

NEAR 200 GATHER AT MATTHEWS HOME FOR ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATION

FROM THE HOPPER

By HOP

Despite the curtailed postal service, our observation is that the usual flow of unpaid bills continue to reach our desk on time.

After bogging around in the slush and mud during his freshman year at ENMU last year, our son demanded a pair of overshoes when he prepared to go back to school last fall. When he returned home last week, among the accumulation of personal belongings were the overshoes, which had never been put in use for the entire nine months. We were telling the story in a barber shop the other day, and Gabe Anderson swore that he was still using the same overshoes he bought from Arkansas in 1922. Then someone recalled that Rip Snodgrass bought 300 pairs of overshoes last summer for the winter demand—and never sold a pair. All of which brings up the old saying, "The first liar never has a chance."

The fellow who complained only recently about his neighbor's dog making a disturbance now has four flea-bitten critters camping on his lawn. We wonder if that is just a mere happen-so or if it has been done with malice aforethought.

Donations Asked For Veterans' Hospital

The local American Legion Auxiliary is sponsoring a drive for badly needed items to be sent to the Veterans' Hospital at Amarillo, Mrs. John Getz, president of the local auxiliary, announced today.

She said all contributions may be left at the Farmers Supply Company in Texico, where they will be boxed and forwarded to Amarillo. She asked that all contributions be turned in not later than June 19.

Among the badly needed items, Mrs. Getz listed toilet articles, including tooth paste, razor blades, razors, emery boards, nail clippers, shaving cream, tooth brushes, etc., as well as such items as stationery and stamps.

Card table covers, bedroom slippers, and pillow cases also were listed as badly needed items by Mrs. Getz.

District Court Hears Six Cases Wednesday

Two divorce and three trespass to try title cases were heard by Dist. Judge E. A. Bills at the Parmer County Courthouse Wednesday, according to records of the County Clerk, Loyde Brewer. The suit of John T. Hartwell vs. R. W. Pringle and J. S. Triplett was dismissed for lack of prosecution.

Judgements were rendered for the plaintiffs in all the following cases: John H. Burrows vs. Peter Jacoby, trespass to try title; Irvin Lee Henderson vs. Mabel Viola Henderson, divorce; George H. Trimble vs. A. F. Herrick, trespass to try title; C. K. Holt vs. M. K. Russell, trespass to try title; D. C. Melugin vs. Margaret H. Melugin, divorce.

Doshier To Handle Muleshoe Auction

Col. Dick Doshier, local auctioneer, will be the official auctioneer at the Muleshoe Livestock Commission Company, it was announced here this week.

H. K. Freeman of Muleshoe has purchased the business from W. L. Wanzor, and arrangements have been completed for Doshier to handle the weekly auction sales every Wednesday.

Doshier said today that sales would be each Wednesday, starting at 12 o'clock with the offering of "outside stuff," consisting of farming implements and other miscellaneous items, and the livestock auction will follow in the afternoons.

Doshier also said that he would continue to handle farm sales as has been his practice for the past several years.

BOB KIRK HERE

Bob Kirk, candidate for district judge of the 65th District, was here Tuesday in the interest of his candidacy. He said that most of the region in the district had received fair to good rains the past week.

Now is the time to get the farm tractor in shape for the busy days ahead.

Nearly 200 friends and well-wishers of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Matthews gathered at their farm home six miles south of Texico, Sunday, to join in the happy occasion of celebrating their 40th wedding anniversary, and to enjoy the generous helping of barbecued beef and other delicious food.

The register reveals that 174 persons responded to the invitation of the pioneer couple, who have gone through some real pioneering experiences. Overcast skies kept the sun hidden and a breeze from the north served as a stimulation influence to keep the throng milling about in order to keep comfortable. Persons of advanced years—and there were many of them—sought refuge from the chilly air inside the house.

Shelters and serving tables had been erected along the north side of the house, with additional tables arranged along the outside of the yard, still farther to the north.

At the noon hour, lines were formed and the crowd surged by the serving tables where their plates were piled high with barbecued beef, red beans, pickles, salads, cake, and pie, with gallons of steaming coffee, iced tea, and bottled soda pop offering a choice of drinks.

Warren G. Harding, nephew of the Matthews, acted as master of ceremonies, and kept the brief program moving along with dispatch.

Mr. and Mrs. Matthews were married in Farwell June 1, 1910, by the Rev. S. F. Tipton, now deceased, who was a Baptist pastor here as that time.

Speaking of that experience, Mr. Matthews said he came to Farwell on the day before the wedding and secured a marriage license from a "little red-headed young fellow" who was deputy county clerk here at that time. That "little red-headed young fellow" is now the Honorable Sam G. Bratton, Federal Judge, located at Albuquerque.

Before being appointed to the judgeship, however, Judge Bratton served as district judge at Clovis, and was later elected to the U. S. Senate from New Mexico.

In a letter to the Matthews, Judge Bratton expressed his regrets at not being able to attend the celebration, explaining that he was engaged in court matters at Albuquerque.

Baptist School Report Good Attendance

Attendance at the summer vacation Bible school of Texico-Farwell Baptist Church was "practically the same" as last year's, stated Rev. O. O. Holladay, church pastor and superintendent of the school.

Rev. Holladay said this could be considered a satisfactory situation, since the school enjoyed a successful session last year. Monday—slightly more than half-way through the school term,—140 students had enrolled in classes, and average attendance had been over 100.

The final class session will be Friday, but the school does not officially close until Sunday night, when students have charge of a special commencement program that will take the place of regular services.

Rev. Holladay announced that a picnic for all school enrollees will be Friday afternoon at the Farwell park.

Father Of Local Pastor Dies At Waco Hospital

George R. Holladay, father of Rev. O. O. Holladay, pastor of the Texico-Farwell Baptist Church, died at a Veterans Hospital in Waco, Texas, last week. Rev. Holladay drove to Hico, Texas, for the funeral.

Mr. Holladay, who had been in ill health for some time, was a veteran of the Spanish-American war. He was 75 years old.

Lt. Rogers Transferred To Rhode Island Base

Lt. Commander and Mrs. Allan Rogers arrived here the latter part of last week for a two-week visit in the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Rogers, in Texico.

Lt. Rogers, who has been stationed at Whidbey Island, Washington, for the past several months, is being transferred to New Port, Rhode Island, and will report there after the visit with his parents.

