On drugs: Part II

One of the nifty lessons in life that I have learned is what a person means when they say, "several folks have contacted me" about a problem.

What I have learned is that translates into the person's spouse has complained.

But it's always better to say "I've had several complaints" than "my wife is unhappy."

Thus, I've always taken anyone saying they have heard several comments about a topic -- with a large grain of salt.

But here's one time it's true: I probably received more comments on last week's column about the pervasive drug problem in the Twin Cities than any other column I have ever written.

Folks are upset. And a couple asked me what they, as private citizens, can do.

One of the reasons I enjoy writing this column is that I can occasionally use this pulpit to bluntly say to folks "be part of the solution or..."

YOU have a choice. You can say and do nothing -- which makes you part of the problem.

Or YOU can take action. The choice is yours -- not the government, not the schools, not the neighbors. But yours. And yours alone.

So if you don't say or do anything about the problem, don't complain.

It doesn't matter whether you are a senior citizen, or a housewife, or a businessman, of whatever, as an American citizen you can help.

I don't know the exact number of drug dealers in Texico-Farwell. I would guess about 10.

I would hate to guess how many are active in Friona and Bovina.

Is that okay with you? Do you have family here? Kids? Grandkids? Doesn't that worry you?

It scares the hell out of me. So what can you do? Complain.

Tell your mayor, your city councilmen, your county judge, your county sheriff, your police chiefs, your county commissioners that they need to get serious about this menace.

I realize that government folks would rather deal with the potholes, insurance contracts, and other more mundane forms of work.

But based on the calls and comments I received the past week about drugs, I think they need to focus in on the worst problem in our area: drugs.

So what I am saying to anyone reading this column who wonders what they can do, it's simple: call one of those officials I named above. Their job is to serve you.

Of, if you prefer, drop them a note in the mail.

If you don't know who they are, call me at 481-3681 and I can help you.

In a couple of weeks, as usual, I will be attending city council meetings and chatting with the county officials. When I do I will ask them if they have heard anyone complain of the drug menace here.

Henninger named to city council

Dean C. Henninger was appointed to the Texico City Council at Tuesday's meeting. Mayor Nathan Tharp recommended him, and it was approved.

Henninger, 50, is the manager of the To and From Bus Co., which handles the Texico School buses. During the summer, he is self-employed.

He and his wife, Norma, have a son, Dean, 21.

Two years ago, Henninger ran for a council post but was a runnerup. He said that things are going well for Texico and he wants to continue that progress.

Tharp thanked the other persons who had considered seeking the post, which became vacant when Ronnie Warmuth resigned because he was moving out of the city.

In other business, the council:

-- Heard city attorney Marion Ty Rutter report that the building inspector checked the soundness of the structure at Wheeler and Garwood and found it safe.

-- Approved a police office computer software purchase.

-- Plans to look into improving West Hereford, a dirt street north of the truck wash.

A question arose whether the street was on city property and this will be looked into. Improving the drainage in the area is a possibility.

-- Approved a name change for the solid waste company handling Texico's trash. Waste Management was taken over by Wes-Tex Services.

One of Wes-Tex's officials is Jackie Reed, a former Texico resident.

-- Heard Tharp report that he is still seeking an animal control officer. The deadline for applying is June 27. Two folks are interested, he said.

-- Asked Rutter and city employee Matt Meeks to look into the possibility of a new well near the cemetery. Complaints have been made about the lack of water there.

-- Texico Marshal Gil Holguin reported at Tuesday's city council meeting that the "overabundance" of train whistles really irritates folks here.

After being told that the train whistles follow federal law, Holguin also said he was told that a city can adopt an ordinance to prohibit the whistles except in emergency situations.

Rutter will look into this and report back to the council.

-- Amended ordinances 156 and 279 to change the wording on fences.

-- Heard a report that the Brown well, on Anderson Street, was getting low on water.

-- Heard that the Highway 108 project was still on hold, waiting for some utilities to be moved. The city had hoped to get it done before school starts.

-- Revised a city ordinance to include changes dealing with the type of fences allowed.

-- Called an executive session.

Texico has problem with free food program

Problems with youths participating in the free food program at noontime each day at KKR Park was addressed by the Texico City Council on Tuesday.

