BY TRAVIS HARRELL
For Parmer County Newspapers

Judge Bills and sentenced to two years in the penitentiary but she was placed on probation for the period.

The "Wheels of Justice" ground out a 40-year sentence to the penitentiary for the admitted murderer of Jesse Dawkins, Bovina, this week.
Trial of Hershel Gene Davis, 36, Bovina, alias George Evans, began Monday morning for the murder of Dawkins, 26, on Dec. 8 with the arraignment of Davis before District Judge E. A. Bills in Farwell. It concluded Tuesday at 5 p. m. when the jury returned after one hour and ten minutes deliberation.
A similar charge of murder which was filed against Nellie Mae Thomas, also of Bovina, was dismissed by Judge Bills following the completion of the Davis trial.
Miss Thomas entered a plea of guilty to the charge of accessory after the fact and waive jury trial. She was tried by

The low murmur of voices stopped as suddenly as if a door had been closed against the noise as Judge Bills entered the packed courtroom at 10:37 Monday morning to begin the task of presiding over the trial of a man for murder.
Before opening the proceedings, the judge called the attorneys to the bench for a short discussion to settle a few minor questions in connection with the case.
Then, as Davis stood with goateed chin lowered, District Attorney Jack Young read the indictment which spelled out the charge of murder with malice. The indictment stated that Davis did "on Dec. 8, 1961. . . with malice and aforethought, shoot and kill Jesse Dawkins with a gun."

Millen States Platform For Representative Race

W. T. "Bill" Millen announced to the Star this week his candidacy for Representative of the 91st District of Texas on the Democratic ticket. Millen was raised in the Muleshoe area, graduated from Clovis High School and has been a Bailey County farmer since 1934. He is active in many local farm organizations and has actively participated in such controversial issues as the defense of the bracer program by the Plains Cotton Growers. He now serves as legislative director of this association and has made several trips to Washington, California, Kansas City and across Texas in this capacity. Millen's statement read: To the people of the 91st District: "I am soliciting your vote for State Representative of the District as I feel that it would be an honor and a privilege to represent the people of this area with the purpose in mind to work for honest, integrity and economy in government. "For many years I have spent much time and money working with various farm groups for a better agricultural climate for our area.

W. T. "Bill" Millen

in much loss of personal time and money.

"To represent you in Austin, would probably again mean financial losses to me, personally. But I feel a dedication to the proposition that we must have men in government that will vote for what is right and good for our country, with the interest of future generations at heart, instead of political expedience to further their own selfish ambitions and moral degeneration--a condition I see so often in our county, state, and national affairs. "Some have asked me what platform I am running on. Standing on the side lines looking on, here are just a few of the things that occur to me: 1. Correction of the irregularities in the new sales tax law. 2. I believe that the Ad-valorem Tax should be abolished or turned over to the towns or commissioners courts. 3. Work for a fair deal for the farmer Irrigation Natural Gas Users. (In which they would have the same privilege as the towns and villages.) 4. A small loan regulation bill. 5. Prohibition of obscene movies, as well as obscene books in our school libraries. 6. Stronger lobbyist regulation. 7. Continued improvement in our public schools and colleges. 8. Adequate legislation and financing to attract industry and tourists to Texas. 9. Defend the recent tax placed on gas pipeline companies. 10. Modify the Auto Insurance Merit Rating to make it more equitable. I will also stand for more states rights and less centralization of government. Bill Millen

"Serving in many capacities in these farm groups has, I feel, qualified me to represent you as a man of the people. Among the area organizations which I have had a part in promoting are: The High Plains Water Conservation District, The High Plains Research Foundation at Halfway, the Plains Cotton Growers, the West Texas Agricultural Employer's Group and I now serve as director of the Plains Cotton Co-operative Association, the South Plains Soil Fertility Committee, and the Bailey County Farm Bureau. Along with others, I have spent much time and money promoting legislation at Austin for the Plains Irrigation Gas Users Association and I am a member of the founders committee of the Cotton Producer's Institute. "My years of experience as a farm leader have seen into being such programs for the good of Bailey County as the Good Neighbor Cotton Seed Program in which irrigation farmers gave cotton seed to dry land farmers who had been hard hit by drought. "I have fought for the farmers on numerous occasions for a better FHA program with lower interest rates and have fought much bad legislation in Austin. "In listing these activities, I hope I have not seemed boastful, it seemed to me in each case that a job needed to be done with few people to take the time to do it. I have accepted these duties, usually resulting

Texico Woman Announces For Curry County Clerk

The Tribune has been authorized to announce the candidacy of Mrs. Aileen Burns of Texico for the office of county clerk of Curry County, subject to the Republican primary May 8. Mrs. Burns was born and reared at Tonkawa, Okla., where she was graduated from Central High School. She attended Oklahoma A & M at Stillwater and became an elementary school teacher. She was married to Army Air Force Lt. Melvin D. Burns. They reside with their three sons on their farm northwest of Texico where they have lived for the past 10 years.

At the time of her announcement, Mrs. Burns made the following statement: "We hear a lot about a two-party system; let's have one and make it work. This office belongs to all the people of Curry County." Mrs. Aileen Burns

Steers Fall, 56-33

Farwell's Steers fell 56-33 to the highly talented White Deer Bucks Saturday in the Class A regional tournament at Lubbock. White Deer finished third in the state championship playoffs last year and earned another trip to the state capitol for the finals by downing Ozona 69-38 in Lubbock Saturday night.

Farwell had to do all its shooting from the outside against White Deer's stiff zone defense while the Bucks' all-stater Carl McClellan and Carroll Russell scored from the inside. Although Leon Lovelace blocked several of McClellan's shots, the tall White Deer lad scored 20 points for the game.

In the first quarter, the Steers were out-scored 16-10, but with four and one-half minutes left in the second period, Farwell had cut the margin to 18-16. Then the Bucks pulled away to a 26-16 halftime lead.

With only a couple of minutes gone in the third quarter White Deer pulled ahead 27-20, then made 13 straight points to lead 40-20. Maurice Smith led the Steer scoring with 10 points. Others scoring were Jerry Childs, 2; Danny Lindop, 2; Errol Johnson, 7; Jerry Lovelace, 4; Max Field, 4; and Leon Lovelace, 4.

Texico Jrs. Plan Play March 9

The junior class of Texico High School is presenting George M. Cohan's play "The Tavern," at the old gymnasium at 8 p. m. (CST) Friday, March 9. Ticket prices are students, 25 cents; adults 50 cents; or the entire family, $1.25.

The play is a comic satire on many of the melodramatic tendencies found in plays written before Cohan's time. The scene is a tavern at about the turn of the century and all the characters, except one, are stock melodramatic figures. The Vagabond is the exception--he is in the action of the play and also comments on it objectively, thus showing Cohan's intended satire.

Cast in the role of the Vagabond is Vic Harrington. Hal Ed Helton is the innkeeper; Lynn Disher is Zach, the tavern keeper's son; Latitia Harrison is Sally the hired girl; James Watts plays the hired man; and Dianne Baldrige plays the part of an escapee from a mental institution.

