John Tadlock is shown here with the 125-pound sailfish he caught while vacationing in Acapulco, Mexico recently. The fish was caught about 12 miles off the Mexican coast.

Farwell Couple Tour Mexico

A three-week vacation in Mexico held many exciting events for Mr. and Mrs. John Tadlock. The couple returned home last week from a group tour of Mexico which originated in Canyon, Texas. The tour was under the supervision of Dr. Ples Harper, head of the Spanish department at West Texas State University. Dr. Harper organizes tours such as this one about every four years.

Mr. and Mrs. Tadlock were among 28 persons from the Panhandle area who left Canyon in a chartered bus to such scenic points in Mexico as Monterrey, Mexico City, Guadalajara, and Acapulco.

The Tadlocks reported that one of the most thrilling sights was that of the great abundance of fruit and flowers in Mexico. They were served fresh pineapple, mangoes, papayas, bananas, watermelon, and cantaloupe every day, and oranges, lemons, and grapefruit grew in nearly every yard.

While the group was in Acapulco, Tadlock and three other men in the group chartered a boat and went deep-sea fishing. On this trip, Mr. Tadlock caught a 125 pound sailfish.

Mother Revives Child With Respiration

Tiny Kathryn Sheriff, 19-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Sheriff, is home and doing fine, apparently unaware of all the excitement created when her mother heard her choke and awakened early Saturday morning to find the baby "blue and lifeless."

Mrs. Sheriff immediately began mouth-to-mouth respiration and continued while her husband called an ambulance. The child was put under oxygen and rushed to the hospital where she was given oxygen throughout the night.

She was returned home Wednesday and was much improved.

Jerry Owen Gets Degree

CANYON,--Jerry Dee Owen of Farwell is among the nearly 200 candidates who are seeking degrees at West Texas State College's summer convocation, Aug. 22. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Dee Owen and is married to the former Pat Sprowls.

Owen is a candidate for the Bachelor of Science degree. Summer convocation is scheduled at 8 p.m. in the field house, and this class marks the last graduating class of West Texas State "College," since the institution will be designated "University" after Sept. 1.

Speaker for the commencement will be Dr. David W. Mullins, president of the University of Arkansas.

Cooper Gin Burglarized; Two Men Picked Up Tuesday In Bovina

Two men were in custody in Parmer County jail Tuesday, and were scheduled for arraignment and bound over to the grand jury Wednesday, in connection with two burglaries in Farwell, according to Chas. Lovelace, sheriff. Billy Ray Cox, 21, of Camden, Ark. and Guillermo Briones of Culver, Ind., also 21, are in custody.

The men were picked up Tuesday morning, charged and warrants issued, after items taken in a burglary of Cooper Gin were discovered in a car parked in Bovina.

Several items were found including a calculator, electric welder, log chains, chain hoist, welding equipment, tools, clothing, stamping machine and other items, which were recovered.

But officers said that records and ledger books belonging to the company were burned, which might run the loss to around $8,000 or $9,000. Officers found the ashes, all that remained of the company's records, late Tuesday night.

The Coopers have requested that farmers who have accounts with them contact them as soon as possible, so that the tedious job of piecing the records back together can be begun.

The men burned the records on a dirt road between Farwell and Bovina east of the railroad track. Besides records of accounts receivable, important insurance papers were included.

With remodeling underway at the new gin, located north of Farwell, the buildings where the items were housed were not locked. Both men had been working in the area and Briones had worked for Cooper. When the robbery was reported, officers decided to find where the men were staying and found the large items still in the car.

Items taken in a break-in at the Humble Station on the Amarillo Highway Saturday night, including oil and other items were recovered also. The rear window of the station was forced to gain entry.

One of the men had been in this area about a month and the other had been here 2 months.

Newly-weds Hurt In Wreck

Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Tarbet of Morton were injured in a two-pickup collision last Sunday morning about 1:15; the accident occurred about three miles south of Muleshoe.

