Six-year-old Randall Kerr gets an injection of a new polio vaccine at McLean, Va., near Washington, as a test gets under way in selected areas across the nation. Dr. Richard Mulvaney injects the serum, first developed by Dr. Jonas Salk of the University of Pittsburgh, into Randall's arm. Randall was the first of some 100 children to be inoculated at McLean, and perhaps the first in the country. (AP Wirephoto).

Texas Polio Vaccine Test Plan In Dither

By The Associated Press
Texas testing of the much-publicized Salk polio vaccine is in an on-again-off-again dither. San Antonio has dropped out of the program, temporarily at least. Corpus Christi, after postponing the tests Monday, re-scheduled them Monday night. Dallas talked during the day of possible postponement of the tests. But then Dallas leaders decided Monday night to go ahead with them. Houston called an emergency meeting of interested persons and then re-affirmed the tests to begin May 11 as originally scheduled. Fort Worth leaders said that un-

Man Draws Fines In Three Courts

Oscar Algie Shortes was fined a total of $201 in three different courts this morning after he entered pleas of guilty to charges of indecent exposure, indecent exhibition of his person and unlawfully carrying arms. Costs amounting to $38.85 also were assessed. He was arrested Monday afternoon in the 200 block of Main by city police. In City Court this morning, Shortes pleaded guilty to charges of indecent exposure of his person, an offense which allegedly occurred Monday. City Judge William E. Greenlee assessed a fine of $1. The Dimmitt man was transferred to County Court on a charge of unlawfully carrying arms. He also pleaded guilty in County Court and was assessed a fine of $100 and costs of $23.85. A complaint alleging indecent exhibition of his person then was filed in Justice Court against Shortes. He pleaded guilty to this charge, which is alleged to have occurred Mar. 16, and Justice of the Peace Cecil Nabors levied a fine of $100 and costs of $14.50. The defendant was released overnight on $200 bond, police said.

Client Defendant In Suit Filed Here

George T. Thomas, Clyde E. Thomas and Ouilford L. Jones have filed a suit for debt in 118th District Court against A. L. Wasson. They ask judgment against Wasson for $7,721.73 which they allege he owes the three attorneys for representing him and N. H. Reed in a trespass to try title suit brought against Wasson and Reed by J. S. Garlington and others. The plaintiffs say expenses they incurred in the role as attorneys for Wasson and Reed amounted to $643.46. They allege that $15,900 is reasonable attorneys' fee for the services. Plaintiff's petition also alleges that Reed has signified willingness to pay half the expenses, but that Wasson has refused. The trespass to try title and bill of review suit brought by the Garlingtons was filed in 1948. It was tried in 118th District Court in January, 1954, and District Judge Charlie Sullivan Monday entered judgment in favor of the defendants, Wasson and Reed, on the basis of the jury's findings.

Southwest Borden Wildcat To Final As Spraberry Discovery

Texas Crude No. 1-44 Brown, wildcat in Southwest Borden County, is to be completed as a Spraberry discovery. The project flowed 114 barrels of oil in 17 hours through a quarter inch choke. Completions were logged today in the Arvama area of Dawson and the Fluvanna area of Borden. Continued oil flow was being made at Brahaney No. 1 Acosta, another Southwest Borden wildcat, and oil was being swabbed at Gibson No. 1 Patterson, Fluvanna project. Street Plan Gets Engineer's Okay

District Highway Engineer J. C. Roberts has approved plans for widening Third and Fourth Streets adjacent to the courthouse for the purpose of permitting head-in parking. Court Judge R. H. Weaver announced this morning. Roberts said he would okay plans for the head-in parking provided the streets were widened at least 21 feet. The Highway Department is interested in the street-widening plans because Third and Fourth are a part of Highway 80 through Big Spring. Roberts at first feared that head-in parking would interfere with traffic on the highway. Three members of the commissioners court this morning inspected the courthouse grounds and agreed they could dedicate 21-foot strips of three sides for widening the streets. They propose to widen Scurry in the 400 block, also. Judge Weaver said he would inform City Manager H. W. Whittey today that the county is prepared to dedicate the land for wider streets.

