

It is not often that a completely commercial enterprise gets a free plug in The State Line Tribune. My financially oriented wife usually sees to that detail. This week she agrees with me on this tale of Texas wonder. Two weeks ago, our last convention feature was a tour of the "Caverns of Sonora" located at Sonora, Texas. This hamlet is situated 75 miles south of San Angelo on US 277. It is the site of the largest caverns in the State of Texas, and probably the most scenic caves in the world. Up until two weeks ago, we were ignorant of their existence, as I am sure are most of the folks in this area.

These caves are not as extensive or as massive as those at Carlsbad. The formations are sometimes quite small. The passageways are often very narrow and low. The entire trip consumes about an hour and a half and takes you a mile or so in a winding course. The feature of these caverns is the exquisitely beautiful formations that abound throughout. Whereas most caverns are dead, that is, the formations are not growing, these grottoes are alive. The formations are still in the process of growing or being formed. We of this generation and the next several will not see much of a change but the water dripping is there and about an inch per century is being formed.

I do not have the ability to put on paper the fantastically beautiful formations that abound in such profusion. This cave contains a particular formation called helictites that are extremely rare. They claim there are more of these fascinating growths in this cave than all the known caves in the world. I feel that this is not an exaggeration. If you are at any time within a day's drive of Sonora, it will be well worth your time to visit this attraction. Again "Texas Brags," but these caves can well back up their publicity.

Monday morning our ears were assailed with a raucous cacophony of growls, roars, grunts, and snarls. Ah, such sweet music in the air. This was the opening gun of the football season that is fast approaching.

Coach Booth and his charges were limbering up on the gridiron and were vocally expressing their determination to give Farwell High School another fine football machine. We have an excellent grid schedule on tap for the local football devotees this year.

And, we at The Tribune have a great football contest in the offing. This annual guessing game is made possible by the Farwell merchants who sponsor a section of the weekly page devoted to the contest. Look for the first one to come out in the issue of September 9th, the weekend of our first game when we host the Friona Chieftains. Need more be said?

The annual ESA Rummage sales which began two weeks ago are scheduled to continue this Saturday. The sale will get underway at 3 p.m. and conclude at 5 p.m. Sales are held weekly in the old ASCS office in downtown Farwell.

Mrs. Frank Hammonds, chairman of the sales committee, invites anyone with rummage to donate to call her at 481-3207. The rummage will be picked up by a member of the ESA organization.

SIGN HERE -- Hurshel Harding, Jerry Bradshaw, R. W. Anderson and Fred Chandler, who have been instrumental in getting plans well underway for the Farwell Country Club and Family Recreational Center, invite prospective members to SIGN HERE. Memberships are $100 each and may be paid in four installments of $25 each or all at one time.

Farwell To Have Country Club

Plans for the Farwell Country Club and Family Recreation Center are well underway with members of the planning committee and the sponsoring organization, Farwell Jaycees, working late into the night Tuesday to complete plans for acquiring the necessary land, working out details on construction and planning a membership drive, to begin immediately. Jerry Bradshaw served as chairman of the organizational meeting.

An FHA appraiser, from whom a loan has been arranged, has appraised the 75 acres of land north of town belonging to Dr. V. Scott Johnson, and proposed site for the Country Club, at $500 per acre. Now that approval of a loan has been given by the FHA for construction of the club, the next step is acquired memberships. The FHA stipulates that at least ten per cent of the loan must be on deposit by the time the loan is finally consummated. Therefore, it is imperative that persons pay their membership fee NOW.

Membership fees are $100 until October 1 after which time they will be $200 each, if available. Goal for initial memberships is 200. A minimum monthly fee of $10 will be charged members beginning at the time the first facility is open for general use. Members may pay the $100 now or they may pay $25 now and $25 for the next three months.

Tentative plans call for the construction of a nine-hole golf course, an outdoor Olympic swimming pool, a club house with an adjoining apartment, and a paved road giving access to the club site, at a cost of approximately $150,000. Present plans call for completion of the swimming pool by June 1, 1967 with the golfing greens ready for use by late fall 1967.

Membership committee is composed of R. W. Anderson, Hurshel Hardin, Troy Christian, Harry Ray Jesko and Adolph Haseloff. Anyone interested in securing a membership to the club should contact one of the committee members immediately.

Persons in attendance at the planning session were Don Geries, Jerry Bradshaw, Hurshel Harding, Fred Chandler, W. M. Roberts, Jackie Williams, Elmer Hargrove, Billy Watts, John Getz, Fred Magness, Eddie Traxson, Pat Patrick, James Craig, Gil Patschke, Harry Ray Jesko, Herb Potts, Bill Prince, A. T. Watts, R. W. Anderson, Joe Hughes and Troy Christian.

In Farwell -- Faculty Meeting August 24 Registration August 25-26

Superintendent W. M. Roberts announces the first general faculty meeting of the 1966-67 school year for 10 a.m. on August 24, in the library of the new high school building.

After the general meeting of all teachers, the high school teachers will meet with Amos Tatum, high school principal; junior high school teachers will meet with James Craig; and elementary teachers will meet with Jack Williams.

Registration for the high school students will be held on Thursday and Friday, August 25 and 26. Seniors will register at 10 a.m. on August 25, with juniors registering at 2 p.m. on the same day. Sophomores will register on Friday, August 26, at 10 a.m. and freshmen will register at 2 p.m. on the same day.

