

FROM THE HOPPER

By HOP JR.

Our mysterious Okie from Oklahoma Lane, who corresponds anonymously with this column from time to time, isn't doing so hot on the long-range weather forecasts which he mailed in several weeks ago.

We've just wound up the month of February, and as everybody knows, it was just as dry as the five months prior to it. Our Okie had forecast:

"General rains possible for the month of February, especially the last week."

Our personal opinion about all this weather forecasting is that the expense of maintaining weather bureaus and meteorologists out here is just a big waste of taxpayers' money. Hometown folks like this guy out at Oklahoma Lane perform in about the same fashion as our most expertly trained weathermen.

The "do it yourself" craze has crept into our homelife in a way not suggested by many of the advertisements you read continuously in newspapers and magazines. Our young son has the bug.

Still not two years old, he has the persistent notion that he can and should do anything that either of his parents have been accustomed to doing for him, and he has doggedly pursued his philosophy.

This would be welcome news for his mother and father, except for the obvious fact that he is mistaken about his capabilities in many instances, and usually has himself highly overrated performance-wise.

Putting on his own shoes is the prime example. He will struggle for a quarter hour with these two items, and "success" to him is considered achieved when he has the left shoe on the right foot, and vice-versa.

To make matters worse, the tongue of the shoe always ends up wrapped around his toes, and shoe-strings to that kid are just an unnecessary decoration.

He steadfastly resists any suggestions on our part, however, and is downright insulted when we are forced to take him down and do things all over again.

This scene is re-enacted in many other fields of endeavor, also, including undressing, opening doors, feeding, and going up or down flights of stairs where a mistake would surely result in calamity.

Like we noticed when our son first struck out in this world, this young man has a mind of his own.

Difficult and revolutionary days are in the making for the editorial or "front office" staff of The Tribune. We are on the threshold of an era of change unparalleled in the history of the newspaper: we are going to try to change society editors in the middle of the stream.

Jeanne has been up to her ears in work ever since she left the campus of Texas Tech to "come out West" and seek a career of her own. Since then we have come to know this old gal is made of pretty durable stuff, but the strain of society editor in title and motherhood in fact has taken its toll.

So, we are making an attempt to get her back to the nursery and the kitchen where every self-respecting mother ought to spend most of her time (we think).

It is too much to hope that we have heard the last of her in the columns of this publication, however, as many years ago Jeanne got that fatal dose of printer's ink in her blood.

She probably will continue penning her weekly column, which we are forced to admit draws more fan mail than ours, and also will likely sort of oversee the news operation from her vantage point on the kitchen stool.

In order to allow her to keep face with the newspapering public, we will now give her the title of "news editor" of The Tribune. Experience in the future will no doubt show that she needs it.

June Hensley, our personable and attractive newcomer who will fill Jeanne's shoes, will no doubt find many situations in the small cities which we serve that will remind her of her home town, Walnut Springs.

With a population of between 600 and 700, this West-Central Texas community is what we consider to be nice background for the type of people with whom June will now be working.

Our policy will still be to carry every possible item of news—large or small—from the circulation territory which we serve: Texico-Farwell and all of Parmer County.

If you know of any phase of activity which we from time to time overlook in our reporting, we will consider it a real favor if you will make a suggestion to us. The Tribune has been, and still is, interested in each week publishing a newspaper with the most complete coverage which our budget can possibly accommodate.

Mrs. J. H. Stone suffered a broken right arm when she fell while hanging curtains at her home on Friday afternoon.

JEANNE GRAHAM WILL CALL IT QUILTS

NEWLY HIRED

The old order changeth. Things are really in a state of upheaval in The Tribune's front office this week, because we are trying to do what people have told us can't be done: replace Mrs. Jeanne Graham as society editor.

Jeanne has handled the news slot for the women so long and capably, and has come to organize her department so highly, that everyone (even her husband), is admitting that it will be hard for someone else to pick up where she left off without difficulty.

That, however, is attempting to be done, and on Saturday afternoon Miss June Hensley rolled into town, direct from Walnut Springs, Texas. The entire staff was breathless with the thought of replacing Mrs. Graham, the veteran of many a story-filled paper, and the atmosphere was one not unlike what prevails among family members when a new addition is about to be added.

For coming out into woolly West Texas, Miss Hensley was careful to bring along plenty of reinforcements, including her mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Hensley, and two brothers, Marion and Lyman, who live in Borger and Canyon, respectively.

Miss Hensley is a graduate of Tarleton State College and a journalism major.

Up until now, everything has gone smoothly, and Jeanne and June are working side by side

Mustangs Beat Samnorwood To Win Regional Tournament

For what is believed to be the first time in organized basketball leagues, a Parmer County boys team is representing this area at the state tournament in Austin this weekend, after winning the regional meet in Canyon Saturday night, and the right to represent the Texas Panhandle (Region 1) for the Class B championship playoffs.

The Bovina Mustangs have already covered a long rocky road in their trek to Austin, and leave behind a record blemished by only two losses—neither of them conference.

They were to have played Rankin, a team from deep west Texas, this morning, as the first game in the tournament. Other teams in the race include Big Sandy, Slide, Medina, Dilley, Maud and Avoca. The last named team has the most impressive record, having won 41 and lost one. Their only setback of the year has been to Borger, a Class 4-A school.

Bovina is the "dark horse" of the tournament, not having any common opponent with any of the other seven entries in the state meet. Reports this week seemed to indicate that a large number of Bovina folks were going to Austin to see their "dark horses" run, however, and a few expressed optimism about the possibility of getting to stay and watch the Mustangs in more than one game.

No Trouble In Regional The maroon-shirted Mustangs swept the regional meet in Canyon over the weekend without what really could be considered a tight squeeze, although they faced some highly respected Class B teams during the meet.

The Regional 1 Crown was theirs Saturday night after they bumped off Samnorwood, a diminutive but high-scoring club, in the finals. Others who fell before Bovina's onward march included Ropesville and McAdoo, both by substantial margins.

Three Like Regional Team Three veteran members of the Mustang aggregation landed on the regional team. Neil Smith, Darrell Read and Don Owens were selected for the posts.

Others placing included Carroll Favor, Bob Tippie, and James Martindale, Samnorwood; Tom Coffe, McAdoo; Cecil Rucker, Shallowater; and Travis Reger and Fred Thompson, Stinnett.

The game with Ropesville was played Friday afternoon, and the Mustangs emerged victors 65-49. Quarter scores: 11-11, 21-27, and 49-37.

Edwards Farm Sale To Be Tuesday

Tuesday, March 8, is the date for the auction farm sale of H. T. "Shorty" Edwards, under the direction of Doshier & Francis. The sale will begin at 10:30 a. m.

The Edwards' farm is 4 miles east and 1/4 north of Lariat; or 4 miles north, 1 1/2 west, and 1/4 north of Progress. Machinery, farm tools, dairy equipment, cattle, and miscellaneous items fill out the bill, and the list is headed by a 1945 tractor.

The Oklahoma Lane HD Club will serve lunch at noon.

TWO FRONT PAGES!

With such a large circulation to adequately cover, sometimes the editor of The Tribune finds himself hard-pressed to decide which are the most important stories, and which stories should be saved for a front page position.

Such a problem faced the editor this week, except that he seemed to have many more unusually worthwhile stories than ordinarily is the custom. He is attempting to solve the problem by the use of two front pages.

Be sure to read the stories that are on the front page of both sections this week. They're all important, but we simply couldn't get them all on one!

Sorghum Men Call for Session

As an aftermath of a huge regional-scale meeting for sorghum growers in Amarillo two weeks ago, at which time a resolution was adopted proposing that a permanent organization of these farmers from over a 5-state area be formed, Parmer County milo producers are urged to attend a meeting Thursday night, March 10, at which time a representative from this county will be named to participate in the 5-state group.

County Agent Joe Jones, in calling the meeting, said that matters other than this may come before the meeting, but the general theme of the session will be devoted to sorghums. Farmers from the county have requested that this meeting be held, he said.

Dr. Kramer, a plant breeding specialist from the Lubbock Agricultural Experiment station, will talk to the farmers on work done with sorghum grains, with emphasis on hybrid varieties.

The Farwell Chamber of Commerce is joining in extending an invitation to producers or others interested to attend the session, and will provide refreshments at the close of the meeting.

The meeting is scheduled to get underway at 8 o'clock, and will be in the district courtroom in Farwell.

Grain sorghums have been a highly discussed topic in recent weeks, with most conversation revolving around the 70 percent of parity support price tagged on the commodity by the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

Kick-Off Breakfast Saturday for C of C

BOB BROOKS

Members and prospective members of the Farwell Chamber of Commerce will gather at an early hour Saturday morning in the City Cafe for a "kick-off breakfast" to start a campaign for paid-up membership in the organization.

Bob Brooks, new president of the C-C, called the directors into a special session Monday afternoon, and Saturday at 7 a. m. was selected to have the breakfast.

It will be "on the house," with the organization footing the bill. Committees are being named to contact as many individuals as is possible to extend a personal invitation to attend, but Brooks emphasized that all who are interested in Chamber work should consider this article an invitation to show up.

A brief program will coincide with the breakfast.

Brooks emphasizes that he and the directors feel that the first thing which should be done by the Chamber is to secure its membership, and then projects for the year will be decided upon.

Brooks, Anderson Head Farwell C-C For Coming Year

Bob Brooks, manager of Lone Star Grain Company, is the new president of the Farwell Chamber of Commerce. His election was made public at the annual Chamber banquet Friday night, which drew around 100 persons.