The federal program has been effect here since 1991. Virginia Loera said free lunches are available to all children 18 or under.

Mayor Nathan Tharp said there has been a serious problem with trash left by the participants. Also, he said children are running loose on the streets and Highway 108. If adults don't control their children, Tharp said the program may be discontinued.

Tharp said Texico Marshal Gil Holguin has run kids out of the 6-ft. deep pond three times. Tharp said he saw a girl, about 3 years old, running down Highway 108. And other little girls were running down adjacent streets. Safety is paramount, he said.

It was stated that lunch participants must have an adult with them in order to get the free food.

Tharp said a program official told him that it wasn't the program's responsibility to control the children, just to provide the free food. The official said they would work harder to keep the area clean, said the mayor.

Community Center to be dedicated to American war veterans

The Texico City Council on Tuesday, on the recommendation of Mayor Nathan Tharp, voted to dedicate the new community center to American war veterans.

Toward that end, they put $5,000 into the proposed 1997-98 budget for a memorial to be built on the center site.

The memorial will honor Texico residents who died during wartime. Also, a paragraph will be added to honor all veterans.

This memorial will be similar to the one in Farwell City Park, in that it will list the names of veterans who died during wartime.

Do you know of any Texico residents who died during wartime? If so, please call the State Line Tribune at 481-3681 or send a note with information: State Line Tribune, P.O. Box 222, Texico, NM 88135.

The Tribune will attempt to gather the names of persons who qualify just like what the newspaper did several years ago for the Parmer County Veterans Memorial in Farwell City Park.

Two men indicted on drug charges

A Parmer County Grand Jury on Tuesday indicted Nicolas C. Sanchez, 30, of Farwell, and Rene A. Martinez, 35, of Clovis, on charges of possession of marijuana -- a felony of the third degree if the amount is 50 pounds or less but more than 5 pounds.

If convicted on this charge, the punishments are:
1) Imprisonment in the institutional division for any term of not more than 10 years or less than 2 years.

2) May be punished by a fine not to exceed $10,000.

On June 10, Sanchez and Martinez were arrested on charges of felony possession of marijuana (16 lbs.) with intent to deliver by Farwell Police Chief Roy McGaa and Texas State Trooper Craig Hunt.

A preliminary hearing is scheduled for Aug. 7 by the Curry County District Attorney's office for Texico residents Mattie Jenkins, 19, and Richard Ortiz, 36, both of whom have been charged with possession of marijuana with intent to distribute over 8 oz. and possession of drug paraphernalia.

They were arrested in a raid on their home by Region Five Drug Task Force members, including Texico Marshal Gil Holguin, on May 30.

Persons convicted of a 4th degree felony -- possession over 8 oz. -- face up to 18 months in prison. Persons convicted of a 4th degree felony -- intent to distribute -- face up to 18 months in prison.

Bovina Rural Health Clinic to close in July

The Bovina Rural Health Clinic will close July 18, nurse practitioner Sherry Whiteaker announced.

She had wanted to stay working here, but a corporate decision was made to close the clinic by High Plains Baptist -- St. Anthony hospitals in Amarillo.

Mrs. Whiteaker said the Bovina clinic was called a "marginal area" and that closure was felt to be a good business decision by corporate officials.

In the past year, since the clinic had reopened, Mrs. Whiteaker said the clinic's productivity had doubled. She felt that given more time the clinic would have been a profitable operation for High Plains Baptist -- St. Anthony.

