

PERSONAL
By John

In Monday's news, there was an extensive account of the hearings being held by the Senate Foreign Relations Committee in Washington. This committee is chaired by our "smarter than the common man", Senator J. William Fulbright. The good senator has advanced a very compelling line of arguments for softening our line in regard to Red China and to admitting Red China to the United Nations.

This line of reasoning was picked up by some of the omnipotent medicine men of the TV commentators' fraternity and discussed at some length for the edification of the great unwashed masses that listen to their "news" programs. These were very telling and well thought out reasons for our widening our natural intercourse with the Red Chinese.

The sickening thing to us was that nowhere in the arguments was there any consideration given to the moral or religious aspect of the United States stand on Red China. It was entirely on a pragmatic basis. Has our Christian morality no place in today's world?

Apparently the Christian ethic does not have much standing anymore. There is a great furor over the advanced theological thesis that God is dead. Again some super brainy men both in and out of the cloth have given great publicity to this space age theory.

Mrs. Melborn Jones of Oklahoma Lane brought us a column by Bishop W. Kenneth Pope of the Dallas-Fort Worth area. I think the Bishop's words are very relevant to the above remarks about Christian morality and its place in our world today.

Quoting from Bishop Pope, "Perhaps the real reason for our disturbance over this furor (God is dead), is a deep, underlying and unadmitted fear that too much of today's generation is living as though God were dead. Their plans, attitudes, decisions and daily awareness are completely removed from having anything to do with God's presence or will. Likewise, too many churches are dead to their experience of God and His acts in the present world. What happens today that moves about our lives is completely separated, all too much, from what many of our churches either talk about or try to do." End of quote.

I heartily agree with the Bishop that the reason we can discuss a moral problem from a pragmatic viewpoint is that too many churches and church members are living as though God were dead. Many have divorced their daily living, thinking, and actions from God's experience and His presence in our world and daily lives.

We have had several interested individuals stop by the office and express a desire to see Parmer County form a Community Concert Association. This is very heartening to see this evidence of cultural interest. It is, however, disheartening not to hear of any organized group in the County interested in being an organizer of such an Association. The good things of life were never obtained without work and effort and a Community Concert organization is no exception.

There must be some dedicated individuals willing to spend some time and money to put the idea before groups large enough to effect such an Association. Let us hope that this idea doesn't die from apathy.

We will be happy to act as a clearing house for interested people and help to get a group together. A letter or phone call to the Tribune office will get you on record as being interested. Let us hear from you soon if you have that desire. Our phone number is 481-3681 and mailing address is Box 225, Farwell.

PROVIDES ENTERTAINMENT -- Susan Blair accompanying herself on the ukulele provided special musical entertainment for attendants at the Jaycee Installation banquet on Tuesday evening. She also led the entire audience in singing "America."

125 Attend Jaycee Banquet

Some 125 area residents were in attendance at the Farwell Jaycee Installation banquet on Tuesday evening, where they heard Senator Jack Hightower of Vernon give the main address. Theme for the banquet was "Back Our Boys in Vietnam."

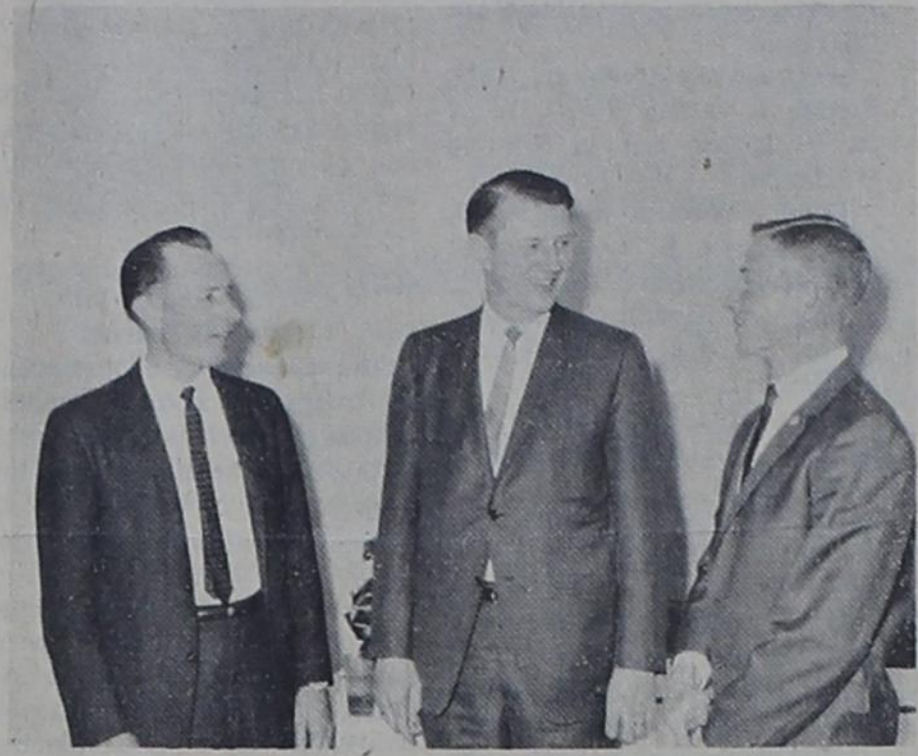

Officers for the coming year were installed by Jesse George, State Director of Jaycees. Heading the Jaycee organization as president will be Fred Chandler. Serving with Chandler will be first vice-president, Jerry Mathis, second vice-president, James O. Harriman; secretary, Fred Magness; treasurer, Eddie Traxson; Inter-Club Director, Jerry Bradshaw; directors, Joe VanZandt and Harry Ray Jesko. Special awards of appreciation were made to Jerry Bradshaw, State Line Tribune and Jimmy Self, formerly of Radio Station KZOL, for their assistance to the Farwell Jaycees during the past year.