Past Presidents Due At C-C Meet

Past presidents of the Chamber of Commerce in Big Spring will be guests at a luncheon Monday at the Hotel to inaugurate C-C Week. J. H. Greene, manager, told directors at a committee session in the Chamber offices Monday that he expected approximately 20 of these former presidents to attend. Jaycees will be meeting jointly with the Chamber directors. Summaries from meetings of more than a score of committees were read at the session Monday, and the board gave the outlined objectives of the committees its blessing. These are enlargements of the basic program of work outlined previously.

Fogging Machine Results In Alarm

The city "fogging machine" was in use Monday afternoon, and the fog created by the insect spray resulted in a false alarm for the fire department. The machine was in use in the alley behind East 7th, and the fog appeared to be smoke. Firemen were called to the 300 block of East 7th, and found the "fire" in the 800 block as the machine had moved down the alley before they arrived.

Reds Answer Atomic Plan

GENEVA (AP)—Soviet Russia replied today to American proposals on President Eisenhower's plan for an atomic pool for peaceful purposes. The content of the Soviet reply was not disclosed, but informed sources indicated that no important progress had been made in the exchange. The note was handed to U.S. Secretary of State Dulles by Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov in a half-hour conference at which the two statesmen also discussed problems related to the current Geneva conference on Far Eastern issues. Molotov went to Dulles' hotel headquarters at noon for the suddenly called meeting, at which the American envoy expected to receive a reply to proposals handed the Russians in Washington some weeks ago.

Buying Dog In Moscow Big Effort

By RICHARD R. KASISCHKE
MOSCOW (AP)—Buying a dog around Moscow is a major operation. That may explain why you see so relatively few of them for a city of at least six million. That and the cost. I tried to get my daughter Kathleen a puppy for a Christmas present. She wanted a Scotty. That shouldn't have been tough, for you see a few Scotties around town. We tried a Moscow dog club in early December. After lengthy inquiries we learned that you couldn't get a pup until the first of two annual breeding seasons, February-March. So, all right. Over my daughter's protests we waited for three months, during which time I hoped she might forget about it. Or would you like to know the price first? It was 400 rubles for a pup. That's $10 by the official exchange rate. The dog club gave us the private addresses of owners who had puppies for sale. So we made an appointment to call on one. We had to wait a week. Then we went to a Russian apartment where there were six puppies. "We were cautioned in advance: 'Now, don't try to bargain. Prices are fixed in this country.'" The man who gave us this advice told us that German shepherd pups cost 300 rubles ($75). So we figured a Scotty would be less, because the German shepherd seems pretty popular around the swankier apartment buildings of Moscow. The pleasant Russian lady let us pick out one of the pups and then had the mama do tricks for us and gave us—free—a lecture on the care and feeding of dogs. The Russian lady named him Grozny, which means Terrible.

This was regarded as part of the Communist attempt to put the Peiping regime on a basis of equality in all big power consultations here, something the Americans have said they will not countenance. An anticipated East-West tangle on Red China's status was sidestepped at yesterday's opening session of the conference, but there was some indication Molotov might be holding off only until the talks turn to Indochina. Texas GOP To Announce Its Hopefuls

DALLAS (AP)—Texas Republicans will announce tomorrow or Thursday names of candidates for the U.S. Senate, congressman-at-large, governor, lieutenant governor and possibly attorney general and commissioner of agriculture. GOP State Chairman Alvin Lane said today. Lane would not name any Republicans who will oppose Democrats for the state offices and declined to comment upon any name suggested to him in speculation. He said only that the party would have candidates for these offices in the GOP primary which will be held July 24, same day as the Democratic primary election. "We are not in a position to make known any names today," said Lane. "I believe, however, that we shall be able to make an announcement Wednesday or, perhaps, Thursday. "We don't want to release any name until we can make a general slate of candidates announcement."

