

Official Says Bell System Could Cut Rates 25 Percent

AT&T Costs Blamed By FCC Man; Suggests Federal Jurisdiction Over All Policies, Practices

WASHINGTON, April 1 (AP)—Federal Communications Commissioner Paul A. Walker informed congress today that the Bell Telephone company could reduce its rates 25 percent by eliminating "unnecessarily high costs."

These costs, Walker said in a proposed report on the telephone investigation directed by the commission, result from manufacturing, engineering, depreciation, bookkeeping and other policies for which the American Telephone and Telegraph company is responsible.

Walker S. Gifford, president of the A.T.&T., said in a statement released simultaneously with the report, that if a summary available to him correctly reflects the report, "it presents much that is simply not true and has been prepared with the same unfairness that characterized the investigation proceedings."

Gifford, asserting that a full copy of the report had not been furnished him, declared the Bell system earnings have never been excessive and that a suggestion that rates might be reduced 25 per cent, by changing policies and practices of the system, was absurd.

Mr. A. J. & Co. Walker said, has complete control of the Bell system, and the latter includes 90 per cent or more of the telephone industry.

Walker recommended that this federal communications commission be given jurisdiction to "review, approve or disapprove all Bell system policies and practices promulgated by the central management group" of the American company.

Not A Full Report
Chairman Frank E. McVinch said Walker's findings did not constitute a commission report, but was submitted to the commission as the basis for a full report which the commission will later submit to congress.

Walker said his report "will, in my opinion, make for effective and progressive regulation of the telephone industry."

Another commissioner, T. A. M. Craven, said he had been unable to agree with some of Walker's recommendations but added that the report "indicates the necessity for an improvement."

From the subscriber's point of view, the chief conclusions Walker reached in the $1,500,000 commission investigation of the A. T. & T. and its affiliates included:

Costs of protection from competition have been assessed against customers rather than stockholders.

Invention has been suppressed and installation of superior equipment delayed.

Subscribers contribute to equipment costs bought from equipment company at "artificially inflated" prices.

Subscribers have had to contribute to excessive depreciation reserves.

Royalties from non-communication activities have not been credited to subscribers, who pay for

BERGDOFF CAPTURED BY PRISON GUARD

HUNTSVILLE, April 1 (AP)—A. A. Bergdorff of Big Spring was captured at midnight, ending a day and night of freedom after he walked away Wednesday from his trusty's job of tending chickens at the Wynne prison farm.

R. H. Vaughn, farm captain, said Guard C. L. McAdams captured Bergdorff as the convict jumped from a freight train near Trinity. Vaughn said the convict told him he had hidden in grass near the farm all Wednesday night and until late yesterday when he caught a train as it stopped for water.

Weather Man Joins In The Day's Pranks

Snow Falls In Panhandle; South Texans Swelter

By The Associated Press

Dame nature had her joke this April Fool's Day.

Panhandle residents bundled into warmer clothing to combat the chill of freezing weather, snow and sleet—those in the valley rolled up their sleeves and complained about the heat.

Snow and Sleet
Snow fell at Dalhart, where the temperature was 24, at Borger where it was freezing, and at Pampa where large flakes barely covered the ground and began melting. Sleet fell at Amarillo, with a temperature of 34.

The U. S. weather bureau at Dallas reported a low barometer area over South Texas. Brownsville reported uncomfortably hot weather with a thermometer reading of 88 yesterday and the same expected today. It was 70 degrees at Corpus Christi at 9 o'clock and growing warmer.

Light rains were reported at Galveston and Port Arthur and a trace of rain at Palestine with thunderstorms.

At Abilene it was cloudy, temperature 46; Lubbock partly cloudy, 34; El Paso, temperature 40, light frost; Cleburne rain, temperature 38. The low temperature in Big Spring was 44.

Flood Threats In Wake Of Storms

By The Associated Press

A flood threat arose today in southwestern Missouri while reconstruction crews tackled their big job in the midwestern sector where tornadoes killed 38 persons Wednesday and caused property losses approaching $2,000,000.

In the Missouri "boothel" one of the regions hit by the series of twisters, the St. Francis and Black rivers threatened trouble. High water danger abated in Arkansas.

In the two places where the wind struck hardest—Columbus, Kas., and Pekin, Ill.—relief was organized for homeless hundreds.

The storms swept out of Arkansas and northeastern Oklahoma, across the corner of Kansas, up through Missouri and several hours later tipped into Illinois and Kentucky.

Unseasonable cold, rain, fog and flood marked the advent of April in most of the United States.

Snow was reported in northern Michigan and Minnesota, with a lighter fall in Colorado and the West Plains region of Texas.

Seal Sale Is Inaugurated

Easter Campaign For Benefit Of Crippled Children

DALLAS, April 1—Heralded by an official proclamation by Governor James V. Allred, the sale of Easter Seals for Crippled Children commenced throughout Texas today. The governor, who bought the first Easter Seal, has proclaimed the week of April 4th to 11th as Crippled Children's Week in Texas.

Abe Goldberg, Port Arthur philanthropist, who is in charge of the state organization for the sale of seals, announced that more than 100 Texas counties have been fully organized and are ready for the campaign. The goal in Texas is $50,000 to aid crippled children, and the campaign is under the auspices of the Texas Society for Crippled Children, of which Charles F. Ashcroft of Sulphur Springs is president.

The proclamation of Governor Allred setting forth the purposes of the Texas Society is as follows: "Whereas, the Texas Society for Crippled Children, whose voluntary unselfish service in behalf of the unfortunate crippled children of our state is one of the outstanding humanitarian movements of this decade; and

"Whereas, this fine organization is conducting its 5th annual sale of Easter Seals from April 1st to April 17th, 1938;

"Now, therefore, I, James V. Allred, Governor of the State of Texas, do hereby proclaim the period from Monday morning, April 4th, through Sunday night, April 10th, 1938, as Crippled Children's Week in Texas and call upon a generous public to give liberal support to this great humanitarian work through the purchase of Easter Seals."

Millions of Easter Seals, selling at a penny each in sheets of one hundred, have been distributed throughout the state to organizations and individuals interested. The seals this year are in yellow, blue and white, showing a crippled girl watering an Easter lily.

Naval Games Cost 11 Lives

Night Flying Around Hawaii Banned After Tragedies

HONOLULU, April 1 (AP)—The United States navy today banned night flying in the vicinity of the Hawaiian islands indefinitely as a result of a series of tragedies during recent mid-Pacific war games which cost 11 lives.

Despite the fatalities and the loss of three $100,000 planes, naval officials said the war games demonstrated the air fleet was an invaluable arm of Hawaii's defenses.

Six of the victims were missing in their planes which dropped out of a six-plane formation during scouting duty Wednesday and never were seen again. Bodies of three other naval fliers were recovered from the wreckage of a bombing plane which crashed off Oahu island in a rain squall yesterday. Two more bodies were believed in the submerged fuselage.

One Crew Rescued
The crew of the third plane, forced down and sunk at sea earlier in the maneuvers, was rescued by a passing ship.

All of the ill-fated planes were from Pearl Harbor, Hawaii, which naval officials said rendered valuable service in relaying information about the approach of a supposedly hostile fleet bent on capturing the Hawaiian islands.

Despite the tragedies—six other planes were forced down at sea without damage—a high navy official said the aircraft "performed wonderful services" in scouting thousands of miles of ocean in all directions from here.

Sixty-five surface vessels and 240 aircraft engaged in a gigantic search for the missing bomber were called off last night after all hope had been abandoned for the crew.

Decisive Battles In China, Spain

By The Associated Press

Both the Chinese and the Spanish government armies fought with their backs to the wall today in battles that may prove decisive in the wars of East and West.

