WE'RE MIGHTY PROUD -- "Although we had hoped to bring home the first place trophy, we're mighty proud of this second place one," stated Coach Johnny Green.

First game of the tournament played in Texico on Friday saw the Wolves defeat Dora Coyotes 10-1. Rickey Stanley had a perfect afternoon in the batter's box with four for four, Leslie Harrelson had three for four.

Although pitcher Roy McDaniel gave up nine hits during the game, only one run crossed the plate. "The fielding was good," stated the coach.

In the second game, Texico defeated their long standing rival San Jon, six to one. "This game was won on home runs," commented Coach Green. Roy McDaniel had two home runs and Rickey Stanley and Bobby Joe Steward had one home run each.

Final game of the tournament saw Elida defeat the Wolves 13-2. However, the game was not as lopsided as the score would indicate, commented Coach Johnny Green.

Texico juniors were defeated by Dora 8-5 in their first game

URELY PERSONAL By John

The Farwell Chamber of Commerce is getting on the proverbial ball. Already, there is a committee at work sifting possibilities for next February's C of C speaker.

In discussing speakers for the event, a request was made to us to locate and publish the "welfare" letter that Wes Izard read at last year's banquet.

We have been furnished with a copy and reprint it herewith: A LETTER TO SOMEBODY IN WASHINGTON

DEAR SIR: My neighbor, who has just gone on relief, has been telling me about the welfare state that is being planned in Washington.

It is true that I won't have to work to draw money free from the Government to support myself and my kids? How about the other people -- will they have to work? If so, please send me the name of the person who will decide who works, as I want to have a long talk with him about myself.

If I am to be one of those who have to work, will I have to change jobs? I have a good job now as a printer, and I sure wouldn't want to start growing corn. I hope you will let me know the name of the person who will say who gets the easy jobs.

I hear that under the social welfare state, the Government will run all the farms and businesses, and that the worker won't need any money any more. IS THIS TRUE? Please advise at once on this, for I have saved up a little money which I would like to spend before the Government sends it all to other countries or whatever will be done with it.

Will everyone get the same kind of home and car? If not, I need to talk with someone before this is decided, I like waterfront property, and I would rather have one of the Big Cars.

Will I have to work to have these privileges? I already have a chance to work for them now, and I sure wouldn't want someone to make me work hard just to live like these people who are on WELFARE now. The hardest thing for me to understand is what happens IF NONE of the PEOPLE want to work? Does the Government plan to make them work? Will they be punished if they don't work? I don't see how I am going to get food and have a fine car from the Government, if someone doesn't work.

Will the people who run the Government get more than the rest of us? This is important to me, for I may want to be a Government man. Who would I see about this?

In case you decide to have one of the Government men answer this letter please give it to one of them who KNOWS what the PLAN is about for the WELFARE STATE and who will BE in Washington after the CHANGES are made. He probably never heard about me and won't know my name. So I am giving you my social security number. Please ask him to make sure he doesn't get the wrong number.

Respectfully, (Name deleted for protection of writer)

P.S. WILL WE GET A CHANCE TO VOTE ON THIS CHANGE? IF SO, PLEASE SEND ME THE NAMES OF THE CONGRESSMEN AND OTHER CANDIDATES WHO FAVOR the WELFARE state, so I will KNOW WHO TO VOTE for.

Notice County Clerk Bonnie Warren announces that persons desiring to cast absentee ballots may do so any day Monday through Friday between the hours of 8 a.m. and 5 p.m. or on Saturday mornings at her office.

YOU'RE A SMART Y -- R. S. Shuman congratulates Georgia Lee Rundell, first place weekly winner in the Merchant's Football Contest, Shuman of the Shuman-Haseloff Insurance Co., one of the contest sponsors, is a regular entrant in the contest.

Georgia Rundell Weekly Winner --

Jimmie Norton Leads In Contest

Mrs. Pete (Georgia) Rundell, the lone contestant to call nine correct games last week in the football contest, is winner of the weekly first prize.

Second place winner with eight games right was Carl Goetsch who missed the tie-breaker score by a scant two points, calling the game score 28-24, George D. Magness, who also called eight games right to win third place weekly prize, missed the game score eight points.

Several other persons including Rubie Craft, Lewey Bradshaw, Debra Wardlaw, Johnny Schell, Debbie Chandler, Robert Curtis, Loyd E. Smith, Jimmie Norton, Billy Meeks, Roy Dunn, Doug Harriman, Maxine Williams, Gwen Hughes, Earlene Porter and Cotton Robertson, also called eight games right but were too far off on the tie-breaker score to get into the winners column.

Jimmie Norton, who has consistently called several games right each week, (average 8.3) but has not broken into the winners column, outdistanced his nearest opponent, Mrs. Ysleta Kittrell this week to take the lead in the overall contest. He has called a total of 43 games right during the five weeks the contest has been in progress. Mrs. Kittrell has 42 games to her credit.

In third place with 41 games called right are Dorothy Bauer, Buck Gregory, Edwin Owen, Pat Owen, Bill Prince, Mark Williams and Maxine Williams.

