PURELY PERSONAL
by John

One of our farm neighbors slipped us this editorial taken from the "Cincinnati Enquirer" which was distributed by the Dallas Morning News following the recent meat boycott. It hits us rural thinkers right smack dab in the middle, and we can only say "hooray" for somebody East of the Mississippi River.

Our comment to this is that in addition to all the "attributes" ascribed to the urban housewife in this editorial, she also ought to try buying groceries in other countries to see what portion of income overseas goes to the bread and butter department. It's a dang sight more than in the good ole U.S. of A.

The editorial is quoted as follows:

HUNGRY HON?
EAT YOUR HEART OUT!

It would serve this country's whining, complaining, penny-wise and pound-foolish housewives right if all the farmers started selling everything they produce to foreign housewives.

The typical modern American urban housewife, for all of her virtues - real or imagined - is a short-sighted, lazy, pampered little ingrate whose primary interests are her underarms, her hair, her hands, her hips, her over-indulged and overeducated children, her overweight and overpaid husband and the next thrilling episode of "General Hospital" - in that order.

A hard day's work in a grocery or a bakery would do her a lot of good. So would taking over the duties of a farm wife for a while. Maybe then she'd realize that these people have a right to make a decent living just as much as her union scale husband.

Whoever gave the urban housewife the idea that she's the only damned person in the world having a hard time making ends meet? When was the last time she had to send her kids off to school with a couple of cold biscuits and a hunk of fatback to hold them until suppertime, or flopped down, bone-weary after working from sunup to sundown, and worried about whether the frost was going to kill the money crop?

While milady of the suburbs is soaking in her tub in her Better Homes & Gardens bathroom, thousands of farm wives are scraping off the dirt of an honest day's toil in a galvanized laundry tub. And while Miss City-britches is spraying on $10 worth of deodorant, skin softener, hair spray, and assorted beauty crap, the average farm wife is counting her blessings because she was able to swing for a bottle of Cornhusker's lotion and some Absorbine Junior.

If the urban housewife would stop organizing food boycotts and shovel a little cow manure, maybe she'd learn where milk comes from and how much work is involved before she strains herself ripping open that little waxed carton.

