To Enforce Ordinance - -

Property Owners Must Remove Junk Vehicles

At its Monday night meeting, Farwell City Council voted to crack down on residents who have junked vehicles on property within the city limits.

The City Fathers adopted a "get tough" policy in order to rid the streets and lots within the city of eyesores caused by the junked vehicles, and will enforce the city ordinance prohibiting such vehicles from being parked in the city limits.

Residents who have such vehicles on their property will be mailed certified letters citing the ordinance and asking that the vehicles be removed. If such items are not removed within 10 days after the letters are received, the city will remove said vehicles at the property owner's expense and they will be billed for the expense by the city.

City residents who are keeping livestock and fowl within the city limits will also be mailed certified letters concerning the ordinance which prohibits said animals being kept within the city.

In other business, the council members set up some new rules and regulations for use of the city dump ground. Since it is necessary that a city employee unlock the gates at the dump site, a new schedule has been arranged.

Persons wishing to use the dump grounds may call the city hall before 9 a.m. and arrangements will be made to have someone at the dump ground to open the gates by 1 p.m. on that day. If a person calls the city hall by 3 p.m., arrangements will be made to have an employee to unlock the gates by 4:30 p.m. on the same date.

Charges for use at the dump ground are $2 for a pickup load; $5 for a bobtail truck load; and $10 for anything larger than a bobtail truck.

The city councilmen also voted to allow a committee, headed by Bob Anderson, to place benches in the city cemetery. The benches will be of marble, and two benches are to be purchased from existing funds for that use.

A contract was let to spray the trees in the city park, the city cemetery, and at the fire station. The council also voted to purchase a new copying machine for the city office, and a request was granted to hold a public hearing on a variance for a mobile home zoning.

Attending the meeting were Mayor Walter Kaltwasser, city councilmen Jerry Monk and Fred Chandler, and city employees Dee Hammit, Janie Bowery, and Doug Landrum.

Guests at the session were Jim Milsap of Southwestern Public Service Company, Jack Landrum, and Gene Sterling, Gene Sterling.

Next regular meeting of the Farwell City Council will be Monday, July 11, at 5:15 p.m. in city hall.

License Violations Top List Of Arrests

Arrests of persons for driving while their licenses were suspended topped the activity of the Parmer County Sheriff's office this week as three out of four arrests made concerned that offense.

Marcial Gloria, 24, of Littlefield was arrested Saturday, June 11, by Texas Highway Patrol officers for DWI, driving while his license was suspended, and violation of probation in Lubbock.

He was fined $250 plus court costs and was given 10 days to serve for the DWI charge; fined $300 plus court costs and assessed 60 days to serve for driving while his license was suspended; and is being held for the probation violation from Lubbock.

Santiago Cordova, Jr., 30, of Hereford was arrested Sunday, June 12, by Bovina Police Department officers for driving with a suspended license. He was fined $500 plus court costs and given 90 days in jail.

Pablo Galvan, 27, of Bovina was arrested on Monday, June 13, by Bovina police officers for driving with a suspended license. He has been released on $500 bond pending County Court action.

Steven Williams, 23, of Amarillo was arrested Tuesday, June 14, for possession of marijuana by Parmer County Sheriff's officers. He was fined $100 plus court costs and given 30 days with 180 days deferred adjudication. In other activities, Parmer County Sheriff Bill Morgan reports two thefts this week, including a CB radio reported taken from a tractor owned by James Dixon of Friona on Saturday, June 11.

Frank Estrada of Friona reported that the tail gate was taken from his pickup at the EXCEL parking lot on Monday, June 6.

Remodeling Continues For San Jose Church

Remodeling and renovation of the San Jose Catholic Church building in Texico is nearing completion this month with the addition of archways on the north side of the building.

Begun last year, the remodeling project has included adding archways to the front of the church exterior. On the inside, the sanctuary has been enlarged, the PA system has been improved, 10 new pews have been added, the air conditioning system has been re-done, and a new class room has been built and decorated.

According to Father Jerry Mueller, church pastor, approximately 150 more people have started attending the Texico church since the remodeling program began. He credits most of the increase in membership to the Hispanic emphasis in the church and its programs.

Fr. Mueller says that the church is trying to show more of what New Mexico Hispanic architecture is, and feels they are accomplishing this goal.

The church will have a new pastor Saturday, July 9, as Fr. Charlie Martinez takes over the pastoral duties. He is a native New Mexican, having been reared in Canjilon, N.M.

Fr. Mueller will be leaving at that time to become a Navy Chaplain. He will be in New York on September 19, and will be in training until after October 5.

Adding Archways

San Jose Catholic Church in Texico is completing long range plans of remodeling the church both inside and out. Three archways are being added on the north side of the building this week, and many changes can be seen on the interior as well. This final remodeling phase will complete the project which began last year with the addition of archways on the front of the church and the construction of the bell tower.

