

U.N. Blasts Reds In Vote On Atrocities

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—The U.N. General Assembly today expressed its "grave concern" at Red atrocities in Korea and approved an American call for stiff condemnation of such actions.

Henry Cabot Lodge Jr. and Russia's Andrei Vishinsky. At the peak of the debate, Lodge charged that North Korea's military commander, Gen. Nam Il, masterminded the bloody Kojin prison riots during the armistice negotiations at Panmunjom.

One Siamese Twin Dies After Split

LONDON (AP)—A surgeon's knife today separated Tomu and Boko, 3-month-old Nigerian twin girls joined at the abdomen, but Tomu died three hours later.

Boko came out of the immensely difficult surgery "in good shape," doctors reported. Ian Aird, 48-year-old professor of surgery at London University, led the tense team that planned and completed this first Siamese twin separation operation ever performed in Britain.

His task over, Aird saw the girls safely tucked into separate incubators. Then he walked into a white-walled room in Hammer-smith Hospital and told a kneeling woman: "It's over and we hope they'll win through."

The mother, 24-year-old Mrs. Veronica Davies, sales assistant from Kanu, Nigeria, said simply: "Thank God."

Mrs. Davies, wife of a Bantu clerk, had kissed the twins before they went under the anesthetic this morning. She prayed during the operation.

Harold Woodfield-Davies, senior anesthetist, told reporters: "The operation began at 12:10 p.m. and the twins were separated an hour later."

"Then they went on to separate tables for individual surgery. These operations ended at 1:45 p.m. and the babies were given blood transfusions and placed in incubators."

Laniel Arrives In Bermuda For Big Three Meet

By STANLEY JOHNSON TUCKER'S TOWN, Bermuda (AP)—France's Premier Joseph Laniel arrived today for the Big Three Bermuda Conference, reportedly determined to press for new long term pledges of support in Europe from Britain and the United States.

Prime Minister Churchill and Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden were on hand at Kindley Field to meet Laniel, his Foreign Minister Georges Bidault, and a team of 17 experts from the French Foreign Office.

Laniel was reported also ready to tell Britain and the United States that France is prepared to examine any peace offers made officially by Ho Chi Minh, the Moscow-educated General who has been directing the long war in Indochina against the French.

To the Americans, the major task of the conference is to prod the balking French National Assembly into ratifying the European Defense Community Pact. It provides for a unified West European army including troops from France's long-time enemy Germany.

Laniel can promise nothing because his government must resign Jan. 17, a month after France's new President is elected. But he reportedly was bringing a raft of conditions which French sources say must be met before there is any chance for Assembly approval of German rearmament.

These include: 1. British-American agreement to pressure the West Germans into agreeing that the Saar Basin, rich in coal and steel, will remain politically autonomous but linked economically to France.

2. British and American assurances that they won't pull their troops off the continent and leave the French to face rearmaged Germans alone.

3. Continued American help against the Communist-led rebels in Indochina, or Allied diplomatic support for a negotiated settlement with Ho Chi Minh's forces.

4. British-American agreement to Moscow's proposal for a Big Four foreign ministers meeting. Of these, only the Saar seems a major stumbling block.

Sue White Champ Sets Record $20 A Lb. Price

Tops 1950 High For Robinson's Steer

Sue White sold her International Livestock Exposition champion steer for a champion price Thursday—$20 a pound.

Albert Pick, president of the American Hotel Association and who had paid the previous record of $12 a pound to Lloyd Robinson of Big Spring in 1950, bought 1,015-pound Lone Star.

Things were still popping in the arena when Floyd White, her father, got to a phone and reached Mrs. White at their home here.

Gross price on the steer will await the verdict at the scale house, but consensus was that it would be jam against that $20,000 figure even if a shrinkage factor is figured in.

The Howard County 4-H Club group and sponsors are staying at the Congress Hotel, owned by Pick, who promptly told Sue that they were being "moved into the finest suite in the hotel."

Lone Star, the classy T-O got into the back seat of the car with another unidentified man at the steering wheel. While one held her arms, the other blindfolded her with her own scarf, she said.

After a long ride, they came to a stop and she was put in a room of a house. The men occupied an adjacent room, she said.

After darkness fell last night, Mrs. Weaver continued, she was blindfolded again and put back into the automobile.

The blindfold was removed when they reached the outskirts of Phenix City, Ala., just across the river from Columbus, and the men let her out with instructions to go home.

made it inadvisable for her to continue. In January of this year, Sue had the grandchampion at the Southwestern Livestock Show in Fort Worth and it sold for $6 a pound, a figure she had given her life—the of the greatest thrills of her life—that is until today.

Mother Is Safe After Abduction

COLUMBUS, Ga. (AP)—Pretty Mrs. Gloria Bullock Weaver, 22, mother of an infant son, is safe at home today and FBI agents are hunting for two men accused of kidnaping her.

Found unharmed on a downtown street near the Chattahoochee River bridge last night, she said she was released by her kidnapers on the Alabama side of the bridge.

Her husband Arthur, a building contractor, spotted her on the Georgia side of the river shortly after she telephoned home from a drugstore near where she was released.

Mrs. Weaver said an unidentified man entered her home in her husband's absence Tuesday night and ordered her to an automobile parked outside. She said he did not use force.

She related that she and the man got into the back seat of the car with another unidentified man at the steering wheel. While one held her arms, the other blindfolded her with her own scarf, she said.

After a long ride, they came to a stop and she was put in a room of a house. The men occupied an adjacent room, she said.

After darkness fell last night, Mrs. Weaver continued, she was blindfolded again and put back into the automobile.

The blindfold was removed when they reached the outskirts of Phenix City, Ala., just across the river from Columbus, and the men let her out with instructions to go home.

Weaver received a telephone call yesterday from an anonymous man who demanded $15,000 for her return. No ransom was paid. The FBI took charge of the investigation.

Extra Police Set As Dock March Called

By GENE KRAMER SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Extra police were ordered today to keep order during a threatened march on Civic Center by Harry Bridges' longshoremen protesting House Un-American Activities Committee hearings at City Hall.

The protest, labeled a stop-work meeting by Bridges, will start at 10 o'clock at the left-wing International Longshoremen and Warehousemen's Union, could take up 40 ships. It was called at a meeting attended by fewer than 600 of the local's 5,500 members after several Bridges aides were named as former Communist Party members by the committee Tuesday.

Rep. Harold Velde (R-Ill.) denied ILWU charges that his committee is here to attack it. He stated: "We will continue our hearings against communism and subversion wherever we find it."

Police Chief Michael Gaffey ordered 50 uniformed officers and 30 inspectors to prevent mass entries into City Hall and to keep pickets from blocking entrances. Another 50 policemen were held in reserve.

The committee expected to hear today a friendly witness, described by Rep. Donald L. Jackson (R-Calif.) as a "former member of the fourth estate—the press." He was not identified.

Louis Rosser, 47, of Los Angeles, who said he is a disillusioned ex-Red, testified Tuesday these ILWU officers were Communists; Louis Goldblatt, secretary-treasurer and Bridges' No. 1 lieutenant; Charles (Chill) Dierker, president of Local 6; Richard Lyndon, secretary-treasurer of Local 6; Jack Olson, former Local 6 publicity chief; and Paul Heide, local 6 business agent.

He praised both Eisenhower and Secretary of State Dulles in the statement, but said he still thinks this country should refuse dollar aid to any Allied nation "shipping any goods to Communist China so long as a single American remains in a Communist blood-stained dungeon."

"On this matter Secretary Dulles and I are in complete disagreement," McCarthy said. "In a republic such as ours there must be room for honest difference of opinion. I respect the honesty and sincerity of purpose of Secretary Dulles."

Telephone Co-Op Is Asking For Bids

Bids will be received until 10 a.m. on Dec. 12 for four buildings to house equipment for the West-Tex Telephone Cooperative.

The structures will cover exchange dial apparatus in Howard and Martin Counties.

Proposals for the concrete block buildings, with 280 square feet each will be received at the cooperative offices in Stanton.

Auto Is Stolen

A 1947 DeSoto was reported stolen from the Pruitt and York used car lot here sometime last night. Police said today that the car is a two-tone hard top convertible with license plate CB-6234. Colors are brown and cream.

WON'T ADMIT IT ANYWAY

Postmaster Elmer Boatler says he ran into trouble the first day after succeeding Nat Shick in the office.

A letter has been received from France addressed: "The Girl Who Gets No Letters, Big Spring, Texas."

The envelope bears the name and return address of the sender, Boatler says.

