Border Town Days swing into action

The Border Town Days Committee met Monday to finalize plans for this year's big event.

Cynthia Thigpen reported that Santa Fe Railroad officials will again try to stop the trains for the parade, but cannot make any guarantees.

Also, a ceremony featuring the burying of the time capsule will be at LTD. July 1 is the deadline for folks to bring items to City Hall to be placed in it.

Margie Watkins reported that 16 of the participants in the Clovis Pioneer Days parade have signified that they also would like to be in the Border Town Days parade. Groups that enter the Clovis parade fill out a sheet which includes checking a box if they wish to be at LTD. This is a record number for LTD.

The final committee meeting before LTD will be July 11.

Farwell's 100th birthday will be the theme of the 39th annual Border Town Days to be held on Saturday, July 30.

As always, the parade will begin at 11 a.m. cdt, followed by the Day in the Park activities, highlighted by the Texico-Farwell Rotary Club's BBQ dinner.

The arts and crafts show will again feature homemade and commercial vendors.

Here's a rundown on how the day looks:

Concessions: Cynthia Thigpen is taking reservations for concessions at the Day in the Park. She can be contacted at Farwell City Hall, 481-3620. Signed up so far have

Hailey's on 'Fire'

by Danielle Cargile

Farwell has had a local name in the twin-city gossip lately. How did you guess? Of course, it's Hailey Grimes.

Hailey has had quite a year. She has already played a part in a still-unreleased major motion picture and is now adding another acting job to her resume.

Last December, Hailey started filming on a new show in Albuquerque; not too far from home for an aspiring actress.

"Wildfire," this new series, is about a girl who falls into trouble and is placed in a juvenile detention center. For her good behavior, she is released and begins to work with horses at a farm where she learns to love a horse, believe in herself, and fall in love.

"Wildfire" debuts on ABC-TV Family channel on June 20 at 7 p.m.

Hailey took the role of "Kolwalski" in this first episode. She portrays a rebel teenager who was also placed in the detention center alongside the main character. When asked what her character's role did, Hailey said, "Basically Kolwalski was the girl everyone was afraid of."

This role comprised of few lines, but she did a lot of acting; she is the "mean girl" who glared and casts dirty looks at the main character. This part might not have been that big, but it sure does have a big presence in this first episode.

The series shows the life of the main character after being released from the juvenile detention center, so Hailey doesn't exactly know if her character will be reappearing in "Wildfire." However, she was told that flashbacks in

All-State

Farwell High's Tate Nichols has been named to the basketball All-State Team by Texas Basketball Magazine.

A hole in one wins you...

The 3rd annual Farwell Chamber of Commerce golf tourney has had some special attractions added this year.

The fund-raising tourney will be June 11 at the Farwell Country Club with a shotgun start at 8:30 a.m.

The original special attraction was that a hole in one on No. 2 gets you $10,000.

Chamber President Ronald Byrd said other highlights now include:

-- A hole in one on No. 7 wins you a Callaway Big Bertha driver or a set of Callaway irons.

-- A hole in one on No. 9 wins you a premium electronic package.

-- A hole in one on No. 16 wins you two airplane tickets good for a flight anywhere in the continental U.S. or tickets for two persons to take an 8-day ship cruise.

The fee for the 2-person, 18-hole scramble is $100 per team, with cart included.

It's limited to 32 teams, which will be flighted by lowest handicap.

A free hamburger cookout follows the tourney.

Proceeds go to the Chamber's scholarship fund.

To enter, call the country club at 481-9210 or Byrd at 481-3846.

Cut in half

A train plowed right through the middle of an empty cattle truck at the crossing adjacent to DeBruce Ag Services just east of Farwell in the early afternoon of June 2. The driver was reportedly unhurt.

Obituaries

E.C. Kelley

Services for E.C. "Shorty" Kelley, 82, of Phoenix, were held June 8 at the First Baptist Church of Earth with Revs. Ron Kelley and Jeff Huckeby officiating.

Burial was in Sunset Memorial Terrace Cemetery in Farwell. Parsons-Ellis Funeral Home handled the arrangements.

