WET VS. DRY

Grain Control Demand Puts GOP On Spot

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30. (AP)—President Truman's demand for control of grain used by distillers put congressional Republicans on a political hot spot today.

Some GOP members admitted privately that Mr. Truman has used their own anti-inflation law to maneuver them into a squeeze between the drys and the wets.

The Senate voted to extend this power to Feb. 29. But the House Banking committee killed that bill Monday.

Under the anti-inflation law the distillers could still get together with the agriculture department and agree to cut down on their use of grain. They could agree how to split up what they do use.

But President Truman told Congress yesterday this provision of the GOP law has flopped. The distillers haven't been able to agree, he said. Hence he asked Congress to extend his grain rationing authority until Oct. 31.

Otherwise the distillers will be free, after tomorrow, to go into the market and buy what grains they can find.

Plane Wreckage Sighted In Alps

FRANKFURT, Germany, Jan. 29. (AP)—U. S. Air Force headquarters reported today the sighting of plane wreckage in the lower French Alps, and said another plane, presumably a B-17 in the search party, had crashed 20 miles east of the wreckage.

The first plane was believed to be a DC-3 transport which disappeared Tuesday while enroute from France to Italy. It carried three American women and five children, dependents of U. S. soldiers in the Trieste area.

The wreckage of this twin-engine craft was sighted 12 miles northwest of Digne, France, the Air Force headquarters at Wiesbaden reported.

One of the pilots in the search party said he had seen the second plane crash and explode. It appeared to him to be a flying fortress (B-17).

Rising Temperatures Bring Cheer To Lone Star State

By The Associated Press

Rising temperatures and a brighter heating fuel picture brought cheer to weather-beaten Texans today. No rain—no sleet—no snow was the report in Texas today.

Temperatures were still below the freezing mark, however, at 6:30 a. m. El Paso and Salt Flat were the coldest with nine above zero. Brownsville was warmest with a 33.

The forecast was "not quite so cold" today and the same again tomorrow. Bans on industrial use of natural gas were relaxed in hundreds of towns. All state roads were reported open but some were still dangerous because of ice.

At Austin, Gov. Beauford Jester announced the release of 3,000,000 gallons of butane gas

Good Weather Helps Start Of Hospital

Ground-Breaking Held For VA Project Here

Moderating weather was welcomed by a crowd which gathered at the South Lancaster street site this afternoon for ceremonies scheduled at 2:30 to commemorate the breaking of ground for the new veterans' hospital.

Numbers by the Big Spring high school band preceded the program, which was to include brief talks from representatives of the Corps of Engineers (handling construction of the project for the Veterans' administration), of the VA itself, of service organizations and various civic and governmental agencies.

Here for the program was Col. Henry F. Hannis, District Engineer of Albuquerque, N. M., with members of his staff, Frank H. Gruver and Louie G. Bradley; Fred Young of the Veterans' administration, Lubbock; Robert E. McKee, Jr., of the contracting firm; State Representative R. E. (Peppy) Blount; and other visitors.

The ceremony was to be climaxed with the turning of the first shovel of dirt by Mrs. F. A. Farquhar, 405 West Fifth street, the mother of Lieut. LaVerne Farquhar, an Army nurse who was killed in action at the Anzio beachhead Feb. 10, 1944.

McKee revealed Friday that the contractor will move in the first of the week, to erect an office building, and that earth moving equipment should be on the ground to start excavation in a few days.

The announcer said the visits constituted a breach of the treaty, which provided for withdrawal from Italy by Dec. 15, 1947, of all armed forces of the allied powers. The U. S. aircraft carrier Midway, three cruisers and 10 destroyers have anchored off some Italian ports, including Naples and Taranto. They constitute part of the Mediterranean fleet.

Cold Spell Is Ended Here

Sunny skies and increasing warmth were back in vogue here Friday, ending one of the most tenacious cold spells in several seasons.

Temperatures reached 35 degrees Thursday afternoon, marking the first readings above freezing since last Saturday evening. The minimum Friday was 18 degrees and a maximum of 54 was forecast. So far, no serious losses to livestock have been reported.

The brief period of above-freezing temperature Thursday brought relief to some homes which had been without water for two or three days due to frozen pipes. However, others who suffered from the same difficulty reported that water lines still were clogged this morning. Therefore the volume of broken pipes still was undetermined, since those that were still frozen apparently were in greater danger of bursting.

Today's sunshine was expected to increase the thaw, which, in turn would produce a better picture of the cold spell's results.

Mohandas Gandhi Shot Down At Prayer Meet

Hindu Assassin Jailed By Police

An assassin today killed Mohandas K. Gandhi. The Hindu leader, who fought British rule of India with fasts and civil disobedience and finally saw the subcontinent split into independent dominions, was shot down at prayer meeting in New Delhi. The assassin, described as a Hindu from Poona, was jailed.

Thousands of Indians wept. There was worldwide concern at the possibility of renewed violence between Moslems on the one side and Hindus and Sikhs on the other. Only two weeks ago the 78-year-old Gandhi had fasted for five days in an effort to ease the communal situation. He ended the fast on the promise of leaders to work for peace.

