BTD postscripts

Some 1990 Border Town Days postscripts:

- I thought it was our best ever, with the largest crowds and most excitement. Do you realize probably over 400 folks work to make BTD a success? That's what I call a real community effort. Thanks to each and every one of them for making Texico-Farwell a great place to call home.

- The final wrap-up meeting of the BTD Committee will be held at the Spur Restaurant Monday at 8 p.m. cdt. This is open to the public. If you have any comments about BTD, pro or con, please attend and present them.

- The BTD postmarks that you could get at the portable post office set up by Lynne Mahaney was a real success, with a lot of folks taking advantage of it.

- We used three portable toilets this year. Next year we'll rent four - due to the bigger crowd.

- Folks from El Paso showed up with their air walk (Kid-die Kastle) late and I want to thank the bunch of kids and adults I grabbed to help move that heavy, unwieldy tarp. She got there late because apparently she got our times confused with another show, and thought we would run until 11 p.m.

- I want to thank the CAKE team people for participating. They ran into some bad luck when an axle broke on the engine and they had to quit early.

- The queen's contest was fantastic. I was pleasantly surprised by the professionalism shown by the contestants in the talent category. We have some real talented young people here.

And, again, I want to thank the queen's committee for doing a superlative job - Annette Black, Petty Jones, Brenda Jones, Tammy Jones, Michelle Chadwick, Karen Schilling, Shandra McIntosh and Susan Franse, chairman.

- Did you enjoy that great parade? Thanks to Leigh Ann Woods and Jack Allen Kirkland for being the "honcho's."

- I would like to personally thank the folks who donated funds for the commemorative pins we sold. These funds go to pay BTD expenses, which total over $1,000. I doubt folks can get a better day's entertainment for such a minor cost - $2. Thanks to chairman Rick Sullivan.

We needed to sell the pins especially since we bought the new gazebo speakers this year - they cost more than $300.

- Special thanks to the Farwell city employees, headed by Dee Hammit, for their excellent support.

- The chili cook-off was called off due to lack of entries.

- ESA dedicated the basketball court at the Farwell city park. The court was used by youths all during the day. It was a very nice addition.

- We had a record number of arts and crafts booths - 32. Thanks to chairman Lynne Mahaney.

- The decorated bike contest went beautifully, thanks to Ann Cooper and Billy Brigham. Billy did a great job at keeping the kids in order during the parade, solving a problem from last year.

- Thanks to Debra Looper and her helpers - Kathy Dionne, Marian Greenway, Linda Winegeart and Lynne Gann - for running the successful Merchants Giveaway.

- We had a record number of concession booths in the park - 18. Thanks to chairman Cynthia Thigpen. These

Willingham, Hall leave Lazbuddie

The Lazbuddie School board Monday hired retired Friona School Supt. Tom Jarboe as interim superintendent for an indeterminate time period while it searches for a replacement for Joe Hall.

Hall resigned as superintendent to assume a position as superintendent at Venus (Texas) Schools.

And Roy Willingham, Lazbuddie High School principal, will be leaving to assume a position in Kermitt, Texas.

Hall is leaving Lazbuddie to care for his mother who will need nursing home care. She is from Malakoff, Texas, which is near Venus.

Hall leaves Lazbuddie after 7 years there. "I hate to leave them this late, but I think everything is in good shape," he noted.

Replacing Willingham is Randal Beaver who has been principal for kindergarten - 12th grade in Follett, Texas.

Beaver was born near Gainesville, Texas. He attended school in Callisburg.

He earned his bachelor's degree from East Texas State University. He has earned two master's degrees, one in chemistry and physics, and one in public school administration from what is now the University of North Texas. He taught in the Era school district for 16 years, and he has been the principal in Follett for the past two years. "I wanted the challenge of a larger school system. Lazbuddie has more programs," said Beaver.

He sees Lazbuddie as "an excellent school system."

"Follett is a nice place to live. I hate to leave it because it has a excellent school system, but we wanted to live in an area that had closer proximity to a major university," said Beaver.

His wife, Eva, hopes to return to school to take some college classes now that their daughter, Charity, will be going to school. The Beavers also have a son, Jerry, 13.