All sixth, seventh and eighth grade students will register on Friday, August 26, at 9:30 a.m. in the junior high school building.

Enrollment fees for workbooks for the junior high students will be $3.00. This should be paid at time of registration, says the superintendent.

All sixth, seventh and eighth grade girls will be required to have the standardized P.E. uniform, blue shorts and white blouses, trimmed in blue. The student's name will be on the left leg of the shorts in white, and on the left side of the blouse in blue. The uniforms may be ordered at the time of registration from Vance Hall's Sporting Goods of Amarillo. Price of the uniforms is $4.95 each. Mothers of students may make the uniforms as long as they are of the same style and color. Girls in the seventh and eighth grades may use the ones they had the previous year.

Texico Registers August 29

First faculty meeting in Texico will be held Friday, August 26, at 9 a.m. in the high school building, according to A. D. McDonald, superintendent.

Following the general faculty meeting, elementary teachers will meet with Mrs. Zelfa Younger, elementary principal, and high school teachers will meet with James Pierce, high school principal.

All students in the school will register on the first day of school, August 29. Busses will run on their regular schedule and are due to arrive at the school, bringing the students at 8:45 a.m. Students will be returned home after noon. Lunch will be served in the school cafeteria on the first day of school, according to the superintendent, who says students will participate in a full day's activities after registering and being issued books before they return home.

SHOO BIRDS -- This piece of equipment is the modern replacement for the scarecrow. The device utilizes carbide gas to emit a loud bang every ten minutes or so and does an effective job of keeping the birds away from the crop. This particular device was put into use by Nathan Tharp of Texico.

Auction Set

W. M. Roberts, Farwell school superintendent, announces an auction sale for Tuesday, August 23, at 2:30 p.m. The sale will be held in the area between the lunchroom and the bus barns at the school. Millard Long will be auctioneer.

Included in the items for sale are several arm chairs (desks) tables, teacher's desks, some shelving material, shop equipment, including one radial saw and many other items too numerous to mention.

Boosters Make Plans

First fall meeting of the Farwell Booster Club was held on Tuesday night with President Harry Sheets urging all supporters to give their memberships to treasurer Bill Meeks or a member of the club immediately.

Also on the agenda was the planning of a program of booster activities for the coming football season.

SIGNING UP MEMBERS -- Bill Meeks and Harry Sheets sign up Pershing Busbice and Glenn Phillips as 1966-67 Booster Club members.

The Steers will work out twice a day during the coming week and will end the twice-a-day sessions with a scrimmage with the Portales Rams, Friday night at Portales.

The morning workouts usually last from an hour to an hour and twenty minutes and are devoted primarily to fundamentals with little or no contact work. The evening sessions last from an hour and a half to two hours and include contact work and intersquad scrimmaging.

When asked how the squad looked after the opening session, Coach Booth replied, "Fair, but it's still too early to tell much."

A VERY Fairy Tale

Once upon a time, on a small ranch in the southern part of a mighty nation, there lived a little boy. This little boy was different from most little boys his age. He didn't want to grow up to be a fireman, policeman, cowboy, or any of the things that most little boys want to grow up to be. This little boy had a very special dream. He wanted to be the President of his great country. "Forget it," his father would say, "only underhanded men can be politicians. You are much too honest to ever become President."

But the little boy didn't let his father's words discourage him. He was determined to prove to the world that an honorable person could become President.

"I will show them," he would say, "even though I am an honest, upright person of high morals, I will become President. I will prove to everybody that honesty is the best policy."

The years passed and the little boy worked hard. He went to school by day and worked at the local stockyards by night, in order to provide bread for his poor old mother and dad.

Sure enough, one day the little country boy grew up to be a man and became his party's candidate for the office of President.

Even though he was surrounded by graft and corruption, he never let his high ideals of honesty be dimmed by those who would have him deceive the public just to obtain ill-gotten votes.

"Smear your opponent," his evil campaign managers would say. "Tell the people that he is a warmonger and that if he is elected, it will mean World War III."

"No," the young man from the little ranch would say, "I will not do what you ask. I am an honest man, and I will not deceive the public. They must make up their own minds as to which one of us they want for their leader."

Sure enough, election day came, and the people of his great country were not deceived by the madman ravings of his opponent, Harry Moldwater. They chose the one time small boy with a dream to lead them against the evils of a corrupted world.

One of his first acts as President was to immediately cut taxes in half.

"The hard working people of this great land must not be burdened by such a heavy tax load. I will cut government spending so that the people may have more money to spend on themselves."

The great President was also grieved because his country was involved in a war in Asia. The evil warmongers in the war department advised the President to bomb the poor people whom they blamed for the war, but the great President would have no part of it.

"Bombs are not the answer," he would say. "That is what Harry Moldwater wanted to do. I will reason with the North Forgetneise. They will surely find it in their hearts to end the war."

Sure enough, when the leader of the North Forgetneise, Ho Ho Hum, heard the President's impassioned plea for peace, he was overcome with remorse and immediately ordered his troops to cease fighting. The great President had proved to the evil generals that the tonsil was indeed mightier than the sword.

Once, the black hearted aluminum companies raised the prices on aluminum. The President's aides said to him, "Make them lower their prices, threaten to dump government stockpiles of aluminum on the market."

"No," the great President would say. "Even though the price raise is not in the best interest of the country, I will not do as you ask. This country was built on the foundation of private enterprise and the government has no business interfering."