Serving with Brooks for the coming year are R. W. Anderson, first vice-president, and Otis Huggins, second vice-president. Anderson also is treasurer. Huggins has just completed two years in office as president of the group.

Charles A. Guy, editor and publisher of the Lubbock Morning Avalanche, was speaker for the evening.

The Lubbock publisher lashed out at those who would draw the United States closer to the United Nations, saying "We are not yet ready for it."

To back up his point, Guy gave several illustrations that Americans cannot even resolve differences among themselves, and reasoned that it would be far more difficult to do so with foreign peoples.

"We can't agree on whether our country should be wet or dry (legally speaking)," he said. "In fact we can't even decide whether Tex should be wet or dry."

He also pointed out that many laws differ in application from state to state, and there are numerous cases of where certain areas believe and do things exactly contrary to what others believe and do.

Guy said he felt it would be a good thing if everyone in America would turn into "salesmen" for America, and convince each other of the advantages of living in this democratic nation.

Out-of-town visitors were present from Amarillo, Lubbock, Bovina, Portales, Littlefield, Muleshoe, Clovis, and Hereford.

Deadline Is Tuesday For PTA Feed Tickets

Tuesday is the deadline for reservations for the annual Parents Teachers Association banquet, honoring the graduating seniors, it was announced this week, and all patrons are urged to get their tickets now. The banquet is slated for Thursday evening, March 10, at the school cafeteria in Farwell.

Two points are emphasized by the president of the organization, Mrs. John Getz. She stresses that all patrons are invited to the function, which is actually a farewell social for the senior class. Guests will not be restricted to those who are members of PTA. She says there has been some misunderstanding on the financial angle of this banquet. "This is not a money-making project. The $1.25 which is derived from each ticket is to pay for the meal for the individual and is not an addition to the PTA treasury," she states. Time of the banquet is 7:30 in the evening, and members of the senior class will be in charge of the program. The cafeteria ladies will prepare and serve the banquet meal.

Reservations are to be made with Mrs. Loucile Foster, Mrs. Edd Hardage or Mrs. A. T. Watts. These reservations may be sent by school children, or mailed to one of the above ladies. Also, prospective attendants may telephone any of the three women.

The annual banquet is scheduled later this year, says Mrs. Getz, because the class is so large and PTA members felt it would be advisable to have a special night for this function, instead of scheduling it with the Thanksgiving meeting as has been the practice in the (Continued On Last Page)

City dads of Texico were behaving like a bunch of young boys with an electric train the first of this week, when construction got underway on the new water and sewer systems being installed for the town. That's Hizzoner Scotty Levins in the driver's seat. Watching to see what is going to happen next are Les Means and Joe Helton, councilmen. Barton Plans New Gin at Bovina Soon

The number of gins definitely scheduled to be in operation by harvest this year in Parmer County jumped to an even dozen this week, with the announcement from H. C. Barton, owner of three other gins on the Plains, that he will soon install a brand new—not just modern" 4-90 Murray gin near Bovina.

Just outside of the city, the gin will be located in the "Y" formed by Highway 60 and the paved farm-to-market road leading north of Bovina toward the Rhea community.

The gin will be all-steel and completely electric, and work is scheduled to begin "immediately."

No manager has been named as yet, according to Barton, but W. E. Hitt will be head ginner. Barton's residence is in Lamesa.

Social Security, Butane Fuel Use Topics Tuesday Night

Tuesday night, March 8, at 7:30 authorities on Farmer's Social Security and butane fuel use regulations will be on hand to speak to Parmer County farmers. The meeting will be in the district courtroom in Farwell. Following their formal explanations, further questions of individuals will be answered.

This meeting is being arranged as a result of numerous requests coming from farmers who want to be sure to know that they are handling their books correctly in these matters. J. T. Jones, Ralph Miller, L. F. Bruns and Bruce Parr, FB committeemen, on this subject, have worked in co-operation with County Agent Joe Jones in preparing for the information forum.

In announcing the meeting, J. T. Jones, committee chairman, said that women, as well as their husbands, were urged to be in attendance, since it often falls their lot to do the bookkeeping for the farm family.

THE TRIBUNE'S EDITORIAL COMMENT

Much Consideration Desirable Before Joining any Organization

Serious mistakes have been made by well-intentioned people in the past, who through complacency or just plain carelessness, have aligned themselves with groups which do not truly represent their feelings. Sometimes a person will allow his name to be placed on the membership roll of some organization when he has only heard a smattering of what the true background of the organization might be.

In recent weeks we have heard scattered reports from here and there in Parmer County that individuals from Farmers Union associations in neighboring counties are "feeling out" our farm population, with the view in mind of formerly organizing a local in this county.

Several members of neighboring FU groups have spoken with residents of Parmer's farms about the possibilities of organizing here. One of these persons even called at our office (at our request) and was kind enough to spend several minutes of his time discussing the outlook of that organization. He was a very nice fellow, and we certainly respect his sincere interest in his FU local.

In fact, we are pleased that any group would be interested in adding the ranks of this county to its membership, and we feel that our area is playing an ever increasingly prominent role in state and national affairs because others are interested in our viewpoints.

And we don't think that there is a single farmer in this county who isn't able to judge for himself which national group would come closer to representing his own philosophies—be it the Farm Bureau, Farmers Union, National Grange, or any other group—if he fully understands what each organization represents.

That is why, at this moment when much agitation is taking place for rural families to join some national organization, we would suggest to all who are approached on the matter that they make a full inquiry into the background of any group—whatever it may be—before signing up.

Sorry to See It Go

Like the one-cent postcard, we are sorry to see afternoon postal service in Texico-Farwell, Bovina and Friona, pass on.

Although all of the towns mentioned are growing by leaps and bounds, none has yet achieved the rather "civilized" state where folks stay at home and do yard work on Saturday afternoons.

To the contrary, Saturday afternoon is a time of activity in our small Plains cities. People flock in from the rural areas in great numbers, and Saturday is traditionally "the" day for coming to town and getting into circulation a little bit.

We don't have any idea how much business is ordinarily transacted through the windows of our local post offices on Saturday afternoon, but we will wager to say that there will be a lot of people who will be disappointed to find out they no longer will be able to be waited on after the dinner hour.

We're sorry to see this service go.

We called Crystal (Mrs. Jim) Moss this week at the last hour and begged for her favorite recipe for our column and she kindly permitted us to use one the Moss family thinks is wonderful. It's for icebox cookies, something that always seems at the head of the list in a family where there are children.

She was telling us what the Texico eighth grade did for Valentine this year for mothers, and the idea strikes our fancy. Each student in the room took his or her mother's favorite recipe to school, then all of these were typed and made into booklets with a Valentine cover on which was inscribed "My Favorites." Then each mother was given a copy of the booklet. Wasn't that a nice gesture? If some of you mothers happen to see some of those recipes in print, then you will know that we managed to borrow a copy.

Below is the recipe for icebox cookies.

ICE-BOX COOKIES

- 1 cup butter
- 1 cup brown sugar
- 1 cup white sugar
- 3 eggs
- 3 1/2 cups flour
- 1 tsp. soda
- 1 tsp. salt
- 2 tsp. cinnamon
- 1 1/2 cups chopped pecans
- 1 cup of raisins (optional)
- Cream butter and sugar. Add eggs, beating after each addition.

Sift and measure flour. Sift spices, salt, soda and flour together. Mix nuts into cream mixture. Add flour mixture. Make into roll and put into ice box overnight. Slice and bake at 450 degrees F until brown. Recipe makes 4 or 5 dozen.

She's down again! A couple of weeks ago, we carried a feature story on our front page on little Donna Gail Spurlin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Spurlin. The 6-year-old young lady had been recuperating for quite a while, and we thought things were as complicated as they could possibly be then, but such is not the case. There appears to be another chapter in her series of "bugs."

First, Donna Gail had a good case of the mumps, then had to have her tonsils removed immediately thereafter, giving her a longer period of illness. Then just as she was getting ready to go back to school, she had the measles. Finally, the little red bumps disappeared, and she returned to school, for one fun day.

Then what befell her? You might have guessed, the longer version of measles—the good old-fashioned German measles. She seems to be taking it all in good spirits. Who knows, maybe she will have all her childhood diseases at one time, and have immunity to most everything by the time she gets to the second grade.

Jobs Attends Track Clinic

Shelby Jobs, grade school coach at Farwell school, attended the second annual track clinic held at Abilene Christian College in Abilene last weekend. This clinic is sponsored by the athletic department of ACC.

Instructors at the clinic included Oliver Jackson, track coach at ACC, Abilene; Jack Patterson of Houston University, Houston; Bob Groselove of Abilene High School; Max Goldsmith of Andrews High School; and L. B. Morris of Fort Worth.

One hundred and fifteen coaches met and had luncheon at the ACC cafeteria Saturday. This meal was donated by an Abilene sporting goods company.

Instructions included lectures, demonstrations and movies on the various topics of track.

Jobs will attend the football coaching clinic at Texas Tech on March 18. The visiting coaches will watch the Texas Tech intersquad game to be played Friday night March 18. The clinic will open Saturday, March 19.

Residents Scared By Sudden Landing Of Flamed-Out Jet

The farming area south and west of Texico is usually pretty peaceful, but a surprise from the sky dropped suddenly into a wheat field about six miles from town Monday morning to remind the peaceful countryside that we are in the atomic age today.

Major Charles Dodd of the 387th Fighter Squadron, stationed at Clovis Air Force Base, skidded to a halt and walked away unscathed from a crash landing in his F-86 jet fighter, recently.

