Parmer County returned to the top of the grain pile last year. According to the info released by the Texas Department of Agriculture, our county produced a whopping 29,448,000 bushels of corn with a county average of 130.6 bushels per acre.

The excellent production here accounted for about 27 percent of all the corn harvested in the entire state of Texas. These figures ought to be a go sign to any industry needing large amounts of corn for processing or feeding.

Parmer County for years led the state in the production of grain sorghum and was widely recognized for this leadership. As the High Plains turned from milo to corn, our local production of grain was mixed between the two grains. As a result we could not claim the lead in either field. Apparently the production of grain sorghum has been relegated to a very minor role in our area, and as a consequence we have returned to the top of the heap with our great corn output.

We don't know how to convert this huge heap of grain to units of food but we do know that without Parmer County's contribution to the overall food picture there would have been considerably more people hungry around the world than there was.

Of course the prime ingredient in producing this food is water. Energy produced this water. Therefore, any curtailment in our county farmers' ability to use energy will almost directly result in somebody somewhere being hungry. To us, this seems elemental.

It is astounding how many fatheads in and out of government haven't grasped this truth.

Slowly and imperceptibly, our world changes around us. Quietly and in a whisper, our soft maples are telling us that Fall is on its inexorable way. More stridently the sports pages remind us of Fall with the opening of the "play for pay boys" pre-season camps.

Shouting at us with a clangorous din, the Poobahs of TV are already touting the merits of their Fall programs. They must believe they need to raise a body out of the seat in order to call attention away from last year's parade of dismal flops.

God speaks to man in the muted tones of Mother Nature. Man speaks to man in the rancous din of P.T. Barnum.

Speaking of soft changes, We slid through the intersection of Fourth and Avenue E before we realized that a subtle change had occurred in the placement of stop signs along that artery of travel.

In this case we are glad the change was not ushered in by the dismaying crunch of fenders.

It does seem that man, the city government, could have spoken to man, the driving public, through the dignified, accurate, pervasive and authoritative voice of the local people. Meaning, the State Line Tribune, naturally.

