Want a stagecoach?

If you read my column several weeks ago, you know that the new Farwell Public Auto Auction has really fascinated me.

It's interesting to watch vehicles moved in and out of the auction so quickly, and to see the buyers and sellers.

What makes it more interesting is the number of unusual vehicles that have gone on the auction block. They had one antique car recently, plus a mobile home. And Saturday they will auction off a miniaturized stage coach that can seat up to four children (or two adults).

Fascinating!

Don't forget the giveaway being sponsored by the Texico - Farwell Youth Baseball League.

Prizes include $100 shopping sprees at Capitol Food, Farwell Hardware and Hughes Tru Value.

Tickets, costing $2 each, are available from baseball league players and their parents.

We got a note in the mail that Brian Rogers, a Texico High student who is the son of Allan and Helen Rogers of Texico, and Bernice Rogers of Texico, has been named an Academic All American by the National Secondary Education Council.

He was nominated by basketball coach Borde Williams.

Nelle Craig's Farwell School third graders made a replica of 1910 Farwell during the past school year. It will be exhibited on the courthouse lawn during the Day in the Park activities July 25 (Border Town Days).

First responses to that questionnaire from Farwell School Supt. John Grigsby on whether drug dogs should be used in school have mostly favored such usage.

3rd through 6th graders can still sign up for a free basketball camp June 22-26 if they see Larry Gregory before Wednesday at the Farwell gym.

Well, it wasn't much of a variance hearing Monday for Shorty Hughes wanting to place a mobile home in Farwell.

Shorty didn't show up, and only one councilman did - Curtis Smith. So even if the applicant had showed, no action could have been taken.

City Clerk Janie Bowery said she will contact Shorty to see if he wants another hearing held before approval can be given.

Even though we're going some some difficult economic times, our area seems to be holding its own.

In just the past few weeks, we've seen three new businesses open up: the Chat N Chew Restaurant, K&J's Video, and an announcement is expected next week on a vehicle painting business (also selling used farm equipment).

Joe Smith stopped by after our column note last week on the Great American Race coming through the Twin Cities July 3.

Among the vehicles coming will be the 1934 Ford in which bandits Bonnie and Clyde were killed in; a 1929 Model A Ford popcorn wagon; a 1906 Stanley Steamer; a 1936 Studebaker Dictator Coupe, and a 1931 Rolls-Royce Phantom II.

Sounds like it's going to be pretty exciting.

To answer last week's Rumor of the Week: the fella with the cowdog that can climb trees is Charlie Rose, says his proud momma, Pat.

He plans to return to his home town of Brownswood, Texas.

It has also been reported that the Mike Marcades, the church Youth and Music Director, will be leaving Farwell to work at a church in the Dallas area.

Who was she?

Santiago and Maria Lucio of Route 1, Lariat, are remodeling their home (a green 1-story home off the Muleshoe highway) and found this photo of a young girl. The only information was that it was from "School Days, 1946-47, Oklahoma Lane." We wondered who the picture was of. Do you know?

Texico Band to march in '87 BTB parade

Border Town Days Committee President Curtis Smith announced at Monday's meeting that the Texico School Band will march in this year's parade.

Last year was the first time that a band from either Texico or Farwell schools had performed in several years. Many spectators felt that the Texico Band was the highlight of the parade.

Smith said about 50 Texico band members are expected. They will have a Coke party and swimming party the week before the parade, culminated by the parade itself.

Smith also said that Ron McWilliams, Farwell band director, told him that the Farwell Band will not be able to be in the parade.

The BTB Committee expressed hopes that some Farwell band students will participate and it was suggested that a musically-inclined person be asked to contact band members.

Committee member Cynthia Thigpen suggested Daniel Hutchins. Smith said he would ask Hutchins to lead an effort.

The parade will kick off at 11 a.m. CDT Saturday, July 25. It is sponsored, as usual, by the Texico-Farwell Lions Club.

Border Town Days is planned each year in conjunction with the High Plains

Junior Rodeo, which is sponsored by the Farwell Arena Association.

For more rodeo information, persons may contact Mike Snodgrass at Rip's Western Wear, or Vicki Milloy at Kountry Klipper, said Smith.

Here are some highlights from the committee meeting:

- Groups wishing to reserve space for concession stands and booths for the Day in the Park activities are asked to call Cynthia Thigpen - days, 481-3619, or nights, 481-9355. Booths for baked goods and homemade items are especially popular.

One area where there is an extra-special need is for ice cream. Booths selling ice cream ran out of the popular dessert last year.

"Groups should call now before all the spaces are gone," Mrs. Thigpen advised. "And persons who sign up must specify what they are going to sell. We want to keep conflicts in sales to a minimum."

Signing up so far, she reported, have been the Texico - Farwell Youth Baseball League, ESA Sorority and the Knights of Columbus.

- The Arts and Crafts Show will be set up on the front lawn of the courthouse and spaces are available at $10 a booth. Spaces may be reserved by calling Janie Bowery at 481-3620 days or 481-9251 nights. Three entries have already been received, she reported.

- The honorary parade marshal will be Benny Haney, longtime owner and operator of Capitol Foods in Farwell.

- Waste Control of New Mexico has volunteered to place large trash containers at the park during BTB and pick up the trash at no cost.

- The BTB Committee agreed to rent portable toilets from Waste Control since the county courthouse toilets will not be available, due to vandalism during last year's BTB activities.

- The Farwell Study Club will handle the table for class reunions.

- The Texico - Farwell Rotary Club will again sponsor its popular barbeque. Prices are the same as last year and tickets will be available soon from club members.

