

WINS STATE FARMER DEGREE—Dee J. Brown Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Dee J. Brown of Texico, last week won the highest award conferred in the state at the New Mexico FFA convention.

Texico Boy Given State Farmer Award

Dee J. Brown Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Dee J. Brown of Texico, has received the highest honor conferred in New Mexico for Future Farmers of America work.

The award, which is an ultimate goal of boys interested in vocational agriculture, was given Dee J. at the Scott Able 4-H Club camp near Cloudcroft, N. M. Twenty-four others received the honorary award.

The FFA camp was held for three days, July 31 to Aug. 4. Between 100 to 125 boys attended the encampment. The boys participated in sports while at the encampment, and Dee J. was captain of one of the softball teams.

Dee J. has been a member of Texico FFA for the past three years and was president of the organization last year. He will be a senior at Texico High School the coming term.

His essay entitled "Why Soil Erosion is Public Enemy Number One" was judged third place winner in a contest sponsored by the Cooperative Club in Clovis last year.

Explaining how award winners are chosen, Dee J. says that FFA members send in applications and judges check and value them. Boys are judged on projects on supervised farm programs and on leadership. The judges selected the 25 eligible boys out of 43 applications.

Dee J., the only FFA boy who attended from Texico, says he will try for the American Farmer national award next year.

FROM THE HOPPER

By HOP

Although he admits that he was born in Van Zandt County 80 years ago, Uncle Jim Richards still does not know why that county is referred to as the "Free State of Van Zandt."

He says he is going down to the old home county before the summer is over and get the low-down on this question. Primarily, however, Uncle Jim is going back to Van Zandt to see if he can locate the grave of his mother who was buried there 75 years ago.

So far, we haven't had much response on the part of property owners living on Second Street to pave that street while the Floyd Davis road-building crew is in town. All of us recognize that the caliche surfacing, placed there by WPA labor years ago, is rapidly giving away and it will be a matter of a short time until extensive improvements will have to be made.

Why not get together now and see if it is within the realm of financial possibility to pave it now?

The City Commission is being faced with a real problem of proper drainage along streets of Farwell. Most of the obstructions to drainage have been caused by property owners filling in the bar ditches to provide a driveway to their garages.

The Commission is asking that offenders be more thoughtful and considerate of others in this matter. When a bar ditch is filled up, water naturally backs up on neighbors—and they are raising objections.

To this writer's knowledge, O. C. Sikes is the only man in Farwell who has placed a culvert across his bar ditch. The Commission is asking for cooperation on the part of property owners so that a city ordinance will not be necessary.

Water Conservation Meeting Called To Talk Parmer's Stand in District

Belated Right-of-Way For Texico Unsettled

Right-of-way inside the city limits for Texico's new farm-to-market paved road still was unsettled Tuesday afternoon, although work was progressing along the state line route beyond the city limits.

City officials and Santa Fe officials said here today that they have not been given the green light on the proposed right-of-way across Santa Fe property between the Santa Fe tracks and the south limits of town.

Meanwhile, work was progressing at a satisfactory pace from the edge of town to the Bailey County farm-to-market road, 7.2 miles south of here. All the grading has been completed, most of the caliche surfacing material has been dumped along the route, and a long strip of the material has been leveled down and rolled.

A representative of the New Mexico State Highway Department was here Tuesday and was quoted by city officials as saying "everything is working out" when asked what progress was being made on right-of-way easements inside the city limits.

One city official expressed the belief that the route inside the city might be changed so as to run due south from the railroad tracks to the south edge of the city limits, instead of following the present survey that makes an S curve across Santa Fe property.

B. N. Graham Named Justice of Peace

The motion was made that B. N. Graham of Farwell be appointed Justice of the Peace of Precinct No. 1 in a meeting of the Commissioners' Court Monday. Graham will fill the unexpired term of Jess Newton, deceased.

Members of the court also accepted the road petition of A. L. Hobbs, and the jury of view, to be appointed, was named. Included are Conrad Nelson, J. D. White, A. L. Hobbs, and Oswald Jones.

The court approved bills and warrants, and recessed until Aug. 19 at 1 p. m. when bids for county road graders are to be opened.

A meeting that may have far-reaching significance for Parmer County has been called for this Friday night at the Bovina School Gymnasium. At this meeting will be decided what course Parmer County is to take on a proposed underground water reservoir which may embrace as many as 21 Panhandle counties.

W. L. Edelman, chairman of the Parmer County Water Conservation Association, emphatically pointed out that this meeting was important not only to all of Parmer's farmers, but to every taxpayer in the county.

"If the State Board of Water Engineers designate an underground district here, it is within the power of that district to become a taxing unit for as much as 50 cents on a $1000 valuation," he said.

"We need to decide what we want to do," he continued. "This meeting is more important than we realize, and if we are going to do anything about it, now is the time."

The state board has scheduled a hearing at Plainview August 29, after petitioning action had been taken by Hockley, Lamb, and Hale counties at Austin July 17.

Since Parmer will be represented at this hearing, delegates must be chosen who know the county's position and interests. Edelman said delegates will be picked at the meeting Friday night and all persons who attend will take part in deciding what Parmer's stand will be.

He said the ideal situation would be that this county be designated a district or an independent subdivision into itself.

If Parmer is included in a district, the larger the district, the less effective the representation.

The association chairman reminded that all plans with reference to Parmer's inclusion in an underground reservoir district were tentative at this time.

"What we say at Plainview may make a great deal of difference in what is done by the state. This meeting is more important than we realize."

Counties, other than Parmer, that are being considered for the district are Armstrong, Bailey, Briscoe, Castro, Cochran, Crosby, Deaf Smith, Dickens, Floyd, Garza, Hale, Hockley, Lamb, Lubbock, Lynn, Oldham, Potter, Randall, Swisher, and Terry.

