BIG SPRING WEEK

BY JOE PICKLE

The bond drive is approximately at the halfway fark with nearly two weeks in which to reach our $703,000 quota. Like Tipperary, it's still a long way to gobut we have responded by doing the impossible so often since the war began for us that there is no reason to believe we can't do it again.

Harold Ickes, petreleum administrator for war, has recommended a 55-cents per barrel in-crease for oil. Whether this is followed through is up to Prentiss Brown, OPA boss, but were it to be sanctioned, this area would feel the effects in an immediate increase in an already growing amount of wildcat prospecting for new oil pools.

'Freeze' Policy To Affect Workers In Essential Lines

WASHINGTON, April 17 (AP) - Acting under orders from President Roosevelt, War Manpower Commissioner McNutt tonight clamped a modified "job-wage freeze" order on about half of the nation's 52,000,000 civilian workers and made violations a criminal offense.

His order, effective at one minute after Saturday midnight, just four hours after he announced it, was backed by penalties as great as a thousand dollar fine and a year in prison for violations either by employers or employes.

Directly affected are the 27,000,000 persons now employ-

something altogether satisfying in film musicals is the newest such production from 20th Century-Fox, "Hello, Frisco, Hello," which headlines the Ritz Theatre's program for today and Monday.

There's an entertaining story, an abundance of talent and some of the best production numbers yet dreamed up by Hollywood's di-

Comely, sweet - singing Alice Faye has the lead in the story. with John Payne playing opposite. Lynn Bari has a prominent role, as do Laird Cregar, June Havoc, Ward Bond and George Barbier, and there's Jack Oakie for providing the humor.

The story, simply told, is set on San Francisco's Barbary Coast, Four entertainers are trying to dynamo of the outfit is Payne, but the real drawing card is pert Alice Faye whose dulcet voice and "purty figger" packs 'em in. With Jack Oakle and June Havec. their struggle to the top provides a neat background for the appealing musical production numbers.

The songs are perhaps the mos varied of any recent musical, For instance, there are such old favorites as "Gee, But It's Great To Meet A Friend From Your Home "Lindy Lou" and time Cowboy Joe" coupled with the tune, "Hello, Frisco," make pleasant listening.

Alice, as a matter of fact, rates among the best in putting over a sons, and the lovely star adds to her laurels with the many ballads, new and old, presented in "Hello, Frisco, Hello."

In her first picture in over a year, the honey-haired songstress sings one number in particular which, thanks to her knack of "selling" a song, is destined to be a hit tune—"You'll Never Know." for Alice by Mack Gordon and Harry Warren, outstanding Hollywood team of song writers.

Whether it's the way Alice wrinkles her nose when singing a song, or the dulcet tones she injects into a number that makes it Immediate favorite, is hard to say, but the fact remains that Alice is responsible for putting over more songs than any other Hollywood songbird.

Another record the star holds stems from her ability to revive old time ballads, a fact first proved in "Alexander's Ragtime Band" and later in "Tin Pan Alley." Irving Berlin, after seeing these two pictures, said of Alice, "She is one girl that could put over a song in any generation because of her style of singing."

For "Saboteur," be it known, will perhaps do more to arouse the American public to fifth column perils now existing within this country than anything that has yet been done.

Based on Hitchcock's own orig inal story idea, "Saboteur" provides the famous director with the correct elements for bringing the Hitchcock "touch" into its fullest use. It is a picture that will have audiences gripping their seats from the opening shot to the final

Both Miss Lane and Cummings, thoroughly established as stars in the light comedy field, assume new and greater importance in cinematic realm as a result of their work in this offering, in which they give deft etching to tragically dramatic characterizations. Cummings is seen as a young Glendale, Calif., aircraft factory worker, who is falsely accused of sabotage, and who sets out to track down the real saboteurs in order to clear his own name. Miss Lane is the pri who at first suspects the truth of the charges against Cummings but later becomes convinced of his innocence and goes to his aid.

Norman Lloyd, Broadway stage character actor making his camers debut in "Saboteur," turns in a brilliant performance as the vicious dynamiter and killer of the sabo tage ring. Other outstanding portrayals are those of Otto Kruger, as the multi-millionaire head of the saboteurs; Alan Baxter and Ciem Bevans, as his lieutenants; Alma Kruger as the society leader who becomes involved with the gang through her Fascist leanings, and Dorothy Peterson, as the mother of Virgil Summers, the dead airplane worker.

