Teachers Hear State Board Speaker

'Tragedy' Triumphant For MHS Thespians

For the second year in a row -- CONGRATULATIONS -- CONGRATULATIONS -- CONGRATULATIONS -- to Kerry

Moore and the drama department from Muleshoe High School. Again this year, the thespians are home triumphant from state competition with their One-Act Play, "The Tragedy of King Lear."

Following competition at 9 p.m. Thursday night, excited telephone calls started coming in to Muleshoe after 11:30 p.m., when Muleshoe's play was judged to be the best play in the state in 3A competition.

John Isaac received the prestigious Samuel French award, the highest award that can be given a high school drama student.

Betsy Lunsford was named to the All-Star cast and Mark Moton and Jeff McCarty were named to the Honorable Mention All-Star cast.

Following district, area and regional competition, the 3A plays were narrowed to eight for state competition. The various cities represented at state, along with Muleshoe, included: Center, "Adam and Eve;" Red Oak, "To Kill a Mockingbird;" La Feria, "The Imaginary Invalid;" Boys Ranch, "The Ransom of Red Chief;" Fisco, "Lady Precious Stream;" Rockdale, "Charley's Aunt;" and Bishop, "A Funny Thing Happened on the Way to the Forum."

With 24 years as drama and speech instructor for the Muleshoe Independent School System, this is the second state victory (and in a row) for Kerry Moore.

Previously, the MHS drama students have won a first, two second places and three third places. He has taken plays to state competition for 19 years.

Cast members and the characters they play include, John Isaac, King Lear; Shelley McMeans, Cordelia; Jeff McCarty, Kent; Mark Moton, Fool; Rob Donaldson, Gloucester; Gary Watkins, Duke of Burgundy/Soldier; and Betsy Lunsford, Goneril.

EDUCATORS AND SPEAKER--Thursday night, members of the TSTA and CTA (Texas State Teachers Association) and (Classroom Teachers Association) welcomed State Education Board member Dr. Paul Dunn as speaker at their banquet. Pictured from left are Norma Prather, Alice Liles, Dr. Dunn and his wife, Fran.

"I know this has been a frustrating year for teachers, students and parents," said Dr. Paul Dunn, member of the State Board of Education, while speaking in Muleshoe Thursday night. "But, there's going to be some changes in House Bill 72, we're going to fine tune it."

"The State Board of Education has one goal," said the dentist from Levelland. "It is the child in pursuit of knowledge--not knowledge in pursuit of the child."

"I am ashamed to know that we allowed the Texas Education Agency to become a bureaucratic nightmare for 20 years."

Dr. Dunn was speaking to members of the Texas State Teachers Association (TSTA) and Classroom Teachers Association (CTA) during their annual banquet at the Bailey County Civic Center.

The doctor gave the background of the formation of the new State Board of Education and said the board had been re-formed to include 15 members, in lieu of the former 27 members.

He praised Dr. Bill Kirby, who recently was named Commissioner of Education in Texas, and said "we felt he would know what was going on, and is very astute in finance."

However, he said he was appalled to find that his district was so large, citing that his district extended from near Odessa to near Childress to near the New Mexico line to the Oklahoma line. His particular district covers 153 school districts and is larger than 18 of the states in the United States.

"Three members of the State Board of Education have an area which covers over half the state geographically," said Dr. Dunn, who maintained a light, and rather humorous presentation during his talk.

Although he said he personally felt a child should pass every subject, he thought perhaps the 'no pass, no play' ruling was rather stringent, and advocates three weeks of "sitting it out" while catching up with their subjects rather than the present six weeks. Dr. Dunn said that extensive testing has proven that students with a low IQ do better in a shorter time frame, and has suggested the shorter time for the students not to be allowed to participate in extra-curricular activities.

Celebration For Life

Has Senior 'Vote'

For Graduation Night

High school graduation is a time for celebration, decision making and growth for young people. Unfortunately, many young people decide to celebrate graduation by drinking alcohol or using other mind-altering chemicals. Too often, this decision has produced disastrous results.

Young people, with the help and encouragement of others, can break this 'tradition.' There is now a statewide Project Graduation campaign in Texas designed to help youth, parents, schools and communities help themselves.