Other members of the Parmer Water Association are Buddy Jones, J. G. McFarland, T. L. Glasscock, Jack Woltman and B. E. Roberson.

The meeting is to begin at 8:30.

FIREMEN START IRON LUNG FUND BY BOOKING HOME-TALENT PLAY 2 NIGHTS

All profits from the home-talent production "Uncle Ezry's Hayloft Jamboree" will go to pay for a resuscitator—better known as an "iron lung"—which Texico-Farwell Volunteer Firemen are hoping to buy.

The resuscitator will be available for use in any possible cases of polio. With its purchase local people will have the best-known weapon so far discovered in fighting this disease, which every year, strikes so many homes.

Chief Stanton Thigpin and General Chairman Otis Huggins hope to have a resuscitator on display in the Southwestern Public Service Offices in Farwell.

The cast for the play, to be staged Aug. 21-22 at Texico High School gym, is a radio broadcast style similar to "Grand Old Opry" or "National Barn Dance" programs.

Cast includes Raymond Martin as "Uncle Ezry"; Jim Billington, playing "Hiram Hicks"; Joe Kelly, master of ceremonies, handled by Ed Hardage; with Dickie Magness impersonating Lulu Belle, sweetheart of the Barn Dance.

Assisting will be John Porter, calling the sets for square dances by members of the Farwell "Swing Club" of which John Getz is president; and four "quiz kids" in the persons of Betty Callahan, Verlene Thigpin, Clive and Lex Huggins.

Highlighting the show will be an amateur contest. Contestants will compete for cash awards both nights and winners will be selected by the audience.

Everyone buying tickets for either performance will vote for their favorites. Each advance ticket purchased counts as two votes. Tickets bought at the door are good for one vote.

Information on where tickets may be bought can be had by inquiring of Chief Thigpin, Chairman Huggins, John Getz, Jake Winkle, or any Fire Department member in Farwell and Texico.

An added feature of the Hayloft Jamboree is a "tiny tot popularity contest" for Farwell and Texico children up to six years of age.

Mrs. John Getz, who will select assistants in both Texico and Farwell, is chairman of this feature. Photographs of the children in the contest which is limited to 30 youngsters—are on display in Rip Snodgrass' window.

All contestants will be on stage Tuesday night, Aug. 22, when prizes will be awarded and the top three boys and top three girls will be crowned King, Queen, Princess, Duke, and Duchess. All contestants will be given awards.

Empire Producing Company in Kansas City, Mo., has sent one of their leading directors, Anna-Mae Bird Kelley, to assist in directing and producing the show. She is also working with Mrs. Getz on the tiny tot contest and calling on local merchants for support of the entire program.

Mrs. Kelley says that while the list of contestants for cash awards in the amateur contest is reassuring, she will be pleased to meet any person from the area who can play any musical instrument, sing as soloists or in groups, who can do any kind of dancing or who has other talents that fit into amateur contests.

These people will be welcomed at the first rehearsal, scheduled for Thursday night at 8 o'clock, Aug. 17 at the Texico gym.

FATHER SERIOUSLY ILL

Mrs. Bob Stover received word last Thursday that her father, Mr. J. W. Reed of Woodrow, Colo., was seriously ill with the flu. His condition was somewhat improved Sunday morning.

Port of Entry Evader Bungles His Own Plot

Employees of the Texico Port of entry are still chuckling about an Amarillo trucker who put his foot into his mouth last Thursday while trying to evade inspection.

The driver of the truck was on his way to Arizona with a heavy load of pipe, and made an effort to by-pass the port via a country road south of town.

However, on the state line, he mired his top-heavy vehicle in a mudhole. Soon another car came along the road, and the truck driver hailed him down.

"Say, where is that road to get around the Port of Entry?" he asked the passerby.

He didn't know it then, but he soon found out he was talking to L. Neice, who is in charge of the Texico Port.

The Amarilloan entered a plea of guilty in Magistrate Sam Lewis' court, and was fined $50.

Frazier's Condition Remains Critical

The condition of H. H. (Red) Frazier, 64-year-old Texico laborer, remained critical Wednesday morning, with hospital attaches announcing his condition as "poor."

Frazier was taken to a Clovis hospital late Sunday afternoon, following a truck-pick-up crash just east of this city on Highway 70, and has remained unconscious since that time.

Eye-witnesses to the crash said that Frazier, driving a pick-up and traveling east, made a left hand turn off the highway, directly in the path of a car approaching from the opposite direction and occupied by J. L. Mapp and family of House, N. M. Mrs. Mapp and 15-year-old John Mapp sustained slight injuries, while Mr. Mapp and 3-year-old Monte Mapp escaped injury unscathed.

Frazier suffered a brain concussion when the cars collided, neither of which overturned.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Henry and daughter, Anice, arrived here early Monday to be with the injured man. Mrs. Henry is Frazier's sister. He also has a son, who is lieutenant in the Army and is understood to be stationed at San Antonio.

BANK CLERK ILL

Mrs. Nina Classcock, clerk at the Security State Bank, has been confined to her home since last Friday, suffering with a blood clot in one of her legs. She probably will be off duty for several days, attaches at the bank reported.

NOTICE TO STUDENTS

Officials of Farwell schools announced today that a tuition charge of $50 will be made for each pupil each year they attend the school while residing outside the Farwell School District unless they have been legally transferred by the county school superintendent. Judge A. D. Smith is Parmer County superintendent.

Parmer County Fair Tentative Date Set

A tentative date of Sept. 21, 22, and 23 has been agreed upon by several members of the fair committee last Wednesday night at Bovina Schools. The dates are not official, however, as a number of the committee were not present.

Those on hand orally agreed that the three dates probably will be acceptable since it precedes the major portion of row crop harvest and allows school entrants to "get settled."

Also, these dates will precede both the Tri-State and Amarillo Fairs. Men present last Wednesday said it was necessary that another meeting be held in the immediate future, probably this week, to work out plans for the forthcoming exposition.

