J. EVETTS HALEY WILL BE SPEAKER AT LOCAL CHAMBER OF COMMERCE FEED

FROM THE HOPPER

By LITTLE HOP

For the past several years, the Hopper column has been the only editorial content of The Tribune, and has been written by our venerable editor, Mr. Graham. As most of our readers are informed, the old boy is enjoying a brief respite in the hospital, away from the cares and worries of newspapering.

To hear him gripe about the food and how much it's costing him to lie there on his back day after day, you'd think he was in pretty sorry shape. But his appearance betrays him, and we figure he'll be back to writing before too many weeks. He remains appreciative of friendly correspondence he's getting, and hopes it doesn't discontinue.

The weather just keeps on being that way. Cold as the dickens, but not a bit of moisture. Varying reports, most of them unofficial, put the mercury anywhere between 6 above and 6 below the first of the week. Doesn't really make much difference to us. Anywhere in that neighborhood and we still have a heck of a time starting the wagon in the morning.

And Texico Town Clerk W. L. Freeman tells us that his new dog tags are in now. It'll cost you a buck to license your family nuisance this year, but with prices the way they are, that's not too bad. Cost a dollar last year, too.

The chamber of Commerce will verify any cold weather reports you might want backed up. They had planned to elect new officers Monday night, but Old Man Winter prompted them to postpone it for a while. A Tribune reporter was dispatched to the scene, camera in hand, with the hope of getting a shot of the new brass. He opened the door of the Legion Hall, rushed in with his arms loaded with paraphernalia, ready to go to work.

At the end of a long banquet table huddled a small group of businessmen. "Now hold on . . . wait a minute," they protested. "It's too cold to have an election."

The cold snap has even slowed down our local politics.

Sonny Graham, who has been attending Southern Methodist University at Dallas, arrived here Saturday for a between-semester visit with his parents. He is transferring to Eastern New Mexico University at Portales for the second semester of his junior year, and will take over the editing of The Tribune in the near future, while Editor Hop Graham remains confined to the Memorial hospital in Clovis.

County Agent Joe Jones has some new views on emergency camping it was learned here today. Last week he went to Ft. Worth to the stock show, and found to his surprise that there was no place in town to put up for the night. So he spent the chilly evening prone on his pickup bed.

J. Evetts Haley, of Canyon, noted historian and writer for the Plains area, has accepted an invitation to appear as guest speaker when the Farwell Chamber of Commerce throws its annual banquet.

Bob Anderson, who made the announcement, said that definite plans have been made for the banquet to be held in the auditorium of the Farwell school on the night of February 19, beginning at 8 o'clock.

Haley, who is noted over this area for his writing of the history of the JXT ranch, also writes a weekly column for an Amarillo paper, and is expected to be one of the most interesting speakers ever secured for the social, Anderson stated. He has been given his own choice of topic.

Further program plans reveal that the Farwell school band will appear in several numbers, and Mrs. Erma Jobs will have charge of presenting some unusual floor show numbers, Anderson said. The banquet itself will be served by members of the Band Mothers Club, with all proceeds going to that organization.

Tickets will go on sale this week, with band club members and businessmen assisting in the advance sales, Anderson continued. Price for the meal is $2 per plate, and it is expected that some 225 will be on hand for the affair. Attendants last year numbered 217, officials added.

Chamber of Commerce officials from Bovina, Friona, Hereford and Clovis will be invited to attend as special guests of the local Chamber, Anderson added, and at present, it is hoped to secure C. O. Greene, of Clovis, to serve as toastmaster.

Officials reminded that the affair is not limited to men, urging that all local businessmen and farmers make plans now to take their wives out for one of the highlights of the CC program.

In charge of arrangements this year are Anderson, Otis Huggins, Claude Rose and Joe Crume.

Texico Court Kept Busy; Fine Several For Drunkenness

It was a busy time last week for Texico peace officers, with one case of disorderly conduct and destroying of property reported; one case of drunken driving; five charges of drunkenness and riding with an intoxicated driver, Sam Lewis, police magistrate, reports.

Raynell Williams of Anton, was fined $150, court costs, and was instructed to pay $15 damages for destruction of property. Her driver's license was suspended for one year.

A local boy was fined $10 and costs for disorderly conduct and property destruction, Lewis states; and a Causey man was fined $100 for riding with and furnishing a car for an intoxicated driver.

A Portales woman was fined $10 and court costs for riding with a drunken driver; and three boys, one from Portales and two from Hobbs, were fined $25 each and court costs for drunkenness and riding with an intoxicated driver.

CLERK'S OFFICE FEES SHOW BIG INCREASE OVER 1949

It Finally Got Here

It's a wee bit late to be of much service to that welcome old gentleman, St. Nick, but the snow has finally arrived.

As The Tribune went to press this morning, the ground was covered with about two inches, and it was still snowing very lightly.

Farmers greet the flakes with smiles, they say they still have some hope for saving a wheat crop next season.

EDITOR HOP IMPROVES

Editor Hop Graham, who has spent the past three weeks in Memorial Hospital in Clovis, suffering with a heart condition, felt like a new man on Monday. The reason: for the first time he was allowed to leave his bed and enjoyed visiting privileges as he was wheeled up and down the hall in a wheel chair. Graham's physician reports his condition as improving, but declines to say when the editor can return home.

Coldest Snap Strikes Area Monday A.M.

The coldest weather of the current winter struck the Plains area on Monday of this week, and failed to improve much as the week progressed, although some warmer temperatures were slated to come in over the area Thursday afternoon.

Aubrey Sprawls, at the Santa Fe station, gave the official low reading for Monday morning as 2 degrees above zero, and the Twin Cities practically experienced a heat wave during the afternoon when the mercury hit 20 degrees at 4 o'clock.

Tuesday morning's reading was also in the shivering area, with a chilly 5 degrees above being recorded at the depot, Sprawls added.

While it was cold, the weather was not bad locally, with only light winds here and no precipitation recorded.

Farmers over the area were hopeful when the first storm warnings were broadcast Sunday that the front would bring some badly-needed moisture to the area, but up to Tuesday afternoon their hopes had been in vain, as a cool sun peered down.

Wheat is still in need of moisture, farmers report, although the two snow flurries received here during the early part of January were gladly received. In general, grazing of the wheat fields has been at a standstill for some weeks, and in a number of instances, operators turned up irrigation motors last week and began the job of supplying artificial rain to the crop.

Today Is Last Day To Pay Poll Taxes

Attaches at the office of Collector Chas. Lovelace are reminded that today (Wednesday), January 31st, is the final day on which poll taxes for the year 1951 can be paid.

On Tuesday afternoon a total of 1290 polls had been issued from the local office, and indications were that the total would reach the 1500 mark before the deadline which is a fairly good ratio, considering that this is an off-election year.

In 1950, when residents voted on practically everything, the number of polls issued in the county reached over the 2500 mark, deputies reported.

Wednesday is also the final day for payment of 1950 taxes without delinquent penalties, and the tax collector's office was busy the first of the week with last-minute payments of taxes.