McCarthy

was drafted into the Army last fall. The McCarthy-Army dispute revolves about a contention by Secretary of the Army Stevens that McCarthy and his aides sought by improper means to secure preferential treatment for Schine. Welch gave Jenkins what he said was an unaltered picture which showed Stevens, Schine and others, rather than Stevens and Schine alone. McCarthy, examining both pictures, declared Welch had made a "completely false" statement. The incident stirred a furore with McCarthy demanding to continue on what he called a "point of order." Jenkins tried to silence McCarthy, saying he was making a speech and not a point of order. So did Chairman Mundt (R-SD). Mundt accepted the new picture submitted by Welch and said he thought Welch's "point of order" was "appropriate."

Yarborough Says He'll Reveal Plans By This Saturday

AUSTIN (AP)—Ralph Yarborough said today he will announce by Saturday whether he is going to run for governor. At the same time, he predicted Gov. Toledo Bus Drivers Strike In Dispute

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP)—Some 435 members of the AFL Bus Drivers Union struck Toledo's Community Traction Co. today, leaving this city of 320,000 without public transportation. Mayor Ollie Czelusta and City Manager Arnold Finch immediately urged residents to form car pools. In dispute was the company's refusal to abide by a wage increase award made April 9 by an arbitration board. The company said the award was invalid because its representative on the three-man board had walked out before it was made.

City Commission To Meet, Recess

Big Spring city commissioners will meet at 5:15 p. m. today and then recess until the same hour Wednesday. Mayor G. W. Whitney is attending a meeting of the Texas City Managers Association, of which he is president.

Prayer Day Is Set May 1 In Lamesa

The day is timed to lend a spiritual antidote to the traditional materialistic observance of May Day by Communists over the world.

PERIOD OF SLACK ACTIVITY

U. S. Chamber Advised Upturn Might Be Merely Temporary

WASHINGTON, (AP)—The eagerly awaited business upturn may have arrived, Dr. Courtney S. Brown of Columbia University said today, but it may prove to be only a temporary rally "in a longer period or slack activity" lasting a year or two.

Brown, dean of Columbia's Graduate School of Business, said in remarks prepared for the U. S. Chamber of Commerce convention there are encouraging signs that a revival "started a month or so ago."

And a member of the Federal Reserve Board of Governors, A.L. Mills Jr., said in a prepared talk there is increasing evidence of "resurgent business activity" to which, he said, administration fiscal policies may give added vigor.

Brown said some economists who formerly believed the business upturn would come this summer or fall now are "beginning to veer to earlier dates."

"Perhaps the turn around has already begun," he said, but added:

"There is no convincing evidence that the incipient revival will be more than an improvement of several months' duration. It could turn out to be merely a period of stability at present levels."

"It may be more realistic to regard the present prospect of improvement as a period of rally in a longer period of slack activity. If we are wrong, so much the better."

Dean Brown questioned whether the nine-month-old business sag had been caused so directly by the adjustment of overloaded business inventories as most administration officials have contended.

The nation's economy may have passed temporarily from a postwar period of replenishment and expansion to a period that could last another year or two, during which replacement may provide the principal source of new demand," he said.

This would not necessarily mean "a weak economy growing weaker," Brown added, but it does cast doubt that any revival "will represent a new and sustained movement to new heights of prosperity."

Brown voiced doubt that the government should undertake extraordinary action to stimulate industrial expansion and employment. To be really effective, he said, such measures might have to be so drastic as to be "incompatible with the political philosophy of the present administration."

Lamesa Plans Annual Fiesta In September

LAMESA (Spl) — Plans for the Third Annual Fiesta de Lamesa to be held in Lamesa in mid-September, have been outlined by the Steering Committee of the Chamber of Commerce.

The celebration is a tribute to the Latin American population of this part of the United States in joining in the observance of the Mexican celebration of the Independence of the Republic of Mexico, and is designed to cement good relations between the United States and neighbors south of the border.

Governor Allan Shivers has praised the efforts of the City of Lamesa in the undertaking of the Fiesta since its inception in 1952.

Early Peltier, chairman of the Human Relations Committee of the Chamber of Commerce, said "The Third Annual Fiesta will be the largest, most colorful and most extravagant celebration in the history of Lamesa." Peltier further said that state, national and local officials will be contacted and invited to attend the Fiesta, in addition to the governors of Texas, New Mexico, Colorado, Arizona and the president and other prominent government officials from Mexico.