In recognition of Father's Day coming up this Sunday, we offer this bit of poetry that we received from Floyd Embry:

WHAT MAKES A MAN

The words that we write,
 Don't tend to make a man.
 They only bring to light,
 The race that he ran.

It takes work, sweat and tears,
 As on the voyage of life he embarks.
 It takes a faithful life for years,
 To really leave its mark.

It's not the size of a man that depends,
 On his fortune, or his fame or his lands.
 But solely on the purposes he intends,
 And on the principles which he stands.

I know one who stands above the rest,
 He's been thru the good and the bad.
 By now you've surely guessed,
 He's the man I call my DAD.

What's in a name. This question has been mullied over for many millennia by great thinkers without a definite answer. This probably keeps so many in the peace movement today from even considering such deep thoughts.

We read an article over the weekend about the East German Democratic Republic. Well, what's in that name? We don't know, but we do know that neither Democracy or Republicanism is in that country. This is a very favorite ploy of the Communists, the giving to a political system a name that is the very opposite of what it really is. Our home-grown American liberals love it and apparently believe it.

Oh yes, we read where this "Peoples Republic" deported 18 peace protesters. Apparently the masters of East Germany couldn't stand the presence of even a bare handful of people seeking disarmament and peace. We think that there is a message there that our home-grown protesters are too darn dumb to see or understand.

They are still at it. The Equal Rights groups are still hot and hungry for "unisex" insurance rates. Bills are now pending in the House and Senate of the United States Congress on this much sought after goal.

When the goal is realized, most females will pay more for their various insurance coverages than before. A legislative body can pass all the laws it wishes to, but in the infinite ways of nature the female of the human species lives about seven years longer than the male.

Insurance is a business of large groups and averages, and it is impossible to legislate away the biological facts of life. Well, have at it girls, increase your insurance payments. As an old and decrepit male we don't give a hoot. But we do think it's stupid.

One of the great achievements of the human race occurred the early part of this week with a minimum of fanfare and notoriety. This accomplishment was worthy, almost, of a national holiday complete with pomp, circumstance and oratory.

Pioneer 10, our 500 pound space probe, left the solar system to wander in deep outer space for infinity. This is truly a mind boggling accomplishment. Here is a tiny bit of machinery, created by the mind of man, that has already traveled over three billion miles in the past 11 years, still functioning and sending back its messages to the planet Earth.

The Creator has endowed his children with the great gift of intelligence. We believe this marvelous mind was meant to be used. The secrets of the universe that this intelligence will unlock can only reinforce and continue to reveal the majesty and magnificence of our Creator.

Parmer County - -

Tornado, Hail Ruin Crops And Equipment

Several area farmers received both hail and tornado damage from the storm that came through the southwestern portion of Parmer County Wednesday, June 8.

High winds from the storm broke tree limbs and caused other minor damage around the Twin Cities. North of town, the tornado and high winds overturned trailers and destroyed at least one circular sprinkler.

Gerald Norton, who lives northeast of Farwell, reported that two grain trailers were overturned and two spruce trees were torn off at ground level. He also reported damage to his fruit trees, with at least two having to be destroyed because of the damage.

Norton also had some irrigation pipe blown around and received severe damage to his cotton crop.

At the L.L. Norton and David Norton homes, a reported 23 windows were broken during the Wednesday night storm.

Lonnie Tharp of Clovis, who owns farmland northeast of Farwell, reported that his circular sprinkler was destroyed and his crops of soybeans, cotton, and milo were also destroyed.

Fred Carthel, who lives in the Pleasant Hill area and farms for Tharp northeast of town, reports severe damage to crops on both farms, except for his milo. He also reported some aluminum pipe was scattered, with a few joints of pipe being bent.

"In 40 years of farming, this is the worst I've had, especially on both farms at the same time," said Carthel.