The "Outstanding Jaycee Award" was made to Harry Ray Jesko by Don Gerles, retiring president.

Rev. W. C. Strickland, pastor of Hamlin Memorial Methodist Church, was master of ceremonies and the guest speaker was introduced by Hurshel Harding, local attorney.

Carrying out the theme "Back our Boys in Vietnam," wives of the Jaycees had decorated the tables in a patriotic motif, using red and blue streamers down the centers of the tables which were covered with white. Flags and miniature servicemen figurines were placed at intervals on the tables. A miniature flag was set at each place along the tables. Gracing the speakers table was a floral arrangement.

BANQUET SPEAKER -- Senator Jack Hightower, center, speaker for the installation banquet for Farwell Jaycees on Tuesday evening, visits with Hurshel Harding, local attorney and Dr. Jerry Gleason of Muleshoe, Area Director of Jaycees, following the banquet.

JUST A BIT OF HUMOR -- Senator Jack Hightower added a touch of humor to the Jaycee banquet, where he was guest speaker, by harassing the master of ceremonies, Rev. W. C. Strickland, pastor of Hamlin Memorial Methodist Church.

Veda Wilson Wins Oratorical Contest

Veda Wilson, a senior in the Texico High School and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Loren Wilson, was named winner of the New Mexico American Legion Oratorical Contest held in Santa Fe Monday. She was in competition with seven other district and bi-district winners, five boys and two girls.

Her speech entitled "The Constitution, Our Rights, Our Responsibilities," and the extemporaneous speech on Amendment One of the Constitution has earned her the right to represent New Mexico in the Regional Contest to be held in Wyoming within the next two weeks. Five states winners will compete in the regional contest.

In winning the state contest Miss Wilson also won a year's scholarship to the college of her choice, New Mexico State University, and a 15-inch trophy. She also received a 30-inch traveling trophy which will be kept in the school trophy case for the next year. Veda was winner of third place in last year's American Legion Oratorical Contest. Sponsoring Miss Wilson for the past two years has been Dean Lucas Post #25, Clovis American Legion Post. She and her mother were accompanied to Santa Fe by Milton Davidson, District Oratorical Chairman.

Miss Wilson is no stranger to speech making for in 1964 she won the 4-H speech contest; in 1965 she won top honors in the state FBLA speech contest and placed third in the State American Legion Oratorical Contest.

She commented, "I would have laughed at anyone who told me that I would win the American Legion Oratorical State Contest two years ago." She gives her mother much credit for helping her in the contest stating, "My mother saw a talent in me, and knew that it could be developed only if I worked at it. I would never have entered my first speech contest if it hadn't been for her." Miss Wilson tells of the many times she has wanted to quit when she was going rough or when she would rather play than study, but her mother's perseverance won out and she stayed with the task.

Mrs. Wilson has been her daughter's speech teacher for the past three years and Mrs. Howard Williamson of Clovis has assisted in polishing the speech for the contest. Miss Wilson also gives Supt. A. D. McDonald much credit for his encouragement during the past. "One person may get all of the credit for winning," she said, "but behind her stand many people who helped to make that win possible, and these three are those people."

Active in the Texico school, Veda was the 1965 Homecoming Queen, attended 1965 Girls' State sponsored by the American Legion Auxiliary, has been a varsity cheerleader for the past two years, is secretary of the Honor Society, editor of the school paper, attended the 1964 National Congress of 4-H Clubs in Chicago as the Home Economics winner from New Mexico, has played in the school band for seven years, majorette for two years, and drum major-ette for one year.

In addition she had the leading part in the senior play and a major part in the junior class play. She has been named to Who's Who in high school, has been a member of FBLA (Future Business Leaders) for three years, FHA for two years, and of the science club one year.

She serves as president of choir, historian of FBLA and will be a contestant for "Miss New Mexico FBLA" at the state contest in April.

According to Hugh Moseley, Parmer County tax assessor-collector, some 20 persons were registered in Friona last week and on Thursday persons in Bovina may register for voting, while representatives of the tax office are in that city to sell car license tags. Anyone who has not registered to vote in the Texas elections this year and who is eligible to register has only until tonight to do so.

Indian Crim Sets Annual Weather Forecast, March 22

The annual weather forecast for the coming year will be held at the J. W. Crim farm in the Lazbuddie community on Tuesday, March 22, at sunrise.

The weather forecast, which has been an annual event for the past 15 or 20 years in Parmer County, is an old Indian custom which Crim carries out according to instructions handed down from his father.

Many area farmers and other county residents have come to depend upon the forecast for indications as to whether conditions are right for a bad, good or mediocre crop year.