Spanish insurgent commanders declared they had seized dominating positions at Lerida, "gateway" to Barcelona, the government's seat and hub of its resistance.

Government forces, however, had prepared a new defensive line 10 miles to the east on which to fall back if their hold on Lerida, 80 miles from Barcelona, is broken.

Border reports told of a steady stream of soldiers and civilians fleeing to France from Spanish government territory. One thousand troops and 2,000 civilians crossed the frontier yesterday. French guards were posted to control the border, as the flow continued today.

Chinese desperately defended the little city of Taierschwang, where fierce street fighting has continued for eight days with all the modern weapons of war—artillery, aviation, machine guns and grenades—and with primitive knives and broadswords.

Taierschwang, in Shantung province, may be the key to Japan's drive south toward the vital East-West Lushan railway.

Market For Mexico Oil?

Promoters Understood To Have Deal With Cardenas

MEXICO CITY, April 1 (AP)—President Lázaro Cardenas was understood today to have found prospective purchasers abroad for Mexico's rising stocks of oil taken from the $400,000,000 properties of expropriated American and British companies.

Bernard E. Smith, New York stock broker, and Francis W. Rickett, British promoter who negotiated a famous Ethiopian oil contract, have conferred with the president and other high Mexican officials.

Persons in the oil industry said it was understood they had reached an agreement "in principle" to purchase government oil at an extremely low figure for resale in the world market. Neither would comment on their activities here.

Smith this morning conferred with Gustavo Espinosa Mirreles, whom Cardenas named general manager of the National Petroleum company, established to find foreign markets for Mexico's oil production.

Smith and Rickett made reservations for today's New York plans, but said he was "staying on for a few days."

WARM SPRINGS, Ga., April 1 (AP)—President Roosevelt said today discussions with Mexico over seizure of American oil properties seemed to be progressing very satisfactorily.

The president, talking to reporters under a portico of Georgia hall to keep out of a driving rain, would not elaborate on the Mexican question, but sources close to him, at the same time said Mexico had assured the United States that small American investors would be taken care of.

As for larger investors such as the oil men, the American policy was again defined by these sources, namely, that they should receive for their expropriated properties only the amount invested in them, less depreciation.

RFC Loan Bill Is Approved

Would Give Authority To Help Business Firms

WASHINGTON, April 1 (AP)—The senate passed today a bill to give the Reconstruction Finance corporation wide new authority to lend to business enterprises. It also would revive RFC loans to states and subdivisions for public works construction.

The administration measure now goes to the house.

The bill, by Senator Glass (D-Va.) would extend the scope of RFC lending and permit that agency to make available approximately $1,500,000,000 for long time loans.

Loans to states and subdivisions would be permitted not only on so-called "self-liquidating" projects, but on all projects where the RFC finds there is reasonable assurance of repayment.

Chairman Jesse H. Jones of the RFC testified the measure would make funds available for five, ten or fifteen year loans to business which commercial banks might not undertake.

The bill was passed before many senators knew what was happening.

Vice-President Garner, immediately after the roll call at the opening of the day's session, called for a vote on an amendment. When a thin chorus of "ayes" was heard, he called for a vote on final passage of the bill. The measure carried by a second voice vote.

The bill was passed before many senators knew what was happening.

Building, P.O. Figures Gain
The puzzling paradox of 1938 business trends in Big Spring and Howard county popped up again in the March figures for the year.

Building figures and postal receipts showed additional gains, while new passenger car sales were woefully off.

Building activities quickened to the point that March showed the second largest total on record for the month with permits of $4,585. Postal receipts, although only showing a small gain over March of a year ago, established another record figure for the month with $9,016.18 in receipts.

After getting off to an early start in March, new car sales dragged until the month's total amounted to only 75, less than half the 151 record total last March. The showing contributed further to the decline in this line of trade, both January and February having shown losses.

New residential construction led the parade of nine new homes in Big Spring during March. These structures, ranging in cost from $125 to $18,000, accounted for $30,125 of the building total. Five new business structures (among them a ball park) amounted to $7,025. Thirty-six other permits, among them around a dozen projects to add a room to residences, accounted for the remaining portion of the building upturn. The total for the month was about the $24,123 for February.

Postal receipts for March were well above the $5,353.03 for February in addition to showing $128 gain over March a year ago. The gain for the month, however, was less pronounced than in January and February.

CAUGHT IN LARIAT, DRAGGED TO DEATH

BNYDER, April 1 (AP)—A frightened horse dragged Fred Wasson, 30, to death yesterday.

Wasson, stock farmer and business man of Snyder, and Charley Miller, Borden county rancher, were vaccinating and delousing cattle on Wasson's place north of here. Wasson, attempting to rope a cow, was knocked from his mount by a tree limb. The lariat tightened on his arm and he was dragged a half mile before Miller could cut the rope.

His widow survives.

Foes Defeated In Delaying Procedure

Telegrams Pour In Urging Action Against Measure

WASHINGTON, April 1 (AP)—Supporters of the administration's reorganization bill battled through vigorous opposition delay tactics today to force the house to resume consideration of the controversial measure.

Proceed With Debate
Speaker Barkness announced the vote was 236 to 128 on a motion to proceed with debate. Opposition members had tried in vain to block continuation of the discussion begun yesterday.

The oppositionists' time consuming maneuvers used up an hour and a half. When they were successful in blocking a time limitation on house discussion, Chairman Cochran (D-Mo.) told reporters the house would be held in session, "until midnight, if necessary, to conclude debate."

Angry protests against attempts to check off debate on the bill tied the house into a parliamentary knot.

Representative Sweeney (D-Ohio) his face flushed, stopped two efforts to limit debate. Chairman Cochran (D-Mo.) of the reorganization committee asked that debate close in five hours.

Meanwhile, a deluge of telegrams urged members to kill the bill. Employees of telegraph companies worked all night to handle the uncounted thousands of messages, many of which were received after a hastily-arranged radio denunciation of the measure by Rev. Charles E. Coughlin, radio priest.

Early today, one company alone estimated it had delivered 45,000 telegrams to representatives on the reorganization bill. It did not indicate the percentage for and against the bill.

Both sides agreed it was too early to tell the effect of the protests, which were reaching the representatives in the midst of the most turbulent debate heard in the house this year.

On the basis of preliminary returns from a poll of members, some democratic chiefs openly declared the bill would pass. Republican Leader Snell of New York conceded that the opposition did not command enough votes—"yet"—to defeat it.

While the bill's backers were declaring the flood of telegrams resulted from an organized propaganda campaign, Rep. Woodruff (R-Mich.) told the house yesterday that congress never had witnessed such "intense lobbying and brazen use of patronage" in behalf of the legislation.

TO OBSERVE LIMIT

Store Window Here Raided

Loss Estimated By Omar Pitman At About $600

Burglars who raided a show window of the Omar Pitman store early Friday did not bother to consult the calendar, for they were not fooling.

As a result, Pitman estimated his loss at around $600.

Entrance to the window was gained by ripping a semi-circular opening with a glass cutter. The broken piece was pushed back into the case and the contents virtually emptied.

Missing were several rings, among them a fairly large diamond setting, cases, compacts, and several wrist watches and other materials.

Officers believed the burglary may have occurred after 6 a. m. They were investigating the loss.

Trustee Vote Tomorrow

Three Local Board Members Are Unopposed

With virtually no opposition manifested toward incumbents, the election of more than a score trustees in the common and independent school districts of Howard county Saturday was due to hold small interest.

Polls were to open at 8 a. m. and close at 7 p. m. In Big Spring the voting will be at the county court room of the northside. Coahoma will ballot at the city hall, and all other districts will use the school houses for voting purposes.