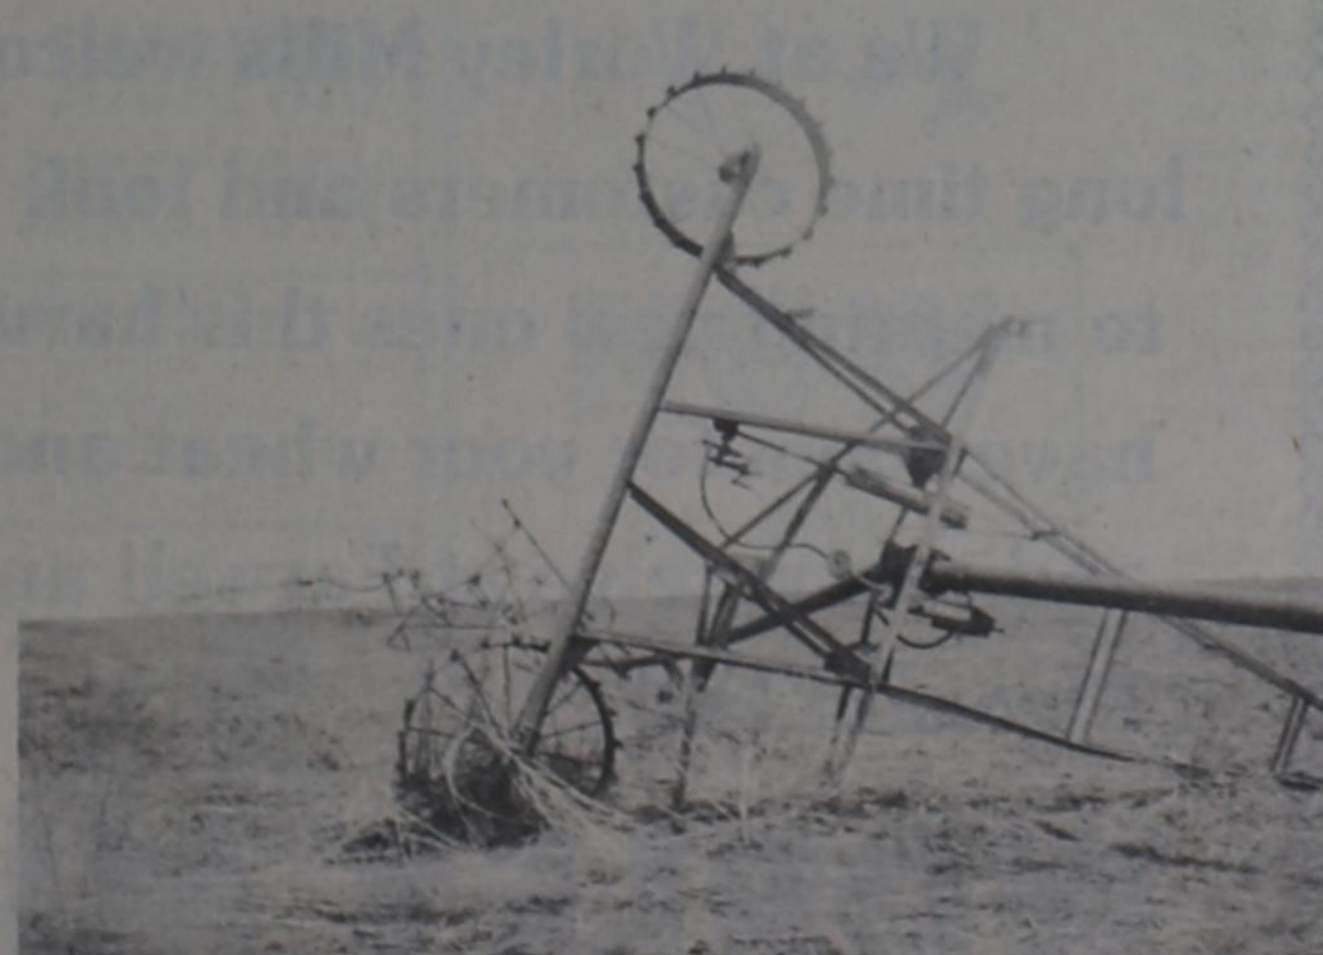

According to Martin Chandler of the Farwell ASCS office, most of the damage in Parmer County has been in the southwest corner, and the cotton crops have received the most severe damage.

While other parts of the county have also received minor hail damage, most areas have had good rain amounts.

"Anyone who lost crops and are enrolled in our programs are asked to please come by the ASCS office and certify their acres and fill out forms before plowing the remainder of the damaged crops," says Chandler.

Rainfall in the Twin Cities area averaged one inch, with most of the heavy hail damage occurring in the area north of Farwell, although some areas south of town also received minor to heavy hail damage to the corn, wheat, and cotton crops.

Tornadic Turmoil

This circular sprinkler system on the Lonnie Tharp property north of the Twin Cities was left in ruin after an apparent tornado dipped down in the area last Wednesday night. Sections of the sprinkler were blown a full 360 degree turn in the winds which also destroyed the crops in the area. Tharp says that damage at the site of the tornado was so severe that it will probably be declared a total loss. Other areas received heavy hail damage to the young crops which were already hindered by the unseasonably cool spring and early summer.

All those who had pictures taken at that time are urged to come by the school and get them next Monday.

persons to each city. Each city had its own local government, police department, and governing body. Each city also had candidates to run for higher offices.

Purpose of Boys State is to give high school boys a chance to experience government in action by taking an active part in the governmental processes as well as the judicial system.

Alan, a citizen of McCraw City, was elected to the House of Representatives. To run for the office, he had to have at least eight signatures on a petition. He then had to make campaign speeches and talk to the people to get elected.