Police officials in New Delhi said Gandhi was slain "for political reason—because some persons did not agree with his appeals against violence."

India's chief delegate to the United Nations called the assassination "the biggest disaster which has overtaken our country." Issues between India and Pakistan, her Moslem neighbor, are before the U. N. security council.

Prime Minister Attlee of Britain arranged a broadcast tonight, probably to appeal to India and Pakistan to put aside thoughts of violence. The countries remain as dominions of the British government, but to all intents are independent.

The news shocked London. A government official said almost anything might happen in India because of the shooting. The official, who spent many years in British service in India, said authorities there would have to move fast to keep the situation in hand.

"Thank God the assassin was not a Moslem, or all hell certainly would break loose," he said. Habib Ibrahim Rahimtoola, Moslem high commissioner in London for the Pakistan government, called personally on Krishna Menon, Indian high commissioner, "to give him my personal condolences."

An India house official in London tacked a piece of white paper on the wall outside. It said: "Gandhi is dead."

Bareheaded Indian women in traditional saris, and turbaned, bearded Sikhs wept as they read the note.

President Truman, grieved over the assassination, today was said to regard the Indian leader's death as "a tragic loss to the whole world."

Presidential Secretary Charles G. Ross thus described Mr. Truman's feelings upon hearing news of Gandhi's death.

Senator Barkley (Ky), Democratic leader, said: "I regard the assassination (of Gandhi) as a great international tragedy. Notwithstanding the great sorrow this will cause the world, I sincerely hope it will not retard the peace of India and the world."

The frail and wizened little political and spiritual leader was the target of three bullets fired at close range at his prayer meeting.

March Of Dimes Nearing $1000

Proceeds from the March of Dimes and special gifts boosted local contributions to the infantile paralysis drive today near the thousand dollar mark.

Ira Thurman, treasurer, reported that the check from the R&R theatres, representing four days collections by Boy Scouts, from show patrons, had been received in the amount of $754.64. In addition there was a $100 contribution from George Tillinghast, $10 each from H. H. Hurt and O. F. Priest; $5 each from Charles Morris, and J. D. Benson, $2.50 from J. P. Boswell and $1 each from Mrs. R. C. Strain and R. M. Hull. A collection taken at the poll tax dance during the week amounted to $30, giving a total of $919.

RUSH ANTICIPATED

Poll Tax Sales May Shatter Records

Big Spring and Howard county appeared certain today to shatter all records for vote registration before the deadline falls Saturday at midnight.

Friday morning the total poll tax payments stood at 5,272, only about 200 off the pace for two years ago and 600 under the record poll year of 1940.

Exemption certificates rose to 987, exhausting the supply of current certificates. Clerks promptly utilized some of the 1948 certificates, changing dates, in order to serve all applicants for exemptions.

With the total visible potential at 6,259 Friday morning, the 6,359 total in 1940, highest for any previous presidential election year, and the 6,541 in 1946, were due to be shattered.

In previous years, it has not been uncommon for the last day of the poll tax season to produce upwards of one thousand poll tax payments. Accordingly, a big rush was anticipated at the office of

Payments May Break All-Time Marks In Texas

By The Associated Press

As associated press survey indicated today that poll tax payments in Texas will break all records.

Deadline for payment is tomorrow, Jan. 31.

The few counties which reported payments lagging blamed the current cold spell which has kept prospective voters away from tax offices and booths.

Staggering increases were reported in some counties, such as Travis, where poll tax totals were expected to double previous years. The numerous payments were not entirely spontaneous. In many cities, particularly those with great numbers of industrial workers, organizations sent their members out punching doorbells, pleading with prospective voters to make themselves eligible to mark a ballot.

Junior chambers of commerce and women's clubs were promoting tax payments as a civic responsibility.

Even the bartender could tell you the tax deadline, show you his tax receipt and expound on the virtues of exercising the vote. Local option elections are hanging over his head.

LAST CHANCE

Office of the tax collector will be kept open until midnight Saturday to issue poll tax receipts and exemption certificates. Those who apply for poll taxes by mail must give their name, postoffice address, when and where (state) born, length of residence in this state, county, city; whether natural born or naturalized citizen; sex; occupation; voting precinct. A man may apply for his wife, or vice-versa, and should enclose $1.75 for each poll tax. In every instance, signature of the applicant MUST BE SIGNED BEFORE A NOTARY PUBLIC.

County Tax Collector John F. Wolcott throughout Saturday, and the office will be kept open until midnight.

A warning was sounded again to former servicemen who have possessed exemptions. In most cases, these 18-month exemptions have expired. See POLL TAX, Pg. 8, Col. 2.

'SECOND SECESSION' POOH POED

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30. (AP)—Democratic leaders refused to show nervousness today about a rising Dixie revolt against the policies of President Truman.

They insisted that harsh words from Alabama, Mississippi and South Carolina are no sign there is going to be a sort of "second secession."

The solid South may continue to complain about anti-poll tax, anti-lynch and no-color-line talk from the White House, they conceded privately. But they said it still will go solidly Democratic.