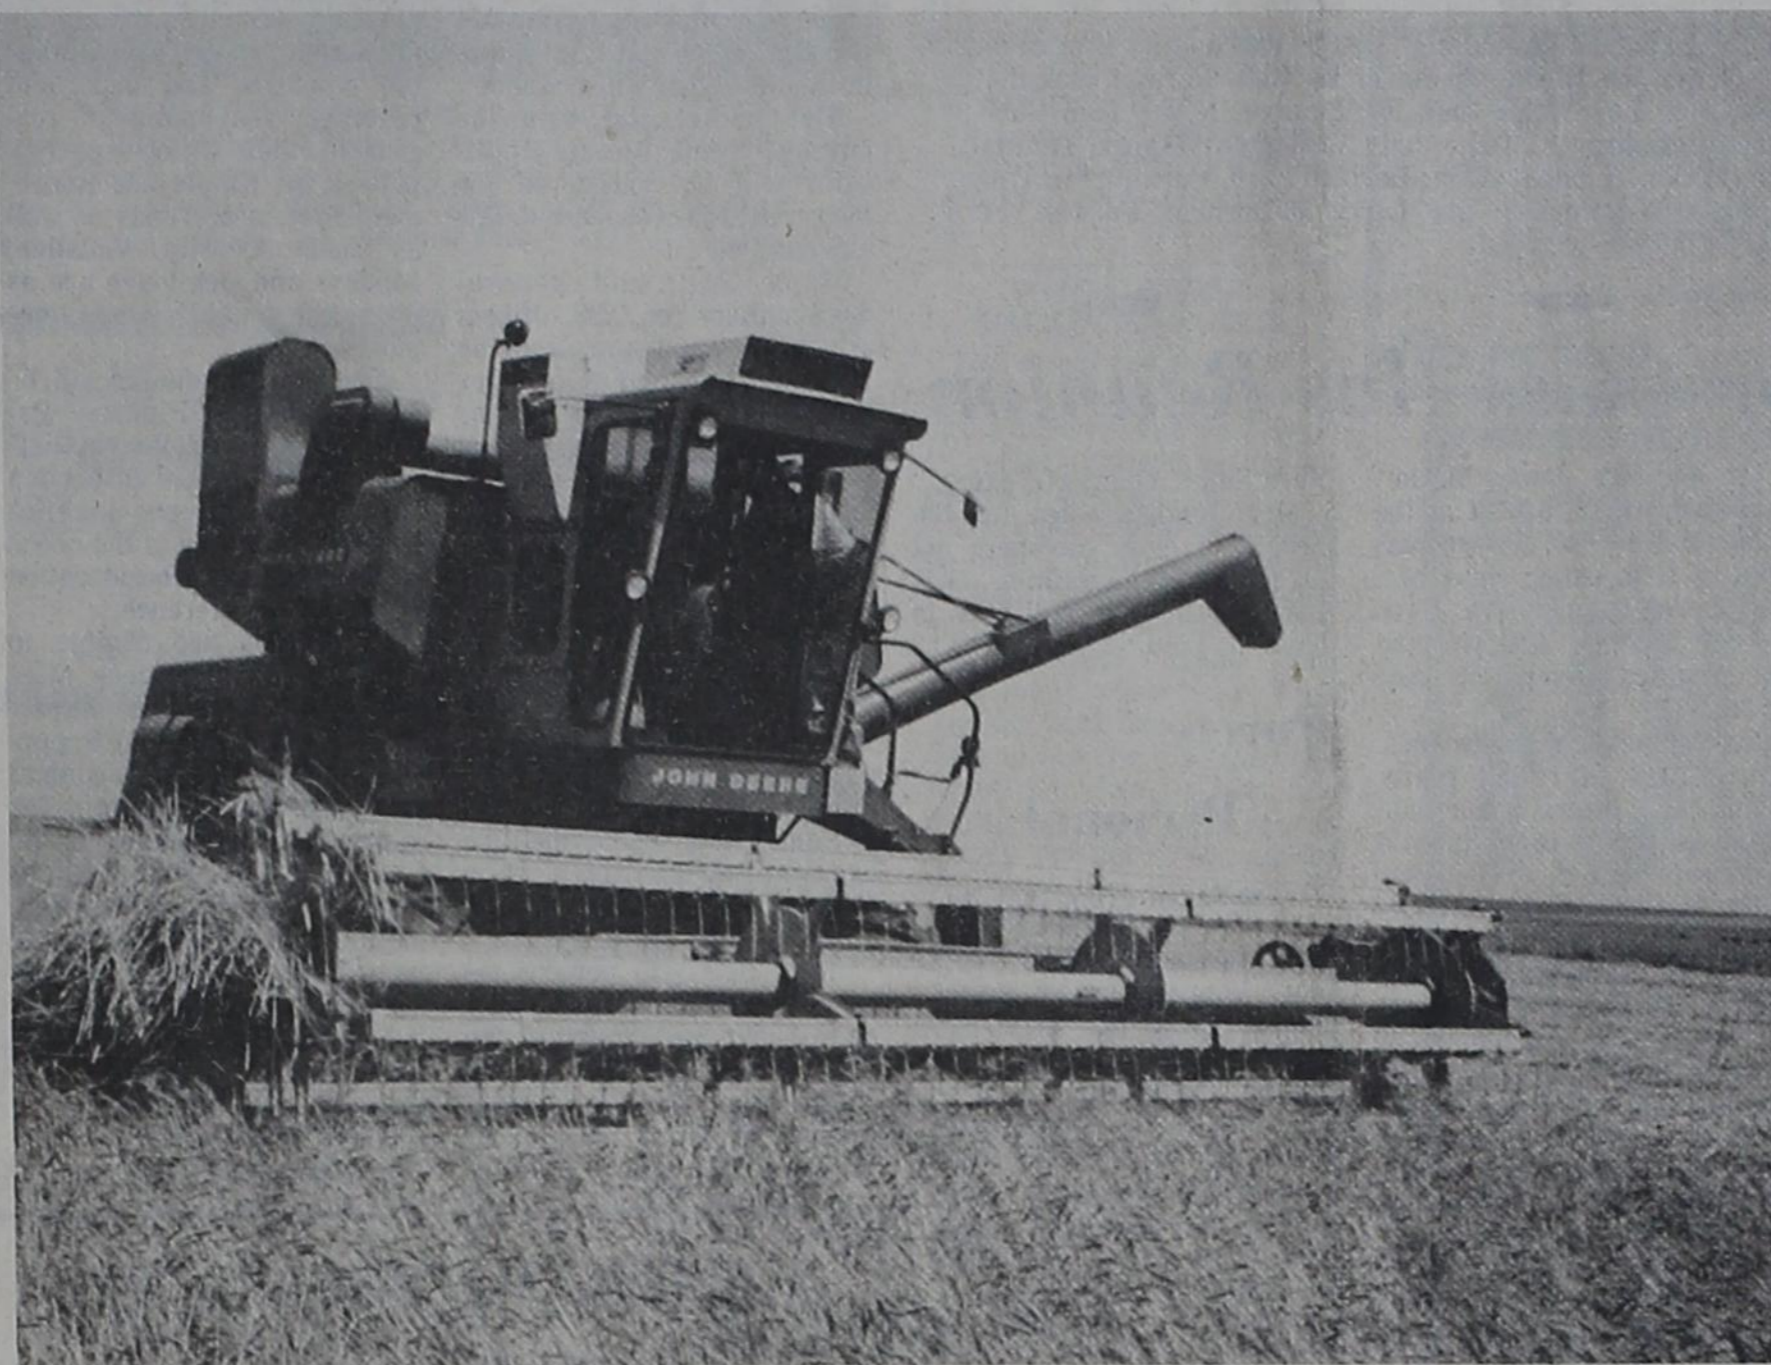

Boycott a grocery? Not me, sister. I still can remember how many people would have starved in this country if the independent grocers hadn't carried them on credit during the Depression.

Wise up! All that pretty food and those nice cuts of meat didn't just appear in the market in a blinding flash of sparkledust. Millions of people have worked their tails off to put it in there for you - butchers, bakers, clerks, laborers, farmers, truck drivers, accountants, filling station attendants, and hundreds of other occupations. These people have dreams, too. They pay rent and taxes just like you do. And they deserve to make just as good a living as you do. Why single them out for destruction?

Why not your husband, the account executive? Why not your husband, the plumber? Why not your husband, the doctor? Why not your husband, the lawyer? Or why not - God help you - your husband, the newspaper writer?

You sit there in front of your color TV set, with a $3,000 car in the garage, smelling like the Garden of Eden and looking 10 years younger than you are.

AREA COMBINES ROLL - A familiar scene in the Twin Cities vicinity has been the combine. For the past several weeks this combine and many like it have been gathering this year's wheat crop. Farmers are happy to report the machines are harvesting larger yields per acre than experienced in the past 10 to 12 years on dryland farms. Irrigated yields are relatively stable and most have been in the 60-65 bushel per acre category. Market price for wheat is approximately one dollar per bushel better than last year and this factor, along with larger yields, gives rise to some jubilation.

Dryland Bumper Crop - -

Harvest Produces Big Yields, Income

The High Plains area bustles with activity nowadays as wheat harvest has come. Combines hurry to reap the crop in the hot, daytime hours. However, bountiful fields cause their duties to extend beyond the setting of the sun. The lighted monsters dot the countryside as they lumber through fields harvesting into the early morning hours.

