Kimmel Issued "War" Orders Before Nip Act

Halsey's Task Force Told To Sink Jap Ships It Sighted

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11. (AP)—Adm. Husband E. Kimmel gave "war orders" to Adm. William F. Halsey when the latter sailed with a task force from Pearl Harbor several days before the 1941 Japanese attack.

Under those orders, Halsey "armed everything and told them to sink every Japanese ship that they found."

Those statements by Kimmel were made available today to members of the Congressional Pearl Harbor committee in a volume of testimony given by the 63-year-old former commander of the Pacific fleet before three previous locked-door investigations. They were conducted by the Roberts commission and by Army and Navy inquiry boards.

Kimmel, who will give his first public testimony in the four year old military disaster next Tuesday, was disclosed in the bulky record to have made these assertions:

That while Pearl Harbor could not have been defended successfully, he would have given the Japanese "quite a party" if he had received additional warnings.

If he had had the information available in Washington, he would have sent the fleet to sea and been ready for any eventuality.

If the Army had informed him of the radar plot made on Japanese planes retiring from the attack, Navy searching units might have found the Japanese carriers.

He "accepted the situation" of keeping the fleet in Pearl Harbor, knowing that he had the alternative of quitting as his commander.

The Roberts commission charge that he was derelict in his duty was made on the "mistaken belief" that he had access to intercepted Japanese messages, when he did not.

He did not get the "proper answer" in evaluating a message from Washington that the Japanese consuls had been ordered to burn their codes.

Kimmel brought up the matter of the pre-war shooting orders issued by Halsey at the Navy inquiry.

The view that no completely successful defense of Pearl Harbor could have been made was expressed by Kimmel before the Army inquiry board in 1944.

Soldiers, Solons Calling On 'Ike'

Joint Meeting In Washington To Hear Chief

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11 (AP)—Disgruntled GI's overseas and equally concerned congressmen called today for "Ike" to speak out plainly on the army's trouble-harried demobilization program.

The great prestige which Gen. Eisenhower enjoys both with the Army rank and file as well as with Capitol Hill lawmakers evidently made them want to hear what he had to say as Chief of Staff.

Demonstrating GI's in Frankfurt, Germany, last night chanted "we want Ike." That was after they booed and hissed the name of Gen. Joseph T. McNarney, Eisenhower's successor as US commander in Germany.

Simultaneously on Capitol Hill talk grew of a joint meeting of Congress, possibly next Tuesday, to hear Eisenhower discuss the Army's demobilization slow-down order of last week, as well as the revised discharge policy now in preparation. A Senate Military subcommittee also was assigned to look into the picture.

Eisenhower, now on an official visit to Canada, is not due back until the first of next week.

Fresh evidence of War Department apprehension over the demobilization furor was reflected meanwhile in a speech by Under Secretary Royall last night at Roanoke, Va.

Royall deplored "American hysteria to get the boys home." This, he said, is "endangering our whole occupation policy."

Should the rapid withdrawal of overseas personnel continue, Royall went on, "America will lose its power to prevent the totalitarian elements in Germany and Japan from building again for another conquest."

The Congressional talk of hearing Eisenhower's opinions indicated that a joint meeting would like to listen to him next Tuesday in the Library of Congress, if present plans develop.

Otherwise, the Chief of Staff probably will be invited to testify before Senate or House Military committees, or both.

In Vienna, demobilization protests have led Gen. Mark W. Clark, commander of United States forces in Austria, to appoint a committee to institute a study of personnel records in an effort to find an answer to the problem.

Aircraft Engines Converted To Farms

DALLAS, Jan. 11. — Aircraft engines that once powered fighter planes and tanks are being converted to peacetime uses as power units for farms, industrial plants, and motor boats, under a development program being conducted by the Reconstruction Finance Corporation as part of its aircraft disposal activities.

Working with private industry under experimental engineering contracts, the RFC is seeking under this program to find new uses for surplus military aviation equipment that is unadaptable to civil flying and otherwise would have value only as scrap.

Three projects of this nature recently have reached a stage of development where a promise can be seen for the extensive use of aircraft engines for non-aviation purposes, and plans are now being drawn up by private companies to make the converted power units available commercially.

Pacific Marines Ordered Not To Stage Protests

HONOLULU, Jan. 11 (AP) United States Marines in the Pacific theater are under orders of their commanding general not to stage mass demonstrations such as other service groups have held in Korea, Japan, Hawaii, Guam and the Philippines to protest the current demobilization program.

In Manila, the staff of the Daily Pacifican, servicemen's newspaper, charged in a statement that "orders on high" prevented them from bringing "full news and the full truth to our GI readers."

The staff said it was prevented from publishing a list of Congressmen in response to servicemen's requests, and "denied even the right" to print news service dispatches "if they reflect any criticism of, or dissatisfaction with, the official policies of the War Department and our theater commanders."

On Oahu, a Marine meeting scheduled last night at Camp Catlin, adjacent to Pearl Harbor, was cancelled by order of Lt. Gen. Roy S. Geiger.

"It's traditional with the marines," explained Geiger's chief of staff, Brig. Gen. Mervin H. Silverthorn, "that men go to their commanders with their troubles, whether they are family affairs, a bellyache or anything else and we don't feel there is any occasion for meetings which are not a military formation that can be controlled."

Meanwhile, Lt. Gen. Robert C. Richardson, Jr., commander of army forces in the mid-Pacific, expressed gratification over the orderly manner in which soldiers of his command have held meetings in protest against the demobilization policies.

Richardson told the men last Tuesday that any expressions of opinion formally ratified at orderly meetings would be transmitted to General Eisenhower and General MacArthur.