Beer sales, said Ieth E. Morris, were to be banned during the election hours.

At Big Spring three trustees were to be named. Unopposed for the places were Dr. M. H. Bennett, up for re-election, and C. W. Cunningham, and J. Gordon "Odie" Blevins. Gay Hill was to name three trustees and Midway two. Coahoma and Garner independent school districts had more than one to elect.

Alton Bostick can't help it if he looks so tough. He went to Sweetwater with other amateur fighters Thursday evening and his opponent-to-be took one look at him and doffed the gloves for the evening.

Back Into News

Obie Bristow breaks into the news again with his starting 30 over the front nine of the country club course and a mention of the illustrious one brought a few tales from Joe Pickle. Here are some of them:

Many people wondered, but few knew how Bristow managed to check the stars of opposing teams with obviously inferior material his first season as coach here. Not long out of professional football, Obie had a few tricks in the bag. He had observed that opposing teams usually had their best all-around player to do the kick-off stunt. His investigations along this line also showed that after booting the ball, the kicker's eyes automatically went skyward to follow the flight of the ball. Then there were no rules to keep the defensive team back of the 40-yard stripe, and Bristow stationed an eager, raw-boned blocker off to the side and close up. As the kicker moved to within two strides of the ball, the blocker took off. It was so timed that the blocker was just on the spot when the kicker turned his eyes up, leaving himself open for the chilling block he got. This jarring experience literally knocked the fire out of the star, and not infrequently he was of little good the remainder of the game.

Explaining this trick to his boys prior to a game, Bristow was dumfounded when Jake Morgan, then a slender boy of 142 pounds, added his approval by saying: "It's a sure fire thing. I've noticed that everybody has his eyes on the ball, and I've used it." Bristow was amazed because

"To do good work, son, you must feel good. For instance, watch out for constipation. Experience has taught me to depend on all-vegetable Black-Draught for prompt, refreshing relief. My advice is—try Black-Draught tonight!"

Louis Is Sure Of K.O.

CHICAGO, April 1 (AP)—On this April Fool's night Joe Louis, world's heavyweight champion, goes into the ring determined to make a flaccid fool of Harry Thomas, rugged challenger from Eagle Bend, Minn.

They meet in a battle scheduled for 15 rounds in the Chicago stadium, with prospects of an attendance of from 10 to 15 thousand, and receipts from $50,000 to $75,000.

The 33-year-old negro titleholder is out to make Thomas hit the canvas and stay there before eight rounds are finished. He wants a quicker knockout than Max Baerling, who stopped Thomas in eight rounds on a technical finish.

Will Shoot Early
Louis is tuned to physical perfection for the third defense of the title he won from James J. Braddock in Chicago last June. He will shoot for an early finish with a complete knockout as his objective.

This was one of the secrets of the trade. "You've used it, Jake?" asked Obie dubiously. "Yeh, coach," popped Jake. "That's when I came over the fence." Obie's hidden ball trick was the source of this section for a long time. Playing against a team he knew his boys could not hope to defeat, he found the half time score 6-4. The hidden ball trick was brought into play, and only the inability of the backs to sidestep the safety kept the Steers from upsetting the powerful opposition by a four or five touchdown margin. The ball worked off an eight man line. There was a complicated shift whereby the center, guard and the backs all moved around. In the end, the back and not the center guard and the backs all moved around. In the end, the back and not the center was over the ball. The snap was called, but instead of passing the ball, the back held it well up between his legs and behind. The other backs feinted toward an end, and after a count of two, the "center" tore out.

As the second half opened, Henry Richbourg, fullback, who ended up over the ball as "center" galloped to the opposition 12-yard stripe. The officials quickly called the play back. Bristow stumbled out on the field as was frequently his custom and apologized, "I've got a bunch of country boys just trying to learn this game. I'd like to know what's wrong so I can tell them about it."

The official, with a professional air, obliged: "The back was in motion before he got the ball."
"What? What did you say," cried Obie, indignantly.
The official repeated his charge.
Obie started to put him in his place, then remembered that his play was at stake. "My Lord," said Obie, "You've got me."

SEVEN ISAA RECORDS SET AT GARNER MEET

Courtney Wins Over Garner At Stanton

Friddy Figures In Two New Marks, J. D. Hart High Scorer
GARNER, April 1—Seven new association records were established during the track and field meet here Thursday afternoon at Courtney's talented athletes copped their second ISAA title within two weeks. The Courtney team tallied 60 points, 16 more than did Garner which was in second place. Stanton finished in third position with 20 points.

New ISAA standards were written into the books in the 100-yard dash, 220-yard dash, 880-yard run, mile, mile relay, pole-vault and javelin.

Priddy of Stanton figured in two of the new marks, running the century in 10.9 seconds to break S. P. Echo's low of 11 flat, and the 220 in 25.3 seconds, smashing his own record in that event by seven-tenths second.

Garner Ace Steps Out
Garner's middle distance star, sped along to a 2.23 half mile to set up a new record for that distance. Powell, Courtney, was the previous titleholder, having covered the 880 in 2:26.8.

Beating out his own teammate, Pete Denton, for first place, V. Jones, Garner, established a 5:22 mile run for a new low in that grade, besting by 10 seconds Stanton's Balin old mark.

Smith of Courtney in the pole vault leaped 12 feet 9 1/2 inches to break by three feet, five inches his own record vault.

Other standard setting events were turned in by R. V. Thomas, Garner, in the javelin and by Garner's mile relay team. Thomas broke Hollis Parker's tossing mark by more than ten feet when he hurled the spear 144 feet, four inches. The Billie relay team covered the mile in 4:9.1 to clip four seconds of the old mark.

J. D. Hart, Courtney, was individual high scorer with 19 points. Track results:

Pitching To Make Difference In Shippers' Try For Top Position

By AL VINCENT
Businessment Experts
BEAUMONT, April 1 (AP)—The Exporters look mighty good to me this year and don't be surprised to see them nudging some team for a first division spot if our pitching comes through as I expect it will.

I believe we have the best outfield in the league in Barney McCosky, Frank Secory and Pat Mulin. They can hit, field and throw. Just about everything you could ask, and above all they're fine hustlers.

In Dixie Parsons, Johnny Tige and Larry Steinbeck the Shippers have three great young catchers. When cutting down time comes it's going to be hard to let one go. I will keep them all for the first 30 days.

The Exporter infield looks good, too, with Mae Fleming at first, Boyd Perry at shortstop and Mickey DeJonghe at third. I'll probably play second unless one of the classy kids now in camp makes me sit on the bench. Fleming has been shifted from the outfield to first to replace Dunn and I think he'll develop into a more consistent first sacker than the dynamite Boyd.

Just last year, he's feeling great, and DeJonghe, up from Henderson where he batted .311, is a highly capable replacement for Mark Christman.

I think I'll have a good year if I play regularly, as I never felt better.

Lee improved
Quinn Lee, only pitcher back from last year, is looking great and should have his best season. Ed Welland, righthanded brother of Bob, the Cards' star, is another likely looking flogger with a side-arm that's going to have a lot of them guessing. Walter Schaefer, a left-hander from Henderson who

Obie Bristow, hard hitting golfing star, breezed around the first nine of the Big Spring country club Wednesday afternoon to a new record when he posted a 50 on the par 58 stretch.

Coahoma Loses To Daniel's Roosters

Ben Daniel's Big Spring Roosters, flashy softball team, slugged out another victory here Thursday afternoon, this time at the expense of the Coahoma high school aggregation by a score of 27-7.

In running their total runs scored in two games to 62, the battling youngsters pounded out 21 hits off Barron, opposing pitcher, getting the jump on the opposition at the beginning.

