

Hollis Grocery Ready For Holiday Trade

Preparing for the coming Christmas season, the Hollis Grocery at 303 Bell has stocked up a supply of Christmas trees, candied fruits, fresh fruits, fruit cakes, nuts, and meats for that biggest of all feasts.

The trees, which J. B. Hollis, owner and manager, says are more plentiful and less expensive than in several years, are from four to six feet high in a price range anyone can afford for a green spicy smelling tree.

Boxes of chocolates too are coming rather frequently, with more expected before the end of the month. Many people have already purchased fruits and nuts for fruit cakes, Mr. Hollis said, even more than could be expected with the sugar shortage. For those who will not do their own baking, he offers a line of cakes from some of the best bakeries of holiday sweets.

Texas and California oranges, Washington apples of a superior quality, grapes and nuts of all kinds are on sale, just the thing to fill Christmas stockings or for an attractive, delicious holiday table arrangement. All fresh fruits and vegetables are water sprayed in an automatic vegetable rack in the store to retain garden freshness and crispness, Hollis said.

Always offering quality meats, Hollis hopes to have more and more pork to show Christmas shoppers. "We had a run on turkeys Thanksgiving," he said, "but we hope to have plenty of cured hams for Christmas."

The Hollis Grocery has been in its present location on Bell street for over two years now. Mr. and Mrs. Hollis, who have lived in this community for about 15 years, formerly owned and operated a grocery out of town near the airport. Consistently their stores have pursued the policy of quality meats, and foods within ceiling prices, Hollis said.

Thomas Planning To Double Space To Display Goods

Almost doubling the store space, the Thomas Typewriter Exchange will soon be able to display more attractively and adequately the many office supply items now offered.

Continuing in the same location at 107 Main street, Eugene Thomas, owner of the Exchange, said Monday that he has purchased the entire building, and the northern section will be open as a part of his store.

Soon Thomas hopes to be able to display many of the difficult to obtain items which he now has in stock. He invites his customers to come down and view the many stocks he now has and expects soon.

At the present time Thomas has a large stock of gift items suitable for anyone in business, and still others for any individual.