At Columbia, S. C., 49 members of the South Carolina legislature told the state Democratic executive committee yesterday affairs have reached the point where "We should reconsider our position in the national party."

They said the national organization has made a habit of granting concessions "to the sections of the country not 'in the bag,' to those things flagrantly repugnant to our views."

In Washington, Mr. Truman himself headed the list of Democrats who seemed to think there is more smoke than fire in southern threats to veer away from his leadership. Anybody who wants to make a headline, he told a White House news conference yesterday, can get it by attacking the President.

Mr. Truman was referring specifically to the announcement of Gov. James E. Folsom of Alabama that he is a candidate for the Democratic presidential nomination.

Folsom's move added up to a protest against Mr. Truman's plea that Congress set up a commission to prevent race discrimination on jobs, ban the poll tax and make lynching a federal offense.

Gov. Fielding L. Wright of Mississippi recently blasted the president for plunging that sort of legislation. In his state there has been talk of picking presidential electors who might vote for somebody besides the President.

'OBLIGATION OF PEOPLE'

Jester Hopes Texans Ready To Rebuild Decadent Prisons

AUSTIN, Jan. 30. (AP)—That Texans and the legislature are ready to pay what it will cost to rebuild Texas' decadent prison system is the expressed hope of Gov. Beauford H. Jester.

"I believe it the social duty and obligation of the people of Texas through its legislature, the prison board, and the chief executive to see to it that Texas merits and solves this vexing problem and to furnish the money that is required to do the job right," the governor told a press conference yesterday.

He had just returned from a two-day "inspection and study" of the state's oft-criticized penal farms. Asked if he thought the people and the legislature are yet ready to foot what promises to be a staggering bill, the governor replied: "Let us hope so."

Jester said he had asked Prison General Manager O. B. Ellis and the prison board to outline the essential needs of the system and the amount of money that it will require.

"It is obvious that the necessary corrections and improvements in the physical plants and new buildings and improvements incident to providing Texas with a modern and humane penal system will cost money—lots of money," the governor commented.

He did not estimate how much, although he said Ellis had mentioned a figure.

Jester said, however, that the cost of the program should be made known well in advance of the next regular session of the legislature next January.

"I believe Mr. Ellis' specific recommendations and his overall plan of management of our prison system are sound," the governor declared. "Since the prison board has employed Mr. Ellis and agreed to back him in his plans and management of the prison system, I believe the board will support his recommendations on policies for the system."

"As governor, I will support the board and the prison manager on their agreed plans for the penal system."

On Jester's tour of the penitentiary, Ellis had outlined an extensive agricultural and industrial program which he said would put the prison on its feet if given the equipment and necessary changes in the law to permit the prison to sell its produce on a profit margin. Present laws allow sales only on a cost basis.

Jester commented that remedy of the prison problem "is a matter that must stem from the social consciousness of our people and the legislature."

Child Declares She Burned House For Her Mother

FERNDALE, Md., Jan. 30. (AP)—A 42-year-old woman today awaited grand jury action on three charges of arson, after a 10-year-old girl admitted burning a neighbor's house to the ground "to please my mother."

Blonde, blue-eyed Louise Morrison told Trial Magistrate David B. Dunker yesterday her foster-mother, Mrs. Helen Josephine Lock, asked her last June 5 if she could burn down a seven-room bungalow belonging to Mrs. Rose Sellner of Jessup, Md.

"I said I guessed I could," Louise related. She said she obtained matches and coal oil "in back of the garage," while "sister watched the dogs so they wouldn't bark."

A second blaze damaged the back porch Oct. 11, when the house was two-thirds rebuilt. Louise said "mother" had mentioned "she would like to see it burn down again."

On Nov. 16, Louise said, "No, they'll get suspicious." However, Louise set fire to the front porch anyway "to please mother."

It was testified that Mrs. Lock had argued with Mrs. Sellner over the location of a garage which Mrs. Lock's husband contemplated building. She was held in $15,000 bond.

Red Charges Soviet Citizens Held In U. S. Zone Of Germany

BERLIN, Jan. 30. (AP)—Marshal Vassily D. Sokolovsky, the Soviet military governor, charged today in a Soviet-published letter that 206 Soviet citizens are imprisoned in the U. S. zone of Germany. He demanded their immediate release.

Thirty of them, the letter said, are under sentence of death.

The letter appeared in the official Soviet newspaper, Taegliche Rundschau, only a few hours before the allied control council was scheduled to meet. The council announced a short time later it had postponed its meeting until tomorrow.

Sokolovsky's letter was dated Jan. 23 and addressed to Gen. Lucius D. Clay, American military governor. It charged the Soviet citizens are being held at Straub-ing, lower Bavaria.

Gen. Clay said he had not received it.

Sokolovsky's letter said all the prisoners had asked to be returned to the Soviet Union. He charged U. S. authorities with violating an agreement of repatriation of Soviet war prisoners and civilians. The Soviet citizens, he declared, were not permitted defense facilities and were sentenced arbitrarily.