Projected plans for the 1954 Fiesta include a spectacular twilight parade, band concerts, amateur shows, professional entertainment, a pet parade, street dances, addresses by visiting dignitaries, the crowning of the Fiesta Queen and recognition of her entourage, a carnival and many other forms of impressive entertainment.

With cotton prospects the best in years for Dawson County and the surrounding areas of West Texas and Eastern New Mexico, it is anticipated that a record number of Latin Americans will be in the area at the time of the Fiesta, promising a record-breaking attendance of several thousand over last year's 15,000.

Officials of the United States State Department have exhibited high interest in the Fiesta as an example of the efforts made to cement good relations between the Latin American and Anglo-American peoples of our country.

Numerous national publications will be contacted with regard to television and magazine coverage for this year's Fiesta.

A former Howard County girl, Patsy Stallings, is the only woman at Rice Institute majoring in chemical engineering.

She is to receive her degree in June. Miss Stallings is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Stallings, now of Pasadena, and the niece of Arthur Stallings of Lomax.

Miss Stallings already has secured a job as chemical engineer. Following graduation, she is to work in the research department of the Shell Oil Company refinery at Deer Park.

Amateurs Do Best

DAVENPORT, Iowa (AP)—A $700 city sweeper was delivered several weeks ago, but ever since it has failed to function. A parade of professional mechanics has visited the city parking building to work on the sweeper, without success.

Boys, members of the Future Farmers of America, who were attending the state convention of the organization here, visited the parking building Saturday.

Intrigued by the sweeper, they took it apart and reassembled it. Result: parking building employees reported the sweeper worked perfectly.

They found her brother, but he wouldn't talk—much. He was 3. His sister was 5.

The officers delegated Mama to take appropriate action.

U. S. Oil Output Up During Week

TULSA, Okla. (AP)—Daily average production of crude oil and condensate increased 14,700 barrels daily during the week ended April 24, for which only five states reported losses, the Oil and Gas Journal's survey showed today.

The Journal said today daily average production for the week was 6,593,575 barrels, bringing 1954 cumulative production to 729,174,975 barrels compared to 744,140,785 a year ago.

Oklahoma had the biggest gain, 8,400 barrels to 534,600 barrels. New Mexico was down 200 to 208,100.

Production was unchanged in Texas, 2,851,250 barrels. Louisiana was up 400 to 725,900.

Posthumous Medal Of Honor Awarded To Texas Jet Ace

WASHINGTON (AP)—The nation's highest military honor has been awarded posthumously to a Texas jet ace killed in Korea.

The Medal of Honor will be presented to the widow of Lt. Col. George A. Davis Jr., of Lubbock, who was shot down Feb. 10, 1952, while flying his 60th combat mission in Korea.

Date for the presentation to Mrs. Doris Lynn Davis has not been set.

Davis was credited with destroying 14 Communist planes in Korea, 11 of them Russian-built MIGs. He shot down seven Japanese planes during 266 Pacific combat missions in World War II.

The citation praised Davis' "selfless disregard for the numerical superiority of the enemy" and said his "bold attack" in the action which brought his death "com-

If you have decided to reduce, why not do it sensibly and easily, without starvation diet or back-breaking exercises. Just ask your druggist for four ounces of liquid Barcontrate. Mix with grapefruit juice as directed on label. Then take according to directions.

If the very first bottle doesn't show you the way to take off ugly fat, just return the empty bottle for your money back.

Mrs. Mollie Choate, 306 1/2 Callahan, Tyler, Texas, wrote us as follows:

"I wish to state that Barcontrate has done wonders for me. I not only lost 27 pounds taking it, but I found it a wonderful tonic for the whole system. It greatly relieved a gall bladder condition for me."

Sound Water Policy Must Accord West Texas Priority On Its Own

Representatives from 50 water districts are in session in Austin regarding development of policies which would affect conservation and utilization of our water resources. Next month the Texas Water Resources Commission is to hold extensive hearings.

the archaic certified filings drew loud cries of anguish from those who have thus sought to hoard the rights? So far as West Texas is concerned, there must be some plain and aggressive declarations of policies along these fronts, together with pegging of a principle to give this semi-arid area priority on its own water.