A large part of the advertising for the fair catalog ordinarily is sold at an early date in order that printing may be completed in time. Also, appointments for exhibits from all parts of the county must be accounted for.

Registration Dates Set For Farwell Schools

Officials of the Farwell School system met Monday of this week, and released registration dates for all students who will enroll in Farwell schools for the coming year.

Registration begins Thursday, Aug. 31 at 9 a. m. when all grade students for high school freshmen and sophomore classifications will be received. Buses are scheduled to run their regular time and routes on this day, but the school cafeteria will not be open.

The following day, Sept. 1, between the hours of 8:30 and 1 o'clock high school juniors and seniors are slated to register. Coach Tommy Hestand is asking that all football boys register between 8:30 and 9:30 in order that they may attend early morning workout. The workout is scheduled to begin at 9:30.

The officials said that pupils registering on Sept. 1 will be expected to furnish their own transportation and buses will not run.

All teachers have been asked to report at the school building at 10 a. m., Aug. 29.

Texico-Farwell Merchants Not Worried About Hoarding, But Prices Are Worse

(Aware of the fact that our readers are conscious, in varying degrees, of the high-strung international situation in Korea, this week a survey was made in Texico and Farwell to determine the trend of war-scared buying in rural cities. In some buying, a trend is noticeable, but at present, nothing seems to be alarming here. High prices also are considered in this article by Jeanne Dudley—Ed's Note.)

Texico-Farwell consumers, on the average, are remaining calm and rational in their buying, according to a survey made by a Tribune reporter. If they have a case of war jitters, local business operators haven't noticed it too much in sale of basic commodities.

One of the biggest factors that merchants readily agree on is the current rise in prices. Costs aren't merely taking a slow, steady rise, they jump from one price to another.

One business woman, discussing the cost of lingerie, said she received a letter from the factory stating that clothing she now sells for $4.50 will cost $6.50 in the next shipment.

Another merchant, discussing the instability of prices, says that every invoice received by their store includes warnings that prices may alter without notice. One business woman explained the situation by quoting a particular incident:

A shipment of Sal Hepatica was received and after checking up, clerks found that they had been selling the item for exactly what it cost them. The prices had jumped that rapidly.

One grocery store owner stated that he would estimate the overall price rise at 8 percent. Another merchant said that black pepper prices have advanced more than anything else.

Automobile dealers here point out that prices have risen on practically everything, especially tires.

Possibly, one of the best examples of rising prices, however, is noticed in the lumber business. According to an employee of one lumber yard, the business formerly received one price quotation a week from wholesale lumber concerns—now they receive five. This shows the constant variation of the market.

Back to hoarding, grocery store employees, as a rule, haven't noticed any particular cases of extra grocery buying. At least, they say there is no boom to compare with reports from other sections of the country. One man stated that there hadn't been enough change in sales to notice.

There has been a slight rise in sales on some commodities such as sugar, pepper, and coffee, but as previously pointed out, it hasn't yet reached alarming proportions. In

Fireboys Get New Truck

The Texico-Farwell Fire Department has been given a green light by the Texico Town Council for a new fire truck. This action, which has been pending for some time, was made official at a called meeting at the Town Hall Thursday night.

Les Means, member of the council, motioned that the matter of purchasing the new truck be left to Chief Stanton Thigpin and the department. It was seconded by J. E. Stone.

The department now has at its disposal slightly over $8400 with which to purchase new equipment.

Chief Thigpin told the council that the matter of buying a new truck had been discussed at considerable length heretofore by the department, and he felt they had decided on what equipment is needed.

Equipment for the new truck will be a 500-gallon high pressure centrifugal 3-stage pump. The truck will carry 1000 feet of 2 1/2" hose in the main compartment, and mount a 150-foot roll of 1 1/2" hose on either side.

This 1 1/2" hose, Chief Thigpin explained to the council, will be directly connected to the pump at all times, ready for immediate action, whereas the 2 1/2" hose must be uncoiled and coupled to the pump.

Insurance underwriters do not approve the equipment on the present truck, as it mounts a 350-gallon 2-stage pump on the front," he said. "A 500-gallon pump is their mini- (Continued on Last Page)

Milstead Recovering From Tractor Mishap

Reported to be recovering satisfactorily from a near-tragedy last week is Alton Milstead, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. (Shorty) Milstead of the Oklahoma Lane community.

The injured farmer was driving a Minneapolis-Moline tractor and pulling a tandem disc by an irrigation ditch near the Robert Rundell farm when he lost control of the tractor and it went into the ditch.

In an attempt to get out of the ditch, Milstead applied too much power to the tractor, which had both rear wheels lodged. The wheels remained stationary, but the machine spun into the air and came down on its driver. Milstead, although able to avoid having his entire person crushed, was pinned by both legs under the tractor.

Henry Haseloff was the first person to reach the scene. He removed some of the soft earth from under Milstead's legs, thereby relieving the tractor's pressure.

Beryl Nix took the injured farmer to a Clovis hospital, where he is reported recovering satisfactorily.

Witnesses believed the softened condition of the irrigation ditch earth was responsible for the man's legs not being broken.

fact, one grocery dealer made the statement, "I don't think they are hoarding this time."

He explained that he had no reason to even expect anyone of hoarding. As for scarcity of items, grocery-men listed soap flakes as one hard-to-get household commodity.

Electrical appliances have increased sales but little because of the war scare. One merchant said it had been rumored that refrigerators were limited, but so far, it hasn't been evident in Texico-Farwell. Another merchant quoted presto cookers and aluminum ware as a good seller in the past few weeks.

Discussing the sale of nylon hosiery recently, a store owner said women aren't hoarding hose as they did at one time. In fact, she doesn't feel that there is a serious shortage of hose. She told of a lady in California, however, who sold all of her old hosiery stock because of the war scare.