Highlighted by a thrilling chase across 13 states, "Saboteur" comes to a sensational close with a battle between Cummings and Lloyd on the arm of the Statue of Liberty in New York Harbor, in which Lloyd falls to his death.

Gene Tierney, one of Hollywood's most enchanting young stars, carries top billing, while Preston Foster and John Sutton head a large and imposing fea-tured cast. But here's an additional cue for moviegoers who like action that's hot and heavy: much of the action was filmed on location at Arizona's famed Thunderbird and Falcon fields, with cadets from 11 United Nations participating.

The plot, mounted on a background of roaring action in the sky, concerns the efforts of Foster, a flying instructor, to sprout wings on the burly shoulders of Sutton, who appears as an English cadet. Together they work toward that goal on the field. But after hours they are bitter rivals for the affections of Miss Tierney a young lady living at a ranch not far from the training grounds

The film was directed by William A. Wellman, noted director of adventure pictures, whose "Wings" still is considered the classic drama of the sky. The impressive cast includes such fav orites as Jack Holt, Dame May Whitty, George Barbier, Richard Haydn and Reginald Denny. Lamar Trotti, who wrote the screen play, also produced the film.

Fourth Term Issue Takes Spotlight

By KIRKE L. SIMPSON WASHINGTON, April 17 UP Democratic plans for an interparty deal to streamline next year's presidential campaign have fallen into a republican no-fourth-term ambush, but the democrats haven't given up the idea as far as their own party is concerned.

There are intimations that the idea will be pressed next spring, when the democratic national com-mittee is called to decide the time and place of the 1944 nominating

So far as influential party opinion is known the recent suggestion a shortened campaign period by National Chairman Frank C. Walker has found favor.

At least, there has been no outspoken party objection inside national committee circles or out. Observers at party headquarters regard that as significant.

They admit that the counterby Walker's republican opposite number, Harrison E. Span-gler, who informed Walker in an open letter that his committee not consider a short-campaign deal unless it received assurances that President Roosevelt would neither seek nor accept fourth nomination, diverted the discussion. A fanfare of party interchanges over the fourth term aspects resulted and continues; but no debate of the short campaign idea on its own merits from the individual party viewpoint.

Democratic advocates of the streamlined presidential campaign say the present system of prolonged delay between the nomin tions and election grew out of cirumstances long since forgotten. Modern communication and trans-portation, they contend, make it possible for party platforms or political arguments to be distributed throughout the nation in a matter of hours instead of days or superintendent and chief engineer. Wheeldon is a graduate of the local high school and the son of Mrs. W. E. Carnrike of this city.

Wheeldon, former assistant superintendent of gasoline plants, succeeds the late J. R. Jarvis. Replacing Wheeldon as assistant superintendent of gaso.ine plants is Fred Townsend, superintendent of gasoline plants in Lone Star's East Texas district. The appointments were effective April 13.

The Lone Star Producing company produces and buys gas in the field and delivers it to Lone Star Gas company.

Wheeldon is a graduate of Texas

A. & M. college and holds a de-gree in chemical engineering. He joined Lone Star in 1922 upon graduation and has worked in most of the company's major gasoine plants. He was named superintendent at Gainesville in 1925, serving in the same capacity at Petrolia in 1926 and Gordon in 1927, In January, 1937, he was appointed superintendent of gaso line plants in the Ranger district, holding that position until 1939 when he was transferred to Dallas as assistant superintendent of all gasoline plants for Lone Star.

It is estimated that the Army Air Forces will contain 2,500,000 men by the end of 1943.

Aggie Heroes To Be Honorec

Former students of Texas A & M. College in this area will join with their schoolmates all over the world in a "world-wide" program honoring all Aggies who have given their lives in battle from 1886

Dudley T. Mann, in charge of local arrangements, said that the local observance would be held the evening of April 21 in keeping with general plans developed by the ex-student's association.

Part of the program will be reception of a broadcast originating in Dallas over the Texas Quality Network at 8:30 p. m. when tributes will be paid to former A. & M. men who have served their eountry, and particularly those who were on Corregidor.