The only break in the action thus far has been of mother nature's doing, caused by a rain shower last week. Otherwise, the harvesters have only to wait for the morning dew, should there be any, to evaporate before firing their engines in quest of the next field.

The farmer has mixed emotions regarding the harvest. The drylanders have experienced a bumper crop which gives rise to jubilation. Elevator operators report the dryland yield is two to three times better this year with yields averaging 30-35 bushels per acre. Reportedly, irrigated crops are running slightly behind last year's bushels per acre output but average anywhere from 60 to 62½ pounds per bushel.

The various elevators report similar yields of irrigated crops. Curtis Smith at Worley's cites 65 bushels an acre for its top irrigated yield. Fred Chandler at Sherley-Anderson-Pitman reports test weights to be running from 60-62½ pounds per bushel for the top grade yields. Farwell Grain Exchange's testing generally concurs and rates most samples over the 60-pound-per-bushel mark.

Asa Smith at Sherley-Anderson's Lariat elevator reports nearly like results as Farwell's elevators. He stated that irrigated wheat did not yield as well as in past years. A reading of 60 bushels was about the best with an average of 40-52 bushels. Dryland wheat is being harvested at anywhere from 5-52 bushels, culled and dried. The test weight average is not as good as last year's, however, and reported and average of 60 pounds per bushel.

According to the elevator manager, farmers felt irrigated crops had received too much moisture. The yields were smaller because the wheat rooted-out for natural water and the ground dried before irrigation was begun again. Good yields north of the railroad in the Oklahoma Lane area were reported.

The farmers' efforts have not gone unrewarded as the market is up by a dollar over last year's. The price has not been as steady as the steadiness of the No. 1 rated yields, and has fluctuated in a 24-cent spread. The lowest reported figure has been $2.28 per bushel and the highest has been $2.52. As of Monday morning, the market was at the $2.34 per bushel level.

Though most reports have been quite favorable, it is generally believed the Bovina highway area is producing bigger yields. This is the dryland year however, and, according to Curtis Smith, the dryland bumper crop has "produced more wheat at the present time than the entire dryland harvest of last year".

Frona Dedicates First City Historical Marker

The City of Frona was to dedicate its first historical marker during a ceremony Wednesday, July 4, in Frona City Park. The marker will be placed at the roadside park at the east edge of Frona on Highway 60.

Hugh Moseley, Parmer County Tax Assessor-Collector from Farwell and chairman of the County Historical Committee, was to be on hand for the ceremony.

The "City of Frona" marker will read: "Originally called Frio, after Frio (Cold) Draw, when established by XIT Ranch, in 1898, as a shipping point on recently built Pecos & Northern Texas Railroad.

"In 1906, the George G. Wright Land Co. took options on the area lands and initiated a colonization project, promising fertile land and a healthful climate to attract prospective settlers from Ohio to Kansas, and erecting a hotel, livery stable and bank.

"Name was changed to Frona when the post office opened, March 16, 1907, with Sarah D. Olson, Postmaster. The first organized church was Union Congregational Church, June, 1907. School opened in 1908 and was one of first districts in Texas to use buses, in 1917.

"A controversy between Frona and Farwell over location of the county seat led to an election in 1913, won by Farwell, contested by Frona, and settled in 1916, by a court ruling favoring Farwell. By this time, S. A. Harris was publishing a newspaper, the Frona "Sentinel". The city was incorporated in 1928, and John W. White elected mayor.

"Now a regional marketing center for agricultural and beef products, Frona claims the distinction of 'Grain Sorghum Capital of the World'."

Attend Confab

Mr. and Mrs. I. W. Quickel and Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Warren, Alan and Kittie, returned home this weekend after spending last week in Corpus Christi.

Mrs. Quickel and Mrs. Warren attended the Texas County and District Clerks' Association Conference Wednesday through Friday, June 27-29.

The Warrens also visited with Mrs. Warren's brother before attending the conference.

Texico Gets Grant For Sewer Plant

After a five-year wait, the City of Texico has received a $16,500 grant for the construction of new wastewater facilities. The money has been allocated by the Environmental Protection Agency.

Arthur W. Busch, EPA Region VI Administrator, said the EPA grant represents 75 percent of the project's eligible cost of $22,000 as provided by 1972 amendments to the Federal Water Pollution Control Act.

Mrs. Clara Wiehl, Texico city clerk, said the city and the state of New Mexico would make up the remaining funds to finance the total project.

According to Mrs. Wiehl, one of the first letters sent to the Agency asking for a grant concerning the city's sewer plant was dated April, 1968. She said lagoons were finished by the city in 1954, but were not used pending the allocation of the grant.

She noted that city officials had expected the grant to come through each year and that the city's wastes were diverted to an open cesspool during the wait. She said she expected it to be approximately six months before the project gets started.

She said the city's present sewer plant had been inoperable for about three years. Ralph Douglass of Lubbock has been designated as engineer for the project.

The project includes two five-horsepower, flowing aerators, a first stage pond and two 1.5 acre lagoons three feet in depth.

Busch said the project would improve water quality, minimize health hazards and provide for orderly development in keeping with EPA programs to clean up the environment.

The Consumer Alert

by John L. Hill
Attorney General

AUSTIN - If you ask the average family physician to help you solve the problem of overweight, he's likely to respond with enthusiastic encouragement, and a diet program tailored to your individual health needs.

But he won't guarantee any specific weight loss, because he knows that each body type has its own way of metabolizing.

That doesn't satisfy the craving some people have for "instant beauty," so they are quickly attracted to the advertisements which claim, "Lose 20 pounds in 20 days." Many become disillusioned when they don't shed the pounds like the "before" and "after" model whose photographs were shown in the ad.

But wait a minute: Were those "before" and "after" pictures really of the same person? Or, was one photo taken in poor lighting while the subject slumped to increase the girth of abdomen, and the other photo taken under glamor conditions - with tummy sucked in, chin up, and chest out?