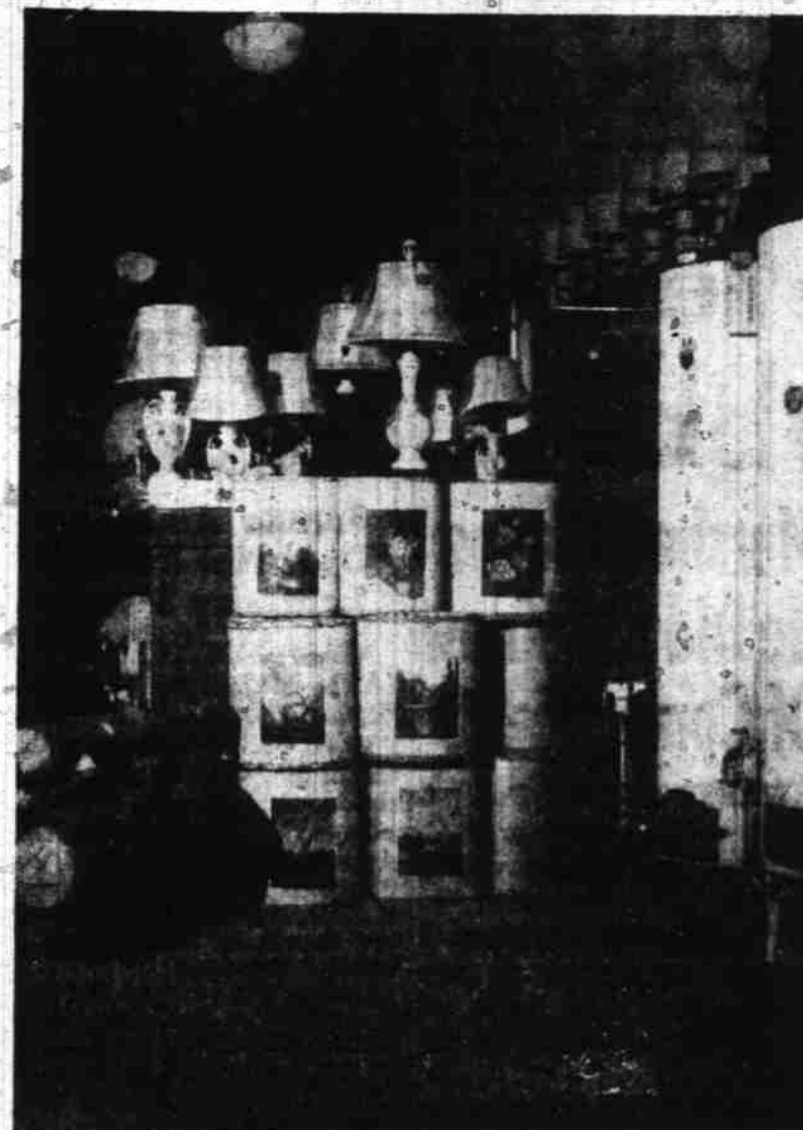

"We regret that many of our customers who have office machines ordered have not received them yet," Thomas said. However, he expressed a belief that they will receive their machines very soon. The Typewriter Exchange handles Royal typewriters, R. C. Allen and Victor adding machines, and they are now coming through from the factories in small numbers.

Thomas appreciates all of his customers and strives to give the best service possible. With the war over, he has hopes of having former employees back again on the job with him.

Recently Bill White, in the service for about five years, joined the store staff.

Both White and Miss Garland Thomas are happy at all times to fill all needs in office supplies or gifts.

Thomas has plans for improving his store both in appearance and convenience, and urged his customers to take advantage of these improvements.

SOMETHING FOR THE HOUSE—Christmas shoppers, stumped for ideas, may find the answer in something for the house. Here are a few suggestions from the stock of the L. I. Stewart Household Appliance store. For rural homes, Stewart has the additional suggestion of butane gas service. (Jack M. Haynes Photo).

Nalley-Planned Rites Reverent, Always Dignified

"In many years ahead you will recall the services you arrange for a loved one," C. O. Nalley, director of the Nalley Funeral Home, believes. Nalley helps you realize the satisfaction that you planned them in a most dignified and reverent manner.

No matter what you invest, consideration, helpfulness and courtesy will be the same at the Nalley Funeral Home, 906 Gregg. Since C. O. Nalley came to Big Spring in 1938, he has gained in reputation and formed many lasting friendships with persons who have come to him in the past few years in the time of their bereavement.

Bill Thomas, who was with the establishment three and a half years before he went into the armed forces, has again returned to assist the funeral home in complete services. Vernon Easterling joined the staff in August. Nalley is also assisted in his business by his wife, Mrs. Jessie Nalley, who is the lady attendant.

In the time Nalley has been here, he has also become active in church and civic affairs. He is the treasurer of the First Baptist church. Nalley is a member of the chamber of commerce, has been chairman of Howard-Glasscock Red Cross county chapter for two years and belongs to the American Business club.

Nalley Funeral Home also offers emergency ambulance service by telephoning 175.

Split In 1946?

SIGNIFICANT STRIFE ALREADY FORMING AMONG STATE DEMOS

By DALE CHEAVENS
AUSTIN, Dec. 6 (AP)—Strife within the ranks of the Texas Young Democrats club, shaping up generally along the same lines taken in the inter-party conflict two years ago, gives Texans some idea of what to expect in 1946 politics. The president of the Young Democrat state organization and the majority of the program committee for next week's convention at Fort Worth are at odds over whether or not to invite Lieut. Gov. John Lee Smith to speak at the session. This is just symptomatic of what may be described as a right-left division in the thinking of the organization's membership, and this extends to Democrats who are not so young. The Young Democrat's program committee voted not to invite Smith.

Another significant development, many months ahead of the start of the real political shooting, is the announcement of the regional CIO political action committee that it plans to enter four Texas congressional campaigns next summer.