Eleven persons, Dodie Actkinson, Debbie Chandler, Doug Harriman, Bobby Hart, Dargin Kirk, Robin Mahaney, Jerry Mathis, Kathryn Morgan, Dee Owen, Johnny Schell and Loyd E. Smith, have 40 games to their credit.

With seven weeks to go in the contest, it's still anybody's guess who the winner will be. Grand prize at the end of the contest is two tickets to the Cotton Bowl and $50 expense money.

New Agriculture Agent Arrives

Ronny McNutt, who was recently approved by the Parmer County Commissioner's Court as county agricultural agent, has arrived in Farwell to assume duties at the office.

McNutt, a native of Peacock, is a graduate of the high school there and holds a B. S. degree in agricultural education from Texas Tech, where he was graduated in 1961.

Prior to coming to Parmer County as agricultural agent he has served as assistant agent in Lamb County, with offices in Littlefield for the past five years. He is in the Army National Guard Reserve having spent six months on active duty with the unit.

McNutt is the son of Mr. and

Mrs. John McNutt of Peacock and was reared on a farm where he was active in 4-H Club work. He is particularly interested in swine projects. He is married to the former Sue Parker, also of Peacock. His wife has been hired as English teacher at Farwell Junior High School. She is a graduate of Hardin-Simmons University.

The new county agent says, "I want to serve the people of Parmer County and am anxious to get acquainted with each of them." He invites all area farmers to come by the office in the court house for a visit. McNutt says he plans to meet, at least once each month, with each of the 4-H clubs in the RONNY McNUTT county and also offers his assistance to area farmers. McNutt replaces Joe VanZandt, who resigned from the local agricultural office to accept a similar position in Moore County.

1967 Banner Year For Agriculture

From all that we read or can hear from around the nation and the world, we, like many other agricultural experts, feel that the farmers of this nation will enjoy a banner year in 1967. For the first time since World War II, the American Farmer will be in a "Sellers Market" during the forthcoming year. This will be true more so of grain, corn, wheat, and soybeans. Of the three latter crops, the current market is already indicating this increased demand, and the market is up from 20 to 45 per cent over this time a year ago. And for the first time in twenty years the farmers are being encouraged to cultivate additional acreage. This in fact is only a start of what is in store for the forthcoming year as the U. S. Government sets its pattern for food production throughout the nation.

It now appears that we will have at least a seven per cent reduction in overall crop yields from the bumper crop of 1965. Weather, being extremely wet in early spring, then hotter and dryer than normal in July, is largely responsible for this reduction in yield. This plus the sudden upsurge in foreign demand for our agricultural commodities, and an increase in our domestic needs, have put the U. S. farmer in an enviable position all of a sudden. It is evident now that at least four per cent of our food and fiber needs must come from stocks accumulated from previous surplus production years.

From this bright farm picture has arisen a distinct problem. Fertilizer, being the most sought after item in agricultural production, is in short supply and, because of its bulkiness, is difficult to handle. The big problem is in the railroads (Continued on Page 3)

Talent Show Saturday

Jackie Gast, president of the Farwell junior class, invites everyone to COME to the "talent show" being sponsored by that class Saturday night, October 22, 7:30 p.m. The performance is in the high school auditorium.

Cash prizes are being given in two divisions to winners of first, second and third places.

Admission to the show is 50¢ for students and $1 for adults. Children under school age are admitted free.

Rehearsal will be held at 6 p.m., Saturday, immediately preceding the show, announces Sharron Busbice.

Services Held For Former Resident

Funeral services were held on Sunday from the Primitive Baptist Church in Clovis for Walter C. Baldock, Sr., 79, a Clovis resident and former resident of the Texico-Farwell area. Officiating at the funeral were Elders Jimmy Bass and Vernon Venable, assisted by visiting ministers of the church. Burial was in the Texico Cemetery.

Mr. Baldock, a retired farmer and school custodian, had been in ill health for the past year.

Survivors include his wife, Ola, Clovis; four sons, M. O. of Floyd, J. R. of Oraville, Calif., W. C., Jr. of Clovis, and G.D. of Los Alamos; four daughters, Mrs. John Britton, Bloomfield, Mrs. K. W. Little, Monument, Mrs. Andrew House, Portales, and Mrs. Juanita Bennett, Fort Sumner; also one brother, one sister, 22 grandchildren and 18 great-grandchildren. One daughter, Ora Bell, preceded her father in death.

Sons and sons-in-law served as pallbearers. Honorary pallbearers were all friends of the Baldock family.

Card Fund Meeting Set

A meeting will be held in the Community Room at Security State Bank on Tuesday, Oct. 25, at 3 p.m., for persons interested in assisting with the annual "Yule Card" fund drive, which has been sponsored by the Farwell PTA for the past several years, says Mrs. Bert Williams, drive chairman.

Since the PTA is no longer in existence, but before disbanding voted to continue the fund drive, Mrs. Williams was appointed to head the fund drive. Funds raised by the group will be used to buy books for the school libraries, which are sadly in need of additional books, reference, non-fiction, fiction, etc. In past years the funds have been used to buy books in both the high school and elementary school libraries.

