Editor's Note—The following appeared in a recent issue of the Time magazine and is reproduced in this newspaper through the courtesy of that publication.

Doctors who invited Oklahoma's Governor Johnston Murray (son of ex-Governor "Alfalfa Bill" Murray) to address the Tulsa County Medical Society recently expected the usual soothing syrup about the responsibilities of their profession. They found themselves under bitter attack.

"I lay down this flat proposition," said the governor. "During the last 35 years or thereabouts, the medical profession has lost an immeasurable amount of public esteem, reverence and respect that it formerly enjoyed." The main trouble, as he saw it: the "commercialization of the profession." "Maybe," said the governor, "the oldtime doctor 'didn't die with an amassed fortune of land and gold and loot, but he left behind him a life that had been a blessing to mankind, an honor to his profession."

An outspoken foe of socialism and of the Truman-Ewing plan for a compulsory national health service, Governor Murray nevertheless lambasted the profession for the millions of dollars spent in the last ten years to fight such schemes. "You have been able to scare the very bristles off the politicians," he said, "and to date you have been able to fend off the advances of the socialistic trend, but you and I both know you haven't stopped it by any means. . . . During all of this fight you have failed completely to rally a militant public opinion to your support. . . . What about your neighbors across the alley or your patients who live on the other side of the tracks? Will they come to your rescue? You know they haven't, and unless some changes are made, they probably won't. On the contrary, they may, all too soon, be found casting off their state of lethargy and aggressively joining in the battle against you. When and if this happens, you can kiss your political influence goodbye."

The governor also had a few harsh words about doctors' high fees: "I wonder how many Edisons, Einsteins, Lincolns and Pasteurs lie buried in unmarked graves because they were too poor to call a doctor. Doctors, this is your burden and your responsibility. . . . The pauper who needs you today was yesterday one of the taxpayers who helped build and maintain our great (University of Oklahoma) School of Medicine, where the doctors of today and tomorrow receive their education. You will be a long time paying this debt."

Eph Young was just in and renewed his subscription for another year. In the conversation, Eph said that he had two boys who were graduating from high school this spring, and another who was finishing college.

The Youngs have reared a large family of substantial citizens and are to be congratulated. "And I done it on a quarter section of land," Eph adds.

J. R. Glover, old-time resident of Bovina, paid this newspaper a most appreciated compliment last week when he said, "I've lived lots of places and taken lots of weekly newspapers, but your paper is the best one I ever read."

Thanks, my good friend, for the most generous compliment we have ever received. Mrs. Troy Armstrong (Lady Gaines) overheard the conversation, and tried to get our friend to retract the statement. But he stood his ground.

Big Edd Hardage says he knows his venture in the cafe business is going to be a grand success. He bases his prediction on the fact that the first 25¢ taken in came out of the pocket of Gene Lovelace. "That's something," Big Edd boasts.

Was my face red! Last Saturday I made a small purchase at the C. E. Elliott store in Bovina, writing a check for the amount. Before leaving the store, I carefully folded up the check and crammed it into my pocket. Mrs. Elliott sent a runner out to retrieve the check before I had time to get out of town.

Gets Jail Sentence On Bad Check Charge

Herman Bearden entered a plea of guilty in County Court here Monday to a charge of issuing a worthless check and was assessed a fine of $25 and 10 days in the county jail by County Judge A. D. Smith.

Poll Taxes Promise Record Year Here

With 1645 poll tax receipts issued up to noon Tuesday, indications pointed to an all-time high in Parmer County this year. Clerks at the collector's office were predicting at least 2,000 polls in the county.

Last year the total polls in the county reached just above the 1500-mark.

Arrangements were provided this year for receiving poll tax payments at Friona and Bovina, which helped in boosting the total.

Few Demands Made On Fire Department During Past Year

A tabulation of calls made during 1951 by the local volunteer fire department this week revealed only a small number of blazes were handed by the department during the year.

Otis Huggins, secretary and captain, said that on June 6, the department answered a call to the Bolton home, 13 miles east of Farwell. The home was completely destroyed by fire by the time the firefighters arrived, he added, with the blaze starting from a bathroom heater.

In December, the group had a number of brisk runs to Lariat, where three separate fires, on Dec. 1, 2, and 4, threatened property as the burning embers from the burr pit were scattered by high winds. Loss at the fires was estimated at $3310, including four trailers destroyed on the grounds.

Two small fires sent the firemen scurrying to Farwell. One was the grass fire north of the home of Mrs. Effie Johnson, and the other call resulted when a car driven by Mrs. Blackie Smith became ignited as she started to leave the W. H. Graham home.

F. S. Thigpen is currently fire chief for the group, with the department having been organized back in 1920. Huggins serves as secretary, while Perry Crawley is assistant chief. Other members include Rip Snodgrass, O. S. Allred, John Getz, Sam Lewis, Robert Morton, Grayson Roberts, Joe Helton, Vernon Nix, Vernon Symcox, and Charlie Thompson.

The department is well equipped, with two trucks carrying pressure equipment and a total water capacity of 1,000 gallons, plus 4,000 feet of hose—but the catch is an insufficient number of volunteers, especially from the Texas side of the line, Huggins said this week.

Practice is held at the fire station in Texico every Wednesday night, with the group currently working on handling pressure pumps, the secretary added. Local men are urged to join the department.

Funeral Rites Held Wednesday, Friona

Funeral rites for Barbara Ann, 4-months-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herschel Johnson of Friona, were held at the Friona Methodist Church Wednesday afternoon at 2:30, with Rev. J. E. Tidwell officiating, assisted by Rev. Russell Pogue of the Baptist Church.

Little Barbara Ann, born September 19, last, became ill during the past weekend. She was admitted to the Parmer County Hospital at Friona and removed to Amarillo on Monday for care by a specialist. A victim of encephalitis, the baby died in Northwest Texas Hospital at 8 o'clock, Monday night.

Immediate survivors include the parents; one sister, Linda Kay, seven; one brother, Joe Bob, five; and two sets of grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Johnson and Mr. and Mrs. Dave Moseley, all of Friona.

Interment was made in Friona Cemetery, under the direction of Blackburn-Shaw Funeral Home, of Amarillo.

The body was taken to Flomot, where burial took place, following services conducted at the Baptist Church by Rev. Eubanks, the pastor.

Mr. Birchfield was never married and had no family. Survivors included three brothers, J. M. and George of Matador, and J. H. of Farwell; three sisters, Mrs. Luella Deason, Dallas; Mrs. M. T. Baumgartner, Little Rock, Calif.; and Mrs. E. M. McCoy, Eastland.

Livesay Murder Trial Opens Monday

Membership Drive Is Launched by Bureau

Parmer County Farm Bureau Directors met in Friona Monday night for a report from delegates to a state legislative meeting in Waco last week. Delegates were Melvin Sachs and Webb Guber, accompanied by County Agent Joe Jones.

In accordance with a directive of members in November, additional directors were selected for Farwell, Lazbuddie, Bovina and Friona Communities to provide a more representative board.

Plans were laid for the annual membership drive scheduled for the latter part of February. On February 11 at noon, the membership committee chairmen and their wives will attend a dinner at the Lubbock Hotel where State President Walter Hammond will be principal speaker. February 18, the following Monday night, all membership workers and their wives will be guests at a kickoff banquet in Farwell. Judge Dent, of Lamb County will be guest speaker.

Parmer County Farm Bureau has grown steadily since it's organization in 1949, having attained a membership of over 500 last February, representing over 50 per cent of the county's resident farmers. On January 1st this year, Cynthia Bell was employed in the County Office in Friona to facilitate handling of tractor gas exemption papers for farmers, thus allowing the field representative more time for serving members throughout the county.