The Capital was alive with political talk and rumors, most of them bearing principally on the Governor's race, but one new one having to do with the Attorney General's race. Some of these were:

That leaders of the Democratic organization now in power (the pro-Roosevelt group that took over the September convention a year ago) are still on the make for a candidate with liberal leanings, an outstanding World War I or II record, platform and radio appeal, and preferably not an old party war horse.

That a trial balloon will soon be sent up for Bob Calvert of Hillsboro, former speaker of the House and a leader at the pro-Roosevelt convention, by one faction within this group.

That Attorney General Grover Sellers is more interested in running for Governor than for reelection as Attorney General, and that leaders of both the liberal and conservative wings of the party have been giving this serious thought.

That if Sellers does not run, friends of Capt. Price Daniel, former speaker of the House now with the Army of Occupation in Japan, would like to enter him in the Attorney General's race whether he is back home by filing time or not.

One thing is certain. The Young Democrat convention at Fort Worth Thursday and Friday will furnish an interesting preview of the 1946 political picture. Watch for plain talk on both sides by World War II veterans, who are signing up as Young Democrat club members in increasing numbers.

November Weather Ideal For Crops

In checking a harvest with generally better results than anticipated. Howard county farmers can give thanks for a November with ideal autumn weather.

Records by Vernon W. Schaad, meteorologist in charge of the US Weather Bureau at the airport, show only .02 of an inch of precipitation for the entire month—which was as near to being dry as possible. Further insuring dry weather—the thing most needed for cotton production—was a persistence of rather high winds.

Still helping crops was a mean temperature of 55.8, 2.8 degrees above normal, a factor which helped late feed make greater maturity. Highest temperature for the month was 88, only two degrees under the record of 90 in 1903. Lowest was 25, far above the record minimum of seven degrees for 1909.

Only three Novembers on record have had less precipitation than this year. Normal for the month is 1.03 inches. Date of the killing frost was listed as Nov. 21.

US Coasts Battered By Winds, Cold Rain

Assurance that the United States has an ample supply of petroleum is given in the article, "We Will Have Plenty of Oil," written for the January issue of American magazine by Eugene Holman, president of Standard Oil company (New Jersey).

(Holman is a brother to Mrs. Theo Andrews of Big Spring and is well known in West Texas.)

According to the author, America's petroleum supply is good for a hundred years. He writes that geologists generally agree that more than 150 billion barrels of oil will be found in the Western Hemisphere and they place about 50 billion of these in the United States alone. Many of the new petroleum reservoirs have been discovered under lake and sea areas.

Contrary to the belief of many who regard the US reserve as 20 billion barrels—a conservative estimate of the American Petroleum Institute—"there will be plenty of oil," declares Holman, a world-traveled geologist who has been associated with his company's producing activities for more than 23 years.

"The largest and most significant underwater oil project," explains Holman, "which presages what may come eventually on the Atlantic, Gulf and California coasts, is at

'Full Employment' Bill Sidetracked From Truman's Original Suggestion

By James Marlow
WASHINGTON, Dec. 6. (AP)—The so-called "full employment" plan got hit by a truck in Congress. It's a long way from being a full employment plan now. President Roosevelt was for the plan in principle when Senator Murray (D-Mont) offered it in the Senate 11 months ago. President Truman endorsed it, too. Rep. Patman (D-Tex.), shortly after the Murray bill went into the Senate, introduced an identical measure in the House. Each declared: "All Americans able to work and seeking work have the right to useful, remunerative, regular and fulltime employment and it is the policy of the United States to assure the existence at all times of sufficient employment opportunities to enable all Americans who have finished school and who do not have fulltime housekeeping responsibilities freely to exercise this right." There it was. It said people who wanted jobs had a "right" to jobs. And it said the government would "assure" full employment. It had this change right at the beginning: "All Americans able to work and seeking work are entitled to an opportunity for useful, remunerative, regular and fulltime employment in agriculture, commerce, industry or the professions." Gone was the phrase: "right" to full employment. Even though the watered version which came out of the Senate called the measure a "full employment act," the House Expenditures committee toned this down and called it the "Employment - Production Act."