Sokolovsky said U. S. military courts had sentenced 30 of the Soviet citizens to death, 68 to life imprisonment and the others to imprisonment from ten to 50 years.

"The Soviet command insists on the immediate lifting of the sentences of the American military courts against the above mentioned 206 Soviet citizens imprisoned at Straubing," Sokolovsky's letter said.

He added he had reports that Soviet citizens are imprisoned in other American zone prisons. He asked for a list of such prisoners and the reasons for their imprisonment.

UMT Not Necessary For U. S. To Be Strong, Says Minister

Dear Editor:

As a father, an ordained minister and one who has served in the armed forces, I feel I have a right to voice my feelings on the subject of Universal Military Training.

We are confronted with a movement to draft teen-agers, America, let us wake up before it is too late. We are told a communistic government has only one hope—"self." But thank God, we (in America) still believe in God as omnipotent, omnipresent and omniscient.

The Bible says that the time will come when "nation shall not lift up a sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more." Why will we as Christians permit UMT to start? Jesus ordered his disciples to preach the world. . . to "be instant in season, out of season, reprove, rebuke, exhort, with all long suffering in doctrine; for the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine, but after their own lusts shall they heap to themselves teachers. Having itching ears, and they shall turn away their ears from the truth and shall be turned to fables."

America has more spineless preachers in the ministry and pulpit today than ever. Why don't they say something about the UMT? Their cold ecclesiastical, intellectual wisdom don't get any higher than their congregation. We need an old fashioned old time revival in the ministry today as well as in the pew.

UMT is a dangerous program. Do we want to follow the example of Germany or Japan or others? It takes a miracle to win any war. History will prove that a strong military nation means nothing. Our nation is great, not because of force, but faith in God.

I believe in being prepared, but why should we take a delicate little sprig and bend its back until it grows cooked? If we have enough money to train up our young boys (and you might add girls), I think we could change our idea of UMT over to PPP—Peanut and Potato Program, something that has got some life into it. One of the greatest victories recorded in the Old Testament was when Gideon and his little band broke their pictures—not a UMT program.

Would Restore Constellation

MARCUS HOOK, Pa., Jan. 30. (AP)—The 149-year-old U. S. S. Constellation may be restored to health and sailed back to the ancestral home of its designer as sort of a nautical Freedom Train.

One of America's most famous warships, the Constellation is reported rotting away at its anchorage in the Boston Navy yard.

Carl E. Mau, publisher of the Marcus Hook Herald said yesterday he wants to restore the vessel to her original condition.

"The Constellation is a tangible symbol of our democratic heritage," Mau said, adding, "In these days of doubt and uncertainty we cannot afford to lose the opportunity of perpetuating the ideals of our colonial forefathers."

Chest Receipts Are Still Received Here

Receipts to the Community Chest are being received at headquarters in Empire Gas company. General Chairman Ira L. Thurman announced Friday.

Among latest donors were Tom Roden, $100, and C. T. McLaughlin, Snyder, $25. This brought the total to $27,375 in cash, drafts and pledges, still well under the $36,000 objective. Thurman urged persons who have not yet had a part, or who can increase their contribution to the chest, to mail or leave checks at headquarters.

The first provision for Negro units in the U. S. regular Army was made in a law passed by Congress in 1866.

Whitney Discusses Revenue Sources

City Manager H. W. Whitney discussed revenue sources and the city's general financial structure at the Kiwanis club's luncheon meeting in the Crawford today.

Major needs of the city for 1948 as listed by the city manager included water system improvements, additional paving, extension of water and sewer lines, a new fire station, airport terminal building, more street lights. Above, all, Whitney said, the city must maintain interest and support of its citizens.

Helen Blount sang two numbers at the luncheon. She was accompanied by her mother, Mrs. R. E. Blount.

The proportion of Negroes in the U. S. population was reduced from 19.3 per cent in 1790 to 9.7 per cent in 1930.

Home Is Sought For Youngster

J. B. Bruton, county juvenile officer, is looking for a home for an eight-year old boy.

The lad, healthy and bright, is one of a family of five children being placed in individual homes because their indigent parents cannot provide for them. Bruton said that all others, one two-year old, others four, six and 10-years old, had been afforded homes.

Either a temporary or permanent home is being sought, although the latter is much desired. In that event, the youngster may be adopted, according to Bruton.

Talk Of Raising Government Pay

WASHINGTON, (AP) — There's talk in Congress of raising the pay of government workers. It's not very exciting talk.

civil service committee that those getting $10,000 and more should get a raise. Why?

That would include those making under and over $10,000 a year. The $10,000 is pretty much a dividing line.

The average pay of a government worker is between $2,800 and $2,900 a year, according to the civil service commission.

To get good men to work for the government—a number making $10,000 a year have quit for better pay in business—and to meet high living costs since some of those $10,000-and-over jobs have been frozen for years.

Although final decisions have not yet been announced, Jewish leaders generally agree that Dr. Chaim Weizmann, one of the authors of the Balfour Declaration and long-time head of the Jewish Agency, will be provisional president.

