Farwell Homecoming To Be 'Better Than Ever'

Homecoming week at Farwell High, slated for October 5-9, promises to be a week full of fun, contests and tradition. "Better Than Ever" is the 1981 theme for the annual homecoming week, this year being sponsored by the Farwell Student Council.

Highlighting the week will be "Crazy Days," with each day of the school week being designated as wear something special day, with the winners of each day being announced at Friday's pep rally, which will begin at 3 p.m. CST in the school gym.

The week will culminate with the crowning of the new king and queen. The coronation ceremonies to also take place at Friday's pep rally.

This year's royal candidates for queen include: freshman Sandy Coleman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Coleman; sophomore Sheran Smallwood, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Smallwood; junior Tammy Obenshain, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harlin Obenshain; and senior Janene Berry, daughter of Patsy Berry and Jim Berry. Sharon Kalbas is the queen candidate-at-large. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbert Kalbas.

Candidates for king include: freshman Roger Robertson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cotton Robertson; sophomore Alan Eubank, son of Mr. and Mrs. J.W. Eubank; junior Jay Anderson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Anderson; and senior Rocky Ford, son of Mr. and Mrs. Doyle Ford. David Daniel is the king candidate-at-large. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Luciano Daniel.

There will be no school on Monday as the teachers will participate in an in-service day in Friona. Tuesday will kick off the homecoming hoopla with the day designated by the Student Council as crazy hair-do day, with all students and faculty members wearing their fanciest or craziest coiffure.

Wednesday will be coveralls day, Thursday is backwards day and Friday will be dress-up day.

Daily ribbons will be awarded for the "crazy day" winners, who will then be recognized at the pep rally for their originality. Winners will be selected from both the student body and the faculty staff.

Thursday night, at the old Farwell baseball field, will be the pep rally and traditional homecoming bonfire, to be built by the freshman class. The blazing tower of inferno will take place at 8 p.m. CDT.

Friday's pep rally will be the place to be for all students, alumni, faculty and friends of the Blue and White. Not only will the new king and queen be named, and the winners of the crazy days be recognized, but a special "mini-parade" will also take place.

The mini-parade will feature wagons, bicycles or "anything that will fit into the gym," according to Student Council president Jack Smallwood, who said the "floats" are to be decorated in the theme "Better Than Ever."

Any individual, club or organization is invited to enter the parade. A $5 entry fee will be charged.

Prizes of $25 for first, $15 for second and $10 for third will be awarded to the winning entries. Smallwood advises that no mechanized floats will be allowed as they could damage the gymnasium floor.

That night, the senior class will host a chili supper in the school cafeteria from 5:30-7:30 p.m.

Beginning at 8 p.m., the varsity Steers will host the Lubbock Christian High School team for a homecoming football game. The royal court will be introduced at halftime, and the marching Steer Band will entertain as well.

Following the game the seniors will have a victory dance in the old school gym complete with a live band.

Former Farwell homecoming queens are being invited to the football game, and those who attend will also be introduced at halftime ceremonies Friday night.

All former students of Farwell schools are invited to take part in all the homecoming activities, as are all parents and fans.

It is still not too late to order homecoming mums and boutonnieres from the Student Council.

Starting price for a mum corsage is $5.50 and a boutonniere with a blue "F" is $3.50. The orders may be placed with any member of the Student Council, including Jack Smallwood, Rocky Ford, Johanna Mesman, Sharon Kalbas, Kelly Davis, Jennifer Stancell, Shana Blain, Tammy Obenshain, Sheran Smallwood, Shelley Ford, Vicki Heard, Roger Robertson, Sammy Sanchez and Ricky Sikes.

of Jerry Sadberry and Anna Southard.

It was a victorious, fun-filled week for Texico during its annual homecoming festivities. The volleyball girls defeated two important district competitors, Tatum and Floyd, and the football team held their Mountainair opponents scoreless while racking up 28 points of their own.

Poster contests and dress days also took place during the week, with the winners of the poster contest being announced at Friday's pep rally. Contest prizes were donated by the Bleacher Bums and were medallion replicas, trimmed with ribbon streamers. Those named as winners were:

ELEMENTARY SCHOOL: Kay Singlettery's 3rd grade.

Lisa Crooks, Kent Harding Crowned Texico's Royalty

Lisa Crooks and Kent Harding were crowned 1981 Texico Homecoming King and Queen last Friday night in ceremonies on the Wolverine football field just before the victorious gridiron clash between the undefeated varsity Wolverines and the now 1-3 Mountainair Mustangs.

Miss Crooks is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arlye Crooks of Texico and is active in school activities at Texico. The Texico senior is a participant on the varsity volleyball team, is a varsity cheerleader and is secretary of the senior class.

Harding is the son of James Harding of Texico and is also an active student at Texico. The Texico senior is currently a member of the varsity football team, and serves as president of the Student Council.

The two were crowned by last year's royal couple, Rhonda Tharp and Gary Mitchell, who were driven to the coronation site by Doug Sobin of Clovis in a 1961 Morgan convertible.

All of the homecoming candidates were driven to the ceremonies in automobiles donated by Crow Pontiac of Clovis, as the musical soundtrack from the movie "Endless Love" filled the air. Drivers stopped at the 50-yard line where a lattice-work screen, adorned with flowers and greenery, served as the backdrop for the crowning ritual. Two potted palms flanked the screen.

The queen candidates, including Miss Crooks, Jill Jesko, Tracy Dobbs, Lisa Reid and Dana Burk, were all dressed in formal length gowns. The king candidates, including Harding, Neal Snipes, Jeff Dunsworth, Jerry Wimberly and James Kelley, were suited in their football gear.

As the new queen, Miss Crooks was presented with a rhinestone tiara by Miss Tharp, a bouquet of white carnations which had been dipped in Texico green, and the traditional queen's robe, which will now have her name embroidered inside with those of past queens.

Harding received the traditional king's crown from Mitchell.

Elementary students Tori Harmon and Jeff Lynn served as crown bearers in the ceremony. Miss Harmon wore presented the 1981 royalty with their crowns. Miss Crooks also received a bouquet of green and white carnations and the traditional queen's robe which will now have her name embroidered inside with those of past queens.

It's In The Cards: Jacks Win Money

Everyone laid their cards out on the table this week, and as the football weekend drew to an end, it was the Jacks that came out on top.

Jack Kirkland of Farwell took first place in the fourth week of the Tribune-sponsored Merchant's Football Contest, with 10 perfect guesses. For his predicting, Kirkland was presented a check for $7.50. In second place with nine perfect picks was Jackie Burk of Texico who won $5 for her guessing power.

Jackie was among six entrants who had nine perfect guesses, but her tiebreaker score was only 13 points off, winning her the second place money in the contest.

Others who called nine games correctly were Bill Liles, 14 points off tiebreaker; Kevin Okers, 37 points off; Doyle Green, 43 points off; Nancy Langdon, 51 points off; and Mark Owen, also 51 points off.

The contest proved to be a bit tougher than in weeks past as most contest entrants picked the "wrong" teams in what could be called "upsets."

Lazbuddie, who had not scored a TD all season, came across with their first season victory last Friday night against Amherst, and while the home of the Longhorns was filled with glee, a moan could be heard from many football contest entrants as the majority had chosen Amherst to be victorious in the game, and consequently the prognosticators were beaten out of a perfect score.

Other most missed games were Oilers at Jets, Falcons at Browns, and Bovina at Plains.

The Texico computer and the Texico High School math class each had five correct picks, the computer not advancing much in its precision prediction power.

As the contest enters its fifth week, Mark Williams, the first week's winner, sits in the top spot with 37 points.

Only one point behind and in second place are Sam Drager, Richard Engelking and Jack Kirkland, each with 36 points.

Other contest standings, each separated by a mere one point are:

3RD PLACE, 35 POINTS
D. Wade Cargile, Johnny Curtis, Ken Horn, Vicky Lynn, Donnie McDonald, Thad Phillips, Leigh Ann Woods and Mike Woods;

4TH PLACE, 34 POINTS
Jimmy Castleberry, Marcia Cole, Carl Dean Goettsch, Craig Kaltwasser, Max Lonsdale, Billy Roberts, Mrs. W.M. Roberts, Don Williams, Jennifer Williams, and James Craig;

5TH PLACE, 33 POINTS
Hobby Coffman, Doug Cole, William Dannheim, Steve Franse, Doyle Green, Teresa King, Carl Kirkland and Sue Kirkland.

Predicting power is the name of the game, and for those who have emerged into the top five spots over the 370 weekly entrants, the grand prize of two tickets to the Dallas Cowboy-Philadelphia Eagles game on December 13 seems too close for comfort. But with eight weeks remaining in the contest, anyone who has entered each week could still emerge as the winner.

Jack Over Aces

Jack Kirkland, right of Farwell took top prize money in this week's Merchants' Football Contest, and received his check of $7.50 from Ralph Balfanz of Carmack & Sons in Clovis, a contest sponsor. Kirkland had 10 correct picks this week, the only entrant out of 370 to do so. In second place, with a winning tiebreaker entry, was Jackie Burk, a junior at Texico High School. For her pickings, she received $5. The contest enters its 5th week with this issue, and Mark Williams, the first week winner, sits in first place with 37 points. Remember, there are two tickets to the Dallas Cowboy - Philadelphia Eagle game to be played in Dallas on December 13 for the grand prize winner, plus $50 in expense money and an overnight's stay at the Regent Hotel in Dallas; so keep those entries comin' in!!

Ah, October, our favorite month on the Golden Spread. In the event the latter weeks of the month turn out to be out of character we will get our annual tribute to the month in early.

Oh suns and skies and clouds of June and flowers of June together Ye cannot rival for one hour October's bright blue weather.

President Reagan went on the air to explain his economic program and to lay the groundwork for additional cuts in the Federal Budget. Naturally it has caused an uproar in the liberal ranks and even some of the conservative members of Congress are shying away from some of the proposed cuts in social programs.

