

PURELY PERSONAL
by John

The past weekend was three days of hard and grueling basketball, but one which was very successful locally. The Texico girls won second place in the first New Mexico State Girls Basketball Tournament. They barely lost out in the final game after forcing their opponents into an overtime period.

The tournament was played in the beautiful Eastern New Mexico University gymnasium complex and was apparently successful from the attendance standpoint. We were pleased at the number of folks from the Twin Cities who made the trip and cheered for the Whirlwinds.

In New Mexico, the girls play a full court game under boys rules and, believe me, they play the game hard. We talked to several people who had watched the half court game as it is played in Texas and we asked them which style they preferred. In practically all instances they said that the full court game was better from the spectator standpoint. We are inclined to agree with them.

Our congratulations to the Texico Whirlwinds. They did themselves and their community proud.

One of our readers passed along this information to us. They said that the CBS TV moguls were going to kill several of the early evening prime time family shows such as "The Waltons" and replace them with movies. In light of what passes for a movie today, we think this will not be an improvement for family viewing.

If you are interested in the retention of these enjoyable family-type evening programs, we suggest you voice your opinion to Dr. Frank Stanton, President of CBS, at 51 W. 52nd St., New York City, N. Y. 10019.

Every question has two sides. Often it is a matter of the good balancing or outweighing the bad in trying to arrive at an answer to a specific problem. So it is with an evaluation of our recent participation in the Indo-China embroilago. We made these prefacing remarks to begin an answer to a question posed by the Clergy and Laity Concerned Committee. The statement ends with "unless there is an honest facing of the full human meaning of what we as a nation have done."

In the context of the article, we detect the attitude that what we have done in Indo-China has been bad and that we as a nation must repent of our sins. This we totally and completely disagree with as a concept. In this case we think that the good we accomplished far outweighed any bad that occurred in our process of armed participation. We think that as a nation we accomplished several things:

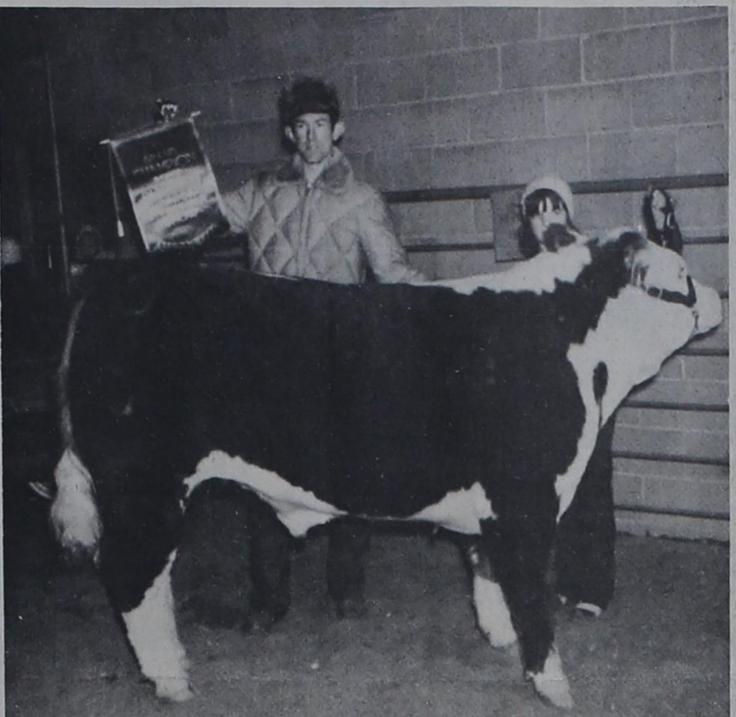

We have kept a large segment of the human race from being forcefully subjected to a Godless society. We have kept them and their children from having their access to worship removed by a State mandate. We have prevented the slaughter of uncounted millions of human beings. (Find me one example in history where armed communist aggression has not resulted in a bath of blood for the civilian population.)

We have preserved the right to political self-determination for these peoples. (Name me one instance where a communist-controlled society has freed itself of communist domination.)

Finally, we think that the message has been given, at great sacrifice, that naked aggression to swallow countries and peoples shall cease and that governments of law will prevail in the world.