He ended up in the field of Roy Marks, although the tracks of the plane's landing, effected without wheels, were evident for over one-half mile.

The Dick Doshers, who live in the vicinity, told this story: A group of Texico school boys, on a class-sponsored tour that morning, looked up to see the plane only a few hundred feet above the ground.

They watched in amazement as it appeared to attempt to land in an east-west country lane, then veered suddenly northward and plopped down in a wheat field. It was doing 180 when first touching the ground, the pilot reported.

"Tuck" Doshers was the first person to the scene, and told his parents the pilot was somewhat addled after his experience. "He didn't seem to know where he was, or anything for a few minutes," he related.

The plane was not seriously damaged, and Maj. Dodd was unhurt except for a scratch on one hand. His engine had "flamed out" while he was passing over Texico-Farwell enroute to the Clovis base.

A flame-out occurs when the fire burning the gases from the jet engine suddenly goes out, leaving the airborne craft powerless.

Boys Get Ribbons On Sears Gilts

Under the Sears swine program in the heavy litter contest, Jimmy Schell, a Farwell 4-H club boy, won third place. Don Bandy of Bovina, formerly of Farwell, won sixth place in the same division.

Jimmy received $40 to be used to further his club project. Don received $25 for the same purpose.

Each year Sears gilts are offered to boys who write the best essays on why they would like to have a Sears gilt. The gilts will be given away in May this year.

REFRESHMENTS

FARWELL CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

Sure we're interested in the children of this community—who isn't! And what institution is likely to have a greater influence on our children than our public schools?

Mr. and Mrs. John Q. Parent, how long has it been since YOU visited your school—not just drove by and looked at it, but really spent some time inside, watching how the school operates?

If you're like most parents, it has been quite a while. Next week, however, will offer you a very good opportunity to make up for being out of date with progress of your school.

During Public Schools Week, you will be invited to make a visit to your system to see for yourself how it is being run. We urge that you accept this invitation.

Maybe you have more than a passing interest in kids, too!

WMU Gives Banquet Honoring Farwell Seniors

WMU of First Baptist Church, Farwell, sponsored a formal banquet honoring the high school seniors of Farwell, on Tuesday night, February 22, at the church.

The theme of the entire program was that of George Washington's birthday.

Speaker for the occasion was Dr. Sheridan Lee of Wayland College, who spoke on the differences of life during the time of George Washington and life today. He told of Washington's persistence in helping to build a great nation and of the faith that he had in that nation. Lee emphasized the fact that the youth of today should strive to obtain more qualities like those of the great general and president, George Washington.

The program of the evening opened with the invocation given by Mrs. W. M. Roberts. Rev. E. J. Keith gave the toast, and welcome was given by Mrs. Clyde Magness. Doyle Ford gave the response. The Farwell boys quartet, consisting of Dick Felts, Don Gerles, Gene Hardage, and Glenn Lee sang several numbers.

Special music was also furnished by a girls trio from Wayland College—Dorothy Buckner, Delores Clark and Karen White. The benediction was given by Rev. E. J. Keith.

The speakers table was centered with an arrangement featuring orange blossoms made of wood fiber enclosed with hatchets made of styrofoam. Other tables were decorated with red, white and blue striped paper hats, red candles, and orange blossoms. The programs were printed on red and blue construction paper cut-outs in a George Washington profile. Nut cups decorated with small hatchets served as place cards and plate favors.

The menu consisted of truth juice, baked razorback, gun shells, cannon balls, golden nuggets, star-spangled salad, axle grease, Delaware River, and cherry pie a la mode.

Texico-Farwell, Bovina Post Offices to Close Saturday Afternoons

Post offices of Texico, Farwell, and Bovina will soon start closing their window service for Saturday afternoons, according to information from the three offices involved.

Mrs. D. J. Brown and Mrs. E. F. Lokey, postmasters, of Texico and Farwell, respectively, announced that their offices will close out window service on Saturday afternoons starting March 19.

"This is in keeping with the policy of other post offices of the area, and is in accordance with the authority of the Post Office Bureau of Operations," says Mrs. Lokey.

The Bovina office, on the other hand, will close its window starting this Saturday afternoon. Postmaster Gene Ezell said the move would result in some economy for the department, as some clerical help will be laid off.

Effective Monday, March 7, the Farwell rural carrier will leave to serve his route at 9 o'clock, except Sundays and holidays. Nelson Smith, carrier, formerly started his route at 10 o'clock.

Clay Beavers Back In Business Here

Clay Beavers, a resident of Farwell nearly 25 years ago, this week returned to take over the operation of Bradshaw's Super Save Market.

Mr. and Mrs. Buck Bradshaw, who had operated it for four years, are moving to Wichita Falls, Texas, where they are in a partnership with the Earl Billingsleys. The Spudnut Shop is their new business venture there.

Beavers, who in 1930 was employed by a Chevrolet agency in Farwell, moved from here to Muleshoe, and was engaged in the grocery business there for a number of years.

He will be active in the operation of the local store, and intends to move to Farwell with his wife, as soon as possible.

While a resident of this community, Beavers built the house in which The Tribune's owner, Mrs.

W. H. Graham, now lives. In telling her he would like to return to Farwell, he said:

"I offered to give her the same money for the home now as what she and Hop paid me when I sold out and left."
 Mrs. Graham declined.

Fire Destroys Donahay Barn

The Texico-Farwell fire department had two calls Saturday morning. While the first truck was northwest of Texico at the H. E. Donahay residence trying to save a burning storage barn, the other truck was called to the Nickels Gin where the burr pile east of the gin had caught fire.

The Donahay barn was totally destroyed by the fire which began in the portion of the barn where baled hay was stored. Cause of the fire has not yet been determined.

Donahay noticed that the barn was burning about 9:45 Saturday morning. Several neighbors rushed to the scene to help fight the fire with buckets of water until the fire department arrived. A water truck from a nearby irrigation well helped to haul water for the fire department. According to Mrs. Donahay, the help of this water truck saved their shop building, which was located near the barn.

Stored in the medium sized, wooden barn in addition to baled hay, was ground feed and some farm equipment. A feed grinder was completely destroyed in the blaze.

The burr pile at Nickels is still burning.

To Meet Early

The Companion Class of Texico Baptist Church will meet at the home of Mrs. Margaret London on Monday, March 7, at 8:00. The members are planning to tack a quilt at the meeting to be used in their missionary work. Mrs. Ansel Doolittle will have the devotional for the evening.

The meeting is being held two weeks early in order to avoid conflict with their revival, which begins this month.

Fourth Graders Give Program

The fourth grade of Farwell school, under the instruction of Mrs. R. B. Tucker, presented an assembly program featuring the important dates in the month of February. The theme was based on our great Americans and Valentines.

All of the 36 members of the class (not out of school because of illness) had parts in the two playlets that were given. The first playlet was entitled "Paper Doll."

A group of boys were trying to win their Valentines, but decided that it was not worth the effort; so instead, they just settled for paper dolls. The stage was decorated in Valentine motif for this playlet.

"He's My Uncle" was the title of the other playlet presented. A patriotic theme was used in this presentation with the characters wearing red, white and blue costumes. The birthdays of George Washington and Abraham Lincoln gave the inspiration for the theme of this playlet.

Included in the family group were Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Snyder and children, Donna, Carla, and Cathy of Ontario, Canada, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Tidwell and son Lonnie Ray of Petersburg, Mr. and Mrs. Amos Shockley and daughter Myrtice of Bovina, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Morgan of Abilene, Mr. and Mrs. W. NEWS FROM THE FARM BUREAU

By RAYMOND EULER

By the time you read this, there will more than likely be at least 775 members in Parmer County Farm Bureau, the best representative membership we have ever had. If the rest of Texas does as well, Texas will have a much better position in formulation of national farm policies.

Now that you are a member, remember this: Your ideas may not be discussed in meetings of your organization if you are not there to present them. Begin now to plan to attend the annual county convention in October, when policies for 1956 will be decided by majority vote of the membership. The officers you elect know full well that their duty is to do everything they can to promote your biddings throughout the year; and that is what they will do. There should be at least a thousand at that convention to argue, discuss and decide what to do. Therein lies your strength; but don't wait until convention time to start thinking.

Bring or send your ideas to the office, or present them directly to the proper committee men, and they will be given full and fair consideration.

Here are the committees you may want to contact: Membership—T. E. Lovett, Charlie Calaway and Harold Carpenter. Legislative—Ralph Miller, Bill Mayben, C. A. Lawrence and O. B. Moyer. Service—Raymond Euler, L. F. Bruns and Walter Kaltwasser. Resolutions—Raymond Schueler, Bruce Parr, T. R. Smallwood and A. R. McCutchan. Audit—Hadley Reeve, J. T. Jones and Kenneth Neil. The first one named is chairman of his committee. If it is more convenient, write your suggestions down and leave them in the office for presentation to the proper committee.

"Social Security for Farm Employees" is well covered by A. C. Bracken, District Manager, Social Security Administration, Waco, in the January and February issues of Texas Agriculture, on the second page. A county wide meeting is to be held in the district courtroom in Farwell Tuesday night. Authorities on Social Security and Butane user's regulations will explain the procedures and then answer questions for you.

he holdeth his peace, is counted wise; and he that shutteth his lips is esteemed a man of understanding. Proverbs 17:28.

Farwell School Closed Because of Illness

Illness struck in the Farwell school this week so forcefully that officials thought it wise to close the school Thursday (today) and Friday.

Struck hardest by the seige of sicknesses were the junior high and grade schools. One hundred and three students were reported absent from school early Wednesday. At least one hundred students have been out of school because of illness each day this week.