According to the Indian custom which Crim follows, a bonfire is lighted just as the sun rises on March 22 and the direction he wind carries the smoke from the fire indicates the weather conditions for the coming growing season.

Friends and relatives are invited to attend the affair by Crim, who will be assisted in preparing for the bonfire by his grandchildren. Coffee will be ready for all visitors on March 22, prior to the bonfire lighting.

Children Are Normal At Holtville Carnival

EDITOR'S NOTE
 The following article describing the reactions of "handicapped children" to the magic world of a carnival was written by Mrs. Robert (Bobbie) Widner, a teacher of Exceptional Children in Holtville, Calif., and daughter of Mrs. Fred Barker of Texico. Mrs. Widner grew up in Farwell and Friona and attended school at both places graduating from high school in Friona.
 She has been teaching "Exceptional Children" for a number of years and is presently serving as Senior Teacher for EMR in that area.

By Mrs. Robert Widner Holtville Teacher
 The afternoon sun was shining brightly as some 200 handicapped students gathered for an unforgettable experience in the magic world of the midway in this the 19th year of the carrot carnival.
 These youngsters were guests of the Holtville Chamber of Commerce and the local Soroptimist Club. The event was coordinated by Mrs. Martha Miller of the Soroptimist Club and chamber officials.
 Serving as chaperones for the afternoon were members of the Future Teachers Association and the Nurses Club of Holtville Union High School.
 The rides begin to roll. The excited chatter of children who were in a new and exciting world could be heard all about. Teachers and chaperones alike stopped in amazement and wonder as these handicapped children hurried from ride to ride. Every Community

 The boys and girls who were guests were students from almost every community in the Imperial Valley. Thirty-five invitations had been sent to schools that have programs for the "exceptional" children and youth.
 Attending were boys and girls from the Calpatira Unified School, Brawley Union High School, the Brawley Soroptimist School for the trainable retarded, Kopley School for the Physically Handicapped (operated through the office of the County Superintendent of Schools), and Holtville Union School district.
 For many this was a first... a first time at a midway, on a ferris wheel, a merry-go-round, a merry-mixer. The sheer delight mirrored on their faces as they passed with a box of popcorn in one hand, cotton candy in the other, was evident to everyone.
 Perhaps the most amazing thing of all was the happy, carefree atmosphere that prevailed throughout the afternoon. The little guests were quick to say those almost forgotten words: "Thank you" and "please."
 Magic World Ends
 Only after the two hours of fun drew to a close and the guests began boarding the yellow buses for their return was it evident that these children were "handicapped." The high school students who had helped to bring joy to the less fortunate stood about, a little dejected now that the magic world of the midway ceased to exist for the children.

On The Farm In Parmer County

By JOE VANZANDT
County Agent

No crop can be better than the seed planted. Low priced seed is often low quality seed. There are many varieties of each crop, and they differ in yielding ability and other characteristics, so it's important to select the best variety for this.

All seed offered for sale must have a Texas Tested Seed Label attached, except when one farmer sells to another and when the selling farmer does not advertise outside his home county or ship by a common carrier. The percentage of pure seed, inert material, other crop seed and weed seed must be on the seed label, and these should add up to 100.

Good seed of corn, oats, wheat, cotton, barley, rice and sorghum should contain at least 98.5 per cent pure seed. Good seed seldom has more than 1.5 per cent inert materials.

Buying certified seed is the best guarantee of varietal purity. Certified seed must meet a certain standard of perfection and should be the best seed of a particular variety available.

To be certified, each bag of Texas certified seed must have the blue certification tag and the small tin seal of the State of Texas attached. If these are not attached, the seed is not certified.

Fund Drive Successful At Oklahoma Lane

James Ensor, president of the Oklahoma Lane Community board of directors, announces that the recent fund drive in the community, in which funds were solicited for the upkeep of the community center, was a huge success.

Ensor explains that large contributions were discouraged, but everyone in the community was encouraged to give whatever amount he could in smaller contributions. Some $500 was collected during the drive.

Ensor extends special thanks to the board members, J. B. Young, Leon Billingsley, Mel-born Jones, David White, Harold Carpenter, Lillis Garner, Louise Christian, and Jennie Blankenship for their unceasing efforts during the drive.

GOOD NEWS for 4-H girls in Parmer County. A joint boys and girls Camp is being planned for the first part of August in the New Mexico Mountains. The boys have had their camp for many years, but girls have not. They have been planning to go camping and now plans are being made for that.

Next week several 4-H girls and boys will be presenting method demonstration to their clubs, as practice before an audience. They are getting ready for the County Contest on March 19, at Hub, Debra Harding, Lynne and Joyce White, of Farwell Club will give their demonstration Tuesday at their regular club meeting. Kevin Kaltwasser and Randy Gregory, Allen Guber and Niel Christian will be giving demonstrations on Wednesday in preparation for the County Contests. Mrs. Walter Kaltwasser is their leader.

FIRST AID FOR SILK FABRICS When in doubt, dry clean silk. It's wise to check the fabric label and follow the care directions. If no cleaning care instructions are provided, and you are in doubt, have the garment dry cleaned.

Problems occur with many silks when they are stained or spotted with water soluble substances. Food and perspiration are common examples of this type of stain.

