Congress Told Separations To Be Rushed

Eisenhower Says Men With 45 Points, 30 Months Service Out By April 30

WASHINGTON, Jan. 15 (AP)—Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower told congressmen today that by April 30 every enlisted man with 45 points or 30 months service will be out of the army or on the way to separation centers.

By July 1 he said, every enlisted man with 40 points or two years' service will be out or in the process of being discharged.

At present, 50 points or three and a half years' service are required for discharge.

Furthermore, Eisenhower assured an informal meeting of Senators and representatives at the Congressional Library, "every surplus man will be out right away unless his points are so low that he can replace someone else."

In disclosing the April 30 and July 1 goals, the Army Chief of Staff excluded volunteers from the discharge provisions and made plain that the points are to be computed on the basis of last Sept. 2.

Eisenhower went before the meeting to offer the Army's explanation of its demobilization system, the target of criticism by Congressmen and GIs alike.

Eisenhower warned that the Army's organization "will collapse if it demobilizes too fast but pledged that every man eligible for discharge by July 1 will be out of service by that time.

Eisenhower said it was not possible to discharge all men with two years service by March 20 as originally contemplated.

"It would mean that another 2,000,000 men would be out on that date beyond our expectations," Eisenhower said.

"It would mean such a complete reshuffle of our occupational forces as to jeopardize the results of months of work in bringing order out of chaos."

Explaining the Army's demobilization policy at an informal Senate-House meeting at the congressional library, the Chief of Staff declared that the recently announced slowdown in demobilization was necessary to prevent the Army from being depleted by March 1.

But, even with the slowdown, he said:

"There is not a single man who is to be discharged by July 1 who won't be discharged by July 1."

He prefaced his remarks with a flat statement that demobilization is not tied in with the War Department's sponsorship of universal military training or with any desire of high ranking officers to retain their positions.

Some Congressmen and some GIs have suggested such might be the case.

Such conclusions, Eisenhower asserted, are "utterly false."

Eisenhower said that of 1,500 general officers on duty on V-E day, 789 already have been or are being reduced in rank or separated from the service.

The meeting, in the Coolidge auditorium of the library, drew approximately 200 Senate and House members whose complaints about demobilization led to the extraordinary session.

Y Headquarters Space Rented

YMCA officials today announced that the space above Wackers store has been rented for headquarters and recreational and other purposes connected with the program.

The action was taken in keeping with the intention of getting the program into operation although the goal of $15,000 for an initial budget has not been reached.

A considerable amount of the equipment acquired from the USO last week will be placed in the new location. W. R. Dawes, general chairman, said this would permit the operation not only of offices but of a snack bar and recreational facilities for youth.

The space is adequate for most types of meeting and will be used by all ages in a flexible program, he said.

At the same time, steps will be taken to put the entire program into effect so that it may reach the entire community through existing agencies in recreational, social and cultural programs of their own.

Strike Of Texas Packers Slated For Wednesday

Fort Worth Hit By Union Row

By the Associated Press—Approximately 2,500 packinghouse workers are scheduled to strike tomorrow (Wednesday) morning but few Texas cities except Fort Worth, the cattle capital, are worried.

United Packinghouse Workers of America (CIO) are asking a 17-1-2 cent hourly wage increase.

The Texas and Pacific Railway freight office in Big Spring reported today that they are not accepting any livestock shipments to Fort Worth unless they are billed to Swift and Co.

while packing companies insist their profit position would permit an increase of only 7-1-2 cents.

C. P. Wasson, district manager of the car service division, American Association of Railroads, said an embargo of all livestock shipments by the association to Fort Worth stockyards is in effect.

The railroads affiliated with the association are not accepting shipments of cattle to stockyards in Fort Worth.

In Galveston, J. P. Cowley, assistant manager of the Gulf, Colorado and Santa Fe Railroad, said his company would cooperate with the order.

However, reports from San Antonio and Houston said stockyards there would not be effected by the strike. Also, the strike does not affect the Swift and Company packing plant at Fort Worth.

J. W. Sartwell, president and general manager of Houston's Port City Packing Company, said the strike might even improve the Houston meat supply. He said it would divert more animals to the Houston market.

"Texas will be hurt by the strike less than any other state, and Houston will be hurt less than any city in Texas," he said.

CHICAGO, Jan. 15 (AP)—The AFL Meat Cutters Union notified its local units today to strike at 12:01 a. m. Wednesday against six large meat packing companies.

"Every effort on the part of our international officials to avoid a nationwide meat packing strike has been unsuccessful," the union officials said in telegrams to the locals.

"The offers thus far made by the four large packers cannot possibly be accepted. They are grossly inadequate."

The telegrams went out as government conciliators proceeded with last minute conferences with union and management officials to halt the strike, originally called by the CIO United Packinghouse Workers.

The CIO union claims 193,000 members, the AFL 135,000.

Pupils In Nearby School Injured, 75 Underground Workers Effect Escape

WELCH, W. Va., Jan. 15 (AP)—Seventy-five coal miners miraculously escaped alive today after a tremendous blast in the No. 9 Havaco mine on the outskirts of Welch, but the fate of 192 others was in doubt as rescuers drove into the smoke-and dust-filled shaft workings.

E. L. Chatfield, an inspector-at-large of the state mines department, said he was informed that 267 men were in the workings when the explosion occurred around 9:30 a. m.

The force was so terrific that negro pupils in a school house and workers in the store and office of the New River and Pocahontas Consolidated Coal Company, from 500 to 1,000 feet away, were injured by shattered glass and debris. The mine is operated by New River and Pocahontas.

Unofficial estimates said from a third to one-half of those coming from the mine alive walked up the shaft steps, which somehow remained intact although the tippie appeared to be a total wreck. The shaft is about 400 feet deep.

Others had to be helped or dragged from the mine, and some of them appeared to be semi-conscious from shock.

Hospitals of Welch, a city of 7,000 population and the county seat of the biggest bituminous coal production county in the United States, were quickly filled to overflowing with injured miners and children from the school house.

Edward Mullins and his son, James, who apparently were not hurt, told newsmen they were the first to reach the surface from the inner-workings.

The father said they were at work about one mile from the shaft in No. 3 entry when they heard the blast and immediately started running.

