ENMR Now Operating; Farwell Moves To 806

When Farwell residents wake up tomorrow (Saturday) morning, they may not feel any different, however things will have changed for them. Effective midnight tonight (Friday), Eastern New Mexico Rural Telephone Cooperative (ENMR) begins its telephone service to Farwell, placing subscribers in area code 806. But it didn't just happen overnight.

Bell telephone sold their Farwell service to ENMR awhile back, and after months of maintenance work, cable splicing and computer installing, ENMR is set to go.

According to Kenneth Hearn, Farwell's new sub-station manager, installer and repairman, ENMR is the largest rural telephone co-op in the state of New Mexico. And even though the system places Farwell in a Texas area code, transferring them from area 505, calls to Clovis will not become long distance.

Hearn says telephone rates will remain the same for subscribers, and ENMR offers the same services that the Bell system did. There will be no interruption in telephone service and ENMR will offer information assistance through the Bell system. In the future ENMR will publish a local phone book, replacing the current Bell telephone book; however, the listings will still include all surrounding areas as well as yellow pages.

Farwell's sub-station, located on Second Street north of the highway, contains some of the most modern and up-to-date telephone equipment available. According to Hearn, once a problem is called into the office, "We are able to locate it within 60 seconds with our computer machinery," if it is inside the plant. Outside problems take a bit longer to locate, he said.

During the evening hours, when telephone service is at its lowest use, an ENMR computer provides its own diagnosis.

The computer serves as its own "doctor" going through all inside lines on the system searching for various problems. When one is located, it is immediately taken care of, usually before a subscriber even realizes his phone was acting up.

Attaching "co-op" to the word "telephone" means that the service is independently owned by subscribers, but is federally financed. Rural telephone co-op is nothing new, as there are around 1200 independently owned telephone co-ops in the state of Texas alone.

In the future, the ENMR sub-station expects to microwave to Amarillo which will switch the existing service from Albuquerque.

The ENMR co-op does not sell telephone instruments. Those subscribing for new service will have to purchase their phones from an outside source. Subscribers in Farwell will have "tele-touch" (push button) capabilities however.

Pleasant Hill is also on the Farwell exchange, explained Hearn, "Their cables run directly into our sub-station."

The ENMR main office is located on the Grady highway (North Prince Street) in Clovis. Managing that office is Robert Harris of Clovis, and the plant superintendent is Ben Hillock, also of Clovis.

What this all boils down to is, Farwell has the same phone capabilities it has always had. But perhaps by having a sub-station in Farwell, faster

County Okays Sheriff's Dispatch Of Fire Calls

Farwell Volunteer Fire Department has approached Parmer County Sheriff Charles Lovelace asking that his department handle all incoming ambulance and fire calls, it was reported at the recent Parmer County Commissioners Court session.

Lovelace told the commissioners court that he approved of the new system and the commissioners voted unanimously to grant the FVFD appeal.

The change is about a month away, but when it does occur, fire and ambulance calls will be called into the sheriff's 24-hour dispatch service. There will be an announcement before the conversion happens.

In the meantime, Farwell residents requiring fire or ambulance service will continue to call 481-9142.

The commissioners also heard a request from Weldon Moody, maintenance foreman with the Texas Department of Highways and Public Transportation in Bovina. Moody asked the county to consider purchasing a communications radio for his state car, establishing a link between maintenance crews and the county dispatcher for faster relay to peace officers, fire and ambulance personnel. It was voted that this item will be added to the 1981 budget.

District Attorney Jack Young and special investigator Dick Pylant met with the court to discuss aid to Pylant's salary. Originally the salary came from state funds that have since been discontinued. The salary is now to be shared by Lamb, Bailey and Parmer counties, each portion of the salary depending on county population size. The court voted that Parmer would pay its share of $126.21 beginning October 1.

The court also voted to pay a temporary full time salary to Dorothy Lovelace who has been working in the district clerk's office since a fall resulted in a broken leg for District Court Clerk Dorothy Quikel.

The board also approved and ratified that soil conservation work will take place for Steve Pearson, Precinct 3, at $25.

It was then brought to the attention of the commissioners that two county residents were in need of aid for large hospital bills. County Judge Porter Roberts was requested to investigate all alternate sources of money as the court felt there was no possible way for the county to pay these medical bills.

The proposed 1981 budget, was approved by the commissioners during a public hearing.

September 23 is the date for the next commissioners court session.

Now Where Was I?

ENMR cable splicer Les Tollett of Portales has all of Farwell in his lap. Well, almost. Tollett is splicing together all the cables which will tie in subscribers to the new ENMR telephone co-op service, set to begin at midnight tonight (Friday). What Tollett does have in his lap is over 600 wires, which are connected to 3600 wires, which eventually tie into the ENMR advanced computer system.

Law Officers Kept Busy With Theft, Break-ins

Parmer County sheriff's deputies have arrested Diane Walker, 18, of Garden City, Kans. on a felony warrant. After being in Parmer County custody she was to be released and returned to Garden City to face charges there, according to Parmer County Sheriff Charles Lovelace.

Also arrested on a felony warrant this week were Susan and Bobby Taylor. They were returned to St. John, Kans., to face charges there, Lovelace said.

The sheriff's office has had a busy week investigating many break-ins and thefts.

Gaylen Rhodes, Bovina, reported to authorities that a saddle belonging to him had been stolen from the barn of Jack Woltmon, Bovina. The saddle was valued at $250. Rhodes also reported that a 12-gauge shotgun had been stolen from his pickup which was parked outside his home in Bovina.

Floyd Coffey reported that a .22 gauge shotgun, an assortment of tools, and a battery charger, all valued at $275, were taken from his house seven miles south of Friona.

Sheriff's deputies are investigating a theft and vandalism report at the residence of Mrs. Dolly Young. Her home in the Hub Community had been entered while she was away. Lovelace reported a large amount of vandalism to the residence and several items missing. A complete list of the stolen items will be submitted to the sheriff's office as soon as Mrs. Young returns from her trip. She has been notified of the incidence and was to have returned this week.

D.W. Pierson reported that a spare tire and wheel had been taken from his pickup six miles south of Bovina.

Marvin Anderson, Farwell, reported that his pickup had been siphoned of gasoline while parked outside the Monsanto building, two miles east of Farwell on Highway 84.

John Carlson reported that his tool shed had been entered and $120 worth of items had been stolen. Lovelace said the shed was unlocked at the time of entry.

The sheriff's department investigated a fire in the storage shed on Third Street owned by the late W.W. Vinyard. The fire was started by two nine-year-old children and the sheriff's office has spoken with parents of the children.

Female Forecasters Tie For First

Judy Jones and Earlene Porter tied for first place in the second week of the Tribune-sponsored Annual Merchant's Football contest.

Each guessing 10 correct teams, and both having a point spread of 36 points in the tiebreaker, the two contestants will receive a check for $6.25, splitting the first and second place cash. It should be noted that out of four top winners so far, three have been female.

Not to take any of the glory away from this week's "win-some twosome," the actual top guessing tally went to a Tribune employee, Mary Sobin, with 11 correct teams chosen. (Another female!)

Mary is not eligible for the contest prizes, but she and other Tribune employees have their own contest going.

Calling nine correct games in this week's gridiron guessing contest were Randy Adrian, Patsy Berry, Rubie Craft, John Curtis, Pauletta Curtis, Otto Lingnau, Terry Newell, Deborah Penner, Thad Phillips, Champ Porter, Mrs. Willie Roberts, Jerry Roddam, Patti Ryburn, Doug Thornton and Leigh Ann Woods.

After the second week in the overall contest, two women are in the top spot heading them to the Cotton Bowl on New Year's Day. With 19 points each are Earlene Porter of Clovis and Patti Ryburn of Farwell.

In second place, each with 18 points, are Harold Carpenter, Hobby Coffman, Johnny Curtis, Mrs. E.A. Key, Kevin Owen, Thad Phillips, Champ Porter, and Wanda Walker.

Eight entrants are in third place with 17 points each. They are James Castleberry, Marcia Cole, Sammy Gonzalez Jr., Doyle Green, Ridley Lonsdale, Terry Newell, Deborah Penner and E.A. Walker.

Even though top winners are beginning to emerge, there are still 10 weeks remaining in the contest. It is not too late for a newcomer to have a chance at the top prize of tickets for two to the Cotton Bowl in Dallas on

New Year's Day, plus $75 in cash. The second place winner will win two tickets to El Paso's Sun Bowl, plus $37.50 in expense money.

And it is never too late to enter and vie for the weekly cash prizes of $7.50 for first and $5 for second.

To enter, simply circle a favorite team on the entry blank found inside. Then record a tiebreaking score between Farwell and Morton. The closest score entered determines the winner in the event of a tie, but this will not affect the weekly win-loss total.

Contestants must be 12 years of age or older and only one entry per person will be accepted.