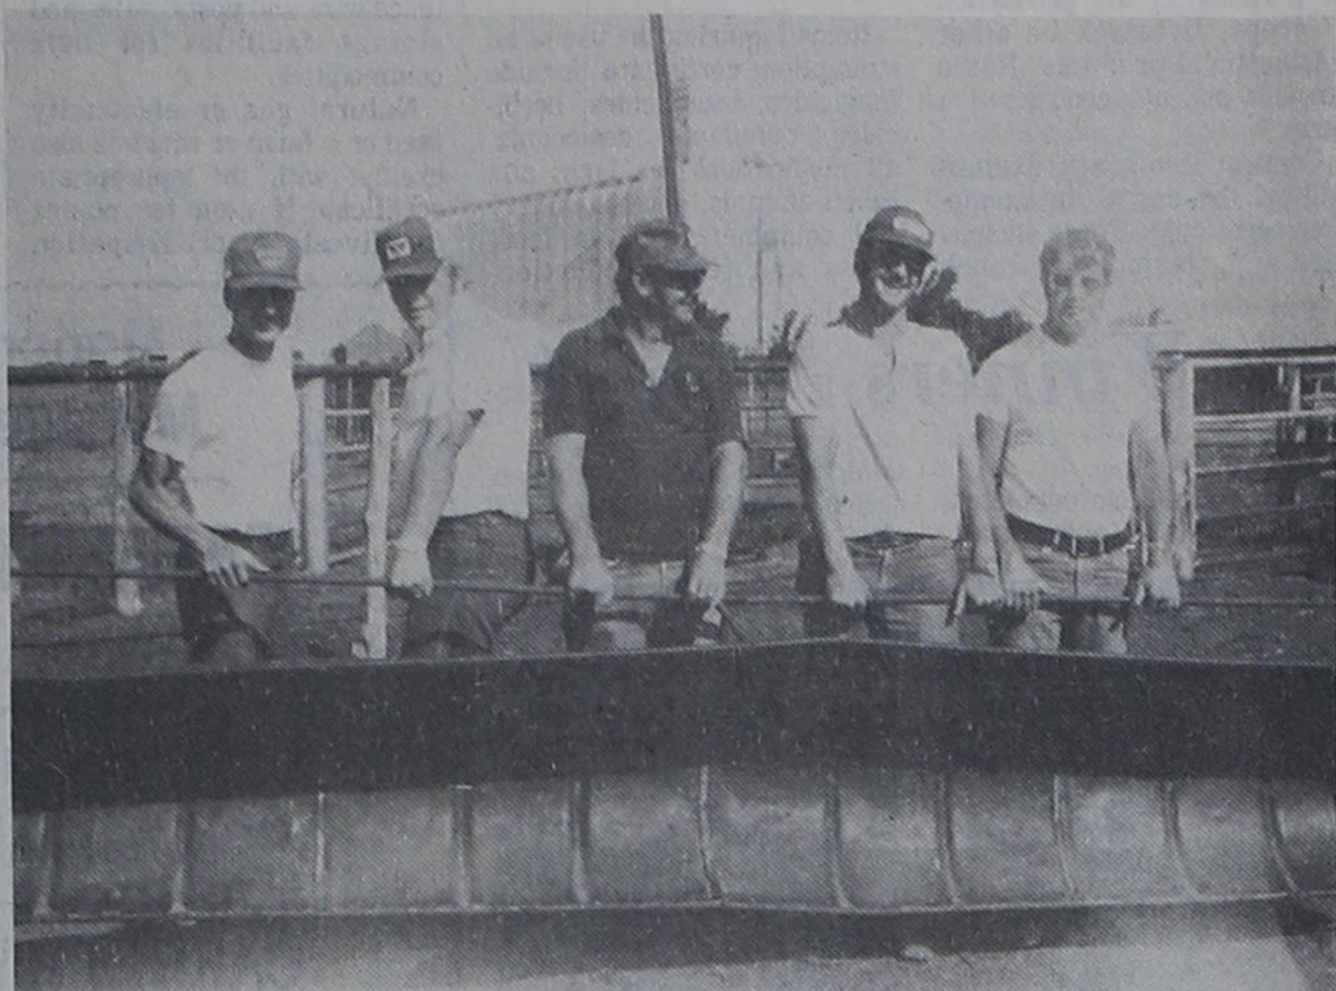

The local Jaycees are like bumble bees. They don't know that they can't, so they just go ahead and do it. This group of young men has been a prime mover in almost every civic activity for the past year.

A good example of their enthusiasm is the upcoming AJRA rodeo next weekend. They grabbed this project just a few weeks ago and have it well in hand.

We know you will be well rewarded if you will attend this spine tingling junior rodeo, in addition to expressing your appreciation to this young and active civic group.

A caution note has come to our attention. It seems that a number of trash barrels in the alleys are placed too close to flammable material. Look to see if your barrel is endangering trees, shrubs or nearby buildings.

Fall will soon be upon us and the green vegetation will soon turn to tinder. Probably half of our local fire calls are because of alley and trash fires. Don't risk a major fire - check your barrel today.

Rains Brighten Crops Outlook

General rains have brightened farmers' outlook in this area. Nearly an inch of moisture fell at the beginning of last week and another half-inch fell on Wednesday afternoon and Thursday.

According to Mack Heald, Parmer County Extension Agent, the rain boosted the corn crops which "look good for this time of year." Milo, grown in the northern part of the county, has not received as much rain, but the prospects are still encouraging.

Vegetable harvest got underway last week and cabbage fields in Bovina are yielding an average of 700-1000 bags per acre. Harvesting of onions and potatoes began two weeks ago, but no figures are available at this time on yields.

Heald said that 100,000 acres of wheat were harvested last year as compared to an estimated 90,000 acres this year. Dryland wheat was very good last year and was practically non-existent this year, according to Heald. Average yield for dryland wheat was 10 bushels or less per acre. Irrigated fields for the most part produced an average of 50-60 bushels per acre, Heald reported.

Little League All-Stars

Parmer County First In Corn

Parmer County farmers placed first in 1975 Texas corn production with a crop totaling 29,448,000 bushels, Agriculture Commissioner John C. White reported. County farmers harvested 225,400 acres with a yield of 130.6 bushels per acre. During recent years, there has been a substantial shift in acreage to the High Plains where most of the crop is under irrigation. With this shift, both total acreage and yields have shown sharp increases as record yields have been recorded during five of the past six years.

Texas farmers harvested a near-record corn crop last year of 113.3 million bushels with value of production over $300 million.

Complete figures of Texas field crops have been compiled in the "1975 Texas Field Crops Statistics." Copies may be obtained by writing Agriculture Commissioner John C. White, Texas Department of Agriculture, P.O. Box 12847, Austin, Texas 78711.

Guest Speaker

Coach Allen Resigns, Replacement Is Hired

Farwell School Board accepted the resignations of three of its school personnel at its July 12 meeting. Submitting resignations were Joe Allen, girls basketball coach, who led his team to the district championship last year; Mrs. Joe Allen, secondary special education instructor; and Mrs. Deborah Borden, junior high Title I mathematics teacher. Bob Askey of Happy has been hired to replace Allen as girl's basketball coach. In other business, the student handbook for the 1976-77 school year was approved by the school board members. It was also reported at the meeting that driver's training classroom instruction will be conducted during the regular school year, but actual driving practice will be held during the summer. A fee will be charged for the driving practice, but the amount has not yet been set.

Notice

The public is invited to attend the Cornerstone Leveling Ceremony for the new Farwell Convalescent Center, located in the 300 block of Fifth Street, at 4 p.m. CDT Thursday, July 29. The ceremony will be conducted by the Grand Lodge of Texas, A.F. & A.M.