Mrs. Tarbet, who was driving at the time of the accident, sustained a serious cut on her left thigh, and also other cuts and bruises. She is confined in the Morton Memorial Hospital and at the time of this writing, is listed as in good condition. Tarbet sustained cuts on his left hand and was treated and released Sunday morning.

Full particulars on the accident were not available.

The Tarbets were married August 2, at the Farwell Church of Christ. Mrs. Tarbet is the former Rita Turner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Turner of Texico.

Midge Situation Termed "Dangerous" By Coker

County Agent Deryl Coker this week sounded a warning to grain farmers as to the presence of Sorghum Midge in Parmer County.

"Sorghum Midge populations have built up at a tremendous rate during the past 10 days and we have reached the point in most locations in the county where it could be dangerous or costly not to spray grain sorghum that blooms from now on," Coker stated.

"Heavy midge populations have been found south of Farwell, and in the Friona-Black area in some fields. Also, midge have been found in the Oklahoma Lane community," he said. Coker pointed out that previous work has shown that the heaviest egg-laying by midge usually begins about the third day following sorghum head emergence from the boot. Chemical control depends upon the destruction of the adult female before egg-laying begins. Thus, each sorghum head must be covered with insecticide within three days after emergence from the boot to prevent egg-laying within its spikelets.

Under ideal conditions of uniform heading, a single well-timed insecticide application should give good midge control. However, it is realized that many fields will not head uniformly and two to three applications at three to four day intervals may be necessary for effective control.

He was a winner in a contest sponsored by an area newspaper and received an all-expense trip for two to Six Flags Over Texas. Larry took his buddy, J. B. Taylor, with him on this trip. Steer Football Practice To Begin August 19 has been set as the starting date for pre-season workouts for the Farwell Steer football team, reports Coach Dempsey Alexander. Alexander is expecting about 45 players to report for workouts to be held from 6 to 8:30 each evening, Monday through Saturday, except Wednesday. The session on Wednesday will be held from 8 to 10 a.m.

Only evening workouts will be held, because in the past so many of the boys held jobs and it was difficult for them to attend both morning and evening sessions.

Alexander is calling in only two freshmen to work out with the varsity this summer, they are Bobby Field and Joe Castillo. This is to provide more time for work with the varsity to prepare them for their first game of the season, Sept. 6, against Friona at the Chief's stadium. All other freshman players will report to football practice after school starts.

Among those expected to be reporting to practice will be 12 returning lettermen, and among those will be seven starters. Prior to a few weeks ago, there would have been eight starters returning, but Bob Scott Anderson broke his leg while away at camp and will be lost to the team all season.

The 12 returning lettermen are: Leon Lovelace, quarterback; Jerry Field, halfback; Danny Lindop, wingback; Jerry Childs, split-end; Roy Donaldson, defensive halfback; Jerry Herington, fullback; Ronnie Henson, center; Ronnie Ussery, guard; Gilbert Dale, tackle; Bill Quicke, tackle; Allan Busbice, tackle; and Darrell Crook, guard.

The seven starters are: Allan Busbice, previously a tackle, but will be moved to the end position to fill Anderson's place; Darrell Crook, guard; Ronnie Henson, center; Leon Lovelace, quarterback; Jerry Herington, fullback; Danny Lindop, wingback; and Jerry Field, halfback. The Steers will also have the help of Jerry Childs who was a starter the first part of the season last year, but was sidelined with an injured hand; Jerry will fill the split-end position.

The Steers lost six players this year, five through graduation, and Anderson, Barry McCuan, Kenny Smith, Bobby Actkinson, Ricky Cooper, and Ronnie Reed were graduating seniors.

Bill Mayfield To Plainview

Bill Mayfield, assistant football coach and Varsity basketball coach at the Farwell school system for the past two years, has resigned his position with the school.

Mrs. Mayfield has also resigned her teacher's position at Farwell, but does plan to teach this fall. Mayfield has accepted the position of B-team football coach at Plainview for the next school year.