Sheets Hard to Get

Sheets are one commodity that is difficult to obtain. One merchant said that they had not been able to obtain sheets from wholesalers, although they had been promised a delivery in September.

As a general rule, people have been very reasonable in their buying of this item. One person hasn't tried to buy a large number at one time. One store has been promised an allotment on sheets (See SCARE-BUYING on Page 2) for each month.

Another store member reported that quite a few towels have been sold recently, but she didn't feel that it was because of war nerves; many of them were purchased as gifts.

An opposite report was given by another merchant who stated the way people have been buying towels may cause a scarcity. Also reported was that wholesalers have canceled several orders for towels.

In a general statement, indications are that there is very little hoarding in Texico-Farwell. Sales have increased slightly, but no actual runs have been reported.

If possible, sales are beginning to go the other way after a minor three-week boom.

Summing up other specific items, however, denim aren't scarce, but salesmen find that they can't get the orders when they need them right on time.

Another item on which wholesalers have minimized orders are nylon underwear, with some difficulty in getting the cheaper rayon goods. In some places, notices have been given that firms are short of men's shirts but there is no indication of this locally.

It has also been said that print goods will be scarce, but businesses still are receiving orders. There has been a sudden jump in prices, however.

Discussing candy, which was hard to get in World War II, one business man stated "Salesmen tell us they have plenty now, but they don't know how long it will last."

Most tire dealers have noticed an increase in sales of this commodity. On the other hand, few consumers have bought them in big lots. Only one dealer reported sales that were out of the ordinary. He sold all his tire stock in about a week and hasn't received another shipment.

Another dealer who reported a large increase of tire sales in the past three weeks, said that it was difficult because they are unable to get full orders. Consequently, they can't restock as fast as they can sell.

One clerk summed up the situation in one statement:

"People are just buying a little more of things that they have to have. They aren't buying in large amounts."

This explains increase in sales. Another man says that people do not seem as worried about the war scare as they were at first, so sales are proceeding normally.

Dealers say car sales have increased, but only to a certain extent. Most of the buyers, they explain, have intended to buy for quite some time, but are buying now while cars are available.

Lumber yards report that there haven't been any extra building prospects because of the war scare. They have had trouble securing lumber for 90 days, but that was even before the international situation.

"At any rate," states one merchant, expressing a general opinion, I'm not going out and buy up a lot of extra items. I will just try to keep my stock at a normal balance. Too much frenzied buying is what causes shortages."

Texico School Bells Start Ringing, 28th Says Supt. Jones

Vacation time for many children will end Aug. 28, when Texico Schools will officially open for the 1950-51 school session.

Explaining why the opening of school is held so early this year, Agrie Jones, superintendent, says the school administration is trying to avoid schedules for Farwell schools. He says that he and Jack Williams, superintendent of Farwell, met during the summer and worked out a plan in order that important school functions for the two systems will not fall on the same days.

For instance, last year, cited Jones, commencement exercises for both Texico and Farwell Schools and Mother's Day fell on the same date. "We are trying to get away from that this time," he adds.

Students of Texico Schools will enroll Monday, Aug. 28 and will be dismissed at noon that day. Buses will arrive at the school house at 8:30 and will transport the pupils home at 12 o'clock.

An assembly will be held at 9 o'clock where all teachers will be introduced and announcements relative to the coming school term will be made, states Jones. All parents are invited to attend the opening session.

Classes will begin Tuesday, Aug. 29. The hot lunch program also will begin. The lunchroom is well-equipped to feed students, Jones emphasizes. A government war surplus steam table has been installed to enable dieticians to keep the food hot.

Workmen have been making improvements on buildings and campus during the summer months preparing for the coming school session, he adds.

Lazbuddie Schools Scheduled to Open Monday, August 28

Official opening of Lazbuddie Schools will be Aug. 28, Archie Sims, superintendent of schools, announces. Buses will make their regular routes for the first time that day.

Registration of students will be held Friday, Aug. 25 from 9 a. m. to noon.

The community will serve lunch the first day of school, says Sims, and everyone is invited to bring a covered basket.

An additional room to be used for the first grade has been added to the lunchroom. Every effort will be made to serve lunches for the same price as last year, the superintendent says, despite the fact that food is higher and the lunch room will receive one cent less per meal for reimbursement from the state than in the 1949-1950 school term. Last year, lunches were available for 20 cents.

The lunchroom will serve hot rolls this year as a new oven and plastic plates have been added to equipment.

Repairs to the school property include removal of the petition from the auditorium, and repair and repainting of the entire inside of the grade school building. New doors have been installed at the entrance to the building. Several of the teacherages also have been painted and papered this summer, Sims says.

The last skating session of the year will be Friday, Aug. 18 from 3 o'clock until 5 in the afternoon.

A list of teachers will be available in the near future, Sims adds.

SCRATCH DALLAS ON AUGUST 26

COMMITTEE FOR STATEWIDE GOVERNMENT

Chairman: EMMETTE ALEXANDER, Marble Falls, Texas

speaking of census figures . . .
Telephone Population is up 201% in New Mexico

The 1940 census gave New Mexico's population as 531,818, while tentative 1950 figures show that there are 677,099 people in the state, a gain of about 27%.

But "telephone population" has gone up much faster. In 1940 this Company was serving 32,300 telephones in New Mexico; now the figure has skyrocketed to 97,200, a gain of 201%!

"Bringing a telephone into the world" involves a lot more than just delivering it. It has to be connected with all other telephones, which means that wires, poles, cable and central office equipment must be available. Moreover, as telephones are added, the job becomes more complex and costs (particularly at today's high prices) go up.

Keeping abreast of demand for telephone service in New Mexico has required an expenditure of $15,400,000 since the end of the war. And, if New Mexico's telephone needs are to be met, large additional amounts of new capital will be needed. This must come from investors, and people will invest their dollars with us only if our earnings compare favorably with those of other businesses.

