Farwell PTA To Meet January 23

The December 5, meeting of Farwell PTA, which was postponed due to a conflict in scheduled events has been set for January 23, 8 p.m. in the school lunchroom, according to Gene Dew, president of the organization.

Mrs. Lenton Pool will present a group of her second grade students in a comprehensive reading demonstration. Parents will also be asked to participate in the program. The reading demonstration is not to see how fast a child can read, but instead to see how much he understands of the material read, emphasizes Mrs. Pike Jordan, program chairman.

During the business meeting a report is scheduled from Mrs. R.D. Anderson, chairman of "Project Xmas Card." A report will also be given by Mrs. Delbert Garner, membership chairman.

This is the second meeting for the organization this year and a good attendance is urged, by President Dew.

Steers Beat Kress, Hale Center Cagers

The Farwell Steers were scheduled to host the Springlake Wolverines here tonight in a contest that might decide the district basketball championship. Both teams have a two and none won and loss record for the season in district play. The Steers ran over the Kress Kangaroos last Friday, Jan. 10, 80 to 37. Coach Vernon Scott used all 11 men suited out and every man scored. Alan Busbice was out of the lineup due to an appendicitis attack and is still unable to participate in the cage contests.

Last Tuesday night the Steers defeated a stronger Hale Center team, 66-50. Leon Lovelace, Farwell's senior scoring ace, garnered a total of 51 points in the two games. He scored 21 against Kress and 30 against the Owls.

In the Hale Center game the Steers played an almost perfect first quarter. They hit 13 field goals out of 18 attempts. Coach Scott said that Jerry Childs and Warren Gossett did an excellent job of feeding the ball to Lovelace.

The Steerettes were less fortunate in the two games. They lost to Kress 27-42, and to Hale Center, 39-45. Joann Rhodes scored a total of 35 points in the two contests, 11 against Kress and 24 against Hale Center. The Steerettes are also scheduled to play Springlake in Farwell tonight.

Used Clothing Needed For Clothes Bank

The clothes bank at the Texico school which is sponsored by the PTA is in need of good used clothing to replenish the supply. Especially needed are coats, in small sizes.

The bank is open on Tuesday and Friday afternoons with Mrs. Willie Hammond, chairman, assisted by Mrs. Donald Halle and Mrs. Cooper in charge. Anyone having clothes to donate to the project should bring them to the old home economics building on these days or contact one of the ladies at her home.

Anyone needing clothing from the bank, must contact either Jim Pierce, high school principal or Mrs. Zelfa Younger, elementary principal at the school. All clothing which is given to needy persons is checked out through school authorities assisted by the school nurse.

Not only is clothing needed for school age children, but also for pre-school children says, Mrs. Murray White, spokesman for the PTA, adding that the organization will appreciate all the assistance given them in the project.

County Board Signs U.S. 60 Agreement

The Parmer County commissioners met Monday in a lengthy session for the first meeting of 1964. A full quorum was present at the county court assembly for the first time in two months, Commissioner Guy Cox of Precinct 3 having been hospitalized with illness.

The group discussed at length the proposed construction of a four-lane divided highway on U. S. 60 for 37 miles across Parmer County. The commissioners approved the agreement between the county and state on a 50-50 financial basis and signed the agreement which provides for the purchase of 100 ft. right-of-way along the route.

County Judge Loyde Brewer reported that the general fund for the county during 1963 had stayed out of the "red" for the first time since he had been in office. The 1963 general fund began in January with $44,304.27 and at the close of 1963 on Dec. 31 showed a balance of $79,417.32. December tax collections are yet to be added to the total, according to Mrs. Mabel Reynolds, county treasurer.

Fire Destroys Harding Barn

The barn at the N. R. Harding farm, six miles south of Texico-Farwell was completely destroyed by fire Wednesday afternoon. The home is located on the Texas side of the state line.

Harding said that he had been burning grass in the yard of his home and thought that the blaze was out when he retired to read in the house. When Mrs. Harding discovered the barn ablaze she called the Farwell fire department but it was too late to save the structure.

A large number of tools and wrenches were stored in the barn and all of the barn's contents was ruined. Firemen were able to put out the grass fire to keep it from spreading farther.

In Monday's session the commissioners voted to increase the salaries of several county officials. The four commissioners' salaries will be raised from $2,400 per year to $3,000 and they will receive $900 travel allowance.

The tax assessor-collector's salary will remain at $5,300 but his three deputies will be increased from the total salaries for the three, $9,000 to $9,600. The $600 increase for the three will be divided according to the tax assessor's appraisal of the deputies' individual duties.

The County Judge's salary was raised from $3,600 to $4,000. He also holds the office of ex-officio school superintendent at a salary of $2,600 per year and is given a $600 travel allowance. The judge also performs the duties of County Veterans Service Office "free gratis" even though a $1,200 annual salary is set up in the county budget.

The District Clerk's salary will remain at $4,500, and the County Clerk's salary will stay at $5,000; however the two deputies' salaries will be raised a total of $400 per year, or from the total for the two of $6,000 to $6,400. The $400 increase will also be dispersed between the two according to the discretion of the County Clerk.

The county sheriff's salary was raised from $5,600 to $6,000. His deputies' salaries were raised as follows: Parmer County chief deputy, $4,200 to $4,600; Bovina deputy, $3,900 to $4,200; deputy at Friona, $3,900 to $4,200; Lazbuddie, $1,200; office dispatcher and secretary, $2,400 to $3,000.