David Lamun and Jack Winslow smacked out home runs, Lamun's coming in the first with the bases populated.

Apostoli Meets Nebraskan In Garden Again

NEW YORK, April 1 (AP)—Fred Apostoli and Glen Lee, two brash young fighters, go at it again in Madison Square Garden tonight, which is the same thing as saying Mike Jacobs is staging Gettsburg all over again.

Fred and Glen fought at the Garden early in February. Fred won after a whale of a fight. Some thought he deserved tie decision; Others thought Lee "wuz robbed." So Mike is putting them on again at 15 rounds—the first fight was 12—and a bumper crop of customers is expected.

ALLISON LOSES TO SABIN IN RIVER OAKS TENNIS TOURNAMENT

By OLEN W. CLEMENTS
HOUSTON, April 1 (AP)—Bryan (Bitly) Grant, the bounding Atlantan, was confined to bed today as River Oaks tennis courtesy officials called Hal Surface of Kansas City and Ernie Sutter of New Orleans for the only quarter finals match carded for the day.

Grant was laid low yesterday by an appendicitis attack that may force him to default to Bernie Coghlan of Santa Monica, Cal., in their quarter finals meeting, which was scheduled yesterday but postponed because of Grant's illness. The defending champion's ailment caused the semi-finals of the tournament to be moved up until Sunday and the finals to be scheduled for Monday.

Meanwhile, Wilmer Allison of Austin, Davis Cup star and the nation's No. 1 tennis player two years ago, lost yesterday to Wayne Sabin of Hollywood, Cal., 6-2, 3-6, 6-2, 6-2. Sabin will enter the semi-finals with Bobby Riggs of Chicago, who conquered Arthur Hendrix of Lakeland, Fla., 2-6, 6-2, 6-0, 6-2.

Sabin, in the outstanding clash of the tourney, was strong at the net, showed an excellent overhead game and frequently "passed" Allison with scorching drives that sizzled down the sidelines.

His drop shots and volleys mastered those of Allison but old Wilmer went down fighting.

Arthur Hendrix belted the ball from every conceivable angle to take the first set from the nation's second ranking player, but from then on Riggs was the master. He won the next three sets handily.

Riggs and Sabin will take a holiday from singles today with Sabin teaming with Coghlan for doubles in the afternoon.

The feature doubles match today will send Allison and John Van Ryn of Austin against Frank Guernsey and Joe Lucia of Houston.

Local Fighters Score In S'Water Battles

Reed Flashes Form In Win Over Hanna
Yancey, Womack And Owens Come Thru With Kayoes

SWEETWATER, April 1—Big Spring's twin crew of amateur midget sailors, paced by agile Ellis Reed, 113-pounder, grand-slammed their Sweetwater opponents Thursday night in the featured bouts here at the municipal auditorium.

Four boys from Howard county made their appearances on the Bobby Clark show and all came through with flying colors.

Ynez Yancey, 107-pound Mexican, opened the western invasion with a two-round knockout over Coleman Harkins. He floored the Sweetwater youth twice before putting off the finishing touches and has outclassed from the beginning. The Christmas made seven errors.

Durwood Horner, T. C. U. hurler, allowed 15 hits, but hit a homer in the eighth.

Reed followed and had the hardest fight of his brief career. His opponent was Dick Hanna, late of the West coast, who put on such a display of fists in the opening round that he earned both the judges' nods. However, Ellis altered his attack in the second round, switching his drive with both hands to the head and finish fast to win the popular decision.

Reed received a badly bruised forehead when Hanna came under his attack and his head collided unexpectedly with Ellis.

Johnny Owens, Big Spring's feather hope, replaced Reed in the ring and disposed of Sweetwater's C. L. Freeman in the second round after scoring five knockdowns in the first. Freeman never had a chance although he hung on gamely through the first two minutes of the mixup.

Red Womack, completing the show, polished off Louis Hudgins with a second round technical knockout. He had floored his opponent five times before the referee stopped the fight.

Alton Bostick, walker, who also made the trip, did not fight because no opponent could be found who would take him on.

Other victories on the eight-bout card were chalked up by Kerry Terry, Abilene, over Irby Jarvis, Sweetwater; Grover Cleveland, Sweetwater, over Gordon Wood, Abilene; and J. L. Turner, Sweetwater, over Dave Parker, Abilene.

CHI PULLS BACK EVEN IN SERIES

NEW YORK, April 1 (AP)—Chicago's Blackhawks have drawn a "life" for themselves in the National Hockey League's Stanley cup playoffs, advancing the Hawks to the cup finals against Toronto.

But something went wrong. The Hawks waited until after April 1 arrived, battling well past midnight in overtime, and then sent Cully Dahlstrom and Lou Trudell down-ice to combine on the game's lone tally for a 1-0 victory.

Dahlstrom did the goal-making on a pass from Trudell after the two fought it out through three regulation periods and 33:01 of "sudden death" overtime.

The win evened the series at one game each, and forced a third game Sunday night in Madison Square Garden, where the Americans took the opener 3-4 last Tuesday.

Bears, Ponies Tangle Today

Tommy Fine To Pitch For Baylor, Dewell On Mound For SMU

By the Associated Press
Tommy Fine, Baylor's semi-pro pitcher, and Southern Methodist's Billy Dewell were pitted against each other in the first of a two-game series at Dallas today. Both teams are undefeated in Southwest conference baseball.

The Methodists had defeated Texas Christian and Baylor had chalked up two victories against the Texas Aggies.

Another two-game series, starting today, was that of the Aggies and Rice Institute, in Houston.

Yesterday the University of Texas Longhorns chased in 21 runs to Texas Christian's 2 in the first conference game in Austin. The Christians made seven errors.

Durwood Horner, T. C. U. hurler, allowed 15 hits, but hit a homer in the eighth.

Feudin' Families Settle Difference On Cage Court

DENVER, April 1 (AP)—The Ungers drew first blood in their basketball feud with the seven brothers, Allen, but the Allens, true feuders, won't let that settle things.

Beaten 43 to 33 last night in a basketball match with the six brothers Unger, the Allens immediately demanded a return battle.

Promoter Gil Lundberg, who induced the two families of leading Denver athletes to test their prowess in Trinity church's annual tournament, alertly suggested a match next year in municipal auditorium (audience capacity 7,000).

On the side, Lundberg confided the non-playing Ungers and Allens came in free last night at Trinity gym.

"Never saw any families with more kinfolk," said Lundberg.

Tolmich And Allen Have Chance To Set Undisputed Relay Mark

AUSTIN, April 1 (AP)—The Southwest's premier track and field carnival—the Texas relays—will furnish an opportunity tomorrow for Sam Allen or Alan Tolmich to take undisputed possession of the meet's 120-yard high hurdles record.

Allen, Oklahoma Baptist university product, and Tolmich, indoor champion from Wayne university at Detroit, jointly hold the mark at 14.3 seconds. If conditions are right, either may whittle it.

Forrest Townes, celebrated world champion from Georgia, will run in an exhibition. Director Clyde Littlefield cancelled a three-way race since Townes' professional standing might impair the Olympic chances of Tolmich and Allen.

Outdone by the great trio but considered potential Olympic material were three record-smashing timber tappers in the regular university event. Two phenomenal sophomores, Fred Wolcott of Rice and Boyce Gatewood of Texas, will test their speed against Jack Patterson, Rice veteran. Eldon Frank of Nebraska and Marsh Farmer, Texas Tech's one-armed star, also are entered.

Yanx Are Factors In Feud

By ALAN GOULD
NEW YORK, April 1 (AP)—National league's shudder or put cotton in their ears when they think of tackling those ferocious Yankees in another world series.