4-H Club Girl Reports On State Contest

Ed's Note: Jo Sandra Magerus reports on the state 4-H Club Contest held at State College, N. M., Aug. 7-11. A member of the Jolly Dolls 4-H Club of Clovis, Miss Magerus recently won the sweepstakes in the junior division of the annual 4H Club dress style review.

By JO SONDR A MAGERUS
We left the courthouse in Clovis Monday morning, Aug. 7 and traveled to Melrose where we picked up a group from De Baca county. From Melrose, we went to Elida and traveled on to Roswell where we had lunch.

Arriving at the college at 7 o'clock that night, we hardly had time to eat and go to assembly. There, all delegates from each county stood up and their name was called. We were rather embarrassed as all of the other girls had on dresses and we were still dressed in the jeans and shirts we wore on the trip.

Tuesday night there was a chuck wagon supper and a square dance. Then Wednesday night I was an usher at a health pageant. Afterwards, there was a movie on safety called "Late Death."

We all went to the bowling alley after the pageant. It is below Milton Hall which is one of the most modern buildings on the campus. Besides the bowling alley, it has a canteen, a cafeteria, a bookstore, a campus shop, barber shop, lounge, ballroom, offices, and sun room.

Thursday morning the 4-H national delegates gave a report on their trip to Washington, D. C., and that afternoon we visited White Sands National Monument.
In the general "up-roar," when everyone was running through the hall, my door closed and I was locked out of my room. We had to climb into it through the window.

Tuesday, the contests and group discussions began. Everyone really said what they thought at these meetings, so we enjoyed them immensely.

Some of the topics discussed were "Driving Dad's Auto," "Personal Problems for 4-Hers," and "Let's Be Friends." The last one was on the Russian situation and it really caused us to do some deep thinking.

The afternoons from 2 o'clock until 5:30 were free for swimming. We also took part in a softball tournament, had a picnic and a candle-lighting ceremony. The part I enjoyed most was when Johnnie Lou Bagwell of Melrose sang "The Lord's Prayer."

Friday, I was in the dress review. That night was award night, and I received a red ribbon and a silver medal for my dress entry. Saturday morning, we started home and arrived in Clovis that afternoon.

Although I didn't win any large prize, I really enjoyed the trip and it inspired me to work harder next year and win a chance to go back.

Remodeling Is Almost Completed at School

FRIONA—Finishing touches on a remodeling program which has been in progress all summer at the Friona gradeschool building are going forward this week, officials reported, with workmen on the last lap of painting and flooring.

Following the approval of a bond issue for a new auditorium and gymnasium building for the school, the old auditorium space in the grade school building was converted into badly needed additional classrooms.

Other changes also have been made about the building, and workmen announced this week that the work will be finished by Sept. 1.

Supt. Dalton Caffey reported earlier that he will not announce a definite date for the opening of school until assured that the grade building will be ready to receive students, and indicated this week that he will set the school opening date next Monday.

The school faculty is complete, and a list of teachers, with their various assignments, is also to be announced next week.

Also on the campus, foundations for the new gym and auditorium were laid the past week, and work on the building program is going forward as rapidly as possible. It is hoped that, barring delays on critical material, the building will be ready for graduation activities next spring.

Spraying Program Is Instigated at Friona

The fly menace got a slap in the face Saturday morning when Friona was thoroughly dusted with DDT powder, spread by plane by Elva Jennings, operator of the Benger Air Field near the city.

Commissioner Nelson Welch reported Monday that the city had been attempting to put a spraying program into operation for some time, but materials were slow in arriving and Jennings had to secure a permit for "buzzing" the city low enough to spread the powder.

The program will continue until frost is received, Welch said, adding that for best results, spraying should be done 10 to 14 days apart, and "We hope we can get a still morning within the time limit" to do the spraying.

Cost of the pest eradication program to the city runs $11 per hundred, which includes both the powder and the plane service, Welch explained.

Friona was sprayed consistently last summer and good results in decreasing flies and mosquitoes were noted.

200,000 Bushel Space Added to Elevator

FRIONA — Capacity for storing 200,000 bushels of grain will be added to the Santa Fe Grain Company in Friona within the near future, G. Cranfill, manager, said today, adding that work on the enlargement was begun some two weeks ago.

A total of nine bins is to be added to the elevator property, Cranfill explained, and the entire addition will be handled by the machinery already in operation at the other part of the elevator property.

Johnson and Sampson are contractors for the work, and were engaged this week in running tunnels, the elevator manager said, adding that actual bin construction will not begin for about two weeks. Work is to be completed in time for the expected large grain sorghum harvest in this county.

With the completion of new bins, the overall capacity of the elevator will be raised to 730,000 bushels.

'Communism' Theme of Talk Before Lions

Review of Leading Businesses

AREA'S FARMERS BEING ASSISTED BY EL RANCHO MILLING CO. OF CLOVIS

The business of farming profitably has, in the past decade, become a problem of some consequence in every agricultural community. The successful farmer of today has found it necessary to change his methods and adopt new practices and policies in almost every field of farm activity.

This situation is particularly true in the growing and feeding of stock and poultry. In this respect, experiment and study on the part of the management of El Rancho Milling Co. has revealed that rations for either stock or poultry must contain something more than just farm grains if the most profits are to be realized, hence El Rancho's slogan "BUILT FOR YOUR PURPOSE" and their line of Cattle, Horse, Dairy, Hog, Sheep Feeds as well as their rations for Poultry and Rabbits produce such economical results and they have been able to establish hundreds of dealers over the states of New Mexico and Texas and enjoy such a splendid business from our local dealer.

It must be remembered that there is great economy in using El Rancho Feeds because of their balanced rations and the added profits their use will bring you. This accounts for the fact that the El Rancho plant at 100 West (at stockyards crossing) is running both night and day.