In our opinion there are plenty of areas in the social program area that could yet feel the knife of fiscal pruning. We won't harangue you on that point. Instead, we will say that there has been one sensible suggestion in respect to the military budget.

It is quite simple. Put the MX missile in existing silos and save the billions and billions of dollars necessary to put on the shell game extravaganza. It appears that the arguments put forth for this idea are both tactically and financially sound.

We hope that what passes for common sense in Washington, D.C., gives this idea the green light - soon.

When it comes to football upsets last week's contest card contained more than a fair share. At least this was the consensus of the area entrants.

While there were a few variations, the large majority of contest entries voted for Amherst over Lazbuddie, Bovina over Plains, Falcons over Browns and Oilers over the Jets. A body might call these true upsets. On the iffy side more called Nebraska over Penn St. and Oklahoma over Southern Cal but not enough to look on them as upsets for our local seers.

We didn't put the Cowboys on last week because we felt that they could beat the Giants - and they did. However, they did look sloppy in the process. The Cowboys are among the three unbeaten NFL teams at this date but this has been more due to a weak schedule for them than brilliant playing on their part.

They can to some degree keep on just getting by for the next several weeks but they better have their act together when they play the Miami Dolphins on October 25 and then the following week when they invade the home turf of the Philly Eagles.

At about four o'clock on the afternoon of November 1st we will know if America's Team has True Grit.

We note that Anacin has been adjured to shape up its advertising act and let the folks know that they are talking about aspirin. We recently received a communication from the Texas Press Association telling us we would have to screen ads for different forms of deceptive wording.

We are not very enthusiastic over that process but are just glad we don't have a lot of women's beauty product advertising to worry about. In our opinion there is more hokum put forth for beauty aids than in all the used car advertising put together.

Read the other day that 60% of America's women were overweight - that's just round figures.

Meet The Government

Three students from Betty Turner's Farwell 6th grade Social Studies class attended Monday night's Farwell City Council meeting to see first hand how the local government operates. Councilman Fred Chandler [left] and mayor Walter Kaltwasser [far right] were more than happy to take a few moments with the sixth graders and answer a few questions. Before the meeting began, city clerk Janie Bowery was grilled by the inquisitive youngsters, who asked the veteran city government employee such things as "How does this government operate? Show with the council mem-

Farwell City Ponders Tax Service

Patsy Nancy, Parmer County's Chief Tax Appraiser, met with Farwell City Council Monday night explaining to the councilmen the process needed to be taken in order to obtain her services as the City's tax collector.

"In a survey I sent out last year, everyone (10 tax entities in Parmer County) said they would like for me to collect their taxes," she said. "Now I'm visiting everyone and letting them see the contract they will need to sign. It all has to be done by contract," she further commented.

Mrs. Nancy explained to the city fathers that her contract was currently at an Amarillo attorney's office, but that as soon as it was returned to her, she would mail it to the council to review.

In year's past, city tax collection has been done by Janie Bowery, city clerk, on an annual basis.

If Mrs. Nancy's services are contracted by the City, she will take care of the collection of all taxes, in addition to delinquent taxes, with the cooperation of the Amarillo law firm.

"I have figured the approximate cost of collecting all the taxes in Parmer County to be around $14,000, but I won't know exactly how much until I know how many (entities) want me to collect for them," she said.

Mrs. Nancy is in the process of procuring the tax collecting duties for all school districts, city governments and county governments in Parmer County, and explained that the cost to do so will be pro-rated in proportion to the amount collected by each entity.

"A couple of entities on the original survey asked me how often they would get their money and at the time I figured it would be every few weeks, but now, with the NCR equipment I'll use, I think we can send it out daily if you needed it that often," she added.

She further explained that daily money pick-ups by entities may be necessary for some as "some entities invest money more often than others do."

Mrs. Nancy told the council that the total tax levy in Parmer County nears $4 million.

The county tax appraiser further explained to the city fathers that her new office is "coming along real well" and that she has trimmed her originally submitted budget of $228,407 by $9 thousand.

In other business transacted, city clerk Bowery reported to the council that she had been notified by the engineers working on the Environmental Protection Agency's construction project for a new wastewater treatment plant in Farwell, and had been advised that the city would be receiving a letter in 10 days or so asking them to apply for Step II of the project.

The engineers presented the fourth and final public hearing for Step I in late June advising the city fathers of projected costs, financial information and the proposed wastewater treatment plant improvements.

With Step I completed, the City must now apply for a Friday's pep rally also featured a special homecoming skit put on by the varsity cheerleaders, and narrated by their sponsor, Paula Leighton.

The skit saw "Little Miss Wolverine" being scared by a tough Mountainair Mustang, until the full squad of Wolverines came to the rescue. To add to the sound effects, Mrs. Leighton held signs saying "BOO!" or "YEA!" and the student body cheered accordingly.

Following the football game that night, the senior class took part in a victory dance and members of the alumni were treated to a special ex-students reception hosted by the Bleacher Bums in the high school library.

Crown Bearers

Homecoming tradition at Texico calls for two elementary students to serve as crown bearers at the king and queen coronation ceremonies. This year's crown bearers were Tori Harmon (left) and Jeff Lynn, who are the children of Mr. and Mrs. Ron Harmon and Mr. and Mrs. David Lynn, all of Texico. The children carried their crowns atop green and white fluffy pillows which each bore a large "T". Crowned as 1981 king and queen were Kent Harding and Lisa Crooks. They were crowned prior to the football game between the varsity Wolverines and the Mountainair Mustangs.

Bovina Man Charged With Theft, Assault

Alfredo Alonzo, 20, of Bovina is currently in Parmer County custody after being arrested last week on an auto theft charge, an assault charge and a possession of marijuana charge.

Alonzo was arrested in connection with the assault of a Bovina Allsup's clerk the morning of September 26, according to Parmer County Sheriff Bill Morgan. For that offense he was fined $200 plus court costs and sentenced to 15 days in jail by Parmer County Judge Porter Roberts, according to Morgan.

The Bovina man was also arrested in connection with an auto theft charge. Julian Lopez of Bovina reported to the sheriff's office that his auto had been stolen the morning of September 26. The auto has since been recovered by sheriff officials. For that charge, Alonzo posted $5,000 bond and was bound over for grand jury action and is in Parmer County custody.

The charges for possession of less than two ounces of marijuana are still pending, Morgan said.

In other action this week, sheriff officials are investigating the burglary to the R.C. Davis, Jr. home, located in Oklahoma Lane.

Burglars entered the home during the day of September 24, and reported missing are 13 guns, 50 knives, some old coins, jewelry, 27 packages of pork chops, nine frozen fryers, one goose-down jacket, and various other items.

Bill Martin of Lariat reported that three 12-volt batteries from irrigation wells were missing from his property. Martin placed a total value on the missing batteries at $120.

C.C. Naegle of Bovina reported that his 1978 Ford half-ton pickup was stolen the night of September 28. Sheriff Morgan said the license number of the missing vehicle is ML2834.

Jo Geuther of Farwell reported to sheriff authorities that an Amarillo Globe-News paper rack was stolen from the Farwell post office.

Ford, Smallwood Nominated To All-American Band

Years of dedication and hard work have paid off for two Farwell school musicians, Rocky Ford and Jack Smallwood, as the two have been nominated to the 1981 McDonald's All-American High School Band.

Ford, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Doyle Ford, was chosen for both the saxophone and percussion and Smallwood, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Smallwood, was chosen for playing the trombone.

Both were nominated to the All-American Band by Farwell band director Lynn Burton on the basis of musical honors and solo contest ratings.

The nominations were announced by Ronald C. McVean, owner/operator of the McDonald's Restaurants in Amarillo, the Texas Panhandle and Eastern New Mexico.

"It is a pleasure for us to see motivated young people get the recognition they deserve," said

McVean. "We are proud of these students because only the best high school musicians in the country are nominated to the All-American Band."

Ford and Smallwood are two of 14 young musicians to be nominated from the Texas Panhandle and Eastern New Mexico.

If selected to the musical group, playing for a new director and with a new batch of musicians will not be a new experience for the local two-some. Both Ford and Smallwood were selected as members of the New Mexico Lions Club band and as such took part in both the Lion's state convention conducted in Albuquerque and at the international convention in Phoenix this past summer.

The All-American Band was formed in 1967 to honor outstanding high school musicians. Every year, band directors across the country are invited to nominate two of their finest musicians to the band.

From the thousands of nominations received, 104 -- two from each state and the District of Columbia, plus one member each from the Virgin Islands and Puerto Rico -- are selected to represent their states in the All-American unit.

The 1981 All-Americans will perform in the nationally televised Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade, at half-time festivities celebrating the 50th Anniversary of the USO at the November 28 Army-Navy Game in Philadelphia, and in the famed Tournament of Roses Parade on the New Year's Day in Pasadena, Calif. All-Band members will be eligible for music scholarships to be awarded by the New England Conservatory of Music, Boston; and the National Music Camp at Interlochen, Mich.

Nominees who are selected to be members of the All-American Band will be notified in early October.

Number One In Texas

Shown with the plaque, presented by the State Office of ASCS, and their two certificates presented by the U.S. Department of Agriculture, are the office staff from the

Adams, district director; and seated, Jo Schell, Sheryl Taylor and Judy Dollar. The office was chosen as the state's top ASCS office for "outstanding service to agriculture."

Parmer ASCS Office Chosen State's Best

Parmer County Agriculture Stabilization and Conservation Committee office has been selected as the top ASCS office in the State of Texas, according to Prentice Mills, local ASCS executive director.

Mills and two of his staff attended a recent awards ceremony where he received a plaque from the Texas ASCS Commission and certificates of merit and appreciation from the U.S. Department of Agriculture for the recently bestowed honor.

"Since Parmer County has the best farmers in the world, then of course it follows that we would have the best office in Parmer County," said Mills. "This is a team effort; we have tremendous people in this office."

