

Politics is getting thicker by the minute. Here's one for you. Jack Carswell and Joseph Rummel are scheduled to fly in at the Clovis airport this morning.

They say that if anybody shows any interest in their appearance, they'll come over to make some speeches on the courthouse lawn.

Do you know who they are? I didn't think so.

Well, Carswell is a candidate for governor and Rummel is a candidate for comptroller of public accounts. Their names will be found on the general election ballots facing Texans November 6.

I will have to admit that I couldn't be any more ignorant, I haven't heard of either of the men and don't know a thing about them. All I can say is that the Constitution Party used to run some pretty good horses in the race, including T. Coleman Andrews, the ex-IRS director, who came out with a plank to appeal the income tax.

By the way, Carswell and Rummel are the only two candidates on the whole slate for the Constitutionalists this year, so that makes their appearance more interesting.

For reasons he doesn't understand, Carswell called Bob Anderson Tuesday night and told him about the couple's plans. They were to have flown up from Houston to appear on TV in Amarillo last night and fly in here this morning between 9 and 10.

Another thing that remains a mystery of life to me is the station held by the telephone. Can you name any other of our own creations which holds such an iron grip on our lives? When the telephone rings it is a signal to stop whatever is underway. The cooking waits, the business deal is interrupted, conversations are broken off, playing is halted, and the paper is laid aside.

Just a few short years ago I had reached the conclusion that the television set must be the Ultimate Master. It appeared that it ruled the lives of everyone. But TV's prestige has fallen from grace.

The squat and ugly little device we call the telephone reigns on, though, as if possessed with supernatural powers which we fear to resist.

I have gone through the experience of waiting for many minutes to see a busy person. When finally ushered into his presence, I opened my mouth to begin to say what I thought was very important, but the telephone in his office sounded.

He said "Excuse me just a moment," stuck the receiver to his ear and rocked back in his chair, completely cut off from my presence just as surely as if we were in different worlds.

When this happens I usually pick up a magazine or doodle on a scrap of paper to mark time while he converses over the phone. I pretend to be engrossed, but nearly always eavesdrop with one ear on the audible side of the conversation.

Invariably the caller has some message of no great import, at least in my judgment, yet here he is hornning in on the time I have so painfully worked for.

Telephone companies today have sugared up their wares to make them more palatable. I am willing to admit that there is probably a psychologically favorable reaction to a pink or green telephone, one with a dial that lights up, or one that emits pear-shaped boings instead of nerve-shattering jangles to announce incoming calls, but the authority of the instrument is still fearful and

Farwell's "Steer" Band Ranks First

Farwell High School "Steer" marching band, under direction of John McGee was in Portales, Saturday where they participated in the Homecoming parade. They were in Class B competition with schools from ten other towns in New Mexico and Texas, and came home with a first place trophy for their efforts.

Other schools in Class B competition were Dexter, Tatum, Texico, Hagerman, and Fort Sumner in New Mexico and Lockney, Whiteface, New Deal, Morton and Olton in Texas. Judging was done by Everett Maxwell from Abernathy.

Many nice comments were heard about the fine performance of the "Steer" band and McGee says he was well pleased with their performance.

On Tuesday the band was in Canyon at Buffalo Stadium where they were in competition with bands from Panhandle, Sunray, Sanford-Fritch, Memphis, Stratford, Gruber and Canadian. All schools participating were doing drill routines which called for precise timing. The Farwell band came home with a number 3 rating which is considered quite good for a school of this size.

were from Odessa and Wichita Falls High Schools and Oklahoma University. Misses Dianne Lovelace and Susan Blair, Farwell twirlers, were in competition with twirlers from the other schools. Miss Lovelace received a rating of 2 with Miss Blair receiving a rating of 3.

The band will be performing at the Farwell-Hale Center football game tonight (Friday). Members of the Hale Center band will be guests of the Farwell band after the game for a party. Several members of the Clovis High School band will also be guests of the band, Friday night.

Farwell Study club members will sponsor an enchilada supper at the Farwell School Cafeteria Friday, October 26, 5:30-7:30 p.m., prior to the Farwell-Hale Center football game.

The meal will include enchiladas, beans, salad, pie and a drink, with prices set at $1 for adults and 50¢ for children under twelve years of age.

PTA Project Announced

At the September meeting of Farwell PTA, members voted to take the Farwell junior and senior high school library as a project for the coming year. In order to raise money for the project, members are asking local residents not to buy Christmas cards this year but instead to donate the money usually spent for cards to the library fund.

During the Christmas Holidays, names of all contributors will be printed in this newspaper. For further information watch later editions of this paper.

Cemetery Dinner

The dinner which is held annually, in the fall, by members of the Texico Cemetery Association will be served at the Texico Woman's Club building, election day, Nov 6, with serving of the turkey dinner scheduled to get underway at 11 a.m.

Mrs. Wesley Engram is serving as chairman of the food committee, in the absence of Mrs. E. G. Blair, and she is asking the cooperation of each person to make the dinner a success.

Jim Bob Smart, secretary-treasurer of the cemetery association, says all money derived from the dinner will be used for the upkeep of the cemetery.

Hale Center Here Tonight at 7:30

Farwell, whose hopes for a shot at the district crown were harpooned by a savage bunch of Kangaroos last week, roll out the carpet for Hale Center tonight at Steer Stadium. Game time is 7:30.