A large number of big taxpayers in the county turned in their monies preceding the first of the year, as reductions are offered in the final months, and estimates at the office the first of the week placed the total paid thus far at "better than 90 per cent."

Beginning February 1, a 1% penalty charge is added to tax payments, with the percentage increasing each month the taxes remain delinquent. In addition, interest at the rate of 6% per annum is assessed.

Parmer County's financial situation got a nice boost in increased fees from the county clerk's office during 1950, Loyde A. Brewer, county and district clerk, reported the first of the week.

During the past year, Brewer said, some $7500 was received at the office on fees, as compared to an approximate $4000 total during the year of 1949.

Brewer went on to explain that until two years ago the county clerk was paid on a fee basis, but a change in the ruling put all workers into the fees themselves going into the county treasury.

Questioned about the increase, Brewer said that a large majority of the fee hikes came through increased oil leasing in this area, as all such papers are required to be filed in the office. "Although," he reserved, "practically every phase of our recording work has shown increases during the year, with corresponding hikes in fees received."

As to the lease activity, the clerk reported that operatives of "practically all" of the major oil companies in the country had been active in taking and filing leases, with the lion's share probably held by Gulf and Magnolia.

Activity along this line began on the northeastern side of the county, he added, and at present, the entire eastern part of the county is "well covered."

The county commissioners recently approved the addition of another deputy to the clerk's staff, "as needed," Mrs. Dorothy Quickel assists Mrs. Rosa Lee Tabor, Brewer said.

Only Two Names Filed For Elections

Names of two candidates have been filed with Town Clerk W. L. Freeman for positions on the Texico school board, Freeman said Monday, adding that filing will be open through this (Wednesday) afternoon.

Election of two trustees for the board comes Feb. 6, Tuesday of next week, with the terms of John Hadley and Perry Crawley expiring. At present, names of both retiring trustees have been filed for re-election, it was announced.

Voting for the positions will be conducted in the Texico City Hall, and the polls will be open at 9 a. m., closing at 6 p. m., (CST) Freeman announced.

Perry Owens, G. W. Atchley, and Charley McDaniel will serve as election judges, and Mrs. Orval Francis and Mrs. Roscoe Burris are named as clerks for the voting.

Hold-over trustees for the school board include Truman Doolittle, Claude Curry, and Edward Engram.

Freeman added that ballots will provide space for write-in candidates, if the voters prefer to submit their own candidates on election day.

Grass Drill Arrives For SCS District

A new Hancock grass drill for use in the Farwell-Bovina area of the Parmer County Soil Conservation district has arrived in the county, Bill Kennedy, office supervisor, said on Monday of this week.

This is the second such drill to be purchased though the SCS, which in turn rents it out to cooperating farmers in the various areas of the county, Kennedy explained. The other drill is located in the Friona-Black area.

Primarily, the drill is used for the seeding of permanent pastures where farmers are irrigating, Kennedy explained, but added that it could be used for any type of grass seeding.

The drill will be moved into the Farwell-Bovina area "as soon as we find someone to take charge of it," officials said today.

Rent charges for use of the drill are $10 per day, with a $10 minimum, or 50c per acre, officials added. Interested parties are invited to contact Buddy Jones or Henry Reynolds, supervisors in the Farwell-Bovina area, or the SCS office in Friona.

A grand total of three hundred and seventy-four lots in Farwell will go under the hammer at sheriff's sales called by delinquent tax suits on Tuesday of next week, February 6th, with two lots in the town of Friona also slated for sale.

Notices have been published in The Tribune for the past three weeks and in order to better acquaint prospective buyers with the specific locations of the varied lots up for sale, The Tribune is this week printing (on an inside page) a partial map of Farwell with the lots marked.

In all probability, the three lots which have drawn the most attention are Nos. 26, 27 and 28 in Block 27 in Farwell, being located between the property owned by Mrs. T. E. Lovelace and the building housing this paper, just across the street from the courthouse square.

A two-lot corner location is available on the northwest corner of Block 27, the lots being due north of the B. N. Graham home on second Street.

Another choice corner location is available, of two lots, just across the street east from the Ben Smart residence. The biggest groups of lots, in the extreme southern section of town, known as the Farwell Heights addition, with some complete blocks of 32 lots each being offered.

Sheriff Chas. Lovelace will conduct the sale at the courthouses in Farwell. Notice of sale reads "between the hours of 10 o'clock a. m. and 4 o'clock p. m." and interested parties are invited to be on hand for the bidding.

Directors Meeting Is Called For Feb. 2

The board of directors of the Parmer County Farm Bureau will meet in Farwell, Friday, Feb. 2, for a luncheon meeting to plan for their annual membership drive.

Bruce Parr, president of the County Farm Bureau said, "Farm Bureau said, "Farm Bureau district two, which is composed of 16 South Plains counties and 6,082 members, is beginning its district-wide membership drive very soon. This district has accepted a quota of 7,750 members in 1951 and each county is expected to reach its accepted quota. Parmer county's quota is 450 members. Therefore, we are asking every farmer and rancher to join Farm Bureau with us and make Parmer county an even better agricultural county."

"The Texas legislature convened January 9, with some bills to discuss that will affect every South Plains farmer and rancher. To insure that we are represented when these pieces of legislation are presented, we must endeavor to invite everyone to join Farm Bureau during our membership drive," Parr said.

"The board of directors of the Parmer County Farm Bureau will meet and discuss the possibility of having community educational meetings during our membership drive," Parr concluded.

Almost Overcome By Carbon Monoxide

Jack England, of Clovis, whose father, Al England, is employed at the Bagley Service Station located on the Amarillo highway, suffered only minor after-effects from a near-brush with carbon monoxide suffocation on Sunday.

The youth was changing the oil in his car, which had been driven up on the grease rack at the station. Due to the cold weather, young England shut the outside door of the service room, while he had the car engine running.

Feeling ill, he managed to get outside before being overcome by the fumes, and later was reported as thoroughly recovered.

"Cuppa Cawfee" Sales Raise Polio Donations

Sales of coffee at 10c per cup hiked the polio fund donations in Texico during the past Saturday, when Jim's Cafe conducted its annual one-day sale of the nickle drink for a dime.

Mrs. Moore reported that some 200 cups of coffee went to local toppers at 10c during the day, with all money thus received turned in to the March of Dimes.

Contributions in Parmer county's 1951 drive for the March of Dimes had reached to a total of $1257.70 on Tuesday morning of this week, with some reports yet to come in from benefits, and none of the "iron lung" contribution boxes in the county being checked, Loyde Brewer, heading the drive in Farwell, reported.

With only one day (Wednesday) actually remaining for the regular campaign, which opened on January 15th and is slated to wind up on the last day of the month, Brewer was doubtful when he made his report that the county total would reach the high attained last year, when approximately $3700.00 was donated by citizens of the county.