Muleshoe High School's 1985 graduating class has voted to have a "Celebration for Life" party after graduation. After graduation, the seniors, along with their guest, will load on chartered buses to go to the Texas Tech Recreation Center. The center will provide students with swimming, racketball, movies, volleyball, basketball, skating and various other activities.

To get Project Graduation going, seniors need to ask the support of this community. "We need the support of parents, churches, business and organizations," said a senior class spokesman. "We need funds from donations, we need chaperones, food and drinks."

Contact Linda Marr, Barbara Finney or Frankie Lunsford for information. Send or bring donations to Project Graduation, %MISD, 514 West Ave. G, Muleshoe, TX 79347.

Rebate Check Has Increased

State Comptroller Bob Bullock Wednesday sent checks totaling $48.9 million in local tax payments to the 1,003 cities that levy the one-percent local sales tax.

Bullock cautioned against attempts to draw conclusions about Texas economy based on one month's rebate figure but added that the April payments "are in line with our projections for the state."

Muleshoe reflects a growth of 6.98 percent in rebates over the figures for the same time last year. With a total rebate of $70,055.23 through the first four months of this year, the added percentage shows the increase from the $65,481.54 at the same time last year. For April, 1984, the payment was $10,095.55, compared to the $11,709.20 for the same time this year.

At Morton, the sale rebate for April of this year was $3,075.21, up by 12.79 percent from the $2,548.74 for the same time last year. To date Morton has received payments of $16,601.96 and through April last year, had received $14,719.05.

In Lamb County, Littlefield is reflecting a decrease in sales tax rebates from the State. Their payment for April this year was $13,615.10, down 6.37 percent from the $14,767.23 in rebates for the same time last year. To date, Littlefield has received $65,249.78, down from the $91,050.05 in rebates received at the same time of year in 1984.

Friona received a sales tax rebate check in the amount of $6,024.49 for the current reporting period, compared to the $5,764.66 for the same time last year. They show a 'whopping' 20.13 percent increase for the year with total payments to date of $36,486.14, compared to the April, 1984 return of $30,373.12.

Houston received the largest check -- $8.5 million -- for a total $48 million in 1985. Dallas' check for $6.1 million brought this year's payments to $35.4 million. San Antonio's April payment was $3 million for a 1985 total of $17.3 million.

Area Students

Three scholarships were awarded to area graduating seniors by Five Area Telephone Cooperative, Inc. recently. These three scholarships were made available through the Cooperative by the First Bank of Muleshoe, explained 5-Area Manager, Hubert Kidd.

Kidd said these scholarships may be used in any college or university of the student's choosing. They are paid in four checks, $100 each semester for the first four semesters the students are in college. The scholarships can be used only if the student is enrolled in college, trade school or technical training institutes.

"The employees, directors and members of Five Area Telephone Cooperative Inc. wish to congratulate these students for their outstanding achievements," concluded Kidd.

It's that time of the year, when you are supposed to "Spring Forward" to Daylight Savings Time, and the official time was at 2 a.m. today.

Most states participate in the twice a year time change, which occurs on the fourth Sunday in April, reverting to Central Standard Time on the last Sunday in October.

This shift in time, first instituted during World War I, continues to plague most Americans, who spend some time grumbling until they become accustomed to the time change.

The time change has generated heated controversy at times, as did the establishment of now-standard time zones in 1883.

Opponents have complained about the apparent efforts to impose order on nature, with farmers particularly perplexed about the effect on milking and other natural schedules.

Daylight Saving Time was instituted in 1918 to save fuel used in lighting in the evening. It was a step to improve the economy of the nation during wartime.

In various forms, it has remained in effect in most states since that time, despite complaints of problems caused for farmers, officials trying to draw up transportation and a. Use pans that fully cover the heating element when cooking on top of range. Also use a tight fitting lid. This way more heat enters the pot and less escapes.

COOKING
When preparing meals there's a lot you can do to tighten energy budget.

b. Make the most of oven heat. Plan all oven-cooked dishes for a meal, or fill the oven with extra foods that can be reheated for later use. For small meals, use a small portable oven. Don't open the oven door to peek every time - you do you lose as much as a quarter of the heat.

c. Check seals around oven doors (and refrigerator doors). Replace if necessary or adjust latches.