Mayfield taught social studies and math in the Junior High for the past two years, and Mrs. Mayfield taught high school English.

School Superintendent W. M. Roberts stated Wednesday that the school board is now accepting applications to fill the coaching position vacated by Mayfield.

ALL-STARS--This group of all-stars played last weekend in July at Portales finishing fourth and bringing home the sportsmanship trophy. The all-stars used Oklahoma Lane uniforms for the tourney. First row, left to right, are Doug Harriman, Red Tops; Dennis Ensor, Oklahoma Lane, Roddy Pearce, Lions; Johnie Hugh Horn, 3-Way Chemical-Bovina Gin; and Tommy McCormick, Bovina Wheat

JOTTIN'S By Jeanne

Things that I might never have learned had I not been a Mama:

That one 4-year-old can out-talk three brothers and a mother and daddy without half trying;

That all hamburgers must have lettuce, tomatoes, pickles, and mustard with the meat, with no variation;

That Hoover was president in 1930 (I had to think before I remembered.) -- or was he?

That if you'll tell a boy the lawnmower won't work, he'll get the lawn mowed with it;

That EVERYONE in town has had a vacation except the Gramams.

That the James Craig girls are the envy of the neighborhood -- they have a new trampoline.

While manning the desk at the Tribune recently while Chris Moss was away, I inquired about household tasks most disliked by some of the women around town. It was interesting to me, that no one had much trouble answering me, but the answers were so different.

Since I would rather do most anything but iron, I thought I'd find lots of company on this chore, and the only person who disliked the job as much as I, was June Magness, who admitted she "sneaks out and has the ironing done" when she can.

Joann Getz, the Tribune Gal Friday, dislikes meal planning after 7 p.m., which on her schedule, happens more often than any of us like to admit.

Ruby Adams named "defrosting", adding that "I can't seem to get to it."

Kate Lindop says she dreads mopping and waxing and Mrs. Ruth Reid hates to wash dishes.

Bonnie Warren had a nice attitude, I thought. She doesn't let any of her housework worry her. "I don't have time to think about household tasks," she laughs. In fact, she adds that she lets things go until she has time, but she doesn't dread it. When she is home all the time though, she admits that she doesn't like the same daily routine over and over.

Maxine Williams doesn't like to clean closets.

And Dorothy Eason finds it difficult at times to think of something different to prepare to eat. Too, she would like to bypass the dusty, dirty part of housework, if such a thing were possible.

Anyway, it was fun to ask, but none of the persons listed seemed to mind any of the work enough to complain too much. In fact, I had to prod a little.

Visit In Texico

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Wilkinson and children, Kathy, Alicia, and Glendel, were in Texico last week visiting with friends.

The Wilkinsons, who have taught in the Texico School for a number of years, are on their way from Denton, where they have spent the summer, to Hanford, Calif., where they will be teaching this year.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilkinson attended summer classes at NTSC in Denton. Mrs. Wilkinson was granted a science fellowship early in the spring and Wilkinson was working on his PHD at the Texas school.

They also visited in Oklahoma City and Atoka, Okla., with relatives during the summer.

That's Deborah Hargrove, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Hargrove, caught by the J-C branding iron, when she attended a chuck wagon event at Garden of the Gods in Colorado Springs Aug. 8. According to the news release from the Jaycees, several "victims" are unceremoniously branded by Jaycee cowboys at the chuck wagons nightly. "Most of the guests consider being branded a high honor", say the Colorado Jaycees.

Parsons Take 4500 Mile Tour

Mr. and Mrs. Montie Parsons, Texico, returned home a few days ago from a three-week, 4500 mile tour of New Mexico, Arizona, Nevada, California, and Oregon.

They visited Parsons' sister near Grant's Pass, Ore., and also relatives in San Francisco, North Hollywood; in Fullerton, Calif. They visited Mrs. Parsons' brother, Ernest Yoder, and his family.