The governor is played by Willie Stover. Georgina Lambert plays the governor's wife; Carol White plays the governor's daughter, Virginia; and Weldon Walker plays her fiancée. The sheriff and his men are portrayed by James Hudson, Joe Teel, Vernon Thigpen and Buddy Spence. The manager of the mental institution is played by Ernest Meter.

Officers will be elected for the next year at this meeting and a good attendance is urged by John Spearman, president.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

A child's gift is especially sweet. I wish that I could give this little girl something that would mean as much to her as her flowers mean to me. But I know that just now, I can't. For she won't recognize my gift until much, much later.

Then, I hope she'll look back on her memories of me and say, "The first time I ever went to church, I went with my Grandma. You know, I don't think she ever missed a Sunday at church in her life . . ."

Though I have missed a Sunday now and then when I was sick, or had to stay home with my young ones, I never have missed going to church if there were a way to get there. And this habit—a wonderful habit—is something that I've passed along to my son, and that I've seen him pass along to his daughter.

This is a priceless heritage. For having a regular place for the Church in one's life, from childhood on, gives one a faith that endures forever.

ATTEND AN AREA CHURCH THIS SUNDAY!

MEDALS MARK 4-H PROGRESS FOR MANY

Scholarships Aid Outstanding Youth

One 4-H Club member in 14 will qualify for a county medal this year, predicts the National 4-H Service Committee, while the ratio for national scholarship winners will be one in approximately 10,000 members.

The coveted medals shown here represent 12 different 4-H award projects. More than 50,000 boys and girls in virtually every county in the U. S. who have done outstanding work in one of these areas will earn a medal, according to the committee.

Altogether, there are nearly 60 national 4-H projects and scholarship programs participated in by 2.3 million club members. Last year a total of 166,000 medals were won.

Only members over 15 years of age who have been in 4-H at least three years can compete for scholarships and other awards. Younger 4-H'ers are eligible for medals only, one of the first badges of county recognition.

At the national level, around $115,000 in scholarships will be presented to qualified 4-H youth and young adults who were former 4-H'ers. This is a slight increase over last year, the committee reports.

All 4-H award winners are named by the Cooperative Extension Service. Funds for awards come from private business firms and educational foundations.

Amarillo Firm Gets Contract

A. R. Watson, president of Southwestern Public Service Company, has announced that the Missouri Valley Constructors, Inc., of Amarillo, has been awarded the contract to build a 210,000 kilowatt turbine-generator unit at the company's Plant X, located 7 miles north of Amherst.

Construction will begin this week, with completion scheduled for June 1964.

The new unit, manufactured by the General Electric Company, is the largest single turbine-generator ever installed in the area served by Southwestern Public Service Company.

In making the announcement, Watson stated that the new addition represents an investment of $15,000,000 and is dramatic evidence that this region continues to be one of the fastest growing sections of the country.

This will be the fourth generating unit at Plant X, and will bring the capability up to 487, 500 kilowatts, and the total for all 12 of Southwestern's plants, to more than 1,200,000 kilowatts.

The electrical construction will be handled by Service Electric Company, Carlsbad.

Gets 40 Years -

"Are you familiar with the suspended sentence law in Texas," Wayne Bagley, defense attorney, asks prospective juror Kirt Crume, "No-oo, I don't suppose I am," Crume replied.

"Yes, this is the rifle. Here is my mark," W. E. "Razz" Renfro, Texas Ranger, states as District Attorney Jack Young looks on. Davis, the defendant, sits hunched forward in his chair in the foreground.

"I doan know if he was like that, Hershel Gene Davis, defendant, replied when the District Attorney showed him pictures of the body in the pickup and asked if they showed the body

Fidgeting slightly from side to side, Davis entered a plea of guilty to the charge as read. The judge then asked the standard questions to determine if force, fraud, promises of pardon or parole or suspended sentence or threats had been used to persuade him to plead guilty.

"No, sir," was the reply. "Then you are just pleading guilty because you are guilty. Is that right?" the judge asked.

"Yes sir," came the answer. The judge then admonished Davis the penalty for the crime with which he was charged was not less than two years imprisonment in the state penitentiary, or life imprisonment, or any number of years in between, or possibly, a death sentence.

"Knowing this, do you still plead guilty?" the judge asked. "Yessir, I'm guilty, your honor," Davis replied, staring at the judge, then dropping his eyes to the floor where he scuffed the toe of the tan house-shoe on his right foot.

But under Texas law, punishment must be prescribed by a jury, in cases where the death penalty is warranted, even though the defendant submits a guilty plea.

The judge excused the venire from the courtroom while individual jurors were examined and approved by the attorneys. Just as the first prospective juror was called, the presence of a group of students from Farwell High School was brought to Judge Bills' attention. He asked them to stand and be recognized. Approximately 72 students were present.

Each juror was asked if he knew the defendant or his counsel -- along with several other questions--by the district attorney. In turn, the defense attorney, Wayne Bagley, attempted to determine if the juror agreed with the suspended sentence law in Texas which provides that a jury may recommend suspended sentences in cases where five years imprisonment or less is assessed.

Of the first 17 men called, three were excused. No women were called for the jury. Within two hours, twelve men had been selected and at 1:10 p. m. Monday, the court was adjourned until 2:30 for lunch.

Members of the jury were Grady King, Kirt Crume, La-Von Jones, Don Gertes, M. A. Snider, Ovid Lawlis, Conrad Nelson, Ernest Kube, J. J. McDonald, Bob Hammonds, Weldon Slayton and James W. Patrick.

When court convened, Judge Bills told the jury that it was up to them to decide the amount of punishment to be assessed to Davis.

"Since he has entered a guilty plea, your sole duty will be to determine, from the evidence presented, what punishment is to be assessed," Judge Bills told the jury.

The district attorney again read the indictment and Davis again entered a guilty plea.

Ottis Foster, New Mexico State Foreman, was first called to witness stand. He testified that he was called on Dec. 8 to the scene where a pickup containing a body was found. He identified six pictures as being taken of the scene and body. He stated that the bullet hole was not discovered in the body until it was undressed at the mortuary.

Sheriff Charles Lovelace was notified of the discovery because the pickup bore Parmer County license plates, according to Foster. The pickup belonged to Paul Hall, Dawkins' employer.

Young attempted to enter three pictures showing the body in the pickup as exhibits four times but the judge sustained an objection by defense on grounds that the only purpose of the pictures would be to inflame the minds of the jury.

Dr. I. D. Worrell, Clovis, testified that he took the pictures of the scene and identified the photographs.

Next on the witness stand was Dr. R. T. Spencer, Clovis, who stated that in his opinion, the cause of death was a bullet wound through the heart.

He said that the bullet entered to the right of the spine and just below the shoulder blade and came to a halt about one quarter of an inch beneath the skin of the chest after passing through the heart--although he did not open the body to trace the path of the projectile.

He testified that death would be almost immediate from such a wound. Although he could not be positive, he estimated that Dawkins had been dead about 10 or 12 hours before he examined the body. The cold weather could have kept the body from deteriorating for as much as 24 hours.