These things, the preservation of great areas of the world for free exercise of religion and the free exercise of political thoughts, are of inestimable value to all mankind.

The pseudo-religionists and neo-communists notwithstanding.

EXHAUSTED, TEARFUL, BUT THANKFUL - Texico varsity girls, the Whirlwinds, coached by Charles Stockton, were a tearful, tired group Saturday night after losing to San Jon for the Class AA State Championship, 37-33 in overtime. But, on the other hand, they were thankful for a 16-4 season record, 7-1 district record and the 6-AA District crown. According to Stockton, the District Tournament was the first a Texico girls team has ever won and the team has climbed to greater heights than any other girls team at Texico. Team members are, left to right, front row: Arlene Servatius, Jo Pearce, Carla Richardson, Judy Yell, Marilyn Walters and Kim Pearce; second row: Othena Smith, manager; Linda Autrey, Elizabeth Pierce, Carol Eshelman, Coach Charles Stockton, Diane Luce, Belinda Hatcher and Beverly Duncan.

Lose Final Game In Overtime - - Texico Girls Runners-Up For State Championship

Texico varsity girls basketball team, the Whirlwinds, whipped up quite a storm at the State Girls Basketball Tournament in Portales at ENMU Physical Education Complex last week.

Saturday night, the Whirlwinds fought San Jon for the State crown, tooth and nail, but San Jon edged out Texico 37-33 after a frantic overtime period following regulation play.

The Whirlwinds kept pace with a lead set up by San Jon at the beginning of the game, but Texico took over the lead in the last quarter.

Troopers to the bitter end, Texico varsity girls with two players fouled out steadied themselves for an all out battle against a well-known foe. Texico had the lead 31-29 with seconds to go when San Jon tied up the game before the buzzer sounded.

During the overtime period,

San Jon amassed two field goals and two free throws to one field goal for Texico to win the first AA State Championship.

The Whirlwinds disappointedly collected their second place trophy but counted their blessings for such a fine season. They have a 16-4 season record and a 7-1 district record.

According to Coach Charles Stockton, this season is the best the girls have ever had. "I think the District Tournament is the only tournament the girls have ever won," he said.

Since Stockton has been coaching the girls, five years, they have been in the Eastern Plains Athletic Conference Tournament finals twice, but they have never won a tournament.

This year the girls were not only proclaimed 6-AA District Champs, they are now the second place team in Class AA in the state of New Mexico.

Stockton said the Whirlwinds played Saturday night's game as they planned it. "We just played everything the way we planned. We played it the way we'd worked on it," he said. "Our outstanding player was Carla Richardson. She kept the boards cleared all night. She made 16 rebounds during the game," he added.

Carla Richardson was high with 13 points and Kim Pearce scored 10 points. Stockton said the final game was more of a defensive game than offensive.

Eight teams from eight districts in New Mexico started tournament play Thursday. By semi-finals time Friday, only four teams were left. Saturday, only San Jon and Texico were left to battle it out for the championship.

Thursday afternoon, the Whirlwinds crushed Belen in their first tournament game 53-29. Kim Pearce was high with 12 points and Judy Yell scored 10 points.

Friday in the semi-finals, Texico stirred up Weed 38-18. Kim Pearce was high with 14 points and Arlene Servatius scored eight points.

AUSTIN--TEXAS FEED CATTLE LEADER--Texas is the nation's leader in all major categories of the beef cattle industry, Texas Agriculture Commissioner John C. White states.

The livestock industry in Texas is a $2 billion industry, accounting for almost half the total agricultural income of the state. There were 12.8 million cattle and calves in Texas in January, more than five million head above second-ranked Iowa.

Rankings by counties for livestock categories include the following (one through 10):

All cattle and calves: Deaf Smith, Parmer, Hansford, Castro, Swisher, Sherman, Randall, Ochiltree, Hale, and Hopkins.

Texas ranks second in the nation in number of slaughter plants, third in cattle, and calves slaughtered during 1971, third in sheep and lamb slaughter and 15th in hog slaughter.

COUNCIL MAKES SURVEY FOR LEGISLATURE-- County judges and District clerks and judges have been asked for important research information to help the Texas Legislature make decisions on current legislative proposals.