Among the many scenic points of interest, were the Petrified Forest and the Painted Desert in Arizona, and the Boulder Dam on the Arizona-Nevada state line. In California, they saw the famous Redwood Forest, and Disneyland and Knott's Berry Farm near Los Angeles, Crater Lake and the beautiful snow-covered mountains of Oregon were "among the most beautiful scenes visited," the Parsons say.

Cooper Enrolled In Navy Training

GREAT LAKES, ILL. (FH-TNC) -- Robin R. Cooper, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence L. Cooper of Farwell is undergoing nine weeks basic training at the Naval Training Center, Great Lakes, Ill.

During their training period recruits receive tests and interviews which determine their future assignments in the Navy.

Upon completing the training program they are assigned to service schools for technical instruction or to ships or shore stations for on-the-job training in a Navy rating specialty.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Glenn McCamey, visited in the Elmer Teel home last week. They returned their son, Al, who has spent the past two weeks with his grandparents to his home.

Benny Dial spent the weekend in Albuquerque visiting in the home of his brother, Ronnie Dial. He made the acquaintance of his new niece, Shellie Kay, while in the Duke City.

CHRISTIANITY

Is The Bulwark of Our Way of Life

MAKING GOD REAL

"For it was life which appeared before us; we saw it--we repeat, we really saw and heard what we are writing to you about. We want you to be with us in this--this fellowship with God the Father, and Jesus Christ His Son." I John: 1:2-3--also John 3: 1-12.

Ours is an age of realism, people want the facts. Religious ideals that appealed strongly to our romantic ancestors may seem vague and sentimental to us today. To Jesus religion was the most real thing in the world. To Him, God was real and God the Father was His religion. Religion is a matter of the Spirit, God's Spirit and man's spirit. It is that which we cannot see or touch, yet like Jesus said about the wind, we can see its effect. To Jesus God was a Father, the highest and best. But God was also Spirit, the GREATEST OF ALL SPIRITS. We are part of that same Great Spirit. "God breathed His breath of life into man and he became a living spirit." Therefore we are a part of the Spirit (this is our soul) we are immortal spirits. Since spirit has fellowship with spirit we can have fellowship with God as Spirit with spirit. It is not physical but we can know its effect upon our spiritual lives. We know when we are low in spirit and the Great Spirit touches our spirit and we become radiant. This is the spiritual or religious life and through God is made real.

But religion is also a matter of love. God is love. And God is made real through love. The story of the boy that was lost and came back and the Father rejoiced to receive him shows God's love to be real. And this divine love of the Father comes into our hearts and lives and then goes out to others. This is brotherly love, or "love thy neighbor" and anyone that we help, either physical or spiritual is our neighbor. It is the love of Christ that constrains us to love and help one another. The woman at the well who could talk about only the physical until Jesus showed her the spiritual. She needed help, not physical, for her arms were strong, she could draw the water. It was a new life she needed, it was that water one drinks and never thirsts again, so, she saw from Jesus what she needed to do to begin the new life of honesty, purity and unselfishness.

From God's divine love that comes into us to others God is made real. Paul found God real through the Living Christ and he knew; In Him there was the Spirit of strength and power, not of man but of God. Paul talked about facing anything and everything and having strength, not of his own, to conquer it. We are all human and have the lot of human weakness, but we are also spiritual and have the Spirit of God present in us, the very presence of God Himself, through the Living Christ in us to give the triumphant and victorious life. We have victory over the flesh, sin, sorrow and troubles that we have to face, and we are not defeated by them but have victory over them. Let us not waste our problems with self pity but take them to God and find His grace that gives us strength to endure. And in the fellowship of God and His Son Jesus Christ who gives us strength and grace we find that God is real.

Schulte-Kitten Vows Exchanged In Hereford

Miss Judy Marie Schulte, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Schulte of Hereford, and Leroy Joseph Kitten, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Kitten of Oklahoma Lane, exchanged wedding vows at the St. Anthony's Catholic Church in Hereford Aug. 7, at 4 p.m.