Spencer said that no other bruises were found on the head to indicate that the man had been knocked unconscious.

Lovelace stated that he knew Dawkins for about four years before identifying the body in the mortuary in Clovis after he was called. He said that he found the murder weapon between the panels of the wall in the Davis apartment.

W. E. "Razz" Renfro, Texas Ranger, identified the rifle as the murder weapon referred to in the statement of confession previously given to the sheriff by Davis. He also supported the sheriff's statement that he warned Davis that anything which he said would be used against him and that he didn't have to say anything.

From testimony of Dave Dawkins, Jesse's brother; Nellie Mae Thomas, convicted accessory after the fact; and Davis the chain of events surrounding the murder can be pieced together into one story.

Davis' wife, Lillian, entered the Harlem Cafe, which was operated by Davis, on the night of Dec. 8 and did not like what she discovered. She and Davis began quarreling and she pulled a small pistol and shot at Davis. But she missed. He then began "whipping her" and continued to beat her until she "needed a doctor."

She got loose and ran outside and he ran after her, but they both fell and she got away.

Davis then went to his home and got the rifle and went to Dave Dawkins' house (whose wife is the sister of Mrs. Davis) and searched the house for Lillian. He was told that they didn't know where she was but that she was with Jesse a short time before. (Actually, she was on the way to the hospital in Friona.)

"... And knowing this, do you still plead guilty? questioned Judge E. A. Bills. "Yessir, I'm guilty," Hershel Gene Davis replied.

Davis returned to town and stopped at the cafe. He shouted at Jesse and asked where his wife was. Dawkins replied that he didn't know. Davis called him a liar and fired a shot. Two witnesses said that he fired at Jesse but Davis testified that he just shot in that direction.

Dave Dawkins and another witness, Abraham Young, were sitting in a nearby car when the shot was fired.

Jesse ran around the building and got away. Davis told Lillie Mae Thomas, a waitress, to close the cafe. He then took her home. A short time later, he came back and got her and drove around. He saw the pickup being driven by Jesse and started after it. About two miles north of Bovina, he overtook Jesse.

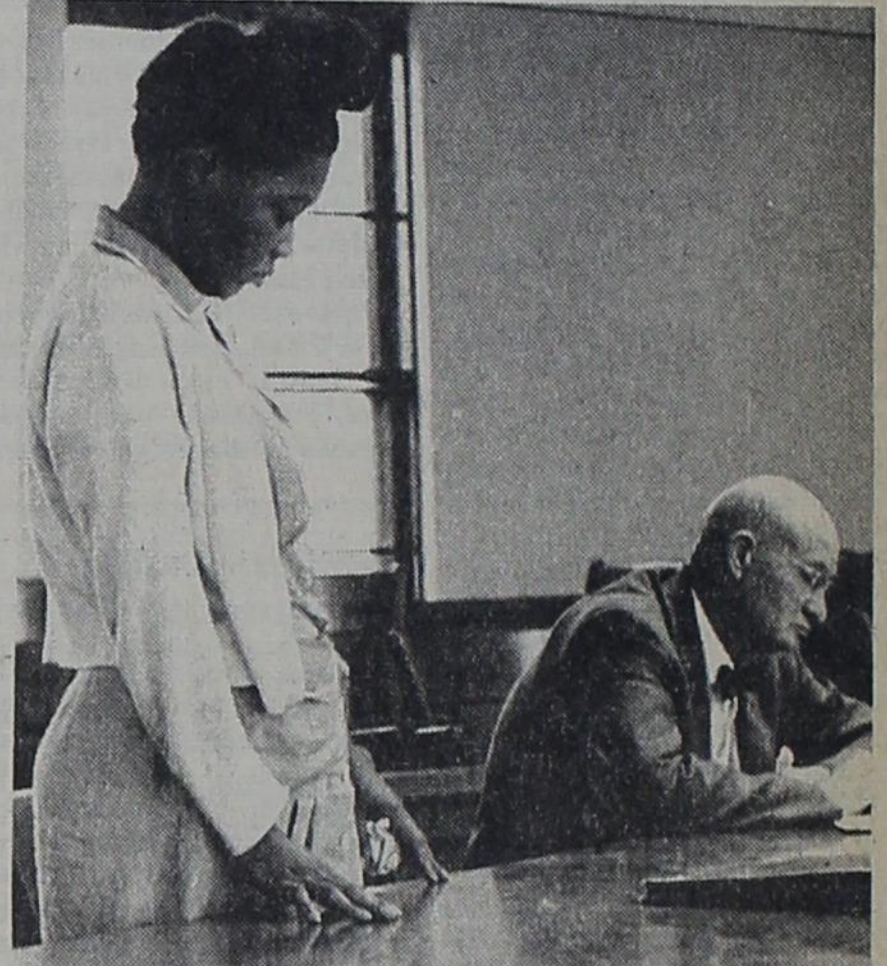

When Davis -- with Miss Thomas in the car with him-- stopped, Jesse was supposed to have been at the back of the pickup. According to Miss Thomas, he raised his hands in the air when Davis got out of the car with the rifle. Davis said he had his hands in his pockets.

Davis and Dawkins argued for a minute and then Dawkins "whirled" and Davis shot. According to Davis' written statement, he knew that he had hit Dawkins with the bullet. In his verbal testimony on the stand, he didn't know if he hit Dawkins.

Dawkins fell forward near the back of the pickup and Davis got back into his car and drove back toward Bovina. According to Davis, Miss Thomas said that she thought he (Dawkins) was going on because she could see the taillights of the pickup.

Davis took her to her house and a short time later, after talking to Deputy Sheriff Minter and not mentioning shooting, he returned for her. The couple returned to the scene and she helped him load Dawkins' body in the pickup.

She followed in the car while Davis drove the pickup to Clovis by way of Pleasant Hill. During the ride, the body was on the floorboard of the pickup, face down. Davis said that he had intended to get Dawkins to the hospital and didn't know that he was dead until after arriving in Clovis.

The district attorney accused him of knowing Dawkins was dead because he placed him face down on the floorboard of the pickup and drove the long way to Clovis over rough roads.

The pair left the pickup in Clovis and returned to Bovina in Davis' car. Davis was taken into custody by Parmer County officers on Dec. 9. Nellie Mae Thomas was later apprehended in Roswell.

On the basis of this evidence --brought out in detail--the jury deliberated 70 minutes and returned with the recommendation of a 40-year prison sentence. Immediately after the courtroom was cleared, Judge Bills called for the case against Lillie Mae Thomas. The murder charge against her was dropped in view of the testimony by her and Davis in the Davis trial. On the second charge of accessory after the fact, jury trial was waived and testimony from the Davis case was permitted to bear on the case. Within 30 minutes -- after short statements from Sheriff Lovelace and Miss Thomas--she was given a minimum sentence of two years in the state penitentiary. In view of her "cooperation with officials in the Davis case" and other supporting circumstances, the judge placed her on probation for the period.

