The end of wheat harvest brought a flock of Farmer County farmers into ASC office in Farwell. For days, the main street location was flooded with agriculturists muttering about money, loans, wheat, so many bushels to the acre, weather, and other farmer talk.

The number of people attempting to get their business attended to naturally caused some delay. Personnel at the government office just couldn't possibly get everyone waited on without some amount of waiting.

That's the background information. Here's the story: Over the weekend, we asked a county farmer friend to "come to see us." He said he would and that, as a matter of fact, he'd considered doing same when he was in town once before recently.

"But," he said, "I had to go to the ASC office and after I got out of there I didn't have time."

He pointed out that, at first, he couldn't get in the office and then after he did get in, he couldn't get out. After he did work his way out to the counter and get his business in shape, he started to leave.

There were, of course, several people between him and the door. He tapped one fellow on the shoulder and was about to ask him to please move out of the way so he could get to the door.

But, the fellow was big and his long wait hadn't done anything to improve his foul humor. Before my friend could ask to be excused, the big man said, "Look, don't be trying to butt into line! You can wait your turn just like all the rest of us!"

So, as the friend said: It was hard to get in and harder to get out and how does a man have time to do any visiting when he's trapped in the ASC office?

Incidentally, we're not buying the coffee just because we repeated that yarn. We threw it in for whatever it's worth and you take it or leave it.

Political wars are booming across Farmer County and the state. If you haven't as yet, picked your favorite candidate(s), there's still time to do so and get in a couple of good, fast arguments over their merits, qualifications, intentions, and integrity. It's bound to be a lot of fun—enough people enjoy it.

We were surprised to learn that fewer people paid their poll tax this year—in Farmer County—than did two years ago, in 1956. Seems a shame. In the first place, it's a cinch there are more people in the county than there were two years ago.

... isn't it? And even if this weren't true, you'd figure, I think, that we should be climbing upward on the ladder of intelligence and civilization and that we're interested in seeing that our poll taxes were paid now than two years ago.

Probably, we're overly bitter about this non-payment of poll tax. But how a man figures he's worth anything to the area where he lives while he doesn't pay his poll tax is more than we can figure. Maybe so he just wants to glide along and let someone else make his decisions.

Another thing that might have caused the number of eligible voters to be decreased is that two years ago, a lot of folks were interested in voting for that fellow who wears the winning smile and plays golf. This year at election time, he can go on with that same golf game as he has two more years to serve. In other words, his supporters won't have a chance to vote for him this year so maybe they figured it would be a waste of time and money to pay their poll tax.

If you haven't guessed who we're talking about yet, we'll offer one more clue. His Secretary of Agriculture is named Benson.

From time to time, we've noticed that elections and their outcomes tend to be like ball-games and some other things in that they seem so terribly important at the time and then in a matter of time no one but diehards remember exactly what the results were.

Which is probably just as well. We just thought it was worthy of note.

For instance, who carried Farmer County in the general election which was two years ago this November? Remember? We didn't.

But a little checking proved that the smiling Republican received 28 more than a thousand votes while Adlai Stevenson had 1362 ballots marked in his favor. 'Twas a close race, but no question as to who was the winner.

Baptist Preacher Called

Farwell First Baptist Church will have a new pastor August 1. Rev. Sidney Cox, pastor of Emmanuel Baptist Church in Abilene will assume duties of pastor here. He has been associated with the Abilene Church for the past six years. A graduate of Hardin-Simmons University, Rev. Cox is married and the couple has a son, 10.

The church has been without a regular pastor since May 30 when Rev. E. J. Keith's resignation became effective. Rev. Keith served here for three years and 10 months.

Supply preachers have filled the pulpit since that time. Jimmy McGuire, Oklahoma Lane, will preach until Rev. Cox begins his work here. Mrs. Cox and Mrs. John Hadley of Texico are sisters.

3 New Teachers Signed For '58-'59

Three new teachers have been hired by Farwell Schools. Only one vacancy remains for 1958-'59 term.

Action taken at a school board meeting Monday night brought about the hiring of the new instructors.

Hired was Mrs. Margaret Sparkman, from Clovis, who will teach high school English; Mrs. Oleta Ford, also from Clovis, who will teach in grade school; and Mrs. Hattie Bolin, who will also be a grade school instructor. She is from Canyon.

The remaining vacancy is for a sixth grade teacher, Superintendent Jack Williams reports.

Also, at the Monday night meeting, Alton Berry was hired as a custodian.

Locals Divide Baseball Games With Bovina

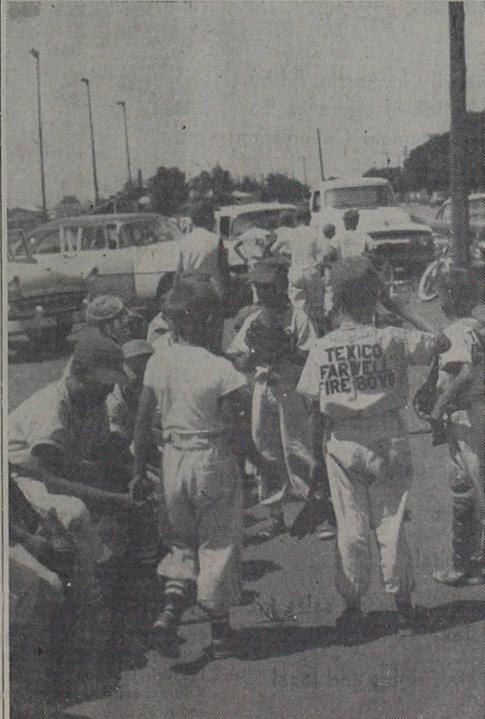

It was the same song, different verse for Texico-Farwell's junior baseball teams Monday afternoon—Little Leaguers won over Bovina, 5-3, and Peeewees lost, 13-9.

Both teams kept their records intact. Little Leaguers are undefeated while the Peeewees have yet to enjoy the sweet taste of a win. The teams have played four games each.

Vernon Thigpen was the big gun in the attack of Texico-Farwell Little Leaguers. The locals were trailing, 3-2, going into the bottom of the last inning. A hit and an error tied the score and then Thigpen slapped a two-run home run to provide the margin of victory and an extra run as well.

Leon Lovelace was the winning pitcher for the Little Leaguers.

This afternoon (Thursday), the teams meet Lazbuddie here.

"WHO'S BAT?" — Between inning activity is shown here as Texico-Farwell's Peeewe baseball team battled Bovina Monday afternoon on the local diamond. The Peeewees lost, 13-9, but their big brothers, the Little Leaguers, fashioned a come-from-behind, 5-3 win over their Farmer County rivals.

Tiny Magness Killed In Airplane Crash

H. T. "Tiny" Magness, 52, of Friona was killed and Artis Fallwell, also of Friona, was injured in the crash of a Cub J3 13 miles west of Friona at 8 a. m. Wednesday.

The two men, ardent coyote hunters, had gotten up early and were in the process of chasing a quarry when the plane stalled on a bank and fell to the ground.

Fallwell crawled clear of the plane after the crash and although suffering from a compound fracture of the right leg and bleeding from head lacerations, shot up all the available shotgun shells in an attempt to get help.

Failing in his attempt to raise help in this manner, and unable to get Magness out of the plane, Fallwell crawled about half a mile to a tractor and drove for help at the Bill Anderson place. Magness was dead when doctors arrived on the scene.

Magness was a partner in the Buske-Magness Cattle and Realty Company of Friona and had lived in Friona since the late 20's.

Fallwell is active in the real estate and insurance business in Friona and was described by doctors at the Farmer County Community Hospital as in "fair" condition Wednesday morning.

Magness is survived by his widow, Mrs. Eula Mae Magness of Friona and two daughters, Jacquelyn, 16, and Denise, 22.

Funeral services are pending at the Claborn Funeral Home.