Texico School Yearbooks To Be Distributed Sunday

The 1976 WOLVERINE, Texico School Yearbook, will be distributed Sunday, July 25, from 2 to 4 p.m. (M.S.T.) in the Texico Wolverine Gymnasium.

Any yearbook subscribers who are unable to pick up their copies of the book on Sunday afternoon may come to Room 9 in the high school Monday and Tuesday, July 26-27, between 9 a.m. - 12 noon and 1 - 3 p.m. to get their copies, according to Katherine West, yearbook sponsor.

If you plan to pick up someone's else's book, please bring a signed note authorizing you to take possession of that yearbook, reminds Mrs. West. It is suggested that students bring their yearbooks to school on the first day of the fall semester and let their friends sign them, too.

"We realize that students are not accustomed to a summer delivery yearbook, but we hope that once a subscriber discovers that spring activities, track, graduation, etc. are covered in the 1977 yearbook, this additional coverage will outweigh any disadvantages that the student may feel.

"For the first time, the yearbook's staff has been able to offer a complete record of the entire school year. In the past yearbooks, we have been forced to end our coverage in February due to publisher deadlines, and we feel that too many valuable memories had to be omitted from these yearbooks," explains Mrs. West.

Prentice Mills Receives 20-Year Service Award

Prentice L. Mills of Farwell, county executive director of the Parmer County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service, received a 20-year Certificate of Service award on July 16. It was presented to him by C. Wayne Mayfield, district director of ASCS in this area.

Mills started his career with the ASCS early in 1956. He spent a short time in Hale and Briscoe counties before coming to Parmer County on July 1, 1956. He has been responsible for administering the various farm programs for a little over 20 years. "My family and I moved around quite a bit before coming to this country, but we know after we had been here a short time that we had really found a home," Mills said.

"My wife, La Von, and I enjoy living here and it has been a real pleasure to have had the opportunity to serve, and to do business with, the people of this county. I hope to be privileged to continue in this endeavor for the remainder of my working life," Mills concluded.

20 Years Of Service

Prentice L. Mills, right, executive director of the Parmer County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service, received a 20-year Certificate of Service award July 16. Making the presentation at the county ASCS office in Farwell was C. Wayne Mayfield, district director of the ASCS in this area.

Farmer, Rancher Must File For Sales Tax Exemptions

Texas farmers and ranchers no longer have to pay sales taxes on certain purchases to be used in the production of food and fiber, reports Mack Heald, Farmer County Extension Agent.

Effective July 20, the Texas sales tax law will exempt agricultural producers from sales taxes on such items as baling wire, fencing supplies, and machinery and equipment.

However, a farmer or rancher does not automatically qualify for exemption from the sales tax. Producers must file an exemption certificate with each firm or business with which they deal, stresses Heald. These certificates are available from the Comptroller of Public Accounts in Austin or from local branch offices of the Comptroller.

To qualify for an exemption, the item purchased must be used exclusively on a farm or ranch. A farm or ranch is defined as land used entirely or partially in the production of crops, livestock or other agricultural products. Home gardens are not considered a farm.

Certain items are exempt without the use of an exemption certificate. These include feed for farm and ranch animals, fertilizer, seeds and annual plants, and animals.

Items requiring the use of an exemption certificate include fungicides, insecticides, herbicides, defoliants, desiccants, all medications for farm and ranch animals, and machinery and equipment used in food, grass and feed production, including such expendable supplies as handtools, baling wire, fence wire and posts, gates and storage facilities for bulk commodities.

Natural gas or electricity used on a farm or ranch is also exempt with the appropriate certificate if used for pumps for livestock or irrigation water, dairy barn operations, welding machines, electric fences, and lights for barns, pens and poultry houses.

To request exemption certificates, producers may write or call the Sales Tax Division, Comptroller of Public Accounts, 111 East 7th St., Austin, Texas 78774 (800-252-5555).

Members of the Farwell Jaycees participated in a workday on July 8 for the Farwell Medical Clinic. The effort is all a part of a labor force that the organization is donating to the Farwell Hospital District for both the Clinic and the Farwell Convalescent Home. A similar workday is planned in the near future for the Convalescent Home. Pictured assembling the new chairs at the Clinic are, left to right, Robert White, Johnny Actkinson, Donald Jones and Delton Wilhite.

Dear Dad,

It has now been a full year since the Lord saw fit to call you home.

We remember as children how unselfishly you spent many long hours at the grocery store, or the candy company, etc., providing for your family and building a secure future for us, but most of all, the time you spent in gaining wisdom, knowledge, and setting the example of living the Christian life, not only before your family but the community of Texico-Farwell, and other surrounding towns and cities.

The sacrifices you made to help homeless boys and girls while you were living, the seed are still being reaped by these unfortunate children by your generosity to the Christian Children's Homes.

You never lost faith in God, mankind, or your community. Your compassion was always present whenever you were called upon for any task, large or small.