The Honolulu edition of the Army newspaper, Stars and Stripes, which has carried outspoken comment on the current demobilization developments, reopened its columns today to soldier-written articles after a one day interruption prompted by its interpretation of a Richardson order. Richardson's directive was initially taken to mean the paper could not criticize army policies.

Hjalmar Schacht Goes To Bat — For Schacht

NUERNBERG, Germany, Jan. 11. (AP) — A Czech victim of the Dachau concentration camp testified today that five of the 22 top Nazi defendants on trial as war criminals visited the Dachau compound at a time when many of the most horrifying experiments on human beings were in progress.

The witness was Dr. Franz Blaha.

NUERNBERG, Germany, Jan. 11 (AP) — The American prosecution charged before the international military tribunal today that Germany's military successes were made possible only by the resourcefulness, financial ruthlessness and "absolute cynicism" of Dr. Hjalmar Schacht.

The one-time wizard of German finances is now on trial for his life with 21 other Nazi leaders. He heard an assistant US prosecutor, Naval Lt. Brady O. Bryson, cite a memorandum which Schacht wrote Hitler in 1939 as evidence of Schacht's complicity in the annexation of Austria and Czechoslovakia.

The memorandum hailed Germany's foreign policy as successful and pointed out to Hitler that Schacht's financial talents had re-armed German forces to the point which made the Nazi foreign policy possible.

Bits of testimony showed Schacht, although aiding in Germany's war effort, often declared himself out of sympathy with Nazi policies.

This was the first instance since the trial began in which any defendant has been pictured as anything but a completely ruthless criminal.

U. S. Might Take Hand In Telephone Strike

Pickets Taking Places Around Most Exchanges

NEW YORK, Jan. 11 (AP) America's vast long distance telephone system was crippled seriously by a strike today — except for emergency calls — and a labor department spokesman said the government might step in if a nationwide tie-up in telephone service developed.

In Washington, the spokesman, who requested that his name not be used, said government seizure of the telephone industry might be recommended.

Reversing an earlier decision to wait until Monday, installation workers threw picket lines around most of the major exchanges across the nation in the early dawn. In most cases, other telephone workers were not crossing those lines.

Supervisors and telephone company officials were attempting to maintain service, but could care for little more than the most urgent calls.

American Telephone and Telegraph company—the nation's top long distance facility—reported 12 of its 14 major traffic offices were picketed. The exceptions were Boston and Cincinnati. Those picketed, the company said, were Buffalo, Chicago, Cleveland, Detroit, Kansas City, Louisville, Memphis, Minneapolis, New York, Philadelphia, Pittsburgh and St. Louis.

In other cities long distance calls through A-T and T. are handled by toll operators or associated companies.

The telephone situation followed a strike Wednesday of 8,000 members of the Association of Communications Equipment Workers (Ind.) who install Western Electric equipment in Bell Telephone exchanges. They originally demanded a $6 a week pay increase, but later cut that to an undisclosed amount.

The union got the pledge of many other telephone union workers that they would not cross picket lines. In addition to long distance service, today's action also curtailed manual operations in many sections. Dial telephones were not affected, but will be when they need repairs. The union estimated dial systems will bog down in a week to 10 days.

One of the major areas not affected by the shutdown was New England, where the installation workers are not affiliated with the ACEW.

Seattle Bus Operators Go Out On Strike

SEATTLE, Jan. 11. (AP) — Seattle's 1,100 bus drivers officially went on strike at midnight leaving 500,000 fares — the average daily haul — flat on their feet.

SALT LAKE CITY, Jan. 11 (AP) — A strike vote will be taken among about 1,000 workers on the Union Pacific railroad from Salt Lake City westward, the chairman of three operating brotherhoods announced today.

Eight Cities Affected

Stevenson Says State May Help

By The Associated Press

Telephone exchanges in major Texas cities were picketed today (Friday) and service was curtailed, but Governor Coke R. Stevenson said if an emergency "such as a disaster" arose, workers could be found to man switchboards "and we would furnish them ample protection."

W. M. Wallis, vice president and Texas representative of the striking association of communications equipment workers, said in Fort Worth the picketing would continue until he heard personally from the national president.

Wallis said he would not call off pickets in Texas until Ernest Weaver, New York, ACEW president, asked him to do so.

Wallis said orderly picketing on an around-the-clock basis would continue in eight Texas cities.

Gov. Stevenson said in Austin that he believed workers could be found who could operate switchboards if an emergency should arise demanding the use of long distance telephone facilities by state agencies.

He referred to "such dire emergency as a disaster."

He said he had at his disposal the facilities of the State Department of Public Safety's short-wave radio station.

The department said also it had been assured its emergency calls would be handled by supervisory telephone company workers.

Dial systems continued to operate, but all calls necessitating operator assistance were halted unless they were of an emergency or priority nature.

Ike's Demobilization Plan Not To Effect Chinese Theater

SHANGHAI, Jan. 11 (AP) — A spokesman for Lt. Gen. Albert C. Wedemeyer, US commander in the China theater, said today that General Eisenhower's demobilization speedup program would not affect this theater.

Surplus low-point men in China already have been sent home, said the spokesman. Wedemeyer is in Chungking conferring with General Marshall.

"We have been criticized for sending low point men home while we retained many with higher points because of the essential nature of their work," the spokesman added.

"We will still send home the men we don't need, but since theater requirements now call for more men than we have, few can expect to be placed in surplus status."

Over $6000 Paid Out In Dairy Subsidies

Dairy subsidies amounting to $6,038.94 have been paid to 83 applicants since Jan. 1, the local AAA office announced today.

Products for which payments were made included 6,674 cwt. of whole milk at 70 cents per cwt., and 8,042 pounds of butterfat at 17 cents per pound.