He died June 1 in Phoenix. He was born Nov. 6, 1922, in Eldorado, Okla., to John and Clara Kelley.

He married Jennie Guy in Quannah May 10, 1946. She died April 15, 1996.

He also was preceded in death by his parents, 3 sisters and 6 brothers.

He was a World War II Army veteran serving in the European campaign, including Sicily, Italy, France and Central Europe, winning a American Defense Service Ribbon, EAME Service Ribbon with Silver Star and one Bronze Service Star. He was wounded Nov. 25, 1944.

A former Earth resident, he was a member of the First Baptist Church and Volunteer Fire Department. He coached Little League and Pony League baseball. He also lived in Farwell for many years. He served on the Earth City Council for many years and two terms as mayor.

Surviving are 3 sons, Randal, of Farwell; Kevin, of Plainview, and Kyle, of Phoenix; a daughter, Carolyn Bennett, of Surprise, Ariz.; a brother, Francis, of Olton; 11 grandchildren and 14 great-grandchildren.

Memorials may be made to the American Cancer Society or the Earth Volunteer Fire Department.

Gregory gets project award

Gage Gregory of Farwell has been named one of 54 undergraduate students at Oklahoma State University to receive a $4,000 Lew Wentz Foundation Project Award for 2005-06.

The title of his project will be "Variation in dessication tolerance among red-eared slider turtle populations," and he will be working with faculty mentor Dr. Matthew B. Lovern, assistant professor of zoology.

Gregory is a senior majoring in biological sciences, and he is the son of Larry and Robin Gregory of Farwell.

Hailey

the show were possible so she should be sure to come back in case she's needed.

So, what happened with the movie "Believe in Me" that got Hailey going in show biz?

Well, she reported that several major filmmaking companies are now looking at it. Warner Brothers, Disney, and several others are pushing their top bids for this popular movie. If it is picked up soon, the movie will possibly be released next summer.

"Believe in Me" did go to a film festival last April and received awesome reviews. Her excitement is very evident when she talks about her movie. "Everyone thought it was great!" she said.

With the support of an agent, her community, and her family and friends, the future for this talented actress looks promising. She does plan to go to college and hopefully become a teacher and a coach, but acting clearly is her first love.

When asked if she planned to keep on acting, she replied, "Yes! I'm way too dramatic not to!"

Right now, she is waiting for a phone call from her agent. She is not currently on any acting calls, but she is enjoying her summer at home in Farwell.

She is coaching the Lady Blue in this year's summer league, working in Clovis, and most of all, having fun and enjoying her time off from acting.

You know, it is amazing what people can do from such small communities. Hailey is a young woman who has achieved more things than most people ever will in their entire lifetime. She has already starred in a major motion picture and is now able to say that she's appeared on a big television show.

LIVE CATTLE: Cattle prices should have seen a short term bottom this week and cash should begin to move higher into next week. Cash trade was lower this week, but higher than expected at $86. Normally kills top around this time frame and begin to shrink into the Summer. Long term tops are expected to come between mid July and early August.

FEEDER CATTLE: Although there are some reports that cash prices were softer last week, the futures prices should make an attempt to rally with Live Cattle prices over the next week or so before finding another short term top. Odds are good that feeders will begin to close the historically wide spread between fed cattle over the next couple of months.

CORN: Weather, weather and weather has created a volatile market over the last couple of weeks. Technically, December corn will need a close over $2.50 in order to move up into the $2.65 - 2.80 price range. The market is changing daily to whatever forecasts are in the news. June is the critical month even though most crops are within the 5-year average at this time.

SOYBEANS: The market opened sharply lower on Tuesday morning following the USDA announcement that production estimates would be raised above the 3 billion bushel mark. World supplies are now expected to be more than ample. The market could not rebound like wheat and corn.

WHEAT: Although the market opened lower after the USDA report on Tuesday, prices were able to rebound and close sharply higher on the day. Short term trends turned higher on Tuesday and the market stopped at about a 50% retracement level on Friday at $3.20. Many analysts believe that we may have seen the largest ending world stocks number for the remainder of the year.