He hasn't been able to locate a girl who doesn't get letters. The clerks who handle the tremendous volume of mail say they don't believe there is any such person. Not in Big Spring, at least.

Weep No More My Lady

Eight Die As Tornadoes Strike Central Louisiana

ALEXANDRIA, La. (AP)—A tornado skipped across central Louisiana early today, killing eight persons, injuring at least 20 others, and ripping homes and other buildings.

Six persons were killed at the rural community of Leander, about 20 miles southwest of Alexandria. Two infants were reported dead at Tullos, about 40 miles north of Alexandria.

The Vernon Parish sheriff's office at Leesville identified the persons killed at Leander as Mrs. Charly Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Cleveland Smith and their daughter, name unknown, and Herman Batson and his small child. Mrs. Batson was reported critically injured.

The LaSalle Parish sheriff's office at Jena said the one-month-old child of Davis Prestridge and the child of John Pendarvis, about 18 months, were killed at Tullos. Fifteen persons were reported injured there.

The LaSalle officials said at least 20 houses were destroyed or damaged at Tullos. At the Paradise community, 10 miles north of here, four highway employees sleeping in a trailer were carried on a wild 100-yard ride by the raging winds, but were uninjured.

Some property damage was reported at Paradise. The twister narrowly missed the Veterans Administration Hospital five miles north of Alexandria, but no one was injured and no property damage was reported there or in the city.

Less than 30 minutes before the twister was reported the New Orleans Weather Bureau issued the following weather bulletin: "There is a possibility of a few small tornadoes in the Natchez morning, spreading eastward to the Meridian-Laurel area by mid-afternoon."

City Receives .13 Inch Rain

Although storm rumors failed to materialize, thick clouds prevailed and a small amount of moisture fell over the Big Spring area as a cool front moved in Wednesday afternoon.

The gauge at the U. S. Experiment station north of the city registered .13 of an inch of rain, which came in a slow drizzle which fell intermittently during the afternoon and early evening.

The drizzle apparently covered a considerable area, with .13 also reported at Colorado City, and reports of limited amounts of moisture were listed on southeast to San Angelo.

The forecast for the Big Spring area calls for partly cloudy skies and cooler weather this afternoon, tonight and Friday.

A low of 37 degrees was recorded this morning at the experiment station.

Flores Freed By Jury Here

Francisco Flores was acquitted Wednesday of murder charges. A 118th District Court jury deliberated the case approximately two hours before returning its not guilty verdict.

Flores was charged with murder in connection with the death of Francisco Alvarado last Christmas Eve. Alvarado died after suffering eight bullet wounds.

Trial of Anita Jimenez, also charged with murder, was continued. The case had been set for today, Mrs. Jimenez is charged in the death of her son-in-law, Gavino Montanez, on April 11.

As to his own administration, Eisenhower said in a statement yesterday that, by next fall's congressional elections, he is convinced his new security measures will have put an end to public fear of communism in government.

He said he expects the public by then "will wish to commend the efficiency of this administration in eliminating this menace." But he did not rule out any searches for subversion which may have existed during the Truman administration.

The President's statement included a full endorsement of Secretary of State Dulles' defense of administration foreign policy. That was widely interpreted as a reply to a Nov. 24 speech by Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis.) critical of some of the President's actions, however, to have left the door open for full-blast continuation of Congressional hunts for spies and subversives reportedly active in the government during the Truman administration.

Most everyone is familiar with the big "IH" which stands for International Harvester. In Big Spring merchandise bearing that famous brand reaches consumers through the Driver Truck and Implement Co., located on the Lamesa Highway. Driver has all of the "IH"

Soft Water Service Gains In Popularity

R. L. Trappnell, owner of the Culligan Soft Water Service here, says that more and more people in Big Spring are recognizing that soft water service — like telephone, gas or electric service — has many advantages. A number of people list soft water service as a necessity these days, he said. They realize that a service basis is the best way to get completely softened water in their homes. Of course, some people like to install permanent zeolite-type softeners in their homes, he said. And for those that do wish such units, he has Cul-matic softeners for sale. But Trappnell points out that all zeolite-type softeners require periodic regeneration. With soft water service which he offers, the regeneration necessary is done in his plant while the customer has a "fresh" unit in his home. With permanent softeners, the home-owners have to perform the regeneration and lug home heavy sacks of salt necessary for the work, he said. Values of the service are topped by the elimination of big initial cash investments for the cumbersome equipment. And with the soft water service the customer knows exactly when he will get an exchange of softeners. Big Spring has water which is from 25 to 30 grains hard, and Trappnell says this is too hard for normal household use. The hard water causes untold waste of soap, fabrics and time, he pointed out. Soft water service solves the problem speedily, economically, and with no equipment to buy. Units installed in homes by the servicing company are 25,000 grain units, and they soften around 1,000 gallons of water before a change or regeneration is necessary. People desiring the service can call 4-6812 or visit 503 East 6th.

Weary Soldiers Aid Drought-Hurt Town

EDINA, Mo. (AP)—Weary soldiers today watched water gush from a five-mile pipeline they had built in 54 hours of round-the-clock labor to supply this drought-stricken town of 1,600. "That's the most beautiful sight I've ever seen," exclaimed Mayor O. M. Gillaspay as water spurted from the six-inch pipe into the city's reservoir. Lt. James Boyles, commander of a 156-man Army Engineer unit from Ft. Leonard Wood, said his men would keep the pumps going for two weeks, filling the reservoir from an 80-acre lake. Then the line will be dismantled. Mayor Gillaspay appealed to the Army for help last week and promised the town would pay expenses if the Army Engineers would lay the line.

Many Selections On Hand Now At Stanley's Here

Whether you're Christmas shopping for Mother or Dad, Sister or Brother, Son or Daughter, the ideal place to make selections is the Stanley Hardware Company in Big Spring. Mother might prefer a Youngstown Kitchen, complete with Diana-style food waste disposer or a new Whirlpool automatic washer and dryer. Dad may go for the Power King tools, so handy in his workshop, or the famous Capehart portable radios, so popular on hunting trips or for listening to athletic events. For the children, Stanley's is the headquarters for a wide selection of toys, from modern Space Travel equipment to bicycles and tricycles. The toyland at Stanley's proves a veritable happy hunting grounds for parents at the Yule Tide. All types of home appliances, from water heaters to gas and electric stoves are stocked by Stanley's. Demonstrations on any type of equipment will be given on any type of equipment in stock by Stanley personnel at any time. The Youngstown kitchens are designed to fit any size kitchen. Jet-Tower dish washers are made to fit right into the Youngstown style. The electric dish-washers save the housewife many hours during a year's time and are more than worth the cost, for that reason.

Baldwin's Acrosonic Makes An Ideal Gift

The ultimate in Christmas gifts is the Baldwin Acrosonic piano, which may be examined, and purchased, at the Adair Music Company, 1708 Gregg Street. Mrs. Opal Adair, owner and manager of the music establishment, reminds Big Springers they don't have to go outside Big Spring to secure the finest in musical instruments. Adair's has a full line of Baldwin pianos on display, and Mrs. Adair invites any resident of the area who wants a truly great piano to inspect the Baldwin line. And a good time to purchase a piano for the home of for the youngster just starting his musical career, Mrs. Adair points out, is the Christmas season. The piano may be selected now, and will be delivered on Christmas eve or Christmas morning, whichever is desired. The Acrosonic (supreme tone) now is being featured by Adair Music Company. The instrument is being shown in walnut, limed oak, mahogany, light or ebonized finishes, and in several popular styles. The Acrosonic style is the creation of the nationally-noted stylist and designer of fine furniture, William Millington, who has been on the Baldwin staff for many years. Into each of the exquisitely-designed cases has gone the aggregate of Baldwin's piano-making knowledge. All acoustical elements—strings, hammers, soundboard, action, plate—are scientifically designed and expertly fitted by master craftsmen to achieve a piano of superior musical qualities. Every string and every hammer is of the proper weight, diameter, length, etc., to give the finest tone. Action is as light and responsive as the works of a fine watch. Mrs. Adair urges Big Springers to "shop at home" where these excellent pianos are available, whether it be for Christmas or some other occasion. Other Baldwin pianos, as well as numerous used instruments may be secured at Adair Music Company, and the piano you select can be delivered without the necessity of trucking it for miles over rough highways.

King Paul No Admirer Of Music Modernity

NEW YORK (AP)—"Between you and me and the lampost, I'm not very fond of modern music." So confided King Paul of Greece yesterday to reporters after he and his queen, Frederika, attended a concert of the New York Philharmonic Orchestra at Carnegie Hall. The concert program, the first attended by the couple on their current American tour, included two Ravel's and opened with the American and Greek national anthems.

