Grain Alcohol Plant Is Local Possibility

The production of gasohol, a topic of national importance, was the subject of a meeting in Farwell Tuesday evening. Twenty local farmers met in the Jaycee Community Center and heard a discussion on the possibility of a gasohol plant being established in this area.

Leading the discussion was Guy Austin, a West Camp farmer and active participant in the American Agricultural Movement. Austin said that as a result of last year's AAM activities the organization decided that an alternative use for grain must be devised. The answer to higher prices for grain could be found in using grain for energy production and plans to this end were being pursued on a national level.

Toward this goal there has now been established a national cooperative movement named Grain Producers International Inc. (GPI). GPI is seeking to build a number of gasohol producing plants nationwide. This area is being considered in this program.

The plan as described by Austin would be to establish plants with the capacity to produce at least 20,000,000 gallons of alcohol per year. A plant of this size would be a "Co-op" unit. The Cooperative would be established by and under the guidance of a local board of directors. It would have one representative on the board of a regional cooperative and in turn the regional would be represented on the National Board of Directors.

GPI would be the national organization that would provide research, marketing and bookkeeping for each local unit. According to Austin a national brokerage firm has already committed a bond issue in the amount of $420,000,000 to the plant development program.

Purpose of local meetings is to ascertain how much local participation can be expected. The basic alcohol production unit must have at least 20,800,000 bushels of grain available for a year's production run.

This grain would be pledged by local producers who in turn would be members of the Co-op and they would share in the annual profits of the local association. According to figures released by Austin, using current prices, corn selling for $2.35 a bushel could return $3.74 a bushel to the producer-participant in the program. Membership in the Co-op program would be limited to producing farmers only.

Austin stated that the Tuesday night meeting was purely exploratory with the purpose of generally giving out information on the program and giving local farmers an opportunity to think about and discuss the proposed national program. Austin promised more local area meetings, and that in the near future a general area meeting would be convened for the purpose of actually signing up participants in the program.

Austin also said he would be available to answer questions by area farmers by calling him at his home number AC806/825-2863.

Emma Cassady Rites Tuesday

Final rites were conducted Tuesday afternoon at Steed-Todd Chapel in Clovis for Mrs. Emma S. Cassady, 73, of Texico, who died Saturday night in an automobile accident.

Rev. J. W. Duke and Rev. Gerald Woods officiated at funeral services and burial was in Sunset Terrace Memorial Cemetery at Farwell.

Mrs. Cassady was born December 22, 1905 in Mineral Springs, Ark., and had lived in the Texico-Farwell area since 1931. She was preceded in death by a son, R.A., in 1963 and by her husband, Carey, in 1974.

Survivors include one son, Philip of Gruver, Tex.; three daughters, Dorothy Pruitt and Beverly Gamble, both of Clovis, and Judy Cummings of Friona; two brothers, Grear Smith of Nashville, Ark., and Arthur Smith of Clovis, Calif.; two sisters, Iva Barfield of Quitaque and Mae Reeves of Plainview; 13 grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Pallbearers were Bruce Cassady, Carey Cassady, Ray Don Cassady, Monty Cassady, Scott Cummings, Kirk Cummings and Genearo Gonzales.

Honorary pallbearers were Don Williams, John Armstrong, Ray Ford, Jesse Coburn, Earl Booth and Joe W. Magness.

injuries suffered in the collision which occurred at the junction of N.M. State Road 77 and State Road 108 about a mile east of Pleasant Hill.

Mrs. Cassady was a passenger in a car driven by Roy Ford of Broadview, N.M., brother of Ray Ford of Farwell, Ford, who was injured in the two-car accident, was listed in serious condition at Clovis High Plains Hospital Tuesday.

A Clovis man, Timothy W. Smith, also died as a result of

Pioneer Days Fun Underway In Clovis

Pioneer Days celebration in Clovis was to begin Thursday and will conclude this Saturday.

Approximately 35 entries are to participate in the Pioneer Days Parade set for tomorrow (Saturday) at 10 a.m. A Shriner's organization from Albuquerque will float a hot air balloon over Clovis as the parade gets underway.

Parade marshals will be the United States Air Force Thunderbirds who will lead the parade on horses and in an antique car.

Following the parade, a barbecue - sponsored by the Curry County 4-H'ers - will be held on the courthouse lawn. A highlight of the barbecue will be the Old Fiddler's Contest, also on the courthouse lawn.

During the barbecue, antique cars will also be on display in the courthouse parking area.

The Miss Rodeo New Mexico Pageant will again be a part of the Pioneer Days celebration. Wilma Fulgham is the pageant coordinator.

The pageant was to get underway Thursday with horsemanship competition at the Mounted Patrol Arena. Each contestant was to have two runs. A reception for contestants will be open to the public at 4 p.m. MDT this Saturday at the home of Bette-Jane Goodwin.

The Miss Rodeo New Mexico coronation will take place this Saturday evening immediately preceding the rodeo performance.

The Pioneer Days Rodeo was to begin at 8 p.m. Thursday and will continue nightly through Saturday.

Fix Gazebo Location

Lee Hutchins of Farwell was busy Tuesday marking off the location of the gazebo for Farwell City Park which is to be completed in time for the 1979 Border Town Days celebration. Looking on are Harold Murray, grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Symcox of Farwell, and Hutchins' son, Daniel. Mrs. Symcox is in charge of the gazebo project. The structure is being built in the northeast corner of the city park.

Border Town Days Plans 'Shaping Up'

Plans for the 1979 Border Town Days celebration are beginning to take shape due largely to the efforts of the Border Town Days Committee which met Monday night at the Farwell Jaycee Community Center. BTD Committee members are representatives of all clubs and civic organizations in both Texico and Farwell.

Seventeen persons attended Monday's meeting, with John Getz, chairman, presiding.

Theme of this year's celebration is "United We Grow," and a wide variety of activities is planned. Fun-filled events scheduled include everything from a parade, rodeo and barbecue to a BTD Queen contest, Old Fiddler's contest and a host of park activities to delight everyone - young and old alike.

The gazebo, a permanent structure which is to be constructed at Farwell City Park, is expected to be completed in time for next month's celebration. Julia Symcox is in charge of the gazebo project.

Estimated cost of the structure is $2000. Mrs. Symcox reported that $715 has been pledged toward the project. Donations to date include Farwell Chamber of Commerce, $500; Texico-Farwell Lions Club, $100; Farwell Study Club, $100; and Texico Variety, $15.

Any club, organization or individual interested in donating to this project is asked to contact Mrs. Symcox as soon as possible. In the meantime, the BTD Committee voted Monday night to "float" a loan at the local bank in order to get the project underway as soon as possible.

The loan would be paid through pledges, and in the event that the two sums do not come out even, the BTD Committee will assume the burden of paying off the remainder of the transaction.

