

Last week in a sterling show of bi-partisan insanity the Senate of the United States ratified the second of the Panama Canal treaties. Immediately the Panamanian tin horn dictator cracked to the news media that it was a good thing the U.S. ratified the treaty because his National Guard would have immediately destroyed the canal.

Whereupon the great American eagle shed not only a tear but a couple of more tail feathers. It's a good thing we were not called upon to defend the canal because our politicians would have immediately devised a first class losing strategy and we would have been subjected to another forced evacuation ala Vietnam.

Of course, let's not lose heart completely, maybe the Indians in a fit of stupidity will demand we return Manhattan Island. This idea would get our support and probably a majority of the country's electorate.

Lloyd Bentsen, our junior U.S. Senator from Texas voted with the majority on the Panama issue and now has another four years to hope the voters in the state forget his actions. Sadly enough, they probably will do just that.

We cannot tell you how soundly we sleep now that the Administration has cancelled the B-1 bomber, cut our naval strength by a third, deferred action on both our cruise missiles and the neutron bomb, plus prosecuting the former head of the FBI for too zealously investigating subversive elements in the country.

It thrills us to know that we are trying to reach a treaty with a country whose idea of moral rectitude is to shoot down a defenseless commercial plane with over 100 innocent passengers aboard while our ambassador is condemning a country whose legally constituted government is trying to organize a nonviolent transfer of power by law abiding representatives within said country.

We are happy to know that we have an administration whose idea of the equality of citizenship is to kick the farmer in the ass and to kiss the coal miner in the same place.

In order to cope with these blessings and get a good night's sleep we resort to the strongest soporific known to man, about thirty minutes of prime time television.

We pinched a piece from the Union County Leader that we suspect Grandmas and Grandpas will enjoy.

What Grandmas and Grandpas are made of
(This was written by a third grader whose name is unknown to us).

A grandmother is a lady who has no children of her own. She likes other people's little girls and boys and they love her. A grandfather is a man grandmother.

Grandparents don't have anything to do except be there. They're old, so they shouldn't play hard or run. It is enough if they drive us to the store where the pretend horse is and have lots of dimes ready.

If they take us for walks they should slow down past things like pretty leaves or caterpillars. They should never say "Hurry up." Usually they are fat but not too fat to tie your shoes. They wear glasses and funny underwear. They can take their teeth and gums off sometimes.

It is better if they don't play cards, except with us. They don't have to be smart, only

Aileen Teel and Lewis Cooper were honored as the 1978 Woman and Man of the Year at the annual Texico Chamber of Commerce banquet Tuesday night. Texico Chamber Names Woman, Man Of Year

The 1978 Man and Woman of the Year were named at the Texico Chamber of Commerce banquet Tuesday night. This year's honorees are Aileen Teel and Lewis Cooper.

Mrs. Teel has lived in Texico since 1957, "brushing the lives of nearly everyone in the community." During the 21 years she has lived in Texico, Mrs. Teel has "quietly gone about her work of supporting or leading, whichever the occasion might demand."

Mrs. Teel is the oldest of four children. She and her husband were married in 1933. They were married for nearly 40 years and are parents of five children. Mr. Teel died in December of 1972. She has nine grandchildren.

The 1978 Woman of the Year has always been active in any organization she was interested in, and has always tried to make her children aware of their responsibilities to the communities in which they have lived. Even when her children were small, Mrs. Teel was actively involved with church work.

As her children grew and started to school, she kept up with them serving as PTA president, supporting the band and FHA and anything else they were involved with.

All five of Mrs. Teel's children have some degree of higher education in addition to high school. Four have bachelor degrees from Eastern New Mexico University, Portales, and one completed a course in nursing training and is a registered nurse.

Mrs. Teel has always supported community projects such as the new park, swimming pool and community building. In order to advance her church work as secretary Mrs. Teel took advanced business courses at ENMU. She also works part time at the Texico Post Office.

The 1978 honoree has also helped with the Senior Citizens organization since it was organized in 1974, taking part in nearly all the activities offered. She was chosen to be the first secretary of the group and still serves in that capacity.

She is a member of Hamlin Memorial United Methodist Church and is an active worker in the United Methodist Women. She has served as president and in several other offices of this group.

In her spare time Mrs. Teel works in her garden. She also helps her mother, Mrs. Andy Brunson, who lives in Portales.

Mrs. Teel has twice served as the president of the Texico Women's Club and she has served as secretary for the past two years. In May she will be installed as first vice-president of the club.

Lewis Cooper, the 1978 Texico Man of the Year, was born Sept. 11, 1938, at Portales. He graduated from Portales High School in 1956.

While in high school, Cooper began working for theatres, advancing from ticket sales to concession stand, projection room and finally to manager of the drive-in.

After graduating from high school, Cooper joined the army and spent six months on active duty at Fort Chaffee, Ark., and Ft. Lee, Va. He was in the reserves for 13 years.

The 1978 Man of the Year was also active in Boy Scouts, attaining the rank of Eagle Scout. He was initiated into the Order of the Arrow and upon moving to Texico in 1961 he served on the district scouting board.

He is a member of the Texico Chamber of Commerce and was recently elected to the City Council. He has been with the volunteer fire department for 14 years and is currently serving as fire chief.

Cooper is a member of the Central Christian Church of Clovis. He has been employed with Helton Oil Company for 16 years.

He married the former Ann Ledbetter in January. They have four children, Terry, Linda, Debbie and Ricky.

Revival Scheduled At Calvary Baptist Church

Evangelist for the revival is Dr. D. Elton Stewart. Dr. Stewart received a B.A. degree from Jacksonville Baptist College, Jacksonville, Tx., and a M.R.E. from Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary in Fort Worth. He also worked on his Doctor's Degree in Religious Education at Southwestern and received his Ph.D. Degree from National Christian University, Dallas. He has written two books and has edited literature for the Baptist Missionary Association of America.

Dr. Stewart has pastored churches in Texas, Arkansas, and California. He served as president of the Golden Gate Bible School in Pomona, Calif., for two years. While in California he built and served as the director of the Glenn Ranch Christian Camp. He served as the moderator of the California Baptist Missionary Association and the Southern California Baptist Missionary Association.

He is now pastoring the Calvary Baptist Church of Heber Springs, Ark. He also serves as the director of the Bud Creek Christian Camp on Gears Ferry Lake near Heber Springs. Dr. Stewart also organized and built this camp. He has served for 20 years as a trustee of the Baptist Building at 716 Main St., Little Rock, Ark.

Singer for the revival will be Eddie Penland from Leveland. Eddie is the son of a Baptist preacher and served as music director for the Fairview Baptist Church in Leveland.

The Calvary Baptist Church invites everyone to come and hear some good gospel preaching and singing May 1-7. There will be nursery facilities for the youngsters. For further information call Carrell Watkins, pastor, at 481-9311.

City Sales Tax Rebates Mailed

Texas State Comptroller Bob Bullock said last week that city sales tax rebates for April are up 24 percent over last year. He said that his office Friday mailed rebate checks totaling $20.2 million to 899 Texas cities as their April share of the local-option one percent city sales tax.

Farwell's rebate check for the period was $682.21 making the 1978 payments to date total $4,783.87.