- Peggy Haseloff of Farwell received permission to have a youth fashion show Thursday, July 23, at 7 p.m. CDT at the Farwell Community Center.

More than 20 girls are expected to participate. There will be cash prizes and roses for entrants. Cakes will be given out as a fund-raiser for the Farwell school twirlers.

- Farwell Farm Supply will sponsor the 2nd annual Ugly Pickup contest, with a prize of $25 to the winner. Pickup owners must register with Floyd Coates at Farwell Farm Supply, across from Sherley - Anderson - Pitman grain elevator.

The registration deadline is July 20. The pickups also will be driven in the parade.

- The committee agreed to honor, for the second year, a Pioneer Man and Pioneer Woman from this area.

The only criteria are the length of time the persons have lived in the Texico - Farwell area and how they have contributed to the community.

Last year's winners were Mitzi Walling and Vashti Fowler.

- Signing up for the parade so far are: Farwell Study Club float, Senior Citizens float, Michael Haseloff, youth fashion show float, Gladys Hardage's calliope, the West Texas State University buffalo, the Texico and Farwell fire departments.

The deadline for entering the parade is July 20. There is no fee. To enter, just call the State Line Tribune at 481-3681. It's important to register because that way you can be assigned a place in the lineup and also be eligible for prizes.

Persons who want to enter the parade after the deadline will be allowed to do so but will be placed at the end of the procession.

Virgil Fiske is parade marshal.

- John R. Hadley reported that he is working on trying to get Miss New Mexico to ride in the parade.

Also, he is seeking a New Mexico dignitary to ride in the parade since the parade's theme is New Mexico's Golden Anniversary - 75 years of statehood.

- It was announced that Southern Union Gas and the Gas Company of New Mexico will present flags that have flown on the capitols in Santa Fe and Austin to the BTB Committee at the Day in the Park.

- Orrie Jones discussed the antique cars involvement in the parade. He said participants are asking for two free barbeque tickets per unit. This is what is done elsewhere when they are asked to participate in parades.

Donations will be sought to pay for these tickets.

Girls sought for BTB queen contest

The Border Town Days Queen Committee invites girls living in the Texico and Farwell school districts who will be attending Texico or Farwell High School next year to participate in the 1987 Queen Contest.

All eligible girls are asked to join the committee at Luce's Restaurant for a Coke party to receive a schedule of events and activities on June 9 at 7:30 p.m. (CDT). Door prizes from local merchants will be given away at the party.

A highlight of the Queen Contest this year will be the short essay competition instead of the talent competition. Anyone who will not be able to attend the Coke party may pick up an application form at the Farwell Dental Clinic, 303 3rd Street. The deadline for entering the 1987 Queen Contest is June 15.

The person chosen Queen at the Border Towns Days festivities July 25 will receive, among other gifts, a scholarship for the college of her choice, and will represent the twin cities in area parades and activities during the upcoming year.

The Queen committee includes

Susan Franse, 481-3824; Anne Norton, 825-2556; Cynthia Thigpen, 481-9355; Margie Crooks, 482-3690; Kathy Harding, 482-3257; Beverly Davis, 925-6427; and Rhonda Hill, 482-9131.

Farwell Convalescent Center Chit Chat

BY LYNNE GANN
Activity Director

School is out. Congratulations to all who have put in your 12 years and have become the 1987 seniors. Graduates! It's over. Now what?

A suggestion: If you have a summer with a little free time and a pet that isn't skittish around a group - please share with us! We would love to have a cat, dog, any kind of gentle animal come visit us.

Studies have shown animals are of great comfort for those in nursing homes or confined at home. They can supply many hours of love and attention otherwise missed.

Two lovely parakeets were donated by Dick Ballews' grand-daughter, Verona Traynor of Farwell. Residents and staff submitted suggestions for names.

The names chosen were given to us by Roy Bristow: Mike and Molly now reside in the front lobby. They sing and give a few words of wisdom (in bird language, of course) all day long. Come by and see!

If you would like to bring your pet by to share with us for a few minutes, please contact me so we can set up a good time.

Our birthday people this month are Betty Winegeart, 8th; Ollie Graves, 10th; Joy Horne, 16th, and Alvin Daude, 23rd.

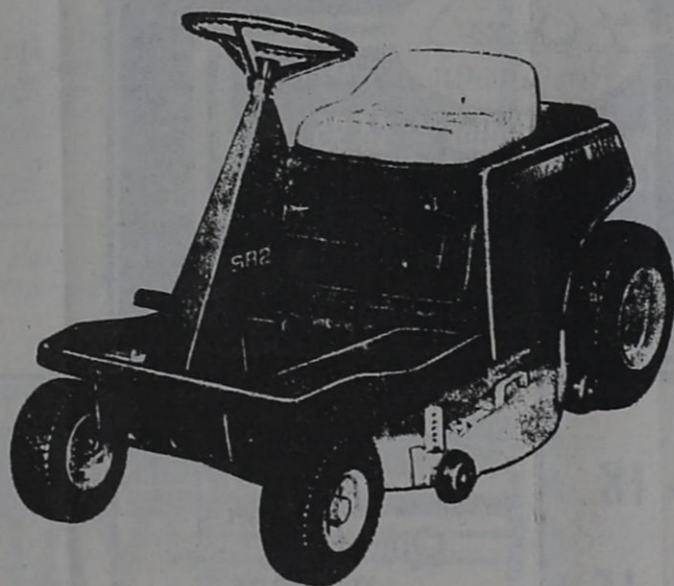

Happy Birthday!