Illnesses have been confined for the most part, to the three day measles, German measles, mumps and a few cases of chicken pox.

Superintendent Jack Williams pointed out that dismissing school until next week would be a step in preventing a spreading of the illnesses throughout the community.

School will be open again Monday morning.

Parmer County Teachers Will Attend Meeting

Two county schools will be closed on Friday, March 11, while the teachers attend a meeting of District IX of the Texas State Teachers Association in Amarillo.

Farwell will not be dismissed as was previously planned, because of the necessity of dismissing classes this week after high absenteeism due to illnesses. Some teachers will probably attend however, say officials.

Bovina and Friona have announced plans to dismiss and no word was received from Lazbudie.

On March 10 the House of Delegates of the Association will meet to handle all district business. Four Parmer County teachers will attend this House of Delegates meeting. New officers will be elected at this session. Present officers include Dr. Emmitt D. Smith, president; R. E. Darnell, Phillips College, Borger, vice-president; Miss Mildred Hulsey, Tulia, secretary; and Joe Champion Perryton, treasurer.

Teachers of this 26 county area were requested to select the type of speakers they wanted for the Association meeting. Two thirds of the educators asked to hear speakers from fields other than teaching. Authorities from the fields of business, science and religion have been selected.

A. Boyd Campbell, vice-president of the United States Chamber of Commerce, is to speak at the morning session. His topic will be on "Business and Education—An Essential Partnership."

Dr. Lewis Hatch, from the department of chemistry at the University of Texas will speak on "A Scientist Looks at Public Education."

The evening speaker will be Dr. Earnest Muehl of the Yale University Divinity School, whose topic will be "Education's New Dimension—Religion."

Friday afternoon teachers will attend section meetings which will enable them to meet with other teachers in the same fields.

Speakers included in the various section meetings include Dr. John E. Binnion, Southwestern State College, Weatherford, Oklahoma; Dr. A. G. Keiselbach, Canyon; E. Richard Heineman, Texas Tech; Dr. R. S. McLaughlin, Lubbock; Dr. Howard C. Reed, Dr. J. W. Edgar, commissioner of education; Rogers Barton, curriculum consultant of the Texas Educational Agency, and Mrs. Newell Burke, Brazosport.

Plans Given for Public Schools Week At Farwell

Plans were completed this week for the observance of Texas Public Schools Week in Farwell, with activities to begin Monday, officials say.

Special tours of the entire school plant were planned for Monday through Thursday, with three guided inspections slated each day. Tours are to begin at 9:30, 10:30 and 1:30 each day in the new recreation hall in the basement of the grade school building.

Patrons are invited to eat in the cafeteria any day during the week, but special entertainment is to be provided for visitors during the meal on Wednesday. All those planning to eat at the cafeteria Wednesday are notified that the meal will be served at 12:45. The swing band will be featured on the program.

Those wishing to eat at the school should notify officials on Tuesday, so plans may be made by the women preparing the meal. Price is 35c. Those eating on other days should also notify officials a day ahead of time.

"Although our patrons are invited to eat in the lunchroom at any time during the week, we would like for them to be sure to eat on Wednesday," it was announced.

Also, anyone who wishes may teach any class in the school if officials are notified ahead of time.

Other special functions during the week include an assembly program by Betty and Ed Steinmetz, trampoline stars, Tuesday at 12:45 in the school gym. The show is sponsored by Southern School assemblies and admission is 25c.

Menu for the school next week is given below:

Monday—Meat loaf, mashed potatoes, catsup, buttered English peas, tomatoes and spaghetti, lettuce salad, cake, peaches, bread and milk.

Tuesday—Baked ham, blackeye peas, candied yams, harvard, beets, congealed vegetable salad, apricot cobbler, bread and milk.

Wednesday—smothered steak, gravy, apple sauce, mashed potatoes, green beans, whole grain corn, mixed vegetable salad, peach cobbler, rolls, butter and milk.

Thursday—chicken and dressing, cranberry sauce, mashed potatoes, green beans, lettuce salad, stuffed celery, rolls, butter, banana pudding, orange juice and milk.

Friday—pork chops, sauer kraut, scalloped potatoes, fresh English peas and carrots, congealed vegetable salad, cherry cobbler, bread and milk.

The subject of retiring Jeanne from "active duty" at The Tribune has been tossed around quite a bit in family circles from time to time, but not as seriously as until recent months.

The Grahams are expecting their second child in June.

The big shakeup at The Tribune is not expected to completely retire with 20; Darrell Read had 16 and Neil Smith 14, for the Mustangs.

The game with McAdoo was a near-rout, and the Mustangs coasted in with a 53-90 win. They led all the way, 14-5, 41-12, and 59-30. Bovina looked good at the free shot line in this game, netting 26 out of 38 attempts.

Coffey was the scoring punch for McAdoo, with 24 points during the game. Don Owens rolled up 20 for the Mustangs, and Read collected 14.

"Bovina was really playing hot ball—doing everything right, during the game," reported Joa Dawn Horton, Bovina correspondent, who covered the tourney. "All of the Bovina substitutes except one saw action in the game."

By contrast, she noted, "McAdoo couldn't settle down. They made a lot of bad passes."

Bovina fans were uneasy about their team's chances when Samnorwood walked onto the court with the Mustangs, Saturday night. Although a comparatively short team, the Eagles were the talk of the meet with their eye on the bucket.

The butterflies in their stomachs eased somewhat, however, as the game got underway and the Mustangs pounded out a 16-9 first quarter lead.

They were still out in front 38-30 at the half, but the second quarter was the most raggedly played one of the game, both teams appearing to display nervousness.

Things continued to look up during the third quarter, as Bovina pushed to a 14-point lead, 50-44. They wound up the game 67-58.

The Mustangs were crowded into a stall for the last two minutes of the game, and it proved to be highly effective. Several Mustangs came out front and assisted in the passing and dribbling, and it was a real show for Bovina fans.

Neil Smith proved to be the most adroit during the nerve-rattling seconds as the clock moved toward the finish of the game. Only in the last three seconds did Samnorwood manage to obtain possession, and it was too late to get the ball down the court and into position for a shot.

Martindale accumulated 25 points for the losers, and Norman Kilough had 19 for the champs. Owens followed up with 18, as did Bob Tippie, also of Samnorwood.

Many persons from Bovina attended the final game, and when the "stand up and holler" yell was introduced during a lull, spectators declared that about half of the estimated crowd of 3000 people jumped to their feet to cheer the Mustangs.

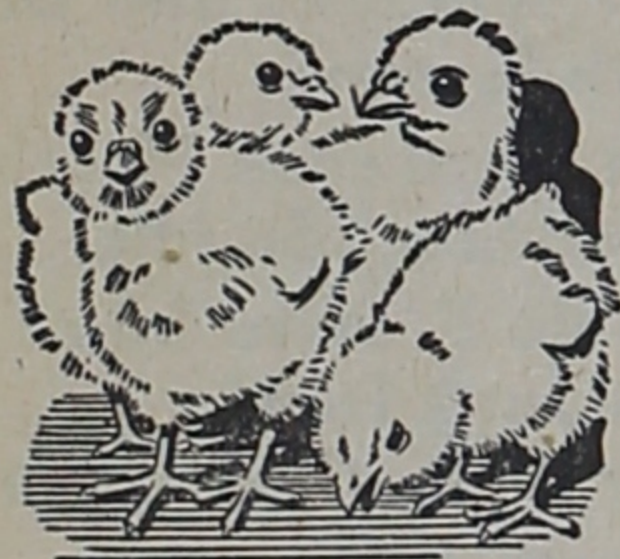

St. Nicholas was a living saint and not a mythical character.

NUMBER #21

Finally Emerge as District Champs

Lazbuddie Wins Dist. Girls Championship

But Lose By 2 Points In Bi-District Test

After rallying to settle a play-off against Bovina for the District 3-B championship, Friday night, the Lazbuddie girls suffered a disappointing 2-point loss, 53-51, to Cotton Center Monday night, to end what they hoped would be a chance to play in the regional tournament.

They are, however, undisputed queens of their district, and this in itself proved to be a notable accomplishment. Lazbuddie went to the district tournament in Adrian two weeks ago heavily favored to emerge with the crown. Their only conference loss had been one game to Farwell.

They were upset by a highly improved Bovina team, however, in the finals, and forced into a play-off to decide the district title.

This was settled Friday night as Bovina dropped out 45-38, the game being played on a neutral court at Friona.

Clara Jean Jesko of Lazbuddie made the first points and Lazbuddie continued to keep this lead. The first quarter score was close with Lazbuddie ahead by a score of 11-9.

The guards held Bovina down to four points while Lazbuddie continued to increase their lead. The half-time score was 22-13. Both teams scored about evenly in the third quarter and Lazbuddie still led by a score of 30-23 at the end of this quarter.

In the fourth quarter, both teams scored fifteen points to give the Lazbuddie girls a victory by a score of 45-38.

High point for Lazbuddie was Clara Jean Jesko who had 17, Joy Smith had 14, Janice Oliver had 10, and Jean Gammon had 4. High point for Bovina was Brito with 19, Moody had 10, and Verner had 9.

In the bi-district play-off on Monday night, Lazbuddie played Cotton Center on the neutral court of Sudan. This was an exciting game from start to finish, with both teams playing remarkable ball.

The quarter scores were 14-12 with Cotton Center in the lead. The second quarter, both teams did well and that quarter score was 29-25 with Cotton Center still leading.

In the third period, Lazbuddie almost caught up with Cotton Center and the score at the end of that period of play was 40-39. The final count was 51-53 after a very exciting fourth quarter.