Entry blanks are available at the Tribune office, in each issue of the Tribune and must be returned no later than (Continued on Page 2)

Farwell Homecoming Activities Launched

The 1980 Farwell homecoming festivities are in full swing today (Friday) with the theme "The Old and the New." Parents and alumni were to be treated to an open house at the high school this (Friday) morning from 9:30 - 11:30 a.m. with refreshments provided by the Student Council.

A pep-rally will be held today at 2:30 p.m. CDT in the school gym to be highlighted by the crowning of this year's homecoming king and queen.

This year's royal candidates are freshmen Shelley Ford and Alan Eubank; sophomores Tammy Obenshain and Steve Schilling; juniors Ginger Ellison and Waverly Coates; and seniors Cydney Ford and Chris Bristow.

A chili supper is set to take place from 5-7:30 p.m. at the school. Sponsored by the senior class, tickets are $3 for adults and $2 for ages 12 and under.

Homecoming 1980 will climax with gridiron action between the Farwell Steers and the Morton Indians, beginning at 8 p.m. Farwell's king and queen will again be honored during half-time ceremonies along with their court.

The Student Council is sponsor of a parade which was scheduled to begin Thursday at 7 p.m. at the Baptist Church and proceed through the streets of Farwell, ending at the annual bonfire. These two events kickoff homecoming activities yearly.

A victory dance is slated for tonight after the game in the old gym. The dance is set to begin at 10:30 p.m. ending at 1 a.m. and is sponsored by the senior class.

Parents, students, alumni and all visitors are invited to attend all homecoming events.

Tanks A Lot, Texico!

After a good many years, the Texico water tower received a new green and white paint job...and even some new letters. The $3900 project was completed last week and now proudly displays the word "Wolverines" for the first time ever. One of Farwell's tanks will undergo its face lift treatment this week, the final result to exhibit a royal blue steer head peering over the city.

Last week we took some flack regarding our remarks about Danny White, the Cow-boys quarterback. All we can say this week is that White looked better than the rest of the 'Pokes.

The water tower painting business is going great guns in the Twin Cities. Texico, in a burst of school pride, painted their tower and now we hear that Farwell is going to redo the "beer can on stilts" tower in a similar expression of community spirit.

Fall is coming on a pace. Have you noticed how fast the Pampas Grass plumes are shooting up out of the body of the plant? Also we notice our soft maple is silently laying a carpet of leaves over the front lawn. Oh goodie! We just love to rake leaves, specially on Sunday afternoons.

Heard a rather logical explanation of why the days are longer in the summer and shorter in the winter. It's simple. Heat expands, cold contracts. Ugh.

In the past several weeks the judicial system of this country seems to have gone to great lengths to punish the law abiding citizen. Three recent decisions by various Tribunals look to us like the criminal is better thought of than the pore 'ol taxpayer.

The Texas Court of Criminal Appeals has returned for new trials two cases of great concern in this area. In each case the defendant seems to us to have had decent trial that cost taxpayers a pretty bundle. Now the trials must be held again. Not only is this a huge expense, but, because the witnesses etc. are scattered, there is the possibility these once-convicted felons may go free. These judges just cannot be thinking of the "rights" of the honest, tax-paying public.

To make such dangerous decisions on such technicalities demands some public hue and cry. If it were within our power we would remove them from the bench immediately as menaces to the public safety.

Another case that, to us, picks the law abiders tax pocket is the decision that puts the children of illegal aliens in school at the taxpayers expense.

We realize that this is a social decision, but laws were passed to uphold the rights of law abiding society also, not to effect just social ends. If the law is onerous, change the law by our elected representative processes. Do not change the law to accommodate some social thinking by a very small group, i.e. a court.

A taxpayer has "rights." In fact, they ought to be paramount. The taxpaying public has a right to have its hard-earned money spent on legal purposes, not on questionable social ends.

Any "winking" at the plain intent of the law, for whatever "good" reason diminishes respect for all law. Any judge that doesn't recognize this has no place on the bench.

It is way past time for the election of judges to be dull, taken for granted campaigns. The people need to subject the judicial candidate to some close questioning. It's way past time for legislative committees to automatically O.K. nominations for the bench.

The people and the representatives of the people need to get tough with our judiciary before the criminals rule the roost in this country.

Oh yes, we dream a lot of things, few of them come to pass. This is probably another one.

Around The Twin Cities

Lions Club broom sale begins today (Friday) at 4 p.m. CDT at Hughes Parking lot in Farwell. The sale will continue through Saturday.

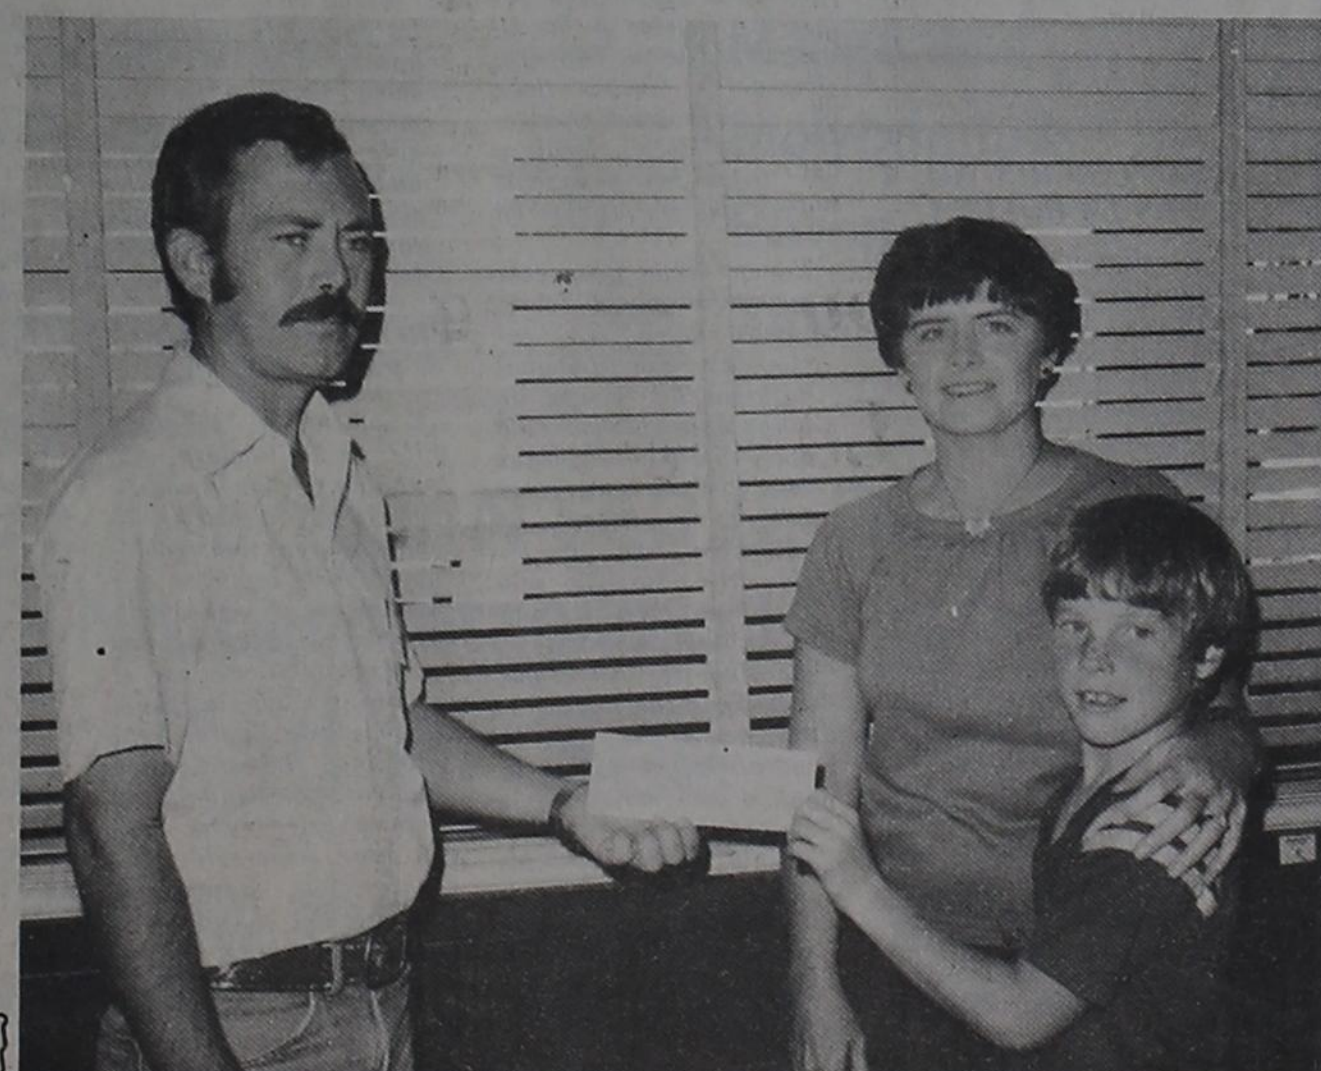

Texico City Council meets Tuesday at 6:30 p.m. MDT at City Hall.