David Ben-Gurion, short, rotund successor to Weizmann as head of the Agency, is slated to be premier, and Moshe Shertok, head of the Agency's political department, is expected to become provisional foreign minister.

Jewish plans are based on the hope that they can begin admitting refugees at once and have between 100,000 and 200,000 in the Holy Land by 1950. At present there are about 600,000 Jews in Palestine compared with about 1,200,000 Arabs.

Britain, France Missed Red Boat

The U. S. state department's disclosure of details of the pre-war Russo-German negotiations, resulting in the non-aggression pact that precipitated the world conflict, has brought this column an inquiry as to what the Anglo-French allies were doing while Hitler was achieving this coup and had Moscow offering to join him against the Western Allies—for a price so high that he wouldn't pay it.

eral grounds," says the Encyclopaedia Britannica year book for 1939. It has been said that Poland refused to accept Russian military aid, that the Russian military aid would in fact prove to be a liability, that the Allies could not join Russia in domination of the Baltic states, and finally that Russia had no desire to help the Allies.

opened if Russia and the Western Allies had come to terms? You tell me that, and I'll tell you what would have happened if Eve hadn't eaten the apple in the Garden of Eden.

The answer is that Britain and France missed the boat. Actually they had a mission in Moscow trying to make a treaty when Stalin signed with the Fuehrer. The tragic Munich agreement of September, 1938, under which the Western Allies sold Czechoslovakia down the river to Hitler, was the beginning of the end of appeasement by London and Paris. Then in the following March when the Nazi dictator marched troops into Czechoslovakia, England was shocked into a realization of the dangers facing Europe. As a result Britain and France decided to meet force with force if necessary, and by April of '39 we find Britain negotiating with Russia for a mutual assistance pact, from Moscow already having one with France.

Again, Russia had been excluded in the negotiations at Munich and the Soviet suspected the sincerity of British and French proposals for either diplomatic or military agreements.

Moreover, Hitler was bent on conquest and would have struck sooner or later, no matter what sort of Russo-British-French pact threatened him.

War With Russia Is Not Necessary

WASHINGTON. — When Herbert Bayard Swope coined the phrase "cold war" for his friend, Bernie Baruch, it was another way of saying that we have to fight to win the battle of peace.

point of recent trips through both Europe and the United States, the conclusion of this observer is that war with Russia can be avoided. It can be avoided if we are smarter than they are, work harder than they do, and outmaneuver them in the battle for peace.

litical stability. This is just as essential as the Marshall Plan, in fact more so. Because the Marshall Plan is sure to fail unless Europe is given faith and hope—a new political goal.

The trouble with fighting the battle of peace is that there are no trumpets, no parades, no uniforms. Yet in actual fact the urgency is just as great as when we are at war.

This is a large order. For the gentlemen in the Kremlin are mighty smart people, on top of which they show a disposition to work at the job of stirring up trouble in Europe much harder than we work at the job of stabilizing Europe.

3. No depression in the U.S.A.—this is just as important as aid to Europe. For what the boys in the Kremlin want most is depression in the U.S.A., thereby giving them a chance to point a finger at the United States and say: "We told you so; capitalism will not work." To prevent inflation and subsequent depression a lot of unpleasant things such as high taxes and price controls will be necessary.

Aggies Suffer Second Loss

NEW YORK, Jan. 30. (AP)—The Oklahoma Aggies, the Nation's No. 1 defensive team in collegiate basketball, got beat at their own game last night.

Previously beaten only by Kansas State, the Aggies went down before Depaul, 32-31, on Pete Carras' free throw with only 44 seconds left. The charity toss broke a 31-31 tie and climaxed a close-guarding second half that produced only 17 points, 10 for the Aggies and seven for Depaul.

Ahead at the half, 25-21, Depaul played a stalling, deliberate game in the last 20 minutes, scoring only one field and five free throws. This lone second half Depaul field goal proved a turning point, too, as it tied the score at 29-29. Depaul never fell behind again.

Louis Is Still Ring Enigma

CHICAGO, Jan. 30. (AP)—"Just how far has Joe Louis slipped,"—the big question that has been puzzling the boxing world for the past two months—remained as puzzling as ever today with this exception:

The Brown Bomber, at the age of 33, is no longer the devastating bomber of old when he knocked out 22 in 25 title defenses over a 10-year span. Age is catching up to him very rapidly.

The world's Heavyweight champion last night engaged in his first test with the gloves since his disputed split decision over Jersey Joe Walcott in New York last Dec. 5 by giving Bob Foxworth a one-sided boxing lesson in a four-round exhibition.

Foxworth, 24 year old East St. Louis, Ill., aspirant to the Light Heavyweight championship, had won 16 out of 18 bouts, 14 by knockouts. However, he offered no line on Louis since he had never met him before; was outweighed and weight to match Louis; was out-classed and obviously scared stiff.

Louis won every round easily although the Illinois State Athletic commission would not permit a decision. The timid Foxworth was always in retreat, aiming to keep out of danger.