The Rev. Cletus McGorry, S.A., officiated the double-ring ceremony before an altar decorated with white mums and flanked by baskets of white mums and greenery.

Mrs. Darrell Hershey, organist for the ceremony, also accompanied soloist Ben Gollehor, who sang "Ave Maria", "Mary, at Thy Feet is Kneeling", "Panis Angelicus", and "On This Day, Oh Beautiful Mother."

Attending the bride as matron of honor, was her sister, Mrs.

Teddie Fangman, Bridesmaids were Misses Diane Schmucker and Jan Story. All bridal attendants wore identical formal dresses of copper-glow delustered satin, styled with southern belle skirts. The gowns had elbow length sleeves and round necklines. The attendants wore picture hats of horsehair braids and copper-glow satin bands. The matron of honor carried a bouquet of white feathered carnations, similar to that of the bride's. The bridesmaids carried nosegays of white and copper feathered chrysanthemums tied with copper-glow satin ribbon.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a formal gown of peau de sole and Chantilly lace. The fitted bodice was of Chantilly lace with aurora crystals accenting the scalloped neckline, and fitted sleeves tapered down over the fingers. The bouffant skirt of southern belle design was fashioned with an overskirt accented with bows; on either side of the bows were appliqued lace medallions, seed pearls, and aurora crystals; Chantilly lace, matching the bodice, edged the double skirt.

Her veil of imported silk illusion fell from a lace crown studded with seed pearls and featured a teardrop crystal dangling in the center of the crown. She carried a crescent bouquet of white feathered carnations centered with a single orchid.

Best man was Charles Kitten, brother of the groom; groomsmen were Wayne Jesko and James Kitten. Serving as ushers were Teddie Fangman and Jerry Kitten. Ringbearer was Gary Yosten, and Elaine Albracht was flower girl. Serving at the Nuptial Mass were Charles Fangman and Wayne Reinhart.

Immediately following the

Mrs. Leroy Joe Kitten

The couple are making their home near Farwell where he will farm.

County Is "Fly Bombed" After Screwworm Case Is Certified

One hundred thousand flies were purposely released to swarm over a section of Parmer County Friday.

But they were special flies. For the next 72 hours, they were expected to seek out and mate with the flies already in the area -- and by so doing, to serve as one of the final steps in eradicating the screwworm in Texas.

The flies were sterile -- made so with the use of radiation -- and released from a plane about three miles south of Bovina. Since the female screwworm fly will mate only once during her lifetime, mating with a sterile fly serves to literally breed the pest out of existence.

The entire operation is timed with such precision that the sterile flies are released within hours of the time that the flies in the area mature. When a case is reported and samples are certified as screwworms, the age of the worm is fitted into the life cycle of the fly and the time of maturity is fixed. The fly drop is then planned to coincide with the emergence of the flies in the area.

The flies released in the county Friday were flown in from Sweetwater Friday morning. The plane carried 1,500 six by six by two inch boxes containing 400 flies each. A special chute in the plane kicks the boxes out at timed intervals and opens the boxes as they leave the plane.

Additional fly drops are planned in the same area every eight days until three drops are completed and 300,000 flies have been released.

The eradication program works swiftly. The Parmer County case was reported on Wednesday, July 31. It was certified by August 6, the cattle were sprayed August 7, and on August 9 the sterile flies were dropped.

Money alone will not do the job -- will not wipe out the screwworm menace -- your vigilance is a must, the screwworm official said.

"If you are to receive any return for your dollars contributed to the screwworm eradication program, your help is most important," they said.

Officials of the program have said that they depend upon the individual farmer and rancher to report to them the location of worm outbreaks and to supply them with a sample of worms from the wound for certification as screwworms.

And there are too many cases going unattended too, according to the program representatives. These cases are passed over because the owner of the infected stock did not submit a sample of the worms for certification.

