Castor Feed Yard Boiler Causes Sunday Night Fire

Fires failed to cooperate with the Texico Volunteer Fire Department Sunday night as firemen were summoned from the Ernest Tubbs personal appearance at the Texico School auditorium to a fire.

Reported shortly before 10 p.m. at Castor Feed Yard approximately three miles south of Texico-Farwell on the State Line Road, a fire had broken out in the roof area of the boiler room.

One truck initially responded to the alarm as firemen worked to contain the fire in the boiler room. Firemen had to tear away a portion of the aluminum building to get to the fire which was apparently caused by an overheated chimney on the boiler.

Feed yard manager Paul Geuther said no slowdown of work was caused by the fire which had firemen on the scene for a little more than an hour.

Some 20 minutes after the alarm, a second truck from the Texico Fire Department joined the first truck at the fire as a precautionary measure as a fairly stiff wind was blowing at the time. However, the fire was contained by firemen and did not spread to other parts of the feed mill.

According to Geuther, the boiler did not explode and only a small part of the roof of the boiler room collapsed during the fire.

Field fires and vacant lots kept firemen busy during the past several days with a combination of heavy smoke and blowing sand making driving slightly hazardous for most of Monday.

For the second time in a week, Farwell firemen were called to a vacant lot at Sixth and Avenue D where fire was reported in tall, dead weeds. In the first fire, firemen were on the scene for only a few minutes.

Monday afternoon, one fire truck stayed at the lot for slightly over an hour following the report. The second fire was on the north end of the lot, burning several limbs and tree trunks stacked on the lot.

High winds hampered area firemen during recent days as Clovis fought a major pasture fire for several hours during the past weekend.

Fire officials have urged people to use extreme caution during this time. Moisture has been non-existent during more than a month and dry weeds and fields are extremely flammable.

Motorists are also cautioned about throwing matches or cigarettes from vehicles as several fires have apparently been started from motorists along the highway and railroad right-of-way.

Langford, Kaltwasser - - 4-H Gold Star Winners Honored In Ceremonies

Two Parmer County 4-H'ers were awarded the coveted Gold Star certificate in Amarillo Saturday, Nov. 10.

Receiving their awards with 38 other 4-H'ers were Jacquelyn Langford, daughter of Leon Langford of Farwell, and Bruce Kaltwasser, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Kaltwasser of Oklahoma Lane.

The highest county award offered to 4-H'ers, the Gold Star is presented to a boy and girl from each of the 20 counties in District One of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. It is based on outstanding achievement, leadership and contribution to the county 4-H program.

Held at the Quality Motel on I-40 East in Amarillo, the banquet was sponsored by Deaf Smith, North Plains, Rita Blanca, Hall, Swisher and Greenbelt Electric Cooperatives.

The program was conducted totally by 4-H'ers with Julie Arrington, chairman of the district 4-H council, serving as master of ceremonies.

Some 300 people, including parents, Extension officials, electric cooperative representatives, and special guests listened as each boy and girl gave a brief report of their accomplishments and most rewarding experience in 4-H.

Presenting the awards were district agents W. W. Grisham Jr. and Sue Farris, both of Amarillo.

Banquet honorees other than Jacquelyn Langford and Bruce

Kaltwasser from surrounding counties included Elaine Acker and Earl Behrends from Castro County; Chris Marnell and Roger Sanders from Deaf

Smith County; Darlene Neusch and Roy Bertrand from Potter County and Debbie Hales and Willie Hales from Randall County.

PRESENTED "TOP" CERTIFICATES - Bruce Kaltwasser, left, and Jacquelyn Langford received Gold Star 4-H certificates during ceremonies for District Gold Star winners at a banquet in Amarillo, Nov. 10. The duo was honored in Amarillo following the 4-H awards banquet in Bovina on October 27.

At Bovina School - -

Running Water Draw Watershed Project Dedication Ceremonies

Dignitaries from state governmental bodies, soil conservationists, county officials, including mayors and city council members from a large area, and news media turned out in full force Tuesday morning for the formal groundbreaking of the Running Water Draw Watershed project at Bovina.

With cold weather, ice and a little snow on the ground, the ceremonies were moved to the Bovina High School auditorium and the relative comfort of heaters, padded seats and minus the cold-bitter wind.