New Mexico To Pave State Line Road

New Mexico State Highway Engineer B. B. Dwyer has advised Gov. Thomas J. Mabry that the New Mexico Highway Department is making preparations to pave approximately six miles of road, extending from Texico south along the Texas-New Mexico state line.

Engineer Dwyer also advises the Governor that his office expects to take bids for this work "about the 30th of June."

County officials of Parmer County contacted here Monday said that they had not received any requests or right-of-way easements along the route, but added that they would be provided if they are required.

W. J. Matthews, living six miles south on the line, said Monday he had contacted Gov. Mabry about the proposed road construction. It was agreed that the pavement will intersect the Bailey County farm-to-market road, a distance of seven miles south of here, instead of six. Matthews called attention to the fact that Engineer Dwyer set the distance at "approximately six miles."

The Bailey County pavement ends at the Texas-New Mexico line, seven miles south, and it has been the plan heretofore to join the roads at that point and bring the pavement into the Twin Cities.

Most Farmers Report Sufficient Moisture For Spring Planting

Most of the farmers contacted early this week express the belief and hope that they have sufficient moisture on their lands to proceed with spring planting operations, which being advanced underway Tuesday.

All farmers agreed that the moisture obtained from three rains during the past week are not sufficient to carry young crops over an extended time, and additional moisture will have to be forthcoming if the freshly planted feed crops are to come up and thrive.

"Just about enough to get the crops up," one well known farmer commented, and his opinion is pretty well shared with other producers.

Slightly less than a full inch—.92—of the rainfall was recorded here early Sunday evening, in what is reported to be the most general rain that has fallen here since early last fall.

Sunday night's rain, added to the .35 inch recorded Thursday afternoon, and .22 Friday night, brought local precipitation to .149 inches. However, the showers of Thursday and Friday were not of a general nature, with lesser amounts to none being reported from widely separated sections of this area.

Persons living along the extreme eastern side of Parmer County reported no rain at all Thursday and Friday. Other sections reported varying amounts, none of them heavy.

Reports gathered here the first of the week indicate that Sunday night's rain covered the entire county, with the general measurements being around a full inch. Dick Doshier, living southwest of Texico, reports an inch and a half. Sam Rundell, living southeast of here on Highway 70, says his gauge measured an inch and a quarter.

Reports from the Lazbuddy section say that a full inch fell there Sunday night, and W. J. Parker says .90 was recorded at Bovina.

Bob Sudderth, farming in the Parmer area, expressed doubt that he received enough moisture to justify planting from Sunday night's visitation. W. R. Minter, farming west of Friona, said his moisture was light, but he was making plans to start planting.

Home From ENMU: Will Enter Texas Tech

Harry Baker Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Baker Sr. of near Texico, arrived home from Eastern New Mexico University the past Wednesday after completion of his second year of college work. He has made arrangements to enter Texas Tech in Lubbock for the fall semester.

Farwell Up, Texico Down In Phone Book Entries

Entries in the current phone directory show a gain of 11 telephones for Farwell compared with entries in the December issue. Texico suffered a loss of 6 against the December directory.

Generally considered a fairly good parallel with population fluctuation, the figures show that Farwell now has 165 telephones, Texico 70, and the Twin Cities net 240 sets combined. In December, the total was 223.

Clearing Location For Tourist Court

Housemovers were engaged in clearing a location for Texico's newest tourist court the first of the week, and construction was scheduled to begin soon.

Claude Stone of Windsor, Ill., who recently bought six 30-foot lots along the curve where Highway 60 intersects Highway 70 in Texico, said he planned the erection of at least twelve thoroughly modern tourist cabins, equipped with refrigeration, shower baths, and air-conditioners.

"I may add more later," he stated. Stone said the courts would be operated by members of his family.

One of the houses that has occupied the site has been moved north of the Bob Williams property, and the other, occupied by the Jim Moss family, is now located north of the Lee Doshier home in north Texico.

Lions Set June 20 As Ladies' Night

The next regular meeting of the Texico-Farwell Lions Club will be observed as ladies' night, with all members being urged to bring their wives or their girl friends.

Ladies' night will be held in connection with the installation of the newly elected officers on Tuesday, June 20. The ladies of the Oklahoma Lane Methodist Church will serve lunch.

Program Chairman Walter Hargage promised a good program for the occasion.

Otis Huggins, secretary of the local club, gave a report of the state meeting at Deming. He said 49 key members and 11 master key members were reported during the past year in the state. The Texico-Farwell club took 11 and 6, respectively, of these awards.

Six Parmer 4-H Boys Awarded Sears Pigs

Six outstanding members of Parmer County 4-H Chapters have been awarded registered Chester-White gilts by the Sears Foundation, announced Joe Jones, County Agent.

The clubbers include Pat Allen, Lazbuddy; Leon Massey, Friona; Keith Batten, Friona; Joseph Crim, Lazbuddy; Kenneth Mcnefee, Friona; and Leon Richards, Bovina.

The awards were made on the basis of essays submitted by each contestant, Jones said. Jones and two outstanding adult 4-H leaders judged the essays and awarded the gilts.

Also given by the Sears Foundation was a registered Chester-White boar which will be used to service the gilts. James Tidensberg, Bovina, was awarded ownership of the boar.

Under the Sears program, eight gilts and one boar are given in Parmer each year. Owners of the gilts agree to let the county agent pick the choice 10-week-old pig from the litter of their gilts, and this pig will be given to another 4-H member. This makes it possible to continue the program indefinitely.

The Sears foundation makes possible this setup throughout Texas, in every county that has a Sears program, said the county agent.

Jones announced that two gilts remain to be given away, and urged that members who were interested in having one see him for contest rules.

Farmers and ranchmen should be on the alert for the next few weeks for the early hatches of grasshoppers. Control measures are most effective when used before the young 'hoppers leave the egg bed areas.

By a vote of 64 to 38, the voters of the City of Farwell approved a $40,000 bond issue in a special election here last Friday.

Less interest was manifested in the election than had been anticipated when only 102 votes were cast, as compared with 118 ballots polled in the incorporating election last month. Election officials explained that several voters were barred from voting on the grounds that they did not meet the requirements with reference to the length of residents in the city.

Mayor C. M. Henderson was out of town the first of the week when sought for a statement, but Councilman R. W. Anderson said that no steps had as yet been taken to carry forward the project. He said that Howren, Amarillo engineer, who has been employed to draw plans and attend engineering details, has been advised of the election results. He was scheduled to meet with the council some time this week to map out additional details on the system.