More than 250 families are participating in the Farm Bureau Service program, including their own insurance companies and nationally famous Blue Cross Hospitalization.

Those attending Monday night's meeting were: Jimmie Seaton, Earl Stevenson, Joe Menefee, Walter Kaitwasser, Melvin Sachs, directors; Bruce Parr, president, Hadley Reeve, secretary-treasurer, Raymond Euler, Service Representative; John L. Seaton, Paul Koeltzow, Gene Snell, members; Joe Jones, County Agent, and Morrie Duncan and Walter O'Neil, representing Mathieson Chemical Company of Houston.

Deadline Nearing For Tax Payments

The deadline for payment of property taxes for the year of 1951 without penalty and interest is "just around the corner."

Attaches at the county collector's office today called attention to the fact that taxes unpaid on Feb. 1 would go delinquent and a penalty of one per cent would be added, plus additional interest at the rate of 6 per cent per annum so long as the taxes remain unpaid.

Collections to date have been "pretty good" it has stated. But complete tabulations are not made up until after the deadline date.

The new automobile and truck license plates are on hand and they will go on sale Feb. 1. The new tags must be displayed on or before April 1st.

Home Talent Goes On School Stage Tonight

Tonight (Thursday) is the time set for display of local talent, as the PTA-sponsored "talent jamboree" gets underway in the Farwell school auditorium at 8 o'clock, Mrs. Jack McManigal, president of the PTA, reminded.

Three judges from Clovis have been secured to rate the various performances, Mrs. McManigal added, with each presentation being limited to ten minutes in length.

Door admission will be $1 per family, or 50¢ per individual, and sponsors are inviting the local public to enjoy an evening of entertainment.

New Fords To Show At Sikes' On Friday

O. C. Sikes, of the Sikes Motor Company, local dealers for the Ford Motor Co., announced today that the 1952 Ford car would go on display at the local showrooms on Friday, February 1.

Sikes said that he had been promised at least two of the new models—a V-8 and a 6-cylinder—for the showing, but this was not definite.

Free coffee and doughnuts will be served to all visitors throughout the day, he added.

Irrigation Day Is Set For February 12

Annual irrigation day, sponsored jointly by the Soil Conservation district and the Extension Service, is slated for February 12 in the district courtroom of the Parmer County courthouse in Farwell. Meetings will begin at 10 o'clock in the morning and continue until approximately 4 in the afternoon.

A. H. Crain, Extension pasture specialist of College Station, will be on hand to discuss "Pastures Under Irrigation", and Fred Dines, wheat marketing specialist of the Extension Service in Amarillo, will give facts on wheat. Irrigation practices will be explained by Robert Thurman, Extension irrigation specialist of Iubbock.

Plans also call for a representative to be present from the Experiment Station in Lubbock to speak on cotton and grain sorghum production. "There is a possibility that we will have W. L. Broadhurst of the board of water engineers, Austin, to be with us to speak on underground water," Joe Jones, county agent, said today.

An irrigation field day will be held later in the spring on a Parmer County farm. The definite site has not yet been decided.

Select Committee To Locate Roads

With only a fair representation in attendance Wednesday night, a committee of six farmers, living in strategic parts of Precinct No. 3, was named to represent the precinct in locating farm-to-market roads.

Sam Aldridge was chosen chairman after the meeting had been called to order. Aldridge reviewed the road-improvement program in Parmer County at length and said that $790,000 had been earmarked for the county for the construction of farm-to-market roads and noted that this money could easily be withdrawn by the Highway Commission unless "we get together and agree upon the location of roads."

Members of the precinct committee selected Wednesday night are, L. E. McKillip, Tom Caldwell, Luther Grissom, Truman Kent, Joe Magness and Leroy Berggren. This committee was empowered with authority to select another member who will represent the precinct in negotiating with other precinct representatives in dealing with road matters.

The committee will deal through the Commissioners Court, which body is the official group on all road matters.

Three Roads Opened By Commissioners

Three rural road projects in the county were ordered open by the Commissioners Court here Monday, following reports of the juries of view.

The petition of L. W. Smith et al, involving eight miles of road in Precinct 4, was the longest stretch declared open. Two other one-mile roads were also opened. They were, on the Estis Bass petition in Precinct 4, and the Clarence Weems petition in Precinct 2.

The only other business transacted by the Court, according to the minutes, was the payment of current bills.

CAFE CHANGES HANDS

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hardage closed a deal last week for Mary's Cafe in Farwell and took possession on Thursday. Mrs. Mary Sudderth, who has operated the business for some time, stated that she was forced to retire from the business on account of her health.

Mr. and Mrs. Hardage announced today that they were planning their formal opening on Saturday, Feb. 2, between the hours of 3 and 5 p.m., during which time they will serve free coffee and doughnuts. The business will be operated hereafter under the name of the City Cafe, it was stated.

Texico Democrats Are Asked To Meet, 4th

W. J. Matthews, precinct chairman, has issued a call to all Democratic party members in the Texico precinct to attend a meeting on the evening of Monday, February 4.

The session is to be held at 8 o'clock (Texas Time) at the Texico city hall. Matthews added, and is for the purpose of electing a precinct chairman, vice chairman, and a secretary.

Approximately $1,000 Believed Received In 'Dimes' Effort

Raymond Euler, Friona, chairman of the 1952 March of Dimes campaign in Parmer County, estimated Tuesday afternoon that approximately $1,000 had been contributed at that time to the polio fund.

Euler hastened to add that he had, at that time, no report from a benefit held on Monday night at Lazbuddie, nor had he heard from workers in Oklahoma Lane, Bovina, Lariat or Black, which might push the total considerably higher.

In hand on Tuesday was around $1,000, the chairman went on, stating that he had the majority of the monies received in Friona, Farwell, and Rhea. This is in exception to the small "iron lung" containers placed in business houses, he pointed out.

Reported at Friona thus far: the Girl Scout drive, netting $165; the Legion dance, $71; coffee day, $80; basketball game, $35; school, $98; Modern Study Club, $5 and Progressive Study Club, $15. Allen's Jewellry also repaired watches, with the returns going into the campaign, but the total had not been given Tuesday.

The Rhea community continues to be outstanding, with over $300 reported from that area from two benefits. A pie supper netted well over $200 and a dance last week brought in another $81.

At Farwell, the school has turned in around $175; coffee day brought $30; the basketball game, $75; and the ESA donated $15.

Euler reminded that today (Thursday) is the final day of the 1952 drive and admonished those who had not made their contributions to do so immediately.

Church Group Buys Oklahoma Lane Gym

Members of the Farwell Independent Consolidated school board has announced the sale of the Oklahoma Lane gymnasium and classroom connecting the unit to the Methodist Church of that community.

The deal was closed here Monday when officials of the church delivered the money to the school board. The deal consummated several months of negotiations.

Methodist church officials said that they planned to make some rearrangements of the building, with a large portion of the gym being converted into a church auditorium. Classroom rooms will be used for Sunday school rooms, it was announced.

The Oklahoma Lane school property came into possession of the Farwell school district a few years ago when the Oklahoma Lane district consolidated with the Farwell district and the Bovina district, with south portion of the old Oklahoma Lane district uniting with Farwell and the north portion going to Bovina.

Built some 18 or 20 years ago at a cost of several thousand dollars, the Oklahoma Lane building was recognized as one of the finest rural school plants in the country. Since the district was merged with Farwell and Bovina, the plant fell into disuse except for community gatherings. Upkeep and insurance proved a heavy drain on the district's finances, Farwell board members said. Hence, the decision to sell the property.