Acting as master of ceremonies was A. L. Black, who worked on the project from its infancy, some 12 years ago.

Black welcomed all the many persons who had indicated such an interest in the project over the years and introduced Parmer County Judge Archie Tarter who gave a formal welcome to the persons in the auditorium.

Judge Tarter said the Parmer County Commissioners' Court wished to thank "everyone who had any part in making this day (groundbreaking) a reality" and welcomed Congressman George Mahon, principal speaker for the ceremony.

Numerous dignitaries from Texas were introduced, and all judges and commissioners of all counties represented were asked to stand for an ovation.

Three persons specifically introduced were Dr. Bertrand, Dean of Agricutture and Dr. Sullivan, Dean of Law, both from Texas Tech University, Lubbock and Sherwood Mahon, Congressman Mahon's brother.

H. H. "Flip" Calhoun gave much of the background on the project and commented, "Running Water Draw will be harnessed and will return to the beauty spot it was in the early days."

He told of the first meeting in 1961 at the bank in Dimmitt to attempt to start the project. Calhoun said the counties represented gave unanimous approval to the project in an attempt to stop devastating floods at different times.

Giving the damsites, Calhoun said the Bovina location on Catfish Draw, is the first such dam to begin construction for the multi-million dollar project. The dams will be north-east of Clovis in Curry County, the Bovina dam, another in the Lazbuddie area; one near Sunnyside, and two in Hale County.

Elaine Wardlaw In Lead - -

Lorine Dannheim Wins Weekly First Place Money

A late comer in the annual Area Merchant's Football Contest has made it three wins in a row with a first place win again this week.

Mrs. William (Lorine) Dannheim was the first place winner this week with seven correct games and only six points off on the tiebreaker.

Three weeks ago, she was the first place winner, and followed that up with a third place win. She is the first person in several years to have two first place wins close together.

However, Mrs. Dannheim is all but out of the money in winning the Grand Prize of two tickets to the Cotton Bowl and $50 expense money or the Second Prize of two tickets to the Sun Bowl and $25 in expense money. Her total points fail to add up to enough to take her to the grand prizes.

A tie for second and third places marked the next to last contest for this year. Chacho Arce and Robin Mahaney were the only other two persons to have seven games correct, and the tie came in when both failed to put down the tiebreaker score. The two split second and third place money.

Only eight of the games counted this week, as one game was listed incorrectly and the final game, the Monday night game between the Vikings and Falcons could not be counted due to early holiday deadlines. Only seven correct games were possible as one game resulted in a tie score.

In the next to final weekend of the contest, with the final contest for this year being in this issue of The State Line Tribune, Elaine Wardlaw holds first place with 83 points.

Alone in second place is Becky Taylor, nudging the leader with 82 points. Four persons share 81 points including Carl Glenn Davis, Carl Davis, Russ Jones and Missy Taylor.

With 80 points is Gene Beavers and Amelia Gonzales has 79 points. The four persons with 78 points this week are Joyce Coffman, Louise Hancock, Carlton Newell and Larry Wardlaw.

Area merchants and The State Line Tribune have sponsored the annual contest. This is the final week to enter for this year.

PURELY PERSONAL

by John

This is turning out to be a busy week around the Trib office and will use that as an excuse to pass along two articles from our exchange papers.

The first is from the column of ex-Tribune publisher, W. H. Graham wherein he is discussing the hazards of contracting farm commodities.

"As long as both parties go into the contract in good faith, and carry out their obligations, nobody has much ground for complaint. Of course, when buyers don't honor their end (as has happened in prior years when markets were weak), the producers certainly are justified in feeling they got gypped. The contract should do just what it is supposed to do, bind all parties to their promises.

Joe Trujillo is one local buyer who is very happy that he was dealing with parties of integrity when he contracted for a year's supply of white corn. It was to fill his hermetic silo near his tortilla factory here.

Joe sweat a few drops of blood as harvest time neared, since he had contracted to buy the corn for only half of what it is now selling for on the market.

Texas Sesame Seed Dealers in Muleshoe, the dealer, and the farmers of the Texas plains were men of their word, however, and the corn is coming through, says Joe.

Joe says deep down he knew everything would turn out all right though. The head of the dealer organization is a Texas Aggie."