The gazebo will be a 21-foot hexagon-shaped structure, featuring a cement foundation, six foot wide ramp and plywood roof with asphalt shingles.

Always a delight, the parade will once again be a part of the BTD observance. Glenn Fant will serve as parade marshal with assistance from the Texico-Farwell Lions Club. Anyone interested in entering a float vehicle or group is asked to contact the Tribune at 481-3681, or any member of the Lions Club.

The parade will begin at 12:30 CDT Saturday, July 28. Entrants will begin lining up south of Highway 60-70-84 at the Texaco service station, proceed through the "main streets" of both communities, turn south on Fifth Street in Farwell and disband one block south of the Convalescent Center.

Several prizes will be presented to the best parade entries.

Farwell Chamber will sponsor first and second place trophies for the best riding club entries, and cash prizes for the three best floats including $50 for first place, $30 for second place and $20 for third place.

Texico Chamber of Commerce will sponsor first and second place trophies for the best old car entries.

The barbecue, co-sponsored by the Farwell Jaycees and the Texico-Farwell Rotary Club, will begin at 1 p.m. CDT in the park and continue until everyone is served. The Jaycees have donated the meat and the Rotarians will be in charge of the food preparations.

Park activities will include the Border Town Days Queen contest. Contestants eligible are girls who will attend either Farwell or Texico high schools during the 1979-80 school year.

Each contestant must have a sponsor. The entry fee is $5. Entrants will be judged on the basis of personality and talent.

The BTD Committee expressed an interest in having a "Little Princess" contest if a local organization would sponsor it.

Also on tap will be the traditional Old Fiddler's contest. The first prize of $50 will be donated by the State Line Tribune. Second prize of $25 and third prize of $15 will also be awarded.

A traditional part of any BTD celebration is the annual rodeo sponsored for the past few years by the Jaycees. Two performances of the High Plains Junior Rodeo will begin at 8 p.m. CDT Friday and Saturday, July 28-29.

Both the Texico and Farwell chambers of commerce have ordered banners and pennants to be used as decorations for the two-day celebration.

Station Operators: 'Gas Plentiful Here'

by Shirley Gorman

Are Americans driving less these days, and enjoying it less? This question is not as ludicrous as it may sound. Certainly Americans seem to be caught in the midst of a real gas crisis, whether it be genuine or manipulated.

Vacations, pleasure driving and visiting - just to name a few driving pastimes - are indeed fun and much looked forward to means of recreation. But paying upwards of $1 or more per gallon for gas and/or waiting in long gas lines certainly is not fun.

Gloomy forecasts of less gas selling for higher and still higher prices is nothing to smile about either. Everyday the media is delving into some aspect of the gas crisis, and it is quite enough to make one's head spin.

Who to disbelieve or believe is a question few can answer, but everyday people interviewed on television or by pollsters seem to indicate that they aren't sure just what is going on. Many others do not fail to blame the large, monolithic gas companies, which, to some, are the true ogres of the energy crisis.

Whatever the cause, whatever the answer, whatever the future prospects, residents of Texico and Farwell can be grateful and even thankful that while even though they are paying more for gas these days (isn't that true of everything) they at least have it available when they want it and, so far at least, gas lines have not become a local problem.

A spot survey of local service station operators indicates that while gasoline prices have soared, especially during the past six months, it is available and they do not perceive any shortages for the future months ahead. But in today's inconstant gas situation or crisis, whichever term is preferred, that can change in a moment's notice.

Effie Young, who has operated one of the Phillips 66 stations in Texico for almost 22 years, says she has "no problems" getting gas. She leases her station from Helton Oil Company who also supplies her gas.

Mrs. Young sells only unleaded and regular gasoline now and orders about 200 and 300 gallons, respectively, each week. But she admits that the prices of gasoline has gone up considerably since she has been in business, especially during the past six months.

Prices as of last Friday were 81.5 cents for unleaded and 77.5 cents for regular. These prices have remained stable for two weeks. Mrs. Young, who operates her station Monday through Saturday from 8 a.m. to 6 p.m., says she has no choice but to raise her prices when she herself has to pay more for gasoline.

When her husband died 11 years ago, Mrs. Young had the option of quitting or remaining in business. She does not regret her decision, adding that she is grateful to her customers and the Helton Company who have been "good to her."

Ken and Jean Workheiser have operated the Fina service station in Texico for approximately 8½ years. The station is open Monday through Friday from 7 to 6:30 and Sundays from 8-2 p.m., but is closed on Saturday.

The following gasoline prices (as of Friday) have remained in effect at this station for about three weeks: regular, 75.9; unleaded 83.9; supreme, 84.9.

Workheiser says he isn't sure whether or not there is a shortage. "That's what people say. All I know is that now I can get the gas I need with no problems. But the prices have continually gone up especially during the past few months," he said.