Father Of Local Man Dies On Thursday

J. D. Atchley, father of G. W. Atchley of this city, passed away Thursday, January 24, in Dew, Texas, according to word received by family members here. Mr. Atchley would have been 90 years old on February 7.

Mr. Atchley only lived a few days, after suffering a stroke. He is survived by five children: Mrs. Eva Harrison, Dew, Texas; Jim Atchley, Buffalo; Mattie White, Grand Prairie; Mrs. Elga Lanningham, Dallas; and G. W. Atchley.

He made his home with Mrs. Harrison.

REV. DURHAM SPEAKS

Regular meeting of the Brotherhood of the Baptist church is planned Monday night in the undercroft of the church. Rev. M. D. Durham of Bovina will be speaker.

Thomas C. Livesay, 30-year-old smelter worker of Amarillo, will go on trial for his life in the Parmer County District Court here Monday, Feb. 4, for his part in the fatal beating of Joshua Blocher, 85-year-old founder of the little town of Progress in Bailey County, 20 miles southeast of here.

District Attorney Joe Sharp of Plainview, has already indicated he will seek the death penalty. He will be assisted in the prosecution by County Attorney Sam Aldridge.

Lester D. Stevens, 50, also an Amarillo smelter worker, was found guilty by a Bailey County jury early in December for his part in murdering the old man. Livesay was not tried jointly with Stevens for the reason that he was ill and unable to go on trial when the case was called.

District Judge E. A. Bills has ordered a special venire of 120 men from which to select a jury in the Livesay hearing. Sheriff Chas. Lovelace said today that all the prospective jurors had been summoned to report here Monday morning.

Billy Hall and Bill Street, Littlefield attorneys, have been appointed by Judge Bills to defend Livesay, and officials here expressed the belief early this week that a strong effort would be made to save Livesay from the electric chair. Local officials are predicting that a parade of character witnesses will be brought before the court to testify in behalf of the defendant.

The body of "Old Josh", as he was familiarly known, was found in a cotton field a few miles southwest of the little village of Progress on the afternoon of August 15. He had disappeared from his one-room shanty in the town he founded four days previously.

Livesay and Stevens were arrested in Amarillo early in October. Later they signed statements, admitting taking the old man off in a car and hitting him over the head with a gun and a pop bottle. He was then dumped in a cotton field. In their confession, Livesay and Stevens said they recovered only 13 cents from an old-style snap pocket-book taken from Blocher's person. Following their confession, the pair led officers to the spot where the discarded purse had been buried at the base of a telephone pole.

Robbery was believed to have been the motive of the pair of smelter workers. Following Blocher's death, court-appointed men, together with Sheriff Hugh Freeman of Bailey County, uncovered about $10,000 in moulded currency, buried in fruit jars beneath the dirt floor of Blocher's small shack.

O. C. Sikes To Head Farwell CC For '52

O. C. Sikes, of the Sikes Motor Company, was elected president of the Farwell Chamber of Commerce, Monday evening, when members of the chamber held their election meeting in the local Legion Hall.

Assisting Sikes in operation of the CC will be Carl G. Davis, first vice president; Robert W. Anderson, secretary; and G. D. Anderson, treasurer. With Sikes, David and R. W. Anderson, incoming directors will be Ray Mears, Joe Helton, H. Y. Overstreet, Joe Crume, Felix Monroe, and Otis Huggins.

The meeting in general was devoted to various business details of the organization, with C. M. Henderson, out-going president, directing the session.

R. W. Anderson, as secretary, presented a discussion of the Chamber budget, during which it was pointed out that while the CC is not "in the red", it has been operating at a loss since its inception some three years ago, and members considered ways and means of either getting more revenue into the treasury or cutting down on expenditures.

On the financial angle, the group approved sponsorship of the irrigation meeting, held recently, by which action they okayed payment of the noon meal served visitors at the meeting. Figures showed that the Chamber now has a total of 31 paid members, Anderson added.

Members discussing the current street paving project, being conducted here by the E. & E. Contracting Co. of Alpine, and approved the idea that they push the paving work extensively over the city.

SMALL ATTENDANCE GIVEN

A small attendance was reported at regular meeting of the Methodist board Wednesday night. No special business was conducted.

NEW FORDS GO ON DISPLAY AT SIKES MOTOR CO. FRIDAY

Ford Division of Ford Motor Company today announced three completely new lines of Ford passenger cars for 1952. Featuring Coachcraft bodies and more powerful engines, the new models are scheduled to go on display in Ford dealerships throughout the nation Friday, February 1.

There are a total of 18 models in three new lines—eight in the Mainline series, seven in the Customline series, and three in the Crestline series.

"Ford Mainline cars are for buyers chiefly interested in lowest-cost, dependable transportation," explained L. D. Crusoe, vice-president of Ford Motor Company and general manager of Ford Division. The Customline models incorporate many special refinements and conveniences, and the Crestline series features three luxurious body styles.

"These Fords for 1952—in every respect—are the finest cars we ever have built, and their advanced styling, engineering and quality features establish them as leaders in the high-volume field," Mr. Crusoe said.

The new models are the result of Ford's far-reaching forward planning program, according to Mr. Crusoe.

"We are fortunate that our facilities, design and tooling programs were far advanced before the Korean crisis developed, and that we could bring these new models to completion without interference with the defense program. In the meantime, we have eagerly sought defense contracts and have taken on all the work the government has requested."

Ford's styling identity is preserved in the low-wide lines of the hood and front-end of the new cars, centering around a triple-spinner, air scoop grille arrangement. The new cars have curved one-piece windshields and rear windows, and their body lines sweep backward from extended headlights along the hood and higher fender line to the jet-tube taillight sections.

Among the 1952 models are three completely new utility passenger vehicles, one for each of the three lines of cars. The Ranch Wagon in the Mainline series is a two-door, six passenger unit, with all-steel body. In the Customline, there is the Country Sedan, a four-door, eight passenger vehicle with all-steel body. In the Crestline is the Country Squire, another four-door, eight-passenger model, with wood trim over the steel side panels.

All three of the utility units are quickly convertible for light hauling tasks. The rear seat of the Ranch Wagon folds into the floor, and in the two four-door models, the center seat folds into the floor and the rearmost seat is removable.

L. W. Smead, general sales manager, said that "Ford again leads its field in offering the widest variety and choice of power combinations, safety features and fashion color selections. Fords are the only completely new cars in their field for 1952, thanks to Ford's long range planning program.

"Only Ford in the high-volume class offers both six-cylinder and V-8 engines, three transmissions, foam rubber padding on all passenger car seats, center fill gasoline fueling, suspended-type power pivot clutch and brake pedals and a dash-mounted master brake cylinder," Mr. Smead said.