One of the most dreaded jobs, I believe, of the average homemaker is that of cleaning the oven. Here are a few tips that may help:

Simplify the task. Make use of the "keep-clean" tricks described below and tackle spills and splatters as they occur.

Keep the job to a minimum: Using low roasting temperatures (not over 325 degrees F.) and taking care not to overfill casseroles, so they won't bubble over, are both helpful. So will leaving the oven door open to cool after use, to prevent further baking-on of "splatters." A small cookie sheet covered with aluminum foil kept in the oven at all times on the bottom rack, can serve as a drip catcher. When it gets dirty, replace the foil. (Never line oven with aluminum foil--it may be fused to the bottom and it does cut the even distribution of heat in oven.)

Chemical oven cleaner put chemistry to work. They are powerfully formulated to soften and dissolve baked-on grease, crusty film and splatters of all kinds. Only a very dirty oven requires a second application of oven cleaner or special rubbing of heavily spotted areas with a steel-wool soap pad. These are potent cleaners and require careful handling. So be sure to follow the manufacturer's directions carefully. Use Household Ammonia: Equip a bottle of ammonia with a sprayer top, and spray oven thoroughly -- tops, sides, bottom -- the night before oven cleaning. The next day, cleaning with a little ammonia in the sudsy cleaning water and a light application of steel-wool soap pad finishes up the job. You can also place a saucer or other small container of household ammonia in the warm oven immediately after use.

July Demand Hikes Fed Cattle Prices

A good demand for all classes of fed cattle through most of July helped push prices upward during the month. Dullness in the trade was noted toward the close of the month, but prices for Good and Choice slaughter steers 950 pounds up looked $1 to $2 higher compared to late June. Heifers were also in good demand and prices improved 50 cents to $1.50. Good and Choice steers 975 - 1100 pounds were selling at about the same price levels as they were at the close of July 1962, according to information from the Texas and Southwestern Cattle Raisers Association.

The Cattle on Feed Report released at mid-month indicated an increase in the number of cattle and calves on feed in Texas and the 28 major feeding states. The latest Texas Feedlot Report summary published by the Cattle Feeders Division of the Texas and Southwestern Cattle Raisers Association pointed out that this was a depressing factor in the market, and prices for most classes of slaughter cattle were only about steady the latter part of July.

Inexperience Causes Much Crop Damage

Absentee ownership and "weekend farmers" have created a unique problem in Texas agriculture this year.

Already this season, some 7,000 to 8,000 acres of Texas cotton has been affected by damaging doses of hormone-type herbicides such as 2-4D and 2-4,5T. Field investigations by Texas Department of Agriculture inspectors reveal most of the effect is caused by "new" or part-time farmers who are not acquainted with the dangerous potential of the chemicals.

Modern herbicides have been a real boon to farmers and ranchers in recent years in the constant fight against choking weeds and moisture-sapping brush. But when mishandled, the chemicals can be as harmful to susceptible crops as a raging fire. It has taken several years of experience with the herbicides by farmers and commercial applicator companies to develop proper safety techniques in field operations. Under certain wind conditions, the spray has been known to drift and cause noticeable damage to crops as far as 15 miles away.

This year, a new pattern of crop damage from the careless use of weed killer chemicals emerged. Investigators checking field damage reported that most of the careless spraying had been done on Saturdays and Sundays. They immediately set out to discover why these two days of the week resulted in more damage reports than the other five. The answer wasn't long in coming.

Some areas, but not all, of Texas are in a regulated zone where the use of weed killers is strictly supervised. In the regulated areas, spraying must be applied only under the direction of TDA personnel. Most of the damage occurred, however, in areas that are uncontrolled.

Commissioner John C. White has urged new landowners to use extreme caution in herbicide applications. Follow directions on the chemical containers and consult with those who have had experience with weed killers, he said.

Do 10 hours' work in 8 with the Case-o-matic 830!

Here's where power pays off by the clock -- and by the acre.