LAUNDRY
a. Wash in warm or cold water and fill the washer to capacity.

b. Separate drying loads into lightweight and heavy items. Lighter ones take less drying time, so dryer doesn't run as long.

c. Fill dryer to capacity.

d. Don't overdry clothes.

e. Clean the lint screen in the dryer after every load or two.

AND LOTS OF OTHER WAYS

Lights left on in unused rooms - turn them off. To reduce electricity consumption further, remove 1 bulb out of 3, replacing it with a burned-out bulb for safety. Other bulbs can be replaced with lower wattage bulbs, but don't skimp on light in reading or work areas. If you need a lot of light, one large bulb is better than several smaller ones; a 100-watt bulb gives you more light than 2 60-watt bulbs.

a. Fluorescent lights more efficiently than incandescent lights.

b. Use long life incandescent bulbs only in places that are hard to reach, these bulbs give less light than ordinary bulbs of the same wattage.

c. Dirt absorbs light - keep lamps and lighting fixtures clean.

d. Light colors for walls, rugs, and other furnishing, reduce the need for artificial lighting.

e. Color sets use more electricity than black and white.

f. Don't let power mowers idle for long periods. Turn off other power tools when there're not in use.

THE FAMILY CAR
Make better use of car pooling, bicycling, and walking. Keep gas consumption in mind:

a. Regular tune-ups. Check your tire pressure; under-inflated tires cut down gas mileage.

b. Drive as if you're almost out of gas. Drive smoothly and not exceeding 55 MPH. Accelerate gradually, don't ride your brakes. When waiting in your car, turn off the car instead of idle.

BUYING NEW APPLIANCES
Look for labels that tell what the wattage of a new appliance is, or that estimate what its use of energy will be over a specified time. Then compare these figures to those for other brands or models. Remember you'll be paying the cost of operating an appliance over the years in addition to paying the amount on the price tag.

Room air-conditioners rate their models in terms of energy efficiency. This energy efficiency (EER) number ranges up to 12 and the higher it is, the better model in terms of energy conservation.

Appliances which usually don't use too much energy because of low wattage or not used that much are: blenders and mixers, carving knives, can openers, heating pads, sewing machines, shavers and toothbrushes.

Once you get into the habit of painless conservation, you'll not only be saving energy and money, you'll be helping to preserve our scarce resources.

HOT WATER
Next to heating and cooling, hot water takes the biggest share of your energy budget. But you don't have to take cold showers to save here:

a. Keep thermostat on water heater set on normal, or about 140°. Good to insulate hot water tank and piping.

b. Wash clothes in warm or cold water and rinse them in cold. Wash a full load unless your washer has lower water level settings for partial loads.

c. Take a shower instead of a bath, you'll save hot water.

d. Repair leaky faucets. One drop a second wastes about 700 gallons of water a year.

e. Use dishwasher full. If you rinse dishes before loading, use cold water. Let dishes air dry after final rinse, turn off dishwasher and open the door.

Jesus died too soon. He would have repudiated His doctrine if He had lived to my age.

SAFETY... EVERYONE'S CONCERN

Electricity is the farmer's co-worker. But, it can be a potential danger to the farmer if irrigation equipment is not maintained properly.

All center pivot sprinklers should be grounded properly to operate safely. Improper grounding can cause hazardous voltages to appear on metal objects such as ground wires, guys, and equipment enclosures following equipment failures.

Because we are interested in your welfare, we urge you to take EVERY possible precaution to avoid serious injury—or possibly even death!

We at BAILEY COUNTY ELECTRIC COOP are concerned that on towed systems, grounds could be broken off; also, systems located in pastures and areas where livestock may be or may have been. The grounds may have been broken or rubbed into. It is up to the member to see that his pivot systems is in good electrical condition. Grounds need to be checked often and replaced if broken or missing. PLEASE CHECK YOUR SYSTEM'S GROUNDS AND EQUIPMENT. Not only is it for your safety and your employee's safety, it is for the safety of anyone who should come in contact with your pivot system. If you have doubts about your system, contact your sprinkler company, or your electric supplier.

Look For Quality In Linen Clothes

After years of buying clothes made from polyester blends and other synthetic fibers, it may be hard to know what to look for in the natural fibers that now fill the stores.

Crisp linen, ramie and linen-look summer clothes offer attractive options for consumers who know how to shop for these fabrics, says Texas A&M University Agricultural Extension Service clothing specialist Dr. Ann Beard.