The Steers, who opened a sparkling season with eye-opening performances but then fell into the loss column, play their second district game tonight. Since Kress looks like the team to beat in the district now, Farwell's chances of staying in the race, even if they should beat Hale Center, are pretty dim.

Hale Center is on the upswing. They started the season ingloriously, dropping games to Sundown (6-0), Abernathy (42-14) and Olton. However, they showed their stuff in the last game, knocking off Crosbyton which had been undefeated up until that time. The score was 22-6.

Hale Center did not play last week, and will be in peak condition for the contest tonight. They had serious early season injuries but are now operating at full strength.

Farwell is in good shape also, except for Danny Lindop, who still nurses a bad bruise from an early season game. Coach Dempsey Alexander says Lindop should finally get back into the fray against Springlake and Sudan, but he has missed the last three contests.

Of last week's game, when the Kress Kangaroos whitewashed the Steers before a Homecoming crowd 24-0, Alexander said, "They were just too big for us. You can't give away 22 pounds per man and hope to stay in there. They deserved to win, though. I believe they have an even better team than they did last year."

Joe Reed, Steer senior halfback, reels off six yards in the Farwell-Kress game Friday night. The Kangaroo defense bottled up the Steers all night long and was the first team to keep the Blue and White out of the end zone for a whole game.

Texico Boys Win Softball Tourney

Texico high school boys softball team, not to be outdone by their sister team, who won the girls tournament last week, came home with a championship the past weekend when they played in the EPAC tournament at Jaycee Park in Clovis.

Boys won their first game from Logan by a narrow margin of 3-2. Logan scored one run in the second inning of play off the pitching of Bill Campbell with the local boys unable to score until the top of the sixth when the first batter up Skippy Tipton, led off with a bunt and stole second on a bunt hit by Mike Spearman. Spearman was safe at first and Tipton stole third putting him in scoring distance. Next batter up hit a ball to second which the second baseman fumbled with Tipton coming home to tie the game up 1-1.

In the top of the seventh Bill Campbell, local pitcher, hit a homerun to start off the inning with the next batter up, Vernon Thigpen, bunting to get on first. Dyer next batter up was hit by a pitched ball and walked with Thigpen advancing to second, Spearman again got on base by bunting, thus loading the bases. Weldon Walker the next batter executed a perfect squeeze bunt scoring Thigpen. This proved to be enough as Logan was able to pick up only one run in the seventh, which was not enough to overcome the two point lead held by Texico.

In the final game Texico played Elida with the local boys coming out on the long end of a 5-2 score.

Winning pitcher in both games was Bill Campbell, who has turned in some fine pitching performances this year. Catcher was Lynn Dasher.

Texico junior boys lost their first tournament game to Logan 11-7.

Commendable Practice

The picture accompanying this article shows Old Glory flying over the New Mexico state flag. These flags, which add color and inspiration to an otherwise commonplace business decor, fly at Penn's Truck Stop on Mabry Drive west of Texico.

The Tribune thinks the practice of flying the National Colors, along with any state or regional or other emblems which might be suitable, is a commendable practice.

Our United States, once one of the most fiercely patriotic nations on the earth, has let its flag's prestige decline to a low ebb, simply because it was not often displayed. Public buildings such as schools, post offices, city halls, and the like are certainly suitable places to fly the flag, and are places where citizens should expect to see the flag. But the Stars and Stripes belong to us all, and we should display them ourselves on our homes and businesses.

It is a grand feeling to stand and watch the beauty of the wind rippling the colors of our flag. We would like to see a lot more people take up the habit.

National pride is reason enough to buy a flag and standard and let the colors wave, but it's probably good business too. That's an added bonus and we don't think it commercializes patriotism a bit.

Korean Daughters Make Life Brighter

By Chris Moss

For the second time in three and one half years the home of Staff Sgt. and Mrs. S. N. Lewis of Roswell, has been brightened with the arrival of a new little daughter whom they selected from the thousands of homeless children in Korea.

Little Min Choon Kang (Brenda Kay) arrived to make her home with the Lewis family September 9. She had been assigned to them early in April; however due to the change in the refugee bill she was unable to arrive in the states as scheduled. The Lewises were first notified that their daughter would arrive in August via plane but due to many changes, and a typhoon when she was grounded in Tokyo for two days, she finally made her arrival early in September, arriving in the states with eleven other Korean children who were coming to foster homes in America.

Black haired, brown eyed Brenda Kay, who is sixteen months of age, only weighed 15 pounds when she arrived here and had two teeth; however she has added four pounds in as many weeks and has added five new teeth. She is learning to creep and can say a few words. Brenda Kay, whom the Lewises call daughter, was left on the doorstep of city hall in Seoul, Korea and later taken to the Holt Adoption Agency, an orphanage.

Staff Sgt. and Mrs. Lewis, who grew up in Texico first decided to adopt foreign children, when after waiting patiently seven years, they were still on the waiting list to obtain children in the states.

Mrs. Lewis says, that while listening to a radio program one day she heard Mrs. Harriet Sims, also the mother of two Korean children, mention the fact that one could obtain children from Korea. She immediately talked the idea over with her husband and they agreed that they would try to get one or more of these unfortunate children for their own.

In January 1959 they first applied for a child and four months later little Tammie Sue, weighing nine pounds and four months of age arrived to make her home with the Lewises. She has grown into a beautiful little girl who is average height and weight for one of her years. She is soon to have eye surgery to correct a slightly crossed eye condition. Tammie speaks distinctly for one of her tender years and has her favorite foods, one of which is ice cream.