Naturally, he said, there is going to be considerable detail work yet to be done in issuing the bonds and getting them sold before any contract for installing the sewer system can be let.

Engineer Howren, on his last visit to this city, expressed the opinion that all details should be worked out and the sewer system in operation by September of this year.

"We are going to proceed with caution," Anderson said, "and not bind the city for any obligations that we are not sure can be carried out."

The sewer system, as outlined by Engineer Howren in his preliminary surveys, will be located so as to serve every residence, business house, and public building now located within the city that comes within the scope of practicability.

The disposal plant will be located east of the city on what is now being used as a public dumping ground.

No lines will be less than 6-inch, ranging up to 10 inches on the main lines. Four-inch lines are recommended for all connections from the point of origin to the mains along alleyways. Engineer Howren stated that he was designing a system that would accommodate a city of 5,000 population.

Bovina Wheat Growers To Hold Annual Meet

Manager Lee Thompson of the Bovina Wheat Growers, Inc., announced today that the annual stockholders meeting would be at the American Legion Hall in Bovina on Monday, June 12.

Thompson said the meeting would get underway at 8:30, and he was hoping for a full attendance on the part of the stockholders, as important matters were to come up.

A proposed amendment to the constitution and by-laws will be considered, Thompson said, adding that a new director is to be selected. M. L. McFarland is now serving out the term of J. P. Miller, whose tenure as a member expires this year. Light refreshments will be served at the meeting, Thompson concluded.

Leaving today for a boys' summer camp will be Claude Rose Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Rose, and Bert Williams, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Williams. The boys will stay at the camp, near Las Vegas, N. M., for one month.

CONTRACT LET FOR FARWELL STADIUM; SEASON TICKETS TO FURNISH REVENUE

Plans were still going ahead for Farwell High's long-awaited football stadium project, announces Jack Williams, superintendent. At a meeting Friday night, the school board sanctioned plans being formulated for the project, and contract for construction was let to the Central Iron Works Co. of Waco.

As originally planned, the building of the 1100 seats at the field would cost "around $5500" said Supt. Williams. However, he added that the building fund will be responsible for wood and concrete work on the bleachers, adding a probable additional $1500.

As an avenue of revenue, the school is seeking signatures on a petition pledging the purchase of five season tickets for the next three years, the tickets to sell for $10 each. In other words, Supt. Williams explained, a signer to the petition will

Complete but unofficial returns compiled here early Wednesday morning show the following have been nominated in the New Mexico Democratic primary election in Curry County:

Sheriff, Val Baumgart.
County Superintendent, Maude Pierson.

Probate Judge, Tom Woods.
State Representatives, Dr. M. S. Smith and Lewis Cox.

These were the only offices in the county being contested in Tuesday's primary, with the result that the incumbents were presented the nominations on silver platters.

Baumgart, a former Texico resident, who has served as chief deputy under Sheriff Bill Collins, took an early lead in the voting and maintained it throughout, emerging with a vote of 2215 in the final tabulations.

John W. Droke came in for second place with 795 ballots. O. C. Allred, Chief of the Texico Port of Entry, came out third in the voting with 732, carrying his home box an even 100 votes.

Maude Pierson, and John W. Gregory staged a horse race for the county superintendent's office, with the final result not being fully determined until the last four boxes were counted. Miss Pierson emerged victor by 151 ballots. The vote: Pierson, 2492; Gregory, 2341.

With two to be elected, Dr. M. S. Smith and Lewis Cox were named as members of the state legislature. J. R. Harrell ran third and was eliminated.

Tom Woods won the nomination for probate judge in a three-man race, defeating J. Simpson Morgan and J. L. Hawkins. Woods polled 1981 votes, with Morgan running second with 1637. Hawkins mustered 1015 for third place.

None of the incumbent county commissioners were being opposed, and there was no contest in the race for county clerk or county treasurer.

Miles Nominated

In the state races, it appears certain that former Governor John E. Miles has shoved aside the bid of Judge David Chaves for the governorship. Miles was well out in front early Wednesday morning, but some of the stronghold counties of Chaves were yet to be heard from.

John J. Dempsey and A. M. Fernandez appear to be certain winners of the two congressional posts. Dick Dickenson and Gene Autry were out in the lead of a field of eight candidates in their bid for lieutenant governor, with Dickenson an edge of about 2000 over Autry.

The race for state auditor is close, with Tom McGrath holding a slight lead over Bob Castner.

R. M. Grisson appears to have won the nomination for state treasurer, and it appears certain that a woman has been returned to the office of secretary of state, with Beatrice Roach holding a substantial lead.

Guy Shepard is the choice of the voters in the race for commissioner of public lands, and A. L. Zinn has a good margin over Henry G. Coors for justice of the supreme court.

SPECIAL TRAINING

Woody McDermitt of the City Cleaners will leave here Thursday for Albuquerque, where he will attend a three-day special course of instruction being offered by the National Institute of Cleaners and Dyers at New Mexico University. McDermitt said he would study new techniques regarding cleaning, pressing, and dying.

agree to buy five season tickets each year for the next three years, those tickets to be resold to other individuals. Thus far about 30 signatures have been secured among members of the Chamber of Commerce and local merchants. The original goal was 40.

The superintendent said "around $2600" was in the building fund at the present time, this amount having been raised through the sale of two beef calves. The campaign was sponsored by several townspeople and led by Jack McManigal.

"Money raised from the campaign totaled near $2700," said the superintendent, "but 10 percent of that amount went for the purchase of uniforms for the school band."

Size of the projected stadium will be rows of seats 60 feet long and 15 tiers high on one side of the field, and 60 feet by 9 tiers on the opposing side.

New Pamphlet Has Many Good Tips

Running a hobby shop can be an interesting combination of pleasure and business—but only when sound financial and retailing practices are adhered to, according to a pamphlet just released in El Paso by the U. S. Department of Commerce.

T. U. Purcell, district manager for the Commerce Department in El Paso, says that the pamphlet outlines the diversified requirements for successful operation of such a shop. The leaflet was issued as part of a series of "Small Business Aids" which are designed to help small businessmen improve management methods.