But most of all, Dad, we miss you very much, that always ready smile upon your face. We will love you always.

Your Children

4-H'ers To Electric Camp In New Mexico

Seven 4-H Club members from Parmer County left Farwell Monday, July 19, on a five-day trip to New Mexico's Camp Scott Able near Cloudcroft for training in leadership and electrical projects, according to County Extension Agent Jana Pronger.

Each year three boys and three girls, accompanied by an adult, are selected from each of the 20 counties in Texas Agricultural Extension Service District 2 to attend electric camp.

This year's delegation from Parmer County include Kelly Mitchell, Cheryl and Linda Gohlke, and Ted and Tom Mesman of Farwell with Kenny Guest and Joan Carson of Bovina.

They left Monday by bus, and are to return Friday, July 23. In all, some 128 youths and 18 adults are going.

The event, Miss Pronger says, provides leadership training and teaches 4-H members, leaders and county Extension agents how to conduct 4-H electrical projects and method demonstrations, and how to conduct recreation.

Citizenship training is also an important part of the camp, Miss Pronger adds.

Jaycees Host Forum, Fun Golf Tourney

Farwell Jaycees hosted a District Work Forum and Golf Tournament for fellow Jaycees from Texas and New Mexico July 10 at the Farwell Country Club.

Two state presidents, Dock Hanks of Corsicana, Tex., and Ron Kerr of Albuquerque, N.M., attended the forum.

The In-District Travel Trophy was awarded to the Whiteface Jaycees. They recently formed their organization through the help of the Jaycees from Morton. The Out-of-District Travel Trophy was awarded to the Albuquerque Jaycees. The winners were determined by multiplying the numbers of Jaycees from each town by the members present in the group.

The golf tournament was "just for fun" and winners were named for everything from net score to the longest drive off the number one tee.

Travis Coburn of Farwell earned the first place trophy by shooting a net score of 54 for the 18 holes. Actually, Coburn's score was 185, but calculations involving a handicap system brought the score down.

Jack Kirkland of Farwell earned the "closest to the number seven hole" award. His first swing landed the ball only 12 inches away. Johnny Atkinson of Farwell won the "longest drive off the number one tee" award.

Deputy Bill Morgan investigated an incident at the Jack Nelson farm, seven miles west of Friona, Wednesday.

Lovelace also reported that 40 chickens have been taken from the Bill Bradshaw place, north of Bovina. The chickens belonged to Enrique Gilliam, an employee of Bradshaw. Lovelace said no one was living at the farm.

Frederica Dodson Weds Gabe David Anderson III

MRS. GABE DAVID ANDERSON III

Frederica Frances Dodson of Amarillo and Gabe David Anderson III of Bovina were united in marriage in a formal ceremony on the evening of July 10 at the First Christian Church in Amarillo. Dr. Newton Robison, minister of Lake Tanglewood Community Church, performed the double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick W. Dodson of Amarillo and the granddaughter of the late Dr. and Mrs. Frederick W. Dodson. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Gabe Anderson, Jr. of Bovina.

The altar setting held arched candelabra and large baskets of multi-colored gladioli and pastel carnations with a large candle tree decorated with lemon leaf. Center aisles were marked with candelabra and white satin bows.

Wedding music was provided by Mrs. Madelyn Henshaw, organist. J.D. Goddard, soloist, sang "Ave Marie" in Latin by Schubert and the "Lord's Prayer" by Peeters. The processional was "Trumpet Voluntary" with "The Trumpet Tune" by Purcell played for the recessional.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal gown of silk chiffon designed by Frank Masandrea. She wore a capelet collar of crystal pleating releasing into a flounce. Her long angel sleeves of pleated chiffon fell in flounces over her hands. A bias sash wrapped her waist and dangled into a bow with long streamers at her side. The pleated skirt fell into a flounced hemline. The bride wore a matching wide trimmed chiffon picture hat accented with three self-fabric rosettes and streamers extending to the floor at the center back. She carried a bouquet of white cattalaya orchids with stephanotis.

Following tradition, the bride wore her bridal gown and hat for something new; something old was a gold wedding band belonging to her great-grandmother and worn previously by her two sisters in their weddings. Her pearl necklace and ear clips were borrowed from a sister and she wore a traditional blue garter.

Mary Margaret Sawyers of Amarillo served the bride as maid of honor. Serving as brides-matrons were Mrs. Larry D. Brown of Amarillo and Mrs. Michael D. Webber of Toronto, Ontario, Canada, both sisters of the bride; also Mrs. Bradley Wilson of Amarillo and Mrs. Tom Nichols of Denton, Tex. Meredith Webber and Courtney Brown, nieces of the bride, served as flower girls. Michael D. Webber II of Toronto, nephew of the bride, was candlelighter.