Snow Piles Up Deep WINTER CLOAKS FATE OF NORWAY PROVINCE

AP Newsfeatures
TROMSO, Norway. — The answer to how inhabitants of war-ravaged Finnmark in northern Norway will survive the winter now is hidden indefinitely behind clouds of Arctic snow. The few military planes that traveled between Tromso and the more northerly points of Alta, Hamnaucht, Hammerfest and Kirkenes are weathered in and boats, which are in disrepair and lack fuel, move only sporadically. But still every local steamer into Tromso brings a new group of people, evacuated from Finnmark at the time of the German destruction and now trying to return on the chance of finding their homes intact. Some of these sneak off north in fishing boats. Others remain in Tromso, where they wander aimlessly up and down the streets until the settlement has the constant appearance of a Middle Western boom town on a Saturday night. Retreating Germans destroyed all except four buildings—three churches and the North Cape Tea House in Finnmark, which once housed 30,000 Norwegians and 20,000 Laps or Mongolian Nomads. Before German prisoners were evacuated from Finnmark this fall they cleared out most of the mines and built a few barracks. But still stray mines float around in the fjords, and barracks and igloos with makeshift insulation of peat offer little shelter from Arctic winds. Whole settlements are completely isolated and the food problem is acute. One old man built himself a log tepee covered with cardboard about 30 miles south of Hamnaucht, refused to move and asked only a blanket or two so he could survive the winter. Last spring the bodies of Russian prisoners were dug out of Finnmark's snow. Whether the hardy Norwegians can survive a similar winter only the spring thaw will tell.

Konoye, Kido Put On Lists Of War Criminals Arrested By MacArthur

TOKYO, Dec. 6. (AP)—Two powerful political figures whom many Japanese themselves consider among their top war criminals—Prince Fumimaro Konoye and Marquis Kido—were ordered arrested as war crimes suspects by General MacArthur today. Seven other men also were listed as wanted. Konoye, the dashing prince who served as one of Japan's most prized "front men," had been premier three times. Kido, a small, shrewd wirepuller, served as Emperor Hirohito's right hand man throughout the war. Jittery Tokyo received another shock before it had recovered from MacArthur's announcement. Japanese communists announced they would release Saturday a list of 1,000 asserted Japanese war criminals, including the emperor and empress. An the diet, Premier Kijuro Shidehara declared that his government was in no position to criticize the Allied lists. He said he had no information on how many persons the occupation authorities intended to indict. Reaching into the highest circles, the supreme allied commander named as the other seven wanted: Vice Adm. Takuo Goto, who was unofficial envoy to Germany to present Japan's side of the China incident, also former cabinet member. Shigeo Odate, long-time politician. Taketora Ogata, vice-president of the Tokyo newspaper Asahi and a foremost Japanese journalist. Viscount Masatoshi Okochi, industrialist. Lt. Gen. Hiroshi Oshima who had been Japanese ambassador to Mexico since 1938. Count Tadamasu Sakai, member of the house of peers. Yakichiro Suma, long time diplomat; formerly councillor of the Japanese embassy in Washington. Konoye, premier at the time of the China incident and held the post the last time just before Pearl Harbor, when he was succeeded by Hideki Tojo, has been one of the most talked about men in post-war Japan. Recently he had been reported active in revision of the constitution and had asserted he was doing the work at the request of MacArthur although MacArthur denied this.

Down The River Most Of Detroit Club To Be Put On The Market

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Dec. 6 (AP)—The biggest stock of ivory up for sale, swap or barter at the minor league trading mart in that collection of baseball talent which won the world's baseball championship for Detroit in 1945.

From what you hear around this lobby-sitting sweepstakes, only seven members of the Detroit Tigers have much chance of hanging their hats under that world title flag for this '46 campaign.

These possible holdovers are Pitchers Hal Newhouse, Virgil (Fire) Trucks, and George Caster, along with Hank Greenberg, Eddie Mayo, Paul Richards, Skeeter Webb.

It is virtually certain that First Baseman Rudy York is up for sale and that neither Jim Outlaw nor Bob Meier will be hanging out their shingle on the hot corner in 1946.

From the word here, the Tigers may even be willing to part with Paul (Dizzy) Trout.