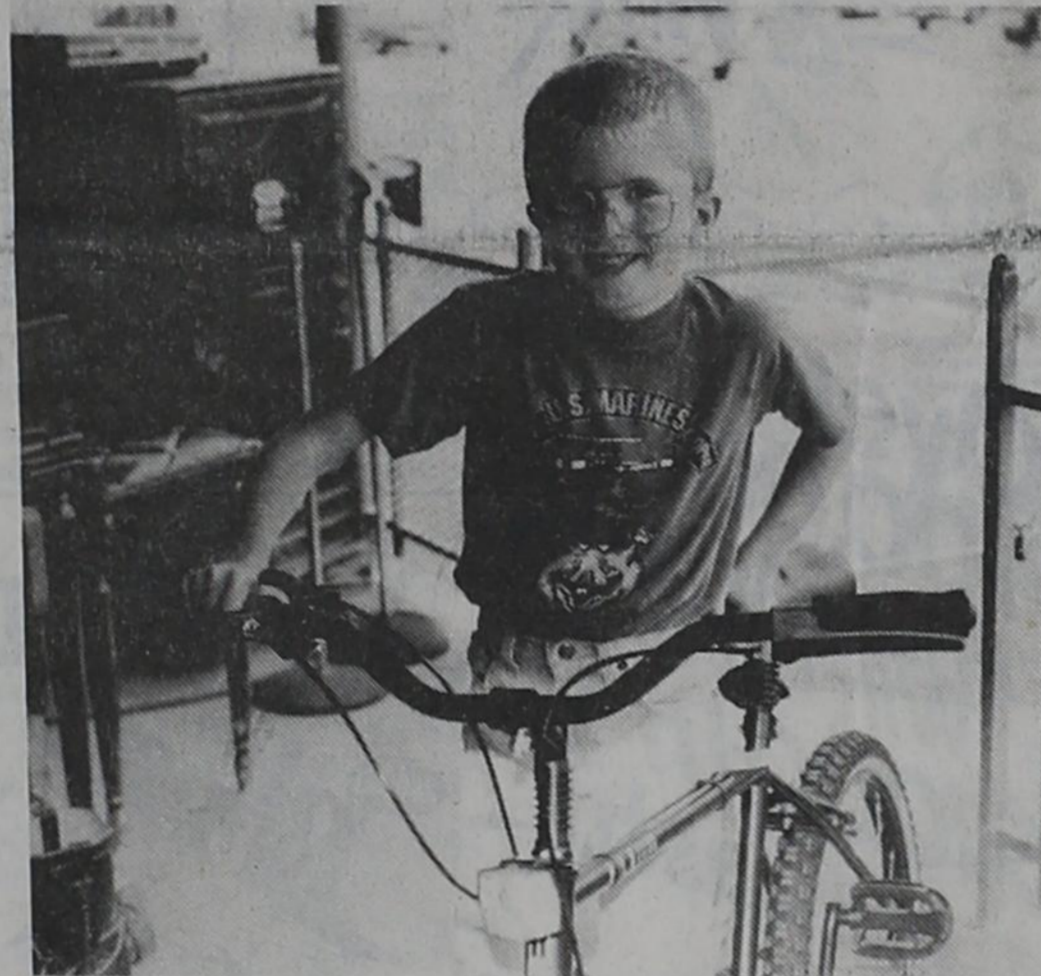

Also Monday, the board hired the following people:

- Sharon Angeley as a part time elementary special education teacher and librarian.

- Gay Williams as a junior high math teacher. - Becky Jones as a part time Chapter I teacher.

- Vickie Burch as a part time Chapter I teacher.

The board will meet at 8:15 p.m. on Aug. 14 for its regular meeting. The hearing for the 1990-91 budget will be held at this time.

Record crowd enjoys BTD

It was another record crowd at Border Town Days Saturday in the Farwell city park. The crowd was estimated at 3,000 by BTD chairman Mike Pomper.

Also, it appeared a record amount of parade watchers were present Saturday morning as more than 70 unites - including the Texico and Farwell marching bands - participated. It was wall-to-wall people along almost all the parade route.

Once again, a number of family and class reunions swelled the record crowd. It seems that BTD has grown rapidly due to these reunions. Also, Mother Nature helped out - the weather was ideal.

Kaci Stephens was selected as Miss Border Town Days queen. She is eligible for a $200 scholarship. She also was named Miss Congeniality.