Louis said he weighed 220 pounds. He certainly looked it. There were tiny rolls of fat rippling over his mid-section, but he plodded in from the opening gong and delivered his punches like lightning flashes. He didn't move fast, but his hands did. They wore the big 16-ounce gloves.

Foxworth, who weighed only 177, said Louis possessed the fastest pair of hands he had ever seen.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With TOMMY HART If the old adage "coming events cast their shadows before" is true, then football within the state is in for a bad time within the next few years.

The Texas Interscholastic league's "eight-semester rule" is apt to cheapen the caliber of the prep game and not only by forcing a lot of 17 and 18 year old boys out of competition. It is influencing a lot of good coaches to retire from the field and enter other professions.

Latest grid tactician to depart the high school ranks is Chatter Allen, the capable Corpus Christi mentor. Chatter, who has turned out fine prep elevens for years, resigned to accept the job as head mentor at Corpus Christi university, a school with big time ideas.

Allen will probably take one of his associates, Smiley Davis, end and center coach, with him.

CONFERENCE "PURITY CODE" WILL ALSO HURT

If that edict wasn't bad enough, the Southwest Conference newly edited "purity code", if it is respected, bids fair to influence the cream of the prep graduates to seek their schooling in colleges outside the state.

More than a few of the athletes have already signified that they are headed for institutions of higher learning beyond the borders of Texas. Tulane is claiming more than a few of the Texans. LSU will bag some as will Oklahoma, Tulsa, Mississippi and perhaps some of the "outlaw" California schools.

STATUTE PURPORTED TO KEEP COACHES FROM KIDS

One statute in the "purity code" is written thusly: "It is agreed that no official representative of a Southwest Conference school should contact a prospective athlete until his eligibility has been completed in the particular sport. X X X"

Once the conference schools begin losing the lads in wholesale quantity, however, the rule will probably go into the ashcan.

Two local boys who dedicated their time to football with the resident Steers last fall are entertaining the idea of studying for the ministry.

LaVERN ROACH, SPEED MERCHANT WHILE IN HIGH SCHOOL. LaVern Roach, the Plainview, Texas, middleweight who is about the hottest thing in the fight game around New York City at the moment, ran the hundred yard dash in something like 10.4 while in high school.

Roach, incidentally, is related to Bob Fitzsimmons, one of the greatest of Heavyweight champions.

If Howard "Bull" Lynch makes good his threat to depart the coaching job at Amarillo high school, he'll leave one of the best paying jobs in the state. Lynch's annual stipend amounts to $5,450.

San Angelo will sponsor an Open basketball tournament for independent teams Feb. 13-14-15. Winner will be eligible to compete in the TAAF state tournament at Port Arthur.

FEUD UNSETTLED

The small Greek delegation of six held as usual first place in the parade out of respect for the land that gave birth to the Olympic ideal 2,500 years ago.

The United States, marching in 11th place, had one of the largest delegations—92 men and women.

The American men wore brilliantly white jackets of brushed wool, blue ski pants and white ski caps. On their chests and caps were the American emblem. The jackets had red, white and blue arm bands.

The American girls were attired in grey. The skiers had gabardine tailored jackets and pants. The skaters wore grey pants and grey parkas trimmed with fur.

The national squads marched in this order: Greece, Argentina, Austria, Belgium, Bulgaria, Canada, Chile, Korea, Denmark, Spain, United States, Finland, France, England, Holland, Hungary, Iceland, Italy, Lebanon, Liechtenstein, Norway, Poland, Romania, Sweden, Czechoslovakia, Turkey, Yugoslavia and Switzerland.

Barely an hour after the ceremonies, the U. S. Amateur Hockey association team, which was scheduled to meet Switzerland in the opening match shortly after the ceremonies, did not march with the American athletes.

The rival U. S. olympic committee team—ruled out of the games now by agreement of all sides—joined qualified olympic contestants in marching from the nearby hotel to the stadium, but they didn't carry sticks.

The Swiss hockey team stayed out of the column—presumably out of sympathy for the AHA squad. The AHA players arrived at the stadium in uniform and with full equipment.

Swiss simplicity predominated in the opening ceremony—a contrast to the fourth games in 1936 at Garmisch - Partenkirchen, Germany, when Hitler presided and the Nazis flaunted their military might.

Enrico Cello, president of the Swiss federation, said these words: "I declare the fifth Winter games, as part of the 14th modern Olympic games, to have begun."

An artillery salute sounded, echoing in the mountains. Trumpets played the Swiss national anthem, the Olympic flag with its five interlocking circles was raised and the olympic torch atop the tower of the main grandstand was lit.

First came the parade of athletes—915 from 28 nations. There were to have been 29, but Palestine withdrew at the last minute for lack of training, postponing until later the first international appearance of the Palestine flag.

Henry (Hank) Foldsberg, Dallas, member of the 1946 Army football eleven who ran out of grid eligibility last fall, is one of six Cadet football players who is playing basketball at West Point.

The New Mexico American Legion athletic committee is setting out to end eligibility squabbles in its state junior baseball tournament. Boys on competing teams will be photographed and fingerprinted and must submit birth certificates.

