Cotton Allotment Due Soon; More Reduction Anticipated

Parmer County's 1956 cotton allotment—a subject of much discussion in recent weeks—probably will be announced by the county ASC office next week, and a decrease in allowable acreage is anticipated by most men who have been following the development of the farm program for next year. Friday, Secretary of Agriculture Benson invoked federal marketing quotas and set the national planting allotment at 17,391,304 acres. For the nation, this is a reduction of about four percent from last year, when 18,113,208 acres were allowed. The state figure has not been announced, but it is anticipated that by time the reductions come around to the High Plains counties in Western Texas, the cut will be much greater than four percent.

The West Texas Chamber of Commerce commented October 8 that it was likely that allotments for this area would probably be about 260,000 acres less than in 1955.

At the same time, the chamber criticized a move to discontinue using "trend" as a factor in passing out the state's cotton reserve, which previously has amounted to 10 percent of the total allotment. (Readers of The Tribune will recall a story in this newspaper indicating what would happen to the county's allotment next year if the move proposed by Rep. Poage of Waco was accepted. This would almost completely have eliminated any possibility of trend consideration.)

At the moment, it is understood that it will be up to the state ASC committee to decide what use shall be made of the state reserve. They can use it to cover trend, hardship cases, small farms, and other inequities.

Last year the committee used two-thirds of this reserve for trend. In fact, they have favored the

Farwell Loses Second Conference Contest

Farwell's Steers fell at the hands of the Anton Bulldogs for their second consecutive 3-B conference defeat Friday night at Steer Stadium as the Bulldogs capitalized on Farwell fumbles to beat the host squad 12-7.

The Steers elected to receive, returned the kick to their own 32 yard line, then fumbled on the first down from scrimmage. William Detwiler, 165 pound fullback for the Bulldogs, recovered the ball to begin their first touchdown drive.

Ronald Lambeth was hit at the line for no gain on the first down and Richard Howard was picked up after a three yard drive.

Howard gained three more to make it fourth and four. Robert Burdette, Bulldog quarterback, fired a pass to end Johnny Bass to net 28 yards and a first down.

Ronald Lambeth was stopped for no gain and on the second down Detwiler plunged the needed yardage for the TD to put the Bulldogs in front 6-0, extra point by Bass was blocked. The Steers made a repeat performance of the opening kickoff as they fumbled the kick from Larn-beth, but held the Bulldogs to one series of downs. Howard was thrown for a loss on the first down. Detwiler gained 8 on the next carry and a plunge by Lambeth was stopped at the line. Fourth down pass try by Burdette was incomplete.

Back on the offense, Truitt Hardage carried for one yard and Christian picked up six on second

Rogers Is New Texico FB Head

B. A. Rogers was elected chairman of the Texico Farm Bureau at a meeting held Thursday night at the Texico School lunchroom.

Other officers elected to serve during the coming year are vice-chairman, Clyde McDaniel; chairwoman, Mrs. Levi Reid; secretary-treasurer, James Gillean; and reporter, Mrs. Olan Schleuter. Thursday night's meeting was postponed from the regular meeting date.

A covered dish supper was served prior to the evening's program. Dallas Brown gave the invocation and the Pendergrass brothers played several musical selections on the steel guitar and banjo. B. A. Rogers gave a reading "A Yankee in Love." Barney Harding read the minutes of the last meeting and J. R. Hadley Sr. gave a report on the directors' meeting held recently in Clovis.

Mrs. Barney Harding reported on a meeting which she attended last week. Olan Schleuter read three resolutions from three other local bureaus and these were discussed by the group.

B. A. Rogers was elected to take part in the county convention to be held at the Mounted Patrol Arena on Thursday, October 27, at 8 p. m.

Texico Farm Bureau received $10 for having a booth at the Curry County Fair held in Clovis last month.

James Gillean thanked the bureau for the flowers sent by the group to the funeral of his mother, Mrs. Bessie Ward.

Thirty-eight members and four guests were present for this meeting.

Thirteen in GOC Here

It looks like Texans, famous for many decades for their patriotism, are off to another quick start in a new patriotic job, and Farwell is doing its share.

Right now, Texans are busy organizing a Ground Observer Corps for their state. Apparently, they're off to a splendid beginning.

This week, State Civil Defense Coordinator William L. McGill and Lieutenant Colonel W. E. Matthews, the Ground Observer Corps' coordinator, wound up a progress report.

In a joint statement, they noted that "while there is a tremendous amount of work remaining, we feel the program is definitely off the ground and moving swiftly ahead."

"To report every bit of progress would be impossible," they added, "just as it would be impossible to point out, item by item, everything which remains to be done. A few examples of progress serve to demonstrate what Texans are accomplishing."

In Farwell, thirteen men have already been signed up as volunteer members of the Ground Observer Corps. Mayor Johnie Williams says many more will be needed for the program, however.

Those who have consented to help are Hugh Moseley, Wilfred Quicquel, Johnie Williams, W. H. Graham Jr., Paul Wurster, Herb Potts, Clay Henson, John Getz, Otis Huggins, Kirt Crume, Scott Levins, Joe Helton and Rip Snodgrass.

When organizational activities are completed in the state, between 50,000 and 75,000 Texans will be involved in the Ground Observer Corps on a volunteer basis.

Basic Commodity Designation Declined at Sorghum Meeting

Members of the Parmer County Grain Sorghum growers voted 20-17 Tuesday night against making grain sorghums a basic commodity. Arlin Hartzog, president of the group, presided at the three-hour meeting that was held in the auditorium of Bovina school.

Though the members voted down the idea of making grain sorghums a basic commodity, they elected two delegates to represent the county at the district meeting that will be held Thursday in Hereford. Delegates to represent Parmer County are Hartzog and W. L. "Preach" Edelman, president of the local Farmer's Union.

The delegates were instructed to vote "no" to making grain sorghums a basic commodity but to suggest and help the other district leaders get the price support on milo raised. The district group is composed of about the same group of counties that make up the Hi-Plains Water District.

At the beginning of the meeting, the president explained that "this is not a protest meeting at the Secretary of Agriculture." He went on to say that there is probably little that we can do to help the situation except to "attend meetings and write our congressman, but we feel that more good can be accomplished if the individual farmers write to the congressman."

A question concerning how much acreage would be cut if grain sorghums were declared a basic commodity was asked. The answer, "How much acreage would be reduced is unknown. We like to think that it would be reduced by 20-25 percent but it could be a lot more and it might be somewhat less." Parmer County had 225,000 acres of milo this year as compared to 115,000 in 1951. The acreage total grew every year during that period.

Ideas concerning how the situation would be changed if grain sorghums were made a basic commodity were discussed, but they became less important when the group voted against making them basic. Six members of the group did not vote.

Soil Fertility Bank Added to FB Topics

The addition of a Farm Bureau program known as "The Soil Fertility Bank" will be made in the discussion items to be up for consideration by the members of the Parmer County Farm Bureau when they convene in Bovina tonight (Thursday).

Gilbert Kaltwasser, county president, said that in a meeting of presidents from this 13-county district at Lubbock the past week, it was decided that the topic be included by the organizations of the district.

The Soil Fertility Bank plan, and variations of it, is the Farm Bureau's suggestion on the agricultural problem. These features will be discussed tonight:

1. Setting aside of 20 percent of the total tillable acreage.
2. Continuation of allotments, but with supports of 100 percent for basic commodities.
3. 85 percent of parity supports for non-basic commodities.