They said the workings immediately became so dark from smoke and dust that they had to stoop over and train their lights on the steel mine rails in order to find their way to the opening.

Two mine inspectors, Ed Chatfield and Walter White, and some volunteers were among the first to enter the mine after the disaster.

Among the volunteers was Louis Godoak, an employee of the company who said he had a brother and son working on the day shift inside.

Neither mine officials nor rescuers hurriedly assembled would speculate on the fate of others still unaccounted for.

The Mullins said the blast appeared to have centered in what they called "The Dip" entry, but there was no official information on how far back that would have been from the bottom of the shaft.

Kimmel Says Navy Regarded Japanese Attack "Unlikely"

WASHINGTON, Jan. 15. (AP)—Rear Admiral Husband E. Kimmel asserted today he was "mis-led" by a pre-war warning into believing that the Navy Department thought no attack on Pearl Harbor was "imminent or probable."

A crowd of 200 spectators gathered as the gray haired former Pacific fleet commander appeared before a Senate-House committee to tell publicly for the first time his story of the disastrous Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor Dec. 7, 1941.

Attired in a dark suit with a bright blue tie, the 63-year-old retired naval officer began reading a 25,000-word statement in which he asserted that Washington officials had denied him information he said might have made Pearl Harbor an ambush for the Japs.

Before Kimmel took the stand, Committee Counsel Seth Richardson placed in the record a letter from former Associate Justice Owen J. Roberts, who headed a commission which investigated the attack. Roberts said the full report of the commission had been published after it was turned over to President Roosevelt Jan. 24, 1942.

Senator Ferguson (R-Mich) had asked for the original copy of the Roberts report, but Miss Grace Tully, secretary, informed the committee by letter that it could not be found in the White House files.

Reading in a strong voice, Kimmel contended before the committee:

1. He was not supplied information available in Washington from intercepted messages "which told when and where Japan would probably strike."

2. That, withholding this information, the Navy should have instructed him specifically to "be on the alert against a hostile overseas raid."

3. If he had had Washington's knowledge of intercepted Japanese messages, he would have considered

Americans Seek Answer To Jap Island Control

LONDON, Jna. 15 (AP)—Official sources disclosed today that American civilian and military officials at the United Nations general assembly were split over whether American-conquered Japanese islands should be placed under UNQ sovereignty.

While the American delegation sought solution to this question, it was disclosed that the newly-elected security council, confronted with the twin tasks of controlling atomic energy and preventing another world war, had been summoned to hold its first meeting Thursday.

Indications were that US Secretary of State James F. Byrnes, British Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin and Soviet Vice Commissar of Foreign Affairs Andrei Vishinsky would speak at the opening session, which will be devoted primarily to organization.

The disagreement over the trusteeship question, meanwhile, held the attention of the American officials.

The delegates themselves were said to favor a trusteeship plan for the Pacific islands, while their special military advisor, Gen. George C. Kenney, argued that the United States should retain any islands of military value.

Delegates said that if Kenney held out the disagreement could be considered as tantamount to an issue between the state and war departments and would have to be referred to President Truman for settlement.

There was some disagreement among the American delegation as to exactly how much control the United States would lose if she agreed to United Nations sovereignty over the Pacific Islands.

Some sources said it was unlikely that the delegation would propose a trusteeship arrangement without stipulating that the United States alone should act as controlling agent for the UNQ.

Cotton Edict May End OPA, Claim

By J. W. DAVIS—WASHINGTON, Jan. 15 (AP)—Cotton state senators, angry at OPA's notice of proposed price ceilings on the raw fiber, said today this may mean the end of the whole Office of Price Administration.

OPA is due to expire June 30—unless congress votes its continuance.

"I told them," Senator Johnson (D-SC) related to reporters, "that I doubt very much that OPA will be in existence after June 30 if they put a price ceiling on cotton."

From deep south, Louisiana, Senator Ellender (D-La) expressed a similar view, saying:

"Well, OPA expires June 30. The cotton crop in Louisiana is not gathered until August, so it doesn't matter very much what they say."

OPA's announcement last night said the agency's advance notice simply puts it in a position to impose the controls if it finds them necessary. The announcement added that "it may not be actually necessary to put the ceilings into effect."

At Scott, Miss. Oscar Johnson, president of the National Cotton Council, described the OPA action as a "precautionary measure not likely to be carried into operation."

He termed cotton ceilings "unworkable and unenforceable."

Southern senators blame present high clothing prices on manufacturers and distributors, rather than on the cost of raw materials.

Last night's notice by OPA fulfills a legal requirement that growers be notified of planned price schedules at least 15 days in advance of the normal planting season.

In announcing it, Price Chief Chester Bowles said the rise of cotton prices "threatens the whole stabilization program in the cotton textile field."

CONDEMNED TO DEATH—E. L. Chatfield, an inspector-at-large of the state mines department, said he was informed that 267 men were in the workings when the explosion occurred around 9:30 a. m.

Benton explained that the Associated Press, the United Press and the International News Service have been furnishing news to the US government for shortwave broadcasts overseas.

"I regret," he added, "that the board of directors of the Associated Press have decided to discontinue their share of this service."

Dois All, Brothers
The Sugar Bowl expects to put on its full sports program next winter, including basketball, track meet, tennis tournament, boxing, and rowing and sailing regattas. There'll be a football game, of course. . . Honey Russell, who ought to know a good team when he sees one, picks Holy Cross as the "class" of New England basketball if not the entire East. Yanks Face Problem At First Base

Hassett, Sturm, Nowak, Souchok Ready To Battle Nick Etten

NEW YORK, Jan. 15. (AP)—When the New York Yankees reach their Florida spring training camps at St. Petersburg and Bradenton, Manager Joe McCarthy will face more perplexing problems than at any time in his career. His most difficult job will be to find the Yankee first baseman for 1946. Five first sackers will report.

The incumbent, Nick Etten, will turn up at Bradenton, Fla., with the rest of the wartime Yankees. Coach Johnny Neun or Bill Meyer, Kansas City manager, will be in charge of that group of Yankees—players who have been with the Yanks during the past few years and whose talents are known to Marse Joe.