You can't blame them. Five times in the last eleven years the Yanx have flattened their rivals in the big-money battle. They have taken out of 23 games, including 15 in succession in 1927, 1928 and 1929 against the Pirates, Cardinals and Cubs. Only the Glads have put up anything resembling a struggle, and last year they came apart, too.

NO SUPERIORITY
It distorts the picture, however, to contend that this Yankee domination carries with it superiority for the American league as a whole. You can't take the Yankees out of it, of course, but it should be observed (1) that the New York club has contributed chiefly to the 21-13 margin of the Americans in world series competition, and (2) that outside of the series in which the Yanx have participated since the war, the inter-league battle has been pretty much of a standoff.

The factors affecting world series results are numerous and conflicting. Big league magnates, for example, have twice recognized the inconclusiveness of a best four-out-of-seven series between any two clubs by lengthening the limit to nine games. Aside from this technical point, it is true that relative conditions, psychological factors, and the "breaks" have contributed as much to world series outcome as the twin major assets of power or pitching.

"SUPER TEAMS"
The Americans not only have had the happy faculty of producing more "super teams," such as the Athletics of two eras and the Boston Red Sox, as well as the Yankees, but they have established a more effective esprit de corps. For example, in 1916, an all-star American league team was put together to keep Connie Mack's first great team on edge for the world series with the Chicago Cubs, up to then the most feared outfit in the majors. The A's won.

Over a long stretch, the best minds of the American league have pooled their ingenuity and resources at world series time. How much effect this post-season "all for one" policy has had is, of course, a matter for conjecture. It contrasts, however, with the bickering and jealousy evident within the National league family.

Abilene Group Views Work Of Schools

New Curriculum Methods Here Are Studied

Evidence of the attention being paid in set of circles to the work of the Big Spring system as an "exploratory" project of the Southern Association of Secondary Schools and Colleges toward working out the new curriculum was shown Thursday in the visit of a group of apprentice teachers from Hardin-Simmons university, Abilene.

The group, under guidance of Miss Ethel L. Hatchett, professor of elementary education and supervisor of the laboratory school at Hardin-Simmons, spent the day here, viewing work done in the various units of the elementary system. Thomas E. Pierce, superintendent of elementary education here, conducted the teachers on the tour, outlining the project work.

On April 18, teachers from a wide area of West Texas will be guests of the schools for a day, and will be shown the project work in the elementary system. This inspection, to be held in connection with a school conference, is expected to attract many teachers.

In the Abilene group here Thursday were Miss Gladys Armstrong, Miss Avis Matthews, Miss Frances Hawkins, Miss Lucille Newcomb, Miss Pauline Ballew, Miss Evelyn Robertson, Miss Lorraine Smith, Miss Sue Ball, Miss Naomi Davis, Miss Hazel Conner, Miss Christine Lockley, and Mrs. Jessie S. Smith, art teacher in the H-SU laboratory school.

JUDGMENT PERMITS TAX RECOVERY

OKLAHOMA CITY, April 1 (AP)—Federal District Judge Edgar S. Vaughn ruled today that Mrs. Hubert R. Hudson was entitled to recover $5,726.73 federal income taxes paid under protest for 1922.

Hudson lives in Brownsville, Tex. The suits involved the income from property assigned to trust agreements for the Hudson children. Two suits were filed, one by Hudson for $3,848.88, and one by Mrs. Hudson for $1,877.85.

The government had contended the exemption was not permissible because the trust agreements were not recorded in 1932.

School Annual To Be Improved Greatly This Year; 'Cities Of Tomorrow' To Be Theme

By PATSY BUTH ZARAFONETIS Editor, El Rodeo of 1933

In undertaking the task of publishing a book which reflected the change of a rapidly vanishing generation, we have practiced radicalism to a marked degree. With the idea that we wished to be different and unique kept most in mind, we plunged into the editing of El Rodeo.

Our staff represents the school body, and due to that fact it is our duty to correctly portray the events of a full and happy year.

Diverging from the custom of choosing a western motif, we selected a modernistic theme which attempts to look ahead and foresee the Cities of Tomorrow. Our art work, under the able direction of the best artist in school, has set a new high in the type of work to be expected in the future. Set in the time of "Just Imagine" we have taken advantage of the opportunities which this field offers to fertile minds.

Class A Book The El Rodeo, for the first time since 1930, is to be a Class A annual. Bound in bark grain, with spots of color and deeply cut illustrations, the binding promises to be the best to be had. However, it

Tumbling Club One Of Organizations In High School

There is an organization in high school that few people know much about. It is the Tumbling club, composed of 17 high school girls who are interested in tumbling and that means turning somersaults, doing double and single back, turning handspins and cartwheels, building pyramids, etc. This club was organized during the fall of 1932 under the sponsorship of Miss Marguerite Wood, and new members have been initiated since. The most recent initiation was held this month, when pledges were made to collect stray cats with liver, then sell the one cat each succeeded in getting. They were also made to sweep some of the downtown sidewalks. Members meet for tumbling practice each Monday and Wednesday afternoon. This year the club has new uniforms of black socks, white shirts and black and gold letter jackets.

'Tom Sawyer' Comes To The Ritz Screen

Famed Mark Twain Story Here Friday, Saturday

One of the best-loved stories of all time, Mark Twain's famous tale, "The Adventures of Tom Sawyer," is brought to life in a new screen adaptation which is offered Friday and Saturday at the Ritz theatre. The picture, produced by David O. Selznick, is done in Technicolor, and the natural color treatment adds much to the beauty of setting which provides atmosphere of life in a small town on the Mississippi. It also shows up that fence whitewashing stunt of Tom's!

A nationwide search was conducted by the producers for a lad to play the part of young Tom. They found him in the New York area, in the person of Tom Kelly, a freckled, smiling likeable youngster who is at home before the camera. Jackie Moran has a major role, and May Robson plays as Aunt Polly. The other characters are there—Huck Finn and Betty Thatcher—as Tom goes through the thrilling experiences so familiar to most readers of the story.

Bob Steele Starred In Western Story Booked At Queen

"Arizona Gunfighter," an action melodrama which plays Friday and Saturday at the Queen, is one designed to appeal to all western fans. Bob Steele, up-and-coming contender for "All-American" cowboy, is the star.

"Arizona Gunfighter" promises a new plot angle, and plenty of thrills and suspense. Steele takes the role of Colt Ferron, who avenges the ruthless murder of his father and is forced to escape from the law. He lies wounded and near death in the mountain fastness when he is rescued by Wolf Whitson, leader of the notorious Jackpine gang of cattle rustlers and outlaws. In nursing Colt back to health, a father-and-son bond develops between the two, and Wolf decides to forsake the outlaw trail and reform.

He makes his followers swear to go straight, and the gang breaks up. Wolf, after giving Colt a ranch, disappears.

Colt proves to be an excellent rancher, and makes his ranch pay. He wins the respect of all his neighbors, and the love of Beth Lorimer, played by Jean Carmen. Suddenly, however, the Jackpine gang emerges from the supposedly dead past and ravages the countryside. Colt, disappointed at first by Wolf's apparent faithlessness, learns later that the latter has nothing to do with the revival of the gang, but is instead doing time in prison for the murder Colt committed to avenge his father's death.

General Electric Reduces Salaries

NEW YORK, April 1 (AP)—The General Electric company today announced graduated pay reductions, effective April 11, for all full-time salaried employees earning more than $2,000 a year. In no case, however, will the first $2,000 be affected, Gerard Swope, president, said.