One can truly say that two little girls are fortunate in having found the Lewises for parents; and Mrs. Lewis says, we feel that we are the two luckiest persons in the world to have found such wonderful children for our own. "We have never had any doubt that this is the purpose for which we were intended."

Here Mamma Lewis is shown holding both of her precious daughters. Tammie, the older girl was undecided about the whole process until daddy mentioned the magical word ice cream.

Brenda Kay, youngest of the Lewis children poses for this reporter. Her eye seems to be caught by the lady who never stops talking.

Cub Scout Pack Meeting Slated

A Cub Scout Pack meeting for pack 201 has been scheduled for Saturday night, 7:30 p.m. in the Farwell School cafeteria.

This is to be a reorganizational meeting and parents and all boys interested in becoming cub scouts are urged to attend the meeting. Terry Edwards, scout executive from Clovis will be present and speak on the purposes of scouting.

Theme for the month is "Heroes in Books". Following is a poem which aptly describes the plight of so many of us.

THE SCOUTERS DILEMMA
I love my children, I'm telling you,
And I know there's a lot of work to do
In Scouts and Brownies and PTA
But frankly, I just can't get away.

At the end of day, I'm tired you know,
Just want to go out and see a show,
Or watch TV or play some bridge,
Just too darn tired to mess with kids.

And speaking of kids, you know that crime
Is on the increase all the time?
They ought to do something, maybe at school
To teach the kids to respect a rule.

Or perhaps the church should do more good
And teach them to act the way they should,
I can't understand why they act that way,
Something's wrong somewhere I venture to say.

I send my kids to Scouts and such,
But it really doesn't help much:
They don't appreciate good things at all,
I used to be a Scout when I was

Rogers Says Opposition Paying Him Compliments

"I've been highly complimented by my opposition," said Congressman Walter Rogers at a Democratic Party rally Tuesday afternoon in Friona.

"Out of some 2,000 votes which I cast in Congress, he has only found eight votes to challenge me on, and many of these charges have been stretched completely out of context," Rogers said.

The Democratic congressman, campaigning for re-election as representative for the 18th Congressional District, which comprises Farmer County, added "I've really made more mistakes than that, I'm sure. After all, I'm only human."

Rogers spent most of his time discussing the Cuban crisis. He described the United States' quarantine blockade of the island as part of the general offensive plans of the country.

"There has been some misunderstanding in the past as to whether the U. S. has been on the offensive or not. But we can't very well advertise these things," he said.

Rogers said that the move was the climax of United States policy toward Cuba which started with the stopping of importation of sugar from Cuba under President Eisenhower.

This led to the ending of all trade between the U. S. and Cuba, and when other countries, such as Panama and Greece, broke off trade, it made the move possible, Rogers said.

"We were to the point that if we could stop Soviet vessels, we could have an effective blockade," Rogers said.

"Now we are at a place where there must be a decision made," Rogers said.

He said that the USSR's tactics were to keep a conflagration going in various "trouble spots" throughout the globe, through agitation.

"Nothing will destroy a country faster than internal strife," he warned.

Asked about the 10 per cent reduction in the country's cotton allotment, Rogers said he thought there would be a move in the next Congress to change this.

"I don't think the country's economy can stand this latest reduction," Rogers said. "But a change can't come until after the first of the year," he added. About the sugar beet possibilities, Rogers said he believed things were progressing along that line. "I don't see how a sugar mill could come to any other area," he said.

Green Thumb Tips

Cut the weeds to cut the pests. The weeds growing back of your garage or along the fence lines of your back yard are, unfortunately, first rate breeding spots for numerous insect pests.

Eggs are laid on the weeds, pass the winter on them, and then in spring the insects hatch to feed on your flowers and vegetables. Cut the weeds this fall to avoid this trouble and burn any plants that have visible insect eggs on them.

Celery that has been grown in a trench may be blanched by filling the trench with soil. If it has, instead, been grown at ground level, set a board along each side of the row so that one edge is half an inch deep in the ground, the other hidden under the celery leaves. In about ten days the hearts of each celery clump will be blanched.

Cynoglossum, also known as Chinese forget-me-not, is one annual that will reproduce itself in every corner of the garden if seeds are not removed. If you do not wish to weed it out next spring, cut back the bloom stalks before the seeds ripen.

Cut sprays of parsley and sage and spread them out on a piece of paper towel placed over a wire rack. Set this in a shaded, airy place and in about ten days the sprays will be dry. At that time strip the leaves from the stems, crumple them until they are fine, and store them in small glass jars for use as seasoning during the winter months.

JOTTIN'S By Jeanne

If you like a mold salad during the holiday season, a three-layer colorful one that is most attractive was included in a cookbook from Southern Union employees. It does take quite a bit of time and patience, but the results are worth it.

First layer (green)
2 pkgs. lime jello
2 cups sliced stuffed olives
1 cup chopped nut meats
1 cup lemon juice

Second layer (red)

1 cup diced celery
1 tsp. lemon juice

Third layer (yellow)
2 pkgs. lemon jello
3 cups shredded carrots

1 tsp. lemon juice

Follow instructions on jello packages, adding above ingredients. Each layer must be firmly set before adding the next.