The Yankee manager will be at St. Pete to look over service returns and rookies. Four first basemen are included in the group that will work out under the big boss. They are Buddy Hassett of the 1942 team, Johnny Sturm, first baseman in 1941, and rookies

NICK ETTEN

Walter Nowak and Steve Souchok. Etten, of course, is the man they have to beat out, for Nick, after hitting only .271 in 1943, came back with .293 the following year and led the American League in homers with 22. Last season he hit .285. He's a veteran of seven major league campaigns and is 31 years old.

Hassett, also a veteran of seven big league seasons, is 33 but feels he has a couple of good seasons left. Buddy, it was rumored, turned down a chance to manage the Yankee farm team at Binghamton, N. Y., for another fling in the majors.

The popular Hassett last played with the Yanks in 1942, hitting .284 but bowing out when he broke a thumb in the World Series with the Cardinals. It was the chance he looked forward to since his Manhattan College days, Hassett's lifetime average of .292 is compared with Etten's .282.

Johnny Sturm, Yankee regular first baseman in 1941 when he hit a meagre .238, is back from the Army and will get the opportunity as prescribed by baseball law.

McCarthy will scrutinize the fielding and hitting of two other first sackers, both of whom he has never seen. They are Walter Nowak, 29-year-old star who batted .334 and drove home 80 runs in 116 games with Kansas City last season, and Steve Souchok, 27-year-old Army dischargee who last played organized ball in 1942 when he hit .315 batting average with Binghamton led the Eastern League in hitting. Nowak also played 22 games with Newark last year, hitting .287 during his short stay in the International League.

McCarthy admits his first base problem demands much attention, possibly more than the Joe Gordon-George Stranewiss argument at second base.

"I don't think I have any worries about Gordon playing second or third," said McCarthy on his recent visit to New York. "I'll leave that to the sports writers, some of whom have already decided who'll play what."

White, Burrow Open Training At Settles

Trainer Jack Harrison, who fought as a pro for several years in Central Texas, launched Golden Gloves boxing workouts in the newly equipped gymnasium in the basement of the Settles hotel Monday night.

Something like a dozen youngsters dropped in during the evening to either kibitz the proceedings or don the training trunks and start workouts under the attentive eye of the gendarme.

Two of the better looking prospects are Billy White, a rugged welterweight who is being trained in the finger art of the business by a brother, and Gerald Burrow, a willing light-heavyweight.

Harrison worked furiously until Harrison rang down the curtain for the evening.

White limited his drills to shadow boxing and limbering up his leg muscles.

Others who made themselves apparent included Johnny Hooper, 136-pound 16-year-old; James Epler, welterweight; L. C. Thornton, a rangy welter who must trim off a few pounds; and Billy Carlyle, who comes in at 135 pounds or thereabouts.

Harrison is looking forward toward the arrival of a muscular young heavyweight by the name of Bobby Woods, a devastating puncher who should go a long way in his weight. He tips the scales at 227 pounds and is but 18 years of age.

The gym can be approached through the employees' entrance of the hotel, Harrison advised.

Drills will continue six nights a week until the fights begin Feb. 8.

Grid League In Texas Bridges Organizing Pro

Six-Team Loop Ready, Claims Ex-Bear Coach

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF Associated Press Sports Writer

Amos Melton, Fort Worth Star-Telegram sports writer who hasn't been back from the service long, was amazed at the quality of football in the Southwest conference.

He, of course, hadn't seen any of the conference football in wartime but had heard about it and expected 1945 to also be below par.

"Well, this University of Texas team that played in the Cotton Bowl was good enough for any season," observed Amos.

"He also had plenty of praise for Bobby Layne, the great Texas back. Somebody remarked that Doak Walker of Southern Methodist was a better all-around player."

"Well, if Walker is better than Layne, he's really something," said Amos as he recalled how Bobby Layne made four touchdowns, passed for two more and kicked our field goals to account for all of the Texas points in the Cotton Bowl.

The Southwest conference should change things some next fall and come up with an All-America back.

This area has been placing men on the All-America but in the past four years the three boys put on the All-Star aggregation were all ends.

Thinking about Layne and Walker and Leon Joslin of Texas Christian and Rob Goode of Texas A. and M., you get the idea this conference ought to have at least one back on the All-America in 1946.

Frank Bridges, the little guy who has coached from here to there, now is busy organizing a pro football league in Texas. He says he will have a six-team loop ready to operate next fall and if he can find the right man to run it will coach one of the teams.

That would bring back to this state one of its most colorful mentors.

They'll never forget bridges at Waco where he gave Baylor its only conference championships. He dug up plays that had the opposition in a dither and he did everything with a flourish.

As a raconteur, Frank is unsurpassed. His latest concerns the time he was playing pro baseball at San Augustine and there was just one paid admission.

"The umpire looked up at the one fellow in the stands," says Bridges, "and announced: 'Dear sir, batteries for today—'"

Big Cline Hartung, the San Antonio service league baseball player who has been sold to the New York Giants for $25,000 and about whom they are raving in the majors although he isn't yet out of the Army, is remembered for his pitching and hitting with the Honcho high school team in a state tournament here several years ago.

Hartung was signed to a pro contract by Mike Kelly of Minneapolis back in 1941 and played in 66 games in the Class A Northern league before joining the Army in 1942. Old highs at San Antonio aren't so high on the youngster, commenting that while he has nothing much else. They claim he showed to advantage down there because he pitched mostly under dim lights.

But Hartung also is a first baseman and an outfielder and thus has three chances instead of one of making the big league grade. A 21-year-old who is 6-foot-5 and weighs 210-pounds and can get around well has a fine opportunity any time.

Clothiers Roll On, Bowl Over Truckers By 2 To 1 Count In Classic Slug-fest

White Truck's contingent accomplished Jack Smith of the Cosden team. In play last Dec. 31, Smith banged over a 277, then went on to pile up a tally of 616.

Standings:

Team	W.	L.	Pct.
Wasson	15	2	.872
White	10	8	.555
Hanson	9	9	.500
Cosden	9	9	.500
TES	6	12	.333
First National	5	13	.277

With the victory, the Wasson troupe pushed their record for the campaign to 15 triumphs in 17 starts. The Truckers are the only other outfit which has been able to win more than half their tests.