How Civilized Are We With High Crime Rate?

NEW YORK (AP) - Is America growing more civilized or less civilized? That is a troublesome question to anyone who looks behind the widely shared prosperity that has made the ordinary man here better off than kings in former times.

The FBI pointed out that in four years the population rose only five per cent but crimes increased 20 per cent. How safe is an American in the pursuit of happiness and the ownership and use of his own property? The FBI estimated that in the first half of 1953 there was a murder or case of negligent manslaughter in this country every 40.3 minutes.

Geneva Delegates Differ On Concepts Of Parley Objective

GENEVA - The fable out of India about the blind men and the elephant has some application to the momentous conference convening in this prim, precise Swiss city. The blind men each took hold of a different part of the elephant's anatomy and each one described it in entirely different terms.

opposition of Secretary of State Dulles and the American delegation. It can be said on the best authority that Dulles is convinced no line of demarcation can be drawn. Perhaps more than any of the other delegates, Dulles knows clearly what he wants and what he doesn't want, the latter being strongly conditioned by what Congress will not accept.

On Why China Should Be Kept Out Of UN

By ANNE LEFEVER

I would keep China out of any of the United Nations, but not for any of the reasons that the diplomats have put forth. Mine would be because of those pesky elm trees that are constant war, both indoors and out, with my trees, and since there are seven of them and only one of me, it is a one-sided battle.

Since the rain, I have pulled seedlings constantly. They take great delight in hiding out in inaccessible places, such as under shrubbery, in fence corners and behind rose bushes. Even the stump of a tree, cut down long ago, is putting out feelers again! I have given up trying to have grass on the south side of my house.

Insult added to injury came not long ago, though, on an evening when I had guests! That was the night the trees chose to gang up on the plumbing and me. I still shudder to think of what my grandmother would have done if she could have seen me. She would never have even said "bathroom" before a gentleman, much less have gone in one with two of them, with all three mopping the floor like crazy!

Not only did I have that trouble. Some of the water soaked under the linoleum, loosening it. Then I had to put some of that sticky black paste under the edge, and, lacking something heavy to use for weighting the linoleum down, I used all my albums of records. You guessed it! Several records were broken when they slipped out of the album!

At the risk of sounding like an unpatriotic West Texan, to whom all trees are almost sacred, I will say that I do not feel as kindly toward those trees as I probably should. However, I may appreciate them some day when they prevent my bedroom from being invaded by a car which has failed to make the corner at Johnson and 18th. I believe that will be the only thing that will win me over to their side!

M., stand for Life Membership, showing that the wearer will be faithful to her trust.

A candle on the tea-table was lit for each recipient, and a tiny candle was lit for Marcia Gayle Staggs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Staggs, who had been made an honorary member of the WSCS.

Yasmin Reunited With Rita

Rita Hayworth and husband Dick Haymes leave home of governess of Rita's children at White Plains, N. Y., with Rita's four-year-old daughter, Yasmin, en route to local hotel before the actress' scheduled appearance in court later to fight charges she neglected Yasmin and another daughter, Rebecca, nine. Charges grew out of Rita's vacationing with Dick in Florida while the girls were left at White Plains. Yasmin is her daughter by marriage to Moslem Prince Aly Khan. Rebecca is Rita's daughter by marriage to Orson Welles. (AP Wirephoto).

EX-MATES HELP

Children Returned To Rita Hayworth

NEW YORK (AP)—Rita Hayworth, aided by two ex-husbands in winning back custody of her two little girls, has settled down in a New York hotel suite with the children and her current husband. The glamorous movie star is "a loving and devoted mother," declared the judge in announcing disposition of charges that the children had been neglected. He was quoting one former husband, actor Orson Welles.

The neglect case was worked out in a three-hour private conference yesterday with Children's Judge George W. Smyth in suburban White Plains. Present were representatives of the Westchester County Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children, which filed the complaint on which the case was based.