Angelo Bobcats Here Saturday

Aiming for their sixth District 3AA victory in as many starts, the Big Spring high school basketball Steers start the second half of their double round-robin schedule here tonight before they finish the first portion of their 12-game card.

Guests of the Bovines tonight will be the Sweetwater Mustangs, currently riding in sixth place in the seven-team circuit and afforded very little chance to push their way into the Shaughnessy playoff.

The Longhorns bowled over the Ponies, 43-29, the first rattle out of the box and were to finish out the front half of their league schedule in a game with San Angelo last Tuesday night.

The weatherman discouraged such goings-on, however, and the coaches of the respective squads, Big Spring's Johnny Malaise and John Klicik of San Angelo, elected to postpone the contest indefinitely.

Despite the fact that they've won but one game and have since lost the services of a starter, Tommy McMillan, the Mustangs can't be counted out until the Steers put them down for the count.

The Bovines went into the Odesa tournament the favorites last week and were promptly knocked over by an Andrews team they had beaten only two nights previously. Basketball fortunes can be most fickle and, if the Herd doesn't hit tonight, chances are the visitors can make it very unpleasant for the village troops.

The Steers may be a bit self-conscious when they first ankle out onto the floor. They will be wearing gaudy new uniforms and warm-up suits and reportedly look very handsome in them.

Captain Eddie Houser starts on the third phase of a campaign to break his own scoring record. In the odessa show last week, the talented Big Spring leader banged in 30 points in three games to run his tote for the season to 201. He's 44 in arrears of his 1946-47 record and has an ample opportunity to slice the difference.

Reserve squads of the two schools get together in a game starting at 6:30 o'clock or thereabouts. The Dogies took a 26-12 shelling in a previous meeting at Sweetwater and will naturally be out for revenge.

Malaise's brigade returns to action here Saturday night, tangling with the San Angelo Bobcats at 8 o'clock. The coaches will get together to decide on a playing date for the contest postponed earlier this week.

Probable lineups: BIG SPRING: Houser (C), Little, Turner, Berry, Lee, Sweetwater: Hoadley, Justice, Youkum, Ammons, Hand

Douglas Heads Tucson Field By 2 Strokes

TUCSON, Ariz., Jan. 30. (AP)—A well scrambled field takes off on the second round of the 72-hole $10,000 Tucson Open golf tournament today with Dave Douglas from Wilmington, Del., two strokes in front of the pack.

A flock of the nation's lesser-known names show signs of causing trouble for the game's big guns although Bobby Locke of South Africa, winner of the recent Phoenix open, is only four strokes off the pace and Ben Hogan one digit behind him with a two-under-par 68.

A disastrous first round of 71 left Jimmy Demaret, the co-favorite from Ojai, Calif., trailing more than 50 of the shotmakers as he set out on an uphill battle today. He is aiming at taking the Tucson event for the third year in a row.

Starting out within two strokes of the leader are ex-serviceman Glenn Teal, Jacksonville, Fla., and the veteran Jimmy Hines, of Tucson and Chicago.

Freeman Martin, a little freckle-faced fellow from Fort Worth, who joined the ranks of the pros less than a year ago, will be given careful attention today because of the 66 he shot yesterday. He is deadlocked with Johnny Bulla, Phoenix.

Lloyd Mangrum, leading money winner for 1948 from Los Angeles, ran into plenty of trouble before making the turn two above par yesterday but came to life and remains a serious contender. He is one of the 14 men starting out today with 69.

Legion Is Slight Forsan Favorite

FORSAN, Jan. 30.—American Legion of Big Spring rules a slight favorite to win the Forsan independent invitational basketball tournament, which opens here tonight and continues through next week.

The Legionnaires, recent victors over Sterling City's Outsiders in an exhibition game at Big Spring, make their debut in the show in the second game Saturday night, meeting the host team, Forsan.

The Forsan club may give them their hardest struggle. Grapette of Big Spring and Stanton open the show at 7:30 o'clock this evening while Safeway of Big Spring and Ackery clash at 8:30.

A bout between Knott and Garden City, booked for 7:30 p. m., precedes the Legion-Forsan contest Saturday.

Ackerly has beaten Grapette in several practice games and may have the guns to shove on to the finals in upper bracket play.

Semi-final games are tentatively booked for Monday night. Trophies will go to first and second place teams and to the consolation winner. Individual awards will also go to members of the all-tournament team as selected by the managers and players.

The tournament is being sponsored by the Forsan Service club, which plans to make it an annual event. Joe Holladay is serving as tournament director.

Prairie Valley Needing Games

PRAIRIE VALLEY, Jan. 30. (AP)—If Prairie Valley high school is going to win the State Class B basketball championship it needs help in the form of competition.

The Bull Dogs have run plumb out. About the only games they can get now are conference affairs where the opposition has to play them.

Prairie Valley, a finalist in the state tournament last year, losing to Johnson City, has played 28 games this year, winning 26 of them. The Bull Dogs lost to Byers 42-46 but later won over this team 38-13. They also dropped a game to Antelope 28-30 but beat Antelope 33-26 and 27-24 in other contests.