The Commerce Department release points out that interest in hobbies is now country-wide and growing and that hobby clubs have sprung up in almost every area. This means that there are enthusiastic groups of ready-made customers for hobby shops. It also means, the Department says, that the proprietor of such a shop should himself be an ardent "hobbyist", and so be capable of entering into the enthusiasms of those who visit his place of business.

Other practical aspects of hobby shop operation taken up in the leaflet include the capital and equipment necessary to open a hobby shop, choice of location, advertising, store displays and arrangement of merchandise, and types of hobby materials to be stocked. Sources of additional information are also listed.

Single copies of "Hobby Shops Can Be Profitable" may be obtained free of charge from the U. S. Department of Commerce, 206 U. S. Court House, El Paso.

wedding 40 years ago. She recalled how Will and Ludie drove up in front of the house in a single buggy, and Sam went out and married 'em.

Three other persons who were present at the marriage ceremony also were in attendance last Sunday. They were Barney Harding, brother of the (then) bride, and Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Klump, the latter being Mrs. Matthews' sister.

Awards Gold Medal
Master of ceremonies Harding introduced W. W. Nichols of Clovis, who paid tribute to the Matthews, and said "they were always willing to work and came out winners." He then presented Mrs. Matthews with the Cash Ramey gold medal.

B. N. Graham recalled the pioneer days of this region when "there was scarcely a wire fence between here and Lubbock, now a city of 70,000."

"Paying tribute to the honored couple he said, "We owe a great deal of credit to our pioneers . . . it takes courage and faith to be a pioneer."
Matthews then told of his return trip to the farm following the wedding. Pointing to the north, he recalled that as they drove down the road, his bride observed the huge piles of blown sand that almost had covered up the fence posts. She remarked, "I sure would hate to have to live on that place." Her husband agreed with her, "but 30 days later this was our home," he added.

Pioneers Tell Experiences
A. L. King, who lived on an adjoining farm to the Harding homestead, recalled that he and Mrs. King came here in 1907. "About a year later," he said, "the Hardings came here from Comanche County, and in about another year, Will followed so he could be close to Ludie." He told of many interesting pioneering experiences, including hauling water "for the first three years."

Joe Head related that he had known the Matthews for the past 27 years, "and I never met a fairer man in all my life than Bill Matthews."

Mrs. J. C. Temple and her daughter, Mrs. Ruby Dixon, who had made the statement that they were present at the Matthews' wedding, were invited to the speaker's platform, but declined with the explanation that they merely "peeked out the window" of their home to see what was taking place. "After that," Mrs. Dixon added, "I have always thought that you had to be seated in a buggy to get married."

The B. L. Harding family and Matthews were old friends in Comanche County. In January, 1909, the Harding family pulled up and came to New Mexico to homestead. In an

Texas, the Matthews returned to New Mexico, and he was employed to teach the Locust Grove school—with Ludie still one of his pupils.

Tells of Homesteading

Speaking of his homesteading experiences, Matthews said that at the time he and the Hardings came here, a three-mile strip along the Texas-New Mexico line had not yet been opened for homesteading because of a boundary dispute. Those who settled on land immediately adjoining Texas exercised "squatters rights" to await the outcome of the boundary dispute. It was not definitely settled until 1915.

In the meantime, the Matthews had bought a relinquishment from a man for $500, which included 164 acres of land, a small shack and a few household items. Matthews recalled that the deal required a down payment of $150, which he did not have. "But I found a man in Texico," he said, "who would loan me the money if I would have my daddy-in-law put up four mules as security, since I had no security whatever."

Then he told of the interest he had to pay on that $150. "I had to pay 5 percent per month on that loan, and I took that out of my school-teaching money each month." It began to look as though the loan was soon to be foreclosed, and the lender was to demand the four mules. "I found another man who agreed to let me have the money without security, at an interest rate of 3 percent per month, so I paid off the loan . . . and saved the mules."

Times Were Rough

Times were really rough about then for Bill and Ludie. His teaching certificate had to be renewed, and he had no funds. He and his wife agreed to sell a calf, which had been born to a cow given them by his father-in-law. "So I sold the calf for $8 and spent it getting my teaching certificate renewed."

When the 3-mile strip of land along the Texas-New Mexico border was finally declared open for settlement, all the Matthews had to do was to make final proof of the settlement, having lived out the requirements of homesteading while the boundary dispute was being settled. Fort Sumner was the location of the nearest U. S. Land Commissioner, presided over by Judge Mc-

"off the record" interview, Matthews admitted that he had been courting Ludie Harding back in Comanche County, "and I followed them on May 13, 1910."

They were married a brief two weeks later.

Taught School for a While

Following their marriage, Matthews taught school at a little one-room schoolhouse known as Plainview, which was located one mile east of what is generally known as the Armstrong farm, south of Farwell.

Among the students—of all ages—was his own wife, who also followed her husband back to Comanche County, where he taught another year, with his wife continuing as a student.

After spending a year in central

Gill, and the patent to the land was awarded the couple in 1915.

Today, the Matthews' farm has been expanded considerably, and they have one of the most modern farm homes in the country, with gas, electricity, and all modern conveniences which make rural life a real pleasure.

Why every car in the Indianapolis Race has a recessed floor!

It's the only way to get lowest possible center of gravity — maximum road-hugging stability — safety advantages equally vital to motorists who drive at conventional speeds on the nation's highways.

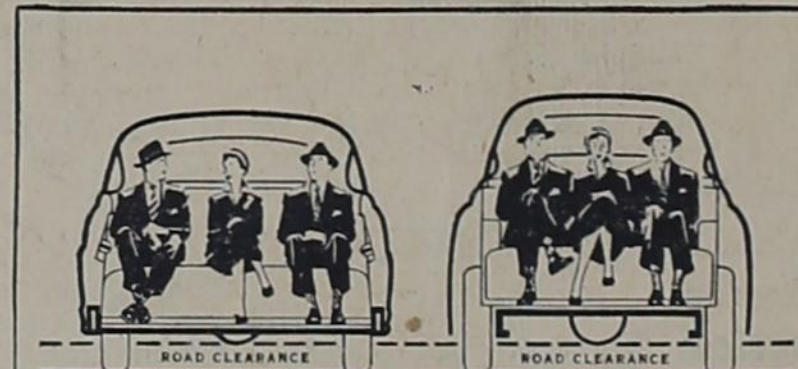

For the lowest possible center of gravity, for stability on turns, for greatest safety, race cars have recessed floors.