Various benefits were staged over the county during the past week and at the first of the current week, with one other specialty yet to be worked out. Plans are being contemplated for a benefit ball game to be played between the Texico-Farwell and Clovis Lions, but a date could not be secured this week. Proceeds from this activity will go into the Dimes campaign, although they may be a "little late," officials said today.

Looking over the reports now on hand, Rhea went all out last weekend with two special programs, one being held at the Lutheran parish house on Friday night, when $160.32 was raised. Brewer showed the polio film, "In Daily Battle," and a contest to name the most beautiful woman and ugliest man attending was conducted, with the honors going to Mrs. Floyd Schlenker and Melvin Sachs, respectively.

On Saturday night a dance was conducted in the Rhea community, and Robert Leach reported the proceeds from that affair at $92.05. Mrs. Paul Keoltzow has served as chairman of the drive in the community this year.

Supt. Jack Williams and Brewer were out making personal solicitations in Farwell on Monday, and reported that they secured a total of $297.86 through this means, with $25 being donated from the American Legion Auxiliary and a like amount from the local fire department.

Williams said further that the contribution cards issued at the school had not been completely tallied as yet, but estimated that they would hike the local total considerably.

The Lazbuddy PTA sponsored a special program which drew a full house at the school last Thursday night, with the attendants donating $238.54.

Seventh and eighth graders, as well as various individuals, presented an entertaining program at the Lazbuddy school, with R. B. McAlister, of KICA, Clovis, making a short talk, and the polio film also being shown by Brewer.

From the Black community, where Mrs. Walter Fangman was in charge, a program last weekend netted $99.60 to the drive, Al Romich, head of the county campaign, reports.

Although attendance was cut by bad weather, a fair crowd was on hand for the Oklahoma Lane polio drive program Monday night, at the school house, with S. S. Jobs, chairman of the drive, reporting a total of $66.74 collected.

Special speakers included Carlos Gruber, a Latvian currently attending Wayland College at Plainview, and Judge Lovelady, of Muleshoe. Gruber spoke feelingly on communism, having experienced some its effects in his native country, and Judge Lovelady outlined the purpose of the March of Dimes.

Gruber, who is a talented violinist, also obliged with a number, while other musical selections were offered by the school chorus.

Friona's Girl Scouts established contribution tables in the postoffice, the City Drug and the Friona State Bank the past Saturday to make individual solicitations, and reported a total of $206.07 turned in to them. Assisting the girls were Mesdames Sloan Osborn, Frank Spring, Bill Stewart and Ralph Wilson.

A square dance was sponsored Saturday night in Friona by Carl Maurer, with another $21.29 being added to the treasury.

Sponsored by the Bovina PTA, a benefit ball game between the high school and outsiders teams was played at the gymnasium on Monday night, with admission charges going to the March of Dimes. The PTA members also donated food which was sold attendants, and a total of $75.23 was reported by Chairman R. E. Everett, who stated that the cold weather cut the crowd down considerably.

Everett added that O. W. Rhinehart was contacting Bovina Lodge members for contributions, and that students at the school were turning in cards with dimes attached, none of which has been tabulated as yet.

Purposes Of Veterans School Are Outlined By Instructor Quickel

What is the purpose of the vocational school for veterans—in Farwell and other towns throughout the nation? According to Wilfred Quickel, veteran's instructor in Farwell, the system has a two-fold purpose.

First, it gives the veterans instructions which they may have missed by not having the opportunity for vocational study in school and helps them to keep up on scientific and correct ways to farm. By teaching the veterans, the farms of the nation are left in as good or better shape for posterity than they are now.

The second overall purpose of the program is to enable the veterans to gain knowledge to give themselves and their families a better standard of living.

The veteran's school is for eligible vets engaged in farming under their own management.

The national program was begun in September of 1945 and the program reached Farmer County in November of 1946, Quickel points out. The Farwell class began in August of 1947.

Quickel says that the subjects included in the course vary quite extensively. Taking up one-fifth of the time required to complete the study is farm management. The students learn to keep accurate farm records; learn to plan ahead for farm operations, and study how and when to seek expert advice.

Also of utmost importance in the class agenda is animal husbandry, which includes production in dairying, beef cattle and swine. The class takes up the feeds used and the process of feeding the various animals; and other problems confronted by the farmer who deals in animal husbandry. Included in this study is sanitation, marketing, and breeds and breeding.

Farm shop is also one of the principal courses, Quickel says. In this phase of the work, veterans are taught care and maintenance of tools, how to repair machinery and equipment; also how to construct needed farm implements and farm buildings.

Two students in the class, Loyd and Earl Routon, built their father a house by following instructions in their manual, Quickel emphasized.

There is also a short course taught on how to build "knick-knacks" and to repair furniture.

Study of the elements of soil and crop management including work on soil conservation; and the study of the types and uses of fertilization; are considered important in the class discussions.

Also included in this phase of study is crop selection and management, utilization of land to the best advantage, and marketing of crops.

With the remainder of the time in the three-year course, veterans study poultry husbandry, food preservation, gardening, homestead beautification, agricultural arithmetic and literature, installation of home conveniences and orcharding.

Eligibility Rules

To be eligible for the instruction, veterans must have had 90 days service in the armed forces between Sept. 1, 1941 and Sept. 1, 1947, and must have received an honorable discharge.

The length of time that he is eligible for the veteran's course is determined also by the period of time he was in the service. The number of months that he served plus 12 months, shows how long he may take the course, up to 48 months which is the longest duration.

Veterans meet eight night classes and five day classes in a month; and the instructor makes two home visits to each member of the class during the month. These special visits are designed for supervision and problem work, Quickel points out.

Veteran's salaries for taking the course vary, according to the instructor. Married men with children receive $97.50 a month; married men with no children receive $93.75; and single men get $67.50.

At present, there are 19 men enrolled in the Farwell class, with 50 in the complete county, Quickel adds. Other instructors include Harold Hillock, who is also county coordinator at Friona; Leon Grissom at Lazbuddie; Mr. Hefley at Bovina. Tyson Eubanks teaches all fourth year classes at Bovina.

Of the Farwell group, one-third of the veterans own their own farms and most of the other members plan to purchase land later. Of the 19 boys, five are disabled veterans with 40% to 100% disabilities. "I get excellent cooperation from the disabled veterans," Quickel states, "they are quite capable of managing their farms in a husbandry manner."

About $2500 is invested in the local plant, and Quickel explains when the program is completed, the equipment will be reversed to the public school system. All classes in the county are held at the public schools except at Bovina. Because of class conflicts, they have their own building.

The veteran's school has been in operation in Farwell for 3½ years and has been scheduled in the county for four years. Jiggs Loveless was the first veteran's instructor in the county, at Friona. He left in 1948.

The shop instructor for the county is Philip T. Hawk, formerly of the Packard Motor company, testing division, Quickel states.

Heart Fund-Raising Campaign Slated To Begin Here Thursday

The heart fund-raising campaign, sponsored by the local American Legion post, is scheduled to begin tomorrow, Wilfred Quickel, post commander, says.

Plastic hearts and placards to encourage donations will be placed in local business houses throughout the Twin Cities. Goal for the drive is $120.

