brophy:

Michael Shelton, 21, of Texico, was charged with battery of a household member on Sept. 30.

Moises Olivas-Espino, 22, of Clovis, was charged with open container and no current registration plate on Oct. 2.

and conspiracy to commit armed robbery with a deadly weapon.

Businessman Red Prather was killed in December 1997 during a robbery at the Play-O-Rama in Texico.

Motions were being made on Monday and jury selection for the trial was to begin Tuesday. Four days were set aside for jury selection, so the trial will tentatively begin on Oct. 12.

If a jury was selected quickly, the trial was to begin this week.

The death penalty is being sought by prosecutors.

Ronald Armstrong, 18, and Billy Joe Galvan, 18, both of Farwell have been sentenced to the Western New Mexico Correctional Facility in Grants, N.M., in this case.

Armstrong pled guilty last September to conspiracy to armed robbery, a third degree felony; and accessory to armed robbery, a second degree felony. He was sentenced to seven years in the New Mexico Department of Corrections and given five years supervised probation after his release.

Galvan pled guilty to accessory to armed robbery, as second degree felony. He was sentenced to nine years in the New Mexico Department of Corrections. Six years of his sentence were suspended but he must serve two years in prison and then five years on supervised probation and two years on parole after his release from prison.

Galvan was 17 at the time of the robbery and killing. He was tried as a juvenile, but is serving his sentence at an adult prison due to his plea agreement.

8th grade Steers shut out Happy; 7th grade Steers lose to Sudan

The Farwell 8th grade Steers shut out Happy last week, 28-0.

Cale Stevenson opened the scoring with a 65-yard TD run. Then Jason Johnson threw a 25-yard scoring pass to Kason Gabriel.

The third TD came on a 5-yard run up the middle by Stevenson. And Grant Gregory scored on a 1-yd plunge.

The Steer defense, led by Gabriel and Tyler Myers, shut down the Happy offense. The Steers play Oct. 7 at Hale Center with two games starting at 5 p.m.

The 7th grade Steers lost to Sudan, 14-0, last week. Farwell spent the whole first half pinned at their end of the field and were down 8-0. The coach said the Steers fought hard for "every inch and showed tremendous heart."

Steers with good games were nose guard Logan Clemmer, who caused five fumbles; tailback Michael Johnson, fullback Hugo Vasquez and tight end/linebacker Rowdy Mitchell.

Appreciation shown

Parmer County Sheriff Walt Yerger, center, gave special plaques on Sept. 29 to Charles Aycock, left, Parmer County attorney, and Johnny Actkinson, District attorney, for their support in the fund-raising drive to buy a drug-sniffing dog for the county.

Clayton turns back Wolverines

by Greg Qualls

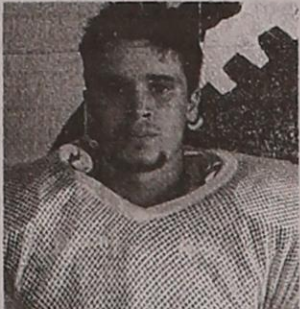

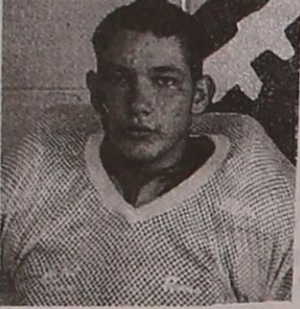

Texico's Wolverines came out on the short end of a 32-14 score to Clayton last Friday in an away game. Texico, 1-5, hosts Hagerman for Homecoming tonight (Friday) at 7:30.

The defense played very well and it seemed like every tackle the Wolverines made were by a group and not a lone headhunter.

Texico started the game on its 35. They were forced to punt, and Clayton started on its 20. A Clayton fumble gave the Wolverines the ball on the 14. A pass from Ryan Autrey to Eric Smith put Texico on the board first. The two-point conversion try misfired and it was 6-0.

Later in the first quarter, Clayton moved the ball downfield on rushing plays. They scored on a 25-yard scamper and the game was tied when the kick missed.

Big Lick Award

Texico Coach Dave Lynn has named Jake Williams, left, and J. Ben Williams as the Big Lick winners for their play against Clayton.

In the second quarter, Autrey lobbed a 25-yard pass to Smith. The two defenders picked each other off and Smith was able to high-step it into the endzone for a 65-yard TD. The 2-point conversion pass from Autrey to Smith put Texico ahead, 14-6.

Sheriff's Report

Here is the weekly report from Parmer County Sheriff Walt Yerger:

On Sept. 27, Ryan Colderon, 26, of Muleshoe, was arrested by Friona police on a charge of possession of marijuana under 2 oz. The case is pending in county court.

On Sept. 29, Charles Turner, 65, of Friona, was arrested by Friona police on a charge of indecency with a child. The case is pending before the grand jury.

On Oct. 2, Howell Campbell, 67, of Oklahoma, was arrested by Friona police on a charge of DWI subsequent. The case is pending before the grand jury.

On Oct. 3, Jose Piedra, 28, of Friona, was arrested by Friona police on a charge of DWI. The case is pending in county court.

On Oct. 3, Wyatt Distler, 27, of Phoenix, was arrested by the sheriff's office on a charge of assault. The case is pending in county court.

On Oct. 4, Saul Holguin, 34, of Clovis, was arrested by Friona police on a charge of DWI. The case is pending in county court.

On Oct. 4, Martin Mata, 31, of Friona, was arrested by Friona police on a charge of DWI. The case is pending in county court.

Still in the second quarter, Clayton came back, finishing its drive with a 10-yard TD pass. The kick failed and Texico led 14-12 going into halftime.

In the second half, Clayton scored 20 unanswered points as it moved to the victory. Texico was unable to make any big plays but was stopped near the line of scrimmage many plays.

Thank You to the Lazbuddie Community

You will never realize just how much your thoughtfulness meant to us during the loss of our beloved Father.

We know how busy it is this time of year in a small farming community, but the number of people that took the time to share their time, and our loss, with us was very overwhelming and heartfelt, and will be remembered always.

A special thank you to the wonderful ladies of the community that took time to cook for the family, to serve and spend their day at the church.

The Latest

Gary, Leesa and Dan Paterson gave the program on swine projects and caring for your animals at the Farwell-Oklahoma Lane 4-H meeting on Sept. 27.

Project reports were given on the fashion follies at the South Plains Fair and the food project.

Sarah Herington presented a game afterwards.

Lori Haseloff, Frances Kube, Lorna Schueler and Teresa Mesman represented St. John Lutheran Church of Lariat at the annual Lutheran Women In Mission - LWML Fall Workshop Sunday.

The workshop was held at St. Paul Lutheran Church in Plainview and featured a Bible study entitled "Beauty in the Balance." The study focused on how Christian women can balance their priorities in life through their faith in Christ.

Lori Haseloff led the opening and closing devotions and Teresa Mesman conducted the High Plains Zone business meeting.
