By IC v I ask, where does the local ter come in? Despite the factor of the local printer has inves Will thousands of dollars to serve the printing needs of his community, the banks are to launch into the printing business in opposition to him.

This is the same practice that the government has been indulging in for many years by printing return addresses on envelopes for business houses and individuals at a mere fraction of the actual costs. This is one of the reasons why the postal department has been running in the red for many years. At the end of 26, arrived in San Francisco last each year the deficit is made up in Friday and is expected to reach taxes that you and I turn in every Subsidized government practices operating in opposition to local business is nothing less than socialiasm, pure and simple, and has no right to exist in competition with free enterprise.

So far as I am concerned, bank engaging in the printing business Mr. and Mrs. Abeleno Cervantez, in places itself in the same category.

cannot refrein from taking my hat Pickup Sideswipe off to him for this noble act in the interest of old people, many of whom are eking out a bare existence on the pitiance they are receiving in the form of old age pensions.

Mr. and Mrs. Tharp know real hardships from their own experiences and they are determined that the good fortune that has blessed them since settling a homestead in the Pleasant Hill community shall be shared with those less fortunate, After providing adequately for their own children, the Tharps are to make life more tolerable for the aged who are unable to provide for themselves.

Through their unprecidented generosity, hundreds-perhaps thousands-of old people are to be provided with a home of security in the years to come. To my way of thinking, this beats leaving a fortune for unworthy kinsmen to fight over and squander in revelry as is the case in

The decision on the part of Mr. and Mrs. Tharp might be emulated by other well-to-do citizens. In the years to come there will be hundreds who will cherish the memory and thoughtfulness of the Tharps, who have provided them a better way of life in their later years.

Buses made their regular runs school on registration day, and the lunch room was also open. Mrs. Gladys Johnson and Mrs. Bailey are again in charge of the lunch room, for the coming year.

Jones states that a large number of students ate in the lunch room the first day," in fact, we had more students eating at school the first day than we had at any time last year."

One important change has been made in the time school takes up, Jones continues. School begins at 9:30 (Texas fime) and concludes each day at 4:30. "We do not want the children here, or the buses, before 9:15 each day", the superintendent states.

Reason for the time change, according to Jones, was to make the right side of the bumper and the system more convenient for these in ight fender of the Cox machine Pleasant Hill district, who have to ride a greater distance to school, and who go by New Mexico time. Large Crowd Attends ESA Fall Fashion Showing Tuesday Night

Approximately 150 people attended the Tuesday night fall fashion Companion Class Has show, sponsored by Theta Rho chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha, and Mrs. Nell Walling, president of the organization, termed the show as very successful.

Dunlap's Store in Clovis sponsored the show; and flowers for the function were furnished and arranged by Flowerland of Clovis. Mrs. Myrtle Rose of Farwell is the local representative for the firm.

The stage for the showing featured a mixture of fall mums and grasses, emphasized by palms. Center arrangements of cut flowers completed the colorful fall effect.

Twenty-three local models presented fall clothing for all occasions in the newest colors featured. Clothing included sportswear, suits, daytime dresses, cocktail dresses, formals, lounging attire, coats, blouses and skirts, also hats and all accessorcostume jewelry.

Vacation Period Comes to a Finale With School Opening Here On Tuesday

Vacation time, 1951 style, will come to an end on Monday of next week, with the official opening of For New Paving the Friona schools set for Tuesday, September 4, Supt. Dalton Caffey has announced.

When contacted the first of this week, Supt. Caffey still reported one vacancy in his teaching corps, that being in departmental work in grammar school, but indications were good that he would have a complete faculty when opening day rolls

In discussing the first day of school, the superintendent announced that registration for all students, both grade and high school, would be held Tuesday, beginning at 9 o'clock and concluding around the noon hour or a little after. School buses will make their regular runs, but since classes will not get underway until Wednesday, the school ments are worked out to take care of the group in an assortment of classrooms over the campus, pending completion of construction.

As if things weren't bad enough following the burning of almost all of the high school in late May, a fire on Saturday night threatened to destroy the old gymnasium, all that remains of the building, where a number of classes had been planned for the coming term. Prompt action by local firemen and other volunteers, however, resulted in the blaze being nipped in the bud and little further damage to the building was sustained. No positive cause of the Friday night fire has been given.

Turning to the faculty, Supt. Caffey said that two returning teachers, Mrs. Ethel Benger and Mrs. Irma Stark, would be in charge of the first grade. Miss Ranghill Hanson will be back on duty in the second her M.A. Miss Richards has taught before Sept. 20, at the very latest. for several years near Lamesa.

Mrs. Rita Mast, of Bovina, is also a newcomer to the faculty, with she and Miss Jo Phillips, a returnee, in charge of the third grade, Mrs. Mast is a graduate of Texas Tech, and has done teaching at Tauma, California.

Fourth graders will see two familiar faces, in the persons of Mrs. Ruth les the planting can be killed out by Edlemon and Mrs. Mable Jones, frost in late fall. Kennedy added while in charge of the fifth grade that the alfalfa "won't winter killwill be Mrs. Johnny Nazworth.