With our many boat owners in this area, we thought we would pass along this paragraph from Chas. Didway's column in the Post Dispatch.

"How's this for a classified ad?"

"My boat and motor disappeared Aug. 10 from Moosehead Lake. I send my wishes that the boat breaks in half in mid-lake and that your mother is unsuccessful in attracting help as she runs barking along the shore."

O, where does it go? A news item we scanned the other day said the United States will export over 53,000,000 gallons of fuel oil in 1973. This, at a time when rationing is a very real prospect in this country.

It looks to us like this is the kind of activity that leads to governmental regulations.

Hot air isn't cheap, the political variety included.

For example, the AFL-CIO has been putting out a lot of propaganda to impeach the President. Do you know what it has cost the rank and file of the membership for their "representatives" to put forth their political views?

It is in the millions of dollars. Dollars that eventually are charged back to the consumer of the union-made product.

In the last election when organized labor was supposed to be neutral, major unions contributed minimally the sum of $1,261,896.51 to the McGovern campaign and $204,096.29 to the Humphrey campaign.

After spending sums like that, it makes it difficult to believe the "non-partisan" call for impeachment issued by "big Boss" Meany of said AFL-CIO.

open his comments. He complimented the Bovina Mustang Band, which entertained preceding the ceremony and said, "I would like to salute the band. When I looked at our youngsters on the stage the thought came to me that we could do nothing without our youth, their enthusiasm and dreams. Without them, we couldn't get very far." "We are here to celebrate what has been done, and look forward to what will be accomplished," he continued. He touched briefly on the Watergate investigations and added, "We are going through a period of frustration. But, out of every crisis, some good results, and I think we will become a stronger nation because of it." He commented also on the gusty wind and light sand that greeted him at the airport Monday, and said he left the turbulence of Washington for the turbulence of West Texas. Congressman Mahon expressed appreciation to the dedicated persons who had worked for so long on the Running Water Draw project and added, "All the cooperation between the many counties and persons involved is what we're celebrating today. There is hardly any limit to what can be accomplished as long as no one cares who gets credit for it." Other things briefly discussed by Congressman Mahon were the fuel crisis, and he said there is no immediate solution for the problem and, in fact, it should be considerably worse before it starts to ease or get better. He mentioned future atomic energy, solar energy, shale and coal as possible energy solutions and expressed a concern for overzealous environmentalists. "Some environmentalists are extreme," he commented, "We realize we cannot return to the stone age, but a compromise will have to be reached." Mahon concluded, "Generations yet unborn will reap the profits of what has been done here today." Master of ceremonies Black ended the presentation with Parmar County Judge Tarter and Leon Grissom, chairman of the Parmar County Soil and Water Conservation District turning a spadeful of dirt in an improvised setting. Using gold painted shovels, the duo turned the "official" spadeful of dirt designating the groundbreaking in a wheelbarrow onstage at the Bovina School auditorium. Following the dedication, most of the participants attended a reception for Congressman Mahon at the Bovina State Bank. The congressman was presented a Stetson hat by Pat Read, president of the Bovina Chamber of Commerce.

Farwell Jr. High Band Wins Trophy

Farwell Junior High School band marched in the Eastern New Mexico University Parade at Portales on Saturday, Nov. 10, and came home with a third place trophy in District A.

First place was Mountain View Jr. High of Roswell and second was Sierra Mid-School of Roswell.

Lynn Burton, band director for Farwell, said of the band's performance, "I think the kids did a real fine job. The two Roswell schools who won first and second place will be going into AAAA schools after leaving junior high school, but the Farwell band will stay in A. "Considering the stiff competition, the kids did a very respectable job."

He said the band was complimented by Ronnie McWilliams of Mesa Mid-School as being the best sounding junior high school band from Farwell in several years.

The band will march in the Muleshoe Christmas parade on Saturday, Dec. 1.

Steer Basketballers Open Season Against Adrian

Farwell Steers opened season basketball play last Friday night, Nov. 16, against Adrian in the Steer gym. The Steers defeated Adrian 44-40.

Kevin Hardage was high point man for Farwell with 12 points. Kevin Hargrove had 35 points and Leslie Curtis had 10 points.

Out of 60 field goal attempts the Steers completed 22; they made two out of two attempted free throws and had 24 rebounds.