Waggoner Carr Agrees On Chamber Engagement

Waggoner Carr, state representative from Lubbock and lieutenant governor-apparent by reason of winning the Democratic primary, has agreed to be speaker at the annual Farwell Chamber of Commerce banquet next year.

Hoppers--

Hurshel Harding, Chamber president, said he is very pleased with Carr's acceptance, which is "tentative" at this time, but which in all probability will be fulfilled.

The banquet, which is held on or near Valentine's Day each year, will be Thursday, February 14 in the Farwell Cafeteria.

Three years ago Carr was engaged to speak here but was prevented from making the trip by bad weather.

never can be masked by the industrial packaging experts. It is true that the telephone is our touch with the outside world, but it is equally true that the outside world has a paved highway into the privacy of our personal lives whenever we become a subscriber to its services.

When we accept the telephone into our home we accept the station and authority of a communications device which knows no master and we bow before it with reverence and awe.

There have been times when the phone has rung in my home and I purposely declined to answer it. However, this is not an easy thing to do, and I did it mostly to (1) impress my wife with man's need to exercise his prerogative over his inventions and (2) to prove to myself that it actually could be done.

The telephone's ring may be resisted but it cannot be ignored, however. During the time that the caller awaited my answer, my mind was completely occupied with the battle. I hunkered down a little deeper in the warm bath water to remind myself I wasn't expected to get out, but painstakingly counted the rings, anticipating the interval between each with a mental flinch that continued automatically after the caller had given up.

In the age we live in, life without a telephone is an improbable possibility. It may even be an impossible possibility. I know for a fact that I could not engage in the newspaper business without one, and I suspect that if it became a choice of me or the telephone in my home, I would be the one to go out on the street.

But some day I am going to try a noble experiment and separate myself from the grip of this gadget. I am going to see if there is some nook or cranny back into the mountains where the telephone's hot little copper wires have not crept. There may be no such place on the North American continent, but if there is I intend to find it and hole up there for a week.

After about three days of isolation I probably will find the urge to talk with the kids beyond my level of resistance, but I plan to try it anyway.

Texico High Publishes Directory

A Texico High School Student Directory is being published for the second consecutive year by members of the local chapter of Future Business Leaders of America. The directory is now on sale for ten cents each.

"Any school patron desiring a directory need only phone me or any member of the FBLA and we shall be happy to deliver one to you," says Donald Chandler, president of the FBLA.

Chandler explained that the directory is published by the club as a special service to the school and community as one of the objectives of the FBLA and the small fee was necessary to cover cost of ink, stencils, and such.

The directory lists names, addresses and phone numbers of all students in high school, faculty, officers of each class, officers of the various clubs, the school song, the student council and the honor society.

Consisting of 9 pages, the directory is white printed in green ink. Members of the FBLA include Carol White, Lattia Harrison, Judy Sharp, Linda Palmateer, Howard Danforth, James Watt, Dwayne Billingsley, Ellen Caillouet and Marquette Wall.

A salesman was stunned to see a dog playing checkers with a country store owner. "Must be a pretty smart dog," the salesman said. "He's not so hot," the storekeeper said, "I beat him two out of three."

"I bet he's good enough to sit in on a poker game," the salesman insisted. "He can play, all right," the storeman replied, "but everytime he gets a good hand, he wags his tail!"

PUMPKIN PIE - a picture story

In the cornfield, where they were planted to save valuable space, the pumpkins have turned golden orange - ready for pies.

In the kitchen the pies are made. Cookbook recipe reads: 1/4 cups cooked and strained pumpkin, 1/2 cup sugar, 2 tablespoons butter, 2 tablespoons molasses, a teaspoon each of ginger and cinnamon, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 2 eggs and 1 1/4 cups of scalded milk. Soon delicious odors will arise from the oven. Yum! Yum!

County's Harvest Continues After Rain-Caused Delay

Harvesting operations resumed in Farmer County Monday after being interrupted by rain last week. Many farmers were resuming maize combining, which was estimated around three-quarters complete before the wet weather halted what was until then a very short and ideal grain season.

Some few farmers were having their cotton handpulled the first time over, although most preferred to wait until the entire crop matures, for a "once over" process by the strippers. The maize crop has been described in different manners. Some say it will be the "best ever," while others say they are not making as good a yield as they have the past year or so.

Farmer and elevator operators in the Lasbuddie-Farwell area termed this year's crop one of the best ever. Those in Friona and Bovina were a bit more conservative, saying it "compared" with the best while some areas, such as around Black, it appeared the yields would be lighter than some had hoped, although there was still some grain to cut.

An estimate last week, derived by figures supplied by elevator operators, showed that between eight and nine million bushels of grain sorghum had been delivered to elevators, been delivered to elevators in the county.

Last year's banner yield for Farmer County was 14,610,000 bushels, an average of 82.5 bushels per acre. The cotton crop is also expected to be one of the best ever, with estimates ranging around 40,000 bales expected to be harvested.

GRAIN ABUNDANCE in Farmer County is reflected in this elevator scene at Farwell. The scene is a common one for elevators throughout the county, as storage space became sapped by the abundant maize crop.

County Records Ten Rural Accidents During Month

The Highway Patrol investigated 10 rural accidents in Farmer County during the month according to Sergeant W. E. Wells, Patrol Supervisor of this area.

These wrecks accounted for two persons injured and an estimated property damage of $6,005.00.