The award given for "Outstanding Service to Agriculture" was presented to Mills at ceremonies conducted September 22 in College Station. Attending with the local director were Dorothy Gast and Jo Schell, both employees in the Parmer County office.

The presentation was made to Mills by Roy Jacoby, chairman of the Texas ASCS Commission. Mills is proud to point out that the award is the top award in the State of Texas given by the State ASCS Commission, and was presented not only to his office staff, but also recognizes members of the ASCS County Committee as well, including David Grimsley, chairman; Tom Caldwell, vice-chairman; and alternates Floyd Schuler and Tom Beauchamp.

Fire Calls

Farwell had no emergency calls this week, but Texico reports receiving two ambulance calls.

On September 24 at 9:30 p.m. the ambulance was dispatched to the Burger Barn in Texico where a three car accident had occurred. One person was transferred to Clovis High Plains Hospital, and was released that night.

On September 25 at 9:21 p.m. the ambulance took Texico football player Craig Horne to the Cannon AFB hospital after he broke his knee during the game.

Texico Woman In Auto Mishap

A three-car accident occurred near the Burger Barn in Texico on September 24, resulting in a passenger being transported to Clovis High Plains Hospital.

Kim Longo of Texico was a passenger in a pickup truck which when it backed out of the Burger Barn driveway, entered the east bound traffic lane, was hit by a car traveling east sending it to the west bound lane, where it was hit again, according to Texico city marshal Mickey Fenn.

The driver of the pickup was cited for improper backing, and another driver in the incident was cited for driving while intoxicated, Fenn said.

Longo, the only Texico person involved, was released from the CHPH that same night. Others involved in the mishap were from Bovina and Clovis.

Roberts Hears Cases

Parmer County Judge Porter Roberts heard two cases last week, one involving assault and one involving driving while intoxicated.

Ronnie Spence, 33, of Farwell pleaded not guilty to a charge of assault and posted a $200 bond pending a court hearing.

Ricardo Diaz, 58, of Friona, charged with DWI, was fined $150 plus court costs, 20 days in county custody and given a six months deferred judgment.

Parmer County Judge Porter Roberts had a busy week, with several court cases, mostly on drunken driving charges.

Virgil Harper, 34, of Amarita, Okla., charged with DWI, was fined $400 plus court costs and sentenced to seven days in Parmer County custody.

Richard Waterfield, 24, of Ruidoso, N.M. was charged with DWI and fined $150 plus court costs, sentenced to 20 days in jail, and given a six-month deferred judgement.

Valentine Trillo, 22, of Muleshoe, charged with DWI, was fined $200 plus court costs and sentenced to five days in county custody.

Alfredo Alonzo, 20, of Bovina was charged with auto theft, assault and possession of less than two ounces of marijuana.

For the auto theft charge, Alonzo posted $5,000 bond and was bound over for grand jury action. For the assault charge he was fined $200 plus court costs and sentenced to 15 days in jail. The charges for marijuana possession are still pending.

Paul Coachman, 21, of Hereford was charged with DWI and had bond set at $500.

Andres Garza, Jr., 26, of Bovina, was charged with DWI, fined $200 plus court costs and sentenced to five days in county custody.

David Wines, 39, of Bovina, charged with public intoxication, was fined $35 by Farwell Justice of the Peace Albert Smith.

Johnny Jaramillo, 63, of Bovina was charged with DWI and is currently in Parmer County custody.

Three Parmer County juveniles, charged with theft of food stamps, also appeared before Roberts.

Bovina Man Completes Course

Pvt. Natividad O. Munoz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Tito B. Viernes of 508 Third, Bovina, has completed a Vulcan crewman course under the One Station Unit Training (OSUT) Program at the U.S. Army Air Defense School, Fort Bliss, Texas.

During their training, students learned all phases of the firing and tracking systems of this air defense system.

The Vulcan is a 20mm automatic six-barrel gun mounted on a self-propelled armored personnel carrier and is designed primarily for anti-aircraft defense.

OSUT combines basic training and advanced individual training.

He is a 1981 graduate of Bovina High School.

Kirt Martin Named Outstanding Man

The Board of Advisors of the Outstanding Young Men of America awards program has announced that Kirt Martin of Lubbock, formerly of Farwell, has been selected for inclusion in the 1981 edition of "Outstanding Young Men of America."

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Preston Martin of Farwell, Kirt is a graduate of Farwell High School and is in his third year as agronomy teacher at Lubbock Christian College.

Martin received his bachelor of science degree from Lubbock Christian and earned his master's degree from Oklahoma State University. He recently took his judging team from the college to national competition where they took the first place award. The criteria for selection of young men to this elite group include a man's voluntary service to community, professional leadership, academic achievement, business advancement, cultural accomplishments and civic and political participation. Men chosen for the honor are nominated by senators, congressmen, governors, mayors, state legislators, university and college presidents and deans as well as various civic groups.

In ancient Rome, unmarried girls were prohibited by law from wearing pearls. Instead, the pearls were worn by young men, who placed the pearls in tiny bells which, hanging from their ears, tinkled gaily.

Farwell History Class Has Egyptian Visitor

The way Elizabeth Phillips sees it, if you can't take your students to Egypt, you should just bring Egypt to the students. And that is exactly what she did for her high school world history class at Farwell.

Well, it wasn't as if she hauled in a few pyramids, or a well-preserved mummy. What she did was to invite an Egyptian foreign exchange student, currently studying for his masters degree at ENMU, to speak to her class.

Aladin Mahgouli from Cairo, Egypt, spoke and also gave a slide presentation contrasting both the old and new life in his native land.

"The kids thoroughly enjoyed it," Mrs. Phillips said. "He told them about his country's customs, about his Moslem religion and about the teenage life in Egypt."

Mahgouli is currently studying for a graduate degree in marketing and business administration at the Portales university, and said that he plans to attend another southwest university to obtain his doctorate degree.

He is president of the International Students organization at ENMU and says he "loves it" here.

The graduate of Cairo University with a bachelors degree in marketing, Mahgouli says he also studied for two years in London. The native of Egypt speaks four languages fluently including Arabic, English, French and Spanish. He says he can also make himself understood in many other languages used around the world.

His brother graduated from the masters degree program at ENMU one year ago. Mahgouli is one of 130 international students currently studying at Eastern.

Mrs. Phillips explained that because her class was currently studying the country of Egypt, she thought it would be more beneficial and more interesting for her students to hear first hand how the country operates and how the people really live. "It's much more fun to hear from someone who has been there than to read about it," she said.

The Farwell educator says she plans to continue the program by inviting other ENMU foreign exchange students to speak to her students when they begin the study of other world countries.

Country's Symbols Topic For Study Club Program

Members of the Farwell Study Club GFWC met Monday evening for the first meeting of the fall season.

"Americanism" was the program brought by a panel of members, including Eunice Crume, Bernice Pennington, and Hattie Coffey, who told the club of the symbols of the United States. They said, "A symbol is something that stands for or represents something else."

Since Colonial days America has used several different symbols. The first of these was the Indian girl legend of Pocahontas. Each colony derived its own symbol, but the pine tree of Massachusetts was among the best known.

The motif was patterned after the Biblical tree of life and carried the slogan and appeal to heaven. Perhaps the most popular was the rattlesnake which carried the slogan "DON'T TREAD ON ME." Sometimes the slogan was combined with the pine tree.

The group was also told that during the revolution period although Pocahontas still wore the Indian costume her skin was lightened to match the spirit of the new nation.

The artist gradually changed the symbol to a goddess-like figure which still wore the Indian costume headress but was clothed in white. It was only natural that sooner or later she would be clothed in the national banner, thus the power of the goddess of liberty was transformed into Miss Columbia, later called Miss Liberty and is still around today.

The group learned that "Uncle Sam" was created in 1813 to represent the government and has been around so long it is hard to think of a time when he was not a part of the American scene.

Sam Wilson, a brick maker, born September 3, 1766 in Massachusetts, was active in politics, a jovial, tall, lean man who was known as Uncle Sam Wilson. He provided supplies to the army, and when the U.S. was noticed on the barrels, and someone would ask what it stood for, they were told "Uncle Sam Wilson, of course. He is the one who is feeding the army."

And this incident became a big joke and for a long time it was passed around as a Hudson Valley folk tale. This was several years before it was connected with the government.

The first drawing of Uncle Sam was in 1832 and was entitled "Uncle Sam In Danger." In the drawing he was clean shaven young man in a stripped robe.

In the next drawing, 1837, he is much older, still clean shaven and dressed in a robe that is definitely the U.S. flag, with tall hat. The tall hat was a symbol of elegance.

Thomas Mink is credited with giving Uncle Sam his whiskers after the Civil War. The image of Lincoln was so strong in the minds of the people that Uncle Sam soon took on the character of Lincoln and that is the way he is still pictured today.

One of the most noticed pictures of the Uncle Sam is the one which says "Uncle Sam Needs You." That one was drawn by James Montgomery Flagg and is still in use today.

It has been said that there may be deep significance in the choice of "Uncle" to represent the government instead of a mother or father image.

A good uncle is one who brings goodies and makes himself popular without having the authority reserved for parents.

The club learned that although Uncle Sam has been around a long time it was not until 1961 that Congress passed the resolution recognizing him as the official symbol to represent the country, and that Samuel Wilson was the original Uncle Sam.

The Study Club agreed that the Uncle Sam symbol should be left just the way it is without change and said they are hopeful he will be around a long time.

Also at the meeting, the flags used by the United States in years past were on display, courtesy of Hugh Moseley. The official U.S. flag has been changed 28 times.

A regular business meeting followed the program with president Julia Symcox presiding. During the session the members decided to conduct a Tater Bake October 13 at the Jaycee Community Building in Farwell. Tickets will be sold in advance, and there will also be a style show with other entertainment during the event.

It was also decided to sponsor gifts for Christmas for the Rehabilitation Center in Vernon.