4 Men Die In Crash At Grade Crossing

Four Friona farm workers died in a scattered mass of wreckage Sunday about 3:30 a.m. when their 1950 Ford rammed the side of a Santa Fe passenger train.

The dead were identified as Rodolfo Lozana Santos, 17; Manuel Santos, 16; Juan Montoya Sanchez, 23; and Javier De la Paz, age unknown. (De la Paz and Sanchez were Mexican nationals.)

The crash occurred at the crossing south of the Plains Gin west of Friona.

Crewmen on the train said they didn't know they had been hit until one of the men noticed sparks coming from under one of the diesel units and they stopped to investigate the source.

Upon investigation they found blood splattered on the side of the unit, about 90 feet behind the engine's compartment, and the hood of a car crammed under the unit. The steps leading up into the engine were torn away.

The crew of another train was first to discover the tragedy however. A freight train was on a passing track in order to let the passenger train by and when they pulled out to continue on their way they found the wreckage at the crossing.

They called the dispatcher at Texico and Sheriff Charles Lovelace was notified.

discussed and made decisions concerning the building and remodeling program which is now going on. Williams says work is progressing according to schedule and the remodeling work will be complete by August 1.

Claud Barker Dies Wednesday

Claud Barker, 78, retired Farwell farmer, died in Clovis Memorial Hospital Wednesday morning.

Mr. Barker, a long-time resident of Farmer County, had been in ill health for many years. He had been in the hospital about a week prior to his death.

Funeral services will be Saturday at 2 p.m. (CST) in Texico Baptist Church. Rev. C. C. Morgan, pastor of the church, will officiate.

Born January 20, 1880, Mr. Barker is survived by his wife, Ella; a son, Roy, of Woodland, Calif.; two daughters, Mrs. Margaret Hurford, of Nucla, Colo., and Mrs. Juanita Latham, of Austin; one sister, Mrs. Walter Shirley, of Lawton, Okla.; one half-brother, Arthur Duncan, of Santa Cruz, Calif.; one half-sister, Mrs. Paul Shelton, also of Lawton, Okla.; eight grandchildren, and four great-grandchildren.

Burial will be in Mission Garden at Clovis. Steed's Funeral Home, Clovis, is in charge of arrangements.

MISS TEEL HAS SURGERY

Miss Sue Ann Teel has been dismissed from Clovis Memorial Hospital after undergoing minor surgery. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Teel.

HOSPITALIZED

Mrs. Almer Powell of Texico was hospitalized overnight Tuesday for x-rays and observation. She was dismissed Wednesday afternoon.

Citizens Meet With Equalization Board

Eight property owners appeared before Farwell School District tax equalization board Friday.

"And most of those were seeking information and not complaining," Wilfred Quickel, tax assessor-collector for the school district, says.

The small number of people appearing before the board was a pleasant surprise to board members. Taxes are going up this year and often an increase in taxes causes an increase in complaints.

This year, the tax rate will be increased from 38 to 43 cents. This will make the tax rate, per $100 valuation, $1.88 or $1.93.

Building remodeling and expansion at the school plant are the reasons for the increase in taxes.

Members of the board, who torium of the city hall from 9 until 5 Friday, were G. T. Watkins, chairman; L. L. Norton, and C. C. Christian.

Flames Hit Pickup; Firemen Make Call

Fire damaged a pickup belonging to Bunk Phillips Monday. The noon hour alarm sent Farwell's Volunteer Fire Department and a few members of Texico's department hurrying five miles southeast of Farwell.

Flames were almost extinguished when the firemen arrived, Chief Otis Huggins reports. Damage to the pickup included destroying wires and belts on the motor as well as burning the upholstery in the cab to some extent.

The vehicle, a '53 Ford half-ton model, reportedly caught fire from the carburetor.

Commissioners Buy New Maintainer

Purchase of a maintainer was the highlight of a regular county commissioners court meeting Monday.

Farwell precinct is the recipient of the new Gallion 118, which is now in use.

A gas line easement across a county road was approved for Walter Kaltwasser.

In other business, the commissioners, all of which were present, paid the month's bills, approved the minutes of the previous meeting, and approved the quarterly report of County Treasurer Mabel Reynolds.

Lions Committees Named Monday

Committees for 1958-'59 were appointed at a Texico-Farwell Lions Club meeting Monday night in City Cafe.

Paul Wurster, new president of the organization, presided at his first meeting. He announced projects for the year. They included broom sale, bulb sale, pancake supper and another project which will be decided on later.

Appointed to a committee to select the fourth project were J. D. Atwell, Cary Joe Magness, and Dolph Moten.

Also, a motion was passed to schedule the broom sale the first or second week in September. The group agreed to pay $1.50 each for the meals which are served at the meetings. Each meeting has cost a member $1.50 in the past, but only $1.25 went to pay for the meal with the remainder going into the club treasury.

It was pointed out that the club was now financially able to do without the extra 25 cents. Steaks will be served at each meeting. Leaders of the club hope the new menu will improve attendance and membership.

With the Monday night meeting, the club began its 10th year.

Committees appointed and their members are finance, L. S. Pool; convention, Joe Helton; agriculture, Robert Morton; membership, John Zahn and Otis Huggins; public relations and bulletin editor, Moten; boys and girls, Paul Frederick and Jack Williams; Citizenship and patriotism, Wilfred Quickel; civic improvement and community improvement, Magness and Herb Potts; education, Williams and Atwell; safety, Huggins; sight conservation, Elmer Teel and Shirley Kesner; greeter, Loyd Cain; program, Morton and Magness; and information, Huggins.

3 Races Snaring Most Attention

Absentee voting got off to a better than usual start last week in Farmer County. If this may be used as a yardstick, it indicates there's more interest in the Democratic Primary, July 26.

Some 60 absentee ballots had been voted or applied for by the middle of this week, County Clerk Hugh Moseley reports. First day for casting absentee ballots was July 7. Deadline for such voting is three days prior to election day.

Number of paid poll taxes is down this year, however, compared to 1956, the last general election year. Reasons for this are anybody's guess. Possibly the best is that that was a presidential election year, while this, of course, isn't.

In 1956 there were 2531 voters in the county as compared with 2230 this year.

Largest box is Friona—No. 2—with a total of 765. Others, in descending size, are Farwell, No. 4, 425; Bovina, No. 3, 397; Lazbuddie, No. 5, 302; Oklahoma Lane, No. 6, 163; Black, No. 1, 87; Rhea, No. 7, 50; and Lakeview, No. 8, 41.

Three races—one precinct, one county, and one district—are possibly causing the increased interest in absentee voting.

The precinct race is at Bovina where C. L. Calaway and Vernon Estes attempt to unseat the incumbent, Charlie Jefferson. Jefferson's name will not appear on the ballot due to failure to file, but he is making a write-in campaign. Calaway is a veteran of the commissioners court, having held the post prior to the time Jefferson was elected. Estes is getting his first taste of politics.

In the county race, two Friona men, Loyde Brewer and Wesley Hardesty, are attempting to win the position of present judge A. D. Smith.

Brewer is a former county clerk while Hardesty has not played in the game of politics as a candidate before.

It's also a three-way battle in the state senator campaign. Incumbent Andy Rogers is going against Karl L. Lovelady, a former state senator from another district, and Leroy Saul, who is now a representative to the state government. Rogers is from Childress, Lovelady, Muleshoe, and Saul from Kress.

Other races on the precinct level include the one for commissioner of Precinct No. 4—Lazbuddie. G. W. Crain and T. M. Bewley are the candidates. Three candidates are making bids for Justice of the Peace, Precinct No. 2. They are E. B. Brannon, Thelma Jones, and Walter Lovelless.

W. J. Parker and J. D. Stevens are battling for the new Justice of the Peace position which will be created at Bovina January 1.