School patrons are asked to contribute the money they would ordinarily spend for mailing "Yule" cards locally to the fund. In the Christmas edition of the Tribune a full page ad bearing the names of all the contributors will appear with a "Yule" message.

Tatum Resigns; McNutt Hired

Superintendent W. M. Roberts of the Farwell school announces that Mrs. Ronny McNutt, wife of the new Parmer County Agricultural Agent, has been hired to fill the vacancy created by the resignation of Mrs. Lenora Tatum.

Mrs. McNutt, a graduate of Hardin - Simmons University, has three years teaching experience, having taught in Lubbock two years and Whitharral for one year.

She will be teaching junior high English and acting as librarian, the position formerly filled by Mrs. Tatum. Mrs. Tatum has been granted a leave of absence due to ill health.

School Publications Receive Honor, Superior Ratings

Brenda Sims, co-editor of the Texico High School paper, "The Wolverine's Tale," and Frankie Lambert, co-editor of the school annual "The Wolverine," accompanied by Mrs. Jean Green were in Lubbock Saturday to attend Texas Tech J-Day.

They attended panel discussions, a luncheon at which Philip Carter, Bureau Chief in Houston for Newsweek magazine, was speaker, a general assembly, and the Texas Tech football game.

At the awards luncheon, awards were presented to several outstanding high school publications. Texico's school paper received an "honor" rating, requiring 1,300 points (they had 1,500 points) and the annual received a superior rating. Texico was entered in Class I-A. Others in their division received the same ratings were Tahoka and Ralls on the yearbook. Texico was the only Class I-A school receiving a superior rating on the newspaper.

Other schools in classes 4-A, 3-A and 2-A receiving honor or superior ratings were Lubbock, Grants, Floyd and Crane (newspaper); and Lubbock, Tascosa, Plainview, Littlefield, Crane and Colorado City on the yearbooks.

Mrs. Lillian Allman, journalism teacher in Texico, was unable to attend the meeting due to another district meeting she had to attend with the FHA Club.

Team Roping Set Sunday

The Farwell Roping Club is sponsoring a "team roping" at the local arena Sunday afternoon, at 2 p.m. Approximately 40 teams from the surrounding area are expected to participate in the event, in which cash awards will go to the winning teams.

The teams will rope on a four steer average. At least two local teams are expected to participate.

Fred Chandler, an officer of the local Roping Association, says the Tuesday and Thursday night sessions are still in progress at the local arena with teams roping for relaxation and practice sessions.

All area roping fans are invited to come and participate.

NEED A HAIRCUT -- L. V. Snider, yardman from Clovis, is busy in the Twin Cities this week sprucing up the evergreens in the area. The result, after several minutes with the clippers left this tree momentarily looking like one of the latest hair styles for men. However, the end result was quite a different matter with the tree glistening with the first frost of the season looking like a Christmas tree from the pages of a storybook.

Press Conference Concise

Have you had the pleasure of viewing a press conference by a high government official lately? If so, I'm sure you are aware of the precise and clear manner in which our government officials answer direct questions put to them by members of the press. The following is a hypothetical press conference held by a hypothetical government official. Its purpose is to demonstrate how valuable a press conference is in providing concise and clear answers to a questioning public.

Chairman: Ladies and gentlemen of the press, may I present Secretary of State Hickenbottom, (Sound of applause)
Sec. of State: Thank you ladies and gentlemen, I hope by my presence here today I will be able to clear up confusion that may have arisen due to recent developments in the war and our policy thereof. I am not open to questions.

1st reporter: Mr. Secretary, it has been reported that the new critics will mean a larger draft call for at least the remainder of the current year. Is this true?

Secretary: I'm glad you asked that question. First let me state that it is and always has been the policy of this administration to take whatever action may be necessary to contain and isolate a potential enemy without however running the risk of further escalation of the war, which, ah, shall we say is completely evident with regard to certain developments in the field of Asiatic foreign policy of, ah, oh the last five years. Now if you will remember, the president has stated, and let me say right here that I am in full accordance with his views, that the people of an oppressed nation, have a right, indeed a very important right to be free to seek their own course of government without interference from certain, shall we say aggressive powers. I'm sure that answers your question. Next question please.

2nd reporter: Mr. Secretary, will there be a step up in the bombing?

Secretary: Ah, well, first let me say that in regard to military strategy, the president and myself have been keeping a very close surveillance on recent developments in the war and will undoubtedly take whatever action is deemed necessary for the successful prosecution of the war. However one must also bear in mind the possibility of further escalation involving a possible clash with Red China which is of course something that no sensible man would advocate. I hope this answers your question.

3rd reporter: Mr. Secretary, we have all heard that a noted war correspondent was bribed by a very high administration official to withhold certain information concerning a secret deal with the communists. Would you please comment on this?

Secretary: I am not at liberty to divulge strategic military information. Next question please.

4th reporter: Mr. Secretary, is it true that there will be a step-up in foreign aid to certain allies in order to persuade them to support us in our Asian policy. Will you comment on this please?