Houston, as usual, received the largest rebate in city sales tax - a check for $4.9 million. City sales tax collections there are running 18 percent ahead of last year. Dallas was sent a check for $2.6 million; San Antonio, $1.2 million; Fort Worth, $852,356; and Austin, $628,355.

County Sets Board Of Equalization

Parmer County Commissioners Court announced Monday that a Board of Equalization meeting has been slated for May 22 at 2 p.m. CDT in the county courtroom.

Commissioners also agreed to establish a branch office for absentee voting at the Federal Credit Union office at Friona for the second primary or run-off election and all elections thereafter. The county clerk will post a complete schedule of operation in the main office in the courthouse in Farwell not later than 10 days prior to the absentee voting period.

The Court also approved a delinquent tax list for the years 1939-1976, showing an amount of $13,384.30.

The Commissioners, acting upon a request made by representatives of the Soil Conservation Service, declared the week of April 30-May 7 to be Soil Stewardship Week.

Turn Clocks Forward

As Farmer County Judge Paul Fortenberry points to the bicentennial clock which hangs in his office at the courthouse, he seems to be reminding Twin Cities residents to remember to turn their clocks forward this Sunday at 2 a.m. It's that time of year again when local residents join the rest of the nation in switching to Daylight Savings Time. The bicentennial clock is battery-operated and was made in Friona. The writing on the top reads "1776 to 1976."

Farwell Council Talks Community Center

Several representatives of three local women's organizations met with the Farwell City Council Monday night to discuss the possibility of establishing a community center in Farwell.

Julia Symcox of the Oklahoma Lane Home Demonstration Club served as spokesman for the group. Representatives of the Farwell Study Club and Theta Rho Chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha sorority were also present for the discussion.

Mrs. Symcox asked the Council if any grants were available for building a community center. No answer was known Monday night, but the following day Janie Bowery, city clerk, telephoned the Panhandle Regional Planning Commission - of which Farwell is a member - to ask if any grant might be available.

According to Mrs. Bowery, she was informed that no grants for such exist at this time. The PRPC representative stated, according to the city clerk, that a low interest FHA loan might be secured for the purpose of building the community center.

Mrs. Bowery reported that she had contacted Mrs. Symcox on Tuesday regarding the information. It is not known at this time what action the organizations might take in the future.

During the Monday night meeting the Council expressed an interest in the idea of having a community center in Farwell, but Commissioner Johnny Curtis pointed out that the city did not have the funds to build one.

Morris Sheats Seeks U.S. Congress Seat

As a prelude to a campaign promise, Morris Sheats, Democratic candidate for U. S. Congress, will be in Farwell next Wednesday, May 3, at 12:45 p.m. He will be on the courthouse lawn and will be looking to meet those who he has not had an opportunity to meet.

Sheats had made only one promise to the voters of the 19th District, "As your congressman, I will be in your county twice each year, pre-announced, to sit down and visit with you. It is vitally important as your congressman to stay in touch with the thinking of the people of West Texas. It is my desire to represent all of the people. I will stay in touch."

Sheats has also stated, "In our people to people campaign we have talked to thousands of people in all 17 counties and the people have told me they are fed up with professional politicians and big government catering to a select few. As a member of Congress I will work to stop massive spending and bring the reins of government into control. I will leave no stone unturned in seeking your ideas and thoughts."

Sheats has been in Farwell and the county a number of times since he announced for Congress on the courthouse lawns of all 17 counties last fall. His people to people campaign has taken him into homes for coffees in Farwell, Oklahoma Lane, Lazbuddie, Lakeview, Friona and Bovina.

His visit in Farwell next Wednesday will be one of 17 stops planned in all counties in a three-day tour prior to the election on Saturday, May 6.

The State Line Tribune has been authorized to make this official announcement.

Mrs. Symcox said they understood this and indicated that their main purpose in coming before the Council was "just to try and find out what can be done and how to go about doing it."

In other business Judy Autrey appeared before the Council to discuss the speeding traffic on First Street. She said that she and several other residents have repeatedly seen several drivers speeding on this street. Mrs. Autrey said they are afraid that someone, particularly a child, might be hurt or killed someday.

Mrs. Autrey asked if it would be possible to set up "slow signs" along the street in an effort to discourage speeding.

City Marshal Ronnie Mitchell and Municipal Judge Carrell Watkins talked at great length about the situation. It was their consensus that slow signs would not help, but that a greater policing of the area might be more effective. Mitchell also pointed out that he "might be able to borrow the radar unit from Texico City Marshal Mickey Fenn in an effort to catch the culprits."

2 Farwell Youths Receive 10 Day Sentences, Fines

Two Farwell youths pleaded guilty Monday to charges of possession of less than two ounces of marijuana in Parmer County Judge Paul Fortenberry's court.

The two youths, both seniors at Farwell High School, are Clay Roberts, 17, and Kevin Kelley, 18.

According to Judge Fortenberry, Roberts and Kelley were each sentenced to 10 days in the county jail and were fined $100, plus court costs.

Parmer County Sheriff Charles Lovelace said an arrangement had been worked out whereby the youths would be able to continue to attend classes at school while serving their sentences. He explained that they will be allowed to attend regular classes, but until the 10 days are served, they will report to the county jail on Fridays after school and remain there until classes resume the following Monday.

Judge Fortenberry also said that the youths had been given credit for the one night they spent in jail prior to the hearing on Monday.

DPS Trooper Glenn Fant made the arrests Sunday night. He said he stopped them around 9 p.m. for a traffic violation. Fant added that he could "smell the marijuana" and that a subsequent search of the vehicle led to the arrests and the possession of marijuana charges.

Fant said that Roberts and Kelley were riding in Kelley's pickup at the time of the arrest. The incident took place in Farwell on Fourth Street and U.S. Highway 70-84.

Sheriff Lovelace reported Tuesday that a subsequent investigation into the case led to the recovery of a "considerable amount" of marijuana which had been cached in a vacant field one mile south of Farwell.

Area Man Sentenced For Robbery, Assault

Rodolfo Moreno Corella, 24, pleaded guilty to a charge of aggravated robbery Friday morning in the 154th District Court in Farwell and was sentenced to 40 years in the penitentiary.

District Judge Pat Boone, Jr., assessed the penalty. The day before Judge Boone handed down a directed verdict of dismissal against Fred Constanancio, Jr., of Friona, who had been charged with being Corella's accomplice.

The charges and subsequent sentencing and dismissal ruling stem from the January 6th assault and robbery of Joe Tongate, manager of the Friona Piggly Wiggly. Tongate was knifed several times and robbed of approximately $13,000 in cash, $100 in food stamps and $8,000 in checks.

The robbery occurred late that night as Tongate was leaving the store en route to making a deposit at the bank.

Earlier last week Sheriff Lovelace said that Constanancio was tried in a separate case involving the theft of several cylinders. He was sentenced to five years. Last August Constanancio was tried in a similar case and received seven years probation, which was revoked last week.

Revocation of probation hearings were also held for Brad Sweeney and Ricardo Flores, according to Sheriff Lovelace, who added that Constanancio, Corella, Sweeney and Flores would be transported to the state penitentiary in the near future.

Roy Fuentes was also to have revocation of probation hearing Thursday, according to Sheriff Lovelace.

He also said that some of the drivers mentioned are known to him and that he has talked to them on some occasions. Watkins said at least one of them had also appeared before him on similar charges.