Unopposed are E. A. Bills, for District Judge of 154th Judicial District, William H. Sheehan for district attorney of 154th Judicial District, Hurshel R. Harding for county attorney, Hugh Moseley for county clerk, Mabel Reynolds for county treasurer, J. R. Thornton for Justice of the Peace, Precinct No. 1, G. D. Anderson for chairman of the Democratic Executive Committee.

Also unopposed are all of the precinct committeemen.

Others on the ballot include: For Governor: Price Daniel, Henry B. Gonzales, Joe A. Irwin, and W. Lee O'Daniel.

For Lieutenant Governor: Ben Ramsey and George Nokes.

For Attorney General: Will Wilson.

For United States Senator: Wm. A. Blakley and Ralph W. Yarborough.

For Associate Justice of Supreme Court, Place No. 1: Rob-

Pump Motor Quits; Another Installed

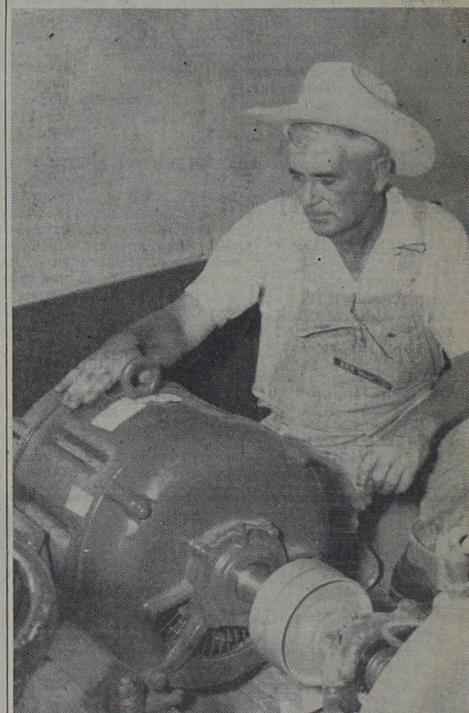

A shortage of water can be a serious problem anytime, especially in the summer. That's what almost happened to Farwell Monday.

The 25-horsepower electric motor which is used to pump water from one tank to another in the water system burned out. Pressure weakened because of the motor not being in operation, but the problem was solved before it became acute.

A new motor was in operation Monday night after the other had gone on the blink at noon.

V. C. Venable, water superintendent, explains that the motor which burned out, is used to transfer water from the storage tank into the tower. Water is pumped direct to the storage tank from the two wells.

During the crisis, water was sent directly from the wells to the tower. Venable says the situation could have been serious had there been a fire or some other demand which caused an excessive amount of water to be used while the motor was out.

NEW WATER PUMP MOTOR — V. C. Venable, Farwell water superintendent, lovingly pats this new, 25-horsepower electric motor which plays an important role in keeping the water system working properly. This motor was installed Monday night to replace a similar one which had burned out.

Auto Insurance Rates Due Increase 1st Of August

Automobile insurance—collision and liability—will join postal rates in taking an upward turn August 1.

The increase in auto rates is the result of a statewide rate hike voted earlier this month by the state board of insurance, Mary Jean Patrick of Aldridge Insurance Agency, and Cary Joe Magness, Graham-Magness Agency, report.

Statewide, the increase will average 17 and 19 percent.

Prior to this year, the state was divided into four areas for insurance rate differences. This year, a new plan—dividing Texas into 26 areas—goes into effect.

Farmer County rates will go up 15.8 percent for auto collision insurance, 16 percent for bodily injury coverage and 23.1 percent for property damage (both under liability coverage) and 32.2 percent for comprehensive coverage.

Reasons offered by the insurance board for the increases are an increasing number of automobile collisions, higher cost of repairs, larger medical costs and higher jury awards in actions for damages, Magness says.

Biggest increases under the new rate structure are aimed at car owners who are unmarried males under 25.

Local insurance agencies received the new rates over the weekend. They are not in effect until the first of next month. Policies purchased prior to August 1 will, of course, be figured on the present rate.

Farmer County area basic rates per year for liability insurance providing $5,000 and $10,000 for bodily injury coverage and $5,000 for property damage are:

Class 1A—drivers 25 and older, married, using cars only for pleasure and domestic purposes—$26, up $5.

Class 2A—car owned by adult farmer, but also driven by youth under 25—$39, up $5.

Class 2C—farmers under 25, unmarried males—$65, up $14.

Class 1B—drivers over 25, married, using cars for business as well as pleasure—$35, up $6.

Class 2A—adult-owned car but also driven by youth under 25—$52, up $11.

Class 2C—drivers under 25, unmarried and male—$87, up $24.

Class 3—business car—$39, up $1.

Class 1A—farmers 25 and older, married, using cars only for pleasure and domestic purposes—$26, up $5.

Class 2A—car owned by adult farmer, but also driven by youth under 25—$39, up $5.

Class 2C—farmers under 25, unmarried males—$65, up $14.

Comprehensive insurance, going up 33.3 percent at the same date, will have alternate coverage at half the regular price.

A $50 deductible coverage plan will be available at half price, leaving it to the car owners to pay for small items such as glass breakage, sand blasting, etc.

Farmers must live on a farm and garage their vehicles there to qualify for farmers' rates.

THE TRIBUNE'S EDITORIAL COMMENT

IT'S OUR MOVE —

All indications point to vegetable production as being the one thing which will allow this fertile farming area to pay off in the way in which it is capable. Most likely, vegetable production will put the icing on the agricultural cake which was baked by irrigation.

Among agricultural people, it's almost generally accepted that vegetables are the coming thing. As a matter of fact, they're already here to a certain extent. Several farmers are already devoting acreage to the hazardous, but often well-paying, crop.

Texico-Farwell is missing a bet in not taking positive steps toward serving these farmers with packing shed facilities. In other areas of Parmer County, vegetable production and processing, especially the latter, have progressed and developed more than they have here.

However, we don't feel this area is far behind — and certainly not TOO far behind.

From the standpoint of the farmer, vegetable production is theoretically more profitable than a "break-even" row crop. He is searching for something more profitable to take the place of the old standby crops.

Progressive farmers are ready to experiment, to some extent, with vegetable production. What they need is a vegetable plan which will afford them at least some assurance that they can sell the crop once it is produced.

From the standpoint of the towns, vegetable production is good in more ways than one. But, to put it in a nutshell: truck farming makes for more people. More people, needless to say, are what make towns and communities grow. More people make for more business.

An argument against this is that the type of people which vegetables bring to a community is not always the most desirable. That's true. But, the more people you have, the more good people you have.

From a location standpoint, we daresay Texico-Farwell is as ideally located as any community on the Plains. Railroad facilities here are especially desirable.

A meeting of people interested in vegetable production might be the way to get the ball rolling. There might be, and probably is, a better way.

The main thing, however, is to start doing something in the way of vegetable handling facilities. It's the coming thing; it will be to our advantage to be among the first.

Now is the time to start planning for next year's crop.

Auto Insurance Rates

Are Going Up!

August 1

Beginning the first of next month, your auto insurance rates will be higher . . . and we're sorry. We don't feel that OUR customers should have to pay more for their insurance. However it's our duty as an agency to conform with the State Board of Insurance.

And while it's true our rates will be higher, we're glad to announce we'll be able to offer $50 deductible comprehensive which will cost about half of the full coverage. The rate hike won't, of course, affect present policies . . . only those which are written after August 1.

We'll welcome the opportunity to discuss the change in rates with you and we hope you understand that we don't like the increase, either!

Our three judges of ma's cooking like homemade cookies as a treat during any waking hour. They can empty the cookie jar in record time.

This recipe is a favorite, simple to make, and can be varied to suit the taste of the family.