When water and detergents are applied to the stained area, the dye in silk often bleeds. This is particularly noticeable in silk fabrics made with different colored yarns. The dye from the darker yarn will blend onto the lighter yarn and create a noticeable and permanent stain.

Often a professional spotter can successfully remove stains from silk, says the Institute of Dry Cleaning, but he's not a magician. Even if the dyes are fast, it's often hard to remove all traces of the stain.

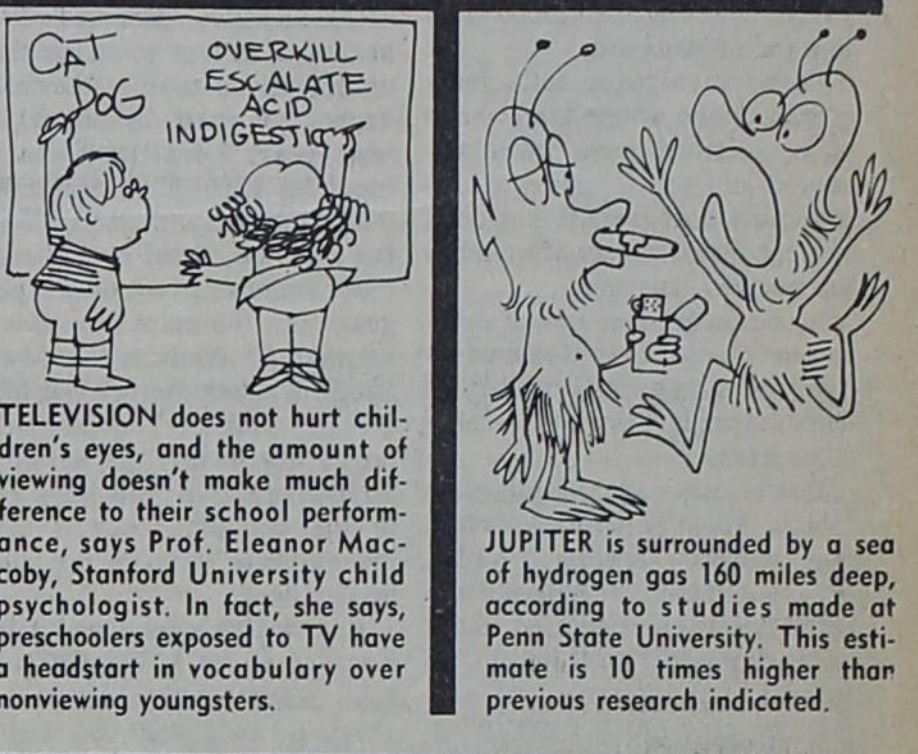

The best solution is to take the stained garment to a professional dry cleaner as soon as possible, and tell him what the stain is.

ON AIR It's no dream. It's available--now. A refrigerator that floats. An air cushion device, activated by fingertip control, floats the refrigerator a fraction of an inch above the floor, so it can be easily moved. Other refrigerators now come with wheels for easy moving. Other things to look for in the year ahead, according to the recent Agricultural Outlook Conference, are refrigerators with seven-day meat keepers and adjustable, many-position shelves. Also, all but the least expensive models will be frost-free. The automatic ice-maker was in about 90,000 units sold last year; it is estimated that more than 175,000 units will have this feature this year.

MUSIC SCRAPBOOK DISPLAY -- Elementary music pupils of Mrs. Odus Walser arranged a display of their scrapbooks for visitors to the school to view during Public School Week. This is but a small sample of the work done by the students in the past weeks.

SCIENCE SKETCHES

TELEVISION does not hurt children's eyes, and the amount of viewing doesn't make much difference to their school performance, says Prof. Eleanor Mac-coby, Stanford University child psychologist. In fact, she says, preschoolers exposed to TV have a headstart in vocabulary over nonviewing youngsters.

JUPITER is surrounded by a sea of hydrogen gas 160 miles deep, according to studies made at Penn State University. This estimate is 10 times higher than previous research indicated.

Highlights and Sidelights From Your State Capital

AUSTIN -- Texas School districts are receiving speedup orders on desegregation.

Integration of faculties, as well as student bodies, is the aim of federal authorities in laying down new guidelines for compliance with the civil rights act of 1964.

Both the Texas Education Agency and the State Board of Education received the policy statements and promptly scheduled meetings over the state to post local school administrators as to the requirements.

Primarily concerned are 600 districts that submitted voluntary desegregation plans to the U. S. Office of Education for the 1965-66 school year to assure that they remained eligible for federal aid.

Districts already fully integrated, those whose assurances of compliance have been accepted and those operating under court desegregation orders are not immediately affected by the revised policies.

U. S. Commissioner of Education Harold Howe II estimates that "race, color or national origin may not be a factor in hiring or assignment of teachers and other professional staff."

State Education Agency officials said evidence of compliance with this requirement is expected to be shown by next September.

Districts which have submitted desegregation plans, including those with geographical school attendance zones, just filed by April 15 a form agreeing to observe the new guidelines. Office of Education will review spring reports and schools judged to have shown no reasonable progress will be ordered to take further steps before fall.

School systems also must eliminate segregation in such programs as transportation, athletics and extra-curricular activities.

Where faculty members are displaced as a result of desegregation, staff vacancies later occurring must be filled by these ousted teachers if they qualify.