Questions on marijuana, automobile accidents, probation, etc., have been posed by the Texas Civil Judicial Council-- which is charged in state statutes with the duty of supplying information to the legislature affecting state courts.

"It is understandably difficult for a legislator to judge the merits of proposed legislation wisely without any estimate of its impact," said Ronald Earle, chief counsel for the Judicial Council. "The Judicial Council is seeking to provide this needed information instead of conjecture."

In seeking information regarding the number of persons currently on probation the Judicial Council will be exploring uncharted territory, Earle added. "The impact of probation on the criminal process is too important not to consider in more detail."

Current proposals on changes in the Judicial Article of the Texas Constitution sets up machinery for an Administrator of the Court-- whose office would compile statistics from the courts on a year-round basis.

COURTS SPEAK-- The State Supreme Court refused an appeal by Continental Oil Company to issue an order in an energy shortage action involving the company's inability to deliver natural gas under contract with other concerns.

The high court upheld lower courts restraining Crystal City from locking what's left of the local country club and upholding a 1956 lease of city land.

Court of Criminal Appeals overruled a conviction for theft against a former Crane County hospital executive who allegedly sold a compressor unit used in treating respiratory diseases. The court decision said Crane County had never become owner of the machine, and there could have been no theft or embezzlement from the county.

Book Bag

The great white way may not shine the way it used to, but books on movies, music, and the "beautiful people" are more exciting than ever... From the movie scene Doris Day has completed her autobiography, while Shirley MacLaine--already applauded for her earlier book DON'T FALL OFF THE MOUNTAIN--is completing another slice of autobiography (Norton)... Not to be outdone, Anthony Quinn will follow up his critically acclaimed self-portrait, ORIGINAL SIN, with an equally candid sequel (Little, Brown)... In the music world two very different pianists have told what makes them play the way they do... Liberace tells all in his life story (Putnam), and Arthur Rubenstein describes what life is like for a brilliant classical pianist.

At Home In Parmer County

Shopping for drapery material takes a careful consumer. Most fabrics perform satisfactorily, but about 10 per cent do not.

About half of the complaints regarding fabrics are the result of dry cleaner or customer carelessness. These start when the consumer doesn't read labels and care information - or keep the information for easy reference.

Performance depends on fiber, yarn, fabric construction, color, finish, surface design and components.

Problems related to performance include brocade drapery fabrics. Some are heat sensitive and cannot be satisfactorily cleaned.

Another is stretch yarn used in construction of many draperies. It can be a cleaning problem when the stitching shrinks, stretches or wrinkles.

Problems with fabric construction also include flocking. Often during dry cleaning flocking is destroyed.

Other problems involve resin-bonded prints used in curtains, draperies, bedspreads and upholstery. For these dry cleaning is not recommended. They must be washed unless the label reads "to be cleaned with petroleum solvent". Only then is dry cleaning satisfactory.

Drapery fabrics of 100 per cent screen print, labeled "100 per cent cotton washable", create more problems when the homemaker takes them to the cleaners. Satisfaction in this case depends on the type of solvent used.

Farmer Encouragement Of Wildlife Increasing

America's farmers feed not only cattle, hogs and poultry, but everything else that flies, swims, runs or crawls on farm and ranchlands -- an estimated 80 percent of the nation's wildlife.

Soil Conservation Service figures show that farmer encouragement of wildlife is on the increase.

Farmers, ranchers and other landowners have improved more than 7 1/2 million acres of land and water areas for the benefit of wildlife -- a 28 percent increase over last year.

Further, SCS officials report, more than half a million acres of other rural land was converted from crop or rangeland into wildlife and recreation areas during 1972. SCS helps landowners improve food, water, and cover for wildlife. Improved habitat increases wildlife populations even faster than stocking. The 7 1/2 million acres of habitat improvement is only a small part of the American farmer's aid to wildlife. Widespread farm and ranch conservation practices such as stripcropping (alternating banks of crops and grass), building ponds, protecting woodland areas, planting windbreaks and improving rangeland also attract many wild creatures.

These and many other conservation practices indicate that American farmers and ranchers continue to be the "host with the most" for wildlife, say SCS officials.