Salary for the County Attorney was also raised $3,600 to $4,000. Each of the three Justices of Peace, in Farwell, Bovina and Friona, was raised from $1,200 to $1,500. The County Treasurer's salary will remain $4,500. The janitor's salary was raised from $3,900 to $4,200.

Hoyt Pattison Speaks To FBLA

Speaking to a large group of FBLA members, potential members and invited guests Hoyt Pattison, New Mexico state representative chose as his subject, "Operation Econ." "The future is yours if you can understand the past" he said and quoted from a speech by Abraham Lincoln saying, "America will be destroyed from within if it falls and not from an alien source." "These words are as true today as when they were spoken," said Pattison, as he launched into a talk on what he termed his favorite topic, "taxes".

Each consumer pays hidden taxes on all articles he buys, he said, relating that on each pair of shoes sold in the United States 191 separate taxes are paid and 10% of all fare on trains, buses and planes is tax, he enlightened his audience. "The manufacturer, wholesaler, and distributor all pay taxes which are figured into the price of all items on the market," he said. In presenting his subject, he quoted from such well known

Work continued this week on the spheroid elevated water reservoir in Farwell. Located just south of the old water tanks, the new reservoir will hold 100,000 gallons 100 feet above the ground. The Chicago Bridge and Iron Works has the contract that calls for around $35,000. A. O. Bergstad is foreman of the project.

Old Battle Cry

"Pay your poll tax" is the old and monotonous refrain going out to Texas voters again this year. Only this year it's more plaintive than usual; there's a lot of citizen foot-dragging.

Texas residents last year clearly indicated they want to keep the poll tax. This puzzled a lot of the election experts, since the nuisance levy had become one of the most cursed of all government assessments on the people. But even though abolition of the poll tax was a theme held in high favor by public opinion, the vote-counting proved otherwise and the tax is still with us.

Today, as before, the tax threatens to disfranchise a lot of Texans who though otherwise qualified, may lose their right to vote through carelessness and neglect. A lot of energy will be spent by political groups to round up their known supporters and make sure they get their voting ticket. This may seem like wasted effort but it's the way the people seem to prefer it.

There are still about 2,000 residents of Parmer County who could vote except for the fact that they haven't yet invested $1.75 in the poll tax. They had better tune in on the old battle cry, "Pay your poll tax!" and get lined up at the courthouse or other appointed place in the county and get set for a big year.

There's going to be plenty of excitement.

Southern Union Announces 1964 Construction Plans

Southern Union Gas Company plans to spend some $210,000 during 1964 on construction and modernization of facilities in its Clovis district, according to J. Harvey Wilson, district manager.

The Company's proposed expenditure this year compares with a 1963 budget of some $175,000 for construction work in the district, which includes Clovis, Clayton, Tucumcari, Portales, Texico and Farwell, Texas.

Noting that Southern Union has been providing gas service in the Clovis area since 1930, Wilson pointed out that the Company will observe its thirty-fifth anniversary on January 17.

To keep up with the growth of the 77 communities it serves in New Mexico, Arizona, Texas and Colorado, Southern Union this year has budgeted nearly $9-1/2 million more than was spent in 1963. Close to $6-1/2 million, or some two-thirds of the 1964 total, is scheduled to be invested in New Mexico, Wilson said.

In addition, the Company has budgeted nearly $4 million this year for well drilling and related oil and gas development activities, which will be carried on by two wholly owned subsidiaries -- Southern Union Production Company and Southern Union Gathering Company.

Wilson reported that Southern Union now serves over 17,000 customers in the Clovis district. He also noted that the Company employs some 70 people in the district, with a total annual payroll exceeding $300,000.

According to Wilson, Southern Union expects to gain nearly 10,000 new customers during 1964 in its four-state service area. By the end of this year the Company should be delivering gas to nearly 350,000 direct customers, as well as another 27,000 customers through city-gate contracts at Roswell and Hobbs and at Juarez, Mexico.

Among the projects carried on by Southern Union last year were additions and improvements to its distribution systems to keep pace with the increase in demand for gas service; remodeling of company facilities and structures; and the relocation of pipelines in certain areas to allow for new street and highway construction.

Included among the large jobs was the installation of several hundred devices known as anodes to the Company's Clovis distribution system. Anodes, which are attached to pipelines, draw off the very small electric currents generated by underground steel pipe and thus extend the life of Southern Union's distribution system.

The Tribune reported last week that the lunchroom was operating at a deficit after misinterpreting reports at a school board meeting.

The Farwell School Lunchroom is not operating at a loss at the present time, Supt. W. M. Roberts said this week. He said that two state payments still due for the month of December had not been paid and when the money was received the lunchroom would have a balance of $707.45.

The report for December showed a cash balance of $1,436.99 with the state payments of $851.04 still due. The unpaid bills for December amounted to $1,580.58, Roberts said.

The school lunchroom receives aid from the state or Federal Government in the form of commodities and a reimbursement of five cents per meal on meals served to school children. The $707.45 balance has accumulated since the opening of school last September.

Roberts said that the school lunch program was not operated as a profit making business. He said it should at least break even and any accumulation of money in this fund should go back into the program to improve it.

Texans Urged To Pay Poll Taxes

Texas Farm Bureau President C.H. DeVaney urged all Texans, particularly farmers and ranchers, to pay their poll taxes before Jan. 31 so as not to lose their right to vote in important elections coming up this year.