As one of the 120 Representatives in the House, Alan helped to pass such laws as a teacher pay raise, tougher immigration laws, and stricter handgun controls. Also on the agenda for members of the House were such items as pari-mutuel betting.

"I learned a lot during the week" says Alan. "I really didn't think there was that much work to running the government."

Other activities for the week included hearing guest speakers, including Governor Mark White, and touring the capital building. It was in the House chamber at the state capitol that the Boys State House of Representatives held their sessions, giving them an actual "feel" of the position.

He said that it was easy to make new friends in the atmosphere of Boys State, and that he knew a few of the boys from neighboring towns.

As a recreational activity, each city had a basketball team, a football team, and a volleyball team. The teams competed against each other, with the city of McCraw winning the basketball tournament.

Meeks, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Meeks, had earned the position of District IV representative by defeating all other district competitors on a test in December. On the state level, only two representatives from each of the six districts are allowed to compete. The examination is based on the Greenhand's knowledge of the National FFA manual.

In addition to Meeks and Meier, Buck Gaddis, Craig Tharp, Eric Harding, and Elias Orozco also represented Texico as delegates to the annual convention attended by over 400 FFA members from across the state.

On their way to the convention, the group toured the Space Hall of Fame Museum in Alamogordo, and also stopped for a few hours of sand-surfing fun at White Sands National Park.

Carol Snider Champion Of WWT Golf Tournament

Carol Snider of Farwell captured the Women's West Texas Golf Tournament in Amarillo Friday for the second time in her career, winning the championship in the 48th annual event with a 1-up decision over Juanita Jones of Amarillo.

Carol, who played on three state championship Steerette golf teams during her years in Farwell High School, also won the Women's West Texas event in 1979 and was runner-up in 1980.

The WWT championship was won by another Farwellite, Penny Hughes, last year.

Carol has not competed in the WWT tournaments the past two seasons because she and her husband David were residing in Colorado Springs, Colo.

Although she trailed Mrs. Jones through the first 19 holes of Friday's finale, Carol said she never gave up since she was never far behind.

Carol and her competitor agreed that the 17th hole was the turning point of the match when Mrs. Jones missed what looked like an easy two-foot putt while Carol was sinking an eight-footer to go into the 18th all even.

Returning to Farwell this year after having lived in Colorado for almost two years, Carol has recaptured the form she enjoyed before laying aside her clubs for about a year. She says it wasn't easy getting back in shape, etc., but now that she is playing more and more, it's getting easier, however, she says she is never completely satisfied with her game.

Carol played in a tournament at Memphis earlier this week and is looking ahead to the Farwell Country Club Ladies event and the Amarillo Partnership tourney, both in July.

In addition, she has ambitions to turn pro within a year, possibly fulfilling a long-time dream of going on the circuit.

dows, damaged roofs, and other losses in the storm's aftermath. Rain also fell in the vicinity Thursday night with more minor hail damage reported.

Shonda Foster Receives American History Award

Shonda Foster, who graduated from the 8th grade at Farwell Junior High last month, was the recipient of a special award at the close of the school year.

Presented by Elizabeth Phillips, junior high history teacher, the award was given by the Woodmen of the World Life Insurance Society and was the first of its kind presented at Farwell.

Shonda received the award for proficiency in American History, and the plaque she received for this honor reads, "Woodmen of the World Life Insurance Society presents with pleasure this plaque of recognition to Shonda Foster for proficiency in American History." It is signed by the president and vice-president of the life insurance group.

Shonda is the daughter of Mrs. Billie Foster of Farwell and Lewis Foster of Texico, and will be a freshman at Farwell High in the fall.

Baptist Women Meet For Two Programs

"Baptist Women" of the First Baptist Church of Texico met Wednesday, June 1, at the church for the Royal Service and Bible Study programs.

The meeting opened with Lois Hudnall, pianist, playing the 1982-83 WMU hymn, "We Are Called To Be God's People." Mrs. Hudnall led the women in repeating the WMU watchword in unison. It is taken from Ephesians 2:10. She then read the names of missionaries having birthdays on that day, and Margaret Horne led in prayer.

Topic of the Royal Service was "The Way International" with chairman Mora Schlueter presiding. Sub-topics were What Is The Way, How to Recognize a Cult, How to Learn About The Way, and The Future, with Mary Dell Brown, Velma Kelley, Gracie Dane, and Bobbie Gilliam giving those parts.

Mrs. Schlueter then conducted a short question and answer quiz, and led in prayer.

Chairman Velma Kelley then taught a Bible Study on "Life-Changer in the Bible; Barnabas." Sub-topics were Life Changers to the Poor, Life Changer to Saul, Life Changer to the Gentiles, and Life Changer to Mark.

She read different passages of scripture taken from Acts. Mrs. Kelley led in prayer, and a short business meeting followed.