The program will start with a dinner at the Settles hotel at 7:15 p. m., which is after a "worldwide" broadcast of a program over the Columbia Broadcasting System. Mann urged all former Agreservations through him (at the Soil Conservation Service office) by noon Tuesday.

Boarding House Employes Under Social Security

Elliott W. Adams, manager of the Big Spring office of the Social Security Board, has called atten-tion to the fact that cooks, maids and other employees of boarding houses are covered by old-age and survivors insurance provisions of the social security act. He said that since the war began, with its attendant increase in busin boarding houses come into existence, especially in industrial areas and in the vicinity of military camps; and although it is generally understood that employees of cafes, hotels restaurants, etc., are subject to the law, very few owners of boarding houses realize that their employees too come under old-age and survivors insurance provisions. Even though a boarding house has only one employe, he said, that employe should have a social security account number and should show it to the owner of the boarding house so that he, in turn, may include it in the quarterly wage tax report required by law.

OPA advised the local board Friday that restaurants may now ap ply for and receive their point alents for the next two months which they must spread over the two and a half month period in order to keep some of the eating houses from closing. Also, if their increase in business has been enough to warrant it, an application can be made to the board to receive more points,

One cafe owner pointed out that his business proceeds for the first 15 days of April was already $700 over the amount for the month of March and unless extra points were given there was a possibility the cafe would have to close down for the last week in the month.

Other cafe owners and restaur ant owners made similar statements and added that meats had practically disappeared from their mus during the past week. Instead, eggs, fish, vegetables and shicken were being offered.

Interviews For The Sea Bees Scheduled

Lieut. Parrett, civil engineering officer for the U. S. Navy recruiting service in Dallas, will visit the Big Spring sub-station Thursday for interviews with men interested in enlisting as Sea Been,

All men who have had as much as two years experience in construction work may be qualified for ratings which carry extra pay, said Fred Baucom, in charge of the mb station here.

"There are many ratings open at the present time in the construction field, and all men who have had experience in this line of work are urged to contact the recruiting officer on his present trip for the ratings open and close by wire and some may be closed my time," according to Baucom. Those qualifying have oppor-tunity not only to serve their country but to secure added experience in their line of endeavor. he added. Early Tuberculosis Tests Goal Of Organizations

The Howard County Tubercu- seal sale, by which the work losis Association will join in the financed. April campaign sponsored by national and state tuberculosis associations to encourage early diagnosis of the infection.

This is part of a work that has been continuous with the local as-sociation, for through its efforts, more than 300 children have been given tuberculin tests during the past year. These were in two age groups, in children who generally have been exposed to the disease but who may not actually have an active case, and high school students, among whom the mortality tuberculosis rate is highest. Tests have revealed 54 positiv out of 200 trials, and HCTBA officials have urged parents of these youngsters to follow up by getting a chest X-ray to further test the extent of the infection. Where parents are unable to finance this expense, the HCTBA takes over. Scotching for the program, the 406 association also distributed pints of milk to undernourished children-some of whom have had this service for two years but this may be eliminated at the request of the state unit for county associations to concentrate their energies and resources on dicovering new cases, leaving charity to agencies appointed for this pur-

"Doctrine of Atonement" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientists, on Sunday April 18.

The Golden Text is: "Grace be to you and peace from God the Father, and from our Lord Jeaus Christ, who gave himself for our sins, that he might deliver us from this present evil world, according to the will of God and our Fath ar" (Galatians 1:3. 4).

Among the citations which comprize the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "Now then we are ambassadors for Christ, as though God did seech you by us: we pray you in Christ's stead, he ve reconciled to God" (II Corinthians 5:20).

The Lesson-Sermon also cludes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker "The atonement requires constant self-immolation on the sinner's part" (page 23),

-AND THE SPRING TUNE-UP OF YOUR CAR SHOULD BE DIFFERENT, TOO!

NO MORE TOP SPEEDS! You'll be driving at "35-andunder" this spring—and your car's timing, circuit breaker, carburetor, spark plugs, shoke and heat controls should be adjusted for smoother low-speed performance.

NO MORE HIGH-OCTANE GAS

We use lower-octane gas today, so our fiyers may have high-octane fuel. To prevent wasteful "pinging," your engine should be readjusted to its new diet. Whatever service work may be needed, we do the job right.