The Attorney General's Consumer Protection Division has received many complaints about operations of some "health studios" which specialize in claims of an almost-instant metamorphosis for the overweight person.

Through our own investigations, we have found that sometimes the photographs are misleading.

And other deceptive trade practices by some health spa operators are being uncovered in state and federal complaint follow-ups.

Owners of legitimately-operated health salons are cooperating in the investigations. And there are many of these establishments which do serve a useful and healthful purpose.

After all, the average person - especially, the average overweight person - lacks the intense discipline required to monitor his or her eating habits, and stick to an exacting program of exercise. And they can use a little "group therapy" to keep them inspired in the war against unwanted pounds.

Unfortunately, they are sometimes prey to the type of operator who would promise them anything, and too often, the result is a flattened wallet, instead of a trim figure.

Some of the deceptive practices you should be on the watch for include:

-The "Bait-and-switch" tactic, in which the operator advertises a claim that his studio can rid you of "10 pounds in 10 days" or "20 pounds in 20 days" (there seems to be a magic in twice-repeated numbers), but when the consumer goes to sign up for the quick course, she is talked out of that, and talked into a more expensive long-term contract.

-The advertised inference that the facilities will be there for you to use at your convenience. Often, it is discovered, the times are very limited, and if your own schedule changes, you may not be able to take advantage of the program for which you've paid.

-The heavy pressure to buy a "life" contract. One man paid a rather high sum for a "life" contract, and when he died a few days late - never having taken one treatment, his family was unable to get any refund. Others have complained that they started a course, but had to drop out at their physicians' insistence, and could not get a proportionate refund.

-Claims that passive exercise devices automatically can produce weight loss. The Federal Trade Commission declares that is misleading.

If you're considering the idea of enrolling in a health club, take enough time to see just what you'd be getting.

Visit the place during its business hours, without an appointment. Talk to some of the members. One question to ask would be what sort of attention they actually receive. The claim of "personalized care" sometimes is not carried out.

Inspect the equipment. Look over the studio to see if it is well-run and sanitary.

Inspect the contract you are offered if you do decide to join. There have been complaints that the consumers signed "applications" to try out a facility, and later learned that they really had signed a tight contract, committing them to long-term payments.

If you have reason to believe you are being deceived, do not hesitate to get in touch with your local better business bureau, your district or county attorney, or the Attorney General's Consumer Protection Division.

The 1960 graduating class of Farwell High School had its first class reunion Saturday, June 30, on the patio of the Joe Hughes home in Farwell.

A steer head was placed on a bulletin board and pictures of the class members' children were displayed. Mrs. Ruby Hillock Harper of Cordell, Okla., and Mrs. Linda Geries of Farwell were unable to attend, but they sent pictures for the bulletin board.

A contest was planned to see who could guess to whom the children belonged, but no one could resist telling which pictures were their children, said Mrs. Hughes.

Loyd Cain showed home movies of a Junior class trip, a band trip and the Senior class trip to Colorado. Many laughs and comments of "Who's Hukill Hutson of Bridger, that?" were heard, Mrs. Mont., Martha Blair Ayers of Grover, Tex., Judy Herington Wagner of Dimmitt, Joe Hughes of Farwell, Janice Hillock Cain of Albuquerque, reunion which the class hopes to have before the lapse of another 13 years.

Mr. and Mrs. James McDorman dropped in to visit at the reunion. They were class parents in 1960. Other class parents were Mr. and Mrs. Uvon Ford of Farwell and Mr. and Mrs. James Ussery of Lubbock.

Refreshments of sandwiches, chips, dips, a relish plate, melon balls, brownies and date bars, coffee, lemonade and pops were served.

The class decided to have its next reunion during Border Town Days celebration in the future. It was also discussed that perhaps an era reunion of the late 1950s and early 1960s might be staged at that time.

Class members attending were Loyd Allan Cain of Ft. Sumner, N.M., Joan Hubbell Johnson of Farwell, Carol Hukill Hutson of Bridger, that?" were heard, Mrs. Mont., Martha Blair Ayers of Grover, Tex., Judy Herington Wagner of Dimmitt, Joe Hughes of Farwell, Janice Hillock Cain of Albuquerque, reunion which the class hopes to have before the lapse of another 13 years.

Fern Smith Tharp of Texico.

Mrs. Hughes notes for the benefit of class members not attending the reunion that Larry McDorman still likes to have his picture taken.

Applicants Sought For Texas DPS Positions

The Texas Department of Public Safety is actively recruiting applicants to fill the ranks of its uniformed services. Major C. W. Bell, Regional Commander of the DPS, announced that the training school for new uniformed law enforcement personnel will begin Sept. 25.

The Major noted that the DPS has been increasingly successful in recruiting persons from minority groups to these positions and said efforts in this direction will continue.

Also in keeping with the current trend, female applicants will be considered for these rewarding careers in law enforcement.

Major Bell said general qualifications for DPS officers are these: applicants must be 20 through 35 years of age; height not less than 68 inches; weight not less than two pounds per inch of height; visual acuity of 20/40 correctable to 20/20; and a minimum of 45 semester hours of college credit.

Applications may be obtained by contacting any DPS employee or any DPS office. The completed application form should be taken to offices in Lubbock, Amarillo or Wichita Falls where the competitive examination is given each Tuesday and Wednesday at 9 a.m.

Major Bell said persons selected as cadets will be assigned to Austin for training at the DPS Academy. The salary during training will be $625 per month. Upon being commissioned the salary is raised to $719 monthly with the opportunity to advance to $848 per month.

Uniformed personnel receive additional longevity pay for each five years of service to 25 years. They are also granted a monthly uniform cleaning allowance, and receive travel expenses when away from their station.