Lutherans Celebrate Lutheran Hour Sunday

Sunday, Feb. 25, St. John's Lutheran Church, Lariat, will join congregations throughout The Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod by celebrating Lutheran Hour Sunday. It will be a day of praise to God for the many blessings and opportunities God has showered on The Lutheran Hour during its 40 seasons of broadcasting the "Good News of Jesus Christ" to the world.

From an English Language Program carried by 32 stations in the United States in 1930, The Lutheran Hour has grown to a truly worldwide radio ministry dedicated to bringing Christ to the nations. Today the Lutheran Hour is broadcast by approximately 1,100 radio stations in the United States and Canada, and by an additional 700 stations around the world. Altogether this includes North and South America, Europe, Africa and the Middle East, the Far East and the Pacific.

The program reaches people in the Communist countries of Eastern Europe, the U.S.S.R. and China. Each week the Lutheran Hour is broadcast in 46 languages to an estimated 40 million listeners in 125 countries around the world.

The Lutheran Hour has been described by the public press as the largest religious program in the nation and in the world.

County Gas Users To Meet In Hub Monday

Farmers in this area are urged to attend the meeting of Parmer County Gas Users Association Monday, Feb. 26, at 8 p.m. in the Hub Community Center.

Fuel scarcity problems must be faced by irrigation farmers, Association officials assert. Severe winter has called national attention to the problems of the nation in providing enough fuel to meet the ever-increasing demands.

If farmers are to be able to obtain fuel in sufficient quantities, it is going to be essential that they band together and unite and speak with one voice, they say.

A representative of the ASCS office will explain the new 1973 Farm Program at the meeting and answer questions.

Gold leaf, oil painting, sewing; you name it and Mrs. Joe (Eunice) Schilling of the Oklahoma Lane community does it. In her spare time, Eunice enjoys working on various crafts. She has even taken painting lessons.

She sews quite a bit for herself and for her daughter, Judith. Judith, age nine, enjoys working with her mother to make the clothes she wears to school.

Mrs. Schilling has three other children, Stephen, age seven; Jason, age three; and Trent, seven months. The Schillings' oldest son, Nicky, was killed when he was hit by a Farwell school bus in 1969.

The Schillings have lived northeast of Farwell and, now, in the Oklahoma Lane community, for 12 years. They recently moved to the Edmund Kitten farm where Joe is involved in farming.

The Schilling family attends St. Ann's Catholic Church in Bovina. Eunice is a member and currently secretary of the Altar Society. Joe is a member of Knights of Columbus. Eunice is also church organist, a duty she enjoys very much.

Eunice and Joe came to the Farwell area from Slaton. Schilling grew up in Slaton and attended school there, but Eunice grew up in Wilson. They both attended the same church, so they actually grew up together.

After she graduated from high school, Eunice worked at a Slaton bank for three years. Schilling went into the Army after farming for a time with his father following his schooling.

He then went to four years of college in San Antonio and Louisville, Ky. The couple married in October, 1960, after Schilling was back home farming with his father.

A favorite family pastime of the Schillings is taking trips to the lake. They have a boat and camper and they use it whenever they can get away. Last year they went to Ute Lake, but they have done some boating at a private lake on land Joe used to farm.

Another family activity the Schilling children enjoy is playing pool in their basement. They also list swimming in the summer, jumping on a trampoline and riding bicycles as lots of fun. Judith is also a member of Junior Girl Scouts.

Our homemaker is sharing some of her family's favorite recipes this week with our readers.

Local Rotary Club Joins Others In Celebrating

Texico-Farwell Rotary Club, along with 15,500 other Rotary Clubs in 149 countries, will celebrate the 68th birthday of the founding of Rotary International today (Friday).

The club is not having a special day of celebration or planning a special service project or activity; Wednesday's regular meeting was not unusual.

What the local Rotary Club is doing, they do each week, without fanfare or publicity. Texico-Farwell Rotary Club exists through the years by sticking to the four objects of Rotary.

The first is the development of acquaintance as an opportunity of service. Second, high ethical standards in business and professions; the recognition of the worthiness of all useful occupations; and the dignifying by each Rotarian of his occupation as an opportunity to serve society.

Third, the application of the ideal of service by every Rotarian to his personal, business and community life. Fourth, the advancement of international understanding, good will and peace through a world fellowship of business and professional men united in the ideal of service.