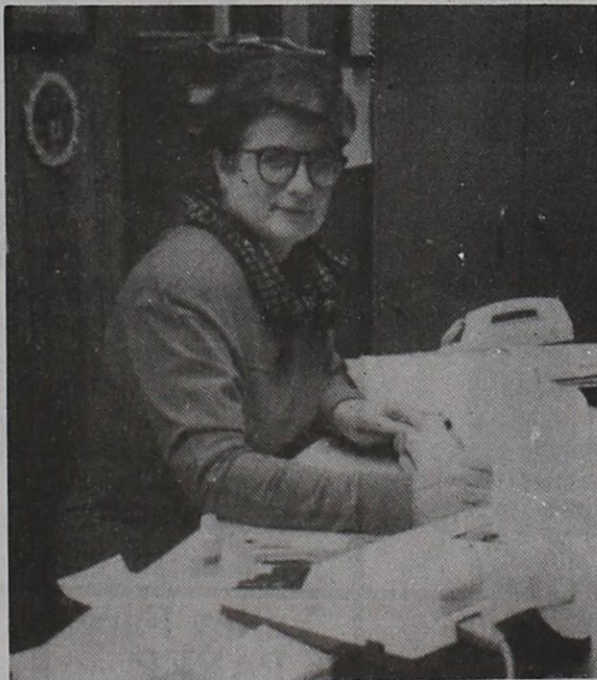

She noted that the clinic had opened and closed a few times over the past year, thus making it necessary for enough time to build up a caseload. This wasn't given.

Mrs. Whiteaker has taken a position with another health delivery system and will be moving from Dimmitt to Childress.

Mayor Gaylen Hromas added the medical clinic board is looking into alternatives to keep it open. It's a matter of contacting people in running it, like Parmer County Hospital, he said.

He noted that the patient load was up to an average of 16 patients per day, a good number for a small community like Bovina.

Banter

That's when I will find out how concerned folks really are. It will be interesting.

And if any government official tells you "there's no money" to help fight the drug infusion into this area, I don't buy it.

I've been attending government meetings here for 13 years now and can tell you that funds are available. It's a matter of prioritizing. Period.

I also realize that many of this column's readers don't live in Texico-Farwell, but in Lazbuddie, Bovina and Friona.

The problem involves all of us. And each of you folks are represented by government, also. Let them know your views.

There should be no reason on earth that drug dealers are allowed to practice their hellish trade in a small community like Texico-Farwell.

Besides government, there is another major group that can do something: the business community.

Each of our communities, Friona, Bovina and Texico-Farwell, have a basic group of important business folks.

These folks need to work with our government officials to step on the drug dealers.

It's in the best interests of all of us.

Each year at Border Town Days, our two local volunteer fire departments rotate on the giveaways.

These giveaways are vital as a fund-raiser for their operations.

This year, it's Farwell's turn. They are offering three super prizes, a 4-wheel all-terrain vehicle, a 25" TV, and $700 worth of airline tickets.

Tickets for the giveaway are available at many local businesses. My advice to you is simple: BUY A TICKET!

Is there a group as vital to a small community as a volunteer fire department -- ambulance service?

I think not. Since I type up the fire calls for Texico-Farwell each week, I am very much appreciative of the fine work these folks do.

They get out of bed at all hours of the night to rush to help someone -- next time it could be you!

How can we show our appreciation? As I said earlier, it's very easy: BUY A TICKET!

Every member of the Texico-Farwell community should buy a ticket each year for these LTD giveaways to express their thanks for the fantastic job our local volunteer fire departments do.

It would take a whole newspaper, plus, to print all the stories of how much help they give each year to us.

Has anyone in your family ever been helped by our fire departments?

If so, BUY A TICKET!

We need to continually assist our firefighters and ambulance crews with equipment and training.

We can be part of this important work by supporting them at LTD.

I sincerely hope you show that support each year by purchasing a ticket.

Our fire departments work together. Let's share that spirit of brotherhood by always supporting both our fire departments, regardless of where you live.

Harvest under way

Harvest is well underway in the area. Dryland wheat is mostly out and farmers are beginning to cut irrigated wheat.

Dryland farmers are fortunate this year to have a fairly good harvest after experiencing well below average yields the past couple of years.

Lonnie McFarland at the Lariat elevator reported that Marshall Poole brought in the first load of grain and won the $50 bonus.

At the Farwell elevator, Jeff Brown brought in the first truckload of wheat and Bouziden was the first at the Farmer's Corner elevator.

Scott Brown said that the Mason brothers (Sean, Sheldon, Shane) brought in the first load at the Clay's Corner elevator and Eric Vaughan was first at Lazbuddie.

Benefit dinner scheduled

A benefit dinner will be held Sunday from 11:30 a.m. to 2 p.m. at the Baptist Fellowship Hall in Lazbuddie for Sarah Lea Cardona, daughter of Ubaldo and Sara Godinez.

Sarah, a senior at Lazbuddie High School, was severely injured in a vehicle accident earlier this month. She is doing much better now.