Mary Margaret McBRIDE SAYS

Along with similar outmoded and harsh-sounding words, I hope that "handicapped" is right now on its way out of dictionaries and common usage.

There's certainly no point to a word that has lost its meaning. And according to what the two great men told me within the space of a single week recently, that's exactly what has happened to "handicapped."

Casually remarked James Thurber, a precise man with words and author, I think, of the funniest prose written today: "Now that I've lost my sight and can't use the typewriter any more, I write in my head. For a writer, blindness is not so bad."

"Vision may be a greater handicap than the lack of it. I've done more in the past 10 years than in all the rest of my life put together. A writer is likely to start thinking that he can only work in a certain town or in a certain room. He will use any excuse to dawdle. For me now, any town is a certain town, any room is a certain room. I can write wherever I am and there are no distractions."

As I sat listening to James Thurber, I found myself really believing that he was a lucky man to be without the distracting handicap of vision.

Twenty-four hours later I was talking to Peter Freuchen, six and a half foot high Arctic explorer, who years ago lost his leg as a result of being buried alive under tons of close-packed snow in the far north. Quite casually he told of hours of painful digging, of finding that his left leg was useless, and of crawling for miles to camp. Even when he described how later he cut off his own toes with a pair of pliers and went through the amputation of his entire leg in Denmark his manner was still unemotional, even gay.

"They kept us separated, there at the hospital," he said. "Those of us who had lost legs were together, and those who had lost arms were in another section. We who had lost only legs pitied those who had lost arms. Those who had lost arms pitied us who had lost legs. None of us felt the least bit sorry for ourselves. We joked and had a fine time."

"When I decided I couldn't travel any more because of losing a leg, I started writing. And after I started writing, I found that I could travel, too. So now I do both. I would never have started to write if I hadn't lost my leg, and I enjoy writing."

Probably it would be stretching a point to intimate that Peter Freuchen prefers to be without his leg and James Thurber without his sight. Common sense would indicate that these two remarkable men are simply part of a great company who since time began have treated what seems like misfortune as a challenge. And certainly to call them handicapped is to be insulting.

No Skin Problem Now

Hollywood and Universal-International predict that Marcia Henderson will be one of tomorrow's big stars. The pretty brunette gives credit for her lovely skin to a sugar facial, and passes it on to Lydia Lane in an exclusive interview.

HOLLYWOOD BEAUTY

Sugar Facial Used To Advantage By Starlet

By LYDIA LANE

HOLLYWOOD — Marcia Henderson, who was born in the college town of Andover, Massachusetts, was interested in dramatics at high school and at college. But it wasn't until she played the lead in the Chicago company of "The Moon is Blue" that Universal-International scouts spotted her and brought her to Hollywood where she was immediately given the part of Barbara Stanwyck's daughter in "All I Desire."

They were so pleased with Marcia's ability that she played the lead in three pictures in quick succession.

"This girl is loaded with talent!" an executive at Universal-International told me when I went to their studio to lunch with Marcia. "You'll be hearing more and more of her in the future."

"I love Hollywood," Marcia said as soon as we were alone. "Everyone is so nice to you but it is quite a contrast to a girl brought up in the east."

"When I first started coming to the studio I wore hat and gloves and dressed the way I did when I thought Broadway producers might see me. But I soon learned to be more informal though I feel it is also necessary to be well groomed in casual clothes. Appearance is important to everyone," Marcia commented. "but sometimes we don't realize it until we have missed out because we were not looking our best."

"Give me an example," I said.

"Before I was given the part of Wendy in Jean Arthur's 'Peter Pan' I was on a very tight budget. But getting a salary every week made it possible for me to get new clothes and I was surprised how

When You Repeat At The Top, You Simply Have To Have The Touch

News that Howard County 4-H Club feeders have won another championship is almost like word that the New York Yankees have won another pennant. Yet, we are happy no more, the victory of Sue White in the International Livestock Exposition has been received here with the same enthusiasm as when Lloyd Robinson captured this most sought award in 1950.

It is possible to bat almost perfectly on all these scores and then not win the top prize. There is always the chance that someone, out of all the feeders in the nation, might have just a little better break on some phase along the line. Thus, when the International is topped, it is virtually that once-in-a-lifetime experience.

Highway Announcement Definitely Pins Down The Freeway Proposal

When the Texas Highway Commission announced approval Monday for advanced planning of a Howard County segment of extensive improvements - the freeway - to U. S. 80, it was the first definite work of a green light for a project which all of us had hoped for and expected.

needed may be presented to Howard County. County commissioners are on record as ready to acquire the needed roadway through the county. Currently the court is engaged in securing the land needed to open Fourth Street through the city and connect with present segments of the highway at each end of the city zone.

These Days - George Sokolsky

GOP Still Unable To Produce Passable Legislative Program

The Republican Party, after 20 years out of power, still finds it difficult to develop sufficient political leadership to produce a passable legislative program for Congress and a fighting organization among the people.

score, the cleavage within the Republican Party will continue to widen until, in 1954, the Democrats could win both the House and the Senate. In some states, such as Massachusetts, McCarthy can win the election for the Republicans or he can bring on a defeat for his own party.

The realistic fact is that President Eisenhower does not like being a politician. He has never been a politician. He has been a brilliant success as a soldier and has achieved distinction as a diplomat, but not as a technical party politician.

The Democrats are not divided on the single point of winning in 1954. Their actual disagreements are deeper than those which exist among Republicans, but they are now united on the question of 1954. Their quarrels have been postponed until after that date. The Republicans cannot display a similar party discipline.

Even Franklin D. Roosevelt, as astute a politician as history records, could not treat elected officials, senators and representatives, and Cabinet members as though they were top sergeants. He might have fooled them by his brilliant double-talk, but he never ignored them.

This was on Monday night. On Tuesday night, Senator Joe McCarthy hit back with a block-buster that shook and split the Republican Party. Obviously, Joe McCarthy accepted Monday night's challenge and got even. Considering the mildness of the President's statement on Monday, McCarthy's reply on Tuesday was too strong.

Business men aren't getting behind the Eisenhower administration like they ought to, says Charles L. Clements, the president of Chase Federal Savings and Loan Association and top man this year in the U. S. Savings and Loan League. People seem to like the "Truman dollar."

dilemma of certain business groups about the inflation issue makes it clear that many businessmen still haven't made up their minds about preferring socialism to freedom. Clements says "It begins to look as though the decision about which direction to take from the 'crossroads' really wasn't made at all."

Recent Criticism Of Administration By McCarthy Contained Not Much New

WASHINGTON (AP)—Nothing Sen. McCarthy has said or done in these first nine months of the Eisenhower administration inflamed it so much as his recent criticism. But the Wisconsin Republican was using just a couple of new matches. It was an old one, re-lit, which made the administration jump the highest.

What was new in his nationwide broadcast a week ago can be stated briefly: 1. He declared himself an issue in the 1954 congressional elections. He told his audience to vote Republican if they approved of him, Democratic if they disapproved.

restrictions upon their trade with the Communists world even in terms of nonstrategic items. This week, on Tuesday, Dulles said approximately the same thing: that this country does not have the right to dictate the Allies' trade policies.

But when in that same broadcast he undertook to tell the administration how to handle its foreign aid program, he wasn't saying anything new at all. That was his re-lit match. Perhaps it was the way he said it—and the fact that he was talking over nationwide television and radio instead of in a statement from his office—which evoked reports from Eisenhower and Secretary of State Dulles.

NEW YORK (AP)—Does your dog find, usually is the product of frustrated people. He feels the frustration in both the pet and its owner stems from the same cause—an ego-deflating boredom that raises from a feeling of lack of accomplishment.

The fact that the Jenner Committee proposed to make Gouzenko a spectacular witness was not in itself the cause of the angry reaction in Canada. This move was accompanied by what in the view of Canadian officials was the equivalent of blackmail aimed at Lester Pearson, Canada's Minister of External Affairs.

This Day In Texas

A very imposing entourage of immigrants crossed the Red River at the mouth of Mill Creek on this day in 1833 to make their home in Texas. The group included James L. Latimer, his wife and eleven of his 15 children and over fifty slaves, and they settled near the present site of Clarksville in an area claimed by the United States as part of Arkansas Territory for many years.

Test Is Complete

NEWBURY, Mass. (AP)—Newbury firemen are bound they'll get their money's worth. They bought a new horn to call members of the department. They tested it from atop the town hall and it proved pretty good. But before they fork over the cash they're going to test it from atop a barn at another end of town.