Two checks to sheep producers also have been issued since the first of the year. They amount to $887.42.

Pay Hike Plan Is Considered

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11. (AP) — Union and company representatives studied today a proposal to end the 51 day-old General Motors strike with a 17 1-2 per cent pay increase.

They made no immediate commitment, but one White House labor adviser said it was significant neither side rejected the terms during preliminary discussions with aides of President Truman. These talks occurred soon after the recommendation was taken to the Chief Executive by his fact-finding panel yesterday.

Officials of the United Automobile Workers will consider the proposal Sunday at a meeting in Detroit. Walter P. Reuther, UAW vice president, declared the board "completely supports the union's position that wages can and must be increased without price increase."

The men who counsel Mr. Truman on labor problems seemed hopeful the end of the GM tieup was in sight and that this would influence solution of steel, meat packing and electrical industry disputes which have brought calls for 1,100,000 CIO workers to strike next week.

The recommended pay increase would amount to 19 1-2 cents an hour more than the present average scale of $1.13 an hour. The UAW asked a 30 per cent rise, or 33.6 cents more an hour, and the company had offered 12 per cent, or 13 1-2 cents.

Services Set For Gunshot Victim

Services will be held Saturday at 2 p. m. at the Eberley-Curry chapel for Robert Leon Dorries.

The lad was fatally shot with a 22 calibre target Thursday afternoon near the family home in the 1400 block on W. 14th street. He was rushed to a local hospital, said authorities, by W. E. Shanks, Jr., and Roy Rushing, neighbors.

Justice of Peace Walter Grice in an inquest verdict, said that shot was caused "by his own hands."

"Secrecy Is Undemocratic"

LONDON, Jan. 11 (AP) — Russia launched an attack within the United Nations assembly today on the secret ballot system under which her candidate for assembly president was defeated at the first session yesterday.

Sentiment was reported developing within the American delegation, too, for abandonment of the rule under which Paul Henri Spaak, foreign minister of Belgium, was chosen assembly president, with the backing of Britain, and Trygve Lie, Norwegian foreign minister, defeated despite his support by Russia and the United States. One reason advanced was that secrecy is undemocratic.

Dmitri Manuilsky, foreign minister of the Ukraine, one of the three U.S.S.R. delegations, moved that hereafter all persons voted on for UNO office be nominated and discussed from the floor. Delegates elected without his name being mentioned on the floor, Delegates

Negro Denies Wielding Gun

George Pinkney, negro, charged with the fatal shooting of Mrs. Monroee Darnaby near Big Spring on the morning of Christmas day was returned here this morning from Los Angeles by Sheriff Bob Wolf and Texas Ranger Norvell Redwine.

He is being held in the county jail pending examining trial on charges that he did, "voluntarily and with malice aforethought kill Monroee Darnaby by shooting her with a gun."

Pinkney was taken into custody by Los Angeles FBI agents after Wolf had wired them an address in the coast city found in personal papers apparently left behind by Pinkney as he abandoned an automobile. In another automobile deserted in Arizona a gun was found which ballistics reports showed had fired a shot found under Mrs. Darnaby's body.

Wolf said Pinkney admitted verbally to him that he stopped on the road about seven miles west of town near the scene of the murder, but denied any part in the shooting. He claimed that he was with another negro whom he met "in the bottoms of Louisiana," and that the second negro did the actual work credited to Pinkney on his trip from Baton Rouge to the west coast, Wolf said.

"However, he hasn't given any description or trace of this other negro," Wolf continued.

The sheriff said Pinkney told of a roundabout itinerary from here to Los Angeles, through Midland, Rankin, Sheffield, Fort Stockton, Pecos, Carlsbad, N. M., White City, N. M., El Paso and Duncan, Arizona.

It was in Duncan that he reportedly departed with haste when officers at the port of entry started to search him.

From Duncan Pinkney related the following story. Wolf said: About two miles were covered on foot which brought him to a trapper's home. The trapper carried him to Somerville, Ariz., where he got a ride on a truck to Globe. In Globe, he purchased a bus ticket to Phoenix and then completed his journey by rail.

A previous record reveals that Pinkney served a year and a day in a Louisiana house of correction in 1943 and 1944 for theft of an automobile at Houma, La., Wolf said.

CHICAGO, Jan. 11 (AP) — For the last time, little Suzanne Degnan was brought today to the grey stone church where in life she knelt and prayed.

Victim of one of Chicago's most fiendish crimes—the six-year-old first grader was borne into St. Gertrude's church in a simple white casket, carried by six boy pallbearers, schoolmates in Sacred Heart school which she attended.

In the age-old rites of the Roman Catholic church, the bier was met at the door by the pastor, the Rev. George Kearney, who celebrated "the Mass of the Angels" for the little parishioner who only a few weeks ago portrayed an angel in a school Christmas pageant.

The diploma was found in Wood county, 126 miles away, by J. F. Reeves, a farmer who lives near Winstboro. No trace has been found of the cedar chest. Reeves wrote of his discovery to Bonner Frizzell, superintendent of schools here.

Tenant Quits Fight To Keep Apartment In O'Daniel Manor

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11 (AP)—A tenant eviction suit filed by Senator O'Daniel (D-Tex) against Mrs. Orpha Wilcox was dismissed today in municipal court at the request of D. Heywood Hardy, attorney for the Senator.

Dismissal was requested because Mrs. Wilcox has moved from the room she had occupied in a four story apartment building near the capitol which the Texan has bought and plans to remodel into a private residence for himself and family.

The case was one of three filed by O'Daniel to obtain possession of the entire building. He won the first at a jury trial, but the defendant appealed and the matter is still unsettled. Final disposition of the second suit is held in abeyance, the defendant having agreed to move out by Jan. 28.