Both Watkins and Mitchell said that anyone who sees speeding offenders on any street in Farwell should, if possible, identify the vehicle license, identify the driver and sign a complaint at City Hall. Watkins said that on the basis of said complaint he could then issue a warrant for the arrest of the speeder.

Mitchell said that if several witnesses can testify to observing a speeding vehicle it will make the case stronger. He said that in most instances an expert witness is needed to verify that a car was speeding; but he added that the judge who hears the case will also take into consideration that the person making the complaint is a "reasonable adult" capable of judging that the car was speeding.

Watkins and Mitchell also stated the more complaints they receive regarding speeders the better chance they will have of eventually being able to cite the guilty driver.

"If I issue enough citations and they have to pay enough fines maybe they will stop," Mitchell said.

In other business it was decided that to help facilitate the care and maintenance of the cemetery, the following restrictions are to be enforced during the growing season: No flat arrangements or wired down flowers are to be placed on the graves and no more than two arrangements are to be placed on a grave at one time. A sign will be made and posted at the cemetery stating the above-mentioned changes in the policy.

Permission was also granted to Marcia Cole to fence off part of the alley near her home. The work is to be done under the supervision of the city employees so as to prevent any damage to city lines.

The Council also voted to purchase a dry copy machine from Farwell Insurance for $100. In other business they decided to request the use of a re-conditioned Addressograph for one month before making any decision about purchasing the machine.

Evidence Released

Kenneth Moore, left, owner of the Friona Piggly Wiggly, and Joe Tongate, right, assistant store manager, look on as Parmer County Chief Deputy Bill Morgan released to them the $6408.00 in cash which had been held as evidence since the January 6 aggravated robbery of Tongate. The money was actually recovered the day after the robbery from Rodolfo Moreno Corella who pleaded guilty to the charge of aggravated robbery Friday, and was sentenced to 40 years in the penitentiary. Another suspect, Fred Constanancio, received a directed verdict of dismissal due to insufficient evidence. The money being counted here accounted for approximately one-half of the cash taken in the robbery. The remainder has not been recovered.

Farwell C Of C Has Meeting

Farwell Chamber of Commerce met Tuesday at noon with newly-elected president W.M. Roberts presiding.

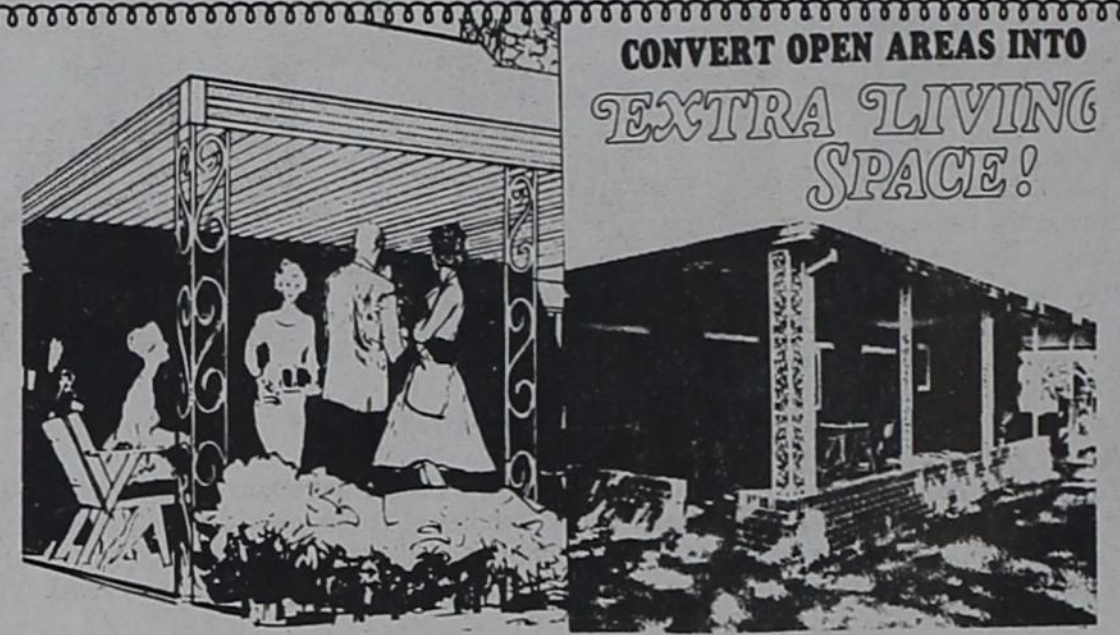

The present status of the tennis courts was discussed. It was pointed out that a grant from the Parks and Wildlife Commission was being utilized to build the facility. Since it is a matching funds grant, the land which Farwell Schools donated for the courts will be utilized as part of the matching funds. The difference will reportedly be made up by the Farwell Youth Commission.

It was also reported that several organizations are considering the possibility of building a community center in town. The Chamber voted to support the endeavor in whatever way it can.

Dutch Quickel, Chamber secretary, suggested that the Chamber think about keeping either a part time or full time office open but no action was taken.

Awards, Talk Highlight Annual CofC Banquet

The 1978 edition of the Texico Chamber of Commerce banquet was staged Tuesday night at the Texico Schools cafeteria.

One of the highlights was the presentation of the Man and Woman of the Year awards. The honorees this year are Aileen Teel and Lewis Cooper. The awards were presented by Louise Engram and Bill Thigpen, the 1977 honorees.

Mrs. Teel has lived in Texico for approximately 21 years, moving to the community in 1957.

The 1978 Woman of the year is secretary at Hamlin Memorial United Methodist Church. She works part time at the Texico Post Office and she has helped with the Senior Citizens organization since its formation in 1974.

Cooper is a member of the Texico Chamber of Commerce and the Texico City Council. He has been a member of the Texico Volunteer Fire Department for 14 years and is currently serving as fire chief.

Out-going Chamber president James Pierce served as Master of Ceremonies and also introduced the 1978 officers and directors. They include Tony Mendoza, president; Louise Engram, secretary; and Joe Caywood, vice-president. Other directors are A.D. McDonald, Bill Christian, Bill Thigpen and Pierce.

McDonald presented the progress report. He pointed out that Texico has a new CB radio business, a trucking business and several mobile home parks. McDonald also said that work continues on the new K.K. Rannels Memorial Park.

Mainly, McDonald spoke about progress on a philosophical level. He said "there are more than one way to show progress and improvement." Progress can be achieved through a campaign, the Texico man said, adding that all types of progress can be achieved including improvement of mental abilities.

McDonald concluded his remarks by reading a short poem entitled "Today."

Another highlight of the banquet was a lively speech by Kenneth Wyatt of Tullia, a well-known western artist. He ran through a list of accomplishments which make up the American heritage, including many inventions which have benefitted mankind. He also pointed out that there have been 16 wars fought in the world. Wyatt also listed some of the not-so-good things such as the 5,000,000 people who died with the flu in the early 1900's and the stock market crash.

Wyatt mentioned several aspects of the American heritage which include freedom of speech and worship and the right to health, life and hope. He referred to the "great American attitude" and related a story of a Perryton family which exemplifies that trait.

Wyatt is a retired Methodist minister. He is now a well-known western artist, but in past years Wyatt was a "jack of all trades" who held various jobs.