All In The Family

When Judy Jones of Farwell was told she had tied for first place in last week's football contest, she announced that it was only with son Jeremy's help. It seems the weekly contest is a family guessing event in the Jones household. Jeremy assists mom and son Corey aids his dad in predicting the contest's outcome. Judy split the weekly winnings with Earlene Porter of Clovis. Each had ten correct predictions, and each had a tie-breaking spread of 36 points. Mrs. Jones and Jeremy were presented a check from Jack Billingsley of Worley Grain, for $6.25.

Cemetery Sexton Resigns; Farwell Seeks Successor

The City of Farwell accepted the resignation of Earl Roberts, sexton of the Sunset Terrace Memorial Garden cemetery, during the city council meeting Monday night. Roberts' resignation went into effect August 29, and he cited no reason for leaving in his letter to city fathers. Although the city has owned the cemetery only four years, Roberts had worked there for 18 years. He does not qualify for retirement benefits from the city; however, he will receive one vacation paycheck.

The councilmen have decided to advertise for a new cemetery sexton, however, they have not determined whether it will be a full or part time job. They will meet soon to discuss exact job duties of the new sexton.

Jane Bowery, city clerk, announced that the Census Bureau had issued its latest population figures for Farwell. According to the Census' updated tally, Farwell has 1,343 inhabitants. Initially the bureau found only 1,284 people residing here, and the city disputed that figure by adding 27 persons to the count. These latest digits reflect an increase of 59 from the first population estimate.

It was reported that Farwell's water tower will receive a $3900 face lift. Painters have already begun their work on the city's water container and the finished product will feature a royal blue Steer, school mascot, on the front.

Mrs. Bowery announced to the council that she had received notification of the city's insurance policy being cancelled as of November 1. "Our insurance with Best is no longer offering our existing policies, however, I have received a list of new rates," she told the members. The clerk is now in the process of gathering information for new rate prices.

Also during the meeting the council approved the new tax roll and the city clerk also reported on delinquent taxes, saying she had collected some that had been long overdue.

The city also voted to purchase a new lawnmower and weedeater for use at the cemetery and city park. The $189.95 lawnmower will be purchased from Gebos and the weedeater will come from Air Cooled Engines in Clovis for $169.95.

Attending the council meeting were Walter Kaltwasser, mayor, city councilmen Johnny Curtis and Fred Chandler, and city clerk Jane Bowery.

Also present were city employees Dee Hammit, Jackie Doshier, John Johnson and Mario Vidaurri.

School For Adults Offers Free Classes

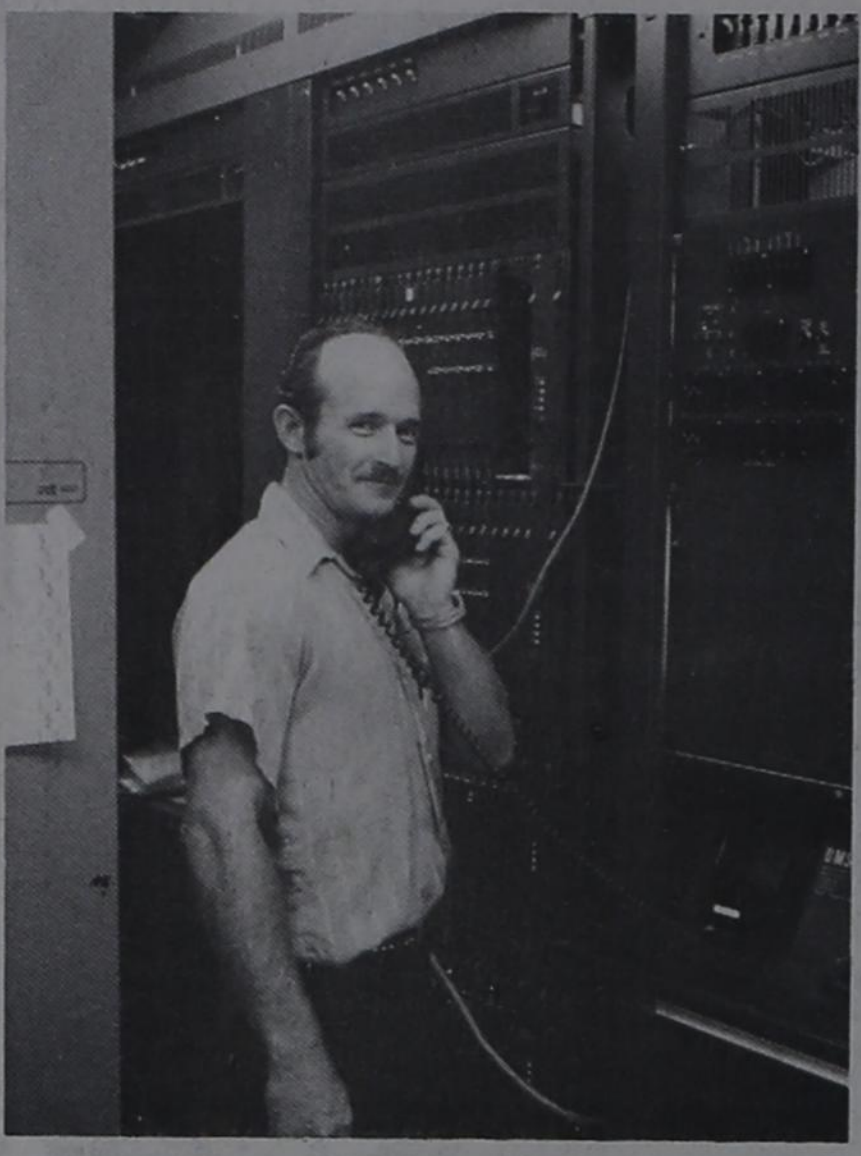

Adult Education classes sponsored by Farwell Public Schools in cooperation with Region 16 Education Services Center began September 15, according to Betty Turner, class instructor.

Held in room 12 of Farwell Elementary, the adult basic education classes are "structured to meet the needs of students in reading, writing, math and in speaking English as a second language," Mrs. Turner stated.

Classes are also offered for those who want to work toward a GED certificate. "The GED certificate is equal to a high school diploma," Mrs. Turner said, adding, "it is awarded after the student passes the required GED test."

The classes are offered free, and interested students may enroll any time during the year at whatever class level meets their needs.

For further information call Mrs. Turner at 481-9131.

ENMR Farwell Manager

Kenneth Hearn is the Farwell ENMR sub-station's main man. Actually he's the only man. Hearn will handle all installation and repair calls on the new ENMR telephone co-op service. A new resident to Farwell, Hearn arrived from Fredericksburg, Tex., bringing with him wife Peggy Lee and two children, ages 8 and 11. A 15-year telephone veteran, the Waelder, Tx.-born man has traveled 48 of the 50 states and has even visited Canada and Mexico. His wife hails from Reedley, Calif., and his children were born in Yucima, Calif. Hearn is shown speaking into the "test phone" which is used to tie into the complex ENMR computer equipment at the Second Street sub-station. Hearn says a telephone service problem inside the plant can be located in "60 seconds" with the station's up-to-date computer system.

service will be available. So other than the fact that Farwell is now in a Texas area code, phone users will probably notice little or no change whatsoever.

For repairs or installation, phone the ENMR main office at 389-5100.

Cemetery of Dallas with the pastor of Whiterock First United Methodist Church of Dallas officiating. Burial will be at the Chapel Garden Mausoleum at Restland Cemetery, Dallas.

Lorene Vincent Services Held

Mrs. Mildred (Sal) Vincent of Farwell received word recently of the death of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Lorene Vincent of DeSoto, Tex. Mrs. Vincent, 78, passed away September 9 in a Dallas hospital after a short illness. Final services were conducted last Thursday at the First Methodist Church of Ovilla, Tex. She was buried at Treece Cemetery in Duncanville, Tex.

She was preceded in death by her husband in 1974. Mrs. Vincent had three children and several grandchildren. She had visited Farwell on several occasions and had many friends here.

Roberts Hears Cases

Parmer County Judge Porter Roberts heard the following cases in county court recently: Tommy Chadwick, 26, Palacios, Tex., charged with DWI. After pleading not guilty bond was set at $500. Chadwick was wanted in Matagorda County on a charge of burglary and has since been released to officials there.

Two Mexican aliens were released to the Border Patrol after one was charged with DWI. Refugio Navarret, 19, was fined $150 plus court costs, sentenced to three days and then released, along with passenger Juan Zuniga, 24, to the Texas Border Patrol.

Pedal Pushers To Bike For Cancer

In an effort to raise money for the St. Jude Children's Hospital, Anna Southard of Texico Junior High has again begun to organize the annual fall Bike-a-Thon campaign.