The great President always let the principle of honesty guide him. One time an evil senate aide offered him a stereo set as a bribe. The great President smote him down with angry words.

TO BATTLE THE BULGE - Some pointers that may help you if you have some extra pounds you could do without.

-Use your head to help your figure.

-Ask yourself: is one minute of a pleasant taste worth the calories it adds?

-When cooking for others, don't kill them with kindness and rich foods.

-Spend calories as carefully as your money and time.

-Eat when you are hungry, but stop before you are "full."

-Never eat to save food. Don't make a "garbage pail" out of your stomach. Better let it go to "waste," than go to the "waist."

-Hunger is need for food, appetite is just the desire for it.

-Eat more protein foods. Slow down on fats and sweets.

CORRECTION: An error in printing last week's column may have confused some of you about high altitude cake making. About the baking powder, this should read: for each teaspoon of baking powder in recipe reduce 1/8 of a teaspoon for 3000 ft. and 1/8 to 1/4 teaspoon for each teaspoon at 5000 ft. altitude.

FOOD PRESERVATION - is high on the list of activities this month. Many calls have come in for information on this subject recently. Bulletins on freezing, canning, pickling and etc., are here for your help and information. They are based on scientific research authority and this is the best source of information available. These bulletins are free and may be mailed without charge, so use your County Extension office when in need of information in Homemaking.

Some people like Watermelon Sweet pickles and others may like to try these for variety in pickles. Here is a recipe that you may like to use:

WATERMELON SWEET PICKLES
7 pounds or 1 gallon watermelon rind
1 quart white vinegar
5 pounds or 10 cups sugar
1 stick cinnamon
Few whole cloves

Select a thick rind, firm melon. Cut green skin and pink flesh from rind of melon. Cut into cubes or desired shape and size.

Soak several hours or overnight in cold water; better in the refrigerator. Boil in water 10 minutes, pour off water and drain. Boil vinegar, sugar and spices tied loosely in cheese cloth to form a thick syrup. Drop rind into the thick syrup and cook until clear. Let cool and pack into hot sterilized containers. If syrup is not thick when rind is clear, drain off syrup and boil until thick. Add rind and cool as above.

"Begone you bringer of evil. I will have no part of your foul schemes. As punishment for attempting to bribe me, I intend to ask for a full Senate investigation of your activities."

The years passed, and the great President never failed in what he considered his obligation to the people. He never forgot his humble beginnings, and with honesty being his guiding light, he built a truly great society, and the people of a grateful nation lived happily ever after.

Why do people who can afford any central heating system almost always pick the least expensive?

95 percent of the centrally heated homes in this area that cost over $50,000 are heated by natural gas. Obviously, their owners could have bought any system they wanted. Why natural gas? Because people with money demand the best, even if it happens to cost less. How is natural gas best? Five ways: (1) Fresh. Gas systems bring fresh air in from outside, heat it, and distribute it through your home. (2) Even. Gas systems circulate fresh air evenly to every corner of the house: no hot spots, no cold spots, no stale air, no odors. (3) Clean. Gas systems filter the air sky-blue clean. (4) Dependable. Gas is famous for its dependability: gas gets through regardless of the weather. Gas lines are down underground where high winds and heavy icing can't get at them. (5) Economical. Gas systems heat for 1/3 the cost of electric systems, and even people with money do not object to saving money. And of course, you don't need expensive additional insulation when you heat with gas. Result of all this excellence: 95 percent of the over-$50,000 centrally heated homes in this area are heated by natural gas. Happy P.S.: 95 percent of the centrally heated under-$50,000 homes in this area also do it with gas!

HD Agent Explains Terms Used On Menus

By Cricket B. Taylor
Are you one of those persons who has ordered from a menu and wondered what would show up on your plate? Foreign terms on today's menus puzzle many people. For example, if you wanted ordinary green beans, you'd be in for a surprise if you ordered green beans amadine, or green beans julienne.

Some of the foreign terms that appear most often on menus are listed here. Look it over so that the next time you eat out this summer, you'll know what you have ordered before the waitress sets it in front of you.

1. A la (ah lah) -- A French term which means to be with, such as apple pie a la mode means to serve with ice cream.
2. A la carte (a lah CART) -- Means that each dish is purchased separately; the dish is not part of the complete meal.

Should We?

At the Tuesday night meeting of the Farwell Booster Club, plans were discussed for the sale of season athletic tickets which would take care of admittance to all home athletic events (football, basketball and all others) of all teams, excluding tournaments at a nominal fee.

The club would assist the school's Athletic Department with sale of the tickets, if it appears feasible to go ahead with the plans. All funds derived from sale of the tickets would go into the school athletic funds to be dispersed by the school. Under the plan, adult tickets would be $10 each, with student tickets selling for $5, according to Harry Sheets, Booster Club president. Persons who did not wish to buy the tickets would be charged the normal fee for admittance to any of the home games they wished to attend.

All persons are invited to express their views on the matter to any member of the Booster Club or any of the coaches. Everyone is invited to the Booster Club meeting on Tuesday night at which time a final decision on whether to go ahead with the plans or drop them will be reached. The meeting will be held at Clara's Cafe at 8:30 p.m.

Question at this time is "SHOULD WE - or SHOULD WE NOT?" Attend the meeting and express your views on the matter!

Pools See "Hello Dolly" In Chicago

Mr. and Mrs. Lenton Pool returned Thursday from a two weeks' trip to several places of interest in the United States and Canada. They also visited in Chattanooga, Tenn., in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Pool and children and in Holdenville, Okla., with a friend of Lenton Pool whom he had not seen in some 30 years.