Even as the announcement—which said March business declined 50 per cent as compared to March, 1937—was being posted in all works and offices of the company, non-salaried workers in six plants were going to work under a contract signed by the management and the United Electrical Radio and Machine Workers of America (UO).

Last-Minute Rush On Car Licenses

Although it was the last day for registering motor vehicles, the pressure on the tax collector's office was relieved Friday by a record run the previous day.

Passenger car registration through Thursday evening amounted to 2,857, well ahead of the 2,453 at the same time a year ago. Passenger car registrations for 1937 totaled the 6,970 mark Thursday evening.

Motorists have until midnight Friday to pay their car license fees without penalty. If the car is driven after midnight Friday, a 20 per cent penalty will be assessed in addition to the license fee.

PRORATED HEARING SLATED APRIL 18

AUSTIN, April 1 (AP)—The railroad commission today picked April 18 as the date for its next state oil prorating hearing.

Indications were the commission would order continuation of the Sunday oil field shutdowns after the hearing unless demand picks up considerably. Despite the shut-downs Texas output is running close to that recommended by the United States bureau of mines.

The Texas conservation agency may consider additional methods of retarding the bottomhole pressure decline in the large East Texas field. Some engineers believe the drop during the current 30-day period may be considerably larger than it was in late February and early March.

FIVE ARRESTED AS NARCOTICS SEIZED

NEW ORLEANS, April 1 (AP)—Federal narcotic agents here today reported the arrest of five men and the seizure of narcotics estimated in retail trade at around $100,000. The arrests were the second series made during the past few days and represented weeks of undercover work by the agents.

The men were arraigned before United States Commissioner Reginald H. Carter, Jr., on narcotics charges and sent to the federal prison here. (Sammy McKim) had made of a discussion between tractor company officials which showed they were deliberately defrauding the farmers.

DALLAS PRINCIPAL IS RELEASED

DALLAS, April 1 (AP)—Howard H. Martin, Dallas school principal detained last Friday after detectives and federal agents took jewelry estimated in value from $3,000 to $30,000 from his apartment, was ordered discharged today by Judge Henry King.

Judge King dismissed Martin's habeas corpus action after city officers said they did not desire to contest it.

The jewelry was taken in a search of Martin's home after a nephew with a police record was slain in Florida. Martin, in a federal court petition asking return of the jewelry, set forth that he acquired much of the jewelry by foreclosure, by purchase and by gift.

SEARCH UNDERWAY FOR DALLAS WOMAN

DALLAS, April 1 (AP)—Police of neighboring states were asked today by Dallas officers to aid in their search for Mrs. A. C. Becker, 40, of Dallas, who was last seen at her home yesterday, a week after the body of her husband was found in a Red river slough near Texarkana.

Mrs. Becker had been despondent, neighbors and her children said. Inspector of Detectives Will Fritz said a check was being made with business acquaintances who knew the family in Arkansas and in Atlanta, Ga., where they lived previously.

Gene Autry At Lyric Theatre

'The Old Barn Dance' Newest Film For Singing Cowboy

Another of the popular Autry musical westerns is the headline attraction at the Lyric theatre Friday and Saturday. Titled "The Old Barn Dance," the story, based on the efforts of Autry and his erony, Smiley Burnette, to sell horses to farmers at rodeos throughout the western States, gives these two opportunity to sing and make comedy. Autry brings his troupe of cowboy-entertainers to a small western town for the annual rodeo, and finds that a tractor company, with unscrupulous methods, is selling the farmers tractors, which cut Autry's horse business to almost nothing. Gene opens his show, however, and is approached by Hally (Heien Valkin) who owns a small radio station in the town, with an offer to broadcast as a regular feature over the station.

Autry accepts the offer, but soon learns that the sponsor of his program is the tractor company that has ruined his horse business. As Gene is convinced that the company is only getting the farmers in trouble, he refuses to do any more broadcasting, and with "Frog" and the rest of his troupe, leaves town.

The company officials continue their broadcasts by means of transcriptions that had been made from the Autry programs, and the farmers believe that these broadcasts are actually Gene and his band, and that they are being double-crossed. Gene comes back and destroys the transcriptions, but in so doing smashes one record that Sally's young brother, Johnny (Sammy McKim) had made of a discussion between tractor company officials which showed they were deliberately defrauding the farmers.

Gene, Frog, Sally, and Johnny finally prove the company's illegal aims, providing the climax to an exciting and entertaining western film.

GENE AND HIS GANG MAKE MUSIC

Gene Autry and his band of musicians bring melody, as well as comedy and action, to the Lyric screen Friday and Saturday in Gene's newest starring picture, "The Old Barn Dance." Here're the boys all tuned up and ready to deliver a breakdown.

RICHMOND, Calif., April 1 (AP)—A Richmond barber killed his wife and 21-year-old niece and committed suicide today in a jealous quarrel police said was prompted by the husband's attentions to the niece.

such developments, but accepted by the company as "windfall" profits. Public relations policies of the Bell system, Walker said, "are directed toward the maintenance of its monopoly position."

"Such policies have been accomplished by indoctrination, by economic contacts, and by political pressure.

"Indoctrination is accomplished through a vast program of propaganda carried on by its employees, by non-commercial contacts, such as memberships in clubs, through motion pictures, publicity campaigns, newspapers, subsidies to publications and authors, and indoctrination of students and professors.

"Political Pressure"

"The economic contacts of the system are achieved through corporate connections, banking relations, insurance and material purchases, and wide distribution of stock.

"Political pressure is exerted on public service commissions and on legislators."

Due to centralized management control of the Bell system, Walker asserted, the system "has successfully evaded" effective state regulation, despite the separate entities of the operating subsidiaries."

"The system is treated as a unit for purposes of profit, and as a group of separate corporate legal entities for purposes of regulation," he added.

Judge Snelson was asked to call an election in from 30 to 60 days.

First Aid Contests Slated Saturday

Teams from at least four boy scout troops in the Big Spring district will compete in first aid contests Saturday at 7:30 p. m. in the firemen's recreation room at the city hall.

Dr. R. B. G. Cowper, who will supervise the contest, said that he had arranged three problems for each of the teams. The problems involve diagnosis, first aid treatment, and in some cases transportation.

The Kansas Farmer and The AP

KANSAS lawyers were selecting jurors to hear an important case. One elderly, windbitten farmer was asked on what he formed his opinions.

"Do you read the newspapers?" the lawyer asked.

"Usually."

"Do you believe what you read in the newspapers?"

"Well . . ." the farmer hesitated.

"Answer the question, please."

"When it is 'By The Associated Press,' I believe it," the farmer said.

YEARS of honest effort to present the daily intelligence of the world to the American people, without bias, without prejudice, without distortion, objectively and clearly and with regard for the decencies of life, put those words in the mouth of the Kansas farmer.

One of the priceless possessions of the American people is its free press. The Associated Press is proud to stand for that. It assembles and distributes a daily record of today's history which all men may read with confidence.

READING AND WRITING

'THE CULTURE OF CITIES,' by Lewis Mumford (Harcourt, Brace & Co.)

For once this reasonably glib department must confess itself stymied. Today Lewis Mumford publishes his "The Culture of Cities." However it may impress the rest of the world, this seems to us one of the great American books. It is so richly thoughtful, so productive in its implications, and so remarkably written that doing anything like justice to it in a few hundred words is both a preposterous and a presumptuous idea.

Mumford has surveyed, in the book, the city as a concept through history. This has been done in no narrow historical sense, but from the viewpoint of a man interested solely in the things urban life and manners have done to and for human life and manners. And of a man who, having assimilated and logically arranged the facts of the matter, wishes to draw from them a scheme of urban life which shall actually serve man.