Kristy Stanton was named first runnerup. Patty Vargas was second runnerup. Leslie Servatius was chosen Miss Photogenic.

All the winners got special gifts.

The big food attraction at the park was, as customary, the barbeque served by the Texico - Farwell Rotary Club. Over 1,000 persons were served by Walter Hughes & Co.

The day kicked off with the decorated bike contest in Texico, under the direction of Ann Cooper and Billy Brigham. Judges were Ken Jones, Lee Malloy and Carl Thompson, all Clovis Rotarians.

This year, a special "Best of Show" was chosen, with the winner receiving a brand new bike donated by Tedson Trailers. The winner was Lane McFarland.

Winners in the "A" Division (ages 7 - 12) of the bike contest were: 1st - Kristopher Norton, Shiloh and Shane Roberts; 2nd - Tangie Gustin, Karyn Curtis; 3rd place - Pamela Schjang, Emelia Montano; 4th place - Amanda Montano, Megan Miller; honorable mention - Jeannie and Becky Pierce.

Winners in the "B" Division (ages 6 and under) were: 1st - Brody Norton; 2nd - Lindy Pate; 3rd - Lonnie McFarland; 4th - Felicia Montano.

Then came the annual parade, which stepped off at 11:01 a.m. With a huge number of floats, many viewers felt this was the best BTD parade ever.

Honored in the parade were Pioneers of the Year Dick and Pearl Gerie. Honored as Honorary Parade Marshals were the Texico and Farwell Volunteer Fire Departments. Riding in the parade were the two fire chiefs, Joel White and Vane Doshier.

The float winners were: 1 - Texico Clean-Up Committee; 2 - ENMR; 3 - Gladys Hardage's calliope; and 4 - Texico-Farwell Senior Citizens.

First prize was worth $75; second, $50; third, $35, and fourth, $25. The Farwell Chamber of Commerce provided these funds.

Raymond McGehee's rig won the Best Animal Unit award.

Kaci Stephens, Miss Border Town Days 1990

In the motorized competition, the Shrine large cycles won the first place trophy. The Shrine small cycles were second.

Cash awards ($25 each) provided by the Texico Chamber of Commerce went to the antique car winners:

Oldest car - Jack and Mary Carr, of Portales. They had a 1920 Ford.

Judge's Choice - Howard and Judy Watson, of Muleshoe. They had a 1926 Ford truck.

Furthest traveled - Don Barnes, of Poteau, Okla. He had a 1959 Chevy.

L.T. Utsman of Farwell was the winner of the pickup truck giveaway sponsored by the Texico Fire Department.

booths are very important for our non-profit groups, since this is a major fund-raiser for them. I talked with several - and they all did real well. Several closed early after running out of food!

Once again, I thought our musical program was extra special, ranging from the Vizion Christian rock group to pianist Clay Corn to Country Strings and our veterans - the Hardages. And thanks to Nancy Miller for singing the National Anthem.

I thought the new speakers worked out great. You could hear the program from the gazebo all over the park. Thanks to Ed Hardage and Fred Chandler for going to Lubbock to get them.

There are so many, many people to thank. If I tried to list everyone I'd probably leave out half of them.

The "Kiss the Pig" contest worked out beautifully - especially since I didn't "win."

The Farwell Fire Department and the Texico Fire Department each answered one call last week.

On July 25, the Farwell ambulance answered a call at 600 2nd St. at 4:06 p.m. No transfer was made.

On July 26, Texico answered a call to assist with a transformer that was smoking at 317 Turner St.

Thirty people from First Baptist Church of Farwell attended camp at Glorietta, N.M. July 14-20. Those attending enjoyed Bible studies, singing, camping, crafts, and recreation. The 25 youths who attended sold pizzas to help finance their trip. Pictured are: (front) Jamie Bethel, Julie Mitzelfelt, Christy Corn, Ginny Mitzelfelt, Lorie Johnson, Shelly Bethel, Angie White, Kaci Stephens, Jolynda Hognett, Amanda Johnson, Tina Parham, Christie Phillips, Chanse Stephens, Alta Jesko, Troy Chadwick, (Back) Ryan Williams, Cody Monk, Eric Chadwick, Marcus Sullivan, Brian Johnson, Brad Johnson, Kristy Stephens, Pam Carpenter, Adrian Smith, Leslie Monk, Chad Byrd, Clay Corn, Mark Chandler, and Jonathan Sullivan.