As this was the bi-district play-off, Lazbuddie was eliminated from regional play.

The high pointers for the Lazbuddie team during this game were Janice Oliver and Jean Gammon who both had 17, Clara Jean Jesko had 11, and Joy Smith had 8.

High point for Cotton Center was Cannon with 28 and Clayton had 19.

Coach C. W. Dukes released the season record this week. The scores in the right-hand column are those of the Lazbuddie girls:

Texas Public Schools Week Starts Monday

The four schools of Parmer County—Farwell, Bovina, Friona, and Lazbuddie—are joining in next week with complete programs for the observance of another Public Schools Week in Texas, March 7-12.

This occasion, in practice for the past several years, has mounted in interest, and is considered to be one of the most popular parent-teacher-students promotions ever devised.

During this special week, parents and other adults not only are permitted, but are urged to visit their community's school for a look at what's going on.

Visitors tour the schools, sometimes eat with the students, and in general, attempt to place themselves in the shoes of the school-age set. It's considered to be quite an experience.

Last year, when Texas observed its 100th anniversary of public school education, interest rose to a new high, and school administrators, along with PTA groups, are pushing the week again in 1955 with the hope that interest will continue to grow.

A schedule of events appears below, and for those who seek the stories in greater detail, a check of

FUNERAL HOME AND FLORAL SHOP SOON READY TO OPEN IN FRIONA

"Limited Service by this weekend," was the way J. L. Marcum summed up the progress on the Marcum & Claborn Funeral Home and florist, business project now underway in the home formerly owned by Roy Slagle, on Main Street of Friona.

Remodeling of the residence is now underway, with extensive changes taking place to fit the building for its new purpose. Marcum, who with his wife will be active in the management of the business, announced this week that they intend to move to Friona, to make their home, as soon as possible. They and their 6-year-old son, Jim, will live in the funeral home.

Marcum is from Memphis, his partner from McLean, and both are licensed embalmers and funeral directors, graduate florists, and both have 12 years experience, although they have not operated as partners before this time. Claborn, who has a funeral home in McLean, will not change his residence to Friona.

Doors of the home are being altered, partitions shifted, and the inside arranged to house both the funeral home and florist business together. The services of both businesses will be complete, says Marcum.

A hearse is already on hand, he said, and the men are making plans for the purchase of a small ambulance in the near future. "We see a great possibility for not only our type of business, but for other types as well, in this part of the country," said Marcum.

He added that a formal opening of the business will be held in the near future, as soon as all arrangements can be completed.

Ellison Gives Views On Food Dollar

Farmers are not to blame for the continued high food costs, A. J. Ellison of Bovina, president of the Parmer County Farm Bureau, has asserted.

Ellison pointed out that food costs have remained at a comparatively high level while farm prices have declined steadily over the past several years. The housewife has not benefitted from the drop in farm prices, he said.

The farmer's share of the consumer's food dollar is down to 43 cents, a drop of 10 cents from the 1948 high of 53 cents, Ellison said.

Referring to statistics compiled by the Farm Bureau from data supplied by the Bureau of Agricultural Economics, the county farm leader said that November, 1954, figures showed the average American family spent $967 a year for food. This is based on average quantities of farm food products purchased for home consumption by urban wage-earner and clerical-worker families. Of this amount, the farmer received $411 and the marketing margin amounted to $556. This meant that the farmer received only 43 per cent of the money spent for food, Ellison said.

Consumer prices did not follow the decline in farm prices for several reasons, according to Ellison.

"One of these is the 'built-in maid service' demanded by the modern housewife," he said. "It costs more to process and distribute ready-cooked meals and frozen foods, but of course this is progress, and the housewife and everyone in the food industry will benefit in the long run."

"Another reason for the continued high cost of food, despite lower farm prices, is the fact that labor costs have increased over the same period that the farmer was receiving less for his produce. Since labor is the most expensive single item in marketing costs, amounting to more than one-fourth of the consumer's dollar, this has offset the lower prices received by farmers."

President Ellison praised the increased efficiency in the nation's food distribution system, pointing out that this has been an important factor in preventing the spread between farm prices and consumer prices from becoming wider than it already is.

"Modern methods of merchandising and distribution have enabled retail grocers to sell more food cheaper to the American housewife," he said. However, this trend toward efficiency has not kept pace in some food manufacturing and processing plants."

TO THE CITIZENS OF PARMER COUNTY

GREETINGS:

The Public School System of Texas goes back literally to the very beginning of our State. Texas' first constitution made provisions for a system of public education. President Mirabeau Bounaparte Lamar, in his message to the Texas Congress in 1838, stated, "It is admitted by all that cultivated mind is the guardian genius of Democracy, and while guided and controlled by virtue, the noblest attribute of man. It is the only dictator that free men acknowledge, and the only security which free men desire."

The progress of our public schools from small beginnings to the fine educational systems we have today has not been easy. It has required a cooperative effort of State and local officials, the active interests of parents and citizens generally, and the energy and devotion of public-spirited men and women who have been willing to devote their lives to the teaching profession.

One of the best evidences of public support is definite effort on the part of each citizen to become familiar with the public school system and to keep in touch with it.

THEREFORE, I, A. D. Smith, County Judge of Parmer County, Texas, do hereby designate the period March -12, 1955, as and urge every citizen to visit one of the public schools during this period and become acquainted with the programs and accomplishments of our educational systems.

In official recognition whereof, I hereby affix my signature this 3rd day of March, 1955.

Signed:

A. D. SMITH

County Judge and Ex-Officio School Superintendent, Parmer County, Texas.

$175,000 Bond Vote May Be March 29th

The Friona city commission met Monday evening in the office of Roy Wilson, city manager. The planning and zoning commission, with the exception of one member, was present for this meeting.

In the business meeting, a long discussion was held on the proposed and needed improvements of the city.

A bond agent from Dallas, E. W. Franklin, who is with Dittmar and Company of that city, was present and took part in the discussion which was held.

A tentative date of Tuesday, March 29, has been selected by the commission for a bond election in the amount of $175,000, which would be used primarily for the extension of city utilities and improvements of the city hall.

Manager Wilson was careful to point out that the March 29, date is not definitely decided upon, for the reason that election papers must first be drawn, and publication and posting of notices taken care of. If a delay in this preparatory work should be encountered, it would delay the date somewhat.

The election calls for the city to issue the following bonds: $45,000 for paving (45 blocks, approximately); $35,000 for sewer extension; $70,000 for water system expansion; and $25,000 for the construction of new city offices, a jail, and expansion of the fire department facilities.

Friona hopes to double the storage capacity of the fire station, which would allow room for two more fire trucks.

The amount which will be voted upon is in excess of the present needs of the city, but the commission has an eye toward future expenses. Wilson says that even though the bonds are voted, it will not then mean that the city will be immediately in debt for the entire $175,000 (they are general obligation bonds).

Instead, a reserve will be established from which the city may later draw when expansion demands it, instead of reverting to additional elections. No interest or charges of any type are attached to the bonds which would not be released by the city, says the manager.

The city commission also had two applications for permits. One of these applications was submitted by Taylor and Sons for construction of a steel building. Mrs. A. H. Boatman submitted the other application. It stated that she wished to repair and stucco her cleaning establishment.

The planning and zoning commission of Friona had a meeting immediately following the city commission at which time they completed their zones or "use" districts. They also prepared an ordinance covering these zones which will be recommended to the city commissioners.

It was announced that a public hearing will not be held until the city commission has approved the zoning ordinance, probably near the end of March.

The planning and zoning commission was presented an application for a proposed trailer park on Block 27. This application was not approved because it didn't conform to the proposed zoning plan adopted earlier.

Wednesday, the Student Faculty Congress will baby sit with the preschool children while the parents are on a tour of the school. Kelley announced that this will be the only day this week be possible, so he urges all parents to attend on that day. Thursday, the student faculty and student administration will take charge of the superintendent's office, principal's office and teachers' rooms.

Friday, school will be dismissed all day so that teachers (adults) may attend the regional teachers meeting in Amarillo. All faculties of towns north of Lubbock are expected to attend, says Kelley. Friday night, the seniors will present their play at the school auditorium.

Kelley also announced that there will be a receptionist in the hall and at the cafeteria, to serve as guides for visitors.

All parents and interested persons are urged to come to the school any day during next week to visit and to eat in the cafeteria.

Kelley said that he hoped that the grade school will be finished by then so that everyone can see the interior. The cafeteria serves three meats a week and two meat substitutes and they also serve a pint of milk to each person, he added. Patrons are invited to eat one day in the cafeteria.

Quota For Friona $500 In Red Cross Drive

The Red Cross Drive will begin March 7, and will last through March 12, with the quota for Friona being $500, says Wesley Foster, chairman.

A house-to-house canvas will be made in Friona Friday, March 11, and will be conducted by the Progressive Study Club. It is hoped, says Foster, county chairman, that Bovina and Farwell will conduct their canvas on Friday, also.

Foster also wishes to announce that the Regal theatre is showing a Red Cross film through this week. It tells the story of Red Cross work all over the United States and foreign countries.

The Black and Hub communities started their drive Monday because they have so much territory to cover.

Foster also states that Farwell had few workers during last year's drive and therefore did not go over the top on contributions. He hopes that the workers this year will get out and see as many people as possible so that Farwell will go over the top. The quota for Farwell is $250.

The quotas for the other communities are Bovina, $250, Lariat, $50, and $100 each for Black, Lubbudie, Rhea, Hub, Lakeview and Oklahoma Lane.