An October 8th field trip is set for the club, with members going with the Muleshoe Study Club to the Wildlife Refuge near Muleshoe.

Those attending the meeting were Hattie Coffey, Bernice Pennington, Eunice Crume, Alma Sledge, Frances Kube, Julia Symcox, Elma Hart, Ellen Wurster, Carrie Christian, Ethelyn Forbes and one guest, Reta Dollar.

The following poem by Eunice Crume was read at the conclusion of the program:

OLD GLORY
That magnificent banner waving on high
The "Stars and Stripes" against the sky
Is more than a banner of cloth to me
It represents our country, strong and free!

When I look upon the flag I see
The men who fought to make us free
Washington, Grant, and other brave men
Who loved our country and fought to win.

When I look at the flag I also see
A wonderful land for you and me
The majestic mountains and canyons grand
The rolling prairie and rich farm land.

The red is for valor of our brave men
Who fought in battles our country to defend
The red of a sunset at the close of day
Poppies growing in Flander's far away.

The blue is for loyalty, the color of skies,
The ocean, blue lakes and blueberry pies.
White is for purity, church spires and snow
Fluffy white clouds and daisies that grow.

My flag! Old Glory, I see in you
A place where dreams can come true.
A symbol of freedom, love and liberty
Yes, you mean all this and more to me!

NORTHAM SINGERS

Farwell Baptists To Host Gospel Group

The Northam Singers gospel group will present a special program of gospel music at First Baptist Church of Farwell on Sunday, Oct. 4, at 7 p.m. CDT.

The Northam Singers, full-time music evangelists, were voted the number one favorite group for 1981 in the Southwestern Gospel Music Association Fan Awards. Members Sharon Watts was named number one favorite female vocalist and Bruce Northam was named favorite male vocalist.

The group has produced seven record albums and appeared in numerous churches, concerts, youth rallies, revivals, crusades, high schools and colleges as well as radio and television appearances.

Pastor Dudley Bristow invites the public to attend.

Kindergarten Kids Attend Clovis Fair

Each new day in the life of a small child is a learning experience, especially for those in Marcia Cole's Farwell kindergarten class. And Tuesday of last week was no exception.

The children in both the morning and afternoon classes were treated to a bus ride to the Curry County Fair at Clovis, where their class time was filled with new sights, new sounds and new smells.

The kids in the morning session were able to see the fair "getting underway" with exhibitors readying their livestock for show, fair employees preparing their rides and booths for customers, and the early fair goers arriving at the gates.

The bathing of the animals and the curling of cows tails for showing were the highlights of the morning kids, who learned that showing an animal at the fair takes a lot of preparation.

In the afternoon the children were able to see the exhibits, some of the livestock shows and a lot of the fair crowds.

To keep track of everyone, Mrs. Cole had each child hold on to a rope that she held at one end and her aide Wanda Gobble held at the other. "Everyone held to their part of the rope and we were all courteous and used our good 'kindergarten manners,'" she said, adding "the day was a huge success and the children enjoyed it to the fullest. We hope they learned a great deal."

Pleasant Hill Pals Meet

A demonstration of rocketry safety was presented by Justin Barnes at the September 24 meeting of the Pleasant Hill Pals 4-H club, with other lessons given by Martin Singletery, who presented a demonstration on showing a pig, and Melissa Singletery giving a talk on the beef carcass contest.

Other members presenting information to the club included Jubal Pierce who gave a demonstration on how to sharpen a swivel knife and Robin Pierce who demonstrated the splicing of lace.

Those attending voted to have a Halloween party for their October meeting at the home of Zandy and LaShawna Kelley.

Members present included Justin Barnes, Terry Whitener, Martin and Melissa Singletery, and Jubal and Robin

Pierce, and guests Chad Barnes and Wilma Nell White-ner.

Following the meeting, Martin and Melissa Singletery served refreshments to everyone.

Janell Garrett Receives Jr. Cap

Janell C. Garrett of Farwell was among 67 other junior level nursing students at West Texas State University to receive her cap at convocation ceremonies September 25.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Phil Garrett of Rt. 1, Farwell, received her cap, indicating that she has completed basic courses needed toward the goal of a nursing career.

History Of Women's Club Theme Of Monday Program

Texico Women's Club members heard a history of their organization when the group met for its regular monthly meeting in September. Juanita Hadley presented the club history for the evening's program, giving names of past presidents, listing programs and projects, fund-raising activities, and names of those receiving scholarships as well as the Girls State representatives.

Prior to the program, a salad dinner was hosted by Vickie Chumley, Juanita Hadley, Maxine Shaw, Kay Coffey, Marcia Leavell, Caren Spearman, Evie Thornton and Janice Turner. Table decorations were in brown and gold and a Columbus Day theme was featured.

The district convention to be in Hobbs on October 9 and 10 was discussed and it was announced that Mesdames Chumley, Hadley and Turner would represent the Texico Women's Club at the convention.

Club members listed along with guest Aileen Teel above and members Sandra Rucker, Diane Parker and Jacquie Olsen, were present for the September meeting.

The next meeting will be a Silver Anniversary Tea to mark the 25th anniversary of the Texico Women's Club. It will be on the club's regular meeting night, the third Monday in October.

Marriage Licenses

There were two marriage licenses issued from the Parmer County clerk's office this week.

The licenses were received by Ralph Duane Parker and Gayla Beth Goldsmith; and Jose Overlin Balli and Tanya Cherrie Wilson.

September Meetings Start Year's Program For ESA

Theta Rho Chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha sorority started off the new club season with two meetings in September.

The initial meeting of the new year for the sorority chapter was a Mexican dinner hosted by Rosa Roberts, educational director, at a Clovis restaurant on September 14. Following the dinner, a short meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Roberts in Clovis.

Attending this event besides Mrs. Roberts were Dardanella Helton, Joyce Williams, Lillie Christian, Dot Christian, Robin Gregory, Gwen Corn, Nell Walling, Terri Nichols, Deb Williams, Leslie Lunsford, Caren Spearman, Margaret Aycock, Maxine Williams and LaMoin Williams.

On September 28, Dardanella Helton hosted ESA members at her home in Texico. An interesting program was given by Billie Jones from a creative gift shop in Clovis. Mrs. Jones gave a demonstration on making corn husk decorations, featuring holiday wreaths and various Christmas ornaments and decorations.

Joyce Williams, Theta Rho president, was in charge of the business meeting. She urged all members to attend the State Council meeting to be held in Clovis on October 10 and 11. The sorority also voted to serve the luncheon at the High Plains Ladies Golf Association end of the year tourney to be played at Farwell Country Club course on Wednesday, Oct. 14.

It was decided to sponsor a rummage sale this weekend as a fund-raising project. A short discussion on rush was held but the subject was tabled.

Attending this meeting were Margaret Aycock, Lillie Christian, Gwen Corn, Robin Gregory, Dardanella Helton, Leslie Lunsford, Rosa Roberts, Caren Spearman, Nell Walling, Deb Williams, Joyce Williams, LaMoin Williams, Maxine Williams and Terri Nichols.

Velma Kelley Tells Of Spiritual Gifts

Baptist Women of the First Baptist Church of Texico met at the church recently for the conclusion of Velma Kelley's program on "Gifts of the Spirit."

Sub-topics in the program were "Affirmation," "Introspection," and "Confession," with many members of the group taking part in the scripture reading, taken from 1st Corinthians and Ephesians.

The regular Bible study opened with Lois Hudnall playing on the piano, "Take My Life and Let It Be." She then read the names of the missionaries having birthdays on that day. Allie Burris led the group in prayer.

The 10 ladies present were Mesdames Helen Bowers, Nora Day, Mary Dell Brown, Mora Schlueter, Bobbie Gilliam, Mamie Hightower, Allie Burris, Lois Hudnall, Velma Kelley and Gracie Dane.

Ruth Sunday School Has Monthly Meeting

"Filled With Service" was the title of the devotional given by Helen Bowers to members of the Ruth Sunday School Class of the First Baptist Church of Texico September 17 in the home of Allie Burris.

The devotional included scripture taken from Acts 6:1-7, and the reading of a poem entitled "A Seed Sower."

The meeting was opened with Mrs. S.G. Jones leading the group in prayer, and the secretary's report from the August meeting was read by Gracie Dane. Ann Schloss read the treasurer's report.

Refreshments of pink lemonade pie, banana punch and coffee were served to the 11 members and one guest present. Members included Mesdames Eunice Taylor, Mamie Hightower, Hettie Harrison, Mora Schlueter, Ann Schloss, Kathryn Broun, Nora Miller, Helen Bowers, S.G. Jones, Gracie Dane and Allie Burris, and guest Shirley Miller.

Lady Spikers Take 2 Of 3 Dist. Games

Texico's lady spikers took on three district opponents in recent play, defeating two and falling to one, placing their district record at 4-1. Their defeat came at the hands of arch-rival Melrose, the team that continues to plague the local volleyballers as their only real threat.

The Lady Wolverines hosted Floyd last Thursday, defeating them 18-16, 7-15, 15-6. The second game loss was the first loss for the spikers since last winter's state championship battle.

"We got behind 14-11 in the first game, but came back to win 18-16. The girls didn't give up and I was real glad to see them come back like that," commented coach Mike Littlejohn following the game. "Floyd was the best team we had played so far. Their coach, Carolyn Franklin, said it was her team's best game of the year."

Littlejohn said that Ruth Scott "did real well spiking and blocking. She had four kill shots," and added that "Cheryl Scott did all-around real well, and Pam Hoyl had 11 out of 13 serves."

In their first two games with the Broncos, Texico served 75 and 65 percent, respectively, and in the third game they served 85 percent.

On Saturday, Texico went to Melrose to play the only team to beat them last year on their way to the state championship title. The local lady spikers lost their bid against the rival team, losing in two quick games 15-12 and 15-2.

"We just weren't mentally there," Littlejohn said. "We were ahead at one point 4-0, then Melrose took the lead, and we just never came back strong enough. We had them right where we wanted them, but didn't continue with it."