"And he shot him in the back with his hands in the air," thundered District Attorney Young, demonstrating the position of Jesse Dawkins when he was shot, as he presented his arguments for the jury.

Stock Show Plans Near Completion

Small Rule Changes Made By Committee

The main topic of conversation among the junior livestock growers is the Farmer County Junior Livestock Show scheduled for March 8-10. FFA and 4-H members will begin arriving at the Friona bus barn March 8 with their barrows and sheep to open the show. An ever increasing number of boys are registering their stock with County Agent Deryl Coker and vocational agriculture teachers for the largest county show.

Entry fees for the show have been set at one dollar each for barrows and lambs and two dollars each for steers. No individual will be allowed to enter more than one steer or a combination of three animals with a limit of two each in barrow and lamb divisions.

Entries must be approved by either the county agent or an agriculture instructor, according to Bill Nichols, show superintendent, before they will be accepted by the show committee.

Division superintendents are M. C. Osborn, cattle; Doyle Cummings and Otho Whitefield, sheep; Jack Fulgham and Keith Brock, Barrows.

A large tent will be erected to house the sheep show, according to Nichols.

Hay may be purchased from the Lions Club at the show for fifty cents per bale, or entrants may bring their own hay. The hay will not be provided free as has been the practice in the past. The change was initiated to prevent the excess waste common in the past.

A nightwatchman will be provided by the Friona Lions Club for the entire show. No showman will be allowed to remain in the barn past the 10 p.m. curfew, according to Nichols.

Showmanship awards will be presented to the best showman in each of the three divisions in addition to the ribbons awarded according to placement. No cash prizes will be given.

Sheep and barrows will be judged March 8 and 9. Steers will be received in the afternoon of March 9 and judged in the morning of March 10. The sale will be conducted in the afternoon of March 10. Tentative plans are to sell the top ten steers in each of the four divisions, divided equally by weight, and 60 barrows and 30 lambs.

Bill Flippin and Jack Howell will serve as auctioneers for the sale.

The show is sponsored by the Friona Lions Club. Approximately 70 steers, 40 sheep and 130 barrows are anticipated for the show.

The time of the show was set to coincide with the public schools week in an effort to prevent students from missing school unnecessarily, according to Nichols.

Charles M. Smallwood, professor and head of the Agriculture Department at West Texas State College, will judge the events. He received his B. S. degree in Animal Husbandry from Oklahoma State University in 1949 and his M. S. from Texas A&M College in 1950. He is currently working toward a PH.D. at Texas A&M.

Smallwood was formerly head of the Animal Husbandry Department at Murray State Agriculture College, Tishomingo, Okla., where he assisted in establishing the first Double Registered Bull Test in the United States.

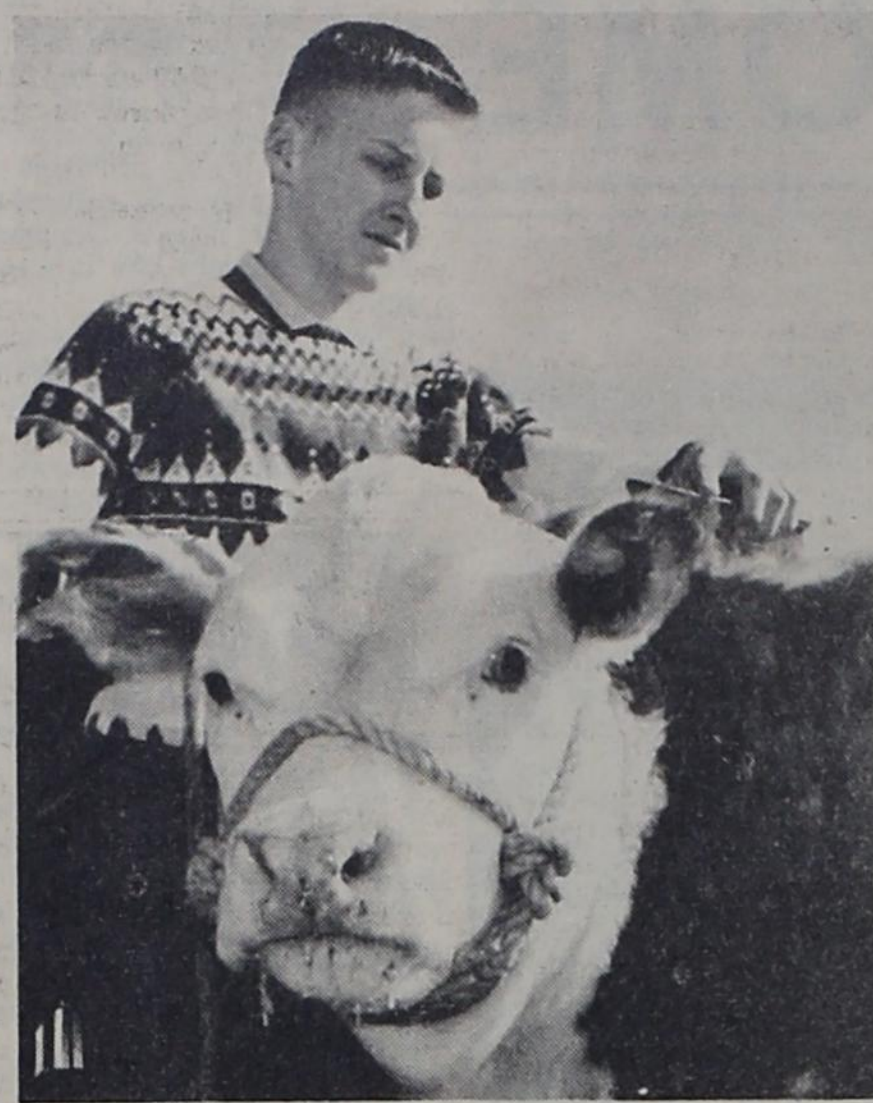

Professor Smallwood coaches the WT livestock judging teams. His teams have won several state, regional, and national contests in the past three years.