Monday night the Steers traveled to Dora and were defeated 59-56 in a tough clash with the New Mexico team. Kevin Hargrove was high point man with 18 points while Kevin Hardage racked up 14 points.

Discussing the first two games of the season, Coach Vernon Scott said, "Our needs are obvious and that's what we'll be working on. Our conditioning is poor, offensive team work is poor, our free throw shooting is poor and the coaching is awful."

Sheriff's Report

Light activity has been reported during the preceding week in the Parmar County Sheriff's office.

Sheriff Lovelace said J. R. Euler whose farm is just east of Black reported to the sheriff's office that a part from an air conditioner and a battery had been stolen from a truck during the weekend.

Unknown persons took a tape deck from a tractor on the Dan Smith farm four miles south and one mile east of Lazbuddie Friday night, according to a report given the sheriff's office.

Fire Calls

Farwell Fire Department was called Nov. 16 and again on Nov. 19 to vacant lot fires.

Texico Fire Department was called Nov. 18 to Castor Feed Yards where a feed mill boiler room was on fire.

Friday night they downed Adrian 67-27. Kathy Booth scored the most points with 35 while Missy Taylor had 12 points and Kathy White had 10.

Saturday night the team romped over Dimmitt by a score of 49-37. Kathy Booth was again high point scorer with 31 points. Kathy White and Missy Taylor both had nine points each.

BAND DIRECTOR SHOWS TROPHY - Farwell Schools band director Lynn Burton shows a third place trophy won by the Farwell Junior High School band while marching in the Eastern New Mexico University Homecoming parade on Saturday, Nov. 10, in Portales. He complimented the band for an "excellent job" and top marching.

Steerettes Win 1, Lose 1 In Season's First Games

The Farwell Varsity Steerettes basketball team opened season play last week as they defeated Adrian 32-27 in competition at Farwell gym. Sharon Booth had a total of 18 points for high scoring individual honors and Cheryl Woods and Joyce White had six points each.

Coach Gayle Nicholas stated that the girls didn't look too well, but that being their first game, they were all nervous.

Saturday, Farwell hosted Dimmitt and lost a squeaker 44-42. Junior Sharon Booth was high point scorer with 21 points and Cheryl Woods had 18 points.

The game proved to be an exciting one with the lead changing back and forth several times. Quarter statistics showed Dimmitt with 18 points and Farwell 12 at the end of the first quarter. At the half, Farwell had pulled to within one point with 24 points to Dimmitt's 25. Third quarter ended with Farwell leading 36-33 and Dimmitt finally managed to overcome and win the game in the final minutes.

Coach Nicholas commented, "The girls played a much better game against Dimmitt than Adrian. All of the girls played well. Lori Norton played well in both games as did Sharon Booth." She also stated that Cheryl Woods did "a fine job" Saturday night.

The girls will play Tulia in the Friona Tournament Thursday, Nov. 29, at 1 p.m. The boys are scheduled to play Spearman at 5:30 that same day.

SUPERINTENDENT MAKES PRESENTATION - Howard 'Mutt' Crook, left, was presented a plaque by Farwell School Superintendent W. M. Roberts last week for "22 years as a dedicated driver" for the Farwell School system. The presentation was made during a dinner hosted by the Farwell School Board on Nov. 13.

School Employee Receives Plaque

For 22 years as a "dedicated driver" Howard "Mutt" Crook was presented a plaque last Tuesday night during a dinner hosted by the Farwell School Board.

Board members and their wives prepared the dinner for school personnel which was held in the school cafeteria. Sausage for the dinner was prepared by Wilbur Kalbas.

Crook, who has worked for the Farwell school for the past 22 years, had three years with the Bovina School as a bus driver, prior to moving to Farwell.

During the past 22 years, he has acted as school bus foreman and foreman of the drivers, and has driven a regular bus route as well as activity busses.

Although he will retain his job as bus foreman, he was forced to retire as a driver this year due to physical requirements required by the state starting with the fall school term. Crook had a heart attack almost 10 years ago, he said, and although he has had no further heart problems, the new driver requirements will not let him drive as in past years.

Making the presentation was Farwell School Superintendent W. M. Roberts.