"Where Edges Meet" was the theme of the banquet. Tables were covered with white cloths centered with strips of green crepe paper. Table pieces included ceramic figures, toy vehicles and small cactus plants.

Burford Schwarz of the United Pentecostal Church gave the invocation. Bill Christian introduced the out-of-town guests and Caywood introduced the guest speaker. Dinner music was provided by Ed and Juanita Hardage.

The menu consisted of roast beef, baked potatoes, green beans, tossed salad, hot rolls, coffee, tea and cherry cobbler. Approximately 150 persons attended.

Farm Program Sign-Up Extended To May 15

"Prentice Mills" of the local Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service reminds area farmers that the 1978 program sign-up period has been extended to May 15.

Some of the highlights of the 1978 feed grain program as prepared by the U.S. Department of Agriculture and the ASCS are as follows:

The program is voluntary. Old allotments are not being used - the 10 percent set-aside requirement is based on the 1978 plantings.

Set-aside acres plus planted acres of certain crops cannot exceed the acreage of such crops normally planted on the farm.

Producers must comply with set-aside to be eligible for loans and payments on feed grains and other crops.

Certify set-aside acreage at ASCS county offices. Sign up through May 15 at ASCS offices.

Payment limitation of $40,000 for feed grains, wheat and upland cotton combined, excluding disaster payments. Mills reminds farmers that it costs nothing to sign up in the program. If you sign up and do not comply, it does not make any difference; however, if you do not comply, you will not be covered by program benefits.

West Camp Residents Stage Community Center Work Day

By Shirley Gorman

The words to a song made popular in the 1960's go something like this: "I'll get by with a little help from my friends." These words and many, many more are certainly true about the little community of West Camp. What the populace lacks in size and numbers, they more than make up with the efforts, determination and imagination of the few who decided years ago that numbers weren't everything.

A prime example of the spirit of this small West Texas community - population approximately 350 - was evident April 21 when several members of the West Camp area joined forces at the Community Center to chat with friends and expend "a lot of elbow grease."

Armed with paint brushes, rollers and several gallons of paint - and with a eye to Mother Nature who was threatening to blow in a dust storm - they set to work and within a short time the Community Center was sparkling with a new white coat. In addition they also cleaned up the area surrounding the Community Center and covered the card tables and chairs for the main meeting room.

After toiling in the sun for several hours the West Camp busy beavers either enjoyed a sack lunch and soft drinks at the site or else darted home for a quick meal, before returning to work.

The work day is part of West Camp's never ceasing self-improvement project. Besides that it was also in preparation for the annual Texas Community Improvement Program (TCIP) judges' visit slated for Tuesday, May 9. A coffee break has been planned for 9 to 11 a.m., and everyone in the community is invited.

In 1976, West Camp placed fifth in district, receiving $100 in addition to the honors of being one of the most improved communities in Texas. Last year they garnered another first in district plus $100 and third place in the regional competition.

As part of the community improvement project, the West Campers also maintain the small cemetery which is located near the community center. Initially the cemetery is looked after by the youths of the Progress 4-H Club who spend one day a year - just before Memorial Day - fixing up the area. Handmade wreaths are also placed on the graves.

According to Mrs. Robert Hunt, spokesman for the community, they have actually found the markers of 32 graves with the latest one dated May 1965. Other records are not available but Mrs. Hunt said that as many as 100 graves might be located at the cemetery.

Until last year the markers pointing out the cemetery were simply handmade out of cardboard. Then last year, Mrs. Hunt said they contacted the highway department and shortly thereafter two standard signs were installed by the highway department.

West Campers are proud of their achievements and are looking forward to this year's judging. The monetary rewards are always placed in the Community Center's coffer to be used for further improvements and various projects which come up during the year.

Last year's district visitation was quite a spectacle as 25 community residents accompanied the three judges on a bus tour of the community.

Progress reports were also read by various persons giving the judges an accurate account of the growth and progress of the West Camp area.

Since the regional judges stipulated a two-hour time limit, everyone met in the Community Center for coffee, and again residents presented progress reports for the judges to consider. No tour was conducted due to the time limit.

This year however, a two-hour limit has also been set for the district contest visitations. Mrs. Hunt said she felt the judges - who were all volunteers - had to regulate their visits to prevent spending too much time in any one community.

The TCIP, which has been in existence well over 20 years, is co-sponsored by the investor-owned utility companies of Texas and the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. Purpose of the program is to for everyone to meet in fellowship and fun.

"We all like to get together and play games," Mrs. Hunt said, "But no one really wanted to have dozens and dozens of people over. It was just too much to have to clean up after later," she explained. "Having a Community Center was the perfect idea."

The perfect location turned out to be an old grocery store, living quarters and filling station complex which had closed in August of 1967. Mrs. Jake Saylor, community resident and daughter of the couple who owned the facility, was contacted in regard to using the building and within a short time the Community Center became a reality. To this day, the Saylor's not only let the community of West Camp use the building, but they also furnish the utilities.

The first family night was held in September of 1975. Just prior to the get-together, community helpers arrived on donned their "carpenter" caps and cut a doorway in the wall. They have also done other things like install water heaters when needed.

The West Campers who support the Community Center work together to make it better and better all the time. But when the work is done, at least for a time, then the fun begins.

One of the favorite and most fun benefits of having the Center is that everyone in the area from the oldest to the youngest can meet for a night of family fun. "It's a great way to meet people and to visit with people you would not ordinarily get together with," Mrs. Hunt explained.

Once each month - usually the second Saturday of the month - West Camp has its family night gathering. Host couples volunteer to set the theme and plan the activities and refreshments for the night's activities, Mrs. Hunt said.

"We did several things to raise money for the Community Center," Mrs. Hunt said. "First we served meals at two farm sales in the community, donating the money to the cause. Later we had home products parties."

Finally in June of last year, a special shower was held with the Community Center as the "June Bride." Everyone who came brought something either for the kitchen or the bathrooms.

Then in the fall of 1977, the first of two community-wide garage sales were conducted at the Community Center with 10 percent of everyone's total proceeds being donated to the Community Center fund. A few months later another garage sale was also held with additional funds being channeled into the community center's coffer, Mrs. Hunt said.

Besides having community fund-raising projects, local residents have also donated time and money to the cause of perfecting the Community Center as a place for the people of West Camp to meet. Two air-conditioners were also donated.

An average of 55 persons usually attend one of the family night celebrations, but at times the attendance drops if there are conflicts with other activities. Sometimes though, more than 100 persons will join their neighbors for that night of fun each month.

Future plans call for staging a bazaar during the month of November, featuring hand crafts and homemade items. Other long range possibilities are establishing a quilting circle and buying a baby bed or crib to accommodate the tiny tots who also like to attend the family night get-togethers.

To keep things running smoothly, a chairman and vice-chairman are elected each year to oversee the facility and sometimes even to help out with community projects. This year's officers are Joe Simnacher, chairman; Robert Hunt, vice-chairman; Nelda Hunt, secretary-reporter; and Alice Ramm, treasurer.

A typical community-wide project occurred several weeks ago when residents held a shower for the Joe Simnachers who had lost their home in a fire. Whatever happens, the people of West Camp always stick together for the benefit of all.