CHOCOLATE JUMBOS
1 1/4 cups sifted flour
2 tsp. baking powder
1/2 tsp. salt
1 cup granulated sugar
1/2 cup salad oil
2 eggs, unbeaten
1/3 cup milk
3/4 tsp. vanilla
3 sq. unsweetened chocolate, melted
1/2 cup chopped nuts
Heat oven to 350. Into large bowl, sift together first four ingredients. Make well in flour mixture; add oil and next three ingredients. Beat until smooth. Then beat in melted chocolate and nuts just until mixed. Drop by tablespoons about 2 inches apart, on greased cookie sheet. Bake until done.
If preferred, top cookies with raisins or nuts before baking, or frost with a butter icing.

Not being in the least pessimistic, we note that even vacations have an unpleasant aftermath. We had a restful five days—three spent in the quiet of El Porvenir, on the other side of Las Vegas, and two touring parts of New Mexico and Colorado that we had not visited before. Then we came home—to washing and ironing and unpacking—hours of it!
The boys—the big one and both little ones—are absolutely sold on the first retreat. The head man fed the family on mountain trout, after a fruitful morning at the end of a fishing pole. He was also fortunate enough to bring home some—our July 4th treat.

Hal and Ronny watched the owner of our cabin as he milked a cow—Hal later was found with the baby calf cornered, and was "trying to milk that cow."

Going through Santa Fe, and on up to Pagosa Springs, Colo., we saw some beautiful scenery. We spent the night in Durango, Colo., then began our return trip. We drove through Farmington, N. M., a boom town, and quite an attractive one.

Then for 100 miles from Shiprock to Gallup, we wound our way through the most desolate region, which looked as though it defied habitation. On the Indian reservation, it was a distressing sight to note some of the living conditions. And then there was Grants—a boom town that looks like we had pictured one. It isn't a pretty town, although it is an incredible one. We ate lunch there, and asked the waitress how we would locate an uncle who lives in a trailer house there. She informed us that if we didn't know the name of the trailer court, it would be a futile search.

But we stopped at one trailer court anyway. The genial proprietor asked us if we had two or three days (the relatives weren't in his court). Seriously, he confided, there are 3400 house trailers in Grants.

We looked no further.
July 6 was visitors day at the Grahams—a very interesting day that started with a chat with our friends, the Warlick Thomases of Amarillo, who were here to visit his mother over the holiday.

Warlick and Bee Gee like Amarillo very much. Incidentally, she was wearing a two-piece sack that was lovely. Their little daughter was busy entertaining Grandmother Thomas, and both seemed to like the association.

Then, we had a visit from our college friends, Mr. and Mrs. Don Orr of Denver City. He is football coach there, and is getting prepared for coaching school the first part of August. We had only a short time to catch up on all the news before they were on their way, but it was fun to see them again.

Such a day makes life worth living—there's nothing we enjoy more than renewing old friendships.

Half of 1958 is gone, but we still have time to do many of the things that we had hoped to accomplish a short six months ago.

THE $64 MILLION DOLLAR QUESTION: "WHY MUST AUTO LIABILITY INSURANCE RATES GO UP?"

THE $64 MILLION DOLLAR ANSWER: "Because last year 122 insurance companies showed an underwriting loss of just that amount—$64,000,000—on their Auto Liability insurance business. Putting it another way, on the average they paid out $108 in claim costs and expenses for every $100 of premiums earned."

THOSE ARE THE FACTS: THERE'S NO OTHER WAY RATES COULD GO BUT UP! WHY should insurance companies lose money in an economy of prosperity? BECAUSE the average bodily injury claim is up 116 percent from 1941. BECAUSE the average property damage claim is up 239 percent from 1941. YET the average rates for Bodily Injury and Property Damage Liability insurance have risen only 60 percent since 1941. ADD to the rising cost of claims, the rising frequency of claims, and you have the full answer to the $64,000,000 question.

EVERY DRIVER CAN HELP WARD OFF FURTHER AUTO LIABILITY RATE INCREASES: By setting a good example as a safe and careful driver at all times. By promoting and supporting safety work and driver training instruction. By opposing unfair claim practices, such as when a garage "kites" a bill when the job is insured. THE WAY TO LOWER AUTO LIABILITY RATES LIES IN A REDUCTION OF ACCIDENTS.

Potato harvest started in the Friona area Monday. These were the first three truck loads, taken from the field of A. L. Black. They were forced to wait several hours under this awning while processing machinery was getting started.

Potatoes Roll In At Friona, Lariat

Potato digging, that summertime harvest function that is attracting more attention in the Parmer County area each year, got started at Friona and Lariat this week.

Both Friona Growers and Shippers and Gregory Produce at Lariat began their work on Monday, although new machinery at Friona kept the first loads from being processed immediately, and the potatoes went right on through the smaller, but ready-to-go shed at Lariat.

The first diggings in the Friona area deal, which amounts to about 600 acres, came from the farm of A. L. Black in the Hub community. Spuds were taken from the ground in the comparative cool of the morning, but had to stay on the trucks (which were tarped and parked in the shade) awaiting tune-up of the new equipment. Processing did get started about 10:30 Monday night.

During such hot weather, no digging is done during the midday hours, because of danger of the sun and wind, which can "blister" the produce and cost farmers money.

John O'Haugerty, Friona Growers and Shippers salesman, said Monday the market for the Friona spuds couldn't be tested until they were actually placed for selling.

Meanwhile, in the southern part of the county Buck Gregory took Monday morning diggings from the field of John Hood and put them through the washing, culling, dyeing, grading, and sacking operations, and moved the loads directly into the hands of a Dallas broker.

The early results of the first day, according to Gregory, were "awfully good." The potatoes sold for $3.15 a hundred, a pretty good price, and the yield from Hood's farm—where the man is growing potatoes for the first time—was good, running from 250 to 275 sacks.

For such early season digging, this is an excellent yield, reports Gregory. The potato harvest got off to a good start for Gregory, but the shed operator and grower is not expecting times to continue at a high level all through the harvest.

"I look for the market to weaken pretty soon," he says.

Orders for the early part of the High Plains harvest are usually slow in picking up momentum, and this year is no exception, so it is not Gregory's plan to rush through harvest in the hope of catching higher prices.

Gregory grows potatoes on a year-in-year-out basis, figuring on the law of averages to protect his over-all earnings. He does not appear to be concerned that his own potatoes will be dug toward the end of the deal, and when the market may be declining all along.

Gregory uses an unusual twist in selling. He has hired a professional potato salesman, which is not unusual, but the office set-up is D. E. Hughes, the salesman, has three telephones in a motel in Texico, from where he makes contact with sales points all over the country.

Improved phone service from the facilities available in Texico is the main reason for this method of selling, says Gregory.

The more turnover of frozen foods in your home freezer, the more economical its operation will be, say extension foods and nutrition specialists. Certain fixed costs of freezer operation are large compared with other costs involved in freezing. Therefore, the more food used and replaced, the less the cost of storing each pound.

SOIL CONSERVATION DISTRICT NEWS

Irrigation of grain sorghum has been getting underway this past week. Several dry hot days like we have had over the weekend can remove lots of moisture. Farmers are interested in getting the water to the plant before it suffers because crops usually produce the highest yield when they can easily obtain moisture from the soil throughout the entire growing season.

An efficiently designed irrigation system will allow you to cover the ground in a hurry in order to get a good application of water when the plants need it.

The Soil Conservation Service has worked with L. W. Grissom, Roy Clements and James Norton to improve their water application on irrigated land. Robert Zetsche made a range survey on Owen Seamands' ranch last week.

A soil survey was made on the D. S. Anderson farm south of Clay's Corner.

The president has proclaimed the week of July 20-26 as National Farm Safety Week for 1958. The theme this year is "When you work for Safety, Safety works for you." Here are a few figures to impress on our minds the importance of SAFETY on the farm:

In 1956, there were 12,000 deaths and 1,050,000 injuries to farm residents of the United States. In Texas, the causes of farm accidents in percent are as follows: drowning—23.0, machinery—22.4, firearms—15.8, burns—9.5, falls—6.2, animals—5.6, lightning—4.1, electric current—3.9, blows—3.3, and other types of accidents 6.2.