Few tractors can equal a Case 830's work capacity... even in regular drive. Its big-bore, long-stroke engine digs down for extra lugging ability that adds mule-power to rated horsepower. In average soils it whips 5 or 6 bottoms along at a time-saving clip.

When you hit a tough spot, flip it into Case-o-matic Drive... on-the-go. Instantly -- automatically -- the torque converter adds up to 100% MORE pull-power. No clutching, shifting or stalling. And the extra power is metered out without waste -- without damaging strain.

The Case-o-matic 830's reserve pull-power lets you work in a higher gear... add an extra bottom... pull wider or heavier implements. You owe it to yourself to try one.

HOME MAKING TIPS:

If homemaking tasks are planned by the week and family members agree to assume certain responsibilities on certain days, some of the most disliked household jobs will be found more desirable or at least more satisfying, and perhaps more appreciated by the family.

If you prize the bright red color of fresh meat, one way to preserve it is to brush the meat with vegetable oil before storing it in the refrigerator.

To avoid that unappealing "massed" effect when cooking macaroni, noodles, spaghetti or rice, add one tablespoon vegetable oil per quart of boiling, salted water. The oil also prevents the water from boiling over.

SCREW WORM COUNT. The week of July 6-12, 1962, saw the year's largest count of confirmed screw worm cases when 3,023 were reported. In contrast, Texas livestockmen sent in only 91 samples of the dread pest during the same week this year. Only seven cases were found within the drop area during the seven days and several counties reported their first cases this year.

NEWS FROM THE FARM BUREAU

BY RAYMOND EULER

Next Thursday, August 22, will find two outstanding Farmer County High School students on the campus of Sam Houston State Teachers College for the first Texas Farm Bureau High School Students Seminar. They are Miss Jane Bradshaw, of Farwell, and Miss Linda Rector, of Friona. Assisting Farm Bureau in sending these students to the seminar is Worley Grain, of Farwell. Mrs. Vernon Symcox, chairman and Mrs. Walter Kaltwasser compose the citizenship committee which made arrangements for county participation in the seminar.

Paul Harvey says: "All other nations of the world don't have a combined debt as big as ours. Add up the total debt of all 112 other nations and of the world, and the United States owes $25 billion more than that! We owe $305 billion! Yet, 101 of these nations are still getting aid from us. It just doesn't make sense."

We still have a few Farm Bureau policy books available in the office. They are especially for those wishing to know what Farm Bureau stands for. Both Texas and national policies, arrived at by the membership last November, are printed in full. You may have one for the asking.

Do you remember? USDA announced in December, 1954, its intentions of setting grain sorghum supports at 60 per cent of parity. American Farm Bureau asked for 75 per cent, but insisted on a minimum of 70 per cent and GOT it for farmers... Ten years ago, Farmer County Farm Bureau directors organized and put into action a bindweed eradication committee. County commissioners furnished 4,500 pounds of chemicals the first year. All groups-railroad, highway, ASC, Extension Service chemical dealers and others have cooperated continuously since, keeping the bindweed menace under control.

Texas Farm Bureau presented a check for seventy five dollars to the Friona Fire Department for making a call in the country when a butane tractor fire was reported at the Anthony farm. This is another rural service being promoted by Farm Bureau for its insureds and local fire departments. The volunteers work free, and are entitled to enough money to provide the best possible equipment. CONSIDER THIS: A fool's wrath is presently known; but a prudent man overcometh shame. BAKE SHOW WINNERS in Farmer County's 4-H Club contest are, left to right, Janis Billingsley, Farwell, first; Kathryn Gober, Farwell, third, and Cheryl Ramage, Lazbuddie, second.

Janis Billingsley Takes Bake Show Honors Again

Janis Billingsley of the Farwell 4-H Club, won top honors in the Farmer County 4-H Club Bake Show for the second-straight year in the show held last Thursday in Friona.

Cheryl Ramage of Lazbuddie was judged second, and Kathryn Gober of Farwell placed third.

Miss Ramage will represent the county in the district bake show in September, since rules prohibit Miss Billingsley from entering the district show again. She won the first-place award of $100 last year.