Secretary: I'd be happy to. First let me call your attention to the Berlin crisis of several years ago. The president, and let me say that I completely agree with him, acted with what I would call extreme wisdom, due of course to foresight and surveillance on the part of our president as he took what he considered necessary and proper action due to the unusual circumstances of the situation in accordance with tried and true policy on foreign developments. Next question please.

3rd reporter again: Mr. Secretary, would you please answer my question about the bribe?

Secretary: You sir are out of order! One more interruption and I'll have to ask you to leave. Next question.

5th reporter: Mr. Secretary, will you please give us the exact figures on what the war is expected to cost for the next fiscal year.

Secretary: If you'll bear with me for a moment, I'll see if I can clear this up. Of course you realize that in computing the cost of the war, one must take into account certain fiscal responsibilities which fall directly upon the administration heads in their pursuance of said war. Now we couldn't possibly project a feasible approximation without taking into account the fast rising trend toward inflation due to wage and price increases which I might say right here, is completely contrary to the guidelines laid down by the president several months ago after taking into consideration all the factors included in any reasonable plan of a healthy and forthright economy. There are also unknown fiscal factors which I'm sure you realize enter into the picture if we are to get any sort of an accurate picture of what finances are entailed in said pursuit. However at this state I can only trust in the judgment of the president, and let me say that I for one surely do, that he will do whatever is necessary

4-H groups are getting started in project work and others will start as soon as adult leaders are secured.

A program of leader training is being worked out for project work in the county for five areas of home economics subjects. These areas will be in housing and home furnishings, food and nutrition, clothing, child care and management. Parents of 4-H members will need to watch for announcement of training and assume responsibility to see that leadership is available in providing for training 4-H members. Unit 1, (first year) child care training will be given this month. This will not be repeated next year.

skill? Jobs that are creative? Jobs where results are appreciated by your family? Jobs like cooking, sewing, gardening, caring for children, home decorating?

When we like and enjoy a job, when it stimulates our mind or our abilities, we are seldom bored. We can work for long periods of time without becoming fatigued. And the time seems to fly!

What Homemaking Jobs Do You Dislike? Jobs that make you tired? Jobs that are repetitive, monotonous, boring? Jobs that are semi-automatic, needing some attention but not enough to keep you completely absorbed? Jobs that take little mental skill? Jobs that are not creative? Jobs that don't stay done? Jobs that nobody appreciates your doing -- or at least they don't tell you so? Jobs like housecleaning, ironing, dusting, oven cleaning?

Disliked Jobs Make You Tired And Bored. Often the tiredness associated with the jobs we dislike is caused as much by boredom fatigue as by true physical fatigue.

True Physical Fatigue results when the waste products of muscular effort -- carbon dioxide and lactic acid -- accumulate in our muscles. Our blood stream must carry off the carbon dioxide and bring in fresh supplies of oxygen to change the lactic acid back to sugar.

Moderate pacing of work, with frequent short rest periods -- 5 to 10 minutes per hour for example -- can aid in preventing or delaying physical fatigue.

Boredom fatigue, while also very real, is different. It results from a state of mind. You are restless, yawning, discontented. You want to quit. Your actual ability to do work is not changed, even though you may think you're all worn out. Time passes slowly.

It's a vicious cycle: boredom leads to fatigue (real or imagined); when you're tired a job takes longer; and the longer it takes the more tired you get.

If you find yourself fitting into any of these patterns then read next week's column on How To Combat Boredom Fatigue.

Jaycees Plan Yule Tree Sale

Fred Chandler, president of the local Jaycee organization, announces that the club is planning to have its annual Christmas tree sale beginning some time in November. Local residents are asked to make plans NOW to obtain their "Yule" trees from the organization.

All funds derived from sale of the trees are used by the Jaycees in a number of worthy projects. The Jaycee meeting on Tuesday morning was short with little business transacted, due to the press of harvest operations.

Banner Year --

not having enough rail cars to handle and move the fertilizer from the point of production to the agricultural market. With the increased demand for fertilizer, both from additional acreages being cultivated, and from the increased usage per acre resulting from the grower trying to get maximum production from his soil, we feel that it is not logically possible for the industry to meet the demands. For example we know that 42 per cent of the fertilizer produced will go into corn production in 1967, and the High Plains is not a factor in the nation's corn production.

"Plow Down" practice has been a paying proposition for the growers utilizing it in the past. In fact those who have followed this practice in years past will be plowing down their fertilizer without reservation this fall. It has proven to many to be the most efficient and economical time to apply fertilizer. In this "Plow-Down" practice, part of the nitrogen is applied to allow maximum decomposition during the winter months; the balance of the nitrogen should be applied in the spring so as not to allow any loss from leaching. All of the phosphate is applied at this time so that it will be available when the plants require it in the spring. Phosphate does not move a great deal in the soil; therefore none of it can be lost. Some potash has proven to be effective in this area and it also should be applied as a "Plow-Down" application. Also any sulphur that is used will have time to have its effect on the soil condition by planting time if applied in the fall. By adding all of these items together you come up with a very attractive and profitable farming practice. This will also insure the growers of being able to get the fertilizer that they need at the time that they want to utilize it without having to wait on supply.