Littlejohn said the first game with Melrose was close enough to win, but in the second game, "We just didn't watch. We just stood around." Their loss to Melrose has been their only district loss this season. It was last year that Texico fell to second place behind the Melrose girls in their bid for the district title.

On Tuesday, the girls hosted

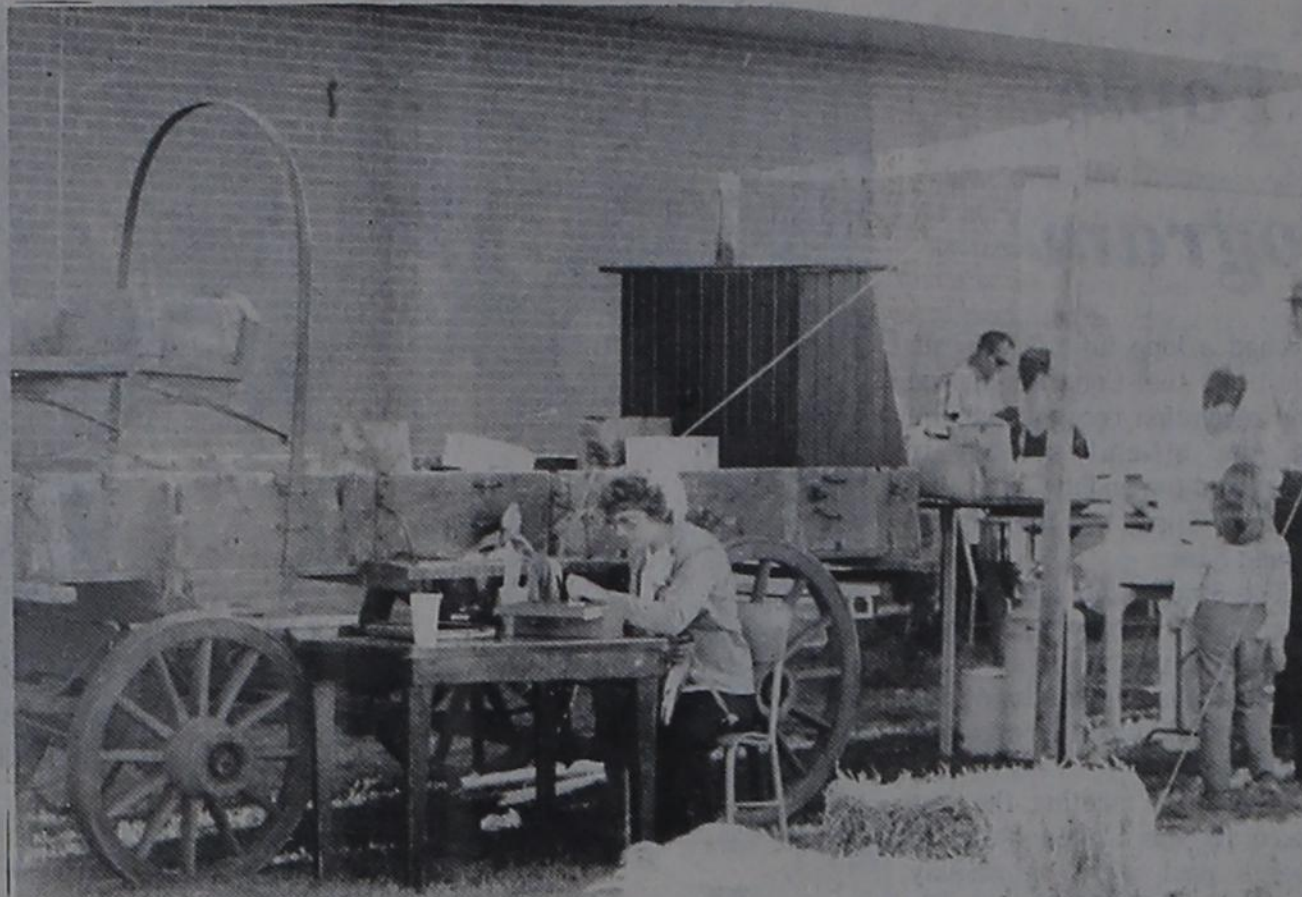

Dora for the second time this season, defeating the visitors 15-6, 15-4. "We played pretty good, but we still were not real consistent. We have got to get better," said Littlejohn following the competition.

"Our serving was better at times, we had some good passes, and Tracy Dobbs and Ruth Scott had some great set and spike combinations, and that was a big part of the win," he said.

Littlejohn also cited Cheryl Scott for her good passes during the game.

Following their win over Dora, the girls have a district record of 4-1 and a season record of 6-1.

They were to have traveled to Elida for their 6th district game on Thursday, and on Saturday will take part in the Raton Girls Volleyball Tournament. Littlejohn said their first competition in the tournament will be against a team from Liberal, Kan., a squad he says comes from a class 5A school. "But I don't know if they are good, or what," he said.

Come And Get It!!

Rita Dunsworth [seated] was head ticket taker at last Friday night's Texico Booster Club-sponsored Chuck Wagon barbecue supper. Other booster club members were part of the crew serving Texico bales of hay or at picnic tables. The meal served as a fund raiser for the boosters, who spend their earnings on athletic equipment, awards and publicity for the Wolverine athletic teams.

Texico Says Thanks

Tribune news editor Mary Sobin was honored last week by members of the Texico student council and faculty. She was presented a potted plant and two tickets to the homecoming barbecue meal at the school's weekly pep rally by the student council. Later that afternoon, she was the honoree at a surprise cake and cola party given by members of the Texico faculty. A board with the words "Thanks Mary" and a paper medallion saying "Photo-Journalist" was presented to her, as well as a poster from the Texico journalism students. The special occasion was held to thank the Tribune writer for her coverage of Texico school news. [Photo by Ronnie Warmuth.]

Junior Spikers Take Victories

Texico's junior varsity spikers won two games this week, defeating Melrose and Dora, and the junior high split their games, losing two to Floyd and Melrose and winning their bid against Dora.

The junior high volleyballers lost their match against Floyd 11-15, 8-15 last Thursday. "Floyd was good," said coach Mike Littlejohn following the game, adding, "They had three freshmen on the team who also play varsity. We are still in the learning process."

On Saturday the junior high squad fell to Melrose 15-7, 9-15, 5-15, and on Tuesday, the girls had a taste of victory, defeating Dora 15-13, 16-14. "They were behind 13-7 in both games and came back to win," said Littlejohn. "They played real good after they got behind. They played a little more like we should be playing. When they finally got started, they played well," he said.

The junior varsity girls had two victories this week, defeating Melrose 14-16, 15-9, 15-3, last Saturday, and on Tuesday defeating Dora 15-6 and 15-8.

For the Dora competition, Littlejohn commented that the girls played "real well serving 90 percent," and added that Karen Snodgrass got in some good spikes.

Wolverine Band In Lubbock Parade

Although the marching Wolverines had hoped that their participation in the Tri-State Fair Parade in Amarillo last Monday would prepare them for when their marching and musical capabilities would be judged at Lubbock's South Plains Fair Parade, the Green and White musicians were not selected to one of the top four places in the Class A category.

Jerry Sadberry, director, said the Wolverines placed high among the bands who were competing, but that they did not do well enough to bring home a trophy.

Sadberry was pleased with the band's performance in Amarillo last week, and said that even though the parade was not judged, the Amarillo High School band had been selected as that parade's best.

Last Saturday the group traveled to Texas Tech Stadium in Lubbock and observed other bands perform on the Jones Stadium field.

Allsup's Marathon Saturday In Clovis

The 7th annual running of the Allsup's Marathon is to feature some world class runners this year. The event is slated for tomorrow (Saturday) starting at the Clovis High School track at 7 a.m. MDT.

The marathon, sanctioned and certified by the Amateur Athletic Union (AAU) will give runners a choice of the full 26.2 mile course, a 13.1 mile course of a 10 kilometer course.

Persons interested in participating in the race may obtain a registration form by calling 762-5010, and registrations will be taken through topping the list of running entrants this year is a pair of brothers, Al and Stan Waquie, both from Jemez Pueblo, N.M.

Al was last year's winner in the half marathon in Clovis, and he recently took the 1981 Pike's Peak Marathon in Colorado Springs, with a time of 3:24:00. En route to his winning, he set a new ascent record as well as an over-all record on the full run.

His brother, Stan, holds a personal best time of 1:09:00 in the half marathon and took second place in the 5,000 meter Los Alamos Mini Marathon.

Lonnie Allsup, president of Allsup's Convenience Stores, Inc. and sponsor of the race, said, "At 12 noon MDT, T-shirts will again be given to all contestants who complete the race and 117 trophies will be awarded to the winners."

Competition reached new heights last year with 440 runners in the race, some from as far away as California and Florida. Over 500 runners are expected for tomorrow's event.

Assisting with the timing of the race will be members of the Clovis Track Club and members of the Curry County Sports Car Club.

Texico's This, That And The Other

by Texico Journalism Students Dan Bator, district representative from Herff Jones Yearbook, presented a workshop in organizing a student yearbook to the Texico journalism classes recently.

Ann Pierce's second grade class has begun reading "Johnny Appleseed" and will soon try to draw some art work about their newly-read-about character.

Coach Littlejohn says he is pleased with their improvement in distance over the last four weeks.

Ann Liethen's government civics class is learning the different parts of the front page and about the editorials, for newspapers. The class is also learning the difference between a news story and a feature story.

The class reads the Clovis News-Journal once a week and they also read the political picture.

Wolverines Race Past Mustangs, Earn No. One Rank In Class A

Texico's Wolverines hosted the Mustangs of Mountainair last Friday night in the Wolverine's homecoming encounter. The Green and White offense did its job putting points on the board just as the defense did their holding the visitors scoreless, and the Texico squad came away with a 28-0 victory.