Cost for the Mexican combination plate is $6 for adults and $3.50 for children 12 and under. Tickets may be bought at the door.

Bovina

Hromas said the clinic board was originally told it would be closed at the end of June so the board sought an extension, which was granted. Another extension may be requested so a transition can be made to another group without the clinic being closed.

Farwell Blue Aggies

T-ball quite an experience

From Teresa Mesman:

I'd like to take a little space to tout the accomplishments of my son's T-Ball team, the Farwell Blue Aggies.

They have not had a winning season, but I feel that each and every member of the team is a winner none-the-less. Besides, at their young ages, winning shouldn't be the issue. Or at least that's what I believe.

They were coached by Andy Bermea and Tom Fuentes and a host of parents helped in the dugout and out on the field. Everyone had a really good time with the team. The support in the stands was also heartwarming. Parents, friends, grandparents, aunts and uncles all turned out for the games.

The team learned about all the positions on a baseball team this season. This was due to the fact that Coach Bermea had them each play a different position most every game. He didn't peg the player to a position just to have the advantage. He thought it important to see and play the game from every angle. I applaud him for this effort and theory.

My son learned a lot this season and he was eager to play in each game. It was hard to go out and lose all but one game this season, but we stressed the point of doing his best ... not winning the game. Coach Bermea felt the same way. It was just as hard for him to lose the games, I'm sure. But, he felt it was more important for the kids to learn about positions and the points of the game.

Each player on the Farwell Blue Aggies had their own strengths and weaknesses. One thing you never heard from any of the players was a criticism of each other or their abilities.

I had a truly wonderful time watching T-Ball this season and I commend the coaches, the parents and each of the players. I also want to remind them that winning isn't everything and that the art of losing gracefully and sportingly even when they played their best is the purest form of victory in the end.

Cotton yield sets record

Final figures have been released for the 1996 High Plains cotton crop and the area has established a new record for yield per harvested acre. The weighted average for the High Plains came in at 591.4 pounds per acre.

Overall, the 25-county region produced 3,076,900 bales of cotton on 2,497,400 harvested acres.

The downside to the 1996 crop was the loss of 960,000 acres of mostly dryland productions. But in spite of that loss the area was still able to set the record and break the 3 million bale production mark.

Individual statistics for Parmer and Bailey counties were:

Parmer- 64,200 planted acres, 57,500 harvested acres, the yield per harvested acres was 936 pounds, and the production was 112,100.

Bailey- 111,800 planted acrs, 44,600 harvested acres, the yield per harvested acre was 717 pounds and the production was 66,600.

New Farwell football coach cites goals

By Rachel Embry

Bringing a little luck o' the Irish and setting some high goals for the Steer football team, Farwell has a friend in Coach Brent Terry.

"My main goal this year is to beat Nazareth, Sudan, and Kress," the new head football coach said, echoing the ardent desires of most Farwell citizens to defeat these perennial powerhouses who are frequent obstacles to Steer post-season play. So Coach Terry comes to Farwell with his heart in the right place!

Having coached for 15 years, Terry certainly does not lack the expertise that this year's younger and somewhat inexperienced team may need. He was the Athletic Director, head football coach, JV basketball coach and head golf coach at Shamrock, Texas, for the past four years, but has also coached at Brenham, San Angelo, and North Mesquite High Schools. The Shamrock Fighting Irish have done well the past several years and are, in fact, the team that ended Farwell's own playoff run two years ago.

Coach Terry received his own education from Angelo St. University after graduating from Snyder High School. In addition to his coaching duties, he will teach a P.E. class, an American history class, and two world geography classes while his wife Fay will teach fourth grade at Farwell Elementary.

Coach Terry and Fay have been married for almost 20 years and have two children. Their son Bill will be going into the fifth grade and daughter Amy will be a third grader.

When Coach Terry is not concocting plays that will be factors in the Steers' drive for a district championship, he enjoys hobbies such as fishing, hunting, and snow skiing with his family.