"Regardless of whether or not the Federal Amendment to repeal the poll tax is ratified by the necessary 38 states, it will still be necessary to pay your poll tax or obtain an exemption in order to vote for local and state candidates," the state farm leader said.

If the amendment is repealed prior to the general election on Nov. 3, citizens who have not qualified to vote by paying their poll tax or securing an exemption certificate may qualify to vote for President, Vice President, Senator, Congressman and Congressman-at-large. They may do this by obtaining from their tax assessor-collector during a 30-day period following the amendment's adoption a poll tax receipt marked "not paid."

Farm Bureau advocated and worked for retention of the poll tax," DeVaney said. "Our efforts now to encourage eligible citizens to pay their poll tax is a follow up on our campaign of last fall."

DeVaney pointed out that the Farm Bureau in non-partisan and does not endorse any candidates of any party. However, the farm organization does encourage its members to become active in the party of their choice and work for candidates of their choice.

Only by participating in the free selection of our elected representatives can we as citizens fulfill our rightful duties," the Farm Bureau leader said. "Therefore, we urge all citizens of voting age, especially farmers and ranchers and their families, to pay their poll tax and make sure they will have a voice in this year's important elections."

Vehicle Inspection Deadline, April 15

AUSTIN-- The director of the Texas Department of Public Safety, Col. Homer Garrison Jr., today reminded Texas vehicle owners that the 1964 vehicle inspection deadline will soon be upon them.

He reported that some 60 per cent of the allotted inspection period has elapsed and only 20 per cent of the vehicles have been inspected.

"If this trend continues, vehicle owners can expect to have to wait in line in order to get their vehicles inspected by the April 15 deadline," he said.

Garrison pointed out that Texas experienced its worst traffic fatality record in 1963 and vehicle defects were involved in some of these fatal accidents. He urged all Texans to begin the new year with safe vehicles and to keep them safe throughout the year. He added that vehicles involved in traffic accidents should be re-inspected after repairs have been made.

"Some 5,000 official inspection stations over the state are waiting to inspect the four million vehicles which will have to be inspected by April 15," the DPS director said. "There can be no extension of time, and after the deadline date of April 15, vehicles which come under the provisions of the Inspection Act which do not display the 1964 inspection sticker will be operating in violation of the law."

Gary Singleterry At Home In Portales Following Wedding

At home in Portales following their recent wedding and a honeymoon to Roswell and Farmington are Gary Auburn Singleterry and his bride, the former Janis Kay Vandivere. Double ring vows were exchanged at the church altar set with two large baskets of white stock flanked by candelabras holding tall tapers. Bows of white satin adorned the candelabras and baskets holding the flowers and also marked family pews.

Candles were lighted by Kenna Vandivere, Farmington, sister of the bride as Dayna Hastin played soft background music. Miss Hastin also accompanied Mrs. Howard Martin as she sang, "Whither Thou Goest," "Always" and "The Lords Prayer."

Bestman was Monte Singleterry, Albuquerque, brother of the groom. Serving as groomsmen was Tom Goodman, cousin of the groom, Ushers were Leon Kelley, Texico, roommate of the groom and Ronald Vandivere, brother of the bride, Farmington.

Maid of honor was Jeri Sue Vandivere, Farmington, sister of the bride and bridesmaid was Nancy Stevens, Alamogordo, roommate of the bride.

Bridal attendants and the candlelighter wore identical dresses of emerald green velvet, styled with scoop necklines, three quarter length sleeves and pleated A-line skirts. Emerald green circle hats of velvet, white gloves and black patent shoes completed their attire. They each carried a single long stemmed white rose.

Tammy Frazier, flowergirl, wore a dress of emerald green velvet and chiffon and a white carnation wristlet. She carried a basket of white rose petals.

Choice of the bride, who was escorted to the altar and given in marriage by her father, was a wedding gown of white satin designed and made by her mother. The dress was styled with a scoop neckline, long sleeves which buttoned to points at the wrist and a full pleated skirt which fell into a chapel train. The fitted bodice which dipped to a point at the waist was fastened in center back with tiny self covered buttons.

Her finger-tip veil of white silk illusion edged with wide lace was attached to a crown of seed pearls and aurora borealis. Her bouquet was a cascade arrangement of white gardenias tied with satin ribbon. She also carried two white roses which she presented to her mother and the mother of the groom.

Following tradition she wore for something old a ruby ring which had been given to her grandmother by her grandfather, and passed down from mother to daughter through the years. New was her dress, borrowed the veil and blue the traditional garter. She wore in her shoe for luck a penny minted in the year of her birth.

For her daughters' wedding Mrs. Vandivere chose a sheath dress of beige linen with which she wore brown accessories. Mother of the groom chose a silk shirtrwaist dress of dark green with which she wore black accessories. Both mothers wore corsages of white rosebuds.

Immediately following the wedding a reception was held in the fellowship hall at the church. Serving table was covered by a white and silver cloth and centered with the tiered wedding cake. A crystal punch service was placed at one end of the table and at the other was a bride doll surrounded by ivy and roses.

Alternating at the serving table were Mrs. Monte Singleterry, Mrs. B. C. Goodman, Mrs. Elwanda Jones and Miss Lynda Morgan.

Guests were registered by Miss Shirley Daves, Floyd, at a table covered with a white crocheted cloth centered with a single white candle to which a green bow and minute wedding bells were tied.