The rural accident summary for Farmer County from January through September of 1962 shows a total of 74 crashes. As a result of these crashes there were three persons killed and 39 persons injured. The estimated property damage amounted to $48,070.00.

"Accidents Go Up When the Sun Goes Down," is a slogan so true. Darkness hides danger, giving the driver a false sense of security. That is the reason traffic accidents increase during October's shorter days and longer nights. National statistics show that the traffic death rate at night is threetimes the daylight rate, and more than half of all accidents occur after sundown, despite reduction in the volume of traffic.

At sundown, long shadows and fading light makes it increasingly difficult for drivers to spot traffic hazards and stop in time. The veteran patrol supervisor said, "make it a habit to turn on your driving lights at the first hint of dusk and always use them properly."

Who Wrote It?

When you have heard two eyewitnesses relate the details of the same automobile accident you commence to worry some about history.

Homemakers Enjoy Furniture Tour

Fifty-four Farmer County homemakers will be better buyers of furniture as the result of a series of furniture store tours. Seven tours were conducted this month with all county homemakers invited to attend.

These homemakers saw many new fabrics fashionable in upholstery. Cotton and nylon were the most popular on sofas and chairs. A variety of fillings were used in the cushioning. Each of these homemakers compared the feel and appearance of polyurethane (poly-foam), foam rubber, polyurethane wrapped with dacron, marshall unit coil springs in the cushions. Construction of different quality and priced range furniture were seen. Bubbles and defects were checked in all furniture for good quality. Design of furniture was discussed to meet the needs and wants of the individual families or individual family members.

Each day the tours began in the office of the home demonstration agent, Miss Ettie Musil, who discussed what to look for in selecting furniture. She discussed common mistakes made in buying furniture. Miss Musil stated that homemakers commonly choose furniture that does not fit the space needed for the piece. Sometimes furniture is "too good" or uncomfortable for the family who is to use it. Always check all of the construction of the frame as well as the finish, wood, dresser drawers, or upholstery fabric and cushioning.

Tours were made to S&S Furniture in Texico, McDaniel's Furniture, Sismore Furniture, Home Beautiful, and Bryson's Furniture.

Lubbock Classing Office Sample Receipts Increase

Sample receipts continued to increase this past week at the Lubbock Cotton Classing office, according to Mr. W. K. Palmer,

SOIL CONSERVATION DISTRICT NEWS

In 1954 Congress passed a bill called the Watershed Protection and Flood Prevention Act. You may say "What does watershed protection have to do with me?" You live in a watershed.

Everyone lives and works in a watershed. Your back yard could be a watershed. Let me explain. Let's start with the smallest of streams. Where does the water come from? It comes from the land around it, of course.

All the land that sheds its water into that stream is the stream's watershed. A large river watershed is made up of many small watersheds. It's a combination of the watersheds of all the streams running into it.

A watershed may include just farmland, or it may include mountains and hills. Your watershed, of course, includes your city along with other land. What happens in your watershed affects you. And it also affects the communities in larger watersheds down the stream from you.

In the Watershed Protection and Flood Prevention projects communities work together -- both the farmer and the people in a city such as yours. They plan together what the community needs. The Federal Government gives technical assistance and some financial help. But most of all, it's a community project.

The landowners install the needed conservation measures on his land. But there are some problems he can't solve alone -- they're community problems. The community works together on these. The purpose is to handle the water properly so there'll be water for all uses -- for the farm and for the city -- and to help prevent floods. Many of the projects include water storage reservoirs. These can provide swimming, boating and fishing for the community, and stockwater and irrigation water for the farmers.

We here in Parmer County are in the process of getting one of these watershed projects started. The project will be on the watershed of Running Water Draw, which is located in the central part of the county, also this watershed will cover part of Curry County in New Mexico. Farther down the draw will be parts of Castro, Lamb, and Hale Counties. This will have to be a community project if it is going to do the most good for the most people.

If you are interested in learning more about this project contact your County Agent, Soil Conservation District Supervisors, County Commissioners, or any of the Soil Conservation Technicians at the office in Friona, Texas.

Officer-in-Charge, Mr. Palmer said the rain which began Tuesday night would stop receipts until the weather clears.

The Lubbock Classing Office classed 23,000 samples this week. The Lamesa office classed 6,600 samples and the Brownfield office classed 8,200 samples for the week.

Classing at all three offices totaled 80,000 samples to date. Last year 228,000 samples had been classed at this time.

Quality improved slightly this week.

Middling counted for 60 per cent of the cotton classed in the Lubbock office. The following qualities made up the other percentages: Strict Middling 5%, Strict Low Middling 7%, Strict Middling Light Spotted 9%, Middling Light Spotted 15%, and Strict Low Middling Light Spotted 2%.

The average staple length was 30.2 thirty-seconds of an inch this week.

The micronaire readings for the week are as follows: 2.7 to 2.9, 1%; 3.0 to 3.4, 5%; 3.5 to 3.9, 17%; 4.0 to 4.4, 45%; 4.5 to 4.9, 29%; and 5.0 to 5.4, 3%.

Movement of cotton on the Lubbock Market improved this week with the Lubbock Cotton Exchange reporting 4,260 bales purchased. This compares with 528 bales reported a week ago and 12,300 bales for the same week a year ago.

Prices remained stable this week. Middling inch is quoted at 32.30. HD Agent's Notes

BY MISS ETTIE MUSIL

Many of you have been wondering where Miss Celia Patton is located. She began her duties October 8 as County Home Demonstration Agent of Castro County. Her last day of training in Parmer County was September 30 at which time she completed three months training in all phases of her responsibilities as home demonstration agent.