LESS GASOLINE

In addition to giving your car a gas-saving, springtime engine tune-up, you should also have it thoroughly checked for other causes of fuel waste, such as dragging brakes, leaky gas lines or the use of too heavy lubricants for today's low-speed driving.

LESS DRIVING Your generator and voltage regulator should be put in top condition now to guard against the possibility of a rundown battery later on. Your battery itself should be checked at regular intervals.

CARS ARE BEING DRIVEN LONGER

As your car's mileage goes higher — as your brakes, lights, tires and steering system grow older - a thorough check-up of these features becomes vital to the safety of you and your family.

SLOWER DRIVING-SHORTER TRIPS

When you don't drive very much or very fast or very far, it's extremely important to keep fresh, clean oil in your engine at all times - because at slow speeds your crankcase ventilation system doesn't have much chance to prevent oil dilution.

This wartime spring, it's important that you get your car set not only for warmer weather, but also for the new kind of driving you're doing today. We offer a springtime service program specifically designed to do both of these jobs. Whether you drive an Oldsmobile, or some other make of car, come in and find out about this special Oldsmobile service!

THE 2nd WAR LOAN DRIVE IS ON!

Are you a Part-time American?

T ISN'T HARD to figure your percentage as an American. Just check what you are doing against what you could do if you gave every minute of your day, every ounce of your energy . . . and, yes, every drop of your blood . . . toward winning this war.

Many men and many women have made that supreme contribution. Many more will make it -working, fighting, and dying-for American victory and American freedom. For the fight ahead is a hard one. We are just at its beginning, not at its middle, or near its end.

Of course, not all of us are—not all of us can be-in this fight with our lives. But every one of us, every man and woman, can be in it with our dollars!

Why a Lot More Money Is Needed NOW! With every foot of ground taken . . . with every naval task carried out . . . with every bombing mission against the enemy . . . the costs of war increase. More men are needed in the fight. More ships are needed for our supply lines. More planes and tanks and guns are needed on the expanding battle fronts.

This takes money. More money and still more

That's why the Government of the United States is asking us to lend it 13 billion dollars in the next few weeks. Asking us to invest, this month, an extra 13 billion dollars over and above our regular War Bond buying. And make no mistake about this: Uncle Sam's got to get that extra money to keep on fighting this war!

How to Invest Your Share!

Some time soon, you may be called on by a War Loan Drive volunteer. He'll tell you all about the greatest investments in the world todaythe wartime securities of the United States. How they're tailored to fit your situation and your ability to buy.

But don't wait for him. Decide now to dig down-dig down deep. Then take every penny you can and go to your nearest bank or postoffice and turn the money into War Bonds.

Sure, it may hurt. But a lot of clean-cut young fellows in uniform are going to be hurt a lot worse than you are before this war is won. And don't ever forget this!

You're not giving your dollars—you're lending them. Your money's going to come back to you -and bring more money with it. Money that can mean not only no depression after this war, but plenty of peace-time jobs and peace-time goods for you and yours in a busier, more prosperous country than we've ever known.

So don't wait. For your Country's sake-for your own sake-invest all you can!

Here Are 7 Different Types of U. S. Government Obligations - Choose The Ones Best Suited to You:

United States War Savings Bonds - Series E: The perfect investment for individual and family savings. Gives you back $4 for every $3 when the Bond matures. Designed especially for the smaller investor. Dated 1st day of month in which payment is received. Interest 2.9% a year if held to maturity. Denominations: $25, $50, $100, $500, $1000. Redemption: any time 60 days after issue date. Price: 75% of maturity value.

21/2% Treasury Bonds of 1964-1969: Readily marketable, acceptable as bank collateral, these Bonds are ideal investments for trust funds, estates and individuals. A special feature provides that they may be redeemed at par and accrued interest for the purpose of satisfying Federal estate taxes. Dated April 15. 1943; due June 15, 1969. Denominations $500, $1000, $5000, $10,000, $100,000 and $1,000,000. Redemption: Not callable till June 15, 1964; thereafter at par and accrued interest on any interest date at 4 months' notice. Price: par and accrued interest.