When the couple left for a honeymoon trip Mrs. Singleterry was wearing a sheath dress of peacock blue with black accessories and a corsage lifted from her bridal bouquet.

Crippled Boy Wins Sports Letters With Assist from March of Dimes

A boy who can scarcely walk because of arthritis wins a letter in athletics. Impossible, you say. Not if the lad has the grit of Tim Ewald.

Even though this 17-year-old from Minneapolis can barely "inch" along with the help of a cane, he wears the monogram of Golden Valley High School in both football and track.

How come? How is all this athletic activity possible when it takes this likable youngster as much as 15 minutes merely to tie his shoelaces?

You must look back seven years to find the answer. As the second-oldest of five sons, Tim at the age of 10 could outrun all his brothers and even his parents, Graydon and Diane Ewald.

At touch football, no one could lay a hand on him. Tim dreamed of a high school and college career in football and track.

Then, at the age of 10, came disaster. One night the boy was struck by the indescribably severe pains of rheumatoid arthritis throughout his body. His temperature soared. For long months he had to be hospitalized in body casts and treated with cortisone.

Aided by March of Dimes

Now, after seven years of the disease, Tim is slowly regaining some mobility—thanks in great part to physical therapy given him at the March of Dimes Arthritis Treatment Center in the University of Minnesota Medical School. This treatment is conscientiously repeated at home.

Much as the boy yearned to play, such strenuous sports as football and track were not for him. It was all he could do just to hobble from class to class. But in his freshman year at high school he resolved to be as close to sports as his crippled condition permitted.

Tim made a private vow that he would become a team manager.

He made it in his freshman year as manager of the football squad. He made it again in his sophomore year. Last year, his third, he managed the track team. He won his letters in two sports.

To continue working in the field of sports, even though he can't join actively because of crippling rheumatoid arthritis, Tim Ewald, 17, hopes to become a sports cartoonist. Here he outlines caricature of a sports personality. His doctors at March of Dimes Arthritis Center say this is good therapy for his hands and wrists.

Tim won't talk much about what his duties are. He's an excessively modest youngster but, even if it does embarrass the boy, his father says:

"I looked into this with some care because it would be dangerous for Tim to overdo. I found out that these managers aren't snap jobs given by the players to a classmate they feel sorry for. The work is tough—Tim goes along in the team bus to games all around the state, he checks equipment and keeps the players' records, he's a timekeeper, and so on. But he thrives on it—and it's far better therapy than gnawing his nails because of no contact with sports."

Even with his heavy schedule of classes, homework, team management, home exercises and weekly visits to the March of Dimes Arthritis Treatment Center, Tim finds time to draw,

Thirty-Five Children On ESA Aid List

Theta Rho chapter of ESA has just completed one of the most extensive programs of Christmas cheer in the 11 years of service for the organizations says Mrs. Joe Helton, president. Reports were heard from committee members Monday evening.

Traditionally, ESA members have served as Santa helpers since 1951, and because of the community needs, the program has grown. "It is only with the help of the community that we can accomplish the work," she adds. Not only has the community assisted in money-making projects, but individuals and groups have contributed food and toys to help in the work.

Thirty-five children were recipients of toys this year. Working in conjunction with ESA, Cub Scout Pack 201 brought new toys to their December pack meeting instead of exchanging gifts. With their help, each of the 25 children on the list were given one new toy and a good used toy, with these gifts donated by various persons. Ten children in one family were given the remainder of the used toys. Several dolls were donated and outfitted with new clothes by local ladies.

Five food baskets with a wide variety of food were distributed to worthy families, with each basket holding about $18 worth of food. Ray Mears aided the sorority in arranging the baskets and also contributed 10 per cent of the total cost. Fruit and candy baskets were taken to two families with severe illnesses, and pajamas were given a seriously ill child.

After conferring with persons in authority, ESA members decided the best aid for some children would be the purchase of milk at school. For the month of January, the group paid the bill for milk in the afternoon for 16 youngsters at Texico.

Santa's visit to town was also sponsored by the group. He visited with children and gave candy canes to each one. Left-over canes were distributed to three mission churches in the area, to be used in their Christmas programs. Fifty-five canes went to the colored mission church; 45 to Oklahoma Lane Spanish mission and 45 to Texico Spanish mission.

Visits were made to 36 shut-ins or friends of EAS with candy presented to the group, as well as home-made jellies to many. Earl Roberts had contributed the jelly to aid the sorority.

Mrs. Helton expresses appreciation to all who helped in the work of ESA, this year and in years past. "We feel that it is a worthwhile undertaking and we have certainly had the backing of the communities," she concludes.

Five Additional Texas Counties To Get Federal Crop Insurance

Cotton farmers in Cochran, Deaf Smith, El Paso and Gaines counties and grain sorghum growers in Deaf Smith and Randall counties will be eligible in 1964 for Federal Crop Insurance.

Under the program, participating farmers are protected against crop losses from natural hazards, said Ben A. Jordan, Jr., Texas director of the Federal Crop Insurance Corporation. He added that some 12,000 farmers in 45 Texas counties have already received more than $1.4 million to cover 1963 crop losses. He said that final payments will exceed $2 million. These payments, Jordan said, are made from premiums paid by the participating farmers who are policy holders.

FCIC coverage, nationally, in 1963 increased by 30 per cent. Almost $500 million in crop production investments were under the protection of FCIC, Jordan said.