I saw her in Hereford last Thursday during a sub-district meeting. She was interested in events scheduled during these three weeks since she has been away. I'll see her several more times during the remainder of the month. We have a special training in Amarillo, October 22 and 23, and in College Station during Agents' Conference, October 29 to November 2.

Wish you all could have gone with us to the furniture tours during the last two weeks. After the last store we toured, I asked the group of ladies attending, "Did you learn anything?" All were so impressed by the many things they learned to check before buying.

Several homemakers had sad experiences of looking into one or two dresser or chest of drawers, only to find later poor construction of drawers at the bottom. Several homemakers commented that they were thoroughly confused by the many factors to consider in selecting good quality furniture.

My comment to these homemakers was, "If you are confused you have learned something." This is so true because each homemaker will thoroughly examine each piece of furniture and she will ask questions. While she asks questions she will want to see labels that give authentic information about each piece, or choose a reputable dealer.

If we can help any of you with specific problems of selecting furniture, choosing design, arranging furniture, budgeting furniture, choosing wood furniture, or choosing upholstered furniture, let us know. We have mimeograph copies of valuable information that you may study in the office. Do come by.

You may be interested to know that a new man-made fiber has been seen in knit wear for the first time this fall. Orion Sayelle is a bi-component acrylic fiber. Bi-component means "consisting of two parts."

This fiber has two separate and different types of acrylic components that have been fused in a two sided structure. This structure is continuous throughout the entire length of the fiber.

Can you imagine that each side maintains its own individuality within a single fiber. The fiber has a permanent spiral crimp that gives bulk without addition of extra fibers.

This fiber is made into wash and machine dry garments. Simply wash and machine dry the garments in warm water washing or as your washer instructs to launder acrylic fabric. Spread loosely on a flat surface to dry. It is most important to completely dry the garment before using.

No power on earth can keep a first-class man down, nor a fourth-class man up.

Feed Grain Acreage Policy For 1963 Is Announced

All feed grain acreage, including corn, grain sorghum and barley will be lumped together as the feed grain base for the 1963 Feed Grain Program, states Prentice Mills, Parmer County ASCS office manager.

As an example, Mills said that a farmer who had a 20 acre barley base in 1962, along with 10 acres of corn and 200 acres of grain sorghum would in all likelihood have a 230-acre feed grain base for 1963, and could plant the acreage to any one crop, or a combination, and participate in the Feed Grain Program as long as he makes a minimum diversion of 20 per cent of the feed grain base and plants no more than 80 per cent of the base.

Mills said that he would be passing along more details of the 1963 Feed Grain Program as soon as they were released to him.

Acreage Notices To Be Mailed

Notices will be mailed to County farmers next week advising them of their normal yield as established by the Agricultural Marketing Service for the 1963 Wheat Program, according to Parmer County ASCS office manager, Prentice Mills.

The yields and proposed diversion payments will be listed so that the farmers who intend to participate in the program may know what they will receive.

Farmers who are going to participate in the 1963 wheat program by making a diversion may sign an intention to participate at the ASCS office between November 15 and December 14, Mills stated.

Scientists are evaluating bird-repellent grain sorghums. Growing from seed coverings of test varieties are sharp spines which seem to keep birds from feeding.

Agricultural Research, published by the U. S. Department of Agriculture, reports some of these sorghums have been grown in south Florida and tests are being conducted at Beltsville, Md., and in Mississippi and other states.

An effort will be made to cross sweet sorghums with the grain sorghum strains to learn if widely adaptable bird-repellent sweet sorghums can be produced.

Bird feeding on sorghums is a problem in the South and Southwest. Agronomist F. T. Boyd, in charge of the Plantation Field Laboratory of the Florida Agricultural Experiment Station at Fort Lauderdale, found the bird-repellency characteristic during tests of hundreds of sorghums. Blackbirds, rice birds, English sparrows, and Florida grackles left two sorghums strictly alone. By crossing these with others, some 50 strains have been developed with their own built-in bayo-

4-H Council Announces Achievement Program Plans

Parmer County 4-H Council has announced plans for the annual 4-H Achievement Program to be held Saturday, November 10 at 6:30 p.m. in the Hub Community Center. This year the 4-H Council planned for a covered dish supper to be served for all 4-H club members, parents, and guests in the county.

These plans were made during the meeting of the 4-H Council Saturday, October 20 at 9:30 to 11:00 a.m. in the District Courtroom of the Courthouse in Farwell. Gary Foster, chairman, presided and Katie Blackstone served as acting secretary.

Bruce Billingsley led the 4-H Pledge and Dale Blackstone led the Pledge to the U.S. Flag, Reports of the 4-H Bake Show, Favorite Foods Show, 4-H Boys Camp, and 4-H Dress Revue were made by 4-H Club members and adult leaders.

For the 4-H Achievement Day, November 10, Council members voted to serve the covered dish supper. Following the meal 4-H achievement awards medals will be presented to all eligible members who entered their record book in August for judging.

After the awards presentation each of the 4-H Clubs will present club talent as skits, musicians, vocalists or choruses, or comedies. This is the first time for 4-H members to present talent as the program.