New Insurance Program on Cotton

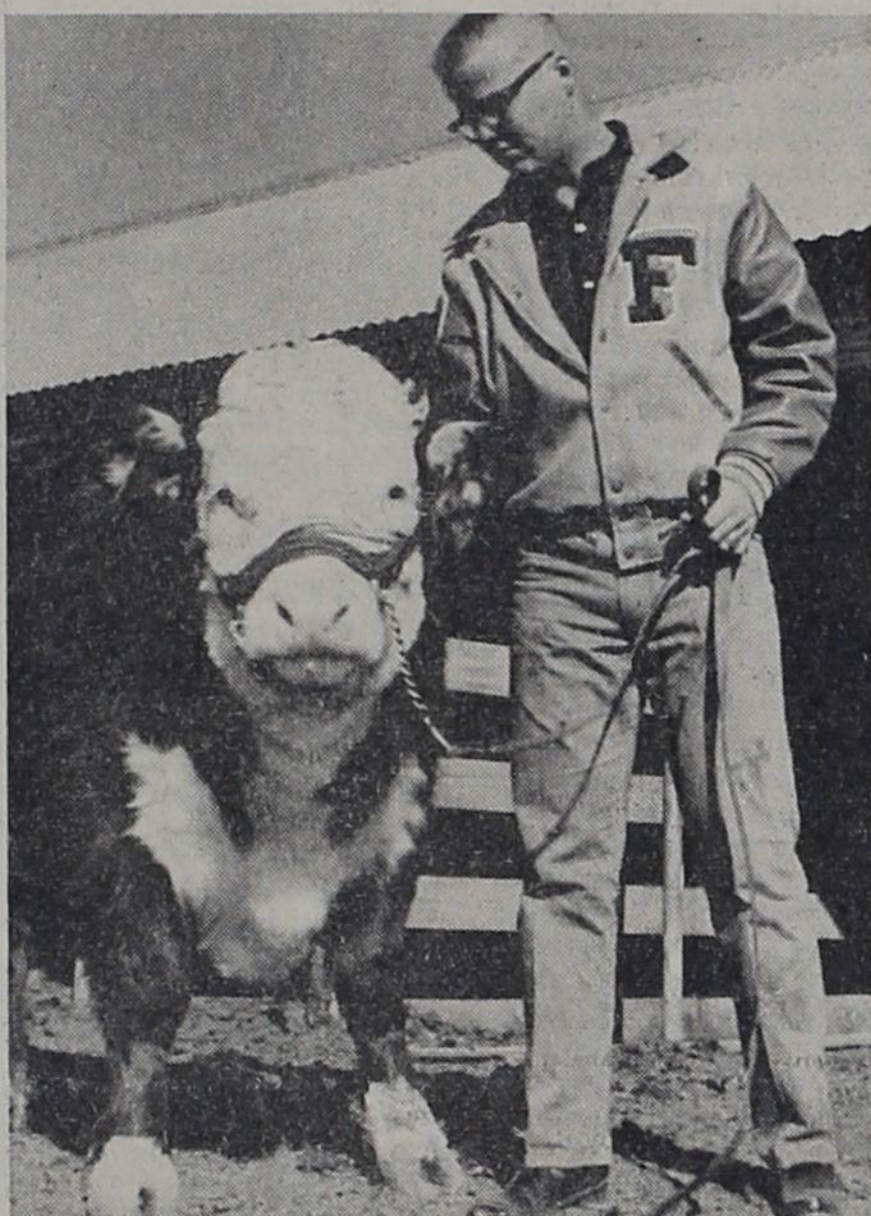

Federal crop insurance in 1962 will offer an improved cotton insurance program to both dryland and irrigated growers in Texas and New Mexico, according to Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman. For the first time a new irrigated grain sorghum insurance plan will be offered in several High Plains counties. Other expansions have been made in federal crop insurance, and still more are expected in the near future, says Secretary Freeman.

Glen Herring works with his 650 pound Hereford calf which he has entered in the Farmer County Junior Livestock Show March 8-10.

Tim Herring, Friona 4-H member, brushes up his six-month-old, 800 pound calf in preparation for the county show in Friona.

Danny Black gets his 920 pound Hereford ready for the stiff competition at the stock show in Friona next week. The 10-month-old calf will be pitted against some 70 steers in the largest county show.

SCD Work Broadened

Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman has announced the updating and broadening of the agreement which provides the official basis for cooperation between the USDA and local soil conservation districts.

According to the announcement, the USDA is now ready to enter into this revised agreement which will offer help to districts "in conserving and improving soil, water, vegetation, wildlife and related sources, and in reducing damage by flood and sedimentation."

The new memorandum will be used with all newly formed districts. Agreements with existing districts will be re-negotiated using the new document as rapidly as they wish to do so, the Secretary said. Updating USDA's assistance to districts comes on the 25th anniversary of the district movement. In Texas, 182 soil conservation districts, including 98 percent of the state's privately owned agricultural and forestry land, have entered into agreements with USDA for help in conserving soil and water resources, says Lynn Pittard, extension soil and water conservation specialist.

Secretary Freeman made the first public announcement of the revised memorandum of understanding in an address before the annual convention of the National Association of Soil Conservation Districts, held recently in Philadelphia.

The Bexar County Medical Examiner reported officially last year that 85% of all traffic victims in that county had been drinking.

Grain Bins Make Bad Playgrounds

It is just as dangerous for children to play in bins of shelled corn as it is for them to wade in a swirling, swift-moving river according to a Farm Quarterly report on a safety warning given by Dr. N. J. Wardle, associate professor of agricultural engineering at Iowa State University.

"A cornbin presents the same undertow and dangerous pockets that cause so many drownings," Dr. Wardle says. "When corn is being removed from a bin a suction develops which can mean certain suffocation for youngsters and is also capable of burying a man. After a portion of the grain has been removed, a pocket sometimes forms in the bottom of the bin and, although the top layers look solid, a misstep can trigger a slide that will put its victim to the bottom and pile tons of corn on top of him."

If you must get in a full grain bin, tie a rope around your waist and be sure to have someone on the other end of it strong enough to pull you out.

County Meet Aimed At 4 Vital Topics

Many questions pertaining to fertilizer, irrigation levels, grass production or cost and returns in crop production, will be answered at a county meeting of farmers in Hub Community Center Friday at 2 p.m., according to County Agent Deryl Coker.

Coker has scheduled four major speakers for the county-wide meeting and has asked that area farmers make a special effort to attend.

Bill Gunter will discuss rates and placement of fertilizer on cotton and grain sorghum; time of applying fertilizer on cotton and grain sorghum; and fertilizer carry-over. Dave Sherill will follow with a discourse on irrigation level's effect on fertilizer rates and times of irrigation on cotton and grain sorghum.

Jim Murphrey is scheduled to discuss cost and returns in crop production and will be followed by George Warner with a discussion of a subject which is gaining attention in the county with every passing day--grass production.

"This program is for the benefit of county farmers and I hope to see every seat filled at the center Friday," Coker said.

Amarillo Hearing Scheduled On Potato Marketing Orders

Farmer County potato growers may be faced with marketing orders this year.

A hearing on a proposed national marketing agreement and order for potatoes has been called by the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

Chemicals Give Control Over Sorghum Midge

During the past year, tests were conducted by the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station to find a practical chemical control for the sorghum midge. Since grain sorghum planted early in the season usually does not become infested with sorghum midge, the plants used in the tests were planted during the late season.

Paper bags were used to cover the terminal of each plant one day before the heads emerged to regulate midge-laying activities. Bags were removed for 24 hours from 10 plants for 10 consecutive days to expose each head to midge oviposition. It was determined that egg laying by midge occurs most frequently on the third day following head emergence. By the end of the fourth day after emergence, approximately 90 percent of the egg laying is complete.

From this information, it was determined that insecticides should be applied to sorghum heads 1 to 4 days after emergence. In the tests, plants that were treated soon after emergence showed much greater yields than those treated when the heads were in the partial bloom or full bloom stage.

Several insecticides were tested, and most gave good results. Of those tested, however, only Dibrom, endrin and toxaphene have been approved for use on grain sorghum.