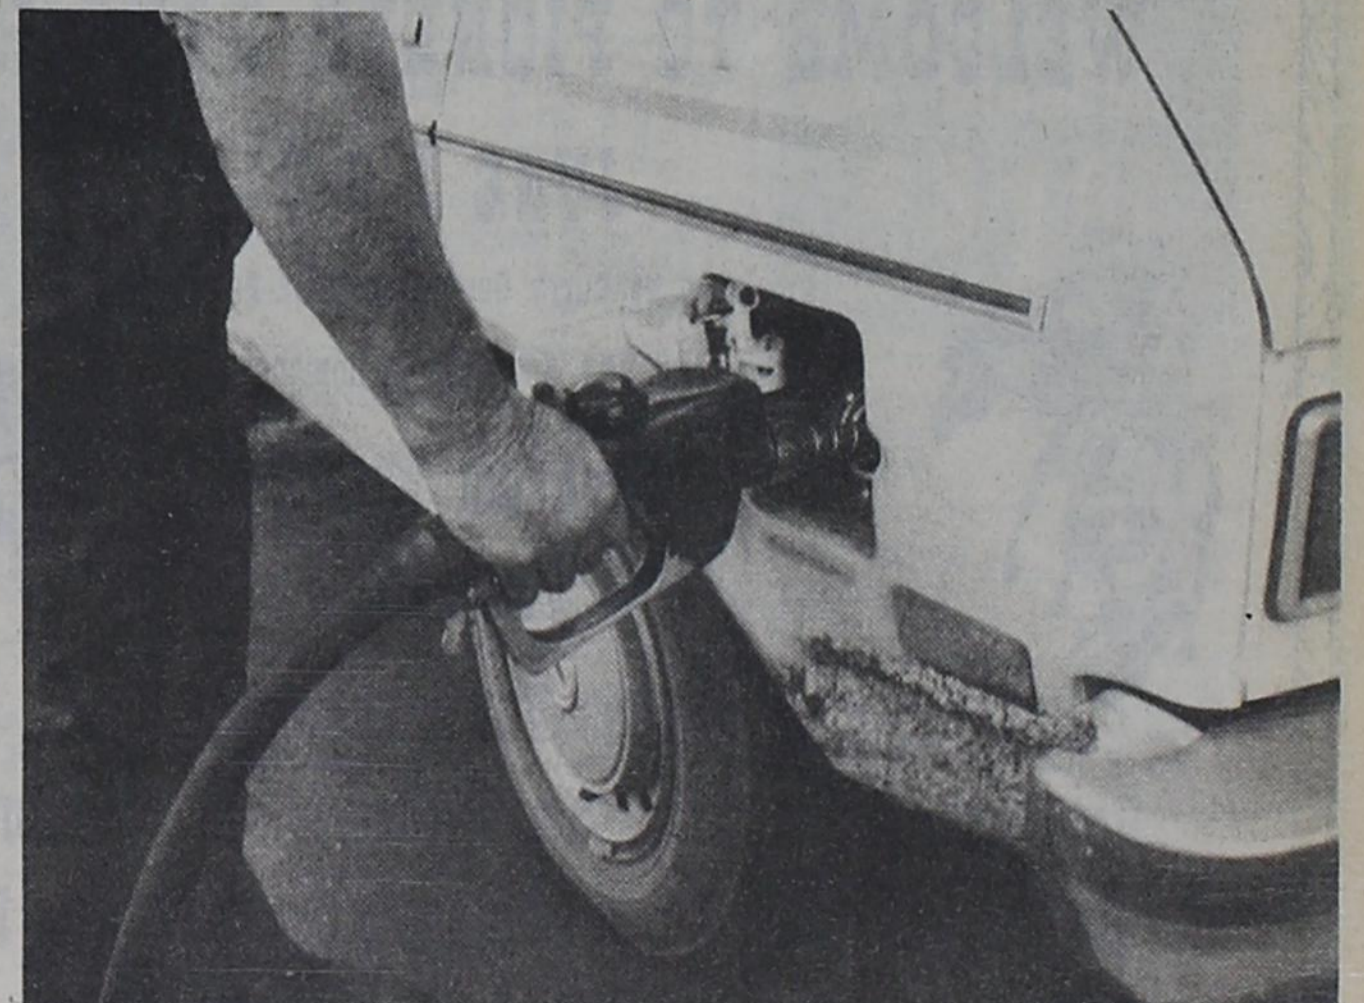

Dale and Jimmy Bentley of Friona (a father and son partnership) took over the management of the Exxon service station in Farwell four months ago. They order their gas from Roswell every two weeks.

In recent weeks, keeping the unleaded tank filled has been a problem, Bentley said. "We can always get the gas but Roswell is very slow sometimes about filling our order." The last time this happened they were out of unleaded for a week and that "hurts business."

Their regular tank holds 5,000 gallons of gas, but the unleaded tank has only a 2,000-gallon capacity and there is the problem, according to Bentley. "They should have made the unleaded tank the same capacity as the regular and then we wouldn't always be running out of it."

The Bentleys also sell prem-

Gas-A-Plenty

Gas prices may be steadily rising, but - at least for the present anyway - gas is plentiful in Texico and Farwell. A recent spot check of local service station operators indicates that they do not have any serious problems obtaining gasoline from their suppliers. If this trend continues, local residents may not have to battle long gas lines or face out-of-gas signs at service stations as citizens in other states are doing, especially in California.

PURELY PERSONAL

by John

Where do they come from? How do they find the time and money to devote to their outrageous demonstrations? These questions always come to mind when we view a "demonstration" such as occurred last weekend over the use of nuclear energy to generate electricity.

We have felt strongly about matters over the years, yet we were never able to cease earning a living and spend money traipsing all over the country to demonstrate. Is there a secret to living without working that we never stumbled upon? Tut tut, we know you are going to tell us about all the Federal programs that rescue folks from the necessity of showing up for work every day.

We have heard about those taxpayer financed methods of loafing but figured that only a very small portion of the population took advantage of them out of self respect. From the looks of the thousands of demonstrators self respect in this country is about as old fashioned as getting married.

Probably these demonstrations wouldn't bother us so badly if they were aimed at a rational cause. As we view the subject most of these so-called demonstrations are aimed at ruining the American way of life. The anti-war groups of the sixties led the way and successfully pressured the American government into turning tail and running from Communist aggression. We will pay the price for this folly for generations yet to come.

If these kindred anti-nuclear agitators are successful in stripping this country of its ability to generate electricity by nuclear means we will pay the price almost immediately.

This price will be first paid by the poor and the elderly in lack of heat, housing and food. Eventually all segments of our society will suffer grievously from a power shortage. Jobs will disappear, hard times will soon come upon the face of America and finally a socialistic form of government will emerge. This will merely spread misery more evenly across the board.

By thoughtlessly and recklessly endangering our economic system these demonstrators are not only putting the onus of poverty upon themselves but will also fasten the yoke of socialism on us all.

We were in Carlsbad last weekend and learned why they named their main drag Canal Street. It rained and rained and rained in Carlsbad and their main drag turned into a canal.

All wasn't lost because we had the pleasure of hearing the New Mexico Lions Band that will represent the state at the Lions International Convention in Montreal, Canada.

Dondra Gerles was one of the forty-odd young folks who were selected this year for the honor. This group only had three hours practice together the day before they put on a concert for the Lions Convention that was being held in Carlsbad. It was a stirring thirty minutes of marching music interspersed with skits by the band members themselves. This has got to be a super group of outstanding young people to be able to learn so much in so short a time.

The Tribune received a letter this week asking us to renew a subscription for another year. It may be a record for reading this publication. Mrs. E. A. (Sophia) Hromas, formerly of Bovina, says that she has been a subscriber since November 25, 1919. Mrs. Hromas is now living with her daughter Ernestine in Fort Worth but still enjoys information on the local activities.

Our congratulations, Mrs. Hromas, on your continuing interest in our paper.

Nearly two inches of rain fell in the Twin Cities last Thursday and Friday, creating large lakes like this one on First Street in Farwell. While area farmers in general welcomed the moisture, there was some concern for area cotton crops which did not need the cool, wet weather.

Pioneer Rodeo To Be 'Best Ever'

Four-hundred-and-thirty-five cowboys will compete for prize money in the three night Pioneer Days Rodeo which was to begin Thursday at 8 p.m. MDT at Clovis. Additional performances will be tonight (Friday) and tomorrow (Saturday).

The action all takes place at the Curry County Mounted Patrol Arena. This year's competition is expected to be "one of the best," according to Benny Fulgham, CCMF captain.

All the top PRCA cowboys have entered the competition and, barring no more rain, he thinks this year's event will be one of "the best rodeos ever."