30 attend camp at Glorietta

Triplets at BTB

Attending Border Town Days were our community's newest triplets. Farwell's Marjorie Watkins looks on at her triplet grandsons, Thomas, Blake and Jordan as daughter Jill Bonner of Roswell holds one of them.

Revival assisted

Six Farwell residents traveled to Crown Point, N.M., to assist with Vacation Bible School and a revival at the Navajo Reservation 16 miles from there July 22-29.

Carol Sullivan, Christy Corn, Tracy Cline, Julie Mitzelfelt, April Stout and Eric Chadwick brought the Farwell First Baptist Church's puppet theater along for the Vacation Bible School.

The Farwell group joined about two dozen people from the Lea Street Baptist Church of Dimmitt.

Each morning the missionary group drove to a desolate area called Smith Lake where a small non-denominational church stands alone. The owner of the property had given permission to the missionary so that his group to conduct the Vacation Bible School and revival on his property.

The missionary personnel then drove out into the countryside picking up children to attend the Bible School. While they were gone, the Farwell group unpacked the puppets and puppet stage and tape recorder in the shade of the church van so that they would be ready when the children arrived.

The Farwell youth were trained by Pam Monk to act out Bible stories and songs with the puppets. They had one practice run with their show in Bovina before they went on the mission.

"They did a great job," said Mrs. Sullivan. The first morning there were 54 children at the Vacation Bible School. By the fifth morning, there were 130 in attendance.

The children were divided into four groups. Each group saw the Farwell puppet show, did crafts, had recreation, heard Bible stories, and enjoyed refreshments at some time during the morning.

At the end of the morning, the adults in the group delivered the children to their homes and then returned to take the missionaries back 16 miles to the Baptist Mission for lunch which might be cooked by 2 p.m.

"Some days we had to eat supper before we went back in the evening for the revival; it was kind of mixed up," said Mrs. Sullivan. In spite of the strange eating schedule, they group enjoyed the trip.

"I think they were really glad they went," said Mrs. Sullivan. "There were many decisions made for the Lord, and it was really a good time."

The Farwell group left the mission group on Friday so that they would be home in time for Border Town Days. Unfortunately, the fuel pump on the church van stopped working near Grants, N.M., and the group lost 6 hours because of it.

"I called the parents and told them I wouldn't drive if I got tired, but with the Lord's help I didn't get tired," she said.

The group arrived back in Farwell about 5 a.m. on Saturday. By the time they waited for parents to pick up all of the children it was about 6 a.m.

Texico gridders to meet

Texico Football Coach Bruce Scroggins has announced that organizational meetings for freshmen through seniors who want to be on the team this year are set for Aug. 6, 7, 8 and 9 at 5:30 p.m. mdt at the high school gym.

Players will meet with the coach, check out equipment, and get permission slips and other information at this time.

The school weight room is open Tuesdays and Thursdays from 9:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. and Scroggins encourages players to use it.

The first day of practice will be Aug. 13.

Stewart, Actkinson on team

Shawn Stewart and Greg Actkinson of Farwell competed in the Basketball Congress International Boys Summer Prep International Tournament in Lubbock this week.

They played on the South Plains team coached by Abernathy's Laurin Prather again this year.

The squad features players from small schools in our area: Justin Prather, Jody Myatt, and Lon Dale Cannon of Abernathy, and Sam Burke from Krume and Mont Porter of Lubbock were on the team in addition to Actkinson and Stewart. They competed against teams from all over the nation.

Actkinson had to leave the tournament to go to Rotary Youth Leadership Camp, but the South Plains team still made it into the finals.

South Plains defeated Houston Bronze 76-63, Clarksville Tenn. 63-60, Austin 69-50, and Dallas Dirty Dozen 61-57 to make it to the final 8.

But they lost to eventual champ New York Riverside in the semi-finals.