Linen comes in many weights and textures to accommodate a wide range of styles, she says. Heavier weights are best for tailored suits while sheer, handkerchief weights are best for soft blouses or dresses. Natural linen is versatile enough to shape into any desired look.

Linen is often combined with a synthetic, such as polyester, to produce a linen blend. Beard notes, "These blends are more resistant to wrinkling and shrinking and retain their shape better than pure linen fabric. However, blends require extra care when ironing since they can be scorched or begin to shine if too much heat is used."

When shopping for a linen or linen blend garment, Beard advises checking for the following:

- *Check the care label for instructions. Linen garments can be washed if the cloth was pre-washed before sewing. Some garments will require dry cleaning.

- *Look carefully to see how the garment hangs when you try it on. This is important since linen has such an obvious grain.

- *Check the seams for reinforcement and finishing, since linen tends to ravel.

- *Also check for interfacing at necklines, collars, cuffs, lapels, center front and back openings and pockets—even on heavy weight linen. Interfacings help

Women Landowners Will Be Attending Seminars

Special seminars on Farm and Ranch Business Management for Women Landowners will be held in three different Texas cities in the coming weeks.

Dates and locations of the seminars are May 7-9, Holiday Inn (1911 I-40 East), Amarillo; May 14-16, Holiday Inn South (4440 West Airport Freeway), Dallas-Fort Worth; and May 28-30, Holiday Inn (77 NE Loop 410), San Antonio.

The seminars are designed to help women explore income-generating and tax-saving opportunities for their farms and ranches, says Dr. Wayne Hayenga, economist and attorney with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

Discussions will center on income taxes, leases, business organization and estate planning. A special section will deal with oil and gas leases.

Farm leases and operating agreements take many forms, notes Hayenga, and many of these will be discussed at the seminar, including benefits and restrictions to both landowners and tenants.

Regarding income tax planning, tax-saving opportunities will be explored for business growth, land sales, retirement income and helping out children and grandchildren. A session on estate planning will deal with wills, trusts, estate tax deferrals, gifts and property titles, Hayenga points out.

Estate planning tools which will be discussed include use of corporations and partnerships, special farm land valuation, deferred estate tax payments, life insurance and discounted estate taxes (flower bonds).

For registration information, contact Hayenga in the Department of Agricultural Economics, Texas A&M University, College Station, TX 77843, or call (409) 845-2226.

Polyunsaturated Fats And Blood Pressure

A series of nutrition studies by researchers at the U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) suggest that one of the many factors affecting blood pressure is the amount of polyunsaturated fats in the diet, says nutritionist Dr. Alice Hunt.

By increasing the ratio of polyunsaturated to saturated fats, the researchers significantly reduced both systolic and diastolic blood pressure in 40-to-60-year-old men and women with normal or slightly elevated blood pressure, reports the Texas A&M University, Agricultural Extension Service specialist.

"It's significant that in two of the studies the participants' blood pressure was lowered without reducing their intake of meat, dairy products, eggs or salt," says Hunt. "These studies show that blood pressure can be reduced by increasing polyunsaturated fats in the diet, regardless of the saturated fat content."

The specialist notes that to reduce fat calories and increase polyunsaturates in the studies, the researchers used lean meats with all visible fat trimmed off before cooking, including removing chicken skin. They also substituted polyunsaturated products for butter, mayonnaise, salad dressings and cooking oils.

Palm and coconut oils are high in saturated fats, while corn oil and soybean oil are high in polyunsaturates, Hunt explains. Cheese, other than the low-fat types such as cottage cheese and mozzarella made from milk, contain between 30 and 60 percent saturated fat. Some baked products like crackers and cookies also contain saturated fats to increase shelf life.

"The label is a good guide for selecting polyunsaturated products," Hunt says. "But you don't have to avoid a particular food because it may contribute important nutrients like proteins, vitamins, major minerals and trace elements."

The specialist notes that to make up for the reduction of fat calories in the experimental diet, the researchers used fresh fruits and vegetables, bread, cereals, pasta and potatoes. When the volunteers returned to their pre-study diet, their blood pressure generally returned to pre-study levels.

Since high blood pressure has many causes, diet may be only part of the answer, reminds Hunt. She cautions people with high blood pressure to consult a physician before making changes in eating habits.