With considerably more land being in cultivation in 1967, and a more attractive market in sight, the growers will be attempting to achieve maximum yields. To do this and cash in on this "Sellers Market" the growers need to make their arrangements for an adequate supply of fertilizers. This is the first step that High Plains growers need to make in order to capitalize on the first such market in many years.

A Progress Report On Farwell Country Club

In a recent meeting members of the Jaycees, sponsoring organization for the Farwell Country Club, appointed a planning committee to begin negotiating for the final stages of planning for the club.

Members of the committee are A. T. Watts, Elmer Hargrove, R. W. Anderson, Bill Prince, Gil Patchke, and Fred Chandler. At this time the committee is negotiating with Paul Jones, Clovis, as golf pro for the new club.

Jones has recently attended a meeting in Las Cruces at New Mexico State University to learn more about sodding and care of golf fairways.

On Tuesday a firm from Muskogee, Okla. who are interested in sprigging the golf course had a representative in Farwell to talk with the committee and also Vernon Ward from Phoenix, Ariz., who has built a total of 54 golf courses, was in Farwell to submit a bid on construction of the local course. Negotiations are also underway with Gifford-Hill Western on a water transmission bid.

Bill Boling, of the local FHA office, reports that he has been in contact with the department and is presently having Ralph Douglas, Muleshoe, engineer for the local project draw up more detailed plans for the construction of the country club, as requested by the FHA. "All in all we seem to be making good progress," said members of the planning committee.

Tuberculin Tests Set For Farwell School

The tuberculin test will be offered to students in the Farwell school during the week of Nov. 7. While the test will be given to any student in the school, who has his parents permission, only students in the first and seventh grades are required to take the skin test.

The skin test, which is administered free at the school, may be obtained from the family physician, if the parent and student so desire. Letters will be sent to all parents of school students next week. They must be signed and returned before the tests are given. Purpose of the test is complete eradication of tuberculosis, by finding contacts. It is not expected that many of the students taking the tests actually have the disease.

The tests were begun in the school last spring at which time students in the first and seventh grades were required to take the tests.

A film "Hidden Disease" will be shown in the auditorium on Monday, Oct. 24, at 9:30 a.m. The public is invited and urged to attend and learn as much as possible about the menace of T. B. Questions will be answered. It is hoped that a representative from the public health department will be here to answer any and all questions, says Mrs. Katherine Lockhart, school nurse.

Bystander Injured In Sunday Fight

Investigation is continuing into a fight which occurred in Texico Sunday afternoon. The fight, between two juveniles, resulted in injury from gunshot to another youth, brother of one of the boys allegedly involved in the fight and apparently an innocent bystander.

The youth was struck in the face by a bullet from a shotgun during the altercation. The bullet is alleged to have gone through the top of a pickup parked nearby and ricocheted off hitting the youth. He was hospitalized later Sunday.

After the injured youth had been taken to the hospital the fight between the other two boys continued with several other youths allegedly involved,

The Heltons were accompanied to Tulsa by Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Teel who visited in the home of their daughter and son-in-law, Rev. and Mrs. Jerry Hill.

The group went to Tulsa on Friday and returned on Sunday afternoon.

Memo To GRAIN GROWERS.....

TIDE'S Fall Plow-Down Program Will Make You Money!

Tide's Fall plow-down program is designed to make you money:

1. Fall plow-down spreads your work load... reduces time, labor and equipment requirements at planting time.
2. Fall plow-down insures against uncertain Spring weather... gives you two opportunities to apply a complete fertilizer program. (Fall and Spring)
3. Fall plow-down aids in decomposing stalks and builds up soil nutrients.

Basic suppliers say demand for Spring fertilizer will exceed the supply of raw materials and hopper cars. As soon as possible after harvest, shred your stalks and apply Tide's Prescription-Blend fertilizer and start your Fall plow-down program.

PRESCRIPTION MIX FERTILIZER
Tide takes soil samples from your land, free of charge to determine exactly what your soil needs. Then your fertilizer is mixed from high analysis raw materials to fit your exact requirements. Because it is made "on order", your fertilizer is fresh, dry, and free-flowing.

ECONOMICAL
With "prescription-mix", you buy only the nitrogen, phosphate, and potash your soil tests show you need. Storage is no problem, as Tide's TiltBox, holding 14,000 pounds, provides air-tight delivery and storage at the end of the row.

TIDE SERVICES

Tide grower services and products are planned to save time and labor... help take the guess-work out of farming. Agricultural Consultants, free soil tests, and Tide's custom designed, weather proof, delivery and storage equipment, cut your production costs.

TRY TIDE..... you'll be glad you did.

To Springlake --

Steers Lose First District Game

"A game is never over until --until," is a lesson the Farwell Steers learned last Friday night as Doug Messer, the Springlake quarterback, fired a last second pass to defeat the Blue and White by a score of 28 to 26 at the Wolverine stadium.

The wildly offensive game opened with the Steers kicking off to Springlake and not regaining possession of the ball until after the Wolverines owned a 6-0 lead.