Uniforms, vehicles, weapons, ammunition and related equipment are furnished. Group life and hospitalization are paid for the employee and dependent coverage is available at reasonable rates. Officers participate in the Employees Retirement System of Texas as well as Social Security. Vacation, holidays and sick leave are as provided for all State employees.

Successful graduates will be assigned to the Highway Patrol, License and Weight Service, Motor Vehicle Inspection Service, or Drivers License Service, according to the needs of the DPS and consideration of personal preference.

All officers are eligible to compete for promotions after two years of service. Experienced uniformed DPS personnel interested in criminal investigation may apply for appointment to positions in the Criminal Law Enforcement Division, which includes Narcotics, Intelligence, Motor Vehicle Theft and Texas Ranger services as vacancies occur.

Arrangements will be made for a physical examination. A character investigation will be conducted and those persons who are accepted for employment will be notified prior to the beginning of the September recruit school.

Parmer, Panhandle Are Top Beef Contributors

"The Panhandle contributed more than 70% of the Texas cattle and calf production in 1972," Agricultural Commissioner John C. White reports. Texas has more than twice as many cattle and calves and three times more beef cows than the second place state. The cattle and calf population for Texas as of Jan. 1 this year totaled 15,350,000 head. "Our human population and the cattle and calf population for Texas in years past has pretty well been about equal. But this past year, our cattle population showed a huge increase, about 2,500,000 over 1972," White said. Beef cows numbered 6,320,000 in Texas contrasted to 2,283,000 head of second-place Oklahoma.

Texas is also first in the nation in cattle on feed. Last year, about 4,300,000 head of cattle were fed out in Texas; this year, it's expected the figure will top 4,500,000 head.

The past two years, Parmer County has been in the top 10 counties in cattle and calves plus cattle on feed, in Texas.

Parmer increased its 71 production total of 192,000 cattle and calves to 251,000 in 1972. Cattle on feed in 1971 totaled 136,000 contrasted to 187,000 for cattle on feed on Jan. 1, 1973.

Livestock sales made considerable progress even though bad weather killed about 50,000 head of cattle throughout Texas.

The state ranks ninth in the nation in milk cow numbers with a total of 360,000 head.

The only area of livestock production in which Texas is not in the top 10 is in swine. Texas is 14th in total numbers of swine, the same spot it held in 1972. "But I believe we are going to see Texas soon in the top 10 states in hog production," White said.

At Home In Parmer County

By Jana Pronger
County HD Agent

Kitchen knives often perform deeds they weren't designed to do.

For example, sometimes they remove staples, open cans or pry up lids. Such misuses frequently result in injuries.

Likewise, using the wrong knife for a task can lead to injuries.

Each piece of kitchen cutlery was designed for some specific job - and should be used for only that task.

Utilize paring knives for peeling, scraping and various small tasks.

When slicing, dicing and coring vegetables - or trimming and scoring some meats - use a utility or trimmer knife.

A hefty butcher knife should be capable of dealing with stubborn joints or other hard-to-cut objects.

Carving knives are ideal for cutting hot meats and poultry. Many common knife injuries stem from slips. Avoid slips by gripping the handle firmly and cut away from your hand or thumb. Above all, concentrate - inattention invites trouble.

Since sharp knives are less likely to slip, keep all cutlery sharp. A dull knife requires extra pressure - and when force overcomes resistance, the blade moves suddenly and unexpectedly.

As another precaution, stand or sit in one location when using a knife - don't move around the kitchen with knife in hand.

Common sense in using these kitchen utensils is another defense against accidents.

Snacks which are tasty and easy to prepare, yet nutritious, serve a dual purpose, since they provide calories as well as good food value. The practice of serving and eating snacks which are too sweet or starchy often result in obesity and poor nutrition.

SHORT SNORTS
A proposed constitutional amendment providing for an annual legislative sessions and a $15,000 salary for lawmakers has been cleared for a November 6 statewide election.

Both houses of the Legislature also have agreed to a bill overhauling workmen's compensation laws and raising maximum benefits to $63 a week starting September 1.

Legislation giving 18-20-year-olds full majority rights was amended in the House to restrict drinking and abortions until age 21.

MONEY-SAVING MARKET SELECTION
The money-saving secret is to shop carefully, using ads to locate specials and best buys. It certainly pays to be an informed shopper.

The most tender cuts make up only a small proportion of the beef carcass and are in the greatest demand. Therefore, they command a higher price than many other cuts. Less familiar cuts that are less in demand are more attractively priced. For example, beef cuts from the chuck and round, usually are more economical than those from the tender rib or sirloin section.

A report on two history-making grain movements

Two "Backbreakers" BACK-TO-BACK

1. The huge export grain movement

(Santa Fe can report "mission accomplished" for moving its share of grain to Russia - just one phase of the big export job!)

2. The largest winter wheat harvest in history along the Santa Fe

(Now getting underway)

Moving millions of bushels of grain is a big job. To move it in a limited time period while the economy is booming and all shippers calling for more cars and service, makes these huge transportation projects "BACKBREAKERS."

Santa Fe is setting records meeting current demands for service, but no backs are being broken. For example, since last August Santa Fe has moved over 150,000 carloads of grain, a 50% increase in shipments. That's a staggering amount, but it's only part of the story.

With no prior notice to the rail industry to make special preparations, the Russian grain movement of 400-MILLION bushels was announced last year with a completion deadline of May 31, 1973. At the same time even many more millions of bushels were also being exported to other nations.

What Santa Fe did. Starting with a transportation system in excellent condition, Santa Fe people put their "know how" and all facilities in full throttle position.

2,000 new jumbo covered hopper cars were added to bring Santa Fe's fleet to 12,000, the largest in the rail industry.

4,100 smaller covered hopper cars were drafted for use, too, as well as regular box cars. Open-top hoppers not normally used for grain were also employed. In addition 64 new diesels are now hard at work moving the record traffic volume.