ANTHONY'S

Proper Planning Adds To Cotton Production

Plant spacing, plant population and variety selection may be keys to making cotton production on the Texas High Plains profitable again. "For two years in a row now we have seen a very strong impact on yield increases due to changing the row spacing and controlling our plant population," states Dr. Dan Krieg, Crop Physiologist with the Plant and Soil Sciences Department of the College of Agricultural Sciences at Texas Tech University.

One of the keys to managing production according to Dr. Krieg's research is matching your cotton growth habit, or variety selection, with the amount of water available. "We need to know what we have available in terms of our water supply. Then we need to choose the growth habit of the cotton we are going to plant accordingly."

"We have found that the more indeterminate our variety selection is under irrigated conditions, the less yield we get. But under dryland conditions in our research the indeterminate beat the determinate. So, if you've got water, plant something that is going to grow and mature; something briefly on the proposed statewide testing for teacher competency, and said to have the full testing called for, would cost some $16.9 million. With 211,000 teachers to be tested in Texas, that would be the biggest single testing done anywhere at the same time.

Just basic "reading and writing" testing will be costing $4.6 million for the basic literacy test, he added.

One person who was asked for brief comments said, "I think HB 72 is good, it puts emphasis back on education. It's a great motivation for kids if they want to participate in extra-curricular activities."

Julie Cage, president of the Mulshoe Independent School District Board of Trustees installed new officers for the TSTA and CTA in joint ceremonies. She installed Traci Ellis as president of the CTA and Ginger Caldwell as president of the TSTA; Margaret Gleason, vice president of CTA and Eloise Wilson, vice president of TSTA; John Gulley, secretary of CTA and Evelyn Northcutt as secretary of TSTA; Jane Rudd, treasurer of TSTA and Mary Alice Perez, treasurer of CTA; Dickie Reedy, president-elect of TSTA and Amy Gilliland, president-elect of CTA.

Barbara Finney presented Imogene Tiller Cole, school nurse at Mary DeShazo Elementary School for the past 22 years with a plaque for her service and being "Florence Nightingale of Mary DeShazo." Mrs. Cole and her husband, Homer, will be moving to Oklahoma after school ends this year.

with more determinancy." Determinate cotton varieties are classified as short season cottons that tend to start fruiting earlier, they make the crop early, and don't have the ability to re-grow in the fall of the year. However, Dr. Krieg states, "If you don't have water and you have to count rainfall, you want the indeterminate." Indeterminate varieties delay the onset of fruit. They are very responsive to water stress and shed fruit when there is water stress. But if they get a rain, they have the ability to come back.

Another important aspect of Dr. Krieg's research deals with the plant population operators normally have. "All of our research has been done at a constant plant population of 40,000 plants per acre," states Dr. Krieg.

"We have been planting one seed per two inches, or six seeds per foot of row, and then we hope that we only get three of those six to survive."

"What I want to emphasize is that plant population control is first and foremost the most critical factor. If you can control that population, and don't get beyond 50,000 plants per acre, then you can make that plant work in the temperature environment we have to live with. You can get earlier development and more mature fiber just by reducing the population."

"In our research during 1983 and 1984 we been looking at three different plant spacings as far as changing the width within the row," Dr. Krieg explains. "We used the traditional 40-inch row, a 30-inch row and then two rows per bed on 40-inch centers spread 12 inches apart. Basically all we are doing is giving each plant a little more room."

"One of our biggest problems out here is water use efficiency. Our average rainfall is less than desirable, but at the same time if we use that water which is available to us properly, and make as much of that water go through the plant and not loose it to runoff and free evaporation, we can do quite well with the rainfall we get. So, our purpose is to try to change the amount of total water available and give the plant an opportunity to have more of that total water supply and not loose so much to evaporation."

"In summary, population control according to Dr. Krieg's two year's of field research is the single most critical factor. Then secondly, if you can change row spacings and select your variety properly based upon your water, then you can make some yield and consequently profit gains in cotton production in the High Plains of Texas."

John R. Block, Agricultural Secretary:
"The administration is absolutely, firmly resolved to reform the agricultural policy this year..."