Kaltwasser gave an example of how the program, if adopted on a nationwide scale, would work. "If a man had 100 acres, he would have to lay aside 20 of these and grow only soil-building crops. If he had, say, a 50-

DeSoto, Plymouth Cars Announced for 1956

The new 1956 lines of DeSoto and Plymouth automobiles will be on display at Hardage Motor Company of Farwell this week, announced Walter Hardage.

Wednesday was the announcement date for DeSoto, and the Plymouths will be unveiled tomorrow (Friday). Both cars offer many refinements in style, design, and mechanics, including bigger engines.

'55 Sesame Harvest Practically Finished

What can actually be considered a "big" sesame crop has been laid by in the Parmer County area during the past two weeks—at least most of it is in the shock and safe from danger of shattering to the ground.

Many farmers of the High Plains, pressed by lower prices, higher production costs, and acreage controls, have been trying out sesame as a possible answer to their need for another cash crop.

To date, very few have reports on seed yields, but most believe that the crop has done well this year under irrigated conditions. The market price for the seed—which is used to make non-rancid oil—will likely be between nine and ten cents per pound.

Yields of near 1000 pounds of seed per acre would be considered good for irrigated sesame.

There were about 3000 acres of sesame planted in Parmer County this year, but about one third of this failed to come up to a satisfactory stand. Farmers report various ideas on the difficulty in getting a stand, though most tend to agree that planting too deep and crusting over because of spring rains accounted for most of the trouble.

At any rate, there are approximately 2000 acres of sesame in Parmer County, and considerable acreage in Curry County to the west. Most growers say they have learned a lot in this first year of growing the crop.

Lots of Sesame

Those shocked bundles you see aren't sudan—they're sesame. It's part of the big 480-acre sesame crop of C. W. Sanders of Okahoma Lane, who is giving the oilseed crop its first try on his farm.

Yes, it's true that the trip to Wisconsin a couple of weeks ago was a "flying" one, but we didn't know so many people would notice that we went so far in such a short time.

There is no particular secret method we used in connection with this good time, except maybe that we preferred to take the less-traveled "inland" roads where there's much more country to see.

Besides the scenery, these less publicized routes have another advantage: in over 2600 miles, we did not meet (or pass!) one single traffic cop.

Beat that if you can, on a killer like U. S. 66.

Farming activity wasn't the only thing we scrutinized while away, although some of our readers have accused us of doing just that. One interesting sidelight, for instance, was the world's largest hand-dug well, located in Greenburg, Kans.

We think our irrigation wells are something, but boy, this is the grand-daddy of all water wells. It is 109 feet deep and 32 feet across. It was dug straight down and the walls cased with stone.

The well, according to the city chamber of commerce, was dug by the Santa Fe Railway to supply water for that business and the community also. Although not in use, the well still could be used for a fresh water supply.

The writer and his two-year-old son descended into the well to see what it was like. We also paid admission for the wife, but one look at that spooky flight of stairs a 109 feet down to the water sent her head swimming, and she preferred to sit it out on top.

One thing that we don't like about the way many tourist courts treat guests these days is the way they charge for extras. Most top-notch motels advertise television, radios, and telephones, but it isn't included in the regular room rate. We'd much prefer the extra cost be added to the quoted price for a night's stay, rather than to go through registration, unloading, and settling down for the evening, then discovering that you need a pocketful of quarters to keep the TV going.

We finally found one motel that advertised free TV, so we took it. It later developed that the motel was built right up against the right-of-way of the busiest railroad we have ever seen, so there wasn't much sleep, TV, or anything else for us there. Just can't win.

A letter which came to our desk the day before we left for the Midwest has been much appreciated by us. It demonstrates once again our conviction that there are willing hands (and well informed ones, too) that would be glad to lend their assistance to commodity promotion groups.

From the tone of the letter, we would judge that the writer was unaware of the existence of the Parmer County Grain Sorghum Growers; a fact that may be due to our own oversight.

(In previous writings, we have stated that there is no one presently organized for the sole purpose of promoting the sale of grain sorghums. Although we believe the Grain Sorghum Growers organization would be a practical body for this job, they so far have not announced any plans along this line.)

The writer, Mrs. L. R. Travis of Farwell, has very graciously permitted us to reprint most of her letter. All we can say is that we hope there are many, many more farmers (and farmers' wives) who believe as she does:

Mr. W. H. Graham, Jr.
State Line Tribune
Farwell, Texas

Dear Mr. Graham:

I am very interested to note your support of the establishment of a grain sorghum marketing association. Like any businessman who has a product to sell, the farmer profits by effective marketing.

I am sure that most grain sorghum raisers would support an association which brought better returns for their best efforts. Needless to say, they would demand that it be founded in fair play and integrity.

It goes without saying that the first step must be the formation of a conscientious and spirited group of promoters. They must be guided by sound principals, deep respect for practical considerations, perseverance, and a thorough knowledge of the workings of a marketing association.

There is no better time for establishing a marketing association than now. The history of other marketing associations, particularly those of the perishable food industry, indicates that they pay off well.

Further, experiments in Midwestern states have recently revealed that cattle make faster

No longer does a student ask his teacher "what grade did I earn," but "what did you give me?"

This departure from emphasis on individual hard work and pride in accomplishment is also reflected in the attitude of people, young and old alike, who apply for work.

Employers seldom hear a prospective employee ask how much he can earn at his job. The burning question is "how much will you pay?"

It is small wonder children expect passing grades without earning them.

Many of them have parents who receive wages they do not earn—like the man who demanded (and received) 44 hours pay for 40 hours work; like parents who have a guaranteed annual wage, whether they work or not; like parents who receive paid vacations, social security, pensions and hospitalization without paying for them.

The child's study of his parents' occupation with "things guaranteed" is reflected in his social life, too. This is the era of strange demands for "guaranteed entertainment and recreation."

Towns are being pushed to provide elaborate and expensive youth centers and other recreation upon pain of having their youngsters turn delinquents. Pop pulls this trick on the picket line, and junior has inherited the attitude.

At home Junior hears his father tick off all the dire reprisals in store for the boss or the government if he isn't "given" something.

How can teachers be expected to hold out in the face of such attitudes children have learned at father's knee, and which have become a part of this family life?

District Schedule Set for 1956 Season

Football coaches, athletic directors and superintendents from schools who will be in district 3-A football division for the next two years met last Wednesday night at the Muleshoe school to set up the district football schedule for the 1956-1957 season.

The schools which will be participating in 3-A football for the next two years will be Farwell, Morton, Springlake, Sudan and Friona. This district is set up according to last year's membership and these schools will remain in this category for a two year period.

Dillie Kelley of Friona was elected chairman of the district and Raymond Cook, Friona, was chosen secretary of the group.

Those present decided to set a standing admission price for district games at $1 for adults and 50 cents for students. The district games will be played on a $50 per game guarantee.

The schedule of district 3-A games will be announced later.

It costs the government about .0069 of a cent to print a dollar bill.

Washington, D. C., is located below the Mason-Dixon line.

What accounts for this disturbing condition? We really don't know, but last week we read something by the controversial Ernest Joiner of Ralls that has set us to thinking, and he may have something at that.

See if you agree with Ernest. If you do, what can be done?

Had an interesting chat with a veteran school administrator the other day, and conversation drifted around to prevailing low scholastic standards in our public schools.

He advanced the theory that the "gimme" philosophy born in early days of the New Deal, and which has fastened itself upon our citizens, has been taken up by youngsters in their school work.