Recently the Bull Dogs won the Nocona Invitation tournament against both Class AA and Class A competition.

Coach O. C. Mann says he wants all the games he can get so he can keep his team in trim. Prairie Valley is eight miles north of Nocona.

Football Films Slated Tonight

Action pictures of the Texas-TCU and Texas-North Carolina football games will be shown the public at the Texas theater starting at 7:30 p. m. this evening. Admission is free.

The films were brought here by Peppy Blount, state representative of Big Spring and a student-athlete at the University of Texas.

Blount originally planned to bring films of the Sugar Bowl game here but the copies were not available. He said both the films he had produced more action and would have more audience appeal than the game between Texas and Alabama.

Peppy was also to appear before the ABC at noon today.

Case Challenging Edict To Grant One Station Grid Radio Rights On Review By PAUL BOLTON Herald Austin Bureau AUSTIN, Jan. 30.—Texas colleges which have a good "take" from their football game broadcasts will be watching with even more interest than high schools the outcome of the case now before the Texas Supreme court. It's the appeal of the Odesa case. One radio station had the contract to broadcast Odesa games; another proposed to broadcast them; and the case as finally submitted to the Supreme Court on application for writ of error is pitched on the principle of freedom of speech and the press. The facts in the Odesa case go like this: Station KRIG had an exclusive broadcasting contract, but KOSA started broadcasting the games, until enjoined. Then a third station intervened, KECK, and KECK has asked for a writ of error from the decision of the civil appeals court at El Paso which held that the injunction was proper. Possibly the interest of colleges will not be evidenced until the Supreme Court decides whether it will take the case. Granting the application for writ of error would mean that the court has serious doubt as to the wisdom of the lower courts. It is the contention of KECK in briefs filed in the case, that the Federal and state constitution guarantees freedom in the dissemination of news; that the broadcast of a football game is the dissemination of news; and that any exclusive contract for such a broadcast interferes with that freedom. That's the main point. A subsidiary argument is that a state or government agency is prohibited from making any exclusive grant of franchise and that such a grant constitutes a gift of public money for private purposes. The interest of colleges is so much greater than that of high schools because, ordinarily, high schools receive no pay from the broadcasting facility for airing the games, although the broadcasting station may have commercial sponsorship for the broadcasts. There was no sponsorship at Odesa. For many years, Southwest Conference games have been broadcast under a contract which gives the Humble Oil and Refining Company exclusive rights to broadcast within the state of Texas. Moreover, all of the big bowls across the nation have their own contracts with networks for broadcast purposes; and so far as is known, the exclusive features of the broadcasts have not been challenged in the courts. MEN! GET PEP... Do you want to feel young again? Why feel old at 40, 50 or more? Enjoy youthful pleasures again. If added years have slowed down your vim and vitality, just go to your druggist and ask for Caltron stimulating tablets. Many men are obtaining remarkable results with this amazing formula. (AP)—Texas A. and M. may have five highly rated high school stars on its 1948 football freshman team. Coach Harry Stiteler said yesterday that Glenn Lipmann, Elo Novhavita, and Jaro Netardus, all of El Campo, and Robert Smith, Lamar (Houston), and Carl Hill, Demison, had indicated they would come to A. and M.

Thompson Says Crude Oil Is Only A Jump Ahead Of Demand

Despite continuing conservation efforts (in which Texas has been a leader) and despite expanding exploration and well completions, the crude oil supply is running no more than a jump ahead of demand, and every logical program of easing consumption should be followed, Ernest O. Thompson, senior member of the Texas Railroad commission, said here Thursday night. Thompson spoke informally at a dinner given in his honor by Big Spring friends. He was here only a few hours en route to Odessa to address an API chapter meeting tonight. Approximately 60 were on hand to greet Thompson here, including visitors from Midland, Colorado City and Porsan. R. L. Tollett, president for the program, and greetings were extended Thompson by Mayor G. W. Dabney and Shine Phillips.

HENRY O. HILL — Henry O. Hill (above) is manager of the Bluebonnet Agricultural Experimental Farms project near McGregor under the direction of Texas A&M College. (AP Photo)

At the conclusion of his remarks, Thompson answered various questions concerning oil and transportation problems. In discussing crude conservation, the veteran state official advanced his own suggestion for saving 35,000,000 barrels of oil yearly through the discontinuance by motorists of the use of "high octane" gas. Thompson humorously observed that the average automobile driver was paying two cents a gallon for gas that "does no more than take a 'ping' out of the engine," and for the sake of crude conservation should be able to "put up with a little ping for two cents a gallon for gasoline." He said refining processes for the higher octane count required the 35,000,000 barrels of crude he thought could be saved. Thompson reviewed the tremendous gains in crude production (from 740,000 barrels daily in Texas in 1932, when he took office, to a current 2,385,000 barrels), and also told of conservation programs furthered by the Railroad commission. He cited the East Texas field, where recovery had been made to double the originally estimated yield through the employment of water return and the maintenance