Community Helpers

These three West Camp volunteers joined their neighbors April 21 for a work day at the Community Center. Handling the paint rollers and brush are, from left, Mrs. Joe Rhodes, Robert Hunt and Mrs. Joe Simnacher. The Community Center was painted in preparation for the Texas Community Improvement Program judges who will visit the facility May 9. In past years, the West Camp community has won both district as well as regional recognition for its efforts in improvements.

Busy Beavers

Several West Camp residents helped with the April 21 work day at the Community Center including, from left, Mrs. J.W. Herington, Mrs. Robert Hunt, Mrs. Lloyd Stephens and Mrs. Willis James, who covered the chairs and card tables of the main meeting room. The work day was all part of the annual preparations for the Texas Community Improvement Program judges who will visit the community May 9. For the past two years West Camp has been recognized for its efforts to establish and improve the Center and for general community improvements.

stimulate community improvement through organizational efforts, points out Tim Shaunty, Extension community improvement specialist.

The contest is a measurement of the actual accomplishment of each community toward specific goals within the past year. Communities are competing for cash prizes totaling $6,400, with the four top communities honored at a special luncheon and presentation ceremony.

"Over the years, the program has been a leading force in getting local community leaders together and organized for action," notes Shaunty. "This has led to many improvements in community services and facilities and has enabled rural Texans to enjoy a better way of life."

The TCIP is open to all communities with a population less than 1,000, adds the Extension specialist. Interested individuals should contact their local county Extension agent for details on how to organize and compete for the honor of Texas' Number 1 rural community.

One time, in the not too distant past, West Camp did not have a Community Center. It came to pass one day, three years ago, that several West Campers who were attending a Little Dribblers game in Muleshoe bandied about the idea of having a central place the scene and started clearing away just enough room to set up a few card tables and chairs.

"When we first walked in the door we saw all the grocery display cases just as the owners had left them years before when they closed down the facility," Mrs. Hunt said. "We just started stacking them in another place to make room for our first family night of fun."

The West Camp Community Center was quite different then. It looked very plain and very much like an old grocery store that no one used. But it was a place to meet and West Campers were very grateful for it. Later would come the painting, redecorating, carpeting and occasional carpentry work.

"We don't have any specialists in West Camp like plumbers or carpenters," Mrs. Hunt said. "But we found that the men were willing to try and do whatever needed to be done."

Originally the building housed living quarters in addition to the store and filling station. There was no connecting door between what was once the store and the living quarters, Mrs. Hunt said. "For a long time we had to take the long way around to get from one part to another," she explained.

That eventually changed when several West Camp men

The host couples also provide the decorations if they feel the occasion warrants them. According to Mrs. Hunt host couples usually sign up three and four months in advance, but if there are any conflicts they are allowed to change with no problems.

In addition, a "donation jar" is kept handy for anyone who wants to contribute to the kitty which buys hospitality supplies for the Center. That usually entails purchasing coffee, soft drinks, cups, etc.

For musical family nights, the Community Center uses a piano which was donated to the Center. One of the most popular family nights was the musical jamboree slated several months ago.

Also remembered fondly was the family night in which everyone turned back the clock for a few hours, pretending to be in school again. The "school days" get-together was one of our best family nights," Mrs. Hunt said. "Everyone dressed as they did when they went to school and we also held math classes as well as other school days activities."

Getting the original funds to begin the work of turning a former store into a place for people to gather and enjoy themselves and each other once a month was no easy task. The money had to come from somewhere. But where?

Homemakers Hear Talk On Child Abuse

Farwell Young Homemakers met April 4 at the Home Ec Cottage, with Donna Grisson and Bobbie Pierson as hostesses.

Guest speaker was County Attorney Johnny Actkinson. He spoke on the subject of "Child Abuse." He suggested that if anyone knows or hears of suspected child abuse, they should call the toll free number, 1-800-292-5400, to report this.

In the business session, members planned a Mother's Day Tea for Friday, May 12, at 8 p.m. in the community room at Security State Bank. This will be a salad supper. The club has more Farwell

T-shirts on order which should soon be here. Selling of the T-shirts is one of the club's money-making projects.

Present at the April meeting were Ruth Anne Bennett, Charlotte Donaldson, Janice Fant, Linda Foster, Reba Kirkland, Sheree Montgomery, Tina Sides, Nedda Travis, Doris White, Joyce Williams, Nancy Martin, and the hostesses.

Next meeting will be May 7 at 3:30 p.m. at the Home Ec cottage. Guest will be Roene Stewart who will give a demonstration on cake decorating. Anyone who is interested in cake decorating is invited to attend.

Methodist Women Host Annual Senior Banquet

Members of the United Methodist Women of Hamlin Memorial United Methodist Church hosted the annual Senior Banquet at the church on Tuesday, April 18. The banquet honored all graduating seniors of the church from Texico and Farwell high schools.

All high school age youth of the local Methodist church were invited.

Fourteen seniors attended and were given gifts of a Bible and a devotional book.

Ben Brown, youth director at First United Methodist Church of Clovis, was the featured speaker. Rev. Russell Martin, local pastor, was master of ceremonies. Entertainment was a gymnastics demonstration by the nieces and nephews of Mrs. Glenn Marsh.

A circus theme was used for decorating the Fellowship Hall.

Enlightened Eating

When in Rome, do as the Romans do. And when in an Italian eatery, or pursuing pasta in the privacy of your home, use your noodle. There are ways to keep that steaming, sauced and swirling spaghetti from slipping and dripping and landing in your lap.

Try the Apian Way. In your left hand hold a large spoon, tilted so that the edge touches the plate. Hold fork in right hand, snare a few strands of spaghetti and rest the fork against the bowl of the spoon to brace it. Now simply twist the fork against the spoon, winding the pasta perfectly. If an end comes undone, sever with your spoon. Scoop up some sauce and aim for your mouth. It does take practice, and a prodigious amount of napkins may be necessary at the outset, but if toddlers in Turin can attempt it successfully, so can you.

Too hungry for such hanky-panky? The famished, the fearful and the fatigued may opt for alternative action: use the side of your fork to slice spaghetti into bite-sized bits. Scoop onto fork with the aid of Italian bread (also eminently suitable for sopping up sauce). This method is simple and satisfying, although somewhat lacking in style.

Having mastered the art of eating Italian style, you may be ready to approach the inscrutable East. Eating orientally is hardly elementary, but chopsticks can be conquered. For illuminating instruction on this as well as other points of comfortable consumption, send your name and address to Ore-Ida Foods, Inc., P.O. Box 80, Boise, Idaho 83707. They'll send you a free copy of "Ore-Ida's All-Rights and All-Wrongs: Eating Manners for Big Potatoes and Small Fries." It's a savvy little manual to help you eat with ease.

Issues Proclamation

Farwell Mayor Walter Kaltwasser signed a proclamation Tuesday declaring the week of May 1-7 as National ESA Week. On hand for the signing were Diane Actkinson, left, president of Theta Rho Chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha, and Barbie Clayton, corresponding secretary of the local chapter. The special week is in honor of the 50th anniversary of the sorority which is known for its philanthropic work.

National ESA Week May 1-7

Farwell Mayor Walter Kaltwasser signed a proclamation Tuesday declaring the week of May 1-7 to be National Epsilon Sigma Alpha sorority week. The special week is to commemorate the 50th anniversary of the sorority.