The guaranteed annual wage is reflected in a child's expectation that he will be "passed" from one grade to another, then graduated as a matter of right instead of having such advancement depend upon his ability to earn his grades.

Methodists To Have Preaching Mission

Hamlin Memorial Methodist Church will begin a preaching mission Sunday morning, October 23, with the Rev. Geo. R. Ditterline of Gallup, N. M., conducting the mission. Services will be held each night through Friday, October 28 and very probably at a convenient hour each morning. All Methodist Churches east of the Pecos River including Odessa, Pecos, Ft. Stockton, Kermit, Iraan, Marathon, Goldsmith, Texico-Farwell, Ft. Davis, Balmorhea and other cities and towns in Texas, and all towns and cities in New Mexico east of the Pecos River will hold a similar mission at the same time. The purpose of the mission is to stimulate the spiritual life of the members and to encourage the hundreds of Methodist Church members unaffiliated with the local Methodist Church to become active members in the local church. It is also for the purpose of extending a welcome to any persons, who as yet have no church, to visit and participate with the Methodist Church and to give opportunity for persons to join the church. Dr. Ditterline has been chairman of the board of pensions of the New Mexico Annual Conference for several years, as well as Every race of people, white, yellow, red, black, has used the drum in their wars and religious and social rites since the earliest dawn of history.

The use of drums in war and peace is inextricably woven into the lives of people of all ages and climes. It is probably the most universal of all musical instruments. Abel emphasizes the fascinating tory of the Snare Drum" which starts like this: 'I have an archaeologist, who, after a diligent search among the 2000-year-old ruins and pyramids of Egypt, tells me that the snare drum originally came from a music store in New York.'

Calling generously on satire, wit and humor, Abel romps through the six thousand year history of drums with an enthusiasm that has brought rave notices from the New Yorker, the New Orleans Times-Picayune, Billboard and magazines and newspapers throughout the country.

DeSoto

The all-new 1956 De Soto looks great from any angle—and it's sparked further with the revolutionary new mechanical push-button drive. At top are (left) the Firelite two-door hardtop and (right) the Firelite four-door sedan demonstrating the new long and low look afforded in the upswept rear fenders and the restyled color sweep. At the bottom are front and rear ends of the same cars showing the completely new front and rear ends. A full-swept, perforated mesh grille, built-in parking lights and insignia are only part of the front end changes. The taillight assembly of three-tiered, turreted lights are an integral part of the dramatically changed rear fenders. The finger-tip touch drive and exterior redesigns shown are but a few of over 24 styling and engineering changes, including greatly increased power and striking new color-keyed interiors in decorator fabrics, in the new De Sotos.

Texico Junior Boys In Softball Playoffs

The Texico junior boys' softball team really had the winning spirit of the "champs" after playing Rosedale in the opening game of the county tournament Friday and defeating them 17-3.

Raymond Hadley showed that old "win or bust" spirit and did a super job of pitching and was backed by a pack of Wolverines who were fattening their batting averages in a comparatively easy win. Raymond Hadley hit two home runs in this game.

House gave the local team some stiff competition in the second game, ending with a 15-12 win for Texico. Star player of the game was Eldon Thatcher who hit a homerun with the bases loaded.

In the final game for the championship, Texico played Grady beating them 15-6. Raymond Hadley and Raymond Maxwell each came through with two homeruns which helped a lot in winning the game.

Texico junior girls won their first game with Rosedale 7-3, but lost to Fields 12-3 in the second game which eliminated them from the running.

In an ad sponsored by a Baptist Church there. In this day and age, so many of us have fallen into the "I. M. Busy" category. What do you think?

AN OPEN LETTER TO GOD

Dear God:
I'm sorry you made Sunday where you did. You see it is like this—we could attend church much more regularly if your day came at some other time. You have chosen a day that comes at the end of a hard week, and we are all tired out. Not only that, but it is the day following Saturday night.

Saturday evening you know, is one time we feel we should enjoy ourselves, so we go to the movies or a party, and often it is after midnight when we reach home. It is almost impossible to get up on Sunday morning. You have chosen the very day we want to sleep late, and it makes it mighty hard to get the children off to Sunday School and especially when they have it early. Then there are dishes to wash, and we always have some things we just have to wash out.

I mean no disrespect, dear God, but you must realize you have picked out the day on which we have the biggest dinner. Not only that but the church has fixed the hour of worship at the very time we must be preparing the dinner.

Then, too, you must think of John. He is tied down to his job all week, and Sunday morning is the only time he has to tinker with the car and to mow the lawn. When he gets into his old clothes and his hands are all greasy you couldn't expect him to be able to get off to church.

I am telling you these things, dear God, because I want you to get a viewpoint. It is not our fault that we are not able to get to church on Sunday mornings. We would like to go, and we know we should go, and need to go. But it must be clear to you that the real reason we cannot go is because you have chosen the wrong day. If you will select another day we shall be glad to go to church and Sunday School and be more faithful.

Sincerely yours,
I. M. Busy,
P. S. We know, of course, you don't expect us on Sunday evening too!

We have had very few canned fish recipes since we began printing favorite recipes. Yet, these are dishes that are nice to use when unexpected company drops in, when you are stretching the budget, or if you want something a little different.

We were talking to Bee Gee, Warlick Thomas' wife, a few months ago, and she said that when they were stretching their pennies while he was in service, they were always anxious for such recipes.

Our family likes fish, so we use numerous methods of preparing salmon and tuna—in loaves, with noodles, salads, sandwiches. We've tried them all.

One that is just a little more dressy and quite flavorful is salmon-stuffed potatoes.

SALMON-STUFFED POTATOES

4-6 medium potatoes
¼ cup margarine
2 tbs. lemon juice
½ cup hot milk
1 cup flaked salmon (or other fish)

¼ cup margined crumbs
Wash potatoes, rub outside with margarine and bake in a hot oven for 45 minutes to an hour. When done, cut a slice from the baked potato or split larger ones in half and scoop out centers. Mix with hot milk, margarine, lemon juice, salt and pepper and mash until light and fluffy. Stir in salmon, pile lightly into the potato shells. Sprinkle with margined bread crumbs. Return to hot oven for 10-15 minutes for light browning.

If you haven't already tried the lemon cake we printed two weeks ago, please don't unless you add

1 2/3 cup sugar. That is the only thing we failed to mention.

Mrs. James Drake of Clovis called us Saturday morning and had all her ingredients ready to go when she noticed that we had failed to tell how much sugar was needed. She called us and we called Mrs. B. N. Graham and straightened it out in short order.

We must say Mrs. Drake was most gracious, and it would be quite an inconvenience to have everything ready to go, and have to wait on the mixing.

Over 900 high school and university musicians will participate in special pre-game and half-time activities. Just before the game, the formal crowning of the homecom-

Ironically enough, our four-month-old has a favorite "toy"—a newspaper. He isn't too particular, but we manage to keep a Tribune on hand to keep him happy.

Only 65 days remain until Christmas!

Maybe 65 days is quite a long time, but most of the people we meet have already started thinking about December 25. The business people are getting in stock for the holiday rush; the Chamber of Commerce will begin thinking about lighting the cities for the season; and we know a few far-sighted women who have already bought gifts.

In fact, ESA has already begun plans for the coming of Santa Claus to the Twin Cities two weeks before December 25.