The nine ladies present were Mora Schlueter, Lois Hudnall, Allie Burris, Helen Bowers, Margaret Horne, Mary Dell Brown, Velma Kelley, Bobbie Gilliam, and Gracie Dane.

Host Families Needed For Exchange Students

Nacel Cultural Exchanges, a non-profit organization now in its third year in Texas and Arkansas, is seeking host families for 120 French students ages 13-19 in its annual exchange program July 5 - August 3. Interested families should contact Sue Kimbro, 2105 Wood St., Texarkana, TX 75501 (214/794-8273).

"Families are especially needed for boys," said Mrs. Kimbro, who explained that most of the applications she has received are requests for girls, and that 60 percent of the French students are boys. Students are matched to families according to preferences expressed by families and mutual interests.

For the past 26 years, the purpose of Nacel has been to foster international understanding by arranging four-week summer homestays in France and the United States. This July, 5300 French students will experience our culture by living with American families at the same time that 1200 American students will be living with French families. Students from this summer's host families will be offered the opportunity to take part in the 1984 reciprocal French Homestay Program.

Already, 70 families in northern Texas and in Arkansas have applied to host these French teens coming to our area; but 50 additional families are still needed to host. "Being part of a family is the best way to experience a country's culture and language," said Mrs. Kimbro, a high school French teacher, who has coordinated the Nacel Exchange for the past two years. "Hosting gives us a chance to show people the best of our country...our families."

The French students, who have studied English for 4-8 years, provide their own airfare, insurance, and spending money; and the American families provide the welcome and include them in their daily lives for the month of July.

Household Hints

By Samantha of Lestoil Homemakers Service

Decorating on a budget? Use paint in zingy, not timid, colors instead of expensive wallpaper. (For the look of wallpaper, add designs with easy-to-use stencils.) Or try tile-patterned stick-on paper instead of high-priced ceramic tile. THE HOMESTEAD
Chocolate Novelty Suckers

Around The House with Laura Jacobs

Parmer County Extension Agent for Home Economics

June is National Dairy Month and it just so happens, it is also the time many people start craving a freezer of home made ice cream.

Dolly Madison, wife of the fourth president, introduced ice cream during a presidential reception in the early 1800s. Now we all love it!

You should know the Extension Service Food & Nutrition specialists only recommend the cooked variety of home made ice cream. There is a risk of food poisoning from raw eggs if you use the no-cook method.

See if your family doesn't like this ice cream and its many variations - I think they will!

GRANDMA'S VANILLA ICE CREAM

1 1/2 c. milk
3/4 c. granulated sugar
2 T. flour
few grains salt
2 eggs, or 3 egg yolks, slightly beaten
1 1/2 t. vanilla
1 1/2 c. heavy cream

In double boiler, scald milk. Mix next 3 ingredients; stir in enough milk to make a smooth paste. Stir into rest of milk in double boiler. Stir until thickened; cover; cook 10 minutes. Beat eggs slightly; stir in milk mixture; return to double boiler; cook 1 minute. Cool. Add vanilla and cream. Freeze in 2-qt. crank freezer until difficult to turn, using 8 parts crushed ice to 1 part ice cream salt. Makes 1 1/4 quart.

To be eligible for inclusion on the WTSU honor rolls, students must have completed a minimum of 12 semester credit hours during the semester for which they are listed.

Students included on the President's List also are included on the dean's honor roll.

Honor roll students are listed for their academic achievement in their major areas in the School of Agriculture, College of Arts and Sciences, School of Business, College of Education, School of Fine Arts, School of Nursing, and Graduate School.

Two Local Women To Attend LWML Convention In Detroit

Two Farwell women, Mildred Haseloff and Liz Kaltwasser, will be among the representatives from the High Plains Zone of the Lutheran Women's Missionary League attending the LWML International Convention in Detroit, June 20-23. The local women are members of St. John Lutheran Church at Lariat. Mrs. Kaltwasser will be the voting delegate for the High Plains Zone.

The High Plains Zone is comprised of LWML Societies from Lariat, Rhea, Canyon, Hereford, and two groups from Plainview.

In addition to Mrs. Haseloff and Mrs. Kaltwasser, others attending from the High Plains Zone will be Mrs. Walter Schueler of Friona, Mrs. Francis Kokel of Plainview, and Mrs. Herta Albers of Canyon.

A highlight of the affair will be a special ingathering whose theme is "Cover the World With a Rainbow of Sweaters," to which each delegate will bring from her home group a collection of sweaters destined for distribution to needy men, women and children all over the world. The High Plains Zone has sent 193 sweaters for this special program.

Eight thousand women from all over the United States and Canada will be attending the 20th biennial convention of the Lutheran Women's Missionary League, the official women's organization of The Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod (LCMS). The gathering will be held in Cobo Arena in the nation's second largest convention center.