Infants Bother Judge

TAMPA, Fla. (AP)—W. Marion Hendry, justice of the peace, seeking judicial calm in his courtroom, ordered a wailing baby removed. Then another tuned up. The persistent jurist finally obtained silence after having seven strong-lunged infants removed.

Controversy With Canada Has No Parallel In Modern History

WASHINGTON - To find any parallel with the present controversy between Canada and the United States it would be necessary to go a long way back in history. Reports from north of the border tell of resentment and hostility that appear to be almost unanimous irrespective of party lines or geography.

ment should have the right to determine which parts of his testimony should be made public. Senator Jenner promptly rejected this condition and asked the State Department to make another approach to the Canadian Government. Secretary of State John Foster Dulles has declined to do so in a letter to Jenner, stating his belief that the stipulations laid down by Canada are reasonable.

Insured Thoughtful

HARTFORD, Conn. (AP)—There's a reason, says state motor vehicles commissioner Charles F. Kelley, why uninsured motorists are involved in 18 per cent of the accidents in Connecticut although they number only 10 per cent of the registered drivers.

Safe Fever Treatment KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP)—It's safer to sponge a child with cold water rather than rubbing alcohol to knock down fever. Dr. Roy F. Garrison writes in the Journal of the American Medical Association. He tells of a child made ill by breathing in fumes from too much alcohol used in a small room. Fever can be reduced within an hour by putting wet towels on the child, re-wetting the towels every few minutes, he said.

Iron Important In Modern Life

If all iron, steel and iron ore vanished from the earth, what a different world we should have! As we look about us, we see hundreds of objects made of iron. Kitchen stoves usually are of iron. Iron or steel is used as a framework for big office-buildings. Iron and steel go into the making of railway trains, automobiles and ocean steamers.

are pig iron, white cast iron, gray cast iron, wrought iron, nickel steel, mild steel, manganese steel, cast steel and silicon steel. Pig iron is iron which has been smelted from the ore. The strange name "pig iron" seems to have come from England. English iron-makers of times gone by let molten metal flow into sand molds and the shape of the molds made someone think of pigs. After pig iron is put through the puddling process, it can be turned into wrought iron. This iron is "tough" and is well suited to making many objects. The puddling of pig iron takes out carbon. The wrought iron which results does not break under a sudden jar for the way cast iron does.

Sixth Graders Express History, Geography Lessons In Handwork

What cutting up magazines and woodburning has to do with studying geography and history might puzzle the average school classroom observer.

But that's the type of thing they'd see if they dropped by to visit a sixth grade class in action. And they'd learn that what they were seeing was not just activity for activity's sake. It has a real purpose.

The sixth grade Mrs. H. L. Derrick teaches at Washington P. I. School, for example, has been winding up a unit on France. But to them studying France has meant a lot more than reading a certain number of pages in their geography books.

Some of them have made woodburnings of the Eiffel Tower and Notre Dame Cathedral. Another group worked together on a large map on which they've pasted pictures to illustrate products of France.

One painted the tricolor, the flag of France. Some of them volunteered to give stories in French history; Joan of Arc, the Helms Cathedral, Lafayette, the Reign of Terror, Paris as the fashion center of the world and the Statue of Liberty, which France gave to the United States.

In their notebook work English is correlated with their geography and history. In music class the pupils have been learning the French national anthem and studying music from French operas.

Now, having already studied Great Britain, they're moving onto a unit on the Soviet Union. Naturally, the main emphasis in the social studies program is on the United States. The four units, then, round out a study of the nations often referred to as the "Big Four." Before the year is over the students will have been through Europe, and Africa, Asia and the Pacific islands as well. The study of world geography begins in the fourth grade. In the fifth grade it focuses on North and South America, particularly on the United States.

But the social studies program starts long before the fourth grader gets a geography book in his hand. It begins in the first, second and third grades where the emphasis is on the home and the community.

A curriculum guide to standardize the social studies program is being set up now. Main hope of those who have been working on it is to get away from teaching just facts, such as where a territory is located and what it produces, according to Dean Bennett, supervisor of elementary education.

The goal is to show why people act the way they do—at least non-politically. How do the geography and other aspects of the environment affect the people? What is the effect of language? How do the people depend on people in other countries? What is the effect of the air age? How would we act if we lived where they do?

These are the kind of questions Bennett hopes an overhauled social studies program will begin to answer for pupils so they will know the "why" and "how" of relationships between people as well as the "what" and "where."

Famous Landmarks

Where Does This Go?

How To Make Christmas Be Merrier

You can enjoy your Christmas to the fullest if you'll just observe a few safety precautions, advises the National Safety Council. Here are their suggestions to help make your Yuletide safer and saner:

1. If you plan a home party and want to use candles on your table, be sure that the centerpiece is not made of Christmas greens. These become very dry in a hot room and may be ignited quickly by the tiniest spark.
2. When buying decorating materials make sure they are flame proof. Avoid using candles near ash trays so that guests will find them easily available. String decorations near the ceiling or place

Bride & Groom

A festive wedding if ever you saw one—this of Betty and Peter Rabbit! The bride is a charming 15 inches (counting in 5 inches of splendid pink ears), is faultlessly dressed in white flowered organdy with taffeta petticoat, a proper veil, has deep blue eyes (embroidered). Groom sports a pique waistcoat with three small diamond buttons, an elegant pale blue felt coat, carries a deep strawberry-pink felt hat. Bodies are pale tan cotton flannel. A wonderful pair to go on an Xmas honeymoon under a pine tree!

3. Set the tree where it does not obstruct an exit from the room, and away from fireplace and strong heat. Keep it in water from the time you bring it home. Make a fresh saw cut across the trunk base before setting it up. Place tree in water-containing holder. Fill it daily. Remove a dry tree from the premises immediately after the holidays.
4. A blown fuse may be the signal that the tree is overloaded dangerously with lights. Be sure them well above the guests heads.
5. When hanging tree ornaments stand on a sturdy stool or ladder. Wear low-heeled shoes.
6. Buy safe toys for your youngsters. Select washable playthings colored with non-poisonous dye or paint. See that playthings are sturdy so they will not come apart leaving jagged edges. Check eyes, buttons and beads on dolls to make sure they cannot come off and be swallowed by a curious youngster.

CARLISLE (FROSTY) ROBISON

Frosty Robison On All-State

Carlisle (Frosty) Robison, Big Spring halfback, was named to the Fort Worth Star-Telegram's All-State AAA football team made public this morning.

Ray Masters, Brownwood tackle, was also named to the first team backfield.

Big Spring and Brownwood meet in the first round of the playoffs Saturday afternoon in Brownwood.

Robison, the first local player in many years to gain such an honor, weighs 190 pounds and stands 6-foot-2 1/2. He is the only junior on the mythical team.

Bill Dendy, Breckenridge, was also named to the first team backfield, along with Lester Weltman, San Antonio Edison, and Masters.

James (Tiny) Ellison, Big Spring, was named to the second team as a guard. J. C. Armistead, Big Spring, was selected for the third team.

Norman Noble, Breckenridge guard, was named to a first string berth, the only other District 1-AAA player to be so placed.

Roger Hobson, Breckenridge end; Quarterback Kenny Ford of Breckenridge and Fullback Angel Olvera of Sweetwater were second team selections.

Jerry Cramer, Breckenridge tackle, was a third team choice along with Armistead.

Among those gaining honorable mention on the team were Norman Dudley, center; and tackle J. W. Thompson (who was identified as a guard), both of Big Spring; Reagan White, Snyder, end; Tommy Neeley, Vernon tackle; and Lonnie Holland, Plainview back.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With Tommy Hart

Looking into the crystal ball for the playoff winners:

BIG SPRING 29 BROWNWOOD 7. Practically every observer in the state is rating Brownwood over Big Spring. The Lions have a 9-1 won-loss record. They're passing off Big Spring as a lucky ball club after Sweetwater defeated the Steers, 14-13, and the Big Springers wound up with a ho-hum 7-3 record.

Still, the Steers beat the Lions by a touchdown back in October and it should have been worse. The Lions took a worse physical beating than that, something they won't soon forget.

The Steers haven't played their game for several weeks now, perhaps not since the Lamens outing on Nov. 6. They are capable of rising to the heights, should get it against the Lions. They have to prove the hard way they've got a good football team.

KILGORE 33 GAINESVILLE 7. Kilgore, now the state's number one AAA team in the eyes of a lot of observers, may not rally that much of a scoring punch against Gainesville but the margin will be decisive.