In other action the State Board of Education directed local school districts to raise their contributions to the foundation school program by $6,100,000 next year. Local fund assignment for 1966-67 is $138,000,000 compared with $132,500,000 for 1965-66.

Total cost of minimum foundation education program for the state this year is estimated officially at $649,326,890. Legislature set local school districts' contribution for 1966-67 and thereafter at 20 per cent of the total cost of the preceding year's program. State puts up the other 80 per cent.

Board also approved investment of about $7,000,000 from the State Permanent School Fund. Some $3,000,000 will be placed in common stocks, another $3,000,000 in corporate bonds and an estimated $1,000,000 in short-term Treasury bills.

deposit from school land, oil and gas leases, says Paul Matthews, chairman of the investment committee.

APPOINTMENTS -- Gov. John Connally named John L. Hill as Secretary of State. He replaces Crawford C. Martin of Hillsboro who resigned last week to devote full time to his campaign for attorney general.

Hill is an outstandingly-successful Houston civil trial attorney. He has tried cases in district courts in most areas of Texas during the past 19 years. His term will run until next January.

Connally named L. D. (Red) Webster and reappointed Al Badger, both of Dallas, to the Texas Commission on Alcoholism.

Also reappointed were Robert B. Gilmore of Dallas and W. E. (Buck) Tinsley of Austin to the Water Development Board.

House Speaker Ben Barnes appointed Reps. Gene Fondren of Taylor, George Cowden of Waco, Ralph W. Scoggins of El Paso, Rayford Price of Frankston and Lee Duggan Jr. of Houston to serve on a key election law study committee.

Lt. Gov. Preston Smith earlier had named Sen. Tom Creighton of Mineral Wells, Don Kennard of Fort Worth, Ralph M. Hall of Rockwall, Jack Hightower of Vernon and Abraham Kazen of Laredo to that panel.

AG RULINGS -- Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr has ruled that a domestic corporation can't pay dividends out of its earned surplus to anyone not a stockholder; and that a life insurance corporation may pay dividends out of its earned surplus to anyone not a stockholder; and that a life insurance corporation may pay dividends to policyholders from surplus funds -- from profits made by the company.

During February --

County Has 10 Rural Accidents

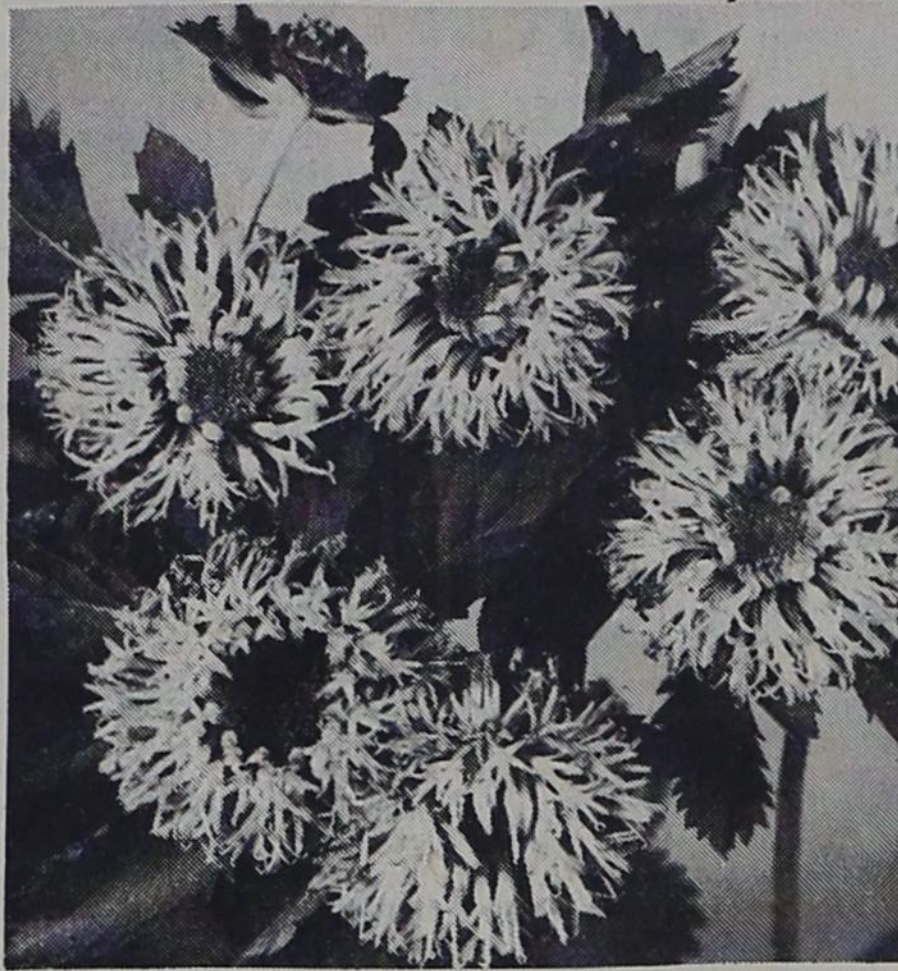

The Texas Highway Patrol investigated 10 accidents on rural highways in Parmer County during the month of February, according to Sergeant W. E. Wells, Highway Patrol Supervisor of this area.