COTTON: The market broke some important support levels at 46 cents on Tuesday after the USDA raised production estimates to over 21.5 million bales. Although the market was expected to close at limit down that day, prices were able to rebound and move higher over the next couple of days. Friday's close was weak, but above $48.75 would turn the market back higher.

 -- Parmer County Crime Stoppers, silent celebrity auction.

-- Farwell Convalescent Center Auxiliary, baked goods.

Parade: Ruth Anne Bennett, Margie Watkins and Cynthia Reynolds are in charge of the parade. Ruth Anne can be called at 825-3822; Margie at 481-9097.

The parade theme is Farwell's 100th anniversary. Cash prizes are given the top four floats -- $75, $50, $35 and $25. The deadline for signups is Friday, July 22. After that date, you can sign up by calling BTD chairman Mike Pomper at the Tribune, 481-3681, but you will be placed at the end of the parade and not be eligible for cash prizes.

Early signups include the Farwell Class of 1955, the Farwell Class of 1965, the Clovis Fire Department honor guard, the Farwell

Marching Band, the Farwell High School drill team, the Rodeo Queens from Texico, and a float featuring Texico football players who have played for Coach Mike Prokop. The float is sponsored by the Texico Booster Club and will be in the parade behind the car with Prokop, this year's Honorary Parade Marshal.

Basketball and volleyball tournaments: The BTD committee would love to have some folks run small tournaments. If you are interested in taking on either job, call Pomper at the Tribune.

Entertainment: If you would like to sing at the gazebo during the Day in the Prak activities, call Pomper at 481-3681. The lineup is filling up quickly. Scheduled to perform so far are Allie Brooks, the Thumbtack Kids (Hayden Hadley and Coby Carter), Lupe Vidaurri, and the Ancira Band.

Decorated Bicycle Contest: Linda Moss and Joy Stanton head this event. Signups will be underway in July at the State Line Tribune, 404 3rd St, Farwell. Again, the theme is Farwell's 100th anniversary. The top champions will receive special prizes -- brand-new bicycles donated by Tedson Trailers, of Texico, (for boys) and Master

Tech, of Texico, (for girls).

Arts & Crafts: Lynne Mahaney, the Farwell postmaster, is in charge of this event. As stated, it's open to both homemade and commercial vendors. Folks wishing to sign up for a booth are asked to call her at 481-3601 or write her at P.O. Box 471, Farwell, TX 79325. Several crafts people already have signed up.

Giveaways: So far, two giveaways have been scheduled.

- The Texico Volunteer Fire Department is selling tickets for a Weber LP gas grill and box of ribeye steaks. Tickets cost $5 each or 5 for $20. They are available at Farwell Hardware, Citizens Bank's Texico branch, Texico City Hall or any Texico firefighter.

- The BTD Committee awards $50 in cash to the person who bought a BTD button (you must be present to win) and whose name is picked.

Buttons: Rob Pomper is handling the button sales. The buttons are being made by Doug and Susan Scioli, of Texico. Four hundred are numbered on the back. They will be sold for $2 apiece as the chief fund-raiser to cover BTD expenses. A number will be picked at the conclusion of BTD activities and if the person is present, he will win $50 cash. Buttons will be placed at local businesses in July.

Merchants Giveaway: Folks will be able to sign up at participating merchants for dozens of free prizes to be given away at BTD. You must be present to win, and must be at least 12 years old to enter. Jerry Adams, J'Dan Sudderth and Debbie Parmer head up this project. Boxes will be put out at local businesses in mid-July.

Antique Cars & Tractors: Ruth Anne Bennett and Margie Watkins are in charge. Persons wishing to have their vehicles in the parade, are asked to contact either lady. In both categories, cash prizes are given for judge's choice, distance furthest traveled, and oldest.

Reunions: So far, two class reunions have been announced:

- Farwell Class of 1955
- Farwell Class of 1965

Park activities: Rocky Horton, of Texico, will bring his train to offer rides for kiddies around the park. There also will be a mobile dairy classroom and dunking booth, sponsored by the Parmer County 4-H. Fritz Freimel, of Farwell, will bring his carnival rides.