Mike Cervi is furnishing the rodeo stock. Among the top cowboy competitors are five-time All-Around World Champion Tom Ferguson, who also leads all contenders in calf roping; Bud Munroe of Billings, Mont., saddle bronc leader; Bruce Ford of Evans, Colo., bareback bronc leader; Don Gay of Mesquite, Tex., bull riding leader;

Also, Stan Williamson of Kellyville, Okla., steer wrestling leader; and the team of Kent Winterton and Don Kimble, who lead PRCA cowboys in team roping.

Other top contenders include Lyle Stankey of Augusta, Kan., bareback, saddle bronc and bull riding; Bobby Berger of Lexington, Okla., saddle bronc and bull riding; former saddle bronc champion Monty Henson of Mesquite, Tex.; Larry Ferguson of Miami, Okla., steer wrestling and calf roping; and former roping champion Roy Cooper of Durant, Okla.

Anyone interested in establishing a booth at the park should contact either Judy Jones or Gloria Hutchins. Space may be rented at the park for $5.

The BTD Committee will also check into having magnetic signs made for the BTD Queen which will be attached to the sides of the vehicle in which she rides at various functions throughout the year.

Those attending the meeting were Hattie Coffey, Ellen Wurster, Lee and Gloria Hutchins, Ray Norton, Roene Stewart, Tony Mendoza, Julia Symcox, Jimmy Curtis, Judy Jones, W. M. Roberts, Lewis and Ann Cooper, Bill Christian, Glenn Fant and John and Joann Getz.

Rainy, Cool Spell Settles Over Area

Even though summer does not officially begin until June 21, summer-like temperatures are usually on the weather agenda long before the month of June. However, this year seems to be quite different as - except for sporadic bursts of sunshine and warm weather - record cool and rainy spells have kept the usually hot weather at bay.

The latest cool spell began last Thursday with a slow falling, steady rain which deposited nearly two inches of rain in the Twin Cities and surrounding area. The rain slacked off Friday although a few sprinkles were evident Saturday morning.

Sunday was relatively warm and partially clear, but by Monday afternoon and Tuesday morning showers had once again moved into the area. Approximately 2 inch more rain was received Monday afternoon.

Following last week's storm, water was running in the gutters and First Street in Farwell near the highway was temporarily flooded.

Parmer County Agent Seth Ralston reports that the county has received from one to 2½ inches of moisture since this recent rainy spell began. He said the rain was beneficial to some crops, especially corn, but was very detrimental to cotton, some of which was just entering the seedling stage.

"The cotton really needs hot and dry weather now," he explained.

The rainy weather also was not good news for Clovisites and rodeo buffs as two performances of the High Plains Junior Rodeo had to be cancelled due to the soggy conditions of the Curry County Mounted Patrol Arena.

For the most part though area residents have enjoyed the reprieve from the usual heat waves which sometimes begin to plague the county this time of year.

Oversees Gazebo Construction

Julia Symcox of Farwell has been the single, most effective, persevering force behind the current plans to construct a gazebo at Farwell City Park. Mrs. Symcox began working on the project following last year's Border Town Days celebration. Her efforts are becoming reality now as volunteer workers were digging the foundation for the structure Tuesday afternoon. The gazebo is expected to be finished in time for next month's BTD celebration. The project is being financed through pledges made by local clubs, organizations and individuals.

Gerald Kirkland Buried In Hereford

Funeral services for Gerald Kirkland, 47, of Shallowater, former Farwell resident, were conducted May 30 at the First Baptist Church in Shallowater with Rev. I.D. Walker of Lubbock officiating. Burial was in Rest Lawn Cemetery in Hereford.

Mr. Kirkland died May 29 at Health Science Medical Center in Lubbock. He was born in Bula, Tex., January 18, 1932. Before moving to Hereford several years ago, Mr. Kirkland owned the Kirkland Pump Company at Farwell. In Shallowater he had owned a fruit market, but had sold it prior to his death.

Survivors include his wife, Wanda, of the home; two sons, Garry Ron and Terry Lee, and a grandson, Jason, all of Shallowater; his mother, Della Kirkland of Amarillo; five brothers, J.D. Jr., of Amarillo, Jack of Farwell, Walter of Plattsburg, Mo., Billy of Denim Springs, La., and Bobby of Lubbock; one sister, Alice Vinton of Farwell, and two half-sisters, Tina and Kathy Kirkland, both of Clovis.

Pallbearers were Bart Bishop, Mickey Bishop, Barry Gilbreath, Cody Gilbreath, Carl Don Kirkland, Davey Kirkland, Fred Kirkland and Jack Allan Kirkland.

Twirlers Get State Ratings

Farwell High School twirlers were in Austin last weekend to participate in state UIL twirling competition. The four girls, who competed against other twirlers from Class A, AA, AAA and AAAA schools, gave a good account of themselves.

The ensemble performance executed by Brenda Jones, head twirler, and Lisa Howard, Betsy Black and Kay Geuther, garnered a II Division Rating. In solo competition Brenda earned a II Division Rating and Betsy and Lisa each received a III Division Rating. Brenda will receive a medal for her efforts.

Kay was not eligible for a solo performance as this is her first year for UIL competition. In order to qualify for the state contest, the local twirlers all received I Division Ratings in ensemble and solo contests several weeks ago during the UIL District Contest.

The girls left Friday for Austin and performed in the contest Saturday. The state contest actually did not conclude until Monday, but the girls returned home Sunday as they were finished with their part.

Local Woman's Brother Buried In Mansfield

Harry Davis Nifong Jr., 66, of Mansfield, Tex., died Friday evening, June 1, in Arlington. He was a brother of Mrs. Lela Jane Overstreet of Farwell. Funeral services were conducted Sunday afternoon at the First United Methodist Church of Mansfield of which Mr. Nifong was a member. Burial was in Mansfield Cemetery. Mr. Nifong was a retired teacher and was a veteran of World War II and the Korean Conflict. He was also a member of Masonic Lodge No. 331 32nd degree Consistory, Guthrie, Okla., and Moslem Shrine Temple. Survivors besides Mrs. Overstreet include his wife, Frances of Mansfield; and a daughter, Miss Nancy Colette Nifong, also of Mansfield.

Twirlers Win At State

These Farwell High School twirlers fared quite well in state competition last weekend in Austin, earning a II Division Rating in ensemble and three solo honors. The winners are, from left, Brenda Jones, senior, head; Lisa Howard, junior; Betsy Black, sophomore, and Kay Geuther, freshman. Brenda also won a II Division Rating in solo and Lisa and Betsy each earned a III Division Rating. Kay was not eligible to compete in the solo division as this is her first year in UIL competition.

Methodists Hire Youth Director

Harry Riser of Santa Fe, N.M., and student at McMurry College in Abilene, will be the summer youth director at Hamlin Memorial United Methodist Church. His duties will include organizing and planning youth programs and activities.