Diane Actkinson, president of the Theta Rho chapter, and Barbie Clayton, corresponding secretary, were present when the proclamation was signed.

Words of the proclamation are as follows:

"Whereas, ESA Women International is celebrating 50 years of existence; and

"Whereas, ESA Women International members are dedicated to Education, Service and Association with emphasis on aiding those less fortunate; and

"Whereas, ESA Women International have contributed yearly to such national charities as St. Jude Children's Research Hospital, Muscular Dystrophy and the National Association for Retarded citizens; and

"Whereas, ESA Women International Chapter Theta Rho has contributed greatly to the community and philanthropic causes; and

"Whereas, ESA Women International Chapter is celebrating 27 years of existence."

Theta Rho officers for the 1977-78 year are Mrs. Actkinson, president; Judy Jones, vice-president; Jeannie Norris, recording secretary; Dardanelle Helton, treasurer; Mrs. Clayton, corresponding secretary; Doris Ford, parliamentarian, jonquil girl and chaplain; and Rosa Roberts, educational director.

New officers to be installed in May include Mrs. Jones, president; Mrs. Norris, vice-president; Robin Gregory, recording secretary; Margaret Aycock, treasurer; Debbie Williams, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Actkinson, parliamentarian and jonquil girl; and Mrs. Roberts, educational director.

Theta Rho was organized in Farwell in 1951 with eight charter members: Iris Thornton, Maxine Ford, Nell Walling, Jeanne Dudley, Modena Banks, Mrs. Helton, Julia Symcox and Dorothy Quicquel.

Three of the charter members who received their 25 year pins at the 1976 convention are Mesdames Williams, Walling and Helton.

Every year the sorority chapter presents two awards: "Girl of the Year" and the "Jo Ann Liethen Award."

The sorority's theme for this year is "For A Better Life." Theta Rho has always been active in philanthropic work. Mrs. Actkinson explained that this year they have donated most of their philanthropic money to Tiffany Hunsucker, three-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Hunsucker of Clovis who has cystic fibrosis.

Other projects include visiting shut-ins at Christmas time and baking goodies for local teachers during Texas Public Schools week. They also donate many items to Girls Town. Mrs. Actkinson explained that local residents often donate things to Girls Town through the sorority.

Convalescent Center Chit Chat

As Reported by the Center Staff

Alpha Rho Lambda chapter of Beta Sigma Phi sorority has purchased a blood pressure cuff for the Convalescent Center. Floe Copeland, activity director, said they really do appreciate the donation, as it is a much needed item.

The regular Sunday afternoon services were a bit different this week. Since Rev. Herman Schelter, pastor of St. John Lutheran Church, Lariat, was in Amarillo to attend an all-day meeting, Dora Verner and Alvenia Cox rounded all the residents into the dining room for a singing session. Mrs. Verner played the piano. Mrs. Copeland commends these two Auxiliary volunteers who devote part of their Sunday each week to helping with the church services.

Nina Dickinson's daughter,

Aleane West of Hereford, visited her this past weekend.

Dora Nittler, administrator, is in Amarillo this week to be with her granddaughter, Christy Lundy, while she has surgery. Everyone wishes Christy a speedy recovery and hopes she will return to work at the Center soon.

The women of the First Baptist Church in Farwell brought pepper plants to residents at the center. Since the plants had been used as centerpieces they decided to share with the residents. The plants were cared for by the residents in their rooms and then planted in the garden.

Friday Cecil Goode and Nelson Hurst helped Mrs. Copeland plant the garden, which now boasts of 30 tomato plants, 25 pepper plants, and squash, okra, carrots, radishes and onions.

Ronnie Mitchell donated several tomato plants and seeds for the garden and also trimmed the trees. As the day came to a close three residents came out to observe the work. Upon seeing all the plowed ground and the many cans which had been placed around the small plants to protect them from the wind, one woman said, "Well, it certainly looks like we're going to have a nice crop of cans this year."

"And that's how our garden grows," Mrs. Copeland said.

New admissions are Roy Thornton of Hereford, Effie Mitchell and Myrtle Bradford, both of Clovis.

Everyone wishes a speedy recovery to Velma Robertson who is in the Clovis hospital.

Library Group Sets Art, Crafts Showing

Farwell Friends of the Library Association is planning its second annual arts and crafts show scheduled for sometime during the latter part of May.

The show, to feature art of all types, plus craft items made by local and area artists, will be in conjunction with the Pops concert of the Farwell School Bands. A definite date for the concert has not been set.

Also to be shown will be work from the art classes at Farwell High taught by Shirley East and items made in the woodworking classes taught by Jerry Dee Owen.

The library will be open for viewing at 6 p.m. and will re-open after the band concert.

Anyone interested in displaying his art or craft work at the show is asked to call Anne Corn at the high school.

Wedding Reminder

All friends and relatives of Rebecca Sue Love and Roger Lane Faubion are reminded of the couple's wedding this Friday, Apr. 28, at 7:30 p.m. CST in the Farwell First Baptist Church.

Parents of the bride-elect are Mr. and Mrs. Jim Love of Texico and Leslie Wray of Waldron, Ark.

Marriage Licenses

Parmer County Clerk's office has issued two marriage licenses since the last report. They went to James B. Gordanier and Donna Rekey Bradley; and Mario Rodriguez and Luz Lopez Castro.

The bitter orange was the only kind known in Europe until after 1500 A.D. It was used as a seasoning, not as a fruit.

The Latest

Mr. and Mrs. R.L. Clayton Jr., of San Antonio visited during the weekend with their son and daughter-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. Lee Clayton in Farwell.

Sunday guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Magness were her nephew, Neilan Hensley, and Kenneth Beasley, students at West Texas State.

Visiting Saturday night in the home of Mrs. Aileen Teel in Texico were her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Usrey, Stephen and Mark of Shawnee, Okla.

"Water, taken in moderation, cannot hurt anybody." Mark Twain

Many thanks are extended to Mrs. Johnnie Williams who donated several razors to the Center - a very useful and needed item to many residents who do not have one of their own.

Congratulations are extended to the State Line Tribune for placing second in the third annual Texas Nursing Home Association media awards. "We think they are the best," says Mrs. Copeland.

Margaret Purcell, Food Service supervisor, attended a workshop-seminar for dietitians in El Paso last week. Several of the Center's employees are required to have a certain number of hours of continuing education every year.

Reminder - Be sure and circle May 21 on your calendar and make plans now to attend the family day and open house festivities slated. It is being planned in conjunction with Texas Nursing Home Week. Homemade ice cream, cookies and live entertainment will be included in the activities.

Steer Tracksters Win District 3-A Crown

The Farwell Steers captured five first places at the District 3-A track meet this past weekend at Bovina, garnering the number one berth in loop competition - for the second year in a row - and placing seven individual Steers in the upcoming regional track meet.

The Blue and White regional qualifiers are Russ Jones, high jump, 120 high hurdles, sprint relay, 330 intermediate hurdles; Max Lonsdale, sprint relay, 100 and 220 yard dashes; Vick Christian, sprint relay, 440 yard dash; Mark Owen, sprint relay; Rowdy Chandler, mile run; D.D. Foster, discus; and Boyd White, alternate for the sprint relay.

They will travel to Odessa this Friday and Saturday for the regional meet.