The event is set for September 27 from 7-8 a.m. MDT, and participants will pedal an eight-mile round trip from the junior high to Clovis Municipal Airport.

Anyone can enter the bike ride, and those wishing to do so should contact Mrs. Southard no later than September 26. Entry blanks and pledge forms may be picked up at the junior high. Approximately 25 persons have already signed up to participate.

Bikers are encouraged to gather as many pledges as possible. Monies raised in the two-wheel event will be donated to the Children's hospital to aid in the research of cancer diseases.

"St. Jude Children's Research Hospital is the largest childhood cancer research center in the United States, and it is the first research center dedicated exclusively to the research and conquest of catastrophic diseases of children, such as cancer and other life-destroying diseases," stated Clifford Damstrom, St. Jude director for the southwest.

"Scientists and physicians, working side by side at St. Jude, have succeeded in rewriting medical textbooks. When St. Jude accepted its first patient in 1962, the survival rate for children diagnosed with acute lymphocytic leukemia was less than 5%.

Today, the disease-free survival figure for children in long-term remission has grown to 50%. Cancer treatment procedures originated at St. Jude are now being used to treat children throughout the United States and in other parts of the world. Such progress has brought worldwide acclaim to St. Jude, thanks to money raising efforts like the Bike-a-Thon."

"Children come to St. Jude for one purpose: A chance to live," Damstrom stated flatly. "But no one has ever been charged for medical treatment. Yet medicines and treatments are extremely expensive. St. Jude has always been supported by the public, and we must continue to rely on public support to help finance the research and patient care programs. Over 70% of our 26 million dollar budget must come from public support. This is why this Bike-a-Thon is so important."

Danny Thomas, who founded St. Jude Children's Research Hospital because of a vow, stated its purpose clearly: To wipe catastrophic diseases of children from the face of the Earth.

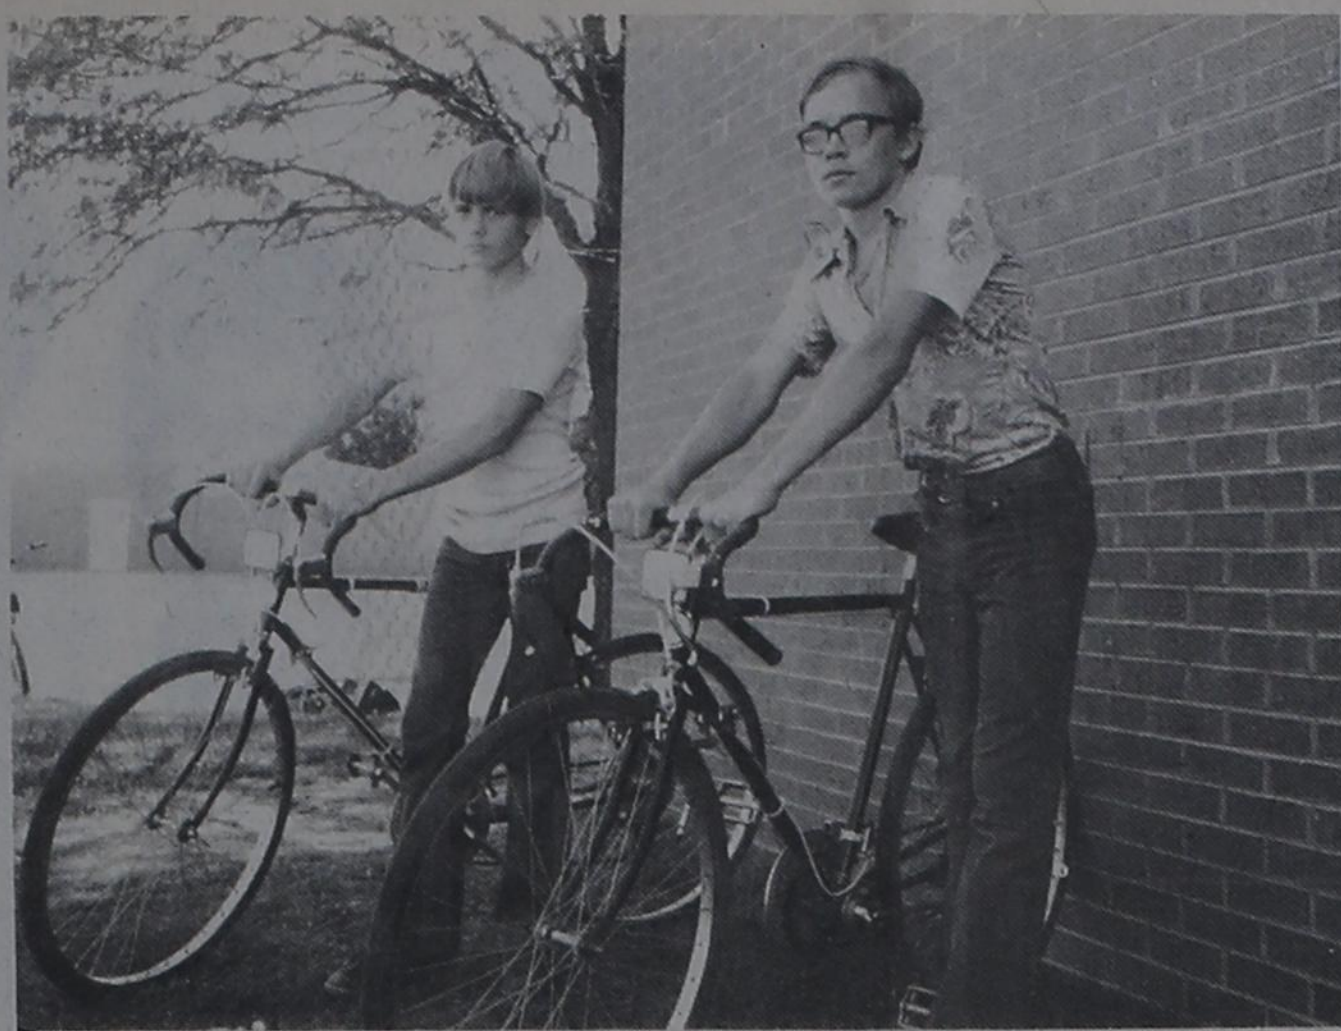

"Since Thomas opened the research center in 1962, his dream of conquering cancer and other diseases that destroy our children has been brought closer to reality," stated Damstrom. "Thomas is still extremely active in pursuing this goal and he inspires all of us in this cause."

"We are proud to have a dedicated person like Mrs. Southard to head this important job," Damstrom said.

The theme of this year's ride is "I'm riding for Terry." Terry is a cancer patient of St. Jude. She is six years old and is responding well to treatment Terry is in remission and is expected to come off treatment soon.

Buddy Adkins, left, and Jay Robinson are set for this year's annual Bike-a-Thon to be held September 27 from 7-8 a.m., MDT. Both are students at Texico Junior High and will pedal their way from the school to Clovis Municipal Airport raising money for the St. Jude Children's Hospital through pledges. Anyone interested in entering the bike ride or making a pledge should contact Anna Southard at the junior high no later than September 26.

Texico Sets Homecoming Plans

Texico High School has announced preliminary plans for the upcoming 1980 Homecoming celebration, set for October 3.

"The Year for Green and White" is the theme to be carried out through all planned activities which begin with a parade October 2. Following the parade, to begin at 5 p.m. MDT, a bonfire has been scheduled for that same evening at 7 p.m. MDT, where spectators will view the crowning of the new king and queen.

Before the football game, October 3, against Happy, the Booster Club will sponsor an outdoor chili supper.

Full details of all planned activities, including the names of the king and queen candidates will be in next week's Tribune.

In the meantime, the junior class is taking orders for homecoming mums, carnations and pins. The last day to place an order for the carnations and mums at $6, the child's corsage at $4.50 or the homecoming pin at $1.25, is September 26.

Joint program in engineering established

STEPHENVILLE — A joint program in engineering education between Tarleton State University and Texas A&M University has been established.

The program sets curricula at the Stephenville institution so students may transfer in the third year to Texas A&M's engineering degree programs at College Station.

Curricula in mechanical, electrical, civil and industrial engineering will be developed initially.

PCHS Extends Deadline For Parmer History Book

The Parmer County Historical Commission has extended its deadline for accepting family histories to October 15 for its upcoming publication, "The History of Parmer County."

The second edition of the history of Parmer County will be bound in hardback leatherette with embossed cover art. The commission advises that there will be no extra books for sale. With no funds to finance the ordering of surplus books, the number printed depends solely on the amount of orders received.

NOTICE

If anyone knows of a thesis having been done on the history of Farwell Schools, they are requested to contact Joyce Coffman, Hugh Moseley or Otho Whitefield of the historical commission.

Over 600 family memoirs have been submitted so far, however, the commission states that in order for a "first class" book to be printed, a total of 1200 histories is needed.