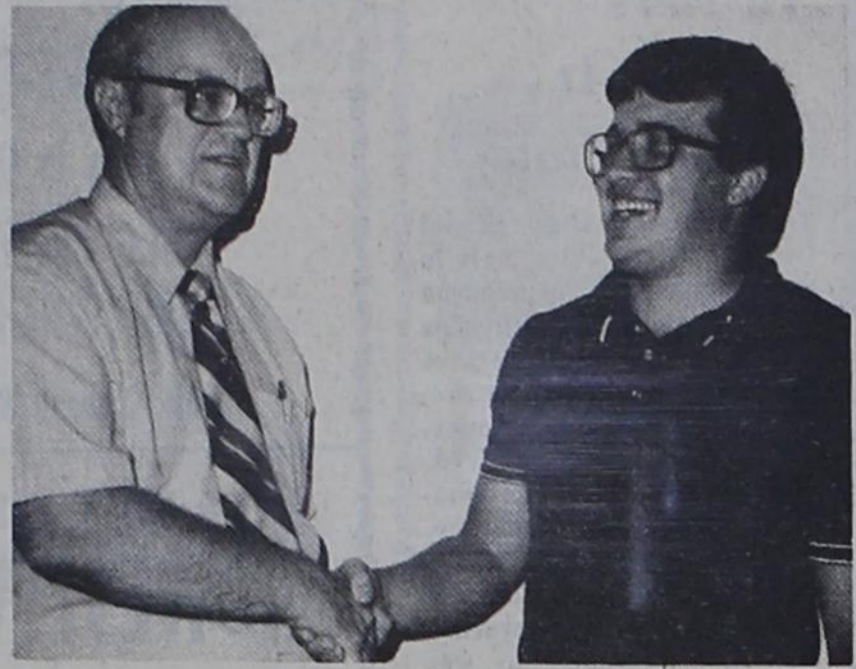

Riser is staying with the M. A. Snider, Jr., family. During the past school year he served as the youth director for junior high students at St. Paul's United Methodist Church in Abilene. Last summer Riser functioned as interim pastor for three United Methodist churches in Espanola Valley, N.M.

Riser's philosophy is that the youth program is "for the kids" and, he explained, "I try to help them make church attendance be something real and valuable."

He will be a second semester senior at McMurry this fall, where he is majoring in religion. He intends to become a minister.

According to Rev. Duane Knowlton, pastor of the church, Riser will probably preach a few sermons this summer.

Riser said he is "very happy" to be in Farwell.

Welcomes Youth Director

Harry Riser of Santa Fe, N.M., right, receives a hearty welcome from Rev. Duane Knowlton, pastor of Hamlin Memorial United Methodist Church. Riser will be the church's summer youth director. This fall he will be a second semester senior at McMurry College in Abilene. He is majoring in religion and intends to become a minister. Rev. Knowlton was recently re-appointed to a second term as pastor of the church.

Methodist Minister Appointed 2nd Term

Rev. Duane Knowlton was recently re-appointed to a second term as pastor of Hamlin Memorial United Methodist Church. The action was taken by the New Mexico Conference of Methodist Churches during its May 22-25 conference at Glorieta, N.M. Both Knowlton and the church's congregation had requested that he return for another year.

Rev. Knowlton was also ordained an elder during the conference, the highest honor a Methodist minister can obtain. Becoming an elder takes years of preparation and the church must approve each step, Rev. Knowlton explained.

During the ceremony several persons laid their hands on Rev. Knowlton, including a cabinet bishop, three district superintendents, his father, Rev. O. L. Knowlton of Springer, N.M., retired minister; and his father-in-law, M. D. Lakey of Lubbock, a lay leader.

Attend Homecoming

Mrs. Aileen Teel of Texico, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Andy Brunson of Portales, and an aunt, Mrs. Epkie Gruben of Brownfield, attended a community homecoming at Loneworth, Tex., over the weekend.

The ladies left here Saturday and traveled to the homecoming site near Sweetwater. Mrs. Teel and her aunt returned to their homes Monday; however, Mrs. Brunson remained at Sweetwater with a daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Hanna, for an extended visit.

Dondra Gerles Plays With NM Lions Band

Pleasant memories and experiences make life pleasurable, especially when one looks back in later years on memorable occasions. One such occasion for Dondra Gerles must surely be having performed with the New Mexico Lions Band. The Farwell band student received her first "taste" of this unique experience last weekend as she and approximately 30 other band students played their first concert at the New Mexico State Lions Club Convention in Carlsbad.

If not for the inclement weather the vivacious band group would also have marched in the parade, but it was cancelled due to rain. However, the less than friendly weather did not daunt the enthusiasm of the band students.

Dondra, her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Don Gerles, and her brother and sister, Steve and Lisa, all traveled to Carlsbad June 1. En route they stopped for one night in Artesia where Dondra first met her fellow band players. The group practiced for 4 1/2 hours under the direction of Jerry Hoover, Director of Marching Bands at New Mexico State University at Las Cruces and new leader of the Lions Band.

At the Saturday night concert the group played popular music and performed several skits. Dondra helped to form a train in one skit to the tune of "Chattanooga Choo Choo." Members of the band wore white pants, red T-shirts with blue stripes and red and white hats. "It was lots of fun," Dondra said, "but I was scared at first. The kids were so super nice, that the fright soon went away."

The group also toured Carlsbad Caverns and the President's Park. Dondra will re-join the New Mexico Lions Band June 16 in Las Cruces where they will practice for three days to prepare for the upcoming concert for the Lions Club International Convention in Montreal, Canada.

Rhonda Turner Feted With Bridal Shower

Rhonda Turner, bride-elect of Eddie Workheiser of Clovis, was honored with a bridal shower Sunday at the First Federal building in Clovis. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Billy Don Price of Portales. The prospective bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ken Workheiser of Clovis.

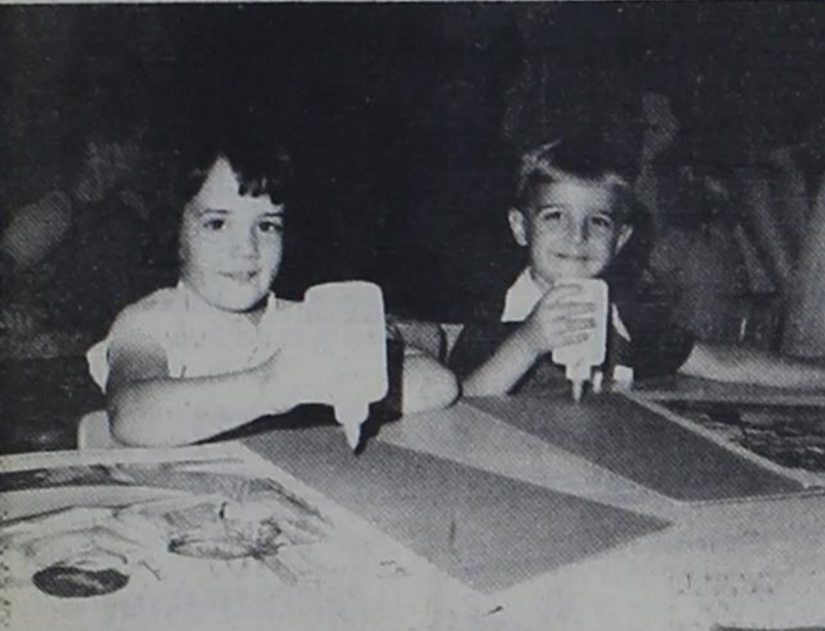

The bride-elect's colors of blue, green and white were carried out in the decorations. The serving table was covered with a white lace cloth and centered with a blue unity candle surrounded by blue flowers, a gift from the prospective bridegroom's brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs.