Leaving Chattanooga, the Pools traveled to Cincinnati, Ohio, where they spent one day and night sightseeing. From Cincinnati they went to London, Canada, where they visited the "Storybook Gardens", a park and zoo where animals are shown in the storybook settings such as "The Three Bears", "Little Red Riding Hood", and many others. Mrs. Pool took many pictures of the gardens to show her second grade class this year.

On the return trip they spent three days in Chicago and were lucky enough to see Eve Arden in the stage production, "Hello Dolly." They also visited the museum of natural history and the museum of Science and Industry. They took a boat ride along the Chicago River and Lake Michigan, where a guide pointed out many of the most interesting places to visit in Chicago, making it much easier for the local people to find their way about in the "windy city."

In Springfield, Mo., they visited the home of Abraham Lincoln. Concluding their trip they spent some time in St. Louis and Tulsa, with stops in various other places.

Court Reporter 1966-67 President

Bobby G. Rogers of Littlefield has been elected President of the Texas Shorthand Reporters Association, it was announced today. Rogers has been Official Court Reporter of the 154th Judicial District serving Lamb, Bailey and Parmer Counties since the district was created in 1957. Prior to that time he was official court reporter for the 64th Judicial District which served these counties along with Castro, Hale and Swisher Counties.

The Texas Association has been in existence for 46 years, and has members from almost every county of the state. Its members are professional court, hearing and general shorthand reporters who make verbatim reports of proceedings, using both pen and machine shorthand to record what is said at the speed of speech.

Rogers stated that the state association is seeking Certified Shorthand Reporter Legislation which will require the examination and licensing of shorthand reporters. "Especially in the courts, where the public's property rights, personal liberty, and even life itself are involved, an accurate record is of utmost importance, for appeals are based, and de-

Rogers also said that the Texas Association would continue to work with the National Shorthand Reporters' Association in a national effort to interest others in the field of shorthand reporting. "A career often overlooked by young people is that of the 'silent' man or woman of the courtroom—the career of shorthand reporting. Yet the life of a court reporter affords interesting mental activity, never-ending variety, and substantial financial rewards. High School seniors can learn more about it from their guidance counselors, or from any local court reporter," Rogers stated.

PROGRESSIVE BUSINESS & CIVIC-MINDED PEOPLE OF CLOVIS AND VICINITY

This department has been worked up largely as a reflection of public opinion. No person has written of themselves or their business. All articles have been compiled by a representative of The State Line Tribune as he saw conditions. These people are all leaders in their various lines of endeavor and the cooperation of those citizens in Clovis who helped make this department possible is sincerely appreciated.

Bob Harper And Don Campbell

In critical times such as these, it takes business men of more than average ability to carry on their operations successfully. In making this statement, those we have in mind are two of the district's more dependable automobile dealers, Bob Harper of Bob Harper Ford Sales Incorporated, the firm's friendly and capable sales manager, Don Campbell, who have a wide circle of personal friends and satisfied customers scattered throughout this entire region.

Their contagious optimism, and freely expressed belief in the assured future prosperity of the people of Clovis and its metropolitan trading area, are characteristics which are to be appreciated in progressive business men. They have always taken an interest in community affairs, and have shown a willingness to shoulder their share of the civic load.

It is such men as Bob Harper and Don Campbell who, because of the successful conduct of their business and private affairs, and their eagerness to contribute to the public good, who are wholly deserving of a few words of commendation. It is a pleasure to pay them this brief tribute.

Ilene Price

Good motels and tourist courts are indispensable to the progress and development of a growing city such as Clovis. And the Silver Spur Motel, combining the best features of both, has accommodated a great many tourists and business men in a manner that assures them of the continued patronage and good will of the motoring public.

The management of the Silver Spur Motel has maintained an ideal of service which is thoroughly exemplified in the manner in which every need of the traveling motorist has been anticipated and prepared for. Nothing is taken for granted; nothing is forgotten, and hospitality and service is always their first and last consideration.

Much of the credit for the splendid reputation of this modern drive-in motel is due to the executive ability of Ilene Price, whose untiring efforts, foresightedness, and careful attention to detail, have maintained a standard of hospitality and service which would be difficult to surpass. It is a pleasure to publish these few words of praise about the Silver Spur Motel, and its friendly and capable manager, Ilene Price.

Mr. And Mrs. "Al" Sass

It is no coincidence that more frequently than not, those who take a progressive part in the business and civic life of their city, are the same ones who are pre-eminently successful in conducting their own private affairs. In connection with the foregoing statement, we wish to mention and pay tribute to Mr. and Mrs. "Al" Sass of the Sass Studio.

They have proven very ably that they are photographers of more than average ability, for it is largely due to their progressive methods, coupled with their sound and practical ideas that their studio holds its high position in the public's opinion in this area. They have made their business a "profession", with the result that they are today two of the more popular photographers in Clovis, giving to their patrons an excellence of artistic service seldom equaled.

It is also true that Mr. and Mrs. Sass do their share toward community improvement, and have given freely of their time and energy to those enterprises which have benefited the city at large. We are glad to voice our praise of two citizens who are successful in their own business, and who also have time to give toward community development.