Also, a time capsule will be buried in Farwell City Park to commemorate the anniversary. It won't be opened for 50 years. Any Farwell residents who would like an item buried in the time capsule are asked to bring them (no bigger than a cigar box) to Farwell City Hall by July 1.

FHS honor rolls listed

The Farwell High School 6th six weeks honor rolls:
 All A's - Danielle Cargile, Micah Christian, Yvonne Favila, Leona Gonzales, Sarah Herington, Melissa Howard, Jourdan Kirkland, China Lane, Ashlie Martin.

It's a Boy

Mr. and Mrs. Drew Sours, of Amarillo, announce the birth of a son, Jaxan Brandt.

He was born May 22 and weighed 9 lbs. and was 20" long.

He has two sisters, Devanne, 10, and Saylor, 2. Grandparents are Charles and Mary Sours, of Forrest, and George and Mary Hill, of Texico.

Basketball camp slated

Bovina Coach Shannon Shorter will run a basketball camp June 20-24 at the high school gym for area 2nd to 8th graders; and June 21-25 for area high school players.

Cost is $15. Deadline for signing up is June 16. Call 251-2338.

Special guest will be Southern Nazarene College Coach Morris Wilson.

Texico girls are rodeo royalty

Three of the four Clovis Pioneer Days Royalty are Texico students.

Lacy Price, daughter of Jeff and Diane Queener, was crowned Pioneer Days Rodeo Queen last week, then won the title of Miss Rodeo New Mexico Teen crown. She will be representing Curry County at the New Mexico State Fair in September.

Holly Harrison, another Texico student, was also the winner of a crown last week. She is the daughter of Doug and Lisa Harrison, and the granddaughter of Walter and Sharon Hughes of Farwell, and Paul and Lucy Harrison of Texico. Holly was crowned Pioneer Days Rodeo Princess 2005.

Audrey Wren was crowned Little Buckaroo Rodeo Princess. Audrey is the daughter of Rodney and Brenda Wren of Texico. Audrey will be a

Danielle reminisces about school

Hi, I'm Danielle. Meet your new summer intern for the State Line Tribune.

Some of you might know me, others, maybe not. I guess the best way to tell you a little bit about myself is to start with the basics.

My father is Wade Cargile (I hear he's pretty popular around these parts) and my mother is Cindy, who teaches kindergarten at Farwell. My parents, two sisters -- Leslie and Tara, and I have lived in or around Farwell for about 16 years. I am a 2005 graduate of Farwell High, just fixin' to step out into the world all on my lonesome.

Starting in August, I will be attending Abilene Christian University with a major of ... you guessed it, undecided. All through school, students are pressured to decide on what they want to be, but in my case, I just can't make up my mind. Female prerogative.

Is it biology? Physical therapy? Business? So, after much wasted time of trying to decide what to do, it came to me that I should explore my options. I should take a variety of classes and see what interests me. Whatever the choice may be, all I want is to be happy and live a good life.

I have been at Farwell schools from kindergarten on up, not missing a beat. And the experiences! Wow! Like, saving the embarrassment of when and when not to answer a question you're not really sure about, or to not necessarily sit in the back of the class to avoid getting picked on by the teacher.

Ah, the memories... There were those end-of-school year parties at the Nichols' house where we ate numerous hot dogs and drank endless Cokes, teamed up boys against girls to play tag, and almost always had some boy get too rough and go home with a bloody nose (wimps).

Then sleeping over at your best friends' houses where us girls would gossip about what boy they liked that week, do each other's makeup, and always stay up past our 9 o'clock bedtime.

Who could ever forget Mrs. Gregory's fourth grade class? As one of the most fun teachers I ever had, we did art project after art project like drawing bats in crayon at Halloween and sang songs like "My Country 'Tis of Thee" to her piano playing every morning.

These good things stick out clearly in my mind; however, the past years have also had those embarrassing moments that seem to haunt you. Falling asleep first at the slumber party and getting shaving creamed, falling into a huge water puddle in front of the whole school, or tripping over your shoelace in the hall between classes are memories best forgotten.

Okay, you got me; I actually did all of these things, but who hasn't?