Floyd Workheiser of Clovis. Refreshments of cake, made by Betty Anson of Farwell, punch, nuts and mints were served. Hostesses were Rose Workheiser, Frankie Arnold, Retta Albright, and Robin and Vickie Price.

Corsages were presented to the honoree, her mother, and future mother-in-law.

VBS Artists

Children attending the combined Methodist and Baptist Vacation Bible School at the Oklahoma Lane United Methodist Church Tuesday enjoyed learning about Jesus. Part of their activities included gluing pictures onto pieces of cardboard. The artists shown here are D'Ann Pierson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Steve Pierson, and Paul Winegeart, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Winegeart.

Sing A Song

Children attending Vacation Bible School at St. John Lutheran Church, Lariat, this week gathered together in the auditorium for a singing session before retiring to their respective classrooms. These three boys -- all cousins -- happily joined in the singing. They are, from left, Derrick Haseloff, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Haseloff; Shawn Haseloff, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Haseloff; and Ray Haseloff, son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Haseloff. The little girl partially shown is not identified.

JUDGE NOT ACCORDING TO APPEARANCE. Christ says, "Judge not according to appearance, but judge righteous judgment" (John 7:24).

WE MUST NOT be overly impressed with superficial externals. Christ spoke strongly against this inclination when he said, "You also outwardly appear righteous unto me, but within you are full of hypocrisy and iniquity." (Matt. 23:28).

THE INSIDE MUST BE RIGHT. - "A good man out of the good treasure of the heart brings forth good things; and an evil man out of the evil treasure of his heart brings forth evil things." (Matt. 12:35).

THE LORD LOOKS ON THE HEART. - "...: for the Lord sees not as man sees; for man looks on the outward appearance, but the Lord looks on the heart." (1 Sam. 16:7).

CHRIST SPEAKS - "You hypocrites, well did Isaiah prophesy of you, saying (Isa. 29:13). This people draw near unto me with their mouth, and honor me with their lips, but their heart is far from me. But in vain they do worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men." (Matt. 15:8-9).

WHOM DO WE WISH TO IMPRESS? If it is the world, we will busy ourselves with superficial externals. If it is God, we will be diligent in letting his revealed word mold and fashion our heart (intellect, will and emotions), and thus our life.

Theta Rho chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha sorority had its Founder's Day and Awards Banquet May 21 at a Clovis restaurant. Dardanella Helton, center, received the coveted Jo Ann Liethen award which is given to the member who has the most philanthropic hours during the year. Margaret Aycock, left, was named Girl of the Year. Members vote for the recipient of this award. LaMoin Williams was the only member to receive a 25-year service pin this year. Not pictured is Tommie Snodgrass, who was named "Pledge of the Year."

Theta Rho Chapter Names Top Members

Theta Rho Chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha sorority had its annual Founder's Day and Awards banquet May 21 at a Clovis restaurant. Many coveted awards were handed out and members participated in a special candlelight ceremony commemorating the 50th anniversary of the international sorority.

Dardanella Helton received the Jo Ann Liethen award for having the most philanthropic hours. Members voted Margaret Aycock "Girl of the Year," and Tommie Snodgrass was named "Pledge of the Year."

Nell Walling was awarded the fourth degree Pallas Athene and Mrs. Aycock received the first degree Pallas Athene. First pearl awards for pledges were issued to Mrs. Snodgrass and Jan Marsh.

LaMoin Williams received her 25-year service pin and Diane Actkinson and Dot Christian were given their five-year service pins.

Those receiving perfect attendance awards were Mrs. Aycock, Leslie Lunsford, Maxine Williams and Judy Jones.

Prior to the meal and the presentation of awards, members conducted a special candlelight ceremony in honor of the international sorority's 50th anniversary.

A large candle in the center of the table burned throughout the night to represent the founding of ESA in Jacksonville, Tex., in 1929. During the ceremony, Rosa Roberts, educational director, lighted the second candle to signify the organization of the New Mexico Council of ESA in 1948.

Maxine Williams, Dardanella Helton and Nell Walling, active Theta Rho charter members, lighted tapers from Mrs. Roberts' candle to symbolize Theta Rho's 28 years of service.

Jeannie Norris, incoming president, lit another taper symbolizing the future of Theta Rho and ESA. She then passed the flame to the membership who each lit a smaller taper signifying the combined efforts of the sorority's sisterhood.

Special guests were Dorothy Quickel and Iris Thornton Price of Amarillo, charter members of the sorority, who

Alpha Rho Lambda Inducts New Members

Local Couples Attend N.M. Lions Convention

Five local couples attended the New Mexico State Lions Club Convention in Carlsbad last week, May 31-June 3.

The three-day confab included business sessions for the Lions and social activities for both Lions and wives.

A Past District Governors' banquet Thursday evening, a western barbecue and dance Friday night, a ladies luncheon and style show Saturday, and the Governors' banquet and ball Saturday evening were part of the scheduled events.

Lions and wives attending the convention were Messrs. and Mmes. Lee Hutchins, Glenn Fant, James Craig, Joe Helton and John Getz.

Hospital Notes

Edith Crawford of Farwell was dismissed from the Muleshoe hospital Monday and is recuperating at home. She underwent surgery May 30, and friends report that she is "doing well."

Nina Glasscock of Farwell underwent surgery Tuesday morning at the hospital in Muleshoe. She was reported to be in satisfactory condition at mid-week.

The family of Bruce Kaltwasser reports that he is in improved condition although he is still confined to St.

Elizabeth Hospital in Lincoln, Neb., receiving treatment for injuries suffered in a recent industrial accident.

Lora Mears of Farwell returned home Tuesday from West Plains Medical Center in Muleshoe where she had been hospitalized for the past 10 days for medical treatment. She is reported to be doing "pretty well" now.

Ava Woodson of Farwell was in the hospital in Friona from May 27-May 30 for medical treatment. She is said to be doing "real well" now.

Customer averaged billing plan

Southwestern's Averaged Billing Plan is designed to minimize the ups and downs in your electric bill.