The Crooks' youngest daughter, Jaquetta, is a senior at Farwell High School and his other five children are all FHS graduates. They are Darrell and Merlene Smith, both of Farwell; Eurith Jones of Dallas; Garilynn Worley of Point Pleasant, West Va., and Randy, who is attending West Texas State University at Canyon.

Two Accidents During Past Week

Local Texas Highway Patrolmen investigated two accidents during the past week, which left one person hospitalized.

Early Friday morning, they investigated an accident just west of Lariat where a man named Balmour from Ontario, Canada, apparently fell asleep while driving and left the roadway, running over highway markers and signs.

Following the 5 a.m. accident, the man was hospitalized at Muleshoe.

Around 1:30 p.m. Sunday, they investigated an accident 6 mile east of Farwell on a county dirt road.

Lucille Jaime of Farwell was attempting to pass a pickup pulling a stock trailer when the driver, Robert H. Jones of Hereford, started making a left turn into a driveway.

Although he hit the Jaime vehicle in the side, there were no injuries, according to Glenn R. Fant, THP investigating officer.

Sunday night, Officers Fant and Jim Bishop helped look for a California car which was reported to have left the truck stop without paying for gas. The car was caught in Muleshoe, and the occupants agreed to return to Texico to pay for the gas.

The officers also spent much of Sunday night looking for a reported drunk driver who showed up periodically all night running cars off the highway. Despite numerous reports from different locations, the vehicle was not located.

Portraying Area Homemakers

by Sue Kirkland

"Raising my children" is the favorite pastime of Mrs. Terry (Faye) Parr of Farwell, our area homemaker this week. Faye's children are Gralee, a junior at Texas Tech; Pam, a sophomore at Farwell High School; and Cathy and Connie, a very active set of twins, age 4½. Faye says that "the twins have been most enjoyable and we love to just sit and watch them. They can really put on some shows and what one can't think up to do, the other one can, and then they BOTH do it!"

Other favorite interests include sewing, cooking, especially for company, raising a garden from which Faye cans and freezes, working in the yard, writing letters, collecting photographs, playing the organ, and the entire family enjoys music. Terry sings in the church choir at Hamlin Memorial United Methodist Church where the family attends. Faye also enjoyed singing in the choir but quit when the twins were born.

Faye is a member of ESA and is currently recording secretary for the sorority.

Our homemaker was raised in Electra and was attending North Texas State University in Denton when she met Terry who was attending Texas A&M. After their marriage they resided in College Station until Terry graduated.

Since then, they have lived in many places including Groom, Lawton, Okla., Houston, Dallas, Corpus Christi, Lubbock and Scotts Bluff, Neb., which Faye says is really a historic place and has many interesting sights.

The Parrs moved to Clovis in 1966 and to Farwell in 1971 where Terry is employed at Gifford-Hill. Although they have liked every place they've lived, the like Farwell best of all.

Faye has offered to share three of her quick and easy favorite recipes with us.

ANIMAL HEALTH HINTS

BY DR. MIKE ADAMS
HOFFMANN LA ROCHE INC., NUTLEY, N. J.

GOBBLERS AND HOBBLEERS

When a turkey walks with a stiff, painful gait, his owner is more than likely to consider this condition strictly for the birds. And there are other probable symptoms of biotin (vitamin H) deficiency in turkeys.

Besides leg-weaknesses and foot pad lesions, signs of such disorders are uneven growth, poor feathering and dry skin.

Much can be done to reduce the seriousness of these conditions by supplementing turkey feed with biotin, however.

If any of these symptoms is present, a continuous offering of feed fortified with biotin is probably in order. Such a feed will prevent and possibly cure a biotin deficiency in animals.

For a free copy of a new booklet about biotin, write to: Dr. Mike Adams, Roche Chemical Division, Hoffmann-La Roche Inc., Nutley, New Jersey 07110.

Indian 'Saint' Taught Pilgrims To Sow Corn

Called the "Indian Saint of Plymouth" and a "special instrument sent by God for their good beyond expectation" - was a Patuxet Indian named Squanto.

According to historians, without the virtually unknown Indian, there would have been no "first" Thanksgiving Day more than 350 years ago, for there would have been no crops for Pilgrims to give thanks for.