Thompson Will Urge US Not To Usurp Oil Regulations

AUSTIN, Jan. 11 (AP)—Railroad Commissioner Ernest O. Thompson believes that long before this nation's oil and gas supply is exhausted, "our energy resources will have been supplanted by new sources of power."

He made this remark in testimony prepared for delivery to a natural gas conservation hearing by the Federal Power Commission in Houston Jan. 28.

"Already some authorities predict the use of atomic power in industry within a decade. Within a generation its use may be widespread," Thompson said.

Thompson will urge on the FPC his hope that there will be no effort by the federal government to usurp state regulations of the gas industry. He will argue that jurisdiction over production, processing, gathering, compressing, sale and delivery of natural gas in the state where it is produced should remain with the state. Some other points he will make:

That jurisdiction of federal agencies over gas should be clearly limited to interstate transportation and the sale of gas in interstate commerce.

That present percentage depletion allowances for tax purposes be retained to encourage exploration.

What It Means
THE US COTTON POLICY

By OVID MARTIN
WASHINGTON — Uncle Sam's cotton policies may bob up to embarrass him at the forthcoming United Nations conference on trade and employment. The conference, which is expected to be held not later than next summer, will have as its objective the formation of international policies designed to create a better atmosphere for world trade and hence a higher level of employment throughout the world. One of several United States suggestions for a world trade program, set forth by Secretary of State James F. Byrnes in speeches and in a so-called "white paper" on this country's ideas, calls for the elimination of export subsidies. Such subsidies are governmental devices for moving commodities into world markets either at competitive or so-called "cut-throat" prices. We've Been Under-selling The State Department's "white paper" expressed the view that no nation should "take any action which would result in the sale of a product in export markets at a price lower than the comparable price charged for the like product to buyers in the home market, due allowance being made for differences in conditions and terms of sale, for differences in taxation, and for other differences affecting price comparability." For a number of years, the agriculture department has been selling American cotton abroad at prices considerably below prices prevailing for this commodity in the home market. At the present time, the foreign price is four cents a pound less than the domestic price. The government's farm price program requires the Agriculture Department to support grower prices of cotton at levels far above those prevailing in world markets. Foreign buyers turn to other cotton-producing countries for supplies rather than pay our prices. Subsidy Solved Problem Hence, the export subsidy—paid by the government—has been used and still is being used to bring American cotton more nearly in line with prices at which other cotton is being sold. Thus, as long as Uncle Sam subsidizes cotton exports, he is in a position of doing something he is proposing that the world should not do.

Price Cut Favored Many government economists prefer the third possible course—a reduction in domestic prices. They contend that present cotton price policies tend to keep inefficient producers and producing areas in cotton at a time when they should be shifted to the production of food crops needed in this country. They argue that efficient cotton growers, armed with latest developments in mechanization, are able to produce cotton at prices competitive with foreign cotton. But there is strong opposition among farm leaders in and out of Congress to proposals which would lower domestic prices. In fact, there is a powerful group of southern congressmen who want to boost cotton prices above present levels. The Agriculture Department has sought to get cotton-growing nations to agree on an international program for dividing world markets, but it has had no success thus far.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 11. (AP) — Superior Judge Herbert Kaufman addressed a prisoner before him on a repeat charge of passing fictitious checks. "My man, you've had your chance. The records were checked — the prisoner went to county jail.

Yesterday, Today And Tomorrow

For the past few years nothing, but war, war—disappointments—homes broken—heartache, famine, earthquakes, storms, disease, homeless children. And the minds of people, and Nations are confused. And great distress is in the air—Strikes, walkouts. The question today of kings and rulers and statesmen is there a way out, can't we find a remedy? Yes, and one that never made one mistake in all the leadings of his people in the long ago. He is the same yesterday, today, and forever. Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, and the man or woman or child that looked, they lived. Jesus said if I be lifted up I will draw all men unto me.

A Christ centered peace is the only peace that will endure. This peace is found by embracing the Gospel of the Son of God. He made us peace through the BLOOD of his cross. This is not one of many ways. This is the only way out of the world's present dilemma. From the pulpit and in the pew let Christ be exalted. The gospel is not anemic. It is the power of God unto salvation. Let us honor Him with our presence each Lord's day.

Shortage Of Personnel Leaves Navy Unfit To Fight: Nimitz

MIAMI, Fla., Jan. 11 (AP)—Admiral Chester W. Nimitz told Associated Press managing editors last night that demobilization had left the Navy unfit to fight only five months after Japan's defeat.

"The saving grace is there is nobody who threatens to fight us at this time," said the chief of naval operations.

"You all want your boys home as quickly as possible," said Nimitz. "I am wholly sympathetic with the natural desire, even if it is more emotional than practical. The fact remains, however, that it leaves the Navy at this moment unfit to fight."

The admiral's talk climaxed a day in which editors from every section of the nation heard talks on atomic energy and themselves discussed the problems of editing and reporting.

Howard Blakeslee, Associated Press science editor, and Glenn Babb, the press association's foreign news editor, described the theory of the atomic bomb and its practical effect in war.

Babb, who toured the wreckage of Nagasaki, said 30,000 persons died when the bomb released its energy 2,000 feet over the city, and that Japanese officials told him 30,000 others died of the after-effect.

Blakeslee said the disintegration charge in the bomb weighed something more than two pounds, and the elements which exploded had to be brought together in a few millionths of a second.

Alan Gould, assistant general manager of the Associated Press, told delegates that the flash is declining as a journalistic device. He said the news service would rather transmit a publishable bulletin than the short, one-sentence flash.