The Blue and White took the Springlake kickoff and returned it to the 35-yard stripe where three plays showed little gain and the Steers were forced to punt. Springlake was not able to muster any drive and kicked to their own 47-yard line where on the second play, Bobby Chadwick scampered 47 yards for the first Steer touchdown. The extra point failed and it was a new game at 6-6.

Farwell again tallied with Johnny Schell lugging across for six more points and returning the PATs for two, putting the Steers into a short lived 14-6 lead.

Springlake soon countered with a six-pointer and an extra two-point play, to again knot the score at 14-14. The first half ended on the even-seven basis.

The third quarter was a seesaw affair marred by numerous penalties. Neither team was able to notch a score until in the fourth quarter when Farwell's Al Phillips recovered a blocked Springlake punt and rambled 29 yards for another Steer TD. The try for extra points failed and the Steers again owned a 20 to 14 lead. The Wolverines came right back and again penetrated the Steer defenses and posted a 22-20 lead by making a two-point PAT play.

Late in the fourth quarter, Bobby Chadwick intercepted a Wolverine pass and the Blue and White owned the ball on the Green and Gold's 16-yard marker. On the second play, a Bobby Field pass to Johnny Schell netted the sought after TD, but the conversion pass was no good and Farwell was again on top, 26-22.

Springlake took the Farwell kickoff and did not relinquish possession of the ball as Messer capped the game with his desperation 23-yard aerial to stun the Farwell aggregation, 28-26. The Steers broke up the Springlake PAT attempt, but to no avail as the time was gone with Springlake owning a 28-26 victory over the visitors from Farwell.

Coach Toby Booth commented following the game, "We played a winning ball game, but just didn't win."

Coach Booth says the game with Kress should be a fine game. However the Steers will be playing without the services of Al Phillips, who received a broken nose in the Friday night game. "Kress is without a doubt one of the heaviest, if not the heaviest, teams we have met all year," stated Coach Booth.

The Kress line will average around 185 pounds while the backfield will average between 170-175.

The Steers will be making their second district bid for a victory.

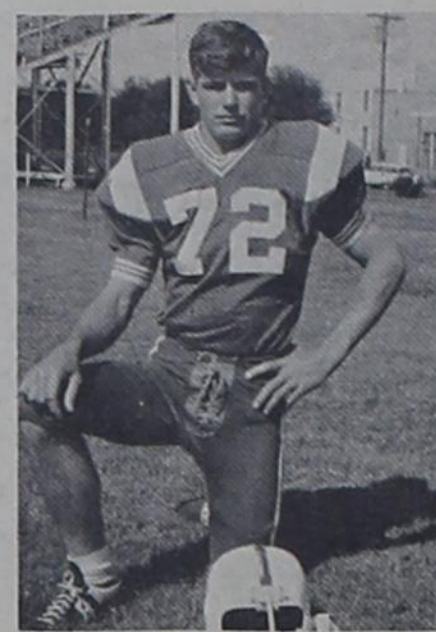

TWO TO TANGLE -- Bruce Dollar bags a Springlake ball carrier in the second quarter of last week's game. Poised to help out if needed is the Steer center Kyle Sheets.

Farwell Yearlings rested last week when their game with Springlake was cancelled. However, they will be playing Kress, tonight (Thursday) at Kress. In the first games, the 7th and 8th grades will meet Kress 7th and 8th grades.

Although the 7th grade and the B team were idle, the 8th grade was defeated by Springlake 32-0.

Standouts, according to Coach Jerry Dee Owen, defensively were Bobby Hart, Barry Williams, Cecil Bowery and Gene Sheets. Offensive standouts were Cecil Bowery, guard; Gary Erwin, halfback; and James Hobbs, end.

"I WONDER, WONDER WHO IT WILL BE -- which of us will be the 1966 Homecoming Queen of Lazbuddie High School?" thinks each of these candidates, l to r, Carolyn Morris, Theresa Seaton, Sherry Robinson, and Connie Harlan. Crowning of the queen will be Friday night during the halftime ceremonies.

Homecoming Activities Planned

School colors of orange and black are everywhere as Homecoming weekend approaches. Alumni recall the good old days in high school and present students are planning the upcoming activities. As always, one of the highlights of the Homecoming is the selection of Homecoming Queen and the Football Hero, both to be crowned in the halftime ceremonies Friday night. Candidates for queen are Carolyn Morris, senior, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alton Morris; Theresa Seaton, freshman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Seaton; Sherry Robinson, senior, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Robinson; and Connie Harlan, junior, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Harlan.

The Senior Class at Lazbuddie is planning an old fashioned barbeque in the Lazbuddie school cafeteria preceding the game with Nazareth, and everyone is invited to attend. The seniors are also selling mum corsages for the game. Following the game the Booster Club will have doughnuts, pops, and coffee in the cafeteria for all the fans.

McGeehee Monday. Cricket Taylor, county agent, presented the program on personal improvement. Ten members were present at the meeting.

The cold north wind was an obstacle to both the Lazbuddie Longhorns and the Vega Longhorns as they locked horns in the first conference battle of the season Friday night with Vega coming out on top with a 28-14 victory. Red was the color of the first minutes of the game as flags were thrown on nearly every play until the Longhorns settled down. Vega scored early in the game making the score 7-0 until Terry Parham sent a 20-yard pass to Frank Hinkson with two minutes left in the first quarter. Efforts to make the extra points failed and the score remained 7-6 to the half.