In addition to the family histories, two types of memoirs are requested. Persons may submit their histories under one of two categories. Category one is "Memorials." These should remind everyone of family members who have passed on. The commission states that the publication will allow readers to learn about a family's loved ones for decades to come as it is believed that the books are passed down from generation to generation. The commission states that the memorial pages are available for a full, half or quarter of page.

Those families wishing to honor a living relative or friend may submit under the "Tribute category." The commission suggests that this is a special way to recognize a parent, church pastor or favorite teacher. Tribute pages are also available for a full, half or quarter of page. The commission advises that their printer is very flexible in working with photos and copy and is able to enlarge or reduce not only photos, but also type size, and contributors are asked to keep this in mind when choosing a page size. If desired, a page in the historical record book can be used for photos entirely, omitting all copy except headings and captions using descriptions. Those wishing to submit a complete photo page should limit the number of photos to ten.

For a page of both photos and copy, submitters are asked to remember that one full page contains 1500 words and they should subtract 200 words for each photo used.

Complete information on the ordering of memorial or tribute pages may be obtained from the Historical Commission at P.O. Box 577, Friona, Tex. 79035.

YHT Week Declared

Farwell Mayor Walter Kaltwasser presents Lori Winegeart with a signed proclamation declaring September 21-27 Young Homemakers of Texas [YHT] Week. Mrs. Winegeart and Kristi Spearman, center, are members of the Farwell Young Homemakers club. YHT Week is an annual event where club members show their appreciation to the Farwell community by performing various service projects.

Farwell Study Club Learns Club History

At their last meeting the Farwell Study Club welcomed Elma Hart and Eulyn Forbes as new members.

President Julia Symcox presided at the business meeting where Eunice Crume was selected as a delegate to the October 11 district meeting, to be held in Whiteface at Girlstown, USA.

In other action the members made plans to hold a rummage sale in October.

Those in attendance were given the history of their organization from Mrs. Symcox. She told the members that "The General Federation of Women's Club (GFWC) was organized in March 1889 to bring communication to many women's clubs already meeting needs of their community. This organization was the binding together of women's clubs in order that they might compare methods of work and to become mutually helpful. From the first they intended the membership to embrace all women's clubs throughout the world," she said.

Hence it is called General Federation of Women's Club rather than National. The GFWC was chartered by Congress in 1901. GFWC has always used its influence for attainment," explained Mrs. Symcox.

"UNITY AND DIVERSITY is the motto and was first quoted by Ella Dietz Clymer, president of the mother club of GFWC in 1889. She said, "We look forward for UNITY but unity in diversity. We hope you will enrich us by your varied experiences."

GFWC is the largest non-denominational, non-partisan organization of volunteer women in the world. It gives all women of every background and age an opportunity to take active role in the community, state, national and world affairs.

"Membership in a federal club offers countless opportunities for community service and in state and national legislation and other activities which can provide club women with marketable skills," she said.

"Farwell's study club was organized in 1929 and federated in 1930. Mrs. Symcox explained that emphasis is always put on crime prevention at the meetings. It was also brought out that members need to study legislation amendments and vote November 4.

A salad supper was shared after the meeting by Eunice Crume, Frances Kube, Ophell McDonald, Hattie Coffey, Linnie Crook, Frances Lovelace, Ellen Wurster, Lela Atchley, Gertrude Foster, Alma Sledge and the new members, Elma Hart and Eulyn Forbes.

Leaders Sought
For Farwell
Girl Scouts

All mothers of daughters in grades one through six are invited to attend an organizational meeting for Farwell Girl Scouts, according to Sherry Curtis, organizer.

"We are seeking those mothers who will help as troop leaders, troop mothers and troop chairmen" Mrs. Curtis stated. "Volunteers are needed for all aspects of Girl Scouting," she added.

The meeting is set to take place Monday, Sept. 22, at the Hamlin Memorial Methodist Church, beginning at 4 p.m. CDT.

"After we see how much interest there is and how many volunteers there are, we will then begin troop registration," explained Mrs. Curtis.

The meeting is for mothers only.

Young Homemaker Week
Busy For Farwellites

Young Homemaker Week in Texas (YHT) has been officially declared and Farwell Mayor Walter Kaltwasser has issued a proclamation designating September 21-27 as YHT week in Farwell.

Accordingly, members in the Farwell Young Homemaker chapter have announced their plans for the annual event with church, community and family projects.

The week will begin with Young Homemaker members being honored in their respective churches. In addition members will provide volunteer service to local churches all through the week.

Because the Young Homemakers organization is affiliated with the school and works closely with the Future Homemakers of America chapter, educators will be honored throughout the week and Young Homemakers will offer their services to FHA members with their projects.

Families of Young Homemakers will be treated to special attention as a main project for YHT week is family gatherings.

The local chapter donates much time to the Clovis Zoo and in conjunction with the upcoming Zoo Awareness Week in Clovis, Young Homemakers have planned to donate their time for the Zoo's Festival in the Park, set for September 26 and 27.

Young Homemakers of Texas Week is set aside annually so that local chapters can donate their time and services to their respective communities.

The Farwell chapter continues their volunteer services throughout the year, as well as providing members with monthly programs.

Upcoming activities for the local chapter include a salad luncheon and workday, October 25. Three programs are to be presented during that session including aerobic dancing, bread making and rub-out painting. Programs for the coming year include: have your own greenhouse, October 2; how vitamins and minerals affect your body and mind, November 6; Southwestern Public Service Co. presents microwave cooking, December 4; home improvements, January 8; credit for women, February 5; furniture upholstery, March 5; making silk flowers, April 2; and in May the election of new officers.

Guests are invited to all Young Homemaker activities.

Chapter Awards

Farwell Chapter of Young Homemakers recently presented its members with yearly awards. Receiving the top honor of "outstanding member" was Sheree Montgomery (left); accepting a plaque for being outgoing president was Tina Sides (center); and cited as the chapter's "willing worker" was Gwen Corn. The three were recognized by the local chapter in annual award ceremonies.

New Members

Elma Hart, left, and Eulyn Forbes were welcomed as new members in the Farwell Study Club at the organization's last meeting. Those attending the last session heard president Julia Symcox give a brief history of their club. The Farwell chapter was organized in 1929 and became federated in 1930, joining a long history of clubs around the world before it.

Double-Ring Ceremony Unites Joyce Wheatley, K. Armstrong

Joyce Kay Wheatley, Farwell, became the bride of Deward Kent Armstrong, also of Farwell, September 6 in ceremonies at Hamlin Memorial United Methodist Church. Parents of the couple are

Mr. and Mrs. A.T. Watts of Farwell and Mr. and Mrs. Deward Armstrong of Clovis. Rev. Duane Knowlton officiated at the double-ring ceremony where the bride was given in marriage by her parents. Brass candelabra holding ivory tapers and trimmed with ivory satin bows flanked the altar where the couple repeated their vows. Providing traditional wedding music at the piano was Geneva Hardage. She also sang "Longer Than."

For her wedding the bride wore an ivory full length gown featuring a square dropped neckline trimmed in ivory satin ribbon. The bodice was inset with lace and outlined with ivory satin ribbon. The same satin ribbon also circled the empire waist line, and the center front of the flowing skirt was inset with lace. The long lace sleeves gathered to a deep lace cuff with pearl buttons. The skirt's hemline was trimmed in deep lace.

The bride wore a hat she had made herself. It featured tiers of lace beginning at the cap layering down to the wide brim, and was accented by ivory satin ribbon and silk flowers. She carried a bouquet of ivory carnations and sweetheart roses.

For tradition the bride wore her maternal grandmother's brooch as something old; her hat was something new; she borrowed a pearl necklace and earrings; and something blue was her garter.

Carolyn Tate, Ranchvale, sister of the bride, served as matron of honor. She wore a peacock blue full length gown featuring a deep flounce from the neckline to the elbows, and she carried long stemmed daisies.

Attending the bridegroom as best man was his brother, Terry Armstrong of Grants, N.M. Ushers were Kayle Watts of Lubbock, nephew of the bride, and Doug Harrison of Clovis.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Watts wore a full length gown with matching jacket in blue floral print. The scooped neckline was adorned with a two carnation corsage of white. The bridegroom's mother wore a long gown of lavender chiffon accented with a tie sash in front. The gown featured an accordion pleated flounce from the neckline to the elbows and she wore a white carnation corsage.

A reception honoring the couple was held in the church parlor following the ceremony. Mona Hardage and Gia Hardage were hostesses for the affair with Linda Autrey and Georgia Armstrong serving wedding cake, banana punch, nuts, mints and coffee to guests.

A centerpiece of silk flowers in a brass vase decorated the bride's table along with a two-tiered wedding cake decorated with ivory frosting, and crystal and silver appointments.

The newlyweds will make their home in Farwell. They are both graduates of Farwell High and Armstrong is currently employed at MBPLX.