MEET AT AUSTIN

AUSTIN, Jan. 11 (AP)—Representatives of state oil operators gathered here today for a statewide oil prorator hearing to submit nominations calling for February production of 2,314,500 barrels of crude oil daily, an increase of 19,538 barrels daily over January nominations.

The U. S. Bureau of Mines final broadcast of demand for Texas crude oil for February is 1,890,000 barrels daily, the commission was notified by Mines Director R. R. Sayers late yesterday.

Wainwright 4th Army Chieftain

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11 (AP)—Gen. Jonathan Wainwright, hero of Corregidor, has been named commander of the 4th Army, it was learned today.

Wainwright, who has been chief of the eastern defense command, fills a vacancy created by the death of Lt. Gen. Alexander Patch. Headquarters of the 4th is at Fort Sam Houston, Tex.

After his return to the United States from a Japanese prison camp, Wainwright went on leave and then took the eastern defense command assignment.

Eleven Injured In Botane Blast

AMARILLO, Jan. 11 (AP)—Eleven persons were injured, none seriously, when two tanks of butane exploded after being knocked off a truck trailer by a troop train near the edge of town here last night.

The eastbound Santa Fe troop train struck the truck as it pulled onto a double track after waiting for a westbound train to pass.

Two tanks of butane on the trailer of the truck were knocked off. They immediately exploded, throwing flames over the train.

Engineer W. V. Miller, Amarillo, leaped from the cab and rolled about 40 feet, suffering burps and bruises.

George Lopez, 38, of Post, driver of the truck, was burned on the face and body, but drove himself and Horace Puckett, 31, of Post, to a hospital here. Puckett was burned slightly.

All three are in hospitals here.

Three soldiers who were on the train were taken to the hospital at Amarillo Army Air Field for treatment. Their identification was withheld by army authorities. None were believed seriously injured.

Four other soldiers were treated at a local hospital for slight burns.

Salvation Army Plans To Serve Spiritual And Material Needs

Emphasizing the fact that the social services of the Salvation Army always have been based on religious motives, Capt. Olvy Sheppard has announced plans for the Big Spring Salvation Army to serve the spiritual and material needs of returning service men and women and their families and children.

Types of units that will carry out this program are the Salvation Army Corps, or service committees, hospitals, boys clubs, summer camps for young people and men's centers. Capt. Sheppard said that some activities which were in operation specifically for service personnel will be continued for veterans.

The Big Spring territory covers Howard, Mitchell, Martin, Dawson, Ector and Midland counties.

Japs To Attempt Reorganization

TOKYO, Jan. 11 (AP)—The aged and convalescent premier Kijuro Shidehara will remain in office while his cabinet attempts to solve its political crisis by reorganization, the ministers decided today after a daylong meeting.

Some ministers submitted their resignations in conformance with General MacArthur's Jan. 4 political purge directive, said sources close to the government. These sources also indicated that Shidehara originally desired the ministers' resignation en bloc, but agreed to remain in office and try a reorganization.

The chief cabinet secretary, Daisaburo Tsugita, officially announced the cabinet's decision.

Tsugita said "the cabinet is confident the general elections will be carried out successfully." The elections, originally scheduled for this month, have been delayed probably two months by the cabinet crisis.

In mid-morning, Foreign Minister Shigeru Yoshida had reported to Emperor Hirohito on the situation, created by General MacArthur's order that all militaristic, ultranationalist public officials who had influenced Japan to make war must be ousted.

New ABClub Head Presides At Lunch

Ted Phillips, new president of the ABClub, was in charge of the club's regular luncheon meeting Friday at the Settles hotel.

The program was opened with a quartet, composed of J. D. Jones, Walker Bailey, Justin Holmes and Felton Underwood singing two numbers. Each member and guest introduced the man on his right and gave his occupation.

Members were reminded of the club's approaching basketball game with the All-American Red Heads' team in the high school gymnasium on Jan. 28. Ticket sales will begin soon at 75 cents and 35 cents.

The offices of secretary and treasurer will be separated, it was decided, and a secretary will be elected later. A meeting of the board of governors was called for Monday at 6 p. m. in the office of Walker Bailey.

New members present were Jimmie Siagas, G. G. Moorehead, George Vineyard, W. D. Caldwell and Dick Wiseman. Guests were Alex Temple and Justin Holmes.

Package Of Laundry Missing From Car

The automobile was parked in the 200 block of Scurry, Mrs. Floyd told officers.

Although the price was not announced by Hogan, it was understood that the YMCA submitted a total bid on all available equipment.

Under plans discussed by YMCA board members, the material will be placed at points where it will be most effective in a city-wide recreational program.

The YMCA, with its budget approximately half raised, is pushing its financial campaign this week. Directors hope to have the program in operation within a few weeks.

Louis Has Perfect Win Record

Men Who Met Joe 2nd Time Were Kayoed

NEW YORK, Jan. 11 (AP)—The $64 question now becomes the '46 question:

Will Joe Louis dispose of challenger Billy Conn in June in less time than the 13 rounds he required in their memorable 1941 battle?

Louis has been very skillful, if not perfect, at this sort of thing—stopping a rival whenever given a second opportunity to display his punching prowess.

Seven times the Brown Bomber gave an opponent a chance to meet him a second time. And seven times the result was the same—Louis by a knockout. This fate befell Louis foes five times while the Detroit Devastator held the world's heavyweight championship.

The first heavyweight to make the mistake of meeting Louis a second time was Lee Ramage of San Diego. In 1934 Louis stopped Ramage in eight rounds at Chicago. The following year in Los Angeles the end came in the second stanza.