Even with all of this, special measures were worked out at considerable expense to the Santa Fe for handling cars to minimize port congestion and keep the railroad fluid.

Santa Fe can report "mission accomplished" for handling its share of the grain to Russia, and we still have other export grain to move, but the big job now ahead is moving this year's harvest.

Largest wheat harvest along the Santa Fe. 687-MILLION bushels
The harvest extends from Texas, across Oklahoma, Kansas, into Colorado and New Mexico. It is already started. It is a vast project and the Santa Fe job is to move the wheat to elevators during the brief period of harvest time.

What Santa Fe is striving for principally is more efficient car utilization, faster yard operations and the best possible use of locomotives to move the grain while keeping all freight rolling.

It's a job that can't be done without the help of everyone in the grain industry and cooperation of all shippers. With everyone working together, two of the greatest moves ever recorded in the history of rail transportation will be accomplished. . . the huge multi-million bushel export grain movement and the largest harvest in history along the Santa Fe. Two "BACKBREAKERS," back-to-back, with Santa Fe putting its best efforts into getting the job done.

Santa Fe employees who have worked long and hard on the export wheat project, are now focusing all efforts on the new harvest.

The harvest moves at a record pace with Santa Fe kept busy hauling the new grain to elevators and milling centers.

2,000 new jumbo covered hoppers bring Santa Fe's fleet to 12,000. These giant cars are ideal for moving grains, potash and other bulk commodities.

Terry Madden, Billy Brigham Wed In Double Ring Ceremony

Terry Sue Madden, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Madden of Texico, became the bride of Billy Brigham, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Brigham of Farwell, June 16 at First Baptist Church in Texico.

Rev. John Summers led the couple in the double ring ceremony before an altar centered with a 15-branch candelabrum and nine-branch candelabra on either side. They held white tapers. Palms and greenery completed the altar setting.

The couple used a single kneeling bench covered with white satin during the ceremony. White satin bows decked family pews and the aisle was covered with a white cloth.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a long gown of taffeta with a sheer overlay appliqued with lace mother-roses accented with mother-of-pearl sequins. The gown featured an empire bodice trimmed with a small bow at center front and back, a chapel train, a round neckline and cap sleeves of two-tiered lace. Her veil of illusion was edged in lace and was held by a petal crown encrusted with seed pearls and sequins. She carried a single white orchid trimmed with long white streamers tied in love knots and accented with pearls atop a bride's Bible, which was given to her by the young women of Texico Baptist Church.

Carrying out wedding tradition, she wore pennies in her shoes minted in the years of the couple's births as something old. Something new was her shoes and something borrowed, her wedding ensemble from Mrs. Tom Harlan of Clovis. She wore the traditional blue garter.

Cheryl Boling of Farwell played traditional wedding music. Tom Harlan of Clovis sang "We've Only Just Begun" and "More", accompanied by Mrs. Tom Harlan.

Cindi McNabb of Albuquerque was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Jo Pearce of Texico, Linda Broussard of Port Arthur, Tex., and Betty Autrey of Texico.

The attendants wore baby blue polyester crepe floor-length dresses featuring empire bodices, sweetheart necklines and short puffed sleeves. They each carried a long stemmed white carnation with long blue streamers.

Steve Franse of Farwell was best man. Groomsmen were Paul Brigham of Farwell, brother of the groom, Mitchell Turnbough of Texico and Joe Trujillo of Dallas.

Ushers were Johnny Boling of Farwell and Rayford Fitz of Texico. They also lit the candles.

The mother of the bride chose a muted apple green polyester dress with a matching sleeveless coat. She wore a corsage of white rosebuds.

The groom's mother was attired in a blue floral print polyester dress with a solid blue sleeveless coat. She wore a corsage of white rosebuds.

A reception followed the ceremony in Fellowship Hall of the church. The bride's table was covered with a blue cloth overlaid with a white crocheted lace cloth from Spain. A three-tiered wedding cake, silver trays holding mints and nuts and a crystal punchbowl completed the table decorations.

The cake, made by Mrs. Gordon Smith of Texico, featured a spiral staircase from the bottom to top layers. The staircase held small blue flowers. A miniature bride and groom in front of a lattice-work background topped the cake. Crystal appointments were used in serving.

The groom's table was covered with a white cloth overlaid with blue net. Chocolate cake, in the shape of an open Bible and decorated in blue and white, was served with coffee from a blue and white china coffee service. Two silver candelabra holding blue tapers completed table decorations.

Carla Richardson and Cindy Eshleman served from the bride's table. Georgia Autrey served from the groom's table and registered the guests.

For a wedding trip to Dallas-Fort Worth and Shreveport, La., the bride chose a pink polyester pantsuit. She wore the orchid from her bridal bouquet.

The bride is a 1973 graduate of Texico High School. The groom graduated from Farwell High School in 1971 and has attended West Texas State University. He is employed at Parmer County Cattle Co.

Miss Womack, Danny Pearce Exchange Vows In Lubbock

Miriam Frances Womack of Lubbock became the bride of Danny Scott Pearce of Texico Friday, June 29, in the Flint Street Baptist Church in Lubbock. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Womack of Lubbock and Pearce is the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. (Buddy) Pearce of Route 1, Texico.

The double ring ceremony was performed by Dale McCleskey of Plainview, friend of the couple, before an altar decorated with a greenery-covered gold archway. The altar was flanked on either side by arrangements of yellow gladioli, white daisies and stephanotis. A white satin-covered kneeling bench completed the altar setting. At the end of the ceremony the couple lit a unity candle.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a Juliet-style gown of white, beaded bordeaux lace and silken a la mode accented in crocheted edging. The beaded lace bodice was designed with Juliet sleeves shirred to jeweled lace cuffs repeating the crocheted lace edging. The controlled bell skirt was encircled in a deep flounce at chapel length. She wore a fingertip veil that was edged in crocheted lace and fell in tiers.