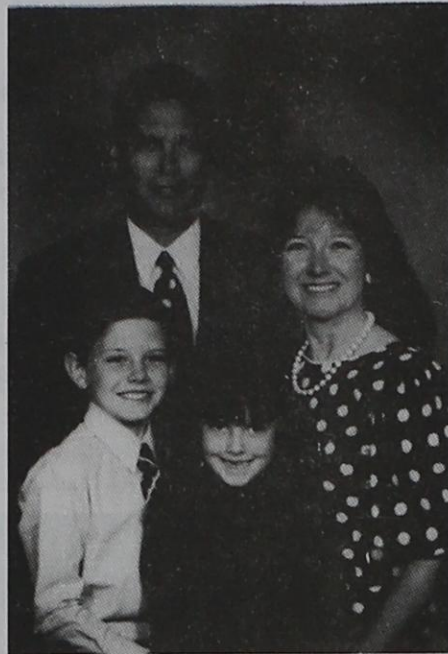

The Terry's have enjoyed Farwell the short time they've been here and look forward to knowing the community better.

"Since we've been here, we've met some really neat people," Coach Terry said. "Everyone's been really nice and I'm just looking forward to the school year starting and getting everything going."

The Jaguars

The Farwell 5 and 6 year old soccer team, the Jaguars, played in Clovis' AYSO league during the spring season. The team was coached by Kyla Ledbetter and Sheryl Christian. THE FOOLISHNESS OF GOD

"The foolishness of God is wiser than men...God chose the foolish things of the world that he might put to shame them that are wise" (1 Cor 1:25,27). By His acts and commands, God shames the worldly wise. To man, God's requirements often appear absurd.

Men have worked to make the world what they want it to be. Like children building a house, they tear down when it fails to meet expectations. Men fail because they build by the wrong pattern (cf. Prov 14:12). It is true that the wisdom of the world is foolishness with God. It is equally true that the wisdom of God is foolishness with most men.

Any way of faith must include "foolish things." The Christian walks by faith, not by sight (2 Cor 5:7). Many of God's requirements "make sense." They appear to be reasonable and one can accept them by sight. Other commands of God are positive with no moral flavor. Man, by human reason, cannot see the "rightness" of them. So they are viewed as foolishness. They must be accepted by faith. The really smart person will say, I may not see any sense in this command, but I'll obey it whether it seems sensible or not."

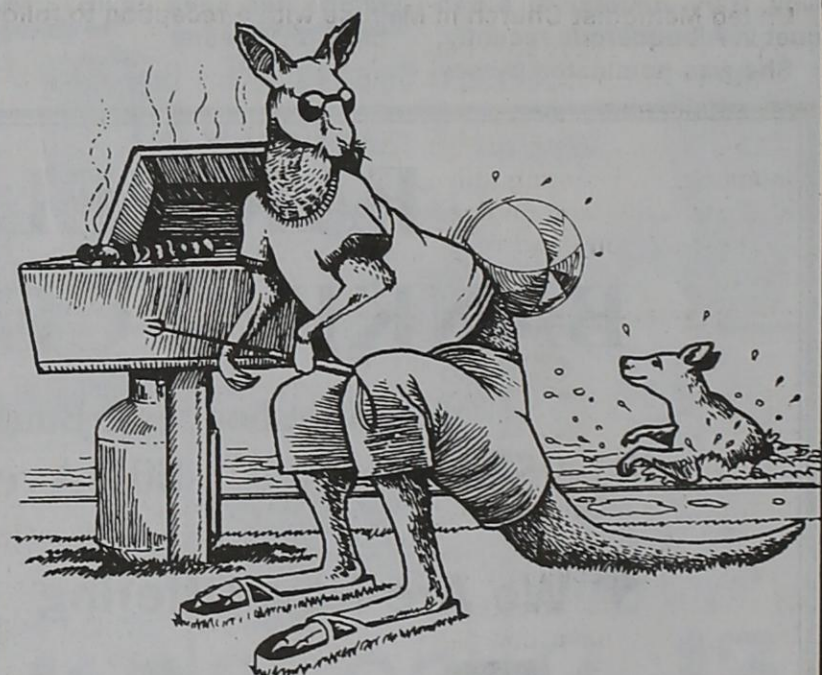

The walls of Jericho fell. Why? Because men honored God, marching around the city once each day for six days (Josh 6). No amount of reasoning would ever lead men to do this.