They boast a 10-8 mark for the year.

Cosden's Ollers, with Luke LeBleu leading the way, made up for lost time by knocking over First National Bank, 3-0, while Texas Electric Service was edging Lee Hanson's, 2-1.

LeBleu, aided by a 226 salvo, racked up high aggregate for the evening with 593 pins, although he had to go some to beat the Electricians' Stan Wheeler, who had high game with 243 and finished with a 551 total.

Record score for the year was

Malaise Quintet Seeking First League Triumph

Big Spring high school's basketball Longhorns, who have been spinning their wheels in District 3AA play, try to get started again tonight in an 8 o'clock game with an old nemesis — the Midland Bulldogs.

The argument will take place in the local fieldhouse.

The 'Dogs are not up to law this year. They've taken their lumps all along the line. Stanton has bopped them on several occasions. However, against the Steers in their own ballpark last week they registered a positive reaction, winning, 25-22.

Since then, the resident quint has lost to Odessa and the Midlanders returned to their losing ways, exiting from the Stanton tournament in an early round last week.

John Malaise is experimenting with the Big Springers' offense and may inject new blood into the starting lineup. That could be Hughie Cochran, the bespectacled forward who has been coming a-long.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With ANGUS LECESTER
Our prep school football Steers will have the unenviable task of trying to queer the gridiron wizardry of Pete Shotwell next fall. The diminutive Shotwell assumes the coaching reins at Abilene high school, succeeding Jake Bentley, who did not seek the post again.

Pete will draw down $100 a week the year around for the job — which likely constitutes the best high school contract of its kind in Texas circles.

The aging tutor has been given a better wage scale than perhaps any college coach in the state of Texas—with the exception of Southwest conference schools. (Dana Bible, Texas, has been earning $15,000. Homer Norton, A&M, drags in something that runs into five figures, and most of the other Southwest conference mentors get about $6,500 each.)

Shotwell will be remembered here for the great Breckenridge team he brought here around 1930. The redoubtable Boone Magness was the whirling dervish of the Buckie club that year and Magness, who played as if he had ice water in his veins, clubbed out a 19-7 victory over the Longhorns.

It remained for Big Spring's Bill Flowers to contribute the most scintillating play of the afternoon, however. The speedy halfback wrapped the pigskin under his arm on a kickoff and sped 85 yards untouched across the double stripes. Steer followers felt as if they had gained a moral victory after that.

Officials of the interscholastic league are thinking seriously of forcing all post-district football games to be played on Saturdays.

It is their contention that too many school hours are wasted at the time they're needed most.

Small Businesses Aided By Agency, Maverick Says

WASHINGTON, Jan. 15 (AP) — Chairman Maury Maverick said today the Smaller War Plants Corporation provided 5,412 small businesses with $510,396,233 in assistance since September, 1942.

The corporation goes out of existence January 28, its functions transferred by executive order to the department of commerce and Reconstruction Finance Corporation. Maverick will retire to a private law practice.

He expressed hope in a statement that the government will continue to meet needs of small plants. Loan applications last month totaled 415, largest in SWPC's history, Maverick said.

"The real little fellows, who needed help the most, were the ones who got the money," he remarked.

Princess Reported Dead In Nazi Camp

ROME, Jan. 15. (AP) — Queen Elena of Italy has lost the use of her right eye as result of shock brought about by the death of her daughter, Princess Mafalda, newspaper Italia Nuova reported today.

The 73-year-old queen lives in Naples with King Vittorio Emanuele III. The newspaper said Princess Mafalda was injured in an Allied air raid on the camp where she was interned, and died after an arm was amputated.

Veterans To Take Part In Politics, Says Stevenson

AUSTIN, Jan. 15 (AP) — Gov. Coke Stevenson said today he anticipated big participation by returned service men in politics this year.

Answering questions at his press conference, Stevenson said he was satisfied that there should be no difficulty in the mechanics of voting poll tax free by service men, and that he did not consider the soldier vote situation an emergency that would warrant calling a special session.

Stevenson said he felt that under terms of the vote-free constitutional amendment adopted last summer, all a service man would have to do to assure his vote would be to exhibit a certificate of discharge, or merely to make an affidavit.

Chinese Students Urge Withdrawal Of US Troops

SHANGHAI, Jan. 15 (AP) — Chinese students who shouted "Why don't you go home?" to American troops demonstrated in Shanghai streets today for establishment of a democratic China and withdrawal of United States forces.

Leaders of the several thousand students who marched six abreast through the streets, said the demonstration was part of a nationwide movement.

At a later mass meeting speakers loudly criticized Nationalist troops for allegedly firing on a recent student demonstration in Kunming, where four students and a teacher were reported to have been killed.

On the morning of Jan. 28 all 4-H steers and lambs entered in the Houston stock show will be exhibited briefly beside the county agent's office, Durward Lewter, county agent, has announced.

The animals will be assembled there in preparation for their trip to Houston, where they will show on Feb. 2. Howard county entries include five Hereford steers, two Angus steers, three Southdown lambs, and one fine wool lamb.

The stock may not look its best, as entries will not be permitted to feed immediately before the trip. Lewter said, but anyone desiring to see them will be able to get some idea of the type of animals being shown this year by Howard county 4-H club members.

Q: How much light is enough for shaving?

A: The best light is natural daylight, but daylight for your shaving mirror isn't always possible. But you'll find that the new improvements in artificial lighting are a long step ahead.

For example, look at these new bathroom mirror brackets. They give far more light, and because of their plastic shields, are almost shadowless.

Begin to enjoy the benefits of Better Lighting in your home by seeing that all lamp sockets are filled with large enough bulbs to make seeing easier.

The natural lighting you enjoy when reading under a tree is an example of good illumination. Better Light in your home brings you closer to nature's ideal.

Editorial-- Basis Before The Point

Somewhere there is a point on which most of the labor-management difficulties could be compromised.

Arriving at this point, however, will be well nigh impossible until a basis is established.

One of the chief difficulties of the current situation is that there is no agreement as to a common basis for settlement of grievances. Into the matter of wages has been interjected the matter of ability to pay. This, in itself, puts both management and labor poles apart on a fundamental basis, for labor assumes that ability to pay is a direct approach to the problem, whereas management is adamant that this is an irrelevant issue, that ability is reflected inherently but not inclusively.