The bride attendants wore floor length gowns of muted pink floral printed chiffon designed with a deep V-collar forming a capelet over their arms. Their waists were sashed with long streamers flowing to the side. Their low-waisted bodices were accented by a softly gathered skirt at the hipline. They wore pale pink wide brimmed horsehair hats draped in matching floral print to complete their ensembles, and carried nosegay bouquets of stephanotis and pink rosebuds. The flower girls attired in a similar printed floor length gown carried small nosegays of stephanotis with pink rosebuds and wore pink roses in their hair.

The best man was Thomas Nichols of Denton, Tex. Grooms-men were Joe Batson of Amarillo, Gary Beauchamp and Billy J. Charles of Bovina, and Dent Shillinglaw of Houston. Ushers were Richard Ware and Tully Currie of Amarillo, Lewis McMahan and Wade King of Dallas, Kregg Wilson of Bovina, Gary Crum and Irby Rozelle of Houston.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Dodson chose a floor length chiffon gown of jonquil yellow and tangerine. Her corsage was of cymbidium orchids. Mrs. Anderson was attired in a floor length gown of apricot chiffon with a corsage of cymbidium orchids accented with pearls.

A reception followed at the Amarillo Club. The bride's table was covered with a white brocade satin floor-length cloth accented with pink carnations and badges of leather leaf at the corners. The table was centered with the tiered wedding cake with branched silver candelabra draped with English ivy at either side. Punch was served from a silver bowl centered on a round table covered with a floor length linen cutwork cloth. Silver compotes holding pink carnations, white daisy pompons and candles were centered on tables covered with India pink cloths throughout the reception rooms. The buffet serving tables held silver branch candelabras draped with English ivy. The bridegroom's table was covered with a floor-length gold cloth accented with an arrangement of bronze daisy pompons with bird of paradise. Coffee and chocolate cake were served from matching copper serving pieces.

Members of the houseparty from Amarillo included Mmes. James R. Wynne and Johnny Moore and Misses Kim Herrick, Jamie Smith, Kathy Brierty, Leslie Kinney, Julie Henderson and Karen Satterstrom. Others included Mrs. John Allen, Lubbock, Mrs. Allen Larimore of Oklahoma City and Miss Mary Kumler of Norman.

The bride attended Amarillo College, Sullins College in Bristol, Va. and the University of Oklahoma at Norman. She is a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority. The bridegroom is a graduate of Bovina High School, received his degree from Southern Methodist University in Dallas and holds a master's degree in the business from the University of California at Los Angeles. He is a member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity and is manager of Sherry-Anderson Elevators at Lazbuddie, Tex. The couple is presently residing in Farwell.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Meeks of Farwell and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. A.H. Renne of Walnut, Calif.

The couple exchanged vows before an altar centered with a floral arrangement of yellow gladioli, yellow shasta daisies and blue carnations encircled with a 45-branch candelabrum. Flanked on either side were two 15-branch candelabra holding blue tapers. Emerald palms completed the setting. The unity candle was a three-branch candelabrum holding blue tapers and accented with emerald palms. Pews were marked with blue satin bows.

Vocalists for the ceremony were Tommy and Judy Spoons, Rolla and Carolyn Randall, Susan Burks and James Hobbs, all of Lubbock; Peggy Chisum of Dalhart; J.R. Sewell of Farwell and Terry Maupin of Artesia, N.M. Songs included "Follow Me," "For Baby (Bobbie)," "Annie's Song" by soloist James Hobbs, "Wedding Song," "Sunrise, Sunset," "The Lord's Prayer" by soloist Susan Burks, "Love is Real," and "Walk Hand in Hand."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a Victorian gown of white organza accented in Shiffl embroidery and Venise lace. The moulded bodice featured a deep V-yoke of Shiffl embroidery framed in Gothic points of Venise lace. A high duchess neckline was also trimmed in Venise lace and long lantern sleeves were encircled in the Shiffl embroidery and lace and were shirred to lace cuffs with fluted ruffling falling over the wrists. The full circular bell skirt was sprinkled in Venise lace medallions and the entire hemline was flounced in a deep ruffle of the Shiffl embroidery edged in Venise lace.

Her veiling was caught to a Venise lace capelet sprinkled in seed pearls and drifted beyond her train. The double veil was completely encircled in a border of Venise lace loops and forget-me-nots with tiny lace flowers sprinkled over the entire veil. The bride carried a cascade of yellow sweetheart roses, miniature carnations, stephanotis and baby's breath with bows and streamers of white lace ribbon.

Following tradition, the bride wore the wedding band belonging to her grandmother, Mrs. Dora Verner, for something old; her dress was something new; and gold and pearl earrings were borrowed from her aunt, Mrs. C.M. Meeks. She wore a blue garter and pennies in her shoes minted in the couple's birth years.