Rev. W. T. Perry, president of the local Rotary Club, noted an article on Rotary Club's founder, Paul Harris, in the February issue of The Rotarian.

The article is written by Dorothea Kahn Jaffee. The writer recalls an article she wrote on the 30th anniversary of Rotary Club concerning Harris in The Christian Science Monitor.

When Harris came up with the idea of a club where one man from a vocation could join others only one from a vocation, in an organization of service and fellowship, he was a lawyer in Chicago.

He remembered the simple friendliness of Wallingford, Vermont, where he grew up. Back in Wallingford, doctor and baker, banker and hardwareman, and other business men enjoyed each other's company.

From an organization of Harris and three friends, a coal merchant, tailor and mining engineer, Rotary Club has grown to include a membership of 728,000.

GIRL SCOUT COOKIES ON SALE -- Junior Girl Scouts from Texico-Farwell began selling five kinds of Girl Scout cookies today (Friday). They will be selling cookies through March 10. A two-week campership for Camp Rio Blanco will be awarded to Girl Scouts who sell 180 boxes or more.

Mrs. Lockhart presented the film on social diseases and gave a program. She told Study Club members that VD is a very real problem in our country today.

It is not a new disease, she said, but dates back to the early Egyptians who wrote on the walls of caves in hieroglyphics. She said it was very prevalent during the 14th and 18th centuries.

Mrs. Lockhart stressed the importance of early treatment for VD.

After refreshments of red velvet cake, ice cream, coffee or tea was served, a short business meeting was conducted.

Members attending were Mesdames L. R. Vincent, Claude Coffey, W. N. Foster, Elmer Scott, Verney Towns, J. D. McDonald, R. S. Shuman and W. T. Perry. Guests were Mrs. W. T. Magness and Mrs. Lockhart.

Consumers Want to Know

by MARGARET SPADER
Director of Consumer Affairs
National Association of Manufacturers

The last pillow cases I bought are about six inches longer than necessary. Is this a case of wasting textiles to get a price increase?

Bed pillows come in many sizes—the three most popular being standard (regular), queen and king size. Standard pillows are 27-inches long, queen are 31 inches plus 4 inches deeper and the king size is 37 inches long and 6 inches deeper than the standard. So, chances are you got the wrong size cases for your pillows. If they have not been used, perhaps you can exchange them for the right size.

Why is it so hard to find pure cotton sheets?

It is true, most bed linens available today are blends of polyester and cotton. The blend of fibers has resulted in wrinkle and shrinkage resistance which apparently has strong consumer appeal. When you have a strong preference for a product, such as pure cotton sheets, tell the buyers at the stores where you shop.

Local Woman Named To Citizens Confab

Mrs. Charles Aycock was notified recently that she has been appointed by Lt. Governor Bill Hobby to serve as a representative from Legislative District 74 to a Citizens Conference on Ethics in Government to be in Austin at the Lyndon B. Johnson School of Public Affairs March 20 and 21.

In a letter to Mrs. Aycock, Hobby requested that she represent her Legislative District at this conference. He said the 63rd Legislature, currently in regular session, is placing the highest priority on the subject of Ethics.

"Because of the importance of the subject matter and because I feel that the people themselves should have a direct input into the structuring of Ethics Legislation, I am planning a Citizens Conference on Ethics in Government," he says.

Mrs. Aycock also received a letter from State Representative Bill Clayton congratulating her on the appointment.

Bridal Shower Honors Mr. & Mrs. Servatius

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Servatius of Goodwell, Okla., were honored Saturday afternoon, Feb. 10, with a bridal shower in the Pleasant Hill Community Center.

Hostesses were Beulah Hodges, Wilma Nell Whitener, Nancy Barnes, Geraldine Burford and Alta Geries.

The serving table was covered with a white lace cloth. A centerpiece arrangement of a lace over lace wedding bell accented with two lovebirds and lily of the valley graced the table.

Iced tea and apricot cheese delight was served with individual party crackers. White napkins with wedding bells printed on them were also used in serving approximately 20 guests.

A white cloth covered the guest register which was decorated with the bride's wedding book and a floral arrangement. Judy Yell and Arlene Servatius, the groom's sister, presided at the guest register.