TEMPLE 14 PORT NECHES 7. An upset could occur here. However, Temple is picked because it is the more battle wise, has been through this sort of thing before.

EDISON (SA) 21 EDINBURG 7. Edison may be the real surprise package in the playoffs. Edinburg has had too many close calls to get the nod here.

ODESSA 50, BOWIE (EP) 6. The Border City Bears might score, but it will be against Odessa's second or third team. The Bronchos aren't about to be stopped in this one.

WACO 15, RAY (CORPUS CHRISTI) 0. Leave room for an upset here. Waco boasts a fine defense but hasn't shown any great ability to move the ball.

WOODROW WILSON (DALLAS) 21 PASCHAL (FORT WORTH) 13. The Dallas club has been consistently good all season. Paschal just did squeeze by North Side last week.

LAMAR 14 PORT ARTHUR 6. Most of the observers apparently are picking this one the other way. Lamar has been tied and suffered a tight squeeze on one or two other occasions. However, with Walt Fendren in the saddle, the Lamar club should be able to move.

COAHOMA 20 ROCHESTER 14. The Bulldogs will have a fitting good-bye in Class B football. (Next year, they get promoted to Class A).

And on the college front:

NOTRE DAME 34 SMU 13. Coach Chalmer Woodard may do a better job of containing the Irish offense than this but the Ponies really hit the skids the last month of the season.

TENNESSEE 20, HOUSTON 7. Two weeks ago, I would have picked it the other way.

Player-Owner Feud Flares Up

By JOE REICHLER

ATLANTA (W)—The strained relationship between the major league players and owners reached its widest breach today following a pair of bombshells exploded yesterday.

It began with the refusal of the player representatives of the 18 major league clubs to attend a scheduled meeting with Commissioner Ford Frick because their attorney, J. Norman Lewis, had been barred.

It ended with the commissioner's revelation that the major league Executive Council was considering the termination of the players' multimillion-dollar pension plan.

Frick disclosed at a news conference that the major league owners, at their annual meeting in New York next week, will vote on a resolution that could dissolve the entire pension plan within 90 days although the present five-year set-up does not expire until 1956.

Frick explained that all player representatives responded but it was not until 15 minutes before the proposed meeting yesterday morning that Ralph Kiner and Allie Reynolds, player spokesmen in their respective leagues, called on him to permit Lewis to be present. "I told them that was not possible," Frick said.

Frick said he felt he had the right to summon anyone he wanted—player or club official—in the interests of baseball, without any outsider present.

Kiner and Reynolds contended that Lewis was their official legal counsel and they advised Frick that the players had unanimously voted that Lewis must be admitted or they would not attend themselves.

All player representatives departed for their homes except Reynolds who said he would attend the American League meeting in New York next week. Will Harbridge, president of the American League, however, said the invitation to Reynolds to attend the American League session had been withdrawn. Reynolds was not immediately available for comment.

If the owners' resolution should be approved next week, it would terminate one of the most elaborate pension funds ever set up in sports. Conceived in 1947 and expanded in 1952 with the addition of an annual million-dollar allotment from World Series and All-Star Game receipts, it now provides a fund that assures an income of $100 a month to 10-year players on retiring at the age of 50 on down to $50 a month for five-year men.

Frick explained that the players demanded their pension payments be increased from $50 to $80 for five-year men and from $100 to $150 for 10-year men. At the same time, the players wanted to reduce the 50-year age eligibility to 45 while paying smaller premiums. He explained that would boost the cost to an additional 1 1/2 million dollars annually over the next five years.

Currently the players pay around $100,000 a year to the pension fund while each club pays about $15,000 a year plus the difference needed to pay off back service of players who had major league service prior to the pension fund inauguration.

ED PRICE

Price To Speak At Forsan Meet

FORSAN (SC)—Ed Price, coach of the co-champion Texas Longhorns of the Southwest Conference, is to be the speaker for the Forsan Football Banquet here Dec. 8.

The affair, sponsored by the Forsan Service Club, is slated for 6 p.m. in the high school cafeteria. It will not be held at the Country Club as originally planned.

Tickets for the affair ($1) may be secured at the high school, at the W. B. Dunn Hardware, from Lefty Shelton, D. M. Bardwell, Buster Grissom or any other club member.

The banquet will be a stag affair with members of the Forsan Buffaloes, district champions, and their coaches as guests.

Price is to bring motion pictures of the Texas-Baylor game with him.

Coahoma Bids For Region II-B Grid Title Today

HASKELL (SC)—Two brilliant offenses collide here at 2 o'clock this afternoon when the Coahoma Bulldogs of District 6-B squares away with Rochester of 8-B.

Win, lose or draw, this will be the final game in Class B circles for the Bulldogs and Coach Fred Salling hopes to wave a fitting good-bye to the conference and the class. Next year, the Coahomans step up to Class A.

Though the Bulldogs have won six-team championships before, this is the first time they've competed in the playoffs and, needless to say, they like it.

To get as far as they have, the Bulldogs had to knock off Grand-falls in a game at Big Spring last week and they did it very convincingly, winning to the tune of a 40-7 score.

Rochester, meanwhile, was defeating Bronte, 28-19, dominating play for the first three quarters. Coahoma figures to "out-defense" the Longhorns and have the better defensive record. Whereas the Bulldogs have now gone through 11 straight games without defeat, the Longhorn record was sukkled by Clyde in an early-season game.

Rochester does have a fine backfield built around speedy and hard-hitting Tony McWhorter, a 140-pound tailback. (Rochester runs from the Double Wing).

McWhorter gets help from such worthies as Rogers Nanny, Billy Joe Hollingsworth and Bob Mel-Nelly.

Salling will go with a lineup composed of Jack Owens and Grady Barr at ends; Jerris Springfield and Dudley Arnett at tackles; Mark Reeves and Jack Kenemer at guards; Bob Garrett at center and Skeet Williams, Murphy Woodson, Darrell Robinson and Jimmy Spears in the backfield.

David Hodnett will be available for relief duty in the Coahoma secondary.

In 11 games, the Bulldogs have scored exactly 400 points, or an average of 36.4 an outing. They've allowed only 76, or an average of a touchdown and an extra point a game.

QUARTERBACK CLUB TO MEET

Plans for the caravan to Brownwood Saturday for the bi-district football game, bus schedules and other business will be discussed at the meeting of the Big Spring Quarter-back Club this evening.

Omar Jones, club president, said films of the Big Spring, Ysleta and the Big Spring-Sweetwater games will be shown.

The meeting is set for 7 p.m. in the high school cafeteria. Jones asked for a large turnout of Quarterback Clubbers as several important matters are up for a decision.

Late Calls Annoy Doctors The Most

ST. LOUIS (W)—What annoys a doctor more than anything else? A number of doctors attending the annual American Medical Assn. clinic session here said the "late call" which gets them out of bed when they could have been called earlier.

Most of the doctors agreed that 11 p.m. seemed to be the peak hour for unnecessary calls.

Irish Expect Tough Battle From Ponies

By CHARLES CHAMBERLAIN

SOUTH BEND, Ind. (W)—Unbeaten Notre Dame may be in for some surprises in Saturday's football finale, says Irish scout Johnny Druze, who has been spying on Southern Methodist.

Druze is certain that the national television audience and the capacity crowd of 55,000 at Notre Dame Stadium will see a sensational, wide-open game.

"When those Texans make up their minds to do something they usually succeed," said Druze, a fellow not accustomed to talking with tongue in cheek.

"SMU has nothing to lose in this last game of the season and a great deal to gain by knocking us off. This in itself is a healthy situation for them."

"We've always found in the past that we can expect anything from SMU. Maybe I can throw away my scouting reports. They undoubtedly will throw stuff at us that they have been saving all season and no one has seen."

"We can expect spread formations, although I haven't seen them use one yet. They have backs who can be used in all kinds of combinations, although basically it's a tight T formation club with split T variations."

The Mustangs uncorked 45 passes to beat Notre Dame, 27-20, in 1951 their last meeting. But SMU under Coach Woody Woodard, is supposed to have a "new look" of a predominantly running team. They compiled a 5-4 record this season.

"They run well, but they also have a half dozen backs who can pass, including sophomore Hal O'Brien, a soupbaw," Druze said. "And they have a good defensive club, anchored by Don Goss, a 6-4 tackle who is listed at 245 pounds but is actually 270."

"This Goss is like a bird. He has great agility for a big guy, moving along the line with a knack of being at the right place on a play."

Although Druze would not admit it, Notre Dame also is expected to come up with some new stuff that could entail a lot of passing.