We compliment both the El Rancho Milling Co. and their friendly manager Austin Brooks on the contribution that they have made to the agricultural interests of this section and for the quality products that they manufacture.

DR. H. A. STOVER, CHIROPRACTOR, IS AMONG PROFESSIONAL LEADERS

Well known over the State of New Mexico as being a leader in his profession because of his successful practice in Ft. Sumner, Dr. H. A. Stover, is now locating in Clovis and opening new offices at 714 Thornton, for the practice of Chiropractic and Physio-Therapy.

Chiropractic has made a remarkable record in removing causes of chronic diseases that have failed to respond to other methods of treatment. In cases of acute diseases this success is even more marked because the recuperative powers have not been weakened through long illness and in these cases the results are usually prompt and certain.

Sickness comes either through violation of nature's own laws or through interference with nature's ways of keeping the body in perfect shape. If there is the slightest interference with the nerve communication there will be disease in the particular organ supplied by the obstructive nerve.

The work of the chiropractor is to correct displacements found in the spinal column. This is done by adjusting with the bare hands which in time returns the bony segments to their normal locations and releases the pressure on the nerves affected. When such adjustments are completed and the cause of disease removed, health is quickly restored.

Since the birth of chiropractic fifty-four years ago, the percentage has increased from a few to thirty million people of America now using chiropractic to regain health.

General satisfaction is expressed by the patients of Dr. H. A. Stover and his standing in the profession constitutes a well merited tribute as to his method of treatment.

We take this opportunity in this review edition of our paper to welcome Dr. Stover to our community and to inform our readers of his established office hours—9 to 5 daily; 9 to 12 Saturday; nights and Sundays by appointment—his phone number is 6115.

CAMPBELL'S DAIRY AND ICE CREAM PRAISED FOR ITS QUALITY, FLAVOR

Often physicians will even specify milk from Campbell's as preferred for infants and young children.

This splendid institution well merits these few words about their invaluable service to the entire community and Manager Harold Murphy and the entire organization of Campbell's Dairy and Ice Cream Co. are to be complimented on the splendid products that they produce.

CLOVIS MAID DAIRY IS NOTED FOR PURE MILK AND PRODUCTS SOLD

The quality of milk, according to scientific research, is controlled chiefly by rations, as well as sanitary conditions of the dairy barns. When a thoroughbred animal is properly fed and housed, invariably they will produce a larger amount of richer milk that is high in butterfat content. This is one of the main reasons for the superior quality of the dairy products distributed by Clovis Maid Dairy located in Clovis at 704 E. 14th street.

In purchasing from local farmers they select only the ones that take precautions in feeding, grooming, milking, and handling of the milk. The herds are inspected and tested at regular intervals in order to protect the consuming public. Milk thus obtained from these prime herds is then rushed into the processing rooms of the dairy and under regulated control properly pasteurized and bottled or made into the various dairy products including CLOVIS MAID ICE CREAM.

Credit for the excellent manner in which this dairy functions should go to the owner, L. C. Price, who has a broad and varied background of experience that makes his conduct of the business extremely well organized, and which has resulted in a gratifying volume of business for the Clovis Maid Dairy.

CLOVIS NATIONAL BANK AIDING IN DEVELOPMENT OF ENTIRE REGION

The Clovis National Bank is one of the most widely known financial institutions in this section. They serve the public with a complete banking service and have the reputation of being a conservative and reliable institution with deposits guaranteed by the F. D. I. C. up to $5,000.00.

tional Bank at 219-21 North Main in Clovis, has been the mainstay for many individuals and institutions of the community as they are vitally interested in the progress of the agricultural and livestock industry.

Leathercraft work really isn't too difficult to learn, according to Mrs. Martha Carney of Muleshoe, who conducted a leather tooling school here last week.

An instructor from San Angelo taught leathercraft to Mrs. Carney. In fact, she learned in a short course school similar to the one she is now teaching. She began this work only last fall.

After a short while, Mrs. Carney began making billfolds, purses and belts for sale. By this time, her neighbors became interested in what she was doing and several of them asked her to teach them how to do leathercraft items.

"I decided right then that I might as well buy tools and go to work," says Mrs. Carney. She explains that she has always liked to do something "on the side" and leather tooling appeals to her.

Assisted by Daughter

Mrs. Carney is assisted in her work by her daughter, Ruby Jane, who is in high school. Asked when she taught Ruby Jane to tool leather, she laughed and said, "I didn't teach her, she just learned." Mrs. Carney further explains that she has four children and all of them have watched her while she is working so much, that every one of them can do the work themselves. Two girls, one ten and one eleven years old, have already designed and made billfolds for themselves.

Mrs. Carney didn't hold her first leathercraft school away from her home until May of this year. Before she had taught interested friends and neighbors at her house.

Since her decision to teach leathercraft work away from home, she has instructed several special schools in and around this area. Included in the list of towns where she has worked are Farwell, West Camp, Amherst, Whiteface, and Morton.

All of Mrs. Carney's schools are free for beginning students with a small fee for advanced instruction. Students do pay for the leather they use, the cost of which depends on the items they plan to make. For instance, belts to be tooled, which include the belt buckle and tip, are $1.50. Billfolds, for the most part, are $2.00 with the cost for unborn calf leather at $3.50.

Purses range from the small 6" zipper style at $2.50 to the large 14" zipper purse for $10.00. Mrs. Carney and Ruby Jane give as much individual instruction as possible depending on the size of the class.

Ruby Jane is interested in the leather work in connection with her 4-H club work. She is an active member of this organization. So far, she has helped her mother with all of the leathercraft schools except one.

Furnish All Tools

The Carneys furnish all the tools for the work and the leather is already cut and ready for designs when students begin the learning process. Mrs. Carney also furnishes patterns and designs to be transferred to the leather.