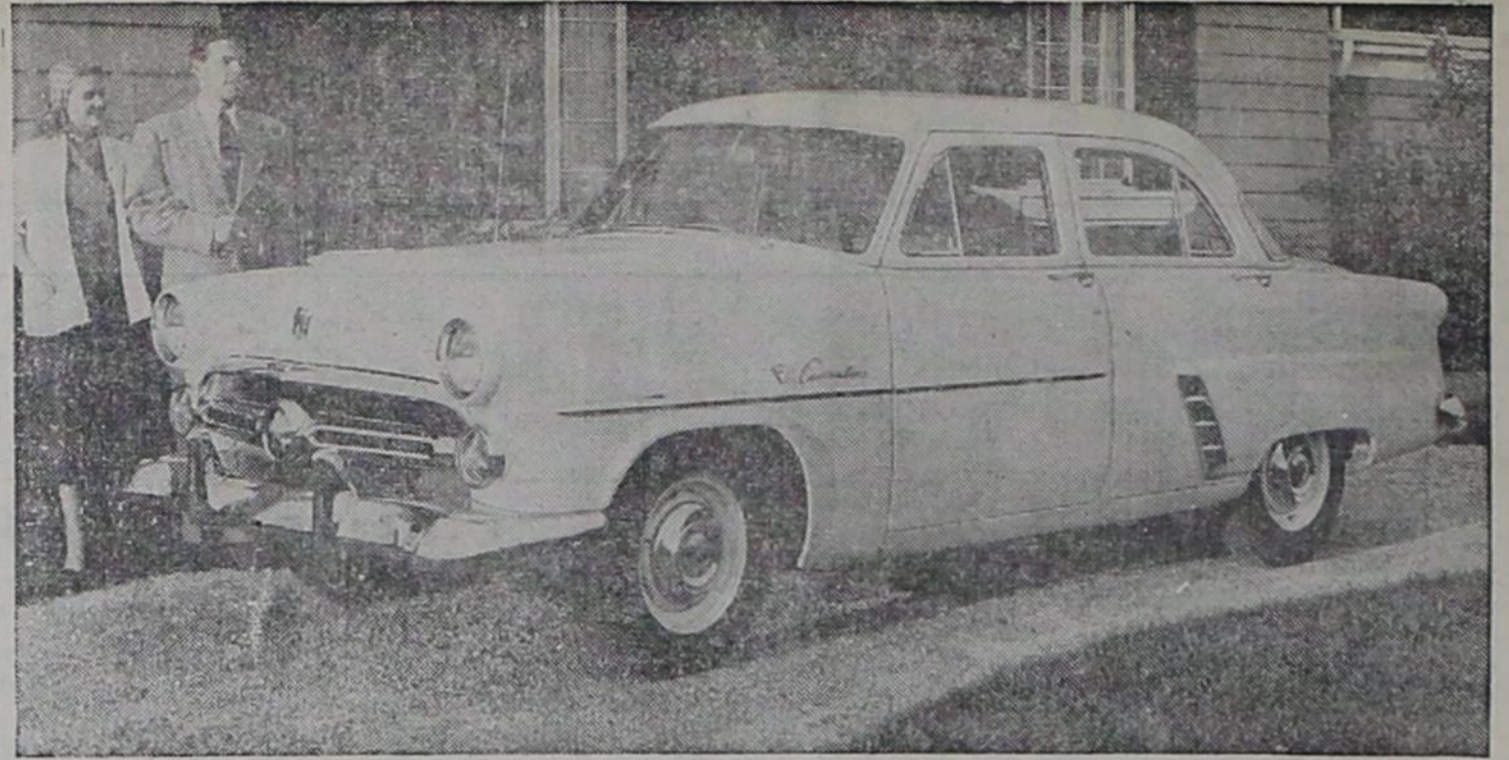

"A greatly increased use of safety glass makes our cars much safer to drive, an all four-door models have rear-door safety locks as standard equipment."

Mr. Smead said the 1952 Fords are more maneuverable and have a more comfortable ride because of new "tailored-to-model" springs, a longer wheelbase, wider front tread, more rigid frame and a new steering linkage with a higher turning ratio. The front tread is 58 inches and the wheelbase is 115 inches.

"Ford is the world's largest builder of V-8 engines and has built more than 12,000,000—more than four times as many as all other manufacturers combined. The Ford Strato Star V-8 engine—proved over billions of miles of rugged service—is more powerful than ever, with an increase from 100 to 110 horsepower this year," Mr. Smead said.

"In addition, we are introducing the new 101-horsepower Ford Mileage Maker Six, a high-compression low-friction engine produced after four years of intensive research and testing."

Both Ford engines are designed to operate on regular gasolines and embody many features found only in more costly cars, such as aluminum autothermic pistons, full-pressure lubrication, free-turning valves and weather-tight ignition.

The all-new 1952 Ford Customline Fordor Sedan features a completely new Ford Coachcraft body with curved one-piece windshield and rear window, triple-spinner grille arrangement and body highlights sweeping backward from the extended headlights along the hood and fender to the jet-tube taillight sections. Added styling features of the Customline Fordor are the chrome capped rear fender profiles.

"The new engine is an overhead valve six that sets the pace for the industry," Mr. Smead said. "Ford's expansion program provided for the construction of a completely new engine plant at Cleveland, O., to manufacture this engine, and the facilities in this 'wonder plant' are the most advanced available."

Ford Coachcraft bodies feature weather-and-dust-tight all-steel construction, automatic posture control seats, curved front and rear glass, new insulation and sealing, curved flight-style instrument panels, and insulated body bolts which dampen noise and vibrations between chassis and the passenger area.

The luggage compartment contains more than 25 cubic feet of loading space. Counter-balancing springs help to raise the luggage compartment deck lid and the hood and to hold them open for servicing or loading. The deck lid hinges are side-mounted to prevent interference with luggage.

A range of 10 two-tone exterior body color combinations is available for closed car models, and there are 12 single body colors, all with matching and harmonizing trim and upholstery, adding up to more than 80 combinations.

The curved instrument panel blends into the doors in the cockpit styling of the driver's compartment.

Operating controls, such as the key-turn starter-ignition switch, windshield wiper, light and ventilation controls, are grouped in a safety position to the left of the steering column out of the reach of children.

Controls for interior lights, choke, lighter, heater-defroster-ventilator and radio are grouped to the right of the steering column, with the clock and ash tray near the center of the panel. The heater unit itself has been moved to clear the passenger compartment and is located under the hood. An adjustable door has been added to provide warm air directly to the right front seat. The defroster slot extends over the entire interior width of the curved glass windshield.

Ford mainline body styles for 1952 are the business coupe, Tudor, Fordor and the new Ranch Wagon. Customline units are the Tudor, Fordor club coupe and the all-metal Country Sedan station wagon. The Crestline cars are the Sunliner, Victoria and Country Squire.

While other Presidents have died in office, William Henry Harrison and Zachary Taylor are the only ones who deaths occurred in the White House.

18 Million Miles a Year...

Safely!