Other Securities: Series "C" Tax Notes; 7/8% Certificates of Indebtedness; 2% Treasury Bonds of 1950-1952; United States Savings Bonds Series "F"; United States Savings Bonds Series "G."

Brisk Business At Local Golf Courses

Golfers, both civilian and military, are keeping the Big Spring city park course and the country club course in use this spring, managers reported Saturday, as warmer days brought out an increasing number of golf enthusiasts.

The city golf course is just about as busy on week days as on Saturday and Sunday it was reported, and more players are using the ourse than since some time last fall. The greens are in better shape than they have been in a long time and the whole course is in tip top condition.

Similarly, the country club course is showing pick up in business particularly on weekends. Alprogress at either place, foursomes are playing the course in greater numbers than last year.

ending yet. Back in the of peace, employes were people who worked for boss. They received for a month's wages a pproximately thesam amount now being deducted from their checks for war bonds. The employes punched time clocks with fear and trembling about being late and nobody stopped during the day except for the 5 o'clock whistle or a reasonable facsimile.

Everytime the boss barked, and most of them did, employes shivered in their boots and hoped they wouldn't get fired. A conduct known in school as apple polishing was practiced by all and sundry and even involved laughing at untold.

But all things end. Now the worker finds that instead of being a nuisance he is important. Supply and demand caught up and passed each other. Instead of punching time clocks, the worker finds the boss down to greet him in the Mrs. Norman Priest left Friday morning with a smile and a handshake to welcome him on the job. stories to himself, pays through the nose for his help and does the unwelcome chores himself to keep lyrics. women, 4-F's and married workers on the job. When I dropped into the Senate press gallery this afternoon Bob LaFollette was reading a long statement showing how dumb freshmen college students are about American history. It seems that quite a few freshmen, in answering a questionnaire sent to receptions a year. There are still them by somebody or other, said 17 classes of congressmen who they thought Andrew Jackson was trust-buster, author of the Monroe doctrine, the man who freed smaller as you go back until you the slaves, the first president imthe slaves, the first president impeached and the man who took "Texas by force."

That last phrase caught the sensitive ear of Tom Connally. "Who was said to have taken Texas by force?" he wanted to know. "Some of the students were laboring under the misapprehension that Andrew Jackson had done so," re-plied LaFollette. "It 'ain't been ook' yet," chimed in his Wisconsin colleague, Alec Wiley. "It has been taken by force several times since." reparteed Senator He seldom fails to inject a cheery note and a twinkle into the somber proceedings of the sedate senate. An awful easy man to listen to. Sam Russell, of Stephenville, is that price-control bill passed we have increased the output of inflationary funds more than the whole output of farm commodities, more than the net farm income would amount to in the last year or two. Let us not make that class of citizens who have been the most patriotic of any class in the country the scapegoat now and say, You are the only ones who are trying to scalp the people and to bring on inflation,' when it is altogether inconsistent with the actions we take here in this house. In the safes, says Sam, a head of lettuce is sold for better than 50 cents to the consumer. farmer realizes 4 cents out of that same head of lettuce. This shows it is not the farmer and the price picked up his pen. Then he said he gets for his commodity that is

I think myself that the big shots here in Washington are splitting hairs over farm prices. Downstairs, in this building where I am working, a few weeks ago I could get a vegetable plate, three vegetables, beans, peas, cabbage, carrots, or what not, for 25 cents; in the last few weeks these prices have gone up to where vegetable orders are now 15 cents straight, or 45 cents for three, which is considerably more than a 50 percent increase in price. Does the grower of these vegetables get a corresponding increase in prices? I If all other prices go doubt it. up, then farm prices ought to go up in proportion. What the farmer gets is only a pinch of the

It used to be the custom to have several large receptions at the White House every "social sea-There was a reception for the diplomatic corps, one for the supreme court justices and other members of the judiciary, one for executive government employees, and one for members of congress After Pearl Harbor such receptions were discontinued. Which was O. K. by me. But somebody criticized the president for no making himself more accessible to members of congress. So the president invited all freshmen nembers of the house and senate first-termers, to an informal social gathering at the White House one evening. Henry Wallace and Sam Rayburn went over and in troduced the freshmen to the president and Mrs. Roosevelt. The affair seems to have made a hit and a good time was had by all. Then some of the sophomores second-termers, complained that they had never had an opportunity to meet the president socially a the White House. So the presi dent, always striving to please, incongress to an informal gathering of a Saturday evening. O. C.