M. E. "Fud", Don M., And Gary Bell

The men in a community, who work for the best interests of that community, usually are leaders in whatever they attempt. This is especially true of real estate men, because they are generally among the first to be called on to help with all worthy civic projects. Three such men are M. E. "Fud", Don M., and Gary Bell of the Bell Real Estate Company Incorporated, three of the city's better known and more dependable realtors. They stand at all times prepared to assist their city, and are always ready if necessary, to take off their coats and work for its best interests.

It is such men as the Bell's who have had the vision to realize the possibilities of Clovis and the surrounding territory, and have given of their time and energy to make that vision come true, who have won the respect and good will of their fellow citizens.

We take pleasure in paying this brief tribute to "Fud", Don and Gary Bell for their being far-sighted business men who are firmly established in the forefront of the business and commercial life of this entire area.

Robert W. And Bobby L. Skeen

In every community, there are a number of business men who can be pointed out as having taken a three-fold part in the onward progress of their city. Two well known business men of Clovis who belong in this category are Robert W. and Bobby L. Skeen of Skeen Dry Cleaners.

Their leadership in their line of business is recognized throughout this entire region. And their furtherance of civic activities and support of those organizations whose main objectives are directed along lines of civic betterment and community progress is well known to their immediate associates.

The Skeen's are men who are equally well liked and respected by their intimate friends and their customers. They are loyal to the community, thankful for their success in business, and have shown their appreciation by their contributions to various civic movements of benefit to the city.

We congratulate Robert and Bobby Skeen for being good citizens, dependable business men, and boosters of their community.

H. G. Souders

In bestowing credit upon some of the more progressive business men of Clovis who in one way or another, are contributing their bit to improve both business and civic conditions, we wish to publish a few words about H. G. Souders of the American Oil Company Service Station, located at 7th & Hull.

During the short time he has been operating the business, Mr. Souders has set a standard for himself, as well as the management of the station that, under present existing conditions, has been very difficult to maintain. However, that he has done so is proved by the large volume of business which American Oil Company Service Station continues to handle, much of which is due to his unceasing attention to detail, and his ability to cope with new and unexpected problems.

H. G. Souders is also civic-minded and has, when asked, cheerfully cooperated on those civic activities to which he has been able to lend assistance. He more than deserves the respect and good will which he has earned, and his many newly acquired friends and customers are confident that he will continue to maintain his usual integrity and high standards.

J. G. Garrison

We wish in this edition to pay tribute to J. G. Garrison of the Rite-way Janitor Service, for his many services to the city of Clovis, and his splendid record of achievements in the business life of the city.

Mr. Garrison probably has as wide a circle of friends as any other man we could name, because he is just naturally the kind of individual who makes friends with almost everyone, and always conducts himself in such a manner as to deserve the respect and good will of all who know him. Clovis is fortunate in being able to number among its more progressive business men, citizens of this kind.

He is always ready and willing to lend his support to the promotion of any project which promises to benefit this entire district.

He may be depended upon, and his services to the people are too many in number to be described here. It may be sufficient to say that we consider J. G. Garrison an asset to his community, and a dependable business man of whom the city may be proud.

Homer J. "Pepper" Tankersley Jr.

Generally speaking, civic pride is one of those things that goes hand-in-hand with success, because a man must have been successful to fully appreciate the advantages that were afforded him by the community in which he lives.

And Homer J. "Pepper" Tankersley Jr., of the Town & Country Men's Shop, is one of those progressive business men of Clovis who has shown his appreciation for his success by his attention to civic and religious activities, as he is the director of music at the Central Baptist Church, while Mrs. Tankersley is the pianist. Their willingness to become cogs in the wheels of community progress, whenever united effort is needed to put over some movement or project advanced for the good of the city has always been taken for granted.

Mr. Tankersley's quiet assumption of responsibility, not only in connection with his own business, but in regard to other matters as well, has often lent a feeling of confidence to others interested in the same movements.

In complimenting "Pepper" Tankersley Jr., upon his high standing in the community, we do no more than express the admiration and respect of his many friends and associates.

Elwyn E. Crume

There are many men in their chosen vocations who have gained recognition for the progressive manner in which they have conducted their business, and accepted their civic responsibilities, but who will not permit much to be said of their achievements.

But in reviewing a group of such citizens we should include Dr. Elwyn E. Crume, well known, and completely reliable optometrist, for he is a man who has always done his work effectively, even though it has been accomplished in an unobtrusive manner.

Dr. Crume, busy as he is, always manages somehow or other to do his bit in any movement calculated to benefit the community as a whole. His modesty however, will not permit him to say the things about himself which are said by his friends, who do so because of a personal knowledge of his activities.

We do not hesitate to recommend Elwyn Crume to our readers as a citizen who continues at all times to work to the advantage of the people of this entire district.

Jerald McGehee

It is a well known fact that a man's true character must come through in his work; whether in business or professional activities or in public life. So when a man conducts himself in such a manner as to cause the public to recognize in him certain qualities over and above the average, he is deserving of a few words of praise. Such a personality is Jerald McGehee of M & M Residential Designs, a leader in the business and commercial life of Clovis.

In addition to being one of the city's more conscientious business men, Mr. McGehee was never one to shirk his civic duties. More than that, he enters cheerfully and with enthusiasm and optimism into those civic affairs in which he has time to take a part, and seldom does he fail to find time to do his share.

Jerald McGehee deserves his share of credit for being one of those dependable citizens of Clovis who has contributed so substantially to the onward progress of the city. It is a pleasure to include him in this group.