The state director described the program as a cooperative one designed to help growers take a business like approach to the problem of protecting their capital investments, credit and the economic strength of their community.

When crop damage hits an area, it hurts everyone for miles around, Jordan said. Federal crop insurance is designed to put money back into an area when weather, insects or disease have reduced or wiped out the major source of income, he said.

Parmer County Farmer Raises Cane For Additional Cash Crop

Reagan Looney is not interested in some new additional cash crop, Nor is his son-in-law, Bob McMeans, who rents the farm two miles west of Bovina.

They grow and harvest Red Top cane and the seed is sold all over the country wherever cane is grown including Louisiana.

"It takes a lot of hard work to raise cane," Looney admitted, "and that's probably the reason most farmers don't raise it."

A native Texan, Looney has been raising cane for more than 40 years. His son-in-law, a native of Amarillo, has been on the Bovina farm since 1957. Looney bought the Parmer County farm in 1935.

Looney and McMeans have only 80 acres of cane this year. They said the crop averaged around 70 bushels per acre and the average price for the cane seed was $6 per 100 pounds. Looney said that the market earlier this year was $5 per 100 but that he had heard that the price had dropped considerably.

In 1960, the cane raisers recalled, they grossed more than $27,000 off of 160 acres of the red top cane. The yield has been as high as $210 per acre. Looney said that the canes were sown in many sections for grazing purposes or pasture. After grazing the cane is cut and baled for winter feeding.

Most cane farmers bale the stalk in the field after the heads have been threshed. The Looney-McMeans method is to thresh the whole bundle and then sell the "straw stack" for binding or ensilage.

Looney pointed out that the sowing of cane on soil bank land was quite practical. He said that nothing made a better cover for the ground than cane stalks.

In the present operation of the Looney-McMeans threshing four tractors and four wagons are required to haul the bundles from the field to the threshing machine. The operation is similar to the old wheat separator days, with bundle wagons and pitchforks.

A truck stands by the grain spout to catch the cane seed which is hauled to the barn granary for storage until time of sale. The truck is unloaded by an elevator.

A crew of eight men, in addition to Looney and McMeans, is required to complete the work detail - or two men to each tractor and wagon.

Looney said that for several years he had called upon the same crew chief from Clovis to provide the labor. He is Juan Armijo who not always brings the same crew, but according to Looney, has brought satisfactory help.

"Several of the neighbors have signed up to raise sugar beets," Looney stated, "but for me, I'll just stay with the hard work of raising cane."

Looney explained that not only was hard work the reason that only a few farmers in the area tried to grow cane but that it was seldom that there was an ideal season for the crop such as was the past fall and current winter. After frost and the cane stalks have fallen down the heads must be left until the seed has matured or ripened for sowing before it can be threshed. Of course, this requires a dry fall and winter.

"This year has been ideal for harvesting cane," Looney said.

FOOTSAVING EDUCATION

by James E. Edwards

Will Feet Ever Be Accepted?

The history of shoemaking shows clearly that mankind has always been unhappy with the shape of the feet that God gave us. The pointed toes that people are complaining about now are "health shoes" compared to the points worn a century ago.

Normal feet are not funny. Bone for bone and muscle for muscle they are very similar to our hands and the soap commercials tell us that our hands are things of beauty.

Will we ever feel as indifferent about exposing our feet in public as we are about our hands? Probably not but our children are growing up in an era of swimming pools. They may learn to regard our attitude about feet as funny as we regard the high shoes and bone-stay corsets of the twenties.

On The Farm In Parmer County

By DERYL COKER
County Agent

Losses from diseases of grain sorghum in West Texas have not been considered by many as a factor worthy of consideration. In most cases diseases are probably not causing losses, however, in certain fields diseases are limiting production to a point that sorghum cannot be produced profitably. When this point is approached, growers are more prompt to try and find out what is wrong. This past year certain fields all over the north plains failed to develop. The grain from these fields was light, poorly filled, and in some instances didn't make more than 2500 per acre.

Our plant Pathologist made a tabulation of all the specimens sent in to try to learn what factors could be getting us in trouble.

In all fields checked, nematode populations ran from 150 to 1150 per pint of soil.

These are numerous disease factors that could cause a light chaffy grain such as Herbicide injury, stalk rot, poor fertility, lack of water, insect damage, weak neck and etc., so there is not a positive answer at the present.

While we are talking about Grain Sorghum, lets don't forget the Grain Sorghum Producers Association and all the things they have done for our growers. This Association has been worth millions of dollars to our sorghum growers and they haven't had a great deal of money to spend either.

Incidentally, Parmer County is the No. 1 grain sorghum county in the United States, but didn't give the Association as much money as Hale County. We should be the No. 1 supporter. It cost so very little to support this organization, so lets all do all we can.

Cane raisers Bob McMeans (left) and Reagan Looney stop threshing operations two miles west of Bovina while they and an eight-man crew go to lunch. The Red Top cane averages 70 bushels per acre and sells from $5 to $6 per 100 lbs. Bovina skyline may be seen in background.

Home Economics In The News

More than 50 home economics are needed for Peace Corps work in four Latin American countries officials of the division of recruiting for the Corps have announced. The volunteers are needed to help improve health, nutrition and sanitation conditions in rural villages and city slums. Colombia, Venezuela, Chile and the Dominican Republic are seeking the volunteers to join with teams of Peace Corps agriculturalists, social workers, construction workers and recreation authorities to help people modernize their living conditions. Training for these programs will begin in February.