For the safest, steadiest way of going over all kinds of roads—Hudsons have a recessed floor ("step-down" design) and the lowest center of gravity in any American passenger car.

Race cars are built for speed on the tracks. Hudsons are built for outstanding comfort and roadability on the highways.

And brilliant engine performance, a traditional Hudson characteristic, is another indication of the sound engineering that goes into these great passenger cars.

If you have never had a card and are going to need one soon, or if you have lost your card, go to the local postoffice and get an application form. Fill it out and mail it to the Social Security Administration, Amarillo. You will receive your card in a few days. Be sure you always have just one social security number. See that your employer copies your name and number from the card each new place you go to work. Then when you or your family apply for payments based on your social security account there will be no delay. Do not apply for a card unless you are fairly sure to need it. Then get one promptly.

AUSTIN—How many people do you know that still cling to the old-fashioned idea that the sooner children catch the so-called diseases of childhood, the better off they'll be? Take whooping cough, for example. Isn't it ridiculous for children to have to suffer with it when it may be prevented by simple vaccination?

Whooping cough goes by the scientific name of pertussis. Regardless of what you call it, it still means violent, painful, wracking coughing that takes the breath and tears at the chest and throat walls.

Pertussis is prevalent among children everywhere. About 15 out of every 100 cases are in children under two. North America, from time to time, seems to have more than its fair share of cases.

Sometimes it's fatal, especially in very small children. About 85 out of every 100 whooping cough deaths are among two-year-olds and less. And, strangely enough, most deaths are among girls. In 1949 Texas had 46 whooping cough deaths. So far in 1950, an average of 323 cases has been reported every week.

Whooping cough is spread through droplet infection—that is, by breathing air contaminated by a sneeze or cough of an infected person. You can get it from using the personal things of an infected person, too. It is communicable from about 7 days after exposure until about three weeks after the coughing starts.

The important thing about whooping cough is that vaccination may protect against it. It's the only thing that will. If an unvaccinated child gets the disease, he will thereafter have what is called a "definite and prolonged immunity." But the fact of the matter is that second attacks have been known to occur.

Vaccination of all preschool children is the answer to control. "Booster" shots may be advisable within a year after the initial vaccination. Your family doctor will make that decision.

MISS JONES IS BRIDE OF MARION R. HUGHES IN IMPRESSIVE CHURCH CEREMONY, JUNE 4

The First Methodist Church in Portales was the scene of an impressive ceremony Sunday, June 4 at 2 o'clock when Miss Gervadine Jones, daughter of Supt. and Mrs. Agrie Jones of Texico, exchanged wedding vows with Marion R. Hughes, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Hughes of Portales.

The single ring ceremony was performed before an archway of greenery with large white satin ribbons, accented on either side with two huge baskets of cut flowers and featuring two seven-tiered candlebras which furnished a soft glow of light as Rev. Thurman Harris, pastor of the church, performed the ceremony.

Mrs. Jack W. Mears, church organist, furnished appropriate wedding music as the bride entered on the arm of her father who gave her in marriage. Miss Lona Mae Jones, sister of the bride, sang "I Love You Truly," after which Eugene Hughes, brother of the groom, joined Miss Jones in singing "Because" accompanied by Mrs. Mears at the organ.

The bride was lovely in a floor length dress of white organdy, which she had designed and made for her wedding, with a fitted bodice featuring a sweetheart neckline and petal point sleeves which extended down over her hands. She wore white accessories, and carried an arm bouquet of white roses. Her fingertip veil was made of white arayon knit, which was held in place by a halo of pearls.

Miss Lona Mae Jones attended her sister as maid-of-honor, wearing a yellow organdy dress and carrying a nosegay of blue daisies with blue satin streamers.

Miss Iona Hughes, sister of the groom, was dressed in a pink organdy dress with a yellow nosegay of daisies, and Miss Wavis Scoggin, classmate of the bride, wore a blue organdy dress and carried a nosegay of pink daisies. They acted as bridesmaids, and Eugene Hughes, brother of the groom, served as best man.

Little Miss Katherine Jones, cousin of the bride, was a junior bridesmaid and was dressed in a peach organdy frock and carried a small nosegay of white daisies.

Candlelighters for the occasion were Mrs. Delbert Dunn, cousin of the bride, who wore a lime green organdy dress and a shoulder corsage of pink carnations, and Miss Gwendolyn Eady, classmate of the bride, dressed in an orchid dress and wore a shoulder corsage of yellow carnations.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Jones chose a rose crepe dress with beige straw accessories and wore a pink carnation corsage, while Mrs. Hughes, mother of the groom, was attired in a printed black crepe dress with matching accessories and wore a corsage identical to that of Mrs. Jones.

Following the wedding ceremony the entire group gathered in the undercroft of the church for the reception. After the lovely three-tiered wedding cake had been traditionally cut by the bride and groom, Miss Wavis Scoggin served the couple while Mrs. Franklin V. Isaacs cut and served the cake. Miss Colene Eady, cousin of the bride, presided at the crystal floating punch service.

Mrs. James McBee, another cousin of the bride, was in charge of the guest book.

Floating hostesses for the occasion were Mesdames Percy James, N. G. Hunt, A. E. Hunt, Ida Webb, and N. B. Franks of Portales; and Mesdames B. B. McAlister, Dolly Garden, and Foy Jones of Floyd, New Mexico.

Mrs. Erma Jobs furnished soft nuptial music during the evening, and accompanied Misses Hettye Nann Randol, Joan Allison, and Kayla Felts, as they sang "Always" and "Forever."

After several games had been enjoyed and gifts were viewed by the group, refreshments of white bridal cake and orchid fruit punch were served to those present.

The honoree's mother, Mrs. L. L. Norton, and her mother-in-law, Mrs. Dick Gerries, assisted her in opening and displaying the gifts.

Methodist Vacation Bible School Ends With Successful Session

A successful vacation Bible school at the Texico-Farwell Methodist church closed its annual summer session Thursday evening with a public display of handiwork done by the students. Rev. Murphy Duncan, pastor, and dean of the school, expressed satisfaction with the school term, stating that this year was more successful than the previous Bible school.

A total of 78 students enrolled in four grade divisions for the term. These grades and their instructors were: Beginners—Mrs. Jim Moss, superintendent; Mrs. Gene Coffman and Oneta McMath, assistants. Primary—Mrs. Glenn Phillips, superintendent; Sandra Bateman and Mary Belle Aldridge, assistants. Juniors—Mrs. L. S. Pool, superintendent; Mrs. Charles Lovelace, assistant. Intermediates—Mrs. Murphy Duncan, superintendent; Mrs. D. O. Rolland, assistant.