Fisher, of San Angelo, was the only Texan freshman; Sam Russell and Gene Worley are the only Texas sophomores follows through on this scheme he will have more receptions on his hands than he would have had under the old system of four large have not been invited this year And these classes get smaller and who is the sole member serving a 19th term, the class of 1907. The last reception of all will be a meet ing between Sabath and the president! Then there's another culty: the class of 1909 are all dead or defeated. Carried to its logical conclusion, this social system will result in one reception without any guests. Something screwy about it somewhere.

The trouble is if the president

HOLLYWOOD - This town etting a few snickers of satisfic ion out of knowing that New York, which is supposed to be pretty blass, went slightly ga-ga while sequences for "Stage Door Canteen" were being Mimed in the big city.

They were the sequences which dealt only with the "extras" in the picture, the Hollywood folks point out, not caring particularly that the so-called extras are all celebrities which only a picture like "Stage Door Canteen" could bring out in force.

Great crowds of the curiou vere 'raported to have gathered regularly near the corner of Tenth Avenue and 58rd street in New York, a la Hollywood and Vine, in it. They began to understand, but still couldn't see why it was hoping for a glimpse of the famous personalities going into the big red brick For Movietone build-ing to be "shot" for the picture. Restaurants in the neighborhood reported a big business.

Hollywood, of course, beasts it can take such things in stride.

So much has been said abou those "extras" that there must be some confusion over the actual story, most of which was filmed here in Hollywood. It concerns four boys who are on furlough in New York, while headed for service overseas. They drop in at the Stage Door Canteen, fabulously successful no-charge night club operated for service men by The American Theatre Wing, and meet the hostesses.

Boy (William Terry) and girl (Cheryl Walker) have their problems, and you can take it from there, although a new twist to the old formula is promised.

The appearance of so many to the story, since celebrities name stars is, for once, legitimate are a dime a dozen at the real Stage Door Canteen. The greats of the stage have been washing dishes, serving as bus-boys, and entertaining service men ever since the Canteen was launched. The real extras are the young men who play the parts of diers, and most of the girls who are funior hostesses.

Tax Bill Is Shaping Up

WASHINGTON, April 17 (49)-Amid indications of mounting harmony, ranking house ways and means committee members - both democrats and republicans - apparently moved cautiously but surely today toward a compromise pay-as-you-go tax bill.

Belief on Capitol Hill that the tightly-locked legislative logiam on taxes would be pryed open and a new measure sent to the floor, ossibly by Wednesday, was evidenced by Rep. Knutson's (R-Minn) comment to newspapermen: We really are making progress. We're gradually drawing together, although we are still some distance this: T. Hi Grab Haines, on behalf of the Stockman's Bank & Mortgage Company, and on behalf of our client, the Stampede Hog & Cattle Company, do hereby wave, bequeath an' deed to Mr.

T. Jones, his heirs and assigns forever, any and all rights and interests we may have in the property known as the Holeman Grant." The scratching of the banker's pen came finally to a stop and Jones looked over his shoulder to make sure he had written as di-

"Fine!" he approved. "Now sign your name—an' don't forget the flourish." Haines signed. Then he put down his pen like its touch had corched him and ran a finger around the inside of his collar. "Well, you've won," he said with a grimace. "I admit I've been

"By an expert," Jones grinned "Now trot out one of your pretty red seals an' plaster it under your

"On a document of this sort I'm afraid a seal would look out of place. It is not customary—" "I'll be the judge of that!"

Jones picked up the paper and carefully read it. Then his pleased grin faded and a thoughtful scowl ame getween his eyes. "It strikes me we've left out somethin'. Here—" he thrust the paper back n front of Haines, "add this: 'All the above is attested voluntarily in exchange for the sum of one dollar and other valuable considerations.' New yut your John Henry on there again an' call in omebody to notarize it-I aim for this to be done up legal."