New uses for corn syrup are continuing to be reported. One of the latest applications of the product concerns its use in the sterile screwworm fly program. The flies are now being fed corn syrup from a small paper cup prior to their release. Entomologists working on the screwworm eradication program have found that syrup-fed flies have a better chance to survive and perform their job.

A recent survey by the Census Bureau shows that 16.8 per cent of the families in the nation plan to purchase one major household appliance during the next few months, reports Mrs. Eula J. Newman, home management specialist with the Agricultural Extension Service at Texas A&M University. Washing machines apparently top the list of anticipated purchases.

Building Race Cars Is Hobby Of Curry Wheat Farmer

BY HOWARD MOORE
Farm & Home Staff Writer

Many farmers have acquired hobbies to occupy their time during off-duty hours or when the weather won't permit their being in the field. One of these is Virgil Harrison who irrigates and raises wheat and maize, north of Pleasant Hill. Virgil's hobby is building sprint race cars.

He has been quite successful with his hobby since it began to materialize in 1949. His cars have raced all over Texas, New Mexico, Colorado, Kansas and Arizona.

For four straight years, 1950-1953, his cars won the Southwest Automobile Racing Club's championship races held in Clovis, Roswell, Carlsbad, Artesia, Lubbock and Amarillo. Driving his souped up vehicles was Hoppy Aaron, noted race driver from El Paso.

For the past few years Virgil said that he had neglected his hobby. But now he has begun it again. The complete chassis and motor are stationed in his farm workshop awaiting the body which he also built that is now being painted by J. C. Hughes, automobile paintman in the Frank Rierson Pontiac body shop in Clovis.

Virgil said that he would have the current sprint racer ready for the next season which runs from March until around Thanksgiving. His scheduled driver of the new racer will be Bernie Shiers, also of El Paso.

Chrysler motors are a favorite of the irrigation wheat farmer. Around his farm are six Chrysler motors powering the pumps that supply his crops with water. He recently purchased a 1964 "383" Plymouth Fury, a Chrysler product.

The engine that will power his new racer is (or was) an original stock, six cylinder, 120 horse power Chrysler. He has boosted the motor to more than 400 horse power at 5200 RPM. Its top speed is rated at 200 miles per hour.

The three-quarter sprint car has no transmission, clutch, fly wheel or starter. It will carry a radiator but no fan. The oil temperature should be around 190 degrees when running, Virgil explained.

It will retain the same crankshaft but will be fitted with new oil holes and plugged up the old ones. Half of the double oil pump will force a stream through the motor and the other will pick it up and put the oil back into the tank, called "Dry Sump."

The block has been bored from the original 3 and 7/16 inches to 3 1/2 inches. He uses Grant racing pistons and rings. The valves have been lowered with pour and relieve valve holes for more and "easier breathing." It has a special ground cam shaft. The chassis is equipped with 16-inch magnesium racing wheels.

Virgil lives on the place homesteaded by his father, the Rev. B.B. Harrison, Clovis some 40 years ago. It is located a few miles west of the Texas-New Mexico state line and just north of the Frio Draw. It is in the edge of the present irrigation belt and is some of the area's richest soil.

His farm work shop is heated and equipped similar to an automobile dealer. It is there he repairs his numerous makes of tractors, combine, drills plows and other farm machinery.

He explained that the coyotes were so brave and vicious along the Frio Draw that they prevent his raising chickens or calves for either a profit or hobby.

"Coyotes don't bother my race cars" he said.

Beef Calf Clinic Set In Clovis

4-H and FFA boys and girls of the area, and especially their parents, are invited to attend a beef calf clinic at 2 p. m. Saturday at the Ranchers and Farmers sale barn in Clovis. The clinic is sponsored by the Purina Feed and Ranch Supply Company, Inc.

Leon Langford, well-known Hereford breeder of the Texico-Farwell area, will give a demonstration on grooming an animal for fitting and showing. Two of his animals will be used in the demonstration.

Harold Dalbom, manager of the Purina Feed store in Clovis, said that a colored film would be shown on preparing a beef animal for show. A management discussion, led by Gary Harvey, district representative for Ralston-Purina, will be conducted for the purpose of helping 4-H and FFA boys and girls know more about the project of caring for beef calves.

"The Saturday program is merely a supplement to the school instruction that boys and girls in the 4-H and FFA organizations receive in school," Dalbom said. "We especially urge parents to attend."

Virgil Harrison, Pleasant Hill wheat farmer, spends his spare time during cold winter days in his farm work shop building a sprint race car. His home made vehicles have won several championship race trophies. The Chrysler-powered racer now under construction will be ready for the coming race season - March to Thanksgiving.

Labor Required For Texas Beef

How many hours do you spend annually caring for your beef cows? This information should be helpful in determining how to better use your labor next year, says Tom Prater, farm management specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Operators who have other enterprises competing with their beef program for labor, and those that work off the farm or ranch will be especially interested in knowing how much time they spend with their cows he says.

A recent USDA report indicates that about 12 hours of labor were required annually per cow on beef operations in Texas, says Prater. This amounts to about 3.6 hours per 100 pounds of beef produced, he adds.