Let's keep safety in mind not only during Farm Safety Week but every week of the year.

In the July issue of Soil and Water magazine there is an article entitled "Cotton Conservation" that tells how a farmer has increased his yield through conservation farming. If you take "Soil and Water" or have access to it take time to read this article.

Potatoes fresh from the field of John Hood are dumped into a trough filled with rushing water, where sand, silt and field debris are separated from the spuds before they are carried into the Gregory Produce shed at Lariat.

This Year, as Last, Phosphate Pays On Sandier Soils

Tests conducted on two southern Parmer County farms by the Bushland Experiment Station indicate this year, as the year previous, phosphate fertilizer is an essential ingredient to obtaining high yields on wheat grown on sandier type soils.

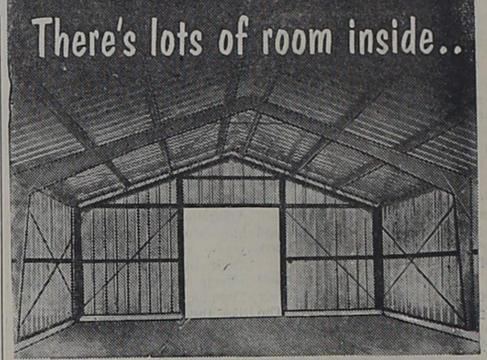

The tests do not minimize the importance of nitrogen, the most commonly applied fertilizer, in increasing the yields. But they do indicate that nitrogen and phosphate, working as a team, mean a lot more to the farmer in terms of getting the biggest yield increase for the least money.

In 1957, tests were run on the Walter Kaltwasser farm in the Oklahoma Lane community. The tables below will show that 120 pounds of nitrogen and 80 pounds of phosphate were the best paying combination for him that year, resulting in a yield of 58½ bushels per acre. This year, tests were run on the Beryle Nix farm near Lariat, and again clearly indicated that the sandier soils need phosphate along with nitrogen for maximum grain production.

In the tables, it will be noted (Continued on next page)

"The Place Where Most People Trade" Friona, Texas Wednesday, July 16, 1958

Johnny Holland of Houston, nephew of the Eric Rushings, doesn't have a very good opinion of hospitals, though he knows they are necessary. While playing with his cousins Saturday Johnny fell into an irrigation ditch and hurt his hand. He didn't worry about it much until Sunday morning when his hand began to swell and stiffen.

Eric and Johnny came in to the hospital and found everyone busy so had to wait and the waiting was extremely hard on Johnny. Pretty soon he fainted, but after an x-ray revealed that he had no broken bones, he returned to the Rushing residence promising himself he'd stay away from hospitals as long as possible.

Tractors are our business and we are sure proud of the new McCormick six-row. Here's bigger, more efficient farming—six-row farming at its easiest and best. Ask for an on-the-farm demonstration.

When you pay your water bill, remember this: One half-inch hose and nozzle will distribute 200 gallons of water per hour, a three-quarter-inch hose and nozzle 300 gallons per hour, and the ordinary lawn sprinklers we use distribute approximately 200 gallons per hour.

International trucks have an exceptionally long and useful life. One of the reasons is the availability everywhere of genuine IH replacement parts and expert truck maintenance service. Our shop is well-equipped to keep your truck on the road.

A little girl was heard talking to a neighbor child with whom she was playing "cow-boy." "You be Wild Bill Hick-up," she said, "And I will be Wyatt Burp."

Let us show you the new McCormick middlebuster planter and cultivator for six-row farming. Do 50 percent more work every hour and cut labor cost per acre.

Kansas State scientists have invented a sound detecting device which allows them to listen in on the insects in the grain stored in elevators. The scientists can even tell if the insects are moving or chewing. This device allows an early check to be made on the effectiveness of fumigants.

The new Farmall 450 offers matched farm equipment—for you the greatest range of growing different crops under the method that suits you best of any all-purpose tractor ever built. For your new Farmall 450 we have mold board disks and harrow plows, also cultivators and rod weeders.

Seems like Dave McReynolds, Friona Star editor, should read the PCIC News. Last week Dave used the very same joke we'd used the week before. Maybe we read the same joke books; anyway we are glad we got there first with the joke.

The Kenneth Thompsons have four young sons and a television set. At the Thompson home one of the older boys usually returns thanks at meal time. The other day the youngest boy, who is three, insisted it was his turn to return thanks. Mrs. Thompson agreed, all heads were bowed, and the three-year-old said, "Winston tastes good—like cigarette should. Amen."

You can beat your race with the sun—get a feed rich hay crop harvested with McCormick mowers, rakes, and balers. See us soon.

A new grandmother we know says the trouble with keeping the grandchildren is that the job is so constant.

With McCormick cultivating equipment you are assured of plenty of weed killing power.

Mrs. J. F. Miller visited relatives in Oklahoma last week. The Herschel Johnsons and Hoyt Smiths spent several days in Colorado. M. C. Osborn left Saturday for Camp Hood and his grandmother, Sallie McFarland, went with him to Killen and will stay with her sister awhile. The Ernest Anthonys enjoyed several days at Yellowstone National Park on their recent vacation.

When the wheels began to turn about 10:30 p. m., though, things started happening. This is the scene inside the Friona Growers and Shippers shed, where women and girls are used in the sorting operation.

THE HAPPY HOMEMAKER
BY JUNE FLOYD

Have you ever seen any "garden garters?" We haven't, but have seen some advertised. The idea is wonderful, but a person wouldn't necessarily have to purchase them ready made. They are made from foam rubber and kept in place with elastic bands. Don't know where the name is from. They resemble knee pads and are used for just that.

These gadgets may be used to protect knees while gardening, scrubbing, waxing, or painting floors. The ones we saw advertised were cut in the form of a flower and were selling for $1.

Another thing that is new is called a "double bucket." It has two compartments that hold six quarts of water each. It would come in very handy for floor cleaning. You could fill one compartment with warm suds and the other with clear water for rinsing.

It would also be very handy for window washing or any other job that calls for water and other articles. These handy pails are made of flexible plastic and sell for about $4.

For a quick and easy main dish for supper, try baking your supper and stacking it in a loaf. The following three recipes are built around ready baked bread. Of course, you could use home baked bread if you desired to do so.

SWISS SUPPER LOAF
1 loaf unsliced cornmeal or rye bread
1/2 cup butter
1/2 cup minced onion
1/4 cup chili sauce
1 tablespoon poppy seed
6 slices crisply fried bacon, crumbled
10 slices Swiss cheese

Sure-footed Man Serves Texas

The colorful language of the ranch and trail seems to fit Bill Blakley, who made his start in life as a working cowhand. He still rides and ropes with the hands on his ranch at roundup time.

Speaking of Blakley's service as U. S. Senator in 1957, the Dallas News said: "... If he was as unassuming as an old boot, it was nevertheless a well polished boot that never wobbled or wandered from its purposeful path. For this man Blakley is a sure-footed man who knows exactly where he stands and what he believes."

Texans will vote to return William A. Blakley to the Senate on July 26 because he truly represents the spirit, traditions and views of all Texas.

900 Attend Program And Tulia's Biggest Banquet

Citizens from a broad area of the High Plains produced what many termed an unprecedented show in Tulia, March 31st. The area -- the fifteen county Thirtieth Senatorial District of Texas. The "Show" -- an Appreciation Dinner-Program honoring State Senator Andy J. Rogers of Childress. 30 to 100 persons from each of the 15 agricultural counties turned out for the evening-long program in the cafeteria and auditorium of Tulia High School. 75 business and farm leaders from outside the district joined in the "Chorus Of Thank You's" to the Senator. A majority of the Panhandle-South Plains Representatives and Senators, also two major daily newspaper representatives were present.