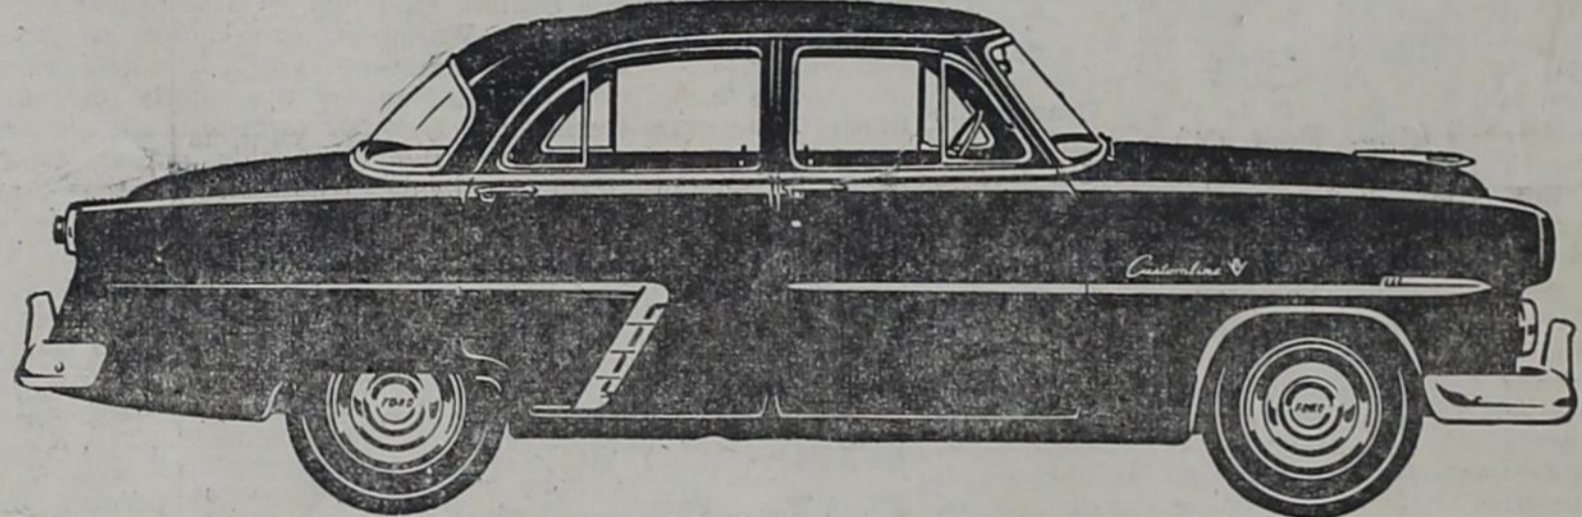

When you meet a telephone truck on the road, it may be comforting to know that the men who drive them have one of industry's most enviable safety records.

Accidents will happen, of course—but where telephone trucks are concerned they happen only once every 126,000 miles. And by "accident" we mean even a scratched fender! Last year the 2000 trucks operated by this company rolled nearly 18,000,000 miles—in city and country, in good weather and bad.

With that much driving to do, you can see why safety has become such an important part of the telephone business.

Scottish Duo Will Appear In Farwell

A Scottish duo, sponsored by the Southern School Assemblies, will present a program at Farwell school at 9 o'clock Feb. 4, in the auditorium.

According to the news release on the entertainers, Bill Barrie, the world's champion bagpiper is a native son of Scotland where he was born. He has been playing the pipes since childhood and can be truly designated "master of the pipes" as he makes the bagpipes talk.

Barrie plays a standard set of pipes without any attachments whatsoever and delivers any of the latest popular numbers without any effort.

The release says that Bill is the only bagpiper in the world able to render current popular numbers on a standard set of pipes. Of course, he is also expert at playing all the typical Scottish music, laments, jigs, reels, etc. on the same set of pipes.

Bill Barrie has a houseful of cups, diplomas and medals won in the United Kingdom, Canada and the U. S. for his bagpiping. Barrie's first appearance on this side of the Atlantic ocean was when, as European champion, he was invited to make personal appearances at the World Fair in San Francisco where he proved a sensation. After this, he played concert tours throughout the country with the Powell River (B.C.) Pipe Band and later made tours as soloist in the Southern States in 1940.

He played many school shows in the South and again proved a sensation. From one college in Texas he received a letter of thanks and appreciation signed by every member of the faculty and every pupil on the school rolls.

Bill gets lots of fan mail but this letter was a super one comprising many pages. Bill Barrie was thrilled with his reception in the South, and hopes to meet some of his old pals who will now be past school age, during his current tour. "Bill Barrie has certainly earned the title of the world's champion bagpiper," the release concludes.

Minnesota boasts the greatest water area of any state.

"The boys and girls in the second grade are feeling quite grown up now that they are learning to really and truly write," the teacher says. They have learned four families of letters and are beginning to write a few words, and they are doing very good work.

They were somewhat disappointed in their dramatizations in language, but are hoping to improve on their next ones.

Many of the students have been absent because of illness. They are Mike Getz, Mary Ann Magness, Joan Potts, Maurice Smith, Glenda Billingsley, Karen Shell, Jimmie Cain, Beverly Cassady, Carolyn Rooten, Guy Pense, Roy Hammonds, Aubrey White, Christine Paine, Jane Guley, Scotty Hanna, Errol Johnson, and Jolene Donaldson.

Dusting is the safest way to apply insecticides, but it is less effective than a spray or dip for controlling pests on livestock.

Academic Needs Given For Students

As students of Farwell schools move into the last semester of this term, and begin their final social and academic plans for the 1951-52 session, the seniors begin adding and subtracting credits, and maintaining averages for graduation.

In four year high schools in Texas, students are required to meet certain requirements, regulations and standards in order to maintain their accredited standing with the Texas Education Agency.

At least 16 credits are required for graduation at Farwell schools. These academic units must include: four years study in English (courses include both grammar and literature); two years history; two units in mathematics; two years of laboratory science; and six electives.

After completing the required courses, students have quite a collection of courses from which they may choose electives. During the four year period he is in a high school, a pupil at Farwell has a choice of 35 different courses, many of them in the same fields, of course.

Supt. Jack Williams says. This does not mean that this many different subjects are offered each year, but that subjects are rotated to give a more comprehensive course of study. Students may receive training in commercial work, music, home economics, or vocational agriculture; and Spanish and speech are also on the agenda.

Not only do pupils at the school have facilities for the above listed subjects, but a complete extra-curricular program is maintained in the individual classes and organizations and by the school. Each class presents assembly programs during the year, and various social functions are annually staged.

Athletics are also a major part of the agenda, and practically all student have some training in physical education.

Miss Adams reports the first year girls are just beginning to learn the parts of the sewing machine and are also learning how to use and care for it.

Public Schools Week Slated, March 2-8

Thousands of Texas adults will go back to school during the week of March 2-8 in observance of the Second Annual Public Schools Week, which has as its theme "Democracy in Action." Supt. Jack Williams of Farwell schools said today that the local school will observe the Public school week though a definite program has not been worked out.

Governor Allan Shivers today proclaimed March 2-8 as Public Schools Week in Texas. In his proclamation the Governor said:

"One of the basic institutions upon which we rely for the furtherance of our American ideals is the public school system. Public schools, by enabling every child to gain a liberal education regardless of station in life, promote recognition of the responsibilities of citizenship and constitute a major bulwark against subversive doctrines.

"We in Texas are proud of the school system that has been developed in our state. Its success has been due to many factors—the interest of mothers and fathers in their children, the cooperative efforts of state and local officials, and the energy and determination of those public spirited men and women who are devoting their lives to the teaching of our children.

"The continued progress of our school system requires increased public understanding of the importance of education and the greatest possible encouragement and support of our teachers."

Governor Shivers' proclamation follows a resolution adopted last summer by the Texas State Board of Education designating the week of March 2-8 as Public Schools week. The resolution urged that every citizen visits a public school during the period to become personally acquainted with the programs and accomplishments of the state's system of public schools.

The Texas Education Agency has requested local public school officials throughout the state to invite the citizens of their respective communities to visit classrooms, and to plan programs with the purpose of giving the pupils and the citizens a better understanding of the school program.

Public Schools Week was observed officially for the first time in Texas last March. In hundreds of communities thousands of citizens visited their public schools in groups. Many visitors had not been inside schools in years.

Statistics compiled by the Texas Citizens' Committee on Public Schools Week following the first Public Schools Week program revealed a great awakening on the part of the public to the problems of their local public schools.

Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Park returned Sunday from Albuquerque, where they had been visiting their son and family for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Randol visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Willis Magness Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Booth are in Dallas visiting their daughter.

Claude Thomas, of Field, N. M., visited the early part of the week in Farwell with his mother, Mrs. Albert Thomas.

"Uncle Tom" Randol spent Sunday visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Johnson.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Magness were business visitors in Amarillo, on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Phillips have moved to their farm southeast of town.

Allan Lockhart was ill with the flu the past week.

March Of Dimes Drive Enters Final Week For Year

As the 1952 March of Dimes campaign neared its close this week, national and local officials of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis joined in predicting that the American people would see to it that the March of Dimes over-takes and keeps pace of the quickening march of polio.