In third quarter action, Vega scored twice making the score 21-6. Then in the fourth quarter Terry Parham ran 55 yards before he was downed on the Vega 28 yard line. Terry then sailed another pass to Frank Hinkson who scored. The Longhorns slipped the extra two points around making the score 21-14. But the Vega Longhorns came back fighting and scored the final TD of the game leaving the score 28-14.

Roadrunners Skim Gnats

The rough, tough Lazbuddie Roadrunners barely skimmed by the hard-fighting Flying Gnats with a 14-12 score last Tuesday in the Powderpuff football game sponsored by the Lazbuddie Junior Class.

Slippery Linda Hodges and speedy Carolyn Morris carried the ball for six points each. Foxy Sherry Robinson scored the extra points that edged the Roadrunners to victory. Scoring for the Flying Gnats were Crazylegs Connie Harlan and Twinkle Toes Marilyn Barnes who gave the Roadrunners a tough run for the money.

Early in the game the "ambulance", a renovated wench truck, was called onto the field to carry off Jan Mitchell, fullback for the Gnats. She suffered from a broken fingernail and returned to action as soon as first aid was rendered.

suspended from the rear of the wench truck.

Hero was Connie Harlan who played an outstanding game for the Flying Gnats as their right halfback.

The lineup for the slightly overweight Roadrunner team included the following seniors and freshmen: Marsha Aud-dell, center; Christie Ivy, guard; Marquita Seaton, guard; Elaine Jesko, tackle; Joy Williams, tackle; Debbie Burch, tackle; Sherry Robinson, end; Linda Hodges, end; Theresa Seaton, quarterback; Vickie Robinson, halfback; Cathy Coker, halfback; and Carolyn Morris, fullback. Coaches were Darrell Matthews and Royce Barnes, who had no comments on the game.

Lineup for the pleasingly plump Flying Gnats included the following juniors and sophomores: Marilyn Barnes, quarterback; Connie Harlan, halfback; Tammy Jennings, halfback; Nedda Foster, fullback; Vickie Broyles, end; Cheryl Ramage, end; Jan Mason, tackle; Charlotte Davis, tackle; Cynthia Walls, guard; Sheila Vaughan, guard; Janice Miller, guard; Jeannie Beach, center; and Jan Mitchell, fullback. Coaches Frank Hinkson and Bobby Gleason also had no comments, but the announcer, Robert Gallman, had plenty to say throughout the game.

Mrs. Wilson holds a bachelor of arts degree from Eastern New Mexico University and lacks only a few hours on a masters degree in music.

She and her son George are residents of Lazbuddie and she is a member of the Methodist Church, Singing and playing the piano are Mrs. Wilson's favorite pastimes. She is quite interested in new techniques in teaching, especially along the lines of programmed instruction, and she has done research into the use of teaching machines as an advantage to both the pupils and teacher. Mrs. Wilson believes that pupils can learn much more material faster with the use of machines and teachers have more time to spend with each child's individual problems.

Professional Growth Is Delta Kappa Gamma Topic

Growth was topic of the talk given by Miss Reba Jinkins at the meeting of Delta Kappa Gamma members in the home of Mrs. Ruby St. Clair Thursday evening.

"Can I honestly and objectively look at my aims, year to year, month to month, day to day, and see evidence of growth?" asked the speaker as she questioned the group, "Are you growing professionally?"

Mrs. Zelfa Younger, elementary principal of the Texico School and president of the chapter, presided at the business session. The club collect was read by Mrs. Avis Patterson, fourth grade teacher at Texico, and Mrs. Lorene Mills, third grade teacher at Texico, gave a report of the Committee on Personal Growth. She stated that Theta State chapter had contributed $316.78 for the 1965-66 school year to the World Fellowship fund. The fund provides three or more $2,500 college fellowships each year for deserving students making preparations to be teachers.

Other questions asked by Miss Jinkins, mathematics instructor at Marshall Junior High School, Clovis, were, "Am I convinced that I need to grow," and "While I try to develop in children the consciousness that study is a continual necessity, do I myself not have time for study?"

The speaker challenged the group with two other pertinent questions, "What real changes have come into my own teaching as a result of recent research and publications on creativity in teaching?" and "How familiar am I with current literature in the field of education?" Her final challenge in the form of a question was "Do I believe teaching is, should be, or can be a profession?"

Assisting Mrs. St. Clair with hostess duties were Miss Minnie Atchley, Mrs. Jackie Garrison and Mrs. Lois Jones.

State President Speaks To Study Club, Guests

The Farwell Study Club was hostess to members from Muleshoe and Bovina at their regular meeting on Monday night, at which Mrs. B. F. Seay, Texas state president of Federated Study Clubs, was guest speaker.

The meeting was held in the local Methodist Church. The 40-voice choir from Farwell High School, directed by Charles Turner, presented five selections. Mrs. Seay is a resident of Andrews. Mrs. Seay chose as her topic for her thoughts "The Challenge of Tomorrow."