The homecoming win not only upped Texico's record to 4-0, but also won running back Earl Bibbs the title of New Mexico Player of the Week for the second straight week.

The Wolverine defense was the first to be on the field as Texico kicked off to Mountainair. The defense continued to hold the Mustangs and after picking up only one first down, Mountainair was forced to punt.

Texico mishandled their first opportunity with the ball however, and Mountainair recovered it on the Wolverine 25-yard line.

But the Green and White defense met the challenge and James Robinson broke through the line on the first down taking the Mountainair ball carrier down on the 28-yard line. Next, defensive end Kent Harding swatted down a Mustang pass, and following an incomplete third down pass, Wolverine Jeff Holland tripped up the Mustang QB in the backfield on a fourth down, giving the Texico offense its first real taste of the ball.

The Green and White offense was in high gear and ready to play. After two plays, Willie Bibbs broke through a big hole in the Mustang defensive line, opened up by Dale Johnson and Lloyd Williams, for 20 yards and an important first down.

Later in the drive a pass from Jerry Wimberly to Kent Harding picked up 15 more yards, giving Texico another first down, this one on the 9-yard line.

Three plays later it was W. Bibbs going over the goal line for the first score of the game. A pass from Wimberly to Todd Geris was good for 2 points, making the score 8-0 with 2:54 left in the first quarter.

The strong Wolverine defense held their opponents for three straight plays following the kickoff, forcing the Mustangs to relinquish the ball on a punt once more.

The Green and White offense immediately took control of the ball and drove 75-yards on 11 plays with W. Bibbs again going over for the touchdown behind the blocks of Jeff Dunsworth, John Gallegos and James Robinson.

The key run in the drive came from Earl Bibbs who dashed for 36 yards.

The extra point kick by Brad Steward was good and with 8:35 left in the half the Texico squad was on top 15-0.

The mighty Texico defense once again held the Mustangs without a first down forcing another punt following the kickoff. The Wolverine offense fumbled however, returning the ball to the visitors on the next play. Mountainair once again ran into the same tough Texico defense and once more had to punt after only a short possession. The punt was a long one, pinning Texico on its own 7-yard line.

The Green Machine was quick to move the ball though, wasting no time in gaining their third touchdown. The score came on an 11-yard run by Wimberly with 1:29 showing on the clock. A quick pass from Wimberly to wide-receiver Kevin West, who weaved through the Mustang defense for 38-yards, was the main play in the drive.

The extra point attempt was blocked and the score stood at Texico 21, Mountainair zip.

The Mountainair squad was determined to score before the half. On their first play from scrimmage, a Mustang back broke loose and scrambled all the way down to the 4-yard line before safety B. Steward could bring him down, preventing the almost touchdown.

The Green and White defense rose to the occasion and Lynn Tubbs made a big tackle on a first down play bringing the enemy ball carrier back to the 8-yard line. Two plays later Wolverine corner-back James Kelly intercepted a Mustang pass returning it to the 28-yard line, with a mere three seconds left in the half.

And the Wolverine offense machine wasn't finished. On the last play in the half, Wimberly pitched out to E. Bibbs who broke loose and rambled 72 yards to paydirt behind a key block from Kent Harding.

The extra point kick from Lloyd Williams was good and the Wolverines went to the locker room on top of a 28-0 score.

Texico's reserve players came on the field fired-up in the second half and quickly drove the ball up field on runs from Steve Garrett, L. Tubbs and Ronnie Dunsworth. Quarterback Brad Steward hit tight end Jeff Johnson for 16 yards and a big first down, but the drive was stopped abruptly on a mishandled snap which the Mustangs recovered on their own 24-yard line.

The remainder of the second half was strictly a defensive battle with neither team able to generate much offense.

On a serious note, player Craig Horne was injured in the fourth quarter, suffering a broken knee. Horne is currently hospitalized at Cannon Air Force Base Hospital.

"The game gave us the opportunity to play some of our younger kids that hadn't had a chance to play yet," commented

Coach David Lynn following the game. Lynn cited newcomers to the turf, Ronnie Dunsworth, Kenny Akers and Billy Askew, for their outstanding beginning performances.

Receiving the weekly big lick awards were offensive players Ronnie Dunsworth, Brad Steward and James Kelley; and defensive players Jeff Holland and Kent Harding.

Tonight the team travels to Happy, a squad who ruined last year's Texico homecoming with a 16-6 defeat. "We didn't play well against Happy last season," recalled the coach. "We did not hit well at all." The coach said this year's Happy team is not exceptionally big, but has a quarterback who "throws the ball well."

Jr. Wolverines Undefeated, Beat Muleshoe Mules, 28-6

by Ronnie Dunsworth

Texico's junior high Wolverine football team hosted the "Angry Black" Muleshoe Mules 8th grade team Thursday, Sept. 24, taking their third win of the season, 28-6.

Muleshoe teed the ball up and kicked to Texico with Billy Bibbs returning it for an 80-yard touchdown. The PAT attempt failed, leaving the score, with 7:45 remaining in the 1st quarter at 6-0 for the Green and White.

The Mules were stopped on their first possession and punted back to the Wolverines. Neither team could score again in the 1st quarter, but in the 2nd quarter, the Wolverines started a scoring drive ending with B. Bibbs scoring on a 45-yard run.

The PAT attempt run failed, leaving the score at Texico 12, Muleshoe zip.

The Mules started a scoring drive late in the 2nd quarter capped off by a 60-yard touchdown run around the left end. Their PAT attempt was thwarted leaving the score at the end of the first half, Texico 12, Muleshoe 6.

Texico kicked off at the beginning of the 3rd quarter putting Muleshoe back deep in their own territory. Texico's defense shut down the Mules attack forcing them to punt. Texico started another scoring drive moving down to the Mules' 2-yard line.

On the next play, the Wolverines fumbled the ball into the end zone with Ronnie Galvan and Doug Thornton recovering it for the touchdown. Buck Gaddis passed to Stanley Cross for the PAT making the score at the end of the 3rd quarter, Texico 20, Muleshoe 6.

The Wolverines scored again in the 4th quarter with B. Bibbs taking it in from 32 yards out with an impressive touchdown run.

Charlie Bibbs' 2-yard PAT run was good, upping the Green and White's total to 28. Time ran out for the Mules as they failed to score again, ending the game.

In the rushing department, B. Bibbs led the Texico attack with 225 yards on 20 carries. Close behind was Charlie Bibbs with 40 yards on seven attempts, and in third place was Buddy Adkins and Rusty McCormack tallying 4 yards on one attempt each.

Stanley Cross led the receiving corps with one catch for 3 yards. In the passing department Buck Gaddis was one out of 3 attempts and one PAT.

The game's leading tacklers were B. Bibbs and Doug Thornton with 10 each; Ronnie Galvan and Rusty McCormack with 6 and 7 tackles, respectively.

Those players recovering fumbles were C. Bibbs, McCor-

The Geris' catch made the score 8-0 with 2:54 remaining in the first quarter. It was Earl Bibbs who scored the team's first TD following a 65 yard drive by the Green and White. Texico won the game 28-0 for their fourth season victory. Tonight the Wolverines will travel to Happy, Tex., for a game at 7 p.m. MDT. The Green and White will next face their first district match on October 9 at Texico.

Longhorns Take Victory Over Amherst Bulldogs

Lazbuddie traveled to Amherst last Friday night and handed their hosts a 13-6 defeat, giving the Longhorns their first taste of victory this season. "It was great," said head football coach Terry Campbell following the game. Not only was it Lazbuddie's first win this year, but it was also the first time the Longhorns saw the other side of the goal line.

Their first score came on a two-yard run by Bart Elliott, with Jerry Steinbock kicking the PAT.

Ralph Gonzalez caught a 40-yard pass from K.C. McBroom for the Longhorns' second TD, but the PAT was no good.

Both Lazbuddie scores came in the second quarter, and the two teams were held scoreless during the game's second half.

According to coach Campbell, defensive ends Mark Lust and Doug Stanley had "excellent games," as did corner Daniel Schacher.

Tonight the Longhorns host Bovina, a team which Campbell cites as "real good. They have a year's more experience than us. But after last week's win for us, we'll be more respectable."

Campbell said his team intends to control the ball and move it offensively, and keep it away from Bovina.

Game time is 8 p.m. at Longhorn stadium.

In the U.S. the modern game of golf was first played on a three-hole course in Yonkers, N.Y.

Chieftains Scalp Steers For Fourth Season Loss

by Doug Cole

Farwell School Correspondent

The Friona Chieftains, behind the running of Nelson Jackson, broke a two-year losing streak at the expense of the luckless Farwell Steers, 35-0, Friday night at Farwell.

The Chieftains, winless in their last 17 outings, scored 21 unanswered first-quarter points en route to their victory over the Steers, who are still without a win after four games.

Friona wasted no time in scoring, as Chieftain speedster Jackson fielded the opening kickoff on the 18 yard line, and blazed 82 yards for a touchdown. Although the PAT attempt was wide, with only 15 seconds gone in the game, Friona was on top of the Steers 6-0.

On their first possession, the Blue and White drove 36 yards to the Friona 35 yard line, behind the running of Robbie Armstrong and Santiago Lucio. However, after an incomplete pass, the local team was forced to punt.

Steer punter Brian Langdon pined the Chieftains down on their own 6 yard line, but it was to no avail. On the Chieftain's first offensive play from scrimmage, Johnson took the handoff and sprinted 94 yards for a score. This time, Johnson caught a pass for a two-point conversion to make the score 14-0 with just 4:20 gone in the game.

After forcing the Steers to punt, the Chieftains completed their first-quarter scoring spree with a 55 yard touchdown pass, barely two minutes after their second score. The kick for the PAT was good, and the Steers found themselves behind by 21 points.