Max Schmeling left his native Germany in 1936 in an effort to regain the title he won in 1930 on a four-round foul by Jack Sharkey and lost in 1932 on a 15-round decision to Sharkey.

Jim Braddock was champion at the time and promised the Schmeling-Louis victor a crack at the title. But when Schmeling piestered a 12-round knockout on Louis, Braddock reneged. Schmeling then returned home.

Louis, while champion in 1938, met Schmeling again. This time he knocked him flatter than a filleted flounder in the first round.

Others who would—and did—take issue with Louis a second time were Natie Brown, Bob Pastor, Arturo Godoy, Buddy Baer and Abe Simon. All met with the same fate.

In 1935 Joe beat Brown on a 10-round decision. Two years later Brown was counted out in four rounds. Pastor lost a 10-round verdict in 1937; two years later he was stopped in the 11th.

Godoy was a glutton for punishment. The Chilean lost a 15-round decision in 1940. Feb. 9 to be exact. Less than five months later he met Joe again—and the

Middleweight Bout on KBST Tonight

Jake LaMotta (above), Bronx buster, squares off against Tommy Bell, rangy sharpshooter of Youngstown, Ohio, at Madison Square Garden tonight. This middleweight contest, scheduled to go ten rounds, is a re-match.

Jawbone Jake has won 10 out of 18 bouts during the past year, his only losses coming at the hands of Ray Robinson. Last July he annexed a verdict from Bell, who can box handsomely as well as sock. So Tommy is out for revenge and hopes to be the first fighter to kayo LaMotta.

Bell is a powerful puncher. His left hook is particularly sharp and spectacular. The scrap promises to be a slam-bang affair.

lights went out in eight rounds. Buddy Baer, whose brother Max held the title two days less than a year after winning it from Primo Carnera, was disqualified for roughness in the seventh round in his 1941 meeting with Louis. The following year Louis scored a six-round kayo.

Abe Simon, the young, good-natured 254-pound giant, was the last to be persuaded against his better judgment. In 1941 he gained national fame by lasting 13 rounds against Louis. The next year Louis flattened him in six and Simon was forced to retire from the ring.

Thus, the big sports question of 1946 will be answered when Louis and Conn meet in June in the world's first heavyweight title scrap since Louis bowled over Simon in 1942.

Porkers Can All But Sew Up Title By Waco Sweep

Hogs Play Only One Other Series On Road; Rice Owls Make Supreme Bid In Two Tilts

By The Associated Press
The Arkansas Razorbacks make the only road trip likely to give them trouble in the Southwest conference basketball race as they journey into Texas for a series against Baylor's Bears opening tonight.

The jaunt to Waco and one to College Station to play Texas A. and M. in March are the only games away from home for the Porkers who not only are favored to win the conference title but are well-favored in the schedule.

Baylor's not-too-young bears (there are three lettermen back from the service) offer serious competition for the Razorbacks tonight and tomorrow night at Waco. The Bruins have looked good in the practice grind and could take at least one of the games from Arkansas without occasioning surprise.

That would throw the race into a scramble despite the fact that Arkansas gets Rice, Southern Methodist and Texas Christian all at Fayetteville. Rice won both its opening games last week and will probably reach its series at Fayetteville with the Razorbacks unbeaten in conference play.

The Owls are in Dallas tonight to play twice-beaten Southern Methodist and go to Fort Worth tomorrow night to finish the series with Texas Christian. Also scheduled tomorrow night is a clash between Texas and Texas A. and M. at Austin.

When Arkansas winds up its Baylor series, it will rest until Feb. 1 before more conference games, meeting Southern Methodist at Fayetteville at that time.

For at least another year, until NCAA holds its 1947 meeting in New York City Jan. 6-8 control of intercollegiate athletics will remain in the hands of separate colleges, universities or conferences. The association approved articles of alliance with the Amateur Athletic Union which provide that each organization may send four non-voting members to the other's convention.

College presidents, coaches and athletic directors—almost to a man—saw great things in store for college sports in the post-war era. They also saw a variety of dangers although they didn't all agree on what they were.

College sports are in for the biggest boom in history in the opinion of the nation's college sports leaders who gathered here for the National Collegiate Athletic association's annual convention.

College presidents, coaches and athletic directors—almost to a man—saw great things in store for college sports in the post-war era. They also saw a variety of dangers although they didn't all agree on what they were.

Unknown Paces San Francisco Golf Tourney

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 11 (AP)—Dark horse Chandler Harper, 32-year-old pro from Portsmouth, Va., paced the field today as the country's finest golfers teed off in the second round of the 72-hole San Francisco open. He had a par 71 for the initial eighteen.

Byron Nelson, greatest money winner in the history of the sport, was two strokes behind. Marvin "Bud" Ward, Herman Barron and Harold McSpaden had 72s.

McSpaden, second high money winner of the top flight professionals, was one of a small handful who turned the course's first nine in one under par 34.

Jim Ferrier, Chicago, aced the 133-yard fifteenth hole with a No. 6 iron.

The field of pro crackshots saw such topnotchers as second choice favorite Ben Hogan, Hershey, Pa., back of the pace with a 74. In the same bracket were Jim Demaret, Houston, Tex., Sam Byrd, Bob Hamilton, and E. J. "Dutch" Harrison.

Trailing in the ruck were such notables as 77-shooter Vic Ghezzi, Charles Congdon, Tacoma, Wash., with an 81; Sam Sneed at 81 and Lawson Little with an 82.

BUCKLEY NAMED XAVIER MENTOR
SHANGHAI, Jan. 11. (AP)—Navy Lt. Phil Buckley, whose Columbus bulldogs won the American league professional football title three years straight, today messaged acceptance of a three-year contract as coach of Xavier College in Cincinnati, his alma mater.

hawks as Charley Keller and Tom Henrich.