If you've wished the amount of your electric bills could be more consistent every month instead of changing so much between seasons — here's a way . . .

The Averaged Billing Plan is provided to HELP SMOOTH OUT THE HIGHS AND LOWS that occur in your electric bills. As the name implies, this plan arranges for you to pay an "average" rather than the actual amount used each month.

Who's eligible for this plan?

Any residential customer with satisfactory credit, whose average bill is $25.00 or more, can request the Averaged Billing Plan.

How to get started.

All you have to do is call

Southwestern Public Service Company. There's no charge for participation in the Averaged Billing Plan. If for any reason you decide to drop the plan once you've started, just notify us. Payment by Automatic Bank Draft can also, in most cases, be arranged.

This is how the Averaged Billing Plan works.

The dollar amount of your electric bill each month will be determined by averaging the actual dollar amount of your bill for the past 12 months. When the amount you have paid does not cover the amount you have used, 15 percent of the difference will be added to your monthly average.

So, the Averaged Billing Plan does not change your rate, but allows you to pay less during high-use months and make up the difference by paying more during low-use months.

On The Farm In Parmer County

It is approaching the time when equine owners should be warned about the possibility of horses grazing sorghum hybrids becoming affected with a problem called "Sorghum Cystitis." This syndrome was reported by members of the Large Animal Clinic at the College of Veterinary Medicine in 1966, and has been recognized with increasing frequency in the southwestern part of the United States.

It occurs more frequently during times of medium to high rainfall, usually from June to November. Cases are not usually seen after the first frost. Horses affected have a history of grazing hybrid plants resulting from crossing Sorghum vulgare (Sorghum) with the Sorghum vulgare variation Sudanese (Sudan).

Other cases have been reported in horses grazing varieties of Sorghum or Johnson Grass mixed with native pastures. The problem occurred when the plant material was young and growing rapidly, but mature and second-growth pastures were also incriminated. Horses fed well-cured sorghum species hay were not affected, but cases did develop after eating freshly cut hay.

The condition occurs in all equine breeds; however, age does not seem to be a factor since it has been reported in horses from five months of age to 20 years. The majority were two to three years old. Cases have been observed in Texas, Oklahoma, New Mexico, Arizona, California, Kansas and Colorado.

Signs: The first signs usually seen have been incoordination of the rear legs; this has been followed by urinary incontinence in about half of the horses. In mares, the most obvious clinical signs include opening and closing of the vulva and dribbling of urine which may cause loss of hair on the inner part of the hind legs due to urine scalding. Geldings may show a loss of hair on the ventral abdomen near the prepuce. Urine may drip continually and become intensified if the animal is caused to move suddenly. Some mares may abort.

When affected animals are removed from the pasture and fed a balanced ration, they usually improve, but complete recoveries have not been reported. Both the urinary incontinence and ataxia have been observed in some horses for as long as three years.

Prevention: 1. Keep equines off sudan type pastures. 2. Do not feed freshly cut sudan species hay to equines. 3. Horses fed well-cured sudan species hay did not develop this syndrome. 4. Many treatments have been used in affected equines, but with little success.

Volleyball Tourney Aids Band Students

Plano Grande ripped Sherley-Anderson-Pitman, 7-1, last Thursday night and Citizens Bank smashed Interstate Fertilizer, 14-0. Games this week were cancelled due to a rain soaked field.

Pitchers for Sherley-Anderson-Pitman were Able Lopez and Kenny Adams. Raymond Ausburn made the one run.

Joe Jaime and Bone Nicolas pitched for Plano Grande. Scoring were Daniel Hutchins, 2; Corey Jones, Joe Jaime, Bone Nicolas, Ladd Brown and Kelly Brown, 1 each.

Marty Walker pitched for Citizens Bank. Making home runs were David Loera, Todd Bartley and Brett Taylor. Other scores were made by Loera, Jeff Actkinson and Joe Lovato, 2 each; Ralph Galvan, Walker, Donna Smith, Jimmy Lovato and Taylor, 1 each.

Pitchers for Interstate Fertilizer were Andy Chisom and David Vaughn.

The Citizens Bank roster is as follows: Tommy Hammit, Amy Gulley, Gregg and Jeff Actkinson, Richard Boyles, Bret Taylor, Marty Walker, Todd Bartley, Jimmy Lovato, David Loera, Donna Smith, Laurie Embry, Tice Love, Carl Gonzales and Joe Lovato.

"The absent have a ringing in the ears when they are talked about." Pliny the Elder

A benefit volleyball tournament played Thursday through Saturday night at Farwell School gymnasium has earned money for two local band students who will travel with separate tour groups later this month. The amount grossed and the amount to be donated to each student had not been determined at press time.

Gayla Goldsmith, daughter of Mrs. Mae Goldsmith, has been selected to tour Europe as part of America's Youth in Concert 1979.

Dondra Gerles, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don Gerles, will perform with the New Mexico Lions Band later this month at the International Lions Club Convention in Montreal, Canada. These girls are the first local band students to receive these honors and are responsible for their own expenses.

The volleyball tournament was another example of the widespread community efforts which have raised many dollars for the two girls.

Theta Rho Chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha sorority sponsored the tournament with assistance from several local clubs and organizations. Farwell Jaycees called the lines and nets during the games and Alpha Rho Lambda chapter of Beta Sigma Phi sorority and Farwell Young Homemakers helped Theta Rho members run the concession stand.

Debbie Williams, ESA member, also extends "thanks" to the following people: Nedda Travis, Nelda Wilhite, Lori Winegeart, Renee Walser Wisniewski, Kathy Curtis and Patsy Camp.

"They helped me every night," she said. "I don't know what I would have done without them."

Teams competed in two categories, mixed and women's. Mixed team winners were Clovis National Bank, first place; Muleshoe Rookies, second place; and Friona Star, third.

Winners in the women's divisions were Wilson Drilling of Muleshoe, first place; L & B Circle Master of Hereford, second place; and Sherley-Anderson-Pitman Lariat Spikers, third place.

Each of the first through third place winners received a team trophy and members of the first place winning teams each received an individual trophy.

Two teams also received fourth place in their respective divisions, but they did not receive a trophy.

Williams Fertilizer mixed team and Karl's Auto Clinic women's team each won fourth place in the tournament. Other local teams competing in the three-day tournament included Security State Bank women's team and Lazbuddie mixed team.

Members of the Williams Fertilizer team included Barry and Deb Williams, Mike Martin, Nedda Travis, Glen Morton, Tom Knoy and Gaye Coffman.

Girls on the Security State Bank team were Tracy Williams, Dondra Gerles, Carol Vinton, Karen Magness, Sharmy Christian, Robin Vinton, Deana Williams, Janene Berry and Lana Turner.

Nelda's team members were Delton and Nelda Wilhite, Eddie and Lori Winegeart and Lesley and Kathy Curtis.