Home canning tips given

Home canning is an enjoyable and sometimes money-saving hobby, but every year there are people injured because of canning accidents. Rochelle White, Parmer County Extension Agent, has prepared the following tips for home canners:

- * Before operating a pressure canner, read the manual thoroughly and follow the manufacturer's directions.
- * Keep rubber gaskets clean and free from grease. Stiff bristle gaskets (rubber rings) should be replaced. (Usually these are available at stores offering canning equipment or from canner manufacturers.)
- * Keep openings of petcock, pressure gauge and safety valve clean. If openings become clogged and remain so during canning, all air or slide gauges will not register correct pressures, all air may be driven out in 10 minutes, or safety valve may fail to work when pressure becomes too high.
- * Clean petcock and safety valve openings frequently by drawing a string or narrow strip of cloth through them. Never use sharp tools that may nick or damage openings. Occasionally remove petcock and safety valve and soak in vinegar for a short time to remove any corrosion.
- * Never immerse lid with dial gauge in water. Wipe with a soapy cloth and then with a clean damp cloth. Dry well.
- * Store canner with lid upside down on canner to protect dial gauge. Clean thoroughly before storing. Place crumpled newspaper in canner to absorb off odors.

- * Have dial gauges tested once a year for safety and accuracy. Call Extension office for this service.
- * To insure safe processing, all types of pressure canners must be vented 10 minutes before they are pressurized.
- * When processing is complete, do not force-cool the canner. Cooling the canner with cold running water or opening the vent port before the canner is fully depressurized will cause loss of liquid from jars and real failures.

For more information or other questions, call Rochelle White, County Extension Agent at 481-3619.

First stake driven

The first stake in Curry County was driven in the ground at the Pleasant Hill Community Center on Aug. 2 to mark off the new Curry County rural addressing system.

The new addresses will be used not only for mail delivery, but also to facilitate the county's augmented 911 emergency system.

Currently the system is difficult for emergency personnel. Mailing addresses in the rural parts of the county do not indicate the location of a house. Emergency personnel have to wait for directions before they can go on a call. Then they often have to look for landmarks to find rural addresses.

When the new system goes into effect, the location of the emergency call will appear on the dispatcher's screen. The computer will be able to give the emergency personnel exact directions to the location.

The Pleasant Hill Fire Department members donated to pay for the stakes used for the survey in their area because they wanted Pleasant Hill to be an example for the rest of the county. They know that getting a new mailing address may not be everyone's choice, but they also know how critical wasted time can be in an emergency situation.

Chastain, Doolittle wedding vows said

The First Baptist Church of Texico provided the setting for nuptials uniting Pamela Kaye Chastain of Clovis and Stephen Leroy Doolittle of Texico. The couple exchanged both traditional and personal vows in the June 16 double ring ceremony, officiated by Rev. Joel Horne of Post, Texas, former Texico pastor.

Parents of the couple are Don Chastain of Lubbock and Sharleen Chastain of Clovis and Mr. and Mrs. Doyal LaRue of Texico.

For the candlelight ceremony, multilevel brass candelabra, bearing pink tapers and decorated with matching pink bows, flanked an arched central brass candelabrum which also bore pink tapers, greenery, and bows. Tall floral arrangements in shades of pink and mauve stood near the outer candelabra and large arrangements of pink, mauve, and white provided additional background. A white iridescent unity candle surrounded by greenery in a brass stand completed the decor.

Mauve bows adorned the pews on the central aisle of the church.

Duane Hill of Texico and Todd Thigpen of Farwell, cousin of the groom, seated guests and special family members then lighted candles. Mr. Hill unfurled a white satin aisle cloth. Mrs. Kim Peterson and Mrs. Barbara Horner provided musical selections on the piano and organ. During the nuptials, Larry Cloud sang "To Me," "Standing on Holy Ground," and "Surely the Presence." As the couple lighted the unity candle at the end of the ceremony, the bride's sister, Becky Russell of Houston, sang "Can't Help Falling in Love with You."

The bride, escorted by her father, presented her mother with a single pink long stemmed rose as she ascended the aisle. At the close of the ceremony, she also honored the groom's mother with a single pink rose.

The bride's floor-length gown of white tissue taffeta was an original, designed and created by her mother. It featured a pleated neckline, bouffant sleeves edged in wide lace and sprinkled with seed pearls, and a sequin-covered bodice of imported Alencon lace. The chapel length train cascaded from a large bustle bow. Her fingertip veil, trimmed with clusters of seed pearls, fell from an arrangement of seed pearls and sequins and completed the ensemble.

The bridal bouquet consisted of white and mauve orchids and pink and white roses, accentuated by pink ribbon streamers and trailing English ivy.