One dreary little side street in Plymouth, Mass., bears his name, but there are no towns, cities, villages, highways or bridges named for him - he remains the forgotten man of Thanksgiving.

In 1604, Squanto was captured by an English exploring party led by Capt. George Weymouth who was enraptured with his souvenir of the New World.

So, back to England went the young Indian where he was exhibited as a curiosity. In 1614, Squanto was returned to the United States with Capt. John Smith, and to freedom. However, freedom was short.

One of Capt. Smith's ships was slowed in Plymouth Harbor and decided to trade with Indians for fish and furs. When the ship was ready to leave, Indians were lured on board by the captain who threw them into the hold and sold them as slaves in Spain. Unfortunately, Squanto was one of the slave-Indians.

Squanto was bought by a family who treated him kindly and converted him to Christianity. He eventually escaped and made his way to England where he was sent back to America with Capt. Thomas Derner. He landed at Plymouth about six months before the Pilgrims.

He found his entire family wiped out due to a disease of some type so he stayed with the Wampanoag tribe, who were also weakened by the disease that destroyed his family and his tribe.

He later attached himself to the Pilgrim colony that settled near Plymouth and through his efforts, Thanksgiving eventually became a true word for the settlers.

Squanto showed the Pilgrims how to plant crops in the land surrounded by hostile Indians. They planted seed corn found hidden on Cape Cod where they had stopped on the way to Plymouth.

Although the Patuxet lands were old and not too fertile, the Indian "Saint" showed them how to properly space the hillocks and how to fertilize with three herrings in each hillock.

He taught them how to hunt and fish in the strange woods, what foods were good to eat and how they could be grown. He also acted as interpreter between the Pilgrims and neighboring Indians.

Squanto also was the official interpreter for the treaty of Massasoit, who was an important chief in the Massachusetts territory.

The treaty led the way to the first little settlement which grew into a thriving town.

Squanto died of "Indian Fever" approximately two years after the Pilgrims arrived.

Only the original Pilgrims perhaps remembered to praise Squanto during the first Thanksgiving - and he was forgotten with the passage of time - The "Indian Saint" of Thanksgiving.

Water Inc. Membership Drive Underway In Area

The annual quest for members for Water, Inc., is underway in almost every county in Western Texas and Eastern New Mexico. The membership drive continues through Dec. 15.

"Many area residents have become dejected about the future possibilities of obtaining adequate supplemental water," said A. L. Black, Friona, president of Water, Inc. "Most of the negative attitude stems from preliminary findings of a study of the Mississippi River," he said, "but those who have been close to the study are optimistic."

Although the import study has never been released, a preliminary report indicated there was surplus water in the Mississippi and demonstrated the feasibility of design and construction of a facility to transport the water to the High Plains area. It concluded, however, that "under traditional standards" for evaluating water resource development projects, it was not economically feasible.

Black points out with enthusiasm that those "traditional standards" have now been superseded by a new set of standards, and couples with a major upheaval in agricultural economics, that a restudy would reflect a totally different picture.

"The real question," Black said, "is really not can we afford supplemental water?, but rather, can the nation and the world afford for us not to have it?" He was referring to the snowballing worldwide food fiber and fuel crisis.

"Water, Inc.'s primary and immediate goal will be to inform the nation and the world of our current food, fiber and fuel contributions to world supplies, and more importantly, our capabilities with adequate supplemental water," Black said.

He issued a plea for all area residents to join Water, Inc., noting that "the strength of our voice in telling the High Plains story depends directly on strength of our membership."

Setting the stage for the symposium will be Dr. E. M. Trew, Extension Service assistant director and state agricultural program leader. His talk will be on "The Challenge in our New Agriculture."

Discussions will follow on pest management, the disease, insect and weed situation, the fertilizer situation, irrigation management and economics for decision making.

Speakers will be Extension Service specialists Emory Boring III, entomologist at Vernon; Dr. Frank Petr, area agronomist at Amarillo; Leon New, area irrigation specialist at Lubbock; Norman Brints, area economist at Vernon; and Marvin Sartin, area economist at Lubbock and Tom Beck with Diamond-Shamrock at Amarillo.

sessions, respectively.