The sprint relay team of Jones, Owen, Christian and Lonsdale turned in its best time of 45.1 to take first in that event. Lonsdale completed the 220 yard dash in 23.0 - his best time - for first place.

In the 440 yard run Christian finished first with a time of 53.0. Jones set a new school record and tied the district record with 14.7 run in the 120 high hurdles, earning first place. He also set a new school record in the 330 intermediate hurdles with a run of 41.0. Besides being Jones' best run yet it also netted him another first place in the district meet.

Chandler took first in the mile run with a time of 5:17.8. Lonsdale placed second in the 100 yard dash with a time of 10.0. Jones finished second in the high jump with a jump of 6'0", tying his best record this season.

D.D. Foster managed second place in the discus with a toss of 117'3". The mile relay team of Craig Walls, Christian, Owen and White garnered third with a time of 3:50.

In the pole vault Carroll Goldsmith captured fifth, tying his best record. Foster finished fourth in the shot put with a toss of 41'7". Chris Bristow placed sixth in the mile run with a time of 5:42.0.

Team totals are Farwell, 115; Kress, 107; Springlake-Earth, 99; Vega, 81; Hart, 48; and Bovina, 29.

Coach Royce Baker was thrilled with the Steers' victory, especially in view of the fact that he did not expect them to win district again. "With our limited number of players I could not see it," he said.

"We have good people but did not have the numbers this year," he explained. I estimated that we would earn about 114 points, but I expected that to be at least 25-30 points short of first place," he continued.

"The Steers competed well, doing everything I asked of them," Baker said. "They could have settled for second best but instead they kept going for that number one place."

"Several Steers either ran or tied their best times," he said. "It was a super effort by all."

"I think tradition had a lot to do with it," the Farwell coach said. "We had something to uphold because of last year's championship and when we went to Bovina we competed to win. I think that gave us the edge over the other teams."

"Because of our limited numbers we should not have been in the position to win," Baker said. "But it worked out all right for us."

After the field events the Steers were only behind 16 points. "I was pleased at that point because I thought it would be a lot worse."

Steerettes Finish Fourth In Regional Golf Tourney

All good things must come to an end and that is just what happened last week as the Farwell Steerettes golf team finished fourth in regional play, ending their three-year stint as state champions of Class A.

The Steerettes scores were 397-417-814. Rankin finished first followed by Memphis and Stratford.

Penny Hughes finished the

"They did very well overall," coach Don Alana said. "Their effort was very good but a couple of the girls were off in their shooting."

He explained that it was the first time around for three of the girls on the team.

The Steers golf team was to compete in regional action this week. Team members are Rusty McFarland, Tim Norton, Keith Herington, Rowdy Chandler and Robin Roberts.

"These results do not show that we really did run well all year long," McDorman said. "Everyone has worked hard through the year."

"I am proud of the girls and am looking forward to next year," he continued. "Everyone will be back except for two seniors," he concluded.

James Castleberry will see regional tennis action this Friday and Saturday at Odessa. The Steers golf team was to participate in the regional tournament Wednesday and Thursday of this week, also at Odessa.

HAPPY ARE THOSE PEOPLE who have the wisdom to attend to their own business and let other people attend their business. One of the most obnoxious and undesirable human behavior manifestations is the meddling in the affairs of others. Those who feel impelled to interfere with the life and activities of other people usually endeavor to justify their action by saying that they do it for the other's good; however, this declared good intention does not lessen the undesirability of the unwise practice of meddling; it cannot be justified.

THE MEDDLER not only makes others unhappy, but also brings much unhappiness into his own life. There is no area of human relationships in which meddling is wise or acceptable. Carlyle expresses a good thought in these words, "In private life I never knew anyone to interfere with other people's disputes but that he heartily repented of it."

HAPPINESS is impossible for those who are so foolish as to meddle in the affairs of others and this applies to the affairs of our friends and relatives. Someone has said, "Every fool will be meddling." We are convinced that nothing is more foolish than the evil practice of meddling.

OUR CREATOR knows what is essential to happy and satisfactory human relationships and he tells that we must not be busybodies in other men's matters.

Why Should Dolph Briscoe Be Governor for 10 Years?

There is no good reason!

No other Texas Governor has ever asked for 10 years, much less been elected for 10 years. Dolph Briscoe's record does not merit 10 years in office.

- ★ Yet Briscoe has spent more than $2 million in this campaign — including $900,000 his supporters borrowed from 13 banks — to get 10 years in office.
- ★ Property taxes have increased by 1 BILLION DOLLARS since Briscoe was elected; so far, he has done nothing to provide property tax relief.
- ★ Welfare costs have more than doubled under Briscoe, without a fair increase in benefits for those people who really deserve them. The reason is waste. The worst example is Briscoe's own Office of Migrant Affairs, which spends $8,000 for each person it helps find a new job.
- ★ Utility rates have skyrocketed while Briscoe has been governor, without a single sign of concern by the Governor.

Elect a New Governor

Endorsing John Hill, the Kilgore News Herald said:

As a fiscal conservative, I have developed a comprehensive program to effectively manage the $2 Billion dollars on deposit in the State Treasury. Here are aspects of it:
Rate of Return: The State Treasurer should not play politics with our tax money. I pledge to put the taxpayer's money to work earning the highest interest available.
Cash Flow Forecasting: Using modern management techniques, we can accurately determine how much money the state needs in liquid funds. The state's obligations must be paid on a timely basis at minimum administrative cost.

People all over Texas are responding enthusiastically to my campaign. I appreciate your support. I know that the public trust must be earned, and it is a responsibility I accept. ## Recycling Center Or ENMRSH Reaches 2,000,000 Lb. Goal

Receives Awards

Sp. 4 Kevin W. Cooper, son of Mr. and Mrs. Truitt Hardage of Farwell, is pictured with the awards he received following the annual A.G.I. inspection. He was named "soldier of the month" for his company; "most outstanding soldier for the battalion;" and track driver for the month of April. In addition to these awards he will receive a letter from Brigadier General Wetzel. Cooper has been in the Army for three years and is stationed at Ludwigsburg, Germany. He and his wife, Charlene, have one son named Jesse.

The Recycling Center at 6th and Mitchell, Clovis, has successfully combined improving the environment through recycling used materials, with an even older concept - that of rehabilitation of Developmentally Disabled individuals. Serving a twofold purpose, the Recycling Center collects and finds markets for used glass, paper, and aluminum. Even more important, the Recycling Center provides gainful employment for many of the clients of the Henry Ward Memorial Workshop, a component of the Eastern New Mexico Rehabilitative Services for the Handicapped, Inc. (ENMRSH). By May 1, 1978, the Recycling Center will have processed more than 2,000,000 pounds of recyclable materials. Additionally, the Center has progressed in its initial goal of providing another means of rehabilitation of the Developmentally Disabled (Cerebral Palsied, Epileptic, Autistic, and Mentally Retarded). The Civic Affairs Committee of the Clovis

Chamber of Commerce initiated the project October 12, 1974, in conjunction with the Henry Ward Memorial Workshop. This program was the first of its kind in New Mexico, and one of only five or six in the nation. The Recycling Center is open to the public on Saturdays from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. accepting deliveries of materials at these times. The Center is interested in glass, aluminum, and paper of all kinds, with the exception of cardboard. A work crew is also available to pick up larger loads of recyclable materials and may be contacted at 763-4057 or 763-4190. Pickups are made on Tuesdays and Thursdays after 9:30 a.m. For residents of Cannon Air Force Base, a dumpster has been provided by the CAFB Junior Officers Council. CAFB Cub Scout Pack 312 also conducts paper drives on base, bringing its collections to the Recycling Center each month. The ENMRSH Recycling Center, as always, is extremely dependent upon contributions from the public, and has found the cooperation of the community necessary and gratifying. The Center also receives considerable support in services from many businesses in town either through collections or assistance with administrative details. Participating currently are local bottling companies, area schools and civic organizations, utility companies, churches, banks, the railroad and CAFB, the city and county.