Loyde Brewer is chairman of the campaign, assisted by Gilbert Watkins and Graham Thornton. Money obtained from the drive will be used for research and experiments for any type heart disease, Quickel points out.

The Legion group also plans to sponsor fund-raising entertainment, but the type of program has not been selected.

In last year's drive, $75 was contributed and the Legionnaires took in $30 on a dance.

The drive extends through Feb. 17.

When refrigerated dough is to be baked, remove it from refrigerator and shape into rolls. Allow the rolls to stand at room temperature for an hour, or until light. The time varies somewhat with the size of the rolls. Then bake as usual. If desired, the entire batch of dough may be allowed to come to room temperature before shaping, but this requires from 2½ to 3 hours. Since the shaped rolls still need to rise, this method is slower.

Jones, Black, Romich Represent Parmer At Better Pastures Meet

One-hundred-twenty-five farmers and county agents attended the better pastures program meeting at the Herring Hotel Tuesday in Amarillo. County Agent Joe Jones, A. L. Black, and Al Romich from Parmer County were present.

Governor Shivers set up the program and appointed 60 men, 5 from each district and 12 districts in the state, for a 10-year program for building better pastures and preserving what the state already has. In this district there are 23 counties, Jones says.

A program will be set up for the different districts where the climate, soil, and other characteristics are similar, and the responsibility of the program will rest on the county committeemen. There are 254 counties in the state.

The county agent and the soil conservation service will make recommendations and be advisors to accelerate the program which was launched three months ago, Jones says. The committee plans to carry out the program.

The organization will be financed by membership; for an individual $10, a business $25, and a company or corporation any like amount over the $25. The money will be divided between the county committee and the District Committee to defray expenses in operating the program.

Labor income from grass is six times greater than from growing corn, Jones adds, and some of the objects will be to fertilize, bring in good grasses, and pasture control. A program of research which will be conducted on farms is aimed at, with hopes of working out one program for the entire county, all the organizations a coordinated effort.

Jones Attends Meet Of Education Groups

Agrie Jones, superintendent of the Texico schools, attended a meeting of the executive committee of the Eastern New Mexico Educational Association in Fort Sumner, Wednesday evening. A program for the March meeting was formulated and a speaker was discussed.

According to Jones, the committee set up plans for a meeting to be held in the forenoon to consist of a speaker and varied musical numbers. The speaker will be chosen and arranged for from several suggested by the committee and president of the association, B. T. Williams, superintendent of the Fort Sumner schools. He will be assisted by Floyd Golden, president of Eastern New Mexico University at Portales, and Ray Lorton, Melrose superintendent.

The afternoon was arranged for sectional meetings with the chairmen of the various sections conducting panels or demonstrations relative to the teachings of subjects in their section.

The automobile has become a necessary ingredient of full-scale living for many women. "If you're statistically minded," says Good Housekeeping magazine, "you'll be interested to know that the average wife uses the family car at least seventy-five percent of the time, and that three quarters of her driving is in short, around-town runs."

Rules are necessary in the game of football. They are even more necessary on the highway, because the final score may be death in an accident. The National Safety Council asks motorists and pedestrians to know and obey traffic laws.

Nothing Better Than Good Food, Says Ohio Man

If a man isn't able to eat the foods he likes he's in mighty sorry shape—imagine going through life without being able to enjoy a fine big platter of bacon and eggs. That is the way

Joseph N. Damillot, 3414 E. 5th Street, Dayton, Ohio, used to be, but since he has been taking HADACOL, he says he feels just fine and is able to enjoy lots and lots of fine foods. Mr. Damillot found that taking HADACOL helped his system overcome a deficiency of Vitamins B₁, B₂, Niacin and Iron.

Here is Mr. Damillot's statement: "My first bottle of HADACOL convinced me that HADACOL was what I needed for the gas on my stomach at nights. I could not keep food on my stomach, but after the first bottle I was going great. Now I eat bacon and eggs, and other foods that never would stay with me. I also can sleep well at nights. Thanks to HADACOL, I will never be without it, and can recommend it to all who suffer with the above ailments that I had. I know because I have suffered for quite some time."

Which Twin?

HAS THE Electric HOME LAUNDRY?

The glamour girl, of course. All she does is put the clothes in her automatic washer, set the dials, and leave the rest to Reddy. Then, when they're washed sparkling clean, into the dryer they go and once more, Reddy takes over the hard work. Reddy keeps the water hot, too, with an automatic electric water heater, that's as clean and dazzling as an electric light bulb. Ironing is easier, too, when it's done on a modern, electric ironer. Don't get worn out by back-breaking wash days. Be drudgery-free, be happy, let low cost electric service do the hard work.

Two Promotions Are Announced Today By Southwestern Co.

Promotions are forthcoming February 1. Top two officials of the Southwestern Public Service Company, with the announcement by J. E. Cunningham, president, that J. G. (George) Ausman has been elevated to the position of executive vice president, and that H. O. (Herb) Hodson has been named vice president and operating manager.

Ausman has been associated with the company since 1926. He moved to Amarillo as operating manager in March, 1944, and was made vice president in January, 1947. Hodson joined the company as superintendent of the Pecos Valley division with headquarters in Roswell in 1938, and has been chief engineer with headquarters in Amarillo since 1941. Ausman and Hodson have, during the last seven years, directed the planning and construction of new power plants and other equipment costing approximately $100,000,000.

"These promotions," Cunningham said, "are in line with the Company's policy of obtaining its officers from within the Company organization so that the Company's official family consists of friends and neighbors of the people served and are thoroughly familiar with local problems and requirements."

Canine's Collar Bare Better Tag Him up Soon

W. L. Freeman, Texico town clerk, announced Monday that he had received his annual shipment of dog tags, which are required by city ordinance to be worn by animals belonging to owners residing in Texico.

The 1951 tags are now on sale, and should be attached in the immediate future, Freeman added, stating that they actually "had been due since the first of the year."

Forty tags were issued in Texico last year, the clerk said, going at a cost of $1 per year. The charge remains the same this year, and about 50 tags were purchased by the city for resale to owners.

Untagged dogs wandering the Texico streets are subject to disposal by the town marshal, it was reminded.

Over $1000 Given Here For Waco Orphan Home

A total of $1005 has recently been forwarded to the Methodist Orphan Home in Waco, Texas, H. Y. Overstreet reported today, the money being contributed locally in the annual Christmas campaign for the Home. Overstreet went on to say that "this is about the same as our church sent to the Home in 1949—possibly two or three dollars more," and probably will place the Texico-Farwell Methodist Church in the top bracket for Christmas contributions.

Church officials expressed their appreciation to all local residents who so generously responded to the annual request for money to continue operation of the home.

Weather Slows Up Santa Fe Hook Up

"Just waiting on the weather" remarked V. C. Venable, water superintendent, with regard to tying in Texico to the Santa Fe water tank.

For some time it has been known that Texico could be assured of an ample supply of water if mains were tied in with the huge storage tank near the Santa Fe depot.