Smyth, who had placed the children in protective custody of the court last Friday but left them in the care of their governess, returned them to their mother. The charges of neglect were dismissed but the court agreement required Miss Hayworth to concede there had been at least a technical basis for the charge.

The girls, Yasmin, 4, and Rebecca, 9, had been left in the care of the governess, Mrs. Dorothy Chambers, while Rita went to Florida for a two-week vacation with her husband, crooner Dick Haymes. The neglect petition, never made public, was filed after two neighbors complained that the children were not properly supervised as they played outside Mrs. Chambers' White Plains home. It's a neighborhood with heavy traffic, business establishments, motels and gasoline stations.

Prince Aly Khan, father of Yasmin, sent his lawyer into the conference to help his former wife fight the neglect charges. The prince stayed behind at Rita's White Plains hotel to play with his little daughter and afterwards reported, "I had a wonderful time. I spent the afternoon on my knees on the floor." He declined to make any comment on the neglect case.

The accident occurred as Calderon and a carpenter were setting concrete forms on the Safeway construction job at 1300 Gregg. The drill penetrated a board and struck the workman's arm.

Later, Miss Hayworth's lawyer, Bartley Crum, announced he would meet today with Aly's attorney to work out custody terms for Yasmin.

The court refused to reverse its ruling against Rhode Island, which had challenged the submerged lands law which gave title to the states.

Billy Graham's Simple Message Has Tremendous English Impact

By ALVIN STEINKOPF

LONDON, April 27 (AP)—A prize fight promoter in this city who could fill Harringay Arena to its capacity of 12,000 twice, or maybe even once, a year would consider himself a man among men.

Yet a tall, slender, affable, wavy-haired American is packing that sport palace night after night. The feat has caused Britain's highest church authorities to set up and take notice. And it has made American evangelist Billy Graham one of the most talked-about men in England.

People point to him and follow him. When he alighted into the visitors' gallery at the House of Commons as inconspicuously as possible, members of Parliament twisted their necks to see him. His name is on the billboards and on the backs of bus tickets.

His mail averages about 10,000 letters a week. Three or four girls typing madly speed off those replies he can dictate himself. A team of 25 Americans and about as many British volunteers handle the rest of the correspondence and all the other intricate details of running the "Greater London Evangelical Crusade."

Graham walks about humbly, rather frightened by the impact he has made on a great city.

How did he do it? What is the "secret" to this 35-year-old preacher who to pack Harringay every night?

Great London newspapers, seeking to explain him, have had their art, drama and motion picture critics, religious editors and business and political analysts observe the Graham "technique." The punch, they decided, was in the simplicity of the Graham message. He carries his Bible and says fervently, "This is it—the word."

The London Times watched him for a month, then reported: "Protestant clergy and religious newspapers who, on various grounds, suspended judgment on Mr. Graham's campaign, have in the last week or two declared in his favor, sometimes with enthusiasm. It seems to be generally agreed that he is not a remarkable preacher, or even, as the British Weekly (a Free Church publication) says, a good theologian. But it is agreed that he has an exceptional gift, and that there is a welcome absence of hysteria and that his appeal is to the people the British churchmen have not been able to reach." Graham himself rejects suggestions that the evangelistic crusade is "his." He is supported by hundreds of British churches, and he is not aware that he has discovered any "secret."

In a special address to 1,200 British clergymen — hundreds of whom were old enough to be his father — many seeking advice on how to liven up their own parishes,

ONE ABSENTEE VOTE COSTLY

The lone absentee vote cast in Saturday's road bond election proved to be expensive.

Officials figured Monday it cost the county $18.

A special canvassing board was named in advance to count the absentee votes. Pay for the two men on the board amounted to $18.

A total of $78 was spent in conducting the election. The cost amounted to about 60 cents per vote for the 959 ballots marked.

Three Persons Die In German Accident

FRANKFURT, Germany, (AP)—The crack Scandinavian Express and a local commuter train collided at Hanau, near Frankfurt, today. German railroad officials said three persons were killed and 80 injured.