Many students become so interested in the leathercraft possibilities that they keep up the work for a hobby. Many find that handmade Christmas gifts are inexpensive and appropriate presents. Mrs. Carney says some students have purchased tools from her after attending the school and plan to make many of their gifts.

Work Is Spare Time Job

Leather work is merely a spare time job with Mrs. Carney for she helps her husband in the fields much of the time. However, she plans to keep up her work and extend the field as much as possible.

Nineteen students were enrolled in the Farwell leathercraft school, that is a pretty good average for instruction Mrs. Carney thinks.

Discussing the economy of persons doing their own leather work, Mrs. Carney stated a specific incident. One lady made a purse in the leather school which cost her $5.50. She then priced one like it in a leather store for $22.50. Naturally, the woman spent a lot of time and work on the purse, however.

Makes Own Designs

Mrs. Carney likes to work with patterns and draw her own designs. She is constantly finding pictures in magazines that will give her an idea for a new design in leather work. As for selling, she doesn't make articles for sale much any more. She will do special orders, however.

Discussing possibilities of students as they progress in their work and become more proficient, Mrs. Carney says, "As the person learns more about the work, how to use the tools, and what he can do with a design by working with various instruments, that's when he really begins to enjoy his work."

Bovina System Starts School September 4; Faculty Is Complete

Registration for Bovina Schools will begin Monday, Sept. 4, announces W. H. Willoughby, superintendent. He said this will include all students in both grade and high school.

The first of this week he released a complete list of instructors and their assignments. They are:

New instructors—Aubrey Tucker, band and chorus, who was graduated from Borger High School and attended the University of Tulsa and WTSC at Canyon; and Mrs. Charlie Horn, third grade, is transferring here from Turkey, Texas.

Teachers who will occupy the same positions as last year include R. E. Everett, high school principal and girls' coach; Mrs. Anna Noble, high school English and speech; Mrs. Ottilie M. Ellison, social science; Ola Francis Yarbrough, commercial; Mrs. Pauline O'Keefe, homemaking; Weldon Spinks, vocational agriculture; Clovis Ratliff, high school science and boys' coach; Floyd L. Montgomery, elementary principal and sixth grade teacher; Grace Paul, fourth and fifth grade teacher; Mrs. Floyd Montgomery, second grade; and W. H. Willoughby, superintendent of schools.

Supt Willoughby said that all work on school buildings was not yet completed, but added that when improvements are finished, the buildings will be completely repainted, fluorescent lighting will be installed, and all building floors will be hardwood.

STADIUM STEEL HERE

Long-awaited construction steel for Farwell High School's new 1200-seat football stadium is on the tracks this week, said Jack Williams, superintendent of schools. The contract originally called for completion of steelwork by Aug. 15, but material has been delayed by the critical international situation. Central Iron Works of Waco is contractor.

BOVINA BOY WILL RECEIVE BS DEGREE AT CANYON

Jerry Warren King, Bovina, is a candidate for a Bachelor of Science degree at West Texas State this summer. Commencement exercises will be held Wednesday, August 23, at 8 o'clock in Buffalo stadium.

Dr. Floyd Golden, president of Eastern New Mexico University, will be the speaker.

Farwell FFA Members To Leave Thursday

Seventeen members of the Farwell FFA Chapter are scheduled to leave on their annual encampment tomorrow (Thursday) night. They are planning to go to Daingerfield State Park, in the extreme eastern section of Texas, a short distance from both the Louisiana and Arkansas state lines.

To make the trip with them will be Robert L. Morton, adviser. They plan to go in a truck belonging to Merrill Glynn Rundell, and plan to return in one week.

This is their second trip to Daingerfield.

NEW FIRE TRUCK . . .

mum requirement, and that pump must not be located at the front of the truck.

He said that Texico's present Ford fire truck had proven satisfactory thus far, as the pumping mechanism allowed water to be under pressure while the truck was in motion.

The present truck was designed primarily as a "crash truck," to be used for such fast-moving emergencies as plane crashes.

Chief Thigpen and the council discussed ways and means of negotiating a purchase. Advertisement of bids was considered, but was rejected on the grounds that immediate action is of prime importance if the truck is to be purchased.

The council members agreed that in view of the present international situation, prompt action will be necessary if the truck is to be obtained at present prices without undue delay. Along with new cars, new fire trucks are becoming scarce.

The department will now correspond with several fire equipment dealers, and make a selection from the most satisfactory offer.

The truck has been purchased from Howe Fire Equipment Company of Anderson, Ind. Their representative, T. Reckenthaler, was present at a council meeting recently, answering questions with reference to the new equipment.

The equipment will be mounted on a Chevrolet chassis, and delivery is expected within 75 days.

With the addition of another modern truck, the Texico-Farwell department will be well equipped.

The truck formerly used by the department and still housed in the station is owned by Farwell Water Company, and Thigpen was unable to say what will be done with it.

Bob Stover, who lives north of Texico, reports that one of his milk cows was killed by lightning in a storm Tuesday night.

NATIONAL BEATS AMERICAN LEAGUERS IN AMATEUR ALL-STAR GAME SUNDAY

Texico-Farwell Players Instrumental in Victory

Amateur all-star talent of the West Texas-New Mexico circuit was paraded for two close games at Bell Park in Clovis Sunday afternoon, as the national league triumphed over the American leaguers.

Three players from the Texico-Farwell Bluesox were chosen for the contests. They were Don Ford, third baseman, Blackie Williams, fielder, and Toby Booth, pitcher.

The Bluesox stars were used in the second game, which ended in a hair-breadth 1-run margin for the Nationals, 10-9. Ford scored the winning run, being driven in by Williams who singled.

Booth pitched for three innings of the second game, those being the 3rd, 4th, and 5th.