Only recently has the possibility been realized, however, and Venable reports that all is in readiness for the union. "We have to wait for a Sunday evening warm enough to cut in a valve," he explained.

Sunday evening is picked because it is the time fewest demands will be placed on the local system. He pointed out that demands of both schools and businesses will be avoided in this manner.

Recently he has experienced difficulty getting cast iron pipe to complete the installation, but he assures that now only the weather is delaying action.

Venable said that a system has been devised by a water engineer of the Santa Fe Railway whereby the pumps at both Farwell and Texico will operate simultaneously for the supply.

"We'd have pressure from out 125-foot tower in Farwell and volume from the 125,000-gallon, 65-foot tank in Texico," he said.

Dr. Harold Hanlin Speaks At Church On Micronesian Is.

At the close of the war, he, his wife, and three daughters, returned to the island.

Oh, Baby, It's Cold Outside

Blackie Williams can testify to the chilly condition of the weather Monday morning, with an original story, at least.

Talking downtown with friends about the weather, Blackie was moaning low about milking that a.m. One listener commented that the milk was at least already chilled by the time he reached the house, to which the irrepresible Blackie responded, "Heck, it was so cold that as the milk hit the bucket it was practically churned"

BOY SCOUT CONTESTANT

One boy contestant will be selected by judges to represent the Plains district to report to the governor on Boy Scout work, John Adams, Texico leader, says, and Texico will enter a candidate for the honor. Name of the Texico entrant has not been released.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Smith and Jack Smith of Hale Center visited in the Jim Moore home Sunday.

Farmers Guard Against Losses

Losses from swine enteritis can be most effectively guarded against by using good sanitation and management practices, Joe Jones, county agent, says.

Jones states that isolating newly-purchased swine from the home herd for at least three weeks is a wise idea—until they are known to be free of disease.

He advises keeping swine away from old hog lots, contaminated pastures, stagnant pools and other sources of infection.

Swine that are suffering from internal oresternal parasites, or from vitamin deficiency, may be more severely affected by enteritis than healthier animals. Jones points out that it is best to supply adequate rations to avoid lowering the hogs' resistance to disease.

By earmarking their sows, farmers can identify and weed out the sow "carriers" of enteritis from their herds.

Jones advises farmers to watch hogs closely for scouring, loss of weight, and failure to convert feed into gains. At the first sign of trouble, isolate the ailing hogs from the apparently healthy ones and get a veterinarian to diagnose the disease.

Enteritis symptoms are similar to those of other swine diseases. If swine suffering from enteritis are treated or vaccinated for other diseases, the result may be disastrous.

Cold Weather Fools Plans For Election Of CC Officials

Local Chamber of Commerce members preferred toasting their feet by home fires to gathering to elect new officers, it became apparent Monday night, when only a handful of men braved the cold to show up at the Legion Hall.

C. M. Henderson, president of the local chamber, said on Tuesday that the small attendance led the group to postpone election of new officers and directors, with the selection of such men set for Thursday night, Feb. 8.

The February meeting, Henderson emphasized, "will be strictly a business affair," with members asked to gather around 7 o'clock at the Legion Hall in Farwell, in order that business may be disposed of rapidly.

During the Monday evening meeting this week, plans were laid to feed attendants at the irrigation day program to be held Feb. 15, "in the same manner as last year," Henderson added.

Claude Rose will be in charge of the barbecue plans for the irrigation day feed, officials said.

Sophs Have Assembly At Farwell Schools

Members of the sophomore class had charge of assembly at Farwell Schools last week, according to Tommy Hestand, class sponsor. The assembly consisted of skits and songs.

The first skit, "Hello, World," was staged with Ronnie Dial as narrator. "My Heart Cries for You" was sung by Jo Hanna, Nancy Aldridge, Howard Jenkins, and Kayla Felts, with Mrs. Shelby Jobses accompanying on the piano.

Teddy Magness, Buil Dollas, and Junior Poteet did the next skit, "Thirty Minutes Later." Laverna Christian and Junior Poteet staged "One-Fifteen," and Lynn Carpenter and Nelda Martin cooperated for "He Found Out."

Jim Moore returned home Sunday from the Clovis Memorial Hospital, where he had been for a medical check-up.

Moore has been advised to take a three-month rest.

Clyde McDonald and Vernon Lewis have passed the Boy Scout star requirements, John Adams, leader, reports. The boys will receive merit badges.

The United Pentecostal Church in Texico sponsors a radio program over KICA in Clovis each Sunday morning. The feature is scheduled at 8:30 CST.

Pvt. Don Williams, son of Mr. and Mrs. Willie Williams, left Sunday for Camp Stoneman in Pittsburg, Calif., after spending a 30-day leave here with his parents. He was formerly at Fort Sam Houston in San Antonio.

Travis Brown, who has been ill for the past several months, is in Miller hospital in Portales. He was taken to the hospital Friday of last week when his condition became serious.

Productive Power Meet At Lubbock

Industrial electric power users in the Plains and Eastern New Mexico area will have an opportunity to see a dramatic presentation of improved industrial techniques at Lubbock on February 5, when "Productive Power", a new industrial show is presented.

"Productive Power", a presentation of the Westinghouse Electric Corp., will be given at the Lubbock senior high school auditorium at 7:30 p. m. The show is presented under the sponsorship of the Southwestern Public Service Company. Its appearance in Lubbock, one of the 120 cities in which it will be seen, was made possible through the efforts of Earl R. Price and Richard C. Hill, area officials of the Westinghouse organization, and J. M. Collins, division manager for Southwestern Public Service Company, and A. R. Watson, vice president in charge of industrial sales for the electric light and power company.

Plant improvements, improved plant processes, and methods of joining materials, which are fundamental problems in any manufacturing plant, are graphically demonstrated by three Westinghouse engineers accompanying the show.

The show opens with a graphic display of the effect of wire size and circuit protection on factory electrical distribution systems. A wire loaded beyond its capacity causes a sheet of paper folded over it to burst into flame. Loss of productivity because of inadequate wiring, is demonstrated on lighting, heating and motor loads. Poor lighting facilities are contrasted with a modern lighting system to show how proper illumination helps increase production and cut accident rates.

Smoke and dirt particles as small as 1-250,000 of an inch are snatched from the air in a demonstration with an electrostatic air cleaner. Infra-red radiation proves its superiority over conventional methods as a paint dryer in a speed test conducted. The infra-red dries the paint in less than five minutes, while air drying and convection drying has barely started.

A machine gun-like resistance welder demonstrates how to obtain up to 600 separate spot welds per minute. High frequency radio waves are used to cook glue for wood bonding. Production time is cut from 8 hours to 35 seconds by using the so-called Dielectric heating.

Full color sound motion pictures illustrate the use of electric furnaces for brazing operations and radio frequency induction heating in production lines of actual plants.

Hunter's Carelessness Costs Boy Prize Heifer

A hunter's carelessness with a firearm cost Duane Martin, Farwell FFA boy, his $500 registered heifer last week.