The dead, all Germans, on the Rome-to-Copenhagen express were two train conductors and a woman passenger who had just entered the dining car when the collision occurred.

No one aboard the local train was reported hurt.

Revising an earlier report that the trains crashed head-on, officials said the local train had just pulled out of the Hanau station when it smashed into the side of the express at a switch.

The locomotives of both trains and five cars of the express were derailed and overturned.

Alaskan Election May Show Trend

JUNEAU, Alaska, (AP)—Alaska is holding a primary election today that will be watched for any possibly significant swings to either party.

Candidates for both major parties will be nominated for delegate to Congress, territorial treasurer, labor commissioner and 32 seats in the Legislature.

The territory swung heavily Republican in its weathervane legislative vote two years ago—ahead of the nation—and returned its Democratic delegate to Congress by a greatly reduced margin.

About one in every 16 people in the United States has some form of heart or blood vessel disease.

San Antonio Finds It Can't De-Annex Area It Swallowed

SAN ANTONIO (AP)—San Antonio, which doubled its size by annexation, today found itself unable to de-annex the area taken in.

The problem arose yesterday when Dist. Judge Walter Loughridge ruled that a de-annexation Aug. 11, 1953, was void.

It all started about a year and a half ago when the city annexed 79.74 square miles to go with its then 80.23 square miles.

Then the city council, which had been elected partly on a de-annexation platform, voided the annexation of 74.86 square miles.

Yesterday, Judge Loughridge ruled that a city cannot de-annex improved territory. Both sides have said they will fight to the Supreme Court if necessary.

A special council meeting has been called to consider the council's position.

Missing Airplane Thought Sighted

WASHINGTON, (AP)—The Navy said early today a twin-engine Privateer, believed to have been missing since April 17, has been sighted off Ellesmere Island, off the northeast coast of Canada.

A Navy spokesman said Navy markings were visible on the wings and tail of the plane and the Navy is preparing to drop rescue personnel by parachute.

The spokesman said he had no information as yet on whether there were any survivors.

The plane, stationed at Argentia, Newfoundland, was on a routine ice patrol from Thule in Greenland to alert weather station on the northern tip of Ellesmere Island.

There were eight Navy men and a civilian ice observer aboard. The plane carried arctic survival equipment.

Border Patrolmen Sought In Search

CARRIZO SPRINGS (AP)—A wide-spread search for two border patrolmen missing along the Rio Grande continued today under the direction of Sheriff Arthur Knaggs.

The patrolmen, Robert Williams, about 40, and Milton O'Meara, about 55, have been missing since last Friday. Their horses and jeep were found in the Bickford Ranch area, where they had been watching for violators of the foot-and-mouth disease quarantine.

Immigration officers, ranchers and businessmen have been conducting the search, and a request to Army authorities for a helicopter has been made.

Australia To Give Russians Run Of Ship En Route Home

CANBERRA, Australia (AP)—Acting Foreign Minister Sir Phillip McBride announced today the 51 Russians of the closed-down Soviet Embassy here will have the exclusive run of the 20,256-ton British ship New Australia for their trip back home.

In a press statement, McBride said the party of embassy officials and their families will be flown Thursday in a chartered plane from Canberra to Perth, western Australia, to board the vessel at the nearby port city of Fremantle.

With the way clear for the Russians to leave, McBride said it now is expected "that the departure of the Australian Embassy staff from Moscow will not be further delayed."

Since Russia broke off relations with this country last week over the Petrov case, the Soviet Foreign Office had been holding up exit visas for Charge d'Affaires Brian Hill and seven others, including two children at the small Australian Embassy in Moscow. The Russians said their departure was "conditional on developments in Australia."

Russia broke off relations last week over the case of Vladimir Petrov, who fled his job as Soviet third secretary and handed over to authorities here a mass of documents he claimed uncovered a vast Red spy ring in Australia.

The Russians claimed Petrov was a swindler and forger and demanded him back as a common criminal. The Australians granted him political asylum and are sitting the purported spy papers he had turned over. The Russians also claimed the Australians kidnaped Mrs. Petrov, who was permitted to rejoin her husband at the last moment before a plane was to take her back to Europe under Soviet guard. The Australians rejected both claims.