Complete results of these tests are contained in Experiment Station publication PR-2206, "Control of the Sorghum Midge on Grain Sorghum." A copy of this publication may be obtained from the Agricultural Information Office, College Station, Texas. Ask for it by name and number.

Amarillo has been selected as one of the seven cities where a hearing will be held. It is scheduled April 6 and 7 at the Amarillo Municipal Auditorium, 5th and Buchanan Streets.

First session of the hearing will be held March 12-17, 1962 in the New Commodore Hotel, 42nd Street and Lexington Avenue, New York, N. Y.

The national program was proposed and approved by the National Potato Advisory Committee at January and February meetings in Washington. The Advisory Committee was called by Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman at the request of industry representatives to study marketing problems facing the potato industry and to recommend plans for market stabilization. The national marketing order was one of its proposals.

The program would include all Irish potatoes grown in the 48 contiguous states. Recommendations would be made by the National Potato Administrative Board, initially composed of 46 members, representing season producing groups, processing, chipping, and shipping interests within the industry. Each seasonal group, processors, chippers and shippers would be represented by a seasonal or special committee which would make recommendations to the Board regarding its group or segment of the industry.

The program would authorize grade, size, quality, maturity, pack, container and labeling requirements for potato shipments. It would also include authority which would limit amounts which handlers may purchase from or handle on behalf of producers.

Allotments would be based upon the amounts purchased from or handled on behalf of producers in the two highest years in the base period 1959, 1960, and 1961. Subsequent to 1962 the base period would be the average of the highest two of the three years immediately preceding the year for which volume regulation is contemplated, excluding 1962 from each base period.

The order would include a marketing policy establishing national cull regulations for fresh market and food processing. The cull regulations would be in effect at all times but could be modified, suspended, or terminated upon recommendation of the Board.

Inspection or other forms of evidence may be required on shipments when they are regulated.

If sufficient evidence is presented at the hearing to provide a basis for a program, and if the Secretary of Agriculture approves, the proposed order will be submitted to a referendum among growers in the production area.

March Plentifuls Can Give Meals Spring-Like Touch

Fresh eggs and milk can give March meals that sprightly, spring-like touch, suggests the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Both are on the U. S. Department of Agriculture's list of plentiful foods for this breezy month. Also among the plentifuls are potatoes, peanuts and peanut products, and dry beans.

Eggs are the March feature. That's because spring production is increasing and farm prices have been running 20 percent lower than both last year and the 1947-49 average. For economy, nutrition and good eating, you'll do well to serve eggs often. Besides, March is both Egg Month and Better Breakfast Month.

The whole array of dairy foods will be plentiful, as milk production begins zooming to a springtime peak. Use plenty of whole milk, evaporated milk, skim milk, dry milk, half-and-half, cream, butter, buttermilk and all the many different cheeses available in abundance. Even though milk cows on farms are the fewest since 1909, production per cow has increased 30 percent in the last decade to provide an ample supply of milk for all.

Plentiful potatoes also come in numerous styles -- fresh, canned, instant, dehydrated, frozen, chips and in processed combinations with other foods.

Peanuts, raw and roasted, remain in excellent supply. USDA says more of last year's crop found its way into peanut butter, peanut candy and salted peanuts. Especially plentiful among economical, nutritious dry beans, pinto and red kidney beans, and black-eyed peas.

HD Agent's Notes

BY MISS ETTIE MUSIL

Have you ever wondered how well-dressed you were? Good grooming is something to think about while dressing. After you have dressed, forget about how you are dressed.

A well-groomed person meets people much more easily and associates with them more pleasantly. He or she thinks more about what is taking place around him or her friends, rather than wondering and worrying how he or she looks.

To help you know when you are well dressed use Rule of Fourteen to check yourself. Everything you wear that is visible to others should add up to a total of not more than 14 points. Now check yourself how well dressed you are.

Dress in one piece counts 1 point, a suit 2 points, buttons 1 or 2 depending how decorative they are, hat 1 point, veil 1, flower 1, each different color 1, hose 1, dark heels 1, shoes 1, bows 1, buckles 1, straps 1, purse 1, trim on purse 1, gloves jewelry pieces 1, scarf 1, coat or wrap 1.

The basic one-piece dress would count one. A figured or plaid would count up to five, depending on the number of predominant colors. A basic frame of hat is 1 point, a feather or flower would count 1, so would a veil. Each different color adds a count to a hat.

If you like fancy hats then you should choose very simple suits or dresses. Two earrings counts one. Two hose are one as are plain shoes. The trim and style of shoes adds a count. The combination of engagement and wedding rings count 1 point.

After you have used this rule for a few times, you will become skilled in varying your accessories. But don't fall too far under the count of fourteen or you may appear under-accessorized. Count 12 to 14 for smartness.

Is chicken your family's favorite meat? Yes, nothing quite like fried chicken for Sunday dinner. Here's an opportunity for you to enter the National Chicken Cooking Contest. The contest in Texas is sponsored by the Texas Broiler Council.

If you would like to enter your favorite chicken recipe in the contest, here's what you'll need to do. First of all, you can get an entry blank and a copy of the contest rules by writing to Texas Broiler Council, Stephenville, Texas.

The lady winning the recipe contest in Texas will get an all expense paid trip to the national finals contest in Harrington, Delaware, June 14 to 16. Oh, wouldn't this be exciting! You have just as good a chance to win as anyone else. Everyone who ever won a contest usually commented, "I don't have a chance, but think I'll try just the same."

Don't overlook your family's clothing when you are checking your home for accident hazards. Shoes rate high as causes for accidents. Broken-down counters on shoes or too-high heels often cause falls or sprained ankles.

For safety's sake, shoes should be well-fitted and carefully repaired. Children's shoes, especially should be watched closely for needed repairs and changes in sizes. Slippery finishes on the soles of new shoes are often hazardous. Rub the shoe sole with light sandpaper. If you do not have sandpaper you can just rub it over some sand to prevent slipping.

Beside shoes, ripped hemlines are another safety hazard. So are large pockets or other trims on garments that are not stitched on securely. Four-H Club members in Texas and the nation will observe National 4-H Club Week, March 3 - 10. We are proud of our 178 4-H club members in Farmer County.

Questions concerning the application of the State Sales Tax to agricultural production goods are still numerous, reports C. H. Bates, extension farm management specialist. He says some time will be required for the State Comptroller to issue rulings covering the multitude of individual items where "gray" areas exist in the statute's meaning.

When properly handled and cooked, venison provides a real taste treat, says Ed Cooper, extension wildlife specialist. The deer should be dressed immediately after it is killed and protected from contamination until placed in storage.

Memories of Congress Fresh in Minds

Eight ambitious Texas teenagers who swept to state and national awards in their 4-H Club projects in 1961 will try to encompass the 4-H motto of "making the best better" in their club work in 1962.

Memories of the exciting time they had during their all-expense paid trips to the 40th National 4-H Club Congress in Chicago are still fresh in their minds.