INDEXING

By MORRIS HIGLEY
Andy Rogers may be defeated some day. He may not run for re-election. At least he has not announced.
But win, lose or draw, Andy Rogers has something to remember that is fine and wonderful.
His most memorable moment must be the Appreciation Dinner and program given Monday night at Tulia.

I have never seen anything like it in my life. I do not think anyone who attended has ever seen anything like it.
—Mr. and Mrs. N. D. Rogers, along with Georgia Ann and, of course, Andy must have felt wonderful Monday night. And still do.

The idea for the Appreciation Dinner did not originate in Childress. In fact, as far as I know, Childress residents did not have anything to do with it.
And when Andy heard about the proposal, he said that it could not be done.
Andy was wrong. And I imagine right now he is happy that he was wrong. I would be.

A dozen leaders in the district were programmed to speak. They, typically, represented a cross-section of Plains life.

One was the Senator's pastor. He lauded the honoree for his fight against liquor, narcotics, and lewd literature. "Senator Rogers is always on the right side of every moral issue," said the churchman. "He wants and works for a high moral atmosphere to prevail."

A county teachers' association president called attention to Senator Rogers' work in behalf of public education. A Memphis druggist related that Rogers has always had an "open ear" for the small businessman.

A district judge praised the quality of legislation introduced and supported by the Senator. A mayor and insurance man emphasized the value of Andy Rogers' fight against corruption in Austin, particularly in connection with the insurance investigations.

Said an official of one of the veterans' organizations: "Andy told us for a long time there was serious trouble in the veteran's land program. He was right. And when this was cleaned up, Andy worked hard to see that this good program was not scrapped."

A newspaper editor and publisher, a former president of the Panhandle Press Association, observed: "This is the first time I've ever heard of people traveling so far just for a state senator. But it's fitting," he added, "for Andy Rogers for a job well done."

Spokesmen for the major farm organizations expressed approval of the Senator's record on farm-to-market roads, local ownership of underground water, rural electrification, and other legislation of concern to agriculture. Said the farm spokesman who rounded out the program:

"In view of all Andy Rogers has done for agriculture, I'm amazed to hear from the other speakers here this evening that he's had time for such effective work for so many others, too." The farmer concluded:

"Andy Rogers must use a six-row political tractor!"
The Senator acknowledged the praise-filled evening with obvious humility. He spoke humbly, too, of his "close personal friends" — Lewis B. Taylor of Austin and Waco — who had been stricken with a fatal heart attack there a few minutes earlier.
To the series of "thank you's" which had been expressed during the evening, Rogers responded:

"What's been accomplished, you've done. The credit belongs to you, to my parents, and to my wife who have all supported me so strongly. I really feel like I owe you all an appreciation dinner."

Your VOTE For Andy Rogers Will Be Appreciated

THE PARMER FARMER

by W. H. Graham Jr.

The writer and his family are back after one of their "quickie" vacations. You know—the kind where you jam four weeks into four days.

There are very few things that we enjoy more than getting under the wheel of a car and heading out for country that we've either never seen or haven't seen in a long, long while.

Our trip took us through the mountains of Northern New Mexico, the Rocky foothills of Southwestern Colorado, the river valleys of the Animas and San Juan Rivers of Northwestern New Mexico, and the desert reaches of New Mexico's Indian country on the west side.

We saw a lot that would interest people in agriculture. To begin with, the grass on the eastern slope of the mountains, known to us folks out here as "The Western Range," is generally very good, although there are some dry spots.

The snow pack in the mountains is very heavy and even in some elevations around 11,000 to 12,000 feet, snow is still evident. This is unusual for the first of July, and is the biggest explanation for the bank-to-bank flow of the large rivers and the full streambeds of the smaller creeks. In short, the mountain country looks as if it is doing quite well.

At one place where we stayed, a rancher was busy cutting his first crop of alfalfa hay, which was excellent. It was not irrigated, and he reports that if the rains continue he is sure to get one more good cutting and possibly two more this summer.

The improved prices for livestock within the past eight or ten months, along with the return of moisture, have resulted in a noticeable increase of stock on the range. Plenty of beef is being produced there.

Our High Plains irrigated farming is dependent, of course, on water from wells. Nearly all successful farming west of the Rockies is dependent on irrigation, too, and all of the irrigation systems in Northwestern New Mexico are gravity-flow from rivers.

It would appear that the westward-flowing rivers of that section carry much more water than the south- or southeast-bound rivers of the Southwest. For instance, both the Animas and the San Juan are rushing torrents fresh from the mountains in the areas we visited.

By contrast, the long Rio Grande has slowed to a muddy puddle by time it reaches Albuquerque near the center of the state, and it has over 1,000 miles to go after that. It is small wonder that the Rio often runs dry at Laredo, still many miles from the Gulf.

The San Juan Basin of Northwestern New Mexico is the nation's hottest spot for oil and gas these days. Many wells are located right along the river. The towns of Aztec and Farmington are the ones most showing the effect of the great stimulus to growth that major petroleum discoveries bring.

From Shiprock south to Gallup, the visitor will travel through some of the most barren-looking country on the continent. This is the giant Navajo Reservation, and the only signs of life are an occasional mud-thatched hogan here and there.

This vast stretch of land, crossed by no rivers and never developed for well irrigation, reminds us of what our own

High Plains would have looked like in the drought just ended had it not been for our great ground water reserves.

After the way that we have bragged about how much milder our crop-growing weather (we have said that Parmer County is more storm-free than any other county of the High Plains), we are beginning to wonder if we aren't bringing the farmers bad luck.

Four weeks ago a terrific hailstorm laid crops low east and north of Friona. Last week, another big storm hit the southwestern section of the county, south of Farwell. There were other locally severe hailstorms scattered in the central and north-central parts of the county.

Maybe all this good publicity we have been trying to give the Parmer County area is backfiring. At any rate, our farmers are getting their share—and more—of low blows from the weather this year.

From reports that we keep hearing, vegetable production is really catching on around Bovina. The Gateway Produce people of Laredo are there and a new shed is going up. When the streets of Bovina, you more often hear "Have you been out to see the cantaloupes?" than "How do you think our cotton is doing?"

Bovina farmers have about 600 acres of cantaloupes, and around 450 acres of tomatoes. The shed owners are trying to get a late lettuce deal underway there and may come up with another 400 acres of that leafy crop.

If they do, we'll be surprised, in a way. We have recognized the trend toward vegetable farming for some time, but we frankly didn't feel it would catch on in a never-tried-it-before community like Bovina so fast.

Especially the lettuce. Lettuce is the queen "gamble crop" of the truck farming business. Unlike potatoes, where it's not too unusual to have a break-even year, we have been told that in the case of lettuce, you have to figure on making a killing or taking a licking.

There's seldom an in-between ground for High Plains lettuce deals, farmers and brokers have told us. If area lettuce can get on the market when the price is good, and if weather permits the quality to be high, the money really rolls in. Lettuce, that green folding stuff, is aptly named in such cases.

However, if the market is weak and heavy rains spoil the quality, High Plains lettuce isn't worth hauling out of the fields. It usually turns out to be high-priced or a very high-priced green manure crop.

Lack of space, both on account of some late-entering ads and other important news stories, pushed our "moisture map" feature out of Farm and Home last week. We are sorry that we were prevented from running this feature, which is a highly popular one after general rains.

The moisture map does not always appear in the paper whenever it rains. That is especially true in the summer time, when the shotgun-like pattern of showers is so unevenly distributed.

It is not unusual at all, for example, for it to rain over an inch at Lazbuddie, but for all other Parmer County points to remain bone dry. This has created something of a problem, and we have decided that the best thing to do in such cases is to omit the area-wide map, and, in its place, either have a separate story on the local rainfall, or make mention of it in a general story about the weather or crop conditions.