Perhaps there could be a meeting of minds on the ability to pay point should labor make known that it regards this as a binding feature of wage scales. In other words, should profits decline sharply and even disappear, would labor be willing to accept a corresponding slice in its return? If not, then there is little likelihood at the present that there can be an agreement on a basic principle.

There are many angles to both sides of this case. There is the philosophy that it is the worker who produces, hence he is entitled to a better share in the fruits of his labors. There is the philosophy that management takes the risks and initiative and responsibility of realizing on the value of production not only through its administration but by distribution, hence profit is the return for this risk. There is one belief that profits should be subject to division as a preventative against undue surpluses, which would permit a producer to withdraw or curtail operations to the detriment of the worker. There is the position that profits permit creation of reserves on which businesses must rely to pull them through the lean years when there are little or no profits.

But these philosophies are widely separated. Unfit there can be some agreement on this point of argument, there can be little hope of reaching the point of settlement.

Ah, Sweet Mystery

An old peevish of ours, because our business makes us the target for more of it than the average individual, is this business of governmental publicity. All during the prolonged period of paper shortage, there was an unimaginable amount of sheer waste on the part of governmental agencies issuing regular propaganda in interest of perpetuation. The armed services came along and outdid the old hands in this field. And all of them are still at it. Why we regularly get releases from military installations breaking the news to us that two weeks ago Gen. So and So was made a minor official in such and such a department in Washington, or

With The News

MADRID, Jan. 15 (AP)—This is a crucial moment in the frequently turbulent history of Spain, for the signs are that the question of restoration of the monarchy is coming to a head.

Now, that's no light matter, since the country is sharply divided politically, as the world learned from the bloody civil war of 1936-39. Things are quiet now, and have been for a considerable time, but so has Vesuvius.

This offers an ample explanation for the mystery which surrounds the reported negotiations between Don Juan, pretender to the throne, and Generalissimo Franco. Extreme caution is necessary.

As I pointed out yesterday, a fresh indication that the monarchists and Franco are maneuvering into position for a decision lies in the official admission that Don Juan and his wife are to meet her parents for a visit to neutral Portuguese soil. This could be just a family affair, but the concensus here is that Don Juan's father-in-law, Don Carlos, is to act as an intermediary between the pretender and the generalissimo.

It stands out like a sore thumb that the Spanish government should confirm this to the foreign press representatives in Madrid. This idea is strengthened by the fact that the Spanish ambassador to Lisbon, Nicholas Franco, the generalissimo's brother, also confirmed Don Juan's visit at a press conference in the Portuguese capital last Saturday, as became known today in Spain when newspapers reported the statement. This is the first time the subject has been mentioned in the Spanish press.

It struck me as being highly significant that the question of this visit should be dealt with officially at the moment when America, Britain and France are to meet at the request of Franco to discuss allied relations with Spain. Talk of Don Juan's return to the throne might ease the position of the Spanish government, which hasn't been happy in its associations with Washington, London and Paris for a long time.

wherever it may be. Wire services either carried the story or ignored it because of its inconsequence. And yet some public relations appointee or officer, charged with accumulating a record to justify his existence, bombards us with realms of this junk. Ah, sweet mystery.

Life's Darkest Moment

With The AEF: Troopers Congregate In USO Staging Area

By HAL BOYLE
MANILA, (AP)—From down the road floats a lovely soprano voice shouting: "Woe, woe, little Joe!" The dice game is underway again in the USO staging area. It usually operates on a 24-hour basis, and Gracie, a brunette dancer, is the star performer. She may never tear down the rafters on Broadway, but she sure can put on a good show in a crap game. The boys like to watch her as she bends over and chants to the wandering dominoes like a voo-doo medicine lady. But they don't like the way she builds up that pile of pesos in front of her.

Since Barnum's museum on a rainy holiday, there has been nothing to compare with the USO staging area. Here groups of entertainers are assembled and dispatched to Japan, Korea and other troop centers.

They spend a week or 10 days here before starting out on their circuits.

The staging area is a small palm thatched community on the outskirts of Manila, and it is about as quiet as the Bronx zoo just before feeding time.

From dawn to dusk it presents this picture:

On the wooden floored mess hall a row of chorus girls in slacks sofas through their routine to keep the tinkling pianist straight on his rhythm. . . . Across the way comes the thump of drums and the moan of clarinets as a small band joggles lazily through its numbers. . . . Over by the post exchange Gracie and the boys play dice against back doors.

Two cauliflower-eared acrobats lunge viciously back and forth across a table tennis board in the yard sweating harder than they do turning back-flips on the stage.

They try to egg the famous trick shot pingpong artist into a game but he can't see it. . . .

"If I beat you what does it get me?" he asked. "If you beat me they'll send me back to America."

One of the young girls making her first trip out tells a group of oldtime actors "You know how to get ahead on the stage? I'll tell you. . . . They're nice people who were living out of their trunks before she was born. They laugh and let her ramble on. . . . Father down the long table, another first-time with an accent as thick as a Park Avenue bore tires everybody with her story that "I don't have to do this—but my folks are letting me act for fun" . . .

Above the babel of talk comes the sympathetic scream from a blonde. "You going to Okinawa, kid? Oh, my God, she's going to Okinawa. What a dump that place was. But wait until you hit Korea. It's so cold there the GI's sit on their hands to keep warm."

They laugh so hard that the perspiring juggler in his undershirt looks over and drops his Indian clubs. . . .

"What do you do if you drop them like that when somebody is looking?" someone asks. . . . He silently locks one finger and acts as if he were marking score on the wall. . . .

"I know a better one" replied his critic. "When you miff one you just say 'That was just part of the act—the part I can't do. That gets them in the belly' . . ."

A disgruntled magician, having more trouble opening a beer bottle than he does palming a deck of cards, cries out in sudden disgust: "Two weeks we have been stuck here just because that roller skater hasn't got his skates yet. The whole show held up. Is that economic? Why didn't they put us in a roller skater?" . . .

And over his complaint, rises Gracie's throaty cry: "Woe, woe, little Joe."