In keeping with tradition, the bride wore a gold bracelet borrowed from a friend, Jenny Reeves of Clovis. Something old was a pair of pearl earrings belonging to her sister, Gayla Graham; something new was a heart-shaped, diamond and ruby necklace presented by the groom at the rehearsal dinner; and something blue was a ribbon marking Corinthians I in the Bible she carried under her bridal bouquet. The Bible was a gift to the couple from the church.

The groom was attired in a classic black tuxedo with tails, black cummerbund, white ascot tie and white pleated shirt, accented by crystal studs. His boutonniere consisted of double mauve roses.

The best man, Mike Hankins of Clovis, and groomsmen, Craig Chumley of Texico; Tim Trower of Greenville, Texas, cousin of the groom, and Jeff Day of Hobbs, and the ushers were dressed in black classic tuxedos with mauve cummerbunds and bow ties. Each of the men wore a mauve rose boutonniere.

Beth Hopkins of Farmington, close friend since grade school, served as maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Gayla Graham of Altus, Okla., sister of the bride; Becky Russell of Houston, sister of the bride, and Becky Henderson of Carlsbad. Bridal attendants wore tea length dresses of mauve moire, featuring fitted bodices, large pink and white bows at the nape of the neck, bouffant sleeves, and matching shoes. Each carried a bouquet of pink and white roses, surrounded by lavish green ivy and set off by long pink and white ribbon streamers.

Jenna Deaton of Clovis, daughter of close friends of the bride, Kim and Bobby Deaton, served as flower girl. She wore a mauve polished cotton dress with bouffant skirt, layered with ruffles both front and back, and puffed sleeves. Jenna carried a white basket trimmed with mauve and pink satin bows and dropped pink and mauve assorted flowers as she preceded the bride.

Following the ceremony, the newlyweds greeted guests at a reception in the Fellowship Hall of the church. The bride's table featured a round, three-tiered, white cake topped by a floral arrangement in shades of pink, mauve, white and pale yellow. Complementary matching flowers, ribbons, and eyellet accents decorated each tier. Pina colada punch, bell-and-dove-shaped mints, and nuts were served from crystal and silver appointments. The table, covered with a pink and white lace cloth, was adorned with a large candelabra floral arrangement in the bride's colors. Heidi Bohler of Muleshoe, cousin of the bride and Teresa Cary of Farwell, sister of the groom, attended the table.

The groom's table was covered with a mauve cloth and white lace topper. Coffee was served from silver appointments. The chocolate cake, a facsimile of a basketball court, and a pair of size 13 basketball shoes, bearing a floral arrangement, completed the table. Servers were Cynthia and Sherilyn Thigpen of Farwell, aunt and cousin of the groom.

Hors d'oeuvre tables were also provided. Kim Deaton of Clovis registered guests. The table, covered with a mauve and white lace cloth, featured a studio portrait of the bride and groom with the white wedding book with two white lillies lying across it.

For her daughter's wedding, Ms. Chastain wore a pink mid-calf dress, designed with pleated skirt and loose fitting lace top, and chose pearl accents with an orchid corsage.

The groom's mother was attired in a street length dress of creamy white crepe. Embroidered garlands and flowers enhanced the overlay top. Pearls and an orchid corsage completed Mrs. LaRue's ensemble.

All floral arrangements and bouquets were designed and made by Dee Chastain of Lubbock, step-mother of the bride.

The bride is a 1989 graduate of Eastern New Mexico University and teaches at Muleshoe High School where she is head of the Science Department.

The groom is currently attending Eastern New Mexico University majoring in Physical Education.

The couple is now at home following their honeymoon trip to Las Vegas, Nevada. They reside at 2012 East Fourteenth, Apartment B, Clovis.

Special guests at the wedding included the bride's maternal grandmother, Mrs. Ruth Barnett of Hale Center, Texas, and her paternal grandmother, Mrs. Vida Chastain of Lorenzo, Texas. Also in attendance were the groom's maternal grandmother, A. L. LaRue of Clovis. Joining the couple for the special occasion were numerous other relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Doolittle

"When Quality Counts"

218 West Second - Muleshoe (806) 272-3487

The Medley Triplets as they looked during their school days here.

The Medley Triplets once were the talk of Farwell - they were the only triplets in this area. Winnie Nutt, Minnie Fleming and William (Bill) Medley - the Medley Triplets - will celebrate their 55th birthday on Aug. 5 with a family reunion.