Such was not the case last week, however, when we had an ample and legitimate reason for running the map. We just didn't have the room.

Incidentally, the map we ran showing where severe hail has occurred this growing season was one of the trickiest things we have tackled to date. At first we thought that we had the areas affected pretty well pinpointed.

However, each time we had occasion to check with a farmer from another part of the area—and a part we thought hadn't been touched by hail—we got reports of additional damage. It seems that this year has brought more hail and severe weather to the farmers of our area than any other year since 1953, when we began making such huge investments in irrigated crops.

Parmer County area farmers may be interested in attending a meeting of the High Plains Vegetable Council, which will be in Dimmitt July 29, at the district court room.

The meeting, which will begin at 8 p.m., is to discuss vegetable research which the council has asked the Lubbock Experiment Station to undertake. The station has agreed to cooperate with the request, but an appropriation from the legislature will be required, and the meeting is called to gain support for this effort.

The Council's over-all objective is to work with groups such as the Extension Service, in an attempt to help stabilize the vegetable growing industry on the High Plains.

Plans for the 1958 Parmer County Farm Bureau queen contest were made Monday night as these 11 county women and Raymond Euler, front, gathered at Bovina Restaurant. Rules of the contest and committees were named, and entries are being sought by the contest committee.

NEWS FROM THE FARM BUREAU
By RAYMOND EULER

President Gilbert Kaltwasser is in Waco this week, attending a Texas Farm Bureau Commodity Advisory Committee meeting. He is serving on the Water Committee. This is a state wide meeting, with committees composed of farmers from all counties over the state. Their job is to make studies of subjects related to all farm commodities and services to be presented to counties for consideration in annual conventions, preceding the State Convention in November.

dent to write letters to all county ginners, urging their participation in support of the National Cotton Council. Cotton Sales Promotion is of vital importance to the future of the cotton industry, and Farm Bureau believes that the Cotton Council is performing an invaluable service in this field.

A statement we deem true and important to you and us, by Admiral Arthur W. Radford: "Today, the Christian world is menaced by a Satanic force which denies and seeks to destroy all that we Christians hold important. Communism is a direct denial of Christ and His Church. More than that, it seeks complete domination of the free world through capturing the minds and hearts of its youth."

Farm Bureau Queen Committee members met in the Bovina Restaurant dining room Monday night to organize for the Sixth Annual Contest to be August 22. We think there will be a news story on this in Parmer County Newspapers this week.

CONSIDER THIS: The great God that formed all things both rewardeth the fool and rewardeth transgressors. Prov-erbs 26:10

J. H. West, TFB President, has written letters to all County Farm Bureau Presidents, urging them to make every effort to get every eligible voter out to the polls on July 26th. Your directors pass this important request on to everyone of you. Our right to vote is one that has not yet been infringed upon. If we can keep it that way, we have an excellent chance to remove some of the infringements that have progressively come upon us, by knowing who the men are, and what they believe, when we cast our ballot. VOTE!

Sun glasses — GOOD or BAD?

Many people ask optometrists every day "is it all right if I wear sunglasses?" The answer isn't exactly simple. Certain conditions of vision require sun lenses while others definitely do not. Light-sensitive vision (photophobia) often is a sign of infections in or near the eyes or in other parts of the body. If sun lenses are used in these cases, the real trouble might merely be covered up and the cause not discovered. Sun glare problems should be carried to your optometrist. Only by a thorough visual examination can he answer the question: "Are Sun Glasses Good or Bad for Me?"

FB Queen's Race, Rules Established

Members of the Parmer County Farm Bureau queen committee for 1958 met in the Bovina Restaurant Monday night to organize and plan for the sixth annual queen's contest. Mrs. Ralph Smith presided as temporary chairman until Mrs. C. V. Potts was elected chairman. Rules for the contest were studied and amended as follows:

Tiremen Offer Tips On Tires

A practice that is catching on among economy-minded drivers makes perfectly safe tires within the reach of all drivers. The practice of having tires recapped is becoming more popular as motorists wake up to the fact that they can get tires recapped for about one-half of the cost of new tires, say two tire service men, Henry Hathorn and Stanley (Blackie) Richardson. The tire men, of H&R Tire Service of Clovis, N. M., offer another tip that drivers need to keep in mind when having tires recapped. "Watch those tires, and when the tread begins to disappear bring them to us and let us recap them. Not only can a better job of recapping be done, but the tires can often be recapped the second time if you check your tires regularly."

Very Hot Weather Bakes Area Fields

For the time of the year, the weather has never been hotter than it has been on Parmer County area crops within the past week. The thermometer has passed or hovered near the 100-degree mark for a week, undiminished by showers which usually visit scattered localities this time of the year.

The searing, cloudless days have meant a real test for area crops, which are at about mid-point maturity. Cotton is blooming and fruiting nicely, and some early feed is beginning to head out.

The High Plains triple-threat to crop moisture is sunshine, low humidity, and dry winds, which have teamed up for a real onslaught of the soil moisture supplies that have been considered ample up until now.

Few farmers were registering any particular anxiety over the situation. As mentioned, soil moisture has been good. Then, most of the grain sorghum is young enough to withstand the 'drying' and growth has been hastened.

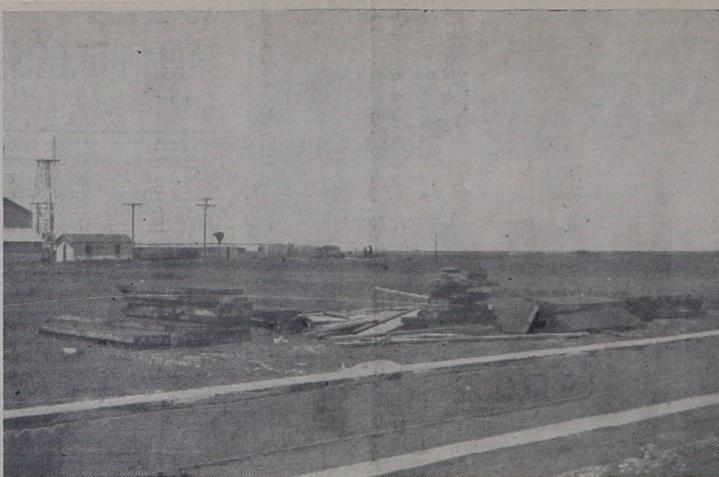

Furthermore, hot weather is "cotton weather" and farmers of the High Plains areas like that.

The only damage noted presently is to advanced corn crops, whose tall plants and broad leaves have been burned by the severe elements. It is very difficult for farmers with even ample irrigation water to get moisture back to their corn crops fast enough under conditions such as these to prevent firing of the tips of the leaves.

The principal danger in the unseasonably hot and dry spell is the danger that it will pose to later developments. With soil moisture being depleted so rapidly by both the crops and the weather, a tough test may be in store when this moisture runs out and irrigation wells begin to attempt to make up the difference.

Often, the case is that the farmer deems it unnecessary to irrigate before his soil moisture holding capacity is pretty well depleted. Then, when he begins irrigating, if the weather continues hot and dry, and especially—if he's trying to irrigate the maximum cropland with his well, it is difficult to water across his acreage in time to keep at least a part of the crop from suffering.

WHEN YOU STAND, stand erect and tall with feet pointed straight ahead. Adjust heights of working surface to fit you and keep things within easy reach.

WHEN YOU LIFT from the floor or low levels (picking up baby, wedding, looking in oven) stand close to object to be lifted and bend at knees—not at hips, keep back straight and lift with leg muscles instead of back.

WHEN YOU CARRY, try to keep your shoulders level and your back straight. Carry something in each hand to help keep body balance and permit free movement for "short hauls." If you must carry a heavy

WHEN YOU PUSH OR PULL, use your whole body instead of only your arms. Bend at hips instead of sagging your shoulders, use whole body at center of weight to be moved.