They went sightseeing, attended banquets and a pop concert, saw comedian Danny Thomas, and met other 4-H'ers from every state in the nation and Puerto Rico.

Miss Garrison G. Cooley

R. Keith T. Neumann

One of them, Carolyn Garrison, 18, of Silverta, came home with a $400 college scholarship given to her by the Allis-Chalmers Manufacturing Co., Farm Equipment Division, as one of eight national garden winners.

The other seven are Gary Cooley, 17, of Lyford; Dickie Rychetsky, 17, of Robstown; Novalene Imler, 16, of Conroe; Ronald Keith, 19, of Cleburne; Ted Neumann, 18, of Waco, and Dick Plank and Caroline Brumley, both 16, and both from Hereford.

There was also time for window shopping on Chicago's famed State Street and gazing up at the city's skyscrapers. Sightseeing stops included the exciting Museum of Science and Industry overlooking Lake Michigan.

The eight were among the 31 member Texas delegation that attended the big 4-H meeting in the Conrad Hilton, world's largest hotel and the congress headquarters. Altogether the state had four national winners at congress, held the last week in November.

The Texans attended a concert in Orchestra Hall, conducted by Arthur Fiedler, that featured two 4-H soloists, and danced at three elaborate parties given in their honor.

They received the all-expense Chicago trips as awards for being named the state's top winners in their projects.

Cooley, the beef award winner, was the guest of E. I. du Pont de Nemours & Company Inc. Rychetsky, the safety award winner, had his trip donated by the General Motors Corporation.

NEWS FROM THE FARM BUREAU

BY RAYMOND EULER

The third annual Oklahoma Citizenship Seminar for High School Students will be held on the campus of Oklahoma Christian College, Oklahoma City July 9 through 13 this year. If enough interest is shown we believe directors of this country may find a way to send from one to four students. We hope it develops that way, anyhow. Primary qualifications for candidates to attend are: Character Scholarship, Leadership ability and Public Speaking Ability.

Nominations would be made by the school administrators. We believe this would be one of the most interesting and profitable five days a high school student could spend anywhere. We will announce soon whether this county Farm Bureau will participate in the sponsorship of some students for the seminar. If it does, it will have to begin soon, because applications are accepted on a first come first served basis. Either boys or girls who qualify can be accepted if they meet the general qualifications mentioned above.

Four hundred and seventy five of the nation's 487 Production Credit Associations are now completely farmer-owned. There is only $475,000 of government owned stock in the other twelve associations. We remember several years ago when Farm Bureau was asked to help sever government interest in these associations why they became self sustaining. They had asked and got government aid in beginning, but they wanted their independence as soon as they could operate without that aid. They have done exceedingly well.

Regarding the administration backed farm labor recruitment bill, Farm Bureau told the subcommittee that the basic concept that the federal government should perform the functions of a crew leader and labor contractor, and engage in writing labor-management contracts is wrong.

Mrs. Davis will appreciate your sending your dues in immediately upon billing because it will save her and other workers time, and your Farm Bureau money which can be put to use in serving you better.

FOOTSAVING EDUCATION

by James E. Edwards

Not all children's feet have the same amount of "yield" on weightbearing.

In fact, there's considerable differences in change of foot size and shape on weight-bearing or activity among children. For example, some feet are naturally more rigid or less yielding; others are very elastic - and some are extremely so (the latter are called "flaccid" feet). In two children of the same foot size at rest, both may show a half size increase in length on weightbearing . . . but one will show a greater spread at ball and heel. There are many such variations or differences, such as at waist or instep or arch, or even the breadth span of the toes. (Cont.)

The HAPPY HOMEMAKER

BY JUNE FLOYD

Some homemakers refrain from growing houseplants because of the inconvenience of keeping them watered properly during vacation time and other times when no one is at home. This problem can be solved for long periods of time by purchase of a newly developed device, which is on the market at garden supply houses.

These automatic plant waterers are made in shapes of animals. Bodies of the animals are hollow and have small tapered stems, which are inserted in the soil, are also hollow. All you need do is fill the animals with water and the seepage will take care of your plants for you while you are away.

Another new gadget that every automobile owner should own is a magnetic secret key case. These cases have built in lifetime magnets and hold up to three extra keys.

An extra key slipped into such a case can be hid under the hood of your car and you need never worry about locking the key inside the automobile. Such a gadget can also be used for extra house keys.

Then there are magnetic hooks, which attach themselves instantly to anything made of steel, metal cabinets, stoves, autos or refrigerators. You may use them to hang cups, bottle openers, pot holders, tools or anything you want at your fingertips without any hole drilling you may move or remove them at your will.

Our apologies this week go to everyone who experimented with the recipe for Lemon Chess Pie that ran in last week's Happy Homemaker column. 1 1/2 cups of sugar should be added to the list of ingredients.

Most homemakers have made a lot of angel food cakes, but did you ever make an angel food pie? If not, you will probably want to try the following recipes.

Angel Food Pie
4 egg whites

3/4 cup sugar
1 1/2 teaspoons vanilla
1 cup heavy cream
1/2 cup nuts, ground
Beat egg whites very stiff; add 1/2 cup sugar and 1 teaspoonful vanilla. Pour into Graham cracker crust and bake in preheated 300 degree oven 30 minutes. Cool.
Combine 1/4 cup sugar, nuts, whipped cream and remaining vanilla; pour on top of cooked mixture, then refrigerate.

Angel Chocolate Chiffon Pie
2 egg whites
1/8 teaspoon salt
1/8 teaspoon cream of tartar
1/2 cup sifted sugar
1/2 cup pecan pieces
1/2 teaspoon vanilla
Beat egg whites, salt and cream of tartar until soft peaks form; add sugar and beat until stiff. Fold in chopped pecans.

Spread meringue mixture in and around the rim 1/2 inch of a greased 9 inch pan to form the crust. Bake at 300 degrees for 1 1/2 hours. Cool.
2 tablespoons sugar
6 oz. semi-sweet chocolate drops
3 tablespoons milk
4 eggs, separated
Melt sugar, drops and milk. Stir and cool. Add yolks, 1 at a time, and beat well after each addition. Fold into stiffly beaten egg whites. Pour into meringue shell and chill. Top with whipped cream slightly sweetened with powdered sugar.

Fishermen Warned To Buy Licenses

Spring weather has kindled the urge to fish, and fishermen are reminded that a fishing license is required in most instances, according to J. B. Phillips, coordinator of law enforcement for the Game and Fish Commission.

This applies to both resident and non-resident fishermen, fishing in fresh water or salt water, except for persons fishing within their own county with an ordinary pole and line, or persons under 17 or over 65. Persons fishing within their own county with any type of winding device are required to buy licenses, also.

The Texas license fee, at $2.15, offers an inducement to non-residents, because it is the only fishing license in any state available to non-residents at the same price as to residents. All other states charge additional fees for non-residents.

Existing commercial bay-bait shrimp boat licenses will expire March 1, and a new license covering the boat and trawl must be obtained by that time. New licenses will be effective March 1, and any person commercially taking shrimp for bait in bays must have the license, and it must be bought before the expiration date, March 1. The license costs $30.00 and is good for one year.