These crashes resulted in three persons injured and an estimated property damage of $9,479.00.

The rural traffic accident summary for this county for the first two months of 1966 shows a total of 16 accidents resulting in no persons killed, 5 persons injured, and an estimated property damage of $12,239.00.

Only one month remains for some 2,340,000 vehicles registered in Texas to secure the 1966 safety inspection sticker. The period set by law for securing the 1966 sticker ends at midnight, April 15. The Sergeant stated, "Any motorist whose vehicle bearing Texas license plates that does not display the 1966 sticker after April 15 is subject to arrest by any Sheriff, Deputy Sheriff, City Policeman or any Officer of the Department of Public Safety and upon conviction will be subject to a fine not to exceed $200.00."

An Unusual Beauty

An unusual blue flower with blue-green leaves is called Centratherum. Try it this year for a new blue in your garden. It is very easy to grow; tolerates any soil.

The availability to the gardener of a flower often depends solely on the supply of seeds. Such is the case with an oddity called Centratherum, Manaos Beauty.

It has been offered in a limited way for several years but there has been such a small supply of seeds that it was impossible to distribute it widely. This year there apparently is enough seed so many gardeners may try this different flower.

Because the bloom color is blue, it is bound to be a favorite when it becomes known. Other things to commend it are the leaves, which are deep blue-green and grow in rosettes, its lack of insect pests and its tolerance of any soil.

Internal Revenue Question-and-Answer

This column of questions and answers on federal tax matters is provided by the local office of the U. S. Internal Revenue Service and is published as a public service to taxpayers. The column answers questions most frequently asked by taxpayers.

Q - My wife is filing her own income tax return. When I file will I still be able to claim her as an exemption?

A - No. If she has income, you may only claim her exemption when you file a joint return and include her income -- and deductions, if you claim them -- on that return.

Q - I made less than $10,000 last year, including interest on a savings account. Will I be able to use the short form when I file?

A - Assuming you are otherwise qualified, you can use the card form 1040A if all but $200 or less of your income consisted of wages reported on withholding statements and the remainder consisted of wages reported on withholding statements and the remainder consisted of either wages not reported on withholding statements, dividends or interest.

If any of your income came from a capital gain, for example, you could not use the short form.

Q - What do you have to do to be able to claim someone as a dependent? I support my mother's brother but I've been told that I can't claim him since he's not a member of my household.

A - Since your uncle is one of the blood relations listed in the law, he need not be a member of your household to qualify as a dependent. You must meet the other requirements, too, however. They are the support test, gross income test, citizenship or resident test, and the joint return test. See the 1040 instructions for explanation.

Q - Does a common law marriage entitle you to file a joint return?

A - If a couple is living together in a common law marriage recognized by the state in which it was entered into, a joint return may be filed.

Q - Is there any limit on what you can deduct per week for sick pay?

A - Yes, there is. After the 30-day waiting period the maximum is $100 a week. Details on the sick-pay exclusion for the first 30 days are given in the 1040 instructions.

Q - Some years back I had some medical expenses that I was able to deduct on my return. Then I could only deduct that amount that exceeded a percentage of my income. Does that still apply?

A - Yes, this limitation still applies for those under 65 years of age. Only medical expenses exceeding 3 per cent of adjusted gross income may be deducted when you itemize. Medicine and drug expense must exceed 1% of adjusted gross income before inclusion in medical expense for the 3% reduction. For those 65 and over and their spouses, all medical, medicine, and drug expenses that qualify may be totally deducted.

Q - How should I handle severance pay? Can I spread it out over several years?

A - Income is taxable in the year it is received. However, if the severance pay boosted your income by more than one-third what is normally is then the income averaging provisions of the law may help you. Ask for Schedule G of Form 1040 at any IRS office to get full details on this.

Q - I had some major purchases last year like a new car, color TV and dishwasher. Can I add the sales tax I paid on these items to the amount listed in the state tax table?

A - Yes and no. You may use both the sales tax table and add the actual amount of deductible tax paid on your car. Other large purchases such as the TV and dishwasher are already allowed for in the tax table.

Q - I worked on a farm last summer. Can you tell me why my boss withheld for Social Security but not for income tax?

A - According to the law, most agricultural workers are not subject to income tax withholding. These workers are required to estimate their yearly income on Form 1040ES and pay their tax quarterly. Social Security taxes, however, must be withheld.

Q - My son is in medical school and I've been providing more than half his support. Can I claim him as a dependent even though he is over 21?

A - Age is not a determining factor in whether he is your dependent or not. If you provide more than half his support then you may continue to claim him as a dependent.

Q - Three times last year I sold a few shares of stock in a company I have been investing in for years. How do I determine the purchase price of the shares for each sale as I bought them at various times at various prices?

A - The principle that applies here when no other price identification can be made is "first-in, first-out." In other words, consider the shares you sold first to be the first ones you bought and use their cost, the next shares you bought to be the second ones you sold and so on.

Application Blanks Available At Post Office

Supplemental Medicare Application blanks are available at either of the local post offices, announces Mrs. Hazel E. Engram, Texico postmaster, and James R. Smart, Farwell postmaster. All persons, 65 or over, interested in enlisting in the program are asked to pick up the blanks and file them prior to the deadline of March 31.