The league, which emphasizes a mission to women (educational and inspirational programs) in addition to a mission through women (Christian service) has planned a four-day program of activities built on those objectives. Women will participate in Bible studies and topic discussions called "Words Fair." They will hear five major speakers, select new mission projects for the next biennium, and elect new officers.

Dr. Ralph Bohlmann, St. Louis, Mo., president of the LCMS church body of 2.7 million members, will preach at the opening communion worship service and speak again in one of the convention sessions.

Kathryn Koob, one of the Americans held hostage for 144 days in Iran, will address the assembly and also lead one of the Words Fair groups.

Bible study will be featured each day, based on the convention theme, "Reach Out With Christ." Leading the study sessions will be Florence Montz, Bismarck, N.D., past-president of the league and now serving as staff administrator for LCMS Commission on Health and Healing, Dr. Erwin Kolb, St. Louis, Mo., executive secretary for the Board for Evangelism Services, LCMS, and Mariys Taega, Waukesha, Wis., former editor of the LWML Quarterly and now development director for Bethesda Lutheran Home, Watertown, Wis.

Other convention activities include a reception where all can meet officers, candidates for office, speakers and other special guests. There will be an early morning "Ceremony of Gospel Singing" held outdoors at a scenic riverfront amphitheatre, and a unique officer and committee report set to original music, entitled "LWML Sparkles of 1983." The women will have an evening of entertainment provided by "Up With People," a group of 120 young singers and dancers from all

Sparks Family Reunion Held Sunday In Clovis

Relatives and descendants of a brother and sister, Warren W. Sparks and Mattie Sparks Christian, enjoyed a "Sparks" family reunion at the YMCA facilities at Clovis, on Sunday, June 5. The reunion is held each over the world.

The 180,000 members of LWML support projects entirely through their offerings saved in "mite boxes," contributing over a million dollars each year. These "mites" have been used to build schools, churches and hospitals in many world stations such as Hong Kong, India and Nigeria; supported medical and rehabilitation programs, provided scholarships and training programs, purchased an airplane and funded a variety of other projects.

Examples of new projects on the ballot for the coming biennium include building a facility for the elderly in Brooklyn, purchasing a pickup truck for a missionary in Ghana, urban teacher counseling training, building a church and school in Alaska, and other proposals.

Mite projects are not considered the major part of an LWML member's service. The women work as volunteers in nursing homes and institutions, sew and collect items for world relief, run thrift stores for the needy, and are involved in many more avenues of service. One of the convention attractions will be a "Deeds Fair" where exhibits will feature service projects and offer ideas for new types of service activity.

Historic and scenic tours of Detroit and Michigan areas are offered to the delegates and guests before and after the convention, and a post-convention mission tour of South America is also offered.

year on the first Sunday in June. Warren W. and Caroline Viola (Sprayberry) Sparks left Hood County, Tex., for New Mexico on January 7, 1907. They traveled in covered wagons and arrived in New Mexico on March 15, 1907, and homesteaded near the Plain community.

On the second day, contestants participated in a scramble,

Looking For Job, Career?

Many high school graduates are applying for jobs. If they don't get hired after an interview, they may never know why. "Dare to ask," says Leo Yates, Extension family life specialist at New Mexico State University. "Some employers may tell you."

Yates says many employers could give similar answers when asked to compare the one who got the job with those who didn't. An employer could say, "The teen-ager I hired today didn't have any more experience than you did. The difference was strictly attitude."

"He did his best to impress me. He wasn't overdressed, but he wore clean clothes, and they were well pressed. He had a recent haircut and his shoes were shined. He filled out the application form to the last detail, neatly, with his own pen."

"The young man I hired was polite and carried his Social Security card with him. He didn't check his watch as if to say I was taking too much of his time."

"He wasn't chewing tobacco, dipping snuff or smoking during our interview."

Employers also like to hire young people who have found out something about the job and company. People who are willing to start at the bottom and work their way up are attractive candidates, too.

Finally, Yates says, an employer might confide about the one who got the job: "He didn't come in asking what the company could do for him. But he was sure confident he could learn to do a great deal for the company."

Katherine White Honored At 'Grandmother' Shower

Honoree at a "Grandmother" shower Tuesday night was Katherine White of Farwell who has recently become a grandmother to her first granddaughter after having six grandsons. The newest member of the White family is three-week-old Jade Holly Mahaney, daughter of Robin and Lynn Mahaney of Farwell.

Jade and her mother were also present at the shower which was held in the parlor of the Methodist Church in Farwell.

The honoree was seated in a rocking chair where she opened the gifts for Jade. She was assisted in registering gifts by another daughter, Joyce Ketcherside.