Different responsibilities were given each club for the Achievement Program. Farwell 4-H Club is in charge of registration, Lazbuddie 4-H Club will decorate the building, Rhea 4-H Club and Friona 4-H Club will be on the clean up committee. Junior 4-H Leadership will assist in clubs in which they are members. 4-H Council will furnish tea, coffee, paper plates, cups, napkins, and decorations.

D. H. Foster was elected council chairman for 1963.

Bruce Billingsley and Katie Blackstone were elected co-vice chairmen. Secretary is Gary Foster and treasurer is Reba Lesly. Judy Koelzer was elected reporter.

Parmer County becomes part of the District 4-H Council through elected delegates. Elected Keith Black and Kathryn Gober will attend District Council and report district business to the County 4-H Council. Danny Miller and Linda Gleason were elected alternate delegates.

County 4-H Council is composed of the president and council delegates of each of the five 4-H Clubs plus the officers who are elected from the previous year's council members. Council is the connecting link of all the 4-H Clubs. Its purpose is to discuss and make plans for county-wide 4-H events and activities.

LP gas, or liquified petroleum gas, is now being used more and more on Texas farms and ranches as a fuel for tractors and for household purposes. As with any combustible fuel, safety precautions are necessary when using LP gas to prevent injury and damage by explosion or fire.

About two months ago a farm house was destroyed by an explosion caused by butane and the life of one person was taken due to the explosion.

Here are some precautions that we should consider.

One important precaution is to locate the tank at least 50 feet from any major building and 20 feet from other tanks containing flammable liquids. Also, the tank should be located so that it is isolated from open fires, sparks and other sources of ignition.

If a pump is used on the tank, erect a low fence around it to prevent accidental damage to the pump, hose connections, and the pipe fittings which may cause dangerous leaks.

Low spots and holes around the tank should be filled because LP gas is heavier than air and gas that leaks from the tank will settle in these low spaces and become a fire hazard.

If leaks are suspected in the tank they should not be detected by using a flame, keep away from the tank and call the local service man.

LP gas is a fuel and should never be used for cleaning purposes or to inflate tires.

LP gas is a safe fuel and can be used without fear of explosion or fire if proper care and safety practices are observed.

Since we are in harvest I am going to list average figures on some crops. It should be of interest to you to see if you are above or below average on the different recommendations listed below:

Co-op Gin Schedules Grand Opening Sunday

The Friona Farmers Co-op Gin will hold a Grand Opening Sunday afternoon from 1 p.m. to 5 p.m. Refreshments will be served, and door prizes will be awarded.

"We'd like to invite everyone in the area to come out and see our new plant, whether they are cotton farmers or not," said Jimmy Fletcher, gin manager.

"Anyone who has pride in his community and county will want to come and see its newest addition," Fletcher continued. The gin is located two and a half miles south of Friona, off State Highway 214.

The gin, which was completely installed by Continental Gin Company, features three high-speed gin stands. The capacity of the gin, when operating at full speed, is estimated at from 10 to 12 bales per hour.

The gin is ready to receive cotton, and has already ginned its first bale. C. D. Nolan, who farms near Lazbuddie, had the honor of ginning the first bale at the new gin, on Tuesday, October 16.

Members of the board of directors for the gin are Ellis Tatum, president; Keith Brock, Secretary-Treasurer; Charles Howell, R. J. Renner, Jr., D. L. Carmichael, vice president; A. W. Anthony, Jr., Raymond Scheuler and Fletcher.

Head ginner is James Jenkins, who has had some 10 years experience in the ginning industry, and he is assisted by Bob Mullins, Buford Hartwick is bookkeeper.

Just think how many poor people were denied a horse and buggy in the olden days because nobody had thought of this convenient dollar-a-week idea.

Lazbuddie 4-H Elects Leaders

The Lazbuddie 4-H Club met Thursday, October 18 to elect organizational leaders for the club.

President Danny Miller called the meeting to order and Katie Blackstone led the 4-H Pledge.

Mrs. Ruth Miller and Gerald Ramage were elected organizational leaders. County Agent Deryl Coker presented the program on "Wildlife of Texas."

Three new members were present. They were Doyle Crim, Royce Barnes, and Terver Ford. A total of 23 original members were present, along with 20 guest, including parents and small children.

TUESDAY-- Wheat Topic Of FU Meet

Prentice Mills, Parmer County ASC manager, will be guest speaker at a Farmers Union meeting Tuesday, Oct. 30, at Hub Community Building.

Mills will outline the wheat program in detail and will offer information on the entire farm program, announces Leon Smith, Jr., Parmer County Farmers Union president.

The meeting will begin at 8 p.m. The public is invited and urged to attend, Smith says. Refreshments will be served.

Producers Okay Wool Referendum

In a nationwide wool referendum recently, producers voted 91 per cent for and nine per cent against on the basis of total sheep owned for the government to withhold one cent per pound for the promotion of wool and mutton.

On an individual basis, the vote was 87.7 for and 12.3 against the proposal. The ruling will be in force for 1963, 1964, 1965 and 1966.

THE COTTON HARVEST is barely under way in Parmer County. Only a few farmers are having their cotton hand-pulled at this time. Some have defoliated, while others prefer to wait for nature to take its course.

Pros And Cons Of Chemical Use Discussed By Specialist

As the High Plains cotton harvest gets into full swing, many growers are weighing the pros and cons covering the use of chemicals to prepare their crops for machine harvesting.