Maid of honor was Joi Meeks of Farwell, sister of the bride, and Kandy Castillo of Lubbock served her sister as matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Angela Tabor of Artesia, N.M., and Susan Renne of Walnut, Calif., sister of the bridegroom. Connie Billingsley of Bovina was the bridesmatron. The attendants wore pale blue dresses accented with dark blue print flowers. The cape-like collar and flounce in dark blue voile were trimmed in white lace. They carried bouquets of yellow miniature roses, and baby's breath accented with blue tulle and blue ribbons.

Flower girls, Lori and Trisha Castillo of Lubbock, nieces of the bride, were attired in dresses identical to the other attendants and carried white baskets with yellow daisies and blue ribbons.

Kenneth Barnett of Clovis served as best man. Grooms-men were Curtis Chisum and Mike Clayton, both of Dalhart, Larry Barnett of Clovis and Bruce Renne of Walnut, Calif., brother of the bridegroom.

Serving as candlelighters and ushers were Greg Meeks of Lubbock, brother of the bride, and James Hobbs, also of Lubbock.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Meeks chose a floor-length pale pink knit dress overlaid with a floor-length burgundy and pink coat. She wore a corsage of white carnations and stephanotis. The bridegroom's mother was attired in a floor-length pale blue knit dress. She also wore a white carnation and stephanotis corsage.

The reception followed in the fellowship hall of the church.

TWO MINUTES WITH THE BIBLE

BY CORNELIUS R. STAM, PRES.
BEREAM BIBLE SOCIETY
CHICAGO, ILLINOIS 60635

UNTIL WHEN?

One of the greatest prophecies of Scripture is found in Psalm 110, where David wrote: "The Lord said unto my Lord, Sit Thou at My right hand until I make thine enemies Thy footstool."

In Matthew 22:41-46 our Lord explained that this was a prophecy about Himself, David's Son and Lord. Men might hate Him and cry "Away with Him!" They might nail Him to a tree and laugh and sneer at Him, but God the Father would respond by saying: "Here, come sit at My right hand until I make Your enemies Your footstool."

We should never forget that, according to Bible prophecy, God's response to man's rejection of Christ was to be judgment and wrath. In Psalm 2 the question is asked, why the nations rage and the people imagine a vain thing—that they can get along without the One whom God has anointed to be King. The Psalm depicts God laughing at their attempts to thwart His purposes and predicts that "the Lord shall have them in derision" and "speak unto them in His wrath."

At Pentecost all was ready for the judgment to fall. Christ had been crucified and "the last days" had begun as Peter declared in Acts 2:16,17, quoting from the prophet Joel. But strangely, while some of Joel's prophecy was fulfilled, or began to be fulfilled at that time, the rest of it was not, for God did not—and has not yet—sent the prophesied judgment.

Thank God, in infinite grace He interrupted the prophetic program, delayed the remainder of its fulfillment and revealed to the Apostle Paul His secret purpose to offer to His enemies everywhere salvation and reconciliation by free grace, through faith in the crucified, risen Savior.

In his Ephesian letter the apostle asks whether they have heard of "the dispensation of the grace of God, which is given me to you-ward; how that by revelation He made known unto me the mystery" (Ephesians 3:1-3). Now, thank God, His eternal purpose in Christ is no longer a secret. While the day of grace lasts we may be "justified freely by His grace, through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus" (Romans 3:24).

Local Residents Join Group For Trip To Holy Land

by Loyce McCleskey

Four Farwellites, J.B. and Peggy Sudderth, Loyce McCleskey and True Bell, had the privilege and honor of being among the 17 weary, but inspired pilgrims returning home from their journey to the Holy Lands late Wednesday night, June 9.

Our arrival home marked the end of a 30-hour day which began upon arising in Tel Aviv, Israel. This experience makes one very aware of the marvels of today's age when one can have breakfast on one side of the world, and go to bed that night half way around the world.

During our ten-day pilgrimage we visited the sites of the birthplace, childhood, ministry, and death of Jesus. We actually walked on stones where Jesus walked. While some of the places are traditional, or only the area is known, many have been authenticated by archaeologists and other scientists.

Our pilgrimage began as we met several other tour groups in New York City, from South Carolina, Ohio, and Virginia, increasing our number to 53.

We flew by KLM (Dutch Airlines) 747 to Amsterdam, Holland, and on to Amman, Jordan, arriving very late at night.

The first day part of our group went to the hidden city of Petra, correctly called "The Eighth Wonder of the World." This entire city, with its rose-colored temples and amphitheaters is carved out of the multihued rock of the cliffs which surround its hidden valley. Our guide told us it would take three months to see the entire city.

Entrance through the two-mile narrow canyon was made by horseback. J.B. and Peggy missed this interesting site, and went instead with the other group to a fabulous resort at Aqaba, on the Red Sea, where we met them late that night.

Very early the next morning we made our way to the bridge to cross from Jordan over into Israel. Due to the unrest between Jordan and Israel, it took us some four hours to get through customs. We found a marked difference between the Arab world in Jordan and Israel. Israel is much more progressive, with beautiful crops, and hillsides replanted with trees.

