a little BIG NOW

We all get a thrill out of seeing our children put on our hats or shoes. Obviously they don't fit now, but some day he, or she will grow to fit them. At the same time imagine that they are trying on our lives. Would they fit? ... or do you live the type of life that you would want them to grow to. Live a life of worship of the Lord.

"Thou wilt shew me the path of life: in thy presence is fulness of joy; at thy right hand there are pleasures for evermore."

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny, the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

Kathleen Hays Bride Of Jimmy Lee Hill

Lee Kathleen Hays, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Hays, Jr., of Channing, became the bride of Jimmy Lee Hill of Hereford, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Hill of Texico, in an impressive ceremony at First Baptist Church in Channing Saturday, Dec. 20, at 7 p.m.

The double ring ceremony was read by the Rev. Bob Miller, pastor of First Baptist Church in Adrian. Arrangements of white carnations and white gladioli, accented by leaves of emerald greenery interspersed with arrangements of poinsettias, formed the setting. Flanking the central arrangement at either side were candelabra holding lighted white tapers. Family pews were marked by bows of red velvet ribbon.

Organist Mrs. Bland Burson played a medley of nuptial selections while guests were being seated. She also played the traditional wedding marches as processional and recessional. Miss Betty Steel of Dalhart and Dennis Slutz of Hartley, accompanied by Mrs. Burson on the organ, sang "Because" and "The Hawaiian Wedding Song."

Allan Brunson of Portales served as best man. Groomsman was Lynn Allen of Stratford. Serving as ushers and candlelighters were Allan Hill of Canadian, brother of the groom, and Ike Carter of Dalhart.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Lynn Allen of Stratford. Bridesmaid was Lillie Cox of Happy. Bridal attendants were attired in identical frocks of red velvet designed with round necklines and elbow length sleeves accented by scalloped ruffles. They wore shoulder length veils in matching hue and carried bouquets of white carnations accented by bows and streamers of red velvet ribbon.

The flowergirl was Miss Tammie Procter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sheldon Procter of Channing. She was attired in a red velvet frock and carried a white wicker basket filled with holly.

The bride, escorted and given in marriage by her father, wore a formal wedding gown of bridal satin designed with an empire bodice and accented by bands of Venice lace. Hemline of the gown was finished with a band of Venice lace. Her full-length mantilla of English illusion, which terminated in a chapel sweep, was also edged in Venice lace. She carried a cascade of white roses and stephanotis surrounding a single orchid. Accenting the bouquet were red velvet bows and streamers of red velvet ribbon.

Following bridal tradition, something old was a string of pearls worn by the bride's mother at her wedding; new was her wedding ensemble and a diamond necklace given to the bride by the groom; borrowed was a St. Christopher medal belonging to a friend, Jan Hutsell; and blue was the traditional garter. The bride also carried a penny given to her by her father for good luck.

Mrs. Hays wore a hunter green silk and wool dress with a matching jacket. Her accessories were black. Complementing her attire was a cymbidium orchid corsage.

Mrs. Hill wore a two-piece gold double knit suit with matching accessories. Her corsage was also of cymbidium orchids.

A reception was held at the Channing Community Center. Members of the houseparty were Mrs. John Walden of Hereford, Mrs. Sheldon Procter of Channing, Mrs. Patsy Hadley of Amarillo, Mrs. Allan Hill of Canadian, Miss Gail Dobbmeyer of Nazareth, and Miss Jan Hutsell of Silverton.

The bride's table was laid with a white cloth and centered by a cake topped with a miniature bride and groom figurine. Flanking the cake were arrangements of poinsettias and candles. The cake was served with fruit punch, mints and nuts.

The groom's table was also laid with a white cloth and centered by poinsettias and candles. Chocolate cake, coffee, mints and nuts were served from this table.

When the couple left for a wedding trip to Ruidoso the bride wore a navy blue suit accented by a red, white and blue blouse. Her accessories were in matching hue. Complementing the ensemble was the orchid lifted from her bridal bouquet. Following the wedding trip the couple is at home in Hereford.

The bride, a graduate of Channing High School, has attended South Plains College for one and one-half years.

The groom is a graduate of Texico High School. He attended Eastern New Mexico University and is presently employed by Alpha Cattle Company in Hereford.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hill were hosts for a rehearsal dinner at the Channing Community Center on December 19.