Actor, Apprehended In Fort Worth, Will Face Theft Charges

FORT-WORTH, Jan. 15 (AP)—Albert Deverich, 29, free lance actor held here on charges of grand theft filed in Beverly Hills, Calif., by Mrs. Lois Hendricks, has waived extradition, Fort Worth police announced.

Beverly Hills detectives, they added, are enroute to return him to California.

Mrs. Hendricks in her charges alleged that she advanced between $3,000 and $4,000 to Deverich to start a flying school.

A discharged service man, he said he had "been going with" Mrs. Hendricks intermittently for four years and planned to marry her until he met Marilyn Garland.

He identified Miss Garland as a 19-year-old heiress and granddaughter of the late William Garland, millionaire Los Angeles financier and civic leader.

He said he and Miss Garland were married in Yuma, Ariz., Jan. 8.

Washington Merry-Go-Round—

WASHINGTON.—Playing hide-and-seek with the Senate continues to be one of Washington's favorite pastimes. Here is the story of one game as told by GOP Senator Ferguson of Michigan.

The Mead committee was inspecting the US naval base at San Juan, Puerto Rico. The place was immaculate. Every shoe was shined, every jeep polished, not a speck could be seen on a barrack floor. The Senators were impressed.

At dinner that evening, Senators were entertained by gracious Capt. R. H. Baker, the commanding officer. Suddenly Senator Ferguson felt a mess boy slip something into his lap. The mess boy was an enlisted man and what he handed the Senator from Michigan were the special instructions issued by Captain Baker ordering the base to be prepared for the Senators' arrival.

Captain Baker had not missed a thing. He even ordered a rehearsal of entertainment ceremony for the Senators.

Even Clean Underwear

"There will be an officer stationed at the entrance of the main office building," read the order, "to conduct the party through the main office for inspection. This officer will be Lieutenant Sampson who will take immediate steps to insure that the entrance to the building and the office itself is thoroughly cleaned and shipshape. The chief clerk will assist in this.

"Captain of the yard is to issue orders immediately to clean up all areas of the yard and authority is hereby given to use any and all enlisted men and civilians in the amount necessary to accomplish this purpose.

"Uniforms for officers and men will be the working uniform unless otherwise specified. Officers are cautioned to wear clean khaki (grays may be worn if khaki not available). Enlisted men on duty will wear clean dungarees, blue shirts, and white hats. Shoes will be polished. Black socks will be worn. Clean underwear will be worn.

"Inspection of the barracks will be held at 1300 by Lieutenant Corporan, who will serve advance notice that the place is to be immaculate at that time. Noon meal will be served at 1100 and all hands will eat at that hour in order to provide time for policing the kitchens and the barracks.

"The transportation officer will inspect all motor vehicles of the yard to the end that they are washed and as presentable as possible. He will see that the commanding officers car is cleaned no later than 1100.

"A rehearsal for officers will be held on Monday at 1400 at which time all officers will assume their stations and will be further instructed. The cooperation of all officers is requested to the end that a favorable impression of this activity is gained by the inspecting party."

Captain Baker would have made a great impression on the Senate committee, if the enlisted man hadn't slipped the order of the day into Senator Ferguson's lap at the dinner table.

Hide-and-Seek Continues

Latest game of Senatorial hide-and-seek took place when the Mead committee visited the Army's air base at Greensboro, N. C., where, in order to give an impression of intense activity, GI's were put to work on Sunday, their day off. Prior to this, GI's had been working only a few days a week.

But the prize game of hide-and-seek occurred last spring when, as the war neared its close, Gen. Curtis LeMay, head of the 20th Air Force reported that his B-29's had run out of primary targets in Japan. As a result, several aides to Secretary of War Stimson

Extraterritoriality - La Guardia's Word

By J. FRANK TRAGLE
WASHINGTON—Extraterritoriality fills your mouth with teeth when you try to pronounce it, but a lot of people are talking about it these days.

It has been applied to the diplomatic field for years. If the United Nations Organization is established in the United States, you'll hear much more of it.

Former Mayor La Guardia of New York has stated that he is confident New York City eventually will be selected as the home for UNO and has suggested that something be given to extraterritoriality—a word almost as long as Mr. La Guardia is tall.

What it means is that a person or thing is outside of local laws. The British Embassy in Washington is regarded as a part of the British Empire and the United States Embassy in Moscow as a tiny segment of the USA. It makes possible a sanctuary abroad where representatives of a nation may completely mind their own business.

This immunity is extended also to an ambassador or minister, his secretaries and other aides, his family, his household servants and others officially associated with him.

Technically an American cop cannot pinch an ambassador for driving his car through a stop sign or for burning down a church to see the fire engines run. In fact, if such an arrest is made, a police officer can be sentenced to up to three years in jail and fined any amount a judge considers proper.

But there are ways of checking abuses. Were a diplomatic representative to make himself obnoxious by wilfully disregarding this nation's laws, the US State Department could make his activities known to his government. It's a good bet the erring diplomat

Navy Tries To Fool Mead Committee

Hide-and-Seek Continues

Latest game of Senatorial hide-and-seek took place when the Mead committee visited the Army's air base at Greensboro, N. C., where, in order to give an impression of intense activity, GI's were put to work on Sunday, their day off. Prior to this, GI's had been working only a few days a week.

But the prize game of hide-and-seek occurred last spring when, as the war neared its close, Gen. Curtis LeMay, head of the 20th Air Force reported that his B-29's had run out of primary targets in Japan. As a result, several aides to Secretary of War Stimson advised a cutback in bomb production.

The matter came to the attention of the Mead committee, when it discovered that the Air Corps had produced and shipped a large quantity of obsolete bombs to Europe, although Eisenhower's staff counseled they weren't needed. So the committee called Brig. Gen. Kenneth S. Royall to testify on the entire bomb procurement program. When General Royall returned to the War Department, he was jubilant. Walking into a meeting of the Procurement Advisory committee, he said:

"Well, we certainly fooled the Senate."

"What do you mean?" asked another officer.

"Well, they only asked us about a type of bomb which they claimed was surplus in Europe. I convinced them from the records that there was no surplus of this type."

What had happened was that the Senators had asked about a bomb weighing five pounds more than the bomb which actually was surplus. They didn't think to ask about other types of bombs.