The Bible school, with an average attendance of 59, closed Thursday with a picnic dinner. Students sponsored the program that evening.

The largest work exhibited Thursday night was a replica of a Biblical temple and court, finished in minute detail. This model was the joint project of the junior and intermediate groups.

Refreshments for the 10-day school were furnished by two church organizations. The Susannah Wesley Bible class served one week beginning May 22, and the Wesleyan Service Guild finished the term.

Mrs. Mae Means attended business matters in Muleshoe one day the past week.

EASTERN STAR INSTALLS NEW OFFICERS IN IMPRESSIVE CEREMONY AT BOVINA, MAY 29

In an impressive ceremony which was held at the Bovina American Legion Hall Thursday night, May 29, Chapter No. 839 of the Order of Eastern Star installed their new officers for the forthcoming year.

The hall was beautifully decorated with chosen colors of the Worthy Matron for the occasion; ashes of roses, orchid, and silver.

The stage was decorated with the Texas flag on one side and the American flag standing on the other, with palm and huge bouquets of gladiolias completing the arrangements.

At the five star points bouquets of flowers of the rainbow colors—blue, yellow, white, green, and red—were placed.

At the beginning of the meeting Mrs. Mary Lou Elliott sang "Now is the Hour" and "My Happiness," followed by two vocal solos by Jerry Jones: "O the Dear Little Girl," which he dedicated to the Worthy Matron, Mrs. Lura Rundell, and "We Thank Thee," accompanied by Mrs. Mary Leatrice Looney at the piano.

Before the installation of officers got underway, the Rainbow girls, under the direction of Mrs. John Aldridge, gave an impressive and beautiful drill. After the drill they presented the Worthy Matron with a lovely compact of silver and gold finish.

Installing officers for the occasion included Mrs. Willie Mae Ross of the Grand Chapter of Texas; Mrs. Mae Porter, Mrs. Maurine Dunn, Mrs. Thema Perkins, Opal Buchanan, Mrs. Joe Looney, Mrs. Tina Bainum, Mrs. Charles Ross, and Mrs. Bessie Denney.

The installing officers presented Mrs. Lura Rundell with a corsage of ashes of roses gladiolias, surrounded with small purple leaves, and tied with a white ribbon with silver edging, along with a white Bible which all the installing officers had previously autographed.

In return the installing officers were then presented with identical corsages of ashes of roses carnations with silver and white ribbon ties.

Worthy Matron, Mrs. Lura Rundell, then gave an inspirational talk on "Work of the Order of Eastern Star Taken from the Bible."

In the dining room the serving table was beautifully decorated with a lace cover over a green cloth. The centerpiece was made up of red roses and green fern, complimented on either side with white candles resting in holders tied with orchid and silver ribbons. After the group had assembled in the dining room the Rainbow girls served a silver tea of punch and cookies to the attendants.

All men participants in the ceremonies wore an ashes of roses carnation.

Over one hundred guests registered at the guest book which was in charge of Mrs. Bessie Denney.

Officers installed are as follows: Worthy Matron, Lura Rundell; Worthy Patron, Woodie McDermitt; Associate Matron, Katie Ellison; Associate Patron, Hubert Ellison; Secretary, Evelyn Macon; treasurer, Mae Bonds; conductress, Lillie Fuller; associate conductress, Gertrude Potts; chaplain, Alice Moore; marshal, Flora Edwards; organist, Mary Looney; Adah, Lucy Jones; Ruth, Julia Leake; Ester, Gladys Everett; Martha, Lenora McDermitt; Electa, Otie Ellison; Warder, Bonnie Warren; and sentinel, Aubrey Ellison.

Miss Linda Phillips Is Honored With Party On Third Birthday

Little Miss Linda Phillips, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Phillips Jr., was honored on her third birthday the past Saturday when her mother gave her a party in the home of her grandmother, Mrs. Guy Cox in Texico.

Both of the honoree's grandmothers, Mrs. Cox and Mrs. A. F. Phillips Sr., assisted by her mother, entertained the children with games, and presented each child a windmill stick for favors.

After several games had been enjoyed by the youngsters, they were taken into the dining room where a huge birthday cake decorated in pink and white with three candles centered the lovely lace covered table. After the little honoree had blown out the candles, cake and ice cream was served to those present.

All the children were accompanied by their mothers. Children present included Judy Lynn Crume, Friona; Lora Lou and Sue Ellen Deaton, Clovis; and Sandra and Brady Billingsley, Butch Magness, Gary Blain, Steve and Danny Foster, Lowell Duncan, Beverly Cassidy, Sherele, Peggy, and Cathy Martin, Dusty and Lora Lynn Holland—all of Texico-Farwell.

Add A Touch of Spring To Your Menus

COLLEGE STATION—It isn't too much trouble, and it will not upset the food budget to add a touch of spring to the menu. A clever homemaker with a dash of imagination and a sharp paring knife can work wonders with crisp little radishes, green leaf lettuce, snowy onions and golden carrots, says Louise Mason, extension foods and nutrition specialist of Texas A. & M. College.

She says the family will enjoy the added touch of color and the nice crisp vegetables are just good tonic for everyone. Here is her suggestion for giving macaroni and cheese a touch of spring. Stir a couple of chopped green onions into the cheese sauce before folding it into the macaroni. She likes to use the whole onions including the green tops.

If only a few spears of fresh, green asparagus are available and you want to share them with the family, the macaroni and cheese casserole makes a good setting for them. She says the cooked spears should be cut into lengths and folded into the cheese sauce along with the macaroni.

The use of a few crisp green pepper rings on top of the casserole is another good way to perk up the macaroni and cheese. The crunchiness of the pepper is a pleasant accent to the smoothness of the main dish, she says.

Fresh tomatoes, cut in thick slices and placed on top of the casserole before it is baked, add to the dish.

Crisp relishes served with the macaroni and cheese casserole set it off to good advantage. The color of the relishes plus their crunchy texture is just right for the smooth casserole dish, says Miss Mason.