The animal had been on pasture, and Duane first noticed her sickness last Thursday. She lived until Friday night, and a veterinarian discovered the wound after her death. The attendant believed the wound to be caused by a small-caliber bullet, probably a .22. She was wounded in the stomach, and he estimated that she received her wound "about a week previous" her death.

The heifer was a particularly valuable animal to young Martin, as she was a registered Holstein brought in from Wisconsin. Duane's father shipped her here last year, and the FFA member bought her for a club project.

W. H. Duckworth of Duckworth Drug in Clovis was moderator on a panel program at Texico Parent-Teachers Association Thursday night. Theme of the discussion was "The Child in the Home."

Members of the panel were Mrs. Jimmy Allman, John Adams, teachers; Rev. C. M. Fields and Mrs. D. J. Brown, parents; and Stephen Stone and Wayne Tucker, senior students.

In the discussion, the speakers spoke of allowances, responsibilities, punishment, religion, and recreation, including a talk on "the family auto."

According to Mrs. N. W. Peyton, program chairman, several interesting and helpful facts were brought out by members of the panel.

Tucker as a student on the discussion of punishment, related that his most dreaded punishment was to be kept at home when he wanted to go somewhere.

Concerning responsibilities, Mrs. Allman told group members that she felt children should have duties without receiving pay for their jobs; and Mrs. Brown agreed that a child should have duties every day.

Most members of the panel agreed that allowances should be flexible.

Prior to the discussion, a radio play, "Who Gets the Car Tonight" was presented by members of the senior class. The one-act comedy featured a family with a teen-age son and daughter, both of whom wanted the car the same night the parents wished to use it.

After many complications, the car broke down and no one could use it. Members of the casts were Mr. Jones, Timmy Horton, Jack Jerry Jester; Paul, Stephen Stone; Mrs. Jones, Bobbie Allred; and Mary, Violet Curry. Anita Brown furnished background music for the play.

Mrs. Albert Rice, president of the organization, presided over a short business meeting, and announced that the State P-TA convention will be held in Clovis April 26, 27, and 28.

Group members discussed the February program, scheduled for Feb. 22. Farwell P-TA members have been invited as special guests at the meeting. Theme of the discussion will be "The Child in His Community." A March of Time movie on juvenile delinquency also will be shown. The remainder of the program has not been formulated, Mrs. Peyton says.

Harvey Entertains Farwell Students, 6th

Galen M. "Happy" Harvey, entertainer, is scheduled to appear on assembly program at Farwell schools Tuesday, February 6, Jack Williams, superintendent of schools, says.

Included below is a release from Southern School Assemblies, which sponsors Harvey.

Having appeared before over a million students in schools and colleges in the last three years, Galen M. "Happy" Harvey, pianist, organist, entertainer and humorist, has been acclaimed and complimented for his program of music and fun at the piano in every school and college in which he has appeared.

Born in California, Mr. Harvey toured sixteen Western States immediately after the second World War. During his two and a half years in the far west, "Happy" as he is affectionately known by the students before whom he has appeared, has had as few as fifteen students in his audience and as many as 5,000. Before going into assembly work, he was an experienced Boys Camp leader; sponsor and director of a concert series in the San Francisco Bay area in California during which time he was also organist at the Learnington Hotel in Oakland, California, and held a similar position at the famous morgasbord Restaurant called "Drakes" in Berkeley near the University of California.

He attended the College of the Pacific in Stockton, California, and majored in music and radio production. He was graduated from Whittier College, a Quaker school, in Southern

"HAPPY" HARVEY

California, where he also majored in radio broadcasting and journalism.

"Happy's" program has come out of his many years of experience in school program work as well as from his work as a youth leader and a student of folk music and the fun there is in listening to and working with the music of the people. His program includes classical, popular and folk music with an interpretation all his own, improvisations on famous folk tunes, original piano novelties, audience participation ideas, and community singing.

Teachers and students alike have nominated Mr. Harvey's program as one of the most outstanding and wholesome programs they've ever had in their schools and a great many of them have asked him back during the same term for a second appearance.

For students: The Tribune, $2 year.

Mrs. Rosetta Gaede Buried Past Sunday

Funeral services for a pioneer Parmer County resident were held at the Muleshoe Methodist Church Sunday afternoon at 2:30, when final rites were said for Mrs. Rosetta Gaede.

Mrs. Gaede passed away at the Green Clinic in Muleshoe at 12:25 a. m., Jan. 26, following a lengthy illness. Officiating at the funeral were Rev. H. W. Hanks, Muleshoe pastor, assisted by Rev. James Tidwell of Friona, Rev. Earl G. Hamlett of Amarillo, and Rev. Bandy of YL. Burial was made in the Muleshoe cemetery.

Born in a little town near Berne, Switzerland, Mrs. Gaede was 73 years old at the time of her passing. When she was 10 years old her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Aebi, migrated to the United States, settling at Atchison, Kans. In 1903, wedding vows for Albert Gaede and Rosetta Aebi were spoken in Woodbie, Kans., where the couple lived for five years, and in 1908 the Gaedes moved to Parmer County. The family home is located on the original homestead in this county, near Muleshoe.

Survivors include Mr. Gaede; five sons, John of Friona; Raymond of Muleshoe; Francis of Lyman, Colo.; Woodrow of Memphis, Tenn.; and Rev. Wilbur Gaede, Lubbock Methodist pastor; two sisters, Mrs. Arnold Buhner of Wichita, Kans., and Mrs. Fred Gaede, also of Kansas; two brothers, Ernest Aebi of Wichita and Gottfried Aebi of Woodbine, Kans.; and nine grandchildren.

A large number of Friona residents were in Muleshoe Sunday afternoon to attend the funeral service.

Bench Levelling Work Continues This Week

Work on the Jess Osborn farm near Lariat, where bench leveling of a prospective irrigation field is in progress, will continue this week as weather permits, Bill Kennedy, head of the Parmer County SCS office reported Monday morning. Kennedy added that the work was slow last week, and Monday and Tuesday of this week proved too cold for the project to make much headway.

This is the first work of this kind to be carried out in Parmer County, and is attracting considerable attention from other farmers interested in irrigation, Kennedy said, adding that the public is invited to be on hand to study the work at any time.

8. Agreement embodying principles applicable to yardmasters to be entered into for benefit of yardmasters.

9. Effective October 1, 1950, the basic hours of dining car stewards shall be reduced from 225 to 205 hours per month; no penalty overtime to accrue until 240 hours have been worked, the hours between 205 and 240 to be paid for at the pro rata rate.

Provided, however, that if as the result of government wage stabilization policy, workers generally have been permitted to receive so-called annual improvement increases, the parties may meet with Doctor Steelman on or after July 1, 1952, to discuss whether or not further wage adjustments for employees covered by this agreement are justified, in addition to increases received under the cost of living formula. At the request of either party for such a meeting Doctor Steelman shall fix the time and place for such meeting. Doctor Steelman and the parties may secure information from the wage stabilization authorities or other government agencies. If the parties are unable to agree at such conferences whether or not further wage adjustments are justified they shall ask the President of the United States to appoint a referee who shall sit with them and consider all pertinent information, and decide promptly whether further wage increases are justified and, if so, what such increases should be, and the effective date thereof. The carrier representatives shall have one vote, the employee representatives shall have one vote and the referee shall have one vote. **

11. If the parties cannot agree on details of agreement or rules they shall be submitted to John R. Steelman for final decision.