In the second quarter, both teams had to resort to punting the ball on their first possessions. After a Farwell punt, the Chieftains started a drive from the Steer 48 yard line with about 8 minutes left in the half. Eleven plays later, Johnson crashed in from the 2 for yet another Friona score. The kick for the extra point was good, and with but 1:24 left in the half, the visiting team was 28 points up on the Steers.

As they did in the first half, the Steers started off the second half with a miscue, this time a costly fumble on their own 25 yard line. Friona took full advantage of their mistake, as they rolled for their final score of the game when Johnson scored from one yard out at 5:20 of the third quarter. The Chieftains added a kick for the conversion, to build their lead to 35-0.

Although the Steer offense never seemed to get rolling, the defense stiffened up after allowing one second-half touchdown. Rocky Ford dropped Friona quarterback Mark Tucker for a 10 yard loss late in the third quarter, and Robbie Armstrong trapped Chieftain runners twice behind the line of scrimmage. Jimmy Bernal, Brent Green and Raymond Sierra broke up several pass plays. Also, Bernal had a fumble recovery in the fourth quarter of play. However, the game ended with the Chieftains recording a shut-out over the winless Steers, 35-0.

Farwell is idle this weekend, in preparation for their Homecoming battle with Lubbock Christian High School on October 9.

Head coach Bruce Dollar said the Friona Chiefs were a much-improved ballclub and too experienced for his players to handle. "We are a young football team with only two lettermen returning from last year," said the coach. "We have to improve if we are to be competitive," he added.

For the season, the Steers have given up 157 points while scoring only 13.

Care To Dance?

Farwell Steer Doug Teel [right] meets head to head with a Friona Chieftain in the final play of the game last Friday night which saw Farwell on the losing side of a 35-0 score. The Blue and White just couldn't seem to recover from the opening kickoff which Friona ran 87 yards for their first score. This week the Steers have an open date and the players will use the time to prepare for their homecoming game next week against Lubbock Christian High School.

Farwell Lady Linksters Win At Tournaments

Alice Vinton and Sharron Hughes of Farwell took first place in the championship flight in the recent Brownfield Ladies Golf Tournament, as well as taking prizes in the September 23 Muleshoe Jennislippers Partnership Golf Tournament.

In the Brownfield tourney, Vinton and Hughes shot three under par to garner the first place title. In Muleshoe, Vinton and her Clovis partner, Wanda Hardy, took second place; and Hughes and Robin Gregory took third place, all playing in the championship flight.

Also taking part in the Muleshoe link event from Farwell were Bev Obenshain and Doris Herington, championship flight; and Bernice Norton and Doris Ford, 3rd flight.

Obenshain took the prize for having the longest drive on hole number two.

Tournament participants were treated to a barbecue luncheon with all the trimmings, door prizes were given following the tournament, and gift certificates were awarded to the winners.

8th Grade Yearlings Defeat Friona, 16-0

Farwell's 8th grade Yearlings scooped up a 16-0 victory over the Friona Chieftains last Thursday, with both Blue and White touchdowns scored by Kevin Owen.

Owen scored the TD's on a 20 yard run and a 25 yard run to put the 12 points on the Yearling's side of the board. The first TD was raised point-wise by a two-point PAT run by Steven Jaime.

Eric Williams caught a Jaime pass for the second

PAT, pushing the score to 16-0.

Defensively, Coach Mike Prokop had nothing but praise for his squad, and cited players Bobby Ford, Steven Jaime, Jesse Anzuldua, Ernest Valenzuela, Carlos Nicholas, David Rubio, Ralph Nicholas and John Bernal for good performances.

The 8th grade gridiron squad has a two-week break from the turf before traveling to Lubbock to tackle the Lubbock Christian junior high team.

The 7th grade Yearlings suffered a 6-0 defeat last week on the Friona field, but Coach Prokop is still optimistic saying that the team "played a lot better than they did against Morton. They are improving with each game."

Prokop named players Jason Schilling, Raymond Osborn, Daniel Rubio, Jody Ketcherside, David Woods, Joe Morales, Daniel Hutchins, Jerry Cole and Erik Burton for their contribution to the Farwell effort.

Dallas, Texas was named after George Mifflin Dallas, Who was he? Vice-president of the United States in 1845.

No School Monday

For Farwell

Farwell students will have a day's vacation from classes Monday, Oct. 5, as faculty members will have an in-service day in Friona.

Classes will resume on Tuesday, kicking off a week full of homecoming activities. See related story this issue.

Parades Prepare Band For Marching Contests

by Doug Cole

Farwell School Correspondent

The Farwell Junior High Band has been busy these past few weeks, marching in parades at Amarillo and Friona in preparation for upcoming marching contests.

The Yearling Band traveled to Friona, where they marched in the Maize Days Parade, an annual event in that city. Following the parade, the band members attended the fair at the city park.

Last week, they were one of 25 junior high bands from across the South Plains to march in the Tri-State Fair Parade at Amarillo. Again, the students got a chance to enjoy the midway after marching.

The junior high band, which includes the 7th and 8th grade, was not in competition with other bands, or given a rating at either parade. However, both trips served as "valuable practice," according to director Lynn Burton, for two important upcoming marching contests.

Results of their first competition, which was in the Brownfield Harvest Festival Parade on September 26, have not been received yet, according to Burton.

The marching Yearlings will next compete in the Eastern

New Mexico University Homecoming Parade on November 7, and will also perform at the halftime show of the ENMU-Cameron State football game as part of a joint effort with about 15 other bands.

The Farwell High School Fighting Steer Band was one of 50 marching bands to participate in the South Plains Fair Parade at Lubbock Monday. Although the band marched and played "very well" ac-ording to director Lynn Burton, they failed to place in the top four bands out of 15 competing in their classification. Taking top honors in class AA were Shallowater, Ropesville, Hale Center and Plains.

Parents of band members have been busy lately taking orders for the Steer Band Calendars for the upcoming year. Cost of the calendars is $3, and birthdays and anniversaries may be included on their proper dates for 25 cents.

So that the calendar might be back by the time of the band's Winter Concert in December, those interested in ordering one should contact Gloria Hutchins or Betty Dollar before Saturday, Oct. 3.

Trap Shoot Set For Saturday

Final preparations are being made for the Sertoma Club's trap shoot to be held at the Rounder Club Trap and Skeet range at Cannon Air Force Base Saturday, Oct. 4.

Competition will begin at 9 a.m. MDT, and will end at 5 p.m., according to Ray Sena, project chairman.

Entry fee has been set at $3 per person, and cash prizes will be awarded for each match.

The Clovis Noon and Evening Sertoma Clubs are sponsoring this event as a fun raising project to help finance club-sponsored functions, Sena said.

"We are looking forward to a good meet, and invite all area shotgunners to participate," Sena said.

National 4-H Week Observed By Parmer And Curry Clubs

The five Parmer County 4-H clubs and two from the Texico area will observe National 4-H Week October 4-10 along with nearly five million other 4-H members across the nation.

Bob Gilliland, state 4-H program director for the Cooperative Extension Service, New Mexico State University, said the 1981 4-H Week theme is "4-H Pathways To The Future."

"This year's theme challenges all 4-H members to become self-directing, productive, and contributing members of society," Gilliland said.

Neither the Texico 4-H or the Pleasant Hill 4-H clubs have any formal plans set for the national observance, but Parmer County 4-H'ers will be taking part in radio broadcasts on KZOL radio in Farwell.

"This annual observance is only one week in year-round programs that are aimed at developing young people into responsible citizens," Gilliland said. "In everything we do, 4-H members are encouraged to seek individual growth and accomplishment, express their creativity and accept social responsibility," he said.

The 4-H members learn by working with projects that help them select and follow pathways toward career development. The practical projects and real-life activities range from agriculture to wood science. Individual programs vary around the states of New Mexico and Texas according to the needs and community resources.

Some of the more popular programs for New Mexico and Texas 4-H members include dog care, beef cattle, bicycle safety, clothing, communications, cooking, creative crafts of all kinds, dairy cattle, electrical energy, entomology, food preparation and preservation, gardening, health, photography, poultry, public speaking, farm and ranch safety, sheep, swine and veterinary medicine.

The 4-H participation of young people from urban environments tripled in the 1970's and membership from towns of 50,000 and their suburbs is now more than 23 percent of the national membership, Gilliland said.

The traditional rural and small-town 4-H member, such as those found in both Parmer and Curry counties, still dominates the national membership. In 1980, 49.6 percent of all 4-H members lived on farms, or in rural area, or in towns of under 10,000 population, statistics indicate.

The total national 4-H membership is almost evenly divided between girls and boys, with a slight percentage edge to girls. More than 58 percent are between the ages of 12 and 14, and members in their upper teens account for about 13 percent of the national enrollment.

Gilliland said volunteer 4-H leaders are at the center of the 4-H's successful program.

"For every hour spent by a professional Extension worker on 4-H, our volunteers spend another 12 hours. That works out to 25 eight-hour days each year for each volunteer," he said.

According to Gilliland, there are more than 567,000 volunteer 4-H workers on a national basis.

Locally, Parmer County has five 4-H clubs, Texico has one and Pleasant Hill has one. All take part in annual Achievement Days as well as county, district and regional competitions.

The clubs in Parmer County, their officers, and meeting times include:

OKLAHOMA LANE 4-H
President, Randy Davis; vice-president, Amber Rhodes; secretary, Dana White; treasurer, Keith Smith; reporter, Zed Stewart; council delegate, Brent Stephens; council alternate, Trent Schilling.

4-H BUILDS LEADERS

4-H Members Win At Project Fair

Forty-two 4-H'ers from the five Parmer County clubs exhibited projects in food preservation, baked goods, arts and crafts, clothing, horticulture and animals at the recent Parmer County 4-H Project Fair during the Friona Maize Days Celebration.

Emerging as winners were Dana Ralston, Farwell 4-H, who won a blue ribbon for her macrame owl; Shelley Salyer, blue ribbon for her grape juice; and the grand champion winner in clothing and arts and crafts was Sharlet Johnson, Bovina 4-H club, for her plaid wool jumper.