I-AAA Clubs Boast Excellent Overall Football Records

In the football season just completed, District I-AAA football teams showed a record of 18 wins against only eight losses and two ties against outside competition.

Of the 18 wins I-AAA teams registered, 11 were against a Class AAA team, five against AA competition and one against an out-of-state foe.

Conference clubs lost seven games to AAAA contingents, none to AAA 11s and one to an AA club. Sweetwater played ties against

STERLING CITY (SC) — Jerry Holland, a 192-pound super-charged halfback, made a race track of Sterling City's rain-drenched field to lead the Lohn Eagles to a 58-19 decision over the Klondike Cougars Tuesday night. The victory gave the Eagles the Region 2 six-man football crown for 1953.

Holland scored five touchdowns, the fourth play from scrimmage in the first quarter, which put the Eagles in front for keeps.

Gayle Doyal, no mean ball carrier himself, counted four touchdowns for the Eagles, and he got the second score of the game about midway of the first quarter. Then Holland skipped over from five yards out a few moments later to set Lohn up with a 20-0 advantage at the end of the first quarter, after Claude Russell had converted from placement after Doyal's touchdown.

The Cougars, under brilliant direction by their pint-sized quarterback, Stubby Dossy, were finally on the move as the first quarter ended and their efforts paid off early in the second quarter with a touchdown. Dossy himself carried over from the seven.

Before the half-time intermission, however, Holland had added two more touchdowns on runs of 57 and 28 yards, respectively, and Doyal went 68 yards for another, giving the Eagles a 38-6 lead at the half.

Although the Eagles started out as if they intended to intensify the rout in the third quarter, the Cougars gathered their forces and made a game of it the rest of the way.

After Holland got loose on a 40-yard touchdown run, Jerry Kimbell of Klondike picked up a free ball on the Lohn 20-yard line and went to the five before he was

Havana Meet Draws 29 Top Professionals

By BEN MEYER

HAVANA (AP)—The Havana Country Club's International Golf Tournament drew 29 of the top United States professionals today for the next to last chance for 1953 prize money.

Defending champion Dutch Harrison of Ardmore, Okla., took one look at the field and said: "I don't think I'll be able to win this year."

Some of Harrison's colleagues promptly dubbed him "the doleful drawer" and observed he is only a year older than last year when he won the tournament with a 17 under par 271. Par for the Havana course is 37-35-72.

There are 31 pros in all, including two from Havana, participating in the three-day pro-amateur tournament. Art Wall of Pocono Manor, Pa., is scheduled to tee off first.

Each pro plays with two amateurs three days or 54 holes. On Sunday the pros add up their three-day scores and play 18 holes more to decide who gets what part of the $15,000 prize money. Harrison said he thought maybe Jim Demaret of Kamesha Lake, N. Y., looked like a good bet to win.

The first half-dozen money winners among the pros are entered. They include Lew Worsham, No. 1, and Doug Ford, No. 2, on the money-winning list. Other entries number Marty Furgol, Walter Burkemo and Julius Boros.

18 Games This Week To Trim Grid Field

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Associated Press Sports Writer

Eighteen games Friday and six Saturday will cut the Texas schoolboy football field fighting for four state championships down to 24 teams.

Class AAAA, headlined by the clash of unbeaten Waco and Ray (Corpus Christi) at Waco Friday, will trim to its semi-finals and Odessa, Woodrow Wilson (Dallas), Waco and Port Arthur are expected to be the teams reaching the penultimate round. Odessa plays Bowie (El Paso), Woodrow meets Paschal (Fort Worth) and Port Arthur battles Lamar (Houston).

Class AAA also slashes to the semi-finals with the spotlight on the battle of Edison (San Antonio) and Edinburg, two undefeated, untied teams, at San Antonio Friday night. Edison is a mild favorite to win this one and push into the semi-finals against Temple.

Temple plays Port Neches at Port Neches Saturday heavily favored to win. In the other games Big Spring will be at Brownwood and Kilgore at Gainsville, with Brownwood and Kilgore considered most likely to come through.

Classes AA and A will be reaching the quarter-finals.

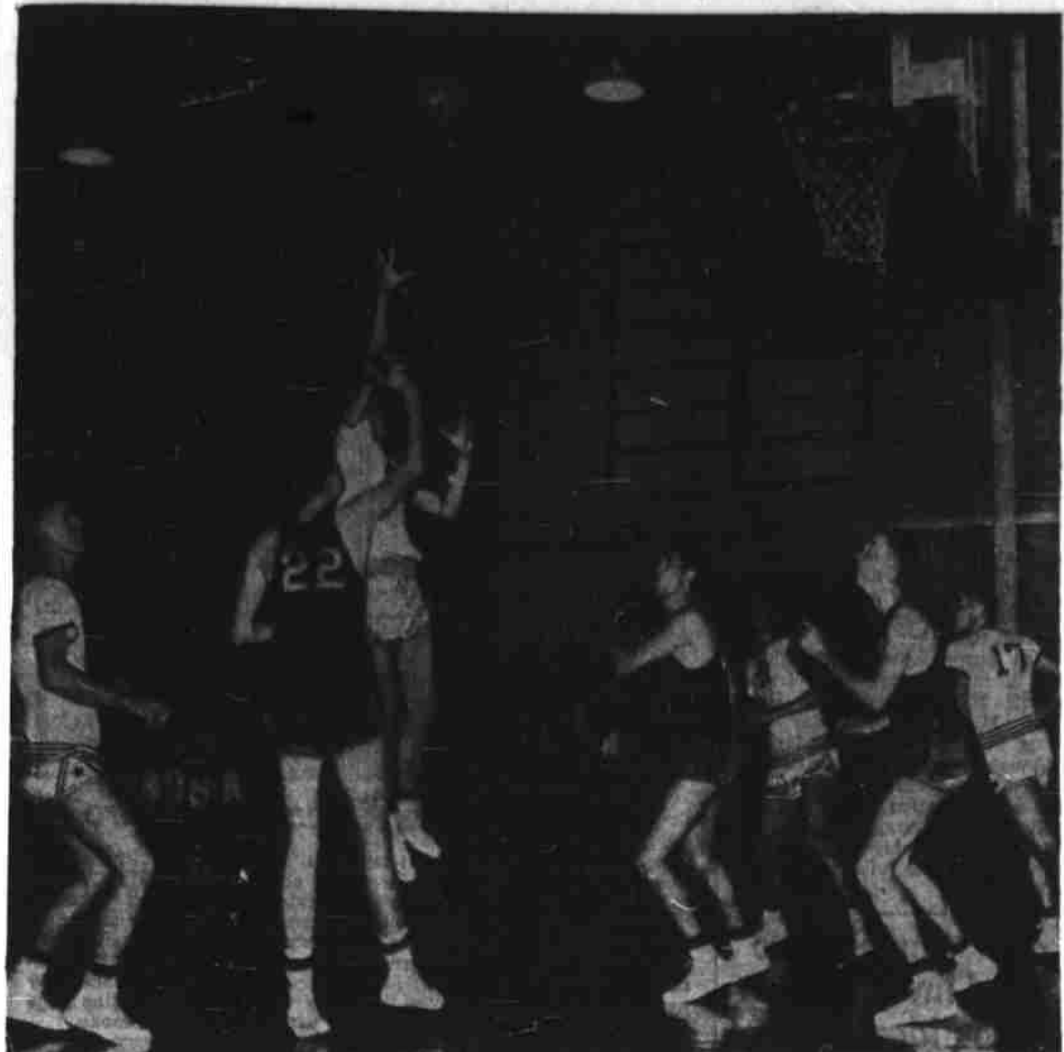

Top game of Class AA, which has 18 teams left, is Huntsville at Jasper. It's a battle of undefeated, untied powers from which an eventual finalist is expected to come.

Out in the West mighty Starford rolls against Phillips and Comanche, also undefeated and untied, takes on Hillcrest of Dallas. Terrell, the defending champion and favored to repeat, tackles Henderson.

Other Class AA games send Andrews against Ballinger, Lavega against Gonzales, Brenham against Nederland and Refugio against Weslaco.

Class A, which also has 16 teams left, features the fight of McCamey, a championship favorite with an unbeaten record, with Ranger, another tough West Texas eleven. They get together at McCamey Saturday.

Winning The Hard Way

The HCJC Jayhawks had their work cut out for them in their opening basketball game here Tuesday night but they pulled out all stops to defeat the HSU Buttons, 62-56. In the top photo, Jerold Farmer, Hawk co-captain, goes high for a basket. Jim Knotts (far left) watches intently while Bob Carlson (22) tries vainly to block the shot. Bob Benton is right in front of Farmer. No. 31 is P. D. Fletcher and No. 17 is Don Stevens. In the lower photo, Paschall Wickard (28) gets in close for a rebound along with the entire HSU team.