Curtis Cox

Curtis Cox of Star Refrigeration Incorporated, is one of those progressive business men who has always done his bit to maintain the prestige of the city of Clovis as the leading trading center for this section. He has always worked for the development of the city, and his many services are worthy of sincere appreciation.

His well-earned success as a business man is easily understood, knowing as the people do, his widespread reputation for the honesty which characterizes all of his business dealings.

And it is a combination of technical knowledge, professional skill and business ability which has elevated Mr. Cox to a position of leadership in the refrigeration and air conditioning sales and service business.

He is completely aware of his civic responsibilities, and is wide awake to the many opportunities for service, and is always ready and willing to lend his support to any project which promises to benefit the community as a whole.

We compliment Curtis Cox on his accomplishments, and wish for him continued success.

Ann McGee And Lee Hunter

To serve the public honestly, efficiently, and cheerfully, is the basic foundation many progressive business people of Clovis have found to be the shortest route to success. In making this statement, the two we have in mind are Ann McGee and Lee Hunter of Ann-Lee's Specialty Shop. The popularity and patronage enjoyed by their many services accentuates the ideals of courtesy and efficiency which they have consistently applied in the management of the business, and in the servicing of its customers.

The conduct of such businesses, and those who operate them have done much to make Clovis the business center for many miles around, and it is fitting that we give credit where credit is due to such citizens as Mrs. McGee and Mrs. Hunter for their part in the onward progress of the city. In doing so, we are merely putting into words the opinions of those who know them.

Lee Hunter and Ann McGee have earned their success by the method in which they have served the public, and accepted both civic and business responsibilities, and we wish them both every success in the future.

E. L. Sutton

Recognized as one of the more progressive business men of Clovis, E. L. Sutton of Sutton's Bakery, performs a real service for the people of his city, and his contributions to civic betterment are too well known to require repetition in these columns. His personal success has been achieved in a large measure, because he never misses an opportunity to further the service he renders to the public. A policy which has, and continues to build up good will for Sutton's Bakery throughout this entire district.

Mr. Sutton is deserving of praise, and this brief tribute is but a just recognition for the many services which he has performed in the way of both business and civic activities. Also his reputation for the successful conduct of his business affairs, is no greater than his reputation for the honest practices which characterize his every transaction.

We congratulate E. L. Sutton on his splendid record, and trust he shall continue to serve the people of Clovis and vicinity.

Bill Adams

It isn't the size or volume of a man's business which determines its value to the community in which he lives. But rather by the manner in which it is conducted. Which, to a greater or lesser degree, reflects the personality and character of the individual. The value of Bill Adams' business to his city is a reflection of his progressiveness, and a determination to render the utmost in service, a policy which has caused Poor Boy's Butcher Shop to be so well thought of, and so widely patronized by the people of Clovis and the surrounding area. That same dependability and honesty which has made him so successful in his own business, has also fitted Mr. Adams to be of assistance on community projects and public drives. Moreover, he does so cheerfully, and with a friendly spirit of cooperation that is always more than welcome.

It is a pleasure to include Bill Adams in this Clovis review, and to wish him further success in his field of endeavor.

Mamie O'Briant

A drive-in restaurant operator of Clovis who has based her success upon the belief that the public will appreciate good food, well prepared and appetizingly served, is Mamie O'Briant of the Thunderbird Drive In No. 1, whose many friends and customers by their daily patronage of her popular eating place, attest to the soundness of her policy.

It is not only because of the successful operation and management of her drive in that Mamie O'Briant has come to be recognized as an asset to the community; but it is also because of her policy of "looking ahead", and endeavoring to sponsor or take part in those community activities which will, in some manner benefit the city of Clovis and the people as a whole. She is another of those women who has shown her appreciation for her success by a willingness to contribute of her time and efforts to the promotion of community projects.

It is such citizens as Mamie O'Briant whom we are privileged to include in this review, and to publicly give her due credit for her success in business and civic affairs.

Don D. Denton

Every progressive and successful business man in Clovis contributes in some manner to the growth and progress of the city. And one who is always willing to do his part in both civic and business activities is Don D. Denton of the Denton Oil Company, wholesale distributor for Bay Petroleum Products, and general contractor, who is well known, and has many friends and business associates throughout this entire district.

The prominent part that the Denton Oil Company is playing in the business and commercial life of this region, mirrors the dependability and honesty of such men as he. Moreover, Mr. Denton has also at all times been steadfast in his devotion to the city, and the surrounding country, and on many occasions has lent his support to the successful promotion of meritorious civic projects.