Each grower will need to evaluate his situation and decide whether defoliation will pay, points out Fred Elliott, cotton specialist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. He offers these guidelines for making the evaluation.

Best results are obtained with mature cotton with a heavy boll load and where the irrigation cut-off date has been followed; leaf moisture is normal and growth about stopped. At least 60 percent of the cotton bolls should be open before a true defoliant is applied and 80 percent before a desiccant is used. Harvest-aid materials used under these conditions have not reduced either yields or quality, says Elliott. Top bolls expected to mature should be 30-35 days old at time of application, he adds.

Cool weather slows up the defoliation process, explains the specialist. This is listed as weather when night temperatures are constantly below 50 degrees F. and day temperatures are below 70 degrees F.

Maturity is not speeded up by the use of defoliants, points out Elliott. For all practical purposes, maturity of the cotton fiber stops when defoliants or desiccants are applied, depending upon the coverage obtained. Bolls have been noted to open sooner in treated fields, but fiber from the treated cotton was not more mature, Elliott said.

Some growers have found that if frost has not occurred by about October 20 and if plant and weather conditions are normal, the use of a defoliant or desiccant about two weeks ahead of the average first frost -- usually the first week in November -- can be considered. This leaves the cotton in a dehydrated condition at the time of the first frost and permits earlier stripping after frost. One of the regular chlorate defoliants used at the upper rates plus water and emulsifiable penta as an additive for increased top growth kill for these late applications has proved successful, Elliott said.

Experience has shown, he added, that proper use of harvest-aid chemicals on older, mature cotton permits earlier harvest before exposure to weather has reduced grades or caused actual field losses of lint.

The president of the Blue Cross Association announces that the over - 65 age group will be able to obtain hospitalization insurance without physical examination, and regardless of physical condition. He also says that the Blue Shield is "travelling in a parallel path" in plans to provide doctors' services for the elderly.

Farm Facts

Of 12 to 13 inches of average annual precipitation in the 17 Western states, only about 30% contributes to the fresh water supply.

According to J. S. Robbins of the Agricultural Research Service, much of the moisture evaporates from soil, water, and plant surfaces. The rest infiltrates the soil and is transpired back into the atmosphere by vegetation.

An additional inch of water for plant use could increase Western wheat production up to five bushels per acre.

Scientists are studying plastic or mechanical barriers to control water or vapor flow to the soil surface and are testing chemical or physical treatments of soil to inhibit water loss.

At Tempe, Ariz., they're experimenting with sprays to sterilize the soil and kill weeds, stabilize it to prevent water infiltration.

NEWS FROM THE FARM BUREAU

BY RAYMOND EULER

"Society cannot leap into Communism from Capitalism without going through a Socialist stage of development", said Nikita Krushchev, as he addressed the 21st Communist Party Congress on February 9, 1959.

"An immediate attack upon the sanity of the attacker (of any Communist activity) before any possible hearing can take place is the very best defense. The by-word should be built into the society that paranoia is a condition in which the individual believes he is being attacked by Communists". It will be found that this defense is effective." This quote is from writings of the head of the Russian Secret Police in which he outlines effective methods of overcoming opposition to Communist infiltration in the United States by "psychopolitical" means; that is, by declaring any effective leader opposing Communism insane, thus destroying any confidence the public may have placed in the individual.

Texas and American Farm Bureau policies state that the organizations will oppose Communism whenever and wherever it is found. Your local county Farm Bureau has similar policies on record as voted by the membership in convention. It is recognized that the greatest defense against Communism is a strong Christian community, composed, of course, of faithful Christian citizens, the exact opposite of Communist communities composed of Communist individuals.

Delegates to the Texas Farm Bureau Convention in San Antonio November 11-14 can look forward to hearing Paul Harvey, noted radio and TV commentator speak words of wisdom and interest regarding America's past, present and future. Your Farm Bureau has purchased fifteen tickets to the banquet where Harvey will speak, and they will be used by delegates and their wives. If there are any left over, and you are there, you can have one, too.

A good time to file for refund of state road tax paid on tractor and other non-highway used gasoline is right after maize harvest when most of it is used in combines. Don't forget to come in for this service.

ATTEND MEETING

County Agricultural Agent Deryl Coker and Home Demonstration Agent, Miss Ette Musil, attended the District meeting of the Extension Service on Monday and Tuesday of this week in Amarillo.

Fertilizer Course Asks Registration

Fertilizer Dealers, Agency Personnel and members of the County Program Building Committee are invited to register. Course to be held in November, states County Agricultural Agent Deryl Coker. Detailed programs and registration forms are now available in the Agent's office.

There will be a series of three night meetings at each of the following locations: Lubbock, Plainview, Dimmitt, and Lamesa, and individuals are encouraged to attend the one nearest their place of business.

Subject matter to be handled by both Industry and College Personnel will include nitrogen, phosphorus and potassium, soil testing, and fertilizer use in sound soil management practices.

The $5 registration fee includes a notebook of the material presented, a diploma for those completing the course and a dinner the last night the meeting is held.

The deadline for registration is November 2, Coker concludes.

The young cowboy was getting slicked up in the bunkhouse in preparation for a trip into town.

"What are you planning to do in town, Slim?" asked one of the other cowboys.

"Going to the dance," replied Slim.

"You going to the dance?" asked his friend. "You don't know nothing about dancing."

"That's true, all right," replied Slim. "I can't dance a step, but I sure like to hold 'em while they do!"