For something old, the bride wore her grandmother's wedding ring; something new was her wedding dress; something borrowed was a bracelet from Cheryl Boling; and something blue was her garter.

Maid of honor was Cheryl Boling of Farwell. Serving as bridesmaids were Pam Newton of Anchorage, Alaska, and Teresa Norris of Lubbock. They wore yellow dotted swiss formal-length dresses. The dresses featured scooped necks, puffed sleeves, empire waists and were ruffled along the hemline. Picture hats complemented their attire. The attendants carried baskets containing arrangements of daisies and yellow ribbon.

Sister of the groom, Kim Pearce of Texico, organist, accompanied soloists, Mrs. Sylvia Compton, the groom's aunt, and Jan Keltz.

Best man was Roddy Pearce, brother of the groom. Serving as groomsmen were Marty White and Rayford Fitz, both of Texico. Ushers were Wayne Womack, Lubbock, Eddie Curry, Plainview, and Mitchell Turnbough of Texico. Mike Boling and Jerry Brad-

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights

by Bill Boykin
TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

COURTS SPEAK - The State Supreme Court agreed to review a case involving closing of a portion of a street which a hotel operator claimed cost him loss of business.

The High Court agreed that a Bexar County district court should try a $294,943 damage suit brought by the State Insurance Board receiver on behalf of two defunct San Antonio insurance firms.

In still other cases, the Supreme Court ruled: *That a single guaranty agreement can apply to all bank notes a borrower may have.

*A Matagorda County tractor driver who had his leg crushed on the job can't collect workmen's compensation because he didn't file his claim in time.

*Damages awarded an Abilene truck driver can be reduced because of a showing that he had opened a sliding door of his truck before the accident in which he was injured.

*A new trial should be held in a damage suit resulting from death of a Houston man crushed between two trucks.

*A nearly six-months' delay has been granted for appeal of former House Speaker Gus Mutscher's conspiracy-to-accept-a-bribe conviction.

*A U. S. Supreme Court decision striking down state aid to parochial schools prompted a request for an attorney general's opinion as to the Texas tuition-equalization grants in private colleges.

FOOD STAMPS EXPANDED - All 254 counties will be brought under a statewide food stamp program for welfare recipients November 1, though the U. S. Postal Service has declined to handle issuance in Bexar, Harris and El Paso counties immediately.

At present, all 31 counties authorized for pilot food stamp programs are operating under a new computerized "Authorized to Purchase" card system of identification. As of August 1, the Postal Service will begin post office issue of food stamps in all existing food stamp counties except for Bexar, Harris and El Paso.

APPOINTMENTS - Robert R. Shelton of Kingsville was named vice-chairman of Texas Criminal Justice Council.

Governor Briscoe named as new judges Raymond Justice of Houston (domestic relations court, effective January 1), and Sam M. Paxon of El Paso (210th district, effective January 1).

He selected David D. Adams of Nacogdoches as 145th district attorney.

Briscoe placed Fred Wulff of Brady on the Legislative Property Tax Committee.

TWO MINUTES WITH THE BIBLE
BY CORNELIUS R. STAM PRES. BEREAN BIBLE SOCIETY CHICAGO, ILLINOIS 60633

"NO TIME FOR GOD"

Those who have no time for God should consider what their circumstances would be if He had no time for them; no time to paint the sunsets, no time to send the warm sun's rays or the refreshing showers, no time to make the crops and flowers grow. We doubt that any thinking person would actually want nothing to do with God.

Gain despised God's authority and finally murdered his brother, but when he was driven from the presence of God he said: "My punishment is greater than I can bear" (Gen. 4:13).

One of the saddest sentences in the gospel records is our Lord's prediction that He would say to some: "Depart from Me, I never knew you, ye workers of iniquity" (Matt. 7:23).

Just what it will mean to be "cast into the lake of fire" (Rev. 20:15) we pray God none of our readers will ever find out, but the Scriptures do clearly indicate that those involved will be cast forever out of the presence of God.

Thank God, it is not He who desires this. He paid for our sins at Calvary to reconcile us to Himself (Eph. 2:16). St. Paul declares that God has called believers "into the fellowship of His Son" (1 Cor. 1:9) and that at His coming for them they shall "ever be with the Lord," adding: "wherefore, comfort one another with these words" (1 Thes. 4:17, 18).

Now then, we are ambassadors for Christ, as though God did beseech you by us; we pray you in Christ's stead, be ye reconciled to God" (11 Cor. 5:20).

God has demonstrated His love for us in Christ. Why not respond by gratefully trusting Christ as your Savior?

Visiting Sniders - -

German Family Finds Farwell Climate Good

by Janie Crane

A German family visiting the M. A. Snider, Jr. family of Farwell has found the climate here to be most pleasant. Quite a shock, when local residents are beginning to think we are living in a sauna bath.

"I like the climate in Farwell," says Peter Kuhn of Duisburg, Germany. Peter, 21, his brother, Gunther, 17, and their parents, Dr. and Mrs. G. Kuhn, arrived around the middle of June to visit with the Sniders.

Dr. Kuhn is a dental surgeon in Duisburg. He and his wife are quite sports-minded, having each won gold medals in Germany for various sports events.

The couple won the gold medals, which are fashioned like a German sports sign, four years ago for their sports achievements. Dr. Kuhn is a rider and a tennis player. Two or three years ago, he won the local senior tennis championship. Mrs. Kuhn was known at one time for being one of the best field hockey players in Germany. She also played on a tennis team in the highest class in Germany.

Their sons, Peter and Gunther, have taken up their parents' interest in sports. Peter says, "My parents say one of the most important things about being good in sports is to have the support of your parents. Most people who are good in sports have had parents who are good in sports."