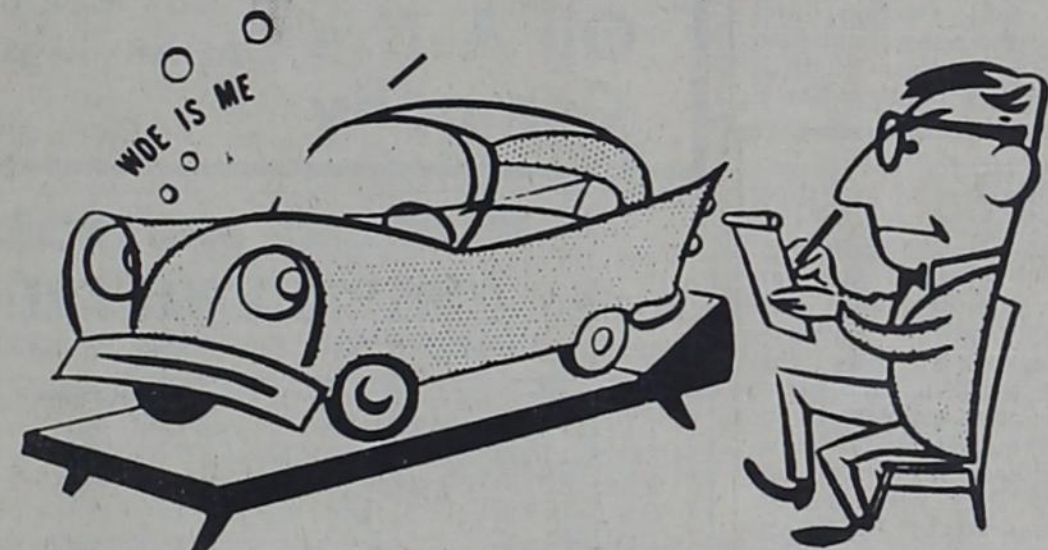

Clovis and this district are fortunate to have such a man as Don Denton in a position of responsibility and service, and this newspaper feels that it merely reflects public opinion in paying this brief tribute to one of the city's more progressive business men.

It is fitting in this review of progressive Clovis business men that we acquaint our readers with the two to be credited with having maintained the Springer Corporation in the enviable position it holds in the business and commercial life of this area. Those personalities are L. D. Alexander and Ronald Grenko, whose genius for organization, and for converting new ideas into actual deeds, has played a vital part in the distinctive reputation which the corporation now enjoys throughout this entire district.

Mr. Alexander and Mr. Grenko has found time, in addition to their business interests, to give thought and energy to community projects. They are two citizens whose talents have been steadfastly devoted to the best interests of the city. They have been successful in the management of the business, and in the promotion of the general welfare of the community.

We are glad to pay this brief tribute to them, and to say that this district owes much to the many benefits which Ronald Grenko and L. D. Alexander and Springer Corporation have rendered to this section of the Southwest.

MRS. CHARLES ROBERTS

Susan Blair Bride Of Charles Roberts

Susan Wanelle Blair, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Blair, Jr., became the bride of Charles Roy Roberts, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Roberts, in a 2:30 p.m. ceremony at First Baptist Church in Farwell Sunday. The Rev. J. L. Bass read the double ring service.

Background for the nuptials was formed by central candelabra holding turquoise tapers flanked by tall baskets of blue tinted mums and gladioli accented by moss green ribbon and greenery.

Candles were lighted by Molly Bradley, Dimmitt, and Jeannie Blair. Nuptial music was provided by Mrs. Donald Watkins, organist, who played traditional wedding music preceding the ceremony and accompanied Bruce Ayers, Gruver, brother-in-law of the bride, as he sang "More," "Bless This House," and "Wedding Prayer."

Serving as best man was Errol Johnson, Bobby Actkinson was groomsmen and Bruce Billingsley and David Blair, brother of the bride, served as ushers.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Bruce Ayers, sister of the bride, Gruver, Bridesmaid was Diane Lovelace.

Stephanie Traxson and Rodney Roberts Coburn, Amarillo, nephew of the groom, were ringbearers.

The bridal attendants wore identical floor length dresses of turquoise peau de sole, featuring empire waistlines edged in white lace with the lace edging repeated at the hemline. Accenting the dresses was moss green velvet ribbon. Headpieces of turquoise illusion were held in place by green velvet bows. Shoes were dyed to match and each attendant carried a ball of white net interspersed with turquoise mums. Short white gloves complemented their ensembles.

Little Miss Traxson was attended similarly to the bridal attendants. She and the male ringbearer carried white satin pillows on which rested the wedding rings.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a formal wedding gown chosen by she and her sister, Mrs. Bruce Ayers, three and one-half years ago and worn by Mrs. Ayers at her wedding. The gown of silk organza and re-embroidered Alencon lace featured a lace basque bodice sprinkled with seed pearls, iridescent sequins, a scalloped square sabinia neckline and short sleeves. The bouffant skirt was adorned by a re-embroidered spray and a bow in the back extended into a chapel train. Her veil of silk illusion fell from a pillbox crown of seed pearls. Her bridal bouquet was a single white orchid surrounded by stephanotis with white ribbon streamers carried atop the white Bible presented to her by the YWA.

Following tradition, something old was the dress and veil; new were white peau de sole shoes; borrowed was a white linen handkerchief belonging to the groom's mother; blue was the traditional garter, a gift from Lana Mahaney. For luck, she carried in her shoes pennies minted in the year of her birth and that of the groom. She carried in her Bible a locket belonging to her maternal grandmother, Mrs. Alfred Rose of Electra.

Mother of the bride wore a two-piece knit suit of aqua with shoes and hat in matching hue. Her corsage was a moss green cymbidium orchid.

Mrs. Roberts was attired in a beige lace dress with matching accessories. Her corsage was also a moss green cymbidium orchid.

Wedding guests were registered by Sherry Bass.

Immediately following the wedding, a reception was held in the fellowship hall at the church. Presiding at the serving table were Donna Dale, Mary Ann Jones, Martha Coffey and Julie Routon Milligan. Serving table was laid with a lace cloth over turquoise and centered with a musical miniature bride which revolved to the wedding song, a gift from Kelly Griffin, of Grand Prairie.