Naaman was a leper. He was instructed to dip in the Jordan (2 Kings 5:10). To Naaman, dipping in the Jordan seven times was a foolish thing. Faith finally let him to obey and he was healed. Faith contemplates foolish things.

Preaching is foolishness to man; with God it is wisdom (1 Cor 1:21).

Baptism is one of God's foolish things. To man it appears senseless. But it is a requirement of God (Mark 16:16).

We invite you to visit the church of Christ that meets at 5th & Ave C in Farwell. For information, call 481-3833 or 481-9153. Welcome.

Back To The Outback

Time to head for the outback. Yes, it's back to the back yard. Outback season is open season for propane gas grilling. Always free of the mess and harmful emissions associated with charcoal grilling. While you're enjoying the back yard, consider the distinctive flair and added security of a propane gas light, either wall-mounted or free-standing. Enjoy the back yard even more with a propane gas heated pool or spa. Since it's heated with economical propane, you could stay out back even longer this year. And you could be back out sooner next year.

Did You Know...

- 1.5 million farms in the United States use propane.
- Farmers have long used propane to dry their crops, brood their livestock and heat their greenhouses.

Want to throw away some money?

(Editor's note: The following letter has been received by several Farwell residents recently. The request, from Nigerian folks, wants private bank information from residents. Believe it or not, several Panhandle residents have sent the information, with resulting loss of money. Farwell Police Chief Roy McGaa has forwarded these letters to the postal inspector in Lubbock and the case is under investigation. The Tribune encourages you to throw away such letters immediately in the nearest trash can.)

Request for urgent business relationship:
My colleagues and I had after due deliberations, finally decided to send forth to you this proposal. We have procured safely the sum of (thirty-two million, five hundred thousand US dollars ONLY (US $32,500,000.00) which is lying idle in a suspense account with the Central Bank of Nigeria.
As you might rightly want to know, we are officials of the Nigeria National Petroleum Corporation (NNPC) and I in particular a member of Nigeria Federal Contract Monitoring Board.
This money originated from a contract that was executed for and on behalf of my ministry by a foreign firm which was deliberately over-invoiced by us to the tune of US

$32,500,000.00. This however is a deal between me and my colleagues, we therefore want to transfer this money abroad. Fortunately, this present administration has declared all foreign contract debt in my ministry for payment. This is an opportunity we have got to get this money transferred out of the country for our personal use. Hence it has become inevitably important for a foreign partner who is worthy of trust that we can use his company since our law does not permit us as civil servants to operate foreign accounts.

We have decided to compensate you with 30% of the total money involved, if you can be of help, 60% will be for me and my colleagues, while 10% has been mapped out to redeem any incidental expenses that may be incurred home or abroad on the course of this deal as the final and official approval of the fund may involve bribing some other officials who are not involved in the deal for prompt and immediate release of the fund.

Please, if you accept this proposal, you should send me by fax:

1. One copy of your letter-headed paper and proforma invoice, stamped and signed underneath each.
2. Your bank account number, telephone, telex and fax numbers of the bank.

Alternatively, at your request, I will send you a "text" of what you will type into your company letter-headed paper and a proforma invoice to be stamped and signed underneath before the formal release of this money and get it remitted into your nominated account. I also assure you 100% risk free in this deal, as we have done our homework properly.

I quite believe that you will protect our interest by taking this deal strictly confidential as we are still in government services, which we intend to retire from peacefully at the end of this deal.

Please reach me immediately through the above phone and fax number for further clarification, if any.
(Signed)

Mennonites construct new school building

By Rachel Embry

The Farwell area has been very fortunate to have access to some fine education facilities for many years, meeting the needs of very diverse people and situations. Now the Mennonite community is taking that tradition a step further in the construction of a new building to house their school.

The new school, located in the Oklahoma Lane vicinity (one mile north and one mile east of the crossroads of Highway 145 and FM 1731), will replace the present meeting place in the church building located on Seventh Street and Avenue C. It is being constructed by volunteers and is funded totally by donations from the church. The Mennonites hope to have it completed and ready for use by the start of the school year.

The Mennonites have directed a school for several years now and have been successful in that endeavor. They employ three teachers, one for each grade division (1st-3rd, 4th-5th, 6th-8th). The school teaches all the basic elements using the aBeka curriculum, a curriculum also used by learning institutions such as Clovis Christian School.