Players on Karl's Auto Clinic team were Deb Williams, Nedda Travis, Nelda Wilhite, Lori Winegeart, Renee Walser Wisniewski, Kathy Curtis and Patsy Camp.

Sherley-Anderson-Lariat Spikers were Deb Garner Redwine, Billie Tarr, Cheryl Morris, Karen Sexton, Connie Edwards, Marilyn Hinkson and Nicky Moore.

Up, Up And Away

Volleyball action was fast and furious last weekend during the benefit tournament played to raise funds for two local band students who will tour with separate band groups later this month. Delton Wilhite of Farwell is pictured spiking the ball while teammates and opposing team members keep their eye on the ball's progress. The tournament was sponsored by Theta Rho Chapter of ESA Sorority, assisted by Farwell Jaycees, Alpha Rho Lambda Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi Sorority and Farwell Young Homemakers.

Compare the Spray Sickle with the conventional box type...

Just look at the differences!

The Spray Sickle is front mounted, - and the Box Type is rear mounted. The Spray Sickle is a broadcast unit may be used for standard row spacings, - broadcast crops, - narrow or wide row spacings, - forage, hay and pasture crops as well as pre-plant applications. The Box Type may be used for standard row spacing only. These are obvious differences. . . the less obvious differences make the big difference in your investment and results!

The Spray Sickle solves
a lot of problems the Box Type can't!

TWO MINUTES WITH THE BIBLE
 BY CORNELIUS R. STAM, PRES.
 BEREM BIBLE SOCIETY
 CHICAGO, ILLINOIS 60635

IS REVIVAL POSSIBLE?
 We have received responses from several friends who conclude from such passages as II Tim. 3:1-13 that there cannot possibly be a revival before the Lord comes for His own.
 We have never concurred in this view. Verses 2-7 of this passage describe the condition of the ungodly about us. These have "a form of godliness" but not the reality and it is these who will "wax worse and worse" (Vers. 5,13). "From such" the Spirit exhorts us to "turn away" (Ver. 5).
 But why, in the midst of these "perilous times" should the Church not be strong and united? The Word of God often shines brightest when the days are darkest.
 A true spiritual revival takes place in the blood-bought Church of God not in the wicked world about it. That which is dead cannot be revived but that which has life can and should be. We know of no Scripture that should deter us from praying for a true spiritual awakening among God's people. Indeed we must be careful lest we cease praying and toiling for a revival on the grounds that "times are getting worse and worse and there's not going to be a revival."
 It seems to us that one of the surest ways to grow spiritually indifferent ourselves is to conclude that God will not grant us a spiritual awakening no matter what we do.

ium which is stored in a 1,000-gallon tank. "That's enough as we don't have much of a demand for premium anymore," he explained. Gasoline prices as of Friday were 75.9 for regular; 79.9 for unleaded and 81.9 for premium. It has been three weeks since the last change.

"The increase is usually from one to two cents per gallon," Bentley said. "But the last jump was three cents." The Bentleys keep the station open from 8:30 to 7:30 p.m. Monday through Friday. Sometimes they close as early as 3 p.m. on Saturdays, if business is "slow" and open on Sundays around 1 p.m.

While Bentley is not sure, he thinks the large oil companies may be "holding back" gas.

Cecil DeFor, the outspoken operator of the self-service Fina service station in Farwell, says that he believes the gas shortage is "severe" and is being "manipulated."

"When gas isn't available it hurts my business," he said. He favors decontrol explaining that if more people get into the gas business we could have more gas and the supply and demand of gasoline would hopefully even out.

DeFor receives his gasoline from Plainview, and according to him, does not have any real problems in getting what he needs, usually twice a week from his source. Prices as of Friday were 75.9 for regular; 79.9 for unleaded and 82.9 for premium, but they were expected to increase this week.

DeFor, who has had the station for the past 10 months, is open Monday through Saturday from 8 to 7 p.m., but is closed on Sunday.

Cecil Rundell, operator of Texaco service station in Farwell, says it is hard to believe one way or the other about the gas shortage. So far, like the other service station operators in the Twin Cities, he does not have any trouble getting the gasoline he needs.

Rundell said gas prices have really increased the last few months. "My prices are in line with the rest," he said. "I don't try to gouge people like some reports you hear about in other parts of the company."

Gasoline prices at his station as of Friday were regular, 78.9; unleaded 82.9; ethyl, 84 cents. These prices had been in effect for five days. Rundell keeps the station open from 7:30-8 p.m. during the summer months, but closes at 7 p.m. during the winter. He is closed on Sunday.

Dolly Roberson has been the proprietor of the Shamrock Service Station in Farwell since 1949. Ordinarily she manages the station by herself, "but sometimes my sons help out," she explains. She said she orders from 10,000 to 15,000 gallons of gasoline a month and receives loads from a Clovis oil company twice a month.

"I don't know for sure if there is an oil shortage or not," Mrs. Roberson said. "All I know is that right now I can get all the gas I need." However she did say that her supplier warned her to be careful from the first to the 10th of this month as there "might be a problem." But he did not elaborate on the subject, Mrs. Roberson said. As of Friday gas prices at her station were 74.9 for regular and 80.9 for unleaded. However they were to be raised by two cents each on Sunday. According to Mrs. Roberson, price is one of the biggest obstacles concerning gas.

"Prices are always going up especially the last two years," she explained. "The increases are usually from two or three to five cents at a time," Mrs. Roberson continued, referring to such hikes as a "whack."

James and Mellie Gonzales have operated the Fina service station located on Highway 60 for the past eight months. Last month the station became completely self service.

Mrs. Gonzales said they order their gasoline from Amarillo. During the month of May they sold more gas than usual so they have already used 7,000 gallons of their allotment for this month.

"We hope they won't take that much away from us for this month but we aren't sure yet," she explained. "I think we may have sold more gas last month because we went self service."

She went on to say that their Amarillo supplier started out giving them 85 percent of the gas that was sold last year at the station for a certain month, but now they are only getting about 60 percent of what was sold a year ago for a given month.

Gas hikes are usually in the neighborhood of 1 1/2 to 2 cents she said. "We have seen a lot of increases the past eight months. Every load we receive now seems to have a price increase." Prices as of Friday were regular, 74.9; unleaded, 79.9 and supreme, 79.9. Those prices had remained stable for two weeks, but they were expecting another increase she said.

O. H. Eberhart, who operates the Arco self service station on Highway 60, said he does not have any problems getting gas. But like the others he admits that prices have increased steadily during the past six months, just like everything else has.

Prices as of Friday were regular, 75 cents; unleaded, 79; diesel, 72; and ethyl, 81. The prices have remained constant for approximately four weeks.

The current gas situation in America is not a simple one and it will take no simplistic solution to solve it. But for now at least, residents in Texico and Farwell can get the gasoline they need, even if they - like everyone else in America - have to pay more for it.