Some of the most outstanding and spiritual experiences of our journey were visits to the Garden of Gethsemane on the Mount of Olives, looking down from the Mount of Olives over Jerusalem, inside the walls of Old Jerusalem, where we visited the Dome of the Rock, where Abraham took Isaac to sacrifice;

And, the Shrine of the Book, where some of the original Dead Sea Scrolls, and duplicates of the others, along with two of the original urns where they were found, are kept, the place of Pilate's court where Jesus was "tried", and walking up the Via Dolorosa (way of pain), where Jesus carried the cross, and many other places, such as the Garden Tomb, Golgotha and the Western (Wailing) Wall.

We also visited Jericho and the birthplace of Jesus at Bethlehem, Lazareth's Tomb, Jacob's Well, the Mt. of Beatitudes, Mt. of Temptation, Capernaum and the surrounding area where Jesus spent most of his ministry.

Our Sunday morning services were on a boat on the Sea

The River Jordan

Pictured is the River Jordan, one of the sites visited by Farwell residents and former residents in a tour group totaling 53 persons on a recent 10-day pilgrimage to the Holy Land. After Sunday morning services on a boat on the Sea of Galilee, the group traveled by bus to where the Jordan River flows from the Sea of Galilee. Here, three persons in the group were baptized.

Garden Tomb

Four Farwell residents and five former residents recently joined other tour groups from other states for a trip to the Holy Land. Pictured in front of the gate to the Garden Tomb in Jerusalem are J.B. Sudderth, Loyce McCleskey and True Bell, all of Farwell. Also among the groups, pictured in the right side of the photo, are former residents, Rev. J.L. and Flora Lee Bass and Calvin and Genie Murray, all of Panhandle; and Clytie Dial of Amarillo.

of Galilee. After leaving the boat we traveled by bus to where the Jordan River flows from the Sea of Galilee, where three people in our group were baptized. It was a very inspirational time.

Other places of interest were Massada, a palace originally built by Herod the Great upon a mountain overlooking the Dead Sea, Qumran ruins where the Dead Sea Scrolls were written, and the Qumran Caves where the scrolls were found, and the ruins at Cessarea.

Our travels took us through dry dessert country, plains, mountains, and beautiful fertile valleys where all kinds of vegetables and crops were raised, with elevations varying from 1200 feet below sea level at the Dead Sea to more than 2600 feet above sea level at Jerusalem.

The trip was truly an opportunity for learning, renewal, fellowship, reflection and empowerment, and brought new understanding of history and the importance of Biblical events and their significance in our lives today.

Those making the journey in our group were Rev. J.L. and Flora Lee Bass, Bennie and Reba Hood, Billie Ray Williams, Nancy Garner, Estelle Davis, Ethel Lamborn, Calvin and Genie Murray, all of Panhandle; J.B. and Peggy Sudderth, Loyce McCleskey and True Bell, all of Farwell; Clytie Dial and Gladys Scott, both of Amarillo; and Finis Brown, of Claude.

This could be the year we get a majority without an election. According to projections of the International Wheat Council, U.S. exports of wheat this year could total 36 million tons. If the projection is on target, the United States will have better than a fifty percent share of the world export market. That means coming in far ahead of the other major exporters; Argentina, Australia, Canada and the European Economic Community. In the detailed analysis by the Council, last year's bumper crop added almost nothing to world reserves because of continuing demand increases. Consumption and production of wheat was estimated at nearly 13 billion bushels. What all the figures boil down to is a brighter outlook in marketing trends for the U.S. wheat producer.

After a while, the leaf's edges curl up, turn brown and eventually drop off the plant. If not controlled, spider mites can completely defoliate a plant.

A homeowner can use pesticide compounds specifically intended to control mites. These may have to be applied from two to four times and used once every five days.

Some good insecticides to use include diazinon, kelthane, malathion, ethion and sulfur.

Spider mites, or red spiders as they are sometimes called, spell bad news for a garden.

There's no way to keep spider mites out of your garden, but it's a good idea to be able to recognize the pests and what type of damage they do.

Spider mites are quite small, about 1/60 of an inch long, and can be white, red or green in color. They lay eggs on the undersides of leaves and the eggs hatch in about five days. The life cycle of a spider mite lasts three weeks. Hot dry weather is particularly favorable for their development.

Spider mites prefer beans, tomatoes and peas, but will attack almost any plant.

The bugs feed by sticking their mouthparts into leaf tissue and sucking out the juice while injecting a toxic substance into the leaf at the same time.

When a plant is infected with mites, it shows up as tiny spots on the undersides of leaves. Heavy infestations of mites cause bleaching and yellowing along the main leaf veins at first and later the whole leaf is affected.

Processed CATTLE MANURE
Great for this year's crop ... and the next and the next and the next.

Unlike raw manure, Tilleez™ nutrients are available for plant uptake for this year's crop. And, it builds the soil and moisture-retaining capacity for future crops.