Scholarships Offered For Good Road Essay

The Texas Good Roads Association announced today it will sponsor a $400 Scholarship Essay Contest for senior students in Texas high schools as part of the observance of National Highway Week (May 20-26).

Callan Graham of Austin, executive vice president of the association, said the contest will "encourage more wide spread understanding of the benefits of better highways to our state" and will reward winning students with the following prizes:

First place -- a $250 scholarship to the college or university of the student's choice, plus an expense paid trip to Austin for the student and parent or guardian to receive the reward.

Second place -- a $100 scholarship.
Third place -- $50 scholarship.

Funds for the three winning scholarships have been set aside in an Austin bank. Honorable Mention certificates will also be awarded to worthy essays.

The contest is limited to seniors in Texas high schools. Entrants must use the title, "What Better Highways Mean to My Community," and limit the essay to 500 words or less. Entries must be mailed by April 30 to the Texas Good Roads Association, Suite One, Perry-Brooks Building Austin, Texas. The essays will be judged by a committee consisting of Graham; Dr. DeWitt Reddick, director of the School of Journalism at The University of Texas; and D. C. Greer, State Highway Engineer. Winners will be announced before or during National Highway Week in May.

Graham said information on the contest is being forwarded to school superintendents and high school principals, and that anyone desiring information may also write to the T. C. R. A. in the Perry-Brooks Building, Austin, Texas.

The sponsoring association has for half-a-century been a non-profit, non-partisan citizens group devoted to the encouragement of sound highway policies and good highways.

Texas Cotton Producers Emphasize Cost Cutting

The past year wasn't what cotton growers in many Texas counties would classify as a good one, but for the state as a whole, lint yields were the second highest on record, 348 pounds an acre. Thus, low yields in some areas were offset by record yields in others.

Fred Elliott, extension cotton specialist, in his 1961 annual report highlights some of the past year's achievements. He said the 7-Step Cotton Committees, working on all levels, continued to be a major factor in the progress made by the producers of the state's most important crop. Since the program, initiated 16 years ago by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, has been operating, lint yields have climbed from 134 pounds an acre to 1961's 348 pounds. But perhaps of equal or even more importance have been the changes in production and harvesting, ginning and soil management practices.

The specialist reported that an estimated $68 million plus was saved last year in harvest costs through the use of machines -- 33,089 stripper harvesters and 4,782 spindle pickers. Harvesting machinery doesn't come cheap, the specialist said, as verified by the expenditure of over $32 million in 1961 alone for new picking and stripping machines.

Growers saved another $27.7 million in labor costs through the use of 50,605 rotary hoe equipped tractors and chemicals for weed and grass control. Spot-oiling of Johnsongrass was used on approximately a quarter million acres of cotton in 163 counties and spot-spraying of the same pest with water carried chemicals was used on 136,700 acres. Lateral oiling saved up to $25 an acre on hoe bills and was used on more than 86,000 acres in 75 counties.

Defoliants or desiccants were used on 61,555 farms in 170 counties to prepare cotton for machine harvesting. The use of moisture meters, a recent introduction, expanded rapidly and 136 were used in 41 counties as an aid in quality improvement.

Last year, county agents in 207 counties assisted producers with all phases of the 7-Step Program. County program building committees were also active in planning county work and emphasis in many counties was placed on the use of cotton burs for soil improvement and to reduce fire hazards. Burs were spread on 17,306 farms in 126 counties. A few years ago burs were commonly burned as waste. A ton of burs contains about $7.50 worth of plant nutrients and their application has raised lint yields by as much as 25 percent.

A team of extension specialists -- cotton, entomologist, cotton gin, and at times others-- was used to carry educational information to the counties.

The team conducted 157 meetings attended by 13,252 producers. County agents in their followup work held almost 2,100 meetings with an attendance of approximately 53,000. County agents and committees also enjoyed the cooperation of newspapers, radio and television stations for getting needed information to producers and supplied them with more than 2,100 stories, 2,250 radio and 39 television programs.

Cotton is still the state's most important crop and the progress made has materially aided the entire economy of Texas, the specialist concluded.

Test Foreign Grass Seeds At Station

Interest of foreign scientists in the High Plains Research Foundation is in evidence from the contributions they have made of seeds of a number of different crops. The plant introduction nursery of grasses and legumes is one of the recent projects aided by foreign interest.

Forty - two of the fifty - six grasses were received from the Central Rainsland Research Station in Anglo-Egyptian Sudan. Each strain or variety will be observed for a period of two or three years. Some of the Sudan introductions look very promising. Further tests will determine if they can determine if they can withstand the winter climate.

Sixty-four of the annual and perennial legumes were also received from the Sudan Station. Several different strains of creeping alfalfa were included in the nursery planting. All of these legumes will be observed and evaluated over a period of years to determine their adaptation of the High Plains area. A few strains may offer promise as dryland legumes, thereby, meeting an often stated desire by dryland farmers.

Time flies, and it won't be long till planting time. Some farmers will be buying seed in the near future, so I am listing some yield data and blooming dates on some grain sorghum hybrids at the Bushland Experimental Station.

These results do not necessarily give a sound basis for changing a variety already proven successful on your farm, but if you are not satisfied with your variety this data might be of help to you.

Late-maturing and earlier-maturing, vigorous hybrids performed well under irrigation. For hybrids of different maturities, there usually are differences in total amount of water required and also in the distribution of that water. Although the highest yields were obtained from late hybrids, more water may be required by them than by slightly earlier hybrids. Several hybrids yield about the same but differ by 5 days or more in date of blooming. The need to consider facts other than yield is emphasized by these comparisons.

Several plant characteristics other than yield should be considered in the selection of hybrids for a particular area or location. Some are difficult to measure. Earliness, fast head drying, standability and disease resistance may be as important as yielding ability in reducing the hazards of production. RS 608 is relatively low in yielding ability but is planted on a considerable acreage in West Texas because it possesses desirable characteristics other than yield.

Head smut became serious for the first time in West Texas in 1960. Percentages of head smut in the Bushland irrigated test are shown above. All hybrids had some head smut infection, but there were large differences among hybrids. RS 609, which is rated as resistant, had a 6 percent infection. Infected plants in RS 609 could have been caused by impurities in the seed or different races of the organism that may have been present.

The data reported provide some of the information needed in the selection of hybrids adapted for an area or type of farming. There seldom is a "best" hybrid from the standpoint of yield alone. Although a hybrid has the highest average yield, generally, it should be considered equal to the several hybrids that are closely below it in average yields. Hybrids, with the highest averages also were those that were fairly consistent in producing high yields in a majority of the tests. If certain environmental conditions can be predicted or controlled, hybrids with specific adaptation may be preferred, but, in general, it is much safer to use hybrids that perform well under a range of conditions.

Strict sanitation is the most effective barrier between the dairy cow and the organisms which cause mastitis, explains A. M. Meekma, extension dairy specialist. The only practical way to prevent the spread of mastitis, he says, is to keep it from reaching udder tissue.