And where would I be without Ms. Merritt's helpful writing tips like to always use colorful action verbs or Coach Boyd encouraging me in basketball as well as in life to live each day as if it were your last? Not where I am today.

So, what happens from here? What road do I take? The horizon is bright and who knows where it will lead?

Life is full of unexpected twists and turns, and I'm looking forward to every one of them.

Folks, there is a special event this weekend that I hope you can participate in. The Farwell Chamber of Commerce will have its 3rd annual golf tournament. Funds from this tourney are used to award scholarships to deserving Farwell High School seniors. The 2-person, 18-hole scramble starts at 8:30 a.m. and full details are listed elsewhere in today's Tribune. But what is really neat is that you have four shots at a hole-in-one, and the prizes are simply great. This is for a good cause ... and we hope you golfers will participate.

Mark the 4th of July on your calendars now. There will be special events in Bovina, Friona and Muleshoe that day. More on that later...

The pool and the lifeguards

This is the story of the pool and the 5 lifeguards. Here is the way it was told to me last week:

The New Mexico state environmental folks were in the area checking on swimming pools recently, and the Play Inc. pool in Clovis was on their list.

The checked things out and told Play Inc. that this was needed (unless they get a state waiver):

Since the pool can hold up to 175 swimmers, 5 lifeguards (that's right, 5), must be on duty at all times the pool is open.

But what happens if there is only one swimmer. No problem -- 1 lifeguard must be in the pool and the other 4 can be in the office.

And if 2 swimmers are in different ends of the pool?

Then 2 lifeguards must be in the pool and the other 3 can be in the office.

But if 1 of the 2 joins the other swimmer, then 1 of the lifeguards can join the other 3 in the office.

However, if that swimmer then goes into the other end, then 1 of the lifeguards must shoot out of the office and back into the pool. Got that?

 A guest column by Danielle Cargile:

Summer is a time to relax, a time to let go of all of your troubles and take in a deep breath. Yet, so many of us find that summer is when we can get all the things done that we put off through the winter and spring.

Like, instead of taking a vacation or simply a walk, we find ourselves rushing to pay that bill or pick up the kids from the sitters.

So, what do I do to take my mind off of all this chaos? I read a book.

Books, to me, have always been a great way of escape; being able to travel to a world different from the headaches of my own mind and live the lives of awesome characters.

Reading is, of course, the absolute perfect way to get away from all your mess and confusion. Sitting down in a quiet spot, having a glass of tea and reading is like a little vacation of my own. If you really think about it, I am taking somewhat of a trip. A trip to a place where I've never been before filled with people I've never seen and things I've never done.

And ... there are so many different types of books. How does one choose? Well, try them all! No one can tell you that you have to read a certain type of book. Read what interests you and have fun with it.

I, personally, love the comedies. Like the Janet Evanovich series. She writes great books that are filled with funny situations. All eight I read (now there are 11!) were hilarious and I have to say that I did laugh out loud, but don't tell. Shhhh...

Oh! And the mysteries. I love to stay up all night reading a book because I'm too scared to put it down. Mary Higgins Clark gives me the chill-bumps when I read any one of her stories.

Now it might sound silly as an 18-year-old, but I absolutely love the Harry Potter series. Filled with humor and mystery, these books have put a "spell" on me.

I also like the mellower stories as well. My favorite book (as of now) is "White Oleander" by Janet Fitch. It's a book about a young teenage girl traveling from home to home as a foster child.

You know, the great thing about books is that they help readers to understand what life is like outside of their own. By reading "White Oleander," I now realize how hard it is for children who have no home of their own.

One thing about this mini-vacation is that you don't have to spend a dime to make it all worthwhile. Go to the library and just wander the shelves. Look for something that sticks out and catches your eye. Whatever type of book it is, there is something there for everyone.

So, this summer, take a breath and read a good book. It helps pass the time and helps give you an access out of your life into the life of someone else's.

Catch!

Farwell Elementary Schools on May 19 enjoyed lots of nutrition and recreational exercises as part of the health program called "Catch" -- Coordinated Approach to Child Health, instituted by school nurse LuAnn Fillpot.