"Why didn't you tell them about the other kinds that we do have surplus of?" asked Royall's questioner.

"They didn't ask us and why should we tell them? They're only looking for publicity anyhow."

General Royall is now acting Secretary of War.

Old Old Story

Senators did not know until months later that they lost out in this particular game of hide-and-seek. When they heard about it, one Senator remarked:

"That's like the story of the railroad watchman who was guarding a crossing where a train hit an automobile. At the trial he stated under cross-examination that he had been waving his lantern to warn the automobile. After the railroad won its case, the watchman's attorney asked if he was nervous while being questioned.

"Only once," replied the watchman. "If that fellow had asked me if the lantern was lit, we'd have lost the case."

Note—More serious Senatorial opinion is that if some of these things hadn't been hushed up, they would have been corrected at the time instead of accumulating pent-up steam.

Capital Chaff

The radio time for Senator Taft's attack on Truman's address to the nation was reserved for him by the Republican National Committee . . . When Henry Kaiser signed his new contract with the auto workers, he remarked: "Dick Thomas (UAW president) is the man who came to the West Coast last year and convinced me that I should take over the Willow Run plant and make automobiles. That puts the responsibility on his shoulders to see to it that I have the men to do the job." Thomas assured him that "with this kind of a contract I can assure you that all the workers in the plant, and all those in the union will cooperate to help you build a solid foundation in the automobile industry" . . .

Breezy Representative Frank Boykin of Mobile, Alabama, who at time has launched some vigorous attacks on Mrs. Roosevelt, keeps a framed picture of himself, Mrs. Boykin and Mrs. Roosevelt in his office . . . Ex-Congressman T. V. Smith of Chicago is the leading candidate to head the UNRRA mission in White Russia.

The Merry-Go-Round

Last spring the Department of Agriculture quietly agreed to advance France 750,000 tons of sugar from the Cuban crop. French colonial crops at that time were down to practically nothing and even what we loaned the French permitted a per capita consumption of only 22 pounds annually, compared with our 64. This friendly move is paying off now, however; because under the terms of the agreement, practically the entire French West Indies crop this year comes to us. It is somewhat larger than was anticipated, and current estimates are that we will receive about 900,000 tons . . .

Henry Morgenthau's book on Germany, which appeared last fall, is not the only book the former Secretary of Treasury will write. During his 12 years of close association with President Roosevelt, Morgenthau made a painstaking notes on every conversation he had with FDR — and except for Harry Hopkins he probably had more than any other cabinet officer. Four historians are now at work on Morgenthau's voluminous files — on a two-year project to culminate next year in a two volumes to be published by Simon and Schuster . . . Civilian Production Administrator John Small is getting a reputation around the capitol as a lightweight John Snyder — just as ineffective but less important.

The Nation Today—

Manufacture Of Home Fixtures Involved In Electrical Strike

WASHINGTON, Jan. 15 (AP)—Your postwar refrigerator, washing machine, electric range and oil heater are all involved in the electrical workers' strike today.

The strike affects about 200,000 members of the United Electrical Radio and Machine Workers of America (CIO) in plants of the General Electric, Westinghouse and General Motors companies in 26 states.

The union, in voting to strike against the three companies acted shrewdly. This is why:

The union has a total membership of probably more than 500,000 in this country. But only about 200,000 of them are employed in the three companies named.

The products of those three companies are slowed up or shut down. But the products of the other companies in which the union members work, keep on being produced.

Beverly Hills detectives, they added, are enroute to return him to California.

Mrs. Hendricks in her charges alleged that she advanced between $3,000 and $4,000 to Deverich to start a flying school.

A discharged service man, he said he had "been going with" Mrs. Hendricks intermittently for four years and planned to marry her until he met Marilyn Garland.

He identified Miss Garland as a 19-year-old heiress and granddaughter of the late William Garland, millionaire Los Angeles financier and civic leader.

He said he and Miss Garland were married in Yuma, Ariz., Jan. 8.

The union rejected this, since no direct increase in hourly pay was offered.)

2. General Motors offered a 13 1/2 cents an hour increase. This was too low to satisfy the CIO union's demand of 25 cents an hour.

3. General Electric offered an increase of 10 cents an hour or 10 per cent, which ever was higher. Which meant: Employees receiving less than $1.00 an hour would receive a 10-cent raise; employees receiving more than $1.00 an hour would receive an increase of more than 10 per cent.

All of these offers were unacceptable to the union, which last September told the companies what it wanted in the way of a raise.

To Hold Examinations

AUSTIN, Jan. 15 (AP)—The merit system council will hold examinations on Feb. 23 for positions in the state department of public welfare, the Texas unemployment compensation commission and the United States employment service.

Sino Red Leader Seeks Audience With Marshall

CHUNGKING, Jan. 15. (AP) — Chou En-Lai, No. 2 Chinese Communist, today sought a meeting with General Marshall. He was reported ready to complain against alleged government violations of the recent civil strife truce agreement.

Chou's move followed a Communist charge that on Monday government forces "ferociously attacked" Kwangshan, Communist-held highway center in Southeastern Honan province. A government spokesman denied the charge and reported that federal forces everywhere had halted military operations at the Sunday midnight deadline, "except where they were forced to fight in self-defense."

A few hours earlier, the Communist party demanded reorganization of national and provincial governments and nationalization of the armed forces in a sweeping program submitted to the political consultation conference through Tung Pi-Wu, its elder statesman.

Strike Threats Curtail Output In Steel Plants

PITTSBURGH, Jan. 15. (AP) — The steel industry, back for at least a few days more operation, moved toward normal again today but kept an eye peeled for developments in Washington where President Truman is to talk with union and management spokesmen tomorrow.

The new deadline for a general strike of 800,000 CIO steelworkers is 12:01 a. m. Monday.

Nearly 30,000 steelworkers were idle in six states today—12,000 in New York, 6,500 in Illinois, 5,000 in Massachusetts, 3,500 in Indiana, 2,000 in Pennsylvania and 900 in Connecticut.

The American Iron and Steel Institute estimated steel mills will operate at 76.5 per cent capacity this week, as compared with 82.0 per cent last week. Production was predicted at 1,401,200 tons against 1,502,000 last week.