The hours required per cow will vary on each operation depending on management, and other factors of production. Texas studies indicate that 18 hours per cow annually are needed on the Blackland farms of the state, 14 hours on Grand Prairie farms, just over 18 hours on the Northeast Texas farms, and some West Texas ranches indicate labor requirements of about 10 hours, according to the specialist.

In comparison, in the Mountain States such as Montana, Idaho, Wyoming, Colorado, New Mexico, Arizona, Utah, and Nevada, about 10 hours are required per beef animal, with 2.4 hours needed per 100 pounds of beef produced. The Delta States of Mississippi, Arkansas, and Louisiana require 15 hours per cow and in the Southeast States of South Carolina, Georgia, Florida and Alabama, 14 hours are needed.

This shows that Texas compares favorably with other beef producing states in the amount of labor required per cow for beef operations, Prater says.

If cold weather interrupts the building of your new home, a preservative applied to the wood siding will protect the outside until the weather warms up. Materials such as pentachlorophenol can be used and will not affect the bonding facility of the paint when it is put on later.

American agricultural abundance is a powerful force for world peace. Our food and other farm products are helping to promote economic growth in the newly developing countries of the world.

Wiring of too small a size may be the reason for trouble with farm equipment and home appliances. Low voltage can cause a loss in light output, a loss in heating efficiency, an increase in the energy required by electric motors and an increase in the heating of motor windings.

Wanted -- 300 Texas Farm And Ranch Record Keepers

As a farm or ranch operator, would you like to join a select group of cooperators with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service in a mail-in-record keeping project?

The Service's farm management specialists, with Rex Kennedy serving as coordinator, have issued a call for 300 volunteers who would like to participate in the year-long record project. Kennedy says for the past two years about 50 cooperators have been under the program and that results have been good. The program utilizes the electronic computers at Texas A&M University and makes it possible for the specialists to do a faster and more thorough job.

Kennedy points out that the results of the past two years clearly indicate weaknesses in management operations; especially as they relate to costs, yields, machinery and labor utilization. He adds that the past experience has caused the specialists to strongly recommend enterprise accounting, although it is not mandatory for the new cooperators.

Here's what the new cooperators will furnish the specialists at Texas A&M -- a beginning inventory, monthly expense and income records (mailed in each month), and an ending inventory. At the end of the year, the specialists will

3 Farm Bureau Meets Slated

The Texas Farm Bureau will launch its 1964 national legislative program with three conferences later this month, according to TFB President C. H. DeVaney.

The first conference will begin at 9:30 a.m. Jan. 22, at the Gunter Hotel in San Antonio. Two sessions are slated Jan. 23. The first will start at 9:30 a.m. at the Holiday Inn Parkway Motor Hotel in Lubbock, and the final meeting will begin at 3:30 p.m. at the Adolphus Hotel in Dallas.

Attending the three legislative conferences will be county Farm Bureau PX Committee chairmen and members and county presidents. Purpose of the conferences is to develop a better understanding of the major issues expected to come before Congress this year and to plan strategy for securing favorable action on issues on which Farm Bureau has policies, DeVaney said.

Main speaker at each of the legislative conferences will be Dr. Kenneth Hood, Chicago, director of the commodity division of the American Farm Bureau Federation. He will explain the major issues confronting Congress this session and discuss the political maneuvering that can be expected Activities for Mrs. Long have been limited during the past year due to back surgery but she plans to increase her activities as her condition permits.

A special hobby of Billie (as she is known by her friends) is that of painting. She has taken several courses in the art during the past few years studying under instructors at the college in Canyon, and also at Cloudcroft, and Muleshoe. She is presently taking a course in painting from Mrs. Bugby, curator at West Texas State University Museum.

Mrs. Long, who has always had a great desire to paint has done most of her work with tempera paints; however, she has recently taken up oil painting and has also done some works of art in water color. "The hobby has cost my husband in patience and money," she jokes, adding that she had originally planned only to paint a few pictures for her home, but became so fascinated with the work that she has continued to paint until most of the closets at her home are filled with art work. She has sold a few of the works of art.

Most of the works done by Mrs. Long are those of landscape scenes and still life (these are her favorites). She is planning to do some work in portrait painting in the near future.

Another hobby is that of sewing. She makes special occasion clothes for her daughter, Sheryl, 17, and on occasion makes cowboy shirts for her sons, Eldon, 15, and Tommie, 10. She also is adept with her knitting needles and last year made wool jackets for her sons and knitted in the sleeves. Her brother, who is a college student visited in her home shortly after the jackets were completed and was so impressed that he insisted Billie make one for him.

At this time she is in process of knitting three sweaters and topping her New Year Resolutions; "Finish those sweaters this year."

She is a charter member of the Hub HD Club and is quick to give much credit to club work for her interests in the field of refinishing furniture. She has completed refinishing three pieces of furniture but has several others which she plans to begin work on as soon as her condition permits.

"HD Programs are varied enough to please any woman" said Mrs. Long, and added that in addition to the variety of programs she enjoys the fellowship with old friends and neighbors at club meetings.

Mr. and Mrs. Long were married in Muleshoe shortly after Billie completed high school in 1944. Her husband was serving with the armed forces at the time in the Air Force. For a short while they made their home in San Antonio, where he was stationed; however when he was sent overseas Billie returned to Muleshoe and worked in the telephone office for approximately a year. When her husband received his discharge from the armed services they farmed in the Bula area for a short period before moving to the Hub community in 1948.