Strong Decatur '5' To Challenge Hawks

Sparked by victories over four strong opponents, the Decatur Baptist College basketball squad invades Jayhawk Gym tonight to contest Coach Harold Davis' Howard County Junior College five.

Decatur defeated Odessa Junior College last night, 71-57, and Tuesday night the visitors were victorious over a powerful Arlington State team, 47-46.

Earlier wins were at the expense of Clarendon, 66-51, and Weatherford, 77-70.

The Jayhawks also have a perfect record, having won their only game of the season by defeating the Hardin-Simmons freshmen, 62-55.

HCJC will enter tonight's game under a handicap, however, with two regulars due to see most of the game from the sidelines due to jammed fingers. Davis said this morning that Paschall Wickard stubbed a thumb in Tuesday's game and Tommy Patterson still is out with a jammed finger.

Reserve Ronald Anderson also is out of action with a hand injury. He suffered cuts on the thumb and forefinger of his shooting hand. Expected to be in the starting lineup for the Jayhawks tonight are Jim Knotts and Don Stevens at guard, Arlen White and P. D. Fletcher at forward, and Jerold Farmer in the pivot. Calvert Shortes also is expected to see considerable action.

Starters for the Decatur five, Coach Glen Morrison announced, will likely be Frankie Massey and Billy Howlett at forward, Lee Tate at center, Bill Springfield and Ansel Fortenberry at the guard spots.

Coach Morrison said Whipmy Barham, Jim Rich and Harold Cotton probably will play a lot of ball.

Coach Davis watched the Decatur-Odessa game and was particularly impressed by the work of Massey, Rich and Tate. Massey scored 39 points while Rich netted 22 counters. Tate dominated backboard play.

A "B" game also will be played tonight, starting at 6 p.m. Varsity tilt is set for 8 o'clock.

Davis said this morning that season reserve seat tickets will be available at the box office tonight at $7. Purchasers of season tickets who have not yet picked them up may secure the decats at the office tonight also.

Tulsa's Hurricane Trims HSU, 61-40

TULSA, Okla. (AP)—Hardin-Simmons University of Abilene, Tex., lost its second basketball game in as many starts last night as two Tulsa stars scored as many points as the whole Cowboy quintet.

The score: Tulsa University 61, H-SU 40.

Bob Patterson and Dick Nunneley of the Hurricane scored 40 points between them, Patterson getting 22 while Nunneley was ringing up 18.

Edison Tops AAA Forces In Final Poll For Year

DALLAS (AP)—Unbeaten Edison of San Antonio—first South Texas team to make the grade in three years—finished on top in the Dallas News' final statewide poll for Class AAA schoolboy football teams.

Edison nosed out Kilgore and Temple, tied for second.

Edison, which has been climbing steadily throughout the season, took over the No. 1 rating in the opinion of sportswriters after the season-long favorite, Texarkana, fell to Kilgore, 13-7, in a Thanksgiving Day tussle in which the District 4-AAA crown and a spot in the state playoffs was at stake.

The top ten in the final balloting:

1. Edison of San Antonio (7-AAA)
2. Temple (5-AAA) and Kilgore (5-AAA), tied.
3. Edinburg (8-AAA)
4. Big Spring (1-AAA)
5. Texarkana (4-AAA)
6. Brownwood (2-AAA)
7. Freeport (2-AAA)
8. Breckenridge (1-AAA)
9. Gainsville (3-AAA)
10. Rainsville (3-AAA)

Only two other teams received votes this week: Paris which knocked Sherman from the select list and a spot in the playoffs, 20-13, and Port Neches the District 6-AAA champion.

Texarkana, which had been on top for seven straight weeks, fell to sixth, as Kilgore jumped four places to a tie for second with Temple, which was rated third a week ago.

Edinburg, fourth, and Big Spring exchanged places after the West Texas team lost by one point, 14-13, to Sweetwater Thanksgiving.

Bevo Francis Goes To Garden Tonight

By BEN PHEGAR

NEW YORK (AP)—Bevo Francis brings Ohio hill country basketball to the big town tonight with the opening of the Madison Square Garden college season.

The 6-foot-9 scoring sensation and his teammates from Little Rio Grande College—smallest school ever to be represented in the Garden's 20 years of college basketball—take on Adelphi College of Garden City, N. Y., with St. John's of Brooklyn runner-up in last season's National Invitation Tournament facing Lafayette in the other game.

Under normal conditions the twin bill might attract upwards of 14,000 fans. But, because of the strike which has closed all New York newspapers, Francis will get a real test of his drawing power.

Anything above 10,000 will represent a personal boffice triumph for the gangling young man who in his freshman season averaged an amazing 50.1 points per game.

Football Coach At Conroe Steps Out

CONROE (AP)—E. Y. Steakley has resigned as head football coach at the high school here because of poor health, Supt. J. D. Wilkerson said yesterday.

Benson Due To Testify On Conservation Plan Changes

By B. L. LIVINGSTONE
WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of Agriculture Benson goes before a House group today to argue the case for his controversial reorganization of the Soil Conservation Service. Walter S. Davis Jr. of League City, Tex., one of the severest critics of the reorganization was slated to follow Benson as a witness before the House group. Davis and the National Assn. of Soil Conservation Districts which he heads earlier had denounced the changes effected by Benson, particularly abolition of seven regional soil conservation offices. Chairman Bender (R-Ohio) indicated the committee was standing clear of the dispute until all the arguments are in. "The purpose of the hearings is to provide a forum for both sides in the controversy," Bender told newsmen. "We want to prepare a record for Congress to consider when it returns in January.

"None of the committee has any preconceived notions, but I feel it is better to get both sides of the record because of the numerous protests which have come to Congress." Any action by Congress to repeal the organization would have to be by legislation subject to a presidential veto. Benson put the Agriculture Department reorganization into effect Nov. 2 over the protests of some farmers, conservationists, and members of Congress. Most of the controversy centered around that part of the plan which abolished the soil conservation regional offices, a move which Benson said would lead to strengthening state offices. Davis, who has contended abolition of seven regional offices of the Soil Conservation Service—one in Fort Worth—would hurt conservation work, issued a formal statement here yesterday. In it he said Benson had "officially rejected" his invitation to the principal speaker at the association's annual meeting in New Orleans next February.

Benson had been asked to explain his new plan at the meeting "in person." In a newsletter to association members, Davis said he had sent Benson a telegram congratulating him on a recent statement that conservation was one of the basic necessities of agriculture and promising to work with the secretary in making his program operate. Farm leaders interpreted this letter as a peace gesture to Benson. Davis, in the newsletter, said "it is now crystal clear that soil conservation districts have won an even greater victory than many of us realized a few short weeks ago."

The association in the meantime got word from Benson that a prison engagement made it impossible for him to appear at the New Orleans meeting. Benson thanked Davis for the invitation. In yesterday's statement, Davis said his telegram to Benson expressed "only congratulations on his statement that there was a need for a strong national program of soil and water conservation." He added that the reorganization plan put into effect by Benson "creates nothing but an administrative mess."

"It centralizes rather than decentralizes as Benson and his aides claim. The reorganization will greatly increase the cost of providing essential technical service to soil conservation districts."

McCARTHY

administration foreign policy. Dulles had said Tuesday that McCarthy's Nov. 24 speech struck at the very heart of administration foreign policy. Eisenhower, in a formal statement at his news conference yesterday, said he was in full accord with Dulles. While McCarthy apparently had no such intention, it appeared that he had indirectly brought on a reaction which may strengthen the administration in dealings with its Allies.

In the embassies of friendly nations here the unofficial but pervasive reaction to the Dulles-Eisenhower counterpunching was one of great satisfaction. The feeling was general that Eisenhower had improved the climate for his Bermuda talks, beginning Friday, with British Prime Minister Churchill and French Premier Laniel by yesterday's statement.

Many influential Western Europeans have voiced fear the administration was letting itself be pushed or goaded into a "get tough" policy which proud peoples, however dependent on American aid, resented.

Volunteers Aid Weather Bureau Do Its Work

By TEX EASLEY
WASHINGTON (AP)—Scattered throughout Texas are 800 volunteer observers, part of an army of 10,000 who help the Weather Bureau compile details of the nation's climate. While their reports are not used in daily forecasting by paid career employees at key locations, the volunteers' data is required for long-range predictions needed for farm and industrial purposes.