Medley triplets to turn 55 this weekend

The years have been good to the Medley triplets - William Lee "Bill" Medley, Minnie Ree Fleming and Winnie Dee Nutt.

They will celebrate their 55th birthday this weekend in the home of Bill and Carlisle Medley in Amarillo.

The Medley triplets lived in Farwell during their junior and senior high school days; Minnie and Winnie still live near Farwell. They are children of the late George L. and Susie Medley.

Several other members of the Medley family will be in attendance. They plan to make this a family reunion with all the children and grandchildren attending "Texas" Saturday night. This should be a gala affair, which hopefully can be continued in years to come.

Chairs painted

The Farwell Chamber of Commerce has painted Farwell Community Center on all 328 chairs and all of the tables at the Community Center. A group of members under the direction of Fred Chandler did the stenciling, it was reported at Tuesday's meeting.

"They were the best crew you could ask for," said Chandler.

His crew included: Joe Jones, Joe and Gwen Hughes, Ralph Franse, Anne Norton and Ricky Stewart.

It was also reported that the City of Farwell is purchasing racks for the chairs and tables.

The Chamber members also approved a new set of by-laws for group. Copies are available from Dutch Quicquel for any member who needs one.

It was reported that D & L Map Service of Arlington has requested to use the Chamber's name as a sponsoring group of new Parmer County maps which are being prepared. The board of directors has approved this.

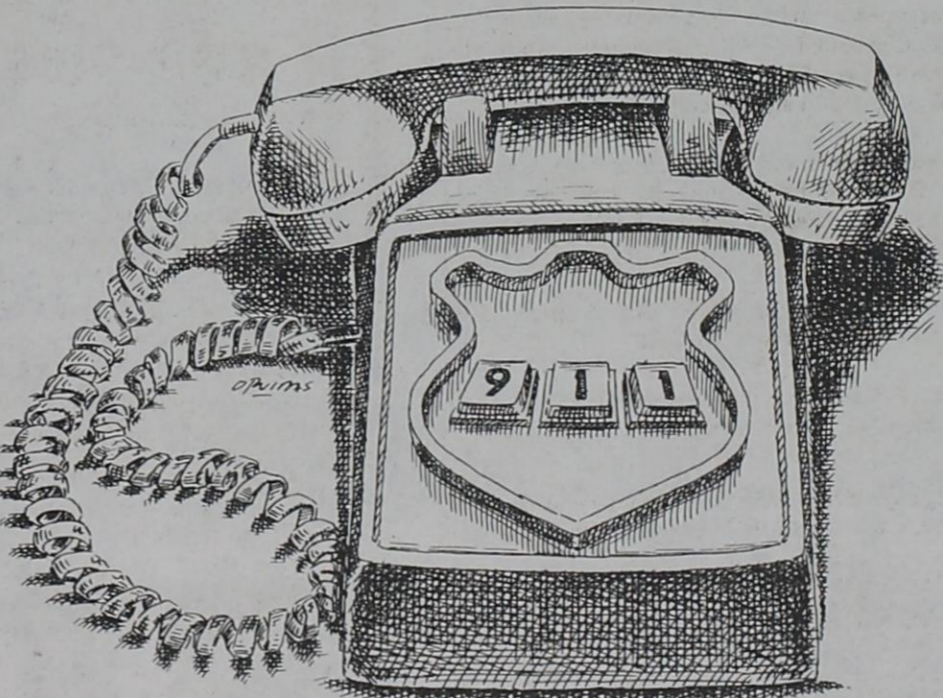

The group also discussed ways in which the Chamber of Commerce could assist the Border Town Days Queen when she represents the City of Farwell in parades or public appearances. Anne Norton will be the liaison on this item.

Farm statistics given

The following information is from Farline News Service, part of the U.S. Department of Agriculture's Economic Research Service.

- There are 24 people in Japan for each acre of farmland. There are 1.2 people per acre of cropland here in the U.S.
- The average size of the 4 million farms in Japan is 3.25 acres, while the average for the 2 million U.S. farms is 463 acres.
- The Japanese quota on imported beef will be eliminated next April, but they will raise their current tariff from 25% to 70%. The tariff then will be decreased to 50% in 1993.