One new strike was reported. Three hundred CIO steelworkers walked out at the wire mill of Bethlehem Steel Co. at Williamsport, Pa., in protest against what they said was a revision of their work schedule.

Biggest walkout was at the Bethlehem plant at Lackawanna, N. Y., where 11,000 have been idle since Friday.

The workers charge the company rejected a union proposal to assist in making "equitable arrangements" for plant maintenance in event of a strike.

Similar local issues were involved in the other, pre-deadline strikes.

From Washington came word the government would cancel all priorities on steel — military as well as civilian — if there is a steel strike. New priorities would be granted, it was announced, to channel steel products only to public utilities and emergency uses. Officials said stocks would last "probably for months" if so used.

Farmers Cautioned Against Purchasing Untested Seed

AUSTIN, Jan. 15. (AP) — Farmers were cautioned by J. E. McDonald, state commissioner of agriculture, against buying cheap seed.

"Don't buy seed because it's cheap or just as good," said the commissioner. "Buy seed that has been tested by a recognized seed testing laboratory or a reputable seedsmen and tagged with a Texas germination tag."

There is no more pathetic sight, said McDonald, than a poor stand of cotton, peas, or other crops because of poor quality seed.

Over Inch And Half Of Snow Measured

Over an inch and half of snow fell in the city and vicinity since 6:30 this morning, records at the weather bureau indicate. Continued snow tonight and possibly tomorrow has been forecast.

The snow flurries began at 4:50 this morning following 24 hours of intermittent showers when .48 inch of rain was gauged.

Dallas Sportsman Slain By Gunman

DALLAS, Jan. 15. (AP) — Police today sought the ambush killer of Robert Lee (Bob) Minyard, 32-year-old Dallas sportsman who went down fighting — a belching automatic in his hand.

Minyard was fatally wounded by a hidden gunman as he walked from his garage toward his house late last night, Detective Chief Will Fritz said.

According to Mrs. Minyard, they had arrived home in their automobile and Minyard had left his wife out at the side door of the house. After Minyard put the car in the garage, he started toward the house whistling.

A single blast rang out, followed by three pistol shots. Mrs. Minyard found her husband slumped on the ground, his car keys lying beside him. She said his automatic was in his hand and that he had fired three shots at the hidden assailant as he went down.

Texas Will Have Plenty Of Meat

HOUSTON, Jan. 15. (AP) — Regardless of what the meat supply may be throughout the rest of the country, Houston will continue to get its juicy steaks and roasts when CIO packinghouse workers strike tomorrow, in the opinion of a number of representative meat industry men here.

Others, however, are not so sure there will be enough meat if the strike is called, and some incline to the opinion that an acute shortage will develop within a few days.

Such a strike will actually improve the local meat supply, in the opinion of J. W. Sartwell, president and general manager of the Port City Packing Company.

It should divert more meat animals to this market, he said, resulting in an increase of meat here.

All plants in the city can increase their kill as much as 100 percent in emergencies, he explained. The only thing which would hold them down would be the cooler capacity, he said. He pointed out that if the coolers were regularly emptied by delivery to the traps, the increased killings could continue.

"Texas will be hurt by the strike less than any other state," he said, "and Houston will be hurt less than any city in Texas."

While most independent packers inclined to the view expressed by Sartwell, some local packers estimated that the meat supply will be reduced by as much as 20 percent from present supplies.

White Rat Medical Tests Now Suspect

DALLAS, Jan. 15. (AP) — All medical information drawn from experiments with the white rat in the last half century is now suspect as a result of wartime research work with radioactive materials, Dr. Dean B. Cowie of the Carnegie Institute, Washington, told the Texas Radiological Society last night.

The 32-year-old atom expert and director of the institute's huge cyclotron said the rat had been proved dubious as an experimental animal during research on anti-mony as a treatment for elephantiasis. The white rat has been commonly used for research in such diseases as syphilis for fifty years.

Two Hurt When Auto Hits Mule In Road

EL PASO, Jan. 15. (AP) — Two men were seriously injured last night when their automobile struck a mule on the highway near here and careened 300 yards into a nearby pasture.

The injured, who are in a hospital here, are Paul R. Priest, 31, Amarillo, Tex., who suffered a possible skull fracture; and C. A. Boops, 38, Amarillo, who was treated for severe lacerations.

The mule which was thrown over the automobile, smashing the windshield and caving in the top, was killed.

Thief Returns Gun, After Using Shells

H. M. Howell, 104 W. 22nd, had an unusual experience Monday when the thief who stole his .22 rifle Sunday drove up to his house and left the gun.

Police said entrance was made to the house by a window and a box of shells was also taken.

Howell told police that no shells were returned and the side of his gun was broken.

Two Dead In Crash

GALVESTON, Jan. 15. (AP) — Mrs. W. C. Washburn, 25, of Lamarque, bride of two months, and her brother-in-law, Robert Washburn, 20, of the US Navy, were killed late last night when their automobile was in collision with a freight train near Lamarque. Robert Washburn was visiting his brother while on leave from the navy.

Taxi Driver In Wreck Fined On Two Counts

Jimmie Williams, driver of the taxi involved in a wreck last Wednesday on highway 80 in which one man was killed and five injured, pleaded guilty and was fined one dollar and costs on two counts today before Walter Grice, justice of the peace.

"But Mr. Johnson next door got a telephone!"

IF YOU ARE WAITING for a telephone but the telephone man stops at your neighbor's house, most likely your neighbor has been waiting longer than you have. If that's not the reason, it's probably because:

- He has just moved from somewhere else in the city and had his telephone service moved, or...
- There may be serious illness in the family and a telephone is necessary during the emergency, or...
- Your neighbor may be a returned veteran needing a telephone to re-establish him in civilian life, or...
- A telephone in his home may be necessary to the health and welfare of the community.

With these necessary exceptions, those waiting are served in the order in which we received the application. In some neighborhoods, of course, we shall be able to catch up more quickly than in others. But, as telephone plant is constructed, our aim is to see that everyone gets service in proper turn.

We're putting in telephones as fast as we can. And whether your turn for service comes in the near future, or not for several months, you can be sure we're looking forward to the day when the telephone man will knock at your door and say:

"I'm here to put in your telephone."