Mrs. Robert Servatius assisted her daughter-in-law in opening the gifts. Approximately 40 gifts were opened and displayed.

A chemical called glyphosate has shown much promise in tests for control of Johnsongrass, one of the most stubborn field pests in Texas agriculture.

Glyphosate, announced F. H. Fell of the Texas A&M University Soil and Crop Science Department, showed up best of six materials tried for controlling the grass in fields just after harvest of such crops as grain sorghum and cotton. The other chemicals were terbacil, asulox, dalapon, and DSMA plus MH.

Glyphosate is aimed at fallow fields. It is not intended for Johnsongrass control while the cash crop is still growing. This chemical is strictly experimental so far. It has been cleared by the Environmental Protection Agency and so is not for sale.

Glyphosate started in the tests because it killed both the tops and roots (rhizomes) of Johnsongrass. The other herbicides would kill either one or the other but not both, or were erratic or too slow. Glyphosate's major shortcoming was lack of effect on grass seed. Terbacil was found to leave a residue in the soil that might harm a following cash crop. However, the chemical could be a good one for fence roads and roadsides.

All the materials were applied in water at the rate of 15 gallons per acre with a tractor sprayer equipped with a 10-foot rear-mounted boom.

One of the first steps in getting this year's garden off to a good start is to have the soil tested.

Regardless of the vegetables you plan to grow, they will get off to a better start if your garden soil contains an adequate supply of plant nutrients. A soil test will indicate which plant nutrients are present in adequate amounts and which are low. Some soils are naturally low or high in certain plant nutrients.

The soil chemist who analyzes the soil will then suggest the addition of fertilizer containing plant nutrients so that your vegetables will make the best possible growth. Of course, cultural practices such as proper planting at the right time, proper watering, and insect, disease and weed control are all important if plants are to make proper use of nutrients available in the soil.

The pH of your garden soil, whether it is acid or alkaline, also plays an important role in the performance of vegetable crops. A soil test will indicate the level of pH and what to add to correct an unfavorable pH condition.

Once you have received your soil test report, buy the fertilizer and store it until needed. Thus, you will avoid last minute delays when gardening time rolls around.

Instructions and cartons for submitting soil samples are available at the County Extension Office. The small fee for having your garden soil tested can pay dividends next spring and those garden-fresh vegetables appear on your dining table.

Beef cattle producers in Palmer County now have an opportunity to participate in a new service that will enable them to obtain important determining characteristics of the carcasses their cattle produce.

The program is called the Beef Carcass Data Service and is a joint effort of the U.S.

Department of Agriculture and the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

The service involves the use of specially designed eartags which the producer attaches to those cattle on which he wants to obtain carcass information. When eartagged cattle are slaughtered, a meat inspector will remove the tag and attach it to the carcass. Then the USDA meat grader assigned to the slaughter plant will evaluate and record the quality and yield grade factors. This information will be sent to the Agricultural Marketing Service's Carcass Data Center in Washington, D.C. Once the data is processed and returned to the producer or eartag owner, he will be billed $1.50 per head.

Eartags for the new service, at 50 cents each plus 75 cents for the tool to attach the tag, may be ordered from Dr. Frank Orts, Extension meats specialist at Texas A&M University. His address is Room 322, Animal Industries Bldg., College Station, Texas 77843.

The Beef Carcass Data Service will provide producers with the following information: conformation grade, maturity, degree of marbling, quality grade, fat thickness, ribeye area, yield grade, hot carcass weight, and per cent of kidney, pelvic and heart fat.

The new service can make a substantial contribution toward improving the genetic potential of breeding stock and improving feeding programs and management practices. The detailed carcass data obtained through this program can provide important guidelines in the production of high quality, meat-type cattle - those that combine thick muscling and a minimum of excess fat.

American agriculture has advanced more in the past two generations than in all prior years of its history.

HEAVEN IS BETTER THAN THIS

A large percentage of the people of the world wake up every morning with some kind of ache or pain. If you are one of the many victims with some infirmity of the flesh, perhaps you will agree with the little chorus which says: "Heaven is better than this."