As all available air space already was taken up by tourists leaving for the European summer, the Russians asked for sea passage home.

The New Australia, recently used to bring immigrants to Australia, will carry no other passengers on the trip to Europe, McBride said.

NLRB Rules New Vote To Be Taken On New York Docks

WASHINGTON (AP)—The National Labor Relations Board today ordered a new bargaining rights election—to be held before May 25—between rival New York harbor longshoremen's unions.

The precise date will be fixed by NLRB Regional Director Charles T. Douds of New York under rules intended to "assure the voters a free and uninhibited choice of collective bargaining representatives."

The two rival unions have been scrapping for more than six months for labor control of the New York piers. One is the International Longshoremen's Association (ILA) and the other is a new AFL union with the same name formed after the ILA was ousted by the AFL on charges that it contained a criminal element.

The NLRB held a previous election between the rival labor groups last December 22 and 23. The balloting, however, was set aside by the NLRB on April 1 because of violence and threats which the NLRB found made a free election impossible.

Members of the FFA grass judging team, who are now qualified to compete in the state meet at Texas A&M College on May 1, are Marvin O'Bannon, Lorin McDowell and Harold Harrison. Teams from 168 high schools in West Texas competed in the contest. Lorin McDowell was fourth high individual in the meet.

Members of the 4-H livestock judging team are Jimmy Dave, Thebert Ashill, Rex Mason and Aubrey Ashill.

Garden City FFA Team Takes Honors

GARDEN CITY—The Garden City High School FFA grass judging team copped first place at the recent contest at Texas Tech.

At the same time the Glasscock County 4-H Club livestock judging team was taking first place in District 6 contests held at Sul Ross College in Alpine.

Spindletop Mineral Rights Suit Reset

BEAUMONT (AP)—A suit for mineral rights to approximately 3,900 acres of the Spindletop oil field, scheduled to open yesterday, was reset for May 17.

The suit was brought by about 150 plaintiffs who contend they are the heirs of William Pelham Humphrey, who owned the land 100 years ago. Most are from Tennessee.

Defendants are the Texas Gulf Sulphur Co. and Gulf Oil Corp.

Appellate Court Asked To Throw Out Duval Case

AUSTIN (AP)—The Court of Criminal Appeals was asked today to throw out a suit attacking Dist. Judge A. S. Broadfoot's order dissolving the Duval County grand jury panel.

Members of a grand jury commission discharged by the 79th District Court judge who succeeded ousted Judge C. Woodrow Laughlin had asked the appeals court to set aside Broadfoot's order.

The latest move today was filed in behalf of Judge Broadfoot by Attorney Atwood McDonald, Fort Worth.

He submitted written arguments supporting a claim that the grand jury commissioners had no authority to sue, and that the Court of Criminal Appeals had no jurisdiction in the case.

The court tomorrow will hear oral arguments in the original suit by the grand jury commissioners against Judge Broadfoot, and Broadfoot's answer and motion to dismiss.

"This court has no jurisdiction to supervise, direct, or control a trial court in the exercise of its discretionary powers," the brief said. Further, it said, the Court of Criminal Appeals has no jurisdiction in civil matters.

The action attacking Judge Broadfoot's order was brought in the Court of Criminal Appeals here by J. A. Tobin, Tyson Summy and Jose Angel Heras, members of the jury commission discharged by Broadfoot.

Broadfoot had declared they did not use due care and diligence in selecting fair and impartial grand and petit jurors in the turbulent affairs of Duval County.

Broadfoot was called from retirement to take over the 79th District Court when Judge Laughlin was ousted by the State Supreme Court. Laughlin had been elected with the backing of political boss George Parr of Duval County.

McDonald's brief argued that Tobin and the others had filed a suit attacking their discharge in 79th District Court, that the suit was now pending and Judge Broadfoot has not refused to consider it "in due order and time."

Lawyers for the grand jury commissioners and members of the panel had asked for mandamus compelling Judge Broadfoot to test the qualifications of the jurors, and asked for an order compelling him to produce records they said he will not give up.