County home values increase

Parmer County Chief Appraiser Curby Brantley reports that home values throughout the county are up between 5 and 15 percent.

He bases values on the price of home sales.

And home prices are increasing not just in Parmer County but throughout the state, he added.

And Brantley expects those values to continue to rise next year, based on sales in the first quarter of this year.

"We have to stay within the market value on homes," he said.

Brantley also said that values for irrigated crop land is down slightly, while values for dryland are up slightly. He said the difference monetarily is not noticeable.

Courthouse Notes

The Parmer County clerk's office recorded these warranty deeds last week:

Garland Buske II - Miguel Lopez, L8 B3 McMillen and Fergus.

Letter to the Editor

Dear Mike,
There is never anything said about a certain work crew that I would like to mention. We have such an awesome crew that keeps our cemetery looking so nice. Not only was it beautiful for the Memorial Day holiday, but they keep it looking nice throughout the year.

So our hats are off to the nice work that is done at our cemetery. Thanks, guys.

James and Dolores Williams, Farwell

Vandiver: Some crops slow to emerge

From Monti Vandiver, Parmer County extension agent-IPM:

Spring seeded crops have been slow to emerge. Some of the early-planted cotton has already been replanted and some others are currently being evaluated. Seed quality, environmental conditions, and production systems all appeared to have played a roll in poor emergence.

When adverse conditions result in poor emergence, replanting may be necessary. Decisions regarding replanting should be based on objective evaluations of the existing stand, stand uniformity, condition of emerged plants, calendar date, and the costs associated with replanting.

Cut-off dates for planting cotton usually coincide with the last practical date for planting without incurring significant reductions in yield potential. In addition to lower yield potentials, later planting often results in reduced fiber quality, delayed harvest, and increased harvesting costs.

Eunice Crume penned the following poem in honor of Flag Day, June 14:

Old Glory

That magnificent banner waving on high
The "Stars and Stripes" against the sky
Is more than a banner of cloth to me
It represents our country, strong and free.

When I look upon the flag, I see
The men who fought to make us free.
Washington, Grant and other brave men
Who loved our country and fought to win.

When I look at the flag I also see
A wonderful land for you and me.
The majestic mountains and canyons grand,
The rolling prairies and rich farm land.

The red is for valor of our brave men
Who fought in battles our country to defend.
The red of a sunset at the close of day
Poppies growing in Flanders far away.

The blue is for loyalty, the color of skies,
The ocean, blue lakes and blueberry pies.
White is for purity, church spires and snow,
Fluffy white clouds, and daisies that grow.

My flag! Old Glory, I see in you
A place where dreams do come true.
A symbol of freedom, love and liberty,
Yes, you mean all this and more to me.

Saluting the DAIRY INDUSTRY

JUNE IS DAIRY MONTH

Holstein milk cow

Jersey milk cow

by Teresa Mesman

June celebrates National Dairy Month and it's fitting that an entire month be tagged to commemorate the many facets of this thriving and growing industry.

In the old days, people would hardly call milking cows "a big business." But doing such twice a day was often the most begrudgingly done chore on the family farm. Milking cows evokes vivid memories of cold mornings, spilled milk buckets and sore hands and knees from when "Bessie" would kick.

Milk cows were a necessity and rarely looked at as a prime source of income. They provided milk to drink and cook with, and cream to churn for butter.

Through the years, milking cows has taken on a dramatic change. Automation and high tech have replaced the milk stool and bucket. Herringbone milk parlors equipped with automatic milking machines have since become the standard. Sixteen to 20 cows milked at a time have become the minimum numbers, while 32 or 48 cows at a time have become the standard. The milking barns of today are gleaming examples of concrete, stainless steel and hydraulic engineering.

Marketing milk and other dairy products have also become a science of sorts. Milk co-ops aggressively seek processing opportunities and selling points to distribute dairy products. Milk, cheese and ice cream have become three of the most competitively marketed products in the food business. Each product has had to find its own niche in the particular markets they are sold in. Milk is no longer just "milk." It must compete as a drink, a staple in the food pyramid and as a wholesome, healthy product that is multi-marketed as a whole, low-fat and skim milk. Cheese enters into these arenas, also.