Win Farm Award

Verney Towns Family Wins Master Farm Family Award

The Verney Towns family, Bailey County, is one of eleven farm families in Texas selected by The Progressive Farmer magazine to receive the "Master Farm Family" award. This is one of the highest honors that is given working farm families in America. The award is based upon distinguished accomplishments in farming, homemaking and community service.

"For a great many years The Progressive Farmer has had the conviction that we could render no greater service to Texas agriculture than to seek out and honor farm families of outstanding merit," says Eugene Butler, president and editor. "In almost every line of human endeavor distinguished accomplishments are recognized and publicly honored. This has not always been the reward of farmers. Many notable farm families have gone unnoticed, unhonored regardless of their splendid records. It was to honor at least a few of our finest farmers that inspired The Progressive Farmer to make the Master Farm Family Award."

"The Master Farm Family program is not a contest," he pointed out. Families compete only against the Master Farm Family standard. There are certain minimum requirements. The family must take good care of the land, while making it pay a reasonable profit on farming operations. There must be a good house with attractive surroundings. The family must take an active part in community life. And they must show interest and leadership in good schools, farm organizations, vocational agriculture, 4-H clubs, soil conservation, and all those group activities that are so vital to a happy, prosperous farm life.

The Verney Towns family meets the high standards required of a Master Farm Family. They are highly successful farmers, have a modern convenient home, and are leaders in their community.

Starting as a sharecropper in 1933, Verney Towns now owns his own irrigated farm where he grows grain sorghum, cotton, and alfalfa. Beef cattle and sheep help balance his farming operations.

Verney and Mona Towns and their two children, Sylvia Karolene and James Edwards, are leaders in their church and in local farm and civic organizations.

The Towns family will be honored with ten other Master Farm Families at a State Award Dinner in Dallas in November. Their story will be told in a well-illustrated article in The Progressive Farmer sometime in 1956.

"The Great Stone Face" of Hawthorne's stories is in New Hampshire.

GOOD FARMING PAYS

Verney Towns, says the Progressive Farmer magazine, takes good care of his land but still farms it profitably. This picture shows a typical planting time scene.

Ground Observers Corps Being Organized in Friona

It looks like Friona, already noted for carrying its share in looking after the welfare of Parmer County, is once again ready to be a part of "something big." The first volunteers in the Ground Observers Corps were discussing their duties early this week, and learning more about the civil defense pattern that is being set up in the state of Texas.

Early this week, three volunteers other than Charles Allen, who is in charge of the drive for workers, were ready to go to work when the time comes. Included are Mrs. John Lamb, Bill Sheehan and Wesley Foster.

State civil defense officials hope that between 50,000 and 75,000

Texans will soon be manning observation posts, and watching the skies for airplanes. According to Allen, county workers will be required to note if the plane is single or double engine or a jet, and report to authorities what direction the craft is traveling.

According to news releases, the Air Force is working hand in hand with state and local authorities in setting up the Corps, and the Reserve Corps will supervise the organization once it is established for operating strength.

Lt. Col. Winton E. Matthews, State Coordinator of Ground Observers Corps, sees the plan as a big job that must be accomplished as soon as possible. Reason for the Ground Observers Corps is that the nation can't depend strictly on radar to detect planes. The radar cannot see through mountains and does not follow the curvature of the earth, meaning that there are a number of "blank" spots through which enemy planes could sneak undetected by mechanical warning devices.

There is still much work to be done before the Corps will be in operation in Friona, the county or in Texas, but the initial steps have been taken.

Allen states that the list of volunteers must be lengthened as soon as possible and asks that anyone who would be willing to be a Ground Observer to please contact him.

According to state officials, when the Ground Observer Corps in the state becomes organized, it will call for "around-the-clock duty." Each volunteer worker will have a two-hour shift each time he is on duty.

New Post Office Building To Be A Reality Here

Friona will definitely have a new post office building, Leo McLellan, postmaster, said this week. This word came from J. E. Cauley, building inspector of the post office department, when he was in town Friday.

Officials say the type building and the contract should be settled within 60 days. The post office department submits the specifications and plans to the bidders, McLellan says. The present building has 1400 square feet and the new structure will probably contain at least 2100 square feet. Five-hundred post office boxes are now available and 750 are needed, according to the postmaster.

McLellan placed a request for a new building a little over a year ago. The building, which will have all new equipment, will be a reality in a matter of time, he feels.

The post office volume has been growing rapidly the past few years. McLellan says receipts are running much higher each year.

Other than McLellan, the Friona post office has three other employees: Orma Flippin, regular clerk; Mrs. Laverne Burrow, classified substitute; and Mrs. Zula Carlton, temporary substitute.

Friona Man Furnishes Fish for Lions Meal

Friona Lions were fed royally Thursday night when they feasted on the "fish that didn't get away." Jake Lamb, who recently returned from a fishing trip to Hot Springs, didn't have to tell the Lions about his catch, he had the delicacy prepared for their meal.

Doris McFarland, Linda Gee and Betty Agee sang vocal selections, with Mrs. Roy Miller as accompanist.

In their business session, the Lions planned a light bulb sale, with funds to go to philanthropic projects. Money derived from a broom sale, will go to the building fund of Parmer County Community Hospital. The group also made a donation to a fund to build a library in Chili in honor of the Lions International president, who is a Chilean.

THEY SPOT 'EM

These four Friona citizens are the first to volunteer for the newly-organized Ground Observer Corps, which is designed to cooperate with America's defense system in time of national emergency. Helping spot imaginary planes are Charles Allen, Mrs. John Lamb, Wesley Foster, and Bill Sheehan.

Optometrist To Move Office Here

As soon as the Mabry building is completed, Friona will have its first optometrist. Dr. William Beene from Paducah has purchased new equipment which arrived in Friona October 15 and will move his family here in the near future.

Dr. Beene is a graduate of Hereford High School, Amarillo Junior College and the School of Optometry of Northwestern University in Chicago.

During World War II he spent several years in Germany as a captain in the U. S. Infantry. He is a member of the American Optometry Association. For the past six years he has practiced in Paducah.

Dr. Beene and his wife, Nellrita, are members of the Baptist Church. She is a talented musician and soloist. They have two children. Sandra (Sandy) is eight and will be a second grade student in the Friona school and Mark is eighteen months old. Dr. Beene is a brother of O. J. Beene of the City Drug Store.

Friona Homecoming Set for Oct. 27-29

The annual homecoming will be celebrated in Friona October 27-29.

Thursday, October 27, the students and teachers of the high school will dress like cowboys and Indians. At noon, the Indians will scalp cowboys, and a victory dance will follow. An added feature will be the smoking of the peace pipe. Thursday night, there will be a bonfire and pep rally at 7.

Friday, October 28, will be color day for the high school. Each student and teacher will wear the school colors, red and white. There will be a pow-wow at noon. The coronation of the 1955-56 football queen will be at 2:45 and the homecoming parade will follow at 3 p. m.

Friday night, the crowning of the queen by the football captain will be featured at the half time of the game between the Happy Cowboys and the Friona Chieftains.

There are several committees who have worked hard in planning for the homecoming.

Lavon Fleming, Judy Barnett, Robbie Boggess, Ray Jean Jones, Nancy Outland and Johnny Hand are in charge of the decoration of the goal posts and grandstands.

The decoration of the fence around the football field will be taken care of by Joy Crow, Carolyn Drake, Toni Bruns, Luann Hardisty, Phyllis Rockway and Jan-nie Tomlin.

The committee in charge of the hall posters will be Linda Miller, Marie White, Janeice Bock, Lannette Prichard, and Janita Schwab.