WHEN YOU SIT, use a comfortable chair or stool and sit with back straight. Work at a height so you don't have to reach or stoop over.

Good posture combined with use of correct tools, comfortable clothing and a positive attitude will help you have more pep and enthusiasm for everyday living.

New Senate Hand Aided Democrats

When William A. Blakley was appointed to the U. S. Senate in 1957, he was a political unknown in Texas. But Washington awaited his arrival with great interest. So close was the party balance in the Senate that Blakley's vote was the difference between Democratic and Republican control.

True to his Democratic tradition, Bill Blakley voted with his fellow Democrats. They have been in control ever since.

Now Bill Blakley seeks his first elective term in the U. S. Senate. A vote for Blakley is a vote for sound, Democratic government.

All Is Not Roses In Ford Onion Deal

Onions are closing out a weak year in the Farwell area, where Euvon and J. T. Ford and sons are winding up the second attempt to cash in on big-scale vegetable production.

The Fords are openly disappointed about prices they received for their savory product this year, after earlier encouraging reports on the markets evaporated before they could marshal their production and cash in.

"Last year was better than this year," says J. T. rather gloomily. And last year was a "stinker" for most onion growers on the Plains, who lost money on their efforts. The Fords, who have a big volume, fared better than most growers in 1957, though, because of this factor.

There is no onion processing shed in the Farwell area, and the Fords have been moving their onions through the Jack Griffin facilities in Hereford. They tried a slightly different kink this year, however, to bring at least a part of their processing worries closer to home.

They leased a grader and set it up at a barn near the farms, and so graded out and sacked their onions, ready for shipment on the spot. The selling was still done from Hereford through Griffin, and the bags bore the Griffin imprint.

Although the market was down, the demand for the Ford onions held good, and sales were made nation-wide. Large trucks loaded at the Ford barn and rolled out to points from New York to Florida on the East Coast, and many locations in the Midwest and Southwest.

About 25 truck loads were moved out, representing the produce of 80 acres of onions. Another way to look at it is to consider that the crop made between 17,000 and 18,000 50-pound bags of graded onions. These sold mostly at prices ranging from $1.25 to $1.75 a bag—too cheap for the farmers who grew them.

These prices were especially painful in view of the tonnage, which was down drastically from that realized last year. Yield has been about 300 sacks per acre this year. Last year, the yield was often three times that, and so volume went a long way toward making up prices a year ago.

There were two reasons why the yield was off so much for the Fords this year. The first, and most important, was the poor quality of "slips" or sets, which were brought from South Central Texas and hand planted. (This poor quality was, in turn, largely a result of bad weather.)

Then, the Fords pushed their harvest work as rapidly as possible to get in on what they hoped would be the best prices of the season. By making their harvest so early they took onions to market that would have put on a lot of additional weight in another week or two.

Whether this strategy was the best or was not is problematical. J. T. says the area men may have been better off to have waited.

As to the financial return left for the farmers, J. T. compares the profits with "a crop of cotton." And, he is quick to add that the money made with onions, if it compares with that of cotton, is certainly not worth the extra trouble and work, not to mention the financial risk, involved in vegetable growing.

A typical breakdown of a truckload sale of the onions would look like this: Here's a load bound for New York. The price is $2.10. That's not too bad, but there's a 70 cents a sack freight involved. That cuts the money back to $1.40 for the farmers at the barn.

But it costs them another 70 cents a sack to process the onions, leaving them a field gross of 70 cents. Take from that the cost of production, and a net profit per sack is reduced to somewhere in the 30-cent range. That profit, times the field yield, is not enough to justify everything the farmer has had to do to produce the onions.

The onions were bought in sets, hand planted, fertilized, watered, weeded, and hand harvested. That all costs money. Production cost alone was about $16,000 for the Fords.

Over all of that, they had no assurance that they could ever sell one onion after all the work and risk had been expended.

Even if onions were selling fairly well, one rejected load could have cost them the profits of all the others, with the margin so narrow.

The Fords have not had any loads returned to them. They feel very fortunate in this respect, but their good fortune is not due just to luck. They produce a dry, well-cured onion that keeps very well—far better than the typical South Texas product.

With last year's onions nothing to exactly cheer about, and the returns for 1958 disappointing, how do the Fords feel about the future?

Even with the poor turn-out of this summer's harvest still fresh on his mind, J. T. still manages to at least think about never happen again. But nearly all agree that 1957 and 1958 have been "misses" for the High Plains onion growers, and that the cycle will swing up again. The big question is when.

Ford says that the county men may make a trade with a processor next year which should help spread the risk. He hopes for a deal where the processor would furnish the land, labor, water, and fertilizer. The processor would share a percent of the profits—not a percent of the gross from sales.

There is already talk that this type of a trade may reduce the risk enough to justify continuing to raise onions year in and year out, even though the weather and the markets are not always cooperative.

Up goes another 50-pound sack of onions, loaded aboard a big semi-truck bound for Oklahoma City. This truckload of vegetables is from the Ford onion deal near Farwell. About 25 such loads were hauled out during the past week.

the new Brillion Plow Packer can save up to $3.00 an acre!

You can now save time, labor, fuel costs and get increased yields by using the new Brillion Plow Packer. This Crowfoot Wheel Plow Packer brings you that much closer to "once over" farming that enables you to save up to $3.00 an acre in labor, time and fuel cost.

It is a well known fact that tillage operations account for two-thirds of the power and labor required to produce field crops. The biggest tillage operation of course is seedbed preparation and this usually includes plowing and then disking, harrowing, dragging and whatever other operations are necessary to get a prepared seedbed. By packing when you plow, you can eliminate many of these field operations because you break up the clods and prevent rapid evaporation.

Blakley Story Is Typically Texan

The typical American story is of the poor boy who made good through his own efforts. This is the story of Bill Blakley, born in a covered wagon while his parents were on their way to homestead in Oklahoma territory. He has come a long way in 59 years. Said the Austin American-Statesman, when William A. Blakley announced for the Senate:

"... He was a top-hand cowboy; he was a crackerjack bank clerk; he was an exceptionally good accountant and lawyer. We have an idea that he is going to be a refreshing, able political candidate. He would make a great United States Senator."

Vote for Bill Blakley on July 26 — an able man whose only ambition is to serve all of Texas.

what lies ahead. He believes that anyone going into vegetables should plan to stay for five years, no matter how thick or how thin times should be as the years go by.

Many vegetable men agree that it takes a minimum of five years to catch one of those "good years" that sooner or later comes along—one of those years when the growers can look back over tough or break-even times and see that the wait was worth it.

The last time this happened for High Plains onion growers was in 1956, when good yields teamed up with best-ever prices, and farmers made from $700 to $1200 per acre profit from their crop. Some men declare this is too good to even hope for, and that it probably will

5 DIE —

The sheriff notified Police Chief Ben Moorman and Highway Patrolman Kenneth Maxwell.

Shortly afterward a group of investigating officers picked their way up and down the railroad right-of-way where pieces of the auto and its victims were scattered for over 100 yards.

The motor was found 100 yards east of the crossing. Only one billfold was found at first and later another was discovered lying in the weeds. From information in these two officers tentatively identified the victims early Sunday morning.

The Ford was traveling south at the time of the accident and apparently drove right into the side of the speeding locomotive.

Train crewmen said they were blowing the whistle and their bell was ringing as they approached the crossing.

The Santos brothers were employed by Noel Wood while De la Paz was reported to have worked for John L. Ray.

Funeral services were still pending for one of the train victims, Juan Montoya Sanchez, Tuesday pending arrangements with the Mexican Customs Service.

Services were in Friona Monday for De la Paz from the San Jose Mission at 2 p.m. with burial in the Friona Cemetery. Services for the Santos brothers were to be in Littlefield Tuesday.