Doubling of the March of Dimes period this year was necessitated by tripled incidence of polio during the last four years. Each year the National Foundation has gone into debt providing for patient care of children and adults stricken with polio—the only epidemic disease still on the increase in America.

Incidence during the last four years has been so high that an entirely new concept of polio has been developed, a concept geared to 30,000 cases a year instead of the ten to twelve thousand cases experienced during the previous decade.

Since scientists say it is likely that accelerated polio incidence will continue until the final answer to the disease has been discovered, it seems clear that the only way left open to cope with the challenge of this frightening new concept is to meet it squarely with a new concept of giving.

Only a new and enlarged concept of giving will enable the nation to cope with the three big increases that cloud the polio picture—increased incidence, increased numbers of carry-over cases requiring expensive long-term care, and increased costs of hospitalization, trained personnel, and equipment.

On National Foundation records are cases that have cost upwards of $30,000; and bills of $5,000 to $10,000 per year for many other patients are by no means rare.

All of these facts make clear why the 1952 March of Dimes must succeed and why its slogan this year is: "This fight is yours."

Top O' Texas Show Slated Saturday

The Top o' Texas Hereford Breeders Association is completing final plans for the annual Show and Sale, which is scheduled for Feb. 4 and 5, at Recreation Park, Pampa, Texas.

Francis Hill, manager of the Honey Creek Ranch, Grove, Okla., will judge the show, and Walter Britten, College Station, will again cry the sale. Judging of the breeding cattle will take place Monday, Feb. 4, at 1:30 p.m., and bronze trophies will be awarded by the Association for the grand champion bull, grand champion female, and grand champion pair. Seventy-nine choice bulls and females will be sold at auction.

A banquet will be held on Monday evening at 7:30, in the American Legion Hall, at which time Leon Hill of Amarillo, noted humorist, will be guest speaker.

Catalogues have been prepared and mailed by the Catalogue committee, according to Cliff Vincent, president of the local Hereford Breeders Association. A new building to house a modern wash rack with hot and cold water, for use in grooming show animals, will be ready for this year's show. It will be a Butler-type building similar in construction and appearance to the show barn erected last year.

The agriculture committee of the Chamber of Commerce, of which Clyde Carruth is chairman, is again sponsoring the Junior Livestock Show and Sale, which is held each year in connection with the Hereford Breeders Show. Carruth says that there will be some of the finest calves and pigs in the area shown and sold by 4-H Club and FFA boys this year.

Awards in the Junior Livestock Show will be furnished by the Lions Club and the Rotary Club. Sherman White, president of Lions, will present the award for the grand champion calf, and George Scott, president of Rotary, will present the award for the grand champion pig.

The contests will begin at 12 noon, Monday, Feb. 4, and will be followed by a banquet hosted by the agriculture committee at 5:30 p.m. in the Palm Room of the City Hall.

Frank Carter, Manager of Combs-Worley Hereford Farms, will again furnish the awards for the judging contest.

Agent Says Farm Records Are Big Help

"Farm records are a big aid to farmers in many ways. They are a must for figuring income tax returns and should be the basis for changing practices and cropping systems on the farm," Joe Jones, county Agent, explains.

The present economic situation calls for expert management and the use of practices that will lead to more efficient production on the farms of the state, says John G. McHaney, economist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, and farm records can be used to find the weak points in present operating plans.

Farm records, he continues, are a kind of a mirror. They reflect for study the year's business. And, too, records will show what farm enterprises should be expanded or curtailed. Cost of production figures on the various crops and livestock grown on the farm may reveal that operations now considered minor should be expanded so as to more fully utilize the equipment and labor available.

When it comes to getting credit, farm records will reveal for representatives of loan agencies the productive capacity of the farm and a list of the assets, in inventory form, located on the farm. Records also indicate that the farm is being operated on a business-like basis.

McHaney says many good farm record books are available but he especially likes one that has been prepared by the economists and farm management specialists of the Texas A. & M. College System. The Texas Farm Record Book was designed especially for Texas conditions.

It contains inventories for land, farm improvements, machinery and equipment, livestock, crops, and feed on hand, farm sales and expenses, farm products used at home, and a summary of the year's farm business.

Inventories, says McHaney, are check-ups on what a farmer owns at the start and finish of each year. Farmers who prepare income tax statements—and that gets nearly everybody—often find deductions not previously claimed after keeping records that include inventories.

Complete and accurate farm records can be had, points out McHaney, if only a few minutes each day are devoted to record keeping. He says local county Extension agents can supply information on how to order the Texas Farm Record Book or it may be bought directly from the Exchange Store, College Station, Texas.

Mrs. Harry Jesko and Mrs. Teresa Kaiser spent Sunday in Muleshoe.

A warning has been issued to owners who use cotton to clean their pets' eyes. Dr. R. E. Ruggles, president of the American Animal Hospital Association, says dry cotton should be used with caution on the cornea because it has enough abrasive effect to injure the delicate membrane.

Wolverines Play Buffs Here, Friday Night

"Texico's Wolverines play the Melrose Buffaloes on the local court Friday night," report Charles Stockton, coach, today. "It will be the locals final game before entering the county tournament next week," Stockton said.

Last Friday's game with Des Moines was cancelled because of numerous cases of flu, as were the games with Grady Saturday night. "Texico's Whirlwinds will also enter the county tournament at Clovis next week," stated Fern Stout, coach, today.

Texico Cage Teams Split With Bovina

Texico's Wolverines and Whirlwinds went to Bovina Tuesday night for a pair of battles with Bovina's squads. The Whirlwinds topped the Bovina Lassies 44-40, while the Wolverines lost a thrilling 51-45 decision to the Mustangs. Games were non-conference.

In the girls game, Bovina jumped to an early lead and led 13-11 at the end of the initial period. Texico came back in the second canto to tie the count 18-18 by halftime. Bovina took the lead again in the third period and led 30-27 at the end of the canto. The Whirlwinds exploded for 17 points in the final period, while Bovina accounted for 10, to make the final count, 44-40.

The Wolverines took an early lead in the boys game, to be on to 8-7 at the end of the initial period. Bovina came back in the second period to go out in front 19-15 by halftime. The Mustangs increased their lead to 37-26 in the third canto.

After three of the Wolverines starting five fouled off in the third period, and one early in the fourth, the Wolverines made a great comeback and knotted the count 45-45 with only a minute of play left. Bovina hit the bucket for 6 counters in the final minute to come out on top 51-45.

Coaches Meeting To Be Monday Night

"Curry County Coaches will meet next Monday night in the County Superintendents Office in the Court House at Clovis," stated Fern Stout today. "The meeting will be for the purpose of drawing for the Curry County tournaments at Clovis next week," Stout said.

Attending from Texico will be Fern Stout, Charles, Stockton, and Curtis Miller.

The water improvement program consists of approximately 2000 feet of 6 inch c. p. pipe, three fire plugs, and approximately 300 feet of two inch galvanized pipe to cross highway 60.

The usual right to reject bids is being reserved by the City Commission.

Bovina Teams Defeat Vega Cage Groups

The conference basketball games that were to have been played on Friday night were moved up and played on Wednesday of last week due to the FFA boys leaving for Ft. Worth. The games were played at Bovina.

The Bovina girls kept their record for conference play, but not until they had played a hard and close game and it looked for a while as if they might suffer their first conference loss.

Bovina led at the first quarter 13-12 but Vega had come back at the half to lead 21-20. The game continued to see saw back and forth during the last half with first one team and then the other in the lead but never by over a point or two. Bovina had again taken a one point lead the third quarter 28-27. Bovina had built up a two point lead at the final whistle with the final score 31-29. This made the seventh conference win for the Bovina girls with no losses.