Columns separated the tiers of the wedding cake, the lower layers of which were four individual heart shaped cakes. Topping the cake was a bride and groom figurine. Punch and nuts were served with the cake after it had been cut by the bride and groom. Napkins were

Married 50 Years

Mr. and Mrs. R. V. Ham celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary on Saturday, August 13, with a family dinner in their home in east Farwell. For the first time in 20 years, all of their nine children were together.

Serving table was laid with a gold colored net cloth and centered with an arrangement of white flowers in a gold bowl. At one side of the floral arrangement was the anniversary cake, white with the number 50 encircled in gold on top. Gold napkins bearing the names, "Virgie and R.V.," and the wedding date, August 12, 1916, completed table decor.

Mrs. Ham, born Virgie Baylor, says that she and her husband had followed each other half way across the nation before they met, since he was born in Kentucky and she in an adjoining state. Later they each moved with their respective parents to Oklahoma and Kansas and later the families moved to East Texas where the couple finally met.

Mrs. Ham says, "Ham came home with my brother to sharpen an axe when I was a girl of 15 and I told my brother, that is my man, and set out to get him." They were married August 12, 1916 at Navosota, Tex. They settled in that community near their families and farmed for four years and later moved to Bradshaw, Tex. In 1924 the family moved to Farwell and settled at their present home. Six of their nine children were born after the family came to Farwell.

All of the children attended and graduated from Farwell Public Schools. The Hams also have 14 grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Only members of the family not present for the anniversary celebration were a son-in-law, Capt. Sandvick in Viet Nam, and a grandson, Frank Wagner in Germany.

Elmer Teel who underwent surgery in an Amarillo hospital on Thursday is still confined to the hospital. He is in room 432, St. Anthony Hospital. Mrs. Teel is staying in Amarillo while her husband is hospitalized.

Returns From English Vacation

Mrs. Irene Tarter recently returned from England where she has spent four weeks visiting with members of her family, three sisters and a brother and various uncles and aunts.

Most of the four weeks was spent at Eversham with the last few days spent visiting in London. Mrs. Tarter, a native of England, also spent much time visiting places of interest including the Shakespearean home at Stratford on Avon.

She reports that while it rained most of the time and it was unseasonably cool, the countryside was "simply beautiful." However, she said, "I was glad to get back to Farwell and the warm dry climate."

This is the first time Mrs. Tarter has been back to England in 12 years and the first time she has flown. The trip was made by Pan-American jet.

'School Days' Almost Here --

Safety Department Cautions Motorists

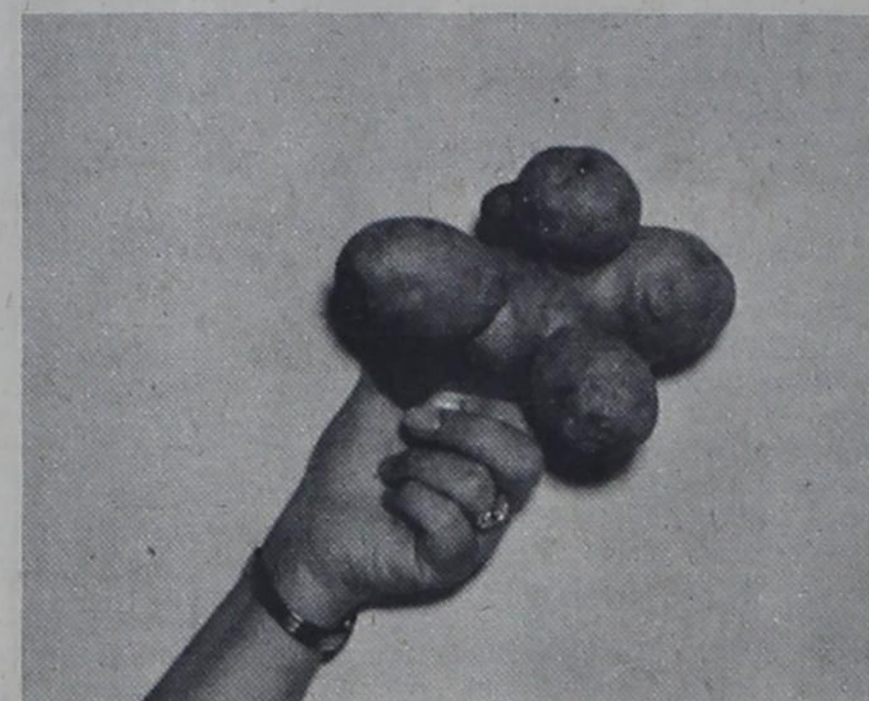

The Texas Highway Patrol investigated eight accidents on rural highways in Parmer County during the month of July, according to Sergeant W. E. Wells, Highway Patrol Supervisor of this area.

These crashes resulted in eight persons injured, and an estimated property damage of $4,325.00.

The rural traffic accident summary for this county during the first seven months of 1966 shows a total of 50 accidents resulting in two persons killed, 34 persons injured, and an estimated property damage of $41,209.00.

"School days" are almost here again. The familiar yellow school buses will soon be back on the highways. The Sergeant reminds all motorists of the State Law regulating traffic in regard to school buses.

"The drivers of a vehicle upon a highway outside the limits of any incorporated city or town upon meeting or overtaking from either direction any school bus which has stopped on the highway for the purpose of receiving or discharging school children shall stop the vehicle immediately before passing the school bus, but may then proceed past such school bus at a speed which is prudent, not exceeding (10) miles per hour, and with due caution for the safety of such children.