Already twice as successful in World Series play as any other team in either organization, the Yanks go after their 11th grand sweep next fall.

They broke into the select circle in 1923 by knocking over the New York Giants, then went on to sack up world titles in '27, '28, '32, '36, '37, '38, '39, '41 and '43.

The return of the Dimaggios and Teddy Williams to play is bringing about an unprecedented number of releases of tried-and-true old-timers.

Dolph Camilli, for one, won't be around when the Sox go to spring drills. The former Dodger first sacker is comfortably fixed and may leave the game permanently.

Bob Johnson, another Red Sox gardener, doesn't fit into Joe Cronin's plans. Tony Cuccinello of the Chicago White Sox has already said he was quitting.

Jimmy Fox's sun has set! Walter "Boom-Boom" Beck has been pink-slipped by Pittsburgh. Jack Saltgaver is gone from the big league scene. Tommy Bridges is retiring and Babe Herman is out.

There'll be something like 500 new names on major league rosters next spring.

Bovines, Odessa Tangle In Local Fieldhouse At 8

Resident Quint Needs Triumph To Stay In Race

Situated squarely behind the eight-ball—what with having chased Midland's Bulldogs across the finish line earlier in the week—John Malaise's Big Spring high school basketball Steers go to bat with Odessa's Broncs in their second District 3AA start at 8 p. m. in the local fieldhouse tonight.

Malaise's brigade can climb back into title consideration with a triumph over the dark-horse troupe from Ector county. A loss would finish them as well as queer their championship designs almost before league play got strung out.

The Steers got a late start, due mainly to the fact that their football team went as far as it did in the AA football race.

Homeling hopes will, as usual, be built around Horace Rankin, aggressive little forward who has been hitting the basket with remarkable regularity the past few games. Rankin has been looking much better since Eddie Houser and Bill Campbell have learned to feed him the ball.

When C. A. Tonn joins the lineup, the Steers are going to prove rough customers for any club to handle. However, the big guard won't be eligible until mid-term and by that time the District 3AA race may have been decided.

Fortunately, for the Bovines, the campaign means nothing in the interscholastic league playoff. The Herd, along with other teams of the conference, get their supreme chance for advancement into bi-district play in the district tournament the third week in February. That show will be unraveled in the Abilene gymnasium.

Attending patrons will be privileged to see two games for the price of one, if they call early.

The Steer reserves, featuring the talented Mr. Tonn et al, go to work on the Odessa second stringers in a battle booked to start at 7 o'clock.

Adolph Kiefer Top Tankman Of 1945

SAN DIEGO, Calif., Jan. 11 (AP) Navy Lt. Adolph Kiefer, tall Chicago swimmer, has been picked as the outstanding U.S. tankman of 1945.

Clyde A. Swendsen, AAU sub-committee chairman, announced the selection last night as he disclosed the official all-America AAU swimming team on which Kiefer was given three berths.

Kiefer was listed in the individual backstroke, 300-yard individual medley and as a member of the all-star 300-yard medley relay.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With ANGUS LECESTER

Buddy Young, Bob Kelly and Ed Kuserow, three of the nation's brightest football stars last fall, will probably be sporting different livery the coming season.

Young was with Fleet City after going into the Navy. Before that he was a freshman sensation at Illinois. Now, he's rumored going to UCLA.

Kelly resigned from the Naval Academy and was supposed to go back to Notre Dame—but he's altered his plans, may follow Texas Ed McKeever to Cornell. Robin gained more success with McKeever's style of play as a sophomore than as a junior at Navy.

Kuserow, a glue-fingered receiver who performed for Lou Little's Columbia Lions, has been appointed to Annapolis.

Young Virgil Shreve, a Frisco youngster, bears watching along the golfing trail. The Californian's game needs polishing but he'll be winning his share of tournaments a decade from now.

The East Texas baseball league isn't as far along with its plans for re-activation as is the WT-NM circuit.

After a futile campaign to build a playing field, the Texarkana directorship threw in the towel and returned its franchise rights back to the loop, reducing the membership to five clubs—Lufkin, Jacksonville, Henderson, Tyler and Sherman.

It is quite probable that Greenville will claim the sixth franchise.

New York's baseball Yankees are odds-on favorite to cop the American baseball league title next season—but their pitching can't measure up to some of the other clubs, notably the Cleveland Indians. Neither is their hitting any better than Boston's Red Sox.

Skipper Joe McCarthy of the Gothamites has a lot of young pitchers, none of whom is a "money" hurler. He has no Bill Dickey to plant behind the dish. But he does have a great third sacker in Bill Johnson, who might develop into as capable an operator as Red Rolfe.

Through the middle alley, the Yanks shape up, what with Phil Fizzuto and either Joe Gordon or George Stinweis at the key-stone and Joe DiMaggio camping out in the middle garden, a DiMaggio flanked by such ball my Byrnes," writes Scoop Lattimer, the sage of Greenville, S. C., and Scooperoo Ranch.

Hitting To All Fields
Warren Giles, the Cincinnati Reds' boss, figures he has heard at least five or six times from each of his ball players in service. In addition he has kept tabs on their play by communicating with major leaguers on the same teams.

Harvard is charging only 55 cents admission for its big basketball game with Holy Cross Saturday and has printed just 1600 tickets, the capacity of the gym. It took 60 days to cut down the American league world series film from 22,000 feet to 2,500. R. O. McCrain, assistant basketball coach at Louisiana State U., annexed 59 straight victories and four state titles while coaching at Zachary high school, which has only about 75 boys enrolled.