With a shrug Haines summoned his secretary. Sue came in with her pencil and book. She hardly glanced at Tubac. "Get your notary seal," Haines grumbled, and she came right back with it. But she got no chance to examine what she was witnessing for Haines rad folded the written part down, leaving nothing showing but his seal and signature. "That will be all, Miss Lambert,"

"Now," Haines observed, when they were alone again, "I hope this will end matters between us You've got what you wanted, now suppose you get out."
"I aim to," grinned Tubac, fold-

Brisk Trading For Farm Land In The County

Brisk trading is under way in farm lands in Howard county this spring as farmers engage in swapping and enlarging and more urban buyers join the "back to the farm movement," warranty directed more to people in addeed records at the county clerk's office indicate,

The majority of the farm buyers are experienced hands at the business and despite higher price for land than in the past are adding to their holdings. Others in swap trades are exchanging encumbered land for unencumbered property or just in a desire to change location.

A few of the "city folks" have bought half sections or quarter ection of land in an effort to either help out in the war effort or perhaps to return to farm life hey deserted many years ago. Closing of some non-essential businesses or lack of profit in some war casualty businesses have turned others to making farm investments whether they merely act as landlords or actually move out to the property to work it themnelves. Some consider the purchasing of farms a "good investment" when increased profits from other businesses reward them with more cash on hand.

But whatever the cause, the year so far has found the warranty deed volume at the clerk's office increasing each month.

Pershing School Pupils Report To The General

HOUSTON, April 17 CF9-A leter signed by 1,700 school children ras winging its way to Washington and General John J. Pershing Walter Reed Hospital tonight, telling the World War commander that his namesake school here was buying three jeeps a day during the bond drive and voicing the hope that the news might make the aged warrior feel better.

A personal note was injected when tiny Sara Beth Alexander sent the general a kies imprinted on the page beneath her scrawled signature.

Pershing school bought all the stamps available in its end of the city and had to call on the large downtown banks to fill its orders. More than $35,000 worth of securities were sold during the week by the children, Principal Clarence Orman said.

Plans Mapped For Clean-Up Campaign Early In May

Plans for another city-wide clean-up campaign are shaping up with prospects that it will be in actual operation by the first week in May.

Preliminary details were worked out in a conference between Dr. Les O. Rogers, chairman of the chamber of commerce civic and beautification committee, B. J. McDaniel, city manager, and J. H. Greene, chamber manager.

The city is to be sectionalized along the lines of the successful drive last spring, and beginning with the Rotary club meeting on April 27, appeals will be carried to the service clubs to assume responsibility for directing the lean up in certain areas.

Tentatively, May 3 was set as the date for starting the drive over he city.

McDaniel said that city trucks would make the pick-up of trash and refuse which is gathered in the drive provided that it is placed along side the garbage stops or otherwise easily accessible. Brush and similar articles must be cut down and fixed in compact bundles to conserve space and facilitate

Whether there will be any set schedule for trucks to make the pick-up in various sections of the ity is a detail to be worked out. Last spring the tonnage of trash thus gathered ran into several hundred.

This year, special emphasis is to be placed on cleaning vacant lots. While the appeal will be first of jacent areas to take the initiative lake today. where owners fail to respond. This, it was pointed out, will not only improve surrounding territory but prevent trash from blowing in so readily.

McDaniel also expressed the hope that many would substitute vegetables for flowers in their flower and shrub beds, since these would not only offer greenery but

Convict Slain By Longview Deputy

LONGVIEW, April 17 (A) Gregg County Sheriff Lonnie Smith said today Deputy Sheriff Gaines Preston last night shot and killed Clyde Tawater, 35, Louisiana convict wanted for parole violation, in the courthouse. Sheriff Smtih said Preston, J. R.

Brown, a military policeman, and another deputy, Fonsa Leath, were taking Tawater to jail, when Tawater threatened Brown and attacked Preston with a knife. Attendants at a night club had called officers when Tawater became abusive, the sheriff said.

OVER THE TOP

MATADOR, April 17 UP:-Motley equity, with a population of 4.000, oversubscribed its $104,000
second war loan drive quota yesterday, Elmer Stearns, co-chairman of the drive said, adding that the bonds were sold in less than four working days.

At Convention—

Pr. E. O. Ellington (above) left Saturday for Fort Worth, where he will attend sessions of the 63rd annual convention of the Texas State Dental Society, which opens Monday to continue for four days. Dr. Ellington is one of the organization's vice presidents, representing the Northwest division. He will return to Big Spring next Friday.