The activities for Thursday at noon will be directed by Doris McFarland, Geraldine Phipps, and Judy Bruns.

The above committees will be under the leadership of Miss Dorothy Rudd and Miss Pat Rymer.

The girls in charge of the pep rally will be Eugenia Landrum, Shirley Hogue, Barbara Deaton, and Mary Tatum. Dempsey Watkins and Baker Duggins will be the sponsors who will assist these girls.

J. D. Fry, Joe Means, and Phyllis Treider will be in charge of the half-time activities at the homecoming game.

The coronation will be planned by Patsy Anthony and Miss Vera Ann Jones.

Band To Enter Marching Fete

For the first time, Friona High School Band will participate in marching contests held annually in Canyon, says J. D. Frye, band director, and the 61-piece organization is making final preparations for their appearance. Sally Osborn is band major for the group.

Contests are slated October 25 in Canyon, with 29 bands participating, Frye says. He expresses regret that only about 55 of his group will be able to go, because new uniforms to costume the remainder of the members have not arrived. In marching contests, he says it is important that participants be attired in matching suits.

Asked about the potentials of the group this year, Frye states that the band has the best instrumentation than for any year, since he has been in Friona. He has been instructor for four years. He feels this is true because of the help of the administration of the school in gaining varied instruments.

"We have alto clarinet, bass clarinet and contra-bass," he explains, indicating that this wide range is not too common in an organization the size of the Friona band.

The band was moved into the new band hall Monday, and was ready to begin work on numbers for coming football games of the Chiefs.

Also on October 25, the majorettes will enter twirling competition. These girls include Phila Buske, Doris McFarland, Nelda May and Ruby Grubbs.

Weekend Plagued By Auto Accidents

Friona has proved to be an area of many accidents this week involving both automobiles and grain trucks.

Friday morning a car driven by J. W. McMahan and a car driven by M. M. Sherley collided six miles west of town. No injuries were received, but the cars were damaged about $275 each.

Friday afternoon, a grain truck driven by Clyde London overturned six miles west and one mile north of Friona. The driver was hospitalized for a few days.

Also Friday, a grain truck driven by Ira Miller hit the rear of another grain truck. The second truck was knocked into a Buick car. The extent of damage to the involved vehicles is unknown.

Friday evening, a grain truck driven by Mrs. Orbra Cole and an automobile driven by Mrs. Wayne Beavers collided four miles west and two miles north of Friona. Randy Beavers, 20-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Beavers was killed instantly. The two drivers were hospitalized for treatment of cuts, abrasions, and shock.

Saturday morning, a pickup driven by V. R. Jordan collided with a Plymouth driven by a Lazbuddie lady. This accident occurred one mile south and one-fourth mile west of Friona. The damages to the car and pickup were about $200 each.

While eating lunch, we were seated by three attractive Friona high school girls. They were discussing a special week to be observed by the school-age group, probably twirp week when the girls ask the boys for dates.

But one young lady had her ideas on the subject, as she exclaimed "But it can't be this week, I already have a date this week."

We were about to pull into a parking place in front of the school and stopped just in time to see a "short" Model A, protruding from the area. Only one fact that impressed us was that it was parked with the nose toward the street. Then we remembered our own experiences with this type auto, and we think we hit on the solution.

Don't most of them have to be pushed—and it always helps to be pointing in the right direction.

We talked to Woodie McDermitt a few moments. The former Farwell man now lives in Hereford, but had brought his wife over to Friona to the hospital.

Su Zann Lamb, at the ripe old age of eight, has realized one of her ambitions. Not only did she get to shake the hand of the Cisco Kid, attending the Heart of Texas fair in Waco, but she is the proud owner of his autographed picture.

Postmaster Gives Overseas Mail Tips

Leo McLellan, Friona postmaster, urged citizens this week, to mail any overseas Christmas packages between now and November 15, to insure delivery by Christmas.

He asked that packages be packed securely, addressed carefully, mailed early, and that no perishables be sent. When preparing packages for mailing, the sender should put his return address inside the package as well as on the outside, says McLellan. This insures delivery if the outside address should be marred some way in shipping.

Another precaution according to McLellan is "do not use stickers and avoid using ink for addresses. The postmaster says in damp climates, the stickers come off and the ink smears.

He says there is no weight limit to most places, but the sender can inquire at the post office if he wishes to know about a particular place. Packages should be well tied with twine.

Our husband has made so many remarks about our looking more mature than he, and we have successfully "laughed off" his remarks. But after this week, we have our doubts.

We stuck our head in the door of the study hall at school to ask for Sandra Brock, who is The Tribune's correspondent. A red-headed young man (we presume he was a teacher) informed us that she was not in the room at the moment and innocently inquired "are you her mother?"

We would consider it a compliment to be the mother of the talented Sandra, but if our calculations are correct on Sandra's age, we would have been about nine or 10 years old when she was born.

Wonder how Mrs. Brock will feel about this!

Seniors were gaily getting ready to put their "best feet forward" as they were anticipating having their pictures made for the annual Wednesday. A Clovis studio was to take the portraits.

We hope to make In and Around Friona a regular feature in the paper and not quite so spasmodic as it has been in the past. So we will introduce you to your new columnist, Mrs. Glen Floyd. We think she will do a good job of news coverage for you people, with your help of course.

Below, Mrs. Floyd has a few words to say. If you have a humorous anecdote, if you have some out-of-the-ordinary news, or a routine report—call either Mrs. Floyd or Sandra Brock. Either of them will be more than happy to assist you—they will appreciate ALL your news.

When Jeanne suggested that we write a column for this paper, it was more nearly a shock than a surprise. As she stated in a recent column, it was a challenge and we will have to wait to determine whether or not it is fun to see if we can meet that challenge.

With a subject like In and Around Friona and with all the "comings," "goings" and "other doings," writing a column should be a very easy thing, but when you consider our lack of experience it may be harder than it seems.

With JEANNE

Enroute to Friona Monday morning, we noted a huge vehicle slowly bearing down on us from the opposite direction, directly in the middle of the highway. After getting a closer look, we decided it was the best place for "it".

Much to the delight of "such as we," it was labeled. . . the first stripper machine we've ever seen. Sure enough, as the vehicle passed along the highway, white dashes seemed to spring up in the middle of the road, behind the mechanism.

The final rites for J. D. Thompson were held at 3 p. m. Sunday in the St. John's Methodist Church in Lubbock. Rev. Hubert Bratcher, pastor of the church, officiated.

Thompson, 46, local farmer of the Hub community, passed away at the Parmer County Community Hospital at 1:15 a. m. Saturday. He had resided in the Friona area since December 1953.

The pallbearers were L. W. Gibson, R. E. Snead, Doyle Elliott, A. L. Black, and T. I. Burleson of Friona. Also Glenn Woody of Lubbock.

Thompson is survived by his wife; one daughter, June Thompson of Lubbock; one brother, W. C. Thompson of Shallowater; and his mother, Mrs. Mae Thompson of Lubbock.

The Rix Funeral Home of Lubbock was in charge of the services and the burial was in Tech Memorial Cemetery.

highway and by-way. It really is surprising to see how rapidly the fields change from row after row of dark red grain to plowed fields. Cotton harvest is also getting underway.

Some of us whose sons have not yet reached high school age, felt sure some of the older boys were celebrating Halloween too early Monday night when the FFA boys were initiating the green hands.