At present, the Center contracts to ship paper to Ft. Sumner where it is shredded and used for insulation in homes. Glass collected by the Center is separated by color, crushed, and shipped to a recycling plant in Texas. A local company assists in the disposal of the aluminum collected by the ENMRSH Center. Profits earned by the Center are recycled by ENMRSH in the form of wages to those clients operating the Center, under the direction of Supervisor Ellis Pernell.

Consumer Food News

COLLEGE STATION - Best food values at Texas grocery markets this week include several fresh vegetables, dairy products, eggs and grapefruit, according to Mrs. Gwendolyn Clyatt.

Mrs. Clyatt is a consumer marketing information specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

FRESH VEGETABLES - Potatoes are an excellent choice, price-wise. Other price-quality values include collards, mustard and turnip tops, carrots, cabbage and broccoli. Onion prices are lower as supplies increase. Fresh asparagus has best quality and lowest prices during April and May.

DAIRY - Cheese, a high-protein food, is a feature. Other advertised specials are on sour cream, yogurt and milk.

POULTRY - Egg prices remain attractive.

FRESH FRUITS - Grapefruit has attractive prices and good supplies. Fresh pineapple has reasonable prices and good quality. Apples show good quality, but prices are rising slightly. Strawberry supplies are somewhat limited due to cooler-than-usual weather.

BEEF - Prices will be higher this year than earlier forecast because of a shorter beef supply. Less nonfed beef (lean) and more fed beef will appear on the market. Most economical choices are chuck roasts and steaks, round steaks and liver.

CONSUMER WATCH-WORDS: For economical, efficient shopping, practice four habits:

Make a shopping list. Build menus around "specials" or seasonal foods in plentiful supply at economical prices.

Allow room on the list for in-store substitutions that offer a better buy than items on the list.

Watch for unadvertised specials.

If you will be storing your electric blankets for the summer, take care to use the right cleaning method on them.

Proper laundering is a "must" for longer blanket life. Never dry-clean an electric blanket. This usually ruins the insulation on the wiring. Launder newer electric blankets in automatic washers and dryers. Many older blankets can also be laundered in automatic washers if controls are adjusted, but check instruction booklets.

Here are some instructions on how to launder an electric blanket:

(1) Fill the washer with the blanket, lukewarm water and detergent - or cold water and a cold-water, wool-washing detergent. Let blanket soak 10 to 15 minutes. Then, agitate one to three minutes only.

(2) Spin just long enough for water to drain from washer. Fill again for rinsing. Agitate one minute and spin again. If blanket still looks sudsy, repeat rinse.

(3) Spread blanket over two parallel clotheslines to dry - or place in automatic dryer. When it is almost dry, brush lightly to lift nap. Press binding with iron set at "synthetic" or "rayon."

Most electric blankets are made of mothproof fabric - so don't use moth preventives - they might damage the plastic parts. Store the clean blanket in a box or large plastic bag.

The TAES intends no endorsement of products, nor is criticism of similar products implied which is not shown or used in Extension Educational Programs.

Texico's This, That And The Other

The second grade students will present a play for Mother's Day entitled, "The Red Bird of Happiness." The date has not been decided.

The Wolverine Band went to Tatum last week for a Massed Band Festival. This week they went to the Greater Southwest Music Festival in Amarillo.

The junior play originally scheduled for April 20 was cancelled because of too many outside conflicts.

The junior-senior banquet and prom will be at the Colonial Country Club, May 2.

Kindergarten students will have their annual May Day Dance Monday, May 1, at 2:30 p.m., on the parking lot near the elementary school, or in the number two gym if the weather is bad. Parents and visitors are welcome.

Roscoe Vaughn, state supervisor for vocational agriculture, visited the vocational ag department last week.

On Monday, Benny Wooten, state FFA president, and Dick Holland, Clovis FFA president, presented a program and visited with each ag class.

Dennis Britton has enrolled in the kindergarten class.

Activities on the schedule for next week include: the junior-senior banquet and prom on May 2; the high school academic awards assembly on May 4 at 2:30 p.m.; the girls' state track meet at Albuquerque May 5-6; the junior high academic awards program May 5 from 9-10 a.m.; and junior high cheerleader tryouts.

First graders in Mrs. Rita Dunsworth's classroom presented a play, "Stop that Pancake," last Friday for their parents. Mrs. Billy Carlyle, their student teacher, assisted with the performance. Coach Carlyle also contributed by making most of the scenery.

Marine Pvt. Muniz Completes Course

Marine Private Casmiro Muniz Jr., son of Casmiro Muniz Sr., of Farwell, has completed a Motor Vehicle Operator's Course.

During the seven-week skill training at the Marine Corps Base, Camp Pendleton, Calif., students received classroom and behind-the-wheel instruction on the operation and capabilities of Marine Corps vehicles; defensive driving techniques; "rules of the road" and user-level preventive maintenance. Muniz joined the Marine Corps in October 1977.

TWO MINUTES WITH THE BIBLE

SERVING BIBLE SOCIETY

GRACE FROM CALVARY

If you want to enjoy a real spiritual feast, take your Bible and look up the word "grace." First notice how often this word is found in the four Gospels—only five times and only once in a doctrinal sense. Then notice how often it is used in Paul's epistles (only about half the size of the four Gospels). Here it is found well over one hundred times and practically always in a doctrinal sense, about the love and mercy of God toward sinners and toward His own. Think of it: Only once is grace referred to doctrinally in the four Gospels, yet in Paul's epistles—only half as large in volume—it is used more than one hundred times.

This is because St. Paul was God's chosen apostle to make known His grace to sinners, for in Acts 20:24 he speaks of "the ministry which I have received of the Lord Jesus, to testify the gospel of the grace of God."

But on what basis could God, through Paul, proclaim salvation by free grace to sinners? Ah, now take your Bible and begin looking up those passages which refer to the cross, the death and the blood of Christ, again noticing that while Paul does not actually relate the story of Christ's death, he has more to say about that death, and what it accomplished, than any other Bible writer. It would thrill the heart of any sincere Christian to go through the epistles of Paul and see how much good news Paul proclaims on the basis of the death of Christ—far more than any other writer. This is why Paul's message is called "the preaching of the cross"—God's good news about what Calvary has accomplished for us (1 Corinthians 1:17-23).

In Paul's epistles we learn that through Christ's death for us at Calvary believers are "justified," "accepted" by God and pronounced "complete in Christ." By His death they are "reconciled to God in one body," given a position at God's right hand in the highest heavens and assured "the riches of His grace" in "the ages to come"—all this and more.

Riches of grace from Calvary; this is the very essence of the great message which Paul was raised up to proclaim. Read his epistles and see.