Here's something different. Instead of making fancy radish roses, try slicing the radishes in thin slices, to within about an eighth of an inch of the underneath side, and then placing them in ice water so they can fan out. Maybe you'd like to try carrot curls for a change. Here is Miss Mason's suggestion for doing the job:

Slice the carrots lengthwise and very thin. The potato peeler is an excellent tool for the slicing job. While the slices are still pliable, roll them up and place the curls immediately in ice water.

To get those crunchy celery stalks, she says, cut the small green stalks to a point at each end and then split them in one-eighth inch strips, cut about half way to the center from each end of the stalk. The strips will spread apart when placed in ice water.

Miss Mason says foods deserve a lift and the plentiful supply of spring vegetables now available in the home garden or the grocery store can be used to add color, vitamins, minerals and that touch of spring to the family table.

Thompson Says It's Time To Creep Feed Calves

COLLEGE STATION—May ranchers and stock farmers in the state have found that creep feeding for calves is a practical and economical practice to follow. According to U. D. Thompson, assistant extension animal husbandman of Texas A. & M. College, now is the time to start the young calves on creep feeders.

He says the feeders are easy to build and are not expensive. The enclosure or fenced area should be constructed with an opening large enough for the calves to get through but too small for older cattle. Place the feeder inside the enclosure and fill with whole grain.

He points out that it is a good idea to confine an older animal in the creep pen as a decoy for the calves and also as an aid in getting them to eat from the feeder.

He points out that as much as 100 pounds of meat may be added to the calf's weight during the first six to eight months through the use of creep feeding. It has other advantages, too; permits marketing at an earlier age; the mother cows stay in better condition; calves are more uniform; shrinkage is less at weaning time; it shortens the feeding period after weaning and serves as a good market for home grown feed grains.

There are certain disadvantages that might make creep feeding impractical on some farms and ranches, Thompson pointed out. Extra equipment may be needed and there is the problem of getting the calves to eat.

Hogs, sheep, and goats must be kept out of the feeders and it would be well to check the prices you can expect for the calves when they are ready for market, the extra cost of production might not be justified. Creep feeding doesn't work so well in pastures that contain more than two sections and sometimes the location of the creepers creates a problem.

Thompson suggests that you check your own situation and if the advantages outweigh the disadvantages, give the creep feeding program a trial. Your local county agent can help you with plans for the enclosure as well as plans for the creep feeder. He can give you a suggested ration or two for use in the feeders and can probably help clear a lot of other questions that you might have on creep feeding.

We're Going to Church

AND A fine resolution it is! Worthy is it of our careful consideration! Every woman and every man in all this country will be a better citizen of his country and a better member of his community if he will follow this example.

THE Church speaks of God and of the eternal things; here serious people meet for the worship of the Highest and for giving thanks to the Giver of all good things to men. It is the symbol of man's upreaching of soul for that which abides and for that which links the human with the divine. Just as the soil grows sour and barren if it gets no sunshine, if there is no sky above it, so the human heart must have its heaven if it is to keep sweet and rich and productive of good.

"WE'RE going to church" for our own sakes, because we want to live nearer to the ideal. There we shall have good fellowship with other souls that are questing for the high and the holy and the true and the good. There we shall bow together before the God of forgiving grace and tell our sins, leaving them on the altar as in penitence we turn from them to walk the better way of good comradeship together. Repentance is a bath that cleanses the soul; consecration is the fire that warms and renews the soul; God is the Comrade and Friend and Saviour of every soul.

"WE'RE going to church" for the sake of the children we love and in high resolution that they shall be given the opportunity to live like the children of God; it is not enough for us to feed and clothe their bodies, for they are persons of eternal value, they are spirits akin to the Eternal God. Together we shall pray and worship; then we shall live helpfully and gloriously. "We're Going to Church!"

YOU IN THE CHURCH
THE CHURCH IN YOU
 Character is a by-product of the church. It is here that young and old alike are showered with benedictions that fortify and influence for a better citizenship and a stronger democracy. In the church the ministerial are molding religious character. Statesmen today declare that the church alone can furnish leadership to handle the affairs of state in these perilous times. Then we with our children should go to the church of our choice on Sunday. "You in the Church and the Church in you"—form a combination for good.

Lack Of Cold Weather Blamed For Peach Crop Loss

COLLEGE STATION—The mild weather during the past winter is causing Texas peach producers much concern. According to John Hutchison, associate extension horticultural specialist of Texas A. & M. College, there wasn't enough cold weather to give the trees the needed rest period.

Peach trees, he says, must have 750 hours of temperatures below 40 degrees before February 15 to produce a normal bloom foliage. This will vary widely with varieties.

The lack of cold weather, he says, will likely cause heavy shedding of the young fruit that is beginning to show up on the trees at time. The shedding will result from a lack of foliage on the trees which is necessary to maintain the proper development of the fruit.

All varieties of fruits, he says, are blooming from two to four weeks late. Burbank's early July elberta is one of the varieties that is showing the most promise at this time for it has set the heaviest crop of fruit. This would indicate that in the southeastern part of Texas, that perhaps future planting should include more of this variety.

Hutchison suggests that a spray solution made by mixing two pounds of lead arsenate, three pounds of 50 percent wettable DDT and 8 pounds of hydrated lime to 100 gallons of water be used on the trees that have set a fair crop and have some leaf foliage coming out at the present time.

It will protect fruit from curculio damage. If the leaves have come out on the trees, he recommends the addition of six pounds of wettable sulphur and three pounds of zinc sulphate to the above mixture.

He believes that orchard owners should give the trees the best of care for the existing conditions may cause heavy tree losses.

State Game Warden To Hold Meeting For Sportsman, Farmers

The old time county meeting is coming back in style. On June 19 the Texas Game, Fish and Oyster Commission will hold a public meeting at the Court House in Farwell at 8 p. m. The purpose of the meeting is to permit landowners, hunters, and fishermen to get together with representatives of the Game Commission and work out the various game and fish problems for the county. In an open forum discussion, open seasons, bag limits, methods for taking game and fish, and such other problems will be discussed.

After everyone has had his say, votes will be taken and recommendations will be made to the Texas Game Commission. The Commission will then consider all recommendations from all counties concerned in making the game and fish regulations which become effective September 1, 1950. Every interested person is urged to attend and take part in the program.

Sportsmen and landowners of the county are asked to be present and give their views regarding the game laws for this area for the current year. Under a new order, the Texas Panhandle has been designated as a special area with reference to game and fish laws, with the landowners and sportsmen being given the privilege of making recommendations regarding the regulations before they are made laws.