Edith Johnson tells us she has the cutest bunch of Brownies in town. Most of us would readily agree with her since she has the beginners. She has worked with an older group for several years. Since her troop has been organized recently, we now have three Brownie Troops and four Girl Scout Troops. Mrs. Mary Roberts is the assistant leader.

The Fosters have almost completed their remodeling. The mezzanine floor is another first for Friona and is very attractive. Upon completion they will have a complete ready-to-wear department on the mezzanine and a shoe department in the basement.

As you may have guessed by now, the only newspaper experience we have ever had has been reading. If anyone reads this who knows anything that is news that concerns anyone in and around Friona, it will be greatly appreciated by us and by the Tribune if you will call and tell us. Phone Parmer 3418.

City Commission Has Called Meeting

Friona City Commission met in a called session Monday afternoon, to dispose of two important items of business that were brought before the group, according to Roy Wilson, city manager.

The members approved the necessary changes that must be made for paving of Ashland Ave. According to Wilson, water improvements will be made. Instead of two-inch galvanized pipe, the water line will be of 6-inch cast iron.

Also, plans and specifications for the proposed paving program for Friona, were approved. The clerk was advised to advertise for bids for the work.

Bids are to be opened November 17 at 1:30 in the afternoon.

Miss Koelzer Weds J. C. Blankenship

Miss Dorothy Koelzer and J. C. Blankenship exchanged nuptial vows recently in the St. Anthony's Church in Hereford.

Father Nathaniel Madden read the double-ring service and was celebrant for the nuptial mass. Wedding marches were played by Mrs. Gwendolyn Jesko, organist. Soloist was Mrs. Elbert Lee Vance who sang "O Perfect Love" "Ave Maria" and "On This Day."

Miss Billy Jean Jesko, cousin of the bride, was maid of honor, and Daniel Koelzer, brother of the bride, served as best man. Ushers were Arnold and Teddy Fangman.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, B. N. Koelzer. A reception was held in the dining room at St. Anthony's School. Mrs. Ed Loewald presided at the punch bowl.

After a wedding trip to points in New Mexico, the couple is at home in Friona. Mrs. Blankenship is a graduate of Lazbuddie and St. Anthony's School of Nursing in Amarillo. She is employed at the Parmer County Community Hospital. Blankenship is employed at Carl McCaslin Lumber, Inc.

and one million dollars. The average cost of drilling an exploratory well in 1953 was more than one hundred thousand dollars.

And if you're thinking of going into the business, you might be encouraged by the fact that independent oil operators drill about 77 per cent of all the wells that open up new fields.

Tech Homecoming Planned November 5

LUBBOCK—The most extensive Homecoming program in Texas Tech history is being planned for alumni who return November 4-5 for the 28th celebration of the event.

Two Homecoming dances, one for students and one for alumni, have been scheduled for November 5, to accommodate expected record-breaking attendances, according to L. C. Walker, executive secretary of the Tech Ex-Students Association.

Another new feature of this year's program will be an alumni-faculty reunion in the Student Union the afternoon of November 4, Walker said.

Class reunions will be staged that night following the student-planned Homecoming Queen coronation, pep rally and bonfire.

A series of both off and on-campus open houses will precede the Homecoming parade, November 5, with the alumni to be feted at a buffet luncheon in the gymnasium. The traditional Homecoming luncheon is provided by the Lubbock Auto Co., Texas-New Mexico-Oklahoma Coaches, Furr Foods, Inc., and Dunlap's.

Tech's Red Raiders will meet the University of Arizona Wildcats at 2 p. m. in the annual Homecoming gridiron event.

Canyon Homecoming Set for Oct. 22

CANYON—West Texas State College's largest student body in history is ready to welcome back to the campus a record-breaking crowd of ex-students for the annual Homecoming celebration Oct. 22. Members of the Class of 1930 will be honored during the day.

Program for Homecoming Day and "Western Days" preceding the celebration has been completed, with the traditional parade, barbecue and football game heading the list of attractions. An assembly, held for the first time last year, will again be featured during the morning.

"Western Days," when students and faculty don western clothes on penalty of being thrown into a tank of cold water, opens Oct. 20 and continues until Homecoming Day. Students get the celebration underway Oct. 19 at the annual Western dance sponsored by Gamma Phi Sorority. Thursday, Oct. 20, the traditional Homecoming Assembly is slated, and a bonfire and pep rally is to be held Oct. 21.

Exes will begin registering at 8 a. m. in the Administration Building, where they will be given barbecue tickets. A general assembly for students and exes is scheduled at 10:45 a. m., when Luther Roberts, minister of the Gatewood Church of Christ, Berger, will be speaker. Roberts is a member of the Class of 1930. Climaxing the assembly will be the crowning of the WT's Homecoming Queen.

Campus clubs, organizations and groups will entertain their exes from noon until 3:30 p. m. at teas, smokers and get-togethers. An ex-student band, composed of former members of the Buffalo Band, will be organized for the first time at 1 p. m. at the Band House. The group will head the Homecoming parade and take part in half-time activities Saturday night.

The annual parade, featuring several bands, riding clubs and floats from the campus and Canyon, will start at 4 p. m. through downtown Canyon. The barbecue will follow at 5:30 p. m., and the football game between the Buffs and Hardin-Simmons is at 8 p. m. Closing the day's events will be a dance at the Student Union Building after the game.

Special recognition will be paid to the Class of 1930, celebrating its silver anniversary. The group will register at Randall Hall beginning at 8 a. m., where they will visit until the general assembly. The class, with faculty who were on campus in 1930, will march together into assembly. A buffet luncheon at Randall has been arranged for the class.

NEWS FROM THE FARM BUREAU

By RAYMOND EULER

Gilbert Kaltwasser and Archie McCutchan attended a District II Farm Bureau meeting in Lubbock last Thursday. It appears from their report that the farmers gathered there agreed on a program that will prove popular with all agricultural people. After Thursday night, Parmer County's FB Convention time, we will at least know what Parmer County farmers think of it. Individuals who have heard it, seem to like it pretty well. This is it briefly, a detailed system of applying the Farm Bureau Proposed Land Fertility Bank Agricultural Program: 20% of all tillable land out of production entirely; 100% parity on all basic commodities under acreage allotments; 85% parity on all non basic, storable commodities with no acreage allotments; and a positive effort to sell surplus commodities on the world, competitive market. Do you like it?

E. T. Ford, Farm Bureau's Commodity Chairman, talked with Robert G. Schrauner, State ASC Chairman last Thursday night, regarding cotton allotments in this area. According to Ford, Schrauner said that published rumors about 160,000 acre cuts in Texas cotton acreage were without official basis. He also said that the state committee will receive state allotment figures on October 25. Counties will receive their allotment figures about November 1, and the individual farmers will receive their allotments prior to December 15, the date of the referendum vote. The recent rumor of Parmer County's cotton acreage being cut 18% was also named unofficial, but the minimum cut will be 7%.

We are glad to note that the grain sorghum growers are beginning to consider other commodities when they figure proposals for sorghum supports. We would like to see them get together, though, on whether they want them made basic commodities or not. We don't believe they will in the end. We think Farm Bureau's proposal outlined above will give them what they want. That will be left up to the vote of the farm voters at the convention, of course.

Drive soberly and carefully. Remember that there are lots of farm wives and young people driving harvest trucks, and they are not accustomed to handling the heavy vehicles. This coupled with the five or six hundred additional vehicles on the roads during harvest necessitates more care than usual.