The facility is a private school basically aimed for the Mennonite children and the values important to their beliefs, but should anyone outside their church be interested in attending, their request could be considered on a limited basis due to the small space and materials available. The school uses a handbook outlining guidelines and by-laws the student must agree to. The system and curriculum are designed to enhance the Mennonites' own beliefs and way of life in ways a public school cannot and thus is most beneficial to them.

PUBLIC NOTICE

BRIEF EXPLANATORY STATEMENT OF PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT SPECIAL ELECTION AUGUST 9, 1997

PROPOSITION NO. 1 ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 4 proposes a constitutional amendment which would increase the school property tax residence homestead exemption from $5,000 to $15,000. The amendment would also authorize the Legislature to limit all or part of the exemption to political subdivisions that are the principal providers of elementary and secondary education within their boundaries.

In addition, the amendment would authorize the Legislature to allow the transfer of all or part of the age 65-and-over tax freeze to another homestead. Specifically, the Legislature would be authorized to provide that the current limitation against increasing school property taxes on the residence homesteads of persons age 65 or older, or their surviving spouse who is eligible to receive the exemption, may be transferred if the person establishes a different residence homestead.

The amendment would also allow the $10,000 additional amount for the standard exemption to be used to lower the tax rate of persons currently receiving the 65-and-over tax freeze. Specifically, for a homestead affected by this limitation in 1996 or in an earlier tax year, the Legislature must provide for a reduction in the school property tax limitation in the 1997 tax year and subsequent tax years in an amount equal to $10,000 multiplied by the 1997 school property tax rate.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment providing school property tax relief by increasing the residence homestead exemption by $10,000 and providing for the transfer of the tax limitation to another qualified homestead for persons over 65 and a reduction in taxes subject to the limitation."

Este es el informe explicatorio sobre la enmienda propuesta a la constitución que aparecerá en la boleta el día 9 de agosto de 1997. The Chief's Corner

From Farwell Police Chief Roy McGaa:

Why aren't peace officers trained in combat shooting?

- 1- It is expensive in man hours, ammunition, and materials.
- 2- It is too much work to comply with government regulations.
- 3- Combat training requires a minimum use of live ammunition, and that means some risk to participants.
- 4- It is simply politically incorrect to give the public the idea that officers are trained to kill.

If you refuse to train someone to accomplish the mission, the chances are good that the mission will fail. Here are just two examples, extreme to be sure, but they happen much too often:

Mission- save innocent lives. The officer responded to a domestic call. Upon arrival found the estranged husband sitting on his wife's chest stabbing her with a kitchen knife. Drew his pistol and told the man to stop. The man ignored the officer and continued to stab his wife until she stopped screaming and died. The officer figured that the trouble he could face for shooting was not worth the woman's life. That officer, who was close to retirement, was not trained.

Mission- save innocent lives. Man threatens to kill woman companion while surrounded by police. Police negotiate, man tires of it, turns to woman, places gun to her chest and shoots her. Officers had a clear shot at the individual up to the time he shot the woman. Those officer, who were willing to shoot, waited too long. They were not trained.

The politically correct wish life could be better, regardless of whatever action is taken in a given situation, they can come up with a better method. Of course all they need is many lawyers and six months to evaluate a 6/10th of a second decision.

The reality of life is that when a person makes the decision to pick up a weapon, to threaten, the life of another, the only important concern is the life of the victim. I think the two women cited above would agree with me. Those who wish that things were different either don't know or refuse to acknowledge that it takes less than one second to turn the decision to act into the act of violence.

Those who wish things were different will never give up making excuses for the violent ones who kill and maim. There is only one truth, and that is, there is never an excuse to harm an innocent person. Reality says that when you pick up a weapon for an evil purpose, you risk your life.

Solution: Train officers with the expertise of the military, they must psychologically understand and accept the fact that it may be necessary at some point in their career to kill someone. Will this, as some say, turn out killers looking for someone to shoot? The untold thousands of war veterans who have served honorably as peace officers, gives lie to that statement.