We were talking to Mrs. Clyde Fields the other day, getting the report on the Cub Scout meeting which is elsewhere in the paper. She stated that the boys had quite a time at the party and they did the things boys usually do at parties. One of these "things" which Mrs. Fields mentioned laughingly was that the marshmallows, supposed to be used for favors, kept disappearing when her back was turned. Wonder where they could have gone?

We saw something recently which surprised us because it hadn't happened sooner, to more people. Someone was pulling out of a parking place and another car coming along on the street got in the way and you know what happened. We don't want anyone to think that we are chronic grippers, but we are sure we are not alone on this subject.

People don't watch close enough when they pull out of a parking place and people driving along don't either, so what happened this time will happen many more times if drivers do not keep their eyes open when they are behind the wheel of a car.

ARTESIA, NEW MEXICO

"Time releasing" is the way Mrs. Francis describes her new electric clothes dryer. Time that was once devoted to outdoor drying drudgery is now available for family enjoyment and pleasure.

"I used to hear that you didn't need a dryer with beautiful New Mexico sunshine," Mrs. Francis says. Yes, the sunshine is beautiful in the southwest, but so are the colors in your clothes — if you don't let that beautiful sun fade them, and dry them in an electric clothes dryer.

"I've cut my clothes costs for the children considerably," Mrs. Francis concludes. Here's full-time economy, for your clothes last longer when they are dried electrically, and because they can be worn, in many cases, right after being dried, you don't need so many clothes. Dry clothes the modern way. Of course, it's electric.

NEWS FROM LAZBUDDIE

JIM GORDON, CORRESPONDENT

Patrons Invited To Visit School March 7-12

The school board and faculty of Lazbuddie Independent School District are announcing the activities that are to be held in connection with Texas Public Schools Week during March 7-12.

"We wish to especially invite every adult in our community whether a parent or not, to visit our classrooms and see our school system in action. Each teacher and pupil will be happy to have any visitors at any time, but we want to urge everyone to make a special effort during the week of March 7-12 to visit a public school," officials say.

Wednesday, the lunchroom will serve lunch to the patrons. It has been suggested that the parents, rather than eat with the children, meet in the lunchroom at 12:15 and eat in a group.

Juniors Present Annual Play

Tuesday night, February 22, the junior class of Lazbuddie High School, under the direction of Wilson Clemens, presented their class play, entitled, "Grandma's Best Years." It was a comedy in three acts.

The cast of the play was: Mrs. Abbott, Carolyn Seales; Sadie, the maid, Shirley Carpenter; Joyce Abbott, Nealy Steinbock; Marion Abbott, Mina Jennings; Dottie Morgan, Sherry Steinbock; Willie Abbott, Jimmy Ray Oliver; Shorty, Clayton Ray Graef;

Also Jim Meyerson, Leon Smith Jr.; Gram, Mary Blackburn; Patch, Chunky Ivy; Mabel, Joy Smith; Bubbles, Therese Jesko; Mrs. Carlson, Janice Lawhorn; Miss Quelch, Clo Ann White; Edwin Carlson, Leland Gustin and Cousin Oscar, Glen Watkins.

The very day Gram arrives, Mrs. Abbott is bringing three upper-crust guests home for the weekend. One of them is rich and snobbish Edwin Carlson, whom Mrs. Abbott insists, her daughter Joyce must marry, although she loves Jim Meyerson, a local telegraph operator. Another of her guests is Miss Quelch, an unlikeable spinster, who runs an exclusive girls' school to which Mrs. Abbott intends to send Marion, her fifteen-year-old daughter. Willie, the thirteen-year-old son, is also suffering because his mother won't allow him to do anything he wants and insists that he practice on his violin so that she can impress people with her culture.

Gram is determined to put a stop to all this, and she comes up with the brilliant scheme of inviting the family black sheep to Mrs. Abbott's weekend party. She thinks this should sufficiently disgrace her social-climbing daughter and set things straight.

This scheme doesn't come off quite as planned because since she has never seen Cousin Oscar, the black sheep, Gram mistakes a criminal for her long-lost relative and he, needing a hideout, accepts her invitation and even brings his wife and daughter.

Naturally, the weekend party is hardly what Mrs. Abbott had hoped for, but neither is it exactly what Gram wanted, for the criminal 'relatives' find it necessary to get rough, causing plenty of exciting complications. When Gram gets hold of her trusty shotgun she emerges the heroine of the situation, the police nab long-sought gangsters, Mrs. Abbott begins to see the light, allowing her children to follow their true inclinations, and Jim and Gram get handsome rewards, and so did the full house audience in the ways of laughs and excitement.

The Junior High School girls and boys were entered in a junior high school tournament in Muleshoe over the weekend and the girls came home with a consolation title and trophy by defeating Farwell, Sudan, and Amherst. They were defeated, however, by Kress which put them out of the running for first place, but they went on to win consolation.

The junior high boys defeated Kress, however, but they lost in their second game which eliminated them from any chance for a trophy at all.

Lazbuddie is proud of their fine basketball teams, both high school and grade school. We hope to have even better ones next year, but we are still proud of the fine work that each player has done

USERS STRONGLY RECOMMEND THE LIGHT-PULLING WESTERNS!

Of course, since we are selling Western Deep Well Turbine Pumps, we must admit that we might be inclined to be a little prejudiced, but we ask YOU: have you ever heard anybody brag on any pump the way our customers are bragging about the Western?

Take E. M. Ware, who farms northwest of town, for an example. Earl has only recently added a Western to his irrigation farming setup, making two wells for watering his half-section. "This Western is by far the easiest-pulling pump I have ever seen," says Earl, and his statement is proved by the fact that the Western can lift a full pipe of water with ease, using only a comparatively small power unit.

Earl's well is set on 250 feet, and is being run with a 6-to-5 gearhead ratio. With that hookup, he can pump an 8-inch pipeful at 1650 revolutions, with no strain whatever on the motor. By opening the throttle, Earl can "stick out" the water even more, although he says it isn't wise to pump in this manner for long periods of time. "It's nice to know that you have that much water, though," he says.

The Wares are only one of the families who every week are turning to the pace-setting Western Pump, with its revolutionary design. Life-long redwood bearings assure you of tip-top performance year after year, with friction and maintenance reduced to an absolute minimum.

We believe in Western Pumps, our customers believe in them, and we think you'll believe in them, too, if you will get ALL the facts on why Western is breaking record after record on the High Plains irrigated area. Come in and get the full story.

Susan Levins-Allen Lockhart Crowned

In an impressive coronation ceremony Tuesday night, Susan Levins and Allen Lockhart were crowned as Wolverine Beauty and Most Handsome boy of Texico School for 1955. They were chosen from among nine girl and nine boy candidates of the various school clubs. Frank Davis of Springfield, Ill., of radio and television production, was judge of this year's contest.

Catherine Bell, 1954 Wolverine beauty, bestowed the honors on the young couple. Crown bearers were the little Bell twins, Marlene and Darlene. A spray of red and white carnations was presented to Susan and Allen received a red boutonniere.

Runners-up for the honors were Sue Reid and Jimmy Don Moss; also Doris Harriman and Marvin Pendergrass. Master of ceremonies, Jimmie Reed, revealed the decision of the judges.

Candidates for Wolverine Beauty were Shirley Doshier, Patricia Watson, Sue Doolittle, Verlene Thigpen, Mikala Faville and Joyce Gillean. Candidates for Most Handsome were Kenneth Reid, Dick Lockhart, Alex Brown, Allen Kelley, Jerry Johnson and Ronald Hutson.

Preceding the coronation, Calendar Girls of the 1955 annual, opened the program with lyrics introducing the M. C. Taking part were Gwennette Powell, Sue Doolittle, Shirley Doshier, Mary Pichardo, Lillian Pichardo, Sandra Hall, Ly-mell Lovett, Melba Doshier, Barbara Caldwell, Betty Pendergrass, Ann Reed and Carolyn Curd. The swing band played "A Pretty Girl is Like a Melody" just before the curtains opened, revealing candidates.

Following the crowning, the curtain parted with Patricia Watson, editor of the 1955 Wolverine, seated at a desk. Various school favorites were then recognized and "stepped into the book," a large door painted to resemble an annual cover. She then introduced the rest of the variety show.

High school chorus, directed by Fred Danforth, sang "Venetian Love Song" and "Let Me Go, Lover." Following this, a skit entitled "Dr. Kronkite" was given. Numbers by the sixth grade chorus included "Mr. Sandman" and "Abadaba Honey-moon."

Acrobats Foy Wicker, Bobbie Buttram, D' Rene Danforth, and Ronny Wicker were presented in a number called "Kinks and Bends." "Shortenin' Bread" and "Oh! Suzanna" were sung by fourth grade chorus and were acted out by members of that class.

The Fulgham brothers, Gary, Roy Lynn, and Donnie, of Clovis, added variety to the program by tap dancing three numbers. Singing and acting out "The Lollipop Tree" and "Herkimier, the Homely Doll" were members of the second grade. All grade school choruses were directed by Mrs. Curtis Miller.

To bring the show to an end, an impressive scene from "Down on de old Plantation" was designed. Singers Darral Harris, Jimmy Don Moss, and Marvin Pendergrass formed a trio to render several songs of the old South. Anita Tharp gave a musical reading, "Fiddlin in de Firelight." Climaxing this scene were D' Rene and Hap Danforth, tap dancing, as the singers sang "Swanee River."

The entire program was arranged by Mrs. Jimmie Allman, annual sponsor.