The modern American city is of course a mistake. Its potentialities, in the light of our present cultural and physical status, are almost infinite. Realization of these potentialities is in all cases hampered, and in some cases made impossible, by the limitations of this physical status. We have had for some time "city planning" which is of course a step in the right direction. But this planning is, Mumford believes, like mistaking the sets of a play for the action, and the scene shifters for the actors and the stage directions for the lines.

"The culture of cities is ultimately the culture of life in its higher social manifestations," he writes. Any city plan which does not begin at the bottom, and does not rebuild a city in such a way that everyone in it, fortunate or otherwise, shall have within his grasp an integrated life, is a fraud. Planning along the older lines, whatever benefits it may have produced, will certainly never produce this result and therefore must be altered. Mumford shows the ideal, and the path to it. One may as well read the book now, for certainly its influence will be great.

"Healthy kids have healthy appetites. Keep plenty of food on hand, in your electric refrigerator, so that they have plenty of everything they like to eat morning, noon and night."

Infant appetites are uncertain, especially in the summer time. If things don't taste just right, it's next to impossible to get little folks to eat as much as they should. Healthy babies demand a tremendous amount of food in proportion to their size. Any let-down in their eating will quickly be reflected in their physical appearance. Make it easy for them to eat plenty of the things they like by keeping their food fresh and wholesome in an electric refrigerator.

FOUR-YEAR TERM FOR OFFICIALS

West Texas county judges and county commissioners, at their recent convention in Brownwood, declared in favor of four-year elective terms.

The chief arguments against it are that it would keep an undesirable official in office too long and that it would facilitate the development of political machines.

Advocates of the change point out that the public would be spared the turmoil of a political campaign every two years, and that it would no longer be necessary for an elected official to start running for re-election as soon as he is sworn in.

The general trend is toward four-year terms in state offices. In 23 of the states the governor's term is four years.

The four-year term is not by any means a remedy for present political ills. Enough can be said in its favor, however, to commend it to the voters' study.

The pistol fired only once and it seems the boy was practicing taking it away from himself.

Washington Daybook

By Preston Grover

WASHINGTON—We can hardly wait for commencement exercises at West Point next June to see whether Brig. Gen. Jay L. Benedict, the superintendent, will put the cadets on an alphabetical basis.

It is terribly, terribly important and only people who spoof at tradition will fail to hold their breath until they hear the cadets in the old order was all settled and that no one would dare think of alphabetizing the army.

He raised the question during committee consideration of the War Department appropriation bill by asking General Benedict to tell us. We will let Mr. Terry explain.

REPRESENTATIVE EXPLAINS

"General, I notice that at the graduation exercises of the academy they give the diplomas to the cadets in the order in which they rank in the class; that is, No. 1 gets the first diploma and so on down the line until they come to the last man. The head man, the one that comes out No. 1, does not get the applause that the 'goat' gets, who comes out last.

"There is a continuing crescendo, and when the last man gets his diploma or his certificate (which, Mr. Terry?) there is wild applause and acclaim. Well, he gets that as the 'goat'."

At this point Mr. Terry became a bit more loose than lucid in his explanation but he went on to say that other colleges, including Annapolis where they train the sailors, give a first few honors to the top ranking men then pass out the certificates alphabetically.

General Benedict said he did not know how long it had been going on. "I graduated 24 years ago, and they were doing it then, and it was a well-established custom."

"It horrified me," said Mr. Terry, "when I saw the humiliation that that man is subjected to."

"Of course," said General Benedict, trying to be practical, "No matter what may happen at the graduation exercises there is a 'goat' in every class, and he is well known in the service as the 'goat' of the class. Whatever we do at the graduation exercises will have little effect thereafter. He will be known as the 'goat' and he probably will be proud of it, as most of them are. The men at the bottom of the class, who come out as 'goats' are usually very popular cadets, very good fellows and very good ministers."

"Was not General Grant the last man in his class?" asked Rep. Dockweller of California. (We had heard that, too, and suspect from his pictures that the General never had his pants pressed from Vicksburg to Appomattox.)

But Mr. Terry would not be put aside. "I would like you to consider that," General said Mr. Terry. And, said General Benedict, "I will, I assure you."

HOLLYWOOD—After a week of comparative quiet along the preview front, the new shows broke out in a rash—and on the whole a pleasant rash.

"Bluebeard's Eighth Wife"—in which the old master Lubitch of smart drollery makes amends with the box office without sacrificing a single droll—was easily the most discussed of the lot.

This lady, aware that her seven predecessors each drew $50,000 a year, demands double that income, and then proceeds to prove how different she is from the rest in other ways—bringing Cooper so completely to her feet that she has to resort to strong-arm stuff to make him aware she really loves him.

Cooper, under Lubitch's direction, comes to new life, and Miss Colbert is ingratiating as always. The "typically Lubitch" support includes Edward Everett Horton, David Niven, Elizabeth Patterson, Herman Bing, Warren Hymer and Franklin Pangborn.

Irene Dunne's latest "Joy of Living" is most joyous in the sequences wherein Irene Dunne as a stage star at the mercy of a hungry pack of relatives, learns how to enjoy life under the tutelage of Douglas Fairbanks, Jr., who takes her to a beer garden, a skating rink, and another beer garden in the course of an evening's fun on $1.85.

For Miss Dunne, the film is another comedy triumph of "Awful Truth" proportions, and her singing, for the first time to this reporter, carries a sweet, clear and unstrained, Alice Brady, Guy Kibbee, Lucille Ball, Jean Dixon, Eric Store, Franklin Pangborn, James Burke.

In "There's Always a Woman," Joan Blondell achieves a peak in characterizing a dumb blonde. When her husband, Melvyn Douglas, gives up his private detective agency for lack of clients, Joan chipperly steps in and garners a prospect immediately while husband goes back to his old job on the force.

"Fools for Scandal" is Carole Lombard as a movie actress in Paris on holiday, pursued by Ferdinand Gravel as an impecunious nobleman, with Ralph Bellamy as Carole's insurance salesman fiancé. If it were all as funny as some of it, "Fools for Scandal," a Mervyn LeRoy number, would be first-rate. The principals, and prime supporting talent in Isabel Jeans, Allen Jenkins and Marie Wilson, do what they can to keep the laughter and interest alive, but it's sometimes rather strained.

Not long ago a manuscript bobbed up that attracted his attention. It was not a good script; mechanically, it was much awry. But he liked the way the author wrote, and he decided the fellow needed more than anything else to familiarize himself with the theater.

So he sent for him. "No, I haven't seen very many plays," he admitted. "They cost money; I haven't much left over for entertainment."

"Well," Shubert told him, "this play is no good, but you can write, and I think what you need is to learn the mechanics of the theater. And so I am going to send you to every play in town and to every opening for the rest of the season. So that you can study and learn. If it helps you, swell; if it doesn't, nothing's lost. That's all, now, and here is your play."

This author is still catching up on missing dramas, and some day he'll turn out one of his own. And when he does it seems to me that luck and Milton Shubert will have had their inning.

John Golden's story is from a different angle, although it adds up the same way. A stranger walked into his office and told him he wanted to write a book. But the economic pressure was too much for him—it had him worried and down. When he slaved all day and commuted vast distances to his inexpensive home, all his energy was used up. Would Mr. Golden help him?

Well, Golden had never seen the man. But he inquired about his habits, and he looked at part of the manuscript which the fellow had with him.

"Come see me tomorrow," Golden said, and hurried out to lunch. Next day the young man returned to find a gruff Golden glaring at him from behind his desk. "Sit down," he said. "I've been thinking about you. In the South of France you can live for $15 or $20 a week. And it's quiet there and restful. Here's a steamship ticket and $500, and now I've got to go out. So long."