Between 1870 and 1891, when Congress established the Weather Bureau, observations were recorded mainly at military posts for basically Army use. Weather records were almost non-existent before 1870. With its funds limited, the Weather Bureau called for volunteers and supplied them with devices to record temperatures, rain and snowfalls and, in some cases, are still on the job, paid only in the satisfaction they get in rendering a public service. They spend about 15 minutes or more daily making calculations and preparing reports which usually are submitted monthly, weekly in some cases. It has been estimated that an observer over a 50-year period has contributed the equivalent of 570 full 8-hour days.

Among the 800 volunteers in Texas, 165 have been sending in reports 10 years or longer. Four have been serving 40 years or longer. The longest in service in Texas is Mrs. Pearl Smith of Brownwood, born in Waco April 9, 1880, who has been an active observer for 48 years. She's a great-grandmother.

Most Texas volunteers are farmers and ranchers, but some are small town business men. Mrs. Smith became the senior cooperative observer in Texas with the retirement of Judge H. E. Hays in Hondo March 31, 1951, after 52 years.

The second ranking volunteer in Texas is Michael Kangera of Henderson, 45 years. He operates a cotton business and farms in Rusk County.

R. M. Jones, a farmer at Clifton, ranks third with 41 years. W. S. Ownsby of Cleburne is fourth with 40 years service. ## Public Relations Stressed At New Mexico Oil Meet ALBUQUERQUE (AP)—Adm. H. B. Miller told oilmen to "shoot your story to the world" as the New Mexico Oil and Gas Assn. met yesterday.

The New York City executive director of the American Petroleum Institute told Oklahoma, Texas and New Mexico oilmen of the importance of public relations in the giant industry. "The American people," Miller said, "don't realize what a magnificent job you have done. They don't appreciate that there might be shortages when they drive up to a filling station if the government climate were less favorable to the industry."

Charles H. Lyons, Shreveport, La. president of the Independent Petroleum Association of America, said the "domestic industry could not be maintained in a strong and healthy condition if imports were to absorb an increasing percentage of the American market." Lyons warned oil from foreign countries could not be depended on to cross oceans for use in the United States in event of war. If imports are too large, he said, the industry in this country would be crippled to the extent that it would "lack capital with which to conduct aggressive exploration and drilling operations."

Rex G. Baker, vice president and general counsel for Humble Oil and Refining Co., warned the delegates that Federal Power Commission regulation of the price of natural gas at the well head would "dry up" the nation's supplies of natural gas.

$125 Taken In Package Store Robbery Here

Two men armed with a pistol robbed the Handy Liquor Store on East Highway 80 of $125 about 6:45 p.m. Wednesday.

It was the second armed robbery in the city in two days. Tuesday night a man and a woman held up a service station at 500 West Third and escaped with $40.

The gunmen last night left the liquor store on foot after robbing Charles Diese who was in charge of the establishment at the time. Diese told Sheriff Jess Slaughter that both men appeared to be about 35 years of age. Both were in need of shaves and wore overcoats. One of the coats was dark colored, the other light.

Two suspects were brought to Big Spring last night by Deputy Sheriff Miller Harris and Police Capt. Milton Kirby. They were being held in city jail today.

Slaughter said two other suspects also were arrested, but apparently had no connection with the crime. Two persons were arrested and released Wednesday as officers investigated the service station robbery.

Local Woman Who Aided Investigation Is Not Identified

Sheriff Jess Slaughter said today he doesn't know identity of the "Big Spring housewife" that Sheriff Harlon Wright of Fort Worth says "helped" in the investigation of the death of Patricia Ann Harmon.

Slaughter said the Big Spring woman came to him after the body of the Harmon woman was found in Lake Benbrook (Fort Worth) last week and said that "she knew the girl and knew some people she knew." The local sheriff said the woman refused to tell her name. He said he arranged for the woman to meet Sheriff Wright here, but that when Wright arrived in Big Spring they learned the woman had gone to Fort Worth.

Apparently the Tarrant County sheriff and the woman got together later in Fort Worth. Wright said yesterday that the Big Spring "housewife" has helped in the investigation. Body of Patricia Ann Harmon was found bound in chains near Benbrook Dam on Thanksgiving day. Wright also said yesterday "we still don't know who the killer is."

miles northeast of Bryan. E. C. Harrison and his sister, Miss Nona Harrison, reported they saw a black funnel headed toward their farm late about 3:30 p.m. and jumped in the car to run away from it. The twister completely demolished their home, tossed their clothing in trees, made matchsticks of the furniture and left every chicken in the yard dead. The Harrisons got 75 yards away and escaped without injury. Several citizens of Bryan also reported seeing the black funnel clouds in the area.

The tornadoes Wednesday killed a 65-year-old woman and her infant grandson when it picked up a four-room tenant house near Washington - on - the - Brazos, where—in 1936—Texans declared their independence from Mexico. The dead were Mrs. Elberta Carter and Elbert Crawford. Five others in the house were injured. At least 18 other persons were injured when tornadoes dropped their black funnels onto Lufkin, Humble, Seguin, Tanglewood, Humble and Lane City. Damage, despite the veritable barrage of tornadoes, was comparatively light.

The Weather Bureau warned Tuesday Wednesday night that other tornadoes were possible in areas bounded by Lufkin, Tyler, Mineral Wells, Wichita Falls, and Sherman. But none were reported.

Rain was plentiful ahead of the front and up to five inches was reported Tuesday night in Central Texas. High water closed State Highway 75 between Taylor and Elgin and a farm road between Taylor and Lexington. ## Gouzenko Hearing Agreed On Canadian Stipulations

By JOHN CHADWICK
WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate internal security subcommittee went ahead with public hearings in Washington today after accepting the Canadian government's terms for a secret interview with Igor Gouzenko in Canada.

At today's Communist-in-government hearing the subcommittee expected to receive Justice Department records showing when FBI reports were sent to federal officials on some of the late Harry Dexter White's associates in the Treasury Department. Information of this nature was sought on V. Frank Coe, Victor Perlo and Solomon Adler—all of whom, like White, have been named before the subcommittee as sometime members of a Soviet spy network within the government.

Atty. Gen. Brownell touched off the investigations Nov. 6 when he charged former President Truman promoted White in 1946 in the face of FBI reports linking White to Russian espionage. Subcommittee Chairman Jenner (R-Ind) announced the decision on Gouzenko late yesterday after a meeting in his office.

The senator made public a letter to Secretary of State Dulles asking that secret arrangements be made for the interview so that Gouzenko's security would be protected. Gouzenko fled from the Soviet Embassy in Ottawa, where he had been a code clerk, in September 1945, and tipped off Canadian authorities to a Russian spy ring operating in Canada with contacts in the United States. He has been living in Canada in anonymity under protection of the Royal Mounted Police. Whether Gouzenko will agree to being questioned by the subcommittee is in doubt. He was quoted earlier this week as saying he would decline to be interviewed for fear of jeopardizing the safety of his wife, two children and himself. Authorities at Ottawa said last night the Mounted Police would find out from Gouzenko whether he is willing to be questioned.

He told the Mounties last Oct. 27 he has no new information, but subsequently he made a statement in which he said he felt he could give the Jenner subcommittee some useful advice. The Canadian government has also specified that the questioning must be under Canadian auspices and that any information so obtained can be made public only with the approval of Canadian authorities.

Jenner had objected to this last condition but, after Dulles sided with Canada on the point, he announced the subcommittee had decided to accept the Canadian terms.

He said one reason for wanting to question Gouzenko was to find out if he has information that might disclose a new spy ring in this government.

MILITARY

blame for yielding to popular and "political pressure" in adopting after World War II policies which served to diminish the distinction between ranks and to force officers and enlisted men into a "common social pattern."

4. There should be prompt restoration of fringe benefits and an end to what the report called "withdrawing away of extra which military men have traditionally considered to be part of their income. On this point the report stated that "pressure groups of business interests have emasculated many of these benefits," and that the benefits have been the "continuous targets of congressional economy attacks." The report concluded that fringe benefits must be fully restored, declared by law to be a part of service pay, and in some cases increased.

Among these fringe benefits the committee listed incentive and hazardous duty pay, sea and foreign duty pay, medical and dental care for dependents, better and cheaper housing and more provision for the education of service children.

The committee said its analysis of difficulties and recommended solutions concerned only the "hard core" of professional officers and noncommissioned officers. As for draftees, reservists and volunteers in time of emergency or war, the report had this to say:

"So long as the unstable international political situation requires some form of military service from virtually every eligible young man in this country, there will be no dearth of numbers who, for personal advantage, temporarily desire to affiliate themselves with this hard core."