Stunt Night Nets $90 Toward Trip

"Stunt Night," sponsored by the Business Education Club, went over big last Tuesday night. Bobbie Richardson made a good showing in her part throughout the program, as an insane woman who enters a psychiatrist's office and begins to tell the doctor why she is insane. The psychiatrist was played by Kenneth Reid.

Susan Levins played the part of a little red man who keeps pestering Bobbie throughout the program. She wore a red devil's suit and mask.

Bobbie tells of experiences throughout her school years as each grade, from the first through the twelfth, comes to the stage and does a stunt. Various clubs also presented stunts.

The stunts were divided into three groups. The first was the grades from 1-6. Winning first prize in this division was the 2nd grade and it consisted of a large picture for their room, presented by The Furniture Mart. Second prize was given the third grade and their prize was ice cream for each member of the class.

was a large picture presented by the Business Education Club. Second prize was free soda pops given to the juniors. The seniors and freshmen tied for third. The seniors received a dictionary and the freshmen received a wastepaper basket.

In the club division, Press Club won first prize given by Stone's Variety. Second was won by the FHA Club which was free tickets to The Border Theater. The FFA won a shadow box for third prize.

This show was sponsored by the Business Education Club to raise money to go to Highlands to enter a Business Education contest, April 1-2. Approximately $90 was cleared from this program.

Patricia Watson Is Betty Crocker Winner

Yes, it's happened again! Patricia Watson, Texico High School senior, has another feather in her hat. She was recently named as the Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow from Texico High School.

Pat was selected by the Science Research Associates of Chicago, Ill., because she made the highest score on a written examination given to seven Texico senior girls. The 50-minute written examination given on January 12 consisted of multiple choice and subjective questions which tested the student's attitude and knowledge in the major areas of homemaking.

A golden award homemaker's pin and a Betty Crocker Cook Book were presented to Patricia in assembly Monday morning by Supt. Agrie Jones.

Patricia's test will be entered in the state contest along with other school winners. If Pat should win the New Mexico Homemaker's contest, she will receive a golden jeweled state award pin and be a school advisor to Washington, D. C. Her school will be presented with a set of the Encyclopedia Britannica. She would also receive a $1,500 college scholarship.

The 48 state winners will compete for the title of "All-American Homemaker of Tomorrow." The national winner will receive a $5,000 college scholarship, an expense-paid educational tour of the nation and a diamond-studded homemaker pin. The girl receiving the All-American honors will be announced April 21.

General Mills is the sponsor of this program designed to assist schools in building in young women a deeper appreciation and understanding of the American home and the personal qualities necessary to successful homemaking. It is a nationwide contest conducted among 187,000 young women in 8,000 of the nation's public, private and parochial high schools.

March Date Set For Senior Plays

Fuedin', fussin', and a fighten! This is the bill of fare to be presented by the seniors on March 8, in "Tobacco Road With Detours" at 8 o'clock p. m. in the High School auditorium.

Pa (Jerry Johnson) objects when Americy (Naomi Hapke) falls in love with a family enemy, Willie (Marvin Pendergrass). Sonny (Howard Leavell and Tennessee (Nadine Thornton) are eager for an old time feud, but Ma (Bobbie Richardson) tries to hold peace.

"Home to Mother," turns a domestic tragedy into a hilarious comedy when John, played by Jimmy Moss, forgets his wife, Betty's birthday. Betty, played by Naomi Hapke, goes home to mother. Other characters in the play are: Nancy, John's sister, portrayed by Patricia Watson; Grace, his cousin, played by Nadine Thornton. Mr. Billings, John's boss, is played by Ronald Hutson; Hallie the maid, is played by Bobbie Richardson.

Newly married Kitty, Georgeina Weisler, starts out her married life trying to make things just perfect, especially the house; but husband Jim, Jimmy Reed, doesn't seem to be too co-operative. Helping Kitty in the third play, "Nothing in Its Place," are Nadine Thornton as Barbara; Naomi Hapke as Mrs. Reynolds; Shirley Stover as Mrs. Shannon; and Aggie Autrey as Stella, the maid.

T. H. RICHEY

School Custodian In Service 12 Years

Did you ever stop to think what a custodian means to the entire school? Well, who do you suppose cleans up that mess when the four o'clock bell rings every day? The floors are left littered with papers and candy wrappers, and the waste baskets bulge at the sides.

Who do you suppose sweeps and shovels up the dirt and trash, and leaves the rooms neat and the floors clean for the next day of school?

T. H. Richey is the person who has the task of supervising and seeing that this job is done well. Richey was born March 31, 1894, at Powhattan, Arkansas. In 1907 he moved to Oklahoma with his father, mother, grandmother, oldest sister and her husband, two other sisters and six brothers. The trip was made in three covered wagons and took them three weeks and one day on the road.

They experienced many happenings and Richey gladly related a few of them. On the first days of the trip, water was hard to find. One night, they camped at the foot of the Greenborrow Mountains, traveled all the next day, and camped the next night on the other side of the mountains. All of the household equipment was taken to Oklahoma.

They experienced a lot of bad weather, rain and wind. It was apple-picking time and Mrs. Richey said they had plenty to eat. When asked if they stole any apples he said, "It had rained so hard the road was washed full of apples and we didn't need to." His father went up to a house one day to buy some apples which had fallen to the ground and the man said, "No, just help yourself and take them off the tree."

About half-way to Duncan, Oklahoma, one of the mules got loose and it took his father two days and nights to catch him on a horse and bring him back to camp. Richey said the old mule had tears in his eyes, he wanted to go back to Arkansas so badly.

Richey still has black hair which he credits to being part Indian. He says, "I never will be gray-headed." His mother had enough Indian blood that she could have obtained free land in Oklahoma, but wouldn't put in a claim for it.

The family stayed in Duncan three years and couldn't take it any longer, so they chartered a box-car back to Arkansas. That seemed to become a habit for in three more years, they chartered a box-car and came back to Oklahoma.

Richey stayed in Duncan until he had to go into the Army in 1917. He said that he had to do too much drilling while in training. He then managed to "capture" and marry Miss Ola Mae Haven from Duncan, Oklahoma, while he was stationed in San Antonio, Texas. At Christmas time, his parents wanted to bring his girlfriend to see him, but she wouldn't come unless they could be married. Richey replied, "It's a bargain if you would rather I go overseas as a husband than a sweetheart." He spent some time overseas, which included a year after the Armistice was signed.

After coming back from the Army, Mr. and Mrs. Richey moved to Texico in 1925 and have lived here ever since. They have two daughters: Mrs. Joe Malloney, Seattle, Washington; and Mrs. Joe Murphy, Belen, N. M. They have two grandchildren: Jimmie Murphy, age 6, and Patricia Murphy, age 3, of Belen.

He farmed up until twelve years ago and has been janitor at the Texico School for the past 12 years. During the depression, he said things were pretty rough and he often wondered where the next meal was coming from. He often repaired windmills as far as 50 miles in every direction from Texico, and managed to buy a bill of groceries when the larder was empty.

In conclusion, we would like to tell you just a few of the things we enjoy about Mr. Richey and his job around this school. Everyone appreciates the many things he does and is truly grateful to him. His favorite by-word when he gets aggravated is "Oh, coffee pot without a handle."

He can often be heard around the school ground singing, "Amazing Grace."

Wolverines Defeated In District Play

In the second round of the District tournament, Grady beat the Wolverines 44-32. Texico had previously beaten Ranchvale 45-31.

The game with Grady was the last for the season and the last game in high school for four seniors; Jerry Johnson, Allen Lockhart, Jimmy Don Moss and Kenneth Reid.

Prior to the district tournament, Allen Lockhart had an average of 8.95 points per game followed closely by Kenneth Reid with an 8.28 point average.

Although the averages were not very high, the closeness of them proves the teamwork the boys displayed all season. Jerry Johnson didn't see much action all year because of an ankle injury in the first game of the season.

The following lettermen will be back next year; Dick Lockhart, J. C. Kelley, Weldon Bell, Joe Glaze, Allen Kelley and Leon McDaniel.

One Man's Opinion

By Bobbie Richardson

Well, basketball season's over. It's been fun, hasn't it? When basketball's over we start looking forward to spring. It's been a long time since we've had a vacation from the old school grind, and it looks like there isn't one in sight for a long time.

Times like these are the ones when a pleasant smile will help to drive away "that old tired feeling." (Hadaacol helps too!) With spring on its way, nature will put on her prettiest dress and really put on a show. It's enough to make one smile. So just remember when those harsh words come to mind, you can smile.

"When you can't say a word, you can smile."

Home Ec Class Serves Breakfasts

The final activity on the study of breakfast in the Home Economics I class was conducted Monday morning under the direction of Mrs. Jimmie Allman. The freshmen class, divided in two groups, prepared and served two complete breakfasts.

The first group, Molly Barnes served as host, Gloria Johnson was hostess and Melba Doshier was waitress. Others acting as family members were Sonda Hall, Lynn Lovett, Gwynette Powell, Wilma Walton and Lillian Pichardo. The menu for this group consisted of grape juice, ham, eggs, toast, butter, jelly and cocoa.

Serving as host of the second group was Ann Reed with Betty Matthews as hostess and Audrey Hapke as waitress. Other family members were Fay Autrey, Shirley Branson, Karen Brehm, Armelda Cox and Garlene Seale. These girls enjoyed eating orange juice, eggs a la golden rod, bacon, toast, jelly and cocoa.

Although these girls have studied other types of table service, they chose to serve breakfasts, using the compromise style of service.