There were only nine entrants in the county show. Each girl made and exhibited two baked products, whole wheat rolls and plain butter cakes. Scores were based on the baked products and the 4-H Club record books.

Blue ribbons were awarded in three age groups. Winner in the 9-10 age group was Ann Blackstone. In the 11-12 age group, Miss Ramage and Sheila Vaughn were winners, and in the 13 and over group, Misses Billingsley and Gober. County winners were chosen from the entire group, regardless of age.

All other participants received red ribbons. These were Risa Howell, Janice Miller, Kathy Coker and Katie Blackstone.

Judges for the show were Mrs. Pete Jesko, Mrs. Henry Ivy, Mrs. Bill Buchanan and Mrs. Jimmy Briggs.

Also attending were Mr. and Mrs. Pool's sons, Rex, Don, and Sam, and their families. There were about 50 guests in attendance who spent the day visiting. The family enjoyed a picnic dinner at the park.

Recent Marriage Announced

Wedding vows were solemnized for Miss Alice Gayetta Gulley and James Bryan Jefferson, both of Washington, D. C., at the Lakeview Baptist Church in Cave Springs, Ark., recently.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Eddie J. Gulley and the late Mr. Gulley of Cave Springs formerly of Farwell, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Joe Jefferson of Bentonville, Ark.

The impressive double-ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Luther Nelson, cousin of the bride, and pastor of the Stillwell, Okla., Baptist Church, before an altar flanked with jardinerias of palms and seven-branched floor candelabra holding lighted white tapers. There was an arch in the background from which three large white wedding bells were suspended.

A program of traditional wedding music was played by Mrs. Lonas Baggett of Bentonville, who also accompanied Mrs. Lynn Brown of Vaughn, aunt of the bridegroom, who sang "Because".

Given in marriage by her brother, Bob Gulley, of Colorado Springs, Colo., the bride was beautifully attired in a floor length gown of white nylon lace over satin. The fitted bodice was fashioned with a scalloped neckline outlined in tiny seed pearls, and the full-length sleeves came to points over her wrists. The bouffant skirt was gathered in scallops and caught with white lace rosettes above a tulle ruffle at the hemline.

Her waistlength veil of illusion was attached to a coronet of rhinestones and seed pearls, and she carried a cascade bouquet of white stephanotis centered with a white orchid, atop a white Bible. Her only jewelry was a miniature ring on a gold locket chain, a gift from the bridegroom.

Miss Lynette Gulley was her sister's maid of honor. She wore a ballerina-length, pink lace dress and tiny pink pill-box hat. Her flowers were white feathered mums with stephanotis.

The bridesmaids were Miss Glenda Sooter, cousin of the bridegroom, and Miss Elaine Gulley of Pueblo, Colo., niece of the bride. Their dresses and hats were identical to that of the maid of honor, and their bouquets were white feathered mums.

Johnny Sooter of Bentonville served his cousin as best man, and groomsmen were Ralph Cliff and Max McLaugh, both of Bentonville.

Jerry Venters and Robin Fagala, both of Cave Springs, were candlelighters and ushers, and Mr. Venters laid the white aisle carpet for the bride.

Miss Kelly Philpott of Cave Springs was flower girl, and David Brown of Vaughn was ringbearer.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Gulley chose a dawn blue ensemble with which she wore beige accessories, and Mrs. Jefferson, mother of the bridegroom, was attired in an ice blue silk shantung suit and white accessories. Both mothers wore white orchid corsages.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held in the basement of the church. Serving at the reception were three sisters of the bride, Mrs. Jimmie Philpott, Mrs. Mary Margaret Smith, and Mrs. Betty Reamer. The guest book was kept by Miss Phyllis Haden.

For travel, the bride wore a pink suit with white trim and accessories, and pinned the white orchid from her bouquet at her shoulder.

Mr. and Mrs. Jefferson are residing in Washington, where both are employed by the U. S. government.