MR. AND MRS. KENT ARMSTRONG

MR. AND MRS. ROBERT WAUSON

Brenda Winegeart, R. Wauson Married In Oklahoma Lane

Parents of the bride are Mrs. Virginia Winegeart and the late Paul E. Winegeart, Farwell. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. E.R. Wauson of Plains.

Forming the wedding setting at the altar were two candles and an altar bouquet of white daisies, blue carnations, white gladioli, baby's breath and greenery. A memory candle flanked by two tapered candles in an arrangement of white daisies, blue carnations, baby's breath and greenery were placed in front of the altar.

Blue bows marked the family's pews and a silk arrangement of blue and bronze roses, blue rose buds and beige daisies flanked the organ.

Doris Sides provided traditional wedding music and accompanied soloist Mike Smith of Plainview, who sang "Sunrise-Sunset" as the candles were lit. While the mothers were escorted into the church Smith sang "There is Love," and as the couple lit the memory candle, "Let it be Me" was sung.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, Eddie Winegeart, wore a formal a-line gown of white tulle featuring a Queen Anne neckline. The bodice of venice lace and seed pearls featured long Edwardian sleeves with fitted wide cuffs. A chapel train fell from the waistline.

Her headpiece was a band of venice lace accented with seed pearls, and a fingertip veil edged in lace draped from the headpiece. She carried a cascade of white daisies, blue carnations, baby's breath and greenery. She carried a white Bible under her bridal bouquet.

For something old, the bride wore a bracelet belonging to her grandmother, Mrs. E.L. King. Something new was a golden locket, a gift from the bridegroom. Carolyn Hardage loaned her wedding attire for something borrowed, and something blue was the traditional blue garter, a gift from Andrea Hardage. The bride also wore pennies minted in the birth years of the bride and bridegroom in her shoes.

Attending the bride was Priscilla Herington, sister of the bridegroom, as matron of honor; and Sharon Lawson, sister of the bride, from Farmers Branch, Tex., as bridesmaid. Each wore a light blue formal gown with an empire waist falling into an A-line skirt. The gowns were sleeveless and featured a V-neckline. For her son's wedding, the bridegroom's mother wore a beige full-length gown accented with a print of pastel blue flowers, and butterfly sleeves. She also wore a corsage of blue carnations and white daisies.

A reception was held in the church fellowship hall after the ceremony. The bride's table was covered by white lace draped over a dark blue cloth. A centerpiece of blue flowers with candles and doves decorated the table. Guests were served from a three-tiered cake topped with blue roses and miniature bride and groom. Punch was served from a milk glass service and napkins were inscribed "Brenda and Robert, August 9, 1980." Servers were Pauline Wauson, sister of the bridegroom, from Lubbock, and Paula Wood of Sudan.

Gloria Wauson and Theada Wauson of Plains, sisters of the bridegroom, served from the bridegroom's table which was decorated with a white table cloth and a silver coffee service. His cake was a sheet cake in the shape of a semi-truck trailer rig with ALFALFA and DAY DREAMER written on the trailer. On the door of the cab was written A&D.

Members of the houseparty were Lori Winegeart, Paula Watkins, Marilyn Winders, and Nelda Wilhite, sisters of the bride and Carolyn Johnson, Louise Christian and Doris Sides.

For a wedding trip to Ruidoso N.M., the bride wore a beige waisted dress with a full skirt, adorned with a blue carnation corsage.

Wolverines Of The Week

RODNEY WILSON

JAMES KELLEY

Rodney Wilson has been named as the offensive Wolverine of the Week by the Texico coaching staff. During last Friday's contest with Lubbock Christian, "He played very consistently, he's a good blocker," stated head coach Dave Lynn. The Texico senior plays offensive lineman.

James Kelley was named Defensive Wolverine of the Week for his eight tackles and good passing during last Friday night's game with Lubbock Christian. "Four of his tackles were unassisted," head coach Dave Lynn said.

Texico Beats Dora 2 For 3 In Volleyball

The Texico Wolverine girls won two out of three matches against Dora, September 2, in the first set of volleyball games this season. Playing against the Dora team was Texico's varsity, junior varsity and junior high teams.

Coach Mike Littlejohn commented "The varsity seemed to have the first game jitters, but played pretty good winning 15-3, 15-5." Ruth Scott, serving 10 points, was named player of the game.

The junior varsity upset Dora in two straight wins, 15-7 and 15-8. Becky McDonald, named player of the game, served nine straight points Coach Littlejohn stated, "The girls played fairly well, but we will have to improve to keep a perfect record going."

The junior high played three games, losing 15-8, 10-15 and 12-15. Littlejohn commented, "We lost, but I felt that the girls did a pretty good job. With time we will improve." Karen Snodgrass, Cheryl Scott and Valda Cavallero led in scoring with 12, 9 and 8 points, respectively.

Texico Boosters Postpone Completion Of Press Box

Reports on the upcoming steak dinner, calendar sales and construction on the proposed stadium press box were heard at the recent Texico Athletic Booster Club meeting.

It was learned that because of a requirement to place safety glass in the press box the cost will jump to $500. Members present decided to postpone completion of the project to a later date.

James Harding, high school principal, stated to those present that a company has not been located that can make traveling bags large enough for the boys football equipment. Members Alta Gerles and Bob Landis are to check at local upholstery shops for ideas.

Alta Gerles reported that the steak dinner tickets had been printed and Mozella Kirby was appointed as ticket sales chairman.

For a fund-raising project, the Boosters have scheduled a chili supper for the October 24 Parents Night. Janie Day and Alta Gerles will serve as co-chairmen of the event. Ticket prices have been set at $2.50 for adults and $1.50 for children six and under.

The membership committee will continue to encourage membership and a phone committee was formed.

Wolverines Fall To LCHS In Second Season Loss, 8-7

by Kevin West and Jo Hill
The Texico Wolverines played host to the Lubbock Christian High School Eagles last Friday night and for the second week in a row the Wolverines were on the bottom end of a close score. LCH took the game 8-7.

Texico got rolling early when the Eagles bobbled a Wolverine punt and Texico recovered on the eight yard line. The Wolverines were quick to capitalize on the Eagle mistake when Tony Tubbs scored on an end reverse with 2:40 left in the first quarter giving Texico gridmasters a 6-0 lead. Herbert Bibbs' extra point kick was good and the Wolverines led 7-0.

On the Wolverines' next possession Willie Bibbs broke loose for 29 yards to place the Green and White in good field position for the beginning of the second quarter. In the second period of play Todd Gerles and Kent Harding teamed up on a 14-yard pass play. The Texico drive was stopped when LCH recovered a Wolverine fumble on their own 10 yard line with 1:37 left in the first half. The Wolverines moved downfield to the one-yard line but with four seconds left in the half, the Eagle defense held and the half ended with the Wolverines still on top 7-0.

Late in the third period the Wolverines recovered an Eagle fumble on the LCH 45-yard line. The Wolverines drove to the LCH one-yard line. On the second down Texico's Herbert Bibbs appeared to have crossed the goal line. One official signaled touchdown on the play but another, closer to the ball, said Bibbs' knee had touched the ground before he crossed the goal line.

On the next play Texico fumbled and the Eagles recovered. LCH intercepted a Todd Gerles pass and returned it to the nine yard line.

Possession of the ball changed hands three times before the Eagles managed to complete an 11 yard pass for the touchdown with 2:40 left on the fourth quarter clock.

The LCH team decided to go for the win by attempting the 2 point conversion which was good.

The Wolverines tried a desperation pass play from Todd Gerles to James Kelley which fell incomplete and the final score read LCH 8, Texico 7.

Kelley and Gary Mitchell tied for the leading tackle honors with eight each. Most Consistent Offensive Lineman title was shared by Rodney Wilson, Loyd Williams and James Robinson. Jeff Duns-worth was cited for two quarterback sacks.

The "Big Lick" honors for the hardest hits went to Kent Harding on offense and Rodney Wilson on defense. Willie Bibbs led the Wolverine rushing attack with a game total of 36 yards.

"I was pleased with the team, and I saw a lot of improvement from the last game," commented Coach David Lynn following the game.

Other stats from the game included:

Texico	LCHS
6	first downs	3
85	yds. rushing	78
35	yds. passing	16
118	total yards	96

Texico is not scheduled for play this week, but will host Hatch at 7:30 p.m. MDT on Friday, Sept. 26.

Texico Jr. High Wolverines Swallow Portales Rams 20-6

by Sharlet Taylor, Neil Snipes and Gary Reid

In their first game of the 1980 season, the Texico Junior High Wolverines hosted the Portales Rams and controlled the game for a 20-6 win.

The entire 25-member team had a chance on the turf, and according to Jr. High head coach Scott Parker, for some of the players, "It was the first time ever to have on a football uniform." But that sure didn't seem to make a difference.

Opening the action in the first quarter, Ronnie Galvan recovered a fumble on Texico's 14-yard line, leading to a 12 yard TD run by Brad Steward. The Wolverines PAT attempt failed.