Honor Daughters With Birthday Party

Mrs. R. A. Cassidy and Mrs. N. W. Peyton honored their daughters, Beverly Cassidy and Beth Ellen Peyton, on their birthdays, by serving refreshments to the fifth grade students Friday afternoon.

Two new students, Marcella Martinez from Woodward, Okla., and June Phelps from Farwell have enrolled recently.

Members of the class are sorry to have lost Vic Lincoln who moved to Clovis.

Pictures illustrating their geography were made in water colors and crayons last week.

In the spelling contest between the fourth and fifth graders, the fifth graders are happy to announce that they are finally winners this week; which follows three straight losses to the fourth grade.

Press Club Has Regular Meeting

The Press Club had their regular meeting last Friday afternoon in the Home Economics Cottage. President Ronald Hutson, presided over the meeting.

Carolyn Curd gave a reading on "What the Bill of Rights Means to Me." Susan Levins gave an Essay on "I Speak for Democracy."

Patricia Watson reviewed a story "They Called on The Amazing Nellie Bly," which gives a vivid account of journalistic activities of Miss Bly who was the first woman reporter. It was taken from a Good Housekeeping Magazine, and was written by Migon Writtenhouse.

The next meeting will be March 11.

Spanish Class Has Mexican Supper

Spanish I class, under the direction of John Adams, had a Mexican dinner recently in the home economics cottage. Mrs. F. C. Pichardo prepared meat enchilados which were served with avocado salad, cherry whip and iced tea. Those attending were Verlene Thigpen, Betty Pendergrass, Oneita Autrey, Glenda Weisler, Mary Pichardo, Marvin Pendergrass, Ronald Hutson, and John F. Adams.

According to those who attended, the supper was enjoyed by everyone.

-PATER-

First thing, we'd like to congratulate our ball teams. They made a fine showing during basketball season, and displayed good sportsmanship and co-operation at all times. Good going, Kids!

Everyone's been wondering since stunt night just which personality is the real Bobbie Richardson. She really presented a good portrayal of the crazy girl, and she and psychiatrist, Kenneth Reid, really added "spice" to the entire show.

Ever try to eat bread as hard as a rock? If not, just ask a certain couple from the Home Ec. II class how to go about it. Seems that's just what happened to Lanel Howard and Mary Pichardo when the class baked breads the other day. How about it, boys, looking for a good cook?

You should have seen a trio of senior girls one windy day last week chasing papers all over the school yard. Quite a sight!

Journalism class members were quite happy when The State Line Tribune editor printed a three-line inverted pyramid headline last week. He was very obliging when Carolyn Curd requested it as one was needed for journalism notebooks.

THINK—He who is afraid of doing too much always does too little. See ya Pat

SECOND GRADE TAKES FIRST IN STUNT NIGHT

Winning first prize at the stunt night program were the second graders. "Happy" just isn't the word to define their actions. Their act seemed to impress the audience very much since it was so different.

They were to play basketball, so a very comical scene which consisted of a girl bringing a basket to the stage, followed by a baby carriage with another classmate inside to do the bawling was enacted. Therefore, they had "basketball" right before the people's eyes. As a prize they received a large picture.

Original designs have been made to put on kites being made by the entire group. Very clever designs have been worked out by most of the children.

Moving to Clovis, was Janice Lee, while Mary Allen left for Galveston. The children were sorry to lose these two classmates.

"Get Well Soon" is the phrase sounded to the following students: Dorothy Pruitt, Jim Landon, and Lanny Doshier. The group extends their best wishes for a quick recovery.

SIXTH GRADE ENTERS SPELLDOWN AGAINST FIFTH GRADE

Sixth grade students are entering the spelling bee between their grade and the fifth grade. They will pick out the ten best spellers and enter them in the contest.

History is a new subject being enjoyed in the sixth grade. Alfred Stover has been absent with "pink eye."

Three students from the sixth grade have done work over and above the regular assignments this past week. Della Crocker gathered material on the presidents of the United States, and assembled it in an attractive booklet to be used as a future reference by other class members. Billy Hukill collected material together with pictures to illustrate the Declaration of Independence, and Gene Phelps assembled a booklet entitled "The Banana Story."

THIRD GRADE HAS MANY ACTIVITIES

It isn't every day that children can boast of two people traveling a hundred miles to visit them in school. But that's what happened to the third graders last week when Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Sheriff of Lubbock, visited their room. They are Mrs. Seale's parents.

Johnny Barford, a cousin of Kathleen Smith, and Kathy Snider, a niece of Wanda Gayle Morgan, visited the third grade room lately.

The third graders were glad to welcome Joyce Phelps into their room. Joyce had been attending school in Farwell. The class has finished its geography and is now taking science. Several children enjoyed geography so much they wished to go through the book again. However, they are quite anxious to learn about science.

It takes quite a bit of practice to learn to feed someone when both people are blindfolded. But some of the third graders did find a mouth once in a while to put food into. Much of the food went on the floor, in laps, down dresses and shirts, but the children had fun doing their stunt. They felt quite happy to be given second prize which was ice cream from Campbells. Each child in the room was treated to ice cream last Friday afternoon.

Two third graders who were striving so hard to have perfect attendance for the school year were forced to miss a day this month. Wanda Gayle Morgan and Hazel McDaniel were both ill last week.

Wanda Gayle missed half a day and Hazel was out one day.

Others who were out of school because of illness were Rosemary Brehm, Lonnie and Ronnie Curry, Wayne Crawley, and Billy Don Arnold. The class and their teacher are happy these children are all back in school.

THIRD GRADE HONORS MOTHERS WITH TEA

Mothers of the children in the third grade met last Thursday afternoon in the lunchroom. The purpose of the meeting was to get better acquainted and enjoy an hour of visiting.

Coffee, Cokes, and donuts were enjoyed by the following mothers: Mesdames L. W. Hutson, Clyde McDaniel, Alfred Hapke, D. W. Curtis, C. C. Morgan, Clarence Smith, Grayson Roberts, Dollie Autrey, R. N. Reed, Morgan Billington, Orris Eshleman, C. C. Curry, Lloyd Niece, and the third grade teacher, Mrs. Frank Seale.

Four children also enjoyed the party. They were Pamela Roberts, Jill Billington, Johnnie Autrey and Roy McDaniel.

After refreshments were served, the mothers visited the third grade room. Each child introduced his or her mother to the class. The mothers were then invited to examine the children's work exhibited in art, writing, arithmetic and spelling. It was quite a treat to the boys and girls and their teacher to have the mothers visit them. Several mothers were unable to attend because of illness in their families.

EIGHTH IS WORKING ON AGRICULTURAL PROJECT

Combining English and arithmetic, the eighth grade is working on an agricultural project, after writing letters to various departments and business firms and receiving statistics concerning Curry County. Since farming is the occupation of most of the parents of class members, the students were very interested in this project.

Maps of Curry County have been drawn with the students' homes located on it. To bring in the math, each student is figuring problems on buying a farm, price of a house on the farm, the expense of an irrigation well and the volume of a cylinder silo. Some of the students already have 15 pages on their individual project in which much enthusiasm is being shown.

They have completed their readers and science books were issued in which planets are being studied. Movies have been shown on the planets.

FIRST GRADE PRESENTS PATRIOTIC PROGRAM

"When Washington was a Boy" was the title of the patriotic program given in assembly by the first grade youngsters Tuesday. Participating in this program were Leon Smith, Jeanie Blair, Lynelle Engram, Linda Hudson and Harvie Winkles, who gave interesting readings.

The bus rang with excitement created by the children on the way to the depot to see the new Santa Fe train which was on display here. Exploring the train was exciting as well as educational for the group.

Highlight of the week in this room was the winning of 3rd place in the stunt night program. They were given a record from Phillip's House of Music in Clovis, New Mexico.

Celebrating her seventh birthday, Veda Wilson was surprised when her mother, Mrs. Wilson, brought refreshments consisting of ice cream, animal cookies, and candy to serve to her and her classmates last week.

FOURTH GRADE HAS STUDY OF CONGO

Fourth grade boys and girls have completed an interesting unit on the Congo. As a final activity, they read the stories which they had written and displayed the pictures they had drawn of the class.

Members of the class are happy to welcome Cheryl Howard, Peggy Griffen, and Julio Pichardo back to school. They have been absent because of illness.

Judy Tharp is elated over a new pet at her farm—a little colt by the name of Stardust.

Hal Ed Helton enjoyed having his cousin from Groom, visit him during the weekend.

James Hudson entertained visitors from Amarillo, Sunday.

Glenn Cox visited his grandmother at Circleback last weekend.

PERSONALITIES OF THE WEEK

The Wolverine spotlight has centered on two seniors this week—Howard Leavell and Jimmy Don Moss.

These two students are very active in scholastic and extra-curricular activities.

Howard's favorite foods show a Mexican trend, he also lists his favorite sport as wrestling and his favorite class as driver's training. This doesn't seem a bit odd as the chances of injury aren't quiet as great in driver's training.

Howard is known around THS for his ability with leathercraft, and is expected to follow this line even though he lists his ambition as auctioneering. His favorite song is "Hearts of Stone," and his pet peeve is "wimmin," it isn't necessary to say that his favorite actor is James Stewart.

Jimmy Don is very noted for his athletic ability and is a star member of the THS basketball squad, as well as one of our most noted vocalists.

Jimmy's favorite extra-curricular activity is, "driving around, flirting with girls," and his favorite student activities such as class and sports are P. E. and basketball, respectively.

He is well-known around school by his pleasing personality and baby blue Ford. His favorite song is "I Need You Now," and he lists his pet peeve as people who think that they know it all. Jim's favorite actress is Piper Laurie.