The Scriptures tell us that "the whole creation groaneth and travaileth in pain together until now" (Rom. 8:22). Note the expression: "the whole creation." This takes in the whole world; no one is excluded. Indeed, the very next verse goes on to say to Christian believers: "And not only they, but ourselves also . . . groan . . . waiting for . . . the redemption of our bodies."

No doubt many of us feel like crying out with the Psalmist David, "Look upon mine affliction and my pain" (Psa. 25:18), and "Turn Thou unto me, and have mercy upon me; for I am desolate and afflicted" (Psa. 28:16).

In spite of all the sorrow, trouble and pain which the child of God must endure, however, he can be assured with the Apostle Paul that: "our LIGHT affliction, which is but for a MOMENT [comparatively], worketh for us A FAR MORE EXCEEDING AND ETERNAL WEIGHT OF GLORY" (II Cor. 4:17). When we go to be with the Lord we will no longer be living in "this earthly tabernacle," but will have "a building of God, an house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens" (II Cor. 5:1). Paul even adds that as Christians we earnestly desire "to be clothed upon with our house [our new body] which is from heaven" (II Cor. 5:2).

Finally, St. Paul declared that "to depart and to be with Christ . . . is far better" (Phil. 1:23); far better, not only than all earth's sorrow and trouble and pain, but far better even than earth's greatest joys and dearest treasures.

How wonderful it is to know that "Christ died for our sins" and by faith in Him to have a light beyond the grave, a hope beyond the tomb! Surely heaven is better than this!

Farwell Steers BB Statistics Released

Coach Vernon Scott released statistics this week for Farwell High School Steers 1972-73 basketball season. The Steers finished the season with an 18-11 record.

Scott said many teams would be proud to boast such a record, but noted that the Steers had done better in the past and were disappointed with this record.

As a team, the Steers completed 727 out of 1923 field goals for 37 percent and completed 269 out of 503 free throws for 53 percent. Scott said the percentages were lower this year than he had ever seen them. Individually, three Steers scored over 300 points apiece. David Dannheim was top scorer for Farwell with a total of 442 points for the season. He completed 175 out of 462 field goals for 38 percent and completed 92 out of 185 free throws for 50 percent. He had 240 rebounds for the season.

Kevin Hardage had a total of 368 points for the season. He completed 165 out of 392 field goals for 42 percent and completed 38 out of 56 free throws for 67 percent. He had 174 rebounds.

Third highest scorer was Kevin Hargrove with 361 points. He completed 145 out of 369 field goals for 39 percent and completed 71 out of 130 free throws for 54 percent. He had 265 rebounds.

Doug Johnston was top rebounder with 300. He completed 112 out of 293 field goals for 37 percent and 26 out of 47 free throws for 55 percent. He scored 250 points.

During the season, Johnny Boling scored 71 points; Carl Kirkland, 48; Greg Taylor, 21; Lesley Curtis, 61; and Mike Woods, 96.

Boling completed 35 out of 86 field goals for 41 percent. Curtis completed 13 out of 24 free throws for 54 percent.

GET THAT BASKET, ARLENE -- Texico Whirlwinds were in fine form Friday during the semi-finals at the New Mexico State Girls Basketball Tournament in Portales when they squelched Weed 38-18. Arlene Servatius, No. 41, accumulated eight points for the fired-up Texico girls. The victory threw Texico into the finals of the first state girls tournament. Miss Servatius goes up for another two points for Texico while Judy Yell, No. 42, and Kim Pearce, No. 40, look on.

IT AIN'T EASY -- Kim Pearce, No. 40, for Texico Whirlwinds wasn't too surprised Saturday night in the finals of the State Tournament in Portales to find such violent opposition. In fact, Texico knew their San Jon foes well from past experience. The Whirlwinds stuck to their game plan Saturday night, but an overtime period at the end of regulation play punctured their hopes of a State Championship. San Jon won the game 37-33. San Jon's Terry Lee is pictured blocking Miss Pearce's jump shot.

Dora lead the scoring 24-11 in the first half of play. "We got real cold in the first half. We weren't scoring or rebounding, either," said Coach Darryl Haley.

In the second half of play, the Wolverines gained on Dora coming from behind 32-19 to 39-32. The second half surge wasn't enough, though as Dora came on strong for the win.