All applications must be filed before March 31, however, the program will not begin until July of this year.

Spicing Up Meats

Everyone today knows that foods taste infinitely better when they are spiced. But people knew this long ago too -- and with a vengeance. Empires were built on the spice trade -- and some topped. Wars were fought for spice territories and shipping routes. Exploring expeditions were financed by royalty to find elusive herbs. They were precious stuff. In fact, in 1284 there are records showing that a pound of Mace was worth three sheep or half a cow.

Today spices sit in long rows on supermarket shelves and we little realize how earth-shaking they once were. To do realize, however, how all-important they are to gastronomy. There's no meat that can't be enhanced with the proper seasoning. Salt and pepper are just a beginning in the art of spice cookery. But most new homemakers have little idea what spice goes with which meat, and that's why a new concept, Chef's Touch, is such a boom for beginning as well as seasoned chefs.

A collection of 20 pre-blended, pre-measured seasonings, this new product is geared toward specific meats as well as other foods. There's seasoning for lamb, ham, beef, veal, poultry -- as well as fish, vegetables, eggs, rice and dough. As a little bonus, each bottle has a fold out label which gives basic instruction for using the specific seasoning and several recipes for unusual dishes.

This new concept, developed by McCormick, does away with random spicing and over-seasoning. It's the smartest new way to spice up meats. And worth infinitely more than three sheep or half a cow to the modern homemaker.

MOST FRAGRANT

Gardeners who have grown flowers for years admit that the most fragrant is the old-fashioned mignonette. The flowers are not what anyone would call "showy." They are small, reddish or yellowish brown, against light green leaves. But, oh, that delightful, refreshing sweet scent! And mignonette is so easy to grow.

It is not generally known that mignonette is a good pot plant. As summer nears its end, pot up a few of the smaller plants from the garden and, after a week or so outdoors to allow them to re-establish their roots, bring them in and enjoy them during winter too.

According to Sadler, the mineral rights should be retained by the state for the benefit of the 3,000,000 school children aided by the Public Free School Fund, which is financed from mineral rights.

Sadler said the state and federal government should work together as partners in the project. This would mean that Texas and the federal government each would get half the benefits of the mineral deposits in the area.

*Ward County school trustees should be elected April 2 from commissioners precincts as they now exist rather than as they will be formed under the boundary change effective next January 1.

BONDS SOLD -- Texas Water Development Board has sold $15,000,000 worth of development bonds to the First National City Bank of New York City and associated, the low bidders.

Effective interest rate was 3.5 per cent of the 25-year issue.

First National City Bank was one of five bidders for the bonds. This brings to $85,000,000 the amount sold by the Board from an authorized total of $200,000,000. Another $200,000,000 authorization in water development bonds will be voted upon by Texans in November.

Bond money has been used to finance reservoir projects by the purchase of water storage space, and in the purchase of outstanding development bonds of Texas cities and water districts.

Center will place patients in community rest homes, nursing homes and convalescent centers in which they would receive proper care.

Friday Ceremony Unites Pat Childers, Gary Skaggs

A quiet but impressive ceremony in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Skaggs in Texico on Friday evening united in marriage Patricia Childers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Childers and Gary Paul Skaggs, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Skaggs. The double ring ceremony attended by close friends and relatives of the couple, was read by Rev. A. C. Ainsworth of the Advent Christian Church of Clovis.

Attending the couple were Veta Rudd, a close friend of the bride, and Ronnie Childers, brother of the bride. Miss Rudd wore a white dress with blue shoes and a blue corsage.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose a street length white dress with matching accessories. She wore a short veil of white silk illusion. Her corsage was a single white orchid, enhanced by blue net and ribbon.

A reception for close friends and relatives was held in the family room at the Skaggs home immediately following the ceremony. After the bride and groom had cut the wedding cake it was served with punch, mints and nuts. The tiered cake was trimmed in blue and topped by white sugar wedding bells. Miss Rudd presided at the serving table.

Mrs. Skaggs is a senior in Farwell High School and will continue her studies. She was elected FFA Sweetheart this year and is a candidate for "Most Beautiful Girl."

The groom is a 1964 graduate of Texico High School and Clovis and is in the Army Re-attened New Mexico State University. He is presently employed by Murphy-Echols in serve. He expects to be called into active service in the near future.

Following a honeymoon trip to Ruidoso the couple is at home in Texico.

Seven members answered roll call and one visitor, Mrs. Dora Smith, was in attendance. Colored pictures of the "Hobo Party" and "Pot Luck" dinner held at the Firemen's Hall were shown by Mrs. Gast. The pictures caused much laughter and comments on the good time had by all at that meeting. Mrs. Albert Thomas led a quiz game on the state capitals, using fictitious names and also a game on the names of snakes.

After a social hour during which handwork made by Mrs. Thomas was admired, tuna tarts, pickles, green pepper slices, cookies and cocoa were served.

MR. AND MRS. GEORGE LONDOP

Married 50 Years

Mr. and Mrs. G. H. (George) Lindop marked their 50th wedding anniversary with a reception in their home at 604 Second Street on Sunday afternoon March 13.

Children and grandchildren of the couple, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Lindop, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Barthell Ford and Mr. and Mrs. David Lindop, were hosts and hostesses for the social.