RETIREE HONORED--After 22 years as 'nurse' at Mary DeShazo Elementary School, Imogene Tiller Cole will be retiring at the end of this school year to move to Oklahoma with her husband, Homer. She was presented a retirement plaque by Barbara Finney, left, who will be the new principal at Dillman Elementary in the fall.

Sudan Little Dribblers Win Second At Regionals

By Evelyn Ritchie
The Sudan Major league Little Dribblers team recently won second place in the Boys Regional Tournament that was held in Sudan. This tournament was for the Associational members of this area that belong to the Continental Division (all schools with less than 2,000 population).
A junior and major league team from Plains, Crowell and Sudan competed in the tournament with the teams from Plains winning both divisions.
The Plains junior team won the title by beating Crowell in the finals 57-18. In other games, Plains defeated Sudan 33-7 and Crowell 35-7. The Plains major league team won the title by defeating Sudan in the finals 45-33. Other games won by Plains were 35-34 over Sudan and 34-20 over Crowell. As a result of their victories, Plains now advances to the National Tournament in Centerville.
In the Major League competition, the Sudan team won the second place trophy. In the first game against Plains, the Sudan boys lost 34-37. It was a hard-fought battle which was only won in the last seconds of the final quarter. Quarter scores for Sudan were 6-10-23-34 and Plains were 10-21-27-37. Leading scorers for Sudan were Bryan Baker with 6; Gary Boyles with 2; Monty Edwards 12; Jody Dodson 6 and Shannon Fisher 8.

In the next game, to determine who would be eliminated from the tournament the Sudan boys prevailed over Crowell 36-21. This put them back in the Championship game. Leading scorer was M. Edwards with 10 points; and he was assisted by B. Baker with 7; Dodson 6; Clay Carr 1; Tray Baker 2; Boyles 6 and Fisher 4.

In the championship game, the boys took an early commanding lead, but saw it vanish in the last quarter when they lost to Plains 45-33. In this game, Monty scored a game high of 14 points followed by B. Baker with 9; Dodson 2; Boyles 8. The score by quarters were Sudan 9-20-29-33 Plains 10-14-29-45. Other members of this team were Len Kuykendall, Charlie Smith, Jamie Gaewood, Jeremy Miller, and Ricky Weaver. They were coached by Corley Baker and Mike Fisher.

In the Junior League, the Sudan boys lost both games to take third place.

In their first game, they met a very talented Plains group and lost 33-7. Chad King led all scorers with 4 points and Kyle Edwards added 1 and Timmy Williams added 2. The score by quarters were Sudan 1-5-5-7 and Plains 10-19-27-33.

In the consolation game, Sudan fought a gallant battle before bowing out of the game, and tournament with a 16-19 loss to Crowell. In this game, Jason Bellar led all scorers with 9 points. Other scorers were King who made 3 and K. Edwards and Benny Baker who added 2 each. The other members of this team were Joe Smith, John Damron, Dickey Gipson, Rickey Gipson, Randy Gregg and David Damron. Coaches for this team were Gary Edwards, Steve Edwards and Rick Gipson.

These boys played very well and although they didn't get to go to the National tournament, they still represented Sudan with dignity. Sudan has every right to be proud of our youth.

The Sudan Major League boys participated in the Muleshoe Invitational tournament last week. They won their first game against Friona, but lost in the semifinals to Farwell. As a result of this loss, they were eliminated from the tournament.

In the Farwell game, Sudan began very slowly only scoring 11 points in the first three quarters and were 16 points behind. However, they came alive in the last quarter to score 22 points and pull within two points of Farwell before losing 33-40. In the last quarter alone, Sudan outscored Farwell 22-13. Leading scorer for this game was Monty Edwards with 11; Bryan Baker and Gary Boyles with 7 each; Shannon Fisher 3; Jody Dodson and Charlie Smith with 2 each and Jeremy Miller 1.

What is a dislocation? Dislocations usually occur when a joint exceeds its range of motion and the joint surfaces are no longer intact. With this type of injury comes alot of swelling not only on the surface but around the ligaments and joints.

Because there can be possible vein, artery and nerve damage it is important to seek prompt medical attention.

Signs and symptoms: Severe pain, deformity at the joint, inability to move the joint, swelling and point tenderness.

What can you do: immobilize the dislocation with out moving it around and transport to the nearest medical facility.

Next week we look at the different type of dislocations that are common.