The refreshment table was covered with a white cloth edged in lace and was centered with a white candelabra holding pink votive candles in glass cups. A silk floral arrangement in hues of pink, blue and yellow, and napkins in yellow and pink completed the table decor.

Assorted cookies, punch, and coffee were served from crystal appointments. Jennifer Williams presided at the serving table.

Guests registered in a baby book at a table centered with yellow taper in crystal holder flanked by a picture of Jade in a silver frame engraved with her name, birthdate, weight, etc.

Hostesses for the grandmother party were Lee Nell Eubank, Verna Davis, Dolores

Autograph Party Set For Cookbook Author

"Friends & Family Cookbook" is the title of a cookbook published recently by Lunell McFarland Horton of Friona. Mrs. Horton will be honored at an autograph party for her book at Twin Oaks, 410 3rd Street in Farwell on Tuesday, June 21, at 2:30 p.m.

Mrs. Horton says that she compiled her cookbook at the insistence of her husband who noted that she had recipes copied on almost everything in the house.

"I'm an incurable recipe collector," she says, adding that she loves getting recipes from friends and family as well as taking them from magazines, restaurants, newspapers, and many other places.

As with most good cooks and recipe lovers, she says her best loved cookbooks and recipes are covered with whatever ingredients are in that particular dish.

She says that her family always had certain favorites as did other families she knew, and it was her experience that every cook took a recipe and fixed it to suit her family's taste, thus no one ever had a "really original" recipe. She added that she was flattered when her children left home and asked for family recipes for certain dishes, and the idea of compiling the recipes of friends and family came into being, becoming a reality this year.

At the end of every recipe in the book, which includes everything from soup to nuts and many delectable-sounding goodies in between, is a personal footnote telling something about the recipe, either how simple it is to prepare, its origin, or its standing with the family who shared the recipe with her.

Persons may visit with the author at Twin Oaks, 410 3rd Street, Farwell, next Tuesday at 2:30 p.m.

Daughter Visits Mrs. Lovelace

Frances Lovelace of Farwell is spending the month of June enjoying a visit from her daughter, Jeanette Hurt of Craig, Colo., and her son Patrick. They arrived here during the last week in May and will be here for the entire month, according to Mrs. Lovelace.

The family group spent one weekend in Lubbock with Mrs. Lovelace's son, Larry Treider and family, and also visited with her granddaughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Winner.

The following Sunday, the family spent the day with Mrs. Lovelace's mother, Mrs. Lena Menefee, who lives in the Westgate Nursing Home in Hereford.

Also spending the day with Mrs. Menefee was another daughter, Mrs. Ruth Long and her daughter Becky Zeek and Zachary, all of Fort Worth.

Last weekend, Mrs. Lovelace and guests visited with another son and his family, the Ted Treiders of Lazbuddie.

"I'm really enjoying having my daughter here and visiting with the family," says Mrs. Lovelace.

Shelf Talk

Need more space? Shelves can help. A new Mexico State University Extension specialist says you can use bookshelves as a long, unbroken, horizontal line at the top of a wall. Or emphasize the structure of a doorway with bookshelves around the arched doorway. Hanging open shelves in a kitchen can be decorative when filled with jars of food, particularly home canning.

The Creative Woman

Goods in Albuquerque.

On June 23, Vickie Willis, marketing representative for home economist with Southwestern Public Service Co. in Roswell, will demonstrate the food processor, explain consumer purchasing tips, and explain uses for this appliance. She'll also discuss using the microwave oven for diet cooking.

Helping Beautify City

Beautification is the purpose of the landscaping project currently underway north of the Aldridge, Harding, Aycock and Actkinson law offices in Farwell at the Corner of Avenue D and 3rd Street. The old sidewalk at the north side of the building has been torn up due to its bad condition and is being replaced with a smaller, more level sidewalk. Shrubs of some type are to be added there, according to a spokesperson from the law office. This refurbishing will be done from the corner of the street west to the edge of the Jim Berry accounting offices.

FIVE BILLION WILLS

As long as man remained obedient to the will of God, his Maker, all was well with him. His life was perfectly balanced because it was centered in God. As soon as he listened to Satan, however, and set his will against God's, all began to go wrong. His life was now offcenter and out of balance. It was no longer subject to one central Will. Alienated from God, man now reaped the fruits of his rebellion, not only in his banishment from Paradise, but in the self-will of his offspring.

Of the first two children born into the world, one bludgeoned the other to death and this was but the beginning. Whereas God had originally created man in His own "image" and "likeness" (Gen. 1:26,27) we read later that Adam begat Seth "in HIS own likeness, after HIS image" (Gen. 5:3).

And so parents down through the ages have begotten children like themselves, with fallen natures and wills of their own, until today we have some five billion wills operating in the world instead of the one central will of God.