Consider this: Go to the ant, thou sluggard; consider her ways and be wise: Proverbs 6:6.

Oil Men Produce On Long Shots

Tens of thousands of new oil wells will be drilled in the U. S. this year, and about one-third of them will be dry. In new field wildcat drilling, the odds are even greater—only about one well in nine is a producer.

These figures vividly demonstrate the risks that oil operators must take in their efforts to find oil in unproved territory. In proved areas, the chances are better with three out of every four wells brought in as producers.

By the beginning of this year, 1,535,895 wells had been drilled in the United States. Of this number, 1,009,413 were oil wells, 107,724 were gas wells, 387,480 were dry holes, and 31,278 were service wells. A service well is one drilled to inject water or gas into an underground formation to increase the pressure, forcing the oil toward the producing well.

More than half the oil wells in the United States are still producing, although some are more than 50 years old. The average oil well produces 10 barrels a day, although the first commercially successful well drilled, at Titusville, Pa., gave only 25 gallons a day—little over one-half a standard 42-gallon barrel.

The drilling of an oil well is a tremendous undertaking which requires great quantities of equipment and supplies. In drilling a 10,000-foot well, for example, here's what would be needed:

A complete rig weighing about 200 tons and costing $300,000; between 10,000 and 12,000 feet of steel pipe weighing from 82 to 96 tons; at least 12,000 feet of steel casing, weighing 150 tons; from 25 to 100 drilling bits plus 5 reamers; between 2,000 and 5,000 sacks of cement; from 500 to 1,000 tons of drilling-mud additives; 48,000 barrels of water, and 3,000 barrels of fuel oil.

In addition to all this material, you'd need 125 skilled men, 20 to 30 of them working full time and the rest part time. These would include the exploration crew, drilling crew, geologists, engineers, cementers, and other technicians.

Since drilling conditions vary widely, the cost of a 10,000-foot well may range between $250,000

Bank Opening Set For Next Saturday

The First National Bank of Bovina will open its doors and be ready for business Saturday, October 29.

Local bank officials received official notice Tuesday afternoon that their suggested opening date had been approved by the National Board of Bank Examiners.

The bank charter will be issued on October 26th.

District 3-B Game Pits Hart vs. Bovina

The Bovina Mustangs, with a one-won and one-lost record, meet Hart Friday night at the local field in their third district game.

Neil Smith, outstanding back for the Mustangs, received a broken left thumb in last week's 28-27 victory over the Plains Cowboys and won't be able to play against Hart Friday night. However, it is possible that he will see limited action in the next week's game against Kress.

Ferman Kelso, freshman reserve left end, broke his wrist in practice last Tuesday and will be lost to the team possibly for the remainder of the season.

Phil Caldwell or Julius Bradshaw will replace Smith in the Mustang backfield Friday night.

Smith's injury brings the total of squad members lost because of injury to four. Billy Richards and Sonny Brito are also out of action. Smith was, before his injury, a regular back and Brito was a starting lineman.

Aside from Smith's replacement, the locals' lineup will be the same for the Hart game that started against Plains.

Alan Abel to Entertain in Assembly Program

Alan Abel, national champion drummer, author and comedian, who has built his career around drums, will entertain in a high school assembly Friday, October 21, at 10:30 a. m.

His presentation of "The History of the Drum and Its Effect on Civilization Today," which is the product of years of study, research and practical experience, will be in the high school auditorium.

Admission to the assembly will be 15c for students and 25c for the general public. W. H. Willoughby, superintendent, said, "The entertainment is not for the students alone. The members of the Bovina community are invited and most welcome."

The drum is perhaps the oldest musical instrument known to man. An actual drum with curved drumsticks belonging to the ancient Egyptians was found during the excavations at Thebes in 1823. Every race of people, white, yellow, red, black, has used the drum in their wars and religious and social rites since the earliest dawn of history.

The use of drums in war and peace is inextricably woven into the lives of people of all ages and climes. It is probably the most universal of all musical instruments. Abel emphasizes this fascinating story of drums.

Abel's satire, wit, and humor have brought rave notices from the New Yorker, the New Orleans Times-Picayune, Billboard, and magazines and newspapers throughout the country.

Student Council To Sell Decals

The Student Council of BHS met Wednesday for a regular session. Visitors were Roy M. Crawford, vocational agricultural teacher, Billy Richards, Sonny Brito, Glenna Berry and Arlene Clayton. The members explained the purpose of the student council and told of their projects and trips.

In the business session, the group decided to sell pennants for the football games and Mustang decals. Also discussed was the homecoming which will be the 11th of November.

Locals Place In Farwell Talent Show

The Junior Wilsonaires Trio, composed of Nancy Cumpton, Joan Kay Ezell, and Janice Leake, won first place in the high school division of the amateur talent show that was held at Farwell Monday night.

Billy J. Charles, vocal soloist, tied for third place in the grade school division and Kay Leake, vocal soloist, won third place in the high school division.

Other entries from Bovina, all music students of Mrs. Doris Wilson, were Judy Roach, piano, and Harriet Lou Charles, vocal soloist, in the grade school division. Mrs. Clifford Leake, Mrs. Wilson, and Sandra Rhinehart went with the group to Farwell. After the show they all went to Clovis for dinner.

"Three Bears" Presented By High School Band

The Bovina High School Band presented the bedtime story of the Three Bears during their portion of the half at the Bovina-Plains football game.

Marching onto the field from the west end, the band played "United Nations March." On the field, they formed bowls of soup, big, middle-sized, and tiny chairs and beds. Towards the end of the story, Goldilocks, played by Barbara Taylor, ran from the field. The band left the field at the east end. The Plains band performed precision marching upon entering the field and then formed a bicycle. While the band played "Daisy," the front tire went down, but by the aid of a service station attendant, the tire was soon pumped again. The band marched off the field still in the bicycle formation. The next performance of the Mustang Band will be Thursday night when they will present a short concert for the Farmer County Farm Bureau Convention.

Mustangs Throw Cowboys, 28-27, Friday Night

The gifted toe of Quarterback Darrell Read and the determination of the Bovina Mustangs' line spelled the difference Friday night at Plains as the locals eased by the favored Plains Cowboys in a 28-27 upset.

Plains scored the opening touchdown early in the first quarter but the Mustangs came fighting back with a touchdown and an extra point to give them a first quarter lead that the Cowboys could never overcome.

Ezell kicked off to begin the game to Brantley who took the kick on his own 25 and returned to his 46. Brantley then lost to the 39 but Borland regained the lost yardage and added two more of his own to get up to the 48. Blount then managed for a first down on the Mustangs' 46, Borland carried down to the 39, Brantley to the 35, and another first down. Brantley went to the 26, and on the following play, Borland circled his left end for a 26 yard scamper and paydirt.

Brantley's kick for the extra point was wide and the Cowboys lead remained 6-0. Neil Smith took the kickoff from Plains following the first touchdown and was downed on the 14. Ezell carried to the 16, Smith couldn't gain, and a Read pass was incomplete to Billy Burnam. With fourth down and eight needed, Read punted but the ball was brought back because of an off-side penalty against Plains. So Read punted again, Brantley took the second punt on his own 45 and returned to Bovina's 43. Blount made a first down on the 32 on the first play after the punt. Borland went to the 17, Blount to the 10, and Borland carried again to the four. But a fumble that was recovered by Plains lost four yards to the eight. On the next play, the Mustangs determined line jarred the ball lose again and Bovina recovered on the eight.