She told how in Texas the need for highway patrolmen is far greater than the number being trained for the jobs, disclosing that there are only 829 patrolmen in the state when there is a need for 2,200. "In California, a much smaller state, they have 5,200 patrolmen," she stated.

Mrs. Seay revealed that last year alone some 3,000 persons were killed in Texas highway accidents and another 147,000 injured. "It is a fact," she stated, "that of the number of accidents in the state, 49 per cent were proved to be caused by alcohol."

She challenged her listeners by asking, "What are we doing to meet the challenge?" She informed her audience that they must contact their senators and representatives if they wish to see certain legislation passed. She then inquired, "Who is your senator?"

Following the talk Mrs. T. J. Glenn, president of Farwell Study Club, presented Mrs. Seay with a "money corsage" bearing ten $1 bills. Mrs. Glenn also presided over a short business session.

Guests registering were Mesdames Roy H. Snodgrass, David Axe, Truman Kirtrell, Howard Leavell, Elmer Teel, James Pierce, Wesley Engram, Bob Lebow, Leroy Faville, Charles Stockton, Eddie West, Milton Autrey, Sylvia Burgett, Johnny Green and Bill Stone.

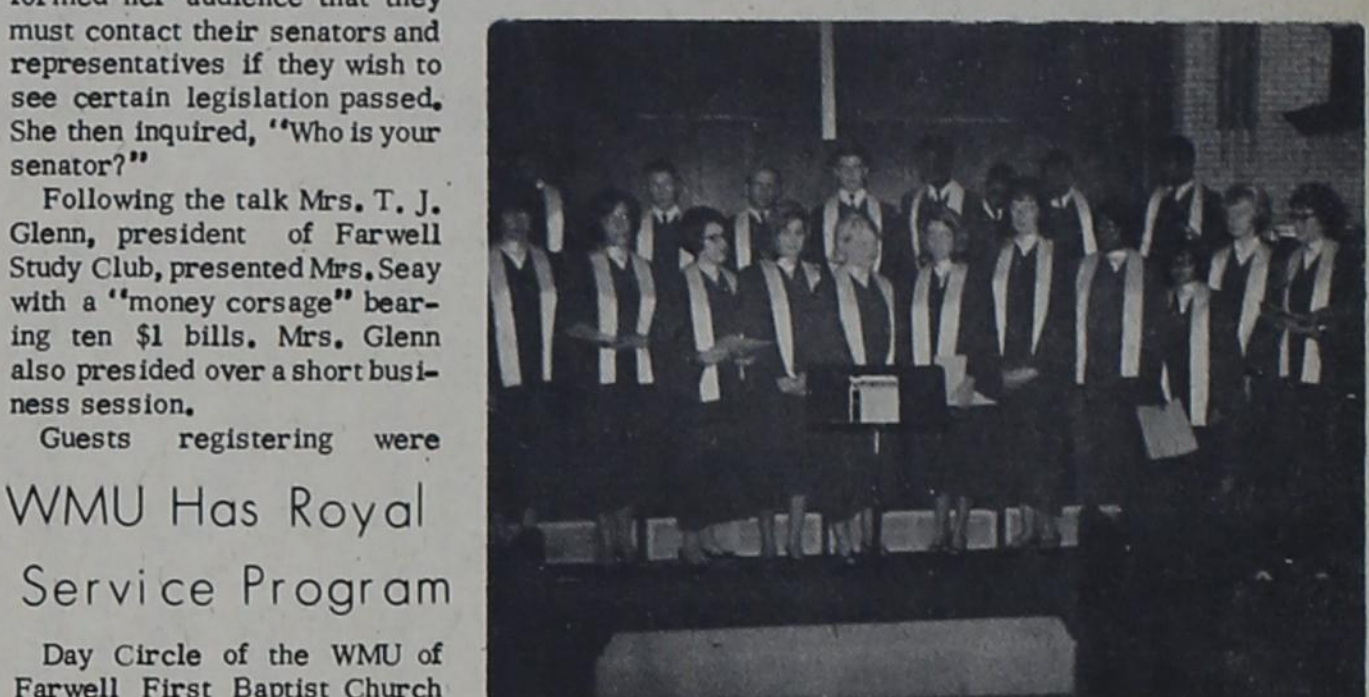

During the short business session Mrs. Snodgrass, president, read "thank you" notes from David Duncan and the Texico High School, thanking the club for the $50 scholarship presented to David earlier this year. The scholarship, an annual project, is presented to some worthy student to assist with college expenses.

Plans were made to begin work on restoring the city park early in the spring and a fund raising project was also discussed.

Chocolate or coconut pie was served with coffee by Mrs. Leavell and Mrs. Stone, hostesses.

PRESENTS SPEAKER -- Mrs. T. J. Glenn, right, president of Farwell Study Club, presents Mrs. B. F. Seay, president of the State Federation of Women's Clubs in Texas, who paid her official visit to the Farwell Study Club this week.

40 VOICE CHOIR -- The Farwell High School chorus, directed by Charles Turner, presented five numbers for enjoyment of Study Club members and their guests at the Monday night meeting.