The usual protections for arbitrators, miscellaneous rates, special allowances, and existing money differentials above existing standard daily rates will be included in the formal agreement.

STATEHOUSE

By Hugh Williamson

AUSTIN—Adherence to a policy of strict economy will affect a large number of the measures that the Legislature is going to consider.

For example, Senator Rogers Kelly of Edinburg proposes a constitutional amendment that would permit the state to advertise its advantages to vacationists and to industry.

Opposition to an appropriation for that purpose would certainly arise on the grounds that such an expenditure now would not conform to a policy of austerity.

The amendment, however, carries no appropriation, but merely the authority to spend state money for advertising. If the amendment passed, the Legislature could withhold any appropriation until such time as the world situation changed and it appeared that state advertising would bring the desired returns in tourist dollars and factory payrolls.

In his inaugural address, Gov. Allan Shivers underlined the need for saving money. He said:

"The prospect for the American people is one of austerity and self-sacrifice. At no time in the history of our great state and nation has it been more imperative to put first things first—to place the welfare of our whole country above the demand of individuals and groups."

In his speech to the Legislature, the governor said that in view of the menace of another world war, state problems become secondary and must be resolved by answering the question: "Will this contribute to—or hinder—the national mobilization effort?"

Some money will have to be spent for civil defense—which can be added to the list of items that will receive high priority in the Legislature, along with redistricting, state financing, and legislation affecting truck operations.

What the state will do with respect to civil defense depends upon appropriations from the federal government, an interpretation of the recent congressional Civil Defense Act, and the result of studies which have already been made in Texas.

Re-districting is a difficult problem, not because of money, but because it will eliminate the jobs of some senators and representatives in areas where population has not kept up with fast-growing parts of the state.

As an example, cities have been increasing in number of inhabitants at the expense of rural areas. Thus the cities will get more representation in the Legislature, and some members from the sparsely-populated places will have to be cut off the list.

On the truck-railroad front three bills were introduced to tighten truck regulations

Two of these bills were put into the Senate hopper by Senator Geo. Parkhouse of Dallas. The other was by W. A. (Son) Shofner, who is from Temple, a railroad town.

STEERS GO TO DISTRICT NEXT WEEK, MAY BE DARK HORSE FOR CONFERENCE

By Sonny Graham
Farwell's Steers, which at times have looked well and at times have fielded dim basket eyesight on the hardwood, will go to the District 11-B tournament at Adrian next week, where they may turn out to be the dark horse of the conference race.

They are now batting .500, having taken two and given two. Bovina's win over the rangy, sharp-shooting Adrian aces last week threw the race for a conference champ wide open. The Mustangs and Adrian lead horns locked for the league lead right now, but it looks as though some unseating may be witnessed at the tournament next week.

The team to win the district race may be the one with the most stamina, not the best bucket eye, because play is arranged in a long-winded, round-robin fashion where everybody plays everybody else until somebody drops out.

Games begin Thursday night, Feb. 8, and continue for two more days and nights until every team has tasted victory and (or) defeat.

Here are the pairings:
Thursday night, Feb. 8
Adrian vs. Lazbuddy, 6:30
Friona vs. Farwell, 7:45
Vega vs. Bovina, 9
Friday Afternoon, Feb. 9
Adrian vs. Friona, 1:30
Vega vs. Lazbuddy, 2:45
Bovina vs. Farwell, 4
Friday Night, Feb. 9
Adrian vs. Vega, 6:30
Bovina vs. Friona, 7:45
Farwell vs. Lazbuddy, 9
Saturday Afternoon, Feb. 10
Adrian vs. Bovina, 1:30
Farwell vs. Vega, 2:45
Lazbuddy vs. Friona, 4
Saturday Night, Feb. 10
Adrian vs. Farwell, 6:30
Lazbuddy vs. Bovina, 7:45
Friona vs. Vega, 9

Officials will be Holmes of Shratford and Fischer of Clovis.

The round-robin bracket also indicates that the chances of ties for the crown will be greatly enhanced. For instance, it is quite feasible that two or more teams could emerge from the above contests with but one loss each.

Farwell, Vega, Friona Exchange Cage Games

Farwell boys and girls exchanged games with Friona and Vega last week, home teams taking three out of four of the contests.

Tuesday night the Steers spilled the Chiefs 53-40, and the Farwell girls trimmed their opposition 60-34. Friday night the Steers were tripped 28-33 by Vega's Longhorns, but the girls powered ahead to win 31-9.

Coach Ken Livingston released the following statistics for the Steers:

Against Friona, John Christian, Steer center, was high point man with 21 points. He was contested by Cleveland who took 16 for the Longhorns. Two members of each team fouled off during the evening. They were Pool and Dial of Farwell, and Barnett and Robbins of Friona. Quarter scores ran 11-6, 23-20, and 42-36.

In Friday night's game with Vega, Harwell was high with 15 for the Longhorns. B. Crume tallied 13 to lead the Steers. Vega kept well in front of the Steers except in the third quarter, when a late scoring surge nearly overtook them. The Longhorns led 11-8 at the end of the first quarter, and had pushed to 24-14 by the half. However, the Steers moved in heavily in the third, and pulled within one point, 25-26 of Vega. Only Montgomery of Vega fouled off.

Statistics for the girls:
Playing Friona away from home, the local sextette completely overpowered opposition. Coach Jack Williams used every player on the squad before the game ended.

Betty Foster fielded a whopping 32 for the home team to take a lion's share of the evening scoring. Ruby Shaffer made 20 points for the losers. Farwell led 25-9 at the end of the first, 37-17 at the half, and 48-27 at the end of the third quarter. Farwell has yet to lose its first conference game in the girl brackets.

Against Vega Friday night, Caryetta Grissom forged to the front for scoring honors. She ran 18 points through the hoop, contrasted with 9 for Wiseman, leader of the Vega team. Farwell led 9-2 first quarter, 17-7 at the half, and stretched to a 26-8 lead by the end of the third.

Three Games; Two Tourneys Remain On Cage Schedule

Three home games and the county and district tournaments remain on the Texico basketball schedule for the 1950-51 season, C. B. Stockton, coach, says.

With two tilts scheduled for this weekend and one series planned for Monday night, the locals will wind up their season, excluding tournaments, next week.

Melrose will face the Wolverines on the home court Friday, and Rogers will be guests in the Texico gym on Saturday night.

The locals will be pitted against Bovina next Monday night on the Texico court, in a re-scheduled game.