During the second period Dennis Chavez received a 30-yard pass at the one-yard line to set the Wolverines up for their second score of the game. Steward followed with a one-yard drive for the TD, but the extra point attempt was no good.

For the Wolverines, Kevin West trapped the quarterback in the end zone for a two-point safety. Also during the second period, the final points were made for Texico on a 55-yard punt return by Ronnie Landis. The run for the PAT was unsuccessful.

In the third quarter, Danny Powell received a 25-yard TD pass from West. The West-to-Powell touchdown was called back because of an illegal receiver downfield.

In the final second of play, Portales scored their only touchdown. Tobin Tate stopped their PAT making the final score 20-6.

Players recognized by Coach Parker for their efforts were Ronnie Landis for his nine tackles, as well as Tommy Boardman and Jeff Holland for their five tackles each.

"Both the defense and offense played really well," said Parker. "But we need to improve week by week."

Wolverine student managers Johnny Torres and Elias Orozco were cited by Parker as having done a "super job" during the game. The coach also expressed gratitude to the many fans and the junior high cheerleaders for their support at the game.

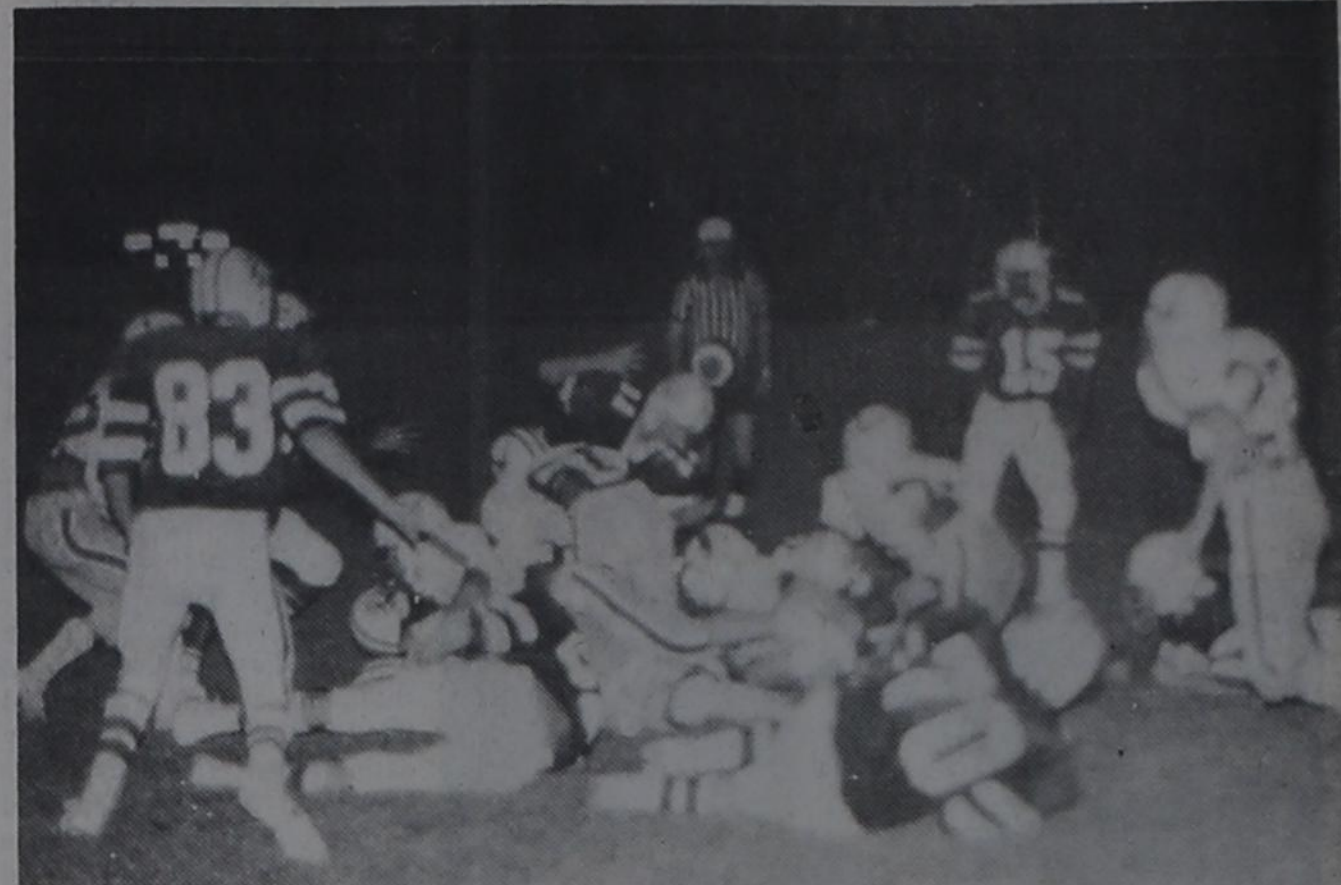

The jr. high Wolverines will next play at Tucumcari Saturday, Sept. 20, and then travel to Muleshoe September 25 for more gridiron action.

Steers Send Bulldogs Home After Crushing 49-0 Victory

Leaving The Pack Behind

Fullback Jack Deaton [33] scores Farwell's first touchdown of the game and the season during competition last Friday night against visiting Amherst. Deaton carried the ball ten times for 60 yards in a game where Farwell blitzed the Bulldogs 49-0.

"It all goes back to the way the offensive line blocked...you just can't pick up that kind of yardage if the offensive line doesn't block," said Steer Coach Randy Adrian in assessing last Friday's whopping 49-0 victory over the visiting Amherst Bulldogs.

"That kind of yardage" Adrian referred to was 400 yards for the Steers compared to Amherst's 87, and it all began with a Mac Langford kickoff to the Bulldog five-yard line.

Farwell quickly gained control after an Amherst return fumble, but Steer domination was short lived as a fumble in a second and six situation was recovered by Amherst.

After having to relinquish the ball back to Steer hands on a punt, the pigskin was again placed in Amherst control after another Farwell fumble.

But the Steers were fired up. Chris Bristow and Mac Langford took care of Bulldog QB Jerry Johnson, stopping him on the home 45, and when Amherst actually did cross the goal line for a TD, it was nullified by a 15-yard holding penalty. Farwell then turned their fumbling streak into a touchdown.

Recovering an Amherst fumble and turning it into seven points came easy for the charged-up Steers. After four firstdowns, the ball was placed in the hands of Jack Deaton at first and goal. Deaton then scooted over the goal line giving Farwell their first TD of the game and the season. With 2:12 left in the first quarter Mac Langford kicked the PAT making it Farwell 7 - Amherst 9. And the fans hadn't seen anything yet.

When the Steers next gained control it looked promising, but after three first-down plays the team was forced to punt.

However, the ball came back quickly to the Steers after some outstanding defensive action against the Bulldogs, causing them to fumble over the ball to Steer hands.

Then, with 5:10 left in the second quarter, seven more Steer points were added on a pass play from David Daniel to Boyd White. Again Langford booted the PAT and the score was Farwell 14, Amherst 9. And the best was yet to come.

Try as they could, Amherst could not move the ball and even after recovering their own punt on a fumble by Farwell, the Bulldogs could not get past Farwell's defensive line.

The Amherst kickoff in the second half was received by Alex Paez. It was then the Farwell offense began its real TD blitz.

The first of three third quarter touchdowns came early from quarterback Daniel on a one yard run, putting the tally at Farwell 21, Amherst 9.

Langford then recovered the ball after an Amherst fumble and the Steers prepared themselves for another TD. It came quickly from Ralph Paez after the ball was carried to a first and goal situation by Waverly Coates, Emilio Paez and Juan Diaz. Farwell now led 28-9. But if Amherst thought they had seen it all, they were dead wrong.

Amherst carried the ball as best they could but a fumble recovered by Bristow again gave the Steers control.

After a 64-yard run by Juan Diaz the pigskin was once more at first and goal and Emilio Paez drove it over. Amherst looked on in dismay as the scoreboard now read Farwell 34 - Amherst 9.

The Steers controlled the rest of the quarter but their final TD's were to come later in the fourth.

In the meantime, Farwell racked up several first downs, recovered various fumbles and intercepted an Amherst pass. But more importantly, they kept the losing visitors from crossing the goal line, even though the Bulldogs tried every way known to football fans to move that ball.

With 2:32 left in the game, Juan Diaz moved 10 yards for another Farwell TD, putting the count at 41-0. Again Langford's PAT gave the extra point placing the total at 42-0.

To their credit, Amherst still played with effort. However, Farwell's defense proved too great an opposition and they didn't go far. A Bulldog fumble was recovered by Farwell, setting up the home team for their final TD of the game.

In three plays, engineered by Coates and Emilio Paez, the ball saw the other side of the goal line for the seventh time that night. With 12 seconds left in the game, it was now Farwell 49-Amherst-0.

And still the Steers weren't finished. In the last seconds Brent Green intercepted the last pass of the game from Amherst...sending the Bulldogs back to Amherst with their tails tucked between their legs.