R. B. Dawson, chairman of PEP, and Bob Hillery, chairman of RPEP, will preside over the sessions.

The production of high quality food and fiber is a modern day miracle. During November, which is Food and Fiber Appreciation Month, Texans are invited to take a close look at the agricultural industry of their state. Agriculture is a $10 billion industry in Texas. It employs 30 per cent of the state's labor force. Of the state's 168 million acres of land area, 142 million are devoted to agriculture. Texas leads the nation in producing cotton, grain sorghum, rice, cattle, sheep, goats, wool and mohair.

Farwell Study Club Has Thanksgiving Dinner

Farwell Study Club met at the club room Monday evening for its annual Thanksgiving dinner and program. Rev. W. T. Perry opened with prayer. After a meal of turkey, dressing and all the trimmings, James Wilbanks, minister of Farwell Church of Christ, presented a talk on Thanksgiving.

Wilbanks told the group that "We should not think of Thanksgiving as merely a day, but as an attitude to carry out throughout the year and not just one day; that we should count our blessings, both material and spiritual. Our forefathers gave thanks for the little they had, and we sometimes are not thankful to God for the many blessings we receive. Whatever we do, do so in the name of the Lord and not be guilty of the sin of ingratitude." He also stated that "we all reveal the attitudes of our hearts" and "as a man thinketh in his heart, so is he."

The closing prayer was given by Rev. Clifford Trotter, the evangelist speaking at the Methodist church services this week.

Gifts were brought to be sent to the Mental Health Center in Vernon.

Games of 42 were also enjoyed by some of those present.

At Home In Parmer County

By Jana Pronger
County HD Agent

If you are thinking of re-decorating in the near future, treat your recreation room walls to burlap, suggests the housing and home furnishings specialist for the Extension Service. Burlap hides cracks, patches and blotchy color. It also helps sound absorption and provides flexible space for hanging and rearranging wall collections frequently.

When using colored burlap, buy enough for the entire job. Dye lot colors vary - colors frequently do not match from different dye lots, the specialist warned.

Necessary supplies include wall sizing and brush, fabric and paste and large brush, drafting tape, steel measuring tape, sharp knife, short nap paint roller and a plasterer's trowel.

For best results, fill large cracks and holes with spackle or crack filler.

Cut panels slightly larger than the correct length. Starting on an inconspicuous wall to "get the feel of burlap," hang the first panel.

Press burlap against wall with your hands, smoothing it straight across the top. Then press it against the wall at the center, working out to the sides.

Next, go over entire panel with a roller or trowel. By overlapping selva edges of each panel, a sharp blade can be run down the seam, both selvages removed, while obtaining a perfect butted seam.

To fit fabric top and bottom, run a sharp knife through the crease at the ceiling and floor, remove excess.

Continue this procedure around the room until finished.

To change wall color later, simply paint over the burlap.

In the Dark ages, kissing was declared a sure cure of a headache. They couldn't have been completely dark.

SO VERY RICH
(II COR. 8:9)

So rich, so very rich, was Christ
Through past eternity!
As God the Son, with God enthroned,
The Heir of all was He.

So poor, so very poor, did He
As son of man become!
From manger birth to shameful death
Rejected by His own.

For us, ah yes, it was for us
He bore such poverty.
That we by His redeeming grace
Might be as rich as He!

ASCS To Assist In Fuel Allocation

The Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service (ASCS) and the Texas Railroad Commission have joined hands in an effort to increase efficiency in the handling of the mandatory allocation of middle distillate fuels. An agreement between the state and federal agencies should speed up the program.

Beginning immediately, ASCS County Office personnel will verify fuel needs for hardship cases on Form OOG-PAP-20 for all applications prior to their submission to the State Allocation Officer (Texas Railroad Commission.)

Previously, it was planned that needed verification would be obtained after the form was submitted to the Austin office. Form OOG-PAP-20 is to be used by wholesale purchasers to request emergency allocations for immediate use. The form has been supplied to ASCS County Offices throughout the State and was made available to County Clerks' offices.

Also available is Form OOG-PAP-17 which is for the use of purchasers of middle distillate fuels in bulk supply to adjust their monthly allocation for the year or for obtaining a new allocation.

Further information may be obtained from the Farmer County ASCS office.

Of all said matters and things, all owning or claiming any such abutting property or any interest therein, as well as all others in anywise interested or affected by the things and matters herein mentioned, will take notice.