LaVonda Newton took scoring honors for the evening counting for 15 points. Sue Price of Vega tallied 13 points while Smith of Bovina and Wiseman of Vega each scored 11 points.

In the boys game the Mustangs had no trouble defeating the Vega team with the final score reading 61-43. Bovina took the lead at the start of the game and held that lead throughout the game. Half time score found Bovina in the lead 27-18. The boys now have a conference record of six wins and 1 loss.

Roy Young, tall center of the Mustangs tipped the net for 28 points. Harold Dillehay of Vega led their scoring with 15 points.

TO PRESENT ASSEMBLY

Monday, Feb. 4, the Southern School Assemblies of Dallas will present "The Scottish Duo" at the school assembly. The duo includes Scotty McLean, who plays a variety of instruments, including bagpipes, saxophone, clarinet, harmonica, drums and shepard pipes. In addition to his instrumental numbers, Scotty is a splendid interpreter of the Harry Lauder songs and dialect stories and features many of the old Scottish classics with a true Scottish swing. Admission will be 25c and the public is invited to hear this unusual program.

Tilts Are Cancelled, Coming Games Listed

The basketball games that were to have been played on Saturday night were cancelled due to the boys being in Ft. Worth for the Fat Stock Show. They were to have played the Canyon girls and the Hereford boys.

The Adrian teams will be in Bovina on Friday night for two conference games. The Adrian boys hold the one win over the Mustangs and they are hoping they can defeat them this Friday night on their home court. If they can gain a win over them, they will be tied with Adrian for the first place standing in the conference.

On Tuesday night, Feb. 5 the Happy teams will come to Bovina for a pair of non-conference games.

INJURED ON SHIP

Mr. and Mrs. Harve Alverson received word on Monday that their son, Billy Bob, who is serving in the Navy at San Diego had been injured in an accident aboard ship. A motor fell on his leg and he sustained two fractures. One was in the ankle and one was between the ankle and knee. His wife wrote and said that he was doing as well as could be expected, but that he would be hospitalized for several months.

FLU CLOSES SCHOOL

Students of the Bovina schools enjoyed a non-scheduled vacation last week when the school was closed on Thursday and Friday because of the great number out with influenza. About 20% of the students were out at that time. The school reopened Monday, with some 16% still absent but classes will continue unless attendance drops again.

GYM IS REPAIRED

W. H. Willoughby, superintendent, said on Monday that damage done by the recent fire in Willford gymnasium has been repaired. The boys' dressing room, which suffered the most damage, has been repainted and is again in tip-top condition. The boys' basketball team has also received new suits, ordered after the fire damaged some of the other suits.

CPL. DELASHAW HERE

Cpl. James D. Delashaw arrived Wednesday of last week from Sampson, N. Y., where he is stationed with the air force. Cpl. Delashaw has been visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Delashaw, and will leave Sunday to return to his base.

ON A LONG ROAD BACK TO HEALTH

Former Bovina Resident Feels Full Impact Of Poliomyelitis, But Can Still Smile

EDITORIAL NOTE:

The March of Dimes campaign in Parmer and surrounding counties is now underway. In order to present a picture of the full impact of man's fight against this disease, The Tribune is reprinting a story from the New Mexico Press about a young man, formerly of Bovina, who has been taken by polio in one of the most advanced stages.

By MYRTLE D. CONSTANT

Sometimes it takes a disaster or an epidemic to bring home in stark realism the need for funds to carry on a rehabilitation program. The annual March of Dimes drive, sponsored by the National Polio Foundation to fight infantile paralysis, is as vitally necessary to the welfare of our nation as any program in existence.

Roy Richard Fuller, who lives at 401 Hickory street in Clovis, is one among many hundreds of polio victims who fully understand the necessity of such a program. Roy and his wife, Betty Lou, were married only three months when he was suddenly stricken with the dread disease.

Working as a truck driver for a local produce company, Roy was returning to Clovis from a trip to El Paso when he felt the first symptoms of what was later diagnosed as a severe case of polio.

Roy was sent to the Plainview clinic, where he remained for seven months. Six weeks of that time he was kept in an iron lung. He was returned to his home and family in Clovis, and last fall he was sent to an El Paso hospital for a month's treatment. Two weeks of that month he spent in the iron lung.

Since last September he has been at home under local care and supervision.

Roy Fuller will be just 22 years old next month. Feb. 22 is the date of his birthday. His body has been completely paralyzed since he was stricken with polio on Oct. 23, 1950.

Before going to Clovis to live, Roy lived with his family in Bovina. He was a member of the Air Force 13 months, having received his basic training at Lackland Air Base.

He spent six months in Rhein-Main, Germany, near Frankfurt, stationed with the 61st MP division. He was given a dependency discharge when his widowed mother passed away while he was overseas.

Roy is surprisingly optimistic, and believes he will eventually recover from the paralysis that started in one of his legs and spread over his entire body. He realizes that it will take a long time, but the slightest improvement that he notices in his condition is encouraging to him.

When he first returned from the clinic, he could scarcely speak above a whisper. His voice is now quite normal in tone and volume. He can move his head freely, and has regained partial use of his hands and arms. His body remains paralyzed.

He has been totally disabled for 15 months. His baby son was born while he was in the polio clinic in an iron lung. Little Roy Alvin is now 8 months of age, and a fine specimen of healthy, happy babyhood.

Roy appreciates wholeheartedly the assistance he has received from the Polio Foundation, the cooperation and encouragement that has come from interested friends, and the beneficial treatments that have been given him regularly by a local physician.

Flat on his back, and unable to move his body, Roy manages to keep cheerful in spite of circumstances. Like a thief in the night, polio strikes without warning or discrimination. As he said, "It was the last thing I ever thought would happen to me."

The National Polio Foundation needs funds for the care of patients; funds for hospitals, iron lungs, and other equipment essential to the treatment of infantile paralysis.

After 14 years of research, the Foundation recently reported that it was well on its way to providing a vaccine that will prevent and cure the disease.

Training programs for doctors and nurses are in progress at all times, and no effort will be spared to conquer infantile paralysis. A vast amount of money is needed to carry out this program, and the March of Dimes points the way in which everyone can have a part.

To fight infantile paralysis is everybody's job. When polio strikes, there can be no delay of treatment. Tomorrow may be too late.

Mr. and Mrs. Montgomery spent Saturday in Canyon with her mother, Mrs. J. F. McMurray, who was celebrating her 76th birthday.

Have "42" Party

Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Hromas entertained a group of their friends on Saturday night with a delicious Mexican supper in their home. Following the supper they spent the evening playing "42".

Guests present were Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Batty, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Sides, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Minter, Mr. and Mrs. Joe McWilliams, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Tidenberg, Clinton and Jamie.

School Will Receive Books From Library

The Friona school is slated to receive a good supply of books which have been maintained locally as a public library, it is reported, following recent conferences between the city Library Association and school officials.

Mrs. George Treider, of the Association, pointed out that a regular librarian had not been on hand for several months, with the result that books were given little care and it was felt that the school library could be greatly enhanced by the addition of the material on hand.

The library was started some years ago, with local people donating the books. Individuals who do not wish to have their contributions moved on to the school should claim their property immediately from the room at the Legion Hall.

Business Change Made Here On Wednesday

Vance Crume, who has served as manager and part-owner of the Friona Motor Co. in this city for the past six years, severed his connection with the local garage on Wednesday of last week, it is reported.