Smith shook lose from the eight and galloped to the 26. Read on a keeper around left end went across the midfield stripe and was on Plains' 29 before he could be brought down. Ezell failed to gain from that point and Read circled his right end on the next play and was stopped on the 15. Read lost one to the 16, Smith picked up eight to put the ball on the eight. Read almost broke into the clear on the next play but was halted on the three and Smith went over from that point to tie up the ball-game in a 6-6 knot but Read's placement for the extra point was good and the Mustangs were ahead, 7-6.

Ezell's kick was taken on the two yard line by Borland and returned to the 19, a five yard penalty set the ball back to the 13, Borland carried back to the 19, and Overton failed to gain as the first quarter ended.

Borland broke lose to the 43 on the first play of the second quarter, but a fumble in the Plains' backfield was recovered by Tackle Lynn Isham on the Cowboys' 40 and the Mustangs were again in possession.

A Read to Smith pass moved the ball to the 29, Smith carried to the 24, a five yard penalty for backfield in motion set the ball back to the 29, but a Read to Erith Hawkins pass was good for 18 yards to the 11 yard line. Smith went to the nine, a Read pass went astray, and Read couldn't gain on a running attempt but with fourth down, Read hit Smith in the end zone with a hard down-the-middle pass to make the score 13-6. Read's second conversion attempt of the night was good and the Mustangs led 14-6.

Ezell's kick was returned from the 20 to the 43. Brantley carried to the 38 in Bovina territory in two tries. Borland went to the 35, then to the 32 and a first down. Blount made it down to the 28 and Brantley was stopped on the 26. Borland carried to the 15 and Brantley carried over from 15 yards out. Brantley's kick was good and the teams were tied in touchdowns at two each but the Mustangs lead in extra points 2-1.

The Cowboys kicked off to Smith who picked up the ball on the goal line after it had taken a bad bounce and brought it back to the 19. With time running out in the first half, Read passed unsuccessfully to Hawkins. Burnam made no gain but a five yard penalty for off-sides against Plains moved the ball out to the 24. Read made six to the 30. Then, back to pass and no receivers open Read carried out to the 33, and when the same situation came up the second time he carried to the 42. A pass to Burnam was incomplete. Read moved the ball to the 47 in Plains' end of the field. A pass to Burnam was complete to the 26, and Read picked up two to the 24.

On the first play from the 24, Ezell took a pitchout from Read and carried it down the left side for the Mustangs' third touchdown of the night. Read's kick again was straight and true through the uprights and the score was 21-13.

After the following kickoff, the losers threw one incomplete pass from the 43 and their second play was a pass good for 37 yards to the Bovina 20 but at this point the half ended.

Plains kicked off to begin the second half. Ezell took the ball on the goal line and carried it back to the 10. Smith couldn't go. Ezell made six to the 16. A five yard penalty moved the ball back to the 11. A Read pass went incomplete to bring up fourth and nine. Read's kick went to the 48 yard line but Brantley brought it back to the 34. Overton carried to the 27 but a fumble on the next play gave Bovina the ball on their 26.

Read made four yards to the 30, then eight more to the 38, Smith went to the 46, and Read picked up a first down on the midfield stripe. Ezell went to the Plains' 46 but a five yard penalty set Bovina back to their own 49. Ezell made six more to the 45 and Read racked up another first down on the 36. Smith squirmed to the 36, Ezell no gain, and a pass was incomplete to bring up fourth down with eight yards to go.

An attempted pass cost the Mustangs 15 yards because of an illegal receiver down field but it was still fourth down and Read punted down to the goal line where it was taken by Borland and he managed to bring it back to the six.

In three plays, the Cowboys had a first down on their own 38 but Read intercepted a pass on his own 45 and sped down the sideline for a touchdown to make the score 27-13. A time out was called for Read to catch his breath before the extra point attempt, and when time was in again, Read booted his fourth extra point of the game through the uprights and the Mustangs had ended their scoring for the night.

Plains took the kickoff and scored nine plays later, though they were aided by a 15 yard penalty against the Mustangs for a personal foul. The extra point was carried over. Score 28-20.

After forcing Bovina to punt, the Cowboys came back with another scoring drive and an extra point to make the score 28-27.

The following kickoff was a short roller that was covered by Kenneth Estes on the 37. The Mustangs were forced to punt and with Read out of the game due to injury, Ezell's attempted punt was blocked and covered on the 18 where the Cowboys had a first down and plenty of time to score.

However, they fumbled two plays in a row, the first they covered themselves but the second was covered by Bovina. Ezell carried four plays in a row to run out the clock and preserve the 28-27 lead.

'56 Chevrolet sets new Pikes Peak record in top-secret test!

Not long ago a hush-hush, camouflaged '56 Chevrolet scorched the nerve-breaking road up Colorado's Pikes Peak for a new NASCAR* certified record—the first time that old King of the Mountains has seen a new official stock car record in years! And what a road! 170 chilling turns and no guardrail! It's the first and only time a new model ever proved itself such a great road car before its introduction! The '56 Chevrolet showed the kind of performance that makes driving safer and more fun. So wait for the car that beat the King of the Mountains!

Journalism Day Set at Texas Tech

LUBBOCK—The 1955 Speech and Journalism Activities Day at Texas Tech will be held Saturday, November 19, on the Tech campus. Last year, Texico journalism class won honors in competition there.

Co-directing the day's program, which is expected to attract approximately 300 West Texas high school youngsters, will be Dr. P. Merville Larson, speech department head, and Dr. William E. Hall, journalism department head. The two groups will meet separately.

Dr. Larson announced that demonstrations by volunteer high school students would be given in debate, extemporaneous speaking, senior and junior declamation and poetry reading. The demonstrations will be followed by discussion and criticism.

Highlight of the journalism program, according to Dr. Hall, will be an exploration of career opportunities in journalism by a panel of professionals. Panelists will include representatives from the daily and weekly newspaper fields, magazine journalism, advertising, public relations, radio and television.

Following the morning-long program and a luncheon, the students and their sponsors will be guests of Texas Tech at the Tech-College of Pacific football game.

LINCOLN FOR 1956

Longest... Lowest... Most Powerful Lincoln of all time!

Here — pictured the way you see it as it sweeps majestically by — is the new one that's been turning so many heads. And no wonder. Lincoln for 1956 — the longest, lowest, roomiest, most powerful Lincoln of all time — is far and away the newest car on the road. It's a larger, more luxurious Lincoln — obviously. And from hooded headlights to jet-pod exhausts, the refreshing, clean-lined Lincoln look goes beautifully with this great new size. Inside, greater size means more room, and the leg-room, shoulder-room and hat-room (all increased) comfortably belie the snug-to-the-ground lowness of Lincoln's new silhouette. And that's just a starter. Match this new Lincoln against any other fine car — on luxury, on safety, and especially on performance — and you'll soon find out why we say this car is the finest in the fine car field. Most important of all, this new Lincoln is never too proud to prove all we say. Come in any time and take a few turns behind the wheel.

- The only completely new car in the fine car field
▶ New 285-hp Lincoln engine with more usable power than any other car
▶ New Lincoln Turbo-Drive — most versatile, most obedient of all automatic drives
▶ New firm, yet gentle ride and effortless handling ease
▶ New individualized interiors — 29 to choose from ▶ New safety all around you: Retracted steering column with Safety-Flex steering wheel . . . triple strength safety-plus door locks . . . optional safety belts . . . largest windshield area in any car.

Unmistakably . . . the finest in the fine car field