Sportspourri
Harrison Colson of Wichita Falls, Texas, says the finals of the Texas high school football championship at the Cotton Bowl drew 46,000 spectators, a southern record, and wants to know the northern record for schoolboy games. Biggest crowd we recall was approximately 62,000 at Cleveland last fall. Tom Greenwade, who left the Brooklyn Dodgers to join the Yankees scouting staff, is a close friend of another prominent Missourian, President Truman. Joe DiMaggio is a director of a West Coast sardine company, but he probably can't teach Larry MacPhail anything about packing em in.

Answering Some Vet Questions

Q. May a veteran who has been a prisoner of war convert the gratuity insurance he was granted into a permanent policy?

A. This gratuity insurance was granted to those in active service who were captured on or after December 7, 1941, and prior to April 20, 1942. The law provides that such insurance shall be in force and all premiums waived while the veteran remains a prisoner and for six months thereafter. The veteran may continue his policy at the expiration of this period by making application and timely payment of premiums. Some may be converted at the time expiration of one year or at any later date prior to the expiration of the 5 year period. (This has been extended an additional 3 years under the provisions of Public 118, 79th Congress.)

Q. How soon after discharge must a veteran start to school if he attends under the provisions of the Servicemen's Readjustment Act?

A. The veteran may make application for this provision within two years of his discharge or within two years of the termination of the war, whichever is later. The program terminates within seven years of the termination of the war.

Q. May a veteran receive hospital treatment for disabilities due to his own misconduct?

A. A veteran will not be denied hospital treatment for such disability if he is otherwise eligible and need for hospitalization is shown.

Q. Does a veteran going to school under the provisions of the GI Bill receive medical treatment at the expense of the government?

A. No, such veteran will receive only such medical treatment as is furnished by the school he is attending, or treatment to which he is entitled in common with other veterans not attending school.

Q. Hospitalization will be given regardless of whether they were incurred in service, however, veterans with a service incurred disability will have preference in admission to veterans hospitals. Others, not emergency, must wait till a bed is available.

Q. Do monthly payments of National Service Life Insurance policy cease if a widow who is the beneficiary remarries?

A. No. A National Service Life Insurance policy is a contract just as a policy of a private company is a contract and the payments will continue to be paid to the widow named as beneficiary after she remarries, in keeping with the terms of the policy.

Unexpected Carrier Landing Of Jet-Plane Made By Texas Pilot

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11 (AP) — The Navy reported today the first successful, although unpremeditated, carrier landing of a jet-powered Navy fighter plane.

Ensign Jake C. West, Glen Rose, Tex., made the landing aboard the escort carrier Wake Island off San Diego, Calif., Nov. 6, in a "Fireball," Ryan-built fighter powered both by turbojet and a conventional reciprocating engine.

The Fireball normally uses its reciprocating power plant for take-off and landing, using its jet power either exclusively or as supplementary power when airborne.

Ensign West made his unintentional carrier landing when his plane experienced an almost complete power failure in the reciprocating engine as he was making his landing approach. Quickly starting his jet engine, he continued his approach and landed safely.

The Navy said the landing was the first on record, and "confirmed the Navy's long held belief that such a feat could be accomplished successfully."

Texas Today—BADLY BATTERED TEMPLE COUNTRY RESULT OF WAR EXPERIMENTS

By JACK RUTLEDGE Associated Press Staff

An area near Temple looks as if an atomic bomb had hit it.

The cause of the miles of burned brush and trees and the brutal scars on the beaten terrain was a top-drawer military secret until recently.

The Camp Hood Area was the site of an experiment in cave warfare. The project was called "Sphinx" in Army records.

Temple was selected because the surrounding land closely resembles that of Okinawa and Japan. The project was undertaken prior to what America thought would be the invasion of the Jap mainland.

Hundreds of soldiers and tons of munitions and equipment were necessary. All types of aircraft were used.

First, about 3,000 caves and dug-in positions were constructed. Many of the caves were hidden so they could not be detected except by plane. Strongholds were built at Clabber Point and Manning Mountain.

Then began the experiment, when the Army hoped would solve the problem of breaking cave defenses, and save many US lives.

Initial step was aerial reconnaissance. The caves were located for the ground forces. Then the Army moved in. Underbrush and trees were methodically destroyed by the use of tank-towed "snakes" and "napalm" bombs dropped from the area.

The third step was actually to seal the cave entrances. Pin-point firing instead of mass concentration of targets was attempted successfully. Low-flying planes using rockets helped button up the entrances. Radar was used. The attack continued day and night.

Final step was the foot-soldier attack. They were supported by artillery, mortar and rockets, planes and smokescreens, flame throwers — everything known to modern warfare.

It was an elaborate experiment, and it would have helped win the war.

The remains are still visible, and will be for years — another Texas contribution to World War II.

All Is Forgiven, Says Father; If Son Quits Cowboy Ideas, Returns

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11 (AP)—If Eddie (I want to be a cowboy) A. Cox, 16, will just come home he won't have to go back to school next fall and he can join the Navy.

That's straight from his dad, George E. Cox.

Eddie and a friend, Harold Lichtenberger, departed from home last Saturday, leaving a note saying they were headed for El Paso, Tex., and hoped to be cowboys on the ranch of Sammy Baugh, pro football star.

Cox, reporting his wife had become seriously ill since their son's departure, said today: "If he'll come home I promise him he won't have to go back to school next fall—he'll be 17 then—and I'll let him join the Navy."

Convention For State Department Set

SAN ANTONIO, Jan. 11. (AP)—Austin has been selected as the site for the state convention of the Texas Department, Reserve Officers' Association to be held May 4 and 5. County Judge Charles W. Anderson announced.

The state department, which has not held a convention since 1941, was reactivated in December.