Mrs. Wes Long exhibits a squaw dress she made for her daughter, Sheryl. Sheryl is a member of the Friona Squaw basketball team and team members wore squaw dresses when they represented Friona at the State Tournament last year.

Their irrigation well was the fourth such well in the Hub community. They raised a bumper crop of cotton in 1948; however with the coming of the cotton allotment the next year their acreage was cut to 11 acres and they turned to other row crops, with maize heading the list. In 1948 cotton raised on the Longs' farm had to be hauled to Muleshoe for ginning as no gins were in operation in the Friona area.

The family moved into Friona approximately 12 years ago from their Hub farm. They now farm three fourths sections of land, in row crops and operate a 1,000 acre ranch where many whiteface cattle are raised.

Mrs. Long does much of the cooking for ranch hands during roundup season; however she confesses that cooking is not one of her special likes but "I do enjoy cooking some delicacy for my family on occasion," she said.

LOOK AT THESE OUTSTANDING ADVANTAGES

1. Rain and air carry Nitrogen through the hardpan subsoil where you get increased fertility and production.
2. Shattering hardpan allows moisture to soak down and be stored in subsurface reservoirs.
3. Wind erosion is curtailed by binding the top soil and by trash and stubble left on the surface.
4. Deep plant roots mean healthier, higher yielding crops. Subtilling opens supplies of moisture and food normally denied by root-stunting hardpans.

FARWELL, TEXAS

NEWS FROM THE
FARM BUREAU

BY RAYMOND EULER

Next Thursday, January 23, at Holiday Inn East, Lubbock, Texas, 9:30 a.m., there will be a legislative conference conducted by Texas Farm Bureau leadership. Principle participants will be county leaders from the farms. If you are interested in the future of agriculture, as legislation will effect it, you should be at that meeting. An effort is being made to get all directors and officers of this county FB there. You can be sure of a cordial welcome to this meeting, and we feel sure you will be glad you attended, if you go.

We have conversed with some good people from time to time who seem to have no objection to socialism in the United States. People who talk this way always deny that there is any connection between socialism and Communism, which they would object to.

Bill Wedemeyer, TFB Research and Education Director, provides these quotes for consideration of people who have a friendly concept of socialism but not for Communism:

"Society cannot leap into communism from capitalism without going through a Socialist stage of development. Socialism is the first stage to communism." Nikita Khrushchev.

"Striving for socialism, we are convinced that it will develop further into communism." - Lenin

"Communists work for the establishment of socialism as a necessary transition stage on

"From capitalism to communism through the intermediary stage of socialism; that is the way American society, like society in general is headed." - William Z. Foster, former chairman of Communist Party of America.

The dairy industry involves people other than those who milk cows. Figures show that 292,000 people are employed in manufacturing dairy products in this country.

Farming employs seven million workers, more than the combined employment in transportation, public utilities the steel industry, and the automobile industry.

Curry County Farmer Raises 375 Acres Of Red Top Cane

Raising Red Top cane has become more popular this year in both West Texas and Eastern New Mexico because so many acres of maize and cotton were eliminated by the weather.

The Rhea 4-H Club re-organized last week and are ready to start project work in 1964. Wayne Allen Schueler is their new president. Other officers are Dale Schueler, vice-president and Shirley Schueler, secretary.

That club is fortunate to have Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Bauer as organization leaders. The club will meet the 1st. Friday of each month at 7:30 p.m. in the Parrish Hall for their monthly meeting.

Two new adult subject matter leaders, Mrs. E. A. Binger and Mr. Raymond Schueler will work with these boys and girls on Homestead Improvement projects. Mrs. Walter Schueler will work with those taking Foods and Nutrition projects.

Mrs. Webb Gober and Mrs. Johnnie Rundell are very busy homemakers these days. Besides being full time homemakers, they work with Farwell 4-H girls and boys. Right now Food project work is in progress and we worked on plans for Home Improvement projects to start in February. Nine girls plan to do work in Bedroom Improvement.

What are some of the things they will do? -- Here are some of the programs planned -- Choosing Attractive Colors for Bedrooms -- Color Schemes. Provide shelves or place to display things they enjoy, improve drawer space storage, choosing and hanging pictures, and many other things to make their rooms attractive, more convenient, and perhaps more useful to them. In late summer, a planned tour will be made to observe project work. Sounds interesting doesn't it?

Homemakers in Farwell area please remember that January 22 is the dead line for registering for the Basic Sewing Class to be held in February.

The New 4-H Club in Farwell could use more project leaders and any mother who has time to work with 9 thru 12 year old girls may call the Home Agent's office 481-3619. Mrs. John Boling will serve as Organization leader for this club.

He said that the cane hay was now selling for $20 per ton. At the beginning of the season the hay brought $25 a ton but the price was lowered in order to rid the ground for plowing. He said that there was yet around 30 acres of the cane to be threshed and that all of the hay had been sold except for around 200 acres including the Plainview cane. This 200 acres is yet to be baled.

Browning said that the price of the cane seed this year was lower than last because of the increased acreage of cane by farmers throughout the area.

The cane seed is shipped all over the country by the seed companies who have contracted the product. Last year, Browning, said, much of the cane seed was exported to foreign countries. He has a contract with Golden West Seed Co. of Texico.

The recent increased interest in raising sugar beets has attracted the attention of Browning. With the present construction of the Holly Sugar Corporation plant near Hereford and the interest in Plainview,