Reception held

A reception was held in honor of Preston and Doris Martin on June 7 in the home of Kent and Paula Vaughan of Earth. The reception was hosted by their children Greg and Sydney Martin of Texico, Tim and Susie Martin of Vancouver, Wash., Kent and Paula Vaughan, and Keith and Debbie Martin of Crane, Texas. Preston and Doris were married on June 11, 1947 in Hereford. Refreshments were served as approximately 80 guests enjoyed an afternoon of reminiscing, looking at photos and visiting.

Tonya Moore and Calloway Clark

Engagement told

Jerry and Kathy Stewart, of Clovis, and Eddie Moore, of Branson, Mo., announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Tonya Moore, to Calloway Clark, both of Clovis.

The prospective groom is the son of Mike and Peggy Burns, of Clovis. He is a 1994 Texico High School graduate and is employed by a local farming operation.

The bride-elect attended Texico High and is employed at Clovis Nazarene School.

The couple will exchange wedding vows on July 26 at 7:30 p.m. mdt at the home of Dwight and Lona Waldo, 824 Wright St., Clovis. A reception will follow at Westminster Presbyterian Church in Clovis. Friends and family are welcome.

Police Report

Here is the weekly report from Farwell Police Chief Roy McGaa:

On June 21, he assisted Texico at a major accident on Wheeler Avenue.

On June 22, a dog was reported stolen in the 100 block of Avenue G. The dog had been chained to a porch and the chain was missing, too.

Two reports were received on June 20:

-- A stolen bicycle was recovered at Lowe's Supermarket. Parents of the boy whose bike was stolen spotted it and called police. No action was taken against the juvenile in possession of the bike because he was under 10 years of age.

TAHC considers proposal

It's been about 7 years since mandatory proof of negative EIA status was required on Texas horses attending all Texas activities. Effective July 1, the Texas Animal Health Commission will again require negative EIA documentation. Horses must have been tested within 12 months of the event, contest, activity or gathering.

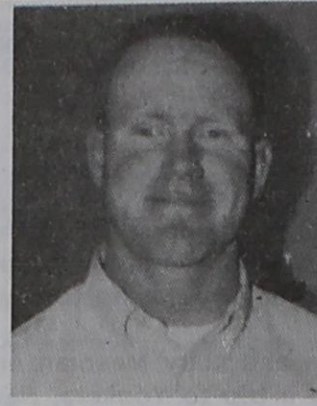

According to the TAHC's spring newsletter, "since September 1996, a total of 265 horses, donkeys, mules or asses have been detected to have EIA. Of those, 44% were in the southeastern region and 24% were detected in Northeast Texas."

The TAHC appointed an ad hoc committee to address issues that are arising from responses that are both pro and con regarding the new regulations. Doug Householder serves on the ad hoc committee and should be contacted with any comments, concerns or suggestions.

In mid-March, the committee met to assure that all options had been fully explored with regard to EIA regulations enforcement. Concerns exist about regulation effectiveness, the fairness and uniform application across all components of the horse industry, and lastly the economic ramifications of a statewide control program relative to the actual cost of the disease to the industry.

At present a proposal is being considered by the TAHC. Two suggestions deal with the rule requiring mandatory testing before horses can be sold at any auction or at private treaty and one deals with whose responsibility (activity coordinator or horse owners) it is to assure that all exhibitors at a horse gathering have adequate EIA documentation.

Charlie Phillips & Sugartimers to put on fund-raiser

Charlie Phillips and the Sugartimers will provide their great dance music at 8:30 p.m. July 25 at the Clovis Holiday Inn, the night before Border Town Days.

At 6 p.m., a "South of the Border" buffet will be offered for $14.50 per person, including tax and tips.

Reservations should be made in advance for the meal -- a head count is needed, said organizer Frances Kube. Proceeds from the event go to the Farwell Convalescent Center.

A check should be made to the Holiday Inn and can be mailed to: Farwell High School Reunion, P.O. Box 39, Farwell, TX 79325.

Or persons can call Mrs. Kube at (806) 481-3441.

Reservations need to be made by July 21.

The dance is open to the public.

Folks staying for the dance need $6 a person more, with tax deductible checks made out to the Farwell Convalescent Center.

For the past several years, Phillips has been providing fund-raisers for the center at BTD. This will be his 11th year. Everyone is invited.