The Ball Award for canning went to Angie White, Oklahoma Lane 4-H Club, for her green beans; to Kendra Stephens, Farwell 4-H, for peaches; and to Devera Rhodes, Friona 4-H Club, for strawberry jam and pickles.

The grand champion in baked goods and preserved food was Devera Rhode's pound cake.

SWCD Director Election Set October 6 At Hub

An election for a director to serve in Zone 3 on the Parmer County Soil and Water Conservation District Board is scheduled for October 6, 1981 at Hub Grain in the Hub Community, announced M.C. Osborn, chairman of the board. The election will be held at 10:00 a.m.

Slate law decrees that to be eligible to vote in a soil and water conservation district director's election, a person must own agricultural land within the subdivision where the election is being held. The person must also live in a county all or any part of which is in the district and the voter must be 18 years old.

Legal qualifications state that a candidate for the office of a soil and water conservation district director must own land in the zone he represents, be 18 years of age and be actively engaged in farming or ranching. He must also live in a county all or part of which is in the district.

Zone three of the district includes an area from a line beginning at Parmerton going north to Frio Draw and taking in the following area: Land south of Frio Draw below Hub to Castro County line.

Current members of the board of directors of the Parmer County SWCD are M.C. Osborn, chairman, of Friona; Leon Grissom, vice-chairman, of Bovina; Phillip Johnson, secretary-treasurer, of Hub Community; R. Dan Smith, member, of Lazbuddie; and Raymond Schueler, member, of Rhea Community.

The purpose of the Parmer County SWCD, with headquarters in Friona, is to promote sound soil and water conservation programs on farm and ranch lands within the district and to serve as a voice for farmers and ranchers on conservation matters and other issues affecting private property rights of landowners.

The district board of directors coordinates the conservation efforts of various local, state and federal agencies and other organizations and has authority to enter into working agreements with these governmental agencies and private concerns to carry out its purpose.

All conservation programs managed by the district are of a voluntary nature to the landowner or operator.

GOD NO RESPECTER OF PERSONS

In Romans 2:11 we read that "there is no respect of persons with God," and these very words with slight variations are found many times in the Bible.

How wonderful! No "big shots" with Him! Rather all stand on the same footing before His bar of justice.

Do you know why the kings in Israel's history were—and were meant to be—so rich? This was so that they might rule with true justice, beholden only to God. The rich could not bribe the king, nor the powerful intimidate him, for he was far richer and more powerful than they. There was only one person over the king—spiritually; the prophet, who kept reminding him of the Word and the claims of God.

Well, God is infinitely richer than all the wealthy rulers, barons and magnates of this world put together, thus there is "no respect of persons with Him."

But now a question: If God is no respecter of persons, why did

He favor one nation, Israel, above all the rest and for many centuries bless them above all others?

The answer: God made a difference to show that "there is no difference" (Rom. 3:22,23). He made an artificial difference, a dispensational difference, to show that there was no essential difference, no moral difference. He erected a "middle wall of partition between us" to show that that wall must be broken down (Eph. 2:14-16).

And thus it is that the same God who once said to Israel: "Ye are the children of the covenant ... Unto you first ..." (Acts 3:25,26)—this same God now says:

"There is no difference between the Jew and the Greek (Gentile), for the same Lord over all is rich unto all that call upon Him.

"For WHOSOEVER shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved" (Rom. 10:12,13).

Gobble Named Director Of County Spelling Bee

The director for the 1982 Parmer County National Spelling Bee has been named by the Amarillo Globe-News and West Texas State University (Canyon), sponsors of the annual educational program. In charge of the county's bee arrangements will be David Gobble, principal of Farwell Elementary School, who served his first term as director in 1981. Gobble will choose a date for the county contest and name a winner prior to April 3, 1982. The county champion will then participate in the 34th Regional Spelling Bee in Amarillo on April 24 competing for numerous awards, including the top prize—an all-expense paid trip for two (courtesy of the Globe-News) to Washington, D.C. in early June for the national event. Last year's Parmer County champion was Melinda McMillan of Farwell. Rules for participation are established by the national sponsors, the Scripps-Howard Newspapers, Cincinnati, Ohio. The two basic requirements are (1) students must not have passed beyond the eighth grade at the time of their individual school finals; and (2) they must not reach their 16th birthday on or before the date of the national finals (June 1).

Contests begin with classroom eliminations, then school spelldowns and finally the county event.

Words for study are prepared by the national sponsors. This is a small booklet containing in excess of 3,000 words. The cost is 40 cents each and the list may be purchased from Spelling Bee Editor, Amarillo Globe-News, Box 2091, Amarillo, Texas 79166.

Interested students who wish to take part in the educational promotion are encouraged to obtain the booklet directly from the newspaper. The booklet, "Words of the Champions" may also be obtained by principals and county bee directors.

The area assigned the AGN and WTSU covers four states -- the Panhandle of Texas, Panhandle of Oklahoma, parts of Kansas and New Mexico and represents 46 counties. Bee coordinator is Gene Parker, Director of Placement, West Texas State University, Canyon.

The sponsors also conduct a Junior Bee for students in the sixth and lower grades. These county winners will be guests of the sponsors at the regional contest on April 24, but will not compete unless they are also winners of the secondary contest. Annually there are about 10 who are declared dual county champs. Last year's Junior Bee winner was Amber Rhodes of Farwell.

Additional information may be obtained from Mrs. Jean Bartlett, Amarillo Globe-News Spelling Bee Editor, or Gene Parker, WTSU.

Crazy Days Promote Spirit

To help generate spirit at Farwell High School, the Student Council has proclaimed each Friday as "Crazy Day" with students and faculty members invited to participate in special "dress" contests.

Two weeks ago was Crazy Hat Day, and after observing an amazing variety of hat shapes, sizes, and styles, the Student Council selected two winners, one each from the faculty and the student body.

At the weekly pep rally, student David Daniel, sporting a flowing Arabian designer headgear, was picked as having the most unusual hat out of the students. Faculty member Lucille Franse added a south-of-the-border flavor to the proceedings as she modeled a jumbo Mexican sombrero, to take top honors among the faculty staff.

The following Friday was Crazy 50's Day, with many students and faculty members taking a trip in a time machine and wearing all the fashions made famous in the 1950's.

Winning for the students was Shamra Meyers who wore an appropriate matching sweater and skirt set. Winning for the faculty members was high school secretary Cindy Littlejohn who took the top honors with a sweater-skirt combination, winged glasses and big earrings.

Taking honorable mention was the tough-girls gang, "The Strokes," who were all dressed alike in rolled up jeans, matching t-shirts, and tennis shoes. Members of the gang were Karen Magness, Kay Geuther, Janene Berry, Ginger Ellison, Tracy Williams and Leslie Castleberry.

Officers Elected For Farwell FTA

by Doug Cole

Farwell School Correspondent
The Farwell chapter of Future Teachers of America (FTA) conducted its first meeting of the year, electing officers and planning upcoming events last Wednesday afternoon at the school.

President-elect, Sharon Kalbas, conducted the election of officers for this school year.

Kelly Davis was chosen as vice-president, and Dana Hukill was elected to fill the post of secretary. Karen Magness was selected as financial secretary, while Shana Blain was picked as the group's historian.

For the office of parliamentarian, the members chose Jennifer Stancell. Doug Cole was elected by acclamation as reporter for the organization.

FTA's first activity will be that of attending the District 16 Officers Workshop, to be held in Panhandle, Tex., on October 14. The club's officers will participate in various workshops that deal with their particular posts.

This year's edition of FTA boasts 19 members, and is sponsored by Pat Graham and Cathy Arthur. The members include Shana Blain, Sonia Chisom, Doug Cole, Kelly Davis, Rocky Ford, Shelley Ford, Vicky Heard, Dana Hukill;

Also, Sharon Kalbas, Karen Magness, Donna Meeks, Johanna Mesman, Dale Sikes, Jack Smallwood, Sheran Smallwood, Jennifer Stancell, Polly Turner, Nicky Liethen and Janene Berry.

Attend Nat'l. Barrow Show

Seth Ralston of Farwell and Joe Tarter of Lazbuddie have recently returned from the 33rd Annual National Barrow Show in Austin, Minn., where Tarter's boars were presented with awards.

A first place was won by Tarter for having the youngest boar class in the Duroc breed, and he was also presented a 5th place in the Age Boar class.

The National Barrow Show was sponsored by Hormel Company.

FOOD FOCUS

Dear Food Focus:

I'm going to have a good crabapple crop this year. I would like to make jelly, but don't have the time right now. Can I can or freeze the juice and do it later?

K.L., Las Vegas

Dear K.L.:

The extracted juice of crabapples or any other fruit can be either canned or frozen and stored until you are ready to make jelly.

To can, fill hot jars with boiling juice. Adjust the lids and process in a boiling water bath for 10 minutes.

It's a good idea to can or freeze the juice and make up the jelly as you need it. The jelly will be fresher and tastier than jelly that has been stored several months. Another benefit is that any fruit sediment left in the juice will settle out, and you will have clearer jelly.

Dear Food Focus:

Sometimes the fresh foods I buy at the grocery store start to wilt a day or two after I buy them. Is there any danger of spoilage or food poisoning?

R.R., Taos

Dear R.R.:

Keeping food at 40 degrees Fahrenheit, or below, prevents germs from multiplying and extends the stored life of fresh foods. Always store meat, poultry, eggs, milk and cheese in the refrigerator because they age and turn bad quicker than fruits and vegetables.

Always pick up the highly perishable foods last at the supermarket. Take them directly home and store in the refrigerator or freezer as soon as possible.

The refrigerator life of fresh meat varies from one to seven days. The highly perishable meats are at top quality only one or two days in the refrigerator, and the nitrated meats keep perfectly for a week.

Food that has been refrozen will be safe to eat, but it will lose quality. The flavor, texture and color will not be as good as in food that has been frozen only once.