This does not mean, however, that God has abdicated, or that the future of the world is now subject to the wills of five billion fallen creatures, but at least we get a glimpse of why the world is in the mess it is. Nor was God forced to formulate new plans because of the fall of man. Far from it, for despite man's rebellion—even through it—God has been carrying out His plan and every true believer rejoices that God "worketh all things after the counsel of His own will" (Eph. 1:11). While He does not rule directly in the affairs of men, He very definitely overrules, and as a result, "all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are called according to His purpose" (Rom. 8:28).

Area Firefighters Learn Farm Machinery Rescue Techniques

Area firefighters and ambulance service personnel from Texico, Farwell, Clovis, Broadview, and Melrose were in Texico Wednesday, May 11, to participate in a farm equipment rescue course.

The course consisted of various "staged" accidents that can happen around farm machinery.

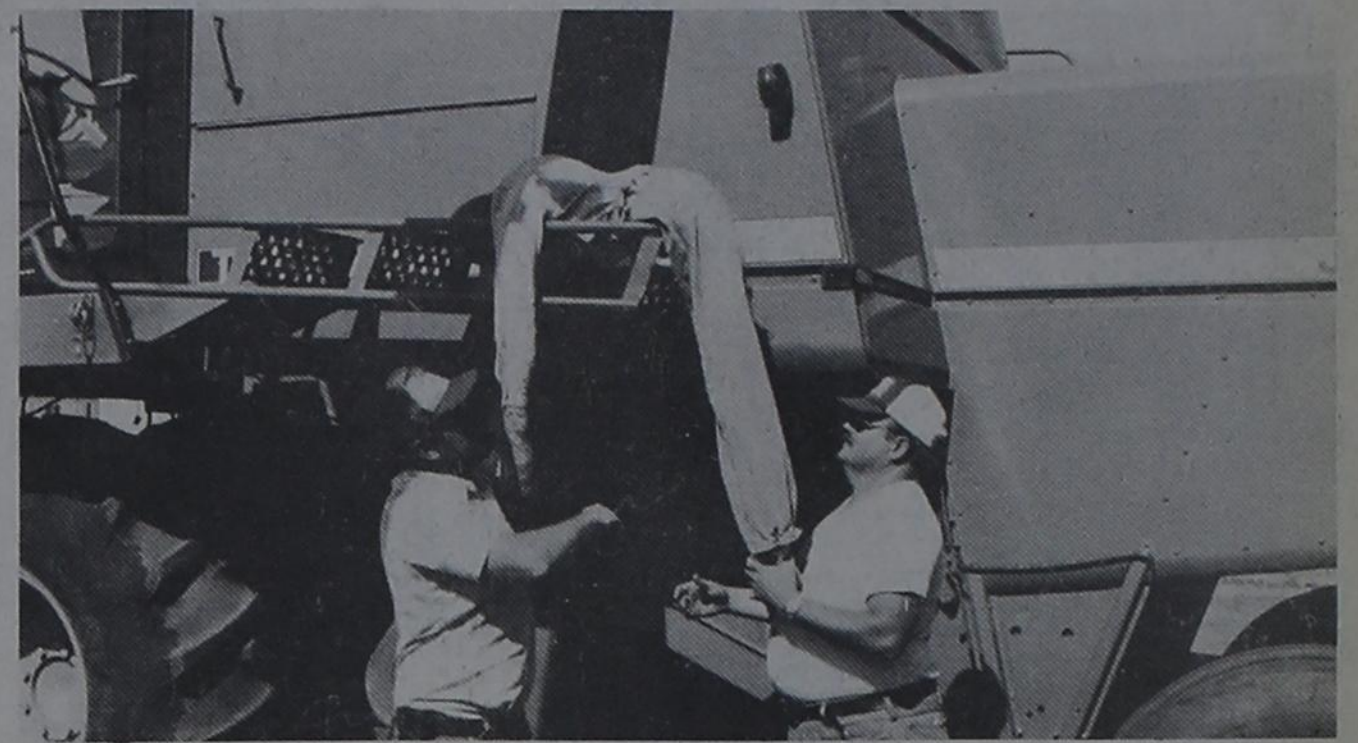

Once the "victims" were removed from the equipment, firefighters discussed the appropriate first aid treatment that would be administered to the patient.

Farm equipment used in the procedures was loaned by the Spears Brothers of Texico. The variety of equipment used included a grain auger, combines, trucks, and cotton strippers.

The stuffed dummy "victims" used in the demonstrations were made by the Texico Firemen's Auxiliary Service Team (FAST).

Assisting with the course was EMS instructor Art White.

Stopping Fuel Flow

Firefighter Brent Duke of Broadview demonstrates how to stop the fuel flow in an emergency attempt to shut off a tractor engine.

Treating Victim

Raising Disc

Melrose firefighter Randy Gridler uses a hydraulic jack to raise a tandem disc off of a dummy victim on which the equipment has fallen.