Alternating at the guest register were Mrs. David Lindop, Mrs. Barthell Ford and Mrs. Tom Lindop. Presiding at the guest register were Mrs. Joe Davis, Phyllis Christian, Mikala Austin and Donna Rundell.

The serving table was covered with white lace over gold and centered with the anniversary cake, white decorated with lovebirds and gold roses and topped with a miniature bride and groom figurine and the number 50. Placed at one end of the table was the crystal punch service and silver coffee service and at the other end was a six branched gold candelabra holding small leaf fern tinted in gold, miniature gold roses and white tapers. Napkins bearing the names "Frocia and George" completed table decor.

Many cards and letters of congratulations were received from friends and relatives unable to attend the celebration. Among the telephone calls of congratulations was one from Mr. and Mrs. Paul Roberts, brother of Mrs. Lindop of Sedona, Ariz., who were unable to attend.

Signing the guest register were Messrs. and Mmes. Herb Lindop, Amarillo; Fate Russell, Childress; W. N. Foster, L. M. Grissom and Lola Jean, A. V. Warren, Kattie and Alan, C. C. Christian and Phyllis, Lloyd Battey, Frank Taylor, Albert Smith, Guy Cox, G. T. Watkins and Mesdames Chris Moss, Ann Smith, Dora Smith, G. W. Atchley, Hedwig Gast, Lois Taylor, and Misses Donna Rundell and Mikala Austin.

Following is the original wedding story of the couple: On the 15th day of March, 1916, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Roberts invited friends and neighbors to their home to witness the marriage of their daughter, Frocia Mae, to Mr. George H. Lindop.

The reception hall and parlors were tastefully decorated with cut flowers and ferns. At eight o'clock Miss Ethel Hartwig took her place at the piano and accompanied Mr. George Adams, who sang by request "Annie Laurie." Miss Hartwig then favored the large crowd who waited with another piece on the piano and just before the bridal party entered Mrs. Malone sang the wedding song, "O Promise Me," and at the sound of Mendelssohn's wedding march there entered Mr. Gus French and Miss Ethel Roberts, who were best man and bridesmaid. They marched across the parlor and stood before an improvised altar of flowers and ferns.

Next came the bride leaning on the arm of the groom. During the ceremony Miss Hartwig played the soft strains of "The Flower Song." Bro. Maness said the words which pronounced them man and wife, using the ring ceremony.

The bride wore a beautiful wedding gown of light blue taffeta draped in real lace held in place with pink and blue rose buds and carried an arm bouquet of lilies of the valley. Miss Roberts as bridesmaid wore very delicate pink mull over pink taffeta and carried a bouquet of pink carnations.

Mr. George Lindop and Miss Frocia Roberts are among the most popular young people in the city and country as well, and the fact is well-known to those who viewed the table in the dining room which fairly glittered with beautiful silver and cut glass and numerous things useful to those who are to keep house.

After hearty congratulations and lots of good wishes the couple left in a car for the home already furnished by the groom, where they are at home to their friends on Pecan Street.

Operation Headstart Will Be Discussed For Woman's Club

Members of Texico Woman's Club will meet in the home of Mrs. Bill Stone on Monday evening at 8 p.m. A. D. McDonald, superintendent of Texico schools, will be guest speaker. He will discuss "Operation Headstart."

A nominating committee will be appointed and officers will be elected at the April meeting, according to Mrs. Truman Kottrell, publicity chairman.

Mrs. Elmer Teel will serve as co-hostess. A good attendance is encouraged.

Shower Honors Linda Rundell

A miscellaneous bridal shower honoring Linda Rundell, bride-elect of Jackie Dyer, was held in the Community Room of Security State Bank Friday evening. Hostesses for the courtesy were Mesdames Cotton Robertson, Elmore Hendrix, C. C. Christian, W. H. Dollar, Garland Hahn, Ray Tharp, Mose Glasscock, Leon Luce and Bunk Phillips.

Chosen colors of the honoree, blue and white, were used in table decorations. Centering the serving table was an arrangement of blue flowers in a brass bowl. Milkglass table appointments were used. Napkins bearing the names "Linda and Jackie" and the wedding date, "March 12, 1966" completed table decor.

Punch and mints were served with white cake squares iced in white with blue trim. Presiding at the serving table were Rosetta Chisman and Donna Kirk.

The honoree was assisted in opening gifts by her mother, Mrs. Robert Rundell Jr., and mother of the groom-to-be, Mrs. Archie Tarter. Donna Rundell registered the names in the bride's book.

Approximately 40 persons attended the shower and many unable to attend sent gifts.

What is there about traveling salesmen?

Well, one thing about a traveling salesman is that he gives his car hard usage. Business calls require a lot of start and stop driving. And that's when corrosive engine wear can cause serious damage.

Actually, start and stop driving is the kind of driving most of us do most of the time. So, to protect your motor under these severe conditions, your Phillips 66 Dealer recommends Trop-Artic All-Season Motor Oil. Trop-Artic starts protecting at low temperatures, and keeps on protecting at high operating temperatures. It's a light oil, a medium oil and a heavy oil, all in one!

To keep your car running better longer, get Trop-Artic Motor Oil at any station where you see the Phillips 66 Shield.