February 8-10 has been set aside as dates for the annual county meet, Stockton announces. Brackets have not yet been drawn, but competing teams will include Melrose, Ranchvale, Field, Rosedale, Grady, Texico and Clovis "B". According to games played this season, high ranking teams of the tournament are Melrose and Rosedale, with Texico listed at third, fourth, Stockton added.

The district tourney, which determines the two teams which go to state competition, is to be held February 22-24, in Clovis. Vieing for the winning slots will be Portales, Clovis, A, Texico, Dora, Elida, Rogers, Causey, Ranchvale, Stockton adds.

Lazbuddy, Texico Slated As Mustang Cage Foes

Conference games will be played between Bovina and Lazbuddy Friday night of this week on the Lazbuddy court, Coach R. E. Everett of Bovina reported Monday.

The Mustangs, now threatening the position of Adrian as top-ranking team in the district, are hoping to wind up their regular conference schedule with a win Friday night, after having dumped highly-touted Adrian the past weekend.

Bovina's girls also have chalked up an enviable record during the season, having won the majority of their encounters, and the Lazbuddy tangle is expected to be brisk.

A postponed game has been re-scheduled for next Monday night, Feb. 5, at which time the local Texico squads will play host to Bovina. Competition between the teams always has been high, particularly for the girls, and it is believed that this year will be no exception to the rule of a fight-to-the-finish.

Bovina Outscores Adrian Team, 39-35

The Bovina Mustangs overpowered high-ranking Adrian by a four-point margin, 39-35, Friday night in a hard-fought battle for the district lead.

The victory ties Bovina with Adrian and Vega for the top of the District 11-B cage race. It was the third loss for the opponents in 25 tries.

Jimmy Ware was high scorer for the Mustangs with 12 points, followed closely by Hromas with 10.

The Bovina girls also chalked up a win over the visiting Adrian squad, taking the victory by a final score of 50-19, coaches report.

Pounds led the Bovina aggregation, bucketing 19 points for her team, while Wilson and Young each hit the basket for 7. Stoneman was high for Adrian with a total of 6.

Texico Wolverines Dumped By Broncos

Texico Wolverines were dumped by the Floyd Broncos 46-44 in a game played in the Floyd gymnasium Saturday night. The locals led at the end of the first half by a 23-22 majority, but in the see-saw second half, the score was tied several times by the Floyd Broncos.

The Wolverines were still leading at the end of the third quarter, but the loss of four players—Wayne Tucker, Jerry Jester, W. O. Reid, and Buddy Sparks—in the final period left them crippled. The Floyd team then pulled ahead to win 46-44.

Tourney Comes Here Week of Feb. 15, 16, 17

Farwell Schools will be host to the Parmer County girls basketball tournament Feb. 15, 16, and 17, according to Coach Jack Williams. The announcement was made here Tuesday afternoon, and at that time Farwell was undefeated in conference play.

Four girls' teams will vie for two top rankings in the tournament. They are Bovina, Friona, Lazbuddy, and Farwell. To the two top teams will go the honor of playing in district competition at Happy the following week.

The upkeep of a woman is the downfall of many a man.

Texico Girls Upset Grady Team, 29,17

Texico Whirlwinds defeated the Grady Broncos' girls team 29-17 Friday night in a thriller played on the Whirlwinds' home court. The local team, coached by F. D. Stout, led in all periods of play.

The Grady aggregation, with Lloyd Co-kerill coaching, were unable to cut the lead gained by the Whirlwinds in the first two periods of play. High scorer for Texico was Esther McDaniel; Barbara Reed led the scoring for Grady.

Floyd Broncos Wallop Texico Wolverines

Texico Wolverines lost to the Grady Broncos 35-39 Friday evening in the Texico gymnasium. The Wolverines maintained a slight lead in the first two quarters, but were out-scored by a hard hitting Brady five in the last periods.

A strong offensive team, sparked by Deanor Smith, caught the local defenses down in the third quarter and pulled ahead. The Wolverines, led by Wayne Tucker, were unable to pull out of the slump in the last period.

Texico "B" Stringers Trip Floyd "B"

Texico Wolverines B team took the Floyd Broncos' B team to the tune of 26-19 in a thrill packed game played preliminary to the meeting of the two school's main stringers on the Bronco's home court Saturday night. Leading from the beginning of the game, the Wolverines showed a stronger offensive than at any time this year.

The Broncos also fielded a strong offense, but were weak on the defense.

Terrors Defeat Bruisers

The Tuckerite Terrors defeated the Brownsteam Bruisers 16-8 in a preliminary game in the Texico gymnasium Friday night. The Terrors, sparked by Jerry Henson, led the scoring at all times, with the Bruisers unable to narrow the margin.

Irrigation Day Brings Farming Authorities To Parmer, Feb. 15

Irrigation day, which was planned at a meeting of county and district supervisors of the Soil Conservation Service, has been set for February 15, Joe Jones, county agent says.

The purpose of the meeting is to bring to farmers the latest developments in fertilization, irrigation practices and legumes.

Site of the affair is the district court room in Farwell with the program scheduled to begin at 10 o'clock in the morning, and run until approximately 4 o'clock in the afternoon, Jones states.

Tentative program includes Duke Thornton, agricultural chemist with the extension service at College Station, who will speak on soil fertility. Miles Kelly, Hereford engineer with the soil conservation service will speak on level irrigation and explain the part soil conservation plays in farming practices.

Farwell Chamber of Commerce will serve dinner to group members, Mayor C. M. Henderson says. Claude Rose is in charge of arrangements.

W. L. Edelman, president of the Soil Conservation Board of Supervisors in Parmer County will discuss the soil conservation district and Joe Camp, secretary of the local PMA will explain the 1951 practices.

Student Council Eyes Plans, Release Menu For School Cafeteria

Members of the Student Council of Farwell discussed the state council meeting, and a planned visit to a meeting of the Bovina organization in a regular session Monday.

Also, they talked about a campaign to keep the school grounds and buildings cleaner.

In an effort to familiarize parents with the lunchroom procedure, the menu for this week was released by the council.

Included on the diet for Monday was chicken pie, hominy, green beans, combination salad, fruit and cookies, and milk. Tuesday fare was macaroni and cheese, buttered cabbage, potato salad, raisin pie, bread, butter, honey, and milk.

Today (Wednesday), tamali pie, English peas, candied yams, and carrot, raisin, and pineapple salad were served.

Scheduled for tomorrow are pinto beans with bacon and garlic, mashed potatoes, spinach, sliced onions, pickles, corn bread, butter and milk; and Friday, students will eat fried chicken, gravy, mashed potatoes, English peas, cranberry sauce, lettuce salad, fruit jello, bread, and milk.

Sewerage Going In Despite Weather

Biting weather has held up many of the city's activities the past week, but cold or no cold, sewerage lines are still going in.

Clay pipe in 6, 8, and 14 inch denominations is still being laid day after day in Farwell, in preparation for the new system. Officials of the Stockton Construction Company stood by their huge ditchdigger this week, watching it know deep lines up and down Farwell's streets.

Quite a bit of pipe already is down and covered up in the north-eastern part of town, and progress seems to be going steadily forward.