Good isn't a strong enough word for the excellence Peter and Gunther ask of themselves in the Pentathlon. Peter won the junior championship in the event in Germany in 1970 and 1972. Gunther won the youth championship in 1971 and 1972. Next year, Peter will advance to the adult division and Gunther will advance to the junior division.

Peter has also placed 12th in the World Championship Pentathlon event in the junior division. At the end of the summer, he will attempt to qualify for the German team for the World Championships which are to be in Berlin in September. Peter says he hopes to see a United States team there.

The Pentathlon requires that the competitors be proficient in five events. The events include shooting, riding, fencing, swimming and running. The boys have been able to continue their training in swimming and running while they are in the United States, but will return home to train each day in these events.

Peter has been a competitor in the Pentathlon event for seven years. Gunther is in his third year of competition.

Gunther commented that he was a good tennis player, 10th in Germany, before he decided that the Pentathlon event was more interesting. "You not only have to be good in one discipline, you have to be good in five. That's the main thing in real life," he said.

"It's (the Pentathlon) not only fun, it's good physically and psychologically. We're trained for everything. We meet people and enjoy a brotherhood. Each of us in the same event know each other. I think when the fun stops, I will probably stop," Peter says.

When Peter isn't working out for the Pentathlon or studying medicine at the University of Dusseldorf, he enjoys music, both classical and popular, hunting and his fast car.

The whole family enjoys horseback riding. They have four horses. And they also enjoy skiing. Gunther enjoys dancing and being with young people. He also likes popular music.

Gunther also plans to attend the University and become a doctor. In two years he will take his final examination.

There is not cost to a student going to the University, but competition is keen. Peter noted that in Germany you have to make a very high grade on the final exam to be able to study medicine. Other fields which require very high marks are dentistry, pharmacy, chemistry, physics and architecture.

Peter says he enjoys competing in sports because it allows him to meet so many people and visit so many countries. He has been to Hungary, France, Czechoslovakia, Sweden, Russia and Poland. "I get an idea of the life in other places and what really goes on there," he says.

DR. G. KUHN FAMILY - Dr. and Mrs. G. Kuhn, Peter, left, and Gunther, are visiting with the M. A. Snider, Jr. family of Farwell. The Kuhns arrived the middle of June and will be returning home today (Friday). Mrs. Snider, Kim and David, and the Kuhns arrived back in Farwell Sunday, July 1, after a 10-day trip to California. The group stopped in Tucson, Ariz., to see Sharon Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Williams.

Cotton - Of Course - -

Ageless Fiber Gets New Look

Cotton is getting a new image.

A new product symbol incorporating a contemporary cotton boll with the word "cotton" is being put into widespread use by Cotton Incorporated.

The design also serves as part of a new "corporate signature" for Cotton Incorporated, the research, sales and marketing company sponsored by America's cotton growers through their dollar-per-bale program.

"The new symbol registers powerful recognition," said J. Dukes Wooters Jr., Cotton Incorporated president. "Anyone seeing it for the first time understands immediately that it represents 'cotton.' No explanation is necessary."

The contemporary representation of the centuries-old fiber, said Wooters, "creates a new awareness of the natural appeal of cotton."

He said varied applications of the new symbol will give distinctive identity to products made from 100 per cent cotton and from blends containing high percentages of cotton.

"The symbol itself does not change," Wooters explained. "But versatility of application allows its use for pure cotton products or blends. We will be spared the expense and problems that come with using more than one symbol."

The new design consists of a modern artistic rendering of the cotton boll with the word "cotton" in contemporary script. The word grows out of the figure of the boll. Figure and word are indivisible.

The cotton boll and the word "cotton" appear in clean white -- the color of processed cotton -- against a rectangular background of natural, warm, earth brown.

Both design and color are integral to the symbol and to the new identification of the dollar-per-bale company.

Design and color were chosen, Wooters said, after extensive research and analysis, which involved consumers of all ages.

"Over 3,000 preliminary sketches were narrowed down to 12. Those were further reduced to three, which were thoroughly researched, using designs currently in use as control."

The new design was needed to help keep cotton competitive with synthetics, Wooters explained.

"Synthetics are relatively new in the marketplace. From the outset, they have aggressively promoted a strong, contemporary look in their graphics."

On the other hand, he said, consumer research showed that the cotton boll symbol heretofore used to identify cotton products "did little to excite current generations of consumers to reappraise cotton in a modern context."

Wooters said the new symbol will begin appearing in the near future on apparel, personal items, and products for the home.

It already shows in Cotton Incorporated's consumer and trade advertising and will appear soon on all company communications papers and checks.

"We will make the design available to cotton producers and other cotton industry organizations to incorporate into their own communications programs," said Wooters.

"We will also make it available for use in the form of decals for identifying vehicles and farm machinery."

Wooters said the design was created by Walter Landor Associates, a leading worldwide communications consultant firm of San Francisco.

"We believe it will give strong visual and communications values to cotton, the fiber, and to our company in its role as representative of America's 300,000 cotton growers," he said.

Cats Are Wonderful Pets

There are 22 million family-owned cats in the United States, according to the Pet Food Institute, and most likely all their owners would agree with Mark Twain, who wrote: "A home without a cat - a well-fed, well-petted and properly revered cat - may be a perfect home, perhaps, but how can it prove its title?"

As pets, cats are delightful creatures. They are quietly affectionate, well-mannered, independent; they possess beauty, grace and noble dignity.

Though easily trained and cared for, cats are discriminating eaters. They prefer day-to-day variety, and at room temperature, please.

Feeding Their Majesties

Fortunately, catering to their gourmet tastes is both easy and economical today. There is a wide selection of good commercial cat foods on the market. Scientifically formulated, these are superior to a table-scraps diet of uncertain nutritional value.

Some commercial foods combine the desired high protein content with all the essential vitamins and minerals your cat is known to need for daily maintenance.