And what about the folks who choose to earn their living by dairy farming? The majority of American dairy farms are owned and operated by families that have generations or experience in the field. The dairy farms in this area are a prime example. But there are some farms that are operated as privately and publicly owned corporations.

This region has seen a growth boom in the last several years that is continuing. It's phenomenal. We have gone from a handful of medium-sized dairies to a virtual dairy capitol. The largest influx has been from California dairymen leaving the tight confines of an over-populated state to an area of vast land and opportunity for growth.

And grow they have. The standard size of most new dairies being built in the area is of the size to milk 1,200 to 2,400 cows; not to mention including the space to pen and house calves and heifers. The small family farm has become a major industry.

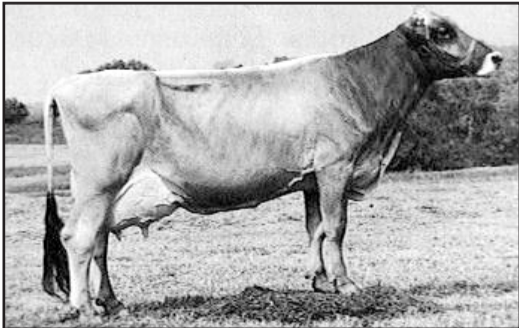

The dairy industry has had to go with the flow of change in recent years. The government has put many restrictions and requests on dairies in the areas of waste management, use of medications and antibiotics, importing and exporting policies, and participation in the commodity programs.

The industry was at one time more competitive among the milk cooperatives than it is at the present. The co-ops have banded together in order to have their far and profitable marketing of dairy products and government cooperation. The formation of the National Milk Producers Federation has been a huge step in the advancement of milk regulating and marketing. Individual co-ops have also stepped up their efforts to deal with the federal and state governments on an individual basis.

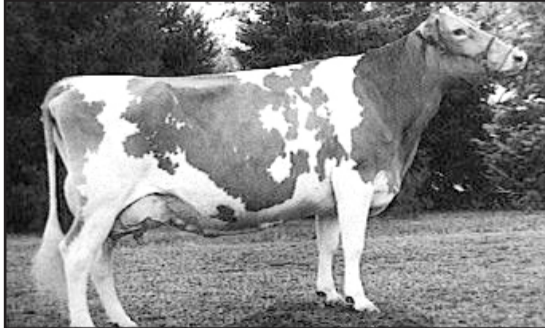

Many area businesses have been given new opportunities and growth due to the dairy industry. Witness how the new cheese plant is impacting on our area. Sales of feed products, heavy-duty trucks and feed wagons, and much more have been at an all-time high. Area dairymen have found solid, friendly foundations in the area businesses that support the dairy industry.

Area dairies work hard at their industry and are proud of their achievements. A typical day for many is to be up at sunrise and down "at some time after everything is done." That's if no calves have to be pulled or milk pumps go out. Rewards are not just financial in this industry.

It's a fitting time to salute this industry and the hard-working folks who keep it going. In a day and age of getting something for nothing, it's refreshing to commend such a fine group of farmers and businesses for proving that hard work and determination can pay off and be rewarding to all those involved.

Brown Swiss milk cow

Guernsey milk cow

Did you know?

- One cow can give 200,000 glasses of milk in a lifetime.
- 1/3 of all ice cream sold in vanilla.
- Dried milk was used as far back as the 13th century – by Genghis Khan's cavalry. The Mongol soldiers dried milk to a powder in the sun to preserve it. Then, each day they put some of the powder in a water bottle hung on their horses' saddles. The horses' jogging acted like a whisk, turning the mixture into a thin porridge by nightfall.

Citywide cleanup set

The Bovina Chamber of Commerce and City of Bovina are planning a citywide cleanup day on Saturday, June 25.

The Chamber will be hiring youths to take junked items off folks' property to the city dump that day, such as old appliances, dead trees, etc.

The Chamber also is offering to have youths mow and edge folks' property in some cases, such as for disabled persons.