Tilleez benefits your soil and gives it improved tilth. The bacterial mass developed in the Tilleez process makes use of the locked-up nutrients, already in your soil, by converting them to readily usable plant food.

And, with all of these advantages, you still get a good supply of nitrogen ... usable nitrogen!

Tilleez is the result of a unique process of aerobic bacterial digestion that converts raw manure into a valuable soil conditioner and fertilizer. In the big million-dollar plant at Summerfield, aerobic microorganisms create the heat that kills weed seeds and changes the manure into a form that makes its natural nutrients readily available to plants.

For the next 90 days (until October 1), Tilleez is available at a special low price ... competitive with commercial fertilizers.

English Couple Visits Walter Kaltwassers

by Shirley Gorman

Sharing religious feelings and experiences brings people of different countries closer together. Perfect examples are Walter and Gladys Kaltwasser of Farwell and Frank and Dorothy Winny of Gerrards Cross, Buckingham Shire, England.

The Winnys arrived in Farwell July 13 and were guests in the Kaltwasser home for three days. The stage was set for this visit a year ago.

At that time, Mrs. Kaltwasser journeyed to England with the Baptist church delegation from Texas. There she met the Winnys and it was then that the seeds were planted for them to reciprocate the visit.

The two couples are involved with the Partnership Mission Program which was first conceived by Dr. Dub Jackson of Dallas two years ago. It is a sharing and learning experience that involves Baptist church members of different countries.

The trip to England last year was a pilot program and it was so successful that the English delegation, consisting of members of all the Baptist churches in the Buckingham Shire area, decided to visit America this year. American Baptists plan a return trip to England tentatively slated for 1978.

The Winnys flew to the United States from London's Heathrow Airport. They arrived in San Francisco two weeks ago. Mrs. Winny explained that they came ahead of the delegation because they wished to combine a vacation with their church work and they also wanted to visit their American friends.

While in California they were taken on a tour of Disneyland. They were delighted with the pleasant atmosphere which surrounded the amusement center. Winny, a retired aeronautical engineer who is presently a consultant for Westland Helicopter, LTD. in Yeovil, England, appreciated "the technical expertise" of the activities, shows and entertainment offered by Disneyland.

Another favorite stop was the Grand Canyon. Memories of their mule ride down the canyon will be forever cherished. Even though the temperatures soared to a 114 degrees the breathtaking view and the wonderful "oasis" at the bottom of the canyon more than compensated for any discomfort, they said.

The Winnys are absolutely delighted with America. He has made several business trips to the United States over the past years, but it was his wife's first venture onto the shores of this country.

"We have been made to feel so welcome that we don't actually feel as if we have left home," she said. "Everyone has been so nice to us. The people we stopped in San Francisco to ask directions of would go with us for several blocks to be sure we would not get lost," she added.

The English visitors remarked that by traveling on their own for the past fortnight rather than with an organized tour they have been able to see the "heart" and the "soul" of America and her people.

Wednesday night, July 15, the Winnys attended services at the First Baptist Church in Farwell. Their "mission" is to share their religious experiences and feelings with their fellow Christian brethren in the United States and to talk about the meaning Jesus Christ has in their lives.

"Our purpose is not to tell anyone what to do or how to do it," Winny said. "We receive as much as we give," his wife added.

work very much. She taught school before she was married and has been involved with community work through her church for many years. She is currently the Sunday School Advisor for the Bible School Baptist Association in her area.

The Winnys describe Farwell as "the link between vacation and work." It was their last stop in America before joining members of their delegation in Abilene. The delegation arrived in Ft. Worth on Friday, July 16.

The Winnys and several other members of their party will work with the Crescent Heights Baptist Church in Abilene. The rest of the group will work with Baptist churches in Ft. Worth.

The English couple will remain in Abilene for two weeks, returning to England by the end of July.

English Visitors

Recent visitors in the home of Walter and Gladys Kaltwasser of Farwell were an English couple who Gladys had met in England a year ago. Pictured with Walter Kaltwasser, center, are Dorothy Winny and Frank Winny. The Winnys are here in America to participate in a Partnership Mission Program which offers members of Baptist churches in different countries coming together to share their religious feelings and thoughts. Mrs. Kaltwasser was involved with the same exchange program a year ago.

Letter To The Editor

July 5, 1976

State Line Tribune
Farwell, Texas

Dear John and Joann,

Just a little note to let you know how much I liked the Tribune. You did an excellent job gathering the history, and I knew all of those you gave credit to and all were worthy of attention.

Ge, that was a dilly of a picture of me in the M.E. Church at Okla. Lane, but really those were very gratifying times. Not that I want them over.

We had one of the most sacred and patriotic services at our church. Our choir is marvelous. I have paid as much as $6.00 for concert tickets that was not as good as that one. By and large the Bi-Centennial Celebration has been great.

Now, thanks for the little paper that means a great deal in my life.

Best to you always,
Loucile Foster