All this happened some time ago. However, it hasn't been so many months since the young man walked into Golden's office and placed $500 on the desk, in cash. He doesn't want his name or his book mentioned, and so it is withheld. But he never could have scored a bullseye without a friend—heard from John Golden.

JOHN EDWARDS HOME—Joe Edwards returned home Thursday night after an extended stay in Fort Worth.

NEGRO EXECUTED—HUNTSVILLE, April 1 (AP)—A 25-year-old negro, Virgil Terrill, was electrocuted in state prison here early today for a criminal attack on a Kilgore woman.

TAKEN TO DETROIT—SAN ANGELO, April 1 (AP)—A 22-year-old man whose fingerprints tallied, Sheriff E. E. Lowe said, with those of a man wanted in connection with an extortion attempt on Henry Ford was enroute to Detroit today.

SOCIETY SEEKING CUSTODY OF STATE BLDG. AT DALLAS—DALLAS, April 1 (AP)—The Dallas Historical society is speeding negotiations with the city for the custodianship of the Hall of State building on the state fair grounds.

TEXAS CHOIR IN ST. LOUIS PROGRAM—ST. LOUIS, April 1 (AP)—The Texas College of Arts and Industries A Cappella choir shared the spotlight with the "All-American" national high school orchestra on last night's program at the music directors national conference.

TEXAS CHOIR IN ST. LOUIS PROGRAM—The Kingsville group, under the directorship of Paul Riley, sang individual numbers and took part in the festival circus with group supporters of the Townsend plan.

Man About Manhattan

Man About Manhattan by GEORGE TUCKER

NEW YORK—Milton Shubert and John Golden will not thank me for airing these private little diodes of theirs. But I am convinced they should be told because (a) they denote unselfishness, which is alien to Broadway, (b) they concern sums of money advanced which the men never expected to get back, and (c) they are about free men and free souls, who are not subservient to the almighty dollar.

Shubert is a producer through which much of Broadway's entertainment is distilled. He gets from 30 to 40 plays a week. Most of them are heaved into the wastebasket, which is another way of saying they are returned to their owners, but occasionally he likes one well enough to risk a bankroll.

Not long ago a manuscript bobbed up that attracted his attention. It was not a good script; mechanically, it was much awry. But he liked the way the author wrote, and he decided the fellow needed more than anything else to familiarize himself with the theater.

The Boxwood Barrier

Chapter 18

"A MAN WITH SPUNK" In resentful surliness Reuben's hands tightened on the wheel. After all the years—lean years and fat years—was letting him down! Incredible! Out of all the world Clem was the one person whom he believed he could count on. Now—Surely Clem understood that a man must select his own wife. Must choose his own path—And again like a goat tottering faintly and from afar he heard Judith saying: "If I had to leave this valley—"

And he had dreamed of marrying another Biblical Ruth! "Whither thou goest—" Clem, making a ceremony of cleaning and putting away his pipe, glanced surreptitiously at the lean, serious face of the younger man, with rebellion and frustration in his eyes. What good was money? "The only thing in the world Clem and Reuben wanted and I can't buy him or bribe him!"

Grim satisfaction in that thought in spite of a rising anger. If he could buy or bribe Reuben, he wouldn't want him for Clasy. Well, let the young ass go ahead! Let him go the limit! Then when he came crawling back—

In stubborn mood Clem and Reuben arrived at the gates of Goodloe's Choice, just as Judith, mounted on Winona, came out. The temperamental animal pretended to be afraid of the shining automobile. She staged a grand act. She danced and pranced all over the road. She reared on her hind legs. She pawed with her front feet. She dilated her thin nostrils. Judith let her go through all her stunts. She even encouraged her a little. She gave a fine exhibition of horsemanship. Reuben watched fearfully. Clem with delighted fascination.

"Whoops, whoops and a couple of hoopias!" he exclaimed when Winona at last drew quite close to the machine she had pretended to fear. "That's the best act I've ever seen outside of a circus. Don't know as I've ever seen a better in one. You're Reuben's girl, I take it?" Judith still busy with Winona's bridle nodded her assent.

"Well, by cracky if you're going to manage your husband like you do your horse Reuben's going to sympathize." Judith laughed gayly: "Sh-bat! deliciously confidential. Let's keep him thinking he has all the luck."

"Maybe he has at that." "Isn't it appalling?" "This is Clem Rogers, Judith," Reuben made a belated introduction. "The man who gave me my start."

"But who won't be in the finish," Clem thought dourly. He said: "Pleased to meet you, ma'am." Judith leaned from her saddle to take Clem's hand.

"You've been a good friend." She smiled her own peculiarly friendly smile. "The very best friend Reuben ever had."

Clem felt before her charm almost without a struggle. "I'm afraid I was hooked by a cold-blooded dame," he confessed sheepishly.

"You don't know the half of it, Mr. Rogers." "Neither do you, ma'am," Clem chuckled.

"He means," Reuben explained quickly, not knowing what Clem would say next, "that I'm poorer than I was yesterday."

"And he'll be poorer tomorrow," Clem further enlightened Judith, watching her as a cat does a mouse, "and poorer still the day after that."

Deep in the role she had set herself to play, Judith said with just the right shade of concern: "Isn't it appalling the way money is made and lost?"

"You said it, ma'am. It's harder to make than to lose these days." "I'm sure of it."

"It doesn't frighten you?" "No, I've been poor all my life. I'm afraid I wouldn't know how to act natural under any other circumstances." Her eyes were honest. Her confidence disarming.

"Come on in and meet Gram." She turned back to the gates. Clem and Reuben, who had been in good mood, talked with Clem about prospecting oil, wheat and whatnot while Reuben had a fragrant goodby kiss from Judith.

"Don't worry, sweet." Laughter rippled over Judith's red lips—"You don't know the Goodloes if you think they worry."

Judith thanked the old Clem rather a dear. He told her how Reuben had looked on the day he helped to reload the cabbage. "Cold and thin as a starved rat, with freckles all over his face and no shoes on his feet."

She glanced at Reuben, sartorially perfect, talking with Jim, and felt the inexplicable pity she so often felt when she looked at him. This old Clem knew they were all cheating Reuben—preying on him like buzzards—

"He's a fighter, ma'am," Clem bragged. "He wasn't beat that day and I've never seen him beat since."

"I believe you." "And I'm never gonna see him beat unless," Clem turned keen green eyes, not unlike his daughter's eyes, full upon her, "he runs awful of something he can't hit back at."

"Y-yes." But she did not quite see. She only knew that Clasy's father was appraising her. That he was afraid she was the somebody who would rob Reuben of his power to fight. Of his power to win. "You're getting a man with spunk, ma'am, and honesty. Can you match those traits?" Her blue eyes did not waver. "I think so," proudly. "What do you think?" "I'm not thinking. I'm hoping everything is going to turn out swell and I wish you luck."

"Thank you," Judith made a quick decision: "I'm asking Clasy to be maid of honor." "Well now—Clasy will be tickled to death." But Clem was more tickled than Clasy would be. He didn't give a boot for place and honor for himself but he wanted his girl to strut with the best. He left Goodloe's Choice well pleased and secretly a bit overwhelmed. "Not that I ain't seen grander places," he confided to Reuben. "But when it comes to class—tone—boy, I reckon you're marrying it!" Reuben, his hands tense upon the wheel, his eyes upon the road, his thoughts roaming far, did not answer.

Clem, craning his neck for a last look at gardens, meadows, hedges, said: "There's nearly a half a million dollar lay-out here. Gosh—unless there's a miracle you're gonna have a heck of a time living up to it!" (Copyright, 1938, Blanche Smith Ferguson)