The forthcoming meeting is for the purpose of obtaining local opinion regarding game and fish regulations in this county.

Pat L. Donnelly, State Game Warden from Littlefield will be in charge of the meeting.

Little Consideration Given To Formation Of Water District

Although irrigation continues on the boom in Parmer County, little or no interest is being manifest for the formation of an underground water conservation district locally, according to a check by a Tribune reporter.

Under a law enacted by the Texas legislature in 1949 a county—or counties—may form a water conservation district in order to protect and replenish the irrigating supply, and several counties over the high plains have formed such groups within the past few months, as others are in the process of being organized.

To get such a district organized, the county first petitions the Texas Water Board to send engineers to determine the boundaries of the underground water basin. After the boundaries are outlined, the next step is to submit a petition for an election, with the outcome determining whether or not such a district will be formed. In areas where the basin boundaries fall within one county, the commissioners court is empowered to call the election, if requested; if the basin extends under one or more counties, a joint petition is submitted to the state board for calling the election.

Primary purpose of the formation of such water conservation districts, sponsors say, is to keep control of the underground supply in the hands of those who are actually using it and benefitting from it. On the other hand, the district would encourage measures to prevent loss of water, and study methods to re-charge the underground supply. In state control, drilling and pumping of irrigation wells would be regulated by the state, it is pointed out.

TEXICO-FARWELL BLUE SOX TIE WITH DIMMITT NINE IN MATCH SUNDAY

Calling the game at the end of 8½ innings of play because of rain, the Texico-Farwell Blue Sox knotted the score with a visiting Dimmitt nine Sunday afternoon. The Sox were minus a chance at bat when the shower interrupted play, and Manager Wilfred Quickel was uncertain whether the game would be finished at another time, or a double-header scheduled with opponents.

Southpaw Toby Booth went all the way for the Sox, fanning a total of 15 players. He allowed only 3 hits. Hall of Dimmitt was relieved by Birdwell in the seventh after holding Texico-Farwell to 1 hit. Birdwell allowed an additional 4 hits.

The visitors took an early lead over their opponents with a run scored in the second inning. They broadened the gap to 3-0 with a run in both the third and fifth. The Blue Sox scored 1 in the fifth, and added 2 more in the seventh to end scoring for both teams.

New Water Main For Court House Grounds

County Judge A. D. Smith stated the first of the week that the county commissioners had agreed that a new 4-inch water main would be installed from the courthouse to the city water tower.

Judge Smith said that it had been discovered there was insufficient pressure to serve the water needs of the courthouse after the installation of the sprinkler system for the large lawn now being completed. Judge Smith said the larger pipe would assure adequate coverage.

Baptist Brotherhood Meets at Lakeside

About 150 members of the Baptist Brotherhood of the Plains Association are expected to assemble at the Boy Scout camp located near Alamogordo Lake, north of Ft. Sumner, Thursday, where they will attend a two-day fellowship meeting, combined with pleasure.

The first gathering is scheduled for Thursday evening with devotional services, to be followed Friday morning in the forenoon with other services. The meeting will conclude with the noon meal on Friday, after which those in attendance are at liberty to go fishing, boating, or return to their homes.

Three meals will be served camp style, with the Texico-Farwell group being responsible for the meal on Thursday evening. At least six, and possibly eight, members of the local church brotherhood are planning to attend the gathering.

Raymond Mears Resigns From Texico Council

Raymond Mears tendered his resignation from the Texico Town Council at a meeting of that body at the Town Hall Monday night. Mears, who has served for the past two years, said that he was taking his action because he is moving from Texico and would no longer be a Texico citizen.

Clerk W. L. Freeman read Mears' request and the council accepted it. Grayson Roberts was elected to fill the vacancy.

Hardage Starts New Residence In Farwell

Walter Hardage has let contract for the construction of a three-bedroom residence on Third Street in Farwell, immediately south of the Claude Rose home.

Darrell Arnold of Clovis was awarded the contract. Overall dimensions of the building will be 45' 6" x 23' for the house proper, with an attached 12x22 garage. The exterior will be vertical siding half way and the upper walls stuccoed. It will be modern throughout.

Texico Citizens Are Warned Of Plumbing Statute Regulations

Attention was called this week by the Texico Town Council to a state statute forbidding installation of plumbing inside the city by unlicensed workmen. The law, passed by the legislature in late 1949, was discussed at a council meeting at the Town Hall Monday. The councilmen agreed that many Texico citizens were unfamiliar with the new statute, and warned persons who might now be engaged in construction that all plumbing must be done by a licensed plumber, then inspected by a state plumbing official.

Clerk W. L. Freeman said, "As I understand it, a person must either secure the services of a licensed plumber or obtain a special permit to do his own work. He may not get a permit to do work for someone else. Then the plumbing is subject to inspection by the state."

Since Texico has no licensed plumber, this would necessitate employment of non-resident workmen. To secure a license, a plumber must pass a state examination.

Heretofore, little difficulty has been encountered in Texico because of the new law, but trouble had been experienced in other New Mexico cities. The council felt citizens should be warned of the new plumbing restrictions.

They said that an individual who installed plumbing that would not meet state requirements would have to be removed.

Also discussed by the council was a project calling for extension of a six-inch water main to the Texico school. Mayor Orval W. Francis said the northwest section of the city was being supplied with only a two-inch pipe at present, and this was proving insufficient. He warned that action must be taken soon before the belated summer months set in with their high consumption of water. Mayor Francis estimated cost of the proposed improvement at "about $3500." Lewis Cox, Clovis attorney, was present at the meeting to advise on legality of the proposed extension, and said the city was entitled to assess meters, provided the line ran adjacent an assessee's property.

Another council meeting was scheduled for tonight (Wednesday), and any official action on the matter was postponed for further consideration.

Agent, 4-H Clubbers To Attend State Meet

To attend the State 4-H Round-Up at Texas A. & M. in College Station next week will be Leon Langford, Farwell, and James Tidenberg, Bovina. They will be accompanied by County Agent Joe Jones, who will attend a county agent's conference in conjunction with the round-up.

Jones said that each year two outstanding 4-H Club members were picked from Farmer County to attend the meeting. The three will leave here Saturday for College Station, as the convention will last June 12 through the 16.

The Bovina Chamber of Commerce is sponsoring Tidenberg's trip.