It should be noted that Langford's PAT's equaled one touchdown as he went seven for seven in conversions.

Coach Adrian credited their huge victory to fitness, explaining that the team progressed as the game wore on. "We started out with seven points in the first quarter and multiplied that every quarter, which proves our players are in good physical condition," Adrian said.

Adrian was also pleased with the fact that their seven scores came from six different players.

The victorious coach also cited offensive linemen Dwayne Winter, Chris Bristow, Richard Carpenter, and Ricky Armstrong for their "outstanding playing." The coaching staff has a practice of scoring each player after the game. Bristow and Carpenter each tallied 100% for their offensive efforts, Amrstrong had 92%, and Winter scored 88%.

In conclusion, the coach praised the entire team by saying "They played exceptionally well, I was very proud of them all."

The Farwell coaching staff named defensive player Mac Langford and offensive player Emilio Paez as Steers of the Week for their contributions to the Steers' victory over Amherst.

Langford had nine tackles, caused an Amherst fumble and recovered a Farwell fumble while playing in a new position for the first time. "I was real proud of him" coach Adrian stated.

Paez had a total of 180 yards rushing in 23 carries and scored two touchdowns. This is the second week Paez has been named Steer of the Week.

The Win Award, going to the player with the most enthusiasm went to Jack Deaton, a senior fullback and linebacker. Deaton would not let a second quarter pulled muscle keep him off the turf and kept on playing.

The Big Hit Award went to Langford. This weekly citation goes to the Steer who had the biggest and hardest hit during the game.

The Farwell team will host the Morton Indians for the third match of the season tonight. Even though the Morton team has an 0-2 record, Coach Adrian says, "that's no indication on their team's playing ability." Morton's first two contests have been with two tough teams, Canadian and Muleshoe, and according to Adrian, "they're probably looking on us as a break." Game time is at 8 p.m. and will be Farwell's homecoming.

Steers Of The Week

EMILIO PAEZ

MAC LANGFORD

For the second straight week, Emilio Paez has been named offensive Steer of the Week by the Farwell Coaching staff. Paez carried the ball 23 times during the contest with Amherst last Friday night and gained a total of 180 yards for the victorious Steers. Paez also scored two touchdowns.

Middle linebacker Mac Langford has been named by the Farwell coaching staff as defensive Steer of the Week. Langford had nine tackles in the game against Amherst last Friday night, caused an Amherst fumble, recovered a Farwell fumble and added seven points in conversions to the 49-0 blitz.

Farwell JV Takes Second Season Victory, 28-6

In their second consecutive victory, the Farwell junior varsity Steers defeated Amherst JV 28-6. "Considering the absence of two starters and several kids playing out of position, we were very pleased with their determination and execution," said members of the Farwell coaching staff.

After a slow first quarter, the team came around and played "like gangbusters" the remainder of the game. Scoring was done by Alan Eubank on a four-yard run; Robby Armstrong after a 25-yard pass interception; again by Eubank on a 70-yard punt return, and four yard run by Ricky Sierra. Extra points were by Eubank and Frank Cantu.

Interceptions were made by Robby Armstrong and Frank Cantu while Rodger Hobbs, Johnny Daniel, Gary Haseloff, Rocky Ford and Alan Eubank. Offensive standouts were recognized as Alan Eubank, Paul Fulcher, Ricky Sierra, Claude Gobble.

The Steer coaching staff cited defensive standouts as Johnny Daniel, Gary Haseloff, Rocky Ford and Alan Eubank. Offensive standouts were recognized as Alan Eubank, Paul Fulcher, Ricky Sierra, Claude Gobble.

Former Homecoming Queens To Be Feted

In conjunction with Homecoming 1980 at Farwell High School, three former Homecoming Queens will be honored by the Farwell Booster organization, introducing them at halftime of the football game and presenting them with roses.

Those who were chosen Homecoming Royalty in 1951, 1961 and 1971 will be the special honorees at this year's homecoming clash between the Steers and the Morton Indians. The former queens include 1951 - Janene Lunsford Gable who lives at Lazbuddie; 1961 - Jo Karen Potts Carpenter of Ft. Davis, Tex.; and 1971 -

Trumi Christian Wiloth of Albany, Tex.

At mid-week Booster Club members had contacted the former honorees, but were not certain how many of them would be able to be present for the festivities.

In other Booster Club business, the group planned to enter a float in the Homecoming Parade Thursday.

It was reported that the club had secured individual colored photographs of the football players and they have been placed in windows of local businesses. The cheerleaders were responsible for mounting and placing the pictures around town. The club expressed thanks to Leon Langford who took the pictures and had the prints made.

Posters of the football and basketball schedules have also been placed in local businesses by the boosters so that citizens can keep up with game dates etc.

The club invites all fans and interested persons to the remainder of the homecoming activities and to all the booster club meetings on "Tuesday nights at 8 at Luce's Restaurant."

A Shocking Experience

Joe Semetana, Texas Farm Bureau Safety Director, explained to Farwell students how the human body can become a "path to ground" resulting in a possible fatal electric shock, at a recent student assembly. In his program, sponsored by the Farwell FFA Chapter, Semetana said that the body will complete an electrical circuit, even from a low voltage electrical current, resulting in death. Chapter president Gary White presided over the assembly and FFA correspondent Jack Smallwood reports that "the assembly was very informative and could possibly save some lives."

Sunday Afternoon Fire

Farwell Volunteer firefighters answered a call Sunday afternoon and put out a fire in a vacant two-room structure, located behind the home of the late W.W. Vinyard. Believed to have been started by children playing with a lighter, the fire caused one wall to be damaged by fire and smoke. The total damage has not been given a dollar estimate pending notification of those listed in the Vinyard estate. Parents of the responsible children have been advised they will pay for all damages.

Festival Set For Clovis City Zoo

The Clovis City Zoo has experienced many changes and improvements recently and the High Plains Zoological Society along with several area service clubs want people to come see the "new" facility.

A "Zoo Awareness Festival," which will kick off Zoo Awareness Week, is set to take place September 27 and 28 at Hillcrest Park in Clovis, complete with art show, music and entertainment.

"We want the public to see that things are happening at the zoo and increase community awareness," explained Gail Martin, zoological society board member and spokeswoman.

"The new security fence will be up and since this was such a big project, we want people to come see it and our new animals and exhibits at the zoo."

The two-day event will feature an Art in the Park exhibit with artisans from both New Mexico and Texas, a children's art contest and a puppet show.

A festival isn't complete without music and the organizers have thought about that too. Saturday, Sept. 27, local musicians will travel throughout the park at various times of the day entertaining festival goers; and Sunday, Sept. 28, the Community Concert Band will perform for audiences in the afternoon.

Admission to the festival is free, and once inside people will be treated to a dunking booth, free balloons and a children's pet show.

Late last year the Clovis Junior Women's League organized a Zoo Fact-Finding Committee and demanded to Clovis City officials that the zoo either be improved or closed.

This action, in addition to pressure from the Federal Department of Agriculture for the clean up of the zoo, sent city fathers to work.

Area communities also let it be known they wanted the zoo kept open, and donations were offered from all over.

The city did its part by hiring a full-time enthusiastic zoo keeper, Dick Zinsman, of Oregon. Full of fresh and original ideas, Zinsman arrived in Clovis in January bringing with him several years of experience as a zoo keeper and director. He then

JUSTIFIED FREELY

"Being justified freely by His grace, through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus" (Rom. 3:24).

It is wonderful to know that we sinners are not justified by praying, or paying, or saying, or sighing, or crying, or doing anything. We are justified freely, BY THE GRACE OF GOD.

But this passage from Romans will mean more to us when we learn how the word rendered "freely" here is translated elsewhere in the Bible. The same expression is read in John 15:25, where our Lord, quoting from the Psalms, said: "THEY HATED ME WITHOUT A CAUSE."

Why did men hate Him? He went about doing nothing but good: healing the sick, giving the blind their sight, causing the lame to leap for joy, preaching good news to the poor and deliverance to those who were bound. There was no good reason for crying "Away with Him!" and "Crucify Him." They hated Him "WITH-

OUT A CAUSE."

But in the same way we might ask: Why should He die for sinners? Why should HE pay for THEIR sins? He had done nothing wrong? Ah, it was in love that He deliberately gave Himself into the hands of sinful men, that He, the sinless One, might pay for their sins. He did not die His own death, for death is "the wages of sin." He died OUR death, paying for OUR sins. So, as men had hated Him "without a cause" (except their own sinful hate) so Christ has "justified" the believer "without a cause" (except His own divine love).

And so it is that we can now proclaim the glorious news that God has sent us to tell all mankind, that His righteousness is conferred "upon all those who believe ... BEING JUSTIFIED FREELY BY HIS GRACE, THROUGH THE REDEMPTION THAT IS IN CHRIST JESUS" (Rom. 3:24).