Ford began the first lap of his winning run by topping a pitch which dribbled out toward the pitcher. The throw was wide at first, and he was able to move to second. With the next pitch which went to Williams, he stole third, and crossed the plate on Williams' single. Ford had three for four trips at batting.

The Nationals won the first game 5-2. Winning pitcher was White of Muleshoe. Howe of Big Square was winning hurler of the second.

All-star players picked from the National League included selections from Muleshoe, Texico-Farwell, Lazbuddie No. 1 and No. 2, Big Square, Arnold's of Portales, Dimmitt, and Bovina.

The American League is composed of Doc's Pontiac, Ranchers and Farmers of Clovis, Elida, Clovis Merchants, Dora, Grady, Ft. Sumner, and Fields.

Wilfred Quickel, manager of the Sox, said that the National League standings were rather muddled up at the present. The top four teams will be picked for post-season play-offs leading to the championship but three teams are tied for fourth place.

Texico-Farwell, Lazbuddie No. 2, and Dimmitt must play until a winner is picked to fill the fourth slot. Lazbuddie was to play a game Monday night.

Parmer County 4-H Wins Softball Title

Twelve members of the Parmer County 4-H delegation to a District II encampment at Lubbock last week returned home with an enviable athletic record.

They captured the Dist. II softball title, after beating four other county teams in the tournament. The Parmer Countians made a clean sweep of the single-elimination series, defeating Bailey 17-8, Cochran 36-4, Dawson 4-2, and Lamb 12-4.

Lubbock County was defending champion, and had won the trophy twice in a row. A team with three consecutive wins depts the trophy.

Besides winning the softball tournament, one 4-H boy from Parmer was made a district officer. He is Jimmy Tidenberg, who was elected secretary of the district.

Boys who made the trip who did not play softball participated in other recreational activities such as hiking, swimming, and leathercraft work.

The group left last Monday, returning Wednesday.

Jobs Attends Meeting Of New Mexico Coaches

S. S. Jobs, junior high school football coach at Farwell Schools, was in attendance at a coaching school in Albuquerque last week.

While there he heard instruction from Everett Shelton of Wyoming and Howard Hobson of Yale, basketball coaches; and Paul "Bean" Bryant of Kentucky and Rusty Russell of SMU, football coaches.

The meeting, sponsored by the New Mexico Athletic Association and Lions Clubs, was attended by all coaches of New Mexico and a number of Texas representatives, Jobs said.

LOCALS FILL PULPIT

Speakers in the absence of Rev. Murphy Duncan, pastor of the Texico-Farwell Methodist Church, Sunday were Agrie Jones, superintendent of Texico Schools, and Howard Graham, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. N. Graham of Farwell. Jones had charge of the morning services, speaking on the relation of religion and education. Sunday evening, Graham told of his experiences with a Methodist "youth caravan" while visiting churches this summer.

FLOYD CHILD HAS POLIO

Jimmie, 4-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. James Ford of Floyd, N. M., was taken to West Texas Polio Clinic at Plainview last Wednesday, and admitted for treatment of polio. His father and mother formerly lived here and are well known locally.

The father is a grandson of J. O. Ford, and the mother is the former Miss Evelyn Barnes, who clerked in Texico Postoffice some five years ago.

Read it in The Tribune FIRST.

Texico, New Mexico
August 14, 1950
Mayor Orval Francis,
City Commissioners of Texico
Gentlemen:

Again, I ask you to call an official meeting, property owners of Texico, for the purpose of a free, open, public discussion. Additional taxes, I now understand, you have consented to, and agreed to assess and collect against our property to pay something we have never yet received, and never will receive in the future.

I say no public official, nor official body from president down to and including you, have any legal power nor authority to do this. If you say you have, then I ask you, where do you get it?

You unquestionably know the property owners have never been given a chance to vote on this. I say until this is done, no mayor himself, nor in conjunction with city commissioners, cannot legally issue notes or bonds, sign them, and legally bind property owners to pay.

If this can be done in Texico, the same can be done in any city in New Mexico, and our pie-counter politicians, and their lawyers, have a perpetual goldmine, with property owners paying.

I say again, if any public official or official body, from president down to you, can do this, and then make, compell, and force, the property owners to pay, we have Stalin-Communism in Texico, against which our picked and best young men are now fighting, bleeding, and dying in Korea.

Fathers, mothers, property owners, the time is here to stand upon our feet and fight Communism here at home.

Yours Truly,
(Signed)

Wheat Allotments Go In Mail Saturday

The individual wheat allotments for 1951 were mailed to Parmer County wheat growers last Saturday, Joe Camp, PMA secretary, reported today.

The allotments, representing an increase of 6,947 acres over the entire county above the 1950 quota, were figured on the "base years" of 1946 through 1949. In most cases, the individual allotment in wheat acres for 1951 were increased, but in some cases the individual allotment for next year actually is less than for 1950.

Some farmers, especially those whose acreage has been cut, already have expressed themselves as planning to "plant the whole thing to wheat" regardless of the farm program, and this brought a warning from the local PMA office that a single farm's acreage if increased above the allotment, wheat produced on this farm will not be eligible for government loan.

"Naturally," said Camp, "we are not disposed to tell a grower what he can or cannot do, but we can only be governed by the regulations, and when a farmer overplants his acreage he simply is not entitled to plant the crop in the loan."

On the other hand, farmers con-

Parton Drives For 4-H Club Boys Trip

T. W. Parton returned Saturday from Las Cruces, where he had been driver for a group of Roosevelt County 4-H Club boys for the past week.

The boys and Parton left Monday for encampment held at New Mexico A. & M. campus. Parton said he "had a wonderful time and met a lot of the outstanding winners of the encampment."

Roosevelt County won first in points at the camp.

The entire encampment returned to White Sands Thursday afternoon for a picnic and candlelighting service, Parton said.

Many acres of cropland, ordinarily planted in grain sorghums, are idle at the present time because of unfavorable planting conditions at the proper time.