The Chamber will provide pick-ups with a flatbed trailer to respond to calls to help haul items to the roll-off boxes for people who cannot do that themselves.

Meanwhile, city employees will be sweeping the streets, mowing areas, and assisting in trash hauling to the dump.

To sign up for assistance, call City Hall at 251-1116. City employees are awaiting your calls.

Bovina Banter

Tammy Knoll - 251-1333

A water main in back of the Radford Venable home busted on June 1, causing a water outage for about a third of the town for 2 to 3 hours.

City Manager Ernest Terry gave out medals last week to folks who did a great job getting the ball field in great shape this year: Cesar Marquez, Andy Garza and Jerry Rocha.

Earlier, Stan Miller had been given a plaque by the city for his assistance.

On May 29, a fire struck the James Clayton barn. A tractor and a lot of hay were the main casualties.

Firefighters were at the scene from 8 p.m. to 5 a.m. A couple of firemen stayed in the Get ready for a super Fourth of July in Bovina!

The Chamber of Commerce has been working hard on planning this year's big event, and there will lots of fun activities for folks, reports Chamber President Mindy Neal.

The day opens with the annual parade at 10:30 a.m. starting at North Street and 3rd Street and finishing at the football field. As always, C.E. Trimble will start it off. For entry information, call John or Jo Blackwell, 238-1170 or 250-3922.

Then a Barbeque Dinner will be served starting at 11:30 a.m. at the high school gym. The cost is $3 per plate.

A dessert contest will be held. Bring your entries to the high school gym at 9:30 a.m. for judging on July 4. Prizes will be awarded for 1st, 2nd and 3rd places.

A 3 on 3 basketball tourney will be held. Contact Coach Shannon Short for sign-up information -- 251-2338.

If you would like to set up a booth at the park, contact Mindy Neal at 251-1300. Events include a duck pond, rubber band shooting, fire department gains, train and water games. A volleyball court will be set up.

Fritz Friemel will bring his carnival rides.

Then at night, the Bovina Volunteer Fire Department will have free hamburgers and watermelon at the football field concession stand. And at dusk comes the big fireworks display -- which will feature 25 percent more fireworks than last year.

The reason for the fireworks expansion is due to getting four sponsors -- the City of Bovina, the Bovina Chamber of Commerce, the Bovina Volunteer Fire Department and Valor Telephone.

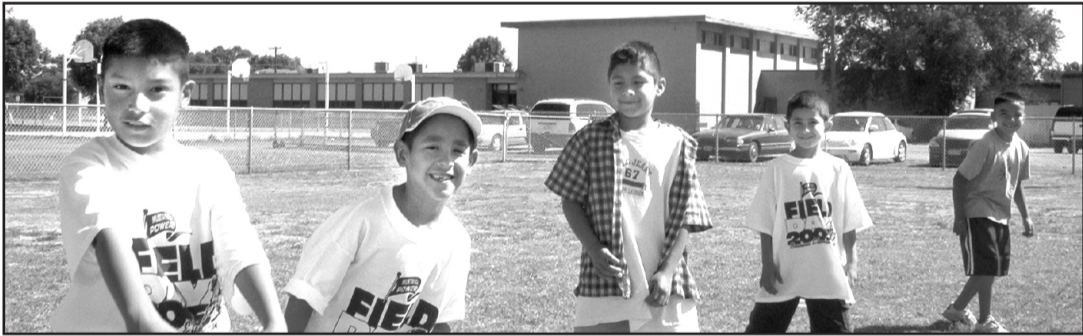

It's all about planning

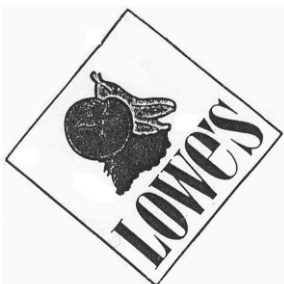

The City of Bovina does an excellent job in keeping track of its Capital Improvement Plan, showing how money is set aside for major expenditures.

Here's a look at the plan from 2002 through 2005 -- what has been purchased; and from 2006 through 2014 -- what is anticipated.