Purchasing the stock held by Crume were Dudley Green and Archie Scott, of Hereford, co-partners with Crume during the past years. Roy Crutchfield, of Hereford, arrived here on Thursday to take over management of the business.

Crume said this week that he and his family would move to Hereford in the near future, where he will be employed.

Flu Still Prevalent Over Parmer County

Although the epidemic proportion seems to be waning, much influenza is still prevalent in Parmer County, according to Dr. Paul L. Spring, head of the local hospital and county health doctor.

The Parmer County Hospital has been almost overrun with a seige of flu patients for the past two weeks, and evidence of Monday was that the disease was subsiding only very slightly.

The majority of schools in the county were forced to close for several days as attendance dropped alarmingly, but conditions among students seem improved this week.

District Conference Is Slated For Plainview

District pastor's and laymen's conference for Baptists is slated to be held at Plainview on February 4-5, Rev. Russell Pogue, local pastor, said today.

Among the special visitors will be E. S. James, Vernon; A. A. Davis, who will speak on "The Trail Of Blood", and Orville Yeagar, from Mississippi College, will be the Bible teacher.

The meeting is open to pastors and laymen of the Panhandle area, the local minister said, adding that it was not definite what representation would be made from the local church.

Junior Class Play To Be Presented Tonight

Presentation of "Lindy Lou" a three-act comedy, is scheduled for tonight (Thursday) by the junior class of the local high school.

The play will be presented in the school auditorium, beginning at 8 o'clock with admission prices being set at 25c for grade children, 50c for high school students, and 75c for adults.

J. T. Gee and Earl Hise, sponsors of the class, invite the public to attend for an enjoyable evening.

AT MINISTER'S RETREAT

The Reverend George E. Meyer of the Congregational Church is in attendance at the Ministers' Retreat which is being held in Dallas, and for Congregational ministers of the central South Conference of the denomination. The sessions are being held in the Central Congregational Church. Mr. Meyer is one of the chairmen of the sessions.

Attend Meeting In Lubbock, Monday

Carl Maurer, Ed Massey, J. G. McFarland and Al Romich were in Lubbock on Monday of this week, attending a meeting where discussion was held on regulations on use of pipe for irrigation and water wells.

Romich, manager of the local Chamber of Commerce, said that the meeting was called by the United States Department of Commerce, National Production Authority, to outline recent changes on government control regarding the amount of pipe used for both regular water wells and irrigation wells.

Credit Bureau Office Planned For Friona

Mrs. Lucy Jones announced this week that she planned to open a Retail Credit Bureau office in Friona in the near future, as soon as final details could be worked out.

Such an office, Mrs. Jones pointed out, would serve as a clarifying center on credit standings of individuals who might desire out-of-town credit.

The office, when it is opened, will be maintained in the Chamber of Commerce office in the Legion Hall building, Mrs. Jones said Monday, adding that further details would be announced later.

Highway Week Noted At Lions Club Meet

Observance of Highway Week was made at the regular meeting of the Friona Lions Club, last Thursday evening, when Mr. Easley, operator of a tourist court in Amarillo, was guest speaker.

Following Easley's talk, a film on the polio epidemic in Wycheville, Virginia, was shown, in connection with the current drive of the March of Dimes.

Boss Lion Wesley Foster reported that a good crowd was on hand for the meeting, held at the Woman's Club House.

Herring Implement Co. Is Host On Tuesday

The Herring Implement Co., local John Deere farm implement dealer, was host on Tuesday of this week for the annual "John Deere Day", with residents of the area acting as guests of the business during the day.

A chili and bean dinner was offered all visitors, followed by a free picture show during the afternoon.

New Fire Station Nearly Complete

Occupancy of Friona's new fire station is expected in the near future, with plans the first of the week being for the concrete floor to be poured this week.

According to announcement from the office of City Manager Roy Wilson, work is rapidly approaching its finale at the station. Later on, it is hoped that additional rooms may be added to the structure to house the city offices, now located in the Legion Hall.

Maine is bounded by only one state, New Hampshire.

FFA Chapter Gets New Chevy Pickup

The Friona FFA chapter became the recipient of a new 1952 model Chevrolet pickup on Tuesday of this week, when presentation was made to the chapter by representatives of the Reeve Chevrolet, local dealers.

At the same time, the boys turned back to the firm the older model pickup earlier issued to the chapter by the local dealer.

The pickup is used exclusively for necessary chapter transportation.

Good Attendance Is Noted Sunday Night

Approximately 150 persons were present for a fellowship supper that featured chili on Sunday evening of this week, when the local Methodist congregation observed family night.

Rev. J. E. Tidwell, pastor, reported that a special film was shown during the regular worship hour.

CONSERVATION NEWS

By BILL KENNEDY

RANGE LAND REDUCED

According to the Parmer County Soil Conservation District Program and plan, there were approximately 115,983 acres of range land in Parmer County in 1949.

This acreage is being reduced rapidly at this time. Almost any direction you look, you see native sod being broken out. It does not take an expert land economist to know why. Agriculture is commercial and land use is dominated by action and reaction of prices, especially cotton.

Some of this land is suited to cultivation, but a large majority of it is either too steep or too shallow for sod cultivation. It is best suited to grazing. Parmer county grass, if carefully managed, will carry one animal unit to 7 acres with supplemental feeding.

PLAN IS INFORMATIVE

The District program and plan is a most informative document. It was prepared in 1949 by the Board of Supervisors with the assistance of land owners, business and professional men. It gives detailed information on physical conditions in Parmer County and may be used as a rule and guide to sound conservation farming. This booklet is available to anyone who wishes to read it.

WELLS LOCATED

Irrigation wells were located this week for B. R. Proctor and Triplett and Pringle. Contour lines were run for Clayton Taylor.

Terraces were staked for John McGehee.

NEWS FOR STUDENTS

Any high school seniors who may be interested in studying for soil conservation work may check with us for a list of colleges which offer a degree with a major in soil conservation.

CURE FOR PROBLEMS

The deep distribution of organic matter is a cure for most of the soil problems in the area. This means that clover or alfalfa should occupy the soil about every 5 to 7 years. Vetch and peas are good legumes for soil building, but it takes a legume with roots which grow several feet deep for deep distribution of organic matter.

Farmers Willing To Pay Premium For Pelleted Feeds, Study Shows

Farmers are willing to pay $1.50 to $2.00 more per ton for pelleted feeds than for mash, because pellets are easy to handle, save labor, reduce the loss from wind blowing feed away, and each bite is a balanced ration, according to a U. S. Department of agriculture study.

The cost of making mash into pellets for livestock and poultry feed ranged from $1.09 to $2.57 a ton at 14 cooperatively owned and operated feed mills according to the study, made under the Research and Marketing Act by the Cooperative Research and Service Division of the Farm Credit Administration. It is published as FFCA Bulletin 63, "Costs of Pelleting Feeds at Selected Cooperative Feed Mills." Although cooperative feed mills provided the data, the results can be applied to other mills as well. A copy of the Bulletin may be obtained from the Division of Information and Extension, Farm Credit Administration, U. S. Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C.

The mills which showed both extremes in costs were producing relatively large quantities of pellets so volume was not a key factor. The high cost mill ranked third in yearly volume of pellets produced and the low cost mill was second.

One of the largest expense items, subject to the greatest variations, was labor. Labor inefficiency was most frequently found in the bagging operation. Some mills, quite efficient in packing mash, did poorly in packing pellets from a cost standpoint.

Balance in equipment was important. Some mills were under-equipped; others over-equipped. Either condition increased costs. The number of pellet machines operated by each of the 14 mills varied from 1 to 10. Generally it is more economical to operate several machines than one or two. But a small number can be operated at low cost if
